While listening to Tom Stokes explain House Bill 30, at Commissioners Court Monday, I began to wonder just how that proposal was worded to pass by such a large number of voters. If you talk to anyone affected by HB 30, and we are all going to be, you won't find a soul who voted "for" the proposed amendment, but according to rumor it passed by 94% of the vote. I remember voting "for" the separate property proposal, but I'm quite sure I voted "against" the other proposals, since that has been my policy from the first time I cast a ballot some thirty years ago.

Nobody seemed to understand what an upheaval this so-called property tax reform was going to cause over the state of Texas. Crockett County has asked for a 2-year extension, but what then? When put into operation, it seems to hit the homeowner the hardest, and of course the home is not a revenue-producing property. The cost of re-appraisal alone is enough to break most counties and when home property taxes are raised a thousand percent it will be enough to break most homeowners.

We have seven proposals coming up in November, and they are all couched in legalese. This is a language very close to fraud and nobody really understands it except the legal minds who write it. What it amounts to, if you think you are voting "for" something chances are you are really voting "against" it and vice versa. If you think this doesn't make sense, you are right, but neither do many of the proposed constitutional amendments, to the layman that is. So be very careful when voting to give the legislature power to amend the constitution. As we can see by the results of HB 30, it can be dangerous and very hazardous to your pocketbook.

I was so exhausted after the Texas-OU game Saturday, I had muscle cramps. I gave up on the Longhorns at the half, but Tom didn't want to suffer through the second half alone, so I stayed on. After three fumbles lost and a pass interference call that

Fall rains late but welcome

Fall rains were late coming to Ozona, but welcome none the less. Weekend rains brought relief from the drought in most areas of the county, however, the south part of the county benefited the most with up to 5 inches reported on some ranches. Just over a half inch was recorded in Ozona as of Monday morning.

Torrential rains fell Monday night and early Tuesday morning, flooding streets and washing out roads from Ozona to Juno. Usually dry draws ran like rivers and by the time skies cleared at mid-morning, 3.30 inches of rainfall had been recorded in the official gauge at the water district office.

The big rains which fell late Monday and early Tuesday gave the areas of the county north of Ozona and the town proper their share of moisture. Up to 1.5 inches was reported to the south.

RAINS TURN DRAWS INTO RIVERS, and the only way to get across town in Ozona Monday morning was the 1-10 bridges over the interstate or the bridge across Johnson Draw. Over three inches of rain during the night Monday and early Tuesday morning made both Gurley Draw and Johnson impassable except by bridge. Here Gurley Draw rushes toward Devil's River at a fast pace.

Court discusses Road Department problems

The Crockett County Commissioners Court met Monday in regular monthly meeting and took most of the morning discussing the overrun on this year's budget by the road department. The department is several thousand dollars over budget and there are three months left in the year. Judge Johnny Jones informed the court of the problem and suggested a solution be worked out before the next meeting or the court might find itself with a financial crisis similar to that faced last year with the hospital.

With the paving season drawing to a close, the department is far behind in paving, and it is doubtful scheduled paving will be done in Precinct 1. After discussing the problem, it was the consensus of the court the department is overspending and under-producing.

Paul Shacklette, road department head, defended his department, indicating inferior roads built in the past necessitated complete rebuilding. Also, he said increased oilfield traffic had torn up existing roads.

Some discussion was held on which should take precedence, maintenance or paving. The court indicated that paving should have priority during the season and maintenance should wait until the paving projects for the year were completed.

The court noted that the department was getting more work done with 22 employees than with the 32 now being carried on the payroll. Shacklette was asked to terminate the extra ten employees as of October 15, to cut down on fuel usage, purchase of parts and repair.

Judge Jones strongly recommended that each commissioner personally oversee work done in their precincts. He said the solution was either cut back on expense or budget more, the latter of which would necessitate an increase in taxes and the court did not favor this solution. Some discussion was held on the new streets the school board wants opened at the Primary School to alleviate the traffic problem. It was decided to work on the streets after the paving season is over in November, and pave them in the spring.

In other business during the morning session, bills were approved for payment and the hospital report was given by Glen Rumley, who reported collections at the hospital so far this year are running 105% of charges. Rumley was reminded that new hospital board members should be appointed by January, and asked to submit some names at the next meeting.

Crockett County Tax Collector Tom Stokes met with the court when it convened for the afternoon session and discussed HB 30, the controversial property tax reform bill recently passed by the Texas Legislature. Stokes said, under the new law, elected officials can no longer serve on the board of equalization and in spite of the fact the county has asked for an extension on reappraisal, an appraisal board must be appointed. The appraisal board deals with the budget, the setting of taxes, reappraisal and the appointment of a board of review.

The court appointed County Judge Johnny Jones and Commissioner Sostenes DeHoyos to the appraisal board. Their immediate duty is to appoint three persons to serve as a board of review for property taxes in Crockett County. Stokes informed the court the tax roll, which should have been ready prior to October 1, had not been delivered, and tax notices cannot be mailed until the roll arrives.

Election judges were appointed by the four commissioners. Jovita Perez will be the judge in precinct 1, with the polling place at the courthouse. Bobby Fatout was appointed judge in precinct 2, with the junior high school building as the polling place. Precinct 3 voters will cast ballots at the Civic Center under election judge Frank Reavis. Precinct 4 voters will vote in the library of the primary school under the direction of Concha Zapata. Jeffrey Sutton was appointed absentee judge.

The polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. November 3, in a special election for seven proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution. A new term life insurance plan submitted by the Texas County and District Retirement System was discussed and will replace the current plan when it expires June 15, 1982, for county employees.

Byron Stuart was appointed to inspect the seven flood control dams in the county with Clitis Sinclair of the Soil and Water Conservation District.

