

Allen Heads March of Dimes Drive Due Through January

Charles Allen, assistant vice president of the Wellington State Bank, has been named chairman of the March of Dimes for Collingsworth County, and this week announced that the campaign opens here Monday, January 3, and will continue throughout the month.

Under a revised arrangement, all funds collected will be split 50-50 between the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and the local county.

Local funds are used almost altogether for the treatment of county children stricken by polio, and in most years, the amount available in the county chapter is not sufficient to pay for the treatment, and additional funds are received from the national chapter.

Winter Comes to Much of County With Two - Inch Snow Blanket

The first snow of any appreciable amount this year closed down on the county Tuesday, December 28, but accompanying brisk winds drifted it in some sections and lessened its moisture value.

Light snow fell early Tuesday morning and intermittently until noon, but the afternoon fall was heavier. Part of the snow melted as it fell, but between two and two and a half inches remained on the ground in Wellington.

That amount, with little melting was reported from Dodson. About half way between Wellington and Quail, the snow became lighter, and at Quail and in the extreme west part of the county, it barely covered the ground.

Highways and streets became icy in spots during the afternoon, but only one car accident has been reported due to this.

Relatives here said his condition was improving when a blood clot formed, which resulted in his unexpected death.

He was 25 years of age. Funeral services were held at Faith Baptist Church here, Sunday, December 26, with the Rev. Bob Evans, pastor officiating.

Babson Forecast—

for higher agricultural prices later in 1955.

8. ARMAMENT INDUSTRY. The armament industry will still be one of the main floors beneath the economy. The electrical and chemical industries will move at a rate close to that of 1954.

9. OTHER INDUSTRIES. I am somewhat optimistic on clothing, aircraft manufacturing, airline transportation, office equipment, electricity output, petroleum production, natural gas, and shoes. I am also fairly bullish on rubber, paper, electrical equipment, certain types of buildings, and non-ferrous metals.

10. WEATHER CONDITIONS. It is foolish for me to attempt to forecast rains, droughts, frosts, etc., for any special section. However, taking the nation as a whole, I look for better weather in 1955.

11. RETAIL SALES. I forecast that the outlook for retail sales is encouraging, at least through the first half of 1955.

12. PROFITS. Stiffening competition is chipping away at the profit margin. Return on invested capital is in a long-term downward trend. The first few years after World War II were the golden years for the notice hitwise-w-o-de and for the inefficient. Those days are gone for awhile.

13. SELECTIVITY. Higher labor and costs, plus intensified competition, will continue during 1955. I forecast a high degree of selectivity in the effect of this trend on individual activities and companies. Victory will be for the nimble and for the strong.

14. DIVIDENDS. Recent high expenditures for new plant and machinery have left some concerns with very high depreciation charges. As new capital commitments are cut and depreciation remains high, cash inflow could expand. Such companies should be able to pay out in dividends a higher percentage of earnings in 1955 than in recent years, notwithstanding a moderate profits shrinkage.

15. INVENTORIES. Inventories have been permitted to run down during 1954. At total business expands, there will be a tendency to replace reduced stocks, especially during the first half of 1955. Total manufacturers' inventories, however, may build up more rapidly than total business inventories. I forecast that total wholesale and total retail inventories will show little change from 1954 levels.

16. PRICES OF MANUFACTURED GOODS. Even with expected pickup in demand, I expect sharp markup in industries next year. Over-all supplies are generally ample. Hence, I forecast that industrial prices in 1955 will show little change from recent levels.

17. FOOD PRICES. Food prices may firm later in 1955. The strong move into Government crop loans this year has made free supplies of most agricultural items less burdensome. I forecast that new advertising programs by canners and other great food distributors will help farmers, stock raisers, and fruit growers.

18. CONSUMER INCOME. Consumer income will hold at satisfactory levels. Most goods should move readily into consuming channels.

19. LIVING COSTS. I forecast that during 1955 living costs will show little over-all change from present levels. There may be some firming during the first half, but the late months may again witness a minor softening.

20. RENTS, ETC. I forecast rental expenses may edge somewhat higher; clothing costs should be steady to moderately higher. There is small chance that food expenses can be greatly reduced.

21. MONEY SUPPLIES. I forecast that money supplies will be ample for all legitimate business needs during 1955. With little likelihood of business getting out of hand on the upside, credit easing is more likely than credit curtailment in 1955.

