Next week the class will meet again at 7:30 o'clock, being on Tuesday night, and will further discuss garden insects.

Effort put forth by the person owning a garden to control these insects means a great deal. The average gardener can do his own work if he knows what to do.

LOYAL MILBY IS FOUND GUILTY OF SELLING LIQUOR

Stiff Punishment Meted Out Although Was His First Offense

WAS INDICTED BY JURY LAST WEEK

Concealment of Stolen Automobile Draws Five Years For Johnnie Wright

Loyal Milby of Chillicothe was given two years in the state penitentiary Tuesday by a jury in the Forty-sixth District Court at Quanaha, being a heavy penalty for the first offense of selling intoxicating liquor.

The defendant at the outset of the trial had applied for a suspended sentence. He pleaded not guilty.

Johnnie Wright was convicted for having received and concealed a stolen automobile. He was assessed a five-year penalty. He was charged and convicted of stealing a car belonging to Sterling Baker of Quanaha last year, but the verdict was reversed on a grand jury technicality. He gave a five-year penalty on the first count, also. Wright's counsel will appeal his case.

A suspended sentence was given Eliza Palmore after the jury had given him a two-year penalty for theft of turkeys. J. D. Carver, also indicted on this charge, will be tried before a juvenile court, Judge Stokes ordering the transfer.

The case of James R. Seifers, charged with selling intoxicating liquor, was continued by agreement of counsel for both defense and state. Another liquor case, which involved Luther Rockholt, charged with transportation, was continued on motion of the defendant.

Sixteen indictments against fifteen individuals were returned by the grand jury, in session last week, indicting C. B. Ross, liquor transportation, Roy Black, possession and transportation, both of Chillicothe; W. W. Guyton, possession; Paul Guyton, possession; Mrs. Ben Thurman, also of Chillicothe, sale; and Loyal Milby, Chillicothe, sale. Luther Rockholt, Quanaha, was indicted for transportation.

NOW IF THERE BE OIL—?

Quite a bit of activity on the part of "lease hounds" as well as oil promoters is being reported in Hardeman county. There are two or three wells being sunk, but as yet they have nothing to report.

MIGHT PLEASE DOCTORS

We have never gone to the trouble of finding out how much American doctors approve of the Chinese plan: that a doctor should be employed to keep people well, and not be employed whenever one becomes ill. The News is not trying to fill the doctor's shoes, but believes, however, they would refuse to change from the now set plan as is practiced in this country.

However, looking at it from the financial point, we believe the doctors would be better off were they to be employed to keep you from getting sick.

CLEAN UP!

There is no "sure sign" of spring, but spring should be a "sure sign" of the arrival of that time for the community to clean up. There is no superstition or prophesying about this clean-up sign.

When warm weather has come to stay (until cold weather returns in the autumn) every owner of property and tenant should instinctively feel it his duty to remove the evidences of winter's ravages and to aid and augment nature in her work of re-aestivation.

Every spring clean-up program should include disposal of winter's accumulation of litter and decayed vegetation, repairing and repainting of buildings, and landscape gardening. Landscape gardening is no longer associated with large estates alone.

Cleanliness about the person or the home costs nothing. A community clean-up need involve no expense, except of a moderate amount of labor on the part of the householders. If there ever were excuses for uncleanness they were removed long ago.

What is the compensation of a community wide clean-up campaign? It improves the general health of the community by removing deposits that the breeding places of disease germs and disease carrying insects. A clean town is a better place in which to live than one that is unsanitary and unsightly. And the best community advertising is the appearance of being "cleaned-up, painted-up and planted-up."

ABOUT EDUCATION

There are a number of readers of The Chillicothe Valley News who have not had the privilege of attending college. Some of them, no doubt, are under the idea they are not "educated." They may be right; they may be wrong. Education is not a question of going through college or university.

One of the prime accomplishments of an educated man, as we see it, is to be able to cooperate intelligently with his fellow man. This means a willingness, as well as an ability, to get along with other members of the social group. No matter how much a man may know, or how many degrees he may have, he is far from educated if he is unable to meet his neighbors on common ground and work together for the common good.

There are readers of this publication who have never seen the inside of a college, who, nevertheless, are better educated than many degree-holders. They may be a little short on intelligence, of a certain type, but they are long on common sense and have picked up enough information to be able to cooperate.

We do not wish to have you believe we want to disparage education. It is rather to encourage those who cannot go to college. If it were possible everyone should go to college, and we wish it were possible. We know, however, financial matters will not permit. Therefore, they must make the best of the situation. They should not, because of their not attending college, come to the conclusion they are inferior in knowledge, and must take a back seat. Far from it. Rather, they should be all the more determined to reach the pinnacle of success. They should keep informed of current affairs, read as much as they can about subjects they do not know and to never forget that true education is what a man learns and makes his own, not what he gets out of a book merely for the purposes of making a recitation that will pass him.

The News appreciates those who turn in items for publication. More social news, however, could be handled very easily. Those who entertain clubs, or give parties, should have them included in the social events for over the week, and appear in The News.

DIRE PROPHECIES

What is it that gives prophecies of evil such popularity? Hope springs eternal in the human breast, but it is equally certain that man likes to be frightened and relishes the thrill of menace around him. Else, why the interest with which he reads prophecies of world destruction, why the gusto with which forecasts of word-wrecking wars are swallowed, why the weight given to prophecies of economic upheaval and cataclysm?

The most reasonable answer to this question is that man likes such prophecies because of the joy that he derives from their failure. He is secretly confident of escape from whatever besets him, and, by that token, he likes to be tricked into believing that the peril from which he will escape is of the direst.

DEADLY MOTOR DRIVERS

There are pistols and knives and hatchets and blackjacks in the list of deadly weapons, and, when careless hands are on the wheel and reckless drivers are behind them, automobiles are to be included. If you doubt this, read the ever-lengthening list of traffic fatalities.

A man does not have to deliberate in his intent to kill to be a morally responsible slayer. He is one if he kills while acting in reckless disregard of others. The motorist who drives his car at breakneck speed thru the streets and goes hurtling down the path that others cross employs a deadly weapon against his fellows as surely as one who empties his gun down a crowded thoroughfare.

Let the reckless motorist fix this in his mind and, if he is not a murderer at heart, let him prove it by exercising proper care. Good drivers are those who get not the highest but the safest speed out of their cars.

HONESTY OF THE YOUNG

Scientific investigators are learning many facts about children which it is suspected parents have long known. After the experts have learned all there is to learn from their three years' study of "honesty" among school children, they will probably know no more than every parent of a normal child already knows.

Tests have been devised to discover tendencies to lie, cheat or steal. At the same time ordinary intelligence tests were given in order to show the relation between good sense and good character, if any. The results indicate the most intelligent child is likely to be most honest.

A number of questions designed to probe the religious and filial feelings were answered as might have been expected, and the children were convicted of "over-statement." Apparently they all thought it desirable that they should seem pious and dutiful, and they said that they thought it their duty to read the Bible every day, to pick up broken glass in the street, to speak kindly to their parents and instructors, and to try to get the license number of a motor vehicle if they suspected the driver of speeding.

Most children have an uncanny knack of reading the mind of a questioner. They are as shrewdly observant as monkeys, and a really intelligent inquirer often has to resort to trickery to get to the bottom of their busy little minds.

Education is almost as expensive as ignorance.

To be suite frank about it none of us can brag about how beautiful our homes are until a little paint is used.

No one can argue against the relief administration for its lack in helping the gasoline dealers.

Sandstorms are getting to be quite numerous once more. Owners of farms find they win and lose, whichever way the wind blows.

Everybody agrees there are too many highway fatalities in this country, but the living do nothing about it and the dead cannot.

There are many men in public office who are ready to resign as soon as they accomplish their undertaking but we have never been able to learn their names.

Wheat looks to be in fair condition. It is surprising when the amount of rainfall is considered. Cattle and other livestock have been allowed to graze on the fields and look to be in good condition.

Some of these days we are going to have war, and we will not be surprised to see America taking a hand. The other day—it may have been a bluff—Congress voted to increase the appropriations for armaments, to be prepared should Japan start a rumpus.