The court agreed to purchase the copier now being used in the county clerk's office on a lease-purchase plan and County Clerk David Weant was instructed to convert the contract. The court also approved the promotion of Alice Fay to the position of deputy clerk in Weant's office, with salary to start at the six-months rate.

The second half was again, all Lion defense, as they stopped Wall time after time. Robert Massey was outstanding in the Lion secondary, as he snagged three of the six interceptions himself. Kelly Buckner at linebacker was in on tackle after tackle. Ernie Borrego, who was playing injured, was ferocious on defense and was all over the field.

The Lions put the game away in the fourth quarter as Ernie Borrego scored on a 3-yard run and Mason added the PAT. The Hawks led 7-0 going into the second quarter.

Lion fans were on the edges of their seats, however, when with only two minutes left in the game, the Hawks drove deep into Lion territory on a long pass completion. With less than a minute left on the clock the Wall quarterback threw for the tying score, but David Badillo jumped high in the air and intercepted the ball, saving the victory for the Lions.

In the statistic category, Wall had 10 first downs to 7 for Ozona. In total yardage, Wall had 242 while the Lions had 160. Neither team lost a fumble, but Ozona got one pass intercepted while Wall was intercepted six times.

Lions down Hawks for 14-7 victory

By-James Pagan

The Ozona Lions downed the powerful Wall Hawks here Friday night 14-7 to even their district record at 1-1. The Lions will be looking for their second district win Friday night when they travel to Eldorado to take on the Eagles.

Friday night it looked like the Hawks were going to batter the Lions as they marched downfield and scored on a 16-yard pass, plus adding the PAT. The Hawks led 7-0 going into the second quarter.

However, the Lion defense came to life in the second period and were awesome as they intercepted six Hawk passes and sacked the Wall quarterback seven times.

The Lion offense could not sustain a drive, although they were given opportunities to do so by two exciting long punt returns by David Badillo. Finally, with less than two minutes left in the first half, the Lions scored on a 7-yard run by Eric Fierro. Will Mason added the extra point and the game was tied 7-all at the half.

The second half was again, all Lion defense, as they

The "Catch" in Public Welfare

Large-scale public welfare, because of its very nature, cannot be expected to go on indefinitely. Eventually, it will impoverish productive citizens and deplete capital resources, in order to continue distributing consumption goods to the less productive people. Moreover, the process is carried on by swarms of bureaucrats, who administer the program. In doing so, they absorb an increasingly large part of the relief money.

One important difference between private charity and public welfare is that the latter is carried on by professionals, whose present income and future prospects depend upon enlarging the programs they administer. That's why these programs never come to an end and always grow larger and larger.

On the other hand, private charity is carried on mostly by volunteer help. The workers have no interest in enlarging the job, but generally are greatly interested in helping to solve the problems and make their jobs unnecessary.

A further consideration is that people who are being helped by their neighbors are grateful and seek to end the necessity for such help as rapidly as possible. Curative goodwill exists between donors and recipients alike. Whereas those who are aided by public charity often begin to think that government owes them a living. They eventually put forth less effort to provide for themselves, and diligently study ways in which they can get more from the public treasury.

Hence, public welfare is destructive to the character of both the recipient and administrator alike. In contrast, private charity is constructive, develops goodwill and solves the problems of poverty.

Most people will remember that a few years ago the federal government appropriated $200 million to help poor people pay their utility bills. At the end of the winter season, $18 million of this sum remained unexpended. A group of welfare workers and federally-funded lawyers brought suit to have this $18 million distributed to needy people, rather than to be returned to the treasury. In the end, according to Donald Lambro, writing for Human Events, the poor received only $2,000, while all the rest of the $18 million was divided between the Community Service Administration and "a phalanx of poverty organizers, consumer advocacy groups, and so-called public interest law firms, not unlike those that had initiated the suit."

Here we have in microcosm an example of the way in which state welfare will destroy any country that persists in following that policy over an extended period of time. Already, nearly half of the federal budget, as well as large segments of state and local budgets, are being spent for that purpose. This is one of the principal causes of the decapitalization of our country, our reduced output, unbalanced budget, steadily rising debt, high interest rates, and declining standard of living.

The Tragedy of Africa

Of the 37 nations south of the Sahara Desert in Africa, only 11 have retained a part of their freedom. More than 20 have lost it all and are now governed by dictators, many of them ruthless savages. Most of them also have suffered economic collapse. Hunger and mass slaughter are commonplace. It is estimated that three million people have been exterminated during the past 10 years, and that this has taken place in some 13 nations.

At the heart of the campaign to communize the African continent is the Soviet Union, more recently assisted by Cuba. If the Communists control Africa, its immense wealth, and its strategic locations, it is difficult to see how freedom can survive anywhere.

South Africa has more than 50 kinds of minerals, including more gold and silver than any other country. It has an abundance of copper. It has coal. It has diamonds. It has great wealth that the USSR covets and is working hard to take.

If South Africa falls to the Communists, there will be little hope of maintaining any anti-Marxist regime anywhere in that continent. The great Simonstown Naval Base near Cape Town controls more than half the world's shipping, including the oil tankers that must go around the Cape of Good Hope because they are too large to go through the Suez Canal.

South Africa is one of the most progressive nations in the world. It has upgraded the blacks in jobs, housing, education and income.

Blacks and whites would solve their own problems in South Africa if they could be free from outside intervention. All they ask is freedom to work out their own salvation. They should have it.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Filming of the movie, "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas", continued at the State Capitol this week, and more than one tourist dallied near the set to catch a glimpse of stars Burt Reynolds and Dolly Parton.

Burt and Dolly have made themselves scarce, but the public could catch glimpses of co-stars Dom DeLuise and Charles Durning, as well as view the elaborate set-up of klieg lights in the rotunda.

