TWINKLES

Jerry Malin of Amarillo's News has us worried. He says the Harvesters will be next season's football champions.

* * *

* * *

But seriously, Pampa will have as good a team as last year. We doubt if the Sandies can repeat their form of 1932. Jerry may be right.

* * *

We'll say this—when the Harvesters beat the Sandies on Butler field, there won't be any more depression for us.

* * *

Roosevelts are moving west to become rough riders. Franklin D. is apt to need such a course of instruction if he keeps on trying to turn congress into a rodeo.

* * *

Who can cite something the legislature has done this session?

* * *

Mrs. Gushaway is opposed to beer of any per cent. She retains the proportions beer gave her before 1920.

Our definition for an old-timer is one who can remember when there was a general, good rain in these parts.

JONES MOVES UP

For several years it had been said that Congressman Marvin Jones of Texas, whom Panhandle citizens in their wisdom—more than they knew—had returned repeatedly to Congress, was a young man of integrity and passable ability who was destined to bring honor to his district. That was before his ascent to the job of being chairman of the house agricultural committee — a task which has made him, overnight, a national figure.

* * *

AN OPPORTUNITY

It is important, of course, that Mr. Jones is the man of integrity he is, but his position should serve as an example of the truth that lawmaking is in reality a profession, a job to which only those of some years in Congress are called. Being at such an important post is not a job for a novice, no matter how brainy. With Mr. Roosevelt eager to do something for the farmers, it should be evident that Mr. Jones occupies a most advantageous position. The allotment plan, which may or may not prove the right one, is only one of a number of important measures emanating from Marvin Jones' committee.

* * *

IMPORTANT BILL

This writer discussed at length with Gilmore N. Nunn the status of farm bills, particularly with reference to Mr. Jones' leadership. One bill introduced while Mr. Nunn was in Washington recently would combine several financial agencies of the government, including the Federal Land banks and would take over the paper held by the Joint Stock Land banks. Briefly, the plan is to take over the loans of the farmers which are now held by these banks and rewrite them on a 2½ per cent interest rate with a 46-year amortization plan. This bill would probably do as much as anything else to make farming reasonably sound from a profit standpoint. It is impossible under present farm prices to make enough to pay 6, 7, and 8 per cent on farm loans. When the rate is reduced, farmers will feel that they have a better chance to make a fair return, pay the interest, and set aside a small sinking fund. This, of course, would stimulate the sale of land, and when farm land begins to have a market value that will automatically solve many of our problems.

JUDGES' PAY DECREASED BY LEGISLATURE

REDUCTION OF 31 PER CENT FROM SUM OF 2 YEARS AGO

MONEY BILL APPROVED

MOVE TO REDUCE FEES OF ALL OFFICERS OF COUNTY

AUSTIN, March 23. (AP)—The Texas legislature today passed the first of the four major appropriations bills, that for the support of the judiciary for the next biennium.

Action was made final when the senate voted, 26 to 1,. with two pairs, to accept a compromise bill drawn by a free conference committee. The house had passed the compromise bill a few hours earlier.

The bill would appropriate $3,912,675 for support of the judiciary for the biennium beginning next September 1. This was a reduction of approximately 31 per cent from the appropriation of two years ago. The state democratic platform called for a reduction of 25 per cent in the expenses of government.

Salaries of judges were reduced from 20 to more than 25 per cent. The new salary scale would be as follows:

District judges $4,000 annually; judges of courts of civil appeals $5,160 annually; judges of commissions of appeals to supreme court and court of criminal appeals $5,500; judges of supreme court and court of criminal appeals, $6,000.

Before the senate adopted the conference report, it voted 19 to 9 to table a motion by Senator Walter Woodul of Houston to postpone action until Monday.

The senate criminal jurisprudence committee made a favorable report on a bill to reduce the fee salaries of all county officers.

Counties of less than 25,000 population, $3,000 annually; counties of between 25,000 and 37,500, $3,250; counties of between 37,500 and 75,000, $4,000; counties of between 75,000 and 150,000, $4,500; counties of more than 150,000, $5,008.

The maximum fees for justices of the peace and constables in the largest counties would be $2,000.

Singer's Midgets, the wee actors now in Amarillo, will arrive in Pampa for a two-day stay at the La Nora theater next Wednesday.

Their arrival will be heralded by a parade led by the Pampa high school band.

Thirty of these world famous little folk, with their three white elephants and many ponies, will be in the parade.

The midgets have what is everywhere recognized as one of the premier performances of the stage They are versatile, giving acts which rank with the best of stage stars of normal size.

Miami Youth Is Cadet Commander

MIAMI, March 23.—Temple Hoffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hoffer of Miami, has been named by Captain Harry Menezes, commandant of the R. O. T. C. battalion, to be cadet lieutenant colonel of the battalion.

Back of the promotion to be cadet commanding officer at North Side Dallas high school, which he is attending, is young Hoffer's record. He won the award for the most efficient company commander last year and the Camp Dallas efficiency medal last year and the year before that. He was a member of the city's crack company in 1932 and 1933 and has won the coporal's efficiency award.

Although not working anything like full capacity, the Magnolia Petroleum company carbon black plant and casinghead gasoline plants are important factors in industrial Gray county. The company has a carbon black plant and a casinghead plant 4 miles southeast of Pampa and a casinghead plant east of LeFors.

