Jackrabbit-Whirlwind Meet Friday Afternoon

Ralls And Floydada High Gridsters Will Have Stiff Battle At Ralls Tomorrow.

Like the story of Aesop's Fable's of the contest between the sun and the wind, a contest for superiority will be staged next Friday afternoon between a jackrabbit and a whirlwind. The Ralls Jackrabbit eleven will try to hold their own against the stiff breeze of the Floydada Whirlwinds tomorrow when the two meet on the gridiron. A true grid classic is anticipated by fans who claim that the game will be one of the several stiff games scheduled for the local football squad during the next few weeks. The battle will take place on the Ralls field.

Friday's meet will be the fourth Class B game played by the locals this season. Todate they have stacked up a tremendous score against their opponents who have found it impossible to score. However, as dopesters have it, they will find it difficult to hold the Jackrabbits scoreless tomorrow. Earlier in the season, the Ralls squad held the Post eleven to a 0 to 0 tie. Post, then, held the Slaton Tigers to a 13 to 13 tie. The Slaton Felines have battled the Green and White boys for district honors for the past several years and are reported equally as strong this season as last.

Summing up the dope, briefly, Ralls appears to be as strong as Slaton who are undoubtedly strong contenders for district honors. Tomorrow's game, then, will prove a championship game for the Jaymen. Porterfield will probably be able to be in the game Friday, as well as Edwards, who sustained a slight injury in last week's game.

A large crowd of local fans plan to accompany the Whirlwinds to Ralls.

Street Closing Carries By Five-To-1 Majority

Vote Makes Possible Ideal Location For New $35,000 Station of Q. A. & P. Railway Company.

With the actual laying of rails in the offing only a few weeks distant for the Quanah, Acme & Pacific Railway Company's Floydada Extension, Floydada citizens Monday paved the way for the location of the new $35,000 railroad station promised by President Sommer by voting five and a half to one to close Mississippi Street three and a half blocks southeast of the square.

The vote on the proposal was 265 for and 45 against, giving the council a crushing majority on which to base the official closing of the street for which is expected to be the most expensive railway station in the south plains region, and which President Sommer said on a recent visit to Floydada would be built "with an eye to the future" growth and development of the big scope of south plains territory which the new line will give additional rail facilities.

That the vote to close the street does not come any too soon is indicated by the fact that the job of the contractors in completing the roadbed for the railway is nearing completion and the rail laying is not far distant, with other developments that go with rail construction to follow shortly. Monday Fred P. Holt expressed the belief that he would finish his part of the dirt moving job in another two weeks. He had had the heaviest contract on the line, the climb up the caprock. The Lone Star Construction Company will have completed moving the dirt on the east end of the line up to the Holt contract within six weeks, it is estimated locally, and the material yards at McBain are fast filling up with the rails, ties and other materials that will go into the construction of the line.

Floydada Needs Paved Streets To Be Ideal City

"All that Floydada lacks of being an ideal community in which to make a home is five miles more of pavement," F. L. Davis, pastor of the First Christian Church declared yesterday in the course of a conversation in which he pointed out that residents here enjoy every convenience of modern life, except that we are still riding on too many rough—and in wet weather difficut—streets to travel over.

"We have good gas service now, good electric service, abundant good water, sewers, a retail store service that is hardly equalled elsewhere. What other convenience of modern life does any community have more than we have except paved streets," he said. He declared, however, that Floydada citizens could not call their town thoroughly modern until the paved streets were provided, and said an aggressive campaign to provide the paved areas should be undertaken.

For the second consecutive week, all marriage licenses issued from the office of County Clerk Tom W. Deen were issued on one day. During the past week "the lucky day" happened on Saturday, October 29 when license were issued to four couples for marriage. The couples securing license to marry on this date were the following:

T. B. Williams and Miss Delia Estella Smith;

Lee Wood and Miss Gladys Bowen;

Paul Houston Ragle and Miss Esther Marie Carter;

Curtis Lomax and Miss Oma Rainwater.

Prepare Letter To Santa Claus About Chimneys

A letter of enquiry is being planned this week to be sent to Santa Claus, the friend of all good little boys and girls, asking some very important questions about Christmas.

It was discovered last week that considerable worry has developed on the part of the kiddies due to the fact that many chimneys had been stopped up with pipes from gas stoves being installed.

It was suggested that Old Santa would be the only person who could solve the problem, so the letters are being prepared for him. They will be mailed Friday and an answer should be received in about two weeks.

Not such a long wait, after all, until the kiddies will have an answer to their query of "How is Santa Tause Donna Det In?"

Banquet Will Celebrate Completion New School

A banquet at which will be prepared for two hundred will be held in the auditorium of the fine new brick school building at Harmony on Friday night, November 18, it was decided Tuesday night at a mass meeting of citizens of Harmony held at Carr's Chapel Church.

The banquet will be held to celebrate the finishing of the district's new school home, which is nearing completion rapidly now, and for the purpose of getting together around the banquet board with people of their own and neighboring communities.

Net proceeds from the banquet will be used for the purpose of aiding to seat the school auditorium.

First Boy Scout Court Of Honor Next Monday

Merit Honor Badges And Promotions Will Be Awarded By District Executive And Commissioner

Boy Scout troops of Floyd and adjoining counties will hold their first District Court of Honor on Monday evening of next week when they meet at the District Court Room was the announcement made recently by Area Executive, W. P. Knox. A large audience of interested citizens is expected to witness the conferring of honors and merit badges on boy scouts advanced in the scout work. Local officers and Executive Knox are urging the attendance by the general public at this meeting.

"The purpose of a Court of Honor is to confer honor badges and to make the formal promotion of scouts who have accomplished a certain amount of the work" explained Mr. Knox and Rev. L. G. H. Williams, District Scout Commissioner, who will assist at the court next Monday evening. "Because of the fine work being done by the boys in this section, we are urging everyone to attend this meeting and see just what has been done," Rev. Williams said.

Chairman J. C. Gilliam will preside at the meeting and with the help of local officers, will carry the work out in formal order. The hour for the meet has been set at 7:30 o'clock.

Turkey Market Opens On Plains At 25 Cents

The Thanksgiving turkey market opened Monday of this week over the South Plains area at 25 cents per pound, although only a small per centage of the fowls had moved up to the midweek.

The turkey crop in Floyd County is of the usual excellent quality, reports indicate, and the supply of approximately equal proportions to last year's crop.

With Thanksgiving Day coming earlier than usual this year—Thursday, November 24, the earliest date in the month on which it could fall—the market for this holiday will be shorter by four to five days than it has been in recent years.

No dealers could be found in Floydada the first of the week who would hazard a guess at to the probable trend of the market for the season, but all of them expressed gratification that it had opened at a price which would represent profit to the grower.

COUNTY TAX ROLLS GET O K IN COMPTROLLER'S AUDIT

County Tax Assessor C. M. Meredith last week received a report from the audit of the tax rolls recently completed for county and state taxation in Floyd County and forwarded to the Comptroller's office for approval.

The audit, the advice stated, had been completed and the rolls found to be perfect.

Cotton Movement Begins To Gather More Speed

Biggest Harvest of Feed Crops Since 1914 Under Way For Weeks In Floyd County.

With the biggest harvest of feed crops in the history of the county, with the possible exception of 1914, at its peak and cotton opening fast, Floyd County farms and channels for these commodities to get to market are presenting the busiest aspect of the year.

While a tremendous portion of the crop of feed is being stored on the farms the portion which has been moving to market for the past five weeks has taxed the capacity of dealers to handle. Hundreds of tons of maize have been marketed locally. Five threshers have been busy, part of the time on double shifts, trying to keep the yards of dealers clean. Yesterday it was estimated that these threshing crews are now a week behind the work they have to do with the movement of the feed unabated. The crop is going at a ridiculously low price, however, and represents little net profit to the raiser who is putting it on the market. Texas demand for maize has been light, California and Kansas City markets getting the bulk of shipments from this section. Nine dollars per ton was the price being paid this week for maize in the head.

With the cotton crop coming on, however, the matter of profitable production has another aspect. Approximately 300 bales of cotton had been shipped from this point Wednesday and the ginnings in Floydada and at gins over the county has been gradually going higher daily. Yesterday gins in Floydada had fairly steady runs and the market for the staple was ranging above twenty cents with grades running from strict low middling to strict middling.

J. Frank Triplett, field director for Floyd and Hale Counties of the Farm Bureau Cotton Association Tuesday reiterated his belief that the crop of this county would run around 15,000 bales, which on present indications is going to be of excellent grade.

Club Leaders To Attend State Club Federation

Four Floyd County women will attend the State Federation of Women's Clubs at El Paso beginning Tuesday of next week and closing on Saturday, November 12. They are Mrs. Carl McAdams of Lockney, president of the Floyd County Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Geo. A. Lider, president of the Nineteen Twenty Two Study Club of Floydada, Mrs. Lon V. Smith, Seventh District Biennial Chairman and Mrs. J. B. Jenkins Seventh District chairman of County Co-operation.

They will leave the latter part of this week in company with Mrs. Pitzer Baker, of Weinert, who goes to El Paso as a representative of the Weinert Study Club.

More than usual interest attaches to the forthcoming meeting because of the fact that the next state president of the federation will be chosen before the close of the session.

'Three Hats' Play At Fairview Friday Night

In accordance with the exchange of plays agreement, the Sand Hill P. T. C. Society will stage their three-act comedy drama, "Three Hats," at the Fairview school auditorium Friday night at 8 o'clock.

