No Decision Reached On Allotment Plan

WESTERN AMERICA ROCKED BY QUAKE

NEARLY FIFTH OF COUNTRY IS SHAKEN

SERIOUS DAMAGE NOT CAUSED BY SHOCKS TUESDAY NIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21.—A strong earthquake shook virtually the entire western United States, embracing about a fifth of the nation last night. Seismologists said it was the most severe in the area since 1925.

No serious damage was reported from the series of shocks which began at 10:10 p. m., (Pacific Standard time) and continued with diminishing intensity until 11:15 o'clock. The quake centered in Nevada where windows were shattered.

Crockery Broken

Clocks were stopped in cities as widely separated as Salt Lake City, Utah, and Fresno, Calif. Chandeliers swayed, pictures were thrown awry and some crockery broken.

At 10:10 p. m., western America, bounded roughly by the Canadian and Mexican borders and extending from the Pacific coast to Salt Lake City, Utah, and beyond, trembled under the series of shocks. Needles were hurled from seismographs in Spokane, Wash., Berkeley, Calif., and at the University of Santa Clara in San Jose, Calif.

Minutes later newspapers in the area were subjected to hundreds of telephone calls asking the source of the shocks. Most of the queries came from persons reporting swaying chandeliers or stopped clocks. Rumors of severe damage in remote areas was quickly investigated and discredited.

Centers In Nevada

Seismologists agreed the quake centered in Nevada, where several minor tremblors have been recorded in the last few years. Professor Perry Byerly of the University of California computed the epicenter or seismic vertical as "probably somewhere in Nevada."

The pens on the recording instrument at the University of California at Berkeley were thrown clear from the drum at 10:10 p. m., and were replaced seven minutes later when another shock threw them

EXPECTANT MOTHER AWAITS DEATH IN CHAIR WHILE WOMAN SHE MADE A WIDOW PLANS A LIFE OF LABOR

BY WHITNEY THARIN

ROCK HILL, S. C., Dec. 21 (AP)—This is the story of two women, one an expectant mother condemned to die for murder, the other a widow with four small children, facing a life of labor to rear them.

The first is Mrs. Beatrice Ferguson Snipes, who shot to death Rural Policeman Elliott Harris. The other is Mrs. Eula Harris, widow of the slain York county officer, who believes Mrs. Snipes should die for killing her husband.

Mrs. Snipes, 29, the mother of one child, expects the birth of another next month. While women plead with Governor Blackwood to save her from death in the electric chair next April 7, she is sewing baby clothes in the state penitentiary.

Mrs. Harris, left with $1,000 insurance money and $300 raised in a subscription fund by newspapers when her husband was shot, is studying shorthand and steno-typing in the hope that she may be able to support her children, the oldest of whom is six.

"I feel no elation over Mrs. Snipes' conviction and sentence," Mrs. Harris said, "but I feel if we are to have capital punishment that it should be administered to any deserving it—man or woman. She had time to consider it—she took all we had.

"I don't feel that if it were left to me that I would change

SENTIMENT IS IN FAVOR OF PROPOSAL

MAY ELIMINATE HOGS AND TOBACCO FROM PROPOSED BILL

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The house agriculture committee failed to reach a decision today on the domestic allotment relief plan sponsored by farm leaders, but committee discussion indicated a sentiment to apply that method to wheat and cotton only on a strictly emergency basis.

This trend of thought, should it hold when a final vote is taken, would eliminate tobacco and hogs from the measure, and would not include butterfat as requested by dairymen.

The committee will resume consideration of the bill tomorrow.

No Action Urged

Chairman Jones stressed that no formal action was taken today. Other committee members said the merits of the allotment plan were not discussed in detail.

Most of the round-table talk hinged on limiting the bill to the two great staples, wheat and cotton, and several members freely predicted this would be the committee's final decision.

Packing interests have made a vigorous protest against the inclusion of hogs through which the committee hoped to reach the corn crop. Several producers have joined in this opposition.

No witnesses of the tobacco manufacturing industry have been heard.

YOU'LL HAVE TO RUSH IF YOU DO ANYTHING TODAY

MOVE TO KILL MEASURE IS DEFEATED

PROPOSAL FORCED TO VOTE BY OPPONENTS OF COLLIER BILL

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The wets outvoted the drys in the house today on the first test vote on the Collier beer bill—a vote upon which depended the life of the measure.

A perfunctory motion to strike out the enacting clause of the measure, one which automatically would have killed it, was forced to a vote by opponents of the bill and rejected by a teller vote of 163 to 118.

Object To Withdrawal

The motion had been made by Representative Sirovich (D., N. Y.), in order to gain the floor to take part in the debate. When after speaking he sought to withdraw his motion, opponents of the bill objected and forced a vote. Sirovich favored the measure.

The vote was the first taken as the house swept through another tangle of disputatious debate, toward a final balloting on passage.

A moment later an amendment by Representative O'Connor (D., N. Y.), to declare 3.2 beer was not intoxicating was rejected.

Less Alcohol Proposed

A proposal to reduce the alcoholic content of beer from 3.2 per cent to 2.75 per cent in the Collier bill was made by Representative Michener (R., Mich.)

House galleries and the chamber itself but sparsely occupied when the carpentery work on the beer bill began, but before long both were generously filled.

Each member was limited to five minutes of argument at a time on the amendments, the first of which was offered by Representative O'Connor (D., N. Y.), providing that 3.2 per cent alcoholic content be declared "non-intoxicating in fact."

Held "Indispensable"

He said that such a provision was "indispensable."

Chairman Sumners of the judiciary committee, and Representative Cox (D., Ga.), O'Connor said, had called attention of the house yesterday "to the fact that such a phrase is indispensable."

"Does the gentleman think it would have any bearing on the supreme court decision?" Representative Treadway (R., Mass.) asked.

"Yes, I do," O'Connor replied.

Representative Blanton (D., Texas), opponent of the legislation,

Testimony Ends In Baker Trial

STATE REOPENS CASE THIS MORNING IN SEMINOLE COURT

(Special To The Journal)

SEMINOLE, Dec. 21.—The state reopened the case this morning in the trial in 106th district court of James W. Baker, a former Seagraves school teacher, charged with complicity in the robbery May 27 of the First State bank of Seagraves of more than $3,200. Arguments were to begin this afternoon.

Judge Gordon B. McGuire this morning permitted District Attorney Tom Price to place on the stand Sheriff J. M. Telford of Terry county, who told of an oral confession he said Baker made in jail at Brownfield the morning of June 19 of a part in the bank holdup. Judge McGuire at noon today was preparing a charge to the jury. The trial was begun Monday.

Arrested In Lubbock

Baker, arrested in Lubbock, June 14, while attending summer classes of Texas Technological college, Tuesday afternoon testified he attended a conference with Jodie Edwards, accused of being the gunman in the robbery; Elmer Slaughter, about 30, a Terry county farmer, and Oscar Herring, former Palo Pinto county attorney, in which they discussed the robbery, executed later that day. Baker said the meeting was in a barn at Slaughter's home.

The former school teacher denied he had agreed to aid in the robbery or had a part in it. J. E. Vickers, a Lubbock attorney, is defending Baker.

A lone bandit held up the bank. Edwards, Slaughter, Herring, and Edwin Meredith, about 21, of Seagraves, also face indictments in the robbery.

FRANCE FACES NEW DILEMMA

LOAN TO AUSTRIA IS BEING CONSIDERED BY GOVERNMENT

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Dec. 21—Another phase of France's financial dilemma—a proposed loan to Austria—pressed forward today for a decision while responsible leaders hoped for early settlement of the American debt problem.

The two problems were linked by deputies who asked how France could make the loan to Austria when it refused to pay a sum only twice as great to the United States last week.

