Rowdy Norther Reaches Gulf; Dust Remains

By The Associated Press

A bumptious spring norther that brought the season's worst dust storm to Texas had reached the Gulf Friday, leaving behind a veil of red dirt over most of the state.

Back of it also were damaged farm buildings, some hail-flattened crops, at least one serious injury and one death. Snow fell in the Panhandle at Dalhart, Amarillo and Pampa and was still falling just before dawn although temperatures were above freezing.

Clearing skies and rising temperatures were indicated for the weekend by official forecasts.

Dallas, struck by the storm Thursday at its 5 p.m. rush hour, suffered torn signs, crashed TV antennae, and destruction of a 200-foot radio tower.

On Lake Dallas in Denton County, a boat capsized and a Denton woman, Mrs. Junaita Doyle, 25, was believed drowned.

Mrs. Mattie Riddle, 55, was found critically injured in Dallas but police were not sure she had been hit by flying debris or by a hit-run auto. She was found in 8 or 10 inches of water at a street intersection.

Trees were blown down as the winds swept Dallas and some property damage occurred as they struck residences and automobiles.

At Rice's erossing in Central Texas, Ben Altesek, 17, was seriously injured when struck by wind-blown debris.

High wind toppled a brick tile wall of the Smithfield school gymnasium in southeast Tarrant County. Cleburne residents reported barns and outbuildings damaged.

Egg-sized hail and a short, drenching rain struck Dallas but across the blacklands what hail fell was small and the damage was believed light except in perhaps isolated places.

Dust cut visibility to almost zero in the Panhandle-Plains area, but by Friday morning the heaviest pall of dirt apparently was over Childress where visibility had increased to a half mile. San Antonio's reported half-mile visibility at 4:30 a.m. was the next heaviest. Most of the state had dust in the air—from Dalhart to the Gulf.

Tornado scares at Gainesville, Dallas, Waco and some other scattered points failed to develop into anything worse than scares. A funnel-shaped cloud a few miles south of Waco broke up before it touched the ground. A "roaring wind storm" at Gainesville blew down some outbuildings but injured nobody.

DISCUSS WATERSHED—E. V. Spence, general manager of the Colorado River Municipal Water District, is shown as he explains the district's work concerning the watershed during a meeting held here yesterday on Deep Creek problems. Seated at center is Bob Crowell, Chamber of Commerce manager, while at right is Herman Doak, who headed the meeting. The group decided to form a committee to further study the problems on Deep Creek. Landslides Claim Many Of Victims

MANILA (AP)—Violent earthquakes rocked the southern Philippines today, causing possibly hundreds of deaths and untold damage.

The Philippine News Service reported "hundreds" dead or missing in the Tugaya district alone of Lanao province. Earlier PNS said there were 164 confirmed deaths in four districts of that province.

For nearly eight hours the earth trembled and shook. The ground split open. Sand and hot water were reported issuing from cracks in the ground. Some houses toppled into Lake Lanao.

The Philippine Red Cross said the provincial secretary of Lanao province reported from Dansalan, the capital, that 100 persons were dead or missing in two districts bordering Lake Lanao.

Those persons presumably were included in an earlier report by the Philippine News Service that 164 were confirmed dead in four districts of Lanao province. PNS insisted that its figure was correct.

The Manila Times reported the same figures.

The news service quoted Capt. Angelo Cruz, public relations officer for the 4th Military Area embracing Mindinao. He said 15 persons were missing.

The news agency dispatch indicated many persons were victims of landslides.

The first heavy shock hit the area—a corn-growing region—at 2:15 a.m. Then a series of aftershocks jarred Mindanao and the other southern and central Philippine islands of Cebu, Panay, Negros, Samar, Bohol and Leyte.

A Philippine News Service dispatch from Iligan reported earth fissures measuring as wide as a foot in some places. The tremors caused landslides.

HEAVY DAMAGE

The news service said 10 persons were hurt at Iligan and a waterfront office building there slid into the sea.

From Okamis City (Misamis), a town of 35,262, an estimated one million dollars in damage was reported. At least 2,000 were homeless there.

"Everyone in this city and nearby towns thought the world had ended and death had come," a Manila Times correspondent messaged from Ozamis.

The Weather Bureau plotted the epicenter at some 600 miles south and southeast of Manila or a point between Ozamis and Iligan cities in Mindanao.

Ozamis is located in Misamis Occidental province. Iligan, with a population of 25,725, is in Lanao province to the east.

The Weather Bureau said the greatest intensity of the earthquake was recorded at Dipolog City, population 40,618, on the northern tip of Zamboanga province on Mindanao.

The reading at Diplogo was 7 on a scale of 9.

BUILDINGS FALL

The bureau said it had no recording at Ozamis but believed the intensity was greater there. Readings at other cities ranged from 2 to 6.

Coming in the early morning hours when most people were asleep, earthquakes threw villages, towns and cities into panic.

The stately stone Roman Catholic church at Ozamis, built in Spain's occupation, was reported destroyed. Public buildings trembled and fell.

School Board Balloting Set For Tomorrow

The polling place in the Snyder school district's tax office will open at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning for the election of two trustees to the school board, and voting may continue until 7:00 o'clock tomorrow night.

Each voter may vote for two candidates. Candidates for the school board do not race for certain places, but each merely seeks a place on the board. The two candidates receiving the highest numbers of votes will be elected. When the results of tomorrow's election are canvassed, they will become final, and the elect will be sworn into office.

In elections of this type — in which there is no runo-off — minority candidates are often winners, especially in cases of as many candidates as there are in this election. That is, in all probability, the winners will not have received the majority of the total votes cast. Such an election is the most difficult type to predict.

The order in which the announced candidates will be named on the ballots is Max West, Bill Grimmett, Weldon Johnson, Jim Mixon, Frances Brooks, W. F. McMenamy, Buster Lowery, and Frank Strom.

The places being vacated on the board are held by Lee T. Stinson and L. M. Ford, neither a candidate for reelection.

Lineups on the ballots of other area school board elections:

County school board — Perry Echols and D. Z. Hess.

Hermleigh — G. E. Chorn, O. C. Darden, C. J. Grossman, Jim Farr.

Fluvanna — Dee Pylant, James Stansell, Leo Beaver, Ray Fulford Clay Reeder, O. M. (Jack) Martin, Bunyan Evans, Robert Jones, Bobby Warren, C. D. Burrow.

Hobbs — Claude Weems and James Nettleton.

Borden County — H. D. Williams and W. H. Wilson, Jr.

Car Damaged In Collision

No one was seriously hurt in a car-pickup collision four miles southeast of here on U. S. Highway 84 at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but one vehicle was heavily damaged.

The accident was investigated by the sheriff's department and Bill Zimmerman and E. W. Green, highway patrolmen, who said the passenger car struck the rear of the pickup.

