34 Pints Blood Given Tuesday to Bloodmobile

Thirty-four pints of blood were received by the Red Cross Bloodmobile during its visit to Wellington Tuesday, Aug. 8, Mrs. Jeff Wilson, president of St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary, reported.

Two persons were turned down as donors and several others inquired and learned they were not eligible to give blood, she added.

An attending doctor reported a number of persons have had antibiotics for tonsillitis and other illnesses during the last two weeks. Many county families are out of town on vacation. For these, and other reasons, attendance at the bloodmobile was cut.

The next visit by the Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in six months, local Red Cross officials were told.

Those in charge of the bloodmobile said the Wichita, Kan., headquarters is out of blood at this time, according to local residents who worked with the unit Tuesday.

Wellington was the first stop on this blood circulation trip and the Bloodmobile was due to be in Shamrock Wednesday.

City Council Approves Pavement of Runway

A major step in the improvement of Marian Airpark was taken Monday night, Aug. 7, when members of the City Council voted to pave the northwest-southeast runway, approximately 2,800 feet in length.

Mayor John Coleman presided at the meeting.

The work will be done with the city's own equipment under the supervision of City Manager Doc Barjenbruch.

This action came immediately after the council rescinded a decision made in its last regular meeting calling for an election to determine what should be done at the airpark.

A group of ten young business men, flyers, and ag flyers met with the council to discuss the airport improvement. They assured the City Council of their full support of whatever decision was made.

Discussion in the past has centered on paving the 2200-foot north-south runway. (The Federal Aviation Agency favors north-south runways, it was brought out.)

However, due to the prevailing winds in this area, the northwest-southeast runway at Marian Airpark is used as much as the north-south runway, several of the flyers reported.

It was further brought out that the north-south runway will now be left available for surfacing to FAA specifications if the need arises in the future.

A cost estimate of paving the 2,800-foot runway was not given in the motion, but the council has discussed this in terms of $10,000 to $15,000.

In the same session, the council completed details on the ordinance requiring permits for parades, passed at an earlier meeting.

Mayor Coleman reported that the fire truck, ordered from the Ford Motor Company of Shamrock, is now in Oklahoma City where it will be fitted with a bed and delivery is due here about Nov. 1.

The purchase of a 12 gauge riot gun for Police Chief Donald Nunnelley was approved.

The tax rate for 1967 was set at $1.30 per $100 valuation, the same as the 1966 rate.

1968 Wheat Program Outlined for Growers

The 1968 wheat program has been made public by Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman and the Wellington Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation ofice has announced that except for a 13 per cent drop in the allotted wheat acres, the program is about the same as last year.

The Collingsworth County wheat allotment for 1968 is set at 26,611 acres. This 13 per cent cut form the 1967 figure is the same as the national average acreage cut.

There is a $1.25 national loan rate on wheat, and there will be marketing certificates as there were this year.

Notices of allotments have been mailed to wheat growers in Collingsworth so they can begin plans for fall seeding.

Domestic marketing certificates will be issued on an estimated 530 million bushels of wheat. These will be valued at the difference between full wheat parity and the $1.25 loan value. For the 1967 crop, these certificates were worth $1.36 per bushel for Collingsworth growers.

Marketing certificates issued to co-operating growers in 1968 will be based on 40 per cent of the farm allotment instead of the 35 per cent in efect this year.

There will be no acreage diversion program for 1968 wheat crop.

Also in 1968 wheat can be planted on feed acreage, or feed grain can be planted on wheat acreage of the form is participating in both programs.

Producers can substitute wheat for oats and rye on the same basis as 1967.

The "excess wheat" option in the 1968 program will be the same as in 1967. Under this option, a grower can plant in excess of his allotment acreage and be eligible for marketing certificates and price support loans if the wheat acreage is not more than the allotment by 50 per cent, if the excess production is stored, and if the farmer complies with other terms and conditions similar to those in effect in 1967.

In order for the farm to be in the 1968 program, growers must stay within their farm wheat allotment unless the excess wheat option or substitution provisions are used.

Farmers must also meet the conserving base established for the farm. The conserving bases will be increased by the same amount that they were decreased when the last 15 per cent increase in acreage allotments were made in 1967.

Farmers must remain within any other crop acreage allotments established on the farm. They must be in compliance with wheat allotments, substitution provisions or excess wheat option on other farms which the operator has an interest.

As in 1967, the production of alternate non surplus crops will not apply in 1968 because there will be no wheat acreage diversions requirements.

The value of domestic certificates purchased by processors to cover wheat for domestic food will be 75 cents a bushel, the same as 1967.

The resale policy for CCC owned wheat for the 1967 crop marketing year ending July 1, 1968, will continue at a minimum of 115 per cent of the loan rate, plus carrying charges for sales for unrestricted use.

George Washington University in Washington, D.C., established the first graduate school program for nursing home administrators.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Lewis and their 10-year-old daughter, Merri Lyn, of Dallas, visited over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ball. From here they went to New Mexico for a week in Santa Fe and other points in the northern part of the state. Friday they will pick up their son, Mark, 14, at Philmont Scout Camp near Cimarron.

from Your Home Demonstration Agent

By Loleta Kees

The farm wife paused a moment at her chores,
Arrested by the starlight overhead;
"Sometimes this stillness almost breaks my heart;
It must be gay in town tonight," she said.

High in a city tower a woman stood,
A milion lights flashed on a million panes;
Noise ran rampant. Softly the woman sighed,
"It must be still tonight, in country lanes."

Glass Cleaning

Cleaning and stain removal are often major problems for owners of antique glassware, but the problem can arise even with everyday glass articles.

Here are some suggestions for solutions to common cleaning problems in glassware.

Minerals in water often result in such cleaning problems as lime deposits and surface discolorations. To remove the lime deposits from the bottoms of pitchers, bottles, or decanters, put tea leaves on the stained surface and fill the container with a vinegar solution. For surface discoloration on decanters, rub the glass with half a lemon, or wash it with vinegar, or partially fill with uncooked rice and vinegar and shake vigoursly.

A well-known research laboratory offers this method of removing hard water deposits which have dried in designs and etchings. Soak glassware in a solution one part muriatic acid and four parts water. This acid, available at drug or hardware stores, should be handled with rubber gloves. After soaking in the solution, rinse the glass thoroughly and dry.

Vinegar cruets often become stained and should be rinsed with deluted ammonia before washing. Stains in flower vases can be cleaned with a chlorine bleach solution. To brighten glass coffee makers, use a teaspoon of baking soda in the rinse water.

Glass is never permanently stained, according to the Glassware Institution of America. It has a hard, smooth, non-absorbent surface that cannot be penetrated by stains, and the surface discolorations can be removed with these treatments.

What a child wants for breakfast and what mother wants him to eat often are nutritionally equal. A breakfast of a hot dog, bun, milk shake and an orange is the same nutritionally as a breakfast of orange juice, egg, cereal and milk.

Research has brought another convenience product to the homemaker--instant fruit. Peaches, strawberries are reduced to a puree to which sugar and chemicals are added. The puree is frozen into pellets which are dehydrated by a freeze-drying process. This removes moisture without changing the fruit's physical characteristics. Fruits that are too mature for shipping may be successfully used in this process.

To remove a meat juice stain from a white or colorfast cotton tablecloth, first sponge the stain with cool water. Or soak the cloth in cool water for 30 minutes. Then rub detergent into the spot and launder the cloth in hot suds.