Advertising can either be made to pay, or fail. It all depends upon the merchant. If he cannot offer merchandise as low as the next fellow, yet advertises, however, great he may do it, will find it does not pay, because people are wanting to buy where they can save the most. Sometimes, too, a merchant does not advertise for the reason he cannot quote prices as low as competitors. The public realizes this too, and is mainly the reason why so many stores fail because they do not advertise.

Just Between ...Us...

BY THE NEWS HOUND

April 2 is the date set for the city election to name three councilmen. Two years of service nears an end, for E. L. Grimes, L. B. Wofford, and J. A. McCaw. And, we might add, too, they have served efficiently in spite of the financial handicap faced which tended to force the aldermen to go slow in the way of spending money. These aldermen, like the others, realized now is no time to be spending the taxpayers money even though the money might be spent for city improvements. They can see where improvements are needed so can the rest of us, but we have time—after financial conditions become better.

We have been unable so far to get these present office holders to commit themselves regarding the idea of seeking re-election. Candidly, they are none too enthused over serving for two more years, and should they agree it will be for no other reason than to serve their city. That is in their favor and they are due thanks from citizens.

Why does such a condition exist?—this matter of not anxious to serve? We might frankly state it is due for the lack of remuneration but this would not hold true with the present group. They would be no more inclined to be representatives of the city at the council chamber were they being paid a salary. Consequently, it can be summed down to this: Serving the large number of citizens, hearing the many complaints—and there are many—has caused the office to lose a lot of "glitter" or honor.

Representative George Moffett, and one of his co-workers, reading where a representative to the Oklahoma legislature had suggested his group adjourn and go home for the simple reason they had done nothing since convening and wiring the Oklahoman in the same condition existed in the Texas legislature, brings to mind what the North Carolina governor said to the South Carolina chief executive. So, it is evident in the Texas legislature that doing something "is a long time between."

One of the main causes for the legislature not accomplishing much during this session—and previous sessions, also—is that there usually exists between the two branches a dividing point. If the lower house tries to put through a piece of legislation the upper body frowns on the idea—and it has to be a mighty good and piece of legislation to get through and vice versa.

Therefore, as was recently cited, why have two branches of the legislature? Certainly, it is more costly to taxpayers of Texas, and after all one body could do the same amount of work.

George Moffett was evidently disgusted at his fellow-members at the time he wired the Oklahoman. There is one thing about George: He wants to serve his constituents able, to accomplish something for their good, and is not one of these lawmakers always thinking about the $10 a day received as long as they remained in Austin. Had other districts a representative as sincerely wanting to serve as does the 114th district, Texas could show better laws.

Our hats are off to the State! Drive along Highway 5—in the city of Chillicothe—and out of the city limits for a distance, and you will note much improvement of the right-of-way. Workmen have graduated the embankment where the hazard of running off the pavement and then

Why Southwestern Life Registers Every Policy It Issues

INSURANCE laws of the State of Texas provide how a life insurance company of Texas may register its policies. A registering company must deposit approved securities in an amount adequate for the protection of policyholders.

The Registration Law requires the segregation of policyholders' funds, thus preventing substitution of assets without the knowledge and consent of the State Insurance Department. Experience of the last five years has demonstrated the effect and value of registration laws.

The Registration Law makes mandatory the valuation of the required securities at the current market. A company which elects to operate under a market valuation law evidences the intention to invest policyholders' funds with added caution.

Many good companies do not elect to register their policies, and we urge policyholders of such companies to maintain their insurance in force.

toppling over in your automobile is much less dangerous. This kind of work all along the highway should be done; farmers owning land running parallel to the highway, for the sake of the appearance, and for the sake of human lives, should be glad to cooperate with the state.

Residents on Highway 5 in the east part of the city ought to be well pleased. Even Lee Womack can now park his automobile in front of the curb without forcing out the seat of the automobile into a deep ditch.

The trouble with some merchants they have taken too seriously this matter of hard times. Of course it is hard with them so long as they continue to wear out the seat of their trousers waiting for business to come their way, trying to save a few cents on expense of advertising, while they are losing hundreds of dollars as a result of no sales, and seeing business leave their town. Blindly they go until the time comes when they are forced to advertise—advertise a bankrupt sale!

Elsewhere in today's News will be found a feature written by Edison R. Waite of Shawnee, Okla. It will be well for merchants to read it.

After all, people had better come to their senses, so to speak. Were they to wake up some morning and find their property worth—not even a song—all because business has gradually, and finally, gone elsewhere, leaving nothing in their town but vacant buildings, and forced to admit they were responsible, it would be quite a heavy loss to take—but take it you would. Nobody would want it. Just such a condition can exist, and there are two or three towns nearby that substantiate that argument.

Here's something to think about: A local man tells: "A farmer living in a community for many years, always doing his trading in his community, finally made a trip to another town close by. While there he decided he would buy his groceries. He did. He saved money, and since has found it profitable to buy groceries there since. Consequently, this local man says, the stores in his community have lost hundreds of dollars from him alone because they refused to sell as cheap as the competitive town."

Another visited a nearby town. It was on Saturday. While there this party said, "Well, to save having to buy my groceries after going home, I will just buy them here." That party saved 67 cents on the bill bought.

Therefore, it is well that stores in any community should keep their customers satisfied, should keep them informed of the better buys—because stores in competitive towns usually DO IT! They are not afraid to publish their prices for fear some other store will cut under them.

Work of remodeling and repainting of the McCaw Dry Cleaners building is nearing completion, and the proprietor is to be congratulated for keeping in mind "cleanliness is next to godliness." Moreover it should be an incentive for other firms of the city to improve.

"Keeping a store clean with an inviting appearance, will put more dollars in the cash register," one store manager says from experience.

"I HAVEN'T HAD A GOLD IN FIVE YEARS"

PLANTING SEED MAY BE BOUGHT WITH TRC HELP

Special Funds for Making Loans for This Purpose to Be Available

Special funds have been made available to the Texas Relief Commission by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration for the purpose of making emergency seed loans for spring planting of commercial and forage crops. It was announced today by Adam R. Johnson, state relief director.

These funds have been made available to meet the emergency created by temporary lack of funds in the Farm Credit Administration which heretofore has made such loans. Mr. Johnson said, "Loans will be made in all cases of emergency regardless of whether the applicant is on relief rolls or not. Applications will be taken by county relief officers."

All applications will be passed upon by the local county committees which heretofore have functioned under the Farm Credit Administration. It was pointed out, however, that no loans would be made to farmers who are able to obtain credit through usual commercial channels and that in cases where existing crop of chattel liens existed, waivers and non-disturbance agreements from such lien holders will be required before any loans will be approved. For non-relief clients, loans not to exceed $50.00 will be approved.

Mr. Johnson said the Relief Commission will discontinue making these loans immediately upon resumption of activities by the Farm Credit Administration.

Over $9,852,480 Spent in Texas During Year 1934

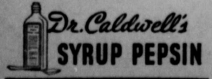

The popularity of Texas as a Mecca for automobile vacationists from all parts of the country is indicated by a report just released by the Conoco Travel Bureau, a branch of Continental Oil Co., America's largest free travel service. According to the report, 239,476 Travel Bureau tourists spent more than $9,852,480 in this state last year.

It was also revealed that motor travel throughout the entire United States was unusually heavy during 1934. Hotels, tourist camps, restaurants and many other types of business took in more money from tourists than during any other year since 1929. The Bureau supplied detailed trip services to 329,485 vacationists, a figure 41 per cent greater than the organization's total for 1933. Statistics also show that Travel Bureau tourists spent in excess of 40 million dollars while they were away from home.

The Conoco Travel Bureau is an organization maintained by Continental to provide motorists with up-to-date information on North America roads, routes, cottage camps, hotels, scenic and historical attractions plus any other data likely to make vacation trips pleasant and profitable. More than 100 carefully trained men and women are employed in the Bureau's central offices at Denver. Conoco's 22,000 service stations act as field branches. It is predicted that one and one-half

Doctors Know! ... and they use liquid laxatives

You'd use a liquid, too, if you know how much better it makes you feel. A liquid laxative can always be taken in the right amount. You can gradually reduce the dose. Reduced dosage is the secret of real and safe relief from constipation. Just ask your own doctor about this. Ask your druggist how popular liquid laxatives have become. The Dr. Caldwell's liquid laxative gives the right amount of help—and the right amount of relief. When the dose is repeated, instead of more each time, you take less. Until the bowels are moving regularly and thoroughly without aid. People who have experienced this comfort, never return to any form of help that can't be regulated! The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It containsenna and cascara, and these are natural laxatives that form no habit. It relieves a condition of biliousness or sluggishness without upset. To relieve your occasional upsets safely and comfortably, try Syrup Pepsin. The druggist has it.