V. L. Dickinson, superintendent of both the carbon black and casinghead departments, maintains offices at the main camp in Pampa. He has been a resident of this city for the last six years. He has 21 men working at the various plants and 10 men on the repair crew. The men with their families reside at the various camps. The residents of the Pampa camps send their children to Pampa schools, while the other children go to school in LeFors.

The Pampa casinghead plant has a capacity of 10,000,000 cubic feet and the LeFors plant has a capacity of 60,000,0000 cubic feet. The carbon plant has a capacity of 5,000,000 cubic feet. The three plants are located on the new Fort Worth & Denver railroad. A casinghead plant with a capacity of 15,000,000 cubic feet is located near Skellytown but is considered in the Pampa area.

When working full time and near capacity, more than 100 men are employed in the casinghead and carbon black departments.

The wholesale and retail departments of the Magnolia company are in charge of W. H. Buckingham, who has his office at the camp here. The local office handles oil and gasoline for Pampa, White Deer, Skellytown, Miami, LeFors and nearby communities. There are four men in the wholesale department. The company also owns and operates two filling stations in Pampa with a personnel of eight men.

Mr. Buckingham has been in charge of the wholesale and retail departments for more than two years.

CAPITAL NEWS CREATES WAVE OF OPTIMISM

ROOSEVELT NOT AVERSE TO AMENDING OF FARM BILL

CHANGES TO BE MADE

GOVERNMENT BONDS TO REFINANCE DEBTS OF FARMERS

CHICAGO, March 23. (AP)—A wave of optimism swept over the grain pits today and forced prices higher. Depressed by a steady five-day decline in prices, traders were encouraged by an upturn in securities and exhibited enthusiasm over Washington reports reaching the board of trade that President Roosevelt would not object to amending of the farm bill in the senate. Wheat soared two cents a bushel at the start and corn was up one cent. Some gains were erased later by profit taking, but the market ruled strong at the close.

NEW YORK March 23. (AP)—The stock market threw off its reactionary mood of the past five sessions and recovered vigorously for a time today.

An upsweep of prices in the first hour carried a number of issues up 2 to 4 points, as shorts sought to cover in a market from which selling pressure had been lifted. Trading slackened later, but more than half of the early advance was still retained by early afternoon. Early strength also appeared in cotton and wheat.

WASHINGTON, March 23. (AP) — From a conference of congressional leaders at the White House today issued word that the impending farm mortgage plan will call for refinancing present debts with new government bonds, probably totalling a billion dollars.

Speaker Rainey told newspaper men this was the plan, explaining it was hoped this sum would be sufficient to provide the needed relief, but adding that issuance up to two billions would probably be made possible.

Pampans Are Invited To 'Little Red' Schoolhouse

Trippers to the "little red schoolhouse" 7 miles north of Pampa on the Miami road will hear a program contributed largely by local talent Friday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Guy E. McTagyart and Roy Bourland have been working with Willis Scales, who will be chairman, on program details.

The local group will not meet at the city hall before starting, since the school house is easily found. The community to be visited has invited Pampans to make a trip, and an immediate acceptance was given by the inter-community relations committees of the B. C. D. and the Junior chamber of commerce.

There will be an auction sale of refreshments at the close of the program.

COMMISSION IS DRAFTING NEW FIELD ORDERS

HEARING ON MARCH 27 IS POSTPONED FOR TEN DAYS

STUDY COURT OPINION

HOPE TO WRITE ORDER TO MEET TESTS OF U. S. COURTS

AUSTIN, March 23. (AP)—The state railroad commission planned to issue an order today calling a state-wide oil proration hearing to be held here April 3.

The commission previously had called a hearing for March 27 on all fields except East Texas and the Conroe field. It decided to postpone the hearing until April 3 and to include East Texas and Conroe, as well as the other districts.

A three-judge federal court recently held one of the last East Texas proration orders invalid, and federal judges have warned the commission against attempting to enforce an order similar in character.

The commissioners have been studying the federal court opinion and have been in conference with the attorney general. They will endeavor to write an order which will meet the tests of the federal courts.

Scout Official Advocates Camp Training in Talk

Camp training as an aid to character building in boys of the country was discussed at length here last evening by adult leaders of the Adobe Walls area.

Lloyd M. O'Neal, deputy regional executive of Boy Scouts, made the principal talk and also conferred with various Scouters concerning their problems.

The group gathered at headquarters in the city hall after a number had dinner at Martin's cafe. John Shannon led in saying of the Scout oath, then the Rev. A. A. Hyde gave the invocation. President A. G. Post of the council told of the various activities in the big area after Scout Executive C. A. Clark had introduced those present. Enthusiastic talks were made by H. W. Price of Borger, first vice-president, and A. W. Nelson of Borger, Scout commissioner.

Chris Martin, chairman of camping, discussed camps at length and said he would send out a questionnaire asking scoutmasters for their suggestions. Those present favored returning to Camp Cima del Mundo

FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE KILLS SELF IN PRISON

Freedom of 15 Years Ends With His Capture

BUTTE, Mont., March 23. (AP)—Harry Bushnell, fugitive from a Michigan prison camp, arrested here a week ago, committed suicide in jail here today by poisoning.

Bushnell, who came west and married a Butte girl after his escape, was captured through a reward offer made by a crime magazine. His arrest ended one of the most intensive manhunts ever conducted by Michigan officers.

Two officers were due here today to return him to Michigan for completion of his sentence and for questioning in the slayings of a man and woman which coincided closely with his escape from prison in 1918.

Bushnell's wife was ignorant of his past record until his arrest. Yesterday she began circulation of a petition for pardon among Butte residents with an idea to presenting it to the governor of Michigan.

