Serviceman's Vote-Law Will Stand

AUSTIN (AP)—The State Supreme Court refused today to change a Texas constitutional provision preventing out-of-state servicemen stationed here from voting in the Lone Star State.

The ruling upholds a constitutional amendment, adopted in 1954, which states members of the armed forces may vote "only in the county in which they resided at the time of entering the service."

In 1960, census figures showed 162,355 military personnel serving in Texas, a figure representing 2 per cent of the total number of persons over 14 years old in the state.

The ruling was in a suit by an El Paso sergeant, Herbert Carrington, 36, who entered the Army in Jefferson County, Ala., in 1948.

Carrington contended that as an El Paso resident and taxpayer for two years he was entitled to vote there. Denial of that right violates the equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, he contended.

The state maintained the provision was aimed at "keeping control of government affairs in the hands of the civilian population."

Associate Justice Zollie Steakley wrote the court's majority opinion:

"We do not believe that a resident of another state upon entering the military service possesses a 'federal protected right' to vote in Texas elections while in the military service in whatever county or district in Texas to which he may elect to change his voting residence.

"The provision of the Texas Constitution does not result in the loss of the right of the nonresident to retain his voting privileges under the laws of the state of his residence when he entered the service.

"Its effect is only that a resident of another state entering military service cannot later give up his former residence and with it the right to vote in such state, and thereupon, while in the military service, acquire a voting residence in Texas."

Chief Justice Robert Calvert and Associate Justice Clyde Smith dissented.

Lull Reported In Battle At Kyrenia Pass

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Greek Cypriots held their fire today after the U.N. peace force commander denounced their drive to hurl the Turks from strategic Kyrenia Pass.

There was no indication how long the lull would last. U.N. observers reported relative quiet throughout the island.

The commander of the Greek Cypriot forces besieging St. Hilarion Castle said he had halted his drive to consolidate his position. Some of his forces were only 200 yards from the medieval fortress, a key to the Turkish-held Kyrenia Pass and the highway through it, which connects Nicosia with the north coast of Cyprus.

The Greek commander declared he could take the castle any time he wished with his 350 men. About 150 Turkish Cypriot fighters were believed in the castle and the area of the pass a mile to the west.

In Nicosia, where sporadic shooting between the Greek and Turkish Cypriot quarters is routine, only four shots were heard during the night.

Scranton, Lodge Win In Home-State Voting

Write-Ins Set Record In Penna.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton easily swept Pennsylvania's Republican presidential preference primary Tuesday, scoring a state record for write-in votes.

He said today, in a statement from his home at Dalton, that he was "astonished" by the size of his write-in and "certainly I am grateful to the men and women of Pennsylvania who have offered this expression of their confidence."

State GOP leaders had hoped for such a large write-in that the 46-year-old first-term governor would regard it as a popular clamor from his home state for him to become a presidential candidate.

Scranton, in his statement, kept to his position that he is not a candidate, saying: "I am astonished. I am not a candidate and have made this very plain. Since I repeated time after time that I was not a candidate, I expected few votes."

Scranton rolled up nearly 60 per cent of the Republican total for presidential preference.

With 8,442 of 9,261 precincts counted Scranton had 211,533; Henry Cabot Lodge 71,580; former Vice President Richard M. Nixon 33,219; Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona 29,307; Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York 6,496. Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine 447; Gov. George Romney of Michigan 417, and Harold E. Stassen 156.

None of the leading presidential candidates campaigned in the state, and no names were on the ballot.

The 21 per cent total polled by Lodge, U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam, was regarded as impressive by many observers.

The previous write-in record was 183,073 for the late President John F. Kennedy in 1960.

Goldwater Poor Second In Mass.

BOSTON (AP) — Massachusetts Republicans gave their favorite son, Henry Cabot Lodge, a resounding endorsement for the GOP nomination for president in Tuesday's primary.

Lodge topped Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona in the write-in vote in the preference column by a margin of better than 7 to 1 in incomplete returns. President Johnson topped the write-ins on the Democratic ballot.

In Saigon, South Viet Nam, where he is U.S. ambassador, Lodge said, "It means much to me that my fellow citizens of Massachusetts have shown this confidence in me." He declined further comment.

Ten delegates at large who favor Lodge were elected but results in the district delegate races were determined slowly.

Many communities stopped counting in late evening and resumed today. In New Bedford, counting is not scheduled to resume until Thursday.

Clerks complained about the long, unwielding ballots for both parties. There were more than 29,000 names on the party ballot in contests ranging from national convention delegates to town and ward committees.

One delegate favorable to Goldwater, Roger A. Moore of Boston, was elected without opposition. Like most of the delegate candidates, Moore ran officially uncommitted. Delegates are not committed to vote for the winner of the preference poll.