One way to avoid mud-tracks on an entry-hall floor is to place a practical boot-holder near the door. To make this, cut a sturdy cardboard carton down to a 2-inch depth, then cover it with self-adhesive vinyl-coated yardage. This will catch the dirt drips from boots and shoes, can be wiped off with a cloth dipped into soap or detergent suds. and can be stored in a closet on sunny days.

Whitewing Count Drops 17 Percent

AUSTIN.—White-winged dove census counts, just completed in the nesting areas of the Lower Rio Grande Valley, indicate a 17% decline in the breeding population, according to Bill Brownlee, wildlife biologist for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Even with the decline, 1967 can be classified as the third best of recent years, Brownlee said. This year's count shows 867,000 birds while there were 804,000 in 1966, he said.

The best crop in recent years was in 1950 when more than a million birds were counted.

An estimated 2½ million youth are now engaged in some phase of 4-H work.

Sail Through Summer with Electric Air Conditioning

There's really no reason for your family to suffer through another, hot, muggy summer. Air Conditioning is now within every budget... and what a difference Air Conditioning makes!

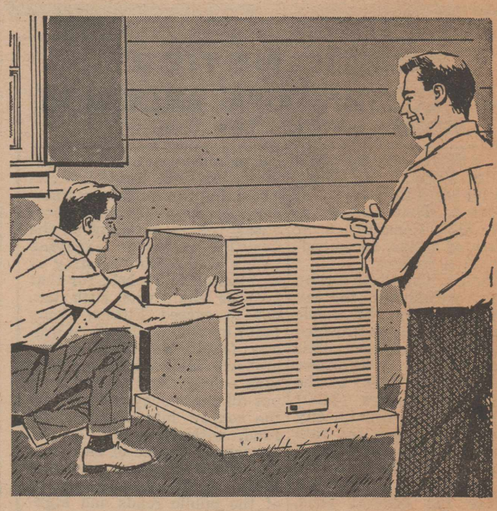

Let's you sleep like a baby. You wake up refreshed, ready to do a day's work. And air conditioning is a real wife-saver. Take the perspiration out of such hot chores as ironing, cooking and canning. It's almost like having spring-time freshness all summer. Air conditioning brings welcome relief to those suffering from asthma and hay fever because it filters dust and pollen from the air. (This factor also makes house cleaning easier, too.)

Many families air condition their homes by stages; buy room units for bedrooms one year and for the remainder of the home later. Some units cool two or more rooms, depending on the room and unit size.

If you are planning to build, it will cost little more to have year-round climate control for your entire home. It's money well spent because your family will enjoy complete comfort and your home will be more valuable.

A heat pump is particularly effective and economical. It maintains the same temperature all year; heats your home in winter and cools it in summer. Although a heat pump costs more than other heating systems, you'll save in lower operating costs.

Learn how easily you can air condition all or part of your home. Your rural electric cooperative will give you free information.

Fabrics Reflect Culture

COLLEGE STATION.— Fabrics from far-away places echo history and reflect the culture of their native lands, according to Rheba Boyles, Extension clothing specialist at Texas A&M University.

The environmental influences, the climate, the terrain are often portrayed in the designs of the fabric.

Paisley comes from ancient Persia via India and is named after a small town in Scotland where Indians shawls were beautifully copied in the 19th Century. Its characteristic motif is a highly stylized mango, though some insist it is copied after the pine cone.

Batik is a Javanese word meaning "wax painting." Designs and colors indicate the part of the country from which it comes and are based on objects in nature. Wax is applied with a pencil-like funnel to the areas where color is not desired. As the wax cools, tiny cracks occur, permitting the dye to make fine crisscross lines of color. The wax is removed while the dyes are set by immersing the cloth in boiling water.

The beautiful islands of Hawaii influence fabric designs which reflect the blue of the sky and sea and the colors of their native flowers. The use of these designs reflect the many-cultured population which includes Chinese, Japanese, Filipinos, Polynesians, Europeans and Americans.

The sun-drenched colors of Mexico come to life in colorful striped fabrics. The homespn appearance of the weave is reminiscent of the early looms and peasant handwork.

Cluny lace was perfected by monks in the Abbey of Cluny in France. The bobbin lace is made of linen and cotton thread, characterized by wheat or wheel designs on a coarse mesh. Today the lace is machine made, but it retains its destinctive quality.

African prints sport geometric patterns found in tribal roves throughout the continent. The highly woven intricate borders, some think, are historical records woven into the design. As in primitive design everywhere, great attention is paid to detail. Here the environment hues of soil and foliage influence color selection and motif.

Lillie HDC Has Picnic

The Lillie Home Demonstration Club met Friday, July 28 in Ellison Park for its annual picnic. Homemade ice cream and fried chicken were on the menu.

A short business meeting was held to elect new officers. They are Mrs. Haskel Manuel, president; Mrs. Melvin Seale, vice president; Mrs. A. M. Saunders, secretary and treasurer; and Mrs. Milton Bartlett, council delegate.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Mack Horton, Mrs. Geneva Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Langford, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Langford, Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Manuel, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. John Alf Thomas and La Vonda, Mr. and Mrs. Zook Thomas, Mrs. L. M. Bartlett, and Mr. and Mrs. George Younger of Amarillo.

Outdoor Cooking Is Cool Treat

COLLEGE STATION. — Outdoor cooking offers a cool summer for the homemaker who some years ago would have prepared the family meal over a hot stove.

And not only can the main dish be cooked out-of-doors on the grill, but accompanying vegetables can be prepared outside also, thanks to the convenience of aluminum foil.

Frances Reasonover, Extension foods and nutrition specialist at Texas A&M University, suggests piping hot roasting ears, baked sweet or Irish potatoes, tomatoes and onions or vegetable hobo packs to spruce up an outside meal.

Add salt, pepper, butter or margarine to the vegetables before cooking, with the exception of the baked potatoes. Cut tomatoes in half crosswise, season and place thin onion slice between the halves. The vegetable hobo pack consists of any frozen or canned vegetable.

Miss Reasonover suggests wrapping the food with a "drug store wrap". Bring the two sides of the aluminum foil evenly together at the top. Fold the two edges together until tight around the food. Fold each end toward the food until tight.

Take another sheet of aluminum foil the same size as the first; repeat process, making a triple layer around the food.

Place the pack directly in the coals. Avoid a flaming fire, says Miss Reasonover, except when using a reflector oven.

Cooking time, says the food and nut[illegible] specialist, is 15 to [illegible] the corn, de[illegible] 1 hour [illegible] minutes [illegible]ns; and [illegible]getables.

Mayhughs Hold Reunion Sunday

The family of Mrs. T. M. Mayhugh of Amarillo gathered in Wellington Sunday, August 6 for a reunion in the Hospitality Room of the Farm Bureau Building.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Minatrea, Shelia and Creg of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fletcher, Katrina and Chad, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Karns, Kari and Kyle, Mrs. Doug Wilmut and Gay Dawn, and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mayhugh, Tammy and Michael, all of Amarillo;

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Crawford, Carolyn and Craig, Mrs. Kenneth Bartlett, June and Joy, Mrs. Irvine Carrick, Joe, Jimmy and George, all of Hollis, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kirk, Gary and Mack of Elk City, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Mayhugh, Lahanda and Freddy, and Miss Tanya Horton.

Market Research Gets Involved

COLLEGE STATION. — The subtle and often intangible art of marketing is reaching out and borrowing from the sciences these days to better understand consumer bahvior.

Marketeers, says Dr. Bardin Nelson of the Texas A&M University Agricultural Economics and Sociology Department, are tapping the thinking of psychologists, sociologists, and even anthropologists. These people deal with what is called the behavioral sciences.

