The Slatonite

A MEMBER OF MOST FAMILIES IN THE SLATON TRADE AREA

59th Year, No. 49 | Lubbock County, Slaton, Tex. | Thursday, September 10, 1970 | 10 Cents

Soaking Rains Recorded

It was a little late as far as the farmers were concerned, but some real soaking rains finally came, and came.

The rainy spell started Sunday in the Slaton area and, by the time it let up Tuesday, left moisture readings ranging from 3 to 7 inches.

Heaviest rain reports came from Wilson and south and southwest of Slaton. After the gentle but heavy rainfall started Sunday, Slaton residents had measured from 2 to 3 inches Monday morning. About 2 more inches was recorded Monday, and some areas around Wilson reported up to 7 inches over the rainy period.

The heaviest rain on the South Plains was apparently covering a strip from Slaton to O'Donnell. Lubbock reported only an inch of rain for the same three-day period.

The rains started after a cold front slipped into the area over the weekend. A possibility of more rain was forecast Wednesday as another cold front crept in from the north, cooling temperatures and starting more showers in the Panhandle.

The cool front kept the high temperatures down to 71 and 72 Sunday and Monday. The mercury climbed back into the 80's here Tuesday and was expected to reach 80 degrees Wednesday. After a low of 58 degrees Sunday, the low was up to 68 Tuesday.

The rain was not expected to affect crops too much, unless the wet weather held on for an extended period of time. Slaton area farmers would have really welcomed the soaking rains about a month ago, when the moisture could have produced bumper crop prospects. The area had recorded only 6 or 7 inches of rain this year prior to this week's heavy rains.

TIGER TOUCHDOWN---Fullback Alan Fondy (30) crossed the goal line, despite the presence of several Brownfield gridders, to notch Slaton's first touchdown of the 1970 season against the Cubs Friday night. Halfback Donnie Rogers (22) is in the action. Slaton didn't cross the goal line enough, however, as the Cubs scored a 32-13 decision in the non-district game. (PHOTO BY STEVE NIEMAN)

Mayor hints of major decisions

City Hears Gas Hike Request, Puts Off Water Rate Increase

Slaton City Commission met in regular session Monday night at the Municipal Building, with the meeting highlighted by a conference with Pioneer Natural Gas Co. officials concerning the company's request for an increase in rates.

The commission took no action on the rate request, deciding to study the matter and see what action is taken by other cities on the company's West Texas system.

In other business, the commission readily approved a tentative proposal from County Commissioner Max Arrants on assisting the city's dump ground operation, called for new bids on repairs to the fire station, and discussed the possibility of providing water to Lake Ransom Canyon residents.

The commission had an amiable session with no mention of the challenges issued to the commission by Mayor David Hughes at the last monthly meeting. At that August meeting, the mayor had urged the commission to take action on some long-standing proposals. He also remarked that he was considering resigning if nothing was done.

However, the mayor did report that he and the commission got together for a "bull session" last Friday to discuss some of the city's needs. He added that it was not a formal meeting; that the city secretary was not present, and no minutes were kept.

"We discussed the delinquent tax situation, street repairs, fire protection, city salaries, and water, sewer and sanitation rates," he reported. "We agreed," the mayor stated, "that an increase in water, sewer and sanitation rates is inevitable, but we believe they can be bypassed at present."

The mayor went on to say the commission had tentatively agreed on another source of revenue, but they were "not ready to disclose this and other tentative plans as yet." He said some of the decisions may be announced in a few weeks.

Ansil O'Neal, local utility manager, and two other Pioneer Natural Gas Co. officials appeared at the meeting to discuss the request for a rate increase. A rate official from Amarillo pointed to rising costs of operation and an insufficient return for the company as primary reasons for the request.

Commissioner Otis Neill asked if the company revealed its profit picture in each town. The official said he could give an estimate, but that figures were on a system basis--rather than by individual towns. He said the return in Slaton would be about 4.1 percent under the new rates--compared to 5.8 percent for the system. He pointed out that law permits as much as 7 3/8 percent return.

The mayor and Neill pointed out that the city is also facing rising costs. They asked the company when the last time the city's franchise tax had been increased, and the last time the company's property tax had been increased.

The mayor and commission expressed appreciation to Arrants, who appeared at the meeting to discuss assistance

Tigers Make Home Debut Against Kermit Friday

Slaton's Tigers make their home debut of the 1970 grid season Friday night, and the SHS athletes hope to make it their first victory after losing the opener at Brownfield last week.

Kickoff time is 8:30 p.m. --a little later than usual-- when the Tigers take on the Class AAA Kermit Yellow - jackets--a team looking for revenge after Slaton scored a 19-14 last season.

Coach Ernie Davis was busy patching up the Tiger defense this week after Brownfield rolled by the SHS crew, 32-13, in the opener. "We just made too many mistakes," said Davis, "and we'll have to correct most of them to have hopes of winning this week."

The Tiger boss made it plain, however, that his Tigers have ideas of winning. "We had too many breakdowns of assignments--especially on defense --in the first game, but we hope to have most of those problems solved this week," he added.

Davis said the squad came out of the Cub battle in fairly good shape, except for the usual bruises. Defensive end Allen Walters sprained an ankle in the game and missed Monday's workout, but he was back in pads Tuesday.

The Tigers will probably open with the same offensive and defensive lineups that started the Brownfield game, according to Davis. That would include 19 players for the 22 positions, with 15 seniors and 4 junior drawing the starting nods.

The Kermit team uses the "wishbone" T offense, a popular alignment and one that Brownfield displayed effectively. The Jackets line up in a 4-4 on defense, according to scouting reports. Tailback John Bounds, 190, is the big offensive threat from Kermit.

Coach Don Brown has 13 returning lettermen at Kermit as he starts his second year. Only three offensive starters are back, but seven return on defense.

Mayor Proclaims 'POW Week' Here

Mayor David Hughes has proclaimed Sept. 20-26 as "V. F.W. Freedom Signature Week" in Slaton and urges all citizens to demonstrate their obligation to these fellow Americans by signing petitions requesting the immediate release of all Americans held prison by the North Vietnam government and by Communist political front groups in Southeast Asia.

Petitions will be placed in various businesses and members of V.F.W. Post 438 will circulate the petitions.

O. E. Lankford, commander of the Slaton V.F.W. Post, said signed petitions obtained during "V.F.W. Freedom Signature Week" will be forwarded to V.F.W. Commander-in-Chief Herbert R. Rainwater who will personally seek to deliver them in October to the North Vietnam delegation at the Paris Peace Talks.

"If this fails," Commander Lankford said, "then Commander-in-Chief Rainwater will present them to U.N. Secretary General U Thant and ask that the world organization bring pressure on Hanoi to assure that our men are treated humanely and the sick and injured are released."

Over 1,400 American fighting men are believed to be held in Southeast Asia by the North Vietnamese, Viet Cong and other Communists, Commander Lankford reported.

"Reports from the handful of prisoners released by Hanoi and from those who have escaped tell us that our servicemen are being held prisoners without proper food or medical care in callous disregard for the standards set up by the Geneva Convention," he said.

"My Post believes that all Americans have a special obligation to these men," Commander Lankford continued," "and feel that these petitions will vividly demonstrate to North Vietnam that the nation is united solidly on this issue and that the cruel and inhuman treatment they are inflicting will only serve to prolong the conflict in Southeast Asia."

Teachers Will Display Talent

A talent show will be held Monday evening at the Slaton High School auditorium, featuring the talent acts of the junior high school teachers. Danny Hardaway, starting football player for Texas Tech, will MC the evenings entertainment. The Soul Agents, will provide music.

Sponsored by the junior high Girls Glee Club, the money will be used to buy folders and music for the group. Tickets will be available at the door, or from any member of the choir, and the price will be 25 and 50 cents.

Everyone is invited to come out for a good showing.

SLATON DELEGATES AT DEMO PARLEY

Slaton delegates attending the State Democratic Convention Monday and Tuesday in Dallas were Mr. and Mrs. Ford Stansell, Mrs. Marie Kercheval, Beverly Kercheval and Carol Mosser.

