

OKLAHOMA STORM TOLL FIGHT CARROLL GETS PRISON TERM FOR PERJURY

JUDGE SENTENCES PRODUCER TO YEAR AND A DAY IN PEN

"DELIBERATE PERJURY" IS SCORED BY COURT FINED $2,000 BUT DEFENDANT THINKS HE CAN BEAT CASE ON APPEAL

NEW YORK, June 3.—Earl Carroll may be going where bathing is compulsory. The producer has been sentenced to a year and a day in Atlanta for perjury, with a fine of $2,000 in addition. "I'm not worrying," said Carroll, after Judge Goddard had pronounced sentence. By this the impresario meant that he was confident an appeal will reverse his conviction. Herbert Smith, Carroll's attorney, gave notice of an appeal immediately after the sentence. It will come before the higher court next October. In the meantime, the producer is at liberty to "go anywhere" on bail of $5,000. Carroll had a large audience Thursday, when he strode into the court room in the federal building. He stood before Judge Goddard, holding himself erect but setting his lips nervously, as the justice said: "Earl Carroll, deliberate perjury before the grand jury must not be countenanced under any circumstances. You have had a fair trial. You saw fit not to take the stand in your own defense. The jury found you guilty. My duty therefore is to sentence you to a year and a day in prison at Atlanta and to fine you $2,000." By the time the judge had said this, Carroll was able to smile. His wife, who was a rather appealing figure during the trial—most of New York having been unaware that there was a Mrs. Earl Carroll—was missing, but the producer had with him a flying corps officer from Fort Worth as if to remind the court of Carroll's war time service.

83,000 Jap Women Work In Mines

GENEVA, June 3.—Eighty three thousand Japanese women work in the mines and 45,000 of them labor in the darkest depths. Japanese representatives told the international labor conference here Wednesday. This admission followed an assertion of Miss Margaret Bonfield, English labor worker, that working conditions in Japan, China and India "were intolerable." She urged Japan to ratify conditions, agreed to by two other nations and barring night work for women. Japan, she said, ranked second only to China as an offender against humane labor policies.

King George Is 61 Years Old Thursday

LONDON, June 3.—Cablegrams congratulating King George on his 61st birthday came from all parts of the world Thursday. The traditional ceremony of trooping the colors in the horse guards parade was abandoned due to exigencies of the coal strike, and the usual birthday honors list was postponed.

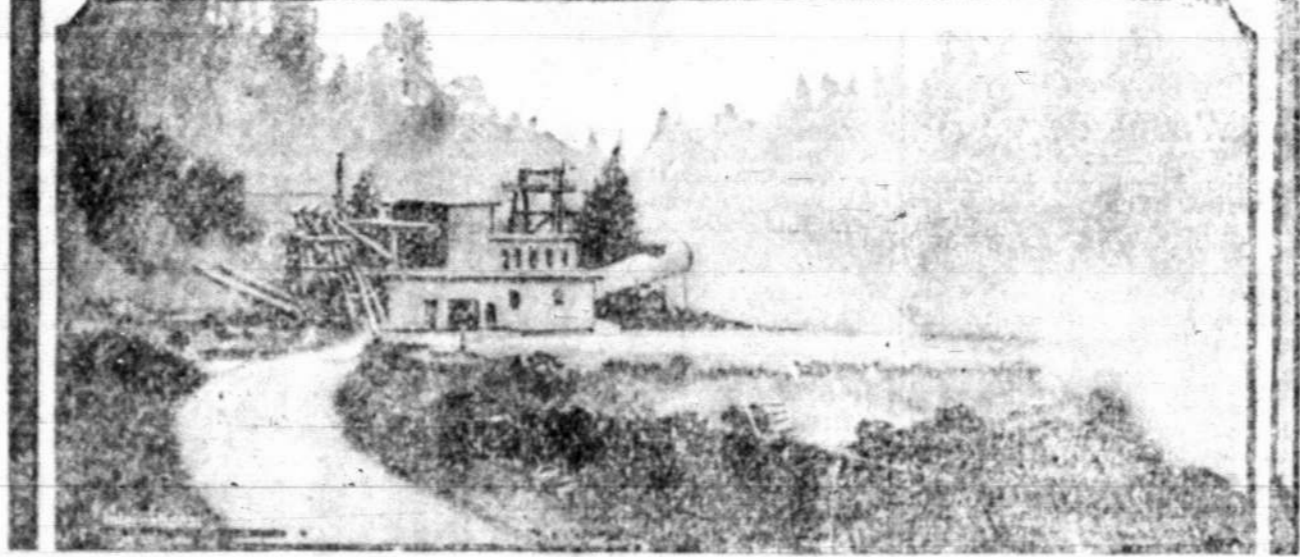

Galveston Seaman Stabbed to Death

GALVESTON, June 3.—T. M. J. Conley, 29, seaman on the steamship Candarua, was fatally stabbed early Thursday at Texas City, following an automobile ride with several companions and an argument over a woman. Carlos Macias, 18, was later arrested.

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy to night and Friday.

Real Highway of Gold Is Being Torn Up

Storators who use the Yellowstone Trail highway, fourteen miles north of Cle Elum, in the state of Washington, are forced to make a detour when they find a huge gold dredger at work in the middle of the road. The highway runs over what was the bed of the old Snake creek. The gold-bearing gravel was washed by white and black miners many years ago, who stopped work there when the big strikes were made in the Pacific. Recently a group of men in eastern Washington investigated and put the dredger to work, as they had the mining rights to the land the highway runs over. The dredger is taking out about a thousand dollars a day.

CHARGES FRAUD IN CHICAGO VOTE

SAYS BEER BARONS WORKED WITH CROWE TO INTIMIDATE VOTERS

CHICAGO, June 3.—"Scarface" Al Capone, the Cicero vice lord who is sought as the machine gun slayer of Assistant State's Attorney William McSwiggin, worked hand in hand with State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe at the April primary election, according to sensational charges of fraud made by County Judge Daniel P. Trade in a recount petition filed Thursday with the superior court. Trade depicts election day on the republican side as a riot of fierce and frenzied gunmen that would have disgraced the wild west in the blood thirsty days of '49' era. Gangsters, he says, intimidated a reign of terror at the polls, kidnaping election judges, intimidating clerks and forcing voters to mark their ballots at the point of guns. Judge Trade was defeated for the republican re-nomination by Joseph P. Savage, who is an assistant in State's Attorney Crowe's office. He claims that a fair election would have given him a majority of more than 50,000 votes instead of the 20,000 majority that was returned for Savage. The recount petition contains the most sweeping charges of election fraud and an alliance between the state's attorneys office and gangsters that has been put on record here since the beginning of the gang menace. Gunmen brandished firearms openly throughout the suburbs on election day forcing "outsiders and bystanders to count ballots," the petition says. It also charges that "checkers" for Crowe reported directly to Al Capone on the results of their work at the polls. McSwiggin and James J. Dougherty, who were killed by machine gun bullets in Cicero, both worked at the polls, the petition says. Dougherty being one of the armed gunmen and McSwiggin inducing police to disregard the complaints of voters.

Argue Tom Green Bond Mandamus

AUSTIN, June 3.—The supreme court, only department in the state capitol open today, the others being closed in memory of the birth of Jeff Davis, heard arguments in the petition to mandamus the attorney general to approve $500,000 of Tom Green county road bonds. W. O. Dumas of Dallas representing the county declared that if the Archer court decision of the supreme court were a declaration of the unconstitutionality of the road bond law of the state, the states were no better than the provinces. DOUBLES PENALTY ON ACCOUNT OF LIE

NEW YORK, June 3.—Because Joseph Bravata lied in telling Judge Taylor that a robbery for which he had just been sentenced to twenty years imprisonment was his first offense, the judge doubled the penalty.

County Clerks of Texas Open Meet

FIVE RUM SHIPS ARE CAPTURED

SARGENT SAYS COAST GUARD ALSO BAGGED AIR-LEGGED PLANES

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Five rum running ships have been captured by the coast guard in south Atlantic waters during the last few days, Attorney General Sargent announced Thursday. Confiscation proceedings against the liquor laden vessels now held at Savannah, Ga., will be instituted by the government, Sargent said. Two airplanes, used to smuggle liquor from the Bahamas islands into Florida, have been seized by prohibition agents, Sargent said. The planes will be confiscated and probably used to strengthen the prohibition air forces.

BROOKLYN, June 3.—William Brown, whose share of the proceeds of a $6 robbery was $2, was sentenced to serve from five to ten years in Sing Sing prison.

