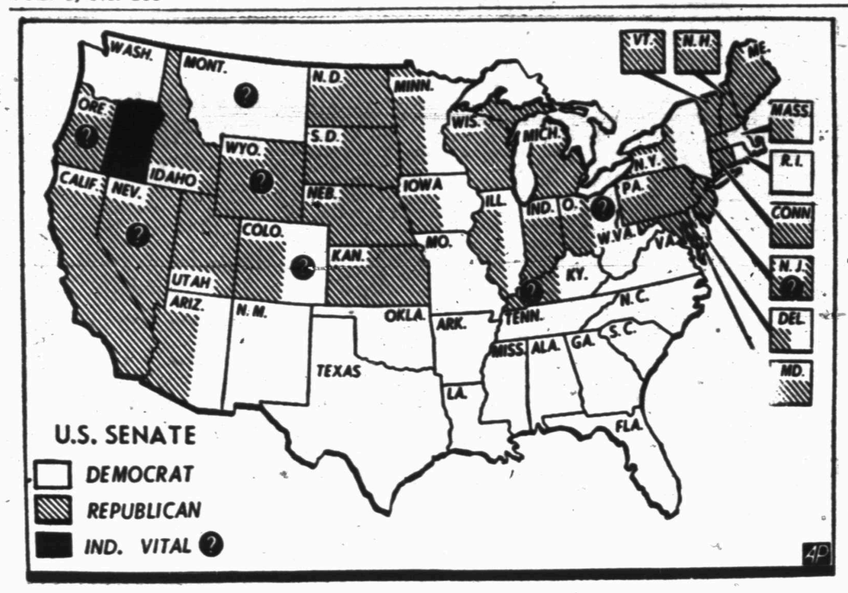
Heavy Vote Reported Over Country In Early Surveys



SENATE CONTROL BATTLE AREAS

Question marks point up the eight states of Oregon, Nevada, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, Kentucky, Ohio and New Jersey where voters today are deciding which party will control the U. S. Senate now composed of 49 Republicans, 46 Democrats and one Independent.

Cold Weather Grips North Part Of Texas

By The Associated Press

Election day dawned cold in Texas' northern half and balmy in the south.

A new norther had nipped the Panhandle with more freezing temperatures and was whipping southeast.

Temperatures were mild ahead of the front—Brownsville had a pre-dawn low of 67—but were expected to drop fast as the cold front pushed in. The front was expected to blanket Texas by Wednesday daybreak.

Behind the front, Dalhart shivered in 24-degree morning cold. Amarillo had 27, Lubbock 30, and Wichita Falls 33. The nippy weather extended deep into Central Texas. Waco had 46.

Brisk winds made the cold seem colder.

Only two points reported measurable rain, Houston .25 inch and Beaumont .06, but the Weather Bureau forecast rain over most of the state by Wednesday night.

Moist, Gulf air sliding up over the wedge of cold air was expected to set off showers along the coast Tuesday, spreading north over most of the state by Wednesday night.

As the cold front approached the coast, the Weather Bureau ordered small craft warnings up from Brownsville, Tex., to St. Marks, Fla., for increasing northerly winds reaching 20-30 m.p.h. Tuesday and Tuesday night.

Clouds covered most of the state from Waco and San Angelo south and Houston had a light rain as Palacios shivered in a drizzle.

Low temperatures in the northern portions of the state were caused by a new front's movement through Texas that reinforced one that moved in earlier. The front was in an east-west line through Waco at 4:30 a.m. and going south rather fast. It passed through the Fort Worth-Dallas area three hours earlier.

Forecasts called for partly cloudy to mostly cloudy skies Tuesday along with lower temperatures. Wednesday, the weather man said, likely would bring some rain to most portions of the state with temperatures remaining about the same.

BOTH DOCTORS NOW

Queen Mother Elizabeth and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, capped and gowned, chat before receiving honorary Doctor of Laws degrees in New York. The two visitors from abroad were honored at Columbia University's third bicentennial convention ceremonies in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York's Protestant Episcopal cathedral.

Most Estimates Revised Upward

WASHINGTON (AP) — America's millions chose today between Republicans and Democrats to control the new Congress. And first reports from the polling places indicated neither party had reason for concern over voter apathy—something both had said they feared.

How much the last minute get-out-the-vote prodding by President Eisenhower, Adlai Stevenson and other leaders on both sides had to do with it was uncertain, but fragmentary early surveys suggested heavy ballot boxes. Both parties had insisted in advance that such reports would be good news for them.

Actually there was no certainty that even the heat of the closing drives by the two parties had much to do with it. All along there had been some observers who clung to the view the voters had already made up their minds and were indifferent only to the politicans' pleas.

Whatever the reason, sample checks in New York and in the environs of Washington suggested reason to revise upward the advance estimates of 45 million votes.

In New York, despite rain and cold, approximately 15 per cent of the registered voters in Manhattan and the Bronx were reported to have cast ballots by 9 a.m.

That was the same percentage as had voted at that hour in ideal weather in the mayoralty election a year ago.

In a few scattered districts the percentage of those voting by 9 o'clock was as high as 20.

From Brooklyn, however, the voting was reported "very, very light."

The voting was slow and election officials suggested that meant split tickets.

Leading figures in both parties took the view that disagreeable weather throughout New York state would not affect the voting materially.

"Extremely heavy" was the report on early voting in the Maryland and Virginia suburbs of Washington. The capital itself is voteless.

In the 10th Virginia congressional district just across the Potomac from the capital, the early balloting was reported much heavier than normal for an off year with no presidential race. There was a bitter contest for the district's House seat between Republican Joel T. Broyhill and Democrat John C. Webb.

Some election judges were predicting a voting record there.

From the biggest precinct in Prince Georges County, Md., just outside the District of Columbia, came a report of "terrifically heavy" balloting with over 200 votes in the first hour out of a registration of about 3,000.

A judge at one of the boxes in populous Silver Spring, Md., said the first hour count was the highest he had ever seen. At another box over 20 per cent of the eligibles had voted in the first hour.

In the Baltimore metropolitan district, election officials described the vote as "unexpectedly heavy."

In Chicago, the first hour's voting brought predictions of a very heavy turnout.

Similarly, Ohio cities had an early rush to the polls. New Jersey officials called the voting there normal but increasing in intensity.

The forenoon brought a few scattering returns from small precincts which had polled their entire registered vote. First in with a count was Hart's Location, N. H., always an early runner.

The little mountain community gave Democratic candidates in major races 6 votes to 4 for Republicans. Two years ago, the village voted Republican, 5-4. Since then, two voters have moved away and three newcomers have settled in Hart's Location.

Republicans, as they have in the past, mopped up the 14 votes of Point Aux Barques, Mich.

Among the early voters was former President Truman. Putting in his ballot at Independence, Mo., Truman said, "It will be the right answer again."

Another well-known Democrat, former Postmaster General James A. Farley got in an early vote in New York and predicted a "Democratic sweep."

President Eisenhower, also a New York voter, cast an absentee ballot long ago.

In addition to choosing the new Congress, voters are picking governors in 33 states and hundreds of local and state officials.

The campaign itself closed out last night with major appeals from both sides.

President Eisenhower from Washington told the voters "there is no such thing as sitting out" the election. He said in a nationwide radio-television broadcast that any absentee from the polls doubles the value of the ballot cast by a citizen of opposing views.

The President stuck rather closely to a nonpartisan approach. He called for voters to make up their minds "what program is more in line with your own thinking . . . where you will get the greatest prudence, the greatest honesty, the greatest integrity, the greatest businesslike methods and economy in government."

Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic presidential candidate, also appealed to citizens to exercise their right to vote, saying that is the way to make a democracy work.

In addition, he hit out at what he called Republican efforts to "have you believe that the quest for peace is peculiar to but one of our political parties."

Stevenson aimed his fire especially at the campaign remark by Eisenhower that under the Republicans the country "won't go to war to get work," and Vice President Nixon's assertion only last night that Democratic policies "never brought prosperity to America except when we had a war."

Nixon, who participated from Denver in the same broadcast with the President, flew back to Washington today saying the Republicans' only "fear" was that there would be a small vote.

School System Plans For New Construction

The board of trustees of the Snyder school system held a special session last night in which it canvassed the returns of the school district's $2-million bond election held Saturday and hired an architect for the proposed building program.

The architectural and engineering firm of Buford & Feinberg, Dallas, was authorized to proceed with plans for construction of a new elementary school building, additional wings to present elementary buildings, and other construction projects in the program.

The fee agreed on was five per cent of the construction cost on additions to the four elementary buildings (including Central Primary School) and six per cent for all other construction.

The regular fee of the firm is six per cent. The effective overall fee for this program will be approximately five and one-half per cent. This is the second time Buford & Feinberg has cut its fee on construction for the school system, the other cut being to five per cent on the high school building.

Fred Buford, partner of the firm, was present in last night's meeting and made the offer when the trustees discussed unanimous approval of his firm's past work and unanimously consented to continue use of the firm.

The firm was employed indefinitely by the school board several years ago after an interview with representatives of 14 architectural and engineering firms, which the board also investigated.

Although re-hiring of the firm was not formally necessary last night, the board voted unanimously to accept Buford's proposal.

The reason for the smaller fee on additions to present buildings is partially due to the fact that existing buildings, also designed by Buford & Feinberg, were planned for the additional wings.

The canvass of election returns showed three more votes in favor of the issue of bonds, the votes in opposition remaining as previously tallied. The 1,159 votes — record turnout of nearly four times as many as in any previous school election here since consolidation—were divided with 857 for and 302 against, leaving a margin of 555.

The tax maintenance issue did not carry so well, the tally being 802 to 336 leaving a margin of 466. There were only 1,138 votes cast on this issue, however, 21 less than in the other issue.

The tax issue was a proposal to raise the tax rate ceiling from $1 to $1.50 per each $100 property valuation. Although the ceiling was raised to $1.50 in the election, the actual rate is not to be raised this far. The tax rate ceilings must be set at either $1 or $1.50 by law, regardless of what actual rate is necessary. The actual rate is expected to be about $1.10 next year. It is $1 now.

The board will hold its regular monthly meeting next Tuesday, in which it will review plans for the building program and discuss purchase of a site for the new school building in northeast Snyder.

New Venture Scheduled In Central Kent

Slick Oil Co., Ltd., of Houston has filed application to drill the No. 1 W. A. Mays and others as a 7,400-foot rotary wildcat in Central Kent County.

Location has been made 660 feet from south and west lines of section 49-4-H&GN, about nine miles south and slightly west of Clairemont. It is one and one-half miles northeast of the Salt Creek field, but separated from the field by a dry hole slightly more than one mile to the south-southwest. The failure, drilled by Sunray and Seaboard as the No. 1 Mays, was quit in February, 1952, on total depth of 7,475 feet. It reported the top of the reef at 6,838 feet and of the Mississippian at 7,435 feet on an elevation of 2,254 feet.