One of the top vote-getters on the Republican at-large slate was Lodge's son, George.

Lodge also won a surprising write-in vote on the Democratic ballot. President Johnson topped Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy by a 3-1 margin in Democratic write-ins. Lodge finished third.

The unofficial Republican presidential tabulation of 1,285 of 1,764 precincts gave: Goldwater 5,812; Lodge 43,872; former Vice President Richard M. Nixon 3,411; New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller 1,407; Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine 282.

The unofficial tally of the Democratic preferential poll gave: Johnson 34,318; Kennedy 8,848; Lodge 1,878.

The tally of scattered write-in votes from both ballots gave Gov. William W. Scranton, R-Pa., 564 and Gov. George Wallace, D-Ala., 128.

Churchmen Crusade For Race Equality

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders of the Protestant, Roman Catholic and Jewish faiths — pledged to a moral crusade for racial equality — carry their message today to President Johnson and to Capitol Hill.

They proclaimed it Tuesday night before more than 6,000 people at Georgetown University, declaring that enactment of a strong civil rights bill is the business of America's churches.

"We are embarked on a crusade that will not be ended until every American is given equal right, equal opportunities and full recognition of his human dignity," said the Most Rev. Patrick A. O'Boyle, Roman Catholic archbishop of Washington.

Five church leaders dedicated themselves to the crusade at the National Interreligious Convocation on Civil Rights.

Today, 150 churchmen of all faiths carry it to the White House for an appointment with President Johnson. The President sent to the convocation a message of praise for "those who are working for a country in which there shall be no discrimination."

On Capitol Hill, Protestant leaders scheduled the first in a series of worship services underscoring their concern about civil rights.

The services will be held daily at the Lutheran Church of the Reformation while the Senate is considering Johnson's broad civil rights bill.

"We feel that this is an issue where moral and spiritual factors should dominate the political process," Rabbi Uri Miller of Baltimore, president of the Synagogue Council of America, told the convocation.

Only a handful of the congressmen the churchmen hope to convince were at the gathering. Among them were the floor managers of the Johnson bill, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., and Sen. Thomas Kuchel R-Calif.

Hearing For Ruby Trial Is Recessed

By TOM JOHNSON

DALLAS (AP)—A hearing on a motion for a new trial for Jack Ruby convened briefly today and then recessed until 11 a.m. to permit the state to answer an amended motion filed late Tuesday.

Lawyers for the condemned killer claim in the amended motion that Ruby's murder trial was a "public pageant and spectacle" and the prosecution suppressed vital evidence.

Ruby, 53-year-old night club operator, was sentenced to the electric chair for killing Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

Before the hearing began his sisters, Mrs. Eva Grant and Mrs. Eileen Kaminsky, visited Ruby in a room behind the judge's bench.

Suddenly the sisters burst into the courtroom and Mrs. Grant cried: "He's so sick. He's so sick. Why can't you do something?"

She appeared to address the question to no one specifically. Mrs. Grant sat and sobbed.

Princess' Family Boycotts Wedding

ROME (AP) — Princess Irene of the Netherlands and Prince Carlos of Bourbon-Parma were married today in a wedding boycotted by the Dutch royal family, opposed by the Dutch government and ignored by Generalissimo Francisco Franco's Spanish regime.

The headstrong Dutch princess and the Carlist pretender to the Spanish throne exchanged vows in the Borghese chapel of Rome's Basilica of St. Mary Major before Paolo Cardinal Giobbe, a former papal nuncio to the Netherlands.

The chapel was filled with titled nobility, supporters of the Carlist cause and Dutch visitors to Rome. But no ruling member of a royal house was present, and Franco sent no representative.

The romance of the blonde, 25-year-old princess and the thin, balding 34-year-old prince had been buffeted for months by controversy stemming from religion and his position as claimant to the throne from the Carlist branch of Spanish monarchists.

Irene's conversion to the prince's Roman Catholic faith caused a sensation in the Netherlands, whose royal family is traditionally Protestant.

The princess also renounced her right of succession to the Dutch throne—she was next in line behind Princess Beatrix—and publicly espoused her future husband's campaign for the vacant Spanish throne.

There was widespread belief in the Netherlands that the Bourbon-Parma family was trying to use the marriage to bolster its claim in Spain. The Dutch government vetoed a big wedding in Holland.

The Bourbon-Parmas, who live in France, chose Rome for the wedding as neutral territory. The Dutch government put pressure on Queen Juliana and her family not to attend to keep them out of Spanish politics. Irene became a virtual exile from her homeland.

Irene and Carlos insisted in an interview last week that mother and daughter were still devoted and that Juliana did not oppose their marriage. Informed circles in the Hague said Irene's wedding gown was a gift from her mother.

A spokesman for the Bourbon-Parma family said Irene and Carlos would fly to Madrid after the wedding and later go to the Holy Land for a honeymoon.

