Voters Cool To Primary

Liquor Issue May Spark Interest

Six days before the first Democratic Primary, Saturday May 4, very little interest has been apparent to observers in Mitchell County from precinct level to top State offices and issues.

Discusions here have largely been limited to the several pricinct contests and to church opposition to the liquor by the drink and parimutual betting poll to be included on the First Primary ballots of both Democrats and Rupublicans.

Races developed locally in only three cases the offices of county sheriff, precinct one constable, and two men contest for precinct three county commissioners.

Lewis Claxton, incumbent, faces Selma Dickson for the office of sheriff. Delmar Lowe, incumbent, drew two opponents as precinct one constable, A.G. Ballard and Buster Bakke. J. C. Scarbrough, incumbent, is running against James Henderson in the precinct three commissioners race.

Otherwise, all is quiet on the political front in Colorado City and surrounding communities even with voters faced with choosing one of 10 Democratic candidates for Governor.

Mitchell County Democratic Party, said Tom Rees who is county chairman, will stage a dinner and informational session at the Villa Inn Restaurant Friday night, May 3.

All election judges and their alternates, and all the County's precinct Democratic chairmen will attend.

They will study the new election laws one of which as the no write-in votes for First Democratic Primary offices.

Only exception is for party strike-out voting because of

Conventions Coming Up

Saturday For County Precincts

Democratic Party precinct conventions are set for 2 p. m. Saturday, May 4, at six designated meeting places.

Precinct one Demos will meet at 2 p.m. in District Courtroom, third floor of Mitchell County courthouse. G. D. Foster is precinct chairman.

Westbrook precinct, headed by Leroy Gressett as chairman, will meet at the same time in Westbrook High School.

Cuthbert party members will gather at the Fairview Baptist Church. Linden Solomon is nominee for chairman in that voting precinct.

At Loraine, where Ray Preston is precinct chairman Democrats will stage their precinct meeting at the city hall.

Civic House voting precinct has Wright Hock as Demo chairman. They will meet in the Chamber of Commerce office.

Buford, with Joe Blackard as chairman nominee, will confer in the Buford Co-op gin office.

Each precinct will elect delegates to attend Mitchell County Democratic convention which is on the calendar for 2 p.m. Saturday, May 11.

Number of delegates each precinct may elect is decided by the number of votes cast by each precinct for the Democratic candidate for governor of Texas in the last general election. One delegate may be named for every 25 votes cast for the Democratic candidate.

Tom Rees, county Demo chairman, gave these figures:

Voting precinct one, 20 delegates; precinct two at Westbrook, 2 delegates; voting precinct five at Cuthbert will name one delegate; Loraine's voting precinct seven will elect 7 delegates; Civic House, voting precinct eight, is entitled to 3 delegates; Buford, voting precinct 10, will choose one delegate.

Those 34 delegates to county convention will name delegates to the State Democratic Convention.

Briscoe Volunteers Here

Hometown Friends on Campaign Trail

A couple of nonpoliticians brought a new flavor of politics to Colorado City Wednesday as they moved through town campaigning for Dolph Briscoe, one of the major candidates for governor.

The pair, both ranchers and businessmen from Uvalde, are hometown friends of Briscoe, whose record of achievement stretches from the Texas Legislator into business, ranching and banking.

"We told Dolph we wanted to help his campaign, but that we certainly weren't any politicians," said Ben Bennett.

"And by, let us know emphatically that he didn't want politicians just plain folks on the road for him.

Bernard Brown, the other member of Briscoe Boosters of Uvalde traveling here asid he and Bennett had been on a campaign tour through West Central Texas and were turning back toward Uvalde from here.

"Everywhere we've been we have discovered citizens in all walks of life eager to hear about Dolph Briscoe and we have been telling them how we know him as a neighbor, friend and civic leader."

The two ranchers, the first to bring Briscoe's campaign into Mitchell County from their candidate's home headquarters conferred with Briscoe supporters here and visited business firms, Courthouse and other offices.

They are part of a gang of volunteer citizens from Briscoe's home county who are taking time off from their work and paying their own expenses to tour the state on behalf of their fellow townsman for governor.

These boosters have moved out of Uvalde in pairs, small groups, in motorcades and on buses. Their mileage will total more than 25,000 miles.

