Healthy Increase Sets Oil Allowable At 37.5

By JACK KEEVER

AUSTIN (AP)—The Railroad Commission boosted the statewide oil allowable Thursday to a record 37.5 per cent of potential for January.

The January factor will permit maximum production of 3,318,234 barrels a day. The December allowable of 36.5 per cent set a production ceiling of 3,260,044 barrels daily, which was the highest since May 1959.

The Bureau of Mines had predicted a January demand for Texas crude oil of 2,960,000 barrels daily.

The January allowable is the highest percentage factor granted since the percentage system was adopted three years ago.

The allowable also exceeds every month since May 1959, when, under the now discarded daily shutdown procedure, a 12-day producing order—the equivalent of 38.7 per cent—permitted a maximum production of 3,499,999 barrels a day.

At today's statewide proration hearing, Commission Chairman Ben Ramsey announced that Commissioner Jim Langdon would take over as chairman of the oil and gas regulatory agency Jan. 1. The three-member commission changes its chairman generally at two-year intervals.

Two major purchasers of Texas crude oil asked for a higher allowable than the current 36.5 per cent factor, but only Sinclair Refining Co.'s nomination exceeded the January allowable.

Atlantic-Richfield Co. asked for a 37 per cent factor. Sinclair sought 38 per cent.

Ramsey said commission records show that crude oil demand "continues to be strong" and do not disclose "any distressed crude oil areas."

Ramsey and Langdon thanked oil men for their "statesmanlike conduct" this year and predicted an even better year for the industry in 1967.

Charles Mitchell of Cities Service came before the commission with a special request for a 4 per cent allowable for the Harper-Devonian Field in Ector County, to begin Jan. 1. He asked the commission to continue that allowable until pressure maintenance operations can be started "to prevent reservoir waste."

Elmer Patman, lawyer for Superior Oil Co., said the request was "rather drastic," and asked the commission for a special hearing on the field's allowable.

The matter was taken under advisement.

Purchasers' nominations in percentage and barrels per day:

38—Sinclair 108,400.

37—Atlantic-Richfield 81,460.

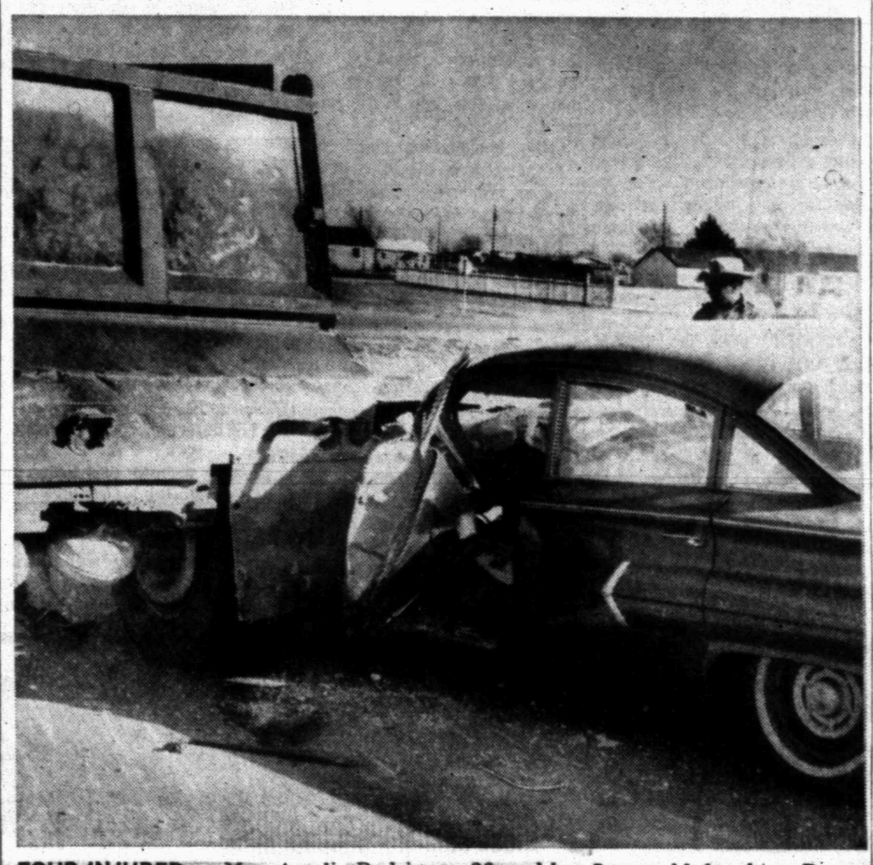
36.5—Mobil 264,300, and Standard of Texas 46,000.

36—Sun 125,352.

35.5—Cities Service 76,000.

35—Continental 38,000; Gulf 217,500; Phillips 122,615; and Shell, 177,400.

Humble, Pan American and Texaco did not nominate by percentage.



FOUR INJURED — Mrs. Amelia Rodriguez, 26, and her 5-year-old daughter, Rosemary, received serious head injuries in a two-vehicle accident on the Lubbock Highway at Huffman Street at 2:52 p.m. Wednesday. The parents of Mrs. Rodriquez, Mr. and Mrs. Jose Manuel Perez of Friona, received fractures in the crash. They remain in Cogdell Memorial Hospital where condition was described as good. Snyder Ambulance Service carried the older couple to Cogdell Memorial Hospital and transferred the young woman and her child to Lubbock where they were to undergo surgery.

Historical Marker Of City Unveiled

A historical marker was unveiled this morning on the Snyder City Hall lawn as officials of the city and the County Historical Survey Committee and several other interested citizens looked on.

The city marker is located at the southeast edge of the city hall lawn and is easily visible from Twenty-fourth Street, the driveway to the city's auto service window and sidewalk.

Hugh Taylor, chairman of the Scurry County Historical Survey Committee, and Mayor M. L. Broman, joined to lead the brief informal ceremonies at the unveiling.

The inscription on the marker notes that Snyder began in 1878 when Pete Snyder set up the first store on the banks of Deep Creek. It traces high points in the city's history, including incorporation of the city in 1907, the coming of the first train in 1908 and ultimately the discovery of the big Canyon Reef Oil Field in 1948 which sent the town's population soaring from 4,000 to 12,000 almost overnight.

"This is a good town and it always has been," Taylor declared. "A lot of things have happened here--some of them that we like to recall and others that we had just as soon forget--but I've been here 76 years and during all that time Snyder has been a good town."

Mayor Broman and Harold Bennett, a member of the historical survey cmmittee, praised Taylor for his work as chairman of the committee. Bennett read the inscription on the marker to those present.

The city council originally approved the marker some two years ago, but the project was delayed when some discussion developed over the inscription. Finally, the inscription drafted by the city was accepted by the state committee.

"The lettering on this marker is just fine," Taylor said this morning. "You can't say much on one of these, but I believe you have made the best use of the space you had."

Bombers Hit Hanoi Again

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — U.S. warplanes straddled Hanoi with bombs for the second straight day Wednesday, the U.S. Command announced, but intense ground fire and a missile-firing MIG shot three of the American raiders out of the skies.

A State Department spokesman in Washington said the department had no evidence to confirm Communist reports that the American planes bombed nonmilitary targets and inflicted civilian casualties in Hanoi itself.