TWO FINE CALVES WHICH JOHN GIST GAVE TECH ARRIVE AT COLLEGE, JOHN T. ORR ALSO DONATES CALF

John Gist, pioneer ranchman and Hereford breeder whose stock is known over the entire southwest as prize winning show stock has donated the Texas Technological college two Hereford calves, both of the Anxiety breed and outstanding individuals of this year's crop of calves. Gist is known over this section of a progressive rancher who has figured prominently in the development of west Texas and Hereford breeding here, and the calves coming from his herd will add prestige to the herd at the college. These calves will make an excellent start for the college, and will be an excellent foundation herd to build the beef cattle class up around. The calves were brought from Odessa by truck yesterday by Marcus Gist and K. Graham. They were unloaded in the Tech pavilion and will be kept from the herd until proper procedure of accrediting can be gone through. The two calves are pick of this year's crop of calves, and their pedigrees which trace back through the Anxiety cattle find historical bulls and dams in every step. Few better bred Hereford stock can be found

MILLION DOLLAR FIRE IN LOWELL

SEVEN CITIES AID IN FIGHT AGAINST FLAMES IN MASSACHUSETTS

LOWELL, Mass., June 3.—Fire departments from seven cities joined here late Thursday in fighting a fire which for a time threatened the entire business district of Lowell and wrought a damage estimated at more than a million dollars. The Lowell Masonic temple and the A. G. Pollard department store, in which the blaze started, were destroyed. A dozen other business houses in the vicinity were damaged. The fire, the worst in Lowell's history, was discovered in the basement of the Pollard store at 4:45 o'clock. A general alarm was sent in and later the Boston, Lawrence, Dillrick, Dracut, Cambridge and Kansas departments were called to aid in preventing the flames from spreading. The fire was checked after more than four hours of fighting by the combined departments. No injuries were reported.

White House Party For Disabled Vets

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Mrs. Coolidge entertained 2,500 disabled service men at a White House Garden party Thursday by making her pet dog, Bob Roy, stand on his hind legs as a gift from John T. Orr, President Coolidge and the cabinet attended. General Pershing was present, his first public appearance since his illness.

Senate Committee Rejects Plans of Modificationists

NO VOTE ON BEER BILLS, NO REFERENDUM, IS VERDICT WETS SATISFIED

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER United News Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON, June 3.—Complete condemnation of the wet program, including the proposed national prohibition referendum, was pronounced Thursday by the senate judicial sub-committee including its work which began with the famous senate beer hearings two months ago. The sub-committee recommended indefinite postponement of the wet bills, which for all practical purposes kills them at this session. Wets Satisfied This leaves the wets in a better frame of mind than might be supposed. Had the bills come into the senate for a vote they would have been miserably beaten and would have showed how few votes the wets actually have at this time. But the dry strategy has served to conceal this situation. Instead of exposing the wets to a defeat on a show down, it enables them to go to the country and report that the dries refused to allow the modification measures to come to a vote in the senate. Blocking of the national referendum also is more acceptable to the wets than they admit publicly. Nobody knows better than astute politicians like Bruce and Edge that a prohibition referendum at this time would show a predominant number of states dry. Wets would not expect to carry more than a dozen almost. But now, denial of a national referendum by the dries, the wets can concentrate on the New York state referendum in November. And if they win that cause will be immeasurably advanced.

Indict 100 For Gaming, Galveston

GALVESTON, Texas, June 3.—The grand jury here, which was charged Thursday by District Judge J. C. Canty returned 146 indictments over 100 of which were for violation of the slot machine, liquor, pool hall and gambling laws. Judge Canty flayed lawless conditions in the city saying: "You have found out the conditions in this town. You have been surprised and shocked. And now, to quote a friend of mine, 'there's going to be hell to pay'." Maxie Bayer, proprietor of the "Winter Garden", faces 32 indictments, sixteen charging permitting gambling and sixteen charging renting premises for the purpose of gambling. Gus Frank faces thirteen charges of operating slot machines.

BRADEN TELLS OF HIS CAPTIVITY

BANDITS ONLY GAVE HIM TWO TORTILLAS A DAY, HE SAYS

LAREDO, Texas, June 3.—A letter has been received by Mrs. C. C. Braden here, wife of the mining engineer who with another engineer by the name of Gallagher was held captive for nine days by Mexican bandits in the state of Durango, Mexico. Braden related details of the captivity saying that the two men were allowed only two tortillas a day and were forced to wear the old-fashioned clothing of the bandits. When troops found them Braden said the bandits scattered and when the firing began he dropped behind some brush. After a while, Braden said, he arose and with his hands in the air started toward the soldiers but several shots were fired at him before he was recognized.

LIGHTNING FATAL TO THREE, FIVE ARE DROWNED IN FLOOD

TELEGRAPH, TELEPHON PARALYZED IN OKLAHOMA WHEAT DAMAGED HUNDREDS OF ACRES DESTROYED AS STORM SWEEPS STATE

By United News OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., June 3.—Eight persons died in the heavy rain and lightning storm that swept over this section of Oklahoma early Thursday morning, beating hundreds of acres of ripe wheat into the ground and causing inestimable damage to property in a score of small towns. Five members of one family were drowned when the automobile in which they were riding was caught in a bad water wall four feet high. The automobile was swept away before the occupants could abandon it. One man was struck by a bolt of lightning and revived a few minutes later by another bolt. Two more were killed by lightning. Rainfall, estimated at between four to six inches swelled more branches into maddened torrents of water inundating farms and driving families from their homes. A score of small towns suffered from the heavy downpour, some main streets being converted into rushing streams of water. Many of them were without lights until late today. Telegraph and telephone service was paralyzed. Several wash-outs along railroad right-of-ways were reported. Most damage was done to the crops, particularly the wheat crop. No estimate of the loss has been made.

Marriage of Miss Kathryn Atkins To Laurence Bacon Takes Place In Mimic Flower Garden at Altar of Roses

"Stars of renown, flow'r of the earth,"

were the words of the bridal chorus wafted to Miss Kathryn Atkins and Laurence Bacon as they waited to enter the auditorium of the First Baptist church Thursday evening where they were married. Rev. W. A. Bowen, officiating with the ring ceremony. And exquisite as a real flower the bride appeared as she entered on the arm of her cousin, Harold Brashear of Plainview. She wore a white satin gown with long sleeves, the front heavily beaded with pearls, and with train just touching the floor. Her veil was caught with a crown of pearls and silver, and was bordered with rosepoint lace. Her slippers were also of white satin with pearl buckles. The bride's bouquet was of white American beauty roses and valley lilies.

The church was beautifully arranged as a flower garden with rose entwined trellis and lattice fences. Pink Dorothy Perkins roses and white American beauties were used. Stars of pink roses being formed on the lattices at each side. The altar was under a beautiful rose arbor.

Mrs. J. L. Ratliff played the wedding march from DeKoven, as prelude. Miss Mary Meador accompanying with the violin. Then as the soft strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus were heard ten beautiful young women entered the center aisle of the church singing

"Faithful and true, we lead ye forth, Where love triumphant, shall crown ye with joy."

The wedding march from Lohengrin followed the chorus, and two girls, Virginia Bacon and Dorothy Rushing, in shepherdess hats of orchid with taffeta costumes to match, carrying shepherdess' crooks, led the way down the aisles at either side. These were followed by the bridesmaids and the ushers. The tiny ring bearer, Montie Joe Brashear, carried the ring in a lily and was followed by little Messes Jerry Stone and Jeannette Brashear, the flower girls, who scattered rose petals in the path of the bride. The bride also had as attendants Charlotte Hopkins and Evelyn Brashear.

Soft music was heard during the ceremony and Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as recession.

Miss Margaret Smith was maid of honor and was delicately lovely in soft shell pink. Mrs. Frank Jones, a bride of two months, was matron of honor and was beautiful as always in blue taffeta frock with pink hat. Miss Evelyn Posey wore pink also but in a different shade, and with hat to match. Miss Mayme Wolffarth was springlike in green georgette with green hat, and Miss Gladys Babcock completed the ensemble of spring colors with a beautiful rose colored gown. All the bridesmaids and the matron of honor wore large garden hats and carried shaker bouquets of gladioli and ferns.

The bride groom and men attendants wore the conventional black with white kid gloves. Paul Sams was best man, and Charles Bacon, Ted Sams and Henry Benson were ushers.

The chorus was composed of Mrs. J. T. Krueger, Mrs. Howard Parsley of Plainview, Misses Kathleen Hawkins of Hereford, Mary Alys Stanton, Frances Hoffman, Almo Spinks, Elizabeth Clarke, Lula Mae Craven, Mary Louise Middleton and Edna Carter. The girls of the chorus were beautifully dressed in pastel colors and wore laurel wreaths.