TESTING SHOWS

Warren - Brandshaw Exploration Co. of Midland and Tulsa No. 1-A TXL, Southeast Howard County wildcat, is preparing to test on oil shows in the open hole from 2,645-745 feet.

Five and one-half-inch casing has been cemented at 2,645 feet, and the tests are to begin when the plug has been drilled out. Cable tools are to be moved in for the testing. The shows were made in the section from 2,640-745 feet in the Permian.

Location for the No. 1-A TXL is in section 41-30-tls-T&P, about eight miles south of Coahoma.

SPRABERRY TESTS

Locations for three new Spraberry field tests, two in Borden County and one in Dawson County, have been announced.

The Texas Co. is to begin operations immediately on the No. 1-A Texas, W. L. Miller and others. Location for it has been made 628 feet from north and 550 feet from east lines of the northwest quarter of section 11-33-t4n-T&P, 15 miles southwest of Gail. Contract depth is 7,375 feet.

Texaco will drill the No. 1-A-NCT-1 Texas-Felmont-W. L. Miller 745 feet from north and 550 feet from east lines of the southeast quarter of section 11-33-t4n-T&P, 15 miles southwest of Gail. It is

Hagler Finally Freed On Bond

FORT WORTH (AP)—David Fred Hagler Jr. had his freedom, his bride had her clothes, and they had each other today as officers still tried to get the identity of the man Hagler is accused of killing.

The Fort Worth business man was freed on $15,000 bond yesterday after Judge David McGee shaved $5,000 from the original figure as a state's attorney protested.

Hagler, 36, was jailed last week after the judge denied Hagler's freedom on a habeas corpus plea. He was free today pending appeal action on the ruling.

Earlier in the day, Elisabeth Bergman Hagler, the accused man's wife of 12 days, went to Dallas with Fort Worth Detective Sgt. John Dunwoody to get her luggage.

Low Here 35 Degrees

The temperature in Snyder last night came within three degrees of freezing, according to instruments of Radio Station KSNY, which reported a low of 35 before dawn and a reading of 39 degrees at 7:30 o'clock this morning. The temperature had risen to 49 degrees at noon.

Opening Of New Street Is Discussed

Fred C. Cullum, building promoter, appeared before the school board at its special session last night and discussed possible opening of Thirty-fifth Street from Avenue S west to El Paso Street, a distance of approximately 12 blocks.

The purpose of Cullum's appearance was to learn whether the school board trustees believed opening and paving of the street would benefit the school system.

The board by common but unanimous consent agreed that such would be a great asset to the school system in transporation to and from the West Elementary School, the high school, and the school administration building and would also give considerable relief to overcrowded Thirty-seventh Street.

Most of the traffic of Thirty-seventh Street is to and from Avenue S on the north. The general belief was that half or more of this traffic would choose Thirty-fifth Street, were it as good a thoroughfare as the other.

Cullum, who is building a shopping center on the west side of Avenue S immediately north of Thirty-seventh Street, said the new street, if opened and paved, would be 60 feet wide — twice the width of Thirty-seventh Street. The latter increases in with, however, near its west end.

The new street would also be curbed and guttered. Cullum said he had talked with the city council, the latter's position being a purpose to do whatever the majority of citizens and property owners concerned deemed best.

Cullum met again with the city council after the school board discussion. No action was taken by the council last night, but agreement was made to give the matter further study.

Cullum said he would donate a 60-foot strip 440 feet long through his center and pave, curb, and gutter it at his expense if the property owners and citizens to be affected wanted the street.

A portion of the land necessary for completion of the street would have to be condemned and purchased by the city.

The matter of the street came up extemporaneously in the board meeting, the main business being canvass of Saturday's bond election returns.

UF Preparing For Campaign

Work continued today by officials of the Scurry County United Fund on setting up several divisions for the first annual drive.

Lyle Deffebach, president of the fund, and Dr. Cecil Yarbrough, recently-named general chairman, were meeting this morning with Dan Eddy, Salvation Army representative and aide to many United Fund organizations in setting up drives.

Deffebach said today that the organization's headquarters at 2508 Avenue R will be open tomorrow. The office was being furnished today, and heating facilities were being prepared.

Heads of various divisions in the fund will select leaders to work with them in their parts of the drive, which will begin within the next few days. Deffebach said definite dates for divisions to start work will be set before the week ends, as will workers for the divisions. Also working this week is the fund's budget and admissions committee, which hopes to have within the next few days budget proposals of all agencies planning to cooperate with the United Fund.

London Stevedores Due To Return Tomorrow

LONDON (AP)—Nearly 6,000 London stevedores stayed away from work today to protest use of non-union truck drivers on the docks, but voted at noon to get back on the job tomorrow.

This decision quelled fears that last month's disastrous stoppage might be revived. The vote came after union leaders and employers agreed to give one month for non-union drivers working in the port to get inside the unions.

By mid-day 42 of the 150 ships in the port stood idle. More than 3,000 others of London's 23,000 stevedores had voted to join the walkout tomorrow if no agreement was announced.

Boy Scout Troop On Strike For Big Vote

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis. (AP)—Boy Scouts of Troop 112 went on "strike" today for a bigger turnout at the polls this election day.

The boys picketed industrial plants with signs reading:

"Vote for my future," don't cross this picket line unless you promise to vote." and "we're on strike for a bigger vote."

City Okays Plans To Annex New Area

An ordinance to annex one block of land adjacent to the southeast city limits was passed unanimously on first reading by the city council last night and an ordinance establishing the speed limits of Santa Fe trains inside the city limits at 30 miles per hour was passed on second and final reading.

The new annexation was requested by W. P. Martin, who sent a plat of the block showing it platted for residential development. The block, to be known as block 1, Martin addition, is located between Avenues B and C, and Thirty-sixth Street and Thirty-sixth Place.

The council authorized Malven K. Stevenson, mayor, to execute water and sewer extension contracts with Martin.

Fred C. Cullum, owner of property located north of Thirty-seventh Street and west of the Big Spring highway appeared before the council to hear results of his request made one month ago for opening of Thirty-fifth Street from Avenue S to Avenue U.

The council reported that owners of property involved in opening of the street have been contacted, but that the property owners had not agreed to dedication of the street. J. D. Scott, 3600 Avenue U, and G. M. Heinzelmann, 1108 Twenty-sixth Street, own a strip of land 120 feet long and 60 feet wide where the proposed street would go. Cullum again stated that he would pay for paving and curb and gutter of the 440 feet of the street where it would cross his property. Cullum said that he plans to develop the area for commercial and business property.

Cullum left the council meeting and went to a meeting of the Snyder board of school trustees, who were holding a special meeting last night.

Cullum later returned to the council meeting and reported that the school board passed a resolution stating that opening of the street would improve traffic conditions leading to schools in southwest Snyder.

The council instructed B. J. Shelley, city manager, and W. W. Park, city attorney, to negotiate an exchange of properties with Scurry County which has been requested by the commissioners court. Shelley reported that the commissioners court has requested the city to trade a strip of land on Twenty-seventh Street west of the alley and south of the National Guard armory building for the county's half interest in the armory building. A building owned by the county and occupied by the county agricultural agents, and home demonstration agent's offices is located on the city-owned land. The exchange would give sole ownership of the armory building, which is located on city property, to the city, and sole ownership of the land owned by the county building to the county.

At the request of the National Guard unit here, the city has requested the guard unit to vacate the building at the end of its present two-year lease contract. The guard unit made the request to not be given a new lease to help secure approval for a new armory building from the National Armory Board. The present lease contract expires Aug. 31, 1955.

The council approved requesting J. C. Roberts, district highway engineer of the Abilene highway district, to come to Snyder and make a study of possible truck routes through Snyder. The engineer is also to be requested to make a study of the possibilities of widening and paving Avenue S in south Snyder.

A meeting of all persons interested in having the name of the East Highway and Twenty-fifth Street changed to a common name for the two streets now under different names was called for the next regular meeting of the council, which will be at 7 o'clock the night of the first Monday in December.

A petition has been presented to the council requesting the name change.

Suspect In Slaying Held

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Sgt. James A. Blair of the Pennsylvania State Police said today a one-time Merchant Marine seaman-engineer will be charged with murder in the halloween "trick-or-treat" slaying of 6-year-old Karen Mauk.

He was identified as Harry Gossard, 39. Sgt. Blair said he lived in the "immediate vicinity" of the Mauk home in Conemaugh, a community of about 8,000 on the outskirts of Johnstown.

Asked about widespread reports that Gossard had admitted the slaying, Sgt. Blair replied:

"No comment."

Blair said Gossard is being held under heavy guard on a charge of "suspicion in connection with the murder."

The nude body of little Karen was discovered early last Friday in a cemetery about two miles from her home. She had left home the previous evening on a "trick-or-treat" tour of the neighborhood.

Radar Speed Checks Due

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Department of Public Safety announced today it plans to begin radar enforcement of speed laws by mid-November on principal traffic arteries throughout the state.

New highway traffic signs, warning "speed limits radar enforced," will be erected on approaches to stretches of highway where the radar equipped patrol cars will operate, Director Homer Garrison Jr. said.

The warning signs will be placed immediately outside the city limits of towns, between towns and just inside state lines.

Garrison said Texas will thus join 31 other states and 50 cities now employing radar as a device for lowering the traffic accident rate due to excessive speed.

Tachen Islands Hit By Commies Again

By SPENCER MOOSA

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—Chinese Reds today delivered the latest blow in the new vest pocket war flaring up around the Nationalist-held Tachen Islands — an afternoon air attack in which four bombs were dropped.

It was noteworthy not because of its size but because it was the second straight day Communist planes have attacked Nationalist territory.

The Red bombers hit Yikiangshan Island after a pre-dawn Nationalist air raid on Toumen Island. The islands are about five miles apart and lie close to the Chekiang coast, northwest of the Tachens and some north of Formosa.

Press reports said Nationalist warships also hit Toumen today.

Communist planes triggered the latest firing in the vest pocket war when they bombed the Tachens Monday.

In some ways the exchange of air blows resemble the artillery duels that flared between Red-held Amoy and Nationalist-held Quemoy Islands far to the south. They began Sept. 3 with a big Red bombardment and died out about a month later.

The action around the Tachens is in one respect more serious, because it marks the first time in the long civil war the Reds have used assault planes.

It gave rise to speculation here that the Communists may use planes in the Amoy sector, and later against Formosa itself.

But Formosa and its own satellite islands are in a different category from the Nationalist-held offshore islands. The Formosa area is protected by the U.S. 7th Fleet.

American policy toward the offshore islands has been to keep the Reds guessing as to what might happen if the Communists attack the outposts.

The new Red air actions in the Tachen area may be an attempt to find out.

Turnout Of Voters In Texas Erratic During Early Hours

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
By The Associated Press

Voting in Texas Tuesday was like the weather—brisk in spots, mild in others.

