ESCORT FOR A 'LOOKER' — British Lightning Mark 3 fighters of the Royal Air Force Fighter Command "escort" a Soviet Bison four-jet reconnaissance bomber over the North Sea about 100 miles from the British coast at 37,000 feet. The British Ministry of Defense released this picture. Soviet military aircraft, as well as Soviet trawlers, are constantly around the coast of Great Britain, and, such visits, say the British give excellent training to the defense organization of Fighter Command. Cape Scores Success With Multiple Launch

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aeorspace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. AP) —The United States today fired the opening shot in its plan to develop a military man-in-space program by hurling an unmanned modified Gemini capsule over a scorching sub-orbital path. Then the same Air Force rocket orbited four satellites, one carrying a batch of satellite decoys.

The launching of the Gemini craft over a 33-minute ballistic course was the first test of hardware to be used in the Manned Orbiting Laboratory program, which expects its first manned flight in 1969. Goal of the program is to determine what military duties man can perform in space.

Purpose of today's test was to see whether the Gemini, with a circular access hatch cut in the protective heat shield, could survive blistering re-entry temperatures. The MOL astronauts will have to crawl through such a hatch to enter the laboratory section.

The Air Force reported the Gemini survived the punishing trip and parachuted into the Atlantic about 5,060 miles southeast of Cape Kennedy, seven miles from the aiming point.

Recovery planes and helicopters watched the Gemini drift to a splashdown under its 83-foot parachute. Within minutes, three frogmen dropped from a helicopter and attached a flotation collar to the bobbing vehicle.

A recovery ship, the LaSalle, steamed toward the scene.

The "flying circus" act was neatly executed by a huge Titan 3 rocket which burst away from Cape Kennedy at 8:51 a.m. and performed a series of space acrobatics in sending its multiple payload over a roller coaster path.

The "circus" even featured an "artificial astronaut," an electronic black box which steered the Gemini, and a "robot balloon-man" to release the satellite decoys.

The Air Force, which several months ago released details of the decoy experiment and then turned around and classified the information, declined to discuss the satellite.

However, reliable sources reported the satellite carried inflatable metallic ballons to be tracked by instruments aboard the mother satellite and at ground stations.

Such decoys might prove an effective means of confusing enemy tracking stations or satellites seeking to locate U. S. military payloads—in much the same way that missile warhead decoys can fool radars.

Two of the other satellites fired today were to "talk" to each other in a satellite-to-satellite communications test that might lead to a future military space communications system.

The fourth payload was packed with engineering and scientific experiments.

The Titam 3, most pwerful rocket in the Defense Department arsenal, thundered into the sky on 2.5 million pounds of thrust generated by its two solid-fuel boosters. The upper stage, called a transtage, pitched down and from an altitude of 127 miles drilled the Gemini back through the earth's atmosphere at 17,500 miles an hour.

The black box took over and directed the three-ton craft over the punishing course during which the heat shield was seared by temperatures up to 3,000 degrees.

Acting on orders from its guidance system, the transtage then pitched nose up, ignited two more times and pushed a 38-foot-long canister — representing the Manned Orbiting Laboratory—into a circular orbit 184 miles above the earth.

Minutes later, the decoy and communications satellies were fired out of spring-loaded tubes in the nose of the canister, serving as a "space bus." The orbiting canister carried nine experiments.

Intense Storm Puts East Under Snow

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wintry weather, with snow, gusty winds, and unseasonably low temperatures, has made an early and unwelcome arrival in wide areas in the eastern half of the nation.

An intense storm early today centered over Lake Erie, dumping snow over a six-state area from Tennessee to Michigan. Heavy snow warnings continued, with from 3 to 6 inches indicated across the eastern and lower Great Lakes.

The early November storm left a blanket of snow up to 15 inches in central Kentucky and up to 10 inches covered sections in southeastern Tennessee, western Ohio, southeastern Indiana and Michigan's Upper Peninsula. Smaller amounts were reported in other Midwest areas.

The Deep South also reeled from the cold and snow and sleet storms, the earliest in many years in some Southern cities. Four inches of snow was reported at Huntsville, Ala., and Birmingham reported the first measurable snow since 1951.

At least 16 storm — related deaths were reported, most of them in traffic accidents on snow-covered highways.

Severe cold, with the mercury edging to near zero in northern Minnesota, extended deep into the Southland with temperatures dipping near freezing into Florida. Jackson, Miss., reported a frosty 22 degrees.

In Florida, temperatures dropped into the high 20 and low 30s in the northern part of the state. Some snow was reported unofficially in the Fort Walton Beach area. In south Florida, the mercury shot down to the 50s. Wednesday afternoon, it had been in the 80s.

Gale warnings were posted for most of the Great Lakes and the North Atlanta Coast.

Thousands of motorists were stranded in the snow belt, the most being reported in sections of western Ohio.

Most schools in Middle Tennessee and in some cities in Kentucky, including Louisville, were closed. Eight inches of snow fell in Louisville. Ten inches fell on Monteagle Mountain, in southeastern Tennessee.

In Detroit outgoing airplanes flights were canceled Wednesday. Three main highways were closed by snow in Tennessee.

United Fund Reports Due

Division leaders and officers of the Scurry County United Fund were to meet at 5 p.m. today at the Chamber of Commerce office.

The current campaign has been edging forward this week, although the pace was beginning to subside. By mid-morning the total of cash and pledges had reached a total of $19,097.42.

The local United Fund Campaign has a goal of $27,500 which is pledged to support five local agencies, plus a small contribution to the Texas United Fund.

US Boosts Bomb Raids

By BOB GASSAWAY

SAIGON, South Viet Nam AP) — American air blows against North Viet Nam surged upward Wednesday for the second straight day with the weather again clear over Communist targets, the U.S. Command said today.