The Hawaiian between-act number given by six girls will be one of the features of the evening, it has been announced. Readings and special music are also included in the program for the between-act numbers.

Included in the cast for the play are: Arthur Womack, Mrs. Womack, Misses Belle Poe, Lucille Davis, and Alma Smith; Messrs. Ed Holmes, Henry Bollman, Theo and Lloyd Thompson.

All proceeds realized will go to the Fairview school ground equipment fund. A general invitation to Floydada and surrounding community residents is issued, inviting all to be present Friday night.

It is expected that "Three Hats" will prove another great success.

LOCKNEY ALL-STAR SEXTETTE TIE LOCAL GIRLS WEDNESDAY

Scoring a field goal in the last fifteen seconds of play, the Floydada all-star basketball sextette succeeded in tieing up an 18 to 18 score against the Lockney all-star girls Wednesday evening of this week. The game proved a thriller for both teams and spectators throughout every minute of play. The visiting team held the large end of the score during the entire game, until, at the critical moment in the last quarter, Myrtice Meador, forward on the local squad, pitched a beautiful basket from mid-field tallied the two points that tied the close score.

This is the second game of the series being played between the two rival towns at the Andrews Ward for the benefit of the High School Hesper annual fund. The other game resulted in favor of the local team. Another game will be played the third week in this month, it was announced.

The line-up of the two teams in yesterday's game was as follows: Floydada—Mrs. Louis Newell, Misses Ola Hanna, Lois Hope and Myrtice Meador, forwards; Misses Louise Hanna and Glee Shaw, guards; Misses Francis Kinnard and Benna Vee Fuller, centers. Lockney—Nickolas and Jarnigan, forwards; Norris and Threet, guards; Mann and Shelton, centers.

Judges, Commissioners To Hear Dr. Johnson

Invitation to Floyd County Citizens Also Given to Hear Nationally Known Road Authority.

Dr. S. M. Johnson of Washington, D. C., head of the Lee Highway Association and chairman of the National Good Roads Board, will speak in Floydada Tuesday afternoon, November 8, at 1 o'clock, to the judges and commissioners of the nine counties on Highway No. 28 and interested citizens from the counties who will attend.

A special invitation is being given citizens from all sections of Floyd County to hear the eminent authority and untiring exponent of hard-surfacing road construction. Judge McGehee, chairman of the judges' and commissioners' organization has issued the call for the meeting of that body and a committee of Floyd County citizens are urging the attendance of Floyd County taxpayers at the meeting.

In addition to hearing Dr. Johnson several questions of direct import to Floyd County citizens will be discussed, according to the statement of the committee. Among these will be the following propositions:

Is it advisable to call an election at this time to vote bonds for paving?

If it is not advisable to call a road bond election at this time when would it be advisable?

If paving is to be done at any time should the Lee Highway only be considered or should other roads comprise a road system for the entire county be preferable?

"The statement issued by this committee declared, "We believe that as this is a county-wide proposition that every portion of the county should have a voice in fixing a policy to be pursued in the future relative to road expenditures and we know of no better way to do this than for representative citizens of the county to participate in this meeting and help to formulate a plan that will be just and equitable to all portions of the county.

"We do not believe in the indiscriminate calling of bond elections; it is not only expensive but poor policy to pursue. We think the better plan would be to have a thorough understanding before taking action of any kind, hence we are asking the general participation of citizens of the county in this meeting for the purpose of obtaining co-operation and advice on the best plans to follow."

Judge McGehee said last night that he expected a good attendance of members of the county judges and commissioners courts in the nine counties traversed by the highway. Several replies accepting the invitation to the called session have already been received.

Dr. Johnson will spend Monday night of next week in Matador and will come over to Floydada Tuesday morning in company with Judge C. L. Glenn, president of the Texas division, Lee Highway Association.

'McKoy Place' Newest Addition To Lockney

McKoy Place is the name of the newest addition to the City of Lockney, survey of which was completed recently by Engineer Geo. A. Lider of this city for Stokes & Shields, formerly of Midland, who are planning the addition for one of the most complete and modern in this section.

The land platted lies two blocks south and three blocks west of the main business section in Lockney, and includes the land that formerly comprised the Muncy Nursery, totalling 12.6 acres of land.

Stokes & Shields have been owners of the land since they acquired it in 1909. They have recently completed putting on an addition at Midland and are platting and improving the property at Lockney so as to make it attractive. Improvements will include gravelled streets and trees planted in front of each lot.

Assuring an outlet to the new addition from the north, negotiations were completed last week with Mr. and Mrs. P. M. McDonald to dedicate streets through their property immediately north of the addition to correspond with the streets of the addition. Dedication deed for these streets was filed October 29 with County Clerk Tom W. Deen.

Former Iowa Club Woman Speaks Here November 8

Miss Beulah Rogers, Educational Representative of Ball Brothers Company, Muncie, Indiana, is to be in Floydada on November 8, for the purpose of talking with club women and girls.

Miss Rogers is a former Iowa Club girl and has achieved many honors in canning. She is one of the four girls of this country who went to France to teach canning. She will talk with the girls about canning, standardization of products, and her experience as a club girl.

At 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon she will talk with women from various club centers in the County Court room. Every lady is invited to hear her.

FRUIT SALE SATURDAY

Funds realized from a fruit sale at Houston's Dry Goods store Saturday will go to the East Ward P. T. A., it has been announced. All kinds of delicious fruits will be placed on sale at 10 o'clock Saturday morning by members of the Association.

Labor Invasion Assures Plenty Of Aid On Crops

Evidently there is going to be no shortage of labor to gather the cotton crop and the tremendous row crop of Floyd County this year. What with the regular supply of labor and a country full of floating population, largely Mexicans and a fair sprinkling of white boys and negroes, if the supply lasts the man who wants help will only have to stop at the first corner and employ them.

Monday night officers estimated that the Mexican population of Floydada, normally nil, was in excess of 200—in town overnight enroute in trucks and various kinds of cars to wheresoever they might find cotton to gather.

All of West Texas is swarming with laborers of all classes. Deputy Sheriff Wright said he passed scores of trucks loaded with Mexicans, mostly enroute west, on a trip to Crowell Monday. The road is lined with boys and young white men, and all of them are willing to ride, he said.

Mail Many Invitations To West Texas Sheriffs

Hundreds of Panhandle Officers Meet Here Thursday And Friday Of Next Week.

Formal and special invitations were mailed by Sheriff P. G. Stegall to county sheriffs, chiefs-of-police and city marshals of more than 125 counties of the Panhandle section of Texas this week to attend the regular quarterly conference of the West Texas Sheriff's Association in this city on Thursday and Friday of next week. Plans are being perfected by the sheriff's department and the Floydada Chamber of Commerce to care for over one hundred delegates who are expected to attend the conference.

Because this city is centrally located in the West Texas territory and because the date of the meet falls on Armistice Day, November 11, it is probable that many officers who have been unable to attend other meetings, will be present at the Floydada convention.

Attendance from the north and west portions of the state has usually been light, but many are expected from the cities in this directions at the meet here next week.

A banquet for the visiting delegates is being planned by the local Chamber of Commerce for Thursday night. The officers will be entertained at the Post-Floydada football game Thursday afternoon and given complimentary tickets.

Featuring the entertainment of the two-day meet will be a shooting match in which the officers will enter competition for the best pistol shot. Sheriff Stegall has offered fifty dollars in gold to the officer tallying the best score in the shoot at the bull's eye. The shooting match will be staged Friday morning at the City Ball Park, it was announced.

By the time the sheriffs begin arriving Thursday morning, things will be in full preparation for one of the biggest and best meets ever held, Sheriff Stegall stated this week. "We intend to make this a real meet which will be long remembered by every visiting officer and we are asking for co-operation of the citizens of Floydada in making the sheriffs feel welcome," he concluded.

Man Instinctively Vain Galloway Tells Barbers

Barbers Must Fit Themselves to Merit Respect For Profession, Banquetters Told Here.

Man is instinctively religious and he is instinctively vain, and it was through the fact that it became lucrative for a man to fit himself to be able to aid his neighbor to improve his looks that the profession of the barber became one of the trades by which many men now obtain a livelihood for themselves and their families, J. L. Galloway, of Plainview, secretary-treasurer of Journeyman Barbers' Union No. 818, told members of the organization Tuesday night.

Galloway's address was the high point in an evening around the banquet board at Zeek's Cafe, spent by journeymen barbers of Floydada and Plainview in a get-together that has become an annual feature among members of the local union.

Beginning in the fifteenth century, Mr. Galloway declared, men of the barber's profession enjoyed honors and emoluments such as was given no other profession, and the profession is entering another such golden period "If we fit ourselves to take hold of it," he said in the course of a thirty-minute talk that dealt largely with the problems of self-betterment that are met by barbers.

Geo. W. Sherrill, of the Sherrill Barber Shop, presided, and B. G. Morton, jurisdiction secretary in Floydada extended the welcome to the out-of-town guests. J. E. Dye of Plainview, responded.

Ed Bishop, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and Homer Steen, local publisher, were present as guests and made short talks. Bishop in the course of his remarks praised the barbers of Local No. 818 as upstanding citizens of their respective communities, and in giving statistical information relative to the growth of Floydada, told of his delight in having the oportunity to give his communtiy "contact advertising"

$19,000 Contract Let Yesterday For Building

Structure at Corner Main And Mississippi Will House Motor Supply Co. Chevrolet Agency.