Air Force and Navy fighter-bombers returned to the same two targets they hit Tuesday to rain more explosives on a sprawling truck depot five miles south of Hanoi and a major railroad marshalling yard six miles northeast of the Communist capital. Pilots claimed heavy damage to both installations.

Navy planes also attacked seven surface-to-air missile sites in the Hanoi area and reported destroying a radar van at one six miles south-southwest of the city. Navy pilots also reported silencing two antiaircraft gun sites 14 miles from Hanoi.

During the raids, more than a score of MIG21s and MIG17s were encountered and a MIG21, downed an Air Force F105 Thunderchief 50 miles southwest of Hanoi. The pilot was rescued.

Two Navy jets were brought down by groundfire, the U.S. Command reported, and both pilots were listed as missing.

With these losses, the total of American planes reported lost in the air war against the Communist North reached 446. The Thunderchief was the seventh U.S. plane reported downed by a MIG, while U.S. fliers have reported shooting down at least 26 of the Communist jets and possibly two more.

JAYCEES SET SHOPPING SPREE

Snyder Jaycees will sponsor their annual "Christmas Shopping Spree" for underprivileged children again this year.

John Wright, chairman of the project this year, has announced that the children and Jaycees will meet at the First Methodist Church at 9 a.m. Saturday.

All Jaycees who are able have been urged to be on hand for the project.

Jaycee-ettes will be on hand to assist the young shoppers in gift-wrapping their purchases.

Goodfellow Donations

Won't you help make Christmas brighter for the needy children of the area with a contribution of money, clothing, toys or food?

That was the plea issued by the Snyder Goodfellows today as the annual campaign to aid the needy entered its final days.

Walt Disney Dies Today

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—Walt Disney, who built an entertainment empire based on a mouse named Mickey and won a reputation as the movies' most versatile creator, died today. He was 65 ten days ago.

His studio in making the announcement declined to give the cause of death but Disney underwent surgery last month for removal of part of his left lung, after a lesion was found. The founder of Disneyland and producer of more than 600 films ranging from the animated cartoon "Snow White" to the lavish color musical "Mary Poppins" succumbed at St. Joseph Hospital.

He is survived by his widow, Lillian, and two married daughters, Mrs. Ron Miller and Mrs. Robert Brown.

Disney was entertainment's most successful practitioner. He made a meager start as an artist with an idea for a comedy cartoon featuring Mickey Mouse—and saw the lively rodent become a worldwide institution.

Mrs. Galyean Rites Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Cora Galyean, 604 Avenue S, were to be held today at 3:30 p.m. in the Northside Baptist Church with Rev. Cone Merritt officiating, assisted by Rev. A. B. Lightfoot.

Mrs. Galyean died at 5:15 p.m. Tuesday in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Born in Jackson, Miss., Feb. 3, 1885, Mrs. Galyean had been a resident of Scurry County for 47 years. She was married in 1904 in Alba, Tex., to J. G. Galyean.

Burial was in Snyder Cemery, under direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Survivors include the husband, J. G. (Pop) Galyean; two daughters, Mrs. Luther Holmes of Emory, Tex. and Mrs. C. O. Scott of Monahans; four sons, Herman of Anaheim, Calif., Edger of Snyder, Sydney of Venita, Okla. and Rue Galyean of Ira; two sisters, Mrs. Ruby Chapman of Dallas, and Mrs. Bessie Deese of Alba; nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Four Injured In Car-Truck Crash

A Friona couple, their daughter, and their granddaughter were injured in a two-vehicle smashup just north of Snyder at the intersection of Huffman Street and U. S. 84 at 2:52 p.m. Wednesday.

Taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by Snyder Ambulance Service were Mr. and Mrs. Jose Manuel Perez, their daughter, Mrs. Amelia Rodriguez, and the granddaughter, Rosemary Rodriguez.

Mrs. Rodriguez, 26, and the little girl, 5 years of age, were transferred to Lubbock for treatment of serious head injuries. Perez 57, received treatment for a fractured rib, and his wife, Maria, 50, was treated for a fractured wrist. The condition of the older couple was described as good.

Highway Patrolmen said the 1960 Model Chevrolet operated by Perez was traveling north on the Lubbock Highway. It collided with a 1966 Model Chevrolet semitruck driven by Milford Brabbin of Abilene. The truck, which was carrying a load of caliche, was going east across the highway at the time of collision.

Damage to the car was estimated at $800, and damage to the truck was set at $100. The truck driver was not injured.

Mrs. Perez, her daughter and granddaughter, all were passengers in the car.

Owner of the truck was identified as the T. M. Brown and Son Company of Tye.

Cotton Referendum Carries

Scurry County farmers voted in favor of two cotton proposals Wednesday. Ballots were mailed in to the County A.S.C.S. office.

The question on the first proposal was: "Are you in favor of marketing quotas for upland cotton for the 1967 crop?" This issue carried with 625 voting for the proposal with 92 voting against it with a total vote of 717.

The second question was: "Are you in favor of holding out $1 per bale for cotton research and promotion?" This proposal carried with 459 voting for the proposal and 232 voting against it. The total vote was 691.

The loan rate will be slightly lower this year and the diversion and price support rate will be slightly higher, according to Roy Hanson, office manager of the A.S.C.S.

Overall, there are only minor changes in the program. Basically, the same program that was in effect this year will be in effect in 1967. The price support is based on 21 cents on inch-middling cotton plus eligibility to draw price support payments and diversion payments for taking part in the domestic cotton program.

Doctors Begin Drugs For Ruby

DALLAS (AP) — Doctors treating cancer-stricken Jack Ruby started injecting drugs today and trying to shore up his sagging morale.

"We told Ruby he has a chance to live," said Dr. Jay Sanford, who said the killer of Lee Harvey Oswald was "less alert this morning.

"I told Ruby he has a chance —to give him this impression because we feel his attitude is important in fighting to live," Sanford said.

Ruby's morale was described as lower after he read reports that he apparently was losing his battle against widespread cancer whose primary source still has not been pinpointed.

"We believe he has a chance also," said Dr. Eugene Frenkel, another on the team treating Ruby. "If we didn't, we wouldn't be treating him as vigorously as we are."

At a news conference, the doctors said Ruby will be injected with a special therapeutic drug known as five-fluorasil for the next five days and then every other day until changes in his blood and general condition are detected.

The doctors have described Ruby's cancer as not treatable by surgery or irradiation treatments, and said that chemotherapy—drugs—was the only procedure left. And Frenkel has said chemotherapy is seldom successful in cases such as Ruby's.

Hoffa flew from Chicago to Detroit where more than 750 sign-waving Teamsters assembled at a "back-to-work" meeting called by the Teamsters chief to cut short the 24-hour walkout of truck drivers.

'DEATH OF A PRESIDENT'

Mrs. Kennedy To Block Book

By RELMAN MORIN
AP Special Correspondent

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy says she is prepared to relive her grief and shock after the assassination of her husband in order to legally block publication of a book about the tragedy.

The outlook for her is horrible, she said.

The book, which the Kennedy family had authorized, is "Death of a President," by William Manchester. It describes the assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas, Nov. 22, 1963, and the events in the days immediately afterward.

Mrs. Kennedy calls it "tasteless and distorted."

"As horrible as a trial will be," she says, "it now seems clear that my only redress is to ask the courts to enforce my rights."

