Bob Price Speaks Here on April 17

U.S. Representative Bob Price will be in Wellington Wednesday, April 17, for a "listening session" - when all county residents will have an opportunity to speak out on what concerns them.

The meeting will be in the Heritage Room, beginning at 2:00 p.m. It will last about an hour and a half or two hours.

This is one of a series of visits Congressman Price has planned for the 13th District of Texas, a trip that will take him from Dalhart in the northwest to Wichita Falls in the southeast.

David Baumgardner is in charge of plans for the Wellington visit.

This will be a non-partisan, open-to-the-public town hall meeting.

It will be a listening session on the part of the congressman, his Washington office said.

Thorough Clean-up Slated by City, County, C-C in Early May

Wellington will have its most thorough cleaning of recent years as Clean-Up Week is staged jointly by the City, County and Chamber of Commerce.

The date of Monday, May 6, through Friday, May 10, was set in a meeting of the board of directors early this week.

Mayor Bill Hatch told the group that city equipment will work the entire week picking up rubbish and other items that local residents want to dispose of.

The Commissioners Court volunteered the county's trucks and loader for one or two days, or longer if needed, unless it rains and the equipment has to be on the roads. The specific dates for the county vehicles to work will be announced.

Serving with Mr. Hatch on the Clean-up committee are Garner Altom and Tommy Thomas.

Community Pride Awards will be presented this year for the first time to the residential occupant and the business house doing the best job of cleaning up. They will be judged by a committee appointed by President Charles Floyd.

In order to qualify for the awards, the residential occupant must notify the Chamber of Commerce office that he wishes to compete, and this must be done before the start of Clean-Up Week May 6, Mr. Altom said.

It was emphasized that this year, trash and rubbish must be piled in the alley if it is to be hauled away. But Mayor Hatch added that anything in the alley is going to be hauled away, and if residents have things there they don't want to lose, they should get them back onto their property.

In other business, the Chamber of Commerce agreed to endorse a north-south farm to market road for a future program. This was upon the request of Carroll Watts. The present FM Road 2531 begins on FM 338, three miles southeast of Wellington, and extends south almost three miles. The proposed road would begin at that point and run south to connect with US 62, the Hollis Highway.

Much of the new section would be two miles east of US 83. The road is already included in one of the county's future FM road programs.

The Rev. Bill Rushing, pastor of Samnorwood Baptist Church, spoke, requesting closer working relations between the communities. He spoke of the advantages of living at Samnorwood, and said there are mobile home locations available with utilities at Norwood, as well as several vacant houses. These could take care of some of the overflow from Wellington's tight housing situation, he proposed.

SENATOR MAX SHERMAN

Sherman to Serve as Governor for a Day

The seat of Texas government will move to the Texas Panhandle on Saturday, April 27, when State Senator Max Sherman of Amarillo is sworn in as Governor of Texas for a day. Sherman, who is presently serving as President Pro Tempore of the Senate, is second in line to succeed to the governorship and will be sworn in to this position when the Governor and the Lt. Governor are absent from the State.

The festive inaugural day will be marked with many events in the Panhandle that are designed to give as many people as possible a chance to visit with the Governor and his family. The day will begin with a Prayer Breakfast at the Polk Street Methodist Church at 7:30 a.m. at which Supreme Court Justice Tom Reavley will be the speaker. The Inauguration will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the Bivins Library with Judge James G. Denton performing the swearing-in of the Governor, and Sen. A.M. Aikin, Jr., serving as master of ceremonies. This will be followed at 10:30 a.m. by the Greater Southwest Music Festival Parade of which Governor Sherman will be Parade Marshal.

Following a press conference at 11 o'clock, there will be a luncheon honoring the Governor and his family at the Villa Inn. The Governor and his party will then depart Amarillo for a 4 p.m. dedication of an historical marker at the Frank Phillips College in Borger. A reception at the College library will follow the dedication.

Senator Sherman said he hopes that having the ceremonies in the Panhandle will "allow so many more of my constituents from Senatorial District 31 to join with us on this happy occasion." All citizens are invited, and Sen. Sherman has said he hopes "as many of them as possible can attend the inaugural events that are designed to pay tribute to the Panhandle and its people."

Hostesses at the Class of '64 reunion are the two class mothers, Mrs. Oneta DePauw, and Mrs. Annie Russell, who now lives at Willow, Oklahoma. Assisting will be Mrs. David Peters.

The afternoon will be given over entirely to visiting and reminiscing, and refreshments will be served.

This class had 17 members who graduated, but it was an even larger class during the freshman year. Some moved away, and several girls married before graduating.

