

Methodist Revival Meeting To Start Sunday Morning

Beginning next Sunday, July 16, Rev. Frank M. Neal, evangelist of Amarillo, will begin a revival at the Methodist tabernacle. This revival is for the good of Loraine and surrounding communities and everybody is invited to come and help in these services. Lay aside everything for two weeks and put the emphasis on the spiritual life of our community during these days. May we not disappoint our Lord, but do our part to bring the kingdom of God into the hearts of men and women in these special days of evangelistic efforts.

Bro. Neal has this to say as he comes to our community. "Now that you and your people have invited me to come, I humbly beg for revival prominence, by which I mean, please ask the whole congregation to pray for revival willingness and revival appetite. There are so many things to claim time and attention, so many clamoring calls, so many activities, so many cross-currents and counter currents, that I find myself praying that you and your people will have the will, the courage and the faith to put a pure and genuine, simple and thorough Holy Ghost revival effort right out in front of everything else, subordinating and coordinating everything else to this extraordinary program, I am praying daily that you may be so Spirit inspired that there may come to the church and community a veritable landslide of revival victory. I prefer the simple forms of organization. In fact, I think more of agonizing that I do of organizing. Pray down a revival rather than work it up."

Let all the people pray and have a mind to work doing all we can to bring salvation to every person and every home. By so doing, we will rejoice, God will be pleased and our community made a better place in which to live. Come to the revival and come praying.

An editorial in a Texas paper has this to say about Rev. Neal: "Neal is logical, eloquent and witty—a man with a wonderful personality. When God laid his hands on Frank Neal and led him into the ministry He took from the stage a great actor and from the bar a strong advocate."

KATE WILSON IS DEAD

"Old Kate" was born April 15, 1898, in Parker County, near Springtown. She and her partner were purchased by H. B. Wilson when they were two years old. They have been in continual service in the Wilson family since that time until two years ago when Mr. Wilson retired them from service through sympathy and kindness for they have become great through these 31 years of working together.

"Old Kate" has been suffering from rheumatism for the past several months, and we are glad to know she is out of misery but we are made sad to lose so faithful a friend.

She leaves no one to mourn her going save her faithful partner in the harness "Old Beck."

Perhaps there is a reward for such faithful servants of man! Who knows?

"Old Kate" is a mule.

METHODIST W. M. S.

The W. M. S. of the Methodist church met at the church Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock with 8 members present, in Bible study.

The meeting was opened with the song "What a Friend." Prayer was offered by Mrs. W. L. Hester.

Next Monday, July 17, will be a World Outlook program.

Women, you should come to these Bible studies. They are interesting and will help you prepare your Sunday school lesson as the lessons are along the same lines.

The society was dismissed in prayer by Mrs. O. E. Stevenson.

Over the Top in Reduction Plan

Farmers in Mitchell County, when the dead line was reached Wednesday night for signing the contracts for cotton acreage reduction, will have gone over the top, according to information received here late Wednesday afternoon. Farmers in the county had signed contracts to plow up a total of 35,550 acres of cotton. The quota for the county is slightly more than 36,000 acres.

The average estimated yield for this year, on which the farmers will receive payment, is 125 pounds of lint cotton per acre. This will bring to Mitchell County around $280,000 in cash.

LAND MAY BE PLANTED TO CROPS TO BE USED ON FARM

College Station—"Land taken out of production may be utilized by the farmer for additional feed or food crops to be used at home, or it may be planted to soil building or soil erosion prevention crops," is the ruling of Secretary Henry A. Wallace in regard to the acres leased by the government in its efforts to retire ten million acres of cotton land from production this year. It is estimated that the land will be benefitted by plowing under the cotton, adding that much humus to the soil, and many farmers will welcome the opportunity to add to their feed crops, since in certain areas they are short because of continued dry weather.

T. E. L. CLASS

Our class met Sunday with 6 present and a good lesson. We urge our absent members to come. They don't know what they are missing. We enjoy our teacher so much. She is so spiritual and makes our lessons so interesting. We'll be looking for you next Sunday. Our lesson for next Sunday is found in the 4th and 5th chapters of Judges.