Four Women "Made" Henry Ford And Edison Contributed Final Success He Says In News Story

Four women played important parts in the life of Henry Ford, he reveals in an article in a popular magazine. They were his mother, his sister-in-law, his wife and his mother. Add to that the significant statement which follows and you have some idea of the psychology of the richest man in the world.

"I have been helped by everybody I have met," he says. "There isn't anyone whose trail has crossed mine that hasn't left some impression on my mind." The topic of the article is an unusual one for Mr. Ford who seldom makes any comment upon his personal life. Yet he recalls his mother, who died when he was thirteen, as having instilled in him a high regard for cleanliness, a trait which is well-known to the managers of all Ford branches.

"There is a lot in the old saying that cleanliness is next to Godliness," he says, "but it is next to prosperity also. When you see slovenly disorder, look for a crash." Mr. Ford reveals for the first time how it was that his mother instilled in his mind the precepts of cleanliness which have become so important to him. When his mother died, his sister kept the house. Mr. Ford has only the highest words of praise for her. But it is his wife whose influence must be termed most important in the motor pioneer's later development.

"Mrs. Ford has always stood by," he says. "She counseled me not only in those early days when I was building the car, working night and day with little to work with; and little encouragement from others, but she has counseled me and helped me all along the way since those early days. . . . I have always gone to her for advice, for help and for encouragement. My name for her is the only right one. She is the "Believer." What more can I say?"

His teachers are credited by Mr. Ford in at least two instances with having shown supreme intelligence in handling a boy who would rather tinker with a watch than do sums on a piece of paper. Thomas Edison is revealed as having sent him far along the path to success by banging the table at a New York convention of Edison engineers.

"When I had finished explaining it (the Ford Engine) to him—he banged his fist down on the table and said: "Young man, that's the thing; you have it! Keep at it! Electric cars must keep close to power stations. The storage battery is too heavy. Steam cars won't do either, for they have to have a boiler and a fire. Your car is self-contained—carried its own power plant." Mr. Edison also spoke on this occasion of "hydrocarbon" fuel, which Mr. Ford mustily relates has nowadays come to be known merely as "gas." Ford was almost discouraged at the time of the Edison interview but the inventor's enthusiasm was so strong it sent him back to his workshop.

HEALTH TALK

By John W. Brown, M. D. (State Health Officer)

Whooping cough is a disease of the spring and summer months. It is a real problem in households where there are a number of very young children. Statistics show that cases terminating fatally are greater among females than among males. The younger the child when attacked by whooping cough, the greater the cause for alarm for its recovery. Babies therefore should be safeguarded and kept away from persons known to have been exposed to whooping cough. The dangerous malady is spread through contact with the secretions of the nose and mouth, which may come from sneezing, the use of contaminated handkerchiefs, toys, cups, and in fact from any agencies which allow close contact.

There are three or more distinct stages noted in whooping cough. The symptoms of the first or catarrhal stage are similar to the ordinary cold, with an attendant cough. If the trouble is whooping cough, the cough grows worse instead of better as in an ordinary cold. The expulsion of mucous or vomiting commonly ends the attack of coughing. Pneumonia and convulsions most frequently occur among children who are suffering from malnutrition. There is no communicable disease which exacts a higher toll among very young children than whooping cough. Whooping cough is a highly communicable disease and the young and poorly nourished should be protected in every way from coming in contact with this infection.

MARCH FUNDS FOR RELIEF MAILED OUT

$1,881,741.50 DISTRIBUTED TO TEXAS COUNTIES BY TEXAS COMMISSION

Checks were written last week for $1,881,741.50 to be distributed to Texas counties immediately for relief roll cases during March.

This amount is to cover costs of general relief and administration for the first half of the month. It was announced by Adam R. Johnson, state relief director.

Federal funds to replenish an almost exhaustive state relief commission bank account arrived late Tuesday. Authorities at Washington approved a grant of $3,250,000 for March general and drought relief needs.

State officials said they hoped to make available about $4,000,000 to counties for general relief during the month. In order to do so, $500,000 of state funds from a relief bill now in the legislature must be made available. The remainder would come from unencumbered balances already in the counties.

This sum is considerably less than made available in February and will mean reduced budgets for those granted relief. Estimated caseload for March is 297,510; for February, 293,859. Funds for rural rehabilitation and other special programs will be made available as money is received by the state office from Washington.

KISSES

Kisses are the connecting link between the wife and the pocket-book, or the divorce court depend upon whose wife it was. Prior to marriage, kisses denote affection; afterward, duty. They usually start with a warm smack in the parlor and end with a cold smack in the kitchen.

Kisses are caused by sly sensitive microbes which inhabit darkened corners and secluded places where the lights are turned low and the moon gently percolates through the vines overhead, but once they get a foothold they will bring unexpected results.

There are many kinds of kisses among which are the dutiful; the soul kiss, which is a sort of serial hardly ever finished; the political kiss such as candidates give babies; the double-barreled kiss which bowkickered French generals bestow upon heroes, and the inimitable kiss which results when a wad of chewing gum gets tangled up with an embryonic mustache.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By Minnie Fisher Cunningham Extension Service Editor

Nine farmers of Gregg county have made $1200 worth of leather out of $24 worth of hides at an out of approximately $100. It is estimated that this leather is of a quality which will sell for 50 cents per pound and it cost about 10 cents per pound to make.

Gregg county's officials, taking note of the leather work of these farmers, bought $12 worth of hides and $60 worth of tanning materials and proceeded with the labor of county prisoners to tan 2000 pounds of leather for the county to use in making and repairing harness.

Before landscaping their home Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wright of Brooks county enclosed it with small limbs pruned from apple trees cut 12 inches long. These stakes were driven into the ground making an inexpensive but perfectly satisfactory enclosure for the under part of the house and a background for foundation planting around the house.

Go to Tennessee Mr. and Mrs. Press Fowler left Monday for Tennessee where they will remain for the next several weeks on a visit.

HATTON McREE IN CHARGE OF GAS STATION

ASSUMES MANAGEMENT OF TEXACO PUMP ON EAST WORTHAM STREET

Announcement appears elsewhere of the re-opening of the Texaco Service Station at the Britt stand, under the management of J. Hatton McRee.

According to Mr. McRee he plans to operate the station and has as employees a couple of baseball players who will be members of the local club during the coming season. "Consequently," the baseball leader declared, "I will appreciate all the help motorists can give to see a winning team here this season to help me keep good players, and to do that they must have some kind of employment during the week days. However, in return they can be assured the very best service will be given, enough that they will know they are getting their money's worth."

The station was opened Wednesday. It was formerly managed by J. H. Mosley. Texaco gasoline and Havoline motor oils will be sold.

What the Scissors Cut

Stamford American: The Jones county cannery at Anson will be open again from March 15 to 28 for the final net canning for this season. Miss Pearl Bristow, canning plant supervisor, announced this week.

"List your beehives with the Relief office, Anson, on or before the 15th of March," Miss Bristow urged. "We will still operate on the 50-50 basis and furnish labor, cans and equipment.

The cannery thus far has canned $400 containers of meat with only two cans of spoilage.

"We are prepared to do your vegetable canning with plain tin, E-namel and C-namel cans, now, had so plan your gardens now," the supervisor said.

Clarendon News: The famous and long awaited good decision by the Supreme Court came as some what a shock to those who believed that the constitution was same from tampering regardless of the merits of the case, moment, and other defensible actions of a hurried congress.

The right of contract seems to have been somewhat abridged in the decision which makes Congress stronger in the constitution. We sincerely trust that we shall never witness the freedom of the press, and free speech on trial before the Supreme Court. May no incident bring them in question.

Sevier County Times: "Strange as it seems," a frugal woodpecker saved all the pecans John Lipham harvested off four pecan trees in 1934. Last week he chopped down a dead tree with a woodpecker nest in it.