The graduates and their present addresses, insofar as the reunion workers can determine, include:

Johnny Carson of Pampa; Kirby Word of Houston; Carroll Kennedy of Lelia Lake; Dwight Burns of Lubbock; Mike Mitchell of Orlando, Florida; Lonnie Brim of Beaumont; Agatha Wright, now Mrs. Dean Johnson of Wheeler; Dwane Campbell of Arlington;

Robert Russell of Amarillo; Eddie McGill of Childress; Jackie DePauw, now Mrs.

Junior FHA Plans Bike-Hike Saturday

The Junior Chapter of the Future Homemakers of Wellington is organizing a benefit to raise funds for the mentally retarded of Texas. This campaign, part of the 1974 "National Hike-Bike for the Retarded" is an effort to draw attention to the needs of our mentally retarded children and adults, and to raise funds for their programs.

The Hike-Bike campaign calls on volunteer citizens to either hike or bike (or ride a horse) for the retarded, over a measured course. Businesses and individuals are asked to pledge so much per mile for each mile walked or ridden by the participants.

The Hike-Bike will take place on Saturday, April 20 at 10:00 a.m. starting at the Homemaking Department. The participants are asked to bring sack lunches. The lunches will be taken to a set place and iced tea will be furnished when the volunteers stop for lunch.

The route will be set at a later date. Check points will

All Incumbent School Board Members Return

All incumbent school board members whose terms expire this year were re-elected in balloting Saturday, April 6.

At Wellington, B.M. Sims, with 366 votes, and V.K. Orr, Jr., with 332, were re-elected. The third candidate, David Caison, polled 72 votes. A total of 399 votes were cast, including five write-in votes.

The unusually heavy vote was attributed to the election's being held in the same room as the city election.

At Quail, where 12 votes were cast, Dan Guthrie and Lonnie Needham received 12 votes each and Delbert White 11. Three places were to be filled. There were no write-ins.

The two candidates at Samnorwood were re-elected, with Joe F. Knoll receiving 17 votes and Marvin Knoll 15. There was one write-in.

Fund Grant Finances CAC Until May 31

Supporting a vocational training program for 1,815 enrollees is one of the projects financed through an Office of Economic Opportunity grant that Governor Dolph Briscoe announced Friday.

The $93,468 grant to Texas Panhandle Community Action Corporation in Amarillo contains $19,437 for administration and $74,031 for General Community Programming. Funded under Title II of the Economic Opportunity Act, the grant is effective retroactively from March 1 through May 31, 1974.

Argus Burnett, executive director of Texas Panhandle Community Action Corporation, explains that the vocational training program is operated in cooperation with the Texas State Technical Institute's Amarillo campus. The 87 classes, which are conducted at TSTI Amarillo campus and in neighborhood centers, include sewing, welding, construction trades, typing, shorthand, clerical skills, and other vocational subjects.

The corporation operates two neighborhood centers in Amarillo and others in Bovina, Hereford, Tulia, Dalhart, Childress and Wellington-Shamrock.

TROUBLE AHEAD FOR IMPORTED CARS

Have you noticed the gradual shift in the sales pitch for foreign cars lately? "It's not a matter of price, it's the economy and the quality of construction." The reason is that the foreign car is no longer competitive in price, and price has been the only really strong thing going for the imported car.

Detroit has pushed the big car for years because the profit margins are substantially higher. The difference in the manufacturing costs of a Cadillac over a Chevrolet are not that significant, but the markup is. This left the small car market to the imports, especially Volkswagen Datsun and Toyota. Those three companies sold a total of 1.1 million cars in the U.S. in 1973. That was 64% of all foreign car sales and 10% of all the cars, foreign and domestic, sold in the U.S. last year.

But now the importers are jects including extensive tutorial assistance.

Administration funds are used for the planning and general management of the agency's programs.

Grant processing for the state was performed by the Texas Office of Economic Opportunity, a division of the Texas Department of Community Affairs.

Cycle Club to Discuss Rally

The Wellington Motorcycle Club will meet Friday, April 12, at Handlebar Cycle Shop 1605 9th Street.

There will be a discussion of the motorcycle rally to be held at San Antonio in early May, which some of the members plan to attend, according to Pat McAlister, president.

All members are urged to attend, and all others interested in motorcycling are invited to come also, he added. The club meets every third Friday.

getting ready for serious problems. Foreign car sales plunged 20% in February. Total American made car sales were off even more, but sales of the small American made cars rose 4% and that's what has the foreign car manufacturers frightened.

The basic price of a Volkswagen Beetle has jumped 31% from $1,999 to $2,655 in just one year. The Ford Pinto and the GM Vega both sell for about $200 less. The two-door Datsun B210 has a retail price of $2,629, just a few dollars less than the Beetle. The Toyota Corona retails for $3,500, up from $2,500 less than 24 months ago. When the foreign car loses the price advantage it once enjoyed and still has to compete against an American made product which also offers economy, then foreign car sales are going to go just one way. Down.