Researchers in marketing are enamored with such ideas as attitudes, motivation, learning theory and a consumer reaction known as equilibrium.

"For example, grocery chains spend thousands of dollars in socio-psychological research to determine what item as a 'loss leader' would be most likely to disturb the equilibrium of the housewife and bring her into their store," Nelson said.

To disturb the housewive's equilibrium means to peak her curiosity. An example of a loss leader are the coupons often handed out or mailed, offering price cuts on certain items. They are useful in getting people into the store or in announcing new products.

Nelson said many of the grocery chain loss leader offerings center on breakfast foods. Price deals on bacon have proven to be especially good equilibrium upsetters.

The field of behavioral sciences and image making has long been a favorite research area for Nelson. His findings have been printed and widely read.

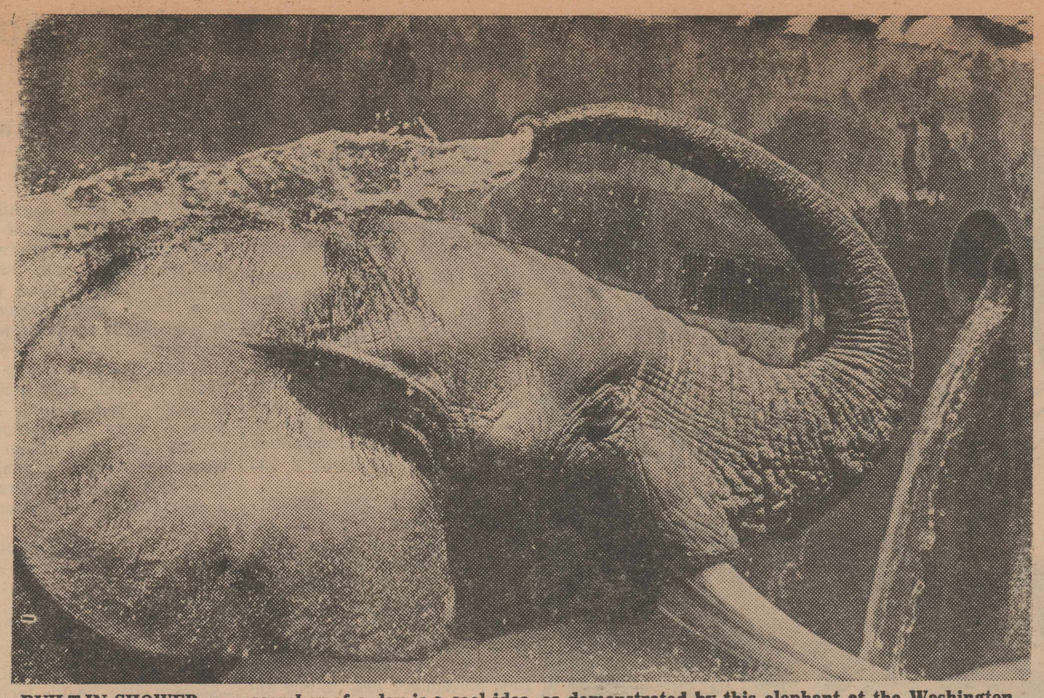

In 1962 he wrote "Seven Principles in Image Formation" for the Journal of Marketing. This same material was the basis for a chapter on imagery and symbolism in a book titled "Consumer Behavior and the Behavioral Sciences."

Nelson says many ways have been suggested through the years for market development, but most of the progress and major achievements have come from borrowing ideas from the sciences.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

The rules for representing in conferences with the Internal Revenue Service and at Tax Courts have varied over the years. Any lawyer or Certified Public Accountant can represent a taxpayer, when duly authorized, at an Internal Revenue Service conference.

Internal Revenue offers annually a special examination for other tax practitioners to qualify to represent taxpayers. This examination will be held during September. Practitioners can secure additional information from Special Examination Coordinator, P.O. Box 1738, Dallas, Texas 75221.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS
BY VERN SANFORD

There is a food problem for wildlife just as there is for humans.

Perhaps the most serious right now is providing food for deer. Their population is increasing.

Despite very liberal laws, hunters haven't been able to do much about reducing the herd.

Large areas of Texas which normally support both livestock and wildlife have had but little rain. Drouth has affected them. In agricultural areas, there has been heavy spring depredation and it is likely to get worse as the hot, dry weather continues. This fall it may be serious.

Texas' Parks and Wildlife Department now is looking for some practical plant that can be used to increase or supplement deer food supplies.

Dan Lay, one of the top biologists operating in East Texas, has been on the search for such a plant for several years. Deer population has increased materially in the piney woods country, but at the same time, considerable land has been utilized for other purposes. For instance, two major lakes already there and another one under construction have wiped out something like a quarter of a million acres of deer range.

Right now Lay is experimenting with yaupon, dwarf liveoak and Japanese honeysuckle. In the last four years he has researched more than 20 species of browse plants. He has found that a yaupon orchard, properly managed, will yield a ton of excellent browse per acre. Production of Japanese honeysuckle can exceed that figure.

Yaupon is an evergreen of the holly family. It is a branched shrub, with white-cluster blossoms that produce small berries, also good as bird food. Its growth, however, is slow.

Japanese honeysuckle has a vigorous, twining, woody vine, spreading 20 feet or more, with long-petal flowers. Deer are particularly fond of this plant as a food.

Both plants are fine for East Texas, where there is abundant rainfall. But in the Edwards Plateau and the Trans-Pecos areas, deer browse is another problem. Fortunately, many of the landowners, particularly those who lease shooting privileges, are willing to feed their deer as they do livestock. Some even go so far as to plant winter oats and turnip patches.

Since more and more landowners are recognizing that wildlife can be a crop, they are taking steps to insure that wildlife gets enough food.

Quite a bit of experimental work already has been done on the Kerr management areas, northwest of Kerrville. Here, there are pens with high fences, where deer, cattle and goats share a common area.

From these experiments, information is passed on to landowners who can use similar practices and propagation of necessary foods.

Thus while we have more wildlife, preserving it is getting to be more complicated, like everything else. This means landowners must get a fee for hunting privileges. Otherwise they can hardly afford to feed and care for the wildlife as it should be.

Wildlife comeback has been startling in some areas.

For instance, wild turkey are said to be practically taking over southern Coleman County. A dozen years ago it was impossible to find a turkey in the area. Some were transplanted there. They have good timber for nesting along the Colorado River bank and in other smaller stream beds. And there is room for them to range with a lot of native food .

Other food testing experiments also are being carried out in other ecological areas of the state. Clubs and landowners can cooperate with the game department in this planning.

No doubt about it—increasing wildlife population can mean a money crop for farmers and ranchers.

Visiting last week end with Mrs. R. L. Tenison were several members of the Winegeart family with whom she went to school in 1911 at Dozier. They were in Wellington for a family reunion. They are Mrs. Dovie Gilbreath and Mrs. Mabel Dorsey of Gainesville, Texas, Mrs. Myrtle Scarberry of Oklahoma City, Martin Winegeart, Mrs. Bertie Bean and Mrs. Biola Winegeart, all of Pampa.

Miss Lahonda Mayhugh spent two weeks in Amarillo recently visiting with relatives there.

Texas Farm and Ranch Values Still Increasing

COLLEGE STATION.—Texas farms and ranches continue to grow in size, value, and products sold, according to Tom E. Prater, Extension farm management specialist at Texas A&M University.

Farm and ranch value (buildings and land) reached $79,625 per farm or ranch in 1964 as compared to $51,707 per unit in 1959. The value of buildings and land has increased from $82.11 per acre in 1959 to $114.20 per acre in 1964.

