Flu Epidemic Strikes C-City

Flu epidemic which began in Colorado City just before Christmas is now fairly widespread, according to a check with local doctors.

Most of the cases under treatment, said one doctor questioned, have attacked adults of all ages. Comparatively few children are under treatment so far, he added.

From all indications, said the physician, the current seige of flu seems to be of the Hong Kong strain, long predicted in epidemic form for Texas in late December and January.

"There is no discernible difference in the flu we are seeing and in what people call the old-fashioned flu," he said in answer to a question from the Colorado City Record.

There is no Hong Kong flu vaccine available at this time in Colorado City the doctor stated.

Root Memorial Hospital was full to the overflowing point late Friday, said a hospital spokesman.

Extra beds had to be set up in the hospital lobby Thursday as flu patients continued to need hospitalization.

All hospital rooms are full at this time, with the peak noted Thursday.

As fast as patients recover enough to be dismissed, new flu victims are being admitted for treatment, said the hospital office.

Voting Line
Only 1,600 Register

Voter registration, which opened Oct. 1, 1968, will end at midnight Friday, Jan. 31 the deadline date, according to Montie Hardegree, Mitchell County tax-assessor-collector.

Up to 2 p.m. Friday, Jan. 3, a total of 1,600 Mitchell County citizens had already registered here, Hardegree said.

"That number is a lot better than usual at this date on a non-election year," he noted.

Total voting strength in 1968, general election year, was 4130 registration figures show.

All citizens who expect to be a qualified Texas voter in 1969 must register by Jan. 31 at midnight either in person or by requesting proper forms by mail.

Information concerning the simple procedure for registering as a qualified voter can be had at the tax-assessor-collector's office.

Foundation To Push Brush Control Study

A new organization, Brush Control and Range Management Foundation, has been formed to provide funds for increased research on range improvement.

The Foundation will accent studies of brush invasion, one of the state's major agriculture problems, according to Bobby Lemons, Mitchell County Agriculture Agent.

Money collected will permit more basic research and education on brush control, the agent said, noting that the Foundation hopes to obtain one cent per acre from each cooperating land owner each year for a five year period.

Foundation funds will support basic experiments and field trials on the various methods of control. There also will be follow-up studies on range improvement. Activities will supplement extensive studies already underway at Texas A&M University, Texas Technological College and the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

John Matthews, prominent Abilene area rancher, is foundation chairman, Bill Donnell of Marathon is vice chairman and Robb Brown of Throckmorton is secretary.

The group is selecting district chairmen and county leaders will be named to organize local efforts.

In announcing the foundation's formation Lemons said that nearly 82 percent of Texas range has been invaded by brush. That reduces animal carrying capacity by half or more, he said.

Lemons said the program has the enthusiastic support of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Assn., Texas Farm Bureau and the Texas Farmers Union.

On Trip Home From Thailand
Airman Cools Off 81 Degrees

Master Sergeant R. L. (Mike) Mikle arrived home from his year's assignment in Thailand, Dec. 31, in time to celebrate the New Year's holiday with his Colorado City family.

M-Sgt. Mikle, veteran of 22 1/2 years with the United States Air Force, has been stationed at Takhli, town 130 miles southeast of Bangkok, capital city of Thailand, formerly Siam.

There in Takhli he was with the 355th Attack Fighter Wing located at the Fourth TAC, Royal Thai base. The 355th has been supporting Air Force bomber flying missions over Vietnam.

"Takhli was just a very small village until the air base," M-Sgt. Mikle said.

American men attached to the American portion of the base live in small, long and narrow buildings built on stilts. Each "hooch" housed two men.

As a senior non commissioned officer M-Sgt. Mikle took his meals in the NCO dining quarters. There were, too, approved restaurants Air Force men could visit in the downtown area. Rice is the chief Thai food and is the major agriculture product of Thailand.

The returned sergeant describes the climate in Thailand as hot and extremely humid.