Briscoe is a former outstanding Texas legislator who has compiled a record of success in a wide area of business, agriculture and civic life.

During his 8 years in the legislature he was recognized for sponsoring the Colson-Briscoe act, which created Texas farm-to-market road system, and authorizing a measure to increase public school teachers' salaries and improve the support for better public schools.

He organized and headed the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation which conducts the successful screwworm eradication program, chairmanned National Farm City Week in Texas for years, served as treasurer of National Livestock & Meat Board, director of Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers Association, president of both Southwestern and Texas Cattle Raisers Association, president of Mohair Council of America.

Briscoe, in the business area, has served as chairman of banks in Uvalde and Pearsall, director of a San Antonio Bank, member of The Business Administration Foundation Advisory Council of University of Texas and has been president of Texas State Chamber of Commerce, South Texas Chamber of Commerce and member of the Century Council of Texas A&M University.

His honors include "Mr. South Texas," last year, one of the state's five outstanding young men in 1958, recipient of Silver Beaver Award this year for outstanding service to Boy Scouts, the Federal Land Bank Medal in 1968 for outstanding contribution to agriculture, the Knapp-Porter Award in 1966 from Texas Agriculture Extension Service for distinguished service to agriculture and outstanding conservation rancher in 1958.

Feed Mill Cooperative Now Under Construction

Construction is underway at Roscoe on a major feed is underway on a major feed manufacturing center here that will process locally-grown grain into a complete line of cattle feeds for area ranchers.

Wes-Tex Grain and Milling Cooperative expects to have a 100-ton-per-day mill completed by early September, according to Manager Gene Howard.

The mill was planned as the core of a new cooperative organized last Oct. 7. About 250 ranchers, formed Wes-Tex through the purchase of assets of the Farmer Coop Gin and Elevator and Roscoe Grain Company. Eventual investment in the cooperative is expected to be one million dollars.

Officers of Wes-Tex Grain & Milling Cooperative are R. H. Whorton, president, Phil Haynes, vice president, J. B. Cooper, secretary-treasurer, and Howard, manager.

"We feel this area is ideally-suited for feedlot operations," said Howard. "Feed grains are raised locally; ranchers have the cattle.

"All we needed was a high volume, modern and efficient feed mill capable of producing a wide variety of high quality feed rations at a reasonable cost."

The Wes-Tex mill will utilize milo, cotton seed meal and hulls, along with other grains and concentrates for the production bagged and bulk feeds required by present area ranching operations. The mill also will be able to serve feedlot enterprises as they develop. It's designed in such a way that it easily can be expanded to a 300-ton-per-day capacity.

Contractor is Farmland Industries of Kansas City, Mo., with which Wes-Tex is affiliated. The mill is one of the largest the regional coop erative has ever built for a member cooperative.

Features include

Flaking system using two 18x24-inch rollers with team chambers and cooler. The flaked grain will be principally milo.

150 h.p. Landers pellet mill with a 5x25-ft. Hayes and Stolz cooler.

60 h.p. JayBee Hammermill for grinding grain.

Hayes and Stolz four-ton paddle-type, drop-bottom mixer. A surge hopper below the mixer will allow load-out while the next batch is being mixed.

10,000-lb. batching scale.

Total bin capacity is 371 tons. Twenty-three welded steel overhead bins have capacity ranging from 2½ to 36 tons. Two bins have power feeders; six bins have live-bottom feeders to prevent light material from from bridging.

Two 12,000-gallon tanks will store fats and molasses.

CONVERSATION CORNER

Ruth Coffey's

SO you think you've seen everything?

You haven't unless you have stopped, admired, and been awed by the century plant in gorgeous bloom at the home of Miss Lucile Berry, corner of 6th and Elm Sts.

And you think you know everything?

Well, did you know that a century plant is defined as a tropical American agave having fleshy leaves and a tall stalk with greenish flowers; so called because mistakenly thought to bloom only once a century?

An agave is any of a number of related plants of the amaryllis family.

* * *

So you think you know everything?

Did you hear about the local newspaper woman who stopped her blue Falcon at 6th and Elm and stared a while before saying, "My! That's the tallest yucca in the country, I betcha?"

Century plants and yucca have just got to be at least distant cousins.

* * *

NOW there is an object lesson.