Miss Atkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Atkins and has lived all her life in Lubbock, winning everyone as her friend. She has been a student of the school of liberal arts in the Texas Technological college the past year, and spent the year 1924-25 in Kidd-Key college at Sherman. At both colleges she has specialized in music, both voice and piano, and is well known for her musical ability.

Mr. Bacon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bacon, and is at the present time the senior partner of the Bacon-Butler Lumber Co. He attended Simmons college at Abilene on finishing school in Lubbock, and has also studied business administration.

Mr. and Mrs. Bacon left Thursday night for a three week's stay in Colorado. On their return their lovely new home at 2401 13th street will be ready for them.

Reception Follows Wedding
Following the wedding a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Atkins, 2223 Broadway. The house party was composed of the members of the wedding party including the bridal chorus and their escorts, and the following friends: Mrs. W. R. Spencer and Messrs. and Medames F. R. Friend, W. F. Schenck, L. S. Mast, Frank Winn, W. A. Bacon, J. L. Ratliff, S. C. Arnett, T. C. Ivey, Eastin Wolffarth, Geo. C. Wolffarth, F. E. Wheelock, J. F. Bacon and Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Hutchinson.

The dining table was charmingly simple with its handsome lace cover, with lighted tapers in silver candlesticks tied with tulle at each corner. Mrs. Frank Winn cut the huge three tiered wedding cake which was beautifully decorated. The cake was white with silver trimmings and had tube roses placed at intervals. The cake was served with brick cream, and daint white traveling bags adorned with valley lilies were used as favors.

On leaving the church the bride threw her bouquet which was caught by Miss Gladys Babcock of Abilene.

MEN'S BIBLE STUDY CLASS OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The Bible teaches very plainly that the tendencies to apostasy are ever present in the church and a final falling away is everywhere indicated. This apostasy is the great apostasy when the heaven of unbelief leaves almost the whole of the Christian faith and what is left is the bare shell of real christianity. No one who reads the literature of the day—social, political, industrial, of cultural—can fail to see the anti-christian tendencies throughout modern thought. There is a subtle tendency to ignore the fact of sin, to bring Jesus Christ down to the level of a man, and to discard the supernatural element in all things. The student of the Bible sees all such tendencies clearly foretold in that Book and is not disturbed. He knows the outcome will be the smashing of men's schemes at the visible appearing of the Lord Jesus Christ on the earth, the setting up of his Kingdom, and his rule of righteousness. But before he comes, the Ban of Sin will appear, the embodiment of all the world holds dear. The lesson for next Sunday takes up the teaching of the Bible regarding this Man of Sin and the Anti-Christ. If you want to know the tendencies in modern thought, you will enjoy this lesson.

Large Congregation Hears Wrye Again

Rev. W. H. Frye, who is holding services at the church of Christ continues to interest large crowds each morning and evening. There is also excellent singing at all the services. At 3 o'clock each afternoon a special meeting is held for children. Each child who fails to attend misses an entertaining and instructive lesson.

The subject for the lesson last evening was "The Spirit Influences Man By Words."

Reading most of the second chapter of Acts, Evangelist Wrye based his sermon on "Ye men of Israel, hear these words," as recorded in the 22nd verse. He said in part "That on Pentecost, the Jews were congregated at Jerusalem to celebrate the feast of the harvest. They presented the first sheaf of wheat gathered from their fields to the Lord. Bread is the staff of life, and their priests offered the first fruits of it to God fifty days after the passover. At this time it was just fifty days after the crucifixion of Christ. The Apostle Peter, embued with a miraculous gift of the Holy Spirit, publicly announced the resurrection of Jesus Christ thusly offering to the people the good news of the first fruit of the Son of God to their senses and they cried out to know what to do, being cut to their heart. They evidenced Godly sorrow which led up to this inquiry. Peter replied "Repent and be baptized every one of you for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

Adam in the beginning was gifted with the Holy Spirit, but disobeyed God and became unholy. This was the effect of words spoken by a serpent, inspired by the devil. Adam was led astray by the work of the spirit of evil communicated by words. On the same principal the Holy Spirit inspires Peter on the day of Pentecost to communicate information to Adam's descendants that by repentance and baptism they would be pardoned and their former holiness restored to them. The people hearing these words gladly submitted to the conditions indicated and three thousand were baptized.

As Adam heard, believed and obeyed the teachings of a lie, four thousand years later, his children heard, believed and obeyed the truth. As the devil's word when obeyed moves men to an unholy life, likewise, when God's word is obeyed the result is pardon, holiness and eternal life. As the wages of sin is death, even so the gift of God is eternal glory in the realm of heavenly wealth.

Christ said his word was spirit, then of course when one obeys his word, that is evidence of the work of the spirit. As the devil used an agent in communicating his evil to the holy pair in Eden, so also God used an agent in the person of Peter and the other apostles in communicating His Holy Spirit to the wicked sinful people on Pentecost. And as we have the same words of the Holy Spirit in the Bible that brought results to the glory and honor of God then, we can rest assured of the same result today. The agency used then was by word of mouth, the agency now is the written word.

HEDDA HOYT TALKS ABOUT THE THINGS THAT INTEREST THE BUSY WOMAN OF 1926.

Fashion Notes

NEW YORK, June 3—Capes and Spanish shawls are by far the smartest evening wraps this season. Coat wraps of evening variety are rarely seen in fashionable shops. Chiffon capes are perhaps Madame's first preference with colorful Spanish shawls coming second on her list.

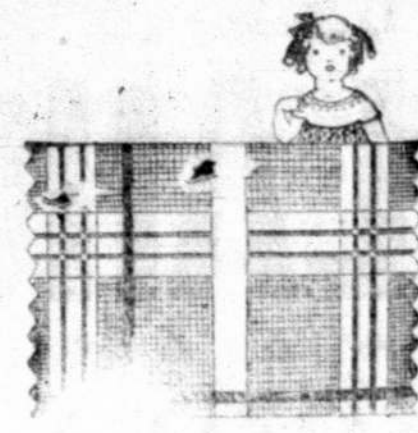

Never had there been more beautiful chiffon wraps; some matching the frock to form the ensemble effect and others being in contrasting colors. The capes may be plain affairs of one layer of fabric or may be several layers of contrasting or shaded chiffons.

One striking model is made of five ruffles of blue chiffon, the top tier being the darkest and each succeeding tier slightly lighter in coloring. Similar to this is a six-tiered cape of accordion pleated chiffon which has the top tier of pale flesh color, while each succeeding tier deepens in color until a deep wine shade finishes the hemline. White capes of slender lines trimmed in heavy white fringe about the scalloped hemlines, and on long scarf ends are very effective with the white evening gown.

While pinks and greens are the favored colors for summer wraps, there are many vari-colored combinations and ombre effects, as when each tier or ruffle forming the long cape is of a graduating or contrasting shade. Often the collars of chiffon capes are formed of crushed flowers such as roses or violets. In other instances the wide crushed scarf with long ends act as a collar. Fur is seldom combined with chiffon this season.

A few chiffon velvet capes printed in batik designs are shown in the shops. One black model has huge gold flowers about the full hem line and the garment is lined in gold satin. Some capes of silk crepe are trimmed from neck to hem in fringe about two inches wide. There are very effective. The fringe matches the cape foundation on such models.

GIANT PEP MEETING TONIGHT

A gigantic pep meeting will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in room 395 of the administration building for the purpose of organizing a pep squad to lead the pep squad at the coming long session.

At least 100 students are wanted to volunteer for a pep squad to keep the real Tech spirit alive in the opening of the fall term. The squad will be composed of both boys and girls. The squad will have uniforms carrying out the Spanish motif of the school. These uniforms will be bought through the courtesy of Barror Brothers at cost. Every student in the college is urged to buy one of these costumes. The measurements can be made before the students leave this term and will be sent to them sometime during the summer.

The squad will be promoters of all the activities in the athletic games. The Band is planning to be here a few days before the opening of school and the two organizations will present a real Tech pep for the new students.

It is the plan of the President's club to sponsor a trip for the squad to the games at Fort Worth next fall between Tech and T. C. U. A real demonstration of school spirit will give the people of that section an idea of the worth of the school. Every student of the college is urged to be present tonight. They will be asked to pledge to buy one of the uniforms and take their measurements before leaving this term. This cost of the uniforms will be sent to them during the summer and the first shipment will be made to the students about the first of August.

BOARD MEETING TODAY

The members of the Board of Directors of the Tech will meet today in regular session to go over the various affairs concerning the policy of the school. The budget and other regular business matters will be attended to.