Her attorneys said they are preparing papers seeking a temporary injunction to stop the book's publication and would file them in two or three days. Summonses already have been served on Harper & Row, book publisher, and Cowles Communications, Inc., publishers of Look magazine.

The magazine, which reportedly paid Manchester $650,000 for the serial rights to his book, scheduled publication of the first article for Jan. 10. Harper & Row plans to bring out the book next April.

The impending lawsuit, and a mention of "inaccurate and unfair references to other individuals" in a statement by Mrs. Kennedy about Manchester's book, may throw some light on long-standing reports of friction between the Kennedys and President Johnson. It assertedly began on the plane that brought Kennedy's body from Dallas to Washington after the assassination.

A friend of the Kennedy family said Manchester's book depicts Mrs. Kennedy as having been "upset because LBJ kept the plane on the ground too long in Dallas, waiting to be sworn in as president."

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Last Sunday we attended church in a small college town where our daughter is a student. The young couple sitting directly in front of us did everything except kiss each other in fond embrace. Clearly, they were having a date, and it made no difference that they were in church, surrounded by serious-minded adults who had come to hear the church service. My husband could feel my seething just by looking at me, and my daughter implored me with her eyes not to say or do anything, so I chickened out and said I would write to you. What would you have done!

CHICKEN

DEAR CHICKEN: I would have prayed to the Lord to send those ill-behaved young people some much needed manners, judgment, and self-control.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: At the end of your column it says, "Troubled? Write to Abby."

Well, I am just troubled enough to write to you about this problem, which irks me to no end: When I invite friends to dinner, some will say, "Don't go to any trouble."

Exactly, what do they mean by this? Do they wish me to serve them TV dinners in their original containers? Or do they expect me to take them to a restaurant? Those are the only two ways I can think of to entertain guests without "going to any trouble."

I am a good cook, and my friends know it, so they should realize that I most certainly shall go to considerable trouble in preparing a company meal. And the next person who tells me not to "go to any trouble" will not be invited again!

TROUBLED

DEAR TROUBLED: You appear to be all steamed up over a colloquial expression. Your guests were trying to tell you not to "knock yourself out," another expression I am sure you understand, but would not be expected to take literally.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Please, please print this letter. It might make a few girls think twice before begging for a wedding ring.

I fell in love with Mark when I was 15. He was 17. I fought with my family because I wanted to quit school and get married. Mark wanted to go to college, but I talked him into taking a job in a parking lot so we could get married right away. We ran off and got married and broke our parents' hearts. I got pregnant real quick so our parents wouldn't have our marriage annulled.

Well, Mark wasn't really ready to settle down so when he'd spend an evening with his buddies, I'd get mad and jealous. Then we started fussing at each other. He couldn't stand my whining so he left me. Now we're getting a divorce because he says he missed out on his youth and it's my fault. I still love him, but his love for me has turned to hate.

Please, Abby, keep telling young girls to finish high school and let the guys grow up before they start nagging for marriage. I am 16 years old, pregnant, and in six months I'll be a divorcee. Sign this. . . .

Shoppers Urged To Lock Up Packages

Police Chief Chester Simons today urged area shoppers to lock their packages in the trunks of their automobiles.

"Some thieves have been known to break glass from car windows so they could steal Christmas packages seen on the car seat," he said.

"This can be prevented by locking the articles in the trunk," he suggested.

Says Time Right For Buying Home

Little likelihood of any reversal in the continuing climb of construction and land prices indicates that now is the time for families needing homes to purchase, L. A. McClanahan, president of the Snyder Board of Realtors, declared today.

"Contrary to the often exaggerated reports of tight money, home mortgage credit is available for qualified buyers in most areas from a variety of sources," he added. "Realtors--members of the local board and of the National Assoication of Real Estate Boards- can be particularly valuable in aiding home seekers obtain funds, perhaps from sources not normally considered," he continued.

"Furthermore," he continued, "with the passing months there may be fewer homes available, and prices may be higher. Vacancy rates are declining, and housing starts are at their lowest level in 20 years.

'During the past year, construction costs of residential properties have increased 4 per cent, and there is little prospect that this upward trend will be reversed next year, or, for that matter, at any time in the foreseeable future."

Citing another important reason that this is the time to invest in property, he said that "land prices have continued to rise, and they can be expected to continue their upward spiral.

"In the coming months, therefore, persons interested in making a home purchase should put aside all hesitancy and arrange to visit properties currently being offered for sale," he continued. "A home purchased today generally can be expected to increase about 5 per cent in value in most areas over the next year," he said. "Real estate has been and can be expected to continue to be one of the safest investments and best hedges against inflation."

Belgium Urges NATO Revision

PARIS (AP) — Belgium, with the support of Britain and Canada, launched a move today for a widespread review and possible revision of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization into a more cohesive Atlantic community.

Belgian Foreign Minister Pierre Harmel made his proposal at the annual meeting of the foreign, defense and finance ministers of NATO.

Harmel urged the council to authorize NATO Secretary-General Manlio Brosio to undertake a wide study of the NATO organization in the next 12 months.

Such a review could, in the Belgian view, lead to eventual amendment of the NATO treaty to encourage greater political, economic and military consultation among European members prior to talks with the United States within the NATO structure.

Harmel cited various changes which have occurred in the political, economic, military and technological areas since 1949. He also cited the fact that under the treaty any member can withdraw after 1969.

Harmel seeks to promote greater political cohesion among the European members of NATO, and especially among the six members of the Common Market. He said the growing political and economic integration of Western Europe should be reflected within the NATO framework.

His proposal was also obviously aimed at encouraging further political integration of Western Europe as a channel for German energies and ambitions.

Another purpose was to inject new life into the NATO alliance, which has been sagging as a result of French President Charles de Gaulle's withdrawal of France from the military structure. The proposal fits in with De Gaulle's ideas for a greater and more independent European position in dealing with the United States.

Later today the council, meeting for probably the last time in Paris before NATO's political headquarters moves to Brussels, Belgium, was expected to discuss the Vietnam war and ways to ease tensins with the Soviet bloc.

Says Water Plan Most Vital Issue

EL PASSO, (AP) — Lt. Gov. Preston Smith predicted Wednesday the Texas Legislature will pass "some sort of minimum wage" in its next session but said the "federal government has taken care of that matter pretty well."

Arms Found On Venezuela Campus

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Troops occupied the campus of Venezuela's Central University Wednesday and, using mine detectors, found a large cache of arms.

Witnesses said snipers opened fire when the troops began moving among the buildings. The soldiers shot back. One soldier was killed.

Informants said the troops discovered an arsenal. One witness said police confiscated a quantity of arms in an apartment near the midtown campus. Authorities barred newsmen from the area.

The seizure of the university followed a wave of terrorist attacks in past weeks against government officials, police and military officers, and American property. One army officer has been killed.

Under a suspension of constitutional guarantees announced Tuesday, the government has authorized arrests without warrants, curtailed political activity, partly censored the press, and assumed the right to rule by decree if it considers that necessary.

Although the government has long accused the university of harboring Cuban-aided terrorists, the campus had traditionally been immune from police and army invasion. An official statement said university authorities requested government intervention because the campus had become a base for a terrorist group.

Friendly Dolphins Join Race

SYDNEY, Australia — A school of dolphins, 200 or so, joined in an ocean water ski race near Sydney.