Prater said the 1964 U. S. Census showed investment per farm or ranch in buildings and land alone exceeded $100,000 in 117 Texas counties. An investment of $200,00 was exceeded in 46 counties, and 14 counties exceeded an investment of $300,000 per farm or ranch for land and buildings.

The average size of the Texas farm or ranch increased 60 acres from 630.7 in 1959 to 690.9 in 1964.

Farm products sold in 1959 amounted to $2,108,880,646 as compared to $2,227,339,392 in 1964. The average per farm or ranch for 1959 was $9,306 and in 1964, $10,859.

Hale County sold $61,815,031 in farm or ranch products in 1964 to lead the state in total value of products sold. Other counties close to the top in farm and ranch products sold were Lubbock, Hidalgo, Lamb, Parmer, Castro, Deaf Smith, El Paso, Floyd, Wharton, Cameron and Swisher, Prater said.

HEAR IT NOW

The San Francisco attorney eloquently pleaded with the Board of Permit Appeals to restore the liquor license of a billiard parlor operated by two elderly brothers, whom he said were deaf.

The board, apparently swayed by the persuasive plea of the lawyer, unanimously granted the request of the brothers, who had stood mute during the hearing.

"But," added chairman Jas. Harvey, "if you ever come back here, you're out of luck. Understand?" "Yes, sir," the "deaf" brothers replied. The board members chuckled and granted the request anyway.

DELINQUENT CARE

Texas counties now are required to pay the fees of lawyers appointed to represent juveniles in proceedings to determine whether they will be tried as adults.

FREEDOM

County tax assessors in Texas are not authorized to require a taxpayer to use the tax rendition forms they prescribe.

Visiting this week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Caldwell, are Terri Lyn and Jimmy McGill, children of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McGill of Amarillo.

Dr. Dorothy Jane Holman, Patricia and Rebecca of San Diego, Calif., are spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Riggs.

After Memories Live, See the Progress Wellington Has Made

Wellington plays host this week to the largest group of out-of-towners to attend any gathering during the year—the former students of Wellington High School.

These men and women will come to visit two Wellingtons—one that lives so brightly in their memories, the other the town whose streets they will drive.

The first contains East Ward School, or an earlier school that was a proud two and a half stories tall, an educational landmark of this area.

On the other side of town was West Ward . . .

Beautiful homes and paved streets will not block the view of cotton fields that used to be there, for brick and asphalt are no barrier to the eye of memory. All of this will be bathed with the friendliness that was then, and still is, so much a part of Wellington.

We who remain here would enhance for you this Wellington that used to be. Such ties to the past are important in giving balance to today's living.

But while you are here, we invite you to see Wellington with the eye of the present. New churches have gone up in the last year. The school, which houses so many of your memories, is being updated and enlarged. Enjoy our handsome business section, our beautiful new homes. You will like the 1967 Wellington, too.

A New Worry

Are you looking for something new to worry about?

Maybe you have your hands full now what with the race riots in the Northern cities, the poor progress of the war in Vietnam, the rising cost of living, the juvenile delinquency, rock and roll racket, etc.

But in case you are caught up with worrying about these things, you might consider a new one.

Here's a worry that you have probably never thought of, and is guaranteed to stay fresh for at least three years: Germs from the moon.

American space scientists are concerned over the possibility that astronauts returning from a landing on the moon will bring back new strains of bacteria against which earth organisms will have no natural defenses.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration is so concerned, in fact, that it has build an $8.1 million sealed laboratory in which the returning spacemen will spend their first 18 days back on earth.

As things are now planned, the first moon explorers will make their return splash-down at sea, and will be transported in a sealed plane from the ship that picks them up directly to the laboratory. The welcoming speeches and parades will have to come later. Their space suit, also sealed, will be sent there with them.

Presumably, in the interest of remaining uncontaminated, these space men will be plucked from the sea by means of sterile tongs and plopped into a sterile container. How to keep the sea uncontaminated seems to us to be a problem yet unsolved.

It may seem to you that the moon has little to offer a germ, being extremely hot and extremely cold and without life as we know it. However, better be safe than sorry. Worry little now and avoid a big worry later, we always say.

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN, Tex.--One day after receiving a 40-year service award from the Texas Highway Commission, State Highway Engineer Dewitt C. Greer announced his retirement.

Greer reached the mandatory retirement age of 65 on July 27; but he agreed, at the behest of the Commission, to stay in the job until the end of the year.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, acting as governor while Connally hunts in Africa, called on Greer at his office to present him with a framed copy of a proclamation making August 4 "Dewitt C. Greer Day" in Texas.

A celebration commemorating the Highway Department's 50 years is slated for September 26. A highlight of the celebration will be presentation to Greer of funds donated to endow in his honor a lectureship at the Texas A&M Civil Engineering Department.

Greer, a graduate of A&M, went to work for the Highway Department in 1927 and became its top administrator in 1940. During his tenure as chief engineer, Greer has supervised the investment of more than $4,000,000,000 in a highway system that's grown from 20,359 miles to more than 68,000 during the past 27 years.

A former president of the American Association of State Highway Officials, Greer now serves on the organization's executive and legislative committees and has received its two highest honors for contributions to highway progress. In 1965, Texas Christian University made him an honorary Doctor of Laws. Texas A&M gave him its Distinguished Alumni Award in 1966.

SUCCESSOR NAMED -- Succeeding Greer on January 1 will be Asst. State Highway Engineer J. C. Dingwall who has been with the Department since 1928 except for the World War II years when he served in the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers and four years he spent as Engineer-Manager of the Texas Turnpike Authority, supervising the financing, design and construction of the $58,000,000 Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike.

Dingwall served as the Department's supervising urban engineer in Houston, overseeing construction of the Gulf Freeway -- the first major freeway built in Texas. He has been assistant state highway engineer since 1958.

In other Highway Department activity, Hal Woodward of Coleman was sworn in as chairman of the Highway Commission, and Herbert C. Petry Jr. of Carrizo Springs took the oath to begin an unprecedented third six-year term on the Commission.

Woodward, who succeeds Petry as chairman, was first named to the Commission in 1955.

PRICE-FIXING SUIT.—State of Texas has filed a price-fixing suit against five big drug firms.

Suit, entered in federal court at Dallas by Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin, seeks triple damages totaling about $12,000,000 from the producers of Aureomycin, terramycin and tetracycline products. Drugs involved are used to treat both human and animal diseases and as animal feed supplements.

According to Martin, the federal government already has an anti-trust suit pending against the same firms: Charles Pfizer and Co., Inc.; American Cyanamid Co.; Bristol-Myers Co.; Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp.; and the Upjohn Co.

Martin alleges that the drug manufacturers charged state and local governments "unreasonably high" prices for the antibiotics through a conspiracy to limit their manufacture and sale.

Furthermore, the attorney general contends, the firms' actions inflated prices to retail druggists, wholesalers, private hospitals and the consumer.

Martin estimated more than $3,000,000 has been spent by state and local governments alone between November, 1953, and November, 1966, to buy antibiotics for use in public-supported hospitals, schools and other institutions and health or welfare programs.

Other states are contemplating similar suits, Martin said, and state attorneys general will discuss the case at their conference in Portland, Ore., on August 29.

HEALTH GRANTS SOUGHT. —Seventy-sight health facilities have applied for federal Hill-Burton construction grants of more than $34,500,000, about twice as much as is expected to be available for Texas.

New 1968 Texas State Plan for Construction and Modernization of Hospitals and Related Medical Facilities now is available for review at the State Department of Health.