Contract for the 75x150 feet building at the corner of Main and Mississippi Streets was let by Roy L. Snodgrass of the Motor Supply Company yesterday afternoon to Stephenson & Thurmon, local contractors at a price of $19,000, and according to the terms of the agreement materials will begin moving at once and the construction work begin at an early date.

Seven bids were opened at 1:30 o'clock, two Wichita Falls firms and one Lubbock firm being among those who submitted bids for the work. Figures submitted varied widely, the highest bid being $10,000 above the figures of the firm which was successful in obtaining the contract.

The most notable feature of the plans for the building is that the roof will be supported by steel girders which will permit the construction of a building the entire area of which will be free of supporting posts, thus largely eliminating waste space in the structure.

Decision to construct the new salesroom for the Chevrolet Agency was announced three weeks ago and work begun at once on the plans and specifications to make it one of the most modern storage and display buildings in the plains region. In addition to housing the Chevrolet agency, Mr. Snodgrass said that the plan adopted included an arrangement to house a drive in station 25x35 feet in dimension.

The building will be so constructed as to permit conversion into individual buildings at a minimum cost.

Chemistry Head Gives Two Lectures Next Week

W. T. S. T. C. Authority Will Present Discussions In Connection With Health Program.

Dr. C. A. Pierle head of the department of chemistry of W. T. S. T. C., will deliver a special lecture on health at the high school auditorium Thursday afternoon, November 10, at 3:30 o'clock Superintendent W. E. Patty pointed out in making the announcement of the discussion that the arrangements are made in connection with local programs for the observance of American Education Week, November 7-13. The date was designated by the American Legion and the National Educational Association.

Governor Dan Moody has issued through the press a proclamation emphazing the importance of public education, and calling upon the citizens of Texas to observe the week with appropriate exercises. Most of the nations of the world are participating this year in the observance of the week. It was explained that the primary purpose of Education Week is to acquaint the public with the actual work of the schools, with their ideals, their achievements, and their needs.

According to plans for local observance, Dr. Pierle will make two lectures, one next Thursday afternoon and the second on Thursday evening, the latter discussion being given at 7:30 o'clock at the high school auditorium, also. The afternoon lecture will be devoted to general feeding lines for health. Dr. Pierle will discuss "Brown Stain on the Teeth" in his concluding talk in the evening.

He will suggest the probable cause and cure of the stain. This lecture will be illustrated with lantern slides and it is likely that he will bring here certain pet animals to demonstrate the results on teeth of certain diets.

These lectures are being given under the auspices of the P. T. A. organization of the city schools. No admission will be charged and everyone interested is not only invited but urged to be present on both occasions next week.

DELINQUENT LANDS LISTED BY ABSTRACTS FOR REFERENCE

As an added convenience in the office of Tax Collector P. G. Stegall, Deputy E. Ray Smith last week completed a card index of the delinquent lands in the county, listed by abstracts, that is effecting considerable saving in time to the office and the public in checking up on delinquent property. All lands to be delinquent since the year 1920 are card indexed for quick reference.

TAKING TIME OUT

Football is a thrilling game, both to spectator and players. It is hard work for the participants, while it's mostly fun for the onlookers. Did you ever notice that every well coached team always takes time out during the fray to permit the players a brief rest? The coach knows that his men cannot go on tackling, running and charging for an indefinite number of minutes without pausing for a rest. Those brief respites from the strain on those young bodies and minds works wonders and results in a highly efficient eleven—eager and ready for each new play that the game develops.

And so it goes in this game they call Life. A fellow can work and work and work until his whole system, to use the term of the gridiron, "goes stale." He gets a silver dollar before his eyes, grabs a map and rushes forth for the same rainbow trip that all the other fellows have season tickets for.

Now the player in the game of life does not always have a coach to tell him when to stop and rest. Why not screw up enough courage to call "time out" on your own accord. Take a few hours off; go to the lyceum, the show, on a hunt or to the high school football game.

By the way, here's a good opportunity to start out on the few-minutes-off-plan. Floydada High school plays Ralls at Ralls in football Friday. Go and see the game. The boys are "going good" and are sure to bring additional honors to Floydada again this year. You can help them by taking "time out."

And there's November 11, the day of the Great Armistice—take the day off and honor the event in a fitting way.

At the very least, divide your time and take a bigger interest in some things not scheduled on the rainbow trip. Take things easy once in awhile, for the Great Referee may call the game before you realize that even the first half is over.

SET EGG STANDARD

Directors were named at a meeting held at Plainview Wednesday, October 19, and by-laws adopted to the creation of the Plains Poultry Association, which will serve to produce and market a highly standardized quality of eggs. The counties included in the organization are Floyd, Hale, Swisher, Lamb, Briscoe and Motley.

The meeting Wednesday was the outgrowth of a series of meetings following the return of Mrs. M. S. Hudson of Hale Center from a tour of the western states of California, Utah and Colorado, where she studied the operation of similar poultry organizations in those states.

Mrs. Hudson first reported to a general meeting of farmers of Hale County who authorized a temporary organization committee to study the date submitted by Mrs. Hudson and suggest the details for a local organization.

This committee after several sessions, finding that other counties were interested, submitted to the meeting at Plainview a complete plan for organization of the six counties. A discussion of the proposed association was made here October 1 by Mrs. Hudson before the Farm Bureau and Floyd County Cotton Association in session at the district court room. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Christian and A. B. Muncy were named by W. B. Jordan, president of the Floyd County Farm Bureau, as committee members to serve as district members of the board of directors.

Under the plans adopted for the association, the central ofice and plant will be located at Plainview with collection stations in each of the other five counties.

It was anounced that for the present at least full attention will be given to a higher quality production of eggs and their sale but it is expected that later the association will also undertake the production and handling of better grades of poultry.

Mrs. Hudson was named as chairman of a membership campaign committee, which will carry on an active work in the six counties as soon as contracts are prepared.

A GREAT PROFESSION

There are district, national and international associational meetings each year of the medical authorities of the nation. At these meetings, ideas are exchanged and new thoughts developed.

Of all the professional groups, there are few, if any, that keep more in touch with the steps of modern development than the doctors and physicians. They study at home, at state short session schools and national clinics. Everything possible is done in the advancement of their life's work—the protection of the world's health.

Schooled to the minute, they are always ready—a great army standing always at attention—never at rest. A great, depending confidence has been created and continues in the minds of the people toward the medical profession in general.

Honors without limit are due the sacrificing, conscientious and faithful doctors. Theirs is a great profession doing for humanity a great service that in itself is a monument to their efforts. May they ever "carry on" with just rewards.

HUNTING SEASON CARELESSNESS

It is hunting season again. It will be an unusual year if the daily press does not carry a continual description of some man or youth being killed or injured through carelessness or negligence while hunting. A fellow can never be too careful with a gun. Precaution should always be taken when entering or leaving a car or while going over or between the wires of a fence; care should be taken to see that the hammer of the gun or any part of it for that matter does not strike anything with force.

The unloaded gun is always a menace to human life and limb. "I didn't know that it still had a shot in it," is a common statement given over the lifeless bodies of many unsuspecting victims.

Hunting is a great sport, but it is dangerous. Keep this little thought in mind the next time you go out, "You can't be too careful."

14 YEARS AGO IN FLOYD COUNTY

News items taken from the Floyd County Hesperian files published in Floydada fourteen years ago.

ISSUE OF OCT. 30, 1913.

Floyd County's exhibit at the Annual State Fair this year at Dallas was nil, due to the fact that it reached Dallas too late for entry. Homer Steen left for Dallas on Friday of Fair Week to install the exhibit but when he left Dallas on Thursday he was informed that the exhibit was at Brownood.

J. F. McCarty shipped this morning from Floydada a spring coyote pup to his nephew, C. C. Austin, of Daleville, Ala., where coyotes are unknown, and this species will be somewhat of a curiosity. Incidentally, the Alabama darkies will find that Mr. Austin's new pet can put them in the shade when it comes to relieving the chicken roosts of the neighborhood.

Tom W. Deen was in Floydada Wednesday from his farm near Lockney and announced definitely his candidacy for the office of county and district clerk.

Mrs. A. C. Goen and children left Tuesday for Lamb County, where they will visit with Mrs. Goen's sister, Mrs. Ed Burrs and family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weast and children and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Davis, of Silverton, were here Sunday visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bosley. Mrs. Weast is a niece and Mr. Davis a nephew of the Bosley's.

'Round The Square

Did you know that there is not another newspaper in the world that is as interested in Floydada and Floyd County as the Hesperian? Likewise, merchants round the square are the only merchants in the world who give a hoot for your business and have a direct interest in you. Show your appreciation to these merchants by giving them your trade. Trade at home!

"A goal line uncrossed by a Class B team" is the record established todate by the Whirlwind eleven. Prospects are mighty good for another bi-district championship team for Floydada.

Interest in Coach Jay's boys is gradually increasing round the square. In spite of the fact that the A. & M.-Tech game came on the same date of the Spur-Floydada game, it is estimated that more than two hundred business men and football fans accompanied the Whirlwinds to Spur. Floydada is backing the boys by attending their games. Are you one of the boosters?

One thing about these coal strikes,—the farmer can burn his corn a lot easier than a miner can eat his coal.

Prosperity—think it, talk it, act it,—and you've got it.

Advertising, of course, pays, but the furniture man who advertised, "we stand behind every one of our beds," pretty nearly ruined his business.

Most of us would do well to remember that two-thirds of promotion is motion.

Word comes from the State University that the Floydada boys there fight over the Hesperian. "Just like a letter from home," says one. Every Floyd County boy or girl who is attending school should receive the Hesperian.