No large-scale fighting was reported on the ground in South Viet Nam.

A U.S. spokesman also disclosed that a North Vietnamese gun battery exchanged fire with a U.S. destroyer running in international waters nine days ago. The announcement said the American vessel was on routine patrol when fired upon.

In the air war, Navy, Marine and Air Force fliers pounded Communist surface-to-air missile sites, radar installations, communications links, storage and staging areas in the Communist North for a total of 165 missions, 10 short of the war's record.

A thick cloud cover and heavy overcast had obscured targets for several days before a partial clearing on Tuesday permitted 122 missions.

Air Force pilots reported a SAM site 33 miles northwest of Dong Hoi "appeared to be completely devastated" after day and night bombing. Three missiles were reported destroyed, while four launchers and other equipment in the area were destroyed or damaged.

Skyhawk jets from the carrier Constellation hit a North Vietnamese patrol boat support facility 70 miles southeast of Haiphong and damaged a defending gun position, a pier and storage buildings, pilots reported.

Pilots reported spotting three Communist jets northwest of Hanoi but said none approached closer than three miles and there was no exchange of fire.

The hardest ground fighting in the South was reported northwest of Saigon near the Cambodian border, where units of the dian border, where units of the 196th U.S. Light Infantry said they killed 13 Viet Cong while suffering only light casualties themselves.

Services Set For Houston Developer

HOUSTON (AP) — Funeral services for M. E. Walter, former editor of the Houston Chronicle, will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at St. Theresa's Catholic Church.

The Most Rev. John L. Morokovsky, coajutor bishop of the Galveston-Houston Diocese, will pronounce the absolution of the mass.

Recitation of the rosary and meditation of the sorrowful mysteries will be at 8 p.m. Friday in the Fannin Street Earthman Funeral Home.

Walter, who for 26 years played a major role in Houston's development, died Tuesday night after suffering a heart attack at his home Monday. He was 73.

He was editor of the Houston Chronic' 14 years. He retired in 1960 but continued as a vice president and editorial consultant until he resigned last February.

He had been a member of the City Planning Commission since 1940, serving as its chairman since 1956. While on the commission he envisioned and fought for the elaborate freeway system that now is coming into reality in Greater Houston.

Walter is survived by his widow, Mrs. Afreda Winkler Walter, whom he met while a student at Notre Dame University.

Dedication Slated For 2 Markers

Historical markers will be dedicated Sunday in two Scurry County communities

A marker will be unveiled at 2:30 p.m. at Fluvanna, and anther will be officially dedicated at 3:30 p.m. at Dermott.

James Beaver will be the master of ceremonies at Fluvanna and on the dedication program there will be W.H. Jones and the Rev. William N. Parkey, pastor of First Christian Church in Snyder, who will speak at both events.

Also appearing on the program for both ceremonies will be Hugh Taylor Sr., chairman of the Scurry County Historical Survey Committee, and Mrs. Wayne Boren, member of that committee.

At Dermott, the Rev. A. C. Forbis will be the master of ceremonies, and Burton Moore will be on the dedication program. The public is invited to attend both ceremonies.

CHEST X-RAYS SLATED HERE

The West Texas Tuberculosis Association, which includes Scurry County, will send its Mobile X-ray unit here for use next Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 9-10.

The Snyder Jaycees are underwriting the initial cost of the survey. However, if a large number who are unable to pay the $1 fee for the X-ray service be found, some may have to be turned away.

Therefore, a strong appeal is being made to Snyder area residents to:

1. Get your chest X-rayed.
2. Donate more than $1 to the Jaycees so that none will be turned away.

Nobel Prize To American

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — The 1966 Nobel Prize for chemistry was awarded today to Prof. Robert S. Mulliken of the University of Chicago.

Mulliken, born in Massachusetts in 1896, was awarded the prize for "his fundamental work concerning chemical bonds and the electronic structure of molecules by the molecular orbital method," the Swedish Academy of Science said.

Mulliken received his Ph.D. in physical chemistry at the University of Chicago in 1921. Afterward, he held positions at Harvard and New York University, until he rejoined the University of Chicago in 1928. Since 1931 he has been professor of physics there.

He organized there the laboratory of mulecular structure and spectra, of which he is still the director.

Earlier in the day, the Nobel Physics Prize for 1966 was awarded to Prof. Alfred Kastler of Paris.

CRACK SAFE — Yeggs entered Better Living, Inc. in the Cogdell Center sometime Wednesday night through the roof and removed the hinges from the door of a safe in the main room. They took about $460.13 in cash and $25 in stamps. Another breakin at the school administration building was unsuccessful as the burglars failed in their attempt to get into the safe.

Burglars Hit Two Places In Snyder

Yeggs cracked one safe and attempted to break into another one in two separate burglaries here Wednesday night, which netted them about $460.13 in cash and $25 worth of stamps.

The money and stamps were taken from a safe at Better Living, Inc. off the Big Spring Highway in the Cogdell Center. They apparently entered the building through the roof. Once inside, they forced a safe in the main room of the building.

The other burglary was at the School Business Administration building, 2901 Thirty-seventh Street. Nothing was taken in this breakin, as the burglars were unsuccessful in an attempt to force a safe in the tax office in the northeast side of the building.

A window on the south side of the building was cracked, and the prowlers knocked a hole in the ceiling of the conference room after pulling down the light fixtures.

City Police are investigating the burglaries. The breakin at Better Living appeared to be the work of professionals, according to officers, who said they used gloves while forcing the safe.

The unsuccessful attempt to force the safe at the School Administration building apparently points to the work of amateurs.

Police Chief Chester Simons said a recent burglary in Brownfield resulted in the loss of about $25,000 worth of jewelry and uncut diamonds.

School officials expressed surprise that anyone would break into the administration building since no money is kept there.