INFANT DIES

Darthy Anna Bauman, 9-month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bauman, died Thursday morning. Darthy Anna had not been well since birth. All that medical science and skill could do was done to relieve her condition but to no avail.

Darthy Anna was born October 18, 1932, and died July 6, 1933. Burial was in the Roscoe cemetery under direction of The Loraine Undertaking Company.

GLEANERS S. S. CLASS

The Gleaners S. S. class met in regular monthly meeting last Tuesday at 3:30 in the home of Mrs. Marvin Martin, with Mesdames Sadler and Duke as joint hostesses.

The meeting was opened by the president, singing the class song, Blessed Assurance. The devotional was led by Mrs. Arlie Martin. She chose several scriptures and her subject for discussion was "Filling our obligations to our neighbors and helping our fellowmen." Prayer was offered by Mrs. J. E. Harrell. The class then went into the business session. A committee was appointed to see about our absent members.

A card of thanks from the Henderson family to the class was read, showing their appreciation for the kindness and love shown them during Mrs. Henderson's illness and death.

A social hour of very interesting contests was enjoyed. Iced lemonade and carmel cake was served to 19 members.

Gleaners, let's be in our places next Sunday and help hold up the banner of our Prince Emanuel. The Gleaners need you and want your presence each Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edwards spent Sunday in Strawn visiting Mr. Edward's father, who is very ill. He sends best wishes to the good women who were so kind to him while he lived with his son here.

Transfers Given Free School

Superintendent Clyde Bennett announced Tuesday that the Loraine school board will continue the policy of giving nine-months free school to all pupils who transfer into the Loraine district from surrounding districts.

Transfers must be made before August 1, and those who are interested in transferring their children into this district should see Mr. Bennett or county superintendent, Miss Ruby Gill, before that date.

MRS. A. R. MILES BURIED THURSDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. A. R. Miles were held at the Baptist Church here last Thursday afternoon at 3:30. Rev. A. C. Hardin officiating. Interment was in the Loraine cemetery under the direction of G. W. Hendrick of the Loraine Undertaking Company.

Mrs. Maude Miles (nee Maude Peterson) was born June 19, 1907, and died July 5, 1933. She was reared to womanhood in Loraine and on October 9, 1925, she was married to A. R. Miles. To this union one son, W. A. Miles, 5, was born.

The esteem in which Mrs. Miles was held by the people of the community was demonstrated Thursday when a large concourse of friends attended the funeral to pay their last respects, and to say with flowers the things in their hearts.

Besides her husband and son Mrs. Miles is survived by her parents Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Peterson, and three brothers: H. A. Peterson, Claude Peterson and Al Peterson, all of Loraine. Claude is a twin brother.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school attendance rose to 163 at the Baptist Church Sunday. Our assistant superintendent, Bro. Clyde Bennett, was also back with us. Why not make our attendance 200? Everybody should try to get warmed up a little spiritually before they ask God to bless them materially.

Rev. A. C. Hardin brought a sermon from John 12:21 Sunday morning using for his text "We Would See Jesus." The logical points brought forth in this spiritual message were the life-long cry has been, "see Jesus." Joy voiced such a cry, why we would see Jesus, where we would see Jesus, how we might see Jesus, and will we pay the price to see Jesus.

Sunday evening his text was "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Romans 6:23. Many inspiring thoughts were brought out in this message, the "wages of sin" being measured by the "Gift of God."

B. T. S. was well attended Sunday evening with several new members. We welcome them and visitors too. We want all new members to feel at home and be willing to serve on program, lead in prayer or take part in special singing or sword drill. Do something besides sit and listen. Don't be a drone. We will welcome more adults. If you have a desire to win souls join the Baptist Training Service and learn to pray, read your Bible and tell about your Savior.

The Primary Union won the banner Sunday evening. We have one of the finest primary leaders to be found. A quiet, prayerful, consecrated young woman with a number of years experience in primary work. The senior union will have to work to get the banner from the juniors and primaries.

BASEBALL GAME AT LONE STAR SUNDAY

Two Mexican teams will give an exhibition baseball game at Lone Star Sunday afternoon at 3:30. It will be a hot game if information from Lone Star is correct.