One election judge in Borger called the turnout "just a steady sprinkle."

On a statewide basis only the races for governor, U.S. senator, congressman-at-large and state commissioner of agriculture were contested. The state also voted on 11 proposed amendments to the state constitution.

No rain was reported in the state before noon to keep people at home. But in the northern part of the state cold weather was blamed for slow morning starts.

No big hullabaloo arose in any of the statewide contests, and observers stuck to their original prediction of about 500,000 votes—less than a third of the state's potential.

Local races stirred up some interest.

Many loyal party members, too, wanted a good showing, for the vote for governor has a significant part in determining delegate strength to the 1956 national presidential conventions.

In Dallas, where Democrat Wallace Savage and Republican Bruce Alger were running for Congress, some boxes reported early voting almost as heavy as the August runeff. Others, however, said it was light, slow or poor. Dallas expected about 40,000 to 45,000 votes.

Fort Worth reported voting "extremely light." Near-freezing temperatures and a working day were cited as major factors in holding down the vote during the early hours.

Abilene, too, reported voting "extremely light."

Borger had light voting but expected business to pick up during the afternoon.

Waco said the turnout was light in spite of the fact McLennan County was voting on a million dollar road bond issue. The estimate was 16 to 20 per cent of the 33,000 voters in the county would vote.

Houston reported heavy voting. Most judges said it was as heavy or heavier as in the summer primaries. This would mean a vote of more than 100,000 in Harris County—unless the threatening weather interfered.

Houston had three elections—the general election, a city election for mayor and three councilmen and a school board election for three members of the board.

The Houston mayor's race was hot. Incumbent Roy Hofheinz was opposed by Louis Welch, former city councilman, and Alvin S. Moody, an attorney.

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy this afternoon and tonight. Colder this afternoon. Some light rain Wednesday. Lowest 25-30 in Panhandle and South Plains tonight.

EAST TEXAS: Freeze north and central portion tonight. Partly cloudy and much colder this afternoon and tonight. Continued cold Wednesday. Lowest 30-33 in north and central and 32-42 in extreme south portion tonight. Fresh to strong northerly winds on the coast.

SOUTH CENTRAL TEXAS: Mostly cloudy, colder this afternoon and tonight. Continued cold Wednesday. Occasional rain in extreme south portion. Lowest 32-42 in north portion tonight. Fresh to strong northeasterly winds on the coast.

Recess Delays Decision On Juror In Trial

By WILLIAM NEWKIRK

CLEVELAND (AP)—An election day recess today delayed a decision on whether James R. Manning, a convicted sex offender, should be removed from the jury picked for the Sheppard murder trial.

Informed sources, however, indicated Manning would be replaced by an alternate juror and the trial would proceed. A declaration of a mistrial was not thought likely.

The controversy swirling about the real estate salesman the past two days has almost overshadowed the real issue in the trial: Did osteopath Samuel H. Sheppard, 30, beat his pregnant wife to death last July 4 after a purported affair with Susan Hayes, a pretty hospital technician? This is the state's allegation, which Sheppard denies.

Yesterday Asst. Prosecutor John J. Mahon demanded that Manning be tossed off the jury on grounds he failed to reveal a crime in his background. Defense Atty. William J. Corrigan immediately demanded proof that Manning was a sex offender.

With that, the trial was recessed until tomorrow.

While Judge Edward Blythin would not speculate on what course the trial will take Monday, it was believed he would refer to this Ohio law in deciding the Manning question:

"... If before the final submission of the case to the jury, a juror becomes incapactiated or disqualified, he may be discharged by the judge ..."

Court sources said that would enable the judge to discharge Manning and replace him with one of the two alternate jurors selected yesterday.

Stamps, Coins Are Stolen From Office

Theft of several dollars worth of stamps and $1 in change from the office of Lloyd L. Davis, attorney, 1811½ Twenty-fifth Street, sometime during last weekend was reported to police yesterday.

Davis reported that 50 twenty-cent stamps, 40 special delivery 20 - cent stamps, 40 two - cent stamps, 80 one-cent stamps, about 400 three-cent stamps, and 50 six-cent stamps were taken.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Burton, 1206 Twentieth Street, are the parents of a daughter weighing seven pounds, 10 ounces, born at 9:55 a.m. yesterday in Battenfield-Jones Clinic-Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Thompson of Snyder are parents of a son, born at 1:35 o'clock this morning at Cogdell Memorial Hospital. The child weighed eight pounds, 10½ ounces.

Young Mothers Agree Babies Were Switched

LONDON (AP)—Two young mothers decided last night the doctors were right — a hospital had mixed up their baby sons five weeks ago, giving each the other's child.

Mrs. Vera Bowers, 22, and Mrs. Sheila Read, 24, agreed to make permanent the trial baby switch they had arranged for a 24-hour period.

"Both Sheila and I feel as if a ton weight had been lifted from our shoulders," Mrs. Bowers told a reporter.

"We thought the babies might not take to us but they are as bonny and happy as can be."

"Thank God, our days of uncertainty are over," said Mrs. Read.

The two families plan a joint christening at which their sons will trade names. Baby John, the one Mrs. Bowers got by mistake, will become Kenneth, the name his own parents picked for their son.

Baby Kenneth, so named by the Reads, will become John.

Odessa Woman Works To Get Out The Votes

ODESSA (AP)—Mrs. Kenneth Dyson, who is still too young to vote, did her part in getting out the vote for today's general election.

Mrs. Dyson was one of 10 persons called last Saturday by President Eisenhower and asked to telephone 10 friends and neighbors and urge them to vote.

Her husband said last night that the 20-year-old housewife had telephoned her 10 friends and "quite a few more."

Dyson said his wife considers herself a Democrat but would have voted for Eisenhower in 1952 if she could have. He said she can't vote this year either—she won't be 21 until Nov. 29.

Shepperd Says Poll Of Students Not Useful

AUSTIN (AP)—State Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd says there is no use polling school students on segregation if it can't be a surprise.

Shepperd's office asked for a poll in high schools at Marshall and Waco yesterday to get the students' feelings on segregation. Then he cancelled the polls suddenly when it was called to public attention.

He said the poll's only possible value had been in spontaneous answers given quickly without outside influence.

The attorney general said he had hoped to use the response to the poll as "a very small part" of the brief his department is preparing for the U.S. Supreme Court in joining with an appeal against the desegregation ruling.

Sufficient Proof Is Presented To Judge

DENVER (AP)—Murel L. Webster, 30, denied a police charge yesterday that he drove at 50 miles an hour across the 16th Street viaduct with one arm around a woman.

Webster told Municipal Judge J. Joe Rawlinson his companion was his wife and it "is not logical" that a man would drive through town with his arm around his own wife.

Judge Rawlinson agreed and dismissed a charge of careless driving.

Naming New Pets Is Problem For Oklahoman

OKLAHOMA CITY, (AP) — B. K. Bloomfield is faced with the problem of naming his four new pets.

Doesn't sound like a tough ordeal, but he says they look like fish, have feet, legs and small red whiskers. He caught them out of a farm pond. They weigh about a pound apiece, and when taken out of the water, he says they make a small barking noise.

Navy Band To Play In Front Of Huge Flag

A huge American Flag, the largest ever to be displayed here, will be used as a backdrop for performances of the U. S. Navy Band at the high school auditorium.

Hilton Lambert, general chairman of arrangements for the sponsoring Snyder Shrine Club, said the flag measures 15 feet by 24 feet.

Lambert also announced that student tickets for the matinee performances, scheduled for 2 p.m. and 4 p.m., had been reduced to 60 cents each.

"We want all students in the area to see and hear the Navy Band," Lambert said.

Adult tickets for the matinees sell for $2.40 each, while tickets for the evening performance scheduled for 8:30 p.m. sell for $3.60 for reserved seats and $2.40 for seats in the wings.

Ticket sales were reported still moving rapidly today.

Melvin Montgomery, Snyder high school band director, is scheduled to be guest conductor during the 4 p.m. matinee, and six Snyder high school band members will be permitted to play some numbers with the Navy Band.

New Political Tactics Hit By Stevenson

NEW YORK (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson, making an election eve appeal for the Democrats, hit at people who "would divide us on the matter of peace, for partisan advantage."

The Democratic standard bearer declared:

"The cessation of hostilities in Korea on terms laid down during a Democratic administration is represented as a partisan achievement of the Republicans.

He assailed "politicans who even attempt to make a partisan issue of war and peace—who would have us believe that one party is less desirous of peace than another."

"We are, I fear, reaching new depths in the pursuit of office," he said last night in a radio address.

Before going on the air, he listened to broadcasts by President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon.

After his comment on Korea, Stevenson interjected this remark into his prepared text:

"Tonight I have even heard the vice president of the United States, who not long ago was for sending American boys to fight in Indochina, claim that peace in the world is an achievement of the Eisenhower administration."

Winding up his campaign through several states, Stevenson said a Democratic Congress would "show a genuine concern" about falling farm prices and unemployment, and would bring the United States closer together with its allies.

Stevenson said the "supposed transition from war to peace is used to explain and excuse unemployment and economic hardship," and he asked:

"Is it to enlighten or confuse us that Republican spokesmen speak of a war-to-peace transition that does not exist?"

Answering GOP appeals to voters, Stevenson said:

"The implication that a Republican president is somehow entitled to a Republican Congress contradicts our Constitution, which specifically provides for congressional elections every two years just so that the people can register their attitude toward the administration in office."

Advice For Reducing Tension Of Election

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It was the night before elections and a group of local physicians advised an audience on how to calm nervous tension.

Among other things they suggested whitewashing walls, a good cry and relaxing by doing "what you enjoy."

The six physicians participated in a Columbus Academy of medicine health forum at Central High School.

Five of the doctors seemed quite calm but one kept slipping his left shoe on and off. If you've got any walls you want whitewashed, you might let him know.

Jovial Truman Makes Early Trip To Polls

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman, was an early voter today.

Truman entered the 7th precinct polling place in the Memorial Building shortly after 7 a. m. He was in a jovial mood and, after casting his ballot, remarked in reference to the election result: "It will be the right answer again."

Since his gall bladder operation last summer, Truman has been foregoing his customary early morning walks but made the election an opportunity to get in a little of his favorite exercise.

The temperature was in the low 20s and a cold wind was blowing, but Truman bundled up in a gray overcoat and walked about three blocks to the voting place.

Fisher Urges Nation To Continue Vigilance

WASHINGTON (AP) —Rep. Clark Fisher (D-Tex) says the West should not count on any uprising among the Russian people to overthrow Communist leaders.

Fisher returned recently from a tour of the Soviet Union with Rep. Laurie C. Battle of Alabama. Their views were in a copyrighted interview published in the magazine News and World Report.

They cautioned the West against relaxing its vigilance and offered no encouragement to the idea that the Russians are chafing against their leadership.