Hill-Burton Act provides funds to help finance construction and modernization of general hospitals and long-term facilities, diagnostic or treatment centers, rehabilitation facilities, tuberculosis hospitals and public health centers.

Dr. J. E. Peavy, State Commissioner of Health, said the 1968 plan indicates ever-increasing use of health facilities.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

A big poll-taking outfit finds out what all 200,000,000 Americans think by asking just a few of us.

They have got it scientifically figured that each of the 1,500 people they interview has got exactly the same opinion as 133,333 other citizens, which saves bothering to ask 199,998,500 folks what they think.

If this system is really reliable, we could save a heap of money and politics, and have a more repreesntative government, by washing out Washington and appointing these 1500 sample thinkers as a committee to run the country.

Texas Farm Income Up 15 Percent

Texas farmers and ranchers received $2,128 million during the Jan.-Oct. 1966 period from the sale of all crops, livestock and livestock products. The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service said cash receipts were up 15% from the same period a year before and that the total for the 1966 period included cash receipts of $1,152 million from livestock and livestock products and $975 million from crops.

LETTERS from the People

Dear Editor:

Unfortunately, I haven't any ". . .non-famous artist neighbor. . .," with whom I speak each week about what our government should and should not be doing. Even so, in regard to Mr. D. E. Scott's recent column, I should like to state my personal opinion as to the persons who I think are contributing to the cause of Communism by giving money to the North Vietnamese. I believe that such persons are entirely lacking in patriotism. They are, to my way of thinking, aiding in the deaths of American soldiers. I really don't see anything to brag about in such action.

There is one question that I should like to ask Mr. Scott. Just what is an "ultra-patriot"? I think that the United States at this time needs quite a bit of patroitism, which, unfortunately, seems at a rather shamefully low level in those persons who give money to North Vietnam.

Boys Ranch Plans Rodeo Sept. 3, 4

The 348 boys at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch are expecting a new attendance record to be set at their 23rd annual rodeo this year, and additional seats have been installed to accommodate the crowds over the Labor Day week end.

Last year, nearly 9,000 attended the two-day event, and an additional 500 seats have been erected at the north end of the rodeo arena. Dates for the rodeo are Sunday, Sept. 3 and Monday, Sept. 4 at 2:30 p.m.

All of the 348 boys will have a part in the rodeo with nearly 100 riding for awards and honors. Ranchers who do not ride will be serving as ushers, helping in the parking area, working at concession stands, or helping around the chutes.

Giant-size barbecue beef sandwiches will be prepared and served by Ranchers who are learning meat cutting and cooking as their future vocations for spectators and visitors who arrive early to picnic.

The climax of the rodeo, the largest Labor Day event in the Texas Panhandle, will be the naming of the Junior and Senior All-Round Cowboys, two of the highest honors that can be earned by the boys. Professional rodeo stock will be used in the bull-riding and bareback bronc events, and a special stick-horse race will be featured for the four- to six-year-olds.

Tickets for either performance are available in advance from the Boys Ranch office, Box 1890, Amarillo. Reserved box seats are 2.50, general admission is $1.50, and servicemen's and children's tickets are 75¢. All proceeds will be used for future expansion of the Ranch.

City Teachers Attend CTC

Mrs. Les White and Mrs. Byron Duncan, Wellington elementary teachers, were among 300 persons who gathered Aug. 3 - 5 for a State Classroom Teachers Conference in Austin.

A highlight of the leadership conference was a banquet, featuring Dr. John W. McFarland, Dean of the College of Education at the University of Texas at El Paso, who spoke on "Our Commitment to the Profession."

The conference emphasized laws and acts recently passed by the State Legislature dealing with schools and teachers. Jack H. Kleinmann, special services director of the National Education Association, spoke on "Professional Negotiations and Sanctions."

Mrs. White termed the conference "very helpful and very informative."

Cats Take First Loss

Wellington's Black Cats baseball team was defeated 6 to 3 on Sunday, Aug. 3 at Marian Airpark diamond, by an all-Spanish team from Vernon and Crowell. It was the Cats' first loss this year.

Bill Spillman pitched the full nine innings for Wellington and Ray and Lupe Santo shared pitching duties for Vernon.

The Cats play next Sunday, Aug. 20, at Vernon.

Fire Household Employee's Tax

The Internal Revenue folks point out that thousands of American housewives are tax law violators.

These ladies consider themselves community leaders and law-abiding citizens, but fall into the trap of becoming tax law violators by failing to file a household employee's tax return on ther maid.

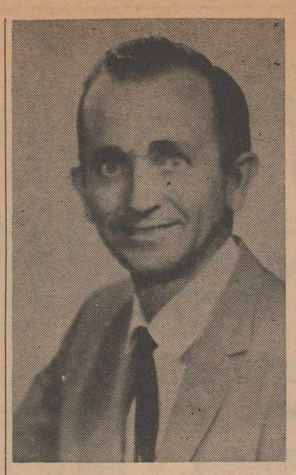

There is also a large group who forget to file a household employee's return on the high school boy next door who mows the lawn.

If you employ household or yard help, you should get a copy of Circular H from Internal Revenue and see whether you owe social security tax on these employees or not.

SCHOLASTIC DEFERMENTS MANDATORY UPON REQUEST

AUSTIN. — Scohlastic deferment of undergraduate college and university students who meet the requirements of the new draft regulations now is mandatory upon the request of the students.

This was the official advice of Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director to the state's 155 draft boards.

Class ranking and test scores in the consideration of student deferments is now "officially immaterial," Col. Schwartz said.

The state Selective Service director said he has advised all college and university registrars that "rank-in-class information is no longer needed in the administration" of the Selective Service law.

Draft boards have been advised officially not to request any student or school in the future to furnish class-rank data.

The boards have been advised officially by Col. Schwartz to reopen the classification of qualified undergraduate college students now classified in 1-A as available for military service, even though they may be under induction orders.

To be qualified, the student must be under 24 years old and must be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction toward a baccalaureate degree.

"Such a student must be considered as qualifying even though he may be in summer vacation at this time," Col. Schwartz said.

"Also, to qualify," he continued, "such a student must have requested deferment in Class 2-S after July 1, 1967."

The state director said that, in cases where these students have not requested deferment, he has advised local boards to postpone induction to give them an opportunity to request it. These students will be advised that their induction orders will be cancelled if scholastic deferment is requested immediately.

An undergraduate student now eligible for statutory deferment must continue satisfactorily to pursue a full-time course of instruction in order to remain eligible, Col. Schwartz pointed out.

"If he does," the state director said, "he is deferred by law until he completes the requirements for his baccalaureate degree, or reaches his 24th birthday, whichever occurs first."

The new regulations governing the deferment of undergraduate students define a student's "academic year," Col. Schwartz said. The regulations state that "a student's 'academic year' shall include the 12-month period following the beginning of his course of study."

The regulations also describe the conditions under which a student "shall be deemed to be 'satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction,' " the state draft director pointed out.

"A student pursuing a four-year course," Col. Schwartz said, "should have earned 25% of the credits required for his baccalaureate degree at the end of his first academic year, 50% at the end of his second, and 75% at the end of his third.

"In the case of a baccalaureate degree for which five years of study are prescribed by the institution," he continued, "a student should earn 20% each year of the total credits required for the degree."

The student, under the new regulations, will have the duty of providing his local draft board each year with evidence that he is satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction at his college or university.

New Draft Form Ready for Students

AUSTIN.—A new draft form on which undergraduate college students can request deferment has been furnished draft boards Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said last week.

Undergraduates must request deferment under the new Military Selective Service Act of 1967 after the date of its enactment, June 30, in order to be deferred.