Pecans were hoarded in the tree and he found more in a wood pecker nest in a mesquite post.

Quannah Tribune-Chief: A couple came to the county clerk Monday and procured license to marry. They asked for some official to perform the ceremony and when told that the county judge would take care of the nuptials for the sum of $2.50, the man became incensed and said that he would never pay that amount for just a marriage ceremony. Justice of the Peace Freeman was called but he refused to do it. The couple left the courthouse seeking a bargain rate.

Mrs. Quiney Wilson of Vernon spent last week-end in Chillicothe with her mother, Mrs. S. H. Williams.

Calling at The News office last Saturday was G. W. Cook, living on route two out of Chillicothe. The gentleman lives in the Farmers Valley community, and with his brother, are considered two of the best farmers in this vicinity. G. W. found, like many others, that it was a mistake. Consequently the News is a mistake. Consequently he is one of the subscribers, and certainly such a thing is not disappointing to a newspaper publisher.

WHAT FARM FOLKS ARE NOW DOING

Timely Tips on What Farmer Folks are Doing in Texas

Bexar: From a garden subtitled with 500 feet of concrete to the laid at a cost of $3.00. Frances Steubling, garden demonstrator of the Leon Valley 4-H Club in Bexar county, raised $98.50 worth of vegetables in 1934, according to Miss Marie Strange, home demonstration agent. In addition to supplying the family with fresh vegetables she had enough to can 200 containers. The total cost of her garden was $5.25, including the cost of the tile which she considers a permanent investment.

McKinney: As part of her yard improvement work, Mrs. Bart Bryant of Collin county had a man and team plow the bed where screen plantings to hide the out buildings on the farm were to set, according to Miss Helen Dunlap, home demonstration agent. The plants were cultivated carefully about every 19 days and partly just after rain. Mrs. Bryant also made a cement the cutting bed as part of her yard improvement work and she now has 105 cuttings ready for transplanting.

Marlin: From nine rows of plowing cotton and planted black eyed peas and pinto beans in 1934, Mrs. B. L. Powell, of the Lamar Home Demonstration Club in Falls county canned 100 No. 3 containers for her pantry, according to Miss Virginia King, home demonstration agent. To fill her food budget for the year, Mrs. Powell also canned 185 containers of leafy vegetables, 100 cans of corn, 59 cans of succulent vegetables, 45 quarts of fruits and fruit juices, 121 cans of tomatoes and tomato juice, 20 cans of meat, 86 quarts of preserves and jelly, 45 jars of pickles and relishes, and made 29 pounds of cheese. Her pantry is valued at $227.49.

Dimmitt: One hundred lambs are being fed for the 1935 Easter market by Colin Walton of Castro county whose successful feeding enabled him to win the grand championship with his load of 88 winter lambs at a stock show in Fort Worth last year, according to E. W. Thomas, county agricultural agent.

Because of unusual skill in feeding and the use of Southwest lunks on Texas hillside ewes, Walton's lambs weighed 86 1/2 pounds at the age of five months. The lambs were dropped mostly in October and run on wheat pasture with the ewes until the last 20 days before the show. They were fed threshed mill, oats and spelt in self feeders until the latter part of the feeding period when they were fed ground feed twice daily. The lambs had free access to a mixture of equal parts of salt and bone meal and were fed bundle sorghum along with their rams when taken off the wheat.

The 88 lambs consumed 7200 pounds threshed mill, 1600 lbs. oats and spelt, and 74 lbs. cotton seed cake which all cost $81.22. Walton sold 59 head weighing 99 pounds at 14 cents making $630.90, and 28 head weighing 82 lbs. at 10 cents making $311.50, totaling $942.40 for the lot.

Rockwall: A net profit of $459.90 was made on six acres of onions in 1934 by T. H. Smith of Rockwall county, according to W. R. Holsey, county agricultural agent. The plants cost $15.00 per acre, and other expenses amounted to $159.45, making a total of 249.45. His total receipts for the sale of the onions was $459.90. The plants were cultivated according to methods outlined by the county agricultural agent.

H. Galt Braxton, editor of the Kinston (N. C.) Daily Free Press says:

"People undoubtedly read newspaper advertising even though, seemingly, they are not always conscious of the fact. "Ask the average newspaper reader, 'Do you read the advertisements,' and the answer is quite a few cases will be, 'No, I do not.' The fact is, such readers do read and absorb the advertisements much more than they realize. Question them about advertised goods and trade marks and see how much better acquainted they are with goods that are advertised and with firms that advertise than they are with non-advertised goods and non-advertising firms."

"Let a mistake be made in an advertisement—it makes no difference how insignificant it may be or how inconspicuous the ad may appear—see how many people will note and call attention to the error. "The most unmistakable evidence that newspaper advertising is read, however, is the fact that it produces results. Those concerns which advertise in the local newspaper consistently, regularly and intelligently, year in and year out, find that it pays."

Organdy Luncheon Cloth

A dainty luncheon cloth which one can easily make is of flower printed organdy with a plain colored border of organdy hemstitched around it. A very pretty one was made by using a tiny pink rosebud design on a white background for the center and a soft rose color, plain organdy for the border. But, of course, one could arrange any color scheme preferred. Napkins to match can be made with little effort.

$20 STARTS YOU IN BUSINESS

A Complete 100 a Week BROILER PLANT is Yours for Only $20 Down—Balance on Easy MONTHLY PAYMENTS

EACH COMMUNITY

We desire to place these units in each community. We can supply baby chicks at reasonable prices, a guaranteed standard grade and will purchase all broilers at prevailing prices, shipment weekly.

With hog and beef prices on the increase, broiler prices must go up also. The law of supply and demand will take care of that. Right now there is a shortage of hens on the farms. Egg prices are high and are pretty sure to stay up. Egg farmers will keep their hens with high egg prices and it won't be long until table poultry will be at a premium.

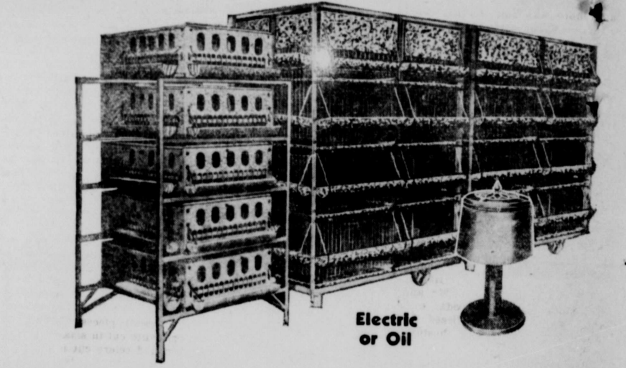

Plenty of SOL-HOT BROILER PLANT Operators Make Money Today

Here is a business that you may have thought of many times—perhaps dreamed about—but you could never quite figure out how you could get into it on the small amount of cash that you have had on hand. Let us say right here that 9 out of every 10 people that purchase a Sol-Hot Broiler Plant make a success and pay for their plants out of the profits that they make.

Do you know of any other line of business that has such a record of success? There are many businesses where only 1 out of 10 succeed and in nearly all other businesses a capital of at least $500 is needed to start—in most businesses a great deal more ready cash—an $500 is needed, while with the Sol-Hot 100 a Week Broiler Plant only $20 is needed to start—you pay the balance on easy monthly payments.

You purchase 100 day-old chicks each week for from 7c to 10c per chick. Statistics show that it takes 5 pounds of feed to make a broiler. The 5 pounds of feed would cost around 12 1/2c to 15c per bird. Your heat and electricity should not cost over 1c per bird. As a rule 20c to 25c per bird will take care of your costs.

But here is where you make the big profits. When you have established yourself in business people will come to you for good, juicy battery raised and fed broilers are hard to find and buyers always prefer them. Wholesale broiler prices are usually not lower than 20c per pound. So for a 2 pound broiler you would get 40c even at wholesale prices and make 15c to 20c on each 100 broilers. But people buying direct pay RETAIL prices which means 12c to 25c MORE for each broiler. That is when you get into the BIG MONEY. This is the end of the business that it is up to you to develop. The Sol-Hot 100-a-Week Broiler Plant does the rest.