John Wayne Wed To Third Latin-American

KONA, Hawaii, (AP) — Hollywood actor John Wayne took his third Latin-American wife here yesterday, black-eyed Pilar Palette of Peru.

"This is the greatest thing that has happened to me in my whole life, and I've had some wonderful things happen," Wayne said.

They were married in the garden of Territorial Sen. William H. Hill, with whom Wayne has been staying during filming of "The Sea Chase," which was completed today.

Peterson's Trial Date Is Delayed To Jan. 17

DALLAS (AP)—Inability of the state to complete its case against Keith Lewis Peterson has forced the date of his trial for murder to be moved back to Jan. 17.

Peterson had been scheduled to go on trial Nov. 15 on charges of shooting Carolyn Schofield, his pretty ex-sweetheart, to death Sept. 2, 1949, as she worked in a downtown Dallas office building.

Contributions To Butler Are Tops In State

WASHINGTON (AP)— William B. Butler of Houston, Republican candidate for Congress, reported campaign contributions of $6,274 and expenses of $3,021 in his preliminary accounting to the Clerk of the House. The report was dated Oct. 22.

Rep. Albert Thomas (D)., for whose seat Butler ran, listed contributions of $350 and expenses of $250 through Oct. 21.

The corrupt practices act requires such preliminary reports prior to the election and a final accounting after the election. Only general election funds are involved, and some of these, including certain personal expenses of a candidate, do not have to be itemized.

Leroy LaMaster of Perryton, Republican, reported contributions totaling $1,121 to Oct. 20 and expenses amounting to $888. His opponent, Rep. Walter Rogers (D), reported no contributions but expenditure of $800.

Wallace Savage of Dallas, Democrat, listed contributions of $220 as of Oct. 18 and expenditures totaling $210. His Republican opponent, Bruce Alger of Dallas, reported no contributions and no campaign expenditures as of Oct. 23.

I'm Kerry Drake, Detective

"Around the police department, they call me a plain-clothes officer. But that only means I'm a cop who doesn't wear a uniform. The job is still to protect you and your loved ones and your property.

"To expose the foul criminals who prey on the citizens of this town, I use every modern scientific aid . . . but there are still times when I have to use a firearm . . . or a pair of fists.

"I'm a soldier in a tough war, one which costs you victims an estimated 10 billion dollars annually. It's not a pretty fight, for the criminal follows no rules in his greedy drive for money.

"I believe wars should be realistically reported. That's why, as I start my newest and most dangerous assgnime no punches will be pulled in showing what goes on in one of the most insidious rackets feeding on the public pocket-book today."

Club Members Prepare For Opening Of Apparel Center

By ANITA HALL

Members of the Atheneum Study Club are busily engaged in preparations for the opening Thursday afternoon of their clothing-for-the-needy center which is located two blocks north of the square, next door to the Aztec theater.

The center will be open each Thursday afternoon from two to five o'clock and it is hoped that persons in need of clothing will take advantage of this fact and come in to choose articles free of charge. They have a large collection of wearable clothes in children and adult sizes and a collection of shoes adaptable to all ages.

This is a project of the club's welfare program for the year. If the need is great enough and donations of clothing continue to come in to the center, the club will open each Thursday for the rest of the year, Mrs. HERMAN TRIGG, welfare committee chairman, said. Mrs. KENNETH SNYDER is co-chairman with her. All members of the club are assisting in this project. They are Mrs. FICKAS BELL, Mrs. JOHN CURRY, Mrs. R. L. DUGGAR, club president, Mrs. RAY FINLEY, Mrs. MEL Z. GILBERT, Mrs. ORAN HENDERSON, Mrs. MARCENE HOLT, Mrs. WILSON HOWELL, Mrs. BEN LEIBE, Mrs. ELROY MILLER, Mrs. HAROLD PARSONS, Mrs. GENE RICHARDSON, Mrs. JACK SHERIDAN, Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Trigg, Mrs. B. J. WEAVER, Mrs. J. C. WILLIAMSON and Mrs. TED ZECK.

Four men who served in the armed forces together during World War II and their wives who followed them from one army camp to another met for a reunion last weekend in Ira at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. BYARS. They were Mr. and Mrs. Doyis Neisler and sons, Donnie and Dickie, of Paris, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. Dan Abernathy, Altus, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Maikell and sons Ronnie and Joe Ben, of Kermit.

The men entered service in the summer of 1941 at Camp Polk, La. and that is when their wives met for the first time. They traveled with their husbands to Camp Pickett, Va. and, later, to Indiantown Gap, Pa. Abernathy, Byars and Neisler went overseas in September of '43 while Maikell was in Officers' Candidate School in Kentucky. He later joined them in France where he was wounded and sent back to the United States for further hospitalization. The other three men fought together in the Battle of the Bulge and other battles and received their discharges in the summer of 1945.

The families have kept in contact with each other but the meeting Sunday was the first time they had all been together in eleven years, Mrs. Byars said.

Garden Club Sets Flower Show Friday

The Snyder Garden Club has scheduled its annual fall flower show for Friday in the exhibit barn in Towle Memorial Park.

Judging events will begin at 3 p.m. and the displays will remain on exhibit until 8 p.m.

The public has been invited to enter exhibits in the show. Exhibits will be accepted featuring chrysanthemums, Dahlias, any perennial flowers or shrubs, or ornamental grasses in the horticulture division. Also to be exhibited are arrangements suitable for a coffee table.

All exhibits must be in place by 1 p.m. on the day of the show, and no exhibit may be removed before 8 p.m.

The Snyder Garden Club is continuing its drive to promote yard beautification here in preparation for the district convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, which is scheduled to be held here next spring.

The club is urging residents to plant bulbs and plants which will be in bloom during the time of the convention.

The fall flower show is one of two annual exhibitions sponsored here by the Garden Club.

This newcomer, Sunny Cranberry Cheesecake, is a delicious unbaked two-layer cheesecake, made with crushed graham cracker crumbs and luscious red cranberry sauce. It's elegant and it's easy; try it this way and see for yourself.

SUNNY CRANBERRY CHEESECAKE

2 packages unflavored gelatin
4 cup granulated sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1 cup milk
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
6 tablespoons melted butter
3 tablespoons granulated sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
3 cups cottage cheese (24 ounces) sieved
2 3-ounce packages cream cheese
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon orange juice
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 can cranberry sauce
1½ cups graham cracker crumbs

Combine gelatin, 1 cup sugar, salt, slightly beaten egg yolks and milk in top of double boiler over boiling water. Cook, stirring constantly, about 10 minutes. Add grated orange rind and cool to lukewarm. Meanwhile, grease two 8 or 9-inch round layer cake pans. Combine melted butter, 3 tablespoons sugar, graham cracker crumbs and cinnamon. Blend well. Sprinkle half of crumbs over bottom of greased pans, reserving remainder to coat cake. Combine cottage cheese and cream cheese. Blend well; fold into gelatin mixture. Add vanilla and orange juice. Beat egg whites stiff and fold with whipped cream into cheese mixture. Pour half of mixture into each cake pan and chill until firm. Loosen sides of layers with knife. Invert one layer onto chilled serving plate. Spread top generously with cranberry sauce. Top with remaining layer. Sprinkle sides and top of cake with remaining crumbs. Garnish edge of plate with whole cranberries and fresh green leaves.

Big Scores Playing Part In AP Ratings

By HUGH FULLERTON JR
Associated Press Staff

The growing idea that a football team has to "win big" every Saturday to maintain a high national ranking will come in for a serious test next weekend.

Although the educators deplore the thought of running up big scores to impress the voters, the success of such high-scoring teams as UCLA and Miami has been reflected consistently in the balloting of the sports writers and broadcasters participating in the weekly Associated Press ranking poll.

It's UCLA on top this week, the third leader in as many weeks.

Led by flashy Primo Villaneuva, UCLA rolled over California 27-6 after beating Stanford 72-0 and Oregon 61-0 on the two previous Saturdays. Those three straight displays of brutal power, combined with Ohio State's 14-7 squeaker over Northwestern, put Red Sanders' Uclans ahead by the narrow margin of 28 points.

Ohio State had taken the lead from Oklahoma the week before when Bud Wilkinson's unbeaten Oklahomans won by a small margin. When the same thing happened again, Oklahoma winning by only 13-6 from stubborn Colorado, the Sooners dropped lower in the point scoring although they managed to hold third place by a comfortable margin over Arkansas.

Scoring is on the basis of 10 points for each first-place vote, 9 for second, etc. UCLA, corraling firsts and 1,903 points, Oklahoma 72 of the 281 first-place votes, piled 42 and 1,666 and Arkansas 16 and up 1,931 points. Ohio State had 69 1,494.

Completing the first 10 were Dame, Miami (Fla.), Army, Purdue, Mississippi and Southern California.

Miami, another high-scoring team, moved into the top 10 a week ago after a 9-7 upset over Maryland. Then it whizzed past Fordham 75-7 last Friday and jumped to sixth in the rankings.

Virtually all the top 10 teams figure to win from this Saturday's opponents, so it comes down to the question of whether just winning is enough. Army won from Virginia, 21-20, last Saturday but dropped two notches in the rankings.

The leading teams, with first-place votes in parentheses:

1.	UCLA (72)	1,931
2.	Ohio State (69)	1,903
3.	Oklahoma (42)	1,666
4.	Arkansas (16)	1,494

Snyder Teams Hold 70.9 Win Record

Two Snyder football teams, both undefeated, will wind up their season this week, while one has two more games to go and two have three games remaining.

The teams playing their last games this week will be the junior high's seventh and eighth grades, which will host Lamesa teams Thursday night. Both the teams have high hopes to finish the season undefeated and untied, and their chances are good, since each has downed its Lamesa opponent previously this season.

On Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, the freshman team will also take on a Lamesa squad here.

Those three games will make up all football action involving Snyder teams this week. Both the A squad and B team will be idle.

So far this year, six Snyder teams have won 22 games, tied three, and lost six. That gives them a 70.9 per cent win record. They have a combined scoring total of 731 points to opponents' 296, giving them an average of 23.5 to 9.5.

Last week the varsity downed Plainview 39-19, the B team took Big Spring 21-12, the eighth grade won over the Big Spring eighth 33-7, and the seventh grade beat the Big Spring seventh 12-6. The frosh were idle, and the seventh grade B team has already finished its season.

Here's how all the teams stand so far this season:

Varsity — Won 71.1 per cent of games, averaged 21.8 to 9.1 per game, still must meet Breckenridge here Nov. 12, Big Spring away Nov. 17, and Lamesa away Nov. 25. Coached by John Conley, Hal Battle, and Horrace Bostick.

B team — Won 33.3 per cent of games, averaged 17.4 to 21.5 points per game, still has Colorado City there Nov. 13 and Lamesa away Nov. 20. Coached by Jack Dillon.