Both vehicles were traveling southeast. The 1955 Chevrolet business coupe was driven by Joe Brookins, Hughes Tool Co., Snyder, and the 1951 GMC pickup was driven by Roy Brown, 1914 Twenty-seventh Street.

Brown complained of his back, officers said, but was not hospitalized.

Homer Whisnand, sheriff, said a tire on the pickup was blown by the accident but that no other damage to it was apparent. The front of the coupe was extensively damaged.

Committee To Study Deep Creek Problems

A group of about 40 persons meeting to discuss various problems which have occured on the watershed of Deep Creek in Scurry County decided yesterday that problems still exist and called for appointment of a committee to make studies of the creek.

Represented at the meeting, which was called by the Chamber of Commerce, were all political subdivisions here, including the city, county, Snyder school district, Colorado River Municipal Water District, and the Upper Colorado Soil Conservation District. The group decided after a short discussion of problems that a 12-man committee be formed, with each of the five subdivisions appointing two representatives and two members-at-large to be chosen.

Herman Doak who headed yesterday's meeting, first called for a brief summary of a part of the problems which had already arisen on the Deep Creek watershed. Bob Crowell, chamber manager, read accounts of the flood which occurred here on June 19, 1939, giving details on crop, building, road, and bridge damage resulting from that flood. He also showed the group a map of the Deep Creek watershed, which covers about one-fourth of Scurry County. He told the group the CRMWD had obtained rights on the watershed to study possibilities of use of Deep Creek water.

PROBLEM AIRED

Doak then opened the meeting for discussion on whether a problem still exists on the watershed. Herbert Feather expressed the opinion that a dam on the creek near the Colorado River, such as may have been in the planning stages by the CRMWD, would not help as far as flood control for Snyder was concerned and that he believed the group should discuss possibilities of controlling the water on the creek above Snyder.

Lyle Deffebach said Army engineers had made a survey on the watershed in the late 1940s and that discussion at that time mainly concerned availability of drinking water. He recalled that Snyder residents were told then that dams for flood control would be much more costly than those for impounding water. He added that federal reclamation funds are available only in proportion to the amount of damage which has been suffered from floods.

Representatives of various subdivisions then gave their opinions of problems along the watershed. Malven Stevenson, Snyder mayor, said the city council feels that flood possibility is the No. 1 problem of the city and that the city feels strongly that something must be done to prevent flooding.

E. V. Spence of Big Spring, general manager of the CRMWD, then explained why the water district made a presentation to the state to get water rights. He said the district has earmarked all potable water in this area for possible use and that it is making studies along that line on Deep Creek. The district is now gauging the flow of water on Deep Creek near the point where it runs into the Colorado River, Spence said. He encouraged local study for flood control and water conservation and said that flood control measures on the upper portion of Deep Creek would not hinder the district's work, even if the district were to build a dam to impound water on the lower part of the creek, since flood control facilities are built to hold the water and then release it more slowly than it would run down the creek during heavy rains.

CANAL STUDIED

Spence said the district had considered the possibility of tapping the upper portion of Deep Creek and running a canal from there to Bull Creek. Bull Creek water is now diverted to Lake Thomas. Such a project so far has appeared too costly, however, Spence said.

Spence urged the group not to go to the federal government with

George Speaks Up For Pacts

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga) told the Senate today final approval of the German rearmament treaties will "improve the chances for a Big Four or a Big Five meeting that will produce something . . . constructive."

George, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, opened debate of the two treaties to rearm the West German Republic, give it sovereignty and add its potential military power to Western Europe's defenses against Russia. He said the pacts also would contribute to the unification of Germany.

"It is unthinkable that we should now refuse to ratify them or that we should unduly prolong the debate," George said, adding:

"I am convinced that we improve the chances for the unification of Germany. We improve the chances for a Big Four or Big Five meeting that will produce something more constructive and helpful than stalemate and propaganda," George said.

In testimony before the Foreign Relations Committee on the two treaties, Secretary of State Dulles said the new arrangements would make West European unity an "irreversible reality."

Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said that when West Germany has built up her planned 12-division army, estimated to take three to four years, "these German forces will make it possible for us to have a reasonable assurance of being able to defend Europe successfully."

The Foreign Relations Committee recommended approval yesterday 14-1. Sen. Langer (R-ND), voting "no," said, "These treaties are just a repetition of the (World War I) Versailles Treaty. They are courting a future war."

Langer took particular exception to the new French-German agreement on the Saar Basin, which binds that coal-rich area economically to France. The Saar agreement does not require U.S. approval.

"The Germans had the Saar for 1,000 years," Langer said in an interview.

Browning Rites Held Today

Funeral services for Dr. A. W. Browning of Fluvanna, a retired physician, were held at 10 o'clock this morning in the Bell Funeral Home chapel. The Rev. G. M. Cole, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated.

Burial is to be in the Pleasant Grove Cemetery in Wise County, near Chico.

Dr. Browning died at 3:35 a.m. yesterday in Cogdell Memorial Hospital. He had suffered a lengthy period of ill health.

Dr. Browning was born Oct. 19, 1876, in Texas, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Browning. He was married to Lucy Elma Clawson on April 1, 1906, at the home of her parents in Fluvanna. He practiced medicine in this county for many years, but had not been active in that profession recently. He was a member of the Methodist Church, the Masonic Lodge and Woodmen of the World.

Surviving Dr. Browning are his wife; two sons, Albert Dennis Browning of Huntsville and Earl George Browning of Fluvanna; three sisters, Mrs. Henry Buckner of Alvord, Tex., Mrs. Josie Belt of Chico and Mrs. Willie Saunders of Oklahoma; a brother, Bruce Browning of Park Springs, Tex.; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

19 Rubber Plants Closed By Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—The 19 plants of the U.S. Rubber Co. were closed today by a strike of 35,000 workers seeking longer vacations and other benefits.

Production of automobile tires, footwear, chemicals, synthetics was halted by the strike.

The CIO Rubber Workers Union ordered the walkout, effective last midnight when the previous contract expired.

Negotiations had broken down only 10 minutes earlier.

The company and the CIO United Rubber Workers had been negotiating here for a new contract covering hours, working standards and holidays. The old contract expired at midnight.

E. M. Cushing, in charge of company negotiations, said early today, "It all happened suddenly." He declined further comment.

Union officials were not reachable here for comment, but the Waterbury (Conn.) Republican quoted union official Clifford Owens as saying negotiations broke down 10 minutes before midnight.

Owens is president of the union's Local 45 in one of the three U.S. Conn., where 8,000 workers were affected.

Other U.S. Rubber plants are at Detroit; Chicopee Falls, Mass.; Eau Claire, Wis.; Philadelphia; Los Angeles; Mishawaka, Ind.; Providence, R.I.; Indianapolis; Passaic, N.J.; Woonsocket, R.I.; North Bergen, N.J.; Bristol, R.I.; Washington, Ind.; Fort Wayne, Ind.; Chicago; and Milan, Tenn.