The Autumn leaves are falling,
Are falling here and there;
They're falling through the atmosphere,
And also through the air.

Whirlwinds Take Stiff Bulldog Battle 18 To 0

Spur Encounter Friday Leaves Floydada Goal Line Uncrossed By Class B Team.

After holding the Floydada Whirlwinds to a scoreless tie in the first half of a hard fought game Friday the Spur Bulldogs gave way in front of the local eleven and fell victims to an 18 to 0 score. The game, played on the Sp... gridiron, was one of the most thrilling witnessed by local fans this year. This was the most closely contested of three Class B games played this season. Of five games todate, the Whirlwinds have totalled 160 points against their opponents' 12. Their goal line has never been crossed by a Class B team and they hold the record of a victory over every opponent, including two Class A teams.

Weakness of the Whirlwind's line was very forcibly brought out in the first quarter of the game when the Bulldogs held them for four downs within one yard of their goal line. Captain Dixie White was on the receiving end of several perfectly hurled passes from "Steve" Marshall. White made two of the touchdowns and Marshall one, scoring in the third and fourth quarters.

Good Passing Features

The game had been in progress less than seven minutes when the Whirlwinds drove the ball near the Spur goal line and were held by the Bulldogs. Only once during the entire battle did Spur threaten to score. In the second quarter, following a series of plunges and end plays, they carried the ball to Floydada's fifteen yard line. The F. H. S. line succeeded in stopping the onward march, however, and the half ended with the ball near the center of the field.

With the score 0 to 0 at the beginning of the second half of the encounter, Floydada received the kick. A perfect 30 yard shot gun pass, Marshall to White, was completed and, after throwing off a Spur tackler, White made the remaining three yards tallying the first counter.

Tally Three Touchdowns

In a series of line plays, end runs and off tackle plays, in which Welbourn and Goen made star plays, the ball was soon brought to Spur's fifteen yard line. Another beautiful fake ten yard pass, Marshall to White, was completed and White crossed the chalk line again with practically no interference. In the last quarter, Marshall scored with a line plunge through guard for three yards netting the last touchdown.

Witnesses claim that ev... of the F. H. S. squad played a stellar game. Goen and Welbourn made wonderful gains around ends and through lines. Edwards and Marshall were death to the Bulldogs on the defensive plays. Spur attempted only one pass during Friday's game and it was easily broken by the locals. Porterfield was out of the Whirlwind game Friday because of a wrenched ankle. Goen was in the backfield and in the line, however.

A large crowd witnessed the game between the Whirlwinds and the Bulldogs. It is estimated that more than two hundred fans from this city accompanied the local boys to Spur.

50 Floydada Fans See A. & M. Win From Tech

With expressed hopes of seeing a victory for Tech but with hidden doubts to the contrary, some fifty football fans from Floydada attending the A. & M. College-Tech game at Lubbock Friday. The Aggies passed their way to a top-heavy 47 to 6 victory, but that did not keep the local fans from getting their share of the thrills.

A perfect exhibition of passing was served by the cadet eleven. It was a bewildering aerial attack that literally swept the Tech defenders before it.

"We've seen the class of the Southwestern conference when it comes to forward passing and we've seen proof and can confirm the statement that Joel Hunt is a complete team in himself," declared the Floydada fans even though they said it with a sigh.

But Tech covered herself with glory by a brilliant work during the first half of the game and stubborn resistance in the last half.

Among the Floydada fans who saw the game Friday, the first of its calibre to be staged in West Texas were: Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Rutledge, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pennington, Misses Glee Shaw and Mary Lottie Arwine, Dr. C. M. Thacker, L. G. Mathews, Tom Bishop, Leroy McDonald, Fay Maxey, E. B. Massie, A. E. Clonts and others.

"CONFERENCE PERIODS" REPLACE OLD-TIME RECITATION PLAN

A two-hour conference period has been substituted for the lecture and recitation method in Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla. Students may spend the time in study, in conference with the professor, in small discussion groups, in preparation of class papers or outlines, or in any other way preferred to master the subject. This method is still in the experimental stage. It is claimed that faithful work on the part of students is assured, that directed study does away with the mass system in education, and that as the relation of the student during the period is not primarily with fellow students but with the professor, better opportunities are offered to receive through personal contact the impress of the professor's personality.

A fund for the establishment of scholarships at Oxford and Cambridge for American students, and at Harvard and Yale for British students, has been provided in the will of the late Lady (Charles) Henry, of London. The scolarships are to be open to either men or women. Lady Henry was of American parentage.—School Life.

Of 11 new varieties of wheat introduced into the United States by the Department of Agriculture or developed in cooperative experiments in recent years, five have proved of value to wheat growers. These are Kota, Federation, Hard Federation, Karmont, and Nodak. In 1926 it is estimated these varieties were grown on a total area of 1,855,000 acres, with an increase of crop value estimated at $5,525,000.

Local Girls In Popular Number At Play Friday

Floydada's sextette of ukelele girls shared honors with Fairview talent Friday night of last week when the play "For the Love of Johnny" was staged before a comfortably filled auditorium at Sand Hill. The girls in the between-act specialty proved to be one of the most popular numbers on the program.

Special music by B. Martin, G. D. Tate and Gordon Rimmer also received generous applause. John Reeves and Rimmer in the cowboy skit were well received.

Principal W. C. McClellan of Fairview said following the play, "We certainly have enjoyed the opportunity of giving this entertainment at Sand Hill and we hope to show them the same courtesies when they give their play at our school and at any other time they will be our guests. The stage facilities were fine and I believe that the Dramatic Club members gave an even better account of themselves than they did the week previous at the Fairview auditorium."

The Fairview Dramatic Club gave their play at Sand Hill and the P. T. C. Society of the latter community will give "Three Hats" as an exchange play on Friday night, November 4.

Attorney Otis Trulove, of Amarillo, has been a business visitor here the first of the week.

CHINESE ELMS RECOMMENDED

For shade or as a windbreak, the Chinese elm has proved its value in most sections of the United States. The United States Department of Agriculture introduced this tree nearly 20 years ago and it has been growing in popularity ever since. The Department recommends it as useful and suitable for many climates. The Chinese elm is especially valuable in regions where the rainfall is light and where there are wide extremes of heat and cold—in places where few trees thrive, in other words. Trials show that the Chinese elm grows even more rapidly in the relatively dry area of the middle West than in the moister regions of the Atlantic coast.

EDUCATION OF NEGROES A RURAL PROBLEM

Of the 24,079 Negro schools in the 14 Southern States, during the school year 1925-26, 22,494 (93.4 per cent) were rural, and 1,585 (6.6 per cent) were urban schools, according to a study of Negro schools in the South by S. L. Smith, publisher in the Southern Workman. One-teacher schools, numbering 15,385, composed 63.8 per cent of the total number of Negro schools; 4,525 schools (18.8 per cent) were of the two-teacher type, 1,702 (7.1 per cent) three-teacher type, and 2,484 schools (10.3 per cent) employed four or more teachers. The average length of the school year in the 22,494 rural schools was about 6 months. The range was from 8.7 months in Maryland to 4.7 months in Alabama.

Of the 2,963,358 Negro children of school age living in the South, 68.9 per cent in rural sections and 75.6 per cent in cities were enrolled in school. Of the 801 Negro high schools in the 14 States, 209 are four-year accredited high schools Total enrollment in the 801 high schools was 68,606, and the number of four-year graduates was 6,435.

"How And Why I Planned My Contest Garments And Accessories"—by Blanche Rogers.

In a recent issue of the "Farm and Ranch" magazine, under the heading "How and Why I planned my Contest Garments and Accessories," appeared an article written by Miss Blanche Rogers, member of the Sand Hill 4H Club of this county. The article is the third of six letters written by club girls of Texas who entered the 4H Appropriate Clothing Contest conducted by home demonstration agents of Texas. Miss Blanche Bass, Floyd County Demonstration Agent, submitted the letter which was one of the six selected from the state contest. The letter, as it appeared in the magazine, is as follows:

"Not many summers ago when I was a very small girl, running to my mother no less than a dozen times a day, begging for fairy tales, I was under the impression that all fairy princesses had golden hair, and this I resented very much for I was a brunette and wanted to have just one thing in common with the heroines in mother's stories. But as I grew older I learned that there was a great many interesting things about each type, and that the secret of success was in taking advantage of and playing up to one's natural self. And being under the instructions of our most capable club leader, we are learning to give these things greater emphasis. The clothing contest itself furnishes a wonderful opportunity for developing our ability and dress with good taste. This when understood, implies modesty, simplicity, comfort, individuality, and an appreciation of good materials and design.

"Being one of those unfortunate brunettes, very dark, I found I could not wear those cool, pretty shades of green, blue, and orchid which look so pretty in summer, and I had to content myself with what our agent terms "warm" colors—shades of pink, rose, and yellow.

"For the contest dress I selected tiny pink and white checked gingham, French gingham, a good quality that would launder well and wear a long time. This, with a bit of white trimming, makes my complexion appear it's clearest.

"The club girl of today is as rushed for time as is the business man or woman; so, in designing the garments, an important thing to remember is simplicity of design. For after all the dress a girl enjoys most is one she slips into, and without having to hunt sashes, ties, and frills, fastens one snap and is ready. She then feels comfortable and appropriately dressed. Washing and ironing such garments requires only a short time. The styles I chose for both my dress and underwear are simple, and made with little trimming. For the plain white undergarments nothing looks prettier than narrow hemstitching and dainty lace edges.

