All Saint's Vicar Frank Ambuhl of Sweetwater officiated in final rites. Organist was Mrs. Dwight Tomb.

Burial was in Colorado City Cemetery under direction of Kiker - Rains - Seale Funeral Home.

Mrs. Humphreys To Seek Tax Office

Mrs. Pete (Bitsy) Humphreys, deputy in the Mitchell County tax assessor-collector's office, will be a candidate for the tax office.

Her candidacy will be subject to voting in the 1972 Democratic Primary election.

Mrs. Humphreys revealed her candidacy Wednesday for the assessor - collector's post which was held by Montie Hardegree until his death Saturday.

She had been planning to announce her candidacy in the 1972 election after Jan. 1, because Hardegree had revealed to his Courthouse staff before his final illness that he would not seek re-election when his term expired at the end of 1972.

"I had discussed my plans with Mr. Hardegree and he had encouraged me to seek the tax office," said Mrs. Humphreys.

"I deeply regret his untimely death both because of friendship and his valuable service to the citizens of Mitchell County."

"Although my original plans had been to become a candidate after Jan. 1 after Mr. Hardegree had announced he would not seek election, I believe it is in the best interest of the tax office to announce my candidacy now."

"My intention is to conduct a campaign wholly upon my own qualifications and experience within the county tax office, and, if elected, to conduct the office in an efficient manner for the best interest of all our county," she added.

Mrs. Humphreys has resided here 35 years, moving here with her family from Abilene. She was born in Clyde.

She is an active member of First United Methodist Church and serves as assistant teacher for the Lydia Bible Class.

Churches To Take Food For Christmas Baskets

Churches of Colorado City are being asked to take food for the community's Christmas baskets Sunday to their worship services or to their Sunday school class meetings.

All organizations are requested to please deliver their money, food and toys to the Christmas basket center this week or if possible not later than Wednesday of next week, according to Rev. Weems Dykes of the sponsoring ministerial alliance.

Around 90 to 100 baskets will be needed this Christmas, he said. So if an organization or individual would like to have the names of needed families or individuals for whom to prepare a Christmas basket, they should call the Christmas basket center at 159 Walnut St., phone 728-2716, so that there will be no duplications.

Mrs. Don Timberlake, receptionist at the Christmas basket center will be happy to assist in any way in taking information on needy families and also giving the names to various organizations so that they may prepare baskets for Christmas, Dykes said.

Decision Near For Tax Post

Commissioners Court may make a decision this week concerning the Courthouse vacancy created by the Saturday death of Montie O. Hardegree, Mitchell County tax assessor-collector.

If the decision comes this week, it probably be no sooner than Friday.

And whether the position will be filled by an appointment for the remaining year of Hardegree's unexpired term or be left open until the 1972 election remains to be seen.

The office is operating currently with Hardegree's staff of deputies headed by Mrs. W. H. Burton, chief deputy. It is the same staff which has maintained the office at its usual busy pace while the tax assessor-collector was hospitalized.

Funeral service for the 66-year-old Hardegree was conducted Monday at 10 a.m. in First Methodist Church with Rev. Billy Wilkinson, officiating, assisted by Tom Yeakum, minister of 22nd & Austin Church of Christ.

Burial was in Colorado City Cemetery under direction of Franklin - Britton Funeral Home.

Hardegree, elected to two consecutive terms as tax assessor-collector, died at 5:30 p.m. Saturday in Root Memorial Hospital where he had been a patient 6 days.

He had resided in Colorado City since 1929 and for years owned and operated Hardegree bakery in downtown Colorado City in 200 block of Elm.

He and his wife, Odessa, were married Feb. 24, 1924, in Runnels County.

Hardegree was active in Masonic Lodge, First United Methodist Church, Noon Lions Club and Chamber of Commerce.