The problem in Germany and Japan has been a high rate of inflation in both countries. The price of raw materials has skyrocketed while labor costs continue to rise. So the importer either cuts his price to compete and sees his profit margins dis-

Red Cross Seeks Those Eligible For SSI Pay

The Wellington Chapter of the American Red Cross is participating in a community effort to reach elderly, blind and disabled people who may be eligible for monthly U.S. Government checks under a new program called supplemental security income, (SSI).

The volunteer effort, Project SSI Alert, is part of a nationwide effort to provide information about the new program to people in financial need who are 65 and over, or under 65 but blind or disabled so they may be found as quickly as possible and be enrolled in the program, according to Mrs.

appear or he raises his prices to protect his profit margins and loses potential sales.

One answer to the problem is for the foreign car manufacturer to make even smaller, more economical cars than the American made compacts. Both Fiat and Honda have cars much smaller than the Ford Pinto, with better than 30 mpg performance. However, as the fuel shortage eases, the emphasis on fuel economy will not be as critical as it was several months ago.

Several foreign car manufacturers are considering production plants in the U.S. in order to offset the price advantage now enjoyed by American car manufacturers. Volkswagen has been looking for an assembly plant location for over a year while Toyota and Nissan, which makes the Datsun, are giving the idea serious consideration.

Katie Isbell, the local project leader.

Supplemental security income payments can be made to the aged, blind, and disabled people who have little or no income and limited resources. People who are receiving public assistance as of December 1973 because they are 65 or older, blind, or disabled generally switched to the new program automatically. Other people have to apply.

Payments will be made by the Social Security Administration, but the program is separate from social security.

Mrs. Isbell, Executive Secretary of the Wellington Chapter, has received training which enables her to answer many questions concerning SSI payment. She has also been provided informational brochures for public distribution. She will also make written referrals to the local Social Security Office of persons who appear eligible to receive the new federal payments.

Persons interested in receiving more information should contact the local Social Security Administration or call the local chapter, 447-2020.

Black Spot Control Vital

Black spot, the most serious disease of roses, can be effectively controlled by beginning cultural and chemical practices in early spring.

"The disease stems from a fungus and causes a black spot with an irregular margin, surrounded by a zone of yellow tissue," explains County Agent Don Reeves. "Frequently, defoliation occurs, reducing the carbohydrate concentration in the canes and thus, the amount of foliage and flowering parts."

If control practices like pruning of diseased parts and application of fungicides are started in early spring, the disease will be less severe later in the season.

Pruning the tops of infected roses will eliminate overwintering infection sites on the upper stems. Removing old leaves and raking and burning fallen leaves also eliminates infection sites, according to the agent.

"Begin fungicide applications when the first leaves are one-half inch long. Repeat these at intervals recommended by the manufacturer of the fungicide. And, be sure the fungicide covers both leaf surfaces," advises Reeves.

Sulphur dust, used by many growers, is also effective but should not be used after temperatures reach 85 degrees as it will cause bronzing of the leaves, cautions Mr. Reeves.

Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Minatrea, Rural Route 6, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, LaNell Irene to Danny Joel Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Waters, 1309 West Avenue.

Miss Minatrea is a Junior at Wellington High School. She is planning to finish her high school education.

The couple is planning a June 1st wedding.

Garden Club Has Program on Iris For Beginner—Advanced Gardeners

The Wellington Garden Club met Wednesday, April 3, at the home of Mrs. O.B. Raburn with Mrs. Guy Clement as co-hostess.

Mrs. Charles Cason, president presided over the business meeting. Roll call was answered with my favorite iris. Mrs. Clement read the devotional and Mrs. Raburn read the club collect.

Mrs. Silas Crawford presented the program on Iris.

"If you have never planted a flower, start now with Iris. There are several reasons why they are good for beginners: plant with ease, it needs little care, is completely hardy and long lived, a glorious sight in the garden when it blooms, and satisfactory as a cut flower. You will appreciate it for what it does not need -- no staking, no winter protection, no special fussing with soil, seldom any spraying or watering," she told the group, and her talk continued:

"Great-grandmothers called them 'flags' (probably because they fluttered in the breeze.) Iris, which means rainbow, is a much better name because nearly all colors of the heavenly arch are found among these flowers.

"The division of the root that you plant is called a rhizome. It has a fan of leaves at one end, and white stringy roots along the sides. It will grow from the fan end only. One thing iris do demand is sun at least part of the day. They also prefer fairly good drainage -- meaning a place that does not flood when it rains.

"In reality an iris rhizome n be planted almost anywhere. The very best time is out six weeks after the spring blooms fade.

"Iris will need to be divided and reset every three years. In July or August, with a digging fork lift the entire clump. Break or cut rhizome sections apart to individual sections. Trim away foliage tops, leaving about six inches. If it is inconvenient for you to plant the rhizomes immediately, store them several weeks piled loosely in a basket in the shade."