Cotton Acreage Shows Increase

There are 40,798,000 acres of land in the United States planted to cotton, according to the estimate released Saturday by the Federal Department of Agriculture.

This is an increase of 11.6 per cent over the previous year's acreage of 37,589,000 acres. The 1931-32 crop year saw 41,189,000 acres in cultivation and the 1930-31 crop year saw the acreage at 45,815,000 acres.

Texas, as usual, leads in acreage planted to the crop, the report received showing 15,767,000 acres planted to cotton in Texas, an increase of 16 per cent over last season.

Of all states planting cotton Mississippi showed the smallest increase in acreage, 1 per cent. Arizona had the largest increase with 20 per cent. Texas was in second place with an increase of 16 per cent.

QUESTIONS ON COTTON PLAN ARE ANSWERED

College Station—Questions and answers are the order of the day at the Extension Service building where the cotton campaign heads up for the whole State, according to H. H. Williamson, vice-director and state agent, who was designated by Director O. B. Martin to have charge of the campaign.

Indicating an eagerness to cooperate with the Secretary of Agriculture, farmers began firing in the query "When can we begin to plow up our cotton?" even before the "offer contract" was in their hands. The answer to that was and is "Not until the offer contract" has been signed by the farmer, inspected by the local committee, approved by the county committee, and accepted by the Secretary.

Human enough is the ever recurring question "When do we get the money?" To which the answer comes back in a business-like way "Not until the offer to plow has been accepted by the Secretary, the farmer has plowed under his cotton and the local committee has certified his actual compliance with his share of the contract." In other words, not until the contract has been entered into and its terms complied with, will any money or cotton change hands, though the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has come to the Secretary's assistance and supplied him with cash with which to secure the cotton bought by the old Farm Board to be used in the option contract where the farmer chooses that form of payment.

Calling to the eye of the imagination rolling acres of Texas cotton land stretching away in endless vista comes the question "If a farmer owns cotton land that runs in two counties does he regard the county line and deal with two county committees or may he sign up with one or the other committees?" And perfectly in accord with the traditional feeling for local self-government the typical Texan has, back comes the answer "Each county is organized as a unit to handle the lands within its boundaries. Land to be retired must be inspected by the local committee and approved by the county committee responsible for the work in the county where the land is situated, unless there is an understanding between the two county committees."

INJURED IN CISCO LAKE

Imogene Whitten was injured Tuesday while in swimming in Lake Cisco. Extent of her injuries has not been learned here. She had been visiting in Cisco during the holidays.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Whitten, are in Cisco with her since her injury.

The Loraine Band, organized two months ago, gave their first public concert Tuesday night at the Methodist tabernacle. A fair crowd was present to hear them. Several players from Colorado came over to assist the new players.

The band was organized less than two months ago and Roy Hester of Colorado was engaged to direct it. It was made up at the beginning of young and inexperienced musicians with only a few exceptions and their progress has been remarkable.

Everyone at the concert enjoyed the music and praised the work of the director and the players in becoming so proficient in such a short time.

Mr. Hester has been absent for the past few weeks on account of sickness in his family and Miss Willie Fay Hall has had charge of the band in his absence.

It is to be hoped that public concerts will be held very often from now on.

Mr. Bennett made the announcement that the school board had hired a teacher who would teach band music in the school the coming term and expressed the hope that many children would take advantage of it.

COTTON COOP MAN TO SPEAK AT COLORADO

C. O. Moser, vice president of the American Cotton Cooperative Association, will speak in Colorado Friday afternoon of this week. Mr. Moser will explain the principals and workings of the association. The speaking will be at the city tabernacle at 3 o'clock. All farmers of the county are invited to hear him.

CHARLIE THOMPSON HONORED WITH PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson honored their son Charlie with a family party at the home of T. R. Bennett Monday, July 3. The occasion was Charlie's 25th birthday.

Lunch was spread on the lawn and all enjoyed a regular picnic lunch with cream and cake to their hearts content.

Those enjoying this happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson, Rilla Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Bennett, Harold Bennett, Mrs. Cora Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Long, Mrs. I. J. Pierce, Quita Richards, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Thompson of Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Griffin and son of Colorado, Miss Ethel Atwood, Miss Annie Atwood, both of Fort Worth.