Ralph Brock of Lubbock was chosen for a new term as Democratic committeeman for the 28th Senatorial District after the Lubbock County delegation split "down the middle" between moderates and liberal forces.

School Board Hears Reports

Slaton School Board, in regular session last Thursday night, heard a report from Supt. J. C. McClesky on a new counselor intern program, approved the continued use of Evans School to a neighborhood group, approved a PTA - sponsored project to install some air conditioners at West Ward, heard an enrollment report and discussed other business matters.

The board also approved bills and a monthly financial statement. Trustees accepted an offer from Bill Adams Olds-Pontiac to provide two Driver's Education cars rather than the customary one vehicle.

While discussing the enrollment figures, McClesky pointed out that crowded conditions existed on the second - grade level. Five of the second-grade classes have about 32 pupils to each room. It was reported that the use of teacher aides might relieve the problem, otherwise the board might consider employment of an additional teacher.

The superintendent reported that Slaton has applied for, and has been approved, for a grant under the Emergency School Assistance Program. It is funded by HEW to aid schools who have problems after complying with desegregation laws. Slaton is anticipating a grant of about $8,300, which was proposed to be used for teacher aides at West Ward School.

McClesky said enrollment figures showed more than 1,800 students. This included 465 in high school, 432 in junior high, 291 in Austin, and 639 in West Ward. The latter total also includes kindergarten students.

Grid Contest Results Given

A large number of entries poured in for the opening week of the annual Slatonite Football Contest and, as usual, the first week proved tough for the grid experts.

While many entrants missed 9 or 10 games, however, Cee Eckert predicted 20 of the 25 winners to capture the first-place cash prize of $10.

Four other entrants missed 7 of the games, with Kenneth Kahlich, Rt. 1, winning second place and R. J. Moore taking third place by coming closest to the total on the tie-breaker score. Lanny Swanner and Glen Akin just missed the prize money. A total of 18 entrants missed 8 games.

Miss Eckert's five misses were on the following games: Slaton - Brownfield, Idalou - Kress, Frenship - LCHS, Post-Hale Center (tie), and Stanford -Arkansas. Most entrants missed these same games, except the Frenship tilt. Many entrants also missed the Littlefield-Crosbyton, Petersburg -Abernathy, and New York - Dallas games.

Join in the fun this week--you could be a cash winner! Turn to the football contest page and follow the easy rules.

DIRECT DISTANCE DIALING COMES TO SLATON SUNDAY

Direct Distance Dialing (DDD) will be in Slaton Sunday.

"Conversion to DDD means that Slaton customers can dial their own station-to-station telephone calls anywhere in the United States," said Jerry Sachse, manager for South - western Bell Telephone Company.

Sachse pointed out that use of DDD is simple. First, dial "1" to gain access to the DDD network. Then, dial the Area Code (except 806). Finally, dial the seven digit number you are calling.

"It is not necessary to dial the 806 Area Code because the equipment is engineered to recognize numbers in that Area Code," Sachse said.

He emphasized, however, that all other area codes must be dialed.

Calls such as person-to-person, credit card, or billed to another number still must go through an operator.

DDD calls are billed automatically, Sachse noted. He said a machine records the time each call is placed, the calling number, the called number, and the time the called party answers. The disconnect time also is recorded.

This information is used for billing.

If a called number does not answer, the call is not billed. If a customer reaches a wrong number on a DDD call, he should find out the number and city he has reached, and then immediately call the operator.

Centenarian's Thoughts On Life

A popular question is: "What's the secret to long life?"

We know there isn't a surefire answer, but I've consulted the experts on the subject—people who have lived past 100. Maybe you'd like to share a few "secrets" of their elite club — The Century Club.

One member, Mrs. Anna E. James, 106, has never been known to say, "I can't," but rather, "I'll try." Her experience taught her, she says, that you live longer when you "work hard, have an appreciation for people, do what must be done, seek to improve that which needs improving, and keep a strong faith in God."

Two centenarians claim that staying single gave them a longer life-span. Frank M. Bechler, 100, boasts, "I've been a bachelor all my life — that's why I lasted so long." Edith Sommer, 100, shares his view. Proud she's an old maid, she claims, "If I had a husband to worry about I would've never got this old."

Although individual formulas for long life may differ, the Century Club has one common creed — emphasize the brighter, happier side of life. Edward M. Apalakis, 110, attributing his long life to singing for a half hour every morning, and Mrs. Margaret King, 103, says, "Don't let the world bother you. There ain't no point in worrying about things you can't help."

"PROJECT POW"

Somewhere in the steaming jungles of North Vietnam there are over 1,400 brave Americans fighting men who need your help and the help of all Americans. As men who have fought on the battlefields of the world, we have a special obligation to help the American prisoners of war being held in North Vietnam. For that reason, we join the V.F.W. in urging you to support "VFW Freedom Signature Week" or "Project Prisoners of War".

There will be a petition in The Slatonite office and many other places in Slaton for you to sign during the week of Sept. 20-26. Let it be said that Slaton has not forgotten the Vietnam POWs and MIAs.

As this project gets underway, I keep recalling the speech that Joe Carpenter made at the West Texas Press Convention in August.

Joe Carpenter is a farm boy from Mason, Ky. He worked on his Dad's tenant farm to earn money to get through High School and the University of Kentucky. In 1955, Joe entered the United States Air Force. . .eventually flew 95 missions over North Vietnam, and on the 96th he was shot down while attacking a truck convoy. It was Feb. 15, 1968!

Col. Joe Carpenter, holder of the Silver Star, Distinguished Flying Cross and scores of Oak Leaf Clusters, and other medals, spent sixmonths in solitary confinement in a Hanoi prisoner of war camp before being released in Sept. 1968. The repatriated POW is now an instructor at Williams Air Force Base, Arizona.

Still the farm boy at heart, Col. Joe discussed the Vietnam War situation in relation to Prisoners of War (POW) and Americans Missing In Action (MIA). Let me tell you what he wants the world to know as he appealed, with deep humility and sincereity, to owners and publishers of weekly and semi-weekly newspapers in the West Texas Press Ass'n to; "tell grass roots America about 'The Forgotten Americans'."

Recalling personal experiences as a POW, Carpenter emphatically protested the "inhumane" treatment of POW and MIA families here at home by Hanois refusal to disclose a full and complete listing of names of American boys and men being held in POW camps. Failure to release the names, so that families may know whether loved ones are alive in the POW camps, is a flagrant violation of the Geneva Convention agreement. The refusal makes it extremely difficult for families with sons and husbands missing in action. . .but perhaps alive in POW camps.

"The people of your community can help, if they will. The people must help us and you in the newspaper business must bring it to their attention immediately," pleaded Carpenter. "Pressure must be brought to bear for a release of names of those being held - these Americans cannot be forgotten." Carpenter told members of the press that Hanoi can be impressed with a massive grass roots effort through letters and telegrams that POW names be made public. "Keep the issue before the public. . .ask their support, Hanoi will listen - I'm convinced of that."

Giving hope to the kin of MIA and POW, Carpenter stated; "The POW can survive and can return to America and lead a normal and healthy life." He recounted such details as; POW feed - a bowl of rice and piece of bread at 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. - occasionally a banana. No activities whatever-complete isolation, something to read once a month. "The POW camps are nothing like WWII, or Korea. Nor as depicted on Hogan's Heroes on TV. However, there is no brutality to speak of - and a prisoner can live, can come home to lead a normal life."

And then the punch line for Joe Carpenter: "We were shown everything 'bad' going on in America - we were shown nothing good. Films of rioting, protests, campus disorders, demonstrations were shown to us immediately. We were given clippings from newspapers of all the anti-war stuff. If a senator or congressman stood up before the TV camera or radio microphone to protest our involvement in Vietnam-we saw his picture, heard his remarks within a few days. We saw nothing good or progressive going on - but they made sure we saw everything that was 'anti'." Carpenter said that Hanoi gets our TV reports, our big daily papers, our radio broadcasts. . .and they know what's going on at all times.

"Upon my release, they expressed the hope I would return to America to join the protesters of the war. I assured them I would not," he said.