Loan Approved

The League of Nations approved a $43,000,000 loan to Austria last July at the Lausanne conference to be raised by member nations. France's share in this loan, intended to save Austria from a perilous financial situation, was 250,000,000 francs, or about $9,750,000.

Within the next 10 days a decision is to be reached by the French government on whether the loan should be made. Deputies who favored making the interest payment of more than $19,000,000 to the United States last Thursday raised the question of grounds for making the Austrian loan.

Jack Sullivan Will Be Put In Jail Here

OLTON SUSPECT HELD AT VERNON AFTER ESCAPE NOV. 17

Jack Sullivan, a former convict whose capture Tuesday at Vernon ended a manhunt over the southwest, will be returned to Lubbock county jail, from which he has once escaped, Sheriff Wade Hardy said this morning. Officers were expected to arrive here tonight with Sullivan, who had a month and three days of freedom before being taken into custody again. He faces an indictment charging robbery of an Olton bank.

The 25-year-old fugitive had been hunted in the southwest since his spectacular escape Nov. 17 from the hospital ward of the Lubbock county jail. Injuries to Sullivan's right arm, riddled by officers' bullets Sept. 13 at Mountainair, N. M., probably resulted in his recapture after a chase by Sheriff R. L. Rheay and Deputy L. D. Campbell of Vernon, Deputy Will Earnest said.

Accompanied By Woman

The officers saw Sullivan and a young woman leaving a hospital in Vernon late Tuesday. The couple fled, but the officers overtook them. Both were being held for Olton officers. The woman is Miss Mary Cuban, 18, of Gonzales, Tex., who was with the desperado when he was seriously wounded in New Mexico. Miss Cuban last night was reported to be wanted by Lynn county officers.

While Jailer Ed Green's back was turned, Sullivan slipped out of the hospital ward here and slammed the door shut. Going to the intersection of Avenue G and Broadway, Sullivan held up Joe W. Harris, a salesman of 908 Thirty-Fourth street. The car, a red 1931 model Dodge sedan, was commandeered.

You won't turn me down for a little thing like this for Christmas. I'm as ever, just plain Beatrice."

TWO SLAIN IN PISTOL DUEL

VICTIMS ARE KILLED ON VERNON STREET; NO WITNESSES

(By The Associated Press)

VERNON, Dec. 21—A pistol duel brought sudden dead to two men who settled unrevealed differences at close quarters here last night.

The bodies of H. H. Hutto, 65, and David R. Farrar, 36, were found where they had fallen within a few feet of each other on the landing of a stairway leading from a club to the main street.

Two Pistols Found

A pistol that had been fired five times was under Farrar's body. Another weapon lay near Hutto's body. It had been fired once and the hammer had snapped on a second cartridge.

Investigators expressed the belief that there had been no actual witnesses to the fight. Because of the meagre information bearing on the encounter, holding of an inquest was postponed until today.

The two men had been sitting in an automobile parked in front of the club a short time before. Passersby saw them drive away after conversing.

Hutto, a welding shop operator, had lived in Vernon about 15 years. He was defeated as a candidate for sheriff in the last election. Farrar came to Vernon some two months ago from Rochester, Texas, a town near by.

Officers said Hutto had been hit by several bullets. Only one struck Farrar.

GUARD DETECTIVE WHO SHOT NITTI

A guard was established at the home of Detective Harry Lang, who shot Nitti when police raided a downtown office. The action followed anonymous threats telephoned to Lang's wife.

One call warned her to "watch out for yourself." Another was "if I were you I'd keep close tab on my son." This apparently referred to Lang's 15-year-old son, Sidney.

FUNDS OF RECONSTRUCTION FINANCE CORPORATION TAXED BY RELIEF WORK

With $453.85, or more than a fourth of the December allotment, paid 136 men employed last week in shoveling snow and ice from the sidewalks and street crossings, funds obtained from the Reconstruction Finance corporation for relief work in Lubbock have been taxed severely, the press was informed Tuesday.

The number of indigent men working has grown this week. One hundred were employed Monday cleaning up the dump ground on the northeast edge of Lubbock, 200 were at work there yesterday, and the total today was expected to be swelled to between 275 and 300. Only about $1,500 was alloted to Lubbock for December, the amount sought having been reduced about one-third.

Six days employment a month is the maximum which may be obtained by any one family head, it was pointed out yesterday.

"The Reconstruction Finance corporation, in administering the fund, makes its allotments on the basis of $10 to $12 for each family per month," a committee member said. "Since the wage scale here is $2 daily, the maximum number of days of employment per month for each family head is six days. The committee cannot even be assured that the maximum employment monthly can be given, because more persons have registered for work than was originally estimated, and because of the reduction in the application.

"The present plan is to give three days employment this week and three days next week, or as many days as the funds will cover."

The committee members are: J. O. Jones, E. L. Pitts, J. J. Clements, S. A. Wells, Chas. A. Guy, chairman, and A. B. Davis, treasurer. The members were required to make bonds to the government, and were directed to account for every cent disbursed.

Employment is being limited to unemployed persons who have lived in Lubbock county at least one year, have dependents, and who cannot find other employment. This policy, it was said, is in keeping with the act of congress authorizing the funds.

All persons in this classification, who have not registered at the City-County Welfare association offices at 1312 Avenue G, are urged to register in order to aid in obtaining necessary allotments for January, February, and March. The dump grounds will be cleaned, and alleys, streets, and parks will be improved, providing the funds are obtainable.

SCOUTMASTERS IN CONFERENCE HERE

Lubbock scoutmasters at a roundtable at a monthly meeting last night discussed progress being made toward the president's award for troops, a 10-year program of expansion, an annual council assembly to be in January, and anniversary week, which will be February 8-14.

S. A. Henry, district commissioner, in whose office the scoutmasters and other executives met, at 7:30 o'clock, presided.

Minor Huffman, deputy regional executive, of Dallas spoke of the 10-year program which will be launched nationally January 1.

A committee was appointed to help D. T. Jennings, area executive, in suggesting an anniversary week program for Lubbock. T. C. Lamb, scoutmaster of troop 3 is chairman. Other members are M. K. Foster jr., assistant scoutmaster of troop 6; Leland Mast, scoutmaster of troop 5; Carroll Thompson, assistant district commissioner, and E. L. Reed, a troop committeeman of troop 8.

Twenty or more Boy Scouts last night took examinations in textiles in the textile building at Texas Technological college.

BROWNFIELD SCHOOLS CLOSE

BROWNFIELD, Dec. 21 (Special)—The Brownfield schools have closed and will not be in session again until January 3. The action was not caused upon accbunt of general illness among the teachers and students, but was for an economy measure and for allowing a longer holiday.

The "flu" epidemic seems to be abating in this section and it is expected that only the normal number of winter ailments will prevail for the next several months, and will not interfere with teaching activities.

MOTHER ASKS THAT HEALTH OF HER SON BE GUARDED IN LUBBOCK JAIL

A mother in the piney woods of East Texas has written the sheriff's department to ask that the health of her "boy" be guarded.

This mother's affection for a black sheep is manifest in a scrawling penciled letter to the Lubbock county "jailery." A sixth of the words are misspelled.

"dair Mr. Jailery," it begins, "i thought i wood wright you a few lins in regard of my Boy—. Pleas dont let him sleep cold and if he get sick pleas see to him for my sake. Just thank (think) i 4 hundred and 90 miles a way from him and just cooden come to him in such hard shape. So thank of my Boy, Pleas from his mother Mrs. —— —— to the Jailery"

Her "boy" is 27 years old, and under two-year sentence for car theft from Lubbock county. He is waiting for the "chain to drag," as the inmates refer to the penitentiary delivery wagon of "Uncle" Bud Russell.