- 1 BB-5A Sol-Hot Electric Starting Brooder.
 - 2 FB-88 Sol-Hot Finishing Brooders
 - 5 General Electric Mazda CX Bulbs
 - 1 Sol-Hot Humidifier
- Shipped F. O. B. Quiney Factory or Michigan Warehouse—Weight 1000 lbs

Above is a complete 100-a-week Broiler Plant. It consists of a splendid Sol-Hot Electric Five-Section Starting Brooder, complete with General Electric Ultra-Violet Ray Heating Bulbs and Individual Thermostat Heat Control for each section, also famous Sol-Hot Broiler Plant Humidifier. In addition to the Starting Brooder, there are two big, roomy Sol-Hot Finishing Batteries that take the chicks at the beginning of the fourth week and quickly bring them to broiler size.

These units make up the most practical and convenient Brooding Plant ever devised. They will raise chicks for you, practically without attention and, when used with the Sol-Hot Humidifier, will raise them in less time than any other brooding system. All you have to do is keep feed and water in the troughs, keep the dropping pans reasonably clean, and the brooders will do the rest.

Here is the way it works. Each week you put 100 baby chicks in one section of the starting brooder. When they are one week old put them in two sections, 50 to each section. When they are three weeks old put them in the top section of one of the finishing brooders. At the end of the fourth week they are ready to go into the open sections of the finishing brooders where they stay until they are ready for market, which usually runs 8 to 9 weeks for a 2 pound broiler. You see in this way you have a weekly output of 100 fine, juicy broilers for the market.

The Sol-Hot 100-a-Week Plant can be operated in a room 12 feet by 15 feet with a ceiling height of 7 feet. It is shipped knocked-down. Can be carried through an ordinary doorway. An empty spare room, or a basement, or empty garage building can often be turned into profitable broiler house in this manner. If a new building is needed a special Sol-Hot Broiler House can be obtained.

Bathing facilities for the rural home is something every one needs, said Miss Elsie Phillips, home demonstration agent, before the King High club members, which met with Mrs. Susie Davis on March 7.

Rural home should have a bath room which contains wash stand, wash pan, soap dish, towel rack and a screen to be in the ideal bath room.

There were twenty-one members and two visitors. Next meeting will be at the school house, March 21st.

STUDY CLUB MEETS AT TUBB HOME

The Blue Bonnet Study Club met Tuesday, March 12, at the home of Mrs. C. R. Tubb. The meeting was scheduled to be held at the home of Mrs. Irvy Ayers, but due to illness in the family she was unable to act as hostess.

Subject for the study was "The Love Letters of Smith," a story written by Henry C. Bauner. The structure and story were given by Mrs. R. M. Leach and a sketch of Bauner's life was given by Mrs. R. L. Barlow. Both were interesting in their discussion.

Those who answered roll call were: Mrs. R. L. Barlow, Mrs. R. Blevins, Mrs. P. P. Turner, Mrs. R. M. Leach, Mrs. R. B. Forbes, Mrs. J. Roy Quinby, Mrs. J. E. Thornton, Mrs. E. M. Poole and the hostess, Mrs. Tubb.

Lovely refreshments were served and the program was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

MRS. BARLOW HOSTESS TO H. D. CLUB

Members of the Chillicothe Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. R. L. Barlow on March 1. The book, "Parliamentary Drill," was taught by Mrs. E. H. Tooley, and one of the most important items brought out was: "Just One Person Talk at a Time."

Miss Ina Bryan, secretary and treasurer, reported $21.73 in the treasury. She also stated thirty-two rose cuttings and thirty-seven shrubs were set out. Miss Bryan requested that members turn in a report of the work they have done since the last meeting.

Members present were the Mesdames Floyd Newberry, E. H. Tooley, P. G. Turner, Ed Davis, John Lyons, E. E. Williams, W. O. Stone, Roy Stuekey, R. L. Barlow, George Metcalf, the Misses Ina Bryan and Lillie Kerley, and a guest, Mrs. Golden.

The next meeting will be held Friday, March 15 at the home of Mrs. W. O. Stone, beginning at 3 p. m. Miss Elsie Phillips, home demonstration agent, will be present.

BIG VALLEY CLUB MEETING

Bath towels should be rough enough to give friction which insure a good reaction after the bath, says Miss Elsie Phillips, Hardeman County home demonstration agent, in her demonstration to the club women of Big Valley at the home of Mrs. C. E. Wall.

Turkish toweling are best here. The towels should be of medium width in proportion to the length. In a medium size towel select around 50 cents. More expensive kinds one pays for size, color, design and extreme firmness of thread and weaving, which makes the towels so firm that it is not so absorbent.

Those present were: Mrs. S. Z. Bailey, Mrs. Thelie Wall, Mrs. F. W. Johnson, Mrs. M. C. Turner, Mrs. Elbert Easley, Mrs. L. P. Hightower, Mrs. Loyd West, Mrs. M. T. Bellamy, Mrs. W. S. Dodson, Miss Katherine Bailey, Rula Belle Evans, the hostess, Mrs. C. E. Wall.

The next meeting will be held March 22 at the home of Mrs. Thelie Wall.

YARD CO-OPERATORS PUT OUT 54 SCREEN PLANTS

Yard co-operators of the Lazare Home Demonstration Club have followed up the yard demonstration given by the home agent, Elsie Phillips, in February by putting out screen plantings. Two co-operators, namely Mrs. E. V. Perkins and Mrs. Floyd Richardson, have put out 54 screen plantings. The majority of the plants have been native plants.

Supper or Luncheon Dish

Ingredients: 1 package macaroni; 3 cups cooked chicken cut in small pieces; 1/2 cup cooked pilenta cut in small pieces; 1 cup cooked celery cut in small pieces; 1 cup milk; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; 2 tablespoonfuls butter; cracker crumbs.

Boil the macaroni in salt water until tender. Drain and rinse under running water. Mix together the chicken, pilenta and celery. Place alternate layers of macaroni and the chicken mixture in a buttered casserole. Pour over it the milk with salt added to it. Cover the top with fine cracker crumbs. Dot with butter and bake in a moderate oven until the milk has been absorbed and the top is a golden brown. This dish may be made entirely ready except for the baking, placed in the refrigerator, and baked at a later time. For this reason it is especially good when one is having company since all of the preparation may be done beforehand.

An unusually good congregation worshipped at the church last Sunday morning and at night the house was filled about to capacity with a congregation to hear the Negroes, led by the pastor of the C. M. E. Church, in a program of fine singing. An offering was taken for the Negro work in the city. Another such service will be held in the future.

The pastor attended a meeting of the Vernon District Preachers' Conference at Paducah last Tuesday. A great spiritual feast was had at the eleven o'clock hour, when Rev. C. W. Young, father of S. H. Young, formerly of this city, brought the sermon to an appreciative audience.

BEDROOM DEMONSTRATOR

FOE LAZARE H. D. CLUB
The bedroom demonstrator of the Lazare Home Demonstration Club, Mrs. E. V. Perkins, has a new home but the bedroom has not yet been finished. The bedroom is a north room. Mrs. Perkins plans yellow and blue as her color scheme with yellow the predominating color.

In the bedroom Mrs. Perkins has used an old wardrobe which is a family heirloom. The doors and drawers were used in making the clothes closet as a difference in the color of woodwork, it is a dark oak with a light oak finish which makes a pleasing contrast.

R. D. Davis and two children, and Raymond Harrison, all of Waco, arrived in the city Monday evening to be here for a visit with Mr. Davis' father, A. D. Davis and family.

"DUCKY-WUCKY" THREATENS TO QUIT BASEBALL

HOWEVER, SPRING FEVER IS YET TO "PENETRATE" AND THEN FANS HOPE

It may be the old spring fever has not "got into the bones" as yet, and is the reason why Louis Duckworth, one of the stars of the 1934 Cubs, has threatened to retire from the game, believe the lad will be ready for the going when opening day comes around for the race in the Red River Valley Baseball League.

Manager McRee has mailed Ducky a notice to appear but Ducky is not ready to go so far, should he carry out his threat it will be a blow to the Cubs team. It happens Duckworth can fill several positions, shining more so at third and second.