They will be entertained with a luncheon in the Home Economics Laboratory afterwards they will go into session for the afternoon. Several of the members plan to stay over the night and visit over the various units of the school. The board who are expected here are: Amos G. Carter, Fort Worth; R. A. Underwood, Plainview; Mrs. Chas. DeGross, El Paso; C. W. Meadows, Wren; Mrs. F. N. Drane, Corsicana; Clifford B. Jones, Spur; H. T. Kimbrell, Lubbock and Mose Newman, Sweetwater.

CAMPUS BEAUTIFYING CONTINUED

The work of beautifying the campus is being carried on daily and will be continued throughout the summer. Workmen have been busy the past few days mowing again around the trees. The old barn which stood near the trees and football bath house was moved from its site yesterday. A man with a mowing machine is busy cutting the tall weeds which have sprung up since the rain. Several of the students are being kept at work on the trees and plants around the buildings.

HOME ECONOMICS ENTERTAINS FACULTY

Yesterday afternoon before the last regular faculty meeting of the year, the Home Economics faculty entertained the entire college faculty in the dining room. Fruit, sherbert and cake was served to over fifty members. They went into their last regular session at 4 o'clock in the administration building.

CHINESE ELMS MAKE RECORD FOR GROWTH ON CAMPUS

A very wonderful record has been made by the Chinese elms which were planted on the Tech campus this spring. Out of the 580 trees which were planted, only one tree failed to live. The remainder are growing rapidly and by the opening of the fall term will furnish considerable shade for the walks, and drives.

AGGIES ENTERTAIN HOME ECONOMICS GIRLS WITH PICNIC

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock over 100 students of the Home Economics and Agriculture Schools boarded the city bus and rode to the municipal park east of town where they spent about four hours in the out doors.

The boys of the agriculture school were the hosts to the girls and entertained them royally. The afternoon was spent in swimming, hiking and boating. At supper hour the crowd was served to a delicious picnic lunch. Mistletoe ice cream donated by Mr. Holsinger. They returned to town at a late hour.

Miss Pirtle, Miss Giberson and Prof. Washburn wish to thank all those who aided in the presentation of the pageant. Especially are the students to be thanked for their cooperation in making the affair a success.

The mothers of the children receive a bulk of the credit for their work in making the costumes and preparing the youngsters for the event. The business houses who loaned flags, flowers and other material are thanked for their cooperation. The people who furnished the wagons, horses, luggies, saddles, and other equipment for the pioneer camp deserve a great deal of thanks for without them the scenes could not be carried out.

Business houses who aided more than others are Rix, Hemphill-Price, Barrier Bros., Moore Bros., Merrick Hardware and Penny. Especially is Mr. Sawyer of Pomeroy's thanked for his work in assisting in the decorations.

To Lt. Killen and his patrol goes thanks for their work in clearing the crowd in parking and arranging the locations. Warwick, Gator, Dahlberg and other faculty members deserve a great deal of credit in making the pageant a success.

SENTIMENT IS DIMINISHING, SAYS TOMBSTONE MAKER

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, June 3.—"Sentiment is lagging," declares Frank Triggs, 72, who has just completed 47 years work in this district as a carver of monuments and tombstones.

People today are less sentimental about their loved ones than they used to be, he believes. "Consequently, my business isn't as good as it would like to be," he says. Epitaphs on tombstones seem to have passed out of style, Triggs reveals, and suggests that "maybe folks are more truthful today."

"I don't know of any young man who wants to be a tombstone maker," he said in speaking of the reluctance the younger generation has towards taking up the profession of carving headstones.

"If you want an extra nice monument to mark your grave, put it up before you die, and you'll be sure it is there."

HEALTHFUL MUSIC MILWAUKEE

MILWAUKEE, June 3.—Music also bath children to kill the savage germ. According to dispensary records at Marquette University here not one student at the college of music needed medical attention during the last semester while 194 from liberal arts, 178 engineering students, 86 business students and 86 dental students were forced to seek attention at the dispensary.

CLUBWOMAN TALKS AT KIWANIS MEET

MRS. PETERMAN PRAISES SCOUTS AND CAMPFIRE GIRLS

"We are proud of everything that has been done for the boy scouts of the south plains, and our first interest is in a camp for the campfire girls and we appreciate the help and co-operation of this club," Mrs. V. L. Peterman, president of the Junior Twentieth Century club said at the weekly luncheon of the Lubbock Kiwanis club yesterday at which she was the principal speaker.

Mrs. Peterman told of some of the plans that have been made for the campfire girls of Lubbock and received hearty applause when she declared that the women of the Twentieth Century club want to carry out a program as far-reaching in its scope for the girls as in the program that is now under way in the south plains area council for the boy scouts.

J. W. Gansel, who has been an active worker in the interest of the campfire girls organization here, explained to the Kiwanians the necessity of providing them a club house, and initiated a fund to defray the expenses of maintaining such club house to which he received the hearty support of the club men.

The following camp fire girls took part in the program, which the Kiwanians elected to be one of the best of the year: Olive May Linton, Mary Lois Gansel, Cleile August, Maxine Clark, Virginia Smallwood and Tommie Mae Simmons.

Americans Hold Place In French Tennis Tournament

By United News

PARIS, June 3.—Dodging intermittent showers which frequently interrupted the French hard court championship, four leading American players advanced another round Thursday.

The only American casualty occurred when Miss Josephine Mumford of Boston was beaten by Miss Devo, 6-3, 6-4.

Miss Elizabeth Ryan had trouble defeating Mme. Roger Danet of France, 5-7, 6-2, 6-3. The American made her double faults in the first set and one in each of the others. Miss Ryan was leading in the first set at 4-1, but allowed her opponent to run it out without seeming to try. Helen Wills and Miss Mary K. Browne were idle Thursday, while Mrs. Marion Z. Jessup defeated Mrs. Lebesnerais, 6-3, 6-2.

Miss Jessup and Miss Ryan have been drawn in the same half with Suzanne Lenglen and Friday—the Wilmington player must play the French sensation, Mme. Mathieu.

In the men's doubles, Vincent Richards and Howard Kinsey beat the Dutch pair, Halkeman and Sarkies, 6-1, 6-0, 6-1.

CANYON READY FOR SUMMER SCHOOL

WEST TEXAS TEACHERS COLLEGE EXPECTS LARGEST ATTENDANCE

CANYON, June 3.—Preparations for the beginning of summer school at the West Texas State Teachers College are in full swing. A class of sixty-four young men and women received degrees this morning, and attention is now turned to the incoming summer students. All indications are that every class room, every boarding house and every nook on the campus will be filled next week with summer students.

The summer normal attendance is expected to be the largest for several summers. Many colleges will not offer the usual summer normal courses but the Canyon Teachers College has been designated by the state department of Education to continue this work through 1926.

Many additions have been made to the summer faculty in order to meet the tremendous attendance expected. Provision for better recreation for the college women has been made through the leasing of a tract of land known as Hales Park which will be used exclusively by women of the college whose out-door activities will be chaperoned by women of the faculty who will endeavor to help them make the best of these opportunities.

COOLIDGE'S DRY ORDER

Considerable discussion has followed the executive order of President Coolidge, which provided that any state, county or municipal officer may be appointed at a nominal rate of compensation as prohibition officers under the Federal government. The constitutionality of the order has been severely impugned, although Senator Walsh, Democrat, of Montana, a high authority, declares the order entirely legal. On the other hand, Senator Cummins, Republican, of Iowa, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, says it is "without warrant at law." At first glance we saw little in the presidential order to arouse resentment or fear on the part of those who are zealous in defense of state rights. We considered that the order merely provided that local officers "may" be employed and we inferred that this would only be done with the consent of the state or municipal authorities. Such, it seems, was the President's intention as he subsequently limited the application of his order to the state of California where such aid had been requested. Senator Cummins, however, seems to think that the order could be otherwise employed even to the appointment of officials against the will of the various states. If this the correct interpretation of the order, it would seem to be out of harmony with American political ideals. Senator Cummins states this latter view: "The President had no more right to issue that order than I did. I am not saying that the government cannot employ state officers in prohibition enforcement, if the state and the individual officers are willing. Congress fixes the method by which they could be employed, however."

EXPOSING GRAFT NOT MUD SLINGING

The coming political campaign can be fought on a high plane and argued in intelligent speeches, or it can become a mud-slinging effort to besmirch opponents.

