

Voters Name Choices In City And School District Elections

With a city and school election in Post and six other school elections elsewhere in Garza County, more ballots were cast in two days Saturday and Tuesday than will be cast all the rest of the year, 1953 being an "off" election year.

In Post Tuesday, Roy Baker and E. S. Stewart were re-elected to the city commission, and T. L. Jones was re-elected mayor without opposition.

In the commissioners' race, Baker received 130 votes, Stewart, 106, and H. G. Flowers, 60. Of the total 156 votes cast, Mayor Jones received 143.

In Saturday's school trustee election, Paul Jones, incumbent, and Leo Acker were elected, each receiving 85 votes. Other candidates were J. W. "Pat" Henderson, who polled 47 votes, and O. K. Bowen, who received 46.

The trustee votes were canvassed at a board meeting Monday night, with reorganization of the board following. Robert Cox, who has been serving as secretary, was elected president to succeed Jones, who was elected vice president. Acker was elected secretary.

Other members of the school board are Dowe H. Mayfield, George Tillman, James Minor and Henry Wheatley. The outgoing trustee is Monta Moore, who did not seek re-election.

Returns in the election for two members of the Garza County Board of Education and for trustee elections in the four common school districts were canvassed Tuesday at a special meeting of the commissioners court.

Ties in the Justiceburg and Garbota districts resulted in only one trustee being elected at each place.

At Justiceburg, Lee Reed, incumbent, received 14 votes, Henry Key, also an incumbent, Douglas McWhirt and Homer W. Meser tied with 13 votes each. Dan Robinson and Virgil Streety received 11 each, and W. C. Caffey, seven.

Bryan J. Williams received 16 votes at Garbota to win re-election. Tying with nine votes each were Horace Danfels and Glenn Mathis. Bishop Mathis and Allie White received three votes each.

A. O. Parrish was re-elected trustee at Graham, with nine votes. Dillard Thompson received four to win election as a new member of the board. Three votes were cast for Henry Lee Mason and two each for Wilburn Morris and Thelbert McBride.

At Grassburg, Russell Wilks was elected trustee with six votes. One vote was cast for R. A. Siewert.

At Close City, D. C. Morris was re-elected to be board, and Barrie Jones and Chester Morris were chosen as new trustees, according to unofficial reports received at the office of County Supt. Dean A. Robinson.

E. E. Peel and Julius C. Fumagalli were re-elected to the county school board from Precincts 2 and 3, respectively. Peel received 41 votes and Fumagalli, 10.

No returns had been received late Wednesday on the election in the Southland Independent School District.

Independent school districts canvass their own election returns.

J. T. Curb served as judge for both the city and school elections. Clerks in the city election were Mrs. Irene Rogers and Mrs. Virgil Priddy. School election clerks were Mrs. Lillie McKee and Mrs. Jessie Voss.

Turnouts in the city and school elections here and the trustee elections in other districts were considered "extremely light."

Write-in voting also was light in all the elections. In the city election, there were only three write-ins—two for mayor and one for commissioner.

POST YOUNGSTERS SLOW TO REGISTER

Time Short For Derby Contest

Although the registration deadline for Lubbock's sixth annual Soap Box Derby has been extended, Post youngsters planning to enter the event are urged to register as soon as possible.

Lucas of Connell Chevrolet Company said Monday.

Lucas reported that no Post youths had registered for the derby, although had been made several days before that the local Chevrolet firm was ready to accept registrations.

Lucas said he was surprised that there had been no entries.

since several boys expressed an interest in taking part in the derby when he discussed it several nights ago at a meeting of Boy Scout Troop 16.

The official deadline was Saturday, but it was announced in Lubbock that late registration would be permitted as some of the dealers did not get started on registration until several days later than planned.

Parents of boys registering for the derby are required to sign the application blank, which is also to be signed by the boy. The two age groups for the derby are 11 to 13 years old and 14 and 15 years old.

Each boy registering will be given an official rule book. He is asked to secure an individual, business firm or organization to sponsor his racer and the sponsor will pay the cost of wheels and axle sets and steering gear assemblies, totaling $15.75. A boy must not spend more than $10 on materials for his racer, exclusive of the cost of wheels and axles.

The derby winner at Lubbock on July 6 will be eligible to compete in the national derby at Akron, Ohio.

The local sponsor reminds youths wishing to register to do so at once. While late entries are being accepted, a derby deadline is expected to be set and there probably will be no further extensions, it was pointed out.

Groundwork Is Laid Here For Jaycee Group

Groundwork for organization of a Junior Chamber of Commerce in Post was laid last Thursday night at a meeting here of eight Ralls Jaycees and seven Post men interested in the organization.

Bill Mays, president of the Ralls Jaycees, explained the functions and community value of a Junior Chamber of Commerce to James King, Carroll Bowen, D. C. Roberts, Bud Everett, Rufus Gerner, Alton Clary and Virgil Short, all of Post.

Another meeting is to be held in the near future, probably during the week of April 20, to further discuss plans for organization of a Jaycee unit here, King said Monday. A date for the meeting is expected to be set in time to be announced in next week's Post Dispatch.

Active membership in junior chambers of commerce are open to men between the ages of 21 and 35.

Transportation Of Liquor Is Charged

James Riggins, 27-year-old Negro of Paducah, and Bonifacio Davila, 26-year-old Mexican of Slaton, were charged in county court with illegal transportation of whiskey and beer, following their arrest here Friday afternoon by Sheriff Carl Rains and Deputy Sheriff Red Floyd.

The Negro pleaded guilty to the charge Monday and was fined $150 and costs. Davila pleaded not guilty and was bound over to the May term of county court.

The officers confiscated six cases of beer, six pints of whiskey and the automobile occupied by the men at the time of their arrest.

Sheriff Rains said Tuesday that charges were to be filed against Kelly Arnold, 23, in connection with the theft of a set of 1953 license tags from a Post man's automobile. Arnold, whose home is in Marshall, but who has been employed here as a truck driver, was arrested at a local hotel by the sheriff.

The officer reported that the owner notified Constable L. E. Claborn, Sr., after seeing his missing tags on another automobile. Later, the sheriff said, the tags See LIQUOR CHARGE, Page 8

$54,488.55 Earned On ACP Practices In 1952

One hundred and ninety-four Garza County farm and ranch operators earned $54,488.55 under the 1952 Agricultural Conservation Program, it was reported this week by Mike E. Custer, secretary of the Garza County Production Marketing Administration.