22. INFLATION. Fears, or perhaps hopes, of an inflationary boom should be buried. Barring outbreak of war, our productive capacity is sufficiently large to meet all demands for goods. I forecast that no runaway inflation is probable, even if the money managers increase the supply of money or ease credit.

23. INTEREST RATES. Until the Treasury finds a way to balance the budget, hold business at high levels and unemployment at a minimum, I forecast little likelihood of higher interest rates.

24. BOND PRICES. With the possible exception of tax-free bonds I see no reason for increased bond prices in 1955. I forecast an increase in the insurance of tax-free revenue bonds.

25. STOCK PRICES. After so sharp a rise, the market could have a reaction; but I am forecasting no crash in 1955 such as we had in 1929. In fact, the situation changed for the better October 11, 1954.

26. WAGES. I forecast that the wage trend in organized industry will continue to move higher at least in the first half of 1955. During the first half year, when business will be improving, the labor chieftains will also be quick to resort to the strike weapon.

27. OTHER LABOR GAINS. I forecast that the heavy guns of the labor bigwigs will be trained on the guaranteed annual wage, shorter work week, and more pensions. With a better congressional control of appointments to the National Labor Relations Board, the decisions of that body will swing more toward labor than toward management.

28. NEW INVENTIONS. These will mostly be a labor-saving type. I forecast a marked increase in automation and cybernetics, and other marvelous changes in production methods.

29. EMPLOYMENT. Unemployment outlook is brighter, since business will be on the upgrade during the first half. I forecast that local and seasonal unemployment will still prove a knotty problem.

30. FAILURES. The salient business characteristic of 1955 will be bitter competition. Many companies already weakened by competitive conditions will no longer be able to keep afloat. I forecast a rise in both the number and the total value of failures during 1955.

31. MERGERS. I forecast that mergers and consolidations will be encouraged by federal officials, if, by merging, a weak company can be saved. But while every effort will be made to prevent bankruptcies, Washington will frown on large mergers and consolidations.

32. GENERAL REAL ESTATE SALES. The time is already past due when real estate prices should have been falling. Only a fear of World War III and easy credit have prevented this. Therefore, I forecast that a downturn in prices cannot long be postponed.

33. URANIUM CRAZE. The greatest speculation will take place in the seeking and trading of land with uranium prospects. This is now centered in Colorado, Utah, and vicinity; but I forecast it will spread in a limited way to many other states and even to "offshore" property. It could exceed the gold rush of 1849. Another demand will be for woodlands which can be bought for a few dollars per acre.

34. COMMERCIAL FARMS. These have suffered a decline in price as a result of the slump in agricultural prices and farm incomes. Unless more will be done politically for the farmers next year, I forecast that the recent decline in commercial farm prices may continue during 1955. Subsistence farms on the fringes of larger cities should hold up well in price as migration toward the suburbs continues.

35. VACANT LAND IN CITY AREAS. With the exception of parking lots, city vacant land should experience a continued slow reduction in price during 1955; but no marked change in suburban vacant land, except for parking. I am very bullish on land anywhere suitable for parking.

36. BUSINESS PROPERTY. I foresee little hope for improvement for such property in the larger cities during 1955. Business property in the suburbs has not been so inflated, and therefore will not be so vulnerable to declines and high taxes.

37. INDUSTRIAL BUILDING. The construction of new industrial plants gives every indication on continuing to mark out a downward course during 1955. I forecast that the brightest spot on the construction horizon for next year is the prospect for increased municipal construction, schools, hospitals, etc.

38. RESIDENTIAL CONSTRUCTION. The building of new homes has held at very high levels during the year 1955, they will still persist at very high figures, at least during the first half of the year. New homes will continue to be the choice of purchasers, even though older homes give better values.

39. TAXES. The Eisenhower Administration has clearly recognized that expanding business and increased expenditures for plant and equipment are the true sources for rising employment and more jobs. I forecast a continued aim during 1955 will be to have taxes aid business—and thereby help employees to more and better jobs.

40. INCOME TAXES. I forecast there will be no further relief, in 1955, of the double-taxation feature on dividends or of the 25 percent capital gains tax. Furthermore, corporation income taxes will not be permitted to decline as scheduled next spring. I forecast that, unless business slumps more than I anticipate during late 1955, there will be no reduction in personal income taxes next year, except to correct some technical errors. Any relief for the individual "small" taxpayer will be saved until the election year, 1956.

WARM RECEPTION—Storekeeper on the Rue Tronchet, in Paris, France, installs infrared heaters over his display window in hopes that window shoppers will pause long enough to thaw out both themselves and their pocketbooks before going on to some other store.