The fugitive had waived extradition and declared he would complete his term. He denied knowledge of the deaths of the man and woman whose bodies were found near the prison the day after his escape.

TEXAS SENATOR CLAIMS HARRISON CHARGE WAS DELAYED

CHAIN BANKERS ACCUSED

EIGHT OTHER OFFICIALS TO BE FILED AGAINST LATER TODAY

SHAWNEE, Okla. March 23 (AP)—Charges were filed here today against five former officials and "accommodation note makers" of the H. T. Douglas chain of banks which failed last November. Like charges were to be filed against 8 others at Wewoka later in the day. All of the counts alleged irregularities in banking.

Six counts were listed in the indictment against H. T. Douglas Shawnee financier and president of the closed Shawnee National bank. Three counts were filed against Newt Douglas, a brother of H. T. Douglas.

Those charged with irregularities in note-making were I. D. Walker, Ralph Walker, and M. Bassad.

WASHINGTON, March 23. (AP)—The possibility developed today that the senate banking committee may investigate the justice department's handling of the prosecution of Joseph W. Harriman, former president of the Harriman National Bank & Trust company, charged with falsifying accounts.

Chairman Fletcher of the committee said he had forwarded data on the case to Ferdinand Pecora of New York, committee counsel, and that Pecora undoubtedly would look into it in connection with his other investigations of stock market and banking transactions.

Several senators, including Connally (D., Texas), criticized the justice department's alleged failure to prosecute Harriman promptly.

Economics Books To Be Added To Public Library

Members of the Pampa Library board yesterday decided to add a number of new books to the shelves picking those most in demand by the large patronage.

First on the list were several new books on economics and government. Business men and those studying trends of government will be especially interested in these volumes, which will be received in about two weeks.

Some of the latest, best novels mystery and western fiction, historical fiction, biographies, and a few books on religion will be other books bought soon. The first of the new volumes to arrive will be placed on the shelves probably as early as next Wednesday.

Ted Quam, Chinese school boy, has given the library a complete set of O. Henry's short-stories.

IMMEDIATE REMOVAL OF CICERO MURRAY AS OIL PRORATION CHIEF RECOMMENDED

Committee Report Alleges Much Oil Was Produced In Violation of Orders.

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 23. (AP)—Recommendations for the withdawal of national guardsmen from the Oklahoma City oil field and the removal of Col. Cicero I. Murray from command were made in a report drafted today for presentation to the state senate by its oil investigating committee.

The report as drafted condemned both the use of the militia and of umpires chosen by producers to enforce proration and recommended enactment of a new proration law placing enforcement power in the hands of the corporation commission and providing severe penalties for violators.

Such a proposed law is now before the legislature.

It further charges that Colonel Murray had refused to appear before the committees to explain bank accounts totaling $162,000; that the colonel had not furnished reports and audits as he had agreed, and that he had accepted sums of money from operators in the form of "advances."

The investigators found that lowable production for the Oklahoma City field for the year 1932 totaled 25,862,000 barrels, that 32,220,000 barrels had been reported to the proration department; 29,503,000 barrels to the corporation commission and 37,100,000 barrels to the tax commission. It further charged that unallowable oil would total 12,000,000 barrels for the year.

OIL INQUIRY DRAGS TO CLOSE

The investigation of the railroad commission is finally completed. The proponents have made their findings. An important section of the investigating committee evidently does not approve the criticisms of the steering committee, but, even if given face value, the result remains a pleasure to every friend of the commission.

No charge was sustained, or developed to the point of serious consideration, that reflected on the financial integrity of any member of the commission. In the midst of the administration of properties involving hundreds of millions of dollars, they have remained personally honest. No contention has been made that the commission does not place first, and protect to the best of its ability, the interests of the state and the people of Texas.

The first criticism is that the appointments are political. This is true of all governmental appointments not under civil service. The test is, not the reason for the appointment, but the competence of the employe and by this standard the prosecution does not seem to have made out a case.

The second finding is that the commission has, in East Texas, issued invalid orders. In two years the oil industry has moved a substantial distance along the road of efficient state supervision. A long way remains yet to go. No order regulating East Texas production at this time, can escape the gauntlet of the courts. It seems doubtful if any practical order will be sustained by the federal courts. Until the United States supreme court finally defines the extent of the powers of the state to control these matters, the enforcement of proration must hobble along under almost superhuman difficulties is obviously unjust.

It is charged that some of the majors will welcome the abandonment of proration and that the January price smash had such a purpose behind it. It has greatly increased the danger of a breakdown and may yet bring it about. The federal injunction granted last Saturday to Danciger may also cause a collapse. Obviously, some operators cannot remain tied while other operate unrestrained for long periods of time. If for either of these reasons it becomes impossible to continue proration the fault will not be with the commission. It is rather to be commended for the ability with which it has so far controlled the situation.

The third criticism is the Panhandle gas matter. The facts seems to be that the Panhandle gas district is in the grip of a powerful combination of Eastern utilities in which the Standard of New Jersey and the Cities Service are dominant. They are transporting enormous quantities of gas out of this state. They pay practically no taxes upon the gas and are using their monopoly to crush every local interest. The legislature has twice attempted correction. The commission for two years has made repeated attempts at reasonable solutions. The attitude of these corporations throughout has remained one of arrogance and contempt for the authority of this state.

The commission was finally faced with a decision as to whether it would longer permit the utilities to drain gas from under the properties of its own defenseless citizens or to allow its people to use their gas for any commercial purposes. It is difficult to see how any member of the Texas legislature has been able to find in this action any just basis for criticism.