Fix-It Tip

No matter what the fashion in light fixtures, they are installed pretty much as the older ones were. If you are simply replacing an old fixture with a new one there is no reason for not doing the job yourself. The wires and the outlet box are already there.

Rule one, always, is to make certain the power is off. Turn off the main switch for that circuit or remove the fuse.

Your new fixture already has a pair of wires attached to it that you connect to the two wires in the box. But before you disconnect the old fixture and try to hook up the new one determine how it will be mounted.

1954 Club Sees Fishing Film

A film relating to ecology, "The Biologist and the Boy," was shown for members of the 1954 Study Club Thursday, April 4, when Mrs. Leon Hartman was hostess.

Garner Altom, administrator of Collingsworth General Hospital, showed the film and discussed it.

Narrated by Arthur Godfrey, the film tells of a youth attending a fishing rodeo on the gulf coast. He sees the glamour of the event--the blessing of the fleet, the fishing and the catch. At the same time, he listens as the biologist stresses the importance of the estuaries, and how they protect the fish and wildlife.

A former member who has returned to Wellington, Mrs. Roy Collins, Jr., was welcomed back into the club.

A refreshment plate was served to Mrs. Fred Cox, Mrs. Bill Hatch, Mrs. Cal Hurst, Mrs. Don Lacy, Mrs. Jerry Nix, Mrs. Virgil Patterson, Mrs. Roy Collins, Mrs. R.L. Templeton, and the hostess, Mrs. Hartman.

Home Management

By Mrs. Arla Felts

We believe that the County Extension Service has some things of interest to offer you during the next year. All these programs were planned in cooperation with the County Family Living Committee with the Long Range objectives of the county in mind.

As most of you know the majority of our work is done through Home Demonstration Clubs and 4-H Clubs. We are interested in starting new clubs if there is an interest and need for them.

We also offer a number of programs that are open to special interest groups or interested public. All our activities are open to every individual in the county regardless of income, race, or location in the county. It is our desire to serve all people of the county. If you are interested in joining or visiting a club or group meeting you will be welcomed.

We are hoping to keep members of the Home Demonstration Clubs informed about needed and interesting changes and about needed products and services offered them. Some of the activities and events will be sponsoring and some of the programs at club meetings during the next year are listed below:

A Short Course on July 26 regarding credit card buying, interest rate, credit rating and recent laws influencing the rights of women. A correspondent banker from First National Bank in Fort Worth and two lawyers will be in charge of this activity.

October will be the date of another Short Course. This will be regarding special diets

Happy Homemaking

According to the antique dealers, a reliable way to tell a brass object from a brass-plated one is to use an ordinary magnet. It will not stick to solid brass, but is attracted by the metal under brass plating.

To remove ballpoint marks from a brocade-covered album, dip a cotton swab in a bottle of alcohol and wet the marks. Pat -- but do not rub -- with a piece of gauze until dry. Repeat the process until the mark is gone.

To prevent your brass bed from tarnishing, polish it thoroughly. Then buy a can of spray lacquer which is proper for brass. Apply an even coat of lacquer. Let it dry and then lacquer again. Repeat this until the bed has three or four coats. The bed should not tarnish after this.

A good suggestion throughout the year is to collect pine cones, acorns, thistles, milkweed pods, dry leaves and twigs. Then, at Christmas, you can spray them with red, green gold or silver paint to use as Christmas decorations.

Three things that usually keep cats and kittens amused for hours are: ping pong balls, a rabbit's foot key chain and an old sock with beans sewn into it.

Questions People Ask About the Catholic Church

Q. Is it true that bad Catholics usually call a priest when they are dying?

A. In almost every case, a lapsed Catholic, because of remorse or his fear of dying in sin, will call a priest, and not a minister or preacher, to his bedside when the final chips are down. Only the priest can give him the Last Sacraments which will ensure his safe passage into Heaven. We only pray that there will be time for the priest to get to him before it is too late.

Q. How much does a Mass cost?

A. A Mass is priceless, since it is the repetition of the Holy Sacrifice of the Last Supper and Calvary. However, it is the custom to offer a small stipend to the upkeep of the church on the occasion of the offering of the Mass. This in no way pays for the Mass itself, which, as I already said, is without price.

Miss Myra Hays Tells of Trip to Hawaii to Retired Teachers Group

Slides from her trip to Hawaii were shown by Miss Myra Hays for members of the Collingsworth Retired Teachers Association at the meeting Tuesday, April 2.

This was held in the Greenbelt Electric Co-op Inc.

Miss Hays spent a week in Honolulu attending the National meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs, then toured the outer islands.

A luau attended by 2,500 persons was featured, as was entertainment given. A tour of the city had stops at a muumu factory, Punchbowl Cemetery, the capitol building and the old Iolani Palace, and Waikiki Beach.

Another trip on the island of Oahu was to the Polynesian Culture Center.