"Wise choice of shades and hose cannot be overlooked and is certainly an attribute of good taste. Black slippers with medium heels always look well with any costume club girls may want to wear, and are easily kept. Hose, then, suitable to wear with wash dresses are finely-ribbed mercerized ones made so you do not have to be afraid of "runners."

"Finally the thing that means most to girls in the clothing contest is that training that gives her the satisfaction of being able to achieve an effect of exquisite daintiness and refined taste in her dress."

2. What is the proper manner for walking? (J. A., Mission)
3. Does posture have any important bearing upon health?
4. What are the duties of a county health officer? (Inquirer)

7. Who are required to sign the death certificate of a person dying, and with whom is this certificate filed? (J. J. L. Celina)
8. Why is it that urban districts are now said to be more healthful than rural districts, when in years back, it was the other way? (Rural)

ANSWERS

1. What is known as Rock Mountain "spotted" fever, is commonly called "tick" fever, and is transmitted by the wood tick, Dermacentor venustus. It is a dangerous disease, but is prevalent only in Northwestern states.
2. One's manner of walking will produce good or ill effects. "Toes out" is no longer the command to children, as it is the improper way of walking. Toes straight ahead will get one along faster and allow proper operation of the muscles of the legs. The Indian could walk all day and never tire. It is through the misuse of the foot, lack of exercise of the leg muscles, or the wearing of ill-fitting shoes that cause so much foot discomfort in the present day.
3. Yes. Holding the body erect with the chest thrown forward not only makes possible better breathing with more oxygen available to purify the blood, but also gives a constant mild exercise for all muscles of the trunk.
4. County health officers are required to see after health conditions in the county jails, poor farm, hospitals, discharge duties of required county quarantine, and perform such duties as prescribed for him under the regulations of the state department of health.
5. A number of parents are having their births recorded at the same time as that of their children. In an instance of this kind recently, a father and mother with their 13 children were all registered at the same time. Blank certificates with necessary instructions will be sent by this department to anyone upon request.
6. All still-born children of as much as 7 months gestation, must be reported as both births and deaths. A certificate of both birth and death must be filed with the local registrar in the usual form and manner.
7. A death certificate must be signed by the physician or official making the medical certificate; the informant; and the undertaker or person acting as such.
8. The installation of modern water filtration and sewage plants in cities, the supervision of milk supplies, hospitalization, and other health facilities provided in our large cities has given the urban districts improved health conditions over rural districts, which as a whole, have not made much advancement in matters of sanitation.

KNOW TEXAS

The following are legal holidays by statute in Texas: New Year's Day January 1; Washington's birthday February 22; National Independence Day July 4; Labor Day September 5 (1927); Election Day November 8; Thanksgiving Day November 24 (1927); Christmas December 25; Arbor Day (Washington's Birthday) February 22; Texas Independence Day March 2; San Jacinto Day April 21; Jefferson Davis, birthday June 3; Texas Pioneer's Day August 12.

East Texas has a considerable advantage in disposing of truck crops because of its proximity to large and growing markets. The principal difficulty with successful operation of truck farms in the past in Texas was the lack of market facilities. The extremely rapid growth of Texas cities in the last 10 years has done much to open the way for truck garden development.

Forestry, says the Forest Service, U. S. D. A., is steadily becoming an art of land management, expressed in practical measures for protecting forest growth from fire and other destructive agencies, for logging timber so as to produce a new crop of wood, and for planting forest trees on cut-over or denuded areas.

FRAGRANT FERTILIZER

Fragrance is not normally associated with the fertilizer industry. Many farmers have judged the potency and value of a commerial fertilizer largely by the desirability of a gas mask for use in handling it. Research by the Bureau of Soils of the United States Department of Agriculture has discovered a fragrant fertilizer, derived from the by-products of the manufacture of cocoa and chocolate, that carries with it the pleasant aroma of a newly opened can of cocoa. This press cake or cocoa meal is a convenient source of nitrogen for plant food. It contains about 4 per cent of nitrogen which is the equivalent of 4.9 per cent of ammonia.

CLOTHES IN COUNTRY AND CITY

Contrary to the commonly accepted idea that farm families spend much less for clothing than their city cousins, an investigation by the Bureau of Home Economics of the Department of Agriculture indicates that clothing allowances are approximately equal in the two groups. Only in families having incomes well above the average is there a wide difference, with city families spending more. In 1,337 farm families covered by the survey the average total expenditure was $1,559 of which $225 was spent for clothing. City families with about the same total expenditure average $238 for clothing.

Floydada Baptists Win Banner At Center Meet

For the best attendance during the three days the Baptist Church of Floydada was awarded the "Victory Banner" at the close of the Fifth Sunday meeting held Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Center community church. Fairview community tied with the local church with 52 members from each church. The run-off was decided by counting the delegates from the respective congregations present in the room at the time of the county; Floydada won by a very small majority. The banner remains with the church here until they are out-numbered in attendance at another associational meeting, it was explained.

The banner is made of plush and deftly ornamented with silver needlework of the word "victory."

R. E. L. Muncy preached Friday night. Saturday was the great day with a large number in attendance.

On Sunday the church house proved inadequate to take care of the members and visitors present. The speaker of the day was Dr. Beauchamp of Dallas. Other addresses and sermons were delivered by Revs. R. D. Evans, G. W. Tubbs and W. R. Hill. The afternoon was given over to the young people's work, led by Rev. C. J. McCarty of Lockney. A large number of young people from Wayland College at Plainview made the meeting more enjoyable by their presence.

The next meeting, the December worker's meeting, goes to the Whiteflat church in Motley County. The counties of the association are Floyd, Briscoe, Motley and Crosby.

In connection with Educational Week plans, the 1922 Study Club have announced that they are sponsoring the showing of "Early Texas History," a special feature film, at the Royal Theatre this Thursday night.

The picture is shown in connection with the regular billed program, which features Red Grange, the football star.

The bee and honey exhibit at the Ohio State fair this year was of unusual interest to members of the United States Department of Agriculture because of the fact that the permium lists on honey were based on the United States standard grades for honey, which have just been announced. There are indications that the United States standard grades for honey are attracting considerable attention, not only in this country but abroad. The following paragraph in recent correspondence with a domestic firm which exports honey indicates the attitude of the trade toward these grades:

"We appreciate very much the work the United States Department of Agriculture has done in inaugurating uniform methods for grading honey, because heretofore one never knew what would be received when ordering a certain quantity of honey; the opinions as regards colors differed too much. We are now buying honey from the producers on basis of Department of Agriculture centificate final, and we are trying to make our European customers agree to the same terms."

METHODIST CHURCH

Ben Hardy, Pastor

Next Sunday is our last Sunday in this conference year. The year has gone by quickly and pleasantly. While all has not been accomplished that we had hoped for, we are thankful for what has been done.

It will not be possible at this time to give a complete summary, yet, we can give some results.

There have been 72 additions to the church, 40 by baptism and vows, and 32 by letter. We will have a net gain of 35 or 40. There has been about $400 spent in improving and furnishing the parsonage and some eight or nine hundred dollars spent on the church.

I am not able at this time to report all other finance in full but hope to be able to do this by Sunday. A committee composed of Dr. Lon Smith and L. C. McDonald are at work on the fiances this week. We highly appreciate their unselfish work and speak for them a generous response. All our obligations are put in one budget and they are working on that.

Reports from different parts of the conference indicate Floydada's chances for the next conference very good.

Come out next Sunday. We think we will have the gas installed in the church by that time. Come.

NEW YORK GIRLS

To find out how children spend their out-of-school time, an investigation was made last session in public school 63, Manhattan, in order to help the 2,000 girls in the school to avoid both overwork and overplay. Pupils in the school are drawn from the lower East Side of New York City, and represent many nationalities, including Italian, Ukranian Russion, German, Irish, Japanese, and Chinese. Report of an entire day, made by 786 girls in grades 4B through 6B, showed that of the 24 hours, 10 are devoted by the average girl to sleep, 5½ to school, 1 to housework and chores, 1 to homework, 1½ to play and recreation, 2 hours to lunch and supper, and 1 to dressing and breakfast. One hour on the average is spent in piano practice, half an hour is given to hygiene and eating, and half an hour to reading.

AMERICAN INFLUENCE IN PLAN CHILEAN INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

Establishment of a school of arts and trades and college of engineering at Valparaiso, Chili, at a cost of more than $4,000,000 is assured under the will of the late Don Frederico Santa Maria Carrera. The school will bear the name of an early Chilean patriot, Jose Miguel Carrera, and will be conducted along modern lines. A site has been acquired, and tentative plans for buildings decided upon. It is desired to incorporate in the new school highest achievements in the arrangement of classrooms and construction of buildings, and to this end a committee of Chilean architects and engineers will visit a number of the best vocational and engineering schools in the United States.

For the first 10 years all teachers will be selected from Europe and the United States, and it is probable that for some years thereafter a large number of the faculty will be drawn from abroad. Provision is made for scholarships to enable specially qualified graduates to study in foreign countries, particularly in the United States.

For Is Not Friendliness The Thing Of All Things Most To Be Cherished In The World?

Of course, we have people who are too sophisticated to express their natural kindness, but they had them in Dickens' Time. There is too much clean simplicity in this section of the United States for Christmas ever to grow old. There was a time a year or so ago when it looked like the Spirit of Commercialism might engulf Christmas cards. Advertising and business solicitation seemed to be the dominate note.

With inexcusable taste and worse judgment, people stuck their trademarks on indiscriminately, and these cards, instead of carrying sentiments of cordiality and good feeling, seemed to shout the fact that the sender expected you to come around when anything was needed. They forgot that the cards were far more effective if the motive was not advertised.