The union and U.S. Rubber signed a wage pact last Aug. 31 providing a 6½-cent hourly raise. At that time the union said the agreement boosted the average pay in U.S. Rubber plants to $1.96½ an hour.

Auto License Rush Declines

The business rush of persons registering vehicles had subsided today in the county tax office, where nearly 9,000 had been registered from Feb. 1 through yesterday.

Today is the last day in which currently used vehicles may be registered for 1955 without penalty and the last day in which unregistered currently used vehicles are allowed to operate on public thoroughfares without their drivers being subject to fine.

Although March 31 is generally considered the final date for car registration, the law actually places the final date on April 1 by stating that registration must be "not later than April 1," and, of course, it cannot be later than April 1 until April 2.

A year ago yesterday, the office had registered 8,332 vehicles for 1954 since the preceding Feb. 1.

School Board Lets Building Contracts

In a special meeting yesterday afternoon, the Snyder school board awarded contracts to four firms for construction of the second major phase in its $2-million building expansion program.

Contracts awarded totaled $410,047.46 and were the lowest bids submitted. They were for the construction of a combination physical education and speech and arts room at North Elementary School, a similar room at East Elementary School, two classrooms at the latter, and athletic facilities at the high school.

Most of the 13 bidding firms bid separately on two sub-phases of this building phase, then also submitted bids for the combined subphases. The bids were numbered "one," "two," and "three" for each of the three types of work, general construction, mechanical (plumbing, etc.), and electrical. "One" concerned facilities at the two elementary schools, and "two" concerned all the planned facilities to be added for high school athletics except a new lighting system for the stadium. "Three" was for both sub-phases combined.

The athletic facilities to be added in this phase of the program are a field house, enlargement of the stadium, construction of concession stands and restrooms.

In the case of each bidder, the No. 3 bid was lower than the total of the other two bids he submitted, but for electrical work, the board awarded contracts to two firms because the two lowest bids on sub-phases totaled $10.54 less than the lowest combined bid.

Phillips Electric of Midland was awarded contract on sub-phase No. 1 (the elementary schools) for $7,884. This firm's bid on No. 2 electric work was $9,116, and the bid on both 1 and 2 was $17,000. C&D Electric of Big Spring was awarded No. 2 electric work for $9,105.46. This firm's No. 1 bid was $10,426.55, and the bid for both 1 and 2 was $17,946. By combining the No. 1 bid of Phillips with the No. 2 bid of C&D, the total was $16,989.46, which was $10.54 less than the No. 3 bid of Phillips.

The general contract went to A. P. Kasch & Sons of Big Spring for $351,028. This firm submitted only one bid, No. 3, for the entire building phase.

The mechanical or plumbing contract went to Webb Plumbing Co., Abilene, for $42,030. This was No. 3 mechanical bid, the entire phase. This firm's No. 1 bid was for $19,095, and its No. 2 bid was for $24,814.02.

Other general construction bids were by Rose Construction Co., Abilene, ($225,000, $160,000, and $384,500) and Suggs Construction Co., Big Spring, ($220,916, $157,774, and $374,674).

In other mechanical bidding, Anthony Co., Lubbock, bid $44,800 on No. 3 and submitted no sub-phase bids; J. P. Bollinger, San Angelo, bid $22,638, $25,883, and $48,500; Nachlinger Plumbing, Snyder, bid $19,900, $25,900, and $45,500; and Roche-Newton, Lubbock, bid $47,652 on No. 3 only.

Boss Electric Co., Snyder, bid only on No. 2 (athletic) for $9,391. Gilliland Electric, Big Spring, bid $11,450, $11,300, and $22,450. Howell Electric of Snyder bid $8,300.27, $9,696.73, and $17,997.

The three highest No. 3 bids totaled $455,450, which was $45,402.54 higher than the total of the contracts awarded.

Bids were opened for the board by the district's architect, Fred Buford of the Dallas firm of Buford & Feinberg. He said work would

Stassen Backs Off From Panel Clash

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Foreign aid chief Harold E. Stassen today backed away from a head-on clash with the Senate Investigations subcommittee over rights of its staff to question his employes.

Stassen's Foreign Operations Administration sent three employes to the subcommittee's headquarters with announced orders to "answer all questions" put by the staff although only last night an FOA spokesman had said they would not show up.

The three were half an hour late and brought along a private attorney. Their delay in showing up stirred speculations as to whether there had been intervention in the row by the White House or senators close to Stassen.

Stassen took a stand yesterday that subcommittee staff investigators should not question his employes unless he or one of FOA's top lawyers was present.

The subcommittee insisted its staff had the right to question FOA employes in private.

No senator was in the subcommittee offices when the witnesses entered, and there was no indication that any of them would be present.

Stassen did not challenge the right of senators to question his employes—only the right of the subcommittee staff—in taking a stand yesterday that angered Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) and other members.

Stassen said he or any employe of the FOA would meet with the subcommittee or its chairman at any time.

He added, however, that "it does not appear fair or reasonable or wise for individual members of the staff of the committee to be permitted to summon individual employes of FOA without any committee members present and without any counsel of his choice present."

McClellan said the preliminary investigation is necessary to determine which witnesses to call for public hearings.

The subcommittee, said yesterday that FOA employes could have counsel of their own at staff interviews but could not select counsel from within the FOA.

"I'm not going to let any executive agency tell me how to operate this committee," McClellan said, adding he didn't intend to let the general counsel of any agency "supervise" the subcommittee's preliminary investigations.

AREA OIL ROUNDUP

Indicated Find In Nolan Tests

C. L. Norsworthy, Jr., and R. L. Foree, both of Dallas, were preparing to drillstem test the Ellenburger in No. 2 [illegible] wildcat and indicated Strawn discovery in southwest Nolan County.

The first drillstem test in the Ellenburger, from 7,327-373 feet, open one hour, recovered 20 feet of mud, and no shows of oil or gas.

Operators deepened to 7,473 feet, where another test was slated Wednesday.

Location is 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of 52-1A-H&TC, 10 miles southwest of Maryneal.

SHARON RIDGE

French M. Robertson of Abilene has filed application to drill a new project in the Sharon Ridge 1700 field of Scurry County, and has reported a completion in the same field.

Robertson's new project will be the No. 4 Shell-Wellborn, located 330 feet from north and west lines of the northeast [illegible] of 102-97-[illegible], four miles southeast of Ira. Cable tools are to be used to drill to 1,999 feet.

Robertson No. 8 Wellborn was completed for a 24-hour pumping potential of 112 barrels of 29-gravity oil with no water. The production is natural through perforations at 1,737-742 feet. Top of the pay was at 1,712 feet, with total depth 1,788 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 200-1.

The No. 8 Wellborn is 330 feet from south and east lines of the lease in 102-97-H&TC.