They frisked among the 17 contestants, raced within inches of skiers and boats, leapt over ski ropes.

"They went under us, in front of us and even over us," said Doug Turner, one of the boat drivers.

The ski race was from Shellharbour to Wollongong, 26 miles, and return with another group of 17 skiers.

The dolphins brust on the skiers about two miles out of Shellharbour, and at first the startled skiers thought they had been joined by a pack of sharks. Then the identity of the playful dolphins, about six feet long, was established. They are harmless to man.

One skier, Howard Mitchell, struck a dolphin, and broke his water ski. He was not injured, and as far as anyone could establish, neither was the dolphin.

The dolphins disappeared at the entrance to Wollongong Harbor, but they were waiting for the skiers on the return trip. They kept abreast of the field, flashing around the skiers and boats, to the mouth of Shellharbour Harbour, then disappeared again.

The Daimler motor car astounded the world in 1889 by racing down roads at the then incredible speed of 11 miles per hour.

Corned Beef Hash Sandwiches

Cool weather brings with it the demand for hearty sandwiches. Whether they're being packed for school, office or factory, these will go well with a thermos of vegetable-beef soup, says Reba Staggs, meat authority.

Break 1 can (15½ ounces) of corned beef hash with a fork, then add to it ½ cup catsup, 2 tablespoons soy sauce and ¼ cup finely chopped onion. Add cup grated American cheese and mix well. This makes 2½ cups.

This filling goes well with any kind of bread, rye, white or whole wheat. For variety's sake, try it also with hamburger buns, onion or sesame seed rolls.

Include contrast in flavor and texture in the lunch from the fruit and vegetable group of foods. Assorted raw vegetable relishes like cucumber circles, carrot curls radishes and whole fresh fruit like pears, apples, Tokay grapes and oranges complete the lunch box.

Mood Uncertain For Automakers

By H.L. SCHWARTZ III

DETROIT (AP) — With reports on yearend prospects in from three of the nation's four major automakers, the mood in the industry appeared today best summed up in one word — if.

That was the theme of review-outlook statements Wednesday by Henry Ford II, chairman of the Ford Motor Co., and Roy Abernethy, president of American Motors Corp.

They closely followed the tone of an earlier yearend statement by Frederick Donner, chairman of General Motors. The year-end statement by Chrysler Chairman Lynn Townsend was due late today and was expected to make the industry uncertainty unanimous.

Traditionally the most outspoken of the auto chieftains, Ford talked with newsmen at his annual review-outlook meeting of his hopes for labor peace in the upcoming contract year, resurgence from a current sales slump and renewal of consumer confidence.

He injected a new cause for uncertainty when he became the first top auto executive to predict that some safety standards that may be required by the federal government in 1968 models would make it impossible to build certain cars, forcing some plants to close down.

Ford added that no matter what the government finally requires when it publishes its list Jan. 31 of the safety features mandatory for 1968 models, the consumer will have to bear the cost.

The automakers have until Jan. 3 to reply to the 23 safety standards suggested last month by Dr. William Haddon, first highway safety chief, under the Highway Safety Act of 1966.

Ford and Abernethy — whose companies Wednesday joined GM and Chrysler in announcing holiday-season production cuts to balance lagging sales — also talked of consumer confidence as a major factor in their hope for another year when sales would approach the nine million of this year, the industry's second best.

The record sales year was 1965 when 9.3 million cars were sold.

"While some causes of uncertainty remain as we move into 1967, continued growth in population, incomes, gross national product and government spending at all levels is adding new weight on the demand side of the economic scale," said Abernethy.

"If confidence is restored, purchasing power next year should be ample to support car sales of nine million or more," said Ford.

"But," he added, "if people are still worried about rising living costs and the possibility of higher taxes, shorter work weeks and layoffs, many of them may put off buying a new car."

Test Of Postal Service Shows Efficient Delivery

By HAL COOPER

NEW YORK AP) — A recent test of the U.S. postal service showed a generally efficient performance on first-class mail deliveries throughout the nation.

Letters airmailed between two points in different states, including coast to coast, stood better than a 99 per cent chance of reaching their destinations within two days.

Duplicate mailings — one Zip-coded and one to the same address without the Zip code — arrived simultaneously in every case.

The bulk of the airmail between major east coast cities and major cities of the far west was delivered the day after posting. Airmail from the east coast made it to Juneau, Alaska, in two days.

In point of elapsed time between posting and delivery, the poorest performance was by two airmail letters from San Francisco to Miami and from Los Angeles to Bryn Mawr, Pa., a Philadelphia suburb. Each took four days. Los Angeles to Juneau, and Seattle, Wash., to Juneau, took three. All the other test airmail was delivered in two days.

The Associated Press began the test on Nov. 17. That morning, major bureaus posted more than 500 letters either to other AP bureaus or to suburban addresses of staff members in other cities.

Coincidentally the postal service, alerted by a massive mail jam in Chicago in October, had begun hiring the first of 150,000 temporary Christmas workers a month early, using $30 million of funds previously budgeted for expenditure later in the fiscal year.

As of Dec. 6, said a post office spokesman in Washington, all mail jams had been overcome.

The spokesman attributed the improvement mainly to a new system of daily reports to Washington from 74 major post offices, the points of origin of 48.9 per cent of the nation's mail. On the basis of these reports, the Postal Bureau of Operations is able to head off mail pileups.

Cottonmen OK Assessment For Research, Promotion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cotton growers have joined those in the wool industry in assessing themselves for funds to battle synthetic fibers for markets at home and abroad.

Growers voted by a narrow margin in an Agriculture Department mail referendum last week to assess themselves $1 a bale, beginning with the 1967 crop, to finance a broad program of research and market promotion.

Votes tabulated Wednesday night showed the proposal was approved by 68.2 per cent of those voting, just slightly over the necessary 67.7 per cent.

The count, as reported by the department, was 181,204 for and 84,342 against. The last Congress authorized the referendum.

For several years, wool growers have been making payments for a similar program under Agriculture Department guidance. Their contributions are taken from government incentive payments made to wool growers and sheepmen.

Both cotton and wool have been losing ground for many years to manmade fibers, such as rayon, nylon and the like. Often these products have undersold cotton and wool.

The new program is designed to find ways to produce cotton cheaper to compete more effectively with the synthetics. It also will seek to develop new and better cotton products and promote their use in markets in this country and overseas.

The $1 a bale checkoff, which will be made by ginners, is expected to raise around $10 million next year. Wool checkoffs have been about $1 million a year.

The new program was hotly debated in cotton areas. The National Cotton Council, an industrywide trade organization, urged its approval. But some leaders of the Farm Bureau Federation fought it. They opposed government controls of the program as well as limiting of the financing to growers.

The program will permit any grower to request his checkoff back.

In other proposals submitted at the same referendum, growers approved the continuation next year of marketing quotas on both upland and extra long staple cottons. These quotas are designed to help prevent overproduction.

The vote on quotas for upland cotton was 272,831 for and 24,781 against for a favorable majority of 91.7 per cent. Quotas require the approval of two-thirds of those voting.

On the extra long staple cotton, a minor specialty type, the vote was 1,361 for and 295 against quotas, for a favorable majority of 82.2 per cent.

Insects Are In Orbit

WASHINGTON (AP) — A space capsule containing fruit flies, beetles, wasps and other living creatures and plants whirled about the earth today in an experiment designed to help determine how humans will fare on long-distance trips in outer space.