The largest amount paid for a practice was $22,913.70 for deep plowing. A total of 4,681.1 acres was deep plowed on 63 farms.

Other practices, the extent and payment were as follows:

Terraces, 219,843 linear feet on 16 farms, $2,998.04; diversion terraces, 11,679 linear feet on six farms, $357.13; subsoiling, 4,399, 8 acres on 60 farms, $5,323.35; stalk protection, 170 acres on three farms, $42.50; land leveling, 3.4 acres on one farm, $51; Permanent irrigation systems, 5,350 feet of 12-inch pipe, 700 feet of 2-inch pipe and eight turn-out boxes on four farms, $2,356; dam construction, earthen dams containing 55,470 cubic yards on 12 ranches, $5,547; six earthen dams rebuilt, adding 14,272 cubic yards to the old dams, $1,427.20; superphosphate application, 6,600 pounds of 20 per cent superphosphate, $1,427.20.

Mrs. Fritz Greenfield of Post has been employed by chamber directors to replace Mrs. Lawrence and is at the C. of C. office this week acquainting herself with her new duties. She will assume full charge of the office Monday. Mrs. Greenfield was chief operator at the telephone exchange here for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence have a daughter, Sheila, who is a third grade student in the Post Grade School. Lawrence was editor of the Post Dispatch for about a year.

Mrs. Lawrence said this week that she regretted leaving Post and had enjoyed working with townspeople as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. She said she hopes the same degree of cooperation is shown Mrs. Greenfield, the new secretary.

FFA Chapter Is Host To State President

Texas Future Farmers of America president, Joe Dan Boyd of Willsboro, visited here recently with the Post FFA chapter. During his visit he made a talk to freshman vocational agricultural students.

Following the president's visit, Bobby Crowder, president of the Post chapter, received a letter from him, in which he wrote that he had enjoyed his visit to Post.

More Plans Made For Honor Event

Additional plans for the May 19 honor barbecue for Drs. A. C. Surman and D. C. Williams were made Monday afternoon at a meeting of steering committee members at the City Hall.

Another meeting was set for 4:30 p. m. May 4 at the City Hall, at which time all ticket committeemen will be expected to make reports.

Tickets went on sale last week for the affair, which is being held in appreciation of the more than 40 years of practice by the two doctors in Garza County.

The barbecue is to be held at the Boy Scout mess hall at Camp Post, with Jeff Williams, Oklahoma humorist, as guest speaker.

Last Rites Held For Victim Of Auto Accident

Last rites for Mrs. O. R. Cearley, 70-year-old Garza County woman, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident 10 miles west of Jayton Sunday afternoon, were held here at 3 p. m. Wednesday.

Mrs. Cearley's husband, 70, was seriously injured in the accident, which occurred when the couple's automobile collided with a car occupied by five Negroes, four of them from Post.

Mr. Cearley is in the Callan Hospital at Roter, suffering from head and face injuries, bruises and abrasions.

The Cearleys have been residents of the Close City community since 1915.

The Rev. A. C. Hardin of Lamesa and the Rev. Roy Shahan, pastor, officiated for the services, which were conducted in the First Baptist Church. Music included a solo, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," by Miss Wilma Pirtle and a solo by the Rev. Paul Gaston, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Fabens.

Hudman Funeral home directed burial in Terrace Cemetery.

Mrs. Cearley was born Agnes Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hill, Dec. 1, 1882, on a farm near Oxford, Miss. At the age of nine, she came with her family to Wise County.

She was married to Oran Roberts Cearley Sept. 2, 1900, in Wise County. To this union were born six children, one of whom died in infancy. The couple moved to Post.

Sunday Rain Boosts 1953 Total To 3.23

Sunday afternoon's welcome rain, which started out as if it "meant business," deposited .41 of an inch of moisture in the immediate Post area, but heavier falls were reported in other sections of the county.

The heaviest rainfall was reported from the Graham area, in the southwestern corner of the county, where the average precipitation Sunday was about an inch.

Pleasant Valley also received more rain than did Post, but a lighter fall than the one here was reported at Justiceburg, in southern Garza County.

The 41 of an inch recorded here was measured on the Double U Company's gauge.

Sunday's rain brought the 1953 total for Post to 3.13 inches.

THREE WINNERS ARE TO BE SELECTED

Offer 'Western Week' Prizes

Cash prizes totaling $30 will be awarded the best-dressed "cowboys" and "cowgirls" during Western Week, May 18-27, preceding the Post Stampede and Rodeo. It was announced Tuesday by Ralph Kirkpatrick, chairman of the rodeo association's western regalia committee.

Kirkpatrick said six judges, whose identity will be unknown to the general public, will be named to select the three citizens most appropriately dressed for the occasion. First, second and third place prizes of $15, $10 and $5 will be awarded.

The three winners, Kirkpatrick said, will be selected from among all age groups. "There'll be only one division to the contest," he said.

The regalia committee chairman also announced that all Post residents will be expected to wear Western garb during the ten-day period preceding the rodeo, or pay fines ranging from 25 cents upward.

The customary "penalties" in such cases will be imposed on those refusing to wear western regalia or pay the fine, Kirkpatrick said.

Other members of the committee are Jake Haskell, Clint Herring, Powell Shytles, Jim Lundberg, Cy Thaxton and L. E. Webb.

County Offered Five-Month Contract On Cloud-Seeding

An agreement whereby farmers and ranchers of Garza County may receive the benefits of the West Texas Weather Improvement District's cloud-seeding program for a five-month period has been worked out, subject to subscription of sufficient funds to fulfill the contract by April 13, it was reported this week by John F. Lott, Garza County director and president of the district's board.

Terry and Gaines counties have dropped out of the district, leaving only Garza, Borden, Lynn and Dawson counties, Lott said.

The district president said information had been received from Dr. Irving P. Krick's headquarters in Denver, Colo., that Garza County would be permitted to come into the program for a five-month period on the basis of funds already in escrow and additional funds to be paid in by the time of next Monday night's district meeting at Lamesa.

The five-month period designated for cloud seeding in Garza County is April 15-Sept. 15, the time of year when rain is most needed on crops and range land.