KING WILDCAT

Shell Oil Co. has announced plans to drill the No. 5-C S. B. Burnett Estate as a 6,300-foot wildcat in southeast King County.

Drillsite is 2,020 feet from south and 2,032 feet from east lines of 29-3-BS&F, about 10 miles southeast of Guthrie.

its problem. He said it would cost the city less over a period of years to buy up property along the creek and keep it cleaned out, as well as restricting building on creek banks.

Edgar Taylor, county judge, spoke for the commissioners court [illegible] the county is vitally interested in seeing what can be done about problems on the watershed. There has been talk of the possibility of a diversion ditch or canal in the east part of Snyder, Taylor said.

Nolan von Roeder, a supervisor for the soil conservation district, said the Soil Conservation Service had upstream control on Deep Creek under consideration at least two years ago but had not had enough money to fully survey the creek.

W. S. Goodlett of Big Spring, area conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, explained Public Law 566, which was passed by the last Congress providing funds for water control. Under that law, he said, federal funds are available for about 50 per cent of the cost of small dams required. Local representatives must obtain the land needed for such a project along the creek. Structures built would be property of the persons who owned the land on which they would be constructed.

M. E. Stanfield, assistant superintendent of the Snyder schools, said the schools are interested in transportation on roads through the watershed and that they will cooperate on projects which arise for the good of all.

GROWTH CITED

After hearing from all the subdivisions, Doak then asked the entire group whether it considered the problems along the watershed serious enough to continue work. Harold Bennett said he believed there is still enough problem. He said that at the time of the 1939 flood Snyder was a much smaller town than it now is and that a similar flood now would cause much heavier damage.

R. A. Schooling then asked Goodlett whether runoff from the watershed now would compare with that of 1939, since more terraces are in existence on farms in the county. Goodlett, who said he was working in the courthouse here at the time of the 1939 flood, said the rain that time topped every terrace in the county and that runoff now might be reduced some but not much in similar rainfall. "You could figure on 75 per cent runoff during a fast rain now," Goodlett said. He explained that most of the Deep Creek drainage above Snyder comes from rangeland.

Burl Bartels asked whether it would help to encourage individual landowners along the watershed to build small control dams. Jake Hodges, chief of the local SCS office, said he had worked with some persons concerning the building of dams but that none had built any yet. He added that most farmers or ranchers who built dams would want to hold the water and not let it out after catching it.

Air Service ChangeOkayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Civil Aeronautics Board examiner recommended today that the certificate of Trans-Texas Airways of Houston be renewed for seven years.

Walter Bryan also advised the CAB to:

Authorize Continental - pioneer Air Lines to operate between El Paso and Dallas by way of Pecos, Marfa, Fort Stockton, San Angelo, Brownwood and Fort Worth, and to serve Kerrville on its route between San Antonio and San Angelo.

Suspend the services of Braniff Airways at Laredo and Galveston, and of Delta Air Lines at Tyler and Longview.

Start an investigation to determine whether service by Trans-Texas should be substituted for that of Continental-Pioneer at Waco and Temple.

Remove the present restriction preventing Trans-Texas from providing a through-plane service between Shreveport and Dallas.

If no exceptions are filed within 15 days, the examiner's findings will become the final decision of the CAB.

Pay Raise Is Important To Texas Bases

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The military pay raise should mean millions to Texas.

An idea of what it means to the state is provided in figures furnished by the Pentagon:

There are 236,000 armed forces personnel based in Texas. A great many will receive an average pay boost of 6.7 per cent. The Air Force accounts for 140,854, the Army 82,217 and the Navy 12,657. The increase is for enlisted men with over two years of service and officers with more than three years.

A breakdown by the Air Force and Navy shows that every section of Texas, small as well as large cities, stand to benefit. The Army gave out no such data but it has large establishments in the Temple, San Antonio and El Paso areas.

Air Force personnel were assigned, by numbers, as of Feb. 1 at Texas spots including:

Abilene, only 4, but a 50 million dollar bomber base project is under construction there now; Amarillo, 24,424; Bryan, 2,349; Goodfellow (San Angelo), 394; James Connally (Waco), 4,632; Laughlin (Del Rio), 3,210; Perrin (Denison and Sherman), 3,522; Reese (Lubbock), 2,295; Sheppard (Wichita Falls), 9,072; and Webb (Big Spring), 2,500.

The Navy breakdown Feb. 1 included:

Abilene, 9; Amarillo, 9; Beaumont, 9; Corpus Christi, 6,142; Chase Field (Alice), 1,220; Galveston, 16; Lubbock, 8; Orange, 886; Port Arthur, 10; San Angelo, 12; Waco, 7; and Wichita Falls, 10.

begin in the next few days and that all contractors had a completion deadline of Aug. 30.

This was the second major phase of the $2-million expansion program. The first, let in contracts about a month ago, concerned expansion of the West Elementary School, now underway.

The board yesterday voted to use poles rather than second-hand metal towers for construction of a new lighting system at the stadium. The poles would cost $4,800 more than the used towers, but would be many times stronger in wind resistance and require less space, the architect - engineer advised. The towers considered were offered the school system recently at an economical price by an oil firm.

The towers would require large base areas, however, which would create a problem with the size of the stadium.

The next phase of the program will be the stadium lighting and expansion of the facilities of Central Elementary School and the Abraham Lincoln School. Bids are to be opened April 12. Bids on additions to the junior high school are to be opened June 1, and bids on a new elementary building will be opened July 1.

Here Is The Correct Solution To This Week's Cashword Puzzle

Next Week's Cashword Puzzle Will Appear In Monday Issue Of The Snyder Daily News

"A spokesman for Jehovah's witnesses announced plans today for delivering a special message to the world. Mr. J. D. Cook, local presiding minister for the Snyder congregaton, revealed some of the details of this special campaign, which includes sponsoring the public lecture entitled 'Christendom or Christianity — Which One Is "the Light of the World"?' All congregations of Jehovah's witnesses throughout the world (there are approximately 14,000 in 159 lands) will participate. Mr. S. Davis will deliver this discourse locally, to which the public is cordially invited. It will be delivered at the Kingdom Hall (located in Boothland Addition on Clairemont Road) on April 3 at 3 P.M.

"After the discourse a new 32-page booklet containing extraordinary information will be given free to each person in attendance. Some 600,000 of Jehovah's witnesses will then begin distribution of millions of copies of this special message in many languages throughout the world. It is the desire of Jehovah's witnesses to place a copy in every home. Mr. Cook said the contents of this specially prepared booklet had not yet been made public, but its message was unique and would be of special interest to persons of all faiths.

"Advance preparation and the world-wide scope of this special campaign give indication that this may well be one of the greatest religious proclamations in modern history, Mr. Cook said. He went on to tell of local plans that have been made, stating that Jehovah's witnesses here are ready and eagerly look forward to this special campaign."