Survivors include his wife at the Colorado City home, one son, Benny Joe Hardegree of Houston; a daughter, Mrs. Alice Sue Webber of Denver City; 2 brothers, J. J. Hardegree of Sand Springs and R. V. Hardegree of Temple; 3 sisters - Mrs. Odie Rhea of Colorado City, Mrs. Gladys Hays of Ballinger and Mrs. Dora Priddy of Midland; and 3 grandchildren.

Steakley, who is enrolled in Baylor University's School of Law, and 35 others from Baylor were named to the national student group.

Membership is based on academic standing, service to the community and leadership in extracurricular activities and potential of the student, according to Mrs. Virginia Crump, assistant dean of students and chairman of the selection committee who announced the names of those chosen for the distinction.

To receive the honor, Steakley was nominated by a member of his class and approved by a student-faculty selection committee.

At your service: Enough electricity for today... and tomorrow.

Planning and building ahead to provide our customers with enough reliable electric power to meet all their needs is the challenging responsibility being met by Texas Electric Service Company. It's what we mean by being "at your service."

To be sure plenty of electricity always will be on hand at the flip of a switch, we will nearly double our generating capability within the next five years. Additional strength and dependability throughout our system comes from our high-voltage transmission interconnections with other power sources.

We must continue to plan and build ahead because we serve a growing area of the nation, and because our customers continue to use more electricity. For example, 25 years ago the average residential customer served by Texas Electric used around 1,000 kilowatt-hours a year. Today, the average residential customer is using about 8,500 kilowatt-hours a year. During this same period, the average selling price per kilowatt-hour has decreased about 43 percent, in spite of continuing inflation.

To us, "at your service" is not only a responsibility and a challenge. It's our commitment to you, our customers.

They Deserve More

Sure, it is an honor. But it also is challenging task with plenty of plain old hard work.

I'm talking about the election of those 5 new Chamber of Commerce directors.

Billy Bridgford, Kent Gentry, Bobby Lemons, Eddie Piland and Glenn Thomas are the incomers with 3 years of Chamber of Commerce board service ahead. You can count one more, too--John Billings, recently appointed to fill an unexpired term on the same directorate.

These citizens were selected for their interest in the welfare and progress of their town, for their leadership and endeavor. They deserve our appreciation for accepting the responsibility of their positions.

Most of all, though, they deserve our ideas, support and shoulder-to-shoulder work in making this a better place to live.

Ruth COFFEY'S CONVERSATION CORNER

HARDLY anybody likes to admit to having what we call a single track mind--unless, of course they're trying to be funny.

But nearly everybody gets the single track mind syndrome when they count up exactly eight more shopping days until Christmas.

This whole town is full of single track minds right now. All us single track minds are so full of thinking about Christmas there is no time for thinking about anything else whatsoever.

Furthermore, there is no room in the house for hiding any more gift-wrapped packages, either. But the single track mind keeps trotting itself to town to pick up a few more anyhow.

THERE'S a song with words that go "Wishing Will Make It So." But the words themselves are simply not so.

If wishing would make it so, would wish to sit down somewhere and gloat over having it all done--house decorated, gifts all bought, menu all planned, and cards in the mail for everybody.

Would wish and wish and wish. Would wish all the kind-hearted people would consider this column a "Merry Christmas" card.

Would wish to see everybody on the love list Christmas Day . . . Some of them are so far away. Would wish for a helicopter to fly around in and visit it with people it would be wonderful to see.

WOULD WISH that nobody in all the world would have to be hungry or cold or lonely or sad, this Christmas.

Would wish for smiling eyes in every little house. Would wish that no child will have to go to bed without hearing again the story of Bethlehem and the star in the east and the little manger bed.

Would wish for carol singers on the porch.

Would wish that everybody's presents fit and bring them a little joy.

Would wish for a White Christmas.

WOULD WISH that man's inhumanity to man, bitterness, hatred, and anger could be healed by the knowledge of God's love.

Did you know that Will Rogers once said "Anger is just one letter away from danger?" How true!

Would wish for a miracle bringing the true spirit of Christmas to come dwell in every heart.