41. POLITICS. The really big political news in 1955 will not be made by the laws that will be enacted, but by the tremendous preparations for the 1956 presidential campaign. Those who claim that President Eisenhower is at heart a liberal and will get along well with a Democratic Congress should remember the lessons of politics.

42. WORLD WAR III. In my opinion, the initiative in international affairs still rests with Russia. The Kremlin is not yet ready for an all-out attack and no one in the West wants World War III. Malenkov is now pushing a "Peace Offensive". I am referring here to the year 1955—over the long term, I still feel that major holocaust is inevitable, but I forecast no World War III in 1955.

43. FOREIGN AID. Our foreign efforts during the year will continue to aim at plugging the leaks and building new dykes against the flooding tides from the East. I forecast we will work hard to build up Europe, with Germany as the core; but Russia will make spectacular gains in the Far East, particularly in India.

44. FOREIGN COMPETITION. As Germany rearms and the Brussels Treaty Organization goes into gear, I forecast further improvement in Europe. Competition from European manufacturers will, however, intensify. Reciprocal trade deals will be pushed. I would not be surprised to see a decline in our exports in 1955 and an increase in imports.

45. CHURCHES AND CHARITIES. I forecast that the spiritual awakening which started in 1954 will continue into 1955 with an increase in Church members. Gifts to charities will also increase, due to the more liberal allowance on taxes, up to 30 per cent, provided 10 per cent goes to churches, schools, or hospitals.

46. TRAVEL AND SPORTS. I forecast more money will be spent on travel and sports in 1955. This is becoming an important new industry and should especially benefit Florida, California, Arizona, New Mexico, the Great Lakes Region, New England, and the Northwest.

47. NEW METALS AND ALLOYS. Next to air-conditioning, I expect great growth in the use of new metals and alloys. I forecast the rare-metals stocks will be sought in 1955 as were the oils in 1954.

48. ADVERTISING. I forecast business spending in this field will increase further in 1955. It not only is the salvation of individual businesses, but is the best stimulant for national prosperity.

49. POPULATION. I forecast the population will continue to increase further in 1955. It not only is the salvation of individual businesses, but is the best stimulant for national prosperity.

50. POPULATION. I forecast the population will continue to increase during 1955, with a growing percentage of young people between 18 and 22. This means a greater demand for clothing, college education, and especially for new school buildings.

51. CONCLUSION. Develop Faith, Meditation, Health, and Good Works—with more attention to your family—to create reserves for real trouble which some day will come. GO TO CHURCH!

Shower Honors Jannine Crawford, Bride Elect of the New Year

A shower at Christmastide complimented Miss Jannine Crawford, popular young bride elect of Earl Lynn Bartlett, whose wedding is the first scheduled here for the New Year, Sunday January 2.

The home of Mrs. Ray Peeples was the scene of the shower, which was given Tuesday evening, December 21. Joining her in hostess duties were Mmes. S. B. Owen, Joe Thompson, A. B. Clark, Lester Hunter, Fred LeDerer, John Holton, Ross Wilkerson, Jim Wood, Glenn Harvey, Bill Smith, Elvis Crawley, Howard Riggs and Fred Yarbrough.

Mrs. Peeples greeted the guests and presented them to Miss Crawford; her mother, Mrs. John I. Crawford; her grandmothers, Mrs. J. N. Smith of Lefors and Mrs. B. W. Beard; and the mother of the groom to be, Mrs. E. F. Bartlett.

Miss Tanya Smith and Miss Molly Ann Denley alternated at the guest register.

Background music at the piano was provided by Mrs. Mack Bush and Miss Glenna Yarbrough, while vocal selections were given by a trio composed of Miss Jean Stingel, Miss Smith and Miss Ruthie McCaskill.

After the guests had viewed the gifts they were directed to the dining room by Miss Singel.

White linen covered the refreshment table, while snow-flocked boughs of greenery formed the background for the white wedding bells, lined with maline, and having as clappers arrangements of dainty white flowers. White maline bows tied the bells. Flanking this arrangement were crystal holders with white tapers, and the bride's chosen colors of pink and white were carried out in the refreshments.

Miss Marilyn Dickey and Miss McCaskill poured tea from the silver service, and Miss Stingel served the individual cakes.

Arrangements in keeping with the Christmas season, and the lighted snow-flocked tree, decorated the entertaining rooms.

Approximately a hundred guests called between the hours of seven and nine o'clock.