Jetstream Rubber Co. Damaged By Fire

HUTCHINS, Tex. (AP)—Fire caused an estimated $150,000 damage today at the Jetstream Rubber Co. plant south of Dallas.

The fire began about 9 p.m. Wednesday and burned through the night.

US Still Japan's Main Protector

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

TOKYO (AP) — Prime Minister Eisaku Sato says that despite Communist China's explosion of a missile-borne nuclear warhead Japan will continue to rely on the United States for its security from nuclear attack.

"We have the capacity to develop nuclear weapons, but we are not doing so," Sato said. "Our policy is adherence to the nonproliferation of nuclear weapons. We depend on the United States (for protection)."

In an Associated Press interview Sato also praised President Johnson's trip to the Far East because of its possible contribution to the search for peace in Viet Nam.

He declared that Japan, as the greatest industrial power in Asia, but a power which has "abandoned expansion and militarism," is ready to play a major role in trying to bring social and economic stability to the region.

Johnson emphasized repeatedly in his Far Eastern speeches that the United States would back Asian nations in establishing a new international system in this part of the world — meaning a system of non-Communist countries confronted by the growing power of Red China. U.S. officials hope that Japan will take the lead in this enterprise, perhaps developing a kind of Marshall Plan for Asian development.

The most urgent problems worrying Japanese and other Far Eastern leaders today, however, are peace in Viet Nam and what to do about China's emerging nuclear power. Last week Peking announced explosion of a nuclear warhead devivered on target in the test area by a guided missile.

U.S. experts on China's nuclear resources say Peking's latest achievement moves it a step nearer to the time when all the countries of the Far East will lie under direct threat of Chinese nuclear attack. The two biggest countries, Japan and India, so far have taken the position they would not undertake to build nuclear weapons systems of their own.

Johnson Appeals For Unity Behind US' Viet Policy

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON AP) — President Johnson, home from his historic mission to the Far East, has appealed for unity behind American policy in Viet Nam—for "where there is a deep division in a land, there is danger."

"Where there is unity in the land, there is strength," Johnson said in a homecoming speech Wednesday night at rainy Dulles International Airport.

Johnson was at the White House today, but not for long. He is expected to open a fast-paced, final round of campaigning Friday to urge the election of Democrats in next Tuesday's state and congressional balloting.

Johnson said America's task in Viet Nam is far from done, but he said Asians—the people closest to the arena of conflict—know that Communist aggression there must be defeated.

"They know that it is their duty to help the United States keep these fires from spreading,' he said, "and that effort will be increased."

And he said: "Those of us who met at Manila know the road may be long and difficult. We know that each of us will make mistakes. But if our countrymen will stand with us—if we will try to travel this difficult road together, I think that we will come out well at the end as America always has."

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, campaigning in Shelby, Mont., said there can be no American withdrawal from Viet Nam until there are peace talks.

"Once an honorable peace is achieved, then we will be prepared to withdraw, lock, stock and barrel," Mansfield said. "Militarily, we cannot and will not be defeated."

There was campaign criticism, too, from former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, in Charleston, W.Va. He said Johnson should announce a new strategy designed to shorten the war.

"If we are in war in Asia five years from now," Nixon said, "we're risking atomic war with Communist China."

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have been divorced for two years and have no intentions of marrying again as I am a Catholic. My husband (also a Catholic) remarried a few months ago, which is his business. We don't socialize together and there is no reason for us to even see each other as settlement was made and we had no children.

Last Saturday I attended the wedding of my brother's daughter. I was shocked to see Joe and his new wife there. It was all very awkward, so I stayed only for the ceremony and left immediately afterwards. A relative who helped address the wedding invitations later told me that my ex-husband AND his wife were sent an invitation addressed to "Mr. and Mrs." Later my sister-in-law explained it this way: "We are Catholic, and as for as I am concerned, Joe is still your husband and that's why I invited him." Does this make sense to you?

NO NAME

DEAR NO: Hardly. Your sister-in-law's "holier than thou" attitude is so holy, it doesn't hold water. If she really considers Joe to be your husband, why did she invite your "husband" and the woman with whom he is living in sin? Ask her to explain that.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Anyone who thinks a girl is lucky to have an older brother because he can introduce her to some of his friends had better think again. I am 23 and my brother is 27 and I sit home every night like 75 per cent of the girls.

Whenever I ask him to introduce me to some of his men friends, he says, "All my friends are bums." What is a girl supposed to do?

NO DATES

DEAR NO: You ought to be thankful your brother is honest. A girl can meet enough bums without her brothers help.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Recently, out-of-town friends whom we had not seen in years called asking if they could come to visit us. We said they could. When they arrived I suggested they bring in their luggage as the guest room was ready for them. The wife then said, "Go bring in the dogs, Willie." I was horrified. I am a good housekeeper, and have no facilities for pets.

I wouldn't mistreat one, but we hadn't counted on housing any. I suggested the garage or basement, but they said no, their dogs had the run of their house—and they weren't kidding. Abby, they kept their two cocker spaniels in our guest room, and the mess those animals made was unbelievable.

I could have cried! They stayed three days. Shouldn't they have mentioned their dogs before they came? What can be done? We can't demand they replace the carpeting.

HEARTSICK

DEAR HEARTSICK: There's no use crying over spilt milk—or anything else. Borrow three St. Bernards (not housebroken) and go to visit them.

Yanks Get Golf Nod

TOKYO (AP) — Fred Corcoran, tournament director for the Canada Cup, toured the Tokyo Yomiuri Country Club course today and declared the long tough layout makes Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus of the United States "strong favorites" to win the 14th Olympics of Golf here next week.

He said he was satisfied with the progress of arrangements being made at the hilly, 6,962-yard par-72 layout on Tokyo's outskirts and predicted "a great tournament."