Johnson Predicts Future Tax Cuts

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP) — Less than two months after an $11.5-billion income tax reduction went on the books, President Johnson has held out the prospect of trimming taxes still further—but not for a few years.

"It is still too early to make firm promises on further tax cuts," Johnson said in remarks prepared for a dinner attended by many of the nation's business leaders Tuesday night.

"But if this one is a success—as I have every reason to believe it will be—in building production, creating jobs, raising profits, and generating revenues to balance the budget, then I see another tax cut a few years down the road," the President continued.

But he cautioned: "We can move to this second round of tax reduction only if we behave ourselves this year."

On the heels of his warm reception Monday from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce convention, Johnson invited more than 50 corporation presidents and board chairmen and their wives to the private White House dinner.

"For as long as I am president," he told them, "the leaders of industry and finance are going to be welcome in this house."

He said that "to sit down and exchange views with you from time to time is vital to the health of our free enterprise economy."

The President has announced plans for a similar dinner early next month with top labor union officials.

The President said it was up to business and labor to prevent costs and prices from creeping upward.

Urging the business leaders to keep a tight rein on prices, he said that when he dines with labor leaders, "I will tell them that I know they don't want to push so hard for wage increases this year that they would hurt a lot of people and start a spiral going from their side."

Johnson said he hopes business and labor can "emulate the railroad people" who last week settled their five-year-old dispute and prevented a nationwide rail strike.

Noting that the recent tax cut reduced corporation levies by one-fifth, Johnson said, "We have done this in an administration some people have called 'anti-business'."

Actually, Johnson went on, 'we are pro-business—and pro-labor and pro-the national interest."

New Trial Ordered In Bribery Case

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial today for L. D. Murphy, convicted of conspiring to commit bribery in connection with a test of an Upshur County oil well being surveyed for slant drilling.

The ruling nullified a two-year prison sentence given the former railroad commission district engineer.

The high court's opinion said the state failed to produce sufficient evidence to corroborate testimony by Robert Mathews, a Murphy employe in the commission's Kilgore office that Murphy conspired with E. W. Scates of Longview to bribe him.

Jury Seating Goes Slowly

CHICAGO (AP) — Questioning of prospective jurors in the fraud and conspiracy trial of James R. Hoffa entered the third day today with only four tentatively accepted.

Ninety-six others of the first panel of 100 veniremen were excused from hearing the government's case against the Teamsters Union president and seven codefendants. The reasons ranged from ulcers to prejudice.

Even the four now in the jury box could still be excused by peremptory challenges from both sides. In two days of sometimes heated wrangling the defense has used up six of its 18 challenges and the government has used one of its six.

Judge Richard B. Austin said another panel of 100 veniremen would be called up today. A third panel was waiting in the wings.

School Is Integrated Despite Fire

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A federal court which warned that violence cannot frighten away integration, has ordered six Negroes put back in school at Notasulga.

The high school wing of Notasulga's three-building complex was destroyed by fire April 18, two months after Negro pupils broke the color barrier and touched off a mass boycott by white pupils.

But the adjoining white grammar school and auditorium escaped damage. The three-judge court Tuesday ordered facilities made available for the Negroes in one of those buildings no later than Thursday.

The court took judicial notice of newspaper stories which quoted the chief state fire marshal, Virgil Kitchens, s saying the fire apparently was started by arson.

Says Righters Would Destroy Labors

NEW YORK (AP) — Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy says certain civil rights leaders are conspiring to destroy the effectiveness of his department.

He said in a speech Tuesday at a meeting of the Engineer's Club that indiscriminate allegations of police brutality are subjecting policemen to a "campaign of mass libel."

McLENDON, YARBOROUGH

Senator's Race Takes Spotlight

By PEGGY SIMPSON
Associated Press Writer

Gordon McLendon plans a statewide television speech tonight, the third round of a dramatic battle with U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough involving an alleged $50,000 gift from Billie Sol Estes to the senator and charges that McLendon was a liar and a bankrupt.

The bitterness of the race between the two Democratic candidates for the Senate has overshadowed other campaigns, where candidates are racing to reach as many voters as possible before Saturday's primary.

Yarborough produced two Pecos area farmers Tuesday night who told a statewide television audience they were with the senator during his entire Pecos trip of 1960 and that he received no $50,000 from Estes, convicted swindler and former agricultural kingpin in West Texas.

The telecast was Yarborough's answer to a McLendon telecast last Saturday, in which two witnesses said they saw Estes give the senator an envelope which they said contained $50,000 in cash.

McLendon, a Dallas radio executive, had no immediate reply to his opponent's program but vowed to "defend myself and my family" tonight from Yarborough's charges that he was a liar and a bankrupt.