Frosh — Won 75 per cent of games and tied other 25 per cent, averaged 30.5 to 10 points per game. Still has Lamesa here Thursday, Big Spring away Nov. 11 and Sweetwater here Nov. 18. Coached by J. P. Ward.

Eighth grade — Won 100 per cent of games and averaged 30.5 to 5.4 points per game. Still has Lamesa here Thursday. Coached by Charlie Storrs and Guy Sullivan.

Seventh grade — Won 100 per cent of games, average 23.4 to 3.8 points per game. Still has Lamesa here Thursday. Coached by Roy Carter and Gene Williams.

Seventh grade B team — Won no games but tied 100 per cent, averaged 3 points to 3 per game and has finished its season. Coached by Roy Carter.

Cotton Bowl Drawing To Be Held Tomorrow

DALLAS (AP)—A drawing to determine the order in which Cotton Bowl ticket applications are to be filled will be held tomorrow afternoon.

There are requests for 70,000 tickets and only 25,000 available to the public, so a lot of folks won't be able to buy tickets. Those whose applications fail to land in the drawing will have their checks returned.

Applications were received by mail over a 4-day period last week. All were put into the pot from which the drawing will be held to determine who buys the 25,000 tickets.

ABOVE THE BLEACHERS

By DALE WALTON

The Snyder Tigers have an open date this week, and many fans will be looking for games to attend Friday night.

Here's a summary of a few in the area they may want to see:

Hermleigh vs. Bronte at Hermleigh at 8 p.m. Friday. Hermleigh now holds the lead in the District 6-B race and has the roughest of its two remaining opponents in this game. This will be homecoming for Hermleigh exes.

Gail vs. Knott at Gail at 8 p. m. Friday. Gail, one of the top six-man teams of this area, now is tied with Ackerly for first place in its district. Knott did hold first but is now down to second. It is considered Gail's roughest opponent of the season.

Big Spring at Breckenridge at 8 p.m. Friday. Many Snyder fans will be going to this one, since it will have much to do with who takes the District 3A-1 title. The two teams are now at the top of the district.

Plainview at Sweetwater at 8 p. m. Friday. Sweetwater still ranks high in the district, and Plainview is still winless for the season. Although Sweetwater will be highly favored, Plainview wants a win bad. Could be a good game.

Colorado City at Rotan at 8 p.m. Friday. Colorado City is on its way to a district championship and is undefeated and untied. This game will probably be a runaway, but it is close if anyone wants to see C-City operate.

Hobbs, an area Class B team, will be playing at South Taylor.

Breckenridge, Big Spring, and Levelland dominate the district in most offensive figures. After another week of play, Big Spring is leading total offense and rushing in district play, while Levelland has the highest pass percentage, Breckenridge is averaging more yards per pass, and Vernon is leading pass yardage. In season play, top teams are Levelland in total offense, pass yardage, and pass percentage, while Breck leads rushing and per-pass average.

The Snyder team ranks third in season rushing, third in season total offense, fourth in season pass yardage, second in season per-pass average, and fifth in season pass percentage. In district play, Snyder is third in per-pass average, third in total offense, third in rushing, tied for third in pass percentage, and sixth in total pass yardage.

Maybe Arkansas Is Worst SW Team, But It Manages To Win

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas football players grin when you inform them they're absolutely the worst team in the Southwest Conference.

You are backed by the statistics and there's no use for them to deny it.

The Razorbacks are last in yards gained. Even Texas A&M, which snugly occupies the cellar, has covered more territory.

Defensively Arkansas ranks sixth. Only Texas has given up more yards than the Razorbacks.

There's just one little detail that makes the Arkansas team laugh. They happen to be undefeated and untied and leading the conference race.

A couple of items in the statistics, items that seldom are noticed, tell the story of whom the team that has expected to finish last and be fortunate to win one game has gone through six contests without having to bow its head.

The items are "Fumbles Lost" and "Passes Intercepted."

Seventeen times in six games the opposition has fumbled the ball to Arkansas. In most of their victories, the Razorbacks has cashed in on the other fellows' bobbles.

When not doing that they have used intercepted passes.

Texas Christian can attest to the first item and to the second. A fumble on the Arkansas 1-yard line lost TCU a touchdown. An intercepted pass in the last minute cost TCU the ball game.

Only last week Arkansas recovered two Texas A&M fumbles and scored each time to win 14-7.

A recovered fumble set up the field goal that beat Baylor 21-20.

And so on.

Arkansas has two games to go before winding up the conference race. They are against Rice and Southern Methodist and Rice comes first—the Porkers play the Owls at Little Rock Saturday.

Rice, like most of Arkansas' opponents this season, has gained more ground and given up less.

Rice has averaged 47.7 yards more per game on offense and allowed 23.5 less on defense. The Owls have outrun and outpassed Arkansas. But the more you pass against Arkansas the more chance you take of being defeated. The Razorbacks have gathered in 13 enemy throws. Rice has managed only seven. But Arkansas passes less than any team in the conference. The Razorbacks have averaged only 8.1 per game. Not much chance of getting the ball away from them on that score.

But if the opposition stays on the ground too there's that infernal fumble to worry about.

The Razorbacks don't mind looking bad in the statistics. The main thing is what they do with the ball when they get it. George Walker, Buddy Benson and Henry Moore know exactly what to do with it. Thus far Arkansas hasn't had the ball long, but when you can strike like these fellows you don't need it long.

Besides it's more fun letting the opposition do all the work.

Galveston Is Now In Top Spot In AAAA

DALLAS (AP) — The Tornadoes from Galveston Ball, who turned the Class AAAA schoolboy football race into a Horatio Alger story this year, were rewarded this week with first place in the Dallas Morning News rankings.

The ratings, based on the votes of Texas sportswriters, boosted the Tors into the lead held last week by Port Arthur, latest victim of the Galveston Tornado.

Abilene headed back for the lead it held before losing to Breckenridge and took over second. Midland took third place and Port Arthur dropped to fourth.

Ball and Midland are the only teams in the list still unbeaten.

The top ten:

1. Galveston (8-AAAA)
2. Abilene (1-AAAA)
3. Midland (1-AAAA)
4. Port Arthur (8-AAAA)
5. Waco (5-AAAA)
6. Houston Lamar (7-AAAA)
7. Corpus Christi Ray (6-AAAA)
8. Dallas Sunset (4-AAAA)
9. Pasadena (8-AAAA)
10. Wichita Falls (5-AAAA)

Baytown (8-AAAA); Tyler (5-AAAA) and San Angelo (1-AAAA) (tie); Corpus Christ Miller (6-AAAA); Highland Park (5-AAAA); Dallas Forest (4-AAAA); and San Antonio Brackenridge (6-AAAA) are next in the rankings.

Sam Baugh To Speak At QB Event

Sammy Baugh, one of the most famous football players of the last two decades and now an associate coach at Hardin-Simmons University, has accepted an invitation of the Quarterback Club to speak here at a barbecue Nov. 30.

The club is holding the barbecue in honor of all Snyder football teams, from the varsity down to the seventh grade. The barbecue will be held in the high school cafeteria.

Baugh played 16 years with the Washington Redskins before going to the HSU coaching staff. He last spoke here in 1951 at a banquet honoring the Texas Tech coaching staff.

The Quarterback Club will hold its regular meeting at 7:30 o'clock tonight and will discuss plans for the barbecue, according to Bill Morgan, president. Coach John Conley heads a committee making arrangements.

The group will also briefly discuss last Friday night's Snyder-Plainview game, which Snyder won 39-19. The Snyder team is idle this week.

Johnson Has Million To Buy Players With

CHICAGO (AP)—Industrialist Arnold Johnson thinks his chances of buying the Philadelphia Athletics and moving them to Kansas City are so good that he's ready to pump a million dollars into the player market to build a pennant contender.

Johnson offered $3,375,000 for the Athletics last summer and yesterday said the offer still stands.

"The deal just has to jell a little while," he said. "But I believe my chances are excellent."

Less than a month ago Johnson not only had Roy Mack's promise that he would buy the A's but he also received approval from American League owners.

Since then the following events took place:

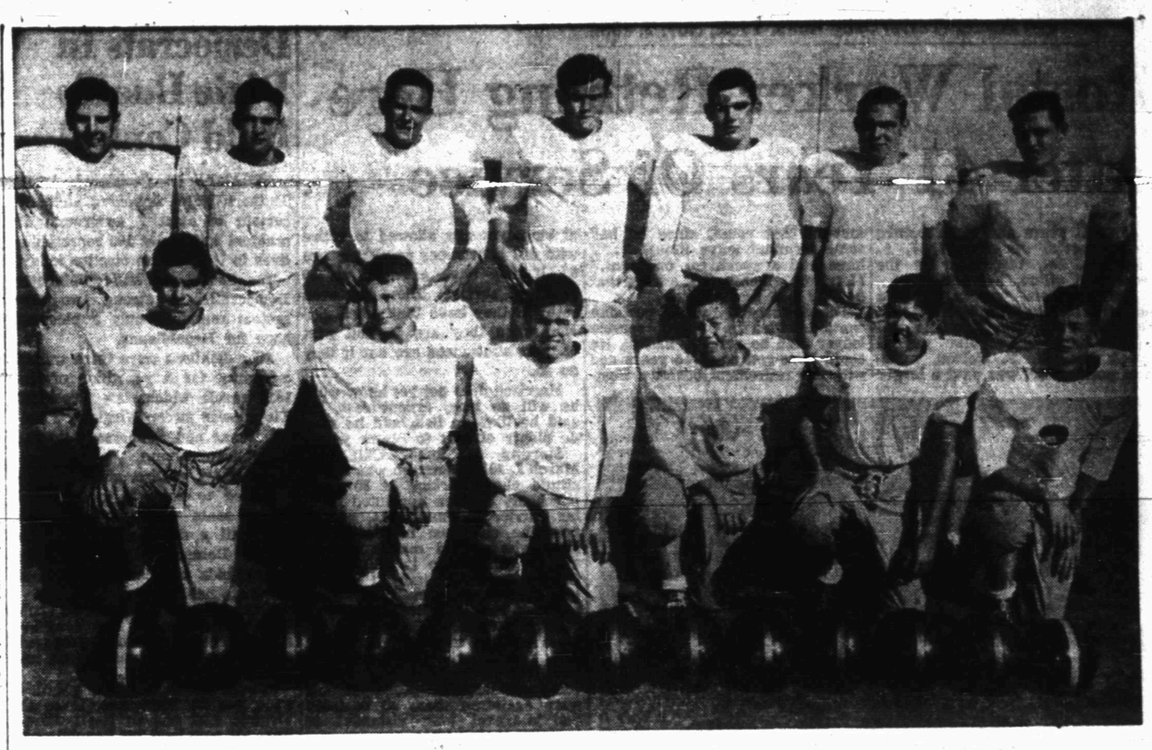
1. The team was sold to a Philadelphia syndicate.