Many tee shots require powerful hits across deep gullies to carry onto the fairway. The 224-yard, par-3 18th is one of the toughest short holes in Japan to reach from the tee.

The course record in competition is 65 set by Toshimasa Fujii of Japan in 1964. But Corcoran said he did not expect that record to be matched by the 72 golfers from 36 countries and regions who will take part in the 72-hole tournament Nov. 10-13.

"It's definitely a course that favors the power hitters," the tournament director said.

Cepeda Loses Libel Suit

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A federal jury ruled against Orlando Cepeda Wednesday night in the baseball player's $1 million libel suit against Look magazine.

The jury of seven women and five men deliberated more than 10 hours before finding for the defendant.

Cepeda's attorney, Marvin Lewis, said he would file an immediate appeal with the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

During the 13-day trial, Cepeda said he was libelled by a May 21, 1963 article written by Tim Cohane that said the first baseman was in the front-office "doghouse" when he played for the San Francisco Giants.

Look said the article by Cohane, then the magazine's sports editor, was "responsible reporting" by an "ethical sportswriter."

Cepeda was traded to the St. Louis Cardinals the past season and was voted the Comeback Player of the Year for his performance.

Heath Quits Texas U. Regents Post

AUSTIN (AP)—W. W. Heath quit Wednesday as chairman of the University of Texas board of regents because, he said, "Business and professional commitments" left him without enough time to devote to the post.

Heath, 62, has been chairman of the regents since 1962.

A university spokesman said Heath would remain a member of the board. His term on the board has four more years to run.

The resignation is effective Dec. 1. Vice Chairman Frank Erwin of Austin, Democratic national committeeman, is expected to act as chairman until the board reorganizes in January, when the terms of three present members expire.

Heath was appointed to the board eight years ago by Gov. Price Daniel, Gov. John Connally reappointed him in 1964 to a second six-year term. The board picked him as chairman in 1962 and reelected him in 1964.

"This has been my most rewarding experience, and I now wish to share it with whomever the board may choose to succeed me," Heath said of the chairmanship.

"These have been eight exciting years; they have been most rewarding and yet ever increasingly time consuming," Heath said in a statement. "The chairmanship of the board of regents is a high honor which I deeply appreciate yet during recent years its responsibilities have greatly increased."

He said he would, as chairman, submit to the governor a final report on the state of the university.

An Austin lawyer, Heath has been an assistant attorney general, Texas secretary of state and chairman of the State Hospital Board.

Charged With Threat To Kill President

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A part-time farm laborer who lives in an unfurnished, abandoned house has been charged with threatening to kill President Johnson.

A spokesman for the Secret Service said Emmanuel Magdalene, 48, was jailed in lieu of $25,000 bond.

Officers said the man telephoned the FBI on Oct. 7 and said he had a gun and was going to shoot the President.

They added that Magdalene slept on a pile of cardboard in the house.

Teen Queen Finalists To Be Named

By PEGGY SIMPSON

DALLAS (AP)— The pressure will be off all but seven candidates for the 1967 'teen queen title today with the naming of finalists.

The 57 other girls — all of them talented and cute—can relax until Saturday's telecast on CBS.

The finalists will show off their talent and personality to a national audience—as well as a special panel of judges — before one girl is chosen Miss Teen-Age America 1967.

The winner receives $23,000 in prizes, including a $10,000 college scholarship, $5,000 in personal appearance fees, a new car, year-round wardrobe and stock in two of the sponsoring companies.

Miss Colette Daiute of Paramus, N.J., the queen until she crowns a successor, has traveled more than 300,000 miles during hear year's reign to represent the nation's more than 27 million teen-agers. Her jobs included the chairmanship of youth's 1966 Easter Seal campaign.

This week, Miss Daiute made the contestants feel at ease with an informal pajama party before the first written and face-to-face judgings.

The girls are evaluated on the basis of talent, poise, personality and grooming and integrity.

Funeral Held For Snyderite's Brother

James R. Callarman, brother of Mrs. Tom Deffebach, of Snyder, died at his home in Athens, Tex., Monday after a sudden illness.

Funeral was held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Robin Road Church of Christ in Athens.

Also surviving are his wife and four children of Athens.

Three More Arrested In Bank Holdup

DALLAS AP)—Three more men have been arrested on charges stemming from the $27,550 holdup Oct. 17 of the Trinity National Bank of Dallas.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Tim Timmins identified them as Manuel T. Carter and Richard Wayne Adams, both 32, and Eugene Harold Britton, about 25.

Carter, jailed in lieu of $10,000 bond Wednesday, is charged with aiding and abetting the crime by driving the truck in which Ralph Lawson Browning allegedly fled from the bank after he held it up.

Browning, charged with bank robbery, is held under $50,000 bond set by U.S. Commissioner William E. Smith.

Carter also is charged with having received $100 of the stolen money.

Adams and Britton are charged with having received $1,750 and $350, respectively, of the loot. Both went free Wednesday after posting $1,500 bonds.

Browning was arrested Monday about noon when he returned from lunch to his job at an unclaimed freight store. FBI officers said a search of his home turned up $12,584.

Teachers To Convention

Delegates from Snyder left today for Austin where they will attend the annual convention of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Three local delegates and two district delegates from Snyder are attending the convention which begins this evening.

Cherry Dessert Pancakes

1 can (1 pound) pitted dark sweet cherries
1 tablespoon cornstarch
¼ cup sugar
⅛ cup sweet sherry
⅛ teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 teaspoon lemon juice
Dash of salt
Thin Pancakes

Drain cherries, reserving juice. If necessary, add enough water to cherry juice to make 1 cup. In a saucepan combine the cornstarch and sugar; add sherry and stir until smooth. Stir in the 1 cup cherry liquid. Cook and stir constantly over medium heat until mixture thickens and becomes clear. Remove from heat; stir in remaining sauce ingredients and cherries; keep warm, or reheat when serving pancakes. At serving time, fold each pancake in quarters; place in chafing dish and top with hot cherry sauce. Makes 6 servings.