At a late hour all returned home wishing Charlie many more happy birthdays.

THE LOCAL CIRCLE

The Local Circle met Monday afternoon, July 3, at 4 o'clock in the home of Mrs. C. F. Glass with 9 members and one visitor present. Mrs. Harold Martin read the devotional, reading the 32nd Psalm. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Mathis. The society had a very good report for this month, there being 15 visits, 3 bouquets, 5 trays taken to the sick. We were dismissed by the Lord's prayer in concert.

The meeting was then turned over to the hostess. The weather was so hot the games were omitted so we had a round table talk and discussion. Iced punch and cake was served.

Next Monday, July 10, will be Bible study, Judges 13, and finish the chapter.

Let's come to these meetings women of the church and if there are any visitors you are welcome. Come be with us.

W. O. Christopher and daughter Mrs. Alpha Mercer were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin Tuesday. Mrs. Martin and daughters Alena Dell and Iris May accompanied them to Sweetwater.

THE "SHOELESS SOUTH"

Far removed from Southern plantations, Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor, attended a hearing in Washington a few days ago which broached careful study of various phases of the industrial program. In the course of the discussion, Miss Perkins adjured manufacturers to campaign actively for new markets, alluding to the opportunities extant in the "Shoeless South." Immediately, as this frank statement was voiced, editorial columns of Southern newspapers teemed with resentment. "Shoeless South" indeed! This certainly was sectional animosity revived. What does this woman know of the South's economic condition?

Frankly, she seems to know a great deal. Notwithstanding the natural chauvinistic tendency of patriots to harbor resentment against theories uncomplimentary to the South, thoughtful Southerners will find it difficult, upon reflection, to arrive at any conclusion other than one of agreement with the Secretary. This statement, I know, is difficult to reconcile with the sectional pride which has always pervaded Southern hearts, yet it seems to be disturbingly in accord with incontrovertible evidence presented by facts themselves.

Let us approach this question without prejudice. In the first place, Miss Perkins can be exonerated of any intent to disparage the South. Her statement was merely indicative of a truth which any Southern economist will readily recognize—that the South is the least cultivated of all sectional markets in the United States. The sale of shoes, as well as nearly all retail sales, is less in the South than in other sections because the purchasing power of the South is less. In 1929 a survey conducted by the Department of Commerce revealed that the South was at the bottom of the list in purchasing power and that the average per capita sales in every Southern State was lower than that for the entire country; in some States this average was considerably less than half the average of the country. With the percentage of retail sales $407 per capita in the United States, the Texas average was only $355, yet Texas was above every other cotton State. Thus, with the purchasing power of the South less than that of any other section, Miss Perkins was justified in referring to the South as the least developed market.

The term "Shoeless South" should not be taken literally, of course, even though the South is more shoeless than any other section. The real significance of the whole discussion lies in the two fundamental facts that (1) because the South is poorer economically it offers the best ultimate opportunities for expansion of markets, and that (2) in order to make the South available as a market for Eastern manufacturers it behooves the East, as well as the country at large, to support the South in its efforts to find a market for its own goods and thus increase its purchasing power. If the South cannot sell, it certainly cannot buy.

Inasmuch as the first fact is a matter of record, the second is worthy of brief elaboration here. The reason the South is still relatively undeveloped as a market is because its low purchasing power has not permitted it to be cultivated with profit by Eastern industrialists. Consequently, any improvement of the South as a market must be coincidental with a corresponding increase in its purchasing power, and the only apparent method of increasing its purchasing power is to make available an adequate market for its own products. Since only 45 per cent of a normal cotton crop is consumed in the United States, the South must export 55 per cent in order to be reasonably prosperous. Therefore, if the North and East would become more prosperous by developing Southern markets they must in turn cooperate with all political and economic programs to restore world trade. Political isolationists should remember that.

The South's plight, of course, is not traceable entirely to the collapse of trade. Fully as responsible for its condition has been its self-imposed bondage. King Cotton has not always proved a benevolent monarch; as often his rule has been despotic. So absolute is his authority that his people suffer when his power wanes. The achievement of economic independence in the South will be predicated ultimately on a program to substitute for this monarchy a broad diversification of agricultural and industrial pursuits. Its welfare cannot depend with security on a single crop.