We do not believe that the people of Lubbock appreciate what some candidates seem to consider legitimate warfare. There is no use to regale the crowd with epithets applied to people who think other than the speaker and the efforts of many public speakers to "be smart" is usually achieved at the sacrifice of common sense and good taste. There is, however, a legitimate field of criticism in every public campaign. That revolves around the official acts of the various candidates. Even this criticism should be delivered fairly with moderation and calmness. The popular revulsion to mud-slinging is often seized by political crooks as a foil to stop fair thrusts at vital records. The public record of any candidate is a legitimate target. If a candidate has violated the law, if he has grafted, if he has favored his friends, if his acts are against decent public policy, if he is the nominee of crooked associates, and for other reasons, deserves condemnation, then he ought to be denounced. No need for pussy-footing. Let right-thinking, clean-minded public men call a spade a spade; the public ought to have enough sense not to confuse this with mud slinging, personal abuse. We hope the people of Lubbock will take their politics as calmly as possible and frown upon anything which is mud-slinging. But, we also hope that they will ever applaud a vigorous exposure of crooked political business. Upon their distinction between these often-mixed ideas depends the vitality of our present form of government.

GROWTH

"If a man is employing 25 men, and intends to employ no more, and to do not more than a certain amount of business," says a big manufacturer, "then I should say that he is in a most dangerous condition, unless he is making a luxury—whatever a luxury may be." Evidently this exception made for "luxuries" brings in the element of art rather than utility. Success in art production depends more on quality than quantity. The artist of whatever kind, might be making progress while diminishing his production. For the ordinary employer, production or turnover is the great thing. And growth, as this statement assumes, is the life of business. The big thing about America is that here growth is taken as normal, and hardly anyone is satisfied with merely holding his own production or range of service or earning power.

AMERICAN BARRED IN ENGLAND

It was something of a shock to Americans to learn the other day that England had excluded an American citizen. Charles Edward Russell is the citizen winning this distinction. When he arrived at Plymouth along with other Americans, he was not allowed to land. This is paying America in her own coin. The blow is only partly softened by the fact that England excludes Russell for the same reason that America has excluded British citizens—as a dangerous radical. Russell is a Socialist, and the present British government is trying to keep foreign radical propaganda out of their country. Though good knows, from the American viewpoint there is plenty of it there already. Just because the gentleman objected to a radical, and has radically criticized England's colonial government, there will not be much disposition over here to complain about it. Socialists, whether alien or domestic, have few friends in America today. Yet many Americans who deplore the present tendency in this conservative land to check the free discussion of political and economic questions are sorry to see England, the traditional land of free speech, getting so scary. Charles Edward Russell, with all his redness, would hardly hurt England much. At any rate, he hasn't hurt America much. How many Americans of the rising generation recognize his name?

LOST LETTERS

"If a letter is worth writing it is worth addressing properly," remarks a newspaper, apropos of the harrowing statistics from the United States dead letter office. In the fiscal year ending June, 1925, 17,000,000 letters were destroyed there. Most of them arrived at that sad end because of incorrect or inadequate address or absence of the sender's return address. Perhaps it is always possible to use the correct address. The writer may have lost the address needed, or the person addressed may have moved. But there seems to be hardly any reason for persons who are not absolutely homeless globe-trotters to fail to put on every envelope a legible return address. As the dead letter office observes, more than 17,000,000 persons sent out letters that never reached their destinations, and more than 17,000,090 persons never received communications intended for them. And many of the lost letters were really important. What can Uncle Sam do about it? Probably no more than he is doing already, which is to carry on a continuous publicity campaign, telling letter-writing citizens the necessity for those two little things—the complete, correct address, if possible, and the return address. The rest is up to the letter-writers.

WHAT WOMEN WANT

Addressing an audience of club women, W. F. Bigelow, editor of Good Housekeeping, tell them: "I have felt your power when you got behind something in which you were all interested. At such times I have doubted whether anything could stop American woman on the march. At other times I have wondered whether anything in the world had more inertia than this same body when its heart was not touched. 'You women can get anything you want, if you really want it. You wanted the vote and you got it. You wanted prohibition and you got it, although you are letting yourselves be fooled into thinking you made a mistake. 'You wanted the maternity act and you got it. You did not want the child labor amendment, and you did not get it, and you won't get it, now or ever, unless you decide that protection of child life is more precious than anything else in the world. 'I am not sure that you want a federal department of education. I wish you did want it, because we need it and it waits on you. True it is that women get what they want, when they make their wants known. Ask any husband or father. Or any politician. They might even get the prohibition they used to say they wanted, if they agreed about that and made their desire clearly known to lawmakers and executives."

PRISONERS A CENTURY AGO

Back in 1822 there was a legislative "probe" of the prisons in one of the middle-western states—at that time far-western. The investigating committee found fault with the construction of the prisons, the lack of room and sanitation, the unintelligent methods of working prisoners and the want of classification among them. This last fact came in for special criticism. "We know of no prison in the United States," said the report, "where the convicts are divided into classes with reference to their own good. When once placed within the precincts of the penitentiary, the grade of offense, the age, the disposition, the indication of repentance or the proof of their hardihood are all forgotten, and they comprise one great aggregate of offenders." Now, wouldn't you think this was an arraignment of almost any penitentiary today, in almost any state? We're not any worse in such matters than we were 104 years ago. But we're not much better.

FAST EATING

The president of a large restaurant association declares that people eat faster than they did 25 years ago. The counter lunch and the cafeteria have brought about fast service, bringing food and eaters together without delay. This effects considerable time-saving for patrons and enables restaurants to take care of more patrons during a given time. Along with quick service of food came quick consumption of it. The man eating at the counter lunch felt the speed in the atmosphere and took to gobbling his viands. So, too, did the woman. So far as eating faster simply means more efficient service, it is a fine thing. Where it means also haste in eating the food, it is bad for the speedy eaters—and indirectly for their families and their business.

A SPLENDID SOLUTION

If Chile and Peru have agreed, as reported to settle the Tacna-Arica dispute on the basis of the offer made by this country, one of the most troublesome questions of this hemisphere will be satisfactorily adjusted. Not only will Chile and Peru secure benefits arising from a tranquil state in the provinces but Bolivia will also share in the settlement, which provides that this inland country shall be given a corridor about twenty-five miles wide, giving her an outlet to the sea at Arica. The northern province goes to Peru, and the southern province to Chile. If this tentative agreement is finally ratified, it will relieve this country of a troublesome mediation and mark a very happy solution to a difficult and dangerous question.

Slow Progress and Why?

So Think We

We think that fools have no philosophy, and some people who are not afflicted in that way are in the same shape.

We think the British strike like the American coal strike, proves very conclusively that it takes a great deal longer to make repairs than it does to tear up the machinery by throwing a monkey wrench into it.

We think that most of the farm relief advocacy is just a bid for votes.

We think that about the most serious impediment to American speech is chewing gum.

We think that people who play by ear should also remember that most of us all hear by ear.

We think there is no doubt in the world that Dan Moody will win that bet on offices, but we think also there is no doubt that but we are pretty sure that sign either.

We think that quantity production is all right in nearly every thing except in the production of politicians.

We think that about the only sure things that come off are buttons, and they finally will.

We think it takes a very brilliant guy to look smart when he is not.

We think some people train their minds and switch them off into inactivity, and render it absolutely worthless.

We think that if your feelings are kind that you should be the more anxious to make your tongue speak them.

We think that the worst pessimist that we have ever known is he one that would have the silver lining of the darkest cloud tested to see if it is genuine.

We think that even with the days as long as they are school time comes entirely too early for a lot of folks.

We think that chewing tobacco must certainly effect the mind for a lot of fellows forget to not spit on the sidewalk.

We think there is a vast difference between rhymes and poetry.

We think it will be great if the mosquito gets by without singing the popular songs. It is

Want Extra Session Called At Once

DALLAS, Texas, June 3—A meeting of the special bond validating committee headed by J. A. Kemp of Wichita Falls was held in State Senator John Davis' office here Thursday.

After lengthy discussion the method of validating the Texas road district bonds declared invalid by a decision of the United States supreme court Kemp announced that it was the opinion of the committee that regardless of when the special session of the legislature is held the call for such an extra session should be issued at once.

The formal draft of the committee's reply to the decision of the administration not to call a session at this time was not revealed.

President Sends Greetings to King

WASHINGTON, June 3.—President Coolidge sent a birthday message of congratulations Thursday to King George of England—but all he did was to sign the greeting.

The message was drafted in the state department by Charles Cook, master of ceremonies for the government, and is just one of scores of such felicitations which go out every few days to crowned heads and presidents all over the world for birthdays, name days and independence days.

SNAKES IN BATH TUB

BURLINGAME, Calif., June 3.—While Mrs. Arthur Whifler was taking her morning bath a 25 inch snake glided into the tub with water that was running from the faucet. The young matron screamed hysterically and her father rushed to the rescue, killing the reptile.