The beehive-shaped spacecraft, named Biosatellite 1, was launched Wednesday from Cape Kennedy, Fla. The Goddard Space Center near Washington later reported "all going very well."

After 47 orbits, the 944-pound spaceship is scheduled to fire a retrorocket Saturday and parachute toward earth. Aircraft hoped to catch the falling capsule over the Pacific and fly the specimens to Hawaii for examination.

The experiment is the initial mission in the $100-million biosatellite program conceived to test how weightlessness and space radiation effect the growth of plants and animals.

Don't look now but the Cincinnati Royals are closing in on third place in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Association.

The Royals picked up two games in two nights on third-place New York to move to within one-half game of the Knicks.

Cincinnati edged the Lakers 126-124 in Los Angeles Wednesday night while the Knicks were bowing to the Bullets 116-106 in Baltimore.

In the only other game played, the Chicago Bulls turned back the Detroit Pistons 93-87 in Evansville, Ind.

Tuesday night Cincinnati snapped a seven-game losing streak by beating San Francisco and New York absorbed a setback at the hands of Philadelphia.

The Royals own their modest two-game winning streak today as a result of Connie Dierking's basket with three seconds to play that broke a 124-124 tie with Los Angeles.

Forsan Cagers Win

IRA — Ira's girls lost, 45-54, to Forsan in a basketball game here Tuesday night.

Scoring for Ira were Pam Sallee (17 points), Connie Sterling (14 points), Linda Wiggins (9 points), and Carolyn Rogers (5 points).

Condron sank 27 points, and Walraden tipped in 15 for Forsan.

The Forsan boys also won, 64-47, as Ellis dunked in 16 and McKinnen sank 10 points. Aaron Crawford tallied 16 for Ira, and Terry Sterling collected 7 points.

STARR IS TOP STAR IN PRO NATIONAL LOOP

By JACK STEVENSON

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — Bart Starr remembers 1956 as the year he was overwhelmed with the opportunity to be able to make a professional football team.

Ten years later, the Green Bay Packers' quarterback has been voted the Most Valuable Player in the National Football League by The Associated Press.

"I was grateful just to be drafted the year I started," Starr admitted. "I had been hurt my last two seasons in college and was a little dejected."

From Alabama, Starr was the Packers' 17th draft choice but in five years had won the starting quarterback job.

He won the MVP honor by a wide margin with 19 votes to six for runner-up Larry Wilson, the St. Louis Cardinals' blitzing safety. Don Meredith, the Dallas quarterback, had four votes and Cleveland's Leroy Kelly had three.

Starr was obviously pleased with the honor but looks forward to the NFL championship game and hopes his club will be facing the American Football League title winner in the Super Bowl at Los Angeles.

"We'd like to have that problem," he says referring to defeating the AFL.

Recuperating from rib injuries suffered in the first half last Saturday at Baltimore, Starr doesn't know if he'll play Sunday in the regular season finale against the Rams at Los Angeles.

Coach Vince Lombardi has indicated he'd like to rest his quarterback and the Packers already have won the Western Conference title.

"It takes awhile to get well, or to get better," Starr said. "But I'll be ready for the NFL championship."

Starr will be 33 on Jan. 9 and has enjoyed his best season of the 11 he's played with Green Bay. He's completed 62.2 per cent of his throws with a fantastic record of only three interceptions in 251 attempts.

BUFF TOURNEY IS UNDERWAY

FLUVANNA — The annual Fluvanna Basketball Tournament was to get underway at 1 p.m. today with girls teams from O'Donnell and Hermleigh meeting in the first contest.

At 2:30 p.m., the Snyder "B" team was to tangle with Hermleigh. Ira and Flower Grove girls were to meet at 4 p.m., followed by a clash between the boys teams of both schools at 5:30 p.m.

Coach Wayne Tyrone's Snyder "B" team was scheduled for two games on the first day of the tournament. The Tabbies were to meet Fluvanna at 7:30 p.m.

The Fluvanna and O'Donnell girls were to collide at 9 p.m.

With the home court advantage, Fluvanna has been installed as the favorite.

Rather than being placed in brackets, each team will play every other team with the team suffering the least number of defeats being declared the winner.

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—Wallace W. Groff has been named athletic business manager by Texas A&M, succeeding Pat Dial who resigned. Groff received a master of business administration degree from A&M last year.

(Active) Duty Calls

AUSTIN (AP) — Jim Helms, Texas football wingback, has been called to active duty with the Marine Corps Reserve.

Helms, 21, senior from San Benito, said Wednesday he will report to San Diego, Calif., next March. He will play in Saturday's Bluebonnet Bowl game against Mississippi in Houston.

Mustangs Maul Mexican Quintet

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southern Methodist upheld the national basketball reputation Wednesday night but Rice could not do the same in intersectional competition.

The Mustangs, leading by only three points at halftime, broke loose in the second half for a 96-74 victory over the touring Mexico Olympic team.

Rice fell in the last 48 seconds 87-85 to Idaho State in the first round of the Bluebonnet Classic at Houston. Ninth ranked Houston won the other game 97-66 over Centenary.

Charley Parks scored the winning points for Idaho State on two free throws after the Owls' Bill Doty sank a free throw to tie the game at 85-all.

In the remaining seconds Rice had another opportunity to even the score but Doty, who tallied 31 points, and Greg Williams misconnected on a pass.

Parks and Ron Boone had 22 points apiece for Idaho State, which meets Houston tonight. Jim Hubenak got the same for Rice. The Owls play Centenary tonight.

Mexico, ending a 14-game tour of the United States that began Nov. 16 at San Angelo, Tex., appeared wary in losing its seventh game.

"The boys were very tired," said Lester Lane, the American coach who was taken to Mexico to get a team ready for the 1968 Olympic Games in Mexico City. "It was the last game and they wanted to get home to their families."

Lane, former Olympian and University of Oklahoma player, said he felt there were only three teams in the world better than his for the coming Olympics.

"I think I can see us finishing only behind the United States, Russia and Yugoslavia," he said.

Charles Beasley scored 24 points for Southern Methodist. The outside shooting of Mexico's Arturo Guerrero, who scored 20 points, was applauded by the crowd.

Mississippi Is Hopeful

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The University of Mississippi football team arrives today to keep a date with Texas in the eighth Bluebonnet Bowl Saturday.

The Rebels, making their 10th straight bowl appearance, get a one-day jump in Houston workouts on the Texas Longhorns, who won't put in appearance until Friday.

Coach Johnny Vought and the Rebels planned workouts today and Friday at the Rice University stadium, site of the game. Texas plans only a workout Friday.

Ticket sales have been brisk, indicating the first Bluebonnet Bowl full house. Capacity of the stadium is listed at 70,000, but more than 73,000 were present for the 1964 Rice-Texas game. There is a vast amount of standing room on the concourse around the stadium.

Roland Is Pro Rookie Of The Year

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Roland, a 1965 All-America back from Missouri who received a big bonus to sign with the St. Louis Cardinals, has been named rookie of the year in the National Football League by an Associated Press panel of sports writers and sportscasters, three from each of the 15 league cities.

Roland won in a close vote over Tommy Nobis of Atlanta, the two-time All America from Texas.