From what Col. Joe Carpenter, repatriated POW, says - Hanoi can be impressed by happenings in the U.S.A. massive letter writing campaign will have a telling effect on their thinking. Hanoi has already been impressed with the efforts of Dallas millionaire H. Ross Perot. . .and Carpenter stated; "I wish there were a million like him in America."

LUCKY CAT

Sometimes the decisions a woman has to make are hard. In Merle King's case recently, a sympathetic heart overcame a love for antique furniture.

We are referring to the picture story in this week's Slatonite about Merle and her little white kitten. Merle had hauled an antique school desk all the way from Colorado to her home here to refinish. She covered it with plastic and set it on the breezeway until she had time to start refinishing it.

When her daughter, Debbie, went outside one day, she kept hearing a "meow" sound and when she finally figured out where it was coming from, she noticed the kitten had stuck its head through the ink hole of the desk and couldn't get out.

They worked and worked but to no avail. Jim Vickers Jr. came to their aid, suggesting either a sharp knife or a saw. As the picture indicates, the saw was used on the desk to free the lucky cat. Now. . .eight more lives to go.

WHEELS FOR TWO

In the summertime people's fancy turns to bicycles for two but at the Earl Reasoner farm, the song goes "a wheel chair for two".

On March 20, Earl broke his right leg in a pickup accident and has been confined to his wheel chair and crutches. Then on Aug. 1, Ardell had an automobile accident and broke her right leg. After spending 30 days in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital, she's home in a wheel chair.

You might call this "togetherness", Ardell said. This togetherness has caused us to know how many friends we have, she said.

With a wonderful outlook on life and looking forward to teaching her third grade class at school, Ardell said, "how lovely everyone has been to come and visit us". "The food, cards, flowers, telephone calls, prayers and all the things that go with has made this a blessing in disguise."

Best wishes for a real speedy recovery!

Warm, Fresh Air

... direct from the manufacturer

Natural gas is the healthiest, most economical way to heat your house this winter. Gas is economical because it's the direct way to produce heat — you don't pay to convert heat to another energy source and then back to heat. And with gas you can afford to bring clean outside air into your home this winter instead of having to re-heat the same old stale air time after time.

So, if you're building or remodeling, be sure to specify gas heating. Gas is the "natural" fuel. It's like buying direct from the manufacturer. Call your heating contractor, plumber, or Pioneer Natural Gas.

Nursing Home Newsletter

BY BOBBIE GREER

Welcome to two new residents at Slaton Nursing Home. They are Andrew Howard and Charles Schaffner. We hope these men will enjoy their new home.

Several of our residents are ill. In the hospital are Mrs. Georgia Davidson, Nora Carnes and Mary Ehler.

The Ladies Auxiliary sponsored games of Bingo last Wednesday and the residents sure enjoyed this. Winners were Bertha Watson, Jesse Echols, Alice Baker, Ludie Geer, Ola Shockley, Martie Mercer, Nobie Cummings, Annie Peterson and John Murchison. Black out winner was Annie Peterson.

The auxiliary needs more members. Anyone interested should call Ruth Hartman, Annie Williamson or Rebecca Clark.

Rev. and Mrs. Vernon Baggerly brought a devotion for us Friday. He has graciously consented to bring a devotion for us each Friday.

Sunday Rev. Clinton Eastman conducted our afternoon service. It was enjoyed by 12 residents. There are usually about 20 who attend the daily devotional, but on Sunday, some of the residents visit relatives.

The next time you start to ask the question, "What will they think of next?", please don't say it very loud.

Some wild-eyed idea man might hear you and create something so new and gosh-awful different that we'll all have to live with it.

Don't get me wrong. I think creativity is a fine thing, ranking right up there with motherhood, equal rights, and thoughtful husbands. But some of the things they create when they're being creative have a way of creating problems for us poor uncreative creatures.

The other day, for instance, I was reading an article about all the new things we're going to be surrounded with in the '70s.

What really gave me pause was the new furniture that's envisioned. Instead of chairs that look like honest-to-goodness chairs with sure 'nuff cotton-cushioned innersprings, they say we'll be using fantasy-shaped legless things of inflated plastic.

From the looks of them, I'd say furniture makers are going to have to put signs on them saying "chair" so you'll know where to try and sit when your hostess invites you to. Some of the newfangleds are shaped like huge doughnuts and, if you're limber enough, you can curl up in the hole that goes right through 'em. (That's the cruller way of discriminating against people over 30.)

Another fantastic shape of the future looks like a set of snaggle-toothed dentures. Your body is supposed to perch on the teeth and snuggle in the snaggles. It makes you wonder if you'll be corrugated or just plain old chewed out when you get up out of one of those contraptions.

Who knows? We may be entering an era that makes the man who stayed for dinner look like a speed demon. The way most of these futuristic designs are made, the smart hostess wouldn't dare invite her guests to be seated unless she's sure she wants them to become a permanent part of the decor.

On the other hand, it's said that these new forms are made possible by the "exploding plastics technology." Come to think of it, there sure would be an explosion if one of those inflated plastic jobs was suddenly attacked by a hatpin or some other sharp-pointed device. (And whose kid isn't bright enough to think of that pregnant possibility?)

I can just see my husband's Aunt Agatha now . . . sitting there all prim and proper when—woosh! off she goes into the wild blue yonder. No wonder people are talking about the Soaring Seventies.

A man is never completely able to enjoy the luxury of doing absolutely nothing. He must breathe.

(From Slaton Police Department

WALTER HEAD
Slaton Police Chief

A good policeman is many things but he can, in no way, be a criminal. He cannot take the law into his own hands no matter how many times he finds himself in danger.

If he became judge and jury on the street, he would throw away all the training and everything else that make the policeman a true professional.

There are many court decisions which I feel the professional police officer has every right to disagree with. Court decisions are made usually by those who have never faced the danger which is part of the daily police routine. But the court decisions must be obeyed, otherwise we add chaos to the already difficult task of being an officer.

The job of the police officer is to apprehend the criminal and bring him before the bar of justice. If the courts decide to free the criminal, and the decisions appear to endanger the safety of the citizens, then the changes within the judicial system must be made through legislation--not by the police officer.

Criminals who belong in prison are walking the streets because an officer failed to give the suspect the proper warning--a decision so ridiculous in some instances as to be unworth of mention.

But the officers' hands are tied, and it will continue thus until the public makes demands on the legislators for changes to protect both public and police.

VFW Sets Dance, Sat. Barbecue

The VFW will sponsor its annual barbecue and dance Saturday, Sept. 19, with the barbecue set for 6 p.m. and the dance at 9 p.m.

The barbecue will be free to members and their wives if their 1971 dues have been paid.

The dance will be open to the public for $3.00 per couple.

Chicken Is Popular

Now is the time to buy, eat and freeze fryers, according to an Extension consumer marketing specialist.

The supply is estignated at seven percent more than last year, and this combined with low prices is one reason chicken turns up so frequently on dinner tables, she says.

Egg prices are also a little lower than at this time a year ago. The price spread between Grade A large and medium size eggs is narrowing a bit since wholesale prices on large eggs are down. Mediums are still generally the better buy.

Retail beef prices are unchanged for the past few weeks. In general, look for best beef values on short ribs, ground beef, arm and blade pot roasts and steaks and round steaks and roasts.

Retail pork prices are holding steady with prices for the past month. Look for best pork values of end cut loin roasts and chops, picnics, hams and shoulder roasts and steaks.

Fresh fruits and vegetable items in ample supply at the most economical prices include oranges, bananas, cantaloupes, watermelons, plums, prunes and grapes. Others include potatoes, head lettuce, celery, cabbage, okra, blackeye and purple hull peas, carrots.