During the second week the group toured Kauai, where they saw taro, pineapple and sugar cane growing. Waimea Canyon, called the Grand Canyon of Hawaii, is 2,867 feet deep and they found it beautiful, as they did the trip down the Waialua River to the fern grotto.

The island of Maui they discovered was quite different. They saw tropical vegetables and other plants and stayed at Lahaina, an old whaling port. One Banyan tree covers three fourths of an acre.

They made a 16-mile trip by boat down the Kona Coast as they reached the big island of Hawaii. They then went to Hilo, with a stop at the black sand beach and lunch at a restaurant near Kilauea Volcanic crater.

Mrs. Charley Hill, president, directed the meeting, and officers for the coming term, beginning September, were named.

Mrs. Jack Lowry is the new president; Mrs. Velma Hiett, vice president; and Mrs. Jim Lowe secretary.

As guests arrived, they were served refreshments by the hostess, Miss Bonnie Willis.

Present were Miss Maudie Coffee, Mrs. R.R. Crawley, Mrs. Bill Hill, Mrs. Charley Hill, Mrs. G.L. Jones, Mrs. Lowe, Mrs. Lowry, Mrs. J.F. Michael, Miss Hattie D. Wells, Mrs. Les White and Miss Hays and Miss Willis.

Our Youthful Achievers Score in Spring Events

It is pleasing to note the number of young Collingsworth students who have won honors in University Interscholastic League as well as other competition in recent weeks.

It is gratifying to the boys and girls and to their schools, and it is a matter of importance to their county.

We admire young winners about whom we read, or whom we watch on television -- teenagers who are so superior in their achievements. Let us look at our own. They have as much potential as these other young achievers about whom we hear. What ours do need is more practice, more competition, and more exposure to talent that is good enough to bring out the best in them.

We congratulate both the winners and other participants in all events, both literary and athletic, in which they have achieved, and at the same time, we commend the teachers who work with them.

Paying the Piper

A federal grand jury in Ohio late last week indicted eight Ohio National Guardsmen for their part in the May, 1970, shootings of 13 students. And in response, the mother of one of the students expressed pleasure "that at long last there will be an accounting before the law." But there will not, regrettably, be a full accounting, for the grand jury has laid on the Guard all blame for the shootings.

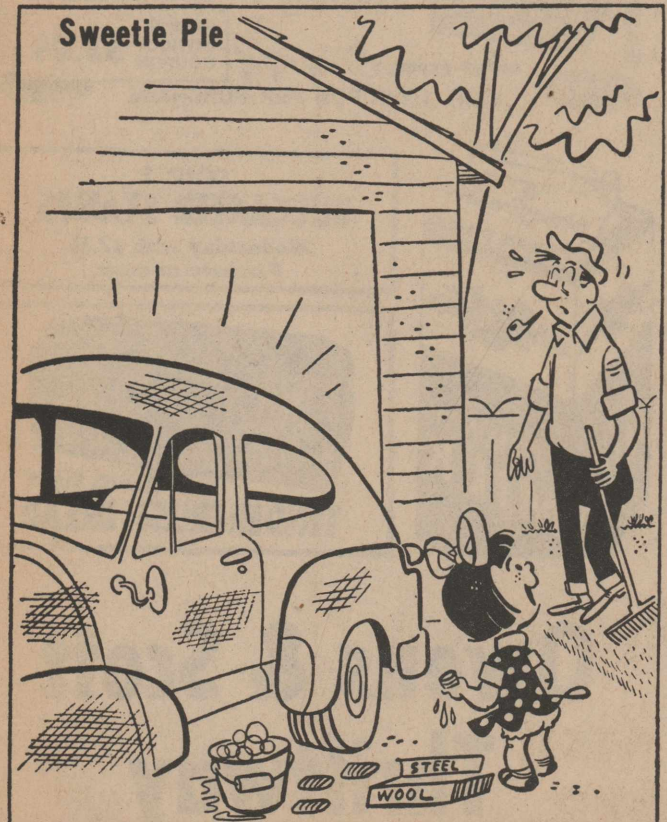

The eight Guardsmen are accused of "violating the civil rights" of the killed and wounded students. Yet what of those who instigated the rioting that brought the Guard to Kent State in the first place? The grand jury passes by their activities in silence.

The fact, nevertheless, is that no students would have died at all had not student yahoos rioted in downtown Kent, Ohio, setting a bonfire in the streets, smashing store windows, and afterward burning down their university's Reserve Officers Training Corps building. Here was why the Guard came to Kent State.

Nor was this the end of the student violence. Once on campus, 58 Guardsmen were injured by objects that students threw at them. A state grand jury that investigated shortly after the shootings found that "74 (Guardsmen) surrounded by several hundred hostile rioters were forced to retreat back up the hill . . . under a constant barrage of rocks and other flying objects, accompanied by a constant flow of obscenities and chants such as 'Kill, Kill, Kill . . .'"