Miss Tanya Smith Becomes Bride of Bill Herring in Formal Ceremony

Highlighting the holiday season was the formal wedding at the First Baptist Church in which Miss Tanya Smith, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Smith of Wellington, became the bride of Bill Tom Herring, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Herring of Snyder.

The Rev. Bill Thomas read the double ring ceremony Tuesday, December 28, at five o'clock.

Decorating the chancel to form a background for the bridal party were arrangements of greenery, white flowers, and lighted cathedral tapers in seven-branched wrought iron candelabra.

The arch beneath which the couple stood was entwined with greenery and white flowers. Mrs. Truman Estes, organist, played a group of traditional wedding favorites preceding the ceremony, and accompanied Mrs. Herring, the groom's mother, as she sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because". "The Lord's Prayer" was spoken softly as the vows were spoken, and the traditional wedding marches were used.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in an original gown of white chantilly lace and tulle over satin. The fitted bodice featured a bateau neckline outlined with seed pearls, and the long sleeves tapered to petal points. The bouffant skirt had a lace overskirt, divided at the back, where three rows of lace ruffles extended into a semi-sweep train. Tiers of tulle dust ruffles fell to floor length from the lace skirt, which was worn over hoops and crinoline.

The bride's circular veil was attached to a seed pearl crown, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses topped with a white orchid. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the groom, and carried out the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue.

Miss Jannine Crawford was maid of honor, while the bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn Dickey and Miss Ann Fish of Snyder. These feminine attendants wore identical dresses of red velveteen, fashioned with fitted bodices, three-quarter sleeves, low V-necklines trimmed in seed pearls and rhinestones and full gathered skirts. Their headdresses and mits were of matching velveteen with seed pearl and rhinestone trim. They carried colonial bouquets of white carnations and puffed maline, with accents of red.

Little Miss Micky Ann Kendrick, the flower girl, wore a formal length dress of red velveteen with a scoop neckline trimmed in seed pearls and rhinestones, tiny puffed sleeves and matching velveteen mits. Her headdress was a band of sweetheart roses, and she carried a small white maline basket, from which she scattered red rose petals.

Lighting the candles were Miss Sherrill Ann Smith, niece of the bride, and Miss Sally Herring, sister of the groom. They, too, wore red-velveteen dresses with full skirts.

Nolan Gotcher of San Angelo was the best man while the ushers were George Herring of Snyder and Jerry Goad of Abilene.

Mrs. Smith chose for her daughter's wedding a grey faille taffeta dress with a navy bolero and accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. Mrs. Herring wore a deep mauve taffeta dress with blue and silver accessories and a corsage of blue carnations.

RECEPTION

A reception in the dining hall of the church followed the ceremony. Receiving the guests were the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Herring and the feminine attendants.

The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth over red. An arrangement of snapdragons formed the background for a miniature white church, before which stood a tiny bride and groom. Lighted tapers in crystal holders flanked the centerpiece, and other appointments were of crystal.

After the bride and groom had cut the first slice of the wedding cake, the guests were served by Mrs. Nolan Gotcher and Mrs. Jerry Goad.

Names were secured for the register by Miss Judy Kay Smith, the bride's niece.

As the couple left on their short wedding trip, the bride was wearing a red blaze suit with charcoal grey accessories, accented with white gloves and hat. Her corsage was an orchid.

The bride, a life-long resident of the county, graduated from Wellington High School in 1953, after receiving many student honors. She is now a sophomore in Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene, majoring in home economics. Last year she was the nominee for Homecoming Queen from the freshman class of that college.

The groom graduated from Odessa high school in 1949 and after attending Hardin-Simmons University a year and a half, he enlisted in the Air Force. Since receiving his discharge, he has returned there and is a junior, majoring in business administration.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Herring will continue their studies at Hardin-Simmons, and upon returning to Abilene they will establish their home at 242 Clinton Street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Singley Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Singley, who were married in this community and have lived here the entire time since, quietly observed their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday, December 28. They had requested that no entertainment mark the event, and only relatives called at their spacious home at the northwest corner of the town section to help celebrate the day.

Mrs. Singley was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jones, who came to Collingsworth County from Lamar County in 1892. The couple was married at their home northwest of Wellington December 28, 1904, at four o'clock in the afternoon.

They, too, farmed during the early years of their marriage. Forty-three years ago, in September 1911, they moved to town and Mr. Singley went into the coal business and since that day he has been an active force in the business life of the town.