The form, titled "Request for Undergraduate Student Deferment (SSS Form 104)," reproduces pertinent provisions of Section 6 of the law dealing with student deferments.

On the form the student states his understanding of the provisions of law printed on the form, states he is pursuing a full-time college course, and asks for deferment in Class II-S, then signs the form. The blank forms may be secured from local boards.

Col. Schwartz said that requests for deferment could be made by ordinary letter, too.

"The form is for the convenience of students," he declared. "It will help them understand what the law provides."

Deferment of undergraduates in Class II-S is mandatory if they are full time and satisfactory, under 24 years old, and request deferment.

To be satisfactory, a student must make normal progress toward his baccalaureate degree. For example, in a four-year course, he will be expected to earn 25% of his credits in the 12 months following the beginning of each year.

Cattle Lice Occur in Texas

Cattle lice occur widely in Texas. They reduce gain, and lower body resistance to other diseases. Normally lice infections are light in the summer and fall, but increase during the cold season.

Regular inspection of cattle is suggested. If lice are found, cattle should be treated with an approved spray or dip.

Chinese Ringnecks Producing Chicks on Gulf Coast

LA PORTE.—Wildlife biologists of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department are hopeful but not as yet overy optimistic about Chinese ringneck pheasants stocked in Jackson and Matagorda Counties on the Texas Gulf Coast.

Landowners in the two counties have reported seeing birds with broods of chicks at both the release sites and the surrounding areas, according to Game Warden R. C. Nichols of Bay City.

Some 600 pheasants, one-half wild trapped in Sacramento Valley, California, and one-half pen-raised, have been stocked in the two counties since 1964. Biologists now estimate the population to be more than 1,000 pheasants.

High School Too Late to Prevent Student Dropout

AUSTIN.—After the seventh grade, any attempt to prevent students from dropping out of school is "shutting the barn door after the horse has escaped," in the majority of cases.

That is the conclusion drawn by Dr. Harl R. Douglass of Boulder, Colo., a former education professor who is now a consultant and investigator on secondary education, in a research bulletin of the Texas Study of Secondary Education. with headquarters at the University of Texas.

Dr. Douglass' booklet, "Important Current Trends in Quality Secondary Schools," says it has become increasingly recognized that the potential dropout and the underachiever as well as the very bright and creative child should be identified as early as possible, "certainly not later than the seventh grade."

The majority of most likely dropouts, he reports, have developed in the primary and intermediate grades "very unfortunate attitudes toward school, school subjects, teachers and parents."

Dr. Douglass explained that more than half of the dropouts who return to school never graduate—"apparently it was too little and too late."

"Most of these students need to have special training, and some of them need to be put in sections for dull students and special counselors assigned to them," he said, pointing out that there "is a strong trend" to have returned dropouts enrolled in area or regional vocational schools.

"In dealing with underachievers, potential dropouts, returned dropouts and with problem bright boys and girls, high grade counseling has proven to be a must," Dr. Douglass said.

"In the schools in which best results are obtained, counselors give more attention to the needs of individual students in helping with the selection of subjects to enroll for and in making assignments of these deviate students to the most competent and sympathetic teachers with appropriate personalities."

In his opinion, most potential dropouts and underachievers have inferior reading abilities which lead to poor grades and bad attitudes toward school, teachers, parents and themselves.

Next to improvement in reading, Dr. Douglass lists three important areas in which poor students can be helped:

—See that the potential dropout "belongs" in the sense that he is involved in various clubs, activities and the social life of the school.

—See that he is given a feeling that teachers are as much interested in him as in other students.

—See that he is scheduled for a combination work-study program in which he spends part of the day in work for school credit either at school or at some occupation in the community under the diversified occupation and distributive education plan.

Dr. Douglass, who has been a consultant to more than 60 schools in 21 states since 1960, develops a number of trends in secondary schools, including curriculum and instruction and staff, organization, accreditation and housing.

Copies of the publication, Research Bulletin No. 42, are available at $2 each from Mrs. Margaret B. Matthaei, secretary, The Texas Study of Secondary Education, 213 Sutton Hall, The University of Texas, Austin, Texas 78712.

SALT FORK SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

By Stephen Qualls

FOUR QUESTIONS TO ANSWER

How can we be sure we are getting maximum income from our rangeland? There are four questions we can ask ourselves to answer this question.

First, are we using the proper kind of stock?

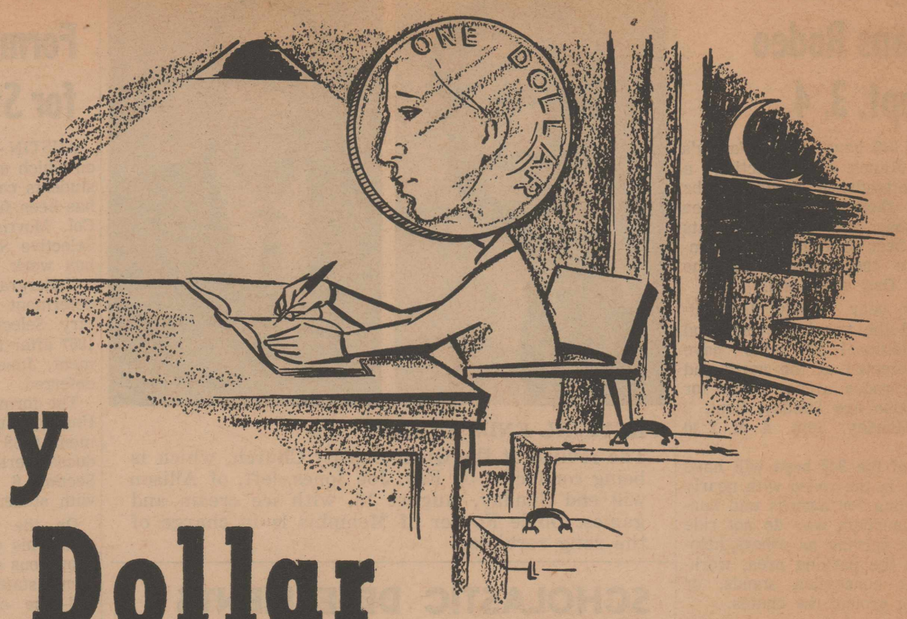

Second, are we grazing during the proper season of the year?

Third, are we getting proper distribution?

Fourth, are we using the safe stocking rate?

Range management involves all of these management tools. They have to be working in harmony before we obtain top production, and as a result the maximum income from our rangelands.

Personnel of the Soil Conservation Service will assist you in planning your ranch to obtain maximum benefits.

The Diary of a Dollar

It has been a busy day. Early this morning I was swapped for some medicine for his baby by a young fellow who got me in exchange for farm produce.

• The druggist gave me to the boy who sweeps out for him, and the boy spent me to get his suit cleaned and pressed for the school party tonight.

• The cleaner took me and some of my brothers and paid his school taxes. I was in the bank only a few minutes when a school teacher cashed her pay check and I started around town again.

• Before the day ended I had changed hands twenty times, and had put $20 worth of goods and service into people's hands . . . had accounted for $20 worth of trade volume in the community, and had been in one poker game. Not a bad day's work for one little old dollar.

• I'd like to hang around this nice community for a while longer. But I wound up the day in the hands of a city-shopper. Tomorrow I'll be on my way to go to work for city folks. It seems that some people want to get us dollars out of their sight and reach . . . maybe for fear we'll make their community a better place to live.

If five years of study are prescribed by the school for a bachelor's degree in some field, a student must earn 20% of the total credits toward the degree each year.