Another lad from the Farmers Valley community is Laynon Green. The fiery little shortstop ought to be better than ever this coming flag chase, and should give all competitors a real run for the shortstopping job.

Matters are shaping up in fairly good order for McRee. However, he appears concerned over the catching department this year. Evidently he wants to use Pat Ramsey in some other position than catching this year. What an outfielder the boy would make! Fast on his underpinnings, and one of the leading swat-smiths of the 1934 club.

Mrs. W. A. Bobbitt and Mrs. Jess Karp of Paducah were in the city Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Campbell. On their return home they were accompanied by Miss Mayella Campbell, who will visit there a few days.

HERE IS REAL PIONEER OF COUNTY,
ONE WHO WITNESSED HARDEMAN
BECOME RICH AGRICULTURAL SPOT

J. C. Flynt Has Resided in County Forty-five Years; He Came from Tennessee When Only 18 Years of Age and Settled in Hunt County; Came to Hardeman in 1890 and Became One of Most Influential and Prosperous Landowners and Business Man.

Here is one of the real pioneers of Hardeman county, a man who has witnessed a change from practically an entire cattle country into an agricultural section that is looked upon everywhere as a rich production belt.

The gentleman is J. C. Flynt. Just how long he has been a resident of this county dates back to the year of 1890—forty-five years—and should he so choose many a tale could be unfolded about this grand old county. Born November 18, 1844, in Fayetteville, Lincoln county, Tenn., the son of Dr. James C. Flynt, the Hardeman county pioneer when 18 years of age decided the Lone Star State should be his domicile for the remainder of his life, and consequently, he struck out from his Tennessee home for this state, settling in Hunt county. He lived there four years, but there was something to draw his mind to the native state, and after four years in Hunt county "pulled up stakes" and returned to Tennessee.

And here is the reason: He was married to Mary Elizabeth Fox, Well, since he got what he went after, Texas was again calling him, so the couple left Tennessee and returned to Hunt county. After two years there they decided to locate in Wichita county. They lived there a couple of years, and then in 1890 Hardeman county was made their home, locating on the farm.

While it was not made known it is presumed Mr. Flynt concluded farming was not all that it was cracked up to be as a result of drouthy conditions, again, there may have been plenty of rainfall to make bumper crops. Anyway, he wanted to take a rest from following the plow and instead utilize his mental ability with figures. Thus, he accomplished what he set out to do—became county tax collector. That was in 1908, was again elected to that office in 1910 and served until 1914. In 1915 he returned to live in Chillicothe, but sorrow came into his life in 1928 when Mrs. Flynt succumbed. Later he was married to Mrs. Amanda Barkley.

He has two children, being Earl Flynt and Margaret Flynt Kennedy.

Success has come his way. Today he owns some of the best land in Hardeman county, is vice-president of the First State Bank of Medicine Mound, is identified with the Farmers Co-Operative Gin at that place, and is considered one of the leading and more prosperous citizens. Mr. Flynt has been imbued with a love for this county, has always cooperated for the good of his community and county, and today can look back through the forty-five years spent in this county and realize life has been good. He has had his "breaks" of course, else he would not have been able to convince Mrs. Flynt he was an excellent man to choose for a husband. However, he was not far wrong, it might be added, and certainly Mrs. Flynt has found no reason to regret she made the decision.

Hardeman county is fortunate to have such a family. Today they reside in Chillicothe, happy and contented with life. Moreover, they are happy over those five grandchildren, being Mrs. Lorain Crouch, J. C. Flynt, John Flynt, and those two popular youngsters Flynt and E. A. Kennedy, Jr.

Not just Chillicothe, but Medicine Mound has a clear right to claim Mr. Flynt as a resident, because in that community will be found his land interests. He has done much for that community, and Medicine Mound people know it.

Men Made Miserable By Mishaps
And Mistakes Of The Many M's

(From TP Safety Topics)
MEN—Through failure to follow safe practice in their daily work. Worry, indifference, ignorance, haste, inexperience, and recklessness are the adverse forces that must be eliminated. A safety-trained man is efficient.

METHODS—by using unsafe and untried methods in the performance of work. Better exchange of good practices will help a lot. Be sure you are right, then go ahead.

MATERIAL—Unfound weaknesses unable to stand the temporary strains or continued use. Corrosion, wear, crystallization, and defects can be found only by accidents. Take one stick instead of nine.

MANAGEMENT—Misplacement of men, incomplete instructions and indifference make a difference, the wrong way, in the number of failures. More attention to men, methods and material would have many accidents. Plan before starting.

MISCHIEF—Boysish pranks and horse pty come in here. It is all in fun until someone is hurt. Show your age and be a man.

MANIPULATION—Lack of manipulative skill in the performance of certain operations. Only study and practice will add to this ability. If it is caused by physical defects or other trails, change jobs. Steinmetz could never have been a laborer.

MISUSE—Wrenches used for hammers, screwdrivers for chisels, pennies in fuse plugs, and pipe wrenches for tightening nuts come in this class. Use tools only for the purpose for which they were designed. You cannot climb a chicken ladder to success.

MONEY—Those who have it say, "That's what makes the world go round." The others say, "It is the root of all evil." Worry over its loss or the failure to acquire more has caused many an accident. Consider the cost of an accident to you.

M.A.D.—Anger, uncontrolled temper and other displays of passion certainly cloud one's judgment and ability to work safely. Whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad.

MORONS—Public Enemy No. 1 cannot hold a candle to the thousands of public enemies on our highways. An automobile under the hand of a driving moron is as dangerous and deadly as a mae-ine gun in the hands of a Baby Face Nelson. Why not a driver's license law?

MEMORY—"I forgot it was loaded." "Your instructions slipped my mind" are famous last words of many a departed soul over whose resting place stands a monument. "In memory of . . ." Keep your mind and attention on the work at hand.

MIND—After all, this is the difference between a sane and an unsafe worker, an Edison or a crazy man. Ideas come only from minds that are USED and have been exposed to information and experience. Think, use your mind and it will serve you better than a strong back.

MISCELLANEOUS—Some of the "Mises" that make up the chorus in the drama of earning a living are mistake, mistrust, misrepresent, mislead, misinterpret, mislay, misinform, misconduct, mislead, misapply, miscalculate, misfit, misconstrue, misjudge, misplace, mishap and misfortune. Do not flirt with them. They are all gold diggers who will take your last dollar and laugh at the misery they cause you.

Attends Convention
J. A. McCaw returned from Fort Worth Tuesday afternoon after being in attendance at the Texas Association of Dyers and Cleaners convention, held Monday and Tuesday. The meeting proved to be very fruitful. Mr. McCaw declared on his return.

Meat Cookery
Most active people feel the need for a certain amount of meat in their diets each day in order to keep strong and physically fit.

Aside from the well-known roasts, steaks, and chops, which are generally the more expensive cuts there are many tasty, interesting ways to serve the less costly parts. Stews, croquettes, casserole dishes, meat loaves and meat pies offer a great variety of combinations for utilizing cheap cuts.

These have just as great a food value and are often even more tempting to the appetite when combined with vegetables, macaroni or noodles, well seasoned and attractively served.

TEXAS

Series of Articles Taken From the Bexar Archives at the University of Texas and Pertaining to History of State.

By LORENE DRUMMOND

Series I, No. 6
AUSTIN, Tex., March 13—Flour recommitments followed upon the heels of famine among the little band of Canary Islanders who made up the civil settlement at San Antonio de Bexar two hundred years ago. Official records of the Spanish government for the Department of Texas, the center of which was at San Antonio, are now deposited in the library at the University of Texas. These Bexar Archives as the records are known, reveal all too plainly the lack of ordinary necessities of living, the exorbitant prices charged for what few commodities were available, the inadequate of the whole system of management in the governmental machinery. Only three small groups of settlers—those at San Antonio, those at Los Adas, and those at La Bahia—inhabited the territory of Texas. These were widely separated, and their facilities for defense against the Indians, for warding off foreign aggression, and for obtaining aid in any crisis from the government were pitifully weak.

Juan Leal Goraz, named the first alcalde or mayor, who it was hoped could settle all disputes among the Islanders, became the stormy petrel of the band. His arbitrary decisions, his unjust punishments of those who dared to question his rulings, led to a state of near civil war. The right of appeal to the governor and to the viceroy was invoked by the aggrieved parties, and the trouble spread alarmingly. Each alcalde maintained his personal "rights" most valiantly.