2. Johnson threatened a suit for "substantial damages" against the syndicate, contending Roy had given his word he would sell to him.

3. The American League turned down the syndicate's bid for the club.

Speaking about the A's, Johnson said, "I realize that we do not have too much trade making material. I am ready to pour another million dollars into the A's at Kansas City for players in the next 2 or 2½ years."

Yesterday, Johnson for the first time disclosed the names of his partners. They are Nathaniel Leverone, J. Patrick Lannan and Josep H. Briggs—Chicago business tycoon.



GAIL IN BIG GAME

Gail's Coyotes, six-man football team which is now tied up for its district lead, will have one of its biggest games of the season at Gail Friday night when it takes on Knott. Knott formerly held first place in the district but now has one defeat. Gail and Ackerly have a tie each but have not lost a game. Left to right, front row, are Ruben Vaughn, Don Dodd, Mike Smith, Norman Ledbetter, Pat Porter, and Francis Walker. Back row, Glen Kingston, Larry Smith, Borden Reeder, Donald Reddell, Lonnie Doyle, E. L. Franklin, and Shorty Farmer. Another team member, Alvin Bradshaw, is not shown. (Lee Watson photograph)

Southwest Teams Are Taking Stock Of Player Situation

By JOE BENHAM
Associated Press Staff

Texas Christian had lost a star, Baylor had one back and Texas had discovered that it had one all the time as Southwest Conference teams took stock of their situations Monday.

Workouts ranged from skull sessions at Texas A&M to an unusually tough drill at Arkansas.

Texas Christian took the day off, after the Horned Frogs learned that standout fullback Buddy Dike had been lost for the season due to a kidney ailment. Dike sat out last week's 12-7 loss to Baylor after leading the Frogs in ground-gaining during the early season.

Ankle injuries suffered by quarterback Ronald Clinkscale and tackles Ray Hill and Dick Laswell were reported, but trainer Elmer Brown said none of the hurts was "too serious. The Frogs are idle this week.

At Baylor, halfback L. G. Dupre was reported fully recovered from leg injury suffered a month ago against Miami. Dupre, a holdover from last season's "Fearsome Foursome" Baylor backfield, saw limited action against TCU last week.

The Bears were due a heavy scrimmage Tuesday in preparation for Texas, following a light workout Monday.

The play of quarterback Glen Dyer, who moved up from the fourth string to spark Texas to a 13-13 tie with SMU last week, drew special praise from Longhorn Coach Ed Price. Dyer completed eight of 20 passes for 124 yards and led Texas on the ground while sharing man-under duties with Charley Brewer.

The nine players ordered out of the Texas athletic dorm as a disciplinary measure last week returned to practice Monday for a light workout stressing running and passing.

Arkansas broke a season-long precedent with a heavy drill on Monday. The Porkers, who kept their unbeaten streak alive with a 14-7 victory over A&M last week, worked extensively on blocking and tackling. The Razorbacks also saw training films of Rice in action as they readied to meet the Owls Saturday at Little Rock.

Dicky Moegle, star Rice halfback, entered a hospital for treatment of a cold Monday, but trainer Eddie Wojecki stressed that Moegle was not considered seriously ill. Moegle, who was expected back for Tuesday's practice, had the cold Saturday when he scored three touchdowns and had a fourth called back against Vanderbilt. Otherwise, the Owls were reported in top shape as they worked in sweat suits.

Southern Methodist reported three injuries among its top players as the Mustangs worked lightly in preparation for Saturday's homecoming game with A&M here. Tackle Bob Blakely, halfback Blake Tucker and guard Jimmy Smith may see only limited action against the Aggies and will probably miss much of this week's practice, Coach Woody Woodard said.

Quarterback Jimmy Haynie and halfback Buzz Kemble looked impressive in Monday's Mustang drill.

A dummy scrimmage in which reserves worked lightly and last week's starters took no part made up the active portion of the workout at Texas A&M. The Aggies were rated in good shape by Coach Bear Bryant, who praised the team for what he called its "all-out effort" last week against Arkansas.

Minor Club Owner To File Suit Tomorrow

WASHINGTON (AP)—The owner of a minor league baseball club is expected to file an estimated 50-million-dollar suit tomorrow against baseball's major leagues.

The suit was to have been filed yesterday but James P. McGranery, former U.S. attorney general and lawyer for club owner Frank Lawrence, was out of the city. His office said he would return tomorrow and presumably file the suit then.

Lawrence, owner of the Portsmouth, Va., entry in the Piedmont League, has said he will seek damages from the major leagues and Commissioner Ford Frick for alleged violation of minor league territorial rights through radio and TV broadcasting of big league games.

Galveston's Secret Is Spirit, Tully Says

GALVESTON (AP)—Here in Texas' island city the folks aren't slightly football mad—they're entirely football mad.

Galveston always has loved the game but never before has anybody played it well enough to crow about—until now.

Today Ball High School is undefeated and untied and thinking in big terms of a state championship. There is reason for the thought—the Tornadoes have just finished beating the two teams that were rated tops in Texas.

First, the Tornadoes licked Baytown 6-0. Baytown was ranked No. 2. Last week the Tors whipped Port Arthur 13-12. Port Arthur was rated No. 1 in the state.

What's the secret of the team's success? How did a team that won only two games out of ten in 1953 suddenly burst onto the Texas scene with victories in the "miracle class"?

Coach Darrell Tully says, "It's just the spirit. The boys have an unbeatable spirit. They want to win. That's all there is to it."

But how do they go about winning? The main thing has been one of the mightiest ground games ever fashioned in Texas schoolboy football. It has romped to 1,781 yards in seven games, operating from the Split T.

Defense is another long suit of the Tors. They have no pass defense except rushing the boy who's doing the throwing. They've done that to perfection. The Tors can't handle passes after they're thrown very well but if the other side can't throw them there's nothing to worry about is there?

They say here the Tors play just well enough to win. The record shows it. The biggest margin they've won by has been 18 points. They have won four by six points, one by seven and one by one. Sort of the Arkansas of Texas schoolboy football.

Just let that other side make a mistake and the Tors have them down.

Galveston is expected to win the district championship without much trouble. It will be the second one in history for Ball High. The Tors took the crown in 1949 but got beat in the bi-district round—by Port Arthur. They weren't in Port Arthur's district then. In 1942 they were district co-champions but didn't get into the state playoff.

This team though is different. It beat the best before getting out of the district.

Keymen of the Tor backfield are Earl Fairchild, G. F. Alsbrook and Freddie Rigden—they've done the scoring, the first two with 30 points apiece and Rigden with 24. But Charles Alcala is a fine runner. Actually, they have a hard time picking the star. It's more of a team effort.

And Galveston has a 190-pound line. It's big and tough enough to handle anybody.

But mainly, says Tully happily, it's spirit.

Ryff Doesn't Go For KO's

BROOKLYN (AP)—Young Frankie Ryff, the unbeaten New York lightweight, had a glib-sounding but well-meaning explanation today of why he didn't go all out for a knockout in his 15th straight victory last night.

Ryff, 22, won every round as he outclassed the veteran Henry Davis of Los Angeles at Eastern Parkway. He had Davis set up but didn't deliver the clincher.

"I don't concentrate on knockouts," said Ryff. "They don't mean that much to me. And anyway, I like to practice on these guys."

Ryff weighed 139¼, Davis 135¼.

Davis was the second important victim for Ryff, who turned pro in 1951 after winning national and Golden Gloves championships. His career was interrupted by a two-year Army hitch and an eight-month layoff because of a fractured knuckle. His first big win was a decision over Ralph Dupas.

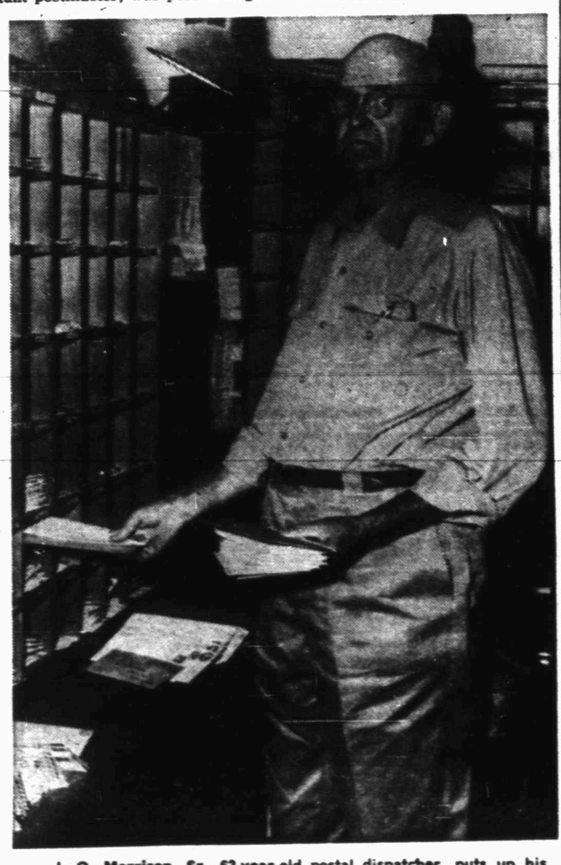
Postal Worker Retiring Here After 41 Years Of Service

After 41 years and eight months in the postal department, J. A. Morrison, Sr., dispatcher in the local post office, has retired.

Morrison, who was in the post office yesterday for a chat with postmaster Dawson Moreland and to get his last regular payroll check from J. P. Nelson, assistant postmaster, was paid a larger amount that usual, since he had some terminal leave time left. "I have had a check for one cent," Morrison remembered, adding that he still has that check.

The 63-year-old former postman worked with the postal service longer than he actually had to. He could have retired three years ago with full retirement benefits. Postal employes are allowed to retire with full allowances when they are 60, if they have as much as 30 years of service. They can even retire if they have that much service when they are 55, but part of their allowances are cut if they do so.



J. O. Morrison, Sr., 63-year-old postal dispatcher, puts up his last mail at the post office here before retiring with more than 41 years of service. Morrison has worked in Hugo, Okla., Lubbock, Clayton, N. M., and Snyder during that time. Postmen were "just like mules" when he entered the postal service, he said. (Lee Watson photograph)

Morrison does not yet know what he will do now, except rest. He said he likes to fish, and he may do plenty of that in future years.

Starting at Hugo, Okla., on March 1, 1913, Morrison was a substitute clerk working at 30 cents per hour. He was appointed regular carrier in June, 1914, and is now the only one of three carriers who started residential service in Hugo who is still living. Carrier work now is hard enough, but it was rougher then, when postmen had to deliver most parcels to patrons. "If we could lift them we had to carry them," he said, remembering times when he was loaded down with packages when he left the office. Routes were scattered then, so postmen had to travel long distances in town on their routes.

In 1923, Morrison was transferred to Lubbock. He was still a carrier then, but in 1925 he was moved inside as a clerk. He worked at that post until 1930, when he was transferred to Clayton, N. M.