Proclamation:

WHEREAS, there are over 1,400 servicemen held as prisoners in Southeast Asia by North Vietnam and her allies; and

WHEREAS, North Vietnam, despite appeals from neutral sources such as the International Red Cross, has consistently refused to divulge any information about the men on their health and well being, including even naming those they are holding, or even permitting such groups to inspect North Vietnamese prison camps to determine if they meet the minimum standards of care and treatment embodied in the Geneva Convention; and

WHEREAS, such callous disregard for long-established international rules for humane treatment of such prisoners is causing unbearable anguish among these American prisoners and their families at home;

THEREFORE, I, David Hughes, DVM, Mayor of the City of Slaton, do proclaim September 20-26, 1970, as "V.F.W. Freedom Signature Week" and urge all citizens of this community to demonstrate their obligation to these fellow Americans by signing petitions requesting the immediate release of all Americans held prisoner by the North Vietnam government and by Communist political front groups in Southeast Asia.

LETTERS to EDITOR

Dear Editor and citizens:

Regarding the letters on city business that appeared in "The Slatonite" last week, may I express one more view.

First, the so called "city dads" have a tough job. They need our support in helping them make the right decisions. Our town is our business and as all businesses, we must put money back into it for it to grow and prosper.

Second, Does the majority of Slatonites think of Slaton as being Lubbock's "bedroom, kitchen and den"? Slatonites should think of Slaton as our town, not as part of an overgrown house. Slaton has prospered on its own merits--not Lubbock's, and we shall receive the rewards, not the city of Lubbock.

Third, as for the quoting of figures on tax appraisals for city and school, how many citizens feel that we are the same size as Idalou? Does it not cost more for a big business to operate than for a small one? Could Lubbock have their property appraised for the same money as Slaton spends?

Fourth, I, too, protest the cost of living, but have you businessmen raised your prices? I accept this -- our city is only trying to do the same. If you feel the city is trying to put the "thumb - screws" to you, think again. Try paying taxes on your lot and house in Lubbock.

Fifth, consider feeding a family of four or more on a city salary of $350 to $380 a month--beat the cost of living with that! Police officers receive the same pay for protecting your life with his. Would you take the same chance, for just one act of violence can mean death. This is the reason for our policemen moving to other cities, and our city personnel taking better jobs.

Sixth, should any of these proposals be denied, you are denying yourself a better town. If your child was ill, there would be nothing you would not do, and although our town is not flesh and blood, it should be loved by the citizens who live here.

When the city is in need of repairs, equipment and improvements, take no half measures. This is your town, your children's environmental playground.

Slaton -- (is it) your kind of town?

NOW IS THE TIME TO APPLY FOR ARMY ROTC SCHOLARSHIPS

Are you a high school senior? Or the parent or educator of one?

If so, are you informed about Army ROTC scholarships awarded annually to provide financial assistance to outstanding young men interested in the Army as a career?

Did you know that the scholarships pay for college tuition, books and lab fees and also provide a $50 monthly allowance?

Did you know that on Sept. 1 the Army began accepting applications from high school seniors desiring to compete for the nearly 1,000 four-year ROTC scholarships to be awarded to students entering college in 1971? And that the application period runs through Dec. 31?

A scholarship winner may attend any one of over 250 colleges and universities throughout the 50 states, Puerto Rico and the District of Columbia offering Army ROTC. He may pursue any course of study recognized by the college and leading to a baccalaureate degree. Following graduation he must serve as an active duty Army officer for a minimum of four years.

Selection is based on academic excellence, extracurricular activities, physical standards, Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or American College Testing Program (ACT) results, and evaluation of motivation and leadership potential following the student's appearance before a scholarship selection board.

It is of note that from 16 to 24 per cent of our American business executives making from $100,000 to $300,000 per year, and top government executives, took ROTC training.

The Army plans also to award 400 three - year scholarships and 630 two-year scholarships to college men already enrolled in ROTC.

For details, residents in the Fourth Army area of Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico, should write to Army ROTC Scholarships, Headquarters Fourth U. S. Army, Fort Sam Houston, Tex. 78234.

Put Every Eighth Person In America On Welfare?

The Administration's "welfare reform bill," H. R. 16311, has been passed by the House of Representatives. It is now before the Senate Finance Committee.

There are some things about this bill that make you wonder:

—It would guarantee a minimum income to all families in this country, as much as $7,520 a year to some where the father is fully employed.

—It would triple the number of families on welfare.

—It would increase the number of persons on welfare from 10,436,000 to 23,205,000, according to Senate Finance Committee statistics.

In some states — Arkansas, Colorado, Georgia, Indiana, Tennessee and Texas, for instance — it would more than double the number of persons on welfare. In Mississippi, Nebraska and Virginia, it would increase the number of welfare recipients nearly three times; in North Carolina and South Dakota, nearly four times; and in South Carolina and North Dakota, nearly five times.

—It would put every eighth person in America on welfare.

For the first year, this welfare program would cost about $11 billion. But that's only the beginning.

The cost would go up each year. And no one can tell how high it would go, as politicians campaign for public office with promises to keep raising the level of guaranteed income.

There is already a bill pending in Congress, proposing a $5,500 minimum income, at an estimated annual cost to the taxpayer of $60 billion.

This comes at a time when federal spending should be held in check. A deficit of $10-$15 billion is projected for the current fiscal year 1971. For 1972, the deficit could reach $23 billion.

Continued excessive spending leads to unstoppable inflation.

Business, large and small, across the country, as represented by the National Chamber federation, strongly favors welfare reform. Business recognizes that welfare reform is past due, and would like to see something done about it.

The Chamber, however, does not support the Administration's welfare reform H.R. 16311.

The reason the Chamber does not support this bill is not alone because of the tremendous cost involved, but especially because the bill is not a welfare reform measure, even though is what its proponents call it.

It is welfare expansion; it merely another aid program on top of which already exist.

It is not basic, it does not get to the heart of the problem. It does not solve the family welfare problem.

Welfare reform is needed, but merely a guaranteed annual income certain families, and a guaranteed nual tax increase for the rest of citizens.

Therefore, the National Chamber of Commerce feels that Congress should go through with a real welfare program. Specifically:

—We favor doing a better job than is now being done of taking care of those people who are unable to support themselves, the aged, the blind, the disabled.

—We are for meeting the living needs of able-bodied adults with children in need, and who are on AFDC — Aid to Families with Dependent Children. But these able-bodied adults should be given training for productive jobs — for which support — and they can be.

—We favor free family planning counseling and devices.

—We support adequate funding of day care centers and child-care arrangements to help welfare mothers move into gainful employment and self-support.

—We are for a constructive program of occupational rehabilitation, with training allowances to help the individual meet daily family needs while in training, and with built-in incentives to get a job.

But we are not in favor of the H.R. 16311 welfare expansion program which would put every eighth person in America on relief — and that would include with it no true work incentive for the able-bodied adult.

might have gone all the way.

The Tiger offense moved the ball 63 and 61 yards the first two times it had the ball, but they also lost it on downs twice inside the 20. Slaton's defense had its ups and downs, too.

Trailing by 14-7 in the third period, Slaton found Brownfield on the Tiger 5 with a first down. The Tiger defense gave up only four yards in four plays, however, to take the ball on the one.

The Tiger defense held the big Cub fullback, 216-pound Norman Jackson, to only 8 yards in four tries the first half. He broke on touchdown runs of 19 and 76 yards in the second half, however. He and Cub tailback Mike Roberson, 200, gave the winners a strong running attack.

Jackson wound up as the game's top rusher with 126 yards on 11 trips, and Roberson had 112 yards on 24 carries. Slaton's Donnie Rogers chalked up 107 yards on 12 carries.

Junior guard Brad Winchester turned in a fine defensive performance in his first varsity contest, while halfbacks Bruce Schuette and Dub Simmons were also commended by Coach Davis. Ends Paul Payne and Allen Sanders were cited for good blocking on the offensive line.

The Tigers came out of the contest with a couple of minor injuries that are expected to heal this week. Defensive end Allen Walters sprained an ankle, and fullback Alan Fondy had some strained neck muscles.

Rogers set up Slaton's first score with a great 50-yard run late in the first period. The swift halfback broke several tackles before being stopped on the Cub 11. Three plays later, fullback Alan Fondy crashed over from the three to register the first Tiger touchdown of 1970 and give Slaton the first lead. Allen Sanders' kick made it 7-0 with 50 seconds left in the first period.