This appears to be the complete case uncovered by several weeks of careful investigation. The results justify the faith that Texans have had in the honesty and administrative ability of the railroad commission—Austin Statesman.

School Students Entertain Lions

Supt. M. L. H. Baze of the Hopkins schools presented a glee club of 20 students which sang, with commendable expression, Boys of the Old Brigade, Bells of St. Marys, and A Marching Tune. Supt. Baze directed the glee club, then District Judge W. R. Ewing spoke in behalf of the Lions, complimenting the singers and urging them to avoid taking the paths of least resistance in life, as do "crooked rivers and crooked men."

Henry Will Fullingim, who will represent Pampa high school in an oratorical contest in Amarillo, delivered his original speech on Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes and the constitution. He was highly praised by John Sturgeon, president of the club, both for the thought and delivery of the oration.

The program was in charge of F. E. Leech.

TO GLORIFY PRETZEL

CHICAGO—C. J. Eichman, manager for a Chicago pretzel concern, thinks something should be done about the pretzel business.

It's not that business isn't good. In fact, he said, the industry was looking for a 500 per cent increase under the stimulus of legal beer, but new style designs are needed.

"We ought to have something new," he said. "Something ornate, say like flower designs, stars, geometric modernist things and what not."

introduced. For instance, it was his bill which provided for use of Farm Board cotton in making up cloth for distribution by the Red Cross. Besides using up part of the cotton surplus, this bill enabled the Pampa chapter of the Red Cross to distribute thousands of yards of cloth and hundreds of garments to the local needy. If—and we are reasonably optimistic—business improves considerably over 1932, Mr. Jones and his colleagues and President Roosevelt will have had a big share in the measures and the spirit which make this possible.

* * *

BASIC ECONOMY

It is significant that Mr. Jones in all his measures is keeping two things in mind: namely welfare of the underprivileged citizens and, secondly, saving of the tax money which government spends. His bill to set up a single agricultural loan administration would give more direct action with a far smaller personnel. It would abolish the Farm Board, for which there would be few mourners.

* * *

SPEED IS ESSENTIAL

While mortgage moratoriums are being declared, it should be understood that at best this step is a make-shift until remedial legislation can be passed. Moratoriums do not pay debts, nor do they reduce interest. They postpone the inevitable, but if no more is done they are more harm than good. The remedy is not in the moratorium but in some such bill as Mr. Jones provides, coupled with the improved business conditions which appear to be possible soon. It is more than a farm problem, since insurance companies and other loan firms have billions invested in farm paper.

Amazing Story Presented In Treason Trial

LONDON, March 23. (AP)—Lieutenant Norman Baillie-Stewart of the Seaforth Highlanders denied on the witness-stand today that he ever disclosed to a foreign agent any information prejudicial to his country.

The young officer, on trial before a courtmartial, is accused of betraying military secrets for pay. The money he received, he contends, was sent him by a German girl whom he had met in Berlin.

"On my honor," he said today, "I never have attempted to obtain, I never have obtained, and I never have disclosed any information prejudicial to the state. There is no possible reason why I should have done so. I never have been in debt in my life."

He explained that memoranda on army matters such as tanks and armored cars, which the prosecution contended he had noted down in connection with his alleged betrayal of secrets, were in fact notes he had made because of his constant interest in matters connected with the mechanization of the army. His brother, who also is an army officer, is much against army mechanization, he said, and they often argued on the subject.

Norman Parkes, defense counsel, then opened his case with a most amazing speech.

He said the young officer returned to Holland last August to meet a woman known as Marie Louise, "having formed the most discreditable intention of taking advantage of her infatuation to obtain money from her."

CAT AND RAT

NEW CASTLE, Pa.—If the Pied Piper ever gets around to New Castle and goes to work, he probably will find a cat among his followers.

The cat lives in a feed store. A city employe who threw her a piece of bread was startled a few minutes later by seeing the feline chewing one end of the crust and a rat eating the other end.

"They play together," he said.

SYNOPSIS: Margaret Mallant, beset by foreign terrors in the Citadel of Mekazzen, discovers that the "German" from whom she received her only help is really Col. Le Sage of the French Secret Service. He declares that Major Napoleon Riccoli of the Foreign Legion, who just has offered Margaret a hypothetical crown plots treachery to France with the powerful Kaid of Mekazzen. Unknown to Margaret, Otho Bellême, her first sweetheart, is a soldier in Riccoli's command.

"Naturally it's a bigger joke to me than to you, but I'm sure you'll see a humorous side to it.

"Out of a welter of treachery, the treachery of the Kaid and Raisul to Riccoli, and of him to them; the treachery of the Malignis to the Kaid, and the treachery of Riccoli to France, comes the downfall of the lot of them, and the removal of the obstacle to France's civilizing march.

"Yes, my dear, black base treachery. Shall I tell you?"

"Tell me everything, please. The more I know, the more I can perhaps help, and the freer I shall be to do so."

"Well, the organization of which I am the head, in this part of the world, discovered that the Kaid was dallying with Germany. Or put it the other way about, if you like. Anyhow, there were overtures, proposals and an understanding.

"It was arranged that one of Germany's best men should come and see the Kaid, come to a definite agreement—make a treaty with him, in fact.

"The Kaid was to get money, men and munitions, on the understanding that he used the men and munitions, and at any rate part of the money, to make war—any old war that should 'trouble the waters, and especially war that would make him Sultan of Morocco, worry and embarrass France, and generally, as I said—'trouble the waters.'