Morrison was transferred to Snyder in 1937. He has been here since, working in the dispatch department. For several years, he doubled on windows at times, since dispatching did not take all his time. In dispatching, the postal employe sorts the mail according to where it goes from Snyder.

Morrison cannot remember his time in postal service being anything extraordinary. He did, however, get bitten by a rabid dog once in his early days as a carrier. That was of little consequence, however, since he gained 40 pounds when he took the Pasteur treatment.

The retired postman served during the terms of eight U.S. presidents. William Howard Taft was just going out of office when Morrison entered the postal service. Since that time, presidents have been Woodrow Wilson, Warren G. Harding, Calvin Coolidge, Herbert Hoover, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harry S. Truman, and Dwight D. Eisenhower. When Morrison started, Albert Sidney Burleson of Texas was postmaster general. "He used to say that postmen were just mules," Morrison said, adding that such a statement wasn't far from wrong, if the amount of work they had to do at that time was considered.

Morrison's son, J. O. Morrison, Jr., now works in the dispatch department. He started work in the postal service in 1944, was out while he attended school and was in the Army,, and came back to the post office in 1950.

Morrison and his wife live at 1905 Thirtieth Street. They have the one son and three daughters, Mrs. Weldon Key of Fluvanna, Mrs. Odell Roberts of Amarillo, and Mrs. Weldon Alexander of Dallas.

Turbulence Appears Again In Parr Land

By The Associated Press

Developments multiplied Tuesday in the turbulent South Texas area over which George B. Parr and his family have held political sway for decades.

There were these events coincident with Tuesday's general election:

1. The state attorney general requested that all ballots in the four counties of the 79th Judicial District be impounded for safekeeping as soon as they were counted.

2. A new Duval County Grand Jury was sworn in after much argument from attorneys representing Parr.

3. A new grand jury at Houston subpoenaed records of Duval County and the Benavides Independent School District.

4. A transfer of cases involving former Duval County Auditor C. T. Stansell to Tarrant County was revoked by Judge Maxwell Welch of New Boston.

Parr's attorneys contended as the new Duval County Grand Jury was empaneled that the jury commission which selected the 16 persons was composed entirely of members of the Freedom Party, a political organization sworn to oppose Parr.

Dist. Judge Ray Winder of Gainesville, holding court this week in the 79th District, overruled the objections. He swore in the first 12 men on the grand jury venire and appointed John Rutledge, president of the Freedom Party, the grand jury foreman.

The grand jury went into immediate session and indicated it would meet even on general election day.

The federal grand jury probing income tax affairs of Parr at Houston asked that the county and school district records be acquired when the state grand jury's term expired.

Subpoenas were issued for Amando Garcia Jr., county clerk of Duval County; Francisco Saenz, county treasurer, and J. R. Deleon, secretary of the Benavides school school district board. All were asked to bring records, journals, ledgers etc. of transactions made in their offices.

The revocation of the transfer of cases involving Stansell came an hour before the new court opened Monday. Welch said he had been told by Tarrant County officials that the 22 indictments against Stansell might be delayed for two or three years in Fort Worth because of jammed court dockets.

The 22 indictments against the former auditor charge felony theft and forgery.

Besides Duval County, the other counties where ballots were to be impounded after counting today included Jim Wells, Starr and Brooks.

Political interest in the district centers around the district judgeship and district attorney post.

Democrat C. Woodrow Laughlin, removed from the 79th bench last spring by the State Supreme Court, faces State Rep. A. J. Vale, who announced as a write-in candidate.

ASKED TO LEAVE RUSSIA

Mrs. Karl E. Sommerlatte, left, said by the Soviet government to have hit a Russian worker in the face in a Moscow dipiomatic incident, is shown during a recent party at the American embassy in Moscow. Mrs. Sommerlatte, 32, wife of the U.S. embassy's second secretary, and Mrs. Houston Stiff, wife of the embassy's naval attache, were said by the Soviet authorities to have attempted to photograph Russian children against the wishes of a parent. Mrs. Sommerlatte has been asked to leave Russia by the foreign ministry. The State Department says the Soviets illegally detained the women and subjected them to "personal indignities."

Democrats In Dixie Due To Hold Control

ATLANTA (AP)—Democrats in 11 Southern states appeared virtually certain to elect 7 governors, 11 senators and about 100 representatives in the general election today.

The South was still dominantly Democratic. A strong two-party system remained only a pleasant hope for Republicans.

All indications were there wasn't a chance for a repetition of the 1952 revolt which saw President Eisenhower sweep Virginia, Florida, Texas and Tennessee into the Republican column.

About 4½ million citizens were expected to vote. A total of 106 House seats were at stake and only half a dozen or so were in doubt. Democrats were making strong bids to recapture four of six seats held by Republicans.

Voter interest was reported spotty. Only a few of the congressional races and some proposed changes in state constitutions attracted real attention.

Among House seats in question were two in Tennessee, three in Virginia and one in North Carolina, all now held by Republicans.

Traditionally Republican east Tennessee was expected to return Republicans to its two House posts. Democrats, however, waged vigorous contests to recapture the other four.

In Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina and Texas, Republican candidates filed for about 20 seats, but their chances were considered slim except in two Florida races.

The only real contest over a Senate seat in the South was in South Carolina, where two Democrats were competing. State Sen. Edgar Brown, nominated by the State Democratic Committee after the death of Sen. Burnet R. Maybank was opposed by former Gov. J. Strom Thurmond as a write-in candidate.

Republicans put up candidates for governor in some states and appeared to be making a real bid in Arkansas. There Mayor Pratt Remmel of Little Rock opposed the Democratic nominee, Orval Faubus, winner of a bitter primary. Most experts expected Remmel to lose, but to poll the largest vote ever cast for a Republican in the state.

Elephant Boy Wins Verdict From Jury

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A jury has returned a verdict in favor of Sabu Dastagir, former elephant boy of the movies, who was sued by two insurance companies for return of $29,081 paid him after a 1950 fire in his house.

Sabu, 29, denied an allegation that he conspired to set the fire for the insurance money. Sabu and his wife Marilyn testified that they were not at the house at the time of the fire.

Andre Perez served a two-year prison term for arson, having admitted he set the fire and took jewelry and other valuables from the house.

Man Draws Sentence For Arizona Attack

FLORENCE, Ariz. (AP) — Bob Spencer, 24-year-old service station worker, was sentenced yesterday to 24 to 30 years imprisonment for stealing a 9-month-old baby and sexually attacking him.

Spencer pleaded guilty to charges of sodomy, aggravated assault and child stealing.

The baby, Daniel Ernest Stephens, was taken from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Stephens Jr., at Stanfield, a southern Arizona farming center, the night of Sept. 14.

A short time later officers found the child crying in some weeds beside a road.

Paul A. Lewis Spends 7-Day Leave In Japan

Pfc. Paul A. Lewis of Snyder recently spent seven days in Japan on a rest and recuperation leave from the 815th Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion in Korea.

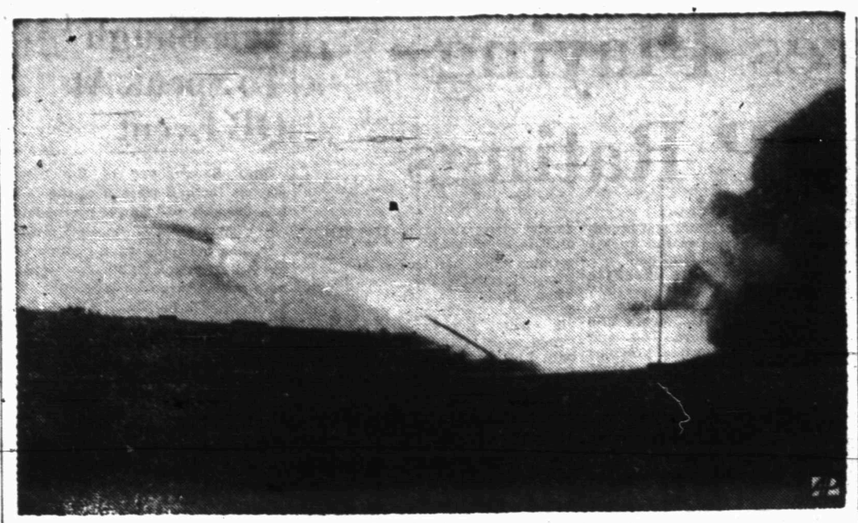
Lewis, 22, is a radio operator. He arrived overseas in April from Fort Bliss after completing basic training three. He was inducted into the army last November.

Lewis' wife, Mrs. Bettye Lewis, lives on route 3 here. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lewis, live in Odessa.

Services Held Today For Mrs. Appleton

Funeral services for Mrs. J. M. Appleton, 84, of Hermleigh, were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the First Baptist Church there. Mrs. Appleton died Sunday night in a Colorado City hospital.

Pallbearers were W. L. Etheredge, Travis Burleson, Alfred Davis, Aubrey Williams, J. J. Henry and William C. Ray. Burial in the Pyron cemetery was directed by Bell Funeral Home.



'HONEST JOHN' ROARS AWAY

Throwing a tremendous flame, an Honest John rocket starts on its way to a target at Ft. Sill, Okla. The launcher is almost hidden by the 762mm rocket's backfire. This picture of the artillery weapon is the first released by the U.S. Army. The rocket is capable of carrying an atomic warhead. Last week the Army announced that Honest John batteries from Ft. Sill and Ft. Bragg, N.C., are being sent to Europe to bolster defenses for the Western World.

Press Censorship In Korea, Japan Ends

TOKYO (AP)—U.S. Army press censorship in Korea and Japan ended today.

Far East Command censors were advised by the Defense Department that stabilization of the military situation in Korea and redeployment of most of the American, and foreign military troops there has ended the need for security in press dispatches and pictures.

Censorship was imposed Dec. 23, 1950.

Open Door Regarded As Formal Invitation

HENDERSON, Ky. (AP) — When pranksters kept him awake by throwing walnuts against his house, Ed Dunbar decided to leave the front door open.

Now, he said to himself, "I can get a running start on them the next time it happens."

But Dunbar fell asleep. He awoke yesterday morning, walked into the living room and found his cow staring him in the face.

Daily Crude Flow Registers Decline

TULSA (AP)—The United States' daily average production of crude oil and condensate declined 20,400 barrels during the week ended Oct. 30 to 6,164,525 barrels, the Oil and Gas Journal's survey showed today.

The bulk of the net loss resulted from a 15,800-barrel drop in Oklahoma to 483,700 barrels. The top gain was in Montana, up 1,800 barrels to 42,700.

The Journal figured 1954 cumulative production at 1,919,129,650 barrels compared to 1,971,810,529 a year ago.

Production was unchanged in Texas, 2,597,575 barrels.