Less than two months ago, the prisoner underwent an appendicitis operation in a hospital here. He convalesced quickly, and now is reported to be in good health.

BULLOCK'S FATHER DEAD

LUBBOCK AND ATHENS BASKETBALL TEAMS TO CLASH TONIGHT

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

BASKETBALL TONIGHT

Eight o'clock. Lubbock High school gymnasium. Lubbock High Westerners versus Athens High school Hornets.

As an added attraction at the high school gym tonight, Mrs. J. O. Morgan will present her class of athletic girls in a special feature. This entails no extra cost, but we are told that it's worth the price of admission.

When is a professional not a professional, Axel? Right. When he doesn't get paid. And what is worse than a man without a country, Hans? Correct. A college football team without an alma mater. And who is in such a predicament? Say it softly and with feeling. The ex-Jefferson University Rangers of Dallas.

"Well, we have a pretty good football team," the president of the Dallas law college must have smirked, if he smirks. "I wonder how they are progressing with their scholastic duties. Believe I'll call on a few classes and see how the Blackstone triple-threat system is working." (Pause while Prexy pulls string tie to one side and also while we explain that no personal whack is being taken at Prexy). "What! No scholars! Harrumph. How long has this been going on. Have them report to my office immediately. What? They don't come to school? I hereby declare them definitely expelled."

And our friend Nick Dobbs finds himself and his fine football team cast adrift, with not even the solace of a school's support. You can't blame the president. Students are supposed to go to school, preferably to the school they represent on the gridiron. If they don't attend classes they can't represent the school. So there they are, with the stigma of professionalism added to the "cast-off" situation.

Not so long ago this department aroused the ire of certain folk down Dallas way by hinting that a college or university team might endanger its amateur standing by playing a football game with the Jefferson Rangers. There came a quick reply. Names of the players were listed, along with their past connections and with the statement that "the players are attending school regularly, passing their work and are in no wise to be mistaken for professionals." Now comes the announcement that the team has turned professional. It meets the Portsmouth Spartans, second place football club in the National Professional football league at Dallas on January 2.

The Dallas News quotes the Interscholastic Leaguer, official organ of the Texas Interscholastic league, as saying the new eight-semester eligibility rule will be tried out for at least two seasons, and after that time will be permanently employed if it meets with the satisfaction of coaches and school officials. Which means, if the Leaguer and the News is to be taken as final authorities, that the eight-semester rule will not come up before Texas high school coaches for a final stamp of approval or disapproval before it is entered in the statutes.

There is a great hue and cry among the Texas coaches because of this rule, which makes it illegal for a boy to play football, or any other sport, after he has served eight terms in high school. It whacks two terms off the previous rule. It also whacks off at least 50 per cent of players who otherwise would be playing high school football in Texas next fall. Personally, we see nothing exactly brilliant and laudable about the new rule. It is impossible for a number of high school students to finish their scholastic work in eight semesters, hand running. Football players aren't the only students who fail to go through in record time. But anything to make the rule book bigger seems to be the attitude taken by the makers of the rules.

And so saying, we will retire presently to the sidelines and keep tab on Swede McMurry's six-footers. We are told that, while the Athens club may not be headed for national honors as have two or three preceding quintets, the Hornets play a pretty fair brand of basketball. We haven't seen a game under the new ten-second rule, and we're anxious to see how it works.

GAME TO SHOW SIX-FOOTERS IN ACTION

TICKETS ARE PLACED ON SALE; CONTEST TO START AT 8

Athens High school's Hornets, twice national schoolboy champs and three times champions in Texas, will indulge in a session of basket tossing tonight with Coach Swede McMurry's Lubbock High school Westerners defending the honor of their cage court.

The game is due to start at 8 o'clock.

Tickets for the game were placed on sale Tuesday night at the Hotel Hilton and Hotel Lubbock drug stores. For adults the price of admission is 35 cents, and for students, 25 cents. The ducats will remain on sale at the drug stores until game time.

The game will start at 8 o'clock. A low admission rate is being charged.

As an added attraction tonight, Mrs. J. O. Morgan will present her Lubbock High school gymnasium class of girls in a special athletic act.

Hornets Strong Again

Local basketball fans are in for a treat tonight if past records mean anything. The Athens team appearing here does not include the players who won national fame a few years ago, and the coach who directed the Hornets to high fame has since departed, but the new coach is reputed to be a worthy successor to Jimmy Kitts, and his new ball club is said to be headed toward another state title.

As for the Westerners, Coach McMurry's lads looked good in two previous games, topping the Wayland varsity Jackrabbits in the first and outscoring the strong Meadow High school team last Friday in the second.

High Boys Here, Too

A band of six-footers, at least six of them, appear on the Lubbock team. Coach McMurry could place a team on the court averaging nearly 6 feet, 5 inches. His reserve strength is great. four members of last season's team have returned, but certain new faces in the squad bid fair to becoming permanent fixtures on the starting team.

The Athens team left home last Sunday for a lengthy tour of West Texas. They were to play in Breckenridge last night, and are scheduled to meet Plainview tomorrow night. They go to El Paso before returning to Athens.

The Hornets are able to start a team of basketeers well over the six-foot mark. Cobb, forward on this season's team, who is being hailed as another Freddie Tompkins, all-American, stands six feet, two inches. Trammel, forward, Reagan at center, and Tarrant at guard are all over six feet high.

ROBERT GROVE NAMED AGAIN

WIRY SOUTHPAW WINS CHAMPIONSHIP FOR THE FOURTH YEAR

CHICAGO, Dec. 21. (AP)—It was beginning to look today as though other pitchers of the American league would have to wait until the veteran, Robert Moses Grove, retired to gain his championship standing.

Or, it was suggested, they might become left handed.

The reason was that Grove, wiry southpaw of the Philadelphia Athletics, yesterday was named champion of the league for the fourth consecutive year.

Grove's low earned run average for the 1932 season was officially set at 2.84 in 44 games and 292 innings during which he allowed only 269 hits, 79 bases on balls, one hit batsman and no wild pitches. His percentage for four years was set at 2.67 in 129 games of which he won 104.

Standings of other leaders were: Charlie Ruffing, New York Yankees, 3.10; Ted Lyons, Chicago White Sox, 3.28; Alvin Crowder, Washington, 3.33, and Tom Bridges, Detroit, 3.36.

Honors in winning percentage went to Johnny Allen of the Yankees for 17 victories and four losses in 33 games. Grove was fifth with a score of 25 victories and 10 defeats.

PRIMO CARNERA WINS

COLLECTIONS BETTER

TAHOKA, (Special)—Tax collections are improving, A. M. Cade, Lynn county collector, states. Back taxes are being paid off, he said.

Babe Didrikson Quits Her Post

REDOUBTABLE GIRL ATHLETE IS EXPECTED TO TURN PROFESSIONAL; MATRIMONY HINTED

DALLAS, Dec. 21 (AP)—The redoubtable Mildred Babe Didrikson resigned her job and drove south last night, leaving sports followers to puzzle over reports that the olympic champion planned to turn professional and that she was considering matrimony.

Miss Didrikson apparently was on her way to her Beaumont home to spend the holidays with her family. Mrs. C. Didrikson said she understood that her daughter, who recently was suspended by the Amateur Athletic union because she allegedly endorsed a make of automobile, expected to turn professional soon.

Laughs At Report

At Houston the athlete's sister, Mrs. Esther Elam, laughed at reports that Babe was to be married. She said there was "absolutely nothing to it."