The Bidwell brothers (Bill and Stormy) snared Roland away from the New York Jets of the American Football League in a bidding contest that cost the Cardinals at least $250,000.

Roland was honored for his defensive work last season at Missouri, moving to the offense when short yardage was needed. He had made a name for himself as a blocker and running back in his junior year.

Coach Charley Winner earmarked Roland for his offensive unit and moved him into the regular left halfback job over the incumbent Bill Triplett in the middle of the Cards' opening game with Philadelphia. In his first half-day of work he contributed 159 yards to the total offense and was picked as the Offensive Player of the Week in mid-September.

Roland is a man of all trades. In the Cards' first 13 games, he has accounted for a total of 1,566 yards with his running, throwing or catching. He had scored six touchdowns and has thrown one TD pass. He leads the league in punt returns.

Nobis, the fine middle linebacker from Texas who received a big bundle as a first round draft choice of the new Atlanta Falcons, was the only other rookie to get strong support. Nobis was All America in both 1964 and 1965.

Nobis took over the middle linebacker job with the Falcons as soon as he was able to report to camp and improved with every start. Coach Norb Hecker has been boosting him all season for rookie honors and he had many backers.

The only errors during the 1966 World Series were made by the Lost Angeles Dodgers. They made six errors, all in the second game.

Eight Soccer Fans Injured In Panic

LIVERPOOL, England (AP) —Eight injured Liverpool soccer fans were in a hospital today after a panicky crush that felled scores of spectators watching their team get eliminated from the European Cup by Ajax of Amsterdam Wednesday night.

About 200 fans were slightly hurt and 31 were admitted to local hospitals with everything from cracked ribs to broken fingers after smoke bombs started the panic among the crowd of 54,000 at Liverpool's Anfield Road Stadium.

Peter Robinson, secretary of the Liverpool Club, said some of the panic was caused by perspiration "rising in clouds of steam" from the crowd. Some fans thought the place was on fire.

"It may sound fantastic but we have had those clouds of steam at Liverpool before on big occasions," Robinson said.

SOUTH TEAM GETS SIX TEXANS

MOBILE, Ala. AP) — Six Texas college players and one from Arkansas were named Wednesday to the 28-man South team for the 11th Eenior Bowl football game Jan. 7.

The South will be coached by Otto Graham of the Washington Redskins.

The North, averaging 224 pounds per man and led by Michigan State's 278-pound All-America end Bubba Smith of Beaumont, Tex., will be directed by Coach Norm Van Brocklin of the Minnesota Vikings.

Terry Southall of Baylor, the Southwest Conference's leading passer, and Bob Davis of Virginia, Atlantic Coast Conference player of the year, will direct the South at quarterback.

The South will have four All-America players, including Georgia tackle George Patton, who will play against Southern Methodist in the Dec. 31 Cotton Bowl.

Other South players from the Southwest Conference and Texas are offensive linemen Dick Cunningham, Arkansas, and Gene Upshaw, Texas A&I: defensive lineman Dwight Hood, Baylor; and defensive backs Mike Garnes, Arlington State, Frank Horak, Texas Christian, and Hank Washington, West Texas State.

Each player on the winning team will receive $1,000 and the losers will get $750 apiece.

Captains of the Cleveland Browns are tackle Dick Schafrath on offense and linebacker Galeen Fisk on defense.

Moyer's Move Sets Off Washington Guessing Game

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bill D. Moyers got $30,000 a year as President Johnson's press secretary and after his brother committed suicide last September friends began telling him he ought to look out for himself.

Moyers is 32 and his brother James H. Moyers, a widely liked but much more inconspicuous man, was also a very hardworking Johnson aide. He was 39 when he died.

Bill Moyers, with chronic ulcers and bright blue eyes, has been in a kind of Johnson alter ego. He labored endless hours. He got involved in all kinds of White House business, foreign and domestic.

He could speak with great confidence about what the President had on his mind which, in this case, took some confidence.

He was always on hand and totally dedicated. And he was always so cool, so composed, that after watching him for months you'd ask yourself: "Does anything bother him? Does anything get under his skin?"

But he has a wife and three children and almost from the time he became Johnson's press secretary in July 1965 — he had been with Johnson almost continuously since 1959 — there were rumors this was just a stepping stone.

No one ever seemed to know for sure where he wanted to go but only that he was ambitious. There were rumors, unconfirmed, that he'd like to be an ambassador, that he'd like to go into politics.

In either direction Johnson — so long as he was in the White House — could have been a big help. But the months passed, Moyers stayed, so did the ulcers, so did the fixed salary of $30,000, and there was the brother dead at 39 and, as it turned out he was seriously, thinking of doing better for himself at least financially.

Wednesday came the news: He was leaving Johnson and the White House to become publisher of Long Island's Newsday, the country's largest suburban daily, with a circulation of 415,000.

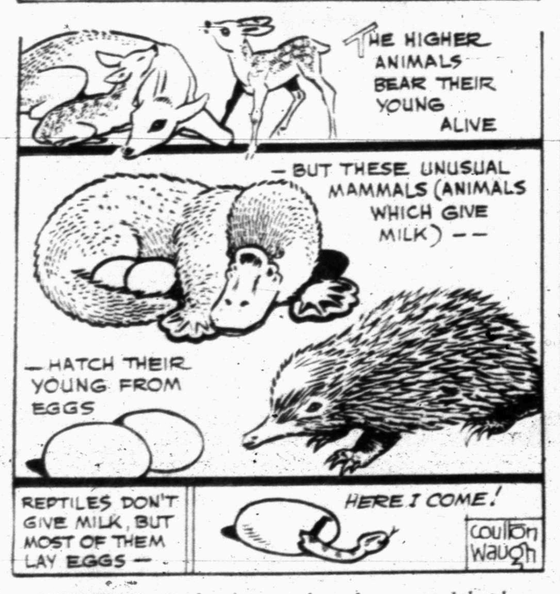
Although the salary wasn't disclosed, it can be assumed Moyers will get a lot more than $30,000.

The news of Moyers' new job was hardly off the wires before the Washington guessing game began:

Was money the real reason for his going into publishing or did he have inside information that Johnson would not seek a second term and that now was the best time to make the best kind of deal he could for himself?

That same question about Johnson and the second term was being asked before Moyers' resignation was announced and will continue to be asked until there is some change in Johnson's political attitude which for months now has seemed almost indifferent.

Junior Editors Quiz on ODD MAMMALS



QUESTION: Is the platypus the only mammal that lays eggs?

ANSWER: No, there is another little creature, also a mammal (meaning it gives milk to its young) which also lays eggs. This is the echidna or spiny anteater, which, like the platypus, is found in Australia and New Guinea. Scientists call these two kinds of animals monotremes and place them at the bottom of the ladder of mammal development. But the monotremes, lowly though they may be, are among the most interesting and unusual animals in the world. Consider the very large number of other mammals — dogs, cats, horses and so on — and not one of them lays eggs! The montremes are also remarkable in that the males have sharp claws by which they can inject a poison in much the manner of a poisonous snake. Scientists consider them to be distantly related to the cold-blooded reptiles, most of which lay eggs. One of the reasons for this idea is that the body heat of the monotremes is lower than that of other mammals. But then, the reptiles don't give milk! The monotremes occupy a freakish position in the animal world, all by themselves.