Slaton had took the opening kickoff and marched to the Cub 8 before the drive stalled. A 5-yard penalty for delay--Slaton's only penalty of the night--moved them back to the 13, and the Tigers gave up the ball on the 6.

Rogers had launched that drive with a 31-yard run. A couple of 10-yard gainers by Fondy and a crucial 11-yard pass from Mosser to end Paul Payne had sparked that drive.

Mosser got the other touchdown on a 1-yard quarterback sneak in the fourth period. Defensive halfback Dub Simmons set up the scoring drive by intercepting a Cub pass on the Brownfield 32. Halfback Frank Self got 15 yards around end, and Mosser hit Payne with an 8-yard pass to get it close. Mosser then carried for 7 on a keeper and plunged the final yard. A pass attempt for two points failed.

After Slaton had taken a 7-0 lead, Brownfield put the Tigers in a hole with a 59-yard punt to start the second period. Fondy got off a 38-yard kick, but a 10-yard return put the Cubs on the Slaton 46.

Halfback Chuck Price, who later injured an ankle, dashed for 17 yards, and Roberson followed with 14. The Cubs then ground it out in five more plays, with Price going over from the 3. Roberson sailed around end for a 2-point conversion to give the Cubs an 8-7 lead.

Fondy returned the ensuing kickoff 14 yards but was jarred loose from the ball, and the Cubs recovered on the Tiger 29. After a 5-yard gainer, Price broke off right tackle reversed his field, and dashed 24 yards for another score--just 42 seconds after the first Cub tally. A pass for extra points were incomplete, but the Cubs led by 14-7 with 8:07 left in the first half.

Neither team threatened again in the first half. Brownfield drove to the Tiger 5 in the third period, but a great goal-line stand stopped them on the one. Fondy's punt from the end zone travelled only 21 yards into the win, however, and the Cubs started again from the 29.

The Cubs covered the distance in five plays this time, with Roberson going around end from 5 yards out for the tally. A pass for points was incomplete and the Cubs led by 20-7 with 11:54 left in the final period.

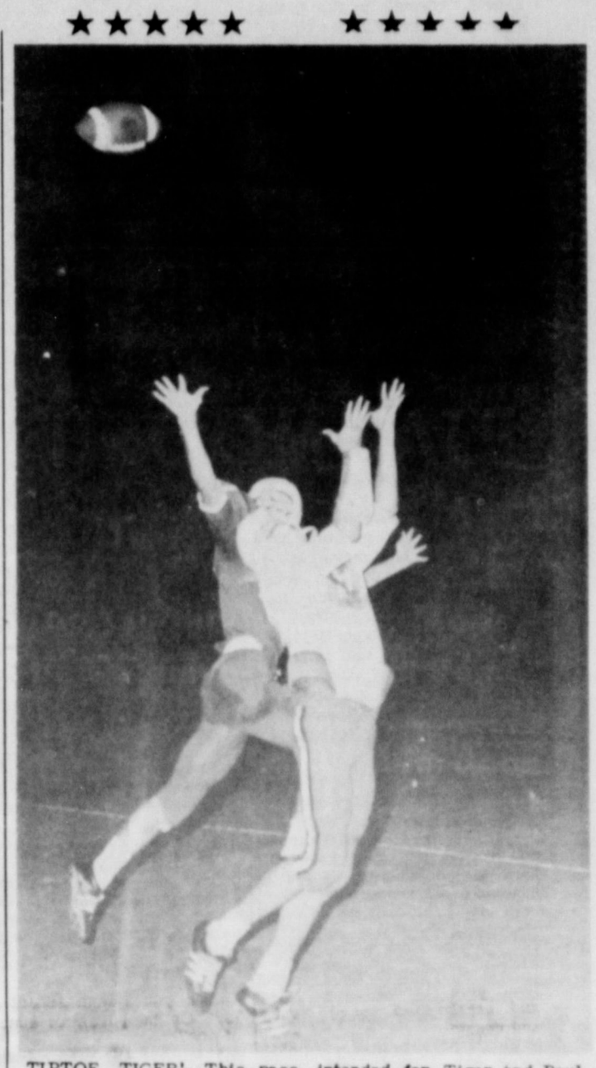

The Tigers watched the ensuing kickoff roll to their own 34 and Brownfield recovered the ball. It took only four plays and 85 seconds for the Cubs to tally again. Jackson covered the final 19 for the touchdown, and the Cubs led by 26-7 with 10:29 left in the game.

The Tigers then cranked up a 62-yard drive that died at the Cub 10. Mosser hit Bruce Schuette and Self with short passes in the drive, but after 14 plays the Cubs held on a 4th and 1 situation at the 10.

The Cubs moved it out to the 25, but Simmons picked off a Brownfield pass at the 32 and the Tigers were in business again. Self and Mosser sparked the drive, and the Tiger quarterback plunged over. The clock showed just 2:04 left in the game with the Cubs out front by 26-13.

Brownfield put the icing on their victory cake on the first play following the kickoff, however. Jackson hit a solid wall on his own 24, bounced back, started again and shook off a tackler, then dashed all the way on a 76-yard scoring juant. The run for extra points failed again, but it was 32-13 with 1:36 left in the game.

A long pass by Mosser was intercepted on the Tiger's second play following the next kickoff. Slaton got the ball again on a fumble recovery, but two plays failed to gain as the game ended.

TIPTOE, TIGER!--This pass, intended for Tiger end Paul Payne (white jersey), was a little high in the Brownfield game Friday night. Payne did haul in a couple of Terry Mosser passes during the night, however, in the Tiger's losing cause. Slaton lost the non-district opener, 32-13, at Brownfield. (PHOTO BY STEVE NIEMAN)

Junior Tigers Score Victories Over Frenship

The Slaton Junior High football teams opened their seasons on successful notes here Tuesday, rolling to one-sided victories over the Frenship 7th and 8th grade squads.

The Slaton 8th graders posted a 47-6 victory, while the 7th graders rolled to a 52-0 triumph. The games opened action in Tiger Stadium for the season on a triumphant note.

The two Slaton teams will play Plainview here next Tuesday, with games set for 5 and 7 p.m.

Halfback Bobby Hightower tallied three times and Ronnie Smith twice to spark the Slaton 8th graders. Hightower scored on a 1-yard plunge, a 52-yard pass play from quarterback Kelly Copeland, and a 76-yard kickoff return. Smith tallied on runs of 20 and 30 yards.

Quarterback Craig Nieman opened scoring in the first period on a 33-yard run, and Lupe Valderaz joined the parade with a 20-yard touchdown run. J. D. Moore kicked five extra points for the team. Moore, Cornell Drones, Chris Williams, Tony Leake and Simon Gonzales were outstanding on defense.

Seventh - graders taking part in the scoring parade included Charlie Haynes, Breck Hudson, Clarence Hammons, Lanny Lavender, Tom Mosser and Ricky Lopez. Outstanding play on defense was turned in by the whole team, led by Gaylon Buxkemper, Richard Sadler and Darrell Bednarz. Coach Joe Sparkman has about 43 players on this team.

program is provided by Texas Tech University at no cost to the school system, the superintendent announced. Two young Mexican - American students from Tech are currently spending one day a week here to serve in counseling areas. They are scheduled to spend two days a week the next semester. The program is similar to teacher-training work.

Mrs. O. B. Allen appeared at the board meeting to discuss the use of Evans School as a neighborhood center. The trustees have given temporary approval previously, provided that adult supervision was provided.

Mrs. Allen reported use of the school had proven very satisfactory, but she was concerned about the use of the gym. She said she had not been able to find adult supervisors much of the time. However, the board encouraged her to keep working with both buildings.

McClesky presented the West Ward PTA request on the air conditioner project. If the organization decides to project, several air conditioners would be installed each year until all rooms have them. The plans calls for evaporative-type air conditioners to be used, with the school taking care of the water and electric bills. The board gave the go-ahead on the plan.

Buford Duff, business manager, presented a request from Col. Clifford Bowen, Junior ROTC commander, for the old field house at Tiger Stadium to be converted into a rifle range. The old building is not being used.