Lott explained that by going ahead and entering into the five-month contract, Garza County would still be a part of the district, and that by the end of that time, an opportunity probably would be presented to join a larger weather improvement district.

He said plans are to form a district in Floyd and Crosby Counties and the west half of Motley County, and that Garza could join that district, or, possibly, a much larger one which may be organized for the entire Brazos River area.

"We are on the verge of getting the program over, at least for the five-month period agreed on," Lott said. He urges county farmers and ranchers desiring to benefit from the cloud-seeding operations to mail their check or draft to the First National Bank of Post.

The fees are four and a half cents for cropland and one and a half cents for grassland.

Last year, only the west half of Garza County was a part of the weather improvement district, but this year the entire county is to benefit if the contract is made.

DR. WILLIAMS TO SPEAK

Cancer Crusade To 'Kickoff' April 20

The 1953 American Cancer Crusade in Garza County will get under way following a "kick-off" dinner at 7:30 p. m. Monday, April 20, at the City Hall, the Rev. Joe E. Boyd, county crusade chairman, announced Tuesday.

Dr. D. C. Williams will be guest speaker at the dinner, to which all workers in this year's crusade are invited. The campaign will be held during the ensuing week.

The cancer crusade will be emphasized at churches on Sunday, April 19. There will be no special collection for the program, but emphasis will be placed on the campaign at that time. Rev. Boyd said.

The educational program is under way this week, with posters being placed in downtown business places and public places such as the courthouse.

Committees for this year's crusade will be announced in next week's Post Dispatch, according to the chairman.

Last year, Garza County went well over its $353 quota. This year's quota has not yet been announced.

"Cancer Strikes One in Five, Strike Back, Give" is the official slogan of the American Cancer Society for the 1953 crusade.

"This appeal," the chairman said, "was selected because it includes all the facts believed necessary to a king people to give to combat such a well known and common enemy as cancer."

Gain Shown In Early School Census Report

School census totals for 1953 in the Post Independent School District showed 950 whites and 27 Negroes of school age, according to a report Tuesday by D. C. Arthur, superintendent of schools.

The current figure is an increase of 20 over the 1952 count of 931 whites and 26 Negroes, the superintendent said.

The greatest gain is among six-year-olds, 94 of them being enumerated in this year's census, as compared with 68 last year.

Supt. Arthur said the 977 figure reported Tuesday is not a final one for this year's census, which officially ended April 1. Complete figures, expected within a few weeks, will show an even greater increase, it was explained.

Meanwhile, plans are under way by Ellis Mills, Post Grade School principal, for pre-regis-

1,650 Tags Issued Before Deadline

Approximately 1,650 passenger automobile tags for 1953 were issued up to the April 1 deadline, according to C. E. Cederholm, county tax assessor-collector.

Total passenger car registrations in the county in 1952 was about 2,200, but many of these were for new cars purchased after the April 1 deadline. Cederholm said.

There were long lines of late buyers at the tag office right up to the deadline, the tax official reported.

Motor vehicle owners who have not yet registered their car or truck are warned against operating them without 1953 license plates.

Rural Play Day Events Are Set

Softball and volleyball play-offs in the annual Garza County Rural School Play Day will be held Friday and Tuesday, and other day events to be held Friday, April 17, at the Garbota school.

The softball play-offs are to be held from 1 to 4 p. m. Friday at Garbota. The volleyball tournament will be held Tuesday night, April 14, in the Graham school gymnasium.

Mrs. J. H. House, Garbota school principal, is director of this year's play day activities.

Thursday to Thursday...

By CHARLES DIDWAY

The television "bug" is on another biting rampage in Post and vicinity now that reception is better. Establishment of Lubbock's station KUD-TV in its new headquarters, where it is transmitting from its new 832-foot tower, is responsible for the improved reception.

A few nights ago, before the reception improved, we were drinking coffee at a local cafe and getting a free TV ride, but through a blinding "snowstorm." A fellow a couple of seats down asked us, "Is reception always that poor here?" We told him we'd rarely seen it better, and he said, "Why, up where I live, it's much better than that." We asked him where he lived and he said, "Detroit."

We didn't tell him so, but that reminded us of the soldier who, back in the States after two years in Japan, asked another soldier if he could speak Japanese. Getting a negative reply, he said, "Dang, but you're dumb! Why, over in Japan three and four-old kids can speak it!"

We learned a new game the other night at the Junior Rodeo Association meeting. Some of the crowd had chipped in to buy the Cokes and after they'd been passed around, we saw several, including "Scotty" Samson, who was sitting next to us, start looking at the bottoms of their bottles, after someone had yelled, "Who wants to play far away?" It took us awhile to catch on, but we finally learned that the winner in such a game is the one whose bottle is stamped with the name of the farthest away bottling plant.

We looked at the bottom of our bottle and decided we'd pass after seeing that it had been stamped in Wichita Falls. We would have beaten Scotty, however, since his bottle bore a Lubbock stamp. More pressing business interfered to keep a game of "far away" from getting started, but Bill Long probably would have been the winner. His bottle was stamped "Ogden, Utah."

Local quarter horse enthusiasts will be interested in the news that the American Quarter Horse Association has authorized the purchase of one of the animals for presentation to President Eisenhower. Rep. Walter Rogers of Pampa expounded the merits of the famous southwestern cow pony to the President at a luncheon a few days ago for some twenty members of the House. The President showed interest and Rogers said he would try to locate him one of the animals to be used on Ike's Pennsylvania farm.

Several Post baseball fans got a look Friday afternoon at two major league teams that are considered pennant contenders, when the New York Giants and Cleveland Indians played an exhibition game at Lubbock. Most forecasters, including Frank Eck of the Associated Press, are picking the Giants and Indians to finish second in their respective leagues, but a few are picking one or both for first place in their loops. All 16 teams will be "off to the races" come Monday. Now's the time to pick 'em!

This is as far as we were able to go with this week's column on Saturday morning, but we're winding it up with this final paragraph on Sunday afternoon—now that something has "happened." We uncovered our typewriter at the first clap of thunder and had our hands

A GOOD INVESTMENT...

The American Cancer Society is again conducting its annual campaign for funds in Post and Garza County. In considering the request for contributions, most people, it is pretty certain, will ask themselves just how important is it that they give to this cause.