It is well that this time is passing—it is one more proof that old Scrooge was wrong about the Spirit of Christmas. A Christmas card can be, and for the most part, is a thing of beauty. It is a graceful remembrance and a genuine evidence of kind intent, since you know that it can be no burden of expense to the person who sent it. It is to the credit of human nature that this delightful custom of sending cards at Christmas has emerged triumphant.

But the old flat, hackneyed designs are not so much in use. Our new line this year is featuring a number of new ideas, particularly the French cut out folders and other original designs. We will be glad to show them on request.

Misses Jenkins and Willis Entertain Class.

Members of the Junior Class of the Floydada High School were entertained Hallowe'en night at the home of Mrs. H. J. Willis with her daughter, Miss Troye, and Miss Ruth Jenkins as hostesses. The Hallowe'en idea predominated in an elaborate decoration scheme of autumn colors with lights gleaming from pumpkin shells and shocks of corn here and there to make the scene more realistic. Fortune telling and games were the diversion for the evening.

Sandwiches, pumpkin pie and hot chocolate were served to the following: Misses Mozelle Brown, Jessie Mae Wood Audrey Farris, Gean Smalley, Ruth Jenkins, Thelma Covington, Virginia Meacham, Troye Willis, Claudie Green; Messrs R. V. Husky, Pete Nelson, Z. R. Felton, N. B. Stansell, Chas. Mathews, Marvin Gamble Sid Carter and Woodrow Goen.

A number of the members of the Junior class of the Lockney High School were also guests during the evening.

Mrs. Flynn Thagard Hostess To Martha Girls' Class.

A very pretty party was given at the home of Mrs. Flynn Thagard Monday night when she entertained the Martha Girl's Sunday School class and their friends with a Hallowe'en party. Two large black cat cut outs made screens for candles which were burning on the front porch and cast their reflecting gleams on the ghost which greeted the guests at the doorway. At the first glance into the spacious living room one would have been bewildered at the elaborate decoration scheme which was carried out in the interior arrangement of the home. The draperies were a deep orange with touches of black and from the doorways and arch ways small skeletons were suspended. Candles cast their blinking rays from the eyes, nose and mouth of pumpkin shells and the rooms were filled with the appetizing aroma from the baking containers.

The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mmes J. B. Bishop, Robert McGuire and Miss Emma Lou McKinney.

Miss McKinney conducted a number of very interesting games after which there was a guessing contest and each of the guests unmasked. Then came a hare and hound race. The girls were given a bag of rice which they strewed in various directions. Ten minutes later the gentlemen were given flashlights and told to follow the path of rice which led to the home of Mrs. Frank Moore where refreshments were served.

Mrs. Thagard in her witch costume served sandwiches, coffee and devil's food cake and orange jello. The plates were very cleverly arranged to carry out the Hallowe'en idea.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Daily, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Boon Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. Flynn Thagard, Rev. and Mrs. Ben Hardy, Mmes. First Ton-Litter Contest For Fall Farrowed Hogs Open To All Raisers

Bumper crops are usually disposed of at depressed prices, but Texas farmers have the opportunity of disposing of the largest corn crop that they have raised in the past five years at a comfortable margin of profit. Not only does the corn raiser enjoy this privilege but the producers of a grain sorghum crop bearing similar proportions have the same opportunity of substantial profits from this grain crop.

Save Crop Surplus

The Progressive Farmer considers the opportunity for winter finding of hogs excellent this year, and this publication, through the cooperation of the A. & M. Extension Service, is sponsoring the first ton-litter contest for fall farrowed litters to be held in the United States. "The better hog feeders of Texas have learned that gains produced quickly from properly balanced rations are the cheapest that can be obtained," states Paul Huey, Field Editor of The Progressive Farmer. Mr. Huey reports that an average of all completed records on the spring contest show that the cost of production per pound of pork is slightly above 6 cents. When compared with the average cost of pork production on Texas farms, this shows a cost reduction of approximately 50 per cent due to better feeding and management along with improved breeding stock. The present feed crop on hand, if consumed in part by hogs under these ton-litter methods will not the farmer vastly more than if sold as grain or fed to swine in a careless manner," says E. R. Eudaly, Swine Specialist of the A. & M. Extension Service.

This contest is open to all hog owners in Texas and liberal cash premiums are being awarded for highest total weight and highest average weight in the various sized litters by: The Texas Cottonseed Products Manufacturers, The Progressive Farmer, Swift & Company, Armour & Company, Purina Mills, Universal Mills and The Fort Worth Stock Yards Company.

This contest, which is conducted in view of stimulating a more widespread adoption of improved methods, has demonstrated during the past few months through contests in fifty-seven Texas counties that by observing the fundamental principles of hog feeding, the average farmer of Texas can greatly increase his income from this source.

Rules of Contest

1. Any hog owner in Texas is eligible to enroll in the contest.
2. Litters must be farrowed within the period of August 15 to October 31, inclusive.
3. Hogs of any kind or breed are eligible—they may be purebred, grade, or scrub.
4. Contestants must notify their county agent or The Progressive Farmer at Dallas, or E. R. Eudaly, swine specialist at College Station, as soon after the pigs are farrowed as practicable.
5. Contestants must make nominations on cards provided for the purpose. (These cards may be obtained from your county agent, The Progressive Farmer, or E. R. Eudaly.)
6. Pigs raised on nurse sow, or hand fed, are not eligible to compete for prize.
7. Contestants are required to keep a record of the rations fed the sow during gestation period, and while suckling the pigs, also the feed fed the pigs from beginning to end of feeding period. Ton-litter record books will be furnished for this purpose.
8. Litters must be weighed the day they are 150 days old. Awards will be made on actual weight above the minimum required weight. Preliminary weights should be made at intervals during the feeding period.
9. The required weight for different sized litters is as follows:—

7 pigs or less	1,450 pounds
8 pig litters	1,700 pounds
9 pig litters	1,900 pounds
10 pigs and over	2,000 pounds

10. A certified report of the final weight of the litter must be made by the person supervising the weighing on the official record book provided for that purpose, and forwarded to either The Progressive Farmer or E. R. Eudaly.

Gold ton-litter medals will be awarded all contestants whose litters attain the minimum weight requirement at the end of the 150-day feeding period.

Special classes have been created at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show for ton-litters and the following rules will govern entries in these classes:

1. Any litter regularly entered in The Progressive Farmer Fall Ton-litter Contest is eligible for competition in this division.
2. Farrowing dates are governed by the rules of the Ton-litter Contest.
3. Entries into The Progressive Farmer Ton-litter Contest must be sent to E. R. Eudaly, swine specialist, Extension Service, College Station, Texas, or to The Progressive Farmer, Dallas, Texas.
4. The entire litter must be shown in the ton-litter classes. Individual animals from ton-litters may be shown in the open classes, provided they meet entry requirements.
5. There will be two classes, namely, ton-litters averaging over 225 pounds and ton-litters with an average weight between 175 and 225 pounds. Weighing must be done previous to shipping to the Southwestern Exposition and the weights certified to by the county agent or an official weighing committee. This weight will be used as a basis in determining which of the above classes the litter shall compete in.
6. Owners who intend to return their animals to their farms following the show must comply with the regulations of the Livestock Sanitary Commission, which requires that all animals be immunized against hog cholera not less than 30 days before date of shipping animals from stock yards back to farm.
7. Ton-litters will be judged on a basis of finish, uniformity, market type, and weight.

Special Premium List

Litters averaging 225 pounds and above: First $50; Second $40; Third $30 Fourth $20, Fifth $10.

Litters averaging between 175 and 225 pounds: First, $50; Second, $40; Third, $30; Fourth, $20; Fifth, $10.

Double discing corn ground for fall-sown oats in the South produces as high yields as plowing, with the advantage of a decided decrease in the cost of production. Where the land has been well cultivated and is reasonably free from grass, weeds, and crop residue, discing is to be strongly recommended. Plowing should be resorted to only when the land is in such condition that a satisfactory seedbed can not be prepared by discing.

Eight additional schools for native Alaskans will be opened this fall by the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Education. Congressional appropriations for the school year 1927-28 include $469,400 for the support of schools, $150,000 for medical relief and $17,520 for reindeer service.

Was In Misery All Over

"I was in a dreadfully run-down condition," says Mrs. Chas. L. Lacroix, of Montgomery, La. "I suffered a great deal of pain. I was in misery all over. I could not sit up and I could not lie down. I couldn't sleep and at times I would have dreadful vomiting spells. The aches and pains seemed to cover my whole body.

"One night my husband brought me home six bottles of Cardui and I began to take it. I could tell that I was improving from the first bottle, but I kept on taking the medicine, for I knew that I needed a tonic that would build me up and strengthen me where I was weak and run-down. That is exactly what Cardui did for me. After I had finished the six bottles I felt fine.

"I feel truly thankful for what Cardui has done for me, for I could not have gone on living in the desperate condition I was in."

Alathean Class Meets With Mrs. W. R. Hill.

Last Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the ladies of the Alathean class of the Baptist Sunday School met in business and social meeting with Mrs. W. R. Hill.

Ways and means of making money for furnishing their room in the new church were discussed. They decided to do some quilting for anyone who would let them have the work. Delicious refreshments were served to about thirteen ladies.

Mesdames Daniels and Snell Hostess at Party.

Mesdames W. F. Daniels and Will Snell were joint hostesses to the little daughters, Corrine and Ruth, on Monday afternoon, October 31, at the home of Mrs. Daniels. The occasion was given in celebration of the little ladies' birthdays.