Thin Pancakes: Beat 3 eggs; add ½ cup milk and beat to combine. Add ½ cup pancake mix; beat until smooth. Put a small amount of butter in a small (about 6 inches) skillet; heat until butter bubbles. Pour in about 1 tablespoon batter; immediately tilt pan to coat bottom evenly with a thin layer. Cook until delicately browned on underside; turn and brown on other side.

Book Tells Of Conflict In Africa

THE ZINZIN ROAD. By Fletcher Knebel.

In the West African country of Kalya, run by a black dictator whom everyone calls Old Number One, Peace Corps volunteers are having a rough time.

This is particularly true in an outcountry town called Zinzin, where a protege of the dictator — known among the volunteers as Genghis Khan — is an accomplished grafter, sabotaging the school in which several of the volunteers teach. They have grown pretty disillusioned with their lot.

Equally disillusioned is Lew (Red) Corleigh, a truck driver who serves as a Corps courier. He discovers that a handful of native dissidents are trying to combat Genghis, and indirectly Old Number One. Almost before he knows it, Lew is "helping the underground, known as The Forge. At first he merely carries messages, but soon he and several other volunteers are more deeply involved.

This violates a prime principle of the Corps that volunteers must never mix in local politics. But some of them justify their acts on the ground they are helping the school, not politicing. The distinction is hard to make; and as one of them observes, even their proper job of teaching the natives is inherently a revolutionary step.

The Zinzin affair eventually stirs up a storm in the State Department, the Corps headquarters; with the American ambassador to Kalya, and with a CIA agent who thinks a couple of the native members of The Forge have a pinkish background.

The Ambassador is in the middle. He knows very well that Old Number One and his gang are swindling and oppressing the native tribes, but Washington is convinced the dictator is pro-American and anti-Communist, and wants to keep him in power.

Knebel is the author of "Night of Camp David" and co-author of "Seven Days in May," so you know how adept he is at high-level melodrama saturated with plausible atmosphere. The fact that he just isn't a very good novelist doesn't matter very much. He stirs up an action thriller with political overtones and makes it all very interesting.

For good flavor, brown beef shortribs before braising; and add a suspicion of sugar to the liquid used for the braising.

SPORTS

Prep Titles Go On Line

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Autumn's schoolboy legions hit the home stretch this week with four state playoff teams already determined and 28 more likely to be known when the firing ceases Saturday night.

Thirty-seven undefeated, untied teams sit precariously up there to be shot at and probably seven of them will fall under the fusilade.

Only zone championships are in the balance in Class AAAA where one already is definitely known—Houston Waltrip in District 9. The other remains up in the air.

However, there are three more weeks to determine district champions of Class AAAA and Class AAA, whereas Classes AA and A have only two.

Lubbock Monterey can sew up the North Zone of District 3 by beating Borger while Amarillo, Tascosa and Lubbock clash for the other one.

Grand Prairie can win Zone 1 of District 4 by beating Wichita Falls and Dallas Woodrow Wilson can become a zone champion in District 6 by beating Dallas Adamson.

In District 7 if Carrolton beats Garland and Denison defeats South Garland they will win the two zone titles.

Nederland clashes with Port Arthur in a battle of leaders in District 11, and in District 13 Austin McCallum can take a zone title by beating Austin.

In Class AAA Athens can win District 8 representation in the playoffs if it downs Ennis and Conroe can accomplish the same thing in District 10 by beating A&M Consolidated. Lamar Consolidated can sew it up in District 11 by taking Angleton in tow.

District leaderships are on the line in District 2 where Monahans and Andrews tangle, District 3 where Lamesa and Littlefield clash, District 7 where Palestine meets Nacogdoches, and District 15 where Fredericksburg hooks up with Del Rio.

Classes AAAAA and AAA each has 16 districts.

Alpine and Mexia already have won their way to the playoffs in Class A and 11 other spots can be gained in the 32-district division this week.

Because ineligibility has struck five of the eight teams in District 28, the class of Tuloso-Midway and Rockport Friday night will be of more than passing interest. Those two were among the three teams untouched by ineligibility and their battle could well determine the district championship. Each has a 4-1 record.

Other teams that may win district representations in Class AA are Phillips, Coleman, Clarksville, Klein, East Chambers, Humble, Sweeny, Goliad, San Antonio Randolph and Los Fresnos, while Jacksboro and Decatur clash for all the marbles in District 9.

Two teams have won their way to the playoffs in Class A — Seagraves and Tidehaven. Fourteen others could make it this week, including McLean, Sudan, Sonora, Crowell, Spring-Hallsville, Groveton, Rosebud, and Magnolia.

Three unbeaten, untied teams in Class AAAA might fall when Galena Park risks its spot against Spring Branch, Austin McCallum meets Austin and Nederland tries Port Arthur.

Angleton might fall in Class AAA before Lamar Consolidated. Del Rio could find the competition too tough from Fredericksburg.

Jacksboro is the only team in Class AA that may be in grave danger since it plays powerful Decatur, the outfit that beat defending champion Plano.

Van Alstyne and Honey Grove play each other in Class A so one unbeaten, untied team is bound to drop.

MISS RODEO TEXAS — Alice Williams, a Baylor University junior, clasps her trophies after being named Miss Rodeo Texas at the State Fair of Texas contest in Dallas. Alice, 20, has been in rodeos since she was three and will compete in the Miss Rodeo America contest at Las Vegas, Nev., later this year. (AP Wirephoto)

It Happens To Everyone

MASSILLON, Ohio AP)—Bob Seaman never expected the No. 1 high school football coaching job in Ohio to turn into a nightmare.