Would wish for peace on earth among men of good will. Billy Graham wrote recently that in his opinion people do have Guardian Angels. Would wish that your Guardian Angel will watch over you and yours.

Most of all would wish that this Christmas bring you as your most magnificent gift the personal peace that passeth understanding. And would wish you love. Would wish that wishing will make it so.

SEEN LATELYS during the last few hurried, flurried single track days included Loraine (Mrs. Nathan) Rogers. . .

Pearl (Mrs. Lester) Watson, so beautiful and so brave.

Saw George Hudson and his pretty brunette and dimpled wife Frances on the shopping scene together. . . Faye and Bill Bloomer. . . That nice man named L. A. Browne--or is it W. A.? Initials are worse than zip codes when it's single track mind season.

Talked to Virgie Goodlett and to Addie V. Payne via courtesy of Alexander Graham Bell.

GREETED Pete and Virginia Warren over this way from Big Spring. Decided on the spot that Virginia gets prettier every time we meet.

Swapped hello's with Charles Root. . . Ruth (Mrs. Joe) Barnett. . . Alta Casbeer. . . Flo McShan. . . Talked to LTF (long time friend) Lela Price while we were both gathering weekend books at the library.

Saw Mrs. Nolen Bird and her cute daughter. . . Attractive Mrs. Don Safford of Walnut St. . . Always chic Nadine (Mrs. Gerald) Gordon in Christmas red ensemble. . . Friendly Bessie House. . . Merry Mavis (Mrs. Truman) Nix.

Had little conversations with Irene Robertson. . . Buck May. . . Lil (Mrs. Earl) Brown. . . Sybil (Mrs. Dennis) Walding. . . Mary (Mrs. George) Fugate. . . Luke Thomas.

COFFEE CREW included vivacious LuAnn Hertenberger and the man she's married to, Buddy Hertenberger.

Betty (Mrs. Hubert) Howell, back at the Record following recovery from surgery, was with Lena (Mrs. Buddy) Marcom. . . Spied E. M. Owen. . . George (Mrs. Troy) Landford. . . Toby Sanderson. . . Vicki

(Mrs. Joe) Weaver. . . Raymond and cute Virginia Fuller.

Did you know their daughter Judy Myers celebrated her 18th birthday the other day? Minute she opened her eyes she sat straight up in bed and announced to the world "I can VOTE now!"

Her maternal grandmother Mrs. Warren Taysman of Stamford entertained a group of Stamford girls and a group of Judy's C-City friends with luncheon honoring her birthday, and voting age, at the Petroleum Club in Abilene.

P.S. Merry Christmas card from Jewell and Tom Marsh of Sweetwater says the Marsh daughter Sarah Beth, her husband and children are living in Austin now.

Tom and Jewell expect to spend Christmas in Austin--or entertain Sara and her family in Sweetwater.

Choirs To Present Christmas Program

"Christmas Worship In Song" will be theme for Sunday evening worship service at First United Methodist Church.

"The program will include selections from various periods as the program presents the Christmas story as prophesied in Isaiah and as fact in Luke," said Mrs. Sandy Miller, music and youth director of the church.

Mrs. James E. Payne will be accompanist. Mrs. Rick Perkin, Mrs. Bill Wilkinson and Mrs. Claude Woolsey will be soloists.

The children's choir with members also from First Christian and First Presbyterian churches will sing two arrangements. They will be accompanied by Miss Susan Blasingame.

Children's choir consists of Kelly Brown, Jill Davis, Jane Dykes, Todd Harrell, Keith Harrell, Sam Houston, John Lee, Tom Rees, Mike Rogers, Shauna Rogers, Carol Ann Winn, Debbie Wright and Joey Wright.

"The worship service will conclude with a candle light recessional as the congregation is offered some time to meditate on the meaning of Christmas in their lives," Mrs. Miller said.

The public is invited to attend the special Yuletide program by Rev. Billy Wilkinson, church pastor, Mrs. Miller and First Methodist congregation.