And yet for the Guardsmen's tormentors there is no censure. How ironic is the thought: The U.S. government never succeeded in punishing the leaders of the street and campus disorders that afflicted us from 1967 to 1971; thanks to legal technicalities, the Rubins, the Hoffmans, the Dellingers and the Haydens remain free and at large; they called the tune -- now eight National Guardsmen may have to pay the piper all by themselves.

"It should be clean now—I washed it with steel wool!"

AUSTIN, Tex. — Delegates to the 1974 Constitutional Convention have taken a break in their efforts to rewrite Texas' 1876-model Constitution.

The 181 delegates (Texas House and Senate members) are to spend the next 30 days back home discussing with their constituents the work accomplished thus far on the constitutional rewrite.

Decision to take the recess until May 6 was triggered partially by the desire of some delegates to return to their home districts to concentrate on re-election efforts, stymied for the most part for the last three months by their need to meet a five-day-a-week convention schedule in Austin.

Other convention delegates and convention leadership feel the 30-day break will provide opportunity for them to seek citizen comment on the work of the convention so far.

Many convention delegates have complained that the work schedule has been so strenuous they have had little opportunity to touch base with the folks back home. When they return to Austin in May, delegates will go to work on new Constitutional articles dealing with the Judiciary, General Provisions and Separation.

The recess will also provide Style and Drafting Committee staff members opportunity to review articles which have gained tentative approval to insure that no error has crept into the document during the heat of debate on the convention floor.

Convention leadership is now talking about submitting the final document to voters at the November, 1974, general election.

DIVIDEND PAYMENT Allstate Insurance Company has been ordered to pay Texas auto policyholders $4 million in cancelled dividends.

Allstate attorneys said they "completely disagree" and will appeal Insurance Commissioner Don Odom's order, hoping it will not discourage other companies from "making lower rates available to customers under new law."

Odom said Allstate's Texas certificate will be cancelled in Texas if dividends aren't being paid in 30 days.

Allstate stopped paying dividends on policies expiring October 3, the same day it obtained the State Insurance Board's permission to reduce rates for auto coverage.

DEMO CONVENTION FIGHT HEATS — Democratic liberals and conservatives are squaring off for another clash at precinct conventions May 4.

Houston liberal leader Billie Carr claimed Gov. Dolph Briscoe's supporters are trying to take over the Texas Democratic party rather than encouraging wider participation by all elements.

Activities of the Governor's Conventions Committee, headed by Gordon Wynne of Wills Point, is siphoning off money needed for an official Affirmative Action Program to bring in more new convention goers, charged Mrs. Carr.

She said liberals will have petitions at conventions endorsing a permanent national Democratic party charter guaranteeing full participation by all elements.

APPOINTMENTS — William Gregg Paul of Rusk and Dr. William Ben Buckaby of Wichita Falls were appointed by Governor Briscoe as members of the Midwestern University board of regents. Carter McGregor Jr. was reappointed to the Board.

Briscoe named L. D. Brinkman of Mountain Home, Tony Kunitz of Sinton and L.H. True of Wimberley to the Texas Conservation Foundation.

Leroy Beck Jr., formerly of San Antonio, is a new legal aide in the Secretary of State's Election Division.

Briscoe appointed five to the Board of Directors of the Lavaca County Flood Control District No. 3 Paul A. Najvar, Robert Joseph Pesek, Leon Louis Kahanek Jr. and Alfred Neumeyer Jr., all of Hallettsville, were reappointed for two-year terms, and Julius Bucek of Hallettsville was ap-

House Speaker Price Daniel Jr. appointed a special interim committee to study the reorganization and modernization of state agencies which administer public education.

Rep. R. B. McAlister of Lubbock will serve as chairman.

Larry Crumpton of Austin has been named Deputy Director of the Texas Department of Community Affairs.

Briscoe has selected Miss Diane Booker as acting director of the Texas Film Commission.

OFFICIAL OPINIONS — Prisoners in county jails must be permitted to vote, Atty. Gen. John Hill concluded in a recent opinion. Hill's interpretation which held a portion of the Texas Election Code unconstitutional does not apply to convicted felons since they would not be qualified to vote anyway.

The opinion speaks to persons who are in their home county jails on misdemeanor charges. The Election Code specifically states which persons may vote by mail — and in so doing, disenfranchises county prisoners, the ruling reads.

In another opinion, Hill advised the president of Tyler State College that the school has no legal authority to spend state money for a lawyer to handle the school's business.

Hill noted a 1973 rider to the appropriations bill restricts "outside" legal aid. The rider states no appropriation money may be legally spent by any agency to employ "outside" counsel unless the attorney general has been requested to perform the services and has certified his inability to provide them. Hill said Tyler State College has made no request for his help and has no certification from the attorney general.