Can they also ask with justification, "I've given year after year and still we're threatened by cancer?"

Each man's answer will be his own. Our answer is based on the one word, "hope."

It must be remembered that the long hard road of research can turn at any moment. A look at the record of scientific achievement will demonstrate this better than anything else.

The death rate from rheumatic fever declined 53 per cent between 1944 and 1950, the last year for which figures are available. Deaths from pneumonia and influenza declined 47 per cent in the same period. From 1944 to 1949 appendicitis deaths were cut 53.7 per cent and the scarlet fever death rate dropped 70 per cent.

The over-all death rate in the U. S. was reduced 15 per cent from 1937 to 1950. This represents a saving of 1,763,347 lives.

This tremendous improvement is directly due to the development of the sulfa drugs, penicillin and other antibiotics.

But these wondrous jailers of infection did not leap full blown from the minds of their creators. They were the results of many patient years of plodding investigations.

And so, too, can it be with cancer. If the public can provide funds to keep the scientists at work long enough they will find the complete answer. Already, half of those who develop cancer could be saved by early diagnosis and prompt treatment.

More than $4,100,000 was allocated to research by the American Cancer Society in 1952. The ACS expects to increase the figure this year.

When you are asked to give, do it with great expectations—with the knowledge that cancer can be conquered and with the ever constant hope that it will be soon!

By reading the news dispatches and the second guessers' columns, you can come up with most any kind of an answer on what is behind the Kremlin's conciliatory moves. The theories range from the rosiest optimism to the darkest pessimism, but any way it turns out, 90 per cent of us probably are in for the surprise of our lives. Experience has proved that you just can't make a firm footing deal with the Kremlin, and we can rest assured that if anyone's foot slips in such a deal, the Reds are determined it shan't be theirs.

"We must write over and over again the old copybook maxims. Honesty is the best policy. There is no substitute for work. Folly brings its own penalty. Right living brings its own reward. The market place is mightier than any legislative hall."—W. Alton Jones.

Roger W. Babson Writes This Week...

Sees Ultimate Reduction Of Food Costs From Free Competition, Now Being Tried

NEW YORK CITY—The taking off of price controls has caused some prices to advance; but most prices have remained constant or have decreased. I am convinced that free competition, which now is being tried, will ultimately reduce the cost of foods.

Be Patient

There will be a lag between the wholesale price drop and the retail prices. In Florida I own a cattle ranch. Steers which sold on the hoof at thirty cents a pound two years ago now sell for ten cents. Cows which then sold at $200 can be bought for $60.

Readers wonder why the retail price of beef is still high. The answer is that the beef now in the stores for sale was purchased by the packers at high prices. We must wait until this high-priced beef is eaten before the retail price will drop further. This may take four to six months. The same principle applies to many foods.

Advice About Home Freezers

Deep freezers are good for the home and good for the nation as a whole. These, however, should be filled intelligently. To get the most from buying in quantity, the family should give real study to seasons, crop reports, and other factors. The first verse of the third chapter of the Bible Book of Ecclesiastes gives good advice to those who buy food for storing.

We should buy in quantity when beef, fruit, vegetables, etc. are cheap; but we should also consider quality as well as price. It is wise perhaps to buy some meats now; but wait before storing beef.

Political Aspects

While such lower food prices please city dwellers, falling prices cause much grief to millions of rural families. Cattlemen are now taking big losses. City folks laugh about the dairy mess and similar mistakes, but they all have a sad human side of grief, loss and disappointment. Let us be sympathetic with all unfortunate rural people.

President Eisenhower is getting thousands of letters every day from honest, hard-working farmers who are being "ruined." This probably accounts for his urging Secretary Benson to "go slowly." Otherwise, he may fear that the Republicans will lose control of Congress in 1954. Customs which have existed for twenty years cannot be corrected quickly. The same principle involves tariff changes.

Radio Market News

Radio news of wholesale farm prices is good for the farmers, fruit growers and others; but such news does not help the housewife much. Hence, newspapers could help consumers to interpret properly the valuable food advertisements in their papers by reporting weekly the amount of fresh, canned and frozen food products on the market.

Every housewife should carefully read all advertisements, especially the ads of the reliable super-markets. How to study local advertisements is a work which Women's Clubs could take up.

Farmers Need Self-Control

Don't blame salesmen of fertilizers, seeds, farm machinery and real estate for urging farmers to produce more. Yet, the fact that some farmers have not the good sense and self-control to properly weigh such sales talks is one reason for their troubles today. It might be a good idea this year to devote the State Agricultural Fairs to teaching farmers some simple economic truths.

Neither farmers nor consumers can depend upon most politicians for honest advice. This applies especially to the promoters of certain unneeded irrigation projects. Farmers could get into the same box in 1929, because every farmer is forced to speculate on weather and other unpredictable factors. Another thought: Buy things from your local stores and, if possible, buy home-made products. If farm organizations would teach some economics, there need be no more "Butter Scandals" and the entire dairy industry would ultimately benefit.

Getting Out On The Limb

by EDDIE the editor

One sure way for wifey to wreck a marriage is to correct her husband as he tells his favorite joke.

I didn't mind so much some of my wife's friends pointing at the snorty Easter bonnet I made for her, but it burned me down when my neighbor's bird-dog pointed it.

Every spring I get palpitations of the heart which have nothing to do with young love. They're caused by the thought of the bad accidents which invariably come along with good weather, accidents which in most cases are avoidable.

It's a crime that so many people die needlessly each year just when that wonderful spring weather makes life seem a lot more worth living. Which brings on this thought—I like the theme being used by the National Safety Council in their spring safety campaign:

"THIS IS THE LIFE—LIVE TO ENJOY IT."

This new slogan outstrips those of "Don't Speed, Don't Take Chances, Don't Do This and Don't Do That."

One of the Council's current ads, picturing a group of boys and girls riding bicycles on the highway, under the caption of "This is the Life! Let Them Live to Enjoy It," bears the following text:

"They're off... to the ball park, the swimming pool, the old camp grounds!"

"And they're not always as careful as they might be, either. 'This being true, let's keep youngsters in mind as we drive during the vacation season!"

"BE CAREFUL—going and coming—the CHILD you save may be your own!"