On the telecast Tuesday night, originating from Houston, Pecos farmers W. J. Worsham and J. B. Kirklin said they would willingly take lie detector tests to repeat their statements that Yarborough did not receive $50,000 from Estes. McLendon's witnesses, Ernest Keeton, retired Negro Army sergeant from Pecos, and Midland Policeman James E. Fonville, had said

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 20 years old and have three kids. My oldest will be three in February. My husband I are separated and we are getting a divorce. I met this other man, Abby. He lives across the street from me and we have been seeing each other. He is a good man, and I love him. My problem is that he loves me and my two children, but he can't stand my oldest son. He says if I give this boy to his father, he will marry me as soon as my divorce comes through. I just can't see myself giving away any of my children. I asked my mother, and she agreed with him. Now I am turning to you.

YOUNG MOTHER

DEAR YOUNG: A "good" man would not ask a mother to give away one of her children. Nor would a "good" man find a three - year - old too much to stand. Don't rush into a second marriage with this man, or ny other, or you will find ourself 21 years old with TWO illures.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I recently married a young man who has two married brothers. Their wives call their mother-in-law "Mother." I saw my mother-in-law only twice before I married her son, and she is still a comparative stranger to me, so I find it impossible to call her "Mother." I simply avoid calling her anything. My own mother is still living, and I can't bring myself to call anyone else "Mother." My mother - in - law has asked me to call her "Mother." I don't want hard feelings, but I'm not the insincere type. Should I force myself to call her "Mother"?

TROUBLED

DEAR TROUBLED: Call her Mom." Meanwhile, here's hoping you become a mother soon. Then you can get around your problem by calling her "Grandma."

• • •

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago a very dear friend of mine passed away. Shortly afterwards her daughter brought me a large box of her mother's clothes, as we were about the same size. Abby, my friend had lots of lovely clothes and I could surely use them as we have a large family and my husband hasn't worked steady for a long time due to illness. But I keep thinking, what if I should meet the poor husband or one of the children on the street, and they saw me wearing their dear mothers' clothes. Would it not give them a heartache? I wouldn't hurt them if I had to go around in rags. Do you think I really ought to wear these things?

A FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: The daughter, I am sure, expressed the feelings of the entire family when she brought the clothes to you. Wear them with the assurance that you are doing the right thing.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: You should quit telling your readers at the foot of your column to "Get it off your chest." Don't you know that teenagers are trying to get it ON their chests, not OFF?

In El Paso, McLendon kept live the civil rights issue, challenging Yarborough to announce where he stood on the measure. 'It's not enough for Smilin' Ralph to say he will wait until he bill is on the Senate floor," McLendon said. "The people of Texas want to know where he tands before May 2," the primary election date.

Jack Cox, Republican candiate for Senate, urged conservaves to ignore a plea from some emocrats to vote in the Democratic primary. "If you are a onservative and you want that oice of yours to be heard, as I see it, there is only one party for you to vote in and that is the Republican primary." Cox lso called the administration's war on poverty "politically imed and politically motiated" to affect the 1964 elecons.

Another GOP Senate candiate, George Bush, said voters ould select a candidate "who onducts an aggressive, serious ampaign." He said he has orked "long and hard, not only n my own behalf, but for Sen. Barry) Goldwater too."

Gov. John Connally made his first 1964 campaign trip to a local courthouse, climbing on a chair in the Houston City Hall and asking to be kept in his job for two more years. Tuesday night, he spoke at a dinner honoring Houston attorney Leon Jaworski and listed three fields of challenge and opportunity—attacks on all diseases, poverty and hunger, and ever-improving education.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith said his main point in campaigning for re-election is fiscal responsibility, which he said he has advocated since he has been a public official.

In Wichita Falls, Democrat Dan Sullivan said an opponent in his race for congressman-at-large won't take a stand on medical care for the aged. Sullivan said Robert Baker, Democrat, "won't accept my challenge because if he endorsed medical care for the aged, the vested interests would start pulling down his billboards tomorrow morning."

Baker said in Houston he has been endorsed by seven daily newspapers, Houston Mayor Louis Welch and former Houston Mayor Lewis Cutrer.

Herbs Were Topic At Club Meet

The Snyder Garden Club met recently at the Martha Ann Woman's Club with Miss Myrtle Harrell as hostess.

During the business meeting it was announced that Mrs. Gene Best and Mrs. Richard Brice were the club's newest National Flower Show judges.

Mrs. Jay Huckabee reported on the state annual Spring Convention which was held in Austin on April 7-8-9. At this time, Mrs. Huckabee and Mrs. Edith McKanna became life members of Texas Garden Clubs and were presented life membership ribbons.