Later he expanded to include grain and built the brick elevator that still is part of the Singley Mill and Elevator plant. Growth of the business has continued through the years, and now his only son, Jones Singley is associated with him.

Mr. Singley is a native of Prosperity, South Carolina. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Singley, came to Texas about 1888, and a few years later moved on into the Indian Territory.

Mrs. Singley has devoted herself to her family, first her children, and now including grandchildren.

They are members of the First Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Singley have three children: Mrs. Gene Luker of Levelland; Mrs. R. L. Sisk and Jones Singley of Wellington. There are eight grandchildren, all living in Wellington: Linda, Jennifer, Beverly and Cathy Singley and Jeannie, Bobby, Martha Rose and Johnny Sisk.

Mrs. A. F. Null will return home with Mr. and Mrs. Lund to Washington for an extended visit.

Lester, 2711 Second Street, Lubbock, and Ronald Earl Gooch, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guss Gooch of Dozier. The ceremony took place Saturday evening, December 18, at College Avenue Baptist Church in Lubbock, with the Rev. W. C. Carpenter of Portales, N. M., cousin of the bride, officiating.

Buy At Home In '55

Wellington business folks and buyers alike spend a good deal of talk on the problem of buying at home vs. buying out of town.

It seems to us that the new year is a good time to tackle this problem in earnest, and some observations of Ben Ezzell of The Canadian Record will apply to Wellington just as well as to our neighbor to the north.

At a meeting of Board of Development members the other night, in the course of a discussion of ways and means of bringing new business to Canadian, somebody brought up the perennial question about how to keep more of the home-town business at home. And that, for Canadian businessmen, is a multi-million dollar question!

One man, for example, made the serious estimate that not more than 25 cents of every dollar spent by residents of Canadian for clothing in the course of a year is spent in the three Canadian retail stores handling wearing apparel. A similar estimate, we imagine, could be safely made by merchants in almost any other line of business.

Maybe 25 per cent is too low an estimate. . . though we doubt it. . . but you can figure, conservatively, that much less than 50 per cent of Canadian's potential buying power is staying at home. According to the most recent census figures available, retail sales in Canadian amounting to a little less than $4 million a year. . . and the buying power of the county area alone for that same year was considerably more than double that amount!

So, by simple arithmetic, while we are struggling to build our town by bringing new business. . . and new money. . . into the community, we are letting more than fifty per cent of the resources that we already have trickle away from us to other cities and towns.

Canadian's problem is not peculiar to Canadian. It is a problem which is faced by businessmen in every town and city to a greater or lesser degree. No community will ever be able to concentrate 100 per cent of its own buying power within its own limits. . . but those communities which manage to increase the share of the hometown dollar which is spent at home are growing and prosperous communities. . . and those which fail are dying a slow death.

Our economic ailment is right here in our own backyard. . . and so is the cure for it.

If we could put ten cents more of every home-town dollar into home-town channels of trade, we'd have the makings of a business boom.

. . . All of us are guilty to some degree or other. . . all of us including the men of our business community who ought to be most acutely aware of the problem.

We are cutting our own throats. . . And all that stands between us and a million-dollar shot in the arm for Canadian is an extra ten or fifteen cent share of the home-town dollar.

How can we get it? Ask yourself that question. . . you, you and you. You can answer it, too. It's as simple as A-B-C . . . always Buy (it in) Canadian.

At any rate, try Canadian first. You might be surprised at what you'll find if you look around in your own yard.

Transient Businesses

Transient businesses which move from town to town, showing good business conditions, taking toll but contributing nothing do not help a community growth. Often they are a positive detriment. They pay no taxes as is well known to the rest of us. They take business from established businesses. Often they force the local fellow to the wall, closing his doors. When the business cycle is in reverse the public then has to suffer the lack of service the transient rendered temporarily, because there is nobody left to render it. A resident should remember that the businesses in his town in turn affects his own welfare. The permanent advantages of trading with an established concern are worth more than the advantages of trading with the temporary neighbor. The latter vanishes overnight when the community ceases to be a flush field for picking. The apathy of residents of small communities to this threat to their welfare is a puzzle. In larger cities an arm of protection is thrown around established business. Thus grow bigger and better while the small town resident helps by his foolishness to kill his town. It is not a matter of big-hearted kindness to your neighbor, it is a matter of intelligent selfishness to support the institutions which support you.

13-8 lead at the end of the first quarter of play in the opening contest, however, midway in the second stanza, with both squads hitting frequently, the Eaglets ripped the basket for a half-time lead—26-23.