Col. Bowen proposed that the school pay for closing windows and doors in the building, and the ROTC unit -- with help from the local VFW and American Legion posts -- would take care of other expenses involved. The board asked for more information on the remodeling plans and the costs.

Before adjourning, the board approved the drafting of a letter to the Tiger football team wishing them good luck in the first game and hopes for successful season.

Attending the session were board president Don Kendrick; trustees Tommy Davis, R. C. Hall, Bettye Burks, Clark Self Jr., the Rev. Emilio Abeyta, and George Gamble; Supt. McClesky, Duff, and C.G. Nieman.

Slaton fans followed the Tigers in large numbers to Brownfield last week, and a big crowd is anticipated for the first home game Friday. Fans are again reminded that game time is 8:30 p.m. for this non-district contest.

District Lion Governor Makes Formal Visit Here

Roy L. Kahlich of Wilson, District Governor of Lions District 2T2, made his official annual visit to the Slaton Lions Club Monday at noon in the Community Clubhouse.

Kahlich commended the Slaton club for its community involvement and activities and urged members to "keep growing in Lionism." He pointed out that Lions International is the largest and youngest service organization in the world.

The district governor recognized two Slaton Lions who serve on his district cabinet--Arvin Stafford and Speedy Nieman, and also paid tribute to Hack Lasater, veteran Lion and a state director to the Lions Crippled Children's Camp.

In his address, Kahlich also urged Lions to work for and support better government. "Don't be part of the silent majority, stand up and be counted," he stressed.

Kahlich was introduced by Carroll Taylor, deputy district governor from Lamesa. Zone chairman Bill Chancy and several Lions were visiting from Tahoka, and president James Savell and several Lions visited from Wilson.

Kahlich, a native of Wilson, is a farmer and co-owner of New Lynn Gin and Slaton Implement. A graduate of Tech, he formerly taught school and coached at Wilson and New Home. He is married to the former Joyce Ann Cook and they have three daughters and a son.

Before being elected district governor, covering some 60 clubs, Kahlich had served various offices on the district level and most posts in his home club at Wilson. He is a veteran, a member of the First Baptist Church of Wilson, and is president of the school board.

He will make his formal visit to the Cooper Lions Club Monday evening in the school cafeteria.

Wise Lobster

The New England lobster inserts a grain of sand near the base of each feeler to help keep a bearing in its nearly weightless state in water. Gravity exerts a faint but constant downward pull on the sand grains, giving the lobster what amounts to a built-in plumb line.

Beans were one of man's first cultivated crops. The wild bean probably came into the ancient civilized world from the shores of the south Caspian Sea or North Africa.

Gibbs Hill Lighthouse in Bermuda is 117 feet tall and is made entirely of cast-iron. It is one of only 21 such structures made from riveted cast-iron plates. The top of the lighthouse sometimes sways as much as seven inches in heavy winds.

Board Strength

A 12-by-12-inch board, burned continuously for one hour on all four sides, would still be stronger than a 9-by-9-inch board never touched by fire. Even when exposed to fire, thick wood members retain their strength for long periods of time.

Sept. 20-27 Is Dog Week

SPECIAL - At last count there were over 26,000,000 dogs in the United States, accounting for 40 per cent of the pet population. In fact, the canines are so highly thought of that they have their own week: National Dog Week, September 20-27.

The national 4-H dog care and training program, supported by Ralston Purina Company, last year enrolled 87,000 boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 19, according to figures compiled by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Popular with city and suburban youths and rural youngsters as well, the program teaches them to better understand animals, and to become aware of the problems and responsibility of their care and training.

A variety of activities may be undertaken by the young dog fancier. Among them are obedience training, grooming, readying for shows, hunting, health and nutrition, and even teaching young and old dogs new tricks.

The project also develops pride of ownership and leadership among boys and girls who may not otherwise have the opportunity to own other animals.

Volunteer adult and teen leaders, veterinarians, kennel owners and professional dog handlers share their experience and know-how with the 4-H'ers.

Participating in the program certainly is its own reward. But youths who excel also earn honors and nationwide recognition.

This year four gold-filled honor medals are offered in each county, a fine transistor radio goes to the top state winner and 18 expense-paid sectional trips to the 1970 National 4-H Congress in Chicago, November 29 through December 3.

In addition, six $600 scholarships will be presented at the national level. The national and sectional winners will be guests of Ralston Purina Company at the Congress.

The Cooperative Extension Service, which supervises the program, judges the 4-H records and names the winners. The program is arranged and announced by the National 4-H Service Committee, Chicago.

Moore Receives Airborne Wings

Pfc. Gary R. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Moore of Wilson, graduated from Airborne School Sept. 4 at Fort Benning, Ga., receiving his diploma and airborne wings.

He is now stationed at Fort Bragg, N.C. where he is taking the last part of his Green Beret training. Gary joined the Green Beret in March and has been training since then.

He is a 1968 graduate of Wilson High School and received an athletic award that year. He also attended South Plains College for one semester before entering the service.

County Records 46 Accidents During August

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 46 accidents on rural highways in Lubbock County during the month of August, according to Sgt. O. C. Guthrie, Highway Patrol Supervisor of the area.

These crashes resulted in 35 persons injured and an estimated property damage of $45,533.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first eight months of 1970 shows a total of 313 accidents resulting in nine persons killed, 228 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $315,570.

The sergeant reminded all Texas motorists that vehicles bearing red motor vehicle inspection stickers with the large black numeral "9" in the lower left-hand corner of the windshield must be reinspected before midnight, Sept. 30.

All motor vehicles and certain classes of trailers registered in Texas are subject to the mandatory inspection of certain equipment which includes brakes, lighting, horns and warning devices, mirrors, windshield wipers, steering, wheels and rims, exhaust system, exhaust emission system, and front seat belts in vehicles where seat belt anchorages were part of the manufacturer's original equipment on the vehicle.

The inspection fee is $2, with adjustments or repairs extra if needed.

Farm Bill Races Against Time On Troubled Track

The Federal farm bill is in a race against time. If it can't push across the finish line before about mid-October, Congress will take up the track and go home.

After 18 months of hard running the bill completed the first lap of the race, through the House Ag Committee, on July 22. It stumbled through the full House August 5 and is now on the 3rd leg of the course in the Senate Ag Committee.

The bill literally needs to spring from here on in - through the Senate Committee, the Senate, a House-Senate Conference Committee, another lap around the House and Senate and on to the President's desk.

on the city dump grounds. Arrants said he felt sure the county would provide the equipment needed, if the city provides the labor.

Arrants, Mayor Hughes, Grady Elder and possibly one or two commissioners were to view other county operations this week to see what equipment is being used. Hughes said the county proposal "would fill a dire need of the city and save much money."

The commission briefly discussed bids on repairs at the fire station, but discovered new bids would need to be called. The old bids were dated in May and were no longer valid. Proposed work includes painting outside trim, replacing broken screens and panes, replacing putty around windows, and installing a door on the south side.

Hughes reported that a "water board" from Ransom Canyon had approached the city on the possibility of providing water to residents in that area. The canyon residents have their own water system and wells, but the supply is getting short.

The mayor said the city currently has a surplus of water which it receives from the Canadian River Authority. He said the commission is considering the feasibility of supplying the water, and "it looks promising at this time."

Mrs. Elena Pena, who resides at 8th and Jean, appeared at the meeting to request something be done about a drainage problem near her home. The mayor said the city would see about putting caliche in the low area. He also announced that the street department will start patching "chug holes" in paved streets as soon as possible.

Another citizen at the meeting, Tommy Donaldson, inquired about previous discussion of policemen's pay and the department's request for a radar unit. The mayor said the items were under consideration, and that "no one is more aware of the needs of the city more than the commission."

The mayor and commissioners J. S. Edwards and Otis Neill attended the meeting. Floyd Guelker and Rev. F. D. Conright were absent.

AUSTIN — Many dogs are lost each year because of carelessness on the part of their owners and because people haven't taken time to consider their pets' well-being in relation to weather conditions, according to the Texas Veterinary Medical Association.