Quartets In Concert Saturday

Two leading groups in the gospel music field will appear here in concert Saturday evening at Oak Street Baptist Church.

They are the Weatherford Quartet of Yukon, Okla., and the Payne Family Singers of Abilene.

The program, open to the public, will begin at 7:30 p.m., according to Rev. Don Timberlake, church pastor, who this week issued an invitation to the public to attend.

The Payne family - consisting of Vernon, Dorothy, Judy, David and Kenny, have sung together as a family for more than 10 years.

They have traveled to most parts of the United States participating in special church services, camp meetings, revivals and concert program. They have ten LP albums on the market.

Their purpose is to "fulfill the ministry that Christ has given them: to go through every door that is opened, proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ in testimony and song."

The Weatherfords, one of the foremost gospel singing groups, have been leaders in their field of music for more than 20 years.

"Their harmonies accomplish a two fold purpose," Rev. Timberlake said, "providing the listener with beautiful music and soothing the troubled mind and heart through the message of God's love."

The church is located at Eighth and Oak Streets.

Entertain At Party

Charles Ezell and the Country Six Tuesday evening were featured entertainers for annual Christmas party of Unit Five of Big Spring State Hospital.

ing with 22 points. John Ridge dropped in 12 points, Jerome
Hopkins, 8, Greg Sanders, 7,
David Matthews, 6, and Skeet
Kimbrell.

In the game against Ballinger, Jackson again led the scoring with 19 points. Hopkins had 17, Ridge, 9, Welvin Ross, 5,
Kimbrell, 5, and Randy Wright, 2.
Saturday afternoon against Slaton, everybody scored as the starting 5 only played a few minutes in the second half and then substitutes went in.

Skeet Kimbrell led the scoring against Slaton with 17 points. Hopkins had 16, Jack-

Going into the final quarter,
the Wolves had a 12 point lead

Wolves top ball handler, fouled out.

The Wolves threw the ball away three times and before the almost capacity crowd could catch its breath, the Seminole team was within one point with only a few seconds left.

The Wolves put on a stall and Jerome Hopkins was fouled. He dropped in two shots from the foul line to put the game out of reach for the Seminole team with only a few seconds left.

Bobcat, Maybe, On A Rooftop

Could a bobcat be coming to town for a good feed?

Well, more than one South Side resident is beginning to believe it.

Whatever it is, the critter has been taking a night walk on top of the residence of James T. Moore, 125 Fairmont.

Police have checked the area and report that tracks resemble the size and shape of a bobcat.

Moore, who is confined to a wheel chair, said the critter for 3 nights jumped upon the roof of his house, then walked along the west side from the back to the front before jumping to the ground.

He hasn't seen the critter, but he called police after the third roof walk. That's when the tracks were found--made by a catlike paw more than one and a half inches across.

Mrs. Mattie Lee Pickett, who lives across the street from Moore, has been awakened at night about 3 weeks by the barking of her German Shepherd dog and other dogs in the neighborhood.

Something has been stealing into her yard and gobbling up food placed outside for a cat she has been caring for recently.

"I've put out as much as a pound and a half of food--as much as I feed by big German Shepherd," Mrs. Pickett reported. "And in the morning
it is all gone."

She knows the cat couldn't eat that much including a container of milk. Also, the meal is placed outside the fenced area of her dog.

"About three nights ago the barking lasted 30 minutes,"

she reported. "It didn't stop until I got up and went into another room. I guess I scared
it away."

That was the night Moore
first heard the critter on top of his house. The next morning Mrs. Pickett's oversized cat meal was eaten and the grass around the food container was pressed down.

Dogs in the fenced yard of Mrs. Nettie Hartsfield, next door to Moore's residence, have also been barking loud at night.

"It seems like there is something between my house and her fence," said Moore, "that is getting the dogs all aroused."

When it is on the roof?

"Well it just makes a razzoo right down the roof overhand," Moore said.