"When I left Bangkok the temperature there was 94 degrees," he said. "When we reached Japan it was 40 degrees. Landing in San Francisco we found it to be 37 degrees, Dallas registered 21 degrees, and it was 13 degrees above zero when I reached Abilene," he smiled.

His return trip to the States required 16 hours actual flying time. Because of the crossing of the international dateline, he arrived in Abilene 3 hours and 25 minutes after he left Bangkok, the same day, having lost a day enroute.

M-Sgt. Mikle, he says, considers Thailand a beautiful, colorful country and, aside from being separated from his wife and children, he enjoyed his stay there. The king's palace and the temples are elaborately beautiful. Modern houses are gradually being built to replace the "hooch."

The people are small, courteous, and ruled by a dynasty King and Queen. They worship Buddha and still accept polygomy as natural and practical.

Mikle saw much of Southeastern Asian country, traveling by jeep with Air Force companions during his off-duty hours and days.

Foreign duty is not new to the Air Force career sergeant. He has served with the Air Force in the Philippines, in France, in Germany, and twice in England where his family spent two years and three months with him.

His wife is the former Miss Melba Morgan, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Morgan. Until Jan. 1 she was employed while her husband was away as an announcer for Radio Station KVMC in Colorado City.

The Mikles have three children, Elaine, 14, Steve, 12, and Billy, 10, who was born in England. Mikle is son of Mrs. J. W. Mikle and the late Mr. Mikle.

He has one more year to serve

Beer Haul
177 Cases Taken From Man, Wife's 2 Pickups

Officers hauled in one of the biggest loads of beer in years Friday night.

One hundred seventy-seven cases of beer were taken from two pickup trucks traveling in convoy near Westbrook.

Arrested with the twin loads were a husband and wife from Nolan County, only occupants in the pickups.

Deputy Sheriffs Roy Richard and Forrest Smith discovered the beer — uncovered in the pickups — when they stopped the man and woman on a Farm-to-Market highway north of Westbrook.

They were joined by State Highway Patrolmen Buddy Hertenberger and Jim Mauldin. Sheriff Lewis Claxton, who had been out on patrol, had just returned to the County Jail with an ailing car alternator when the arrests were made.

"We had been watching for them and believed them to be making trips from wet areas in West Texas," the sheriff said.

The beer — 99 cases of Lone Star and 78 cases of Pearl, all in throw-away glass cans — is believed to have been headed for a private club in Nolan County.

Formal charges against the pair are expected to be filed Monday in County Court. However, County Judge Elmer Martin at 10 o'clock Friday night set bonds of $1,000 each for husband and wife.

Additional bond of $2,500 was placed on a 1967 Dodge pickup.

Earlier in the week city police, sheriff officers and state patrolmen discovered beer, vodka, wine and whiskey in a raid in South Colorado City. Charged with illegal possession with bond at $2,000 was Elmer Green.

Maynard Day Set Jan. 30

Thursday, Jan. 30, is the date set for Don Maynard Day in Colorado City.

Bob Reily, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee sponsoring the event, said the date had been finalized in phone conversations with Maynard, the all-time leader for pass yardage gained among all professional football receivers.

The late January date allows time for Maynard to make the trip to Colorado City following his appearances in the Super Bowl, with his American League New York Jets meeting the National League Baltimore Colts in Miami, Fla., for the pro-title and then playing in the American League all-star game.

Reily revealed that two former coaches of Maynard will be invited to join the Jet star here. They are Jerome (Bux) Buxkemper, who was coach of Colorado High when Maynard played his final football season in 1952, and Mike Brumbelow, the TCU great who was coach of El Paso College of Mines (now University of Texas at El Paso).

A Civic House dinner is being planned as a feature event of Don Maynard Day, with citizens of the community presenting a gift to Maynard in recognition of his tremendous sports accomplishment, which includes more than 9,000 yards gained during a decade of pro football.

Plans also are being initiated to have a reunion of Maynard 1953 Colorado High graduating class here Saturday, Feb. 1.