"Then of course, Germany was going to fish in the troubled waters—fish for vast mineral concessions, among other things, as soon as the Kaid was Sultan of Morocco, or indeed, as soon as he was strong, and France and Spain were weak, in Morocco.

"And so Germany was sending this good man, one of their best, a real stormy petrel, with the highest courage, the greatest ability and the widest experience, Secret service, of course, with no overt backing, countenance, or support from home. If he succeeded, so much the better for Germany and himself. If he failed and were caught, that was that—and the end of 'Herr Schlacht,' known to his brother officers as Carl von Mittengen.

"Well, as soon as we knew all this, it became my business to put a spoke in his wheel—and I conceived the bright idea of doing not only that, but being the new wheel myself, if you understand me. One fine day it would be a case of 'Herr Schlacht is dead, long live Herr Schlacht!'

"I got in touch—very gentle touch, just like velvet—with the Señor Pedro Maligni—who was acting for the Kaid in Tangier—and in short, the Señor Pedro Maligni sold the Kaid and the German agent and the whole German connection, to me. He also agreed with me that the Kaid had had his day, and that it was time for so wise a man as Señor Pedro Maligni to put his money on another horse—rat from the sinking ship.

"For I was able to prove to him that France was going to sink the ship."

"Did my husband know anything of this?" interrupted Margaret.

"You want the truth, my dear?"

"Of course, the absolute truth."

"He was present at my final interview with his father, Jules Maligni was introduced to me by Pedro Maligni as his partner and agent. He was witness to our agreement and he helped me in my plans for intercepting poor von Mittengen."

"He knows, then," said Margaret, "that you are a French officer, and in the French secret service? He knows you are not Herr Schlacht?"

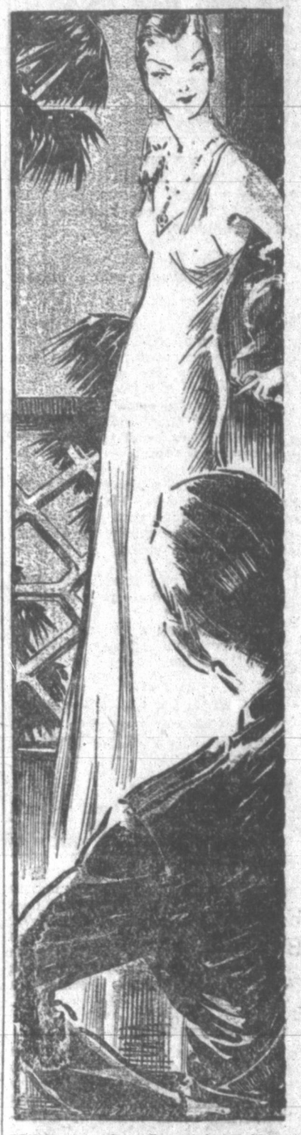

"He knows I am a French agent," replied Colonel Le Sage. "He knows that Herr Schlacht is dead and buried. It was he who was able to procure for me a mounted German photograph—from the mount of which I was able to remove the photograph and substitute my own above the name and address of the German photographer."

"What happened to the real Herr Schlacht, I mean?" asked Margaret.

"I killed him."

Margaret involuntarily drew away.

"Oh, I didn't murder him in cold blood, my dear. Curiously enough, I killed him in self-defence. As my little caravan approached his camp one evening, beside a water-hole in the Oued el Draa, he simply turned his men out and opened fire on us.

"Filthy treachery," exclaimed Margaret.

I don't know whether he took us for Touareg from the Tanezruft, or whether he had his suspicions of the Señor Pedro Maligni. I know I had my suspicions of Maligni as soon as von Mittengen opened fire on us at sight, and wondered whether he were double double-crossing, and had warned von Mittengen to look out for me.

"Anyhow, it was, as I say, a case of self-defence—for we'd got to get to the water—though I don't say I wasn't glad of the excuse to go for him. So 'Herr Schlacht' died that day—and rose again that night, in the person of myself.

"And when I reached Mekazzen, the Malignis were there all ready to vouch for me—pass-word, photograph, and all."

"Filthy treachery," exclaimed Margaret in deep disgust and indignation.

"Yes, pretty bad. It might be argued, of course," continued Colonel Le Sage, "that I'm as bad as they are; the receiver as bad as the thief."

"Oh, no," expostulated Margaret "You are working for France, working for good—not for your own personal profit, not making money by betraying the person who employs you, and trusts you."

"Thank you, my dear. And now let's consider the 'Emperor Riccoli' for just a moment."

Hitler Promises To Treat Enemies With 'Barbaric Severity'

DEMANDS FOUR YEARS' REIGN AS DICTATOR

CHANCELLOR PROMISES QUICK DESTRUCTION OF COMMUNISM

BERLIN, March 23. (AP)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler, shouting above the cheers of his Nazi deputies, demanded four years of dictatorial power from the Reichstag today.

He relegated the issue of the monarchy to the background, lifted the destruction of communism to the fore in his program, reiterated the familiar Nazi thesis of arms equality for all and promised a campaign of "barbaric severity" against all traitors.

Wave after wave of applause and cheers drowned his voice from time to time. The Nazis, who control the house, especially approved his dictum that, once adjourned, the Reichstag would be recalled only from time to time "to be informed by the government of its acts when the assent of the Reichstag is desirable."