A typewritten statement was issued to Houston papers as coming from Miss Didrikson. It was confirmed by Mrs. Elam as authentic. One paragraph read:

"This is my last word concerning my suspension. So far as I am concerned, it is a closed incident. Newspapers and the public must be tired of the whole business. I know I am."

Miss Didrikson has repeatedly denied the allegation on which she automatically lost her amateur ratings. But her suspension upset her plans for athletic competition in the immediate future. She had planned to play basketball again this season with the Golden Cyclones, a winning team with which she had been connected for some time.

Debut As Pro Expected

The team was sponsored by the Employers Casualty company. Last night Col. M. J. McCombs, athletic director for the company, announced that Miss Didrikson had definitely resigned. He, too, expressed the opinion that she would announce her professional debut immediately.

After her victories in the olympics last summer Miss Didrikson considered entering the professional field but decided to postpone the move for a time.

She could not be located last night. She left Dallas quietly and drove to Houston, then proceeded to Galveston, Mrs. Elam said.

WEIL NURSED RICKEY THROUGH "FLU"; THAT'S HOW REDS GOT "SUNNY JIM"

And that, says Weil, is how the Cincinnati Reds got "Sunny Jim" Bottomley from the Cards, in exchange for Pitcher Owen Carroll and Outfielder Estil Crabtree.

The illness brought them close together and the Reds' second big trade of the winter followed.

For weeks Weil pleaded for Bottomley. First Rickey wouldn't listen. Then he suggested the Cards take Si Johnson and Leo Durocher, and it was Weil's turn to suffer deafness.

With the impasse, Rickey started for the major league meeting in New York, with Weil and Donnie Bush passengers on the same train.

Rickey fell ill, Weil said, and he took command, shooing him into his berth.

"You keep quiet from now on," he ordered. "I'm your nurse. Don't say a word about baseball—or anything else."

And the next stop, the story goes, Weil slipped from the train plodded two blocks through snowy streets to a drug store for medicine; had the porter rig up blankets to keep the chill air from Rickey's berth; and had Rickey's meals brought to him.

By the time they reach New York, Weil added, Rickey was much better. A few days later he was talking baseball again, but he said not a word about Bottomley until the last day of the sessions of the major leagues. Then he proposed that Weil stay in New York awhile. Starting Friday, they dickered through the night. In the early morning Rickey gave in. The Cardinals got Carroll and Crabtree. The Reds got Bottomley.

ONLY GREENLEAF AND RUDOLPH IN BILLIARDS MEET

NEW YORK, Dec. 21 (AP)—The national pocket billiard championship lies strictly between Ralph Greenleaf of New York and Erwin Rudolph of Cleveland with the other eight hopefuls also-rans.

Greenleaf's seventh successive victory of the current championship tournament, a 125 to 69 triumph over 22-year-old Jimmy Caras last night, together with Rudolph's sixth winning game in seven starts, left these two veteran masters of the game the sole remaining contenders for the crown now held by Greenleaf.

Greenleaf's two remaining games take him against Pasquale Natalie of Chicago this afternoon and against Rudolph tomorrow night. Rudolph, before he clashes with the champion, must tackle Andrew Ponzi, the sensational Philadelphian, tonight. A victory for Greenleaf today, coupled with a defeat for Rudolph, automatically would clinch the title again for the dapper champion.

Girl Boxers Fight To Draw Last Night

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 21 (AP)—Evelyn Norris and "Bobby" Brewer, St. Louis girl boxers, fought to a draw here last night in a match that was the first feminine pugilistic contest ever sanctioned by the Missouri Athletic commission for a major arena.

The bout was part of a boxing-wrestling program for charity—great deal of which the girl pugilists exhibited in their three-round go, and neither suffered any battle scars.

KEY SUCCEEDS THOMAS

TAHOKA, (Special)—R. E. Key, local business man, has been named a member of the county school board as trustee-at-large, succeeding J. N. Thomas, who resigned. Mr. Thomas, who was chairman of the board, is the new state representative. Resolutions expressing pleasure at the service Mr. Thomas had rendered and regret at his leaving the board, were unanimously adopted.

Production by Ohio farmers of all the sugar used in the state would bring an agricultural income of $13,000,000, it is estimated.

YANKEES' FEAT IS VOTED AS GREATEST

COLGATE TEAM RATES SECOND IN ANNUAL AP SPORTS POLL

NEW YORK, Dec. 21 (AP)—By an overwhelming margin, the nation's sports experts have decided that the New York Yankees' feat of winning the American league championship and the world series was the greatest team achievement of the year.

Exactly 100 out of the 302 votes cast in the second annual Associated Press poll of sports writers and editors went to the Yankees. The college football teams of Colgate and Southern California, the pro outfit of the Green Bay Packers, the United States olympic track and field squad, and California's all-conquering crew, finished badly distanced also-rans to the Yankees.

Colgate Second

Colgate's football array, undefeated, untied and unscored upon, finished in second place with 33 votes, six more than Southern California's mole-skin warriors.

Apparently it was the Yankees' consistent performance over the long stretch from April to October that turned the tide of ballots toward them rather than to any one football team. The Yankees played 160 games where football elevens are asked to play nine or ten at the most.

Here's how the leaders finished in the balloting:

1.	New York Yankees, baseball	100
2.	Colgate, football	33
3.	Southern California	23
4.	U. S. Olympic track and field team	26
5.	Green Bay, pro football	19
6.	U. of California crew	15
7.	U. S. Olympic team (all sports)	11
8.	Pittsburgh, football	8
9.	Michigan, football	7
10.	Notre Dame, football	7
11.	Japanese Olympic swimming team	7

PASSES PRIME FACTOR IN ROSE BOWL GAME BETWEEN TROJANS, PANTHERS

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 21. (AP)—Whatever takes place the next 12 days within the locked gates of the field where Southern California prepares for its Rose bowl football game with Pitt January 2, there is certain to be much ado about passes—receivable and interceptable.

The only opponents to score on the Trojans this year threw passes for touchdowns. Almost half of Southern California's twenty-three touchdowns in nine games were made directly on successful aerial attempts.

Coach Howard Jones' team scored eight touchdowns directly on passes, intercepted two of its opponent's tosses for touchdowns, and otherwise advanced the ball via the ozone to make possible at least a part of the 11 touchdowns which came from running plays. Two scoring thrusts resulted from blocked kicks while the other one was paved by a penalty which placed the ball a couple of yards short of the goal line.

There is no question but what the 1932 edition of the Trojan war horse has traversed by air a greater distance than in any one season before. The main reason appears to be that the driving backs of other years such as Gaius Shaver, Morley Drury, Russ Saunders and Jim Musick, have had no successor in the squad this fall.

Gelbert Says That He'll Play Again

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 21 (AP)—Charley Gelbert, St. Louis Cardinal shortstop who accidentally shot himself in the left leg while hunting rabbits a month ago, says he will be back on the diamond playing baseball next summer.

In a hospital here, Gelbert, much improved, declared he will join the Cardinals in March at their Bradenton, Fla., training camp, and will be ready for active duty in the early summer if not at the start of the season.

Physicians who at first privately expressed doubts whether the infield star would ever play big-league baseball again, yesterday conferred at Gelbert's bedside, and decided that within the next two weeks they will attempt a plastic surgery operation which they believe will make Charley's leg as good as ever.

Electricity is used in slaghtering in French abattoirs. Instead of striking the animal with a mallet, an electric-current cap is utilized.

HEAT

When you turn on the gas and touch a match to it, do you ever think what is behind that convenience and comfort?

West Texas Gas Company secures gas from a pipe line system more than 1,000 miles in length that obtains clean sweet natural gas from one of the largest gas fields known today.

Inside the city are miles of mains that carry the gas to your property line, there to be piped through the meter to your gas appliances.