Life can never be really dull so long as there is one thing you don't know and can have the fun of learning.

So long as there are so many things just waiting to be seen . . . and so ong as there are still things to laugh about, even when the laugh is on you. Make that ESPECIALLY when the laugh is on you.

* * *

OUR whole town has burst into bloom almost as fast as a colorful fireworks explosion.

Multi colored roses, irises, flowering hedges, are everywhere. Saw a yard full of the little yellow California poppies, the first spied in ages.

And my heart went back to the big gray house on a terraced lawn I knew as a child . . . and the California poppies Mother favored against the rose-covered garden fence.

And there came back part of an old song.

"Thank God for a garden
Be it ever so small
Thank God for the sunshine
That comes flooding it all."

* * *

EVERY flower that grows has its own treasured memory, special symbol.

Cape Jasmines mean graduation, Gardenia, wedding day, Long stemmed red roses the birth of a baby.

Bluebonnets mean East Texas. Sunflowers, a country lane 'Mums are football season. Lilies are Easter, Tulips are spring, Zinnias are summer.

You can't pin a carnation or a gladiolus down, even if you can pin 'em on. Carnations and glads fit in anywhere, any time, any occasion. Maybe that's how come they're so popular.

* * *

SEEN LATELYS included Tom Rees, county Demo chairman . . . Sharon Hammond, wife of Morris.

Mrs. Vaughn Brown was an office dropin . . . So was vivacious Marie Grant Jackson, wife of Bill . . . Pete Warren.

Saw Mr and Mrs. Perry Adams . . . Fay Bloomer (Mrs Bill) with an attractive new hairstyle . . . Mrs. H.W. Blassingame.

Talked via dial system with F.P. (Favorite Person) Gewn Wistrand, wife of Dick . . . James McMath . . . J.A. Sadler, Jr.

Refreshment break at the Corner brought in Mabel Kelley . . . Mrs. Larry Kinard, Mrs. Joe Bell, and Mrs. Jim Kelley, too.

HEAR TELL Don Hall Burrus is entitled to Cloud Nine for now.

* * *

Don sat right down and wrote himself a letter to President Lyndon B. Johnson enclosing that recent "Dear Jim" column from the Colorado City Record.

The President, gentleman that he is, answered Don's letter promptly. Don's the proudest one — except maybe the writer of the "'Dear Jim" column in praise of the President.

* * *

FRIENDS of the J.L. Harder family are pleased to know that J. L., father of David, is back in C-City which means that David is better.

He is the 14 year old lad flown to Galveston by Frank Deregibus for treatment of burns.

David suffered third degree burns on both arms and will require skin graft surgery. His mother, Jackie, is still with him, of course. Expected treatment time is about six weeks.

* * *

FAMILIAR FACES here and there places belonged to Jewel Barrett Marsh, wife of Tom, over from Sweetwater . . . Dan and Linda Majors.

Saw two stylish gals at lunch together, Wilma Jean McKenney, wife of Rex, and Reesie Swafford, wife of W. A Swafford.

Bob Reily, first Republican friend with whom this Democrat has remained on speaking terms plus downright friendly terms, was admitting that local G.O.P.'s plan no convention and no First Primary in this county.

This time Bob's going fishin'.

B&PW Has 'Fun Night' Program

Games and group activity were conducted by Miss Miller, Miss Carwile and Mrs. Williams.

Refreshment table was centered with a pink floral arrangement.

Ice cream with topping, cake, mints, salted nuts with coffee and soft drinks were served.

Attending were Mrs. Ethel Hardegree, Mrs. M. L. Kirschbaum, Mrs. Philip Berman, Mrs. Inez Hock, Mrs. Roxie Witten, Mrs. Tom Patter, Mrs. R. J. Lloyd, Mrs. Margaret Oyler, Mrs. Lona Pritchett, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. P. G. Carpenter.

Half Face Test

Proves Wrinkles Go!

See Marvelous Results in just 2 weeks or Test Costs Nothing

Through the amazing benefits of a substance new to cosmetics, named Genava, aging skin can now look younger and younger. It's true! Genava acts in an entirely different way to correct aging dry-skin wrinkles, crow's-feet, thin papery texture. Small wrinkles disappear—even deepest wrinkles show great improvement. Skin becomes smoother in appearance. Now you can prove these amazing results to yourself.