The first big cheer came when he expressed his approval of "public decapitation" of the men who set fire to the Reichstag building just before the last election. There was tumultuous applause also at his announcement of a campaign of "barbaric severity against all guilty of treason."

"No gigantic revolution of similar dimensions ever has been carried out with such unvarying discipline and so little bloodshed as our revolution," he cried, and the Nazis cheered again.

He condemned as "an unexampled crime" the 1918 revolution which gave birth to the German republic, now virtually destroyed to make way for the new regime.

He expressed appreciation for Great Britain's efforts to obtain concrete action in disarmament at Geneva, and he paid especial tribute to Premier Mussolini's four-power plan for stabilizing European peace.

"That proposal is of the greatest significance," he said, "and we are glad to cooperate in it."

Set-Up To Get Beer Tax Devised By Uncle Sam

WASHINGTON, March 23. (AP)—A set up quite similar to that used before prohibition will be utilized by federal authorities to make certain that Uncle Sam gets his full tax on the new beer.

As described today it will operate as follows:

Giant measuring vats, some holding as much as 5,000 gallons will be set up in each plant with one pipe for in-take and another for outlet. The outlet will be locked by government inspector.

When the brewer wishes to bottle, the calibrated vat will be filled to the point desired and revenue collectors will take the tax. Then the outlet pipe will be opened by the inspector, who will at the same time lock the in-take.

Kegs will have the revenue stamp placed squarely over the bung hole, so that destruction will be necessary to pour out the beer.

To insure that the beer does not exceed the legal 3.2 per cent alcoholic content, an instrument called an "ebuliometer" will be used.

Dr. James M. Doran, chief of the bureau of industrial alcohol pointed out, water boils at about 100 degrees centigrade and alcohol at 78 degrees. The ebuliometer will register the boiling point of the beverage, which if legal, will be just a few notches below 100 degrees.

In addition to this test, occasional laboratory samples will be taken and the inspector will have a complete inventory of the brewery supplies so he can judge the amount of the various ingredients used to produce fermentation.

Resplendent Wedding Fills Church With Both White and Negro Guests

Seldom does "society of the flats" blossom into such elegance as it did last night when the Macedonia Baptist church was filled to capacity, about 80 negroes being seated on one side of the building and the same number of white people on the other—all having responded to invitations, lettered in gold, to the wedding of Lola Lee Samuels and Titus Harris.

The altar was of white and was decorated with baskets of stocks, gladioli, carnations, and baby breath. The bride was in all-white. A wreath of roses adorned her hair, and she carried a bouquet of white calla lilies, and carnations, with baby breath and fern en shower. The bride's attendants were in pink with arm bouquets of gladioli and pink carnations. Men were in full dress suits, with boutonnieres of white rosebuds and pink sweetpeas. The ring bearer also wore full dress suit with white gloves, and the flower girl was in pink and scattered rose petals.

The wedding march began at 9:10 o'clock, and as the crowd was so large the bridal party was forced to march down the center isle. A shower of rice surprised the couple at the close of the wedding, and a large reception followed.

Guests, both whites and negroes, came as far as from Clinton, Okla., to attend the event. The groom, who works at Standard Food store, was graduated from high school in Texarkana, and the bride was graduated at Paul Quinn college, Waco, and Wiley college, Marshall.

The following participated in the wedding: Mrs. Pearl McNeal, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Inez Sheraton, of Dallas, who were the bride's attendants; Mr. McMillen of Amarillo, best man; Dr. N. P. Hines of Amarillo, usher; Mrs. Hines, KGRS entertainer, who sang Oh Promise Me; Rev. Sam Hayden, officiating pastor.

WASHINGTON, March 23. (AP)—President Roosevelt today appointed former Representative James W. Collier of Mississippi to the tariff commission and James H. Hanley of Nebraska to the radio commission.

J. V. McCarty of Skellytown visited in the city last night.

Mrs. C. N. Boston of LeFors shopped here yesterday afternoon.

Texas Physician Elected Head Of Medical Bodies

DALLAS, March 23. (AP)—Dr. J. O. McReynolds of Dallas was elected president of the Pan-American Medical association today at a business session of the executive committee, and 25 vice presidents were selected from nine countries in North and South America.

Dr. McReynolds, president of the association's fourth annual congress which began Tuesday succeeded Dr. Francisco Fernandez of Havana, who had held the office for the past three years.

The vice presidents were elected from the United States, Mexico, Argentine, Panama, Cuba, Peru, Canada, Brazil, Uruguay, and Colombia. Dr. Joseph Eller of New York, son-in-law of Elias Calles, former president of Mexico, was chosen an executive secretary along with Dr. Jose E. Lope-Silvero of Havana, who was re-elected.

Welester O. Lee of Canadian was a Pampa visitor yesterday.

Mrs. Frank Ferguson of LeFors was a shopper here this morning.

Robin Continues Attack on Pane

KANSAS CITY, March 23. (AP)—Cock Robin began his thirteenth day of battle against a window pane right after breakfast this morning.

For a part of each day since the bird apparently saw his reflection in the window of the office of Dr. H. E. Songer, he has attacked the glass with bill and wing. Dr. Songer says he appears none the worse wear.

The possibility loneliness, or disappointment in love, might be the cause of the robin's behavior was advanced by the physician.

Senate Committee For Repeal Ballot

RALEIGH, N. C., March 23 (AP)—The North Carolina senate committee on constitutional amendments today favorably reported a bill calling for a referendum at the general election in 1934 on whether or not the state shall have a convention to consider the Blaine prohibition repeal resolution.