TAPIOCA PUDDING TREAT
. . . pineapple and nuts add flavor

Helps For Homemakers

Send your questions to "Helps for Homemakers," Snyder Daily News, or call 3-5436.

One good thing about desserts is that they can taste as good as they look. That is particularly true of this tapioca pudding, flavored with pineapple and nuts and garnished with whipped cream. Make it in advance and store it in the refrigerator until you are ready to dish it up.

PINEAPPLE TAPIOCA PUDDING
1 egg white
2 tablespoons granulated sugar
1 egg yolk
2 cups milk
3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
¼ cup firmly packed brown sugar
⅛ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter
½ cup canned crushed pineapple
¼ cup broken nut meats

Beat the egg white until foamy throughout. Add 2 tablespoons granulated sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time, and continue beating with a rotary egg beater until the mixture will stand in soft peaks. Set aside.

Mix the egg yolk with about a fourth of a cup of the milk in a saucepan. (You may use 1 cup of evaporated milk and 1 cup of water in place of whole milk.) Add the tapioca, brown sugar, salt and remaining milk. Place over medium heat and cook until the mixture comes to a boil, stirring constantly. This takes five to eight minutes. Add the butter.

Pour a small amount of the hot tapioca mixture gradually on the beaten egg white, blending well. Then quickly add the remaining mixture, stirring constantly. The hotter the tapioca and the faster it is blended in the thicker and fluffier the pudding will be. Cool 15 to 20 minutes. Add the pineapple and nuts, then chill. Garnish with whipped cream and nuts for serving. This recipe serves six persons.

Nuts and coconut are two reasons why these Nut Squares are outstanding. Make them to serve at a bridge or canasta luncheon soon.

NUT SQUARES
¼ cup butter or margarine
1 cup sifted flour
¼ teaspoon salt
2 eggs
¾ cup firmly packed brown sugar
1½ cups finely chopped nuts
½ cup shredded coconut
1 teaspoon vanilla
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons flour

Cream the butter, mix in 1 cup flour and ¼ teaspoon salt thoroughly. Spread evenly over bottom of ungreased pan (9 by 9 by 1¾ inches). Press down with a spatula. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 15 minutes, and remove from oven. Don't worry if this layer looks cracked.

Beat eggs until thick and pale lemon-colored. Gradually beat in sugar. Stir in 1 cup of the nuts (Brazil nuts or pecans are recommended), coconut, vanilla, ¼ teaspoon salt and 2 tablespoons flour. Mix well. Spread evenly over the baked first layer. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) 15 minutes. Remove from the oven and cool in the pan. Spread with Orange Frosting and sprinkle with the remaining nuts. Allow to stand 30 minutes, then cut in small squares.

ORANGE FROSTING
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1½ cups sifted confectioners sugar
2 tablespoons orange juice

Cream the ingredients until smooth, then spread on the baked squares.

Revival Series To End Sunday

The revival meeting which has been in progress at the First Christian Church for the last two weeks will be concluded with services on Sunday. The Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Reece have directed the revival.

The morning service will be a special unified service beginning at 10 a.m., in which all age groups will meet in the sanctuary for the church school portion of the service. This will be followed immediately by a modified morning worship service, with the entire service to be concluded at 11:40 a.m.

Rev. Reece will bring two messages Sunday morning. One message will be in connection with the church school portion of the service, and will be entitled "Christian Education." The sermon of the morning will be entitled "The Pleadings of Jesus."

At the evening service, which will conclude the revival, Rev. Reece will speak again. This service begins at 7:30 p.m.

There has been record attendance during the meeting, the Rev. Glenn Ricketts said. A goal of 200 has been set for Sunday morning attendance.

The cantata, "The Crucifixion," is to be presented at 7:30 p.m. in the church sanctuary.

Holy Week services will begin on Monday night, and will be held through Thursday night at 7:30 each evening. Morning services are scheduled from Tuesday through Thursday at 7 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. J. Lennol Hester, will speak at each of these services. Special music will be presented by the different choirs of the church.

A Good Friday service will begin at 12 noon and continue until 3 p.m. Persons who attend will be free to come and leave as they choose. Meditations during the service will be based on Christ's seven last words on the cross, and quiet music will be played throughout the service.

Miss Williamson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Williamson of Clovis, N.M.

Guest Speaker Due

A special communion service will be held at the First Christian Church at 7:30 Thursday night. Any Christian is invited to participate in this service, which will particularly commemorate the instituting of the Lord's Supper, the Rev. Glenn Ricketts said.

COL. R. R. McCORMICK

Illness Fatal To Colorful Chicago Editor

CHICAGO (AP)—Col. Robert Rutherford McCormick, 74, colorful editor and publisher of the Chicago Tribune, died early today.

He had been in failing health for several years but remained active in his work until early last month.

Death came at his farm home west of Chicago at 2:47 a.m.

McCormick, who gained the title of colonel from World War I service, was the key man in a publishing organization which owns the newspapers with the largest circulations in the United States—the Chicago Tribune and the New York Daily News.

He stepped into an executive post at the Tribune in 1911, when it had a daily circulation of about 200,000. Last September the Tribune had a daily circulation of 892,058 and a Sunday circulation of 1,392,384.

McCormick had been hospitalized several times in recent years. He had pneumonia in April 1953 after returning from a trip to Europe. Later the same year he was troubled by erysipelas.

On Jan. 19 he underwent an abdominal operation to correct adhesions and a bladder and liver condition. He left the hospital seven days later and went to Florida.

He returned to Chicago March 10, spent 10 days under observation in a hospital and then went to his farm, Cantigny, near Wheaton, 20 miles west of Chicago.

He had a long and active career. He shaped the policies of the Tribune, largest standard-sized newspaper in this country, which each day proclaims itself on page 1 as "the world's greatest newspaper."

The Tribune fought federal prohibition, ferreted out medical quacks, argued against foreign involvements and opposed entry of the United States into World War II right up to Pearl Harbor.

It was a constant critic of the Democratic administrations of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman—and it brandished its broadsword at many Republicans too.

The 6-foot-4 colonel had a knack for capsuling his views in succinct statements, such as this one, made on his return from a 1948 visit to Europe:

"American public opinion is not represented by the striped pants boys."

The colonel, a supporter of Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), was disappointed when Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower won the Republican nomination in 1952.

Polio Group Defends Stand On Inoculation

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis says it wants to use mass immunization methods with its Salk polio vaccine—for first and second-grade pupils and free of charge.

The foundation, asking special safeguards if any other plan is followed, denied yesterday it broke an agreement with other medical groups on the method of administering the vaccine.

The foundation was criticized earlier in the day by Dr. John Lester Reichert, chairman of the Child Health Committee of the Chicago Medical Society, who claimed the foundation junked a Jan. 10 agreement which he said provided for local health departments and medical societies to decide how to administer the vaccine.