Cold Weather Service

And then enters the human element. Line walkers each day are walking over snow-covered ground and wind swept plains to inspect the lines so that a break may not cause you dis-comfort.

As you sit by your warm fire, there are crews of men at work who may be undergoing hardships for the sake of the service—for it is during the coldest weather that they must work the hardest.

24 hours a day, and every day in the year, members of the West Texas Gas Company organization work diligently at their task of insuring you against dis-comfort.

In this connection, we take pride in pointing to the fact that since gas was turned on in 1927 you have never been without gas in your home.

TESTS CONDUCTED TO DETERMINE THE QUALIFICATIONS OF A SAFE DRIVER

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Psychology has found what qualifications make the "safest" automobile driver. Several scientific institutions cooperated in this investigation. The methods of testing and the results are described here).

BY ALLVHH R. LAUER
Associate Professor Of Pshychology
Iowa State College

AMES, Ia., Dec. 21. (AP)—Highway safety is one of the most urgent of present day problems. The 33,000 fatalities and 1,000,000 injured have helped to awaken the scientific world to a realization of its duty. Since 90 to 95 per cent of the accidents are due to the driver of the car, psychologists have been enlisted to devise ways and means of increasing safety on highways.

It is necessary to measure the abilities and capacities of the driver to advise him properly on safe driving. Information valuable to the problem of how to build cars which will fit the characteristic of the driver; and how to construct roadways and markers which will aid in avoiding confusion, yet at the same time speed up traffic flow, is also secured.

Methods Developed

Only the first of these problems can be discussed here. Two methods have been developed. The first consists of measuring the most probable actions of the driver in order to determine his judgment of distance, reaction time, keenness and speed of observations, self-control, visual field, visual efficiency, strength, and other isolated factors. This method, applied to industrial situations, has decreased accidents of one commercial company 50 per cent.

The second method consists of putting the driver through actual tests on a standard test field, 300 to 500 feet, driving his own car. The time for the trip, efficiency in parking, negotiating turns, giving hand signals, observing markers, stop lights and other aspects of driving are recorded by a rider who accompanies the driver. A clinic for ascertaining defects of vision and other sense organs is housed in a tent on the field.

Watches The Road

The safest driver is found to be very careful, to inquire as to procedure, to stop for all stop lights, and to be unmindful of minor details on the roadway. He keeps his eye on the road at some distance in front of the car and does not follow small movements of the steering wheel.

Between 25 and 30 per cent of drivers have all the accidents.

From 2 to 5 per cent are accident-prone. The other 20 to 25 per cent accident-liable. It is very difficult for accident-prone drivers to drive safely. If properly trained, accident-liable drivers could avoid accidents.

This study was inaugurated by the National Research council and carried on largely by the departments of psychology at Johns Hopkins university, Ohio State university, and Iowa State college. Many new problems are now being investigated.

In Short, Merry Christmas!

Bottom row, Alberta Watkins, French; Frank Kruske, Spanish; Tae Shimamoto, Japanese; and Jean Gruber, Norwegian.

Biblical Scenes On Display Here

Scenes surrounding the birth of Christ are presented in the windows of Texas Utility company, Tenth street and Avenue K.

One section portrays the pilgrimage of the three Magi, who are following the Christmas star to Bethlehem. The second section shows the wise men offering gifts to the infant in the manger. Other characters are the Virgin Mary, Joseph, and three angels.

A pastoral scene is depicted in the other division. A shepherd is receiving a message from a white-garbed angel. At the right is the flock and another shepherd. In the background is their campfire. Lights have been arranged artistically.

Charity Cake Drive Is Announced Here

Miss Ola Rogers, Mrs. Tynce Farris, and Mrs. Cora Lee Weaks announced Tuesday sponsorship of a cake drive, after which cakes and pastries donated will be distributed to Lubbock needy.

Persons baking cakes or pies were asked to telephone 89 to give addresses. The articles will be called for. Names of recipients will be obtained from the Salvation Army and Red Cross.

MRS. GARNER CONSIDERS WHAT SHE WILL DO AS VICE PRESIDENT'S WIFE

BY BESS FURMAN
Associated Press Staff Writer
Copyright, 1932, By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21 (AP)—Mrs. John N. Garner is giving careful thought to a question that others have been interestingly discussing—what she will do socially as the vice president's wife.

Some time ago the Garners announced that, in keeping with their custom of simple living, they will accept only "official" invitations.

Innovations Seen

But today Mrs. Garner told for the first time just how she feels on the subject. She does not minimize the value of sociability in official life. On the contrary, she is deeply determined to uphold the dignity of the vice presidential position. But she thinks individuality should be expressed by each hostess—and if she so chooses, she might even introduce some social innovations!

"Alice Longworth, as speaker's wife, by not holding the traditional 'at homes' to the house membership, made it perfectly clear that it is not necessary for every hostess to do what others have done before them," said Mrs. Garner.

"Now, I would really enjoy receiving the house membership, and may work it out yet, before Mr. Garner's term as speaker closes.

"The point is that it isn't necessary for people to follow each other like sheep in social events."

Has Practical Views

Mrs. Garner looks at sociability from the practical viewpoint of a career woman, and is putting to her tentative program the test question: "What is really worth while?"

There's the question of holding "at homes" and of making formal calls. The vice president's hostess traditionally starts off the cabinet "at homes," and Mrs. Garner hasn't turned thumbs down on that, although she wouldn't want it carried to the old extremes.

"Mrs. Joseph M. Dixon of Montana and I used to go calling together," Mrs. Garner said, and genuine reminiscent pleasure lighted her eyes as she turned back to the slow-swinging pre-auto social regime.

"We used to say we 'peddled cardboard.' We'd call, and call and call, and those we were calling on would call, and call, and call, and we'd probably never meet the whole season.

Not Worth While

"A group of us who lived at the same hotel would have 'at homes' together. And two thousand would come! When I think back to the times I have stood for hours in line, shaking hands with a thousand, or two thousand, I can't believe that form of 'at home' is worth while, though I might enjoy a smaller one."

One social post Mrs. Garner does deem eminently worth while, that of presiding officer of the ladies of the senate, who meet for luncheons and do Red Cross work. It is always vested in the wife of the vice president.

Asked if she would accept it, Mrs. Garner said: "There is no question of my not doing it, for it is simply an honor accorded to the wife of the vice president. And I have known so many of the senators wives, for so many years, I shall feel I am among friends."

At Beauty Parade

Ah, there's So-and-So, the ravishing beauty. And there's that divine Such-and-Such. And so spoke the onlookers at one of those gaudy Hollywood movie premieres. Then along came Edna May Oliver in her party clothes, registering whatever this expression may signify. And the crowd roared.

Pictures Of Tharp Suspects Sent Here

The Lubbock county sheriff's department has received pictures of Raymond Hamilton, 19, under a murder indictment in Hill county, and of three other police characters. Investigators here have attempted to connect Hamilton with the slaying in Lubbock, October 15, of Robert Tharp in a grocery store holdup.

Attempts of eye witnesses of the slaying here to identify the suspects from pictures had not been completed this morning.

Hamilton was arrested recently in Bay City, Mich., and was returned to Texas. He has been identified by the widow of John Bucher, victim of two gunmen during a holdup, and by the cashier of the bank at Cedar Hill, Dallas county, which was robbed of more than $3,000 in two holdup attempts.

"Cheap Labor"

We are accustomed to hearing tariff advocates demand that American workingmen be protected against competition with the "pauper labor" of Europe. It isn't so usual to find the shoe being put on the other foot; and Lady Astor's recent speech before the National Consumers' League of New York therefore, comes as a rather unpleasant surprise.