The movie itself has stolen the show from regular state business. The previous gate attraction, redistricting, has moved back to the final drawing board pending official board action next week.

Meanwhile, most state officials and legislators remain back in their districts or out campaigning for one or more of the seven proposed constitutional amendments on the Nov. 3 ballot.

Redistricting

Following two days of public hearings, members of the Redistricting Board have moved into the back rooms to put the finishing touches on various versions of maps.

The board is expected to begin considering a vote sometime next week. It must approve a redistricting plan by Oct. 23 or turn the project over to the courts.

Comptroller Bob Bullock, one of the five board members, is still undergoing an alcoholism treatment program in California, but is expected to be back in time to vote.

In his absence his surrogate, Robert Spellings, has drawn considerable heat from both Republican and conservative Democrat fractions for pairing incumbent senators and for alleged gerrymandering of GOP legislators.

Spellings said last week the pairing of Sens. Ed Howard, Roy Blake and Peyton McKnight in East Texas and Sens. Grant Jones, Bob Glasgow and Ray Farabee in West Texas was necessary.

However, some of the senators charged Bullock is conducting a personal vendetta against them. Five of the senators, as members of the Finance Committee, questioned Bullock's departmental budget requests last session, they say.

Republicans are worried that Spellings, acting for Bullock, is pairing Republican legislators with strong Democrats to enhance defeat of GOP members.

Texas Republican Party chairman Chet Upham last week called for Bullock to resign instead of assigning his duties to a substitute on the board.

Upham charged if Bullock can't handle his duties himself, he ought to quit.

Meanwhile, the Republicans found a challenger for Bullock in the 1982 election: Fred Clarke, a Dallas public accountant who has never run for office.

Agriculture Commissioner

As expected, populist Jim Hightower formally announced his candidacy to defeat Texas Agriculture Commissioner Reagan Brown. Hightower, a former Texas Observer editor and director of the Texas Consumers Association, held a 29-city announcement tour.

He will try to build a coalition of farmers and consumers to wage a war against the corporate middlemen of the food industry, who have watched food prices go up while farm prices have gone down.

Reagan Brown's high volume publicity in the recent Medfly incident hasn't scared off Hightower. "In four years Brown has killed off more family farmers than medflies," Hightower said.

Armstrong, Strake

One more hat was thrown into the ring in the governor races last week.

Outgoing Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong, also sitting on the Redistricting Board, officially filed his campaign for governor. Armstrong said he has been testing the waters and found nothing negative. Now he's going to try to raise the millions of dollars it takes to win that office.

Secretary of State George Strake resigned last week to launch his Republican challenge to incumbent Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, who already has a campaign headquarters in Austin.

Strake called Hobby "lackluster." Meanwhile, Gov. Clements, who has lately stood back from the various political fray, has not appointed a successor to Strake.

ACCOUNTING PROF DEVELOPS FORMULA FOR RETIREMENT PLANS

With the changes in the income tax laws, a Texas A&M University accounting professor suggests it is time for Americans to consider taking advantage of deferred tax retirement investments. "It's important that people invest their money for retirement during inflationary times," says Dr. Karl Putnam. "Assuming a 7 percent inflation rate, a dollar 30 years from now will only buy what about 13 cents does today."

Putnam has developed a formula that will help Americans determine how much money they will need upon retirement to live as they do today. He pointed out that saving $100 each month at a monthly compounded interest rate of 12 percent would net $349,496.42 after 30 years.

That $349,000-plus would be worth only $45,012 by today's standards, however, assuming 7 percent annual inflation. Last year the inflation rate averaged 13 percent. This year it has been about 7 percent, he explained.

Charles Williams is in an El Paso hospital recovering from emergency surgery performed Friday. The surgery was performed after he collapsed during a golf tournament in that city.

Tips For Gardeners

From The Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

"And when the silver habit of the clouds comes down upon the Autumn sun, and with a sobered gladness the old year takes up his bright inheritance of golden fruits, a pomp and pageant fills the splendid scene." Longfellow

Deciduous (non-evergreen) leaves from trees and shrubs that are free of insects and disease that are falling now should be carefully collected and either placed on the general compost pile or stacked separately to make leaf mold to use in the spring. Good leaf mold is valuable as an ingredient of seed and potting soils. Old trash from vegetable or flower gardens that cannot be used should be put in containers to be carried off now or during the fall cleanup next month.

If iris have dead leaves late in the fall, for they are now getting food through them.

Plant container-grown landscape shrubs the next two or three months. Fall planted hardy plants have a growth advantage the following spring over spring-planted stock.

While the days are cooler and nights are free of frost, move your indoor plants outside for two or three weeks. Apply liquid fertilizer and water well to encourage strong growth. They will take on a healthier, glossier appearance. These may be such as pandanus, dieffenbachia, philodendrons, rubber plants, schefflera and croton.

Garden construction of most kinds can be started or undertaken this month, making of paths, terrace, rock garden and other new features. There is more time for this now than in spring. The popular pyracantha is beginning its colorful fall beauty now. This plant may be used as a hedge, screen, ground cover, barrier, or espaliered specimen. It is one of the least difficult shrubs to grow in our area. It should be given a sunny exposure in well-drained soil.

Spraying your peach trees now as the leaves begin to drop will prevent a fungus disease, peach leaf curl from infesting your trees next spring.

Root Crops:
14, 15, 18, 19, 25, 26.

Sorority entertains guests

The Alpha Alpha Mu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Monday, October 5, at Granny Miller Hall.

After attending to a regular business meeting, members entertained guests with a tortilla supper and a get-acquainted game.