"The medical profession resents the implication that it is motivated by self-interest in protesting compulsory mass treatment," Dr. Reichert said.

The foundation, conceding it wants to use the mass immunization method, said it released a form letter dated March 29 to state health officers. The former letter, the foundation said, quoted an official statement of the national planning meeting of the 1955 poliomyelitis vaccine program Jan. 10:

"The children in the first and second grade of primary schools were selected for the program because of high incidence of paralytic poliomyelitis in this group and their accessibility as organized units within the schools, keeping in mind the limitations on the amount of vaccine to be available for this program."

The foundation said it interpreted this to mean "that the vaccine be administered in organized clinics" and further told the health officers:

"If some other plan for the administration of the vaccine in local communities is to be followed, the national foundation must be advised of such plan in detail and must receive assurances that the vaccine it is supplying will be offered to all children in the designated age groups, and only these children, and that there will be no charge for the product."

The results of last summer's Salk vaccine trials will be announced April 12.

Como Plans To Switch Networks In October

NEW YORK (AP) —Singer Perry Como switches from CBS radio and television to NBC next October in a 12-year deal.

NBC and Como's agent announced the network change yesterday, and said the singer would be starred in a one-hour nighttime variety show. Terms of the new contract were not disclosed.

Water Office Head In Galveston Charged

GALVESTON (AP)—Two indictments charging misapplication of funds have been returned against the office manager of the Galveston Water Department.

The indictments against G. C. Rickert, capped an investigation started last September when Water Commissioner Marshall McNeel Jr. asked an audit.

The grand jury said then it found $16,082 missing but had insufficient evidence for an indictment.

Strategy Gets Good Workout In Exhibitions

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Exhibition baseball almost had the air of championship competition about it yesterday, what with managers giving strategy a good workout and pinch hitters and relief pitchers getting the spotlight.

Four of the games were decided by one run, including a 3-2 decision by the Milwaukee Braves over the Brooklyn Dodgers as rookie Al Facchini broke up a 2-2 tie between the two National league contenders with a pinch single in the eighth.

With less than two weeks remaining before opening day, there was only one game that had more wallop than finesse. That was a 14-11 comedy won from the world champion New York Giants by the Cleveland Indians. Among other things, there were 18 ground-rule doubles, caused by an overflow San Antonio crowd of 11,649, and a short skirmish in which Umpire Lon Warneke, onetime Gas House Gang pitcher, pushed a local peace officer off the field.

Brooklyn and Milwaukee were neck and neck until Facchini, up from Corpus Christi of the Big State League, dropped his shot into left with the bases jammed. The hit came off Tom LaSorda who came on after Ron Negray had walked three with one out. LaSorda, a lefty, fanned pinch hitter Andy Pafko before running into Facchini.

Brooklyn played first baseman Gil Hodges in right, second baseman Junior Gilliam in left and shortstop PeeWee Reese at second. "Nothing significant," said Manager Walt Alston. "I just wanted to see what the boys can do."

Mickey Vernon lined a two-out pinch single in the eighth to score the winning run in Washington's 4-3 triumph over Cincinnati.

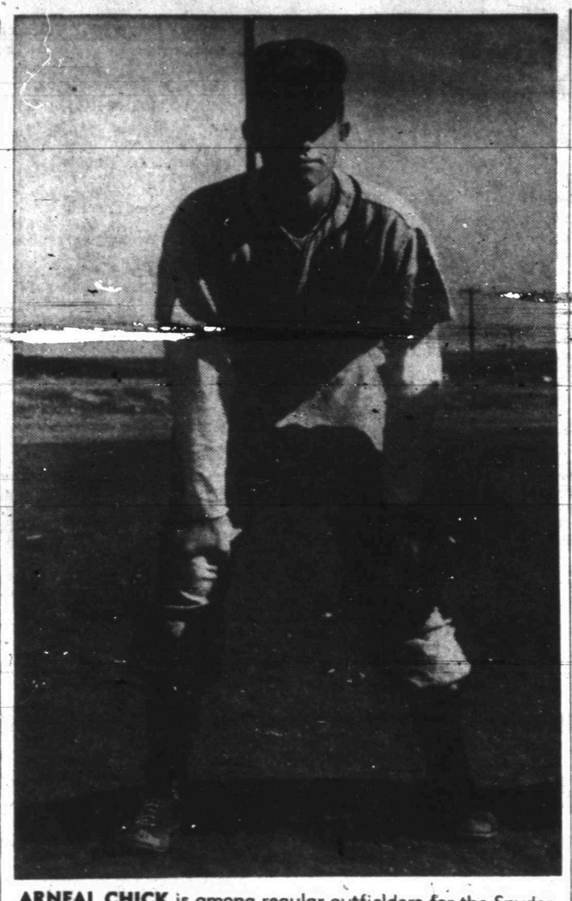
Lino Donoso, a left - handed reliefer, got the job done for Pittsburgh in a 6-5 success against Baltimore by fanning Hal Smith with the bases full in the ninth.

Bob Tiefenauer pulled a similar pitching trick for the St. Louis Cardinals, working out of a jam with his knuckler after the Chicago White Sox had loaded the bases with none out in the eighth. Rip Repulski's 10th-inning single gave it to the Cards 3-2.

The Red Sox ganged up on Rookie Jack Meyer for all the runs during the first six innings against the Philadelphia Phillies before veteran Murry Dickson set down nine Boston batters in the final three frames. Boston won 6-4.

The Giants and Indians each had 9 of the 18 automatic two-base hits in their 25-hit slugfest that also had five errors. Cleveland clubbed Sal Maglie for eight runs and 10 hits in 3 1-3 innings. Ralph Kiner hit a two-run homer for the Tribe. Willie Mays and Al Dark did the same for New York.

The crowd caused Umpire Ed Runge to rule interference in calling a Giants fly an out in the eighth. That led to an argument between Runge and manager Leo Durocher of the Giants. And when the cop tried to butt in, Warneke pushed him out.



ARNEAL CHICK is among regular outfielders for the Snyder Tiger baseball team, which will host San Angelo in a doubleheader starting at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. A game scheduled with Midland yesterday was postponed because of bad weather.

Scandinavians Help Okie A&M In Relays

By DICK WILLIAMS

AUSTIN (AP)—A trio of Scandinavian track stars will bolster the Oklahoma Aggies when they try to dethrone the Kansas Jayhawks today at the opening of the 28th annual [illegible].

The three exchange students from Europe should help send the Aggies far ahead of the field in the first day of competition with victories in the distance and sprint medleys.

Seven other championships will be decided today with the rest of the titles on the line tomorrow afternoon.

If the form chart holds true, the Cowpokes will end Kansas' domination of the longer relay races by relying on their foreign imports—Fred Eckhoff, Sture Landqvist and Bjorn Bogerud.

They are threatening the world record in the distance medley and could also break the Relays record in the sprint medley.