Mrs. John O'Banion gave a delightful program on "Herbs for Kitchen Gardening," saying in part: "This is a subject that should appeal both to those who like to garden and those who like to cook. There are those to whom beauty is an end in itself and one of the items stressed in all articles on herbs is the artistic effect that can be achieved when these herbs are interspersed in our flower beds, both as accent and background.

"To begin with, Websters dictionary defines a herb as a seed plant which does not develop woody, persistent tissue, as that of a shrub or tree, but is more or less soft or succulent and is used for its medicinal qualities or for its sweet scent or flavor.

"A few choice herbs in window boxes or spots are all that are needed to give your meals the flavor and fragrance of the cuisine of a French restaurant.

"Some of the more ordinary herbs are: parsley, chives, mint, majoram, rosemary, basil, dill and fennel." Mrs. O'Banion then gave the story of myths and mint by Walter Fevro.

Mrs. Harold P. Brown and Mrs. John Hamblen exhibited arrangements interpreting their favorite poem or story.

Mrs. G. W. Hicks gave a program on "What Makes America Great," stressing that we should be proud of our Foreign Service, Peace Corp., etc. She gave reasons why we as USA are so criticized, and to try to apply some of these things to our every day living, which in turn will lead to higher understanding among all people.

"We can be proud of our artists. The cold was is being fought on a new front, where the battlers are musicians, actors, and dancers and victories are won in friendship and admiration," she said. In a review from an article by Sophie Kerr, she said that what makes America great is its vast unquenchable generosity.

Tigers Trip Ponies, 7-5

The victory moved the Tigers back into a first place tie with the idle Colorado City Wolves in the District 3-AAA standings. Both teams have won 5 and lost 1.

The Mustangs had just one big inning, but it was good for five runs and enough to send the game into overtime. The Tigers started off swinging as Mack Galyean rapped a single to lead off the first. After Rob Hall walked, Galyean came home on Leslie Brown's single.

Sweetwater got its break in the second inning. Although the Ponies got only two hits in that frame, two walks and a pair of Tiger eorrors helped account for five runs.

The Tigers launched their catch-up effort in the fourth when Jim Marcum's double drove in Leslie Brown and Jay Williamson, both of whom had singled. Marcum then scored on Kenny Gay's single.

Lefty Rob Hall came in from centerfield to relieve righthander J. N. Wall in the fourth and the Tiger southpaw literally slammed the door in the Mustangs 'faces. The Sweetwater crew had only five base runners spread over the last six innings, all of them getting life on walks.

The Tigers got the tying run in the sixth when Wall, then playing left field, doubled after two were out. Gay then lashed his second successive single, Wall stopping at third. Martin Benitez rapped a one-baser to send Wall across the plate.

Three bases on balls in the top of the ninth led to the downfall of the Mustangs. With the sacks jammed, Benitez drove out another single to send Brown and Williamson home, and the Tigers were ahead for the first time since the second inning.

The Tigers out-hit the Ponies, 10-4, and the only extra base blows in the ball game were the crucial doubles by Marcum and Wall.

The Mustangs have now won one and lost six in district play.

Ags Regain League Lead

By The Associated Press

The Texas Aggies regained their Southwest Conference baseball lead Tuesday by walloping the Rice Owls 11-4.

The Aggies are now 9-2 in conference competition, half a game ahead of the idle Baylor Bears who have an 8-2 record.

Meanwhile, the Texas Longhorns fought to stay in the race by blasting the Southern Methodist Mustangs 7-2. Texas is now 8-3 in conference play.

The Aggies scored four runs in the first inning, three in the second and one in the third to take command of Tuesday's game and then held their lead behind the excellent relief pitching of John Crain who allowed only one hit in four innings.

Texas racked up three runs in the first inning to assure the victory. Bob Myer went the distance for the Longhorns, scattering five hits and striking out nine. The victory avenged an identical 7-2 loss to the Mustangs last week.

Southwest Conference play resumes Friday with Texas Christian host to Texas at Fort Worth and Baylor meeting Texas A&M at College Station.

Texas Golf Team Loses First Match

By The Associated Press

The University of Texas golf team lost its first Southwest Conference match of the season Tuesday, bowing to Texas Christian 4-2 at Fort Worth.

At Waco, Baylor linksmen defeated the Rice squad 4-2 in another conference match.

Texas Tech, which has completed its season, leads the conference race with Texas in second place.

The season winds up this weekend with Southern Methodist at Rice and Texas A&M at Texas Friday and Baylor playing Arkansas at Fayettville Saturday.

Red Newsman Expelled

OTTAWA (AP) — The Canadian government has ordered a Soviet newsman out of the country, charging he tried to buy secret data on a Canadian industrial process.

Foreign Secretary Paul Martin told the House of Commons that police-arrested Vasily Tarasov, correspondent for the Soviet government paper Izvestia, when he tried to bribe a government employe Monday night.