Hostesses were Lori Parker, Pearley Meacham, Cindy Nicks and Jan North. Others present were Dena Porter, Virginia Baggett, Karen Morris, Peggy Bien, Nesa Chandler, Cindy Collins, Jill Crawford, Sadie Davidson, Susie Deaton, Debbie Glasscock, Peggy Holden, Jodie Sessom, Vicki Stokes, Karla Turland, Chris Weant, Belinda Wilkins and Kaye Williams. Guests attending were Jeannine Perry, Jan Henderson, Melody Burkes and Libby Tulk.

Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Perry of Abilene were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Perry.

GenTel to charge new phone rates

General Telephone Company of the Southwest will begin charging new rates for installing, changing or adding telephones Oct. 12. The change is the result of a mandated Federal Communications Commission accounting change for all telephone companies, and has been approved by the Public Utility Commission of Texas.

The FCC order requires costs incurred for installing or changing telephone service to be collected from customers receiving the service as the services are rendered.

In addition to the changes in rates, residential customers now have the option of providing their own house wiring (wiring from the protector or fuse box on the house to the telephones) and save the associated fees charged by the telephone company. In addition, a $5 wiring maintenance charge will be assessed whenever the company sends service personnel to do repair work on the wiring.

"Previously, costs for installing, changing, adding telephones or to do wiring work were partially paid by all customers, not just the customer receiving the service," said Oscar C. Gomez, rates and tariffs manager for General Telephone in San Angelo. This charge is the first of four annual steps which will result in full revenue recovery from the customers receiving the service."

The new fees are structured similar to previous charges with some existing charges increasing and others decreasing. Charges will vary from customer to customer, depending upon the functions required to make the installation, change or addition to service.

Nashville Alive to view here Sat.

"Nashville Alive!", the "down-home" new country-western music hour from SuperStation WTBS, presents country music stylist Brenda Lee as co-host on Saturday, October 17, at 7:05 to 8:05 p.m. WTBS may be seen in Ozona on Channel 11.

Lee, who has captivated audiences in the United States and in more than 50 foreign countries with her warm, bluesy voice, joins host Ralph Emery in the Stagedoor Lounge at Nashville's elegant Opryland Hotel to bring the best of "The Grand Ole Opry" sound to WTBS cable subscribers. Emery, a top country-western radio and television personality, and co-host Brenda Lee will be joined by popular country artist Razyzy Bailey, the legendary Ernest Tubb and The Texas Troubadours, emotion-filled singer Valentino and Dotsy.

Brenda Lee, who has sold more than 80 million records, has had more double-sided hits than any other woman in popular music. She stormed the national charts with such hits as "I'm Sorry," "All Alone Am I," and "As Usual" before making a string of pop million sellers.

She returned "home" to country music in 1972 and enjoyed almost immediate success with Kris Kristofferson's "Nobody Wins." Since that time, Brenda Lee has been updating her popular material to follow the growth of country music.

Debra Says

By Debra Price

The Progressive Club will meet Wednesday, October 14 at 12:00 noon at the Civic Center for a salad luncheon and program. "Setting Your Household in Order" will be the program and will focus on organizing your family's papers and records. All homemakers are welcome.

With the number of women working today, you may think T.V. dinners are served more often than prepared meals. With a little planning, your meals don't have to be all T.V. dinners. Consumer surveys show that there are really few differences in the way homemakers employed and at home handle meal management.

Whether you are employed or not, keep these meal planning ideas in mind before you shop. Before you shop, make a long range plan for meals. You will need to consider:

Basic nutrition, sticking to a budget you can live with, thinking about the "where and when" your family eats various meals and planning for special diets.

To make your plan really workable, use time saving items and be sure to plan ahead.

Calling All Homemakers

Brought To You By Brown Furniture

A national agency took a homemaker's survey recently, and one of the findings they reported was that the average home lacks sufficient tables.