The following document, which has just been translated by University translators, reveals one such incident. An attorney sought redress from the viceroy for his clients, who, he alleged, were wrongfully imprisoned by the governor; the viceroy granted the release of the prisoners; he allowed another colonist to go to Saltillo for medical treatment, at the same time forbidding him to go to Vera Cruz on penalty of imprisonment as a deserter.

"I, Fr. Juan Antonio de Bizaron y Eguyarreta, Archbishop of the Cathedral of Mexico, member of your Majesty's Council, Viceroy Governor, and Captain General of the Province of this New Spain, and President of the Royal Audiencia do declare that a petition of the following tenor was presented before me:

"In behalf of Martin Lorenzo de Armas, second alcalde; Juan Curuelo, alderman; and Francisco Xavier de Arocha, notary public and secretary of the municipal council for the Villa de San Fernando, Province of Texas and New Philippines, I, Joaquin Miguel de Anzures, appear before Your Excellency, according to the best form of legal procedure, and declare that, through the influence and persuasion of Don Manuel de Sandoval, present governor of that province, Juan Leal Goraz, first alcalde, did arrest my clients named above. He held them as prisoners under guard in the royal presidio of San Fernando de Bexar, where they were kept without any explanation whatever. He claimed that they had been legally summoned to a meeting of the council but that is not true. Besides they had a good reason for not attending. They had not received a legal summons on the previous day as he states, but had merely been notified by a child who was not over nine years old. In spite of this, my clients left their crops in which they were compelled to work because of their abject poverty, and went home to dress properly in order to go to the meeting at the house of the first alcalde, where the council was held. This also was in violation of the law. Upon meeting certain persons who had informed that the said body had been directed not to pay a certain sum which they all owed to Captain Joseph de Urrutia. They felt that it was unfair to repudiate a just debt but they returned to their homes. Whereupon, the said first alcalde immediately applied to arrest them on the pretext that they had defied the council he had issued. As matter of fact, this warrant had been issued because of the fury of the governor rather than for any other cause whatsoever. He was angry because the residents of that villa had previously decided to present a petition asking the aforesaid Captain Urrutia to pay them for their corn at the rate of three pesos a bushel when there had been a previous agreement and contract that he was to pay them only two pesos. The aforesaid governor ordered the secretary to draw up the petition in question. The secretary replied that he did not have the power to do this; while the governor insisted that his command was sufficient. Knowing the governor's high temper and his revengeful spirit, the secretary feared the injury he might do him and felt compelled to draw the papers against the aforesaid Captain Urrutia. Therefore, it can be inferred that the meeting was directed to repudiate the debt through the influence of the governor and that my clients were arrested because they did not attend. The second alcalde was put in prison; he had his badge of office with him and he offered to the royal insignia. The governor told the first alcalde not to worry, because he would protect him. For this reason my clients have been unable to obtain a redress from the governor. This has caused them to be kept in jail for a period of more than four or five months without any recourse whatsoever because of the difficulty of appealing to you, Excellency, due to the great distance between that province and this court and because of the abject poverty of my clients who could not secure a hearing even though they presented three written petitions regarding their imprisonment and the reason therefor. I wish to secure reparation for the losses my clients have sustained during their long and unjust imprisonment, for during this time their families have been exposed to starvation. I am, therefore, compelled to beg your Excellency to render justice by providing for the issuance of an order that will authorize the person who knows how to read and write to go with witnesses and notify the aforesaid alcalde to release my clients immediately. I wish this order to provide that if he does not do so, the person who serves the notice shall require him to show cause for this imprisonment within twenty-four hours. If this is not done, I beg of you to have this fact recorded and sent to Your Excellency. In this way my clients will secure reparation for the damages, delays and injuries they have sustained. I therefore beg Your Excellency to issue said order and to have the matter brought to the attention of the aforesaid Viceroy. I ask for justice, judgment, cost, etc."

Attorney, Varas Machaca, Juanehin de Anzures.

"Whereupon, I, the said Viceroy, referred the above request to the auditor of war and, agreeing with the opinion he expressed, I do by these present order Captain Joseph de Urrutia, and in his inability to act, any other person that knows how to read and write to go with witnesses and notify the man who was first alcalde to release the petitioners from prison immediately. If he does not obey, then the captain, or his substitute who serves the order, shall do so. At the same time, the bearer of the writ shall demand to see the charges made against the persons above mentioned. If the alcalde does not show these charges, the bearer of the order shall make an affidavit to that effect. I wish to see the charges made against the persons above mentioned. If the alcalde does not show these charges, the bearer of the order shall make an affidavit

thereto. This statement shall then be forwarded to this capacity general, together with record of what was done regarding the release. In view thereof I will decide what is proper and just as to the petition of Don Vicente Alvarez Travieso to go to Saltillo for medical treatment, and the petition of the colonists and residents of the villa de San Fernando, and the request of the Governor, Don Manuel de Sandoval, for instructions concerning the price of corn and other grain. I have decided with the approval of the auditor general of war that the captains and soldiers who buy grain from the above mentioned inhabitants of the town must pay them at the current market price, with drafts as has been done by Captain Urrutia. In the sale of vegetables and fruits from their orchards, they are to give preference to the captains of three presidios of San Antonio, Los Adas, and Bahia del Espiritu Santo, so that by this arrangement, these presidios will not lack the necessities and the citizens will not have to seek purchasers beyond the confines of that region. As for the permit requested by Travieso, (for visiting Saltillo for medical treatment) I have decided to grant it in spite of the inconveniences pointed out by the governor; have, however, issued orders for special precautions to be taken at Vera Cruz, so that, in case he goes to that city, the authorities can arrest him and proceed against him as a deserter. In order that all these provisions may be observed, kept, and executed involuntarily, I order this present decision kept in mind."

Mexico, January 24, 1736.

Juan Antonio, Archbishop of Mexico by command of His Excellency, Antonio de Arce.

Following issuance of this order Juan Leal Goraz, alcalde, was called up before Captain Joseph de Urrutia and required to take an oath to abide by all the provisions of the order, including releasing the imprisoned colonists. The order was presented to the governor, and he, although protesting that "the statements made in the petition by the parties concerned are untrue, and were alleged and promulgated merely to secure the said superior order," agreed to "give punctilious obedience thereto." He ordered that complete transcripts of all records pertaining to the case be made and copies placed with the viceroy and in the local files. It finally developed that the order commissioning Don Joseph de Urrutia as captain of the presidio with authority to serve writs ordering release of the imprisoned men, was "lost." Without this document the case was incomplete and thus, after five months imprisonment for the three plaintiffs and eight months delay in settlement of the case, the whole matter had to be dropped because of the loss of a single vitally important paper.

Though the conflict between the colonists and local officials was at a standstill, the bitterness remained, and discord was bound to ensue.

My Diary

By Jane Carroll

Los Angeles, Aug. 31, 1934: We (Belva and I) spent Tuesday down town. The occasion afforded the pleasure of selecting, for material to make a number of school dresses and sending it to people of the drought-stricken middle west.

As we sat in the lounge of a big department store after lunch, we espied, amidst hundreds of women, a friend (Orine Sager Waplington, formerly of Chillicothe, Texas.) She radiated the typical bride-like characteristics—beauty, happiness, hope, ambition. A promise to visit her and the groom in their new home was fulfilled Wednesday evening. Harry Waplington is an extremely likeable and fine-looking man. Their flat is attractive in every sense; a good location, excellent view and providing ventilation not often found in city dwellings. Orine is delighted in the change which transferred her energies from the business world to a home, but like many another beginner, takes housekeeping a little too seriously, perhaps. He said in her favor, she is an efficient person and an excellent cook. They were married a month ago; in spite of the fact that both had been to the altar before (or because of past experiences probably), they seemed to stand in life's threshold. To bear their plans for the future makes one wish the enthusiasm would never wane. The marriage was the culmination of a two-year romance which began when Mr. Waplington lent her his cherished volume of the Rubaiyat. From their subsequent discussion of the poem so many other subjects of mutual interest were discovered a happy association followed. They were almost constant companions for a year previous to their marriage, dining, dancing, reading, studying and working together. They bought books jointly and saw the same shows. Her sketch book and his poems bear testimony of the pursuit of their respective hobbies during these months.