The United Nations "World Health Day" was set for April 7... but it didn't amount to much. With the shape the world's in, you would think they would set it for April 1.

This newspaper, in its week-to-week efforts to keep up with the best in its field, often gets a little help from outside sources. Such was the case this past week when I received in a plain envelope a copy of a pamphlet bearing the imposing—if long winded—title, "The Southern People's Common Program for Democracy, Prosperity and Peace."

Neither the general appearance nor contents of the booklet are such as to excite interest, but it takes on added stature now that I've learned it is one of the Communist propaganda booklets about which the daily press of the South and Southwest is making much ado.

Probably every newspaper in Texas received one of the booklets. The fact that I, too, have bared it in its true form is proof that I DO open and examine—not necessarily read—all the mail received at the Dispatch office, although 90 per cent of it is less interesting, as well as less obnoxious, than the Communist propaganda booklet I received Saturday.

The booklet invites me to write for further information to Southern Regional Committee, Communist Party of the U. S. A., 268 Seventh Avenue, New York 1, N. Y. I doubt if I'll write, unless it is to find out just what in the heck a Southern Regional Committee is doing with a New York address, but I do intend to keep the booklet on file. Who knows but what by having it in my possession I may someday be called upon to appear before some sort of an inquisitorial body, which would mean dusting off my colored glasses and making other preparations to bump shoulders with some of the other intelligentsia, including Hollywood celebrities.

I didn't read the entire booklet, but I did glance at some of the chapter headings, blurbs, footnotes and flyspecks. The only sensible thing I saw in my cursory examination of the booklet was the reminder, "If it's about Communism—ask a Communist!" I'm the same way about polecats. If I ever want to know for sure whether one of the b—s has been descended, I'll find out from him—I won't take someone else's word for it.

I've just learned that Christine's sister will have a baby. All of which makes me wonder if Christine will be an aunt, an uncle or an auntie.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Our Contemporaries Are Saying:

Other Aspects To Job

You might have seen the small article in the (pardon the expression) Lubbock Morning Avalanche last Wednesday announcing that Chrysler Corporation had sliced an average of $100 off the retail price of all Plymouth, Dodge, DeSoto and Chrysler passenger cars. In that small article, there's a lot of significance. As a local automobile dealer commented to me the other day, 1953 will see some separating of the boys and the men. After such an extended period of polishing their heels on a desk top, a lot of car salesmen are going to be surprised to learn that there are other aspects to the job than keeping a waiting list of those who want to buy cars—any style, any color, any delivery date.—The Slaton Slatonite.

Trail Dust

As a youth I used to watch the flooded-swollen river as it tossed trees and debris in a brown, roaring current. It cut into great walls of cliffs and masses of earth and rock caused the earth to vibrate as they fell into the savage stream. Finally the madness of each flood would pass, the river bed would become dry sand and shy little minnows would return to the placid pools scooped out about the roots of upturned trees. Nature is majestic in its endless, timeless activity. Some many years have passed since I watched the angry waters rushing onward. And I wonder at the extent of its journey. Perhaps it is part of the depths of some distant sea; the river's eternity.—The Matador Tribune.

Consistency Is A Jewel

Consistency is indeed a jewel. The Legislature at Austin throws up its hands in holy terror at a bill that would regulate beer advertising on television, yet it passes a bill that would prohibit various professions from advertising their product or services as a matter of "ethics." Many people who own television sets and many who take newspapers would much rather liquor and beer advertising was deleted since they do not wish their children to be influenced by such. But the law-making bodies refuse to take any steps to regulate the advertising of intoxicating liquors either in newspapers, radio or television, for fear of setting a bad "precedent."—The Lockney Beacon.

Highway Score

On our recent trip to Louisiana, we were scared within an of a washing machine.

If this would work, and I don't see any reason why it shouldn't, except perhaps from a logical standpoint, it might be called the "chain letter to end all chain letters." A chain letter received by an area business man read as follows:

"Dear Friend:

"This chain letter started in Reno, in the hope of bringing relief and happiness to the tired business man. Unlike most letters of this type, it does not cost any money.

"Simply send a copy to five equally tired male friends, then bundle up your wife and send her to the fellow at the top of the list, adding your name to the bottom. When your name comes to the top of the list, you will receive 16,780 women.

"Have faith—do not break this chain. One man broke the chain and got his own wife back.

"Sincerely,

"A Tired Business Man."

inch of our lives several times by cattle running on the highways. Evidently most of the parishes down there permit animals to run at large, since both cattle and hogs were occupying the right-of-way in profusion. We saw a couple of dead cows at the edge of the pavement, but didn't stop to see whether they had tangled with a car or had died from a tummyache. Voters in the county election April 18 will decide whether "horses, mules, jacks, jennets and cattle" can legally run at large in Gaines County. On another ballot they will decide the same proposition for hogs, sheep and goats.—Gaines County News.

New Paving Planned

Nearly ten miles of new farm-to-market road will be built in the northwest part of Lynn County this summer, the Texas Highway Department has announced. New paving west from the present corner west of Dixie on the Dixie-New Home paved road, will give people of the Petty community a direct paved route in to Lubbock. Another new section of paving will fill the unpaved gap between New Home and Slide, Lubbock County. Bids on the two projects will be opened by the Department in Austin on April 15.—The Lynn County News.

I'd love to end this hour for you!

And Reddy Kilowatt—and an electric clothes dryer—can end that hour you spend carrying the clothes out to the line, hanging them up, and carrying them back. End, too, the waiting for the right day to dry clothes, for every day is a good drying day when you use clean, fresh, no-fading electric "sunshine" to dry your clothes. You'll have an hour to spend—on yourself—when you let Reddy end the clothes hanging hour for you.