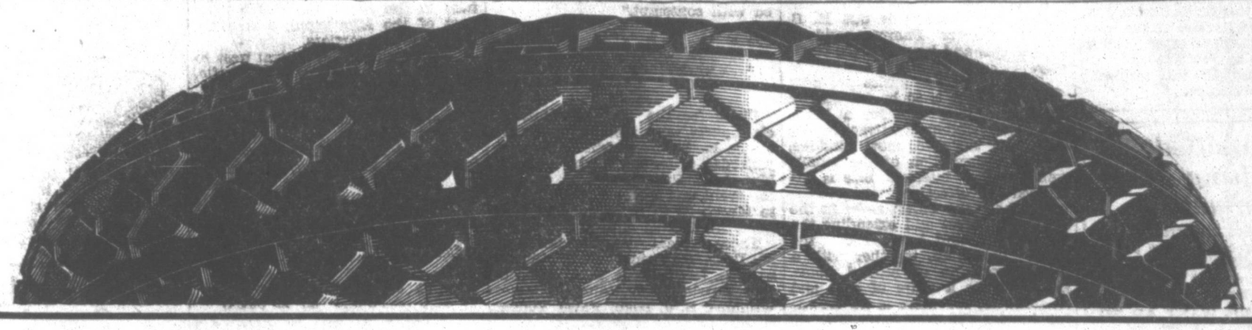

The measure also provides that delegates to be elected at the same time that the question of holding the convention is being decided.

DALLAS, March 23. (AP)—Two small girls, Gregoria Sanchez, 7, and Anita Sosa, 6, lost their lives here today when they fell into a cistern on the grounds of the Mexican Presbyterian kindergarten, which they attened.

Pampa Hardware's Formal Opening Is Set For Friday

Big Navy Men's Hopes High For Unemployment

WASHINGTON, March 23. (AP)—The men who want a bigger navy are hopeful that a few words in President Roosevelt's general employment relief program will allow expenditure of $60,000,000 a year for ten years on new ships.

This became known when Chairman Vinson of the house naval committee said he had been working to that end and added:

"I am making some headway."

As soon as Mr. Roosevelt's plan for making a start on the jobless problem through a reforestation plan is out of the way, he intends to submit to congress another employment program involving construction of public works. Vinson's idea is to include these words in that program:

"The president is hereby authorized, further in aid of relief of unemployment, to undertake the construction of vessels within the limits established by the London naval treaty of 1930, and of airplanes within the total number now authorized by law."

This, Vinson asserted, would permit completion of three 8-inch gun, 10,000-ton crusiers; five flying deck cruisers; replacement of 50,160 tons of submarines by 1938; 130,600 tons of destroyers and 150 new airplanes as well as other ships.

BIG, WELL ARRANGED STORE IS EXEMPLARY OF COMPANY'S FAITH IN PAMPA AND AREA

SOUVENIRS ARE TO BE GIVEN TO WOMEN VISITORS

FORMAL opening of the Pampa Hardware and Implement company's store in its new, larger quarters in the Lovett building on Cuyler at Kingsmill has been set for tomorrow, when the public will see the institution in a setting based on the firm's faith in Pampa and surrounding territory.

To every woman who registers at the store will be given a desirable souvenir of the formal opening. A large crowd, including visitors from a wide area, is expected to visit the firm in its new quarters.

Where formerly was a filling station and garage, today is a much beautified corner in the heart of the business district. For this change much credit is due H. B. Lovett, pioneer Pampa resident, who bought and improved the property.

Widest of Aisles

The building is 50 by 140 feet in length, an ideal size for a hardware store. External attractiveness, with well designed show windows, is just a suggestion of the roomy, well arranged interior. Size is enhanced in effectiveness by what are perhaps the widest aisles in the city—4 to 5 feet and extending the full length and breadth of the store. This plan, together with a logical grouping of related items, gives patrons a sense of ease and friendliness, for there is no crowding in the aisles even when many are in the store.

It is obvious at a glance, moreover, that the merchandise on display is for sale and not just stored. There is no crowding of goods on the shelves, although Pampa Hardware has one of the largest stocks in West Texas. The new quarters was designed after close studies of research reports of the National Retail Hardware association. The color scheme of burnt orange and black, for example, was recommended by the national research department as the best to bring out the brilliance of glassware and bright merchandise.

Whole Stock in View

In daytime, sunlight is admitted through a skylight and the front windows, while at night there is a floodlight battery in addition to other electric illumination. In the center of the store is the wrapping counter, cash register, and the bookkeeping department. From this, or most any other point, it is possible to survey the entire stock of the store and to make mental notes of what one wishes to purchase. This fact is expected to save many return trips to the store by those who live at some distance.

Carefully selected standard brands of quality nationally advertised merchandise are noted in all parts of the store. For example, there are these well known names: International Harvester, McCormick-Deering, Kelvinator, Crosley radios, DuPont paints and varnishes, Padigtt harness and leather goods, Eureka vacuum cleaners, Hot Point electrical appliances, Haviland imported and domestic china, Tiffan glassware, Remington and Winchester firearms, Dempster windmills, Round Oak gas ranges, Perfection oil stoves and ranges, A. B. C. washing machines, and Magic Maid mixers.

Experienced Personnel

Personnel of the company include: President, C. L. Ledwig; vice-president, Raeburn Thompson; secretary-treasurer, Travis Lively; floor manager, R. B. (Rufe) Thompson; parts man, John E. Killian; bookkeeper and stenographer, Miss Mildred Overall; Cecil Miller, in charge of specialties; and Oscar Johnson, shop foreman.