Our companion animals, as well as their masters, have become so accustomed to air-conditioning that they have a difficult time living without it. Then, when we humans fail to "think," poor Rover may not have a chance, says Dr. A. B. Haws, small animal practitioner of Austin. The most obvious and common example of this is the plight of a dog left in a parked car while the driver dashes into the supermarket. It becomes a race against the clock, and sometimes the dog loses, he said.

Many dangerous situations could be described, but they may all be avoided if we would just ask ourselves if we would be comfortable in our pet's place, Dr. Haws describes. They have about the same tolerance for heat that we have.

Another fallacy of pet care is to give long-haired dogs a close haircut which the owner thinks will make him cooler. This is usually a mistake. Unless the fur is badly matted, it should be left its natural length. The skin of the dog does not perspire, so it is unable to produce much cooling effect. GUEST EDITORIAL .....

Liberty's Light Is Getting Dim

By Ferdie J. Deering

Editor & Manager, The Farmer-Stockman

IF THE MAJORITY of patriotic Americans continue to sit back in the comfort of inflationary prosperity, the so-called minority groups may destroy America. Then nobody will have any rights.

We no longer stand strongly and distinctly as a God-fearing nation whose people take pride in being thrifty, self-reliant, hard-working, creative, ambitious, law-abiding, honest, and self-governing.

We now appear as a vacillating nation whose high court and many other public officials seem to be siding with criminals and atheists, a nation whose people are becoming increasingly dependent upon public welfare support as a way of life, and a nation where honest labor is no longer a badge of honor.

Men claiming to be ministers raise doubts as to the existence of God, and honesty is regarded by many as a good policy only if it is expedient. We have substituted inanity and insanity for morality.

We are governed too often by professional, power-hungry politicians, while eligible voters go fishing or someplace else on election days. Other nations push us around on the land, on the seas, in the air, and at the conference tables.

That is not the way it should be, but that is the way it looks. The degradation will become progressively worse unless we who believe in freedom start moving to retrace our steps toward the fundamental truths of God that made this nation great.

Commentators attempt to gloss the precarious situation by asserting that "there is a restlessness in our time!" or mouthing some other equally inept platitude of appeasement. Bosh! That's nothing new and it is no good excuse for what's going on in America.

There almost always have been times of restlessness. There was a time of restlessness in the Garden of Eden when man first disobeyed God, another when Noah built the Ark, and a great restlessness arose in the Roman Empire at the time of Christ.

But is restlessness and progress a proper authority for rioting, treason, anarchism, looting, gross immorality, and flagrant intervention by rebellious minority groups with the rights of the majority? We say that it is not.

Neither is restlessness any justification for the courts to free burglars, rapists and murderers to prowl our streets so that honest taxpayers are afraid either to walk abroad or to stay at home. It is no reason to curtail authority of police to curb lawlessness.

If the United States of America is to reach the age of 200 years in 1976, those of us who believe in and appreciate freedom must become restless on our own. We must become actively impatient with those who nothing constructive to offer but would destroy the good things others have just for sake of destruction.

We should again lift high the of freedom and decency so that world again may see the true me of Christianity and democracy.

We should drive away the and pollution of immorality and ponsibility, so that the fires of dom may again bring light to a fused, discouraged world.

The torch of liberty is flick and dim, made so largely through indifference and apathy of people sincerely believe in the United of America.

Junior ROTC Makes Plans

(From TIGER'S CAGE)

The second year of Junior ROTC is beginning to take shape. Four new activities are being planned and will become a reality if enough interest is shown.

Students at SHS may become members of a drum and bugle corps, or the girls might be interested in a girls' drill team. Anyone wanting to join, contact the ROTC office or Sgt. L. B. Winters.

The ROTC boys are organizing a rifle team and a drill team. The teams will be in competion with other schools later in the year.

Presently, officers are being chosen from the 106 cadets according to their performance as acting platoon leader. The No. 1 platoon leader will be Batallion commander and so on down the line.

Eagles Down New Deal, Hosts Cooper Friday

The Roosevelt Eagles took up football action Friday night where they left off the 1969 season--scoring a victory over the New Deal Lions.

Friday night the score was 29-9 with Roosevelt on the winner's side. The Eagles downed the Lions by 30-0 in the final game of the '69 season, when both teams were in District 4-A.

The Eagles have moved up to 4-AA this year, and the opener with New Deal was a non-district contest. Roosevelt will host the Cooper Pirates --a strong Class A team--in the Eagles' home opener Friday night.

Quarterback Don Jackson's two - yard touchdown plunge opened the scoring for Roosevelt last week at New Deal. Steve Viney added the two extra points.

In the second quarter, Viney intercepted a Lion pass and returned it 20 yards for the second Eagle touchdown. Johnny Brown converted to give the Eagles a 15-0 lead. New Deal narrowed the margin to 15-3 at halftime with a field goal by Ricky Dunn.

Roosevelt came back to score again in the third period when halfback David Vasquez broke on a 45-yard touchdown run. Brown converted again to put the Eagles out front by 22-3.

Viney hit paydirt again in the fourth period, taking a pass from David Hammett on a 20-yard scoring play. Brown converted again. New Deal then scored its only touchdown of the night on a 1-yard plunge by Kelly Sherman.

Tax Man Sez:

Congress has carefully provided a number of hearings and appeals if you disagree with Internal Revenue over the amount of tax that you owe. Naturally the Internal Revenue Agent who audits your tax return discusses your case with you.

He has a two-way responsibility -- he has as much responsibility to see that you get all of your deductions and tax benefits as to see that the Government gets all the tax that is due. If you disagree with the Agent you can ask for a conference with an independent conferee and get an independent impartial hearing on your tax.

If you don't agree with the conferee there is an Appellate advisor who will hold another hearing. Then you can go to Tax Court. Eventually you can pay your tax and sue in District Court, and finally, you can appeal all the way to the Supreme Court.

It is probably safe to say that you don't have to march in the street carring a sign to be heard on what you think about your income tax -- you can tell it to Internal Revenue and the Courts, in hearing after hearing.

The Oldsters

In the United States, 23 per cent of the senior citizens living in families are living in three-generation households.

Pirates Down Lorenzo, 45-2

The Cooper Pirates showed a well - balanced scoring attack at Woodrow Friday night with seven players joining the scoring parade in a 45-2 victory over the Lorenzo Hornets.

Quarterback Jack White led the scoring with runs of 10 and 12 yards on two touchdowns. The potent Pirates racked up 18 points in the first quarter and led by 25-0 at halftime.

Fullback Johnny Aleman opened the scoring with a 7-yard juant in the first quarter. Anthony Joplin dashed 6 yards for the second score, then Gilbert Martinez added another with an 18-yard scamper.

White passed to Bobby Caudle on a 12-yard touchdown play in the second period, and Martinez kicked the point for a 25-0 advantage.

In the third period, Gary Schaffner picked off a Hornet pass and ran it 50 yards for a score. White then took it over from 10 and 12 yards out on the next two Cooper scoring drives. Dennis Smith ran for a two-point conversion after the final touchdown.

Lorenzo's only points came on a safety in the final period.

The Pirates go to Roosevelt Friday night for a non-district contest against the 4-AA Eagles.

SOUTHLAND NEWS — MRS. TOMMY WILKE

Class Officers Elected

Hello out there in newspaper land. Sure is good to be back at the "ole" typewriter after two weeks absence. The first week I was gone, we had taken our daughter, Sherri, to Texas Lutheran College and the next week we had gone a week's trip to parts of New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, Wyo., and Colorado. Had a real nice trip, really tried to cover too much territory in too short of time, but Edmund and I enjoyed the trip very much. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Zieschang of Slaton accompanied us on this trip.

Southland High School officers were elected recently. They are: Seniors -- Douglas Smallwood, president; Margie Perez, vice-president; Joan Gindorf, secretary; and Breonne Winterrowd, editor of annual.

The Cooper Pirates smashed the Hornets Friday night 45-2. It was a great game. There was a Pep Rally Friday that was great.

Thursday was "Dress UP as Pirates Day" at CHS. Named as winners were Deniece Robertson and Jimmy Burkett. The event was sponsored by the Student Council.