Extension Service Gives Information On Situation Facing Cotton Producers In 1953 And The Immediate Years Ahead

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the first of a series of articles on the situation facing cotton producers in 1953 and the immediate years ahead. The information being presented by the Extension Service at the request of the Secretary of Agriculture, is to keep the facts and situation before the producers so they can make their own decisions.

marketing quotas are in effect. If acreage allotments and marketing quotas are proclaimed for the 1954 cotton crop, present provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provide that:

1. "The national acreage allotment for cotton for 1953 and subsequent years shall be apportioned to the states on the basis of the acreage planted to cotton (including the acreage regarded as planted to cotton under the provisions of Public Law 12, Seventy-ninth Congress) during the five calendar years immediately preceding the calendar year in which the national marketing quota is proclaimed, with adjustments for abnormal weather conditions during such period." Public Law 28, 81st Congress, prohibits the use of 1949 cotton acreage in determining state, county and farm allotments. The base period, therefore, for establishing 1954 state acreage allotments is the five years 1947, 1948, 1950, 1951, and 1952. The 1955 base period will be the five years 1948, 1950, 1951, 1952, and 1953 and each year thereafter the first year will be dropped and the year following the last will be added.

2. The state acreage allotment, less the state acreage reserve withheld by the state committee, shall be apportioned to counties on the basis of the same five-year period that is provided in apportioning the national acreage allotment to states.

3. The 1954 county acreage allotment, less the acreage reserve withheld by the county committee, shall be apportioned to farms on which cotton was planted during any one of the three years 1951, 1952, and 1953, primarily on the basis of a county uniform percentage of cropland on the farm excluding the acreage devoted to specified crops. If cotton was planted on the farm in either 1951 or 1952, the farm will be eligible for a 1954 allotment as a regular cotton producing farm regardless of whether cotton is planted on it in 1953. Also, if more than five acres were planted in either 1951 or 1952, no additional benefits can be secured under the minimum acreage allotment provisions of the law by planting a larger acreage in 1953. The law provides that the minimum 1954 allotment for a farm shall not be less than the smaller of (a) 5 acres or (b) the highest acreage planted to cotton on the farm during the three years 1951, 1952, and 1953.

The maximum acreage which can be allotted to a farm in apportioning the county allotment on the basis of a uniform percentage of cropland will be the highest acreage planted to cotton on the farm in the three years

1951, 1952, and 1953. In 1950 only a small portion of the farm allotments of more than five acres were limited by the highest cotton acreage history in the three-year period 1946, 1947, and 1948.

The above statements are all based on the present provisions of the law. If Congress amends any of these provisions relating to the base period and method for establishing allotments, the above statements may be altered.

BITS-OF-NEWS

Miss Jessie Pearce, Garza County home demonstration agent, is in College Station this week attending a training meeting for new Extension Service agents.

Harrison Davis of Post and his nephew, Sam Davis of Lubbock, returned Monday from Bentonville, Ark., where they had spent several days visiting Harrison's brother, who is 82 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and children spent Easter in Brownfield visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Harris.

Kenneth Woodall of Colorado City, former employee of the Post Dispatch's mechanical department, was a visitor here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles Dalby of Lubbock spent the weekend here with relatives.

There's an old saying that a thing is worth what someone is willing to pay for it. Well, if you could tour the wholesale and retail used car auctions around the country, if you could survey hundreds of used car lots you would discover that used Fords bring higher prices than any competitive make—and by substantial amounts.

THAT'S WHY we feel our '53 cars should not be compared with cars in the same price range. Not because our competitors don't do a good job—obviously they do—but because we feel Ford Cars have more in common with the highest priced automobiles. The similarities are far greater than the differences.

For example, Today, the most expensive cars in this country have V-type, 8-cylinder engines. Ford Cars have had this exact same type of engine for over 20 years.

What's more astounding, the current Strato-Star V-8 sells for hundreds of dollars less than several other makers charge for a six-cylinder car. Now there's nothing wrong with a Six but they do cost less to make. Ford makes a Six—the most modern overhead valve Six in the industry. And if it's a six-cylinder car you want, Ford has it and for less money than the V-8, which is as it should be.

What about ride? Here's another Ford similarity with high-priced cars... Riding Comfort. One of the misconceptions for many years has been that weight—sheer weight—is what it takes to make a car ride well. Ford has found that you can make a 3000-pound car ride softer and hold the road better by far than many cars that weigh a full 1000 pounds more. In the '53 Ford, for example, front end road shock has been reduced up to 80%. We say it compares most favorably with the heaviest cars sold today.

What about automatic transmissions? It would take the fingers of both hands to count the various kinds of automatic and semi-automatic transmissions on the market today. The one we offer is called Forgomatic. It is the most versatile on the market, it represents the most profound consideration of engine-to-wheel power transfer—and that it does the best job for our engines isn't even open to question. It "shifts" better than you could shift by hand.

What you can see is also important. Here again Ford Cars lead not only in their price field but in the medium and upper brackets as well. Ford visibility is Full-Circle Visibility. This means huge, curved unobstructed glass area, front and rear, plus side windows that allow all passengers what the hotels call "room with a view."

Appearance? A higher price, of course, does not make a car more beautiful. Conversely, beauty in a Ford comes "for free." Ford has found that it costs no more to develop a beautiful car than one that is less pleasing in appearance. You can drive up to the most exclusive doorways in the world and feel perfectly at home in your Ford. Fords "belong" in exactly the same social category as the finest, one-of-kind creations. After all, a Ford is a custom creation multiplied.

What about running costs? Here's one place that Ford's advantages are obvious. For oil and gas economy Ford has the big cars whipped. Ford parts cost less. Ford service charges are less. Ford tire mileage is thousands of miles greater. And, Ford depreciation is the lowest of any car on the market—bar none.

What are Fords made of? Some people have the idea that the costliest cars are made of "better stuff." It's true that some high-priced cars have costlier upholstery and fittings. What Ford has is so good, both in durability and appearance, that you probably could not tell the difference. You might even prefer it, because of its better design and more pleasing appearance.

Then there's the question of sheet metal. If you were to measure and analyze the sheet metal structure in the most expensive car, you most likely would find it identical in thickness to the corresponding panels in Ford.

After all, then, what is the difference between a Ford and the costliest cars?

In our opinion, the difference is largely a matter of dimensions, weight (and the power required to move it) plus the distinction of owning a car that not so many other people own. The desire for these things is understandable... and probably justified for people who are willing to pay the price to satisfy it.