Martin said the civil servant involved went to police as soon as Tarasov made his first overtures, and Canadian interests were not harmed. Police made the arrest when they caught him accepting documents.

Authorities said there was no indication that Tarasov, 35, worked for a Soviet spy ring.

The Texas Longhorns will be utilizing two football players in their bid—Ernie Koy and Jim Hudson. Koy will hurl the shot put and Hudson will be entered in discus, shot put and javelin events.

At Dallas, Southern Methodist is expected to feature its top sprinters—Billy Foster and John Roderick, both of whom have done the 100-yard dash in 9.4 this season. Roger Hunt of TCU and Rex Garvin of Baylor are expected to star in the 880-yard run while Ronnie Biffle of Texas Tech is favored in the hurdles.

Hard-Luck Ken Johnson Crosses Plate In Vain

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ken Johnson, who lost a no-hitter 1-0 in his last start, now has crossed home plate but he still hasn't scored.

There was Johnson perched on third base in the third inning of what was to become a 3-1 loss to Los Angeles Tuesday night. He was trailing 1-0 and thinking how nice it would be if the Houston Colts would score a run for him. It had been 13 innings and one no-hitter down the drain since he'd seen some batting support.

Al Spangler lifted a fly ball and Johnson anxiously tagged up. It looked like the hard-luck hurler was finally going to get a run and, in addition he was going to score it himself.

But suddenly the Los Angeles Dodgers were all around umpire Vinnie Smith and he was nodding his head. The seldom-seen appeal play had worked. Johnson, in his anxiety to get a run, had left third base too soon and was doubled up.

So, the Colt pitcher still trailed 1-0. Dodger starter Joe Moeller protected the slim margin built on Maury Wills' first-inning single and Willie Davis' triple into the seventh when the Colts finally scored.

Jerry Grote's triple and a squeeze bunt broke the runless spell which had stretched 17 innings for Johnson. But the shock of a run on the scoreboard must have proved too much.

Dick Tracewski led off the Dodger eighth with a triple and after injured Tommy Davis batted for Moeller and flied out, Wills delivered the go - ahead run with a double. Wally Moon's single made it 3-1 and knocked out Johnson, who now knows what it's like to get a run and lose.

In other National League games Tuesday night, St. Louis blanked New York 8-0, Philadelphia topped Cincinnati 4-2 and Milwaukee outlasted Pittsburgh 9-5. San Francisco and Chicago were rained out.

In the American League, Dick Stuart's grand - slam homer gave Boston a 6-4 victory in 11 innings over Baltimore, Minnesota outslugged Cleveland 9-8 in 10 innings, Kansas City downed Detroit 5-1 and the Los Angeles Angels edged Washington 2-1. The Chicago-New York Yankees game was rained out.

Moeller, who went seven innings, turned in the third straight strong performance for the Dodgers pitching staff which now has allowed just one run in the last 27 innings. Bob Miller blanked the Colts in the last two frames.

It was the fifth victory in 14 starts for the defending world champions who still trail the Phillies by five games in the NL race.

Philadelphia got a 4-for-5 performance by rookie sensation Richie Allen to beat the Reds. Allen clubbed a homer, triple and two singles as Art Mahaffey won his first game.

Pitcher Gary Peters paced the Chicago White Sox in seven categories in 1963.

U. S. Cagers Nip Brazil

LIMA, Peru (AP)—The U.S. women's basketball team, led by Rita Horky of Nashville, came from behind to defeat Brazil 51-43 Tuesday night in the World Tournament.

Miss Horky scored 15 points, high for the game, and directed the U.S. attack that overcame a 24-23 halftime deficit. Betty Searles, Rita's teammate at Nashville Business College, came off the bench and controlled the backboards in the second half.

The victory was the American girls' second in three games of the seven-nation championship round robin. Bulgaria routed Peru 79-44 in another third-round game.

ALWAYS TAKING THE FUN OUT OF LIFE

Johnson Is Also Adept At Projection Of Personality

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has now talked enough to provide a reasonable comparison with President John F. Kennedy, and not only as a talker.

Kennedy was distinguished from the beginning of his presidency—in fact, from his inaugural address—by idealism about the possibilities of American life. The same is true of Johnson.

But there is an acute difference in the expression of that idealism.

Kennedy had a better aesthetic sense, as his use of language showed. It appealed not only to intellectuals and young people but to literate people of all ages, for the phrases were memorable, sometimes elegant.

In return he got a sort of national gratitude—judging from the increasingly warm response when he was alive and since then the pilgrimages to his grave—for an eloquence unmatched in the presidency since Franklin D. Roosevelt.

He expressed what many felt but could not say and in words better than perhaps most could have commanded. His speeches showed a lot of homework, sometimes too much.