But adversity has struck the football fortunes at Massillon High School.

The mighty Tigers, rated the best scholastic team in the state 11 times since 1947, are going through the agony of a four-game losing streak, longest at the school since 1932.

No. 5 looms Friday night when unbeaten Steubenville, the top-ranked grid power in the state, comes to Tigertown.

The 34-year-old Seaman, in his first year here after two brilliant campaigns at Sandusky High School, still maintains a good sense of humor.

"I'm liable to make history losing five in a row," Seaman noted.

From 1932 through last year, a period described as the "modern er" by Massillon boosters, Tiger teams have turned in 13 unbeaten, untied seasons in posting a fabulous 296-34-12 record.

This season, Massillon has a 3-4-1 mark, following two straight schoolboy championships.

It may be small consolation, but Seaman is traveling in some fast company. In 1932, the year Massillon lost four in a row, a young fellow by the name of Paul Brown was in his first year at the Tiger helm.

Porkers Favored Over Rice Owls

NEW YORK (AP) — Here's hoping for a quick recovery from the worst weekend of the season with 18 losses among the 56 games that reached a decision for a paltry .679 average.

The forecast for this Saturday's top college football games:

Notre Dame over Pittsburgh: The Irish are awesomely strong, the Panthers woefully weak.

Michigan State over Iowa: The Broadway betting gentry says Michigan State will win by 28 points. The Spartans are that good, to.

UCLA over Washington: Gary Beban of the Bruins rates as one of the three top quarterbacks of the season and the Huskies have no one who can match him.

Alabama over Louisiana State: Ken Stabler and Wayne Trimble give Alabama double protection at quarterback and should keep the Tide on the right track against a team suffering from injuries.

Georgia Tech over Virginia: Could turn into a romp.

Nebraska over Kansas: The Huskers not only are big but they also are fast, agile, talented, determined and very, very good.

Florida over Georgia: Steve Spurrier continues Florida's last-quarter magic at the expense of the once-beaten Bulldogs, whose only defeat was a 7-6 setback in the mud at Miami.

Arkansas over Rice: This is Jess Neely's final year as coach at Rice and the season becomes more sad every Saturday.

Southern California over California: Everybody mentions the Trojan offense but their defense has allowed only 40 points in seven games. California has allowed 143.

Tennessee over Chattanooga: Not in the same league.

Harvard over Princeton: Bobby Leo and Vic Gatto provide the Crimson with the best running attack in the Ivy League.

Miami over Tulane: A rare trip away from home for the Miami team and the boys will show their appreciation with a 10-point triumph.

Purdue over Wisconsin: The Boilermarkers, beaten only by Notre Dame and Michigan State, want that trip to the Rose Bowl. Bob Griese to show them the way.

Syracuse over Penn State: Floyd Little will break loose for at least one touchdown run.

New Pro Club Shy On Grid Talent

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK AP) — Look for the New Orleans club to become a member of the Western Conference in the National Football League.

The East had its pick last time and took the Atlanta Falcons. Now it's the West's turn. With those 82,500 seats in the Sugar Bowl and red-hot interest in the new entry, the decision should be easy.

Nobody knows exactly how they will stock the New Orleans team. The merger of the NFL and the American Football League and the common draft in January may not permit the new entry the same breaks Atlanta got.

When the Falcons participated in the NFL draft last year they had two picks on each of the first five rounds, including the No. 1 over-all selection.

Tommy Nobis, the Texas linebacker, was the No. 1 choice. Apparently he was worth it. Norb Hecker, the Falcons' coach, said he should be the rookie of the year.

When the Falcons were stocked last February, the NFL used the 40-man rosters of opening day as a base. Each team was permitted to freeze 29 of the 40. After the Falcons took one from the 11-man list, each team was permitted to freeze two more players. Then the Falcons were free to take two from the remaining eight.

The 42 men, three from each club, and the rookies from the draft formed the basis of the Falcons. The No. 2 draft, defensive back Bob Riggle of Penn State turned out to be one of the best.

You can expect more Monday night games in the NFL after the high television ratings for the Oct. 31 game between St. Louis and Chicago.

The T V doubleheader next Sunday will be the regular area game, followed by Minnesota-Green Bay.

Thanksgiving will be a special treat, with San Francisco at Detroit at noon and Cleveland at Dallas at 6 p.m. EST.

Allen Brown, Vince Lombardi's hope as the tight end of the future, is lost to Green Bay for the season because of leg surgery... George Izo, former Notre Dame quarterback, got the axe again when Pittsburgh put him on waivers. Izo has been with four pro clubs... San Francisco may start Kay McFarland at split end Sunday against Los Angeles because Dave Parks is battered and bruised.

Athletic Directors Steve Sebo of Virginia, Dan Devine of Missouri and Forest Evashevski of Iowa were former assistant football coaches to Biggie Munn at Michigan State.

Bengals Try To Bounce Back At Brownfield

Don't throw in the towel for the Snyder Tigers yet.

They journey to Brownfield Friday night with high hopes of knocking the Cubs' District 3-AAA football title hopes for a loop.

The charges of Coach Keith Miles held a spirited practice session Wednesday in which they reviewed all phases of the offense and defense. And the boys give the impression they're not the least bit impressed with Brownfield's 2-1 district record or its 5-2 season mark.

Victims of bad luck and untimely injuries, the Bengals sport a 3-5 season mark and they are 1-3 in district play. They began to show what they are capable of doing three weeks ago with a 31-0 trouncing of Levelland. Then, they fell a 7-6 victim to Lake View when a clipping penalty nullified a long touchdown run by tailback Curtis Clay.

Last week, Littlefield held a decided edge in a 27-6 affair. If the Tigers can win this game and the one at home the following week against Sweetwater, then they can complete the season with a 5-5 record.