WORLD TOPICS

Farm Relief Troubles
Horace Freely one predicted that this nation would split over sectional division interests. The defeat of the Haugen farm relief bill in the House by a decisive vote from the East and South indicates that the Western farmers do not entrust the situation by any means. The bill is now before the Senate where it is said to have passed. Most of them are from farm states and must face the folks back home this year for re-election.

But even though the Senate should pass the bill and the House reverse itself it is well understood that Mr. Coolidge will veto the bill because of the expense.

On the other hand Western members of both houses threaten to block every measure for expenditure, including the river and harbor pork barrel and increase of salaries for Federal Judges. They argue that one case is just as important as the other. As a result the situation in Washington is chaotic and no one seems to know where they are at, where they are going or when they'll get there.

Protest from the South
The Birmingham Age-Herald voices a strong opposition from the South to the proposal to turn Muscle Shoals over to the Alabama Power Company. This paper demands that "in order that the people and the industries of Alabama and of the South may be given a fair deal and not be subjected permanently to excessive rates."

Henry Ford also lifts his voice against the proposal for the same reason. The public appropriated a great sum of money to construct the hydro-electric works at Muscle Shoals and the government should not permit any corporation to operate the plant as a banana mine.

The National Association of Credit Men assert that installment buying in the United States is now proceeding at the rate of over ten thousand millions a year and that credit is being grossly abused.

The Milk Ordinance

A good subscriber to this paper came to us the other day and said: "I see you advocate trading at home, so do I, but if I have to take my milk and butter to another market, I sure will spend my money there too, and if our merchants do not care enough for our business to stop this milk ordinance and let us sell our products at home all of us will have to seek another market."

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST

A SERMON WASTED

I parked my car before a church
A space I thought was holy ground,
Of prayer and peace I went in search
Nor dreamed that prowlers lurked around;
Oh, sweet and sacred hour, thought I,
That lifts man from the worldly mire,
Meanwhile some sinner passing by Stole from my car the extra tire.

"Have mercy!" said the parson grave
"And love thy neighbor, and forgive!"
Be not to cruel hate a slave!
With love and sweet compassion live!"

Stirred by his words I made my mind,
Never with rage my blood to fire,
Not dreaming shortly I should find
Some thief had robbed me of a tire.

Although I trust my fellow man
I'd bound that rim with heavy chains,
Said I: "Let him get this who can,
He'll have but labor for his pains."
But vain is trust in hoops of steel,
Thieves will obtain what they desire,
And, oh, it makes a Christian equal
To go to church and lose a tire!

BABE RUTH HITS TWO MORE HOMERS

Winding up a long and highly successful stay in the east, the New York Yankees took a final wallop being featured by Thomas' pitching at the Red Sox, 8 to 5, the game and Babe Ruth's hitting.

The Yankee twirler held the Sox to 3 hits until he was relieved by Jones in the ninth, all Boston's runs being made in the 7th with the aid of errors and passes.

The Babe crashed out the 17th and 18th homers of the 1926 season. The Yankees start a long western tour, their first of the year, with a lead of 7 1-2 games over the Athletics who are in second place.

The Tigers climbed to within one point of fourth place by beating Cleveland, 3 to 2, in the only other American league game.

Pittsburgh gained a full game on Cincinnati and moved up into second place by defeating the Cubs with a ninth inning rally, 3 to 2. Emil Yde had one of his good days and Chicago got but four hits.

The Braves beat the Reds in a slugging match, 12 to 5, and New York did the same for the Phillies, 1 to 5.

The Giants have made 70 hits for a total of 114 bases in their last five games, probably a new record.

Bobby Jones Gets Walker Golf Cup

By H. C. HAMILTON
United News Staff Correspondent

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, June 3.—The Walker cup remain America's. The British amateur championship is held by an American for the first time in 22 years.

Now the invading golfers from the United States are turning their attention toward the British open, the last big prize to be won.

As he chucked his putter back into his bag and shook hands with Cyril Tolley, whom he had just defeated 12 up and 11 to play, Bobbie Jones remarked:

"Fant settles it. I'm going to stay for the open, now."

A number of other amateurs who helped retain the Walker cup today by the narrow margin of one point will remain for the open championship on June 23. And a number of American professionals are due in England to assist in pursuit of the prize already held by and American, Jim Barnes.

Ruth Ahead of His 1921 Record

YANKEE STADIUM, NEW YORK, June 3.—Crashing out two low home runs off Pitcher Wiltse of the Red Sox in the first and third innings of Thursday's game, Babe Ruth gained two laps on his 1921 record.

The Yankee slugger brought his total for this season to 18. Five years ago, when he established his homerun record of 59, Ruth made his 16th homer on June 3. The Yanks had played only 43 games on that date, however, compared with 46 this year.

Ruth's homey Thursday game after a slump in his hitting. The Babe made his 16th homerun towards the end of the Yankees winning streak of 16 games last month. Then Philadelphia and Washington pitchers had him tamed for a while, and the record which Ruth was leading by a four base hit or two came along and caught him.

When the big outfielder came to bat in the first inning Thursday, he and his 1921 record were all square. Ruth hit the ball into the right field stands. Again in the third inning, the unfortunate Wiltse served one up that suited the Babe's taste, and again he drove out a homerun.

HARVARD CREW COACH QUILTS HIS JOB

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 3.—With the classic Yale race but three weeks away, Edward A. Stevens has resigned as head coach of the Harvard varsity crew and his resignation has been accepted.

In a letter to William J. Bingham, director of athletics at Harvard, Stevens gave as the reason for his action a lack of co-operation on the part of the crew.

Stevens' sudden passing has placed Harvard in almost unprecedented dilemma. Temporarily, Freshman Coach Bert Haines has been named to serve as varsity coach. While this is only a tentative appointment, Harvard men indicated today it was entirely possible he would pilot the varsity crew through the remainder of the season.

SAYS AMERICAN ARRESTED TO AVERT JAP SUSPICION

TOKIO, June 3.—The Japanese home office announced Thursday that the arrest of American Consul Clark of Nagasaki on a charge of photographing the Saeba naval base had been ordered to prevent the public from misconstruing his alleged violation of the fortified zone.

The American embassy has not been informed of the arrest.

No suspicion of ulterior motives has been directed toward Clark, the home office said.

LUBBOCK BOOSTERS WILL HAVE BAND

HIGH SCHOOL MUSICIANS TO RIDE SPECIAL TRAIN TO AMARILLO

The Lubbock high school band, sponsored by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and board of city development, will be among the contestants at the Amarillo convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. At a meeting here yesterday the committee in charge of plans for the convention mapped out a program that will keep each member busy throughout west Texas' biggest party.

J. W. Crowley, director of the band, F. A. Norman and J. B. Maxey compose the committee, and all three agreed yesterday that the band should go on the special train that will take the Lubbock boosters to Amarillo.

Music that will be played in the band contest at Amarillo has been here for some time, and Director Crowley hopes to have the boys well trained before the big party begins.

Morgan Gets Junior Lightweight Title

BY FRANK GETTY
United News Staff Correspondent

EBBETS FIELD, BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 3.—A towel fluted in the ring in the sixth round of the fight for the world's junior lightweight championship Tuesday night and Ted Morgan of Seattle was declared the winner by a knockout over Steve (Kid) Sullivan of Brooklyn.

Morgan, who was defending his title in the event for the first time, had all the better of the battle up to that time, knocking the challenger down for the count of nine in both the first and second rounds.

The Seattle boy proved a flashy boxer, a hard hitter, a cool ring general and altogether a worthy champion. Sullivan has nothing except a willingness to mix it until his seconds called a halt.

Morgan had the edge in every round while the fight lasted and while the customers who had filled Ebbets field contributing for the benefit of the Holy Family hospital were dissatisfied with the abrupt ending, it saved Sullivan from an inevitable knockout.

BRITISH AFRAID OF MUSSOLINI, IS REASON FOR SHOW OF MILITARY POWER IN TROUBLED EGYPT

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United News Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1926, by United News)

LONDON, June 3.—Great Britain's anxiety regarding Egypt is not caused primarily by the mercurially changing Zaghulpasha, the nationalist leader recently victorious in the Egyptian elections, but by concern over the fiery premier of Italy, Benito Mussolini, whose domain is just across from Egypt on the other side of the Mediterranean.

Not only the British but most other Europeans, it is learned authoritatively, are convinced that if Great Britain were to withdraw from Egypt, Italy would step in within a few weeks. This would mean that British communications by way of the Suez canal with her overseas empire would be left at the mercy of a nation which professes to want to dominate the Mediterranean.