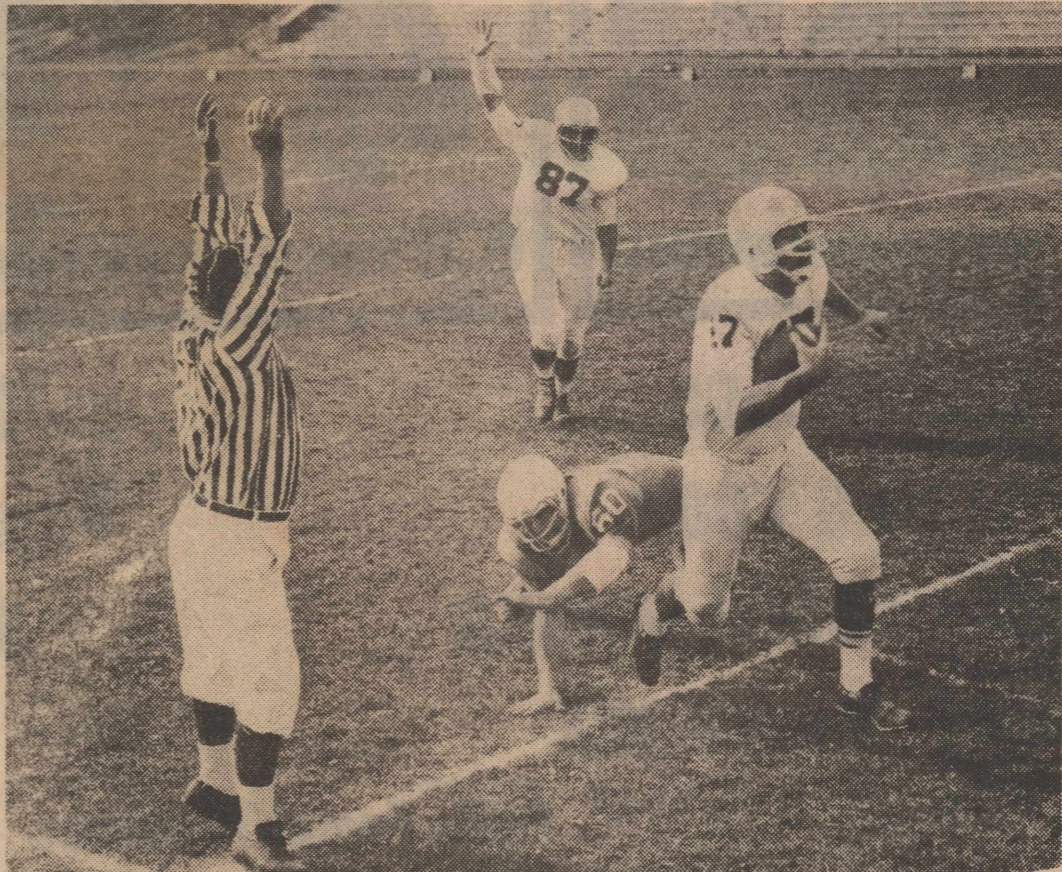

They said that there were not only a lack of tables themselves, but also a lack of variety of tables in many homes.

Actually, there are several decorating guidelines to use concerning tables.

First, if you want to have a really comfortable, easy-to-live-in home, you should have tables near most of your seating pieces and that's easier to accomplish these days because there's such a tremendous selection of shapes and sizes of tables. It's not difficult to find just the "right" table to fit by any chair or sofa.

Secondly, although tables are practical and necessary to hold lamps, refreshments, etc., they also have an important role to perform in making your rooms beautiful. All by themselves, tables can add decorator touches if you pick the proper looking tables for the different parts of your room.

Look around your home. Ask yourself these two questions: Do you have enough tables? Do you have pretty tables? If you'd like to improve on either of those points, we can help. Stop in Brown Furniture Today!

TOUCHDOWN

TOUCHDOWN... we all know the thrill that lifts us to our feet when OUR team scores. We cheer, we sing and shout.

It takes teamwork to put a man over that goal line. The whole team must work together to move that ball down the field... "the right way." The guards and tackles must hold the line. The ends must be "on target" to receive passes. The quarterback must know his plays and execute them with speed and skill.

Likewise, in the game of life we need wisdom and strength beyond our individual endeavor. It is essential to receive inspiration and help in order to achieve successfully our goals in life. Your church or synagogue can provide that faith which leads to everlasting victory.

Senior 4-H New sweetener club meets to be marketed

The Senior 4-H Club met Wednesday evening at the high school library and planned the program for the year.

From November through May a different study will be held monthly. Topics include hunting safety, wildlife trapping, showmanship, vet. science, first aid and safety, range management and soil and water practices.

Peer groups and adolescent drug use have a distinct "connection." Researchers have consistently found that adolescent drug use is not a solitary activity but rather an activity mainly carried out within a peer group.

A new sugar substitute, aspartame, is expected to be on the market in about six months.

Aspartame, to be marketed under the tradename "Equal" by G. D. Searle Co., was approved recently by the Food and Drug Administration.

The new product is made up mainly of two amino acids, phenylalanine and aspartic acid, points out Al Wagner, food technologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. These, along with other amino acids, are the normal building blocks of protein in foods consumed as part of any healthy diet.

Phenylalanine and aspar-tic acid combined in a certain manner produce an intensely sweet-tasting substance called aspartame that is about 180 times sweeter than sucrose (sugar), says Wagner.

According to Wagner, aspartame has FDA approval for use as a sweetener in the following foods:

Dry, free-flowing sugar substitute for table use in package units not to exceed the sweetening equivalent of 2 teaspoonfuls of sugar; sugar substitute for sweetening hot beverages, including coffee and tea; cold breakfast cereals; chewing gum; dry bases for beverages, instant coffee and tea, gelatins, puddings and fillings, and dairy products and toppings.

FDA approval is based on four additional conditions regarding final product labeling and Searle's record keeping:

Any food containing aspartame must display a warning statement for phenylketonurics (persons sensitive to phenylalanine, much like diabetics are to sugar) that the product contains phenylalanine; a statement not to use aspartame in cooking and baking must appear on the label. Aspartame breaks down when exposed to prolonged heat, with a consequent loss in sweetness; if a food containing aspartame is represented to be for special dietary use as might be expected of a low-calorie product, the food must be labeled in compliance with FDA's special dietary foods regulation; Searle Co. is to monitor actual use levels of aspartame for the FDA.

Advantages that aspartame is supposed to have over other non-nutritive sweeteners are that it is virtually indistinguishable from sugar in taste, has no bitter or metallic aftertaste, and seems to act like a flavor enhancer for some fruits, such as MSG (monosodium glutamate) does for high-protein foods.

A major disadvantage is that it is not stable to heat for prolonged periods.

Consumers sensitive to the somewhat bitter aftertaste often associated with saccharin sweeteners will be delighted with this new product as will others who use non-nutritive sweeteners, believes Wagner.

Crockett County Care Center News

BY ANN McCARTNEY
DIRECTOR OF ACTIVITIES & SOCIAL CARE

Saturday, October 3, the Garden Club reported some plants for us. We really thank them and hope they will come again because we have found more.

Our first Sunday church service was termed a success with Rev. Larry Bailey of the First United Methodist Church conducting the services and Leonard Hillman leading the singing, accompanied by Lucille Harrell on the piano. Four other church members accompanied the group.

Monday morning we were treated with a program by Polly Eppler. She told us all about her trip to Brazil and showed us pictures and handwork, including some beautiful laces she had brought back. Everyone enjoyed her program.

Monday afternoon it was my pleasure to attend the meeting commemorating the beginning of nine years of faithful service to the hospital and care center by the Ozona Ladies Auxiliary. This fine group of ladies is one of our principal supporters of activities and they are greatly appreciated.