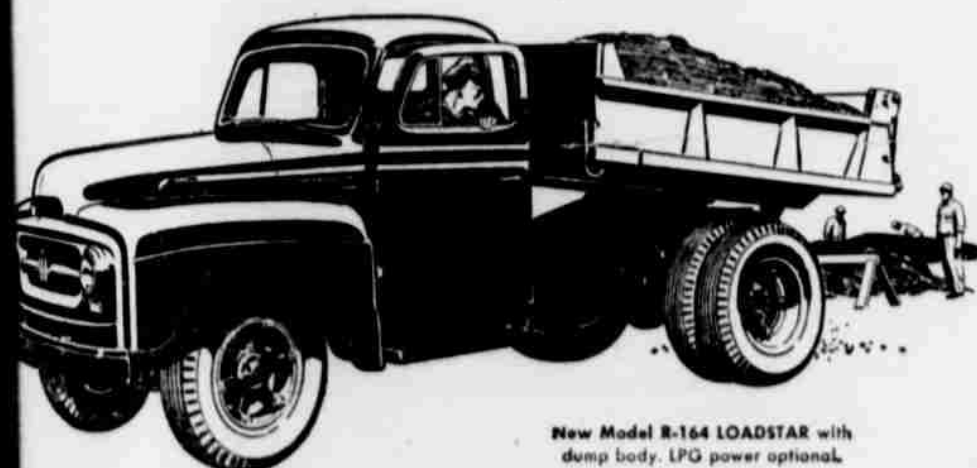

As to comparing Ford with other cars in its price range, by all means do so if you wish. But, as we said before, you'll get a better picture of Ford value by comparing with cars that are most like Fords—those that are priced up to twice as much. In fact, we think you'll quickly begin comparing the other cars with Ford—because the 1953 Ford has really established the New Standard of the American Road.

4-HORNE RABBIT—When a Lakeview farmer shot a cottontail recently he noted it had four horn-like appendages growing from its forehead. He showed it to a biologist who turned it over to Stanley Zimmerman (above), Amarillo taxidermist, who mounted it. Zimmerman believes a severe laceration on the rabbit's head caused the horn-like growths to form.

Names Nominating Group For Lions

A nominating committee to select a slate of new officer candidates was appointed at Tuesday evening's Lions Club meeting by Victor Hudman, president.

Members of the committee, which is to report at an early meeting, are Almon G. Martin, Les Short, L. A. Presson, Wilf Scarborough and Hudman. Officers are to be elected later this month and installed at the first meeting in July.

Three members, E. E. Pierce, Noah Stone and Virgil Short, received key awards for having brought in two new members each.

Also on the program at Tuesday's meeting were piano selections by Miss Wanda Rogers, club sweetheart.

TV Crime Shows Hurt Advertiser

CHICAGO (AP)—Television shows of crime and violence are not good business, says a Chicago advertising executive who has been making a study of the question.

Edward H. Weiss says that when people are in a panic, or semi-panic, such as that induced by a highly dramatic scene or killing in a TV play, they freeze and do nothing. "Violence is the worst possible thing to get people in the proper frame of mind for commercials," he says.

"You can do a better job of selling by creating emotional climate conducive to selling. That is when people are relaxed—not tense," Weiss claims.

90 Year Old Twins Are Still Active

MORAN, Texas (AP)—The Moran twins are pretty active boys considering their age. They're 90 years old and still "sit as straight in the saddle as any man."

Only a couple of years ago, Robert and John Elliott, rode in the Albany Fandangle Parade and won fancy prizes.

They reached the age of 90 last June. Robert vowed then he would live to be 100. He also said he wanted to make $50,000—a feat he's already accomplished several times.

Robert and John live about 200 yards apart in this little West Texas town. Together they run 17,000 acres of ranch holdings. John has an additional 4,000 acres.

Robert delights in telling of the old days and of the time he rode a cattle train to St. Louis and returned by way of Louisiana with lumber in 1907 to build the house he still lives in.

Horses have fallen on Robert and cattle have chased him up trees, but he never has been seriously ill. He has survived two automobile wrecks with only minor injuries.

Although Robert declares he's still as good on horseback as ever, he admits that he's quit taking chances. He is determined to reach his century goal.

Club Members, Friends Review By Mrs. Stevens

William Jones, music can be given to this excellent choir. His numbers showed that they were selected by an artist, and their rendition was perfect. "It is wonderful that so much could be done in so short a time. We are very fortunate to have such an instructor connected with our schools, and we are prophesying that he will bring district and state honors home to our schools and to our town as the contests close. Our thanks to him and to each member of his choir."

Preceding Wednesday's book review, Mrs. J. A. Stallings presented an organ prelude. Fifty guests attended the tea. The serving table was laid with a pink linen cloth and was centered with an arrangement of lilacs.

W. O. Stevens, one of the members of Post who now is a member of this club, was organized in 1913. A very wonderful review of the American novel, "Scarlet Letter," her review was very fine. The review "Very fine," Mrs. Jones, Miss Ruth Hub, Mrs. Dan Blair, all of the outstanding club women.

Altar decorations were Easter lilies and white tapers in candelabra. White satin ribbon marked the pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white imported Chantilly type lace and pleated nylon tulle over satin. It was designed with a high neckline framed with a small roll collar on a fitted bodice, which terminated into a point at the center front waistline, long fitted sleeves ending in points over the hands and a voluminous ballerina length skirt fashioned of pleated tulle over satin. Her fingertip illusion veil was attached to a band of white satin, seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of lilies and bridal wreath atop a white Bible. For something old she wore her mother's engagement ring; something borrowed was her headpiece, belonging to a bridesmaid, Miss Barbara McGinty, of Slaton; and something blue was a garter.

TIPS FROM YOUR COUNTY AGENT

By JESSIE PEARCE

With Easter past we know that spring is really here. There may be a lag in family appetites which calls for special treats from the kitchen. A glamour meal which mom can serve will feature Springtime Meat Pie. Its thrifty goodness brings a touch of spring to the table and a ray of sunshine to the pocketbook. The tender flaky crust flecked with minced parsley is a flattering cover for the steaming hot filling of ground beef, corn and beans.

Serve this Springtime Meat Pie to family or guests with grapefruit and avocado salad, hard rolls and fresh strawberry sundae.

Springtime Meat Pie

Pastry: 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 2-3 cup shortening, 2 tablespoons minced parsley and 5 tablespoons cold water.