Lady Astor declared bluntly that "cheap American labor" is hampering English efforts to get a 48-hour-week law through parliament. She asserted that child labor in the American textile industry produces so cheaply "that respectable textile unionists in Manchester cannot meet the mark and are being ruined by American labor."

Here is a little unpalatable food for thought; but even though it is unpalatable, it might not hurt us to digest it anyway.

Potent Cigar

CHICAGO—The cigar that General Ulysses S. Grant is supposed to have given to Horace Norton, founder of Norton college of Williams Point, was like the general's military thrusts. It had power.

For years it had been kept in the college museum, but after it was decided that the school should discontinue, the alumni concluded that nothing could be more fit and proper than to have the cigar smoked at their annual reunion.

And so it was that Winstead Norton, grandson of the college's founder, was selected to do the honors, which were appropriately done in a Loop hotel.

"And when," said Norton, "I light this cigar with trembling hand, it is not alone a tribute to the spirit of him whom you call founder, but also to that titan among statesmen who was never too exalted to be a friend."

It was a touching scene, as Norton lifted his cigar lighter. It was more so when he began to puff. The first puff was satisfactory. Then the cigar exploded.

Wave Of Goodness

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—It must be that Santa Claus is making bad boys good.

At any rate the authorities have noted a falling off in the number of children brought into juvenile court.

Next Sunday is Christmas.

Fire Ladies

CENTRAL CITY, Neb.—The Central City Ladies Aid society lives up to its name.

It was meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Matthis when some one rushed in shouting that the house was afire. Five ladies are credited with carrying out a piano. They saved all the other furniture, too, except a dresser.

Keep The Change

SHELDON, N. D.—It was a load off his mind, to say nothing of his arm, said E. E. Good, Sheldon dairyman, as he deposited a 32 1-2 pound bundle in the Ransom county court house.

"Here's my personal property tax payment—count it." Good told officials. They did—all afternoon. There were 4,689 pennies. Good said he's been saving the coppers for three months.

Signals Over!

UNIONTOWN, Pa.—Playing in the first night football game of his career, Alex Duncan crashed over with a touchdown after a brilliant run. But while the cheers of the huge throng rang in his ears, blood gushed from his lips and his head ached. After the score, Duncan, former high school star, awoke and surveyed the scene of action. The vicious tackler he had just bowled over proved to be a big oak dresser in his bedroom. Duncan limped back to bed.

Farm Relief Cry Is Dinned Into Congress' Ears; Little Hope Seen For Democratic Remedies In Lame Duck Session

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21—Since a time outside the range of anybody's memory, farm relief has been an issue here. The farmers are worse off now than they ever were, although plenty of legislation has been passed in their behalf.

President Hoover began his administration with a new and unprecedentedly ambitious program for relief; Congress accepted his recipe. President-elect Roosevelt is going to do the same thing; Congress, certainly in a special session if nothing is done at this session, will take whatever he endorses.

Dutcher

The farm relief problem, as considered here, has now divided itself into two phases: Immediate relief that will undertake to solve the problem for the future.

The unemployment relief issue may be similarly divided. In each case everyone agrees that there is both an immediate emergency and something fundamentally wrong with the system.

Rock bottom prices—often below production cost, uncontrolled production with huge surpluses, the inability of farmers to benefit from the tariff and to approach an economic parity with industry are the chief factors in the farm problem in its long-time aspect.

Farm indebtedness, pre-depression mortgage charges and high taxes to met with a halved average cash income make the immediate condition which has cost tens of thousands of farmers their homes and land and threatens hundreds of thousands more.

The first of the two phases is that upon which Democratic leaders are now concentrating most of their attention, although they are pledged to do something to ease the farmer's debt burden.

Members from the farm states are receiving so much direct pressure for emergency action, however, that most of them are thinking in terms of prompt relief through such measures as the refinancing of farm mortgages and a form of inflation which will tend to place the value of the dollar nearer what it was when most of the farm debts were contracted.

The latter proposal, which found favor with the American Farm Bureau Federation convention at Chicago, does not necessarily mean the remonetization of silver. The farm state members were the most enthusiastic backers of the Goldsborough price stabilization bill which was passed last session by the House and killed off by the Senate.

Delegates to the Farmers' National Relief Conference came here to petition for the emergency type of relief, though their program calls for a moratorium on taxes, interest and other charges which make the farmer's hold on his farm precarious. A farm moratorium bill failed in the present Congress at the last session.

The domestic allotment plan, which President-elect Roosevelt is said to favor and on which the large farmer organizations are expected to agree receives increasing attention daily. There is no longer much doubt that Mr. Hoover would veto any such proposal passed at this session. The bill probably couldn't be passed over his veto.

Opposition to this plan—which would pay farmers bonuses on given quantities of production which did not exceed a certain percentage of their normal output—has begun to center on the enormous problem of its administration, which would call for boards in every state, county and locality to tell farmers how much they should plant, see that they keep their agreement and supervise the compensation.

Those are high spots in the farm relief situation to date. Despite its long history and many spectacular developments in recent years, this issue may be only in its infancy.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21 (AP)—Radio is leaning more and more toward the stage.

The latest indication is the decision to broadcast Stoopnagle and Budd's new weekly program on WABC-CBS from a small theater before an audience of 500.

While NBC, for sometime, has been putting on several features from its Times Square studio in reality in a small theatre, CBS always heretofore has clung to its own studios.

WABC-CBS is to use the Chamber Music hall in Carnegie hall.

Youngsters Keep Up With Dad In Hunting

RAYMONDVILLE, Dec. 21. (AP)—Dr. C. C. Conley is being hard put to keep ahead of his straight shooting youngsters when he goes on a hunting trip.

Recently Sonny Conley shot a 12-point buck while hunting with his father but Billie, his seven-year-old sister, not to be outdone, killed a Javelina, or wild hog; a dangerous foe to meet in the brush.

JAPAN'S DEBT AT NEW HIGH

BIG INCREASE SHOWN IN INDEBTEDNESS OF GOVERNMENT

TOKYO, Dec. 21. (AP)—Figures of the ministry of finance show that the Japanese government's indebtedness has reached a new high point in Japan's history—6,856,459,000 yen, or nearly $3,500,000,000 at normal exchange.

This total includes 1,398,297,000 yen of foreign obligations, and 5,467,162,000 yen of domestic debts, which include government storage rice-notes amounting to 103,685,000 yen, and treasury bills for 240,000,000 yen.

Increase Is Shown

These figures cover the central government's indebtedness up to the end of November, and represent an increase over the total amount made public at the end of October of 10,000,000 yen.

The finance ministry's statement also shows the funds and securities in the hands of its deposits bureau at the end of November were 3,-[illegible]2,000 yen, and an increase over the amount made public in mid-November of 18,474,000 yen.

On the other hand, the postal savings deposits showed a decrease of 18,572,000 yen from Nov. 15, the Nov. 30 total being 2,837,220,000 yen. Resources of the deposits bureau consist largely of Japanese government bonds.

In order to balance the budget, bonds amounting to 400,000 yen will have to be issued during the remainder of the present fiscal year, the finance ministry said.

BEER VOTE

said "to declare in this bill that 3.2 per cent beer is non-intoxicating is ridiculous."

Experts had told the house ways and means committee, he said that "even beer of 2.75 per cent would cause a person not to be able to reach his mouth with a spoon, not to be able to reach a keyhole with a key, not to be able to walk a straight line."

"Isn't that intoxication?" Blanton asked.

Refers To Speech

Then, referring to a speech made yesterday by Representative Clancy (R., Mich.) he added:

"He held position after position as a Democrat. When he can no longer hold on as a Republican he begins talking about hypocrisy."

Clancy, who was defeated for re-election, had not yet reached the floor when Blanton began talking.