ELECTION REPORTS FILED — Former Lubbock mayor Jim Granberry's election expense report filed with the Secretary of State indicates his Republican gubernatorial campaign spending outranks both Democratic hopefuls.

Granberry reported expenses of $171,425 and contributions of $181,877 from June 14 through March 25.

Governor Briscoe reported expenses during the period October 30 to March 25 of $129,042 and contributions of $25,536. His contribution report does not include proceeds of the October 30 appreciation dinner which netted about $350,000, and is tied up in litigation.

Frances Farenthold, Briscoe's primary challenger for the Democratic nomination, reported contributions of $40,865 and expenses of $25,007 during the period February 4 to March 25.

COTTON PLANTING DEAD-

LINE — Corpus Christi cotton farmers must have all planting completed by midnight April 20, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has announced.

Planting dates are fixed around the state as part of the control program of the Texas Pink Bollworm Act, administered by the Texas Department of Agriculture.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

Judging from radio and TV interviews with various celebrities and semi-celebrities, the most used words today are "you know."

Usually shortened to "y'know", this word combo appears to be most useful to interviewees who can talk faster than they can think, possibly having had more experience in the former than in the latter.

But, although this thinking-gap filler helps to keep a talker on-stage longer, it wastes the time of all listeners. If they already know, why bother to tell them?

Deck's DIDACTICS

—by Deskins Wells

FOR YEARS, Richard Morehead has provided the readers of The Dallas Morning News with some of the fairest and at the same time, most interesting observations of the political scene that have ever come out of Austin. Last Sunday, April 7, he devoted his column to windmills as a source of energy. Naturally Mr. Morehead is an authority on wind having been reared in Hale County and having spent years in reporting the activities of the politicians.

HE REPORTS that Dr. Edward Teller told an Austin group that windmills hold a big future in places where the wind blows regularly and I quote:

"THE WINDMILL was listed by Dr. Teller as a potential part-solution to the energy crisis, along with nuclear reactors, fossil fuels, hydropower, geothermal and solar. The world's 'first massive source of power' was in Western Europe during the Middle Ages, Dr. Teller noted. Actually, use of wind-power for the benefit of man predates the birth of Christ.

Dr. Teller and yours truly aren't the only optimists who believe in the future of electric and water power for windmills.

Windmill research is practically exploding around the world, even if it does take months to get an old-fashioned model delivered within the United States."

THE LOCAL elections have come and gone with little or no changes in the school or hospital directors and with a complete change in the majority on the city council. All of the new officials are able men and I wish them well in performing their duties.

IT IS customary to offer congratulations to the winners and condolences to the losers in local elections. Having served as mayor for four years and as an alderman before that, I often feel more inclined to congratulate the losers and pour out my sympathy on the winners; because the winners, if they have never held public office before, are going to learn some disagreeable facts about human nature in a hurry.

THESE winning candidates will continue to respect the people who supported them and learn a new respect for these who opposed them for honest convictions. Among both groups they will find their most dependable friends in future years. Their disappointment will come from self seekers; the greedy and the uninformed. The cause may vary from ignorance to optimism; but generally it is just plain greed.

IF I WERE ten years younger I would not serve as mayor if the position had a nice salary and allowed traveling expenses. Neither would I want to be county judge if it carried a much better salary. Either job is an ordeal.

WHETHER Newell McDaniel raises alfalfa to feed his bees or whether he raises bees to pollinate his alfalfa is something about which you will need to ask "Mama", I ran across my old tennis playing partner at the Dodson Co-op Gin last week and asked about his son Lindy, who continues to be one of the star relief pitchers after 19 years in the major leagues.

LINDY McDANIEL, I was informed, had a good start this year and his arm is in good shape. He will be in Arlington soon and has asked his parents to meet him there. Darrell Murphy observed that he supposed they were going. "I don't know," Newell answered.

MISS WELLINGTON RUNNERS-UP

The two runners-up in the Miss Wellington Pageant Saturday, April 6, were Edi Watkins, left, first runner-up, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Harold Watkins, and Linda Coffee, second runner-up, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Coffee.

Renee Mitchell Is the 1974 Miss Wellington

Renee Mitchell, 16-year-old high school junior, was crowned Miss Wellington in the annual pageant Saturday, April 6.

In an unusual coronation ceremony, she received her crown from her older sister, Angie Mitchell, the reigning Miss Wellington and a senior. More than 50 girls participated, sponsored by merchants of the town.

The new queen represented B&B Electric.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Mitchell, Renee is junior class favorite, a cheer leader, officer of Future Teachers of America, and a member of the Future Homemakers and That Skyrocket Band.

The presentation of the girls and the coronation which climaxed the evening were in a garden setting, the stage elaborately decorated by senior class members.