Kansas has set world marks in the sprint medley the past two years, but the Cowpokes are favored to overturn the Jayhawk dynasty.

Another long domination should end with the University of Houston considered likely to beat Texas in the shorter races.

Houston has already unofficially equalled the world record this year in the 440-yard relay, while the Longhorns have been running without the services of their ace, Dean Smith.

In other opening day events, the Oklahoma Aggies have entered in the 3,000-meter race their defending champion, Henri Geller, who rates as solid favorite to repeat.

Don Sneegas and Bill Biberstein should keep Kansas in the running during the earlier events. Sneegas, 1954 winner in the javelin throw, and Biberstein, defending 120-yard high hurdle champ, are both back again.

Ronald Beauford of Southwest Texas State has the array of broad jumpers that includes Southwest Conference champion Raymond Vickery of Baylor and Big Seven titlist Erwin Cook of Oklahoma.

The relays are being dedicated to Dr. Wilson H. Elkins, former Texas athlete and now president of the University of Maryland.

Dr. Elkins distinguished himself at the University of Texas as a Phi Beta Kappa, a Rhodes scholar, president of the student body, and a three-sport letterman.

In other divisions, Abilene Christian College will be hard pressed to keep up with last year's victories in four races—the 440, 880, mile, and sprint medley relays. Stiff competition will come from North Texas State.

Victoria Junior College gets the favorite's role in the freshman-junior college divisions with the Baylor frosh considered capable of pulling an upset.

In the high school division, Abilene should win the team title. But Eddie Southern of Dallas [illegible] will threaten the meet record in both the 440-yard run and the 120-yard high hurdles.

New York, Chicago Boxing Teams Tie In Gloves Matches

CHICAGO (AP) — Well-conditioned amateur boxers battled to a 4-4 team title deadlock in the annual Intercity Golden Gloves bouts between Chicago and New York last night.

The big show drew a crowd of 13,439 at Chicago Stadium and the fans had a great time, especially booing a decision of one fight.

For 10 minutes the throng hooted when James Archer, a rugged 20-year-old longshoreman from New York was awarded a split three-round decision over Willie Morton, stubby U.S. Air Force fighter on the Chicago team.

It was the eighth time in the 28-year series that Chicago and New York teams battled to a deadlock. Chicago has won 14 team crowns and New York six, including a 5-3 margin last year.

DeMarco In Big One, Meets John Saxton

By BOB HOOBING

BOSTON (AP) — Tony DeMarco's chances of winning the welterweight boxing title from champion Johnny Saxton tonight depend largely on whether the local slugger can prove he's not a bleeder.

The healed knot of cartilage over DeMarco's left eye and the chin a sparmate cut last December could be decisive in the 15-round battle for the 147-pound crown.

The Boston Garden fight will not be televised or broadcast.

DeMarco, No. 3 challenger, has escaped eye cuts in his past five bouts covering 32 rounds. But in his warmups for a scheduled December meeting with Joe Miceli, he was gashed along the ridge of his chin and the fight was canceled.

Since then he's had a 10-round nontitle draw with lightweight champion Jimmy Carter, from which he escaped unscratched.

Paddy Demarco opened a cut over Tony's left eyebrow in October 1953, which Wilbur Wilson and Carlos Chavez resliced. Stitches were required in each case. Tony has been unbeaten in 16 bouts over the past 21 months but the cuts have given him some bad moments.

Of four setbacks in DeMarco's 43-fight professional career, two came on technical knockouts because of bleeding.

"They tell me he cuts easily and bleeds pretty freely," Saxton said with more than passing interest when he arrived in town.

But DeMarco's manager Rip Valenti says those days are gone:

"Sure Tony got cut but he's learned a lot since then. Lots of good fighters have been cut early in their careers but after they learned a little about defending themselves they never got cut again."

It will be the first title defense for Saxton, the 24-year-old New York Negro, since winning the championship from Kid Gavilan in Philadelphia last October. His two intervening engagements were a split decision over Ramon Fuentes and a loss to Middleweight Ron Delaney.

Odds ranged from 12-5 to 2-1 on the champion only a week after they had been 6-5 and pick 'em.

Writer Favors Yanks In American League

By JACK HAND

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Despite Cleveland's record-breaking 111 victories in 1954 and the addition of Ralph Kiner, the sobered New York Yankees will bounce back to win the American League pennant in this writers' opinion.

The Yankee "complacency" of a year ago, given as the reason for Vic Raschi's sale, is conspicuous by its absence. The shock of missing plush World Series checks, plus the Indians' four-day "swoon" against the New York Giants agave the Yanks food for thought during the long winter months.

Not that "complacency" caused the Yanks' defeat. Cleveland's solid pitching staff with Bob Lemon, Early Wynn and Mike Garcia and the fine hitting of Larry Doby and Bobby Avila exploded the Yanks' dreams of a sixth straight pennant.

Although Marty Marion, one of six new managers in the league, talks of his White Sox winning, they look like a third-place club which will need terrific seasons by Virgil Trucks and Billy Pierce and some lusty slugging by Walt Dropo and Minnie Minoso to challenge.

Detroit and Boston, both rebuilding with youngsters, should fight it out for fourth, followed by Washington, Baltimore and Kansas City.

Here's the way it looks from here, barring trades and injuries, before opening day:

1. New York
2. Cleveland
3. Chicago
4. Detroit
5. Boston
6. Washington
7. Baltimore
8. Kansas City

Longhorns Fall Again

By The Associated Press

The black days of University of Texas sports apparently had extended into the baseball season Friday, even where the Longhorns were once king.

SMU's Mustangs, with the help of a ninth inning, three-run homer, defeated the Steers 5-4 Thursday. It was the Longhorns' second loss against a victory and a tie in four starts. It was the Mustangs' second triumph over the Longhorns.

The victory gave the Methodists the top rung in Southwest Conference baseball standings.

Bob Boggan's three-run round-tripper was the difference. Tommy Bowers, working in relief, looked like a world-beater as he choked off a Texas rally in the ninth.

ABOVE THE BLEACHERS

By DALE WALTON

The sand was already blowing in Snyder yesterday when the high school baseball squad started for Midland.

The team's coaches, Speedy Moffett and Horrace Bostick, had called to Midland and were told the sand wasn't blowing there and to "come on over and play."

By the time they got to Big Spring, the sand was so thick they decided to call again. By that time, the Midland people had decided there was a sandstorm after all, so the Snyder team turned around and came back home.

The Tigers are scheduled to host the San Angelo Bobcats starting at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in a doubleheader.

The Bobcats now have a 6-5 record. In their last game they lost to Abilene 7-4. The Tigers have a 4-5 record so far.

The Abilene high school baseballers, still going strong, were to host Lake Worth today. The Abilene team has won five games and lost two so far this season.