A few days ago, while Miss Perkins was discussing the recovery program in Washington, an Arkansas planter was watching his laborers in the fields. Suddenly he was struck with the ironical paradox of their roles in society. They were the producers; they tilled the soil, nurtured the young plants, fingered the white staple in their grimy palms, yet they were not only shoeless but shirtless! Bare to the waists, these serfs of King Cotton's kingdom were too penniless to provide themselves with the products of their own handiwork.

"Shoeless South," "Shirtless South," what you will—pride cannot be hurt by truth. A new era will dawn when the South comes to grips with its problems; when it regains its markets, diversifies its pursuits, and elevates the status of the deserving masses of its people.

THE SHOWERS

We are hoping the rains become general so that the deterioration in the feed crop may be checked and that growth in other crops might be stimulated. It would be mighty fine for fall feed crops and for the growing cotton crops. If some of the cotton crops should be retired it would mean a lot to have sufficient moisture for planting other crops to take the place of cotton destroyed. It would also make the question of appraisal of the crops easier for the local committeemen charged with this responsibility. The present outlook of the crop has a lot to do with its value.

Small grain harvesting is practically over or will be by the last of this week. On the whole the crop was short, but increased prices has meant a lot to the growers. —Albany News.

THREE NEW SUBJECTS AT SCHOOL ACCREDITED

Three new subjects taught in the Snyder High School have been given affiliation by the State Department of Education, according to word received first of the week by Superintendent C. Wedgeworth. One-half unit was allowed in each of three subjects. They are public speaking, occupations, and Texas history.

The three new credits bring the total affiliation of the local school to 34 units.—Scurry County Times.

ROBERT LEE HIGH SCHOOL AFFILIATED

We learn with pleasure that the Robert Lee High School recently became affiliated with the University of Texas with a rate of 19 credits.

This is a long stride toward progress. It will make old "Rabbit Lee" comb her hair, wash her neck, powder her nose and look sweet. Those fine Coke County boys and girls when armed with a diploma from Robert Lee High School, can get in the ground floor of any college.

This ought to make old Bumbles mighty proud of that town, and we can see the old scout now with his chest thrown out, and hear him say: "Hoover Smith, you are going to get one of them diplomas in the years to come, or I'll whale the tar out of you." Shake Bumbles.—Sterling City News Record.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Our Sunday school is holding an unusual record. We had the same in number Sunday as we had two years ago. The lessons are wonderful. We always get a blessing in studying the lessons if applied to our lives.

Brother Harrell brought a great message at the morning hour. Genesis 35:1-7, subject, God telling Jacob to go to Bethel and establish an altar unto God. That appeared to him when he fled from the face of his brother Esau.

Another life searching message was heard at the evening hour. Scripture reading, Samuel 20:24-36. Text Matthew 10:8. Subject: Cast out demons, showing that we each have some petty fault or sin we are holding onto. We look at the other person and think they are committing an awful sin, when if we would only stop and search our own lives we would find our own greater than our neighbor's.

A two-week revival will begin Sunday at 11 o'clock. Rev. Frank M. Neal, of Amarillo will do the preaching. We are praying and looking forward to a great revival. —Reporter.

Current Comment From Washington

It is said that recognition of Soviet Russia is near, so near in fact that the name of the first ambassador to the reconstructed land of the former czars has been mentioned. Communism is a hard thing for the average American to swallow, and recognition of the Soviet Republic means that the pill will have to go down, in spite of a foretime protest. The present is an appropriate season for anyone to try almost anything. Perhaps Russia's claim to notice is no more scandalous than the claims of other lands respecting the payment of their just debts.

William the Conqueror sailed across the channel from France, cleaned up the English, and took over the running of the country for keeps. England dislodged France from her holdings in North America. France helped the United States in freedom from England. The English and Germans trimmed Napoleon at Waterloo. The Americans, French and English made things hot for Germany in the World War. According to latest reports, France is trying to form a coalition with England to whip the American dollar. Why look for amusement in such simple things as jig-saw puzzles when there are international relations to figure out?