First runner-up in the contest was Edi Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watkins,

Services Held Here Wednesday For Mrs. Evans

A former Wellington woman, Mrs. B.F. Evans of Amarillo, died in High Plains Baptist Hospital at 10:05 p.m. Sunday, April 7.

Mrs. Evans and her family came here in 1924, and this was her home until 1964 when she moved to Amarillo.

The former Carrie D. Shanks, she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D.M. Shanks. Mrs. Evans was born in Montague County March 26, 1897, and was 73 years of age at the time of her death.

She was married to Mr. Evans June 18, 1916, at Lindsey, Oklahoma. He preceded her in death May 23, 1971.

She was a Baptist. Funeral services were conducted at First Baptist Church, Wellington at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, April 10, with the Rev. Roy Collins officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Survivors are three daughters: Mrs. Forrest Ezzell of Amarillo, Mrs. J.C. Roberts of Canyon, and Mrs. J.A. Estes of Wichita Falls; two sisters, Mrs. Jess Motsonbocker of Wellington and Mrs. D.B. Hughes of Alexandria, Louisiana; three brothers, Rufus Shanks and Cecil Shanks of Wellington and Hal Shanks of Ft. Worth; 7 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

ed with a straight face, "Mama is getting in some queen bees about that time and I have not found out whether I can go or not." Such is the reward of fame. Queen Bees!!!

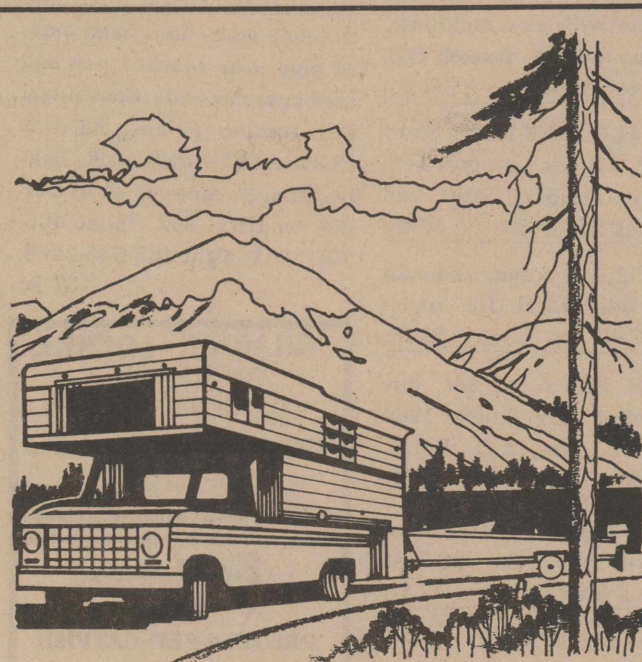

Zeldon Jenkins Added to High School Faculty

The Wellington School Board has hired Zeldon Jenkins to teach science in high school and some classes in Junior High, Supt. Thayne Amonett has announced.

Mr. Jenkins has taught several years at Samnorwood. He succeeds Charles Floyd, who earlier resigned, effective at the end of the present school term. He plans to enter another field of work, Mr. Amonett said.

Mr. Jenkins has his degree from West Texas State University and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Jenkins. He and his family will move to Wellington as soon as he can find a house.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Ross of the Bourland Ranch near Quail were business visitors in Kingsley, Kansas, last week.

ARE YOU COVERED?

There is so much to remember when you leave on a trip. If you are driving, make sure you have extended coverage on your auto or camper and that it is in force. Carry a list of numbers of agents in towns you will be in or near in case of emergency. If you are driving in a foreign country make sure you are covered . . . it costs only pennies to do so.

Norwood, Clarendon Win Judging Event

A plant judging team from Samnorwood and land judging team from Clarendon took first place honors in the two Divisions of the FFA Greenbelt District contest here Tuesday, April 2. This is sponsored annually by the Salt Fork Soil Conservation District supervisors.

The winning teams qualified to compete in the Area I FFA land and plant judging contests later this spring.

The Clarendon land judging team had 621.50 points, based on judging soil from four fields. Team members were Matt Plunkett, Eddie Vinson, Jake Hightower and Calvin Burrow.

Second place in this division went to Wellington FFA, with a close 613.25 points. Team members were Dale Blakes, Keith Davis, Robin Maddox and Mike Williams.

The Samnorwood team was third with 605.25 points. On this team were Doug Coleman, Darrell Bast, John Delbosque and John Cruz.

Plant judging teams identified 35 grasses and other plants, then determined if they were annuals or perennials, and warm or cool season plants. They also determined if these were native or introduced plants, their value for wildlife and as plants for grazing. Finally, they indicated which were poisonous plants.

The Samnorwood team had 875 points out of a possible 1029. Second place went to Childress No. 1 team with 789 points; third, Estelline, 741; fourth, Childress No. 2 team, 685 and fifth, Clarendon, 316.