Senior Pictures were taken Sept. 17. The underclassmen are to be taken the 18th.

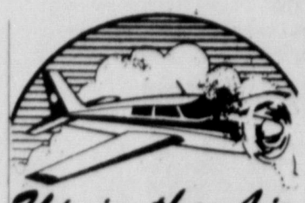

Cinda Harden, Linda Louder, Brenda Cooper, and Deniece Robertson selected the cover for the yearbook Friday. Janie Blair, Cindy Payton, and Candy Hendrix are still selling ads.

What We Wear

One out of every 20 persons in the U.S. wears a uniform on the job. According to the best available estimate, this represents a total of about 10 million persons.

Up in the Air

By ROGER EVANS

Things have been happening so fast at the airport lately that this column was sort of neglected.

Student and charter work picked up quite a lot during the summer. Joe Walker and Mrs. Virginia Stecher received their private pilot's licenses recently, and we are all real proud of them.

Mrs. Stecher's husband works in Lubbock, and she was just down for the summer from Kansas City where she teaches school. Milt Ardrey is the latest soloist and doing a good job of flying. Max Lee also lost his shirt tail a while back. Ford cut off all but the collar.

Speaking of Ford Rinne, he built a wench on a tractor to pull the glider. Sure did a good job, in spite of some good - natured ribbing, and proved it could be done.

Slaton can now be seen from the air, thanks to Bob Allen and his paint brush, with the help of David Evans. They painted "SLATON" on top of the hangars so wayward pilots could tell where they are.

Our first anniversary "open house" is scheduled Sept. 27. An air show, breakfast and noon meal is planned and hope you will be there.

A psychiatrist once said, "Men don't break down be - cause they are defeated, but only because they think they are."

Dot's all.

Bryant Farm Supply Serves Area Farmers

Bryant Farm Supply -- the John Deere dealer in Slaton--is another city firm which plays an important role on the farm and industrial scene.

The familiar John Deere symbol marks Bryant's location at the intersection of FM-400 and Woodrow Road. Bryant Farm Supply opened Slaton's first John Deere dealership in January, 1963.

John Thornbury, manager, has been with Bryant since 1958 and has been in Slaton since the dealership opened. He and his wife have two children. They are members of First Baptist Church, and John is active in Lions Club.

Bryant offers a complete line of John Deere farm implements, parts and repair shop and service. The farm supply firm also offers a complete line of John Deere lawn and garden equipment.

Thornbury has five experienced employees on the Bryant Farm Supply staff. These include:

Ray Brown -- parts department, 30 years experience in the implement business;

Cliff Ewing -- shop foreman, 27 years experience;

John Barrietos -- mechanic, with 21 years experience;

Gayland Davis -- mechanic, 5 years experience;

Pete Martinez -- truck driver and set-up man.

Thornbury is proud of the sales and service record at Bryant's, and he invites all farmers in the area to come by and see the new cotton strippers now on display.

College Youth Lead Service

A group of college students from McMurry College in Abilene will lead the services Sunday morning at the Slaton United Methodist Church.

Twenty young people will be in charge of the services, but they are only a small part of a group who have pledged themselves to a Renewal of Evangelical faith in the church. The group is under the direction of Robert Sewell, a layman from Abilene.

The Methodist youth will serve a noon luncheon in Fellowship Hall for the visiting evangelists.

"There is a revival spreading through the land" I says Rev. Bruce Parks, pastor of the Slaton United Methodist Church. "This revival is most evident on the college campus -- of all places! This movement has reached high schools, and is increasingly evident in our own local high school. Come here, see, and be blessed!"

This Sunday the sermon at the regular morning services of First Chirstian Church of Slaton will be brought by a young man who came out of that church and is now studying for the ministry. IN WE TRUST

In a recent graphics contest in which the problem centered about the typographic illustration of "words we live with," first prize went to a white rectangle with bold black letters stating "In We Trust." The point, as explained by Janet Horner, a 20-year-old student at Pratt Institute of Art School, is that "people today — rightly or wrongly — put their trust in many things besides God and I felt my design would have greater impact with the word removed."

Aside from getting into the theological or denominational ambiguity of the familiar "In God we trust" declaration — after all, which religion's God do "we" really trust in? — the prize poster painfully clarifies the difficulty of pinpointing something in which modern man does indeed trust. While many people have managed to maintain their various faiths, there is a widespread questioning of values both spiritual and secular.

Give it a try: Art, Science, Psychiatry, the Corporation, the State, LSD, Love, Diplomacy Logic, Power? Any one or even a combination of these somehow seems inadequate in the face of frustrations in Vietnam, racial disorders at home or a creeping vulgarity on practically a world-wide basis.

One of the most disturbing elements in some of the social and moral upheavals in contemporary life — and there are and have been many — is the all too frequent assault on a traditional base or belief with apparently nothing in the offing to fill in the subsequent gap.

Perhaps out of that very need will in time come a general restoration of belief. We do not confess to know; we merely note a mark of the age: An increasing unease among all types and classes of people that can usually only be described vaguely as a feeling of emptiness. And it is this sad state, this emptiness, that Miss Horner has graphically — even if unintentionally — illustrated.

HEARING THE WORD

Even in this modern age, there is always the time—and the need—for finding the strength that lies in the word of God.

God's word will not come to us with a bolt of lightning. We shall not hear from God through the magic of the telephone. We must realize that God is there, always, and we must make the effort.

We must look to the Bible. We must remember the Ten Commandments. We must visit God, in God's house.

TIGERS LOSE TO CUBS, MAKE HOME DEBUT FRIDAY

Friday night the Slaton Tigers will host the powerful 3-AAA Kermit Yellowjackets. The Yellowjackets are very powerful and should give the Tigers a good test. Slaton will be trying hard to win the game and get ready for competition in the tough 4-AA district.

Last Friday night the Brownfield Cubs beat the Slaton Tigers by the score of 32-13. It was the season opener for both teams.

Slaton got its drive underway the first time they had the ball. But the drive stalled at the Brownfield 20-yard line. After holding the Cubs, the Tigers got another drive underway, this time going all the way with Alan Fondy hitting paydirt after a two-yard run. Allen Sanders' kick made it 7-0. Then Brownfield came back with Chuck Price scoring two touchdowns in the second period to give the Cubs a 14-7 half-time lead.

After intermission neither team surmounted a drive and the third quarter was scoreless. To open the fourth quarter, Mike Roberson scored for five yards away. With about six minutes left in the final quarter, Norman Jackson scored from 19 yards away. But Slaton came back with Terry Mosser going the final yard. The two-point conversion play failed, as the pass was incomplete. In the final minute of the game, Jackson broke from the line of scrimmage and ran 76 yards for the final tally.

Outlook Good, Says Tiger Boss

Coach Ernie Davis reports a bright outlook from Tigerland with 11 starters returning from 3-AAA, after being named South Zone runner-up last year. Slaton ended the season with a five-won and five-lost record.

"We should have as good a chance as anybody else for the district championship, but the team members must have a lot of hustle and the desire to win the championship and go 110 per cent at all times. Along with a few breaks and no injuries, our chances will be real good," according to Coach Davis.

The returning offensive starters are backs Terry Mosser and Alan Fondy, guard Ollie Rainwater, and center Charlie Geer. Defensive starters are ends Paul Payne and Allen Walters, guard Charles Thomas, linebacker Ted Dixon, and backs Bruce Schuette, Glen Akin, and Frank Self.

Returning lettermen are Dick Davis, Tom Hargraves, Gary Cook, Dub Simmons, Allan Sanders, and Ismael Ledesma.

Starting Early Has Advantages

Students of Slaton High School have been exposed to that dread ed disease - "schoolatosis." With school in full swing again, everyone must get back into the habit of studying.

This year the school schedule has changed, but it still has its advantages and disadvantages. Although students must face this horrible heat, there are many things to look forward to. Everyone will be finished with mid-term exams before the Christmas holidays, and the Easter vacation will be longer.

Most students agree the new schedule has better advantages than the old one. Everyone would rather start school later, but this heat is not going to get the Slatonites down. Slaton High School students can stand anything!