FOR YOU TO DO: There are other strange, unusual animals to be found in Australia. Find out which they are. 12-15

High School Dropout Makes Good

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK AP) — Actor Steve McQueen is a high school dropout who can now ask and get $750,000 a picture and a big handful of the profits.

"I only made the ninth grade," said Steve, who subsequently got his higher education in the well-known school of hard knocks.

McQueen loves to recall the wandering roustabout years of his youth.

During those years he worked as a tanker deckhand, a lumberman, a farmhand, a carnival barker, a ballpoint pen salesman, a television repairmen. He also served a hitch in the U.S. Marines and became a top-ranker racing driver.

"Although I'm a city boy at heart, I like farm life," he said. "Working with animals gives you a great feeling of right and wrong. Farmers are dead-shot honest people.

"You can learn a lot of odd things on a farm, too. For example, I learned that pigs like to eat coal. Just why, I don't know. But they'll eat all the coal you carry to them."

It was while drifting from job to job in Greenwich Village that Steve became interested in acting.

That was in 1950. Steve lived in a $19-a-month walkup apartment and earned — when he could find work — $1.15 an hour repairing television sets.

"There was a cook in a little restaurant who would trust me for up to $30 worth of veal cutlets and beer. He gave me a nickname — 'Desperado.'

"It wasn't too hard a life, but all I really miss from those Greenwich Village days is the obscurity I enjoyed then. Those are the good old days for me.

"What difference has success made in my life? well" — Steve chuckled drily — "somehow I seem to have more friends."

McQueen is built as trimly as a middleweight boxer. He believes in keeping himself, as well as his racing cars, perfectly tuned up.

"Self indulgence is a bad thing for a man," he observed. "Many people who win a little success have a tendency to forget the importance of their body. You can buy a new car but you can't buy yourself a new body if you wreck the one you have.

"I believe in exercise, eating good, and not juicing too much. I like a little Mexican beer or white wine, but I don't go in for the hard booze. Can't handle it."

Steve has a simple philosophy of life:

"If a man doesn't have obstacles, he begins to decay. A man ought to do the job he likes. If he doesn't, he's twisting his own head."

If Steve has any fears, poverty isn't one of them.

"If I ever blew what I've made, I figure I could do it all over again," he said. "But I don't waste money.

"They say I'm a little tight, and I suspect it's because I throw pennies around like they were manhole covers."

Austin Seeks Cause Of Blackout

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Workers probed gingerly through miles of power cable and massive generating equipment today, trying to find the cause of a power failure that left 70 per cent of this capital city without electricity for almost an hour.

Officials said the cause of the blackout, which began at 9:55 a.m. (CST) Wednesday, could have been anything "from a snake to an insulator."

There were no injuries as a result of the sudden power failure. Traffic lights blinked to a stop, but traffic was light.

J. C. Blankenship, superintendent of electrical production for the city-owned power system, said a search was being pressed for the cause because officials are "concerned it could happen again until the real villain is found."

Spokesmen said the "villain" could be anything from faulty insulation to a snake or small animal that got into the inter locking power system.

The restoration of power was spotty, with some parts of the city dark for 10 minutes. Others were without power for 40 minutes.

All but four of the city's 20 power substations were knocked out, along with the main power generator near the downtown area. Parts of south and east Austin kept their power. Emergency generators were brought into operation at the city's four hospitals.

One elevator operator was caught between the second floor and the lobby of a downtown hotel. A relay on the emergency generator at the county courthouse failed, isolating 10 prisoners and their guards in the sixth floor. The sheriff's radio also was without power.

Tiffany's Proves A Giant Flop

NEW YORK (AP) — "Breakfast at Tiffany's," the season's most awaited musical, has flopped before its $1 - million guaranteed opening on Broadway. Producer David Merrick called the sudden closing "my Bay of Pigs."

Over $1 million in tickets had been bought for the show, an adaptation of the Truman Capote story. The money, Merrick said, would be returned. Merrick said he expected to take a $400,000 loss.

"Rather than subject the drama critics and the theater-going public to an excruciatingly boring evening, I decided to close," Merrick said Wednesday.

The show, starring television performers Mary Tyler Moore and Richard Chamberlain, had four preview performances in New York after weeks of tryouts in Boston and Philadelphia. It was scheduled to open here Dec. 26.

At Tuesday night's preview at the Majestic Theater, a quarter of the benefit audience walked out. Applause was thin and laughter scarce.

The only big guffaw came embarrassingly unwanted — when the script had a woman detective punch Miss Moore, playing Capote's hoyden Holly Golightly, in the stomach. Scenes, performers, dance sequences, and songs indicated in the program were not presented.

Capote, not involved in the production, disclosed reservations about it but said the show was "a really faithful adaptation."

Tech Promotes Dr. William Pearce

LUBBOCK (AP)—The Texas Tech Board of Regents Wednesday approved promotion of Dr. William M. Pearce to the newly created [illegible] executive vice president of the Lubbock school.

Pearce is currently Tech vice president for academic affairs. He will be succeeded by Dr. S. M. Kennedy, dean of the school of arts and sciences.

The directors also passed a resolution supporting the recommendations of the Texas College Coordinating Board, which has recommended tuition increases for state-supported colleges.

J. J. Fritch Construction Co. of Dallas was apparent low bidder on a constract as general contractor for Tech's proposed business administration building. The bid was $3,359,914.

Rusty Staub hit in 17 straight games for the Houston Astros last season.

SANTA AND THE GIANT FIGHTER

By LUCRECE BEALE

Synopsis: Santa and Billy get the ghost's tears that can turn most giants into pigs. Then Santa leaves Billy at the cave where the moon is hidden.

CHAPTER TEN

GOKO THE GIANT

Goko the giant was the bulkiest, heftiest giant in the world. He was larger than three elephants. His legs were huge as tree trunks and his arms as wide as storm water pipes He was a prodigious, stupendous, monumental colossus of a giant.

Except for his head. It was the size of a very large cantaloupe. And the brains in his head were as mushy as the seeds in the melon.

Goko lived in a towering castle on a sky - touched mountain. His brothers and cousins and nephews lived with him. Compared to Goko they were peewee giants. Goko was their master and they were his slaves.

Goko had a terrorific temper. Day and night he thundered through the castle whopping and whacking and thumping and lalloping the other giants. But it was not enough for him to be king of the giants. He wanted to be King of Fairyland and Santa Land and the ruler of all Little Folk everywhere.

He ordered his giants to capture the Fairy Queen. They caught her as she was travelling through the forest one evening on her way to a butterfly ball. They brought her to the castle and Goko asked her to be his bride.

Naturally the Fairy Queen refused. Goko locked her in a chamber. He swore he would marry her anyway on Christmas Day. Then he would be King of the Fairies whether she wished it or not.

The Queen used all her magic but could not free herself. She wept and begged to be set free. Goko only laughed. He bellowed that she should get accustomed to her bonds because she would be his prisoner even after she became his bride.

The Queen cried, "My magic may have failed but a real live boy will free me and you shall die by the light of the moon!"

Goko threw back his head and roared with laughter. All the same he was worried.

He ordered his slaves to capture the moon. That night the giants went to the edge of the Western Sea. When the moon set they caught it in a net and put it in a box and carried it back to Goko.

The big giant sealed the box so no one could open it. Then he carried it to a mammoth cave three miles beneath the ground. But still he wasn't satisfied. He went to the swamps where dragons were known to have their nests.