For sometimes they were too literary, too worked over, too selfconscious, as if in trying to make his sentences bleed he had drained the red corpuscles out of them, leaving more shine than substance.

He worked one literary habit to death: the use of contrasts. Used carefully and sparingly the effect can be brilliant, as it was in, "Ask not what your country can do for you but what you can do for your country."

It is not an easy technique to use since it gets monotonous when overdone and sounds like wheels spinning.

In general what he said was much better than how he said it. There was too much monotone, not enough range, not enough inflection. And his gesturing while emphatic was unimaginative: the right hand endlessly poking the air.

Johnson's whole performance is different. He is anything but the literary man, as he would probably be the first to admit since he seems to pride himself on his earthiness.

With a prepared talk he's not in Kennedy's class. He is far better off the cuff. In the first place, he has made a fetish of short sentences, letting each in turn stand as a paragraph. It makes for easy speaking but has its drawbacks.

It prevents a rounded flow and development of ideas by forcing abrupt sentence stops every few words. It certainly shuts the door on the kind of contrasts Kennedy liked so much.

Much more than Kennedy, Johnson tries for inflection. But the result is seldom good. As he goes along in a prepared speech he will drop his voice, almost to a whisper, in such an obvious effort toward solemnity that the result is disturbing.

But Johnson is far more down to earth than Kennedy ever was. He has some humor, mostly in the form of homely and even corny anecdotes, although none of Kennedy's wit.

Yet, there was always a slight barrier between Kennedy and his audience, perhaps an intellectual and aristocratic aloofness. There is not a shred of that in Johnson. He mingles. And deliberately spends his time trying to.

Read almost anything he says. It's close up, in the common language, like this phrase Tuesday night: "This is one country, one society, and one people."

With all this said the most important point — the common bond between the two men—remains: the attempt by both of them to provide inspirational leadership in insisting upon the promise of American life.

It is extraordinary that this should occur in two presidents in succession. It hasn't happened before in this century. Perhaps because foreign anguish and anxieties have diminished a bit, the two men could think more about home.

Now Let's Be Kind To Fat People

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Isn't it about time we had a Be Kind to Fat People Day in this country?

Early next month Americans will celebrate the golden anniversary of national Be Kind to Animals Week.

Animals have done much to lighten and brighten and entertain the human journey. But so have fat people.

Yet one group is appreciated and the other group is not.

Laws protect animals. No legislation exists to protect fat people. You can tease, abuse and torment fat people mercilessly, and a policeman will simply look the other way—or join in the laughter.

This is because animals have better public relations. They have a powerful lobby working for them in Washington. The fat man has no such lobby.

Amateur psychologists tell the fat man his avoirdupois is a sign of emotional insecurity. Pretty girls pat his tummy, but prefer to marry some reed-shaped male oaf because he is more agile on a dance floor, or fits better into a tiny sports car.

Corporations hesitate to give the fat man executive promotion because he is held to be a poor health risk. Under this theory Benjamin Franklin, a man who never counted his calories but lived well into his 80s, would have spent his life as an underpaid code clerk in the U.S. State Department.

Throughout history, the fat man has served as a symbol of jollity, plenty and dignity, a symbol of mankind's victory over one of its arch enemies—hunger.

Would any of us, child or adult, love Santa Clause any better if he went on a diet and wound up with a figure like that of Cary Grant?

The fat man is usually good-natured and rarely picks a quarrel because he needs his energy for more useful purposes. On the other hand he won't run away from a fight. He can't. At best he only waddles away.

In the consumer economy upon which American civilization must thrive or die, the fat man is our foremost patriot. It takes more cloth to make him a suit, more leather to make his shoes, more polish to keep those shoes shined.

What is the best way you can show how much you appreciate a fat person?

Why not take one to lunch, a seven-course lunch? When you pick up the check, you may not feel better, but he will. And that's the general idea.

Junior Editors Quiz on OCEANS

QUESTION: Why do some parts of the sea look light and other parts dark?

• • •

ANSWER: If you put your head under water where the sea was deep and looked down, it would look dark, showing that sea water, when deep enough, really is dark. But as we usually look at it, from a boat or the rocks (top picture) there will be brilliant patches of light; sometimes the whole ocean will seem like a glittering surface of silver. Why is this?

Remember that the surface of water is shiny, like a mirror, or any other smooth surface which reflects the light. The upper picture shows why the water surface Cathy and her brother are looking at seems light—it is reflecting the light from the sky just as a mirror would do if it were in the same place and at the same angle. Light comes to a mirror from one angle (the angle of incidence) and bounces off it from the same angle on the opposite side (angle of reflection). With the help of these angles and the water's mirror-like surface, the bright light of the sky is reaching Cathy's eye. But in the lower picture the water surface has tilted up; the sky reflection bounces off at too low an angle to reach Cathy. As a result, she is looking directly into the water itself, which is why it looks dark.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Take a small hand mirror outside, hold it face up in an open spot without trees. The mirror will reflect the sky and look light. Now slowly turn the mirror over. The light will die out; the angle of reflection is getting too low to reach your eye.