When Representative Cochran (D., Mo.), arose, the house was in such a hubbub that Representative Bankhead (D., Ala.)—who was presiding—pounded for order.

Cochran read what he described as a resolution adopted by the Democrats of Blanton's district urging that the question of prohibition repeal be submitted to the people for a vote.

"It doesn't seem to me," he said, "that the gentleman from Texas is representing the people of his district by his attitude here.

"That action came after I had already been nominated in the primary," Blanton said.

"But the gentleman wasn't elected till November," Cochran said.

"Nomination is equivalent to election in my state," Blanton replied.

More Discussion Urged

Beck, (R., Pa.), chairman of the Republican wet bloc, said he did "not think this legislation should go out to the country until there had been further discussion of its constitutionality."

"I think it is constitutional," he said, "but I am sorry more time has not been given to that phase of the question in the debate here."

Representative Schafer (R., Wis.), immediately asked unanimous consent for Beck to discuss for 30 minutes the constitutionality phase.

Blanton, however, objected, saying that the ways and means committee had held "hearings for a long time" and that Beck should have presented his views there. "Surely the committee would have given you 30 minutes," he said.

The house was in an uproar during much of the proceedings, drys cheering as they grabbed the opportunity to take advantage of Sirovich's perfunctory motion. He was red in the face as Representative Cullen of New York, head of the Tammany delegation, shook his fist at him during a brief talk on the floor.

Wine Move Nipped

An attempt to legalize wines was nipped before it had budded.

Representative La Guardia (R., N. Y.) offered an amendment to make the bill refer to "beer, ale, porter, similar and other fermented liquor" instead of "beer, ale, porter and other similar fermented liquor."

Chairman Collier of the ways and means committee held this change would legalize wines, and hence was out of order.

Representative Bankhead (D., Ala.), in the chair sustained the point of order and left wine seekers to find other means of obtaining their objective.

Ex-Bartender Speaks

A man who has been a bartender, Representative Palmisano (D., Md.) then proposed that the tax on beer be $3 a barrel instead of $5, saying he wanted the working man to "have a five cent glass of beer."

Palmisano's amendment was defeated on a viva voce vote, however.

Thereupon, Representative Michener (R., Mich.) sought to have the alcoholic content cut to 2.75 per cent by weight, but his proposal was defeated by a house vote.

This is one of the big points on which the drys planned for their attack on the bill.

Michener is assistant Republican leader, and a member of the judiciary committee that formulated the Volstead act.

CULBERTSON SAYS NEW SYSTEM WILL MAKE EXPERTS OF ORDINARY PLAYERS

NEW YORK, Dec. 21. (AP)—Ely Culbertson disclosed today his new method of "plastic valuation" in contract bridge which he says will enable thousands of ordinary players to graduate into the expert class.

A mental picture of a composite hand of partners is the highlight of the Culbertson system of 1933.

To make the picture a player counts winners or losers in his hand, whichever is simpler. For an opening bid with an ordinary hand, it is easier to count winners. On the basis of the requirements for an opening bid partner counts the losses in his hand. The rest of the auction gives further inferences for revision of winners and losers so that a player can visualize what would be the strongest combination of 13 cards out of 26.

Culbertson describes this as the method used by all master players. He retains the mathematical methods of honor count and playing trick count as a fundamental basis for bids and the composite picture.

A forcing takeout is recommended on a three-card suit to the ace, if need be, when a hand contains 3 1-2 honor tricks. Hitherto a suit had to be strictly biddable to be used for such a purpose.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 21 (AP)—Cotton opened easier today with trading slightly more active. Liverpool came in lower than due and first trades here showed losses of 2 to 3 points. Local prices soon turned upward and continued to improve with a better tone in stocks, coupled with fair trade buying. January traded up to 5.90, while March active month, advanced to 6.06, or 3 to 5 points above the opening lows, and unchanged to three points up compared with yesterday's close.

Towards the end of the first hour the market ruled steady at the highs.

Trading continued moderate in cotton all morning and prices eased off slowly due mainly to pre-holiday liquidation and to some final liquidation of the January position in advance of notice day on Friday. There was also a little hedging. January traded down to 5.85 March to 5.98 and May to 6.10 or 7 to 8 points under the early highs and 4 to 5 points under yesterday's close.

Near noon, the market was quiet and steady at the lows.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 21 (AP)—Cotton opened steady, 3 lower to 2 higher owing to near month liquidation and transferring to distant positions. Dec. 5.91; Jan. 5.91; March 6.06; May 6.17; July 6.28; Oct. 6.48.

There was some selling of December against notices, estimated at 1,200 bales, as well as further January liquidation but these offerings were absorbed by trade buying.

Very little southern selling was in evidence and prices held fairly steady at the end of the first half hour. After selling at 5.91 at the start, January steadied up to 5.96 while May advanced from 6.17 to 6.21 with active months showing net gains of about 3 to 4 points. Liverpool cables reported a steady market there.

The market eased later. There was no apparent increase in southern offerings, but the failure of stocks to hold their early advance and the easier ruling of wheat seemed to check buying and bring out some scattering liquidation. At midday January was selling around 5.91 and May 6.17 or about net unchanged to 4 points lower.

Republicans Vote To Oust McFadden

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Republican house delegation today voted to oust Representative McFadden as secretary of the delegation because of his attacks on President Hoover.

The immediate cause of the action was McFadden's recent unsuccessful attempt for impeachment of the president, after which the delegation met and requested his resignation as secretary. McFadden failed to comply, so today's recourse was undertaken.

Christmas Paroles Are To Be Granted

AUSTIN, Dec. 21 (AP)—Governor R. S. Sterling's secretaries were busy today getting out proclamations covering clemencies the chief executive plans to grant at Christmas time. It was estimated that more than one hundred inmates of the Texas penitentiary would receive general paroles.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Dec. 21 (AP)—An upward trend showed itself in wheat prices early today. A bullish construction was generally placed on the Washington official crop report emphasizing the low condition of new domestic winter wheat. Many traders, however, challenged the accuracy of the government estimate of 1.3 per cent reduction in acreage.

Opening unchanged to 3-8 higher, wheat afterward held near the initial limits. Corn started at 1-4 off to 1-8 up and subsequently altered little.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 21 (AP)—Stocks made a rather feeble effort today to recoup the losses of yesterday's setback.

Several issues pushed up fractions to a point in the early dealings, but the list eased off later, and scattered selling came into the coppers, tobaccos and rails. Industrials held up fairly well.

Early gains of around a point in American Can, American Telephone, Allied Chemical, Consolidated Gas, and Union Pacific were lost in the later trading. U. S. Steel preferred a recent weak spot, rallied 1 1-2 then lost part of its gain. American Tobacco "B" lost nearly 2 points, and Lorillard and Reynolds sagged fractionally. In the coppers and rails, Anaconda, Kennecott, American Smelting, New York Central, Pennsylvania, Santa Fe, and Southern Pacific lost fractions. Oils were about steady. U. S. Steel common sagged a fraction. Owens Bottle and Crown Cork were heavy.

To Return Prisoners

Bob Miller, deputy sheriff of Lamb county, of Olton, said last night he was leaving early today for Vernon to return Sullivan. Sheriff B. L. Parker of Lynn county is to return Miss Cuban to Tahoka, according to Miller. Sullivan also is under indictment in Lynn county, Miller said.

Sullivan's right arm was in a sling, and probably carrying lead from the New Mexico shooting, when he escaped jail here. Two days before he fled a piece of lead, as thick and as large as a dime, was removed from a wound in the arm.

Sullivan's arm, Earnest was informed, was in a serious condition, necessitating his visit to a doctor. The desperado, according to the Lubbock deputy, was well-armed when he was arrested. Sullivan did not resist arrest.