Murry Bowden quarterback and middle linebacker, reinjured a knee in the Wildcat tussle last week and is out for the season. Other local lads still sidelined with old injuries are senior wingback Rick Hall and senior guard David Fulks.

Coach Keith Miles had been counting on Mitch Rambin, a promising gridder up from the "B" team, to handle some of the linebacking chores this week, but he came up with a sore throat Wednesday and may not get into the affray.

Despite all, the Tigers continue to have good spirit and believe they can whip Brownfield. They've worked hard all year, and the line, one of the smallest in the district, has continued to improve.

Included in the Tiger ranks are the top two runners in the district in Clay and fullback Mario Tavarez. They have the potential to break loose on any given down.

Rob Golden, substitute quarterback, has a couple of games under his belt now and is improving with experience. Against Littlefield, he completed 5 of 10 passes for 46 yards. Ends Bobby Clardy and Frankie Grimmett are capable targets for his aerials.

The Bengal ground game always has been proficient. With a little smoother passing game, they can give anyone trouble.

And trouble at Brownfield is spelled STERLING COX. He's their senior signal caller. A competent passer, he's also been called by some observers the best running back in the district.

The Cubs have plenty of incentive to win this one. If Lamesa beats Littlefield, the Cubs can gain at least a share of the title by winning their remaining games against Snyder, Lamesa and Levelland.

Coach Doug Cox, the senior mentor in the league, also has 10 other returning lettermen he can call on, including backs Don Proctor and Mike Webster, ends Glenn Bieless, Larry Sansom and Don Clare, tackles Bobby Bost, Jerry Jones and Ken Frazier, guard Mickey Keith and center Jim Newton.

The Cubs have perhaps the biggest forward wall in 3-AAA, and they have one of the stoutest defenses in the district.

The slot T is the favorite offensive weapon employed by the Cubs, and Cox, the senior quarterback, also can lug the leather at any of the other running back positions.

Everything points to a close, hard-hitting contest, but this corner sees the Bengals getting back on the victory trail. It looks like 14-0 in favor of Snyder—at least until Saturday morning.

Probable starters:

OFFENSE —ends, Frankie Grimmett and Bobby Clardy; tackles, Tim Mebane and Ronnie Shields; guards Larry Waddzeck and Dennis Harmon; center, David Wilson; quarterback Rob Golden; halfbacks, Lonnie Gilstrap and Curtis Clay; and, fullback, Mario Tavarez.

DEFENSE — ends, O.L. Cooper and Forrest Wemken; tackles, Bobby Clardy and Frankie Grimmett; guards, Carig Bell, Joe Breeden and Ronnie Shields; linebacker, Curtis Clay; cornerbacks, Lonnie Gilstrap and Dwaine Boydstun; and safety, Rob Golden.

BOMB DEACTIVATION IS PRECARIOUS WORK!

Johnson Claims Asian Tour Well Worth Personal Risk

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — On the morning of the day of his death President John F. Kennedy remarked it would be easy for anyone to shoot a president.

If it's easy for that to happen here, as it did, despite all this government's precautions, it would have been a cinch on President Johnson's just-finished trip to seven Asian and Pacific nations.

Millions turned out to see and greet him, making any hope of thorough precautions impossible and ridiculous, particularly when Johnson leaped out of his bullet-proof car to mingle with the crowds.

Side by side with the obvious questions about his trip — what did it accomplish? — is the other equally important and pertinent one: Was the trip worth the risk?

When he returned Wednesday night Johnson said "every hour and every mile was worth it." But he also added that there were no new treaties signed on the trip and he made no new commitments.

This means then that the accomplishments, whatever they were, were intangibles. But the risk was always real.

No doubt Johnson created fresh goodwill for this country in the places he visited, if only because he used that much time and effort out of his busy life to go there.

But, so far as can be seen, there was no need at all for creating more goodwill, when the risks involved are remembered, although Johnson himself is probably the only one who can say for sure whether the trips were necessary.

He did mention Wednesday night that "solid unity" was achieved at his Manila conference with the leaders of six other nations. If so, that's probably all that was achieved there.

The peace proposals which the conference made to North Viet Nam were ridiculed by the Communists. There is nothing to show the conference brought peace one step nearer.

The memory of Kennedy's assassination does not seem to have made Johnson any more cautious about exposing himself to danger, either in this country or abroad. He has taken a lot of chances both places.

If he had been shot or killed on this trip there would have been hand-wringing and soul-searching and suggestions that all future presidents must be more careful.

All these factors add to the hazards for a president on the loose It seems reasonable to believe Johnson owes it to himself and the country to avoid any unnecessary risks of assassination.

By the same reasoning Johnson owes it to himself and the country not to be a party to his own self-destruction.

Johnson, 58 now, has had his own physical experience as a warning to be careful about his health. He had a heart attack 11 years ago. He has had kidney stones for years. He had a gallbladder operation last year.

He's overweight. And on much of this trip he was reported to be suffering from a cold and sore throat. It was a back-breaking, grinding trip. Carelessness about his health can have the same effect as an assassin's bullet.

A Junior Editors Quiz About CUPOLAS

QUESTION: Why do some old houses have cupolas on top?

* * *

ANSWER: Turn a cup upside down and you will have a good idea of what a cupola is. The word comes from the Latin cupula, meaning a small tub or vault. Many primitive people built round houses, regarding this shape as sacred; probably because it suggested the great dome of the sky overhead. Ancient architects often included large domes on buildings because they gave the feeling of dignity and importance. A modern example is the dome of our Capitol in Washington (top center). But smaller houses and buildings, in early America, were often provided with cupolas or small domes (top right). These gave a look of importance to the building, also providing a lookout useful in times of Indian attack. Many were given a square shape instead of the round one, but were still called cupolas. Sea captains frequently built them on top of their houses so their wives would be able to watch for their vessels coming back to the harbor after a sea voyage. Sometimes, instead of the cupola, there was only a balustrade or set of railings; these were known as widow's walks.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: There is a widow's walk and more than one cupola in our large picture. See if you can find them.