Multimillionaire Began With Idea

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—In 1961, Henry Reichman had an idea and was $20,000 in debt.

Today he is a multimillionaire.

Reichman made his quick fortune because people like to play games.

He has devised games which are played by supermarket customers for cash prizes.

His first game was Spell C-A-S-H and it went over with a bang.

Reichman estimates that he has sold a billion game cards to supermarkets in the last three years.

The games, like trading stamps, are intended to be trade stimulators in the highly competitive supermarket business.

"We have created the only new trend in the supermarket business since stamps were introduced," said Reichman in an interview.

"In two and one-half years we have developed a business in which supermarkets have spent $10 million on my games alone."

Reichman has lots of competition but claims to dominate 80 per cent of the field.

Reichman was born in 1907 in Germany of a well-to-do family and came to the United States in 1929. He worked as a promoter in the supermarket field with varied success until he turned to games in 1961.

He says he believed that the only kind of game that had a chance against stamps had to involve cash.

Spell C-A-S-H was tested in September and October in Dayton, Ohio, he says.

The deal stipulated the store would have to supply a written report by a certified public accountant detailing the success and increases of customer count and sales.

"In that way, any chain I went to would have something in their hands that would be respected by everybody," he said.

Reichman's first real break came when Jewel Tea of Chicago decided they would use his game to fight A&P's linkage with Plaid Stamps.

"This was the day I knew I would make a minimum of a million in the next six months," Reichman recalls.

Gulf Mineral Rights Sell

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Over $60 million for mineral rights to disputed water bottoms in the Gulf of Mexico was accepted by federal and state Tuesday. The $60,340,622 covers rights to 32,675 under-water acres.

The money will be put in the tidelands escrow fund, which now totals more than $600 million. The money will stay in the fund until a decision is reached concerning the boundary line between state and federal ownership.

Tuesday's bids included one by Gulf Oil and Phillips Petroleum companies of $13,113,000 for 1,250 acres—$10,490 per acre. This was believed the highest bid ever made for offshore mineral rights.

California Oil bid $10,715,000 for 2,497 acres.

US Plans Explosion Of Missile

By HAROLD R. WILLIAMS

HOUSTON (AP) — The U.S. will deliberately destroy a missile early next month high over White Sands Missile Range, N.M.

Information learned from the exploding missile could save astronauts' lives in future spaceship launchings.

Destroying the missile is part of the Little Joe II testing of the escape system for the Apollo moonship.

The explosion, 22,000 feet above the southern New Mexico desert, promises to be one of the most spectacular tests in the series.

The Little Joe II missile and the simulated Apollo spacecraft, which includes boilerplate models of the command and service modules, weigh more than 28 tons.

More than 2,000 miles away at Cape Kennedy, Fla., a 190-foot tall Apollo Saturn I vehicle will blast off about a week after the White Sands test.

The giant Saturn I and spacecraft will weigh more than 500 tons and have a thrust of approximately 1.5 million pounds from eight liquid propellant rocket engines.

The Little Joe II has more than 300,000 pounds of thrust from seven solid-fuel engines. The missile will lift the spacecraft four miles in slightly more than 30 seconds.

On a signal from the ground, prima-cord explosives will rip the casings from the missile's engines. Almost at the same instant, the Apollo command module, which will hold the three Apollo astronauts for their trip to the moon, will separate from the service module.

Mili-seconds later the motor on the escape tower will fire and carry the 4½ ton command module another 6,000 feet into the sky.

Explosive bolts will free the command module from the escape tower at 28,000 feet. A Drogue parachute will spring from the spacecraft, stabilizing it.

Seconds later, three 88-foot, red and white parachutes will open and carry the command module to the ground at a rate of 24 feet per second.

The test is to determine if the escape system works when the missile is flying at top speed and if the escape system has enough rocket power to lift the command module to safety from an exploding missile.

The modules are exact replicas of the command and service vehicles that will be used in this country's lunar mission later this decade. They will contain no instruments but will be of the approximate weight of the actual spacecraft.

The test is the third in the Little Joe II series. The first was of the missile itself, and the second was a pad abort test of the escape tower rockets firing to lift the command module to safety.

Both were successes, with the minor exception of the missile failing to act on a radio signal to destroy itself in the first test.

Man's Body Found In Lavaca Bay

PORT LAVACA (AP) — The body of Jesus Nuncio, 38, of Houston was found floating Tuesday night in the downtown portion of Lavaca Bay. Police held a 24-year-old man for questioning and ordered an autopsy.