Third quarter play saw a repeat of the previous half. The Eaglets and Bobwhites picked up a firm foundation for the coming rough and rugged fourth quarter. Norwood led by a five point margin of 41-36.

Long shots by Mary Joe Phipps and well-timed baskets by the two other Quail forwards—Martha Johnson and Nancy Stephens—failed the Bobwhites in their desperate bid to capture the lead and the game. Basketball fans on hand for the game were shown that the fight was not all gone.

Ace defensive work by the Eaglette guards Joyce Amerson, Flora De Bord and Linda Cook limited the Bill Phillips crew most of the way. Peggy Clay, Edna Wright and Cleta Clay worked the defensive patterns for the Bobwhites.

Lois Amerson captured high-point honors for the contest with 27 points, these being made on 12 baskets and three free-tosses. Second highest was Nancy Stephens of Quail, who landed a total of 25 points on 9 baskets and seven free one-pointers.

The second game of the double-header was controlled by the Coach Purl Tippie Eagles all of the way. With 45 seconds gone, Tommy Jones placed a free toss into the basket for a one point lead and from there on out during the 32 minute contest, the Eaglets scored to victory.

The Quails did not have much of a chance with the ball, because of the expert press that Tippie's charges ran. The Quails found the court rough going as time and time again T. C. Newkirk, Carol Favor, James Martindale and Bill Tippie tied the ball. However, James Young, Darrel Morris, and Donald Johnson, Quail trio of ball-hawks, began to blast the Norwood defense with some displays of slick offensive play.

At the end of the first quarter, the Norwood crew boasted a five-point lead with a 16-11 count, while at the end of the first half the Quails were behind by a 24-40 count. Norwood lead at the end of the third frame by a comfortable 14 point margin—58-44.

During the last call, the Quails managed to score 14 points, while Norwood sailed over the basket and dropped 16 points into the hopper. At one stage of the game, the Quails narrowed the margin to a ten point lead for the Norwoodians; however, an ever-present potential in explosive power was soon displayed by Norwood in adding to their lead. Final score gave the Norwood team a 74 to 58 win and both Norwood teams their first double victory over their arch-rivals the Quails and Bobwhites.

Norwoods' James Martindale was top scorer for the evening with 22 points on 9 field-goals and four free shots, while a team-mate, Bill Tippie, was next with 14 points. These coming on six field-goals and two free tosses. Donald Johnson, ace Quail forward, scored 17 points for this team, and second place for the evening, while Darwin Homer was second for Quail with 13 points on five field-goals and three free tosses.

out of the football season, but they have played outstanding ball and won 6 out of 8 games, dropping one to strong Papan by a 2-point margin, and losing to Meadow in an over-time period last week. They have scored an average of 54 points to their opponents 36 in the 8 games played, with these scores being almost equally divided between L. S. Salsar, Reece Washington, Weldon Curbo, Quentin Rhodes, Jerry Baldrige and Jimmy Peters. The line-up for the Whiteface Antelope Boys' team is: L. S. Salsar, junior, 6-4 and at this time high scorer; Reece Washington, senior, 6-3, outstanding player; Weldon Curbo, senior, 6 feet, good, fast ball handler and fast break artist; Quentin Rhodes, senior, 6-3 shifty "dead-eye Dick" from the corner, with one hand; fast and shifty Jimmy Peters, sophomore, 5-8, who is fast pushing his way to a permanent place on the Whiteface Antelopes. These five boys are assisted by a bench of good players. So far the first string team has played less than half the quarters, since they have been able to take such a decisive lead that the second team has been able to go on and run high scores against their opponents. As to the Whiteface girls' team, it can be said that there are few teams in the state of Texas that will decisively defeat them. They have played 12 games this season and have won 3 and lost 4. They have scored 737 points to their opponents' 514. The team is led by Lyndel Thompson, forward, who is truly recognized as one of the best basketball players in the state, which she has proven during the last three years by averaging 44 points per game. She certainly is in a class with Jo White of Quail and Odum of Dimmitt, and as Art Gatts says, she is possibly as good if not better than any other ball player in the state. Even though she is small, she can drive, shoot accurately, and pass with split second decision that is only recognized as professional ability. Line up for the girls team is: Thompson, senior Reta Garrett, sophomore, Zena Snodgrass, junior, Lois Moss, junior, Peggy May, junior, Janie Gaffey and Pat Powell, freshmen, and all forwards, Guards