Tuesday and Friday we played bingo. This is one of the places the Ladies Auxiliary supports us. Tuesday volunteers included Sophie Kyle, Georgia Kirby, Dorothy Doll, and Alice Ross. Friday volunteers were: Kirby, Doll, and Anna Bell Patrick. Big winner of the week was Verna Talley with a gift certificate from the Teacher Store. Second place winner was Tomasa Ramos.

We appreciate the Avon makeup brought by Anna Bell Patrick. Dorothy Doll makes morning rounds (seven days a week) and combs hair and puts on make-up. It could be that she has some of our ladies a little spoiled! Our fish loves her too, because now she has become our "official feeder."

We had our regular reading on Tuesday and Bible study on Thursday. Tuesday night, though, we started back our Spanish Hour. Volunteers Maria Vitela and Lupe Martinez were joined by Juanita Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Ramona Lugo, Jesus Hernandez, Seferino Garcia, and Hilario Cortey. It is so good to have a program going again in Spanish. Come and join the group, if you would like.

Wednesday afternoon we were treated with a film ordered and delivered by Debra Price entitled "The Barber Shop Quartettes." We followed this with a sing-along of our own. The residents played our rhythm band instruments, Maude Pettit and Leona Harris played the piano. Volunteer Lucille Harrell helped us out on the piano too. We had a good time singing and keeping rhythm.

Two regular features this week included our daily exercise sessions and our Thursday morning beauty shop. Vera Baker sold us, at wholesale, some picks to help keep our frizzy permanents in longer.

While under the dryer during my own beauty shop appointment, I read an article entitled "Seven Ways To Stay Happy." At least two of the seven ways suggested getting out and doing volunteer work on a regular basis and doing something nice for a shut-in. We still need more helpers at ceramics next Monday at 3:30, church groups need their members to come and help with the music, and we would like more programs telling about vacation trips.

J.V. ACTION
By-Wendy Hood

The Ozona J.V. played the Wall Hawks on Oct. 8. The Ozona J.V. lost 21-0. Coach Porter said the boys played fairly well, but they received a lot of penalties at inopportune times. A punt blocked and recovered was an easy touchdown for the Wall team. Our boys drove the ball well, but they were unable to score. The defense played well and it was a very physical game, but we came out with only minor injuries. The J.V. are looking forward to next week's game and they feel like they are getting their game together.

COLLEGE PREPARATORY TESTS

Every year in Ozona High School there are tests given to help students prepare for college. The tests that are given are the ACT, SAT, and PSAT tests. The ACT and SAT tests are mainly college entrance exams. The students have to make minimum scores on these tests in order to be admitted to a certain college or university. A student must make at least 15 on the ACT test, and 800 on the SAT test. If a person does not make the scores needed, he would then be required to take courses in summer school in order to be eligible for admission to a college or university in the fall. The PSAT, the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test, is a test that is used to help prepare a student for the SAT. If their score is high enough on this test, they become eligible to receive a scholarship.

Every year there are students that come to Ozona to take these tests. They come from Sonora, Del Rio, Iraan, and Big Lake. Since Ozona is small, the tests are given only once a year. The ACT test will be given at Ozona High School on February 20, and the SAT test will be administered on December 5. Both of these tests will be given in the high school library. The PSAT test date is October 27, and will be given in the high school auditorium.

If you are a junior or senior and are planning to attend a college or university, please contact Mr. Williams in the counselor's office about information of these three different tests.

A FRIENDLY SMILE AND A GOOD FRIEND
By-Leanna Kramer

A helpful hand at OHS is Jim Williams, counselor at the high school. Mr. Williams attended high school in Plains, Texas, and then college at Central State College in Oklahoma. He was active in football, basketball, and track all during his school years.

Mr. Williams married his wife, Charlotte, on May 29, 1965. They have three daughters, Krystal, who is 15 and a sophomore at OHS, Kim, 13, and Kelly, 10. Mr. Williams' favorite food is Mexican food, especially tacos. During his spare time, Coach Williams enjoys hunting and fishing. He also likes working with ceramics.

The Williamses moved to Ozona from Canyon, Texas, and stayed here for four years before moving to Odesa and Stanton. He moved back to Ozona in 1975. He has had several jobs at Ozona High School such as varsity football assistant coach, varsity basketball head coach, and varsity track coach. Since Mr. Williams has had a lot of coaching jobs at OHS, most people refer to him as Coach Williams.

This year starts Coach Williams' eleventh year in Ozona and his fourth year as high school counselor. When asked if he planned to stay in Ozona, he jokingly replied, "I love it here and I'll stay as long as they'll keep me."

Coach Williams' job as counselor has a lot of duties and obligations. He helps students to prepare themselves for college by helping them obtain financial aid and by giving college aptitude tests, as well as, giving advice. Career awareness, helping students to be aware of open career opportunities is just one of Coach Williams' duties as counselor at OHS. He urges everyone to talk to him if they have a problem or need advice. He is available any time for the students to talk to him, and what is said is totally confidential. Coach Williams said, "I guess being able to talk with students and help them better themselves is one of the most enjoyable experiences I have had as counselor. I hope I can get these people started in the right direction."

As a student I would like to extend the student body's appreciation for what you are doing for us. Thanks and keep up the good work.

CUB VICTORIES
By-Stacy Chapman

Last Thursday night in Wall, the Ozona fighting Cubs proved themselves against the Wall Hawks. The 7th grade Cubs won the game 16-12. Beto Diaz ran the opening kick-off back for a touchdown. Coach Hood said, "The offense was led by Sam Hightower who was one of the players bringing the team to a victory."