When school turned out at 3 o'clock the youngsters came trooping in to be met at the door by two ghosts in the person of Master Jerry Porter and little Miss Evelyn Daniels, after which they were seen wending their way through the dark rooms to view the jack-o-lanterns, black cats and other interesting things. Games were played and then a "Dutch doll" caused some more fun, after which the many pretty little gifts were admired; then candles were lit on the birthday cakes—eight on Ruth's cake and nine on Corrine's. The cakes were cut and Cleo Smith found the dime in her slice. Refreshments of cake and lemonade were served to the following: Mildred Smith, Corrine Daniels, Preston and James Badgett, W. 'TWINKLETOES' FEATURE AT ROYAL THEATRE NEXT WEEK

"Twinkletoes" is the intrigueing title of Colleen Moore's latest starring vehicle, which comes to the Royal Theatre on Monday and Tuesday of next

This picture, much looked forward to by local picture fans, was adapted from Thomas Burke's famous tale of the Limehouse district of London, and the combination of star, story and setting made "Twinkletoes" one of the most promising entertainment offerings that has shown here.

The many star players acting in this picture portray Limehouse folks, picturesque characters from that London maritime slum where all races and kinds of humans meet around the wharves, tenements, dingy shops and dives, and sinister plots are born in the narrow, mysterious streets bordering the waterfront.

Through tense drama and suspense, thrills and moments of joy and laughter the story builds swiftly to a big, surprising, punchy climax and an ending that is happy and satisfactory. Colleen is at her best in her role of "Twinkletoes," in which she runs the entire gamut, from tense pathos to the brightest comedy.

The proper care of footwear, coupled with intelligent selection, means a reduction of from one-quarter to one- half in shoe bills and at the same time keeps the feet neatly and serviceably shod. Mud, water, or excessive dryness ruins leather; oil and grease preserve it. Therefore, the life of boots and shoes may be extended by keeping them clean pliable, and water resistant. Farm footwear especially needs to be greased occasionally.

SANTA ANNA—The ten thousand mark has been passed in cotton ginnings at Santa Anna already this season.

BOWIE—A home grown products luncheon will feature the Red River District convention here November 21. A number of ex-Bowieites who are now prominent commercial and industrial leaders of Fort Worth will attend the meeting as well as state notables. Amon G. Garter will be toastmaster at the luncheon.

MARBLE FALLS—Marble Falls, a unique industrial town of the Heart of Texas, will be one of a number of towns with write-ups in the November "West Texas Today."

Haynie and Manager Homer D. Wade of the West Texas Chamber will occupy parts on the program and a record meeting is indicated.

MUNDAY—Natural gas for domestic and commercial purposes will be in use here by December 1. It will be piped from Amarillo fields and will be on the same line which is to serve Stamford.

TEXLINE—Clay deposits in the vicinity of Texline of commercial proportions and possibilities are attracting widespread attention. Samples of the clay have been sent to a number of manufacturing concerns interested in the quality and quantity of local deposits.

DUBLIN—Dairying interests are being promoted to a large degree in this section. The town has had half a dozen representatives studying dairying and its problems in Memphis, Tennessee, and plans to bring an expert here to make a survey looking toward securing a condensory of cheese factory in this territory.

HEREFORD—Contract has been let for a new $25,000 City Hall and Fire Station for Hereford. The building will be completed by Christmas. Four brick business buildings are now being erected and a number of modern homes are under construction.

PLANNING BIG MEALS FOR COMPANY

(Editor's Note: This is the last of the series of cooking articles by 6 famous cooks running exclusively in this paper.)

We all like to entertain company, and to invite them to meals. But we should never tire ourselves out getting ready for them. For after all they would rather have us fresh and untired, able to enjoy their visit, than to have us serve them the most elaborate meals. Just a little forethought and planning will do away with heavy work connected with entertaining.

MRS. SARAH T. RORER

A Tip from Mrs. Rorer

Mrs. Sarah Tyson Rorer, pioneer cooking teacher, and famous as the author of "The Philadelphia Cook Book," advises one to make the dessert and salad dressing the day before, and to plan meals which do not require lots of "last-minute" attention. This gives us more time to spend with our friends.

You will find the following menu tickles the palate and is easily prepared for a large group. Proportions are given for the serving of 12.

Chipped Veal — Mashed Potatoes
Succotash — Harvest Salad
Caramel Cream
Bread and Butter — Beverage

You can easily make the caramel cream the day before, and have it ready for the "company" meal. Use Mrs. Rorer's recipe.

Caramel Cream

Put 4 tablespoonfuls of sugar in a saucepan over a burner at full heat. Shake until it melts and burns a dark brown. Take from fire. Add a quart and a half of milk, 6 more tablespoonfuls of sugar and bring to a boil. Stir in 4 tablespoonfuls of cornstarch moistened in a cup of cold water. Stir over the fire until creamy. Take from fire, add 2 teaspoonfuls of vanilla. Serve cold.

The modern oil stove is a most efficient piece of kitchen equipment. Fuel is consumed only when needed. Quite a contrast to stoves which need to be coaxed into action, and take a long time to cool off after the cooking is done.

Mayonnaise Dressing

Make your mayonnaise the day before, too. Mrs. Kate B. Vaughn, director of the household economics department, Los Angeles Evening Express, uses the following good recipe:

1 egg
2 cups salad oil
2 tablespoons lemon juice or vinegar
1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
Pepper, paprika, and mustard to taste, if desired.

Beat the egg well in a cold bowl. Have oil chilled. Add one tablespoon of oil and beat. Add another and beat, and continue the process until one cup of oil is used. Add salt, sugar, 1 tablespoon vinegar, and other seasonings. Beat in second cup of oil gradually. Add second tablespoon of vinegar, and continue beating until smooth and thick.

Harvest Salad

You can prepare the salad early in the morning. Peel 12 sound apples, core, rub over with lemon juice. Have syrup of 2 cups of sugar, 2 cups water, juice of 2 lemons boiling, and put in apples to cook. Turn from time to time until tender. Remove from syrup and cool. Fill the core with pineapple, cherries and marshmallows [illegible] tick salted almonds in the [illegible]ies. Serve with mayonnaise.

Chipped

Now for the preparations of the day. These recipes are Miss Lucy G. Allen's. She is the principal of the Boston School of Cookery.

Remove all skin, meat and tough bits from 3½ pounds of veal cutlet. Cut meat into inch long match-shaped pieces. There should be 4 cups.

Fry 2 chopped onions in 4 tablespoons butter. When nicely browned, add the veal and stir constantly until it changes color, and there are a few spoonfuls of juice in the pan. Season with salt and pepper. Dredge with 4 tablespoons flour. When well mixed, pour in 2 cups of medium cream. Cook for 20 minutes, then let simmer slowly.

Succotash

This combination of cooked corn and lima beans is at its best in summer when fresh vegetables can be used, though it can be made with canned vegetables. Use equal parts of corn and lima beans. Shell and cook beans, and cut corn from the ears. Mix with sufficient milk or cream to moisten well. Reheat and season with salt and pepper.

This good meal will be eaten with relish. And you will find it no problem to prepare it for a large number of folks.

Women who use oil stoves will have excellent results if they see that the oil reservoir is always well filled, and the burners kept clean. The ideal oil reservoir is one which can be refilled without soiling the hands with kerosene.

P. D. McBride, who is farming this year, and holds a retired card in the union, declared the most progressive man in the community is he who has the greatest opportunity for social contacts. M. M. Mitchell, of Lubbock, a supply man, expressed pleasure at being present, and H. R. Stanley, city, responded to call with a short talk pointing out that the day has arrived when a man is judged by the way he acts and lives and not by what he possesses. W. D. Johnson, a retired barber, now automobile salesman and a recent Benedict, was required to make a speech.

Members of the union, active and retired, present at the banquet were C. L. Largent, J. M. Welch, J. E. Dye, W. E. Mooney, W. B. Luna, Louie Longshore, C. C. Barnett, A. D. Bassell, J. L. KILLING FROST WILL HURRY GATHERING OF COTTON CROP

A frost that most farmers say was killing for cotton and similar vegetation over practically all of the county, fell Tuesday night, November 2, the temperature dropping close to the freezing point. Hardly any wind blew during the night and the skies were clear so that Jack Frost could do his work well.

The frost is generally expected to be beneficial in that it will hurry up cotton opening without damaging the grade. This will be true, especially if a freeze does not come for another week or ten days, it is said.

Mrs. H. R. Johnston left Monday for Bowie, Bridgeport and other points where she will visit this week with relatives.

KANGAROO ATTRACTS MUCH INTEREST HERE

A real sure-enough kangaroo is in Floydada! Yes sir. And he has been here all week, and plans to stay another week!

But he's dead—stuffed.

The life-size kangaroo, shipped from its native home in Australia, has been on display this week in a window at the Baker-Campbell Company store. He measures about five feet tall, from head to foot, and is mounted in a sitting position. He is not a "Bull" Kangaroo, but a young "calf." This, the management of the store explained, is to illustrate the younger type of animals used in the manufacture of shoes.

The stuffed animal is proving quite interesting to many people here, and especially is it interesting to the children, many of whom have never before seen a kangaroo, alive or stuffed.

Saturday, Sunday Jonah Days For Motorists

Toll of Four or More Wrecks Recorded For Floydada People With No Fatalties, However.

Saturday and Sunday were Jonah days for Floydada motorists on the highways of Floyd and neighboring counties, a toll of at least four wrecks having been recorded in that time for people resident of this city or the immediate vicinity.