Grant Teaff of Snyder will be at one tackle position on the all-letterman team McMurry grid coach Doug Cox will match against Indian exes at 8 o'clock tonight on the McMurry stadium. The game will end spring training for McMurry.

The Hardin-Simmons tennis team was beat out by Texas Tech netters in matches yesterday. That gives the H-SU team a 2-3 match record for the season. Bill Herring of Snyder is No. 1 singles player on the squad and also plays in doubles.

Some world records might be broken in the Texas Relays at Austin this weekend, if the wind there is as high as it is in West Texas.

Such records wouldn't count, however, if there were very much wind. J. Frank Dougherty of Olton broke one once, but there was a slight breeze backing him up, so it didn't count.

New Chisox Catcher Is Showing Promise

By GAYLE TALBOT

TAMPA (AP)—The brightest spot in the Chicago White Sox picture this spring, says General Manager Frank Lane, has been the spirited play of Clint Courtney, the bespectacled and belligerent catcher he picked up during the winter in one of his multiplayer deals with the Baltimore Orioles.

It was thought for a time, with some reason, that Lane acquired Courtney strictly as trading material, inasmuch as the Sox already had an established catcher in Sherm Lollar, but it is evident that he has no such thought now. The stubby backstop from Louisiana, finally given a chance to play with a contender, is making the most of the opportunity.

"I'd say he is the one bright spot of the whole training season," Lane said. "He's made several plays that my manager Marty Marion says were as great as any he ever saw. In fact, Marty tells me that if I can get him a whole club of Courtneys and Jim Riveras he'll promise me a pennant. He says if you had nine who played the game as hard as they do, some of them couldn't help being great."

As it happens, Courtney and Rivera were the special pride and joy of Rogers Hornsby when the Rajah, now apparently washed up for good in the big show, was managing in the minors. Courtney knocked in 79 runs for him at Beaumont in 1950 and employed his ready fists to help maintain discipline on the club.

The following season Rivera played the outfield for Hornsby at Seattle and led the Coast League with a hitting mark of .352 while sealing 33 bases. Hornsby said, after the Sox bought Rivera for $65,000, that he was the only player in the game today whom he would be willing to pay his way in to see.

Jim hasn't quite lived up to that flowery notice, but he remains one of the principal cogs in the White Sox machine and both Lane and Marion feel this could be the year he attains real stardom.

Jelke Is Convicted For Second Time

NEW YORK (AP)—Minot F. (Mickey) Jelke, handsome young oleomargarine heir, was convicted today for the second time on cafe society vice charges.

He could draw up to 40 years in prison. Sentencing was set for April 28. Two years ago he was sentenced to three to six years on the [illegible] reversed on appeal.

Jelke was continued free in $45,000 bail after the jury of 10 men and two women reported its guilty verdict at 1:16 a.m. after more than 10 hours deliberation.

He was convicted on two counts of compulsory prostitution—the legal term for the offense. The Charges consisted of:

1. "Enticing, inducing and procuring" Pat Ward, now 21, to lead the life of a prostitute.

2. Attempting to do the same with Marguerite Cordova, 26, former night club hatcheck girl.

Chief defense counsel George Washington Herz told newsmen he would not discuss possibility of an appeal at this time.

Jelke, who had paced the court corridors during the jury's deliberation, paled as the verdict was announced. The 25-year-old playboy was visibly shaken as he stood at the defense table facing the jurors. He did not take the witness stand at either trial.

He sighed deeply and bit his lips after the verdict was announced. His cheek muscles twitched. He was far from the debonair man - about - town who had spent hundreds a week in night clubs and kept lavish living quarters.

The prosecution contended he got into the vice racket—taking $10,000 to $15,000 from Miss Ward while living with her for five months in 1951 and 1952—to supplement gifts from his family and help tide him over until he came into his millions.

Both Miss Ward and Miss Cordova were among the six former vice girls who testified against him.

Defense counsel assailed the characters of prosecution witnesses — especially Miss Ward—and contended Jelke had plenty of money.

The judge instructed the jury that it made no difference whether Miss Ward and Miss Cordova were prostitutes before they met Jelke or after they ended association with him.

Miss Ward, who bore an illegitimate child at the age of 17 and before she met Jelke, testified she fell in love with him and was lured by a promise of marriage to be[illegible] a [illegible]-priced call girl. She said disgust with her life led her to split with him in Florida in March 1952.

Jelke's pretty, platinum blonde wife, the former Sylvia Eder, 27, had left the court room shortly before the verdict. She and Jelke were found in bed together in his apartment when he was arrested two years ago. They married after his first trial.

Berlin Plays, Sings Before Supreme Court

NEW YORK (AP)—Songwriter Irving Berlin played a piano and sang in New York State Supreme Court yesterday, but the performance had legal overtones.

Alfred L. Smith, another songwriter, is suing Berlin over a tune featured in the Ethel Merman musical "Call Me Madam." The snow no longer is on Broadway.

Smith contends the song, "You're Just in Love," was taken from his own composition, "I Fall in Love." Smith wants damages and an accounting of all profits made with the song. Berlin denies the charge.

Berlin, attempting to show how he wrote the song, played and sang before Justice Martin M. Frank. At the end the composer apologized to the court:

"I might sound better if I had my own piano."

Escapee Says He Fears Texas Prison Guards

BUTTE, Mont. (AP)—Texas prison guards will shoot him, an escapee from the Texas prison system says, if he is returned to Texas.

Luther Henderson, 30, was quoted last night by Butte police as saying:

"If they get me back to Texas, I've had it. The guards will shoot me sure and say I made a try to escape, and how am I going to deny it if I'm dead."

Police quoted Henderson further as saying prisoners were mistreated at Huntsville. He said he escaped from a Houston hospital, where he had been sent for treatment, Feb. 4.

He told police he was serving two 25-year terms and one 10-year term on three 1951 convictions for armed robbery.

Importance Of National Guard Cited At Meet

Maj. Bill Schiebel of Snyder, a batallion executive officer in the 112th Armored Cavalry Regiment of the National Guard, was speaker at the weekly Rotary Club luncheon yesterday.

Schiebel spoke on the National Guard and the people's responsibility in helping to support it.

"It's your money they are spending in maintaining the National Guard," Schiebel said, adding that local employes are the ones who are training for the [illegible] local people.

Schiebel urged members of the club and other residents to maintain their interest in the National Guard. Refusal to allow employes to attend guard camp in the summer would amount to employers' hindering their own national defense program, he said. He added that the National Labor Relations Board made several recommendations in handling release of employes for guard camps. Among those are giving them two weeks of military leave, with salary paid, plus their regular vacation time; or giving them the two weeks of military leave, making up the difference in their pay and that which they receive while in camp, plus the regular paid vacation.

The major said Snyder residents and businessmen have shown more interest in the National Guard than have most cities, resulting in this unit's being rated as the best in the regiment and among the best in the country.