Shocks Severe

Reports from Reno, Ely, Gerlach and Austin, Nevada, indicated the shocks were severe but no damage except broken windows was known to have been caused to buildings. Officials of the Western Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads, operating lines through Nevada, said there had been no interruption in train service nor any damage to roadbeds or rolling stock. Residents at Gerlach denied reports a water tower in that town had been razed.

Residents of Rawlins, Wyo., felt the shock and persons in Needles, Calif., far to the south on the Colorado river, said the ground trembled.

At Sacramento, Calif., police on duty in the state capitol building said the structure swayed and creaked. The tallest building in the city, a 16-story office building, swayed noticeably. Many persons in office buildings, hotels and apartments rushed into the streets.

YOU CAN'T DRINK IT

LEIPZIG—Here's a liquid you can dare anyone to drink. It was recently established by Dr. Peter de Bye, German physicist, that glass is not a solid, but really liquid. He said "There are no crystals in glass until it is a hundred years or so old. So you see your glass windows are actually liquids, but of a very high viscosity."

THE BOYS GET A BREAK

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — Judging from remarks made by Sheriff W. B. Cahoon, a boy is not normal unless he has swiped fruit. The sheriff talked to 20 prominent men and they all had the same opinion. In fact, they all confessed to having made raids on orchards when they were kids, as did the sheriff. The sheriff understands the sweetness of forbidden fruit, and it is easy for him to pardon orchard raiders.

Can't Cry

Six-year-old Maureen O'Connell, above, never can cry again. So a Los Angeles court awarded her $5000 in a damage suit. She was injured in an automobile accident and her tear ducts had to be removed. But Maureen, as you see here, retains her smile as a feminine weapon in place of tears.

TWO WOMEN

her sentence. I do not think she regrets it. I don't see that her becoming a mother should alter the case. I have been a mother four times.

"They say it was not murder. I don't know what it was then. He tried to keep her back eight or ten times and then she slipped up and grabbed his gun. She is the only one who said he slapped her.

"I know he couldn't have struck her, knowing as I do how kind and generous he was. He would have found some other means of carrying her in.

"She shot him twice and while he lay on the ground helpless, she shot him two more times with the bullets which killed him."

Mrs. Snipes contends she shot the officer in self-defense.

"I don't think I should die this way," she said as she sat in her cell. "I am not prepared to go this way."

Harris stopped the Snipes' automobile to search it for whisky. Finding none, he sought to arrest the Columbia woman on charges of reckless driving and driving without a license. Mrs. Snipes testified Harris struck her and she grappled with him for his gun. When the first shot was fired, she said, both held the weapon. She fired the other shots because "I was nervous and excited," she testified.

Farm activity in the Netherlands is expected to speed up shortly.

INSURANCE CASE GIVEN TO JURY

The case of Guy T. Herring and Mrs. Herring vs. the Iowa National Fire Insurance company, went to a jury in federal district court at 11:30 o'clock this morning following arguments by opposing counsel. Herring is seeking damages for alleged losses to personal property in a fire and explosion at his home last January. Judge W. H. Atwell gave an oral charge to the jury.

W. W. Campbell of Vickers and Campbell, made the opening argument for the plaintiff, with George R. Bean and E. L. Klett making arguments for the defendant. G. E. Lockhart of Lockhart and Brown, spoke last for the plaintiff. Amount sought is $4,146.20.

Judgment for the plaintiff in the case of Kelly-Springfield Tire company vs. W. L. Cox, in the sum of $13,417.96, was given by Judge Atwell following statement of facts by James L. Kilpatrick, attorney for the tire company. Frank Brown, attorney for Cox, moved for a stay, but it was denied.

Judgment was stayed for 12 months by agreement of both sides pending settlement of a bankruptcy case for Cox, which is soon to be settled. A jury was waived by agreement.

Two default judgments, against R. B. Smith and C. W. Boothe were secured by L. B. Withers, receiver for the Floyd County National bank.

The number of pupils enrolled for each teacher in the public schools of the country decreased from 32.3 in 1920 to 30.5 in 1930.

PORT'S LANDMARK IS TO BE RAZED

GALVESTON, Dec. 21 (AP)—After 42 years of service, elevator "A" of the Galveston Wharf company, located at pier 14, is being dismantled and removed from the waterfront.

During its period of use elevator "A" handled vast quantities of grain through the port of Galveston, but now that the new elevator "B", with a capacity of 6,000,000 bushels, is in full operation, it is no longer needed and has become a "fire-hazard." When constructed in 1890, elevator "A", with a capacity of 1,500,000 bushels, was said to hold the record of handling more grain per hour than any other port elevator in the United States. The new elevator "B" now holds that distinction.

One of the first steps in the work of razing the building was the removal of a huge brick smokestack. In order to bring the stack down within the smallest area, workmen inserted wooden blocks as bricks were removed from the base. After a sufficient number had been removed, the wooden blocks were fired. When the flames had weakened the base, the stack crumpled with a mighty crash, splitting in half as it fell.

Two or three months probably will be required to complete the work.

Lynn County Jail Free Of Prisoners

For the first time since he took office, in January of 1931, the Lynn county jail is free of prisoners, Sheriff B. L. Parker reported while here yesterday.

"We freed our last prisoner Wednesday of last week," he said. "The Christmas holidays are coming and I expect we will get some more."

Largest number of prisoners confined in the jail at one time was 36, the sheriff said. John Bulman, jailer, accompanied the sheriff here.

THUG GETS $1,500

HOUSTON, Dec. 21 (AP)—A thug last night robbed two employes of a refining company bulk station of approximately $1,500. The employes, B. E. Gullette, cashier, and W. R. Harrison, office attendant, said the robber fled afoot.

LAND OFFICE'S FUNDS DROP

BUSINESS LULL ALSO BRINGS DECREASE IN STATE RECEIPTS

BY CHARLES E. SIMONS

AUSTIN, Dec. 21 (AP)—A marked decrease in receipts of the Texas general land office was noted in the biennial report of J. H. Walker, land commissioner. The decline was in both payments on land and fees earned.

Commissioner Walker attributed the decrease largely to slow business conditions, the prevailing low price of oil and inactivity in the development of oil fields.

Records Cataloged

Up to a few years ago, Commissioner Walker reported, the land office had been too busy to keep its records in the most desirable form and detail. Advantage has been taken of the lull to index and catalog them.

Commissioner Walker said the records of the land office, dating back to 1767, were practically intact and had been indexed so as to be available for research. Considering that every two years the legislature had enacted laws affecting the public domain, and that there had been as many plans offered for its disposition as there have been sessions, Commissioner Walker said it was remarkable that the land office records reflected the true status of every tract of public land in the state.

Personnel Experienced

Commissioner Walker attributed the good state of the records to the few changes that had been made in the personnel of the land office force and to the appointment or election of those who had served lengthy periods in the service to the position of commissioner. For the past 30 years, the land commissioners have been promoted from clerkships.

Receipts of the land office for the first year of the biennium were listed at $4,448,078, while for the second year the receipts had fallen to $3,057,394.

University Funds Drop

Revenue from lands owned by the University of Texas showed a sharp decline. Receipts into the first pay permanent fund dropped from $1,379,329 the first year to $1,138,265 the second. Money coming into the available university fund declined from $558,844 the first year to $228,825.

The sharp reduction in the money coming into the available fund was caused primarily by the decline in the price of oil and sharply curtailed production.

Receipts into the permanent free public school fund showed a substantial increase, rising from $673,240 for the first year to $737,641 the second year. Revenues of the available free public school fund declined, however, from $780,454 the first year to $647,117.