Saturday Mrs. S. T. Harris was painfully but probably not seriously injured in a wreck of a car one-fourth of a mile north of Petersburg, when the brakes failed to hold at a corner and the car went across the bar pit. She sustained two or three cracked ribs and other members of the party sustained shocks and bruises. In the party were Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Robert Abernathy, Miss Leda Martin, Miss Mildred Abernathy and a young lady whose home was near Post. Miss Abernathy was driving. The party were enroute to Petersburg from Canyon where the young ladies had been in school and were enroute to their homes for a brief visit.

Most seriously injured of any of the Floydada people was Luther Baugh, who Sunday sustained very painful and at first examination thought to be serious, injury, when a car in which he rode missed a culvert near Narcissus. The man with whom he was riding was painfully injured also. Baugh has been in the employ of Slim and Curley's Cafe for some months past. He is single and about 27.

Roy Grigsby went into the bar pit at the first corner west of Lockney on the Plainview highway Sunday and sustained cuts about the face and was somewhat shaken up. He was riding in a car alone, his brother Albert being in a car behind him.

One of the most expensive wrecks any local motorists suffered was a collision that occurred in the west city limits of Paducah Sunday about 11:30, when the car of A. E. Tinnin, of the Tourist Hotel, was struck broadside by another car. The Floydada car was occupied by Mr. Tinnin, his wife and little son, Edwin, J. N. Johnston and G. W. Walls. None of them were hurt, but one rear fender and a bumper were jammed up and the other car badly smashed by the impact. Mr. Tinnin and his party were enroute home from a trip to Dallas, having gone down Thursday of last week.

Hal Hay, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hay, of this city, was run over by an automobile in Dallas Saturday night about 12 o'clock and is in a sanitarium there with a broken hip.

He was visiting in Dallas with his uncle, C. O. Barham and family, and was uptown in company with a cousin when the accident occurred. He was resting well reports Wednesday said.

Floy Hamrick Succumbs To Pneumonia On Sunday

Miss Floy Hamrick, daughter of T. H. Hamrick, recently of this county, succumbed Sunday to pneumonia, following an appendix operation on September 13. She died in Scurry County where the Hamrick family were making their home.

Miss Hamrick was 18 years, 2 months and 12 days of age at the time of her death. She was born in Jones County in 1909. The Hamrick family moved to Scurry County last Spring from the Center community where they resided for a number of years. The deacesed was well known in this county and especially in the community where she attended school.

At the time her illness began last October, she was keeping house for her father in Scurry County. She was carried to a Lubbock sanitarium and underwent an operation for appendicitis on September 13. Just as she was recovering from the operation, she was stricken with pneumonia from which she died on October 30. Her mother died on August 11, of this year, and was buried in Lorenzo.

Floy was very anxious to get well, yet she did not fear to die. She had never made any public confession of faith but she had said that she was prepared to go. Her last words were to her father asking that she be buried beside her mother.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Lorenzo cemetery with Elder T. A. Dunn in charge. Interment was made near her mother's grave in the Lorenzo cemetery.

The deceased is survived by her father, two brothers, Clinton and Conrad; and one sister, Mrs. J. L. Laminack, all of this county. She also leaves many close friends.

For training leaders of conferences for the improvement of grocers and grocery clerks a series of courses has been projected in Birmingham, Ala., by the city school system in cooperation with the State department of education and the Birmingham Retail Grocers and Butchers' Association. Courses outlined by the National Grocers' Association are used. About 18 leading members of the local association, representing practically every district of the city, were enrolled in the first conference course. These leaders will conduct conferences throughout the city.

C. Of C. Hears Talk On Vocational Agriculture

Committee to Help Entertain Sheriff's Association Named.—Floyd Falling Behind.

Major subjects of discussion were plentiful at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night, plans for the meeting of the West Texas Sheriff's Convention in Floydada November 10-11, a brief study of vocational agriculture in the high school, the forthcoming session of the county judges and commissioners organization in the nine counties along Highway No. 28 on November 8 to hear Dr. Johnson speak, being "majored" in a two-hour session at the county court room.

O. T. Williams, teacher of vocational agriculture in Floydada Schools, told the Chamber briefly what vocational agriculture study embraces, and how the organization can be of aid to the boys who are studying by experiment as well as by means of the textbook. High school boys at this time, it was disclosed, have almost every form of farm projects under way now. Thirty-four boys have projects including maize culture, poultry, hogs, dairy cattle, cotton, etc., he said. He asked that the Chamber of Commerce pledge the boys a supply of 500 pounds of pedigreed maize for use next season. L. G. Mathews, J. G. Wood, W. H. Henderson, Dr. W. H. Alexander and Oscar Stansell each pledged 100 pounds of this seed, and to aid the boys having swine or cattle projects Glad Snodgrass offered to loan the money necessary to get a pure-bred hog or cow for one boy in the class.

E. Ray Smith, deputy in the Sheriff's department, told the meeting that two hundred peace officers in West Texas had been invited to Floydada for the sheriff's convention and expressed the belief that the attendance would be good Glad Snodgrass, E. L. Norman and L. G. Mathews were named as a committee from the chamber to give their assistance in entertaining the convention.

County Judge Wm. McGehee told of the plans for the meeting of the county judges and commissioners here on November 8 at 1 o'clock and expressed the belief that attendance of citizens from over Floyd county who are interested would be beneficial.

The Judge also told of the plans of Clayton—Anderson to begin demonstration work soon, in this county on proper methods of feeding for dairy and range cattle in an effort to build up the dairying and feeding industry in this county. In this connection he told the Chamber that Floyd County, according to authentic information, is falling behind its neighbors, especially mentioning Hale County, in the production of wealth on its farms because of failure here to push the dairying industry. Hale County farms last year produced $3 for every $1 produced in Floyd County, he said.

President R. E. Fry of the Chamber of Commerce presided at the meeting and Ed Bishop called attention to the fact that the poultry show in December will be the best ever held in the county, and to the fact that the Harmoney people are planning a banquet celebrating the completion of their new school soon. "We have no right to be proud of the fact that the Floydada Chamber of Commerce is being operated on the lowest budget of any similar organization in a town the size of Floydada; in fact, we have every reason to be alramed over this fact, because the short budget is preventing the Chamber of Commerce from undertaking many projects that demand attention we cannot give."

J. G. Wood, W. C. Grigsby, R. F. Brown and Glad Snodgrass discussed briefly the matter of public auctions of merchandise on the principal corner of the square, and Dr. W. H. Alexander, told of the betterment of conditions in his home county in Georgia through diversified farming. His home was in the path of Sherman's march to the sea and grew up in a wilderness for years after the destruction wrought by the invaders.

Before the opening of the business session the high school orchestra furnished music under the direction of Director A. L. Lundgren.

Center News

Center, November 1.—The fifth Sunday meeting was unusually well attended. The spirit of good fellowship and interest in our kingdom work was uppermost all the way through the program.

Mesdames A. L. Spence, Claude Carpenter and W. B. Jordan went to Lockney Monday to hear our State W. M. U. worker Mrs. J. E. Leigh. Her talks were very inspiring and helpfully informing.

The Hallowe'en party at the school house Monday night was well attended and all seemed to enjoy themselves immensely with games, witches and goblins.

Misses Lillian King and Cecil Lightfoot visited here with friends and relatives over Sunday.

School dismissed Friday for the work season. A month was the time we are supposed to suspend.

Miss Winnie Wilson has gone for the month school will be closed.

Mr. Garner and children are home from Spur, where they have been picking cotton.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Crabtree have moved to the house on the Goodman place for the present.

Mr. Ross from east of Fairview has rented the place where Joe Woolsey lives for another year.

"INSIDE" INFORMATION

When cooking "wienies" out of doors, try a wire corn popper.

Use the vinegar from a bottle of sweet mixed pickles for making salad dressing.

A bit of garlic rubbed around the salad bowl—just enough to give a mere suggestion of flavor—makes an acceptable improvement in flavor for many people.

When choosing linoleum for the kitchen floor, bear in mind the three kinds—plain, printed, and inlaid. Plain linoleum is likely to show foot-prints and other marks easily. Printed linoleum has to be varnished often to preserve the design. Inlaid linoleum has a design which goes clear through to the backing. It is consequently more expensive, but the pattern does not wear off.

Meat loaf is one of the most appetizing dishes you can serve. Any lean meat may be used if gristle and skin are trimmed off. From a fourth to a fifth as much pork as beef is a good proportion. If pork is not added, a small amount of suet should be put through the chopper with the meat.

Serve fresh tomatoes as often as possible at this season—sliced or stuffed for salads, broiled, fried, baked, or for flavoring other dishes. Tomato juice "cocktail" is simply tomato juice seasoned and chilled, taken as an appetizer before any meal.

Marshall Entertains F. H. S. Freshman Class.

More than sixty members of the Freshman and faculty members of Floydada High School were entertained on Thursday evening of last week at the L. A. Marshall home in South Floydada with a Hallowe'en party. The party was staged by the class and Carl Marshall, member of the class, acted as host at the entertainment.

As the guests entered, they were carried through the basement where they were instructed to walk a chalk line. A number of places along this line they were given stratling electrical shocks. While in the basement they were also carried through the "Stiff House." Here they were given thrills and "spooky" scares.

Refreshments of apples, ice cream pies and fish shaped candy suckers were served later in the evening to the guests.

Among the faculty members present Among the faculty members present were: Misses Gladys Collins, Dorothy Biebel, Little, and Prof. Harper Scoggins.