Make All-District Band

Two clarinet players, Debbie Johnson and Martha Kinard, and one snare drum player, David Helm, were selected as members of the Region IV All-District Band after recent audition held in Abilene at Abilene Christian College. The three Colorado High School students performed with the district band in a concert played in Moody Auditorium at A. C. C.

Miss Elizabeth Ann Neely Is Bride of Brian H. Blair

Miss Elizabeth Ann Neely became the bride of Brian H. Blair Dec. 30 in a double ring ceremony in Memorial Chapel of First United Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford D. Neely of Villa Inn Motel.

Mrs. Ray H. Blair is mother of the bridegroom.

Rev. Billy Wilkinson, church pastor, officiated in the 2 p. m. wedding rites.

Church altar was marked by arrangements of red poinsettias.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a gown of white antique satin with a chapel train. Her elbow-length veil of Alencon lace was re-embroidered with seed pearls.

She carried a cascading bouquet of white carnations, centered with a large white orchid, atop a white Bible.

Wedding music, presented by Mrs. Frank Deregibus, organist, included "The Twelfth of Never", "More", "Always", "Oh Precious Love" and the "Wedding March".

Mrs. Don Billington of Denver, Colo., sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

She wore a gown of royal blue nylon velvet fashioned similiar to the bride's gown. Her headpiece of blue tulle was attached to a circlet of variegated blue feathers.

Jim Mauldin served as best man. George Ramage ushered guests.

Villa Inn Party Room was scene for a reception honoring the wedding couple following their marriage.

Bride's table was covered with a white silk tulle cloth, trimmed with white satin, and set with silver and crystal appointments. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bridal couple.

For a honeymoon trip to Abilene, the bride wore a navy blue and red two-piece suit with matching accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple is residing at 829 Elm Street.

Both are graduates of Colorado High School. The bride is employed at Villa Inn Restaurant.

Blair served with the Air Force and is now in Air Force active reserves. He is a member of the local police department.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were from Sweetwater, Snyder, Denver, Colo., Midland and Canyon.

CONVERSATION CORNER

LIFE would be a monotonous experience if everybody always agreed about everything.

If everybody thought alike, talked alike, acted alike, where would be the spice, the seasoning?

Life for a columnist would be dull, and that's for sure.

Now you take this matter of old-timer readers and new-comer subscribers to the Record.

Almost any old-timer you know will tell you that what the paper needs most is more old-timer names.

"Why don't you put in more names of people we used to know?" they often write or say. "All the names in the Record are new ones now."

Meet a new-comer and chances are even that the new-comer will say "How long do you have to live in Colorado City before you become an old-timer and can get your name in the paper?"

* * *

AND BOTH are right as they see it. Everything depends absolutely on viewpoint—where you sit—the angle from which you look at the thing.

We're an old-timer city full of nice new-comers. And we welcome news about both.

One of the joys of doing a column comes with hearing both sides of numerous and various questions, even knowing in your heart that both sides are right—as they see it.

Among the holiday greetings, for instance, was a note written by Jesse and Mattie Pidgeon, real old-timers who moved from C-City to Austin to be nearer their daughter and son.

"We still subscribe to the Record," wrote Jesse, "and read it all to see if we can find any familiar names, any old-timer news."

* * *

LOOKED UP to see two L.T.N.S. (long time no see) pleasant faces belonging to H. C. (Jimmy) Beal and his attractive wife Mary, old-timers who have lived in Dallas for many years now.

They were here during the holidays for Jimmy to indulge his annual yen to go quail hunting on the old ranch where he grew up.

The Beals, too, are convinced that nearly everybody in C-City now is a new-comer. Jimmy visited City National Bank, he vowed, and saw just two people he knew, though he was hoping to run into old friends, long remembered.

"Saw Charlie Thompson and Gus Chesney," he said, wondering where all the old-timers were that day.

* * *

THE BEALS, old friends will want to know, are expecting their first son, Lt. Dick Beal home from his second tour of duty in Vietnam.