As we stood on the landing outside their door to say good night, we all agreed there is nothing under heaven comparable to love; that the poet knew whereof he spoke when he said: "Unmeasured love is all there is of heaven." And each resolved to exercise more diligence in preserving it. Here to you, Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Waplington. May your love deepen and grow in indelustness each succeeding year.

Sept. 1, 1934: Yesterday evening we were the guests of the "Pat" Rileys. Ruth, the daughter, has ambitions for the screen. (What young girl hasn't?) At present she is an extra and has been one of the chorus of dancers appearing in "Flying Down to Rio." "The Last Yacht," "Broadway Through a Keyhole" and others. The boy, Howard, is a fine, interesting chap. Not the atmosphere of brilliance but that of perfect harmony in the home was most impressive. It made us realize again that to make a success of marriage and home life is one of the greatest achievements. Be it cottage or palace, a home where peace and love reign is a haven for the wayfarer.

Long Beach, Sept. 2, 1934: Belva and I spent the afternoon at my temporary home and are remaining for the holiday. Yesterday we donned bathing suits.

took umbrellas, blankets, books, cards and fruit for lunch and went to the beach. The water was cold, the sunbathing grand. Hundreds of people had come to enjoy the season that is nearing a close. The types of persons were as varied as the colors seen in umbrellas, slacks, swim suits and sun hats. There were men and women tanned until they looked as if they belonged to another race; regular house plants whose flabby muscles showed they were seldom exposed to the sun; young boys and girls full of life and vigor; romping children and fat, lazy people who rolled in the sand and ate hot dogs.

Sept. 3, 1934: A show, more romance. It seems that love, like other elements of life, has many varieties. The age-measured in terms of progress rather than years for some are 16 at 60—determines the variety the individual is interested in at the particular time. It is a subject worthy of attention at any age. LOVE! What an owner of pain and a remover of difficulties; if wisely used it opens the door to all hearts and to everything desirable. The majority of people are like the man who told his young wife, "I can do anything if you and Doris (their little girl) will love me enough." What persistent effort and constant surveillance are required to keep his enemies, envy, malice, jealousy and indifference away. To the degree that we entertain any of these to that degree love is absent. The cultivation justifies the trouble a thousand times over for it is not only a boon to the spirit but a balm to the body; a remedy for all the ills and woes of life. (I suppose I read that, but I don't remember where.)

So long as love dominates our dealing with little children they do our bidding unless outside influences show up. Children grow up and stubborn when grown-ups become irritable. By the love method I can persuade my little niece to do anything from eating spinach to cleaning up the play room. But youngsters call out all the initiative and ingenuity one has.

The newer courses in child training aim to discipline the parents instead of the child. The former are urged to talk with children always in the tone of voice used in addressing adults on whom they wish to make a (Continued on Page Eight)

WHY FARMERS DO NOT GET CHECKS NOW EXPLAINED

C. A. Cobb of AAA Cotton Adjustment Cities Reasons

In a recent bulletin received by W. M. Gourley, teacher of vocational agriculture, from C. A. Cobb, of the Cotton Production Adjustment of the AAA, he cites some of the main reasons why farmers do not get payments promptly. In the audit of contracts and compliance forms in connection with 1934 and 1935 payments, the more common items which cause delayed payments and avoidable correspondence are listed below:

- Signatures of producer and witness in carbon. (All signatures must appear in ink or indelible pencil.)
- Signatures of supervisor and of community or county committee in carbon.
- County agent's name signed by someone other than himself, or by rubber stamp.
- Producer's signature handwritten.

favorable impression. The attitude of "You must obey me because I am your mother" is fast giving place to a free and happy companionship in which there are no (perhaps we should say few) secrets. Incidentally, a side-line of this course encourages the adoption of the same method in dealing with husbands, explaining that they are only overgrown boys. It works admirably. I've been told. For example: When a wife feels that she has been neglected, instead of folding her hands and weeping in self-pity, she uses her best remembering that in the taking of liberties her husband has granted the same privileges to her. The sensible woman, however, chooses her forms of liberty with extreme care. Freedom is a subtle thing and it abides only with the wise.

It is difficult for one to maintain that fine point between eccentricity on one hand, and simply being "one of the crowd" on the other. Many a woman pays the price of a stiffed individuality because she tries to please some man who admires a "good sport" which means drinking a little, gambling "conservatively" and eating food that makes her fat or kills her. An accomplished wife and mother is a genius! The qualities of a highly developed person, unselfish love, imagination, intuition must be balanced with a good sense of the practical. One might ask wherein lies her reward? The Play Angel in the feast of the story books, she sets all ultimately.

True love endures everything cheerfully and sacrifices much; though in reality there is no sacrifice but a reward in fish-pot yielded has a reward in itself. That transcends the pleasure of having the thing given up.

QUANAH YOUTHS "THUMB" RIDE; ARE ARRESTED

Two Quanah youths, hitch-hiking toward Chillicothe this last week, solicited a ride from Sheriff Mack Wilson and Deputy Sheriff M. Owens, near this city. When the boys recognized the officers, their surprise was so evident the officers became suspicious and questioned them regarding a package they were carrying. They said it contained clothing, but when opened, an adding machine was found.

The officers returned the youths to Quanah and placed them in jail, with a charge of theft of the machine from the Lence Star Gin Company.

One of the boys, Bill Bundy, is already under indictment and J. B. Alexander, the other youth, has served two terms in the state reformatory.

NEW ADDITIONS FOR CUBS NINE

WRIGHT, POLASKI AND McGEHEE REPORTED THIS WEEK TO MGR. MORRE

Three new additions to the Chillicothe Baseball Club's membership reported this week to Manager J. Hatton McRee, being Wright, Polaski, and McGehee, the latter well-known to local fandom when he toiled until mid-season of last year for the home-ings.

The wrong-hander up until he wrenched his throwing weapon was going great. After the accident he lost his effectiveness. This year, however, he believes it will be his season. One thing is sure the tall, lanky fellow will not do, and that is begin the season by pitching part of the game, then going to the outfield in case injuries were needed again in the year. Finally return to the mound after he has become "cold". He is believed to have been injured because the sore arm last year.

Not much is known of Wright and Polaski. However, they hail from McRee's old stamping grounds, and local fandom are satisfied that the club leader knows what he is doing.

The Child's Room

If at all possible a child should have his own little sanctuary, wherein his rights are respected. In preparing such a room parents should not enforce their personalities or ideas but should, in so far as is feasible, let the child's tastes decide color schemes and furnishings. He may need guidance but let him feel that his suggestions are important and discuss them with him.

Do not distract his treasures, however, ridiculous and unnecessary they seem to you. Let him take care of them and put them away. As he grows up, gradually make him responsible for the entire care of his room and its contents. He will thereby learn valuable lessons in systematic routine, neatness and self-reliance.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Davis and family were visitors in Vernon Sunday.

quality, that is the five grades of meat, prime, choice, good, medium, common. Cuts of meat will be laid out before the boys and they are to tell which are graded prime, which are choice, which are good, medium and common. This is one of the most practical contents held in that it teaches boys to actual know meats in the retail trade from a buyers standpoint as well as sellers viewpoint.

Not only that but they are trained to know relative prices of type cuts and what it takes to bring out good finish, conformation, and quality in meat. Last Saturday the boys were given 75 different cuts of meat at the City Market to identify for the kind of meat, the wholesale cuts, the retail cuts, and they made a very fine showing. Each night they are drilled on the nomenclature of these meat cuts, so they will know how to write them down correctly as well as identify them. Every buyer of fresh meat, cured, and smoked, as well as fancy meats would find it very profitable to know farm meats and know what to look for and call for when they go to a meat market or shop to purchase meat. Meat is perhaps the most important one food on the table and fewer people really know anything about it than any other food bought and prepared for table use.

Members of the judging team, Harvey Williams, John R. B. Lane, L. D. Worley, and John Simmons. Chillicothe placed fifth among all the teams of the State last year. They expect to do at least this well in the contest this year. They won the district contest easily. They hope to be a state winner, which is a most difficult achievement.