He walked through the oozy, squelchy quagmire until he came upon a monstrous dragon rising out of the plashy marsh. The creature was almost as long as Goko was tall. His tail was sharp as a fish knife. His eyes glittered. Smoke drifted from his nostrils.

The giant told him he wanted dragons to guard the moon cave. The monster said, unfortunately, he was the only dragon around. All the others had gone off to live in zoos where the food was good and living conditions reliable.

"You look fierce enough," growled Goko. "You alone must guard the cave."

No one before had told the dragon he was fierce looking. The truth was he would like to have gone to live in a zoo, too, but no zoo wanted him because he had never learned to breathe fire. Furthermore, his tail moved up and down like a puppy dog's instead of back and forth as a proper dragon's should.

The dragon did not like the giant and he did not want to help him. But he was afraid to refuse. Besides, he was very tired of the squishy, squashy bog where he lived. He really would like to have a change.

Goko led the dragon to the cave and showed him the box he must guard. Then the giant returned to his castle and boasted to the Fairy Queen.

"Nothing can harm me now for the moon will never shine again."

Events Indicate Red China Headed For Final Showdown

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Confusion generated by Red China's "proletarian cultural revolution" may be delaying a showdown in the Peking power struggle, but recent events point toward two strong factions bracing for a decisive test of strength.

Evidently there is discord among the supporters of the cultural revolution themselves and the young Red Guards who are their instruments for violence. They seem to have much difficulty sorting out friend from enemy.

Speeches by Premier Chou En-lai hint at a test between "the people" — by which he means the ruling party group — and "enemies of the people," meaning those suspected of opposing Mao Tse-tung and Defense Minister Lin Piao.

But the question of just who are people and who are nonpeople or enemies of the people seems to be creating anxiety among party members and officials, as if they were having difficulty determining which leaders could speak with authority and which could not. This is also reflected lower down the ladder among the Red Guards. Some attack certain officials while others defend them.

However, assaults on high-up leaders have been intensified. Up to now these have been appearing on Red Guards posters and in Red Guards papers. The signal that a big clash is in the offing likely will come when the attacks are taken up by the powerful central organs of the Chinese Communist press.

Accounts broadcast by Peking and those of foreign Communists in China disclose that there are still hundreds of thousands of Red Guards from the hinterland in Peking whose stay has been extended. They must be staying on for some specific purpose.

All this indicates the clash is getting closer. But who will win?

The Soviet Communist party press has been singling out Lin Piao, as well as Mao, for criticism. Evidently, the Russians figure that Lin Piao has the inside track and regard him as the heir upon whom Mao has decided to confer his power. But the Russians also appear to believe that the issue is yet to be decided.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

Hacienda Vista Hermos, Mexico — The morning sun scatters fresh gold across the gardens of this ancient sugar mill. Birds set up an early song in the trees outside my window.

I am thinking seriously of buying this place if I ever become a millionaire. But someone beat me to it.

A few years back, some sharp operators discovered the ruins of the old hacienda. It once belonged to Hernan Cortes, the conquorer of Mexico. He operated it as a huge sugar plantation, according to the story.

So these gentlemen bought it and began making some repairs. Stoned-up the walls where they were fallen. Patched roofs and put in glamorous colonial-type rooms.

They landscaped the grounds and it now is like an oasis in the midst of arid country.

The old aqueduct no longer carries water to the fields. But it arches pleasantly through the big swimming pool. One crumbling section has a huge prickly pear cactus growing out of it. A favorite with the photographic ladies and gentlemen who come here.

The dining room used to be a storage section for cut sugar cane. There are trees and plants growing out of the walls and the roof is partially gone.

This was left as is for atmosphere. You sit at heavy wooden tables in heavy wooden chairs. The waiters pad softly around and serve you like ghosts from the days of Cortes.

Outside the hacienda is the world. Separated from us by the thick stone walls surrounding the place.

The huge gate with the brass bells stands guard over the peace and quiet of the inside. In the old days they rang the bells to call the workers from the fields at sunset. Or to sound the alarm in case of an attack.

Everyone came scurrying up and entered through the heavy iron bar gate. For inside was safety as it is today.

The safety today is from what is going on in the world. Outside, you have all sorts of things.

Inside there is no war, no crisis, no political situation and nothing in the line of problems.

Gorgeous maidens leap in and out of the cool, blue waters of the swimming pool. They lie on the grass on straw mats and pick up a golden tan. Sit up occasionally to rub on a bit of oil. Turn over and baste the other side.

Writers step smartly around the swimming pool and take orders for tall glasses of vitamins.

The cantina does a brisk business and keeps the clients happy.

In the back is a pint-size bull ring where rodeos and occasional bull fights are held. The bulls are small and the fighters are mostly long on ambition but short on talent. Still, it is fun.

Sitting around the ring in the rows of concrete seats you have a view of the gentle valley that spills downhill. Once a mass of cane fields from which Mr. Cortes squeezed his sugar.

Today it is just scenery. There are patches of growing green from the evening thunder showers that come with plays of lightning after dark. The time when you can sleep like an infant while the thunder rolls and echos off the mountains.

Small wonder nobody ever wants to go home.

Former Ambassador Studies Border Woes

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The former U. S. ambassador to the Inter-American Economic Social Council says he plans to leave this week to confer with governors of California, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas on problems along the Mexican border.

Harr R. Turkel said in Mexico City Wednesday he was called out of retirement by President Johnson to help study the problems facing both nations.

A recently organized commission, tentatively named the U. S.-Mexican Economic and Social Committee, is now studying problems along the border, Turkel said.

Transient Almost Buried Alive

PHOENIX, Ariz., (AP) — John Edwards fell asleep in a large trash bin and came within minutes of being buried alive by a bulldozer.

The bin, containing trash, boxes, garbage and the 47-year-old transient was dumped into a large truck. The contents were compressed under 45,000 pounds of pressure.

Four hours later, the truck dumped its load at the city dump. Workers heard groans and spotted Edwards' head protruding. A bulldozer was due 10 minutes later to bury the trash.

Edwards said, "I guess I deserved it. I had been drinking."

Mr. Sohma Comes To US To Learn To Be Cowpoke

BROOKVILLE, Kan. (AP) — Kazu Sohma is the eldest son of a Japanese businessman and as such normally would go into his father's business. Instead, he became an apprentice cowboy.

"I'm the black sheep of my family," he said Wednesday. "They gave up on me."

Sohma, 26 and unmarried, wants to return to Japan and become a rancher. He already has 200 acres and 35 head of cattle on Hokkaido, Japan's northern island.

The climate of Hokkaido, he said, is good for cattle. The winters are severe, but pasturage is abundant because of plentiful moisture.

Sohma is apprenticing on the CK Ranch near Brookville, in central Kansas, 190 miles west of Kansas City, working for experience and his keep.

"He's very good help," said Jack Vanier, president of the ranch company, "very eager to learn."

He had gone into one of his father's business enterprises after schooling in the United States. Then in 1964 a livestock show came to Tokyo.

"I went out to look at those cattle and got all interested," he said. He talked his father, Yasutane Sohma, into letting him add cattle raising to the family's investments. Sohma returned to the United States last September, studied artificial insemination and cattle grooming at Kansas City, and three weeks ago came to the CK Ranch.