Great Plains Story Tells of Conservation

By JON LA BAUME
Wellington SCS Office

The Great Plains has long experienced soil and water problems because of its environment. To provide a means of minimizing the hazards of farming and ranching caused by the erratic climate, a program of conservation for the Great Plains area was authorized by public law 1021, 84th Congress.

The objective of the program is to assist farmers and ranchers in developing and carrying out on a voluntary basis a plan of operations that will bring about greater stability through cropping and grazing systems. Land use changes and the application of enduring soil and water conservation practices will also bring about a greater degree of stability in the Great Plains area. This program is based on the concept of needed cropping and grazing systems and land use changes plus soil and water conservation practices in proper combinations to solve conservation problems on the entire farm or ranch.

The law passed by the 84th Congress authorized cost share payments to cooperators for those needed practices to control soil and water loss. Range seeding, pasture planting, waterway development and vegetation are cost shared on an 80% basis; terraces (conventional and parallel), and diversions are cost shared on a 70% basis; brush control, ponds and livestock wells and troughs are cost shared on a 50% basis.

Since the program began, farmers and ranchers in the Salt Fork SCD have developed 255 contracts.

Twenty-eight contracts were developed during the 1966 fiscal year. Due to the shortage of funds this year and due to more and more people using the Great Plains Conservation Program to solve soil and water problems, probably no contracts will be accepted after Jan. 1. If anyone is thinking about solving soil and water problems by using the GPCP, they need to contact the local Soil Conservation Service office in the very near future whereby funds will be available to solve such soil and water problems on their farm or ranch.

If one needs any information about the Great Plains program, contact the local SCS office or your district supervisor.

Sweet News for Texans

Beekeepers in Texas, on July 1 had an estimated 234,000 colonies of bees, 2% less than a year ago.

These colonies, said the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, will produce the 1967 honey crop and the number ranks third in the nation. Condition of colonies on July 1 averaged 75% of normal and nectar plants 68% of normal.

The relatively low condition of the colonies and nectar plants was attributed to the dry spring and summer weather in many areas of the state.

There are more than 4,000 collectors of clocks in the nation.

NUMBER THREE ON THE BALLOT

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 17 proposing an amendment to Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, so as to authorize an increase in the total amount of bonds or obligations that may be issued by the Veterans' Land Board to Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000); providing for the issuance of said bonds or obligations and the conditions relating thereto and the use of the Veterans' Land Fund; and providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so that the same will hereafter read as follows:

"Section 49-b. By virtue of prior Amendments to this Constitution, there has been created a governmental agency of the State of Texas performing governmental duties which has been designated the Veterans' Land Board. Said Board shall continue to function for the purposes specified in all of the prior Constitutional Amendments except as modified herein. Said Board shall be composed of the Commissioner of the General Land Office and two (2) citizens of the State of Texas, one (1) of whom shall be well versed in veterans' affairs and one (1) of whom shall be well versed in finances. One (1) such citizen member shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, be appointed biennially by the Governor to serve for a term of four (4) years; but the members serving on said Board on the date of adoption hereof shall complete the terms to which they were appointed. In the event of the resignation or death of any such citizen member, the Governor shall appoint a replacement to serve for the unexpired portion of the term to which the deceased or resigning member had been appointed. The compensation for said citizen members shall be as is now or may hereafter be fixed by the Legislature; and each shall make bond in such amount as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by the Legislature.

"The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall act as Chairman of said Board and shall be the administrator of the Veterans' Land Program under such terms and restrictions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law. In the absence or illness of said Commissioner, the Chief Clerk of the General Land Office shall be the Acting Chairman of said Board with the same duties and powers that said Commissioner would have if present.

"The Veterans' Land Board may provide for, issue and sell not to exceed Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund, Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) of which have heretofore been issued and sold. Such bonds or obligations shall be sold for not less than par value and accrued interest; shall be issued in such forms, denominations, and upon such terms as are now or may hereafter be provided by law; shall be issued and sold at such times, at such places, and in such installments as may be determined by said Board; and shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by said Board but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds may not exceed four and one-half per cent (4½%). All bonds or obligations issued and sold hereunder shall, after execution by the Board, approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser or purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas; and all bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board are hereby in all respects validated and declared to be general obligations of the State of Texas. In order to prevent default in the payment of principal or interest on any such bonds, the Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient amount to pay the same.

"In the sale of any such bonds or obligations, a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various Teacher Retirement Funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Permanent School Funds.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund shall consist of any lands heretofore or hereafter purchased by said Board, until the sale price therefor, together with any interest and penalties due, have been received by said Board (although nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said Board from accepting full payment for a portion of any tract), and of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board which moneys so attributable shall include but shall not be limited to the proceeds from the issuance and sale of such bonds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with such proceeds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with other moneys attributable to such bonds; the interest and penalties received from the sale or resale of such lands, or rights therein; the bonuses, income, rents, royalties, and any other pecuniary benefit received by said Board from any such lands; sums received by way of indemnity or forfeiture for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any such bonds to comply with his bid and accept and pay for such bonds or for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any lands comprising a part of said Fund to comply with his bid and accept and pay for any such lands; and interest received from investments of any such moneys. The principal and interest on the bonds heretofore and hereafter issued by said Board shall be paid out of the moneys of said Fund in conformance with the Constitutional provisions authorizing such bonds; but the moneys of said Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on such bonds, the purchase of lands as herein provided, or the payment of expenses as herein provided may be invested in bonds or obligations of the United States until such funds are needed for such purposes.

"All moneys comprising a part of said Fund and not expended for the purposes herein provided shall be a part of said Fund until there are sufficient moneys therein to retire fully all of the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board, at which time all such moneys remaining in said Fund, except such portion thereof as may be necessary to retire all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and retained in said Fund for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All moneys becoming a part of said Fund thereafter shall likewise be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

"When a Division of said Fund (each Division consisting of the moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to a single Constitutional authorization and the lands purchased therewith) contains sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division, the moneys thereof, except such portion as may be needed to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division which portion shall be set aside and remain a part of such Division for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, may be used for the purpose of paying the principal and the interest thereon, together with the expenses herein authorized, of any other bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board. Such use shall be a matter for the discretion and direction of said Board; but there may be no such use of any such moneys contrary to the rights of any holder of any of the bonds issued and sold by said Board or violative of any contract to which said Board is a party.

"The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by said Board for the purpose of purchasing lands situated in the State of Texas owned by the United States or any governmental agency thereof, owned by the Texas Prison System or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas, or owned by any person, firm, or corporation. All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, to be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of said Fund. Such lands heretofore or hereafter purchased and comprising a part of said Fund are hereby declared to be held for a governmental purpose, although the individual purchasers thereof shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as are purchasers of lands dedicated to the Permanent Free Public School Fund.

"The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by said Board in such quantities, on such terms, at such prices, at such rates of interest and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law to veterans who served not less than ninety (90) continuous days, unless sooner discharged by reason of a service-connected disability, on active duty in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard or Marine Corps of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, and who, upon the date of filing his or her application to purchase any such land is a citizen of the United States, is a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, and has not been dishonorably discharged from any branch of the Armed Forces abovenamed and who at the time of his or her enlistment, induction, commissioning, or drafting was a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, or who has resided in Texas at least five (5) years prior to the date of filing his or her application. The foregoing notwithstanding, any lands in the Veterans' Land Fund which have been first offered for sale to veterans and which have not been sold may be sold or resold to such purchasers, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund, to the extent of the moneys attributable to any bonds hereafter issued and sold by said Board may be used by said Board, as is now or may hereafter be provided by law, for the purpose of paying the expenses of surveying, monumenting, road construction, legal fees, recordation fees, advertising and other like costs necessary or incidental to the purchase and sale, or resale, of any lands purchased with any of the moneys attributable to such additional bonds, such expenses to be added to the price of such lands when sold, or resold, by said Board; for the purpose of paying the expenses of issuing, selling, and delivering any such additional bonds; and for the purpose of meeting the expenses of paying the interest or principal due or to become due on any such additional bonds.