The 8th grade smeared the Hawks with a 31-0 win. David Adams had the most touchdowns with two. Also scoring for the 8th grade were Diron Holt, Steve Sanchez, and John Tom Stokes. Coach Hood stated, "Their defense played extremely well! They rushed for 222 yards and passed for 134 yards. Chuy Hernandez kicked for the extra point." Thirteen passes were thrown with 8 completed for touchdowns. Coach Hood's overall view of the game was, "It was a well-played game. They controlled offensively and defensively for the Cubs." Next week the games will be here against Eldorado. The 7th grade game begins at 5:00 p.m. Thursday afternoon with the 8th grade game following. Good Luck Cubs!

LIONS CLIP HAWKS
By-Vicky Vargas

In the game against the Wall Hawks, the Lions led the game with a 14-7 victory, bringing their district record to 1-1.

"Credit is due to the whole football team for never losing composure; they played very competitively and never gave up. They are to be highly commended for their outstanding character and performance," stated Coach Don Sessom.

David Badillo and Robert Massey played an excellent defensive game. Between them, they intercepted four passes which kept the Hawks from scoring and set up touchdowns for the Lions. Ernie Borrego, Ernest Badillo, Thomas Gries, Mike Vallejo, Stanley Najjar, Ruben Perez, Kelly Buckner, Will Mason and Mike Couch also played a very good defensive game.

Offensively the Lions took advantage of two breaks and scored. The two touchdowns were made by Ernie Borrego and Greg Fierro. The extra points were made by Will Mason. Over-all the game was very exciting. Also adding to the offensive game were these outstanding Lion players: David Tijerina, Ruben Perez, Cater Villarreal, Santiago Lopez, Dale Perry, Kelly Buckner, Robert Massey, Varlyn Aldridge, Willie Payne, Harvey Huereca, Hector Leal and Greg Fierro.

"Keep up the good work. We still have a chance for a District Championship," stated Coach Sessom. Good Luck against the Eldorado Eagles next week. The game will be played Friday night in Eldorado at 7:30 p.m. Good Luck Lions. SUPPORT THE LIONS.

ORIENTATION AT ODESSA COLLEGE
By-Jana Harris

Twelve Ozona students joined several UIL participants from area school over West Texas for a UIL Orientation held at the Odessa College on Saturday, October 10.

We had students go in the following events: Ready-Writing, Poetry, Prose, Informative and Persuasive Speaking, Science, Calculator Application, Number Sense, One-Act Play, and Journalism.

"We were able to see a 3-Act play presented by the college and I think all the kids enjoyed the trip," said Mr. David Porter.

"I feel it was a very worthwhile day and the students picked up some useful things," said Porter.

There will be a Debate Workshop in Sonora on October 24, conducted by instructors from Baylor University. We need to support these Ozona Lions in any way that we can. Again anyone interested in participating in this phase of UIL competition should contact Coach David Porter.

LIONS RALLY PROUD
By-Erika Lee

Last Friday the pep rally was full of excitement. The cheerleaders led the school in several yells and chants. A skit was performed by the cheerleaders and four of the J.V. football players which were Jene W., Shannon S., Israel G., and Marcello H. Thanks to these guys for their help in building Lion spirit. The twirlers and band did a great job of supporting the Lions. Speeches were given by Coach Porter, Zeke M., Johnny R., Mike C., and Willie P. There are only four games left so let's all come out and cheer the Lions on to District 9-AA.

BIG SPRING MEET
By-Jana Harris

The girl's Cross Country team participated in a meet in Big Spring this Saturday.

"I was very pleased with the girls, they have shown great improvement," said Coach Debbie Deaton.

Ida and Lenore Munoz, Krystal Williams, and Jo Ann Hearne were the participants for Ozona.

How to retain color in vegetable cooking

Know why vegetables change colors in cooking and you'll have some ideas on how to obtain the colors you want, says Dr. Dymple Cooksey, a food and nutrition specialist.

Chemical compounds—pigments—in vegetables are responsible for their colors. Changes that these pigments undergo during cooking produce the finished-product colors, Cooksey says.

Vegetable pigments have three classes—chlorophylls, carotenoids and flavonoids.

Levels of acidity or alkalinity in cooking water determine whether the cooked vegetable color will be appealing or unappealing, the specialist explains.

Chlorophyll, the green pigment in all green vegetables, produces a drab olive-green color in vegetables if they are cooked in slightly acid water.

Keeping the fresh green color in these vegetables is probably the greatest problem in cooking vegetables.

You can combat the drab color by boiling vegetables uncovered for the first three minutes. That permits the escape of volatile organic acids present in vegetables, which, in turn, reduces the cooking water's acidity.

Don't add baking soda—an alkali—to green vegetables, however, to keep them fresh green. That destroys Vitamin C (ascorbic acid) and some B vitamins, and it has a not-so-appealing effect on texture and flavor.

Unfortunately, once the drab green color appears, nothing can be done to bring the fresh green back, Cooksey says.

Vegetables that contain large amounts of carotenoid pigments are those in a wide range of yellows and oranges.

These vegetables don't present color problems in ordinary food preparation.

Because the pigments are not water soluble—that is, these pigments will not dissolve in water—they won't dissolve out of foods cooked in water.

In addition, these pigments stay relatively unchanged in the presence of dilute acid or alkali.

You can cook these vegetables with a cover from start to finish and the color won't change.

Flavonoid pigments, the third class, actually contain two distinct groups of compounds.

Anthocyanin pigments give the "red" to beets, red cabbage, cherries, berries and plums.

Anthoxanthin pigments are contained in white potatoes, onions, cauliflower, turnips, salsify and parsnips. Anthoxanthin, colorless or white pigments, often are masked by other pigments in plants, but in those mentioned above, no masking occurs.