Rape Charge Is Filed

SWEETWATER, Tex. (AP)—Albert Phillmore, 44-year-old Negro, was charged yesterday with raping a 64-year-old white woman Saturday at her home near Roscoe where he had been employed more than two years.

Campaign Didn't Turn Out As Eisenhower Hoped It Would

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, (AP)—No matter who wins today's elections — Democrats or Republicans — the 1954 campaign hasn't been the kind President Eisenhower had in mind.

In 1953 he indicated he wouldn't be very active in this year's campaign. But he was. In 1953 he expressed hope Communists-in-government wouldn't be a campaign issue this year. But it was.

Only last week he said he doesn't consider today's elections a vote of confidence in himself or his administration, but Vice President Nixon already has interpreted it that way.

Nixon, congratulated by Eisenhower for the extremely active role he has played in the campaign, has called in public speeches for a "vote of confidence" in the President.

In response to a news conference question Oct. 21, 1953 — "Will you take part in the congressional campaign next year?" — Eisenhower said:

He did not intend to make of the presidency an agency to use in partisan elections . . . Anybody occupying this office was president of all the people . . . He had no intention of going out and getting into partisan struggles in any district or state.

Naturally, this didn't make Republican politicians happy. And in his next news conference, a week later, Eisenhower said he wanted to see a Republican Congress elected in 1954.

But when asked that day if he felt it would be improper for him to issue a request for election of a Republican Congress, Eisenhower said he wouldn't say what form any statement might take but he doubted a mere request along that line would be effective.

By the time the 1954 campaign was half over Eisenhower still had planned no more than three speeches and showed no signs of wanting to go into individual states to plug for candidates.

Then Republican politicians beat a path to his Summer White House in Denver, asking for help. After that, bit by bit, Eisenhower got deeper into the campaign.

By the time of today's balloting, Eisenhower had campaigned more actively in a mid-term election than any president in modern times. He had pleaded for a Republican Congress and had flown into individual states.

Eisenhower expressed hope Reds-in-government would not be an issue in 1954 at a news conference Nov. 18, 1953. Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) promptly said it would be an issue.

In the early weeks of the 1954 campaign Eisenhower seemed right, McCarthy wrong.

It may have been an issue locally in some contests for Congress. It was not a national issue until late in the campaign, injected by Nixon and others.

Senator Ask 'Protection'

FAIRMONT, W. Va. (AP) — Sen. Neely (D-WVa) called last night for the election of an all-Democrat West Virginia congressional delegation "to protect the people of our state" from President Eisenhower.

The 79-year-old campaigner, in an election eve address prepared for delivery in his hometown, said Eisenhower is "doing a faster job of wrecking West Virginia's economy than any other Republican president, including Hoover."

"It took Hoover years to bring out state and nation to penury, joblessness and begging," he added. "Ike's doing in in months. In the 21 months Eisenhower has been in office, bankruptcies have jumped 25 per cent, the farmers have been robbed of 2¼ billion dollars, West Virginia has 180,000 jobless and panic looms unless the trend is reversed."

Neely's Republican opponent in tomorrow's balloting is insurance man Tom Sweeney of Wheeling.

Census Work Is No Picnic

SPEARVILLE, Kan. (AP) — Mrs. Tom Owen, working on a farm census in the Spearville area, has discovered there's more to the job than she thought. Since becoming census taker, she's been:

Blamed for the low price of eggs.

Chased by members of a family who thought they had at last caught the thief stealing canned goods from their basement.

Barked at by dogs and bawled out by farmers.

But she says her saddest experience came the other day when she delayed eating lunch, which she carries with her, because she wanted to catch a family at its noon meal. When she returned to her car after talking to the family, she found the family cat on the seat. It was just finishing off Mrs. Owen's lunch.

Business Facing Best Two Months

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The best two months of the year lie just ahead for business.

They may not knock your eye out, but the business news stories for the next eight weeks should be the pleasantest reading of the year. Merchants believe this Christmas season will be as good as a year ago, if not better. Many manufacturers also expect increased sales and production, and a gain either in number of hours worked or number of workers hired.

The rise probably will be moderate, but after a solid year of seeing comparative figures usually showing up on the minus side, business will welcome the change.

If November and December deliver as anticipated, the final tally for the year will be improved in a number of lines.

Businessmen are looking for better times for the following reasons:

The basic industries are waking up. After as slow an October as they have known since the war, auto production lines are ready to operate at high speed, now that model change-overs are ending. If all goes well, November and December passenger car output could approach the million mark.

This will be a boom not only to the re-employed auto workers (who will have money to spend for Christmas) but also to the companies supplying the car makers.

Steel output already is foreshadowing the good news in Detroit. Mills are now operating at 75 per cent of capacity, and in the next few weeks may go up to 80 per cent temporarily. Steelworkers and coal miners will benefit.

Job increases in the basic industries should be matched by the seasonal gains in retail trade, as stores take on extra holiday help, the post offices hire more hands, electric power output rises to a peak, and traffic jams go from awful to supercolossal.

With inventories reasonably low now, manufacturers believe that any pickup in retail sales will quickly work back along the line in new orders and increased factory production.

One barometer of better business, freight car loadings, already has increased to the highest level in a year.

The construction industry, feeding on easy money, is expected to take less than its usual seasonal drop when bad weather sets in this year.

Mail-order houses, who have reported lower sales most of this year, say orders are picking up cheerily, perhaps helped by the price cuts featured in their latest catalogues. They have been especially hurt by the drop this year in farm incomes.

This continues as one of the sore points in the economy. The Agriculture Department reports the purchasing power of the farmers is at the lowest point in several years, with farm cash receipts off 4 per cent from last year. But the department believes this drop has about leveled off now.

And today a leading maker of farm machinery is stepping up its production and employment, saying that the shakeout in this industry seems over, and new orders and better inventory situations justify more output.

Another shaky point in the economy has been the uncertainty over tomorrow's election results. Businessmen, however, say that while there may be a reaction on the stock exchange, industry and trade should see little effect in November and December — since it will be next year before election changes could show up in new legislation.

And stockholders themselves are looking at things through rose-colored glasses just now. Many of them are still confident that Santa Claus is going to bring them year-end dividends.

Police Solve Tough Problem

OKLAHOMA CITY, (AP)—Until a policeman arrived to get the facts, a throng of spectators did considerable worrying about how to fish a bankroll out of the sewer.

The crowd rallied around an aging man, who gazed wistfully down the drain after some lost cash. The man explained he didn't have strength to lift the cast iron sewer grating.

Then an Oklahoma City policeman arrived. He was preparing to call the Street Department crew to help retrieve the bank money when he asked a question that fascinated spectators.

"Friend," he said, "how much money did you drop down there?"

"It was a dime," the man replied. Turned out to be bus money, not bank money.

A near-by woman handed the bad luck victim a quarter.

Woman Found Insane After Murder Charge

WEST UNION, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Dora Liter, 50, indicted for the murder of her daughter-in-law was committed yesterday to the Lima state hospital by the Adams County Common Pleas Court.

The body of the daughter-in-law, Mrs. Edith Liter, 21, was found in their country home at nearby Cedar Mills.

The elder Mrs. Liter, a self-proclaimed minister, said she did not report the death to authorities because it was enough that she reported it to God.

Dr. L. A. Bushong, superintendent at Lima, said Mrs. Liter had been judged insane after a 30-day period of observation at the hospital. Cause of the daughter-in-law's death has not been announced.

Four Children Perish In Fire

ASHTABULA, Ohio, (AP) —Joint funeral services were arranged today for four youngsters who died yesterday when a stove exploded and burned down a small rural home.

Ashtabula County sheriff's deputies said the stove was fueled with bottled gas. What caused the blast wasn't known.

Dead were Richard R. Tryon, 4, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Tryon, and three children of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gordon Riggs: Kathyrin, 11 months, Erline, 3, and Richard 2.

Mrs. Tryon, who lived in a house trailer near the Riggs house, was minding the children while the other parents were at work. The explosion blew her out of the house. Flames stopped her rescue efforts.

Torchlight Parade Leaves Impression

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — A Republican torchlight parade — modeled after the political displays of old—left some burning impressions here last night.

Both Charleston Mayor John T. Copenhaver and Miss Elizabeth Hallanan, a candidate for the House of Delegates, said torch sparks burned holes in their coats.

Tom Sweeney, Republican candidate for U. S. Senate, reported no incendiary incidents, but said he got blisters from carrying a sign.

Truth Should Rise After Vote Count

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—In the great game of politics there is an old tradition that the defeated candidate must show himself a cheerful loser.

Thus, following protocol, several hundred candidates beaten in the elections today, will dry their tears tomorrow morning and send the following telegram to the winners:

"The people have spoken. Congratulations on your splendid victory."

And to complete the phony atmosphere of sportsmanship, the winners—or one of their camp followers—will send back the following reply:

"Greatly appreciate your cordial message. The great tasks that lie ahead require us all to think in terms of mutual performance rather than past partisanship."

This is all pure guff and nonsense. Both candidates know it. The people know it. It fools nobody. Why, then, do the politicians, election after election, go through these empty meaningless gestures of Oriental politeness?

Most defeated candidates I have known, whether they aspired to be local dogcatcher or to get a four-year lease on the great white doghouse in Washington, D.C., were lonely, angry, embittered men.

Almost invariably he feels he lost because of two reasons:

1. His own party friends knifed him by failing to carry out their precampaign pledges.

2. His opponent bought the election.

Then why not put a little more forthright truth in these postelection statements?

Here are a few sample telegrams candidates with real gumption might send to their successful rivals:

"I said you'd try to buy the election. Congratulations on a successful purchase."

"Now that you won the election you are an even more famous crook than before."

"If the responsibility of public office educates you in any way, America's illiteracy rate will be cut in half."

"When bums are put on thrones, the people will soon wear rags."

"Since your new post gives you access to the public treasury, don't you think you'd be wise to hire a defense attorney now?"

"Your incredible victory proves that democracy, like a broken slot machine, sometimes makes a confusing payoff."

Livingston Asks Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The man expected to be Betty Hutton's next husband filed suit yesterday for divorce from his present wife.

Alan W. Livingston, record company executive, said in the suit that he will give custody of two children to his wife Elaine and provide reasonably for their support.

Young Taft Follows In Father's Tracks

CINCINNATI (AP)—Robert Taft Jr, 37, grandson of a president and son of the late senator, follows his father's political footsteps today as a candidate for the Ohio Legislature.

Hamilton County, traditionally Republican, elects nine representatives. Eighteen candidates, equally split between the two major parties, are in the field.

"I think my election chances are pretty good," young Taft told a reporter. Political observers agreed with him.

Lamp-Style Sunburn

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Henry Fonda's doctor says the actor will have to miss movie work for several days because of sun lamp sunburn. Fonda, trying to acquire a tan for a movie role, fell asleep under a lamp and suffered severe face burns, the doctor said yesterday.