Hence the British are showing a strong hand in Egypt, and are leaving no possible excuse for action in that direction by Mussolini. Because of anxiety in London over the turn of affairs in Cairo, British leaders emphasize the fact that the situation remains grave, even though it has been somewhat improved in the last few hours by Zaghul's decision not to take the premiership himself but to hand it over to the liberal, Adly pasha.

In the event that Zaghul again changes his mind or shows any sign of obstreperousness, the British plan to send additional warships to Egypt at once. Preparations have been made to utilize the troops now in Egypt if necessary and to send more if they are needed to enforce the four conditions on which Great Britain granted Egypt independence in 1922. These four points are:

First, maintenance by Great Britain of security of the communications.

Second, protection of Egypt by Great Britain from foreign aggression.

Third, protection of Great Britain of foreign interests in Egypt.

Fourth, retention by Great Britain of the Sudan.

The British are already hinting at the possibility of cancelling the independence proclamation if necessary, pointing out that it may have been foolish merely to have reserved three points instead of having established a security agreement on them prior to proclaiming Egyptian independence.

MaGee To Go To Trial For Manslaughter

LAS VEGAS, N. M., June 3.—When Carl C. Magee, editor of the State Tribune at Albuquerque, goes on trial here June 14, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of John B. Lasseter, state highway employe, the dingy little court room will be the center of a drama that for three years has centered about the "stormy petrel" of New Mexican journalism.

When Judge Luis Armijo calls the court to order, many of the figures that have passed back and forth in the dramatic scenes of former trials will again be represented in the proceedings.

Judge Armijo, elected in 1924 over Judge Leahy, was district attorney at the time Judge Leahy sent Magee to jail on contempt of court charges in July, 1924. He did not, however, appear in the case against Magee, Judge Leahy having appointed C. J. Roberts and O. O. Askren special prosecutors.

Leahy, always presiding in past trials, will appear this time as a witness. It was Leahy's alleged surprise attack on the editor which resulted in the accidental killing of Lasseter, who attempted to intervene and enter the courtroom.

Sheriff Lorenzo Delgado, who escorted the editor up the little, side street to jail in 1924, again will be officer of the court.

R. H. Hanna, former supreme court justice, and veteran of many a Magee legal battle, will be in his accustomed place as chief counsel. Both Hanna and Fred Wilson, Magee counsel, have fought disbarment proceedings as result of previous trials in Leahy's court while representing the editor. Wilson, junior member of the firm, is now withdrawn from the case, having been appointed last winter as attorney general of the state.

In 1923, Magee was sentenced to a year in jail by Judge Leahy on four charges growing out of editorials appearing in the State Tribune. Previously, he had been sentenced to a year in prison and fined $4,000 on a criminal libel charge. Gov. J. F. Hinkle issued a pardon, characterizing the proceedings as a "blot on the state."

In 1924 Judge Leahy sentenced the editor to three months in all on three counts, contempt of court charges. It was in this trial that editor became the object of judicial epithets. Magee spent two days in jail before habeas corpus proceedings placed him in jurisdiction of the supreme court which court upheld the power of the governor to issue a pardon for direct contempt.

The editor was bound to the San Miguel county court on bond of $10,000 furnished by Las Vegas citizens on a charge of manslaughter. The first charge preferred after the coroner's jury had made its findings was that of murder. The lesser charge was preferred when the district attorney filed his information.

The ballots also contained a proposal for the theoretical election of a commission of prominent Americans to study the liquor question. For this task the students chose Governor Al Smith of New York, Charles Evans Hughes, Clarence Darrow, Herbert Hoover, Jane Addams, Andrew Volstead and Vice President Dawes in the order named.

CHICAGO, June 3.—The great American college campus votes "wet" according to the results of a prohibition poll by 7,311 students of 37 representative American colleges and universities.

Ninety two per cent of the students participating expressed dissatisfaction with the present prohibition situation and fifty three per cent voted in favor of modification repeal of the 18th amendment.

The poll was tabulated at the University of Chicago by Prof. R. L. Mott of the political science department. The ballots were sent out by the proportional representation league.

The results were as follows:
For light wines and beers 3,253 votes, or 41 per cent.
For repeal of the 18th amendment,

RACE FOR RULE OF AIR IN EUROPE

FRANCE, GERMANY AND ENGLAND STRUGGLE FOR SUPREMACY IN AVIATION

By United News.

PARIS, June 3.—France, England and Germany are racing for the aerial supremacy of Europe. The signing of the Franco-German air accord in Paris gave new stimulus to the development of commercial air travel on the continent.

Even though held down by rigid restrictions placed on the size, strength and speed of her airplanes by the farmers of the Versailles treaty, Germany managed to maintain a pace even with her two great rivals.

Now with the restrictions removed she expects to step ahead.

The near future will see the inauguration of a German airplane service connecting Berlin with Paris, the German engineers having been prepared for many months for the eventual lifting of the restrictions. The French company formed for the purpose of starting a line between Paris and Berlin will not be ready before fall.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION The State of Texas, To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lubbock County: Greeting: You are hereby commanded to publish this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lubbock County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Lubbock, on the 3rd Monday in August, A. D. 1926, the same being the 16th day of August, A. D. 1926, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 10th day of May, A. D. 1926, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 2533, wherein M. T. Buxton, is plaintiff, and Mrs. Lena M. Walton and P. Walton, and O. R. McElyea, are defendants, and said petition alleging, this being a suit on two Vendor's Lien notes for the sum of $1,000.00 each, payable to the order of M. T. Buxton, at said Court, Texas, on or before January 1, 1926, and February 1, 1926, respectively, executed, made, and delivered to M. T. Buxton, by Lena M. Walton and P. Walton, on the 24th day of July, 1925.

Said notes are secured by lots Nos. twenty-three (23), and twenty-four (24), Block No. twenty-two (22), of the Overton Addition to the town of Lubbock, Lubbock County, Texas.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays for judgment against Lena M. Walton and P. Walton for the principal, interest and attorney's fees due upon notes, and for costs of court; and against all of the defendants for foreclosure of his Vendor's lien, etc.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Lubbock, on this 1st day of June, A. D. 1926.

LOUIE F. MOORE, Clerk. District Court, Lubbock Co., Tex. By Oliver Pluke, Deputy. 216-4p

STOCKS

New York Finance

NEW YORK, June 3.—With trading operations over 1,600,000 shares, the stock market broadened out still further Thursday and at the close industrials were again sharply higher despite a fair measure of profit taking.

The market showed ability to take this selling in its stride without pausing, this being one of the most impressive factors of the day. Much of the demand came from shorts who feel the pinch of the constant advance. Motors, recently the favorite selling medium of the professional element, are returning to the fore of the market in point of strength.

Rails were no far behind the industrial division in point of strength or activity, the issue concerned in the Nickel Plate plan being pronounced features of the day's operations. Chesapeake and Ohio rose 3 1/4 points; Erie was up 1 3/8. Pennsylvania jumped 4 1/2 and Nickel Plate rose 5 1/2 points.

This burst of activity was due to the fact that the market expects the new plan will follow the outlines of the original plan rather closely, except for the financial details.

It will be remembered that the basis for the interstate commerce commission's rejection of the first plan was the financial structure. One objection will be met if the preferred stock of the greater Nickel Plate system has voting power.

Another of the commission's objections concerned the Chesapeake and Ohio minority stockholders.

AGRICULTURAL PRICES SLIGHTLY LOWER DURING MAY

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The general average of prices of farm products decreased slightly during May, the Department of Agriculture index of farm prices being placed at 139 compared with 140 in April and March, and 146 for May a year ago.

The five-year period 1909-14 is used as a base of 100. The price index for the meat animal group advanced 2 points during the month, grain prices remained unchanged, while other groups of farm products decreased from 1 to 13 points, the greatest decrease being in fruits and vegetables.

Farm prices of hogs increased from an average of $11.49 to $11.97 for 109 pounds from April 15 to May 15, reaching the highest point since last August. The advance is at a time of year when lower prices usually are expected. There has been a strong upward movement in the market price of hogs and central markets since early in April.

Farm prices of beef cattle and veal calves were lower on May 15 than a month ago, whereas sheep and lamb prices were higher. Wool and butter prices continued downward; chicken and egg prices were higher. Corn prices were higher than for the previous month for the first time in 9 months. Cotton prices decreased about 4 per cent, and potatoes fell off about 16 per cent from their exceedingly high April level.

The department's indices of farm prices are as follows: Index numbers farm prices, Aug. 1909-July 1914—100.

	May	April	May
Grains and	125	131	131
Vegetables	162	253	240

Non-agricultural Wholesale Prices U. S. Dept. of Commerce and Labor, Bureau of Economic Warfare, June 3, 1926. Purchasing power of agricultural products 90 88

The general level of farm prices is about 12 per cent below the level of non-agricultural wholesale prices. In April non-agricultural prices remained unchanged resulting in a one point increase in the relative purchasing power of farm products from 8 in March to 88 in April, compared with 90 in April and May a year ago.