Here's how the red anthocyanin pigments work: if red cabbage is cooked in tap water, it turns blue or bluish-green, since most tap water is alkaline.

To offset this, add some acidic juice, such as lemon juice, to the cooking water, or cook the cabbage by a waterless method.

Some older cookbooks recommend cooking red cabbage with an apple, which can be a source of acid.

On the other hand, the colorless or white anthoxanthin pigments work this way: when white potatoes or cauliflower are cooked in tap water, they tend to become creamy white in color.

Most people are accustomed to this, so normal cooking methods don't present a problem, Cooksey says.

However, if the alkalinity of cooking water creates an unacceptable yellow color, add a small amount of acid during the last half of cooking to restore the white color.

Since no other food, except perhaps fruits, offers such a wealth of color variety for menus as vegetables, it is important to choose a cooking method for each that retains nutrients and enhances color.

Shawls good for fall

Excitement of Fall '81 fashion is captured in "The Big Sweep"—a voluminous oversized shawl—if you know how to wear it.

It's the perfect item for updating a wardrobe, creating a whole new look and adding warmth, she says.

Wear it "elegant" starts with a big paisley or challis shawl, measuring about 54 inches square. Fold it narrow and drape it over the shoulder of a blazer with the ends tucked into a belt. Here's a second way to wear a shawl—fold it in half diagonally, crossing two ends behind your neck.

Bring the shawl to the front and fasten bandanna style with a scarf ring or tie. This style can be worn over sweaters and shirts, and it resembles a vest.

For a "Foldloric" look to spice up a plain dress, fling a brightly patterned shawl over one shoulder and tie the two ends at the waist.

For chilly nights, wear the shawl around the shoulders to keep you warm and cozy. Knot the ends at the waist or slip them through a scarf ring.

New trooper to be assigned

Tommy Glynn Matthews, of San Angelo, has been commissioned as a Trooper with the Texas Department of Public Safety. Trooper

TROOPER MATTHEWS

Matthews, 24, has been assigned to the Highway Patrol Service and will be stationed at Ozona.

Matthews received his commission as a State of Texas law enforcement officer from Colonel Jim Adams, DPS director, in a graduation ceremony at DPS Headquarters in Austin.

Matthews completed a rigorous 18-week training course at the DPS Academy. The intensive course, recognized as one of the best programs of its kind in the U.S., included instruction in traffic law enforcement, accident investigation techniques, crime prevention, first aid, riot control and other subjects related to law enforcement.

"These men and women have been trained to deal with extremely sensitive, stressful and sometimes dangerous matters on a daily basis," said Colonel Adams. "But their foremost duty is to faithfully serve the citizens of Texas."

Approximately 200 persons undergo the special training and graduation from the DPS Academy each year.

Mrs. Hillery Phillips returned to Ozona Tuesday afternoon after spending several weeks in a San Angelo hospital.

DRIVER ED COURSES ARE NOT A CURE-ALL

High school driver education courses are useful in teaching youngsters the basics of safe driving, but it is unrealistic to expect the programs to turn out perfect drivers, says a safety education professor.

That's where driver education has gotten into trouble-by saying it can guarantee students won't have any accidents," said Dr. Maurice Dennis.

County receives state road funds

State Treasurer Warren G. Harding announced today that early next week $25,770,675.15 will be distributed to the 254 Texas counties. These funds are the Lateral Road Fund administered by the State Treasurer's office as allocated by the sixty-seventh legislature.

The Crockett County allocation is $99,861.04, and the funds will be used for the construction and improvement of county roads. The lateral road fund is comprised of monies derived from gasoline taxes collected at the pump. The county allocations are based on the county square mile area, the rural population, and the county lateral road mileage. Expenditures of the funds are reported by the counties to the State Treasurer.

Treasurer Harding stated that the distribution includes money appropriated for fiscal years 1980, 1981, and 1982, as well as interest earned on these funds.

Kitty's Korner

(Continued From Page 1) gave the Sooners another touchdown. I really didn't think anything could help poor old Texas. However, I was in for a pleasant surprise as they got it together and gave Oklahoma a good old Texas thrashing. It was 20-14 at the end of the third quarter, prompting Tom to groan "15 minutes of misery" as the fourth quarter began. That, of course, was the best quarter of all. And to put the icing on the cake, out of a stadium full of people the camera panned right over Jim and Debbie. We knew they were there, but thought it was quite a coincidence that we'd get a view of them on national television.

The Cowboy game Sunday dashed my hopes for a perfect football weekend and I don't plan to miss bridge to watch them play another Sunday this season. Several bridge players lay out on Sunday when the Cowboys are playing, but I don't believe it does a bit of good, and I would advise them to get back to the bridge table, where they are just as much help to the team. You can always find out the score at intervals and you can miss all that agony suffered during the game last Sunday by Cowboy fans all over the nation.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Jerry Lay

What was the biggest upset in the history of college football. Based on the point prediction? It was the Boston College-Holy Cross game of 1942. Boston College was the No. 1 ranked team in the nation at the time and were 28-point favorites to beat Holy Cross. But they lost by 43 points, 55-12, making it a 71-point difference from the predicted margin to the actual margin and making it the biggest upset in college history.

*****
One of the biggest jinxes in football is winning the "Coach of the Year" award in the National Football League. Strangely enough, All the men who won the "Coach of the Year" award between 1975 and 1979 were fired soon after Ted Marchibroda of Baltimore, Jack Pardee of Washington, Bum Phillips of Houston and Red Miller of Denver.

Did you know that only 2 college football players in history have ever gained over 1,000 yards rushing for 4 straight seasons (as freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors). The only 2 players ever to do it were Tony Dorsett of Pitt from 1973 through 1976, and Amos Lawrence of North Carolina from 1977 through 1980.