Sift together flour and salt and cut or rub in shortening. Add parsley and sprinkle with water, mixing lightly until dough begins to stick together. Wrap in waxed paper and let stand while preparing meat filling. Roll 3/4 of dough to square 1/8 inch thick and line an 8 inch square baking dish with it. Fill with meat filling. Roll out remaining dough to make top crust and arrange over filling. Trim and flute edge. Bake in moderate oven (375 F) about 50 minutes.

Meat filling: 3/4 lb. ground beef, 1 tablespoon fat or drippings, 1 medium onion, sliced, 1 small clove garlic, minced, 1/4 teaspoon salt, dash pepper, 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce, 1 cup cream style corn, 1 cup cooked lima beans, 1/3 cup milk.

Brown beef in fat or drippings in heavy skillet. Add onion and garlic and brown lightly. Season with salt, pepper and Worcestershire sauce. Stir in corn, lima beans and milk and mix until well blended. Spread on bottom of pie crust and arrange top crust. Serves four.

New Sheriff's Posses To March In May 27 Parade

Among the mounted groups expected to ride in the parade here May 27 opening the annual Post Stampede and Rodeo are two new sheriff's posses—those of Borden County and Dickens County.

The Dickens County Posse made its first appearance Saturday in the parade at Spur opening the 11th Annual Dickens County FFA and 4-H Junior Fat Stock Show. At present the organization has 80 members, including both the riding and associate members. The group plans to increase its membership to 100 in the near future.

The area's newest riding group is the Borden County Sheriff's Posse, organized March 31 at a meeting in the courthouse at Gail. Visitors included Sheriff Norvell Redwine, president of the Lynn County Posse, and Oran Short of Tahoka.

Sid Reeder, Borden County sheriff, was elected president of the new organization. Other officers are Roy Burdett, first vice-president; Knute Beal, second vice president; and Bill Wilson, Jr. secretary. Directors are Bill Long, C. C. Nunnally, Clyde Miller, Roscoe Kropp, Skeet Porter, Borden Gray and Frank Miller. Thirty-five members attended the posse's organization. The group is to meet at Gail the first Monday in each month.

Among other sheriff's posses expected to ride in the Post parade is the one from Hockley County, which represented Texas in President Eisenhower's inaugural parade Jan. 20, and the Cochran County Posse, which has been invited to represent Texas in the parade at the American Legion's national convention in St. Louis this summer.

Three trophies to be awarded winning riding groups in the May 27 parade here have already been received.

Mr. and Mrs. Brace Hicks and Joy Lynn of Whitharral spent the weekend with the Allen and Alfred Oden families and other relatives.

A difference of only four bales in official Bureau of Census figures and an unofficial count made Jan. 29 by the Post Dispatch is shown in 1952 cotton ginning figures for Garza County.

On Jan. 29, a survey of the county's six gins showed a total of 13,320 bales. Official census figures released this week gave the county's total as 13,324 bales.

The 1952 ginnings showed an increase of 2,917 bales over the 1951 ginning total of 10,407 bales.

Two students from Post are among the 271 pledges listed last week by men's social clubs at Texas Technological College, following the spring rushing activities.

Jack Kirkpatrick is on the official pledge list of Silver Key, and Benny H. Brookshire is a pledge of Socil.

A capacity crowd of churchgoers attended community Easter sunrise services Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church. All available seats were filled early and some were unable to crowd into the church, it was reported.

The service, sponsored by the Post Ministerial Alliance, went off as scheduled, with the 45-minute service ending just as the sun rose.

The Rev. Roy Shahan, First Baptist Church pastor, spoke on "The Foundation Facts of Our Christian Religion." Other pastors on the program were the Rev. J. C. Holman, Church of the Nazarene; the Rev. Joe E. Boyd, First Methodist; the Rev. Almon G. Martin, First Christian; the Rev. Shelby D. Bishop, Calvary Baptist, and the Rev. Gerald N. Blackburn, First Presbyterian, who directed the service.

The choir and men's chorus from "Portals Everlasting," First Methodist Church cantata, were heard during the service. Mrs. Tom Power was choir director and Mrs. J. A. Stallings was organist.

Easter was also observed at other church services throughout the day. These included presentation of the cantata, "Portals Everlasting," at the Methodist Church Sunday evening.

State Accepts 4-H Alumni Recognition Program For 1953

Complete information concerning the new National 4-H Alumni Recognition Awards Program may be obtained from Garza County Agent Lewis Herron or Home Demonstration Agent Jessie Pearson.

For the first time in the history of 4-H Club work, former members whose accomplishments exemplify continued effective community leadership will be honored in 1953 through the program.

Candidates may be recommended to county extension agents by local leaders, 4-H members, or other interested individuals.

Noble pointed out that many leading citizens in all walks of life came up from the ranks of 4-H. They include, he said, agricultural leaders, public officials, businessmen, publishers, clergymen and others. More than 15 million adults in the United States, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico, he cited, are 4-H Club alumni.

Spelling Champion Staying 'In Groove'

he's an average American. Howard Jones, Garza grade school spelling champion, isn't letting it interfere with his other activities, but he is "in the groove" for the Spelling Bee at Lubbock today April 18.

13-year-old son of Mr. Paul Jones and an average student in the Post has been studying the "Words of the Chamions," with the assistance of Mrs. Ray N. Smith, high school English teacher, who was pronouncer in the county spelling bee here March 27.

When a Dispatch reporter telephoned the Jones home Monday to inquire if Howard was "staying in the groove" for the regional bee, Mrs. Jones said he was out riding his scooter, but that during school he was studying the word lists in the afternoons.

Howard correctly spelled "definite" to win over nine other contestants in the spelling bee here, Butch Wilson, Post seventh grade student, went out of the contest only after misspelling "definite," and was named as alternate champion.

In the regional bee at Lubbock, Howard will be competing with champion spellers from other South Plains counties in a contest sponsored by the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. The regional winner will be eligible to compete in the National Spelling Bee at Washington, D. C.

For winning first place here, Howard received $15 in cash as an award from the Post Chamber of Commerce, which also provided a $7.50 second prize, $5 third prize, and $2.50 fourth prize.

Third and fourth place winners were Oneita Jones, Close City eighth grader, and Janet Stephens, Graham, sixth grader.

In addition to all the time-proved features of the Ford Tractor's built-in hydraulic system, you get a choice of hydraulic speeds, quick smooth operation of remote cylinders* and the ability to handle bigger loads.