WHEAT

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 3.—Thursday found the cattle supply about normal for that day, and the great bulk of offerings was Texas range steers. Hardly enough fat killing steers were shown on the market to fairly test the prices. General market was no better than steady. Most sales on steers ranged from $8 to $9.50.

There was little quotable trade on stockers and feeders. Receipts of hogs at the five western markets were light and trade everywhere was active with prices higher. The general market was ten cents up. Demand for stock pigs was strong and prices were 15 to 25 cents higher.

Most stock pig sold around $14.75 to $15.50. Top fat hogs brought $14.35. The bulk of sales ranged from $13.90 to $14.20. Heavies sold around $13.60 to $14.05; mediums $13.95 to $14.30; lights $14.05 to $14.35.

Hogs receipts 7,000; 15 to 20 cents higher; all buying; better grades 180 to 230 pound averages $14.10 to $14.25; 240 to 325 pound averages $12.65 to 14.05; light lights mostly $14.25; packing sows $12.25 to $12.50; stags $10.75 to $11.50; stock pigs steady to 25c higher; $14.50 to $15.50.

Cattle receipts 2,000; calves 500; fed steers and yearlings scarce; strong light weights $9.50; two loads of 1,300 pound weights $9.75; receipts mostly Texas grass fed steers and plainer grade steers; stock; bulls and steers steady; top veal $11.50; stockers and feeders weak.

Sheep receipts 10,000; opening sales of lambs fully steady, $17; better grades mostly $16.50 to $16.75.

LEVELLAND VOTES BIG BOND ISSUE

LEVELLAND, June 3.—The $60,000 school bond issue voted on June 1st, at Leveland, carried by one of the greatest majorities in the history of the county.

This bond will be used to construct a $30,000 building in the town of Leveland, and $10,000 will be used to construct a ward building 10 miles northeast from Leveland, but in the Leveland independent district. The remaining $20,000 will be used to equip the two buildings and buy 10 acres in the west part of the city to build an up-to-date high school building later on, and every one seem to be of the same mind, that it will be necessary to erect the building first of the year.

At this time, Leveland is doing some very fine construction work of building 16 brick business houses, work has started on most of the buildings. Not many months before, Leveland will have the appearance of showing up with any of the West Texas towns that has taken 20 years to build.

RELEASE SUSPECT PAWHUSKA, Okla., June 3.

Two men held in the Okfus county jail here for investigation in connection with the Winfield, Kansas, bank robbery last Thursday were cleared of suspicion by three Winfield bankers who came here to identify them. The bankers said the two were not members of the gang that robbed the bank.

GREAT WHEAT CROP ESTIMATED; CAUSES FEAR IN THE MIDDLE WEST OF LABOR AND CAR SHORTAGE

By United News.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 2.—With harvest time only a short time away, the Southwest is facing several serious problems, according to reports reaching here.

Clyde M. Reed, chairman of the regional advisory board of the American Railway Association, is of the opinion that the number of freight cars available for the use of wheat growers is not adequate to carry the enormous crop expected from the region this year.

L. M. Betts, Washington, manager of the closed car section of the railway association agreed with Reed in this statement, after it had been estimated, taking a composite of reports from all states, that 416,000,000 bushels of wheat would be harvested this year, with the minimum yield placed at 300,000,000 bushels.

Officials of the five principal railroads over which the grain will be routed to the markets stated, however, that they have been amassing freight cars for weeks in preparation for the onslaught. No estimate was made by officials of the five lines as to the number of cars which would be available.

They expressed the opinion that "on such acute shortage of cars as feared by the Trans-Missouri-Kansas regional advisory board of the American Railway Association exists."

Word from Chicago indicates that the northwest too has been preparing for the movement of grain by gathering every available box car at

Herrin Waits Under Arms For Outbreak

HERRIN, Ill., June 3.—Herrin is again armed.

Beneath the apparent peace that prevails in this little mining town, scene of so many bloody riots, ancient hatreds smoulder that may again, without warning, flare up into open warfare.

A desultory move for peace, seeking a permanent truce, has failed. Again Klansmen and anti-Klansmen walk the streets with furtive backward glances and look twice before they turn a corner. The same shiny blue automatics protrude ominously from pockets and belts.

No one hazards a guess as to what will be the next spark to start the guns blazing again. But all elements in the town are fatalistically resigned to another skirmish such as the last one on April 13 which cost six lives.

There is one significant conclusion which may be drawn from all the bloodshed in Herrin; Herrin shoots to kill. In six riots the toll is 34 dead, and no injured. The 34 were marked for death. If Klansmen, they were marked until such a time as open warfare might break out, if anti-klansmen they were singled out until chance should give an opportunity for general fighting.

Instead of making eventual peace possible, each riot only adds to the possibility of future bloodshed on a larger scale. The relatives of each slain man swear vengeance against the faction responsible for his death. Blood hatreds, with the promise of future killings, are fomented each time the guns bark out.

By many who have followed the strife closely but have played little or no part in it, prohibition is blamed for the difficulty. This, they say, gave rise to the formation of the Ku Klux Klan, a group who believed that the prohibition law could and should be enforced in Williamson County, and who, moreover, took upon themselves responsibility for its enforcement. Added to this number were those attracted to the Klan by religious feeling.

Influence of the Klan has fluctuated. At its organization it was all powerful. Then its power waned and anti-Klan officers were elected. At the last election, a week after the rioting of April 13, the Klan again went into power.

Balboa, Panama, has the radio craze following the establishment of a broadcasting station there.

CANDIDATES GET COPY FOR SPECIAL

EVERY VOTER IN LUBBOCK COUNTY

Candidates are busy preparing advertising matter for the big special candidates edition that will be issued by the Lubbock Morning Avalanche June 15.

Already space has been bought by a number of the candidates, who are preparing copy for the advertisements and gathering data to be used by the Avalanche staff in making the issue strictly of interest to voters.

The activities of the men and women of this section who are seeking public office will be related in this big issue.

Copies of the edition will be mailed to all voters.

ARREST LOOMS IN McPHERSON CASE

DISTRICT ATTORNEY THREATENS ACTION AGAINST ORMISTON

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—A dozen California cities have been drawn into the sequence of mysterious events which have followed the disappearance of Aimee Semple McPherson.

Developments in the strange case came Thursday from widely separated parts of the state and, for the first time since the evangelist was rted drowned at Venice more than two weeks ago, threats of criminal procedure entered into the investigation.

District Attorney Archie Campbell of San Luis Obispo county declared that a warrant for the arrest of Kenneth G. Ormiston, former radio engineer at Mrs. McPherson's Los Angeles temple would be issued if Ormiston is definitely established as the man who registered at a San Luis Obispo hotel with a woman last week.

"When Ormiston is found he will be confronted with the hotel clerk and if his identity is established he will be charged with false registration," said Campbell.

Detective Captain Herman Cline of Los Angeles is in San Francisco seeking traces of Ormiston. It was Cline who uncovered the San Luis Obispo lead. He compared Ormiston's handwriting with the signature "Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson," on the hotel register, and the clerk, when shown a photograph of Ormiston, declared it was a likeness of the man who had appeared at the hotel with a woman companion.

A report from Oroville, near Sacramento states that a woman resembling Mrs. McPherson and a man thought to be Ormiston were seen near there Thursday. John Lewis, a rancher, furnished the information.

HAD BULLET PROOF VEST AS KEYYYY CARRIER

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 3.—William Payne, negro, arrested as a "vag" wore a bullet-proof vest which was lined with 183 keys of all kinds. Explaining why he wore the vest Payne said he had enemies who took "pot shots" at him.

SAYS HEADLIGHTS SHOULD BE TESTED

STATE ENGINEER URGES AUTO-ISTS OF LUBBOCK TO GET LIGHTS IN SHAPE

Headlights for automobile should be tested and put in good condition before leaving for the summer vacation and just after returning, according to the transportation engineering automobile headlights division of the exas state highway department in a letter to the local chamber of commerce.

The letter reads: "Every summer a large number of Texas motorists spend their vacations in their cars, traveling over the state and frequently to other states, and they form a large portion of the heavy traffic in evidence on our principal highways, especially at night.

"We are writing to request you to call the attention of your local motorists to the necessity of having their headlights properly adjusted before starting on cross country trips. Certainly after a long trip they should be inspected and readjusted if necessary.

"Such matters need only to be called to the attention of the large majority of motorists, and in this way you can be of service to your local motorists and others in various parts of the state."