Second son, Lt. Joe Beal is due to leave for Vietnam—believe Mary said in March.

"There is no song within the glad heart singing but has an echo of some minor strain." So goes the true old Longfellow poem set to music in the semi-classical manner.

Glad song at the Bob McGuire home brings news that son Bill, wounded Marine, called from Guam where he was flown from a hospital in the Philippines. Seems he is being flown by gradual stages back to Corpus Christi Texas !

* * *

Up at the Guy Burson home there was gladness because the Burson first son, Mike, had a post-Christmas furlough from Fort Carson, Colorado. He's visiting his pretty little wife Kaye (Feaster) in Midland where she works.

Hear tell Barry Joyce, member of an old-timer family, was here from Denver, Colorado, during the recent holidays.

Wayne Smith, in training in the Texas Department of Public Safety academy for highway patrolmen, visited his parents Esther and Forrest, too.

* * *

SEEN LATELYS included Jo Tiller, wife of Johnny, whose holiday company, son John and his wife Shanda of Harvey Mudd College in California, celebrated in spite of the flu.

Other familiar faces, various places, were those of Mrs. Newt Miller. . .Sandra Chamness. . .Mrs. Tom Daughtrey. . . Frances (Majors) Chesney, wife of Gus.

L. H. (Tobv) Brown was an office dropin. So were Johnny Miller and Richard Lange. . .Dan Lusby, new Southwestern Bell Telephone district manager—a real new-comer who lives in Snyder.

Spied Mrs. H. B. Cook taking down decorations on her yard light.

* * *

BRIEF ENCOUNTERS brought chats with Dale Geer (Mrs. A. L. Buck). . .Willie Landau. Did you know that the Landau daughter Sandy Ringler (Mrs. Herman) and her beautiful doll baby Rhonda Elaine are here? They arrived Dec. 23 and are staying longer than they planned because of the flu invasion.

Saw Lona Pritchett. . .Gerald Gordon. . .George Witten. . . Little Sharon Harlow Gillenwater who's been inhabiting Cloud Nine since Saturday, Dec. 29, when her husband Eugene (Warrant Officer and helicopter pilot) called her from Vietnam, long about 1:30 a.m.

Jamie Anderson FP (favorite person) was an after-holiday guest in the home of his mother Aline Anderson. He lives in Austin.

* * *

GUESSING GAME, anybody?

There'll be wedding bells this month for a tall, dark, and handsome bachelor, a C-City native.

No, girls, it is NOT George Womack. This bachelor lives and works now in the state's capital city. His pretty fiancee is a University student named Linda.

GEMS OF THE MONTH

One of our most enduring and popular beliefs is in the value of wearing a special gem for the month of birth. This practice dates back to the 16th century and had as its source Biblical references. The list of approved birthstones according to the American Gem Society and the Retail Jewelers of America is as follows:

January — Garnet
February — Amethyst
March — Aquamarine or Bloodstone
April — Diamond
May — Emerald
June — Pearl, Moonstone or Alexandrite
July — Ruby
August — Peridot or Sardonyx
September — Sapphire
October — Opal or Tourmaline
November — Topaz or Citrine Quartz
December — Turquoise or Zircon

Most interesting are the various attributes given to the gems. For example, the garnet was believed to make the wearer immune against injury. Amethyst was worn to cool the fires of passionate love, as well as a protection against intoxication. The March gem, Aquamarine, was thought to give courage and sharpen the mind. Diamond, of course, has many legends connected with it as the "King of Gems". The most widespread belief credits it as a symbol of purity and light.

Both men and women may properly wear their birthstone. Most men prefer them either set in rings or cuff links. Women, of course, have much more lattitude. One of the most popular ways is on a charm, or in a ring. Where there are two stones given for a month, generally the opaque gem is worn by men, and the more brilliant stone is the feminine choice. If you would like to see your own special gem, we will be happy to show you a selection.