Items From Space Age Newspaper

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Items from a space age newspaper 500 years from now:

MINSK — Comrade Ivan Minnevich, claimed by Soviet fellow citizens to be the oldest man on earth, celebrated his 312th birthday today by the installation of a new brain, liver and thyroid gland.

"Organically, I feel great," he said. "The new heart and left kidney I had put in 50 years ago are still doing fine. My doctor tells me if I continue to recuperate I should be able to get back on my feet in another decade or so. I have gotten a little weary with being bedfast for the last 47 years, even though I realize it's only temporary."

PARIS — Clothing visible to the naked eye is the startling new fashion decreed for next year by high stylists here.

Affirming a return to past modes, one authority said firmly:

"Total feminine nudity has become boring and unsophisticated. Only naive women in the future will continue to wear invisible clothing. If clothing is worth wearing at all, it is worth being seen."

LAS VEGAS — Jack McSpur, noted Texas splurger, kept gambling fans agog last night as he lost Dallas, Forth Worth and 50 square miles of the Panhandle at roulette in a continuing run of bad luck.

"Don't you worry about lil ole me," he told consoling friends at dawn. "Tonight I'll win 'em back by throwing in Houston and Galveston.

"I believe in putting the big pot in the little one. If a fellow can't stand the heat, he ought to stay out of the kitchen."

NEW YORK — Executives of the universe-wide communications system have announced a revolutionary plan to replace telephone numbers with letters.

For example, in making a call to the planet Venus, you would simply dial the letters of the alphabet in order instead of 26 numbers.

Boycotts have already been threatened by subscribers in Berkeley, Calif., and other centers.

"Who can keep all those letters in his head?" demanded one subscriber. "Digits are so much easier to remember."

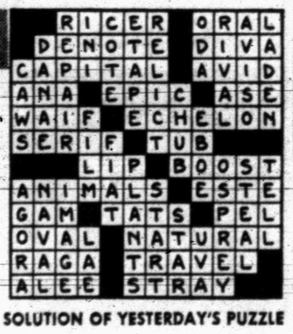

PARIS — Archeologists digging in the old French capital are puzzled by the ruins of an ancient steel skeleton uncovered recently.

"According to legend it was known as the Eiffel Tower," said one "and — although this is purely conjecture—it was apparently built as a temple by the natives to appease the wrath of De Gaulle, one of the minor tribal gods of that era."

Farmers in New Jersey and Texas have employed geese to herd sheep. Persistent honking and wing flapping and an occasional nip on a sheep's tail or ear keeps the herd in line.

Since the 1950's, farm productivity has zoomed a spectacular 7.7 percent a year, the United States Department of Agriculture reports.

Store Marks Anniversary

Snyder Drugs is observing its 21st anniversary.

The firm originally was located on the west side of the square. The store on the square continued to operate after the present establishment was opened in 1957, although subsequently the two stores were consolidated at the newer site on the Big Spring Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Patterson, owners of Snyder Drugs, are natives of West Texas. They lived in Rotan and Post before moving to Snyder

Patterson has worked in drug stores for 45 years, getting his first job while in high school. He has been a registered pharmacist for the past 34 years.

Bacteria Is No Cause For Alarm

WASHINGTON (AP) — Medical experts say discovery of salmonella bacteria in samples of Borden's "Starlac" dry milk is no cause for alarm.

The infection of the digestive tract caused by the organism is seldom serious, said Dr. Albert Martin, chief of the salmonella unit at the communicable disease unit in Atlanta, Ga.

Martin commented Wednesday night after the Food and Drug Administration announced all stocks of the Borden Food Co. nonfat dry milk product were being recalled from distributors and stores across the nation.

The company notified all distribution points to request return of all stocks of Starlac, officials said, and has arranged to make reimbursements for packages returned to stores by customers.

An FDA spokesman, asked to pinpoint where samples containing the organism had been found, said persons anywhere in the nation who have Starlac in their homes "might well be advised to return it."

The most common medical effect of salmonella is an infection which results in stomach pains, diarrhea, vomiting and often fever. Although the victim is quite uncomfortable for two or three days, the communicable disease expert said, the case usually is relatively mild and is treated at home.

Occasionally, Martin said, "among people very susceptible — such as children and older adults — it can become serious." Deaths have been caused by it, he added, but they are infrequent.

In New York, a Borden spokesman said, "We have no idea how many cases of the product have gone out." He said Borden has marketed the product since 1939.

The plant where it now is produced, in Dixon, Ill., has been closed, he said. But he added that production methods used by the company in no way contributed to the infection of the product by the organism.

Texan Was Among Ambushed Soldiers

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Texan was among six American soldiers killed by North Korean troops in a pre-dawn ambush this week in South Korea, the Pentagon has announced.

He was Pvt. Leslie L. Hasty, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton L. Hasty, 715 S. May, Palestine.

The Defense Department also said that Marine Lance Cpl. John T. Bradford of Fort Worth has died in Viet Nam from causes other than hostile action. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie M. Bradford, 1905 Portland St.

Young Farmers To Meet At Fluvanna

FLUVANNA — The Fluvanna Young Farmers will meet at 7:30 tonight in the Fluvanna Community Center.

The program will be on the third annual cattle feeding and grain development tour sponsored in the fall of 1963 by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. James Beaver will be in charge of the program.

The Young Farmers also will make plans for attending the state convention in January in Corpus Christi.

Today in Dumbarton, Scotland, a gaggle of 18 geese patrols sheds storing thousands of barrels of aging whisky. At the sight of an intruder, presumably thirsty, the geese start cackling and guards come running.