Make Half-Face Test

Apply Genava twice daily—under make-up and overnight—to only one side of your face. In just 2 weeks skin takes on the appearance of youthful firmness, with dry-skin wrinkles vanishing—crow's-feet diminishing. Many small wrinkles completely gone!

And, mind you, this is not a cover-up, not astringent, not temporary. Dry-skin wrinkles really do diminish or disappear entirely.

Get Visible Results or Money Back

Use Genava for 2 weeks. If you are not thrilled with the remarkable improvement—if you do not see visible improvement in dry-skin wrinkles and lines—return unused portion of Genava where you bought it for immediate cash refund. Stores are authorized to refund money on request. Genava, $3.50 for the 30-day supply, $5.00 for the 75-day supply. See this dramatic improvement in wrinkles yourself or the test costs nothing.

DEALERS OFFER FREE WIRING SPECIAL FOR ELECTRIC RANGES

Mrs. Modern Homemaker who spends much of her time in the kitchen preparing meals for the family knows just how important a good range is to her and to her family.

Since the range is the focal point of activities in the kitchen for the lady of the house, the many automatic and beneficial features of the electric range makes it her biggest helper.

Only the electric range has the completely automatic features so advantageous to the housewife. For instance, if she needs to be away from home attending a meeting at the school, or at church, or visiting friends the modern homemaker with the automatic electric oven has no problem. She can prepare her meal in advance, place it in the oven and set the timer for the oven to turn on at a specified time. After the meal is cooked or warmed, the timer will turn off the heat but keep it serving hot until dinner time.

And this is only one of the many automatic controls on new electric ranges which make them easier to use and more efficient than ever. Many models have high-speed, high-wattage units for faster cooking, and most have thermostatically controlled surface units that automatically maintain the correct degree of heat throughout the cooking process. Accurate pushbutton or dial temperature controls and precise even-heat elements eliminate pot-watching and the danger of burns of boil-overs.

New electric ranges come in a number of styles, designed with the streamlined, built-in look that is desirable for modern kitchens. Some of the models have double ovens which come with separate controls so foods that require different heat and timing can be cooked simultaneously. While a cake is baking in one oven, a roast with vegetables can be cooking in the other. And for the toast, some models have meat thermometers that control the "doneness" desired in roast, steak or other meat and let the housewife know when the meat is ready.

Other electric models have automatic rotisseries in the ovens so meats will baste in their own juices as they turn. Also available are models with surface griddles and barbecue grills for "out-door cooking" indoors all year long.

Many options in electric ranges give the homemaker the chance to choose just what she likes best and is most convenient for her. It might be the traditional free-standing model, which needs only to be plugged in, has square corners and fits flush with the front and tons of standard cabinets and counters.

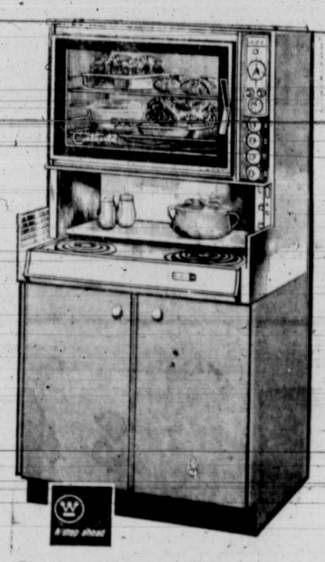

Or she may prefer the free-standing style with the eye-level oven and with or without a waist-high oven to go along. And popular with new homebuilders or those having their kitchens remodeled are the built-in models, with either single or double ovens and counter top surface units mounted with the cabinets or on an island in the middle of the kitchen.

Another favorite is the drop-in model that slides onto a low platform base and is especially practical for small kitchens.

Yes, the new electric ranges offer just about anything the homemaker desires and in decorator colors to match any kitchen.

Manufacturers of electric ranges continue to add new features to their products, bringing delight to the home maker who uses them. And the easy-cleaning features offered on a number of models are probably the most welcomed by the lady in the kitchen.

Some models have self-cleaning ovens which automatically burn off all food and grease stains. Others have ovens with disposable foil linings and some have oven walls, often Teflon-coated, which may be removed for washing in the sink.