"All of the moneys attributable to any series of bonds hereafter issued and sold by said Board (a 'series of bonds' being all of the bonds issued and sold in a single transaction as a single installment of bonds) may be used for the purchase of lands as herein provided, to be sold as herein provided, for a period ending eight (8) years after the date of sale of such series of bonds; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on bonds hereafter issued and sold shall be set aside for that purpose in accordance with the resolution adopted by said Board authorizing the issuance and sale of such series of bonds. After such eight (8) year period, all of such moneys shall be set aside for the retirement of any bonds hereafter issued and sold and to pay interest thereon, together with any expenses as provided herein, in accordance with the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance and sale of such additional bonds, until there are sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds hereafter issued and sold, at which time all such moneys then remaining a part of said Veterans' Land Fund and thereafter becoming a part of said Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein.

"This Amendment being intended only to establish a basic framework and not to be a comprehensive treatment of the Veterans' Land Program, there is hereby reposed in the Legislature full power to implement and effectuate the design and objects of this Amendment, including the power to delegate such duties, responsibilities, functions, and authority to the Veterans' Land Board as it believes necessary.

"Should the Legislature enact any enabling laws in anticipation of this Amendment, no such law shall be void by reason of its anticipatory nature.

"This Amendment shall become effective upon its adoption."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on November 11, 1967, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the amendment to extend the Veterans' Land Program by authorizing the sale of bonds to increase the Veterans' Land Fund for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, which amendment would amend Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, and provide for an additional $200,000,000 in bonds, such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

"AGAINST the amendment to extend the Veterans' Land Program by authorizing the sale of bonds to increase the Veterans' Land Fund for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, which amendment would amend Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, and provide for an additional $200,000,000 in bonds, such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

This is the week of the ex-students reunion in Wellington. Welcome home. We would have liked for the construction on the school building to have been at a more advanced stage; but it is far enough along that the visitors can get a good idea of how it will look when the remodeling and the new construction are completed. The main building will have a familiar look gazing down West Avenue; but the interior is not going to be the same or seem the same.

★ ★ ★

For a quarter of a century Texans have agreed that this state had the best highway system in the nation and of course that meant in the world. One reason was that this department was kept out of politics entirely as far as the career people were concerned. The other reason was and is Dewitt C. Greer, state highway engineer, who is retiring at the end of this year.

★ ★ ★

The awesome and endless system of Texas highways stands as a living monument to the dedication and versatility of Dewitt C. Greer. He insisted on excellence and he got it and it follows that there can be no excellence without honest work and he got that too. His qualities of leadership were of such a calibre that people seldom thought of the steel just below the surface of this very human man; but everyone knew it was there. It had to be for him to accomplish such a monumental task. The people of Texas will continue to treasure the memory of Dewitt Greer as one of the state's great men — an honest and able public servant.

★ ★ ★

The people of the world receive a tremendous amount of their food from the sea; but up to the middle of this century food from the sea came as a result of hunting just as man formerly hunted for elk, deer, wild pig and all manner of fowls. Now he farms the land and raises domesticated cattle, hogs, chickens as well as vegetables and fruits. From now on you will hear more about farming the seas and the waterways.

★ ★ ★

You have read about the tremendous increase in the production of oysters and other mussels by fertilization, planting, and careful harvesting. Now the scientists intend to enlarge their activities to include raising larger fish. A man named Lauren Donaldson of the University of Washington started experimenting with salmon some twenty years ago. He started raising Chinook salmon in ponds and dumped them in lakes so they made their way through Puget Sound to the open sea. He dug ditches from the lakes to the ponds and in four years the salmon returned to the lake and sought out their individual ponds. By selective breeding he now has these salmon returning to breed in two years.

★ ★ ★

They are also talking about weeding and fencing the undesirable food and plant life from the sea in order that the more nourishing varieties may thrive better. For instance Frank Hester of the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries suggests the use of marine animals as "sheepdogs" to tend fish. Hester also suggests that killer whales might be trained to herd schools of blue whales.

★ ★ ★

Listen to this you cattle growers and feeders: A blue whale doubles its birth weight in a week and it grows from two tons to twenty in six months. If you want to compare it with a Hereford or Angus that is a gain of about 200 pounds a day and the blue whale is nearly all red meat. If the killer whales can't do the job Gifford Pinchot suggests raising them in lagoons and harvesting the meat when the red blooded animal reaches its adult weight of 130 tons. That is a lot of beef.

★ ★ ★

It is progress like this above that makes me glad I do not have to start to college again. I prefer to stay at home and read Moby Dick.

A special election was called by the City Council for Tuesday, Sept. 26 when Wellington voters will name a councilman to fill the unexpired term of Mack Bush.

Mr. Bush resigned at the council meeting July 16, as he has accepted a new position in Canyon and is moving to that city.

Candidates wishing to file for a place on the ballot may contact Russell Yates, city secretary.

Shoes Issued

Skyrocket Work-Outs Begin on August 14

Forty pairs of Skyrocket shoes were issued Monday morning, Aug. 7, and Wellington's football team is spending the rest of this week working out, running and conditioning themselves on their own.

Two-a-day workouts will begin Monday, Aug. 14 and continue until the opening of the playing season, the new Rocket coach, Thayne Amonett, has announced.

Coach and boys are still getting acquainted but Amonett expressed his philosophy for the season ahead when he said it is his hope that boys, coach and the people of Wellington can work together as a unit.

Beginning Monday, there will be a workout at 8 a.m., and a hard workout and skull practice late in the evening, with the boys getting on the field about 7 to 7:30 p.m.

Sports fans were invited by the coach to come out and watch the Rockets work out.

It will be several weeks yet before Coach Amonett can indicate any starters on the 1967 Skyrocket team.

"I will need to take a look at these boys to know who may be the ones to fill the positions," he said. But he emphasized the importance of those boys who are not starters.

"It is always necessary to have the others to stand by and be ready to go in at any time," he declared. "Competition for position means a great deal toward making for a good team, along with the attitude of the entire club. It seems that these boys are very enthusiastic about turning out a winning club."

Coach Amonett has mailed letters to prospective players that he knows about, but if any boy failed to get a letter and wants to play football, the Rocket coach urged him to come out.

"Regardless of whether a boy is a starter or on the third team, he is as important as the next one. It is necessary to have all those boys to make a good team."

Coach Amonett's Brother Dies

Posey Amonett, 60, of Ralls, died of a heart attack about 2:30 p.m. Monday, July 31, shortly after he entered Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

He was a brother of Wellington Coach Thayne Amonett and was stricken after noon Monday. He had fixed a flat tire on his car shortly before this.

Coach and Mrs. Amonett were attending the Texas High School Coaches Association meeting in San Antonio when he was notified of his brother's death.

Funeral services were conducted at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 2 at the Church of Christ in Ralls and burial was in the Ralls Cemetery.

Mr. Amonett was an enthusiastic sportsman and followed the career of Coach Amonett's teams eagerly, wherever they might be playing in regional or state competiiton. He had planned to attend some of the Wellington games this year.

He is survived by his wife, three daughters and a son.