The names of three Washington men are said to be on the roll of those hoarding gold. Who would have supposed that there were that many persons in the capital city who preferred private gain to public welfare?

The fourth of July is a big day, for a well-known reason, but things other than the adoption of the Declaration of Independence happened on that date. On the fourth of July, 1828, the building of the first passenger railroad in the United States was begun, and in 1833 the hymn America was first sung in public at a festival in Boston. It was the birthday of Nathaniel Hathorne in 1804, and of Pres. Coolidge in 1872. On the fourth in 1826, Presidents Adams and Jefferson died, and Pres. Monroe in 1831. In 1848 the treaty of peace between the United States and Mexico was signed. Slavery was abolished in the state of New York on Independence Day 1827. The thin line of surviving veterans, Union and Confederate, can remember as far back as 1863, and connect the battle of Vicksburg with the date under consideration. In 1917, Col. E. L. Stanton in an address at the tomb of Lafayette, spoke the famed words: "Lafayette, we are here," often attributed to Gen. Pershing. Incidentally, two hundred persons were killed by fire-wrks and firearms in celebrating the fourth in 1932. The score for 1933 is not yet of record.

ON TEXAS FARMS By W H Darrow, Extension Service Editor

A "poor man's garden irrigation system" which uses tin can pipe to distribute the waste water from the weekly washing to irrigate 75 feet of tomatoes has been devised by Joe Macha, Hockley county farmer. He slashes the bottom of tin cans obtained at the city dump heap to make flanges that fit to the mouth of the next can. The sections of pipe thus made were laid 2 or 3 inches in the ground and the water seeps through the joints for about 2 feet on each side. When plowing he removes pipe.

For $2.49 obtained by selling seeds, Sibyl Garrett of Soules Chapel 4-H Club in Upshur county has a brand new bed room. An old Walnut bed was cut down to her size and she re-finished it, stained the floor, varnished a straight chair, put extra slats in the bed, and re-modelled her clothes closet. She is typical of thousands of Texas farm girls who have made beautiful bed rooms at small cost this year.

Mason county 4-H club boys who swept major livestock show honors with their baby beeves last spring started 64 more calves on feed in May. Weighing an average of 227 pounds they were started on 2 to 4 gallons of milk daily and allowed to eat free choice from self-feeders containing 50% whole oats, 40% shelled corn, and 10% pea-size cottonseed cake, with fine stem hay and water available at all times.

Selling farm products in one month for $55.92 meant living at home to Mrs. J. W. Flippen, president of the Barwise Home Demonstration Club in Wichita county. Sales were: butter 86 pounds; milk 19½ gallons; cottage cheese 26 quarts; Philadelphia pot cheese, 35 pounds; eggs, 239 dozen; angel food cakes, 2.

Liberty county farmers who sprayed tomatoes with 2 to 4 pounds of arsenate of lead per 50 gallons of water, and picked off and carried out of the field the fruit infested with worms had good crops this spring, says the county agent. Those who did not follow these suggestions harvested about half a crop in most cases.

Lone Star Gas Ad Wins First Award For Third Year

For the third consecutive year, the Lone Star Gas System has won first prize in a national advertising copy contest among the major gas companies of the country. The winning ad, entitled "Natural Gas Is Your Lowest Priced Domestic Servant," was judged the best piece of copy among all advertising placed in newspapers by gas companies of the United States in the year 1932. Public Utilities Advertising Association, which conducts the contest, announced the award at its annual meeting held in Grand Rapids, Mich.

The prize ad appeared in this newspaper and more than 200 other Texas and Oklahoma papers in February last year. Copy was prepared by Willard C. Wiegand, assistant advertising manager of the Lone Star Gas System. Will C. Grant is manager of the advertising department. Western Newspaper Union set the type and made the stereotype plates and mats for the ad. Lone Star also won first prize last year in the same contest with an ad written by Mr. Wiegand and received first honors again in 1931.

The nation's best gas advertisement was a simple, direct statement of how much gas service a penny will buy. It stated that one cent's worth of natural gas service will cook a good dinner for three people, operate a bath room heater for two hours, heat enough water for two baths, operate a living room heater for 45 minutes, make 33 cups of coffee, heat enough water for 14 shaves or run a refrigerator for eight hours.