Some of Pampa's best known men are in this store staff. Travis Lively is President of the Board of City Development and his associates likewise interest themselves in civic activities and in civic clubs. Raeburn Thompson was "born to the craft" as a hardware dealer and in his work carries this knowledge to the Pampa territory. Rufe Thompson, in addition to being store manager, boasts the largest, assorted stock of fishing tackle in this section. Since fwishing is his personal hobby, his advice, as well as equipment, is valued by anglers.

Believe In People

Building of a great store, solid and thoroughly dependable in all of its dealings, has been done steadily in the six years since incorporation. Mr. Ledwig, one of the incorporators, lives at Groom, nearby community, and others of the firm are in active charge of its affairs.

"We believe that the people of Pampa and of this territory are entitled to as fine a store, as large a stock, and as dependable a service as those of any section anywhere," Mr. Lively told The NEWS. "We feel that we know our people. We like them; we have faith in them and in this plains country. We not only have faith in the future, but in immediate improvement of general conditions. This store is an exemplification of this faith."

While the shelf hardware and much of the other stock and seasonal farm implements are in the store at Cuyler and Kingsmill, the surplus stocks will be carried at the warehouse on Ward street in West Pampa. There is a shop completely equipped to service and rebuild all kinds of International and McCormick-Deering trucks, tractors and machinery. One of the biggest supplies of parts makes speedy service possible. The shop is in charge of "the big Swede," Oscar Johnson, widely known for his genius in repairing farm machinery.

Pampa Hardware and Implement company is an outgrowth of one of this city's oldest institutions. In addition to having one of the largest and cleanest and best arranged stocks in this section, it is a pleasantly friendly place in which to shop and to visit—that's why many visitors are expected at the formal opening in the new location tomorrow.

Borger Inquires Into Payment Of 1933 Poll Taxes

BORGER, March 23. (AP)—The Borger city commission today sat as a court of inquiry into payment of poll taxes here this year.

"We find that many poll taxes were paid by others," said Mayor John R. Miller, "and information comes to us that persons received poll tax receipts without payment to the agent or collector.

"Witnesses will be summoned to appear before the commission and charter provides that on refusal of a person to testify he may be charged with contempt."

Fidelis Matrons Will Have Party

Plans for the Fidelis Matrons class party were made by members of the Bagby group when they met yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. A. L. Prigmore. The date of the event was changed from April 4 to March 28 to avoid conflict with the First Baptist church revival.

Those present were Mesdames E. M. Dean (captain), C. E. Cheatham, A. L. Prigmore, J. A. Arwood, Ray Beasley, Joe Randall, James Williams, E. J. High, Floyd Young, E. A. Davis, J. R. Watkins, J. H. Lamb, D. B. Jameson, and a prospective member, Mrs. I. F. Cordell.

J. A. Williams of the Skelly Oil company, Tulsa, is a Pampa visitor.

Roosevelt Plan For Railroads Expected Soon

NEW YORK, March 23. (AP)—The administration's railway consolidation program, expected to be made public soon, will contain many drastic modifications of recent plans, it was explained in transportation quarters here today.

The scheme for the grouping of the eastern lines into four major systems, achieved only after twelve years of arduous, labor, appears doomed, it was said.

The administration's plans, it is believed will reveal a scheme for seven regional systems, somewhat along the following lines:

In the east, two systems, the first to include the Pennsylvania, Baltimore & Ohio and certain New England roads; the second to include the New York Central, the Van Sweringen roads and certain other New England companies.

In the south, two systems, the first to comprise the southern railway, Illinois Central and Frisco lines east of the Mississppi; the second, the Louisville & Nashville, Seabord and Atlantic Coast line.

One system for the southwest to take in the Santa Fe, Frisco lines west of the Mississippi, and other southwestern carriers.

One system of the central west to be made up of the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Rock Island, Northwestern, Denver & Rio Grande Western, Western Pacific and Kansas City Southern.

One system for the northwest to include the Burlington, the Northern Pacific and Great Northern, and other Northwestern systems.

Spring Failed To Keep a Date With Dan Cupid

A newly married S. Louis couple, accompanied by the half-brother of the groom, is en route to Pampa by delayed stages because spring didn't exactly arrive by the calendar.

The Monett, Mo., Times this week carried a story of the troubles of Clifford and Lucile Riley, who were married three weeks ago, in trying to hitch-hike their way to Texas, largely, however, by catching freight trains. They "almost froze," they told police at Monett to whom they appealed for shelter in trying to sleep in a box car. A sudden norther overtook them.

Mrs. Riley, who formerly worked here as a waitress, has a sister in Pampa and hopes to find employment here again.

A MATTER OF CONSERVATION

ROCKFORD, Ill.—Rastus Brown, a negro, was arrested when he called a policeman a naughty name, and when arraigned in court told his honor that he could dance.

"Like this," he said, as he proceeded to oblige with a staccato rendition of "Suwanee river."

"Fine," said the court, "fine, the amount of which will be $7.88 or thirty days in jail."

How about another dance," it was suggested.

"No mo," he said, "I gotta save mah strength for dem thirty days."

W. F. Farley of Wichita Falls is here on business for a few days.

— THIS CURIOUS WORLD —

WOMEN have long had the reputation for getting the last word. Now it would seem that they get the first word also. Dr. Isaac Abt, world-famous child specialist of Chicago, studied the cases of 500 boys and 500 girls, and found the girls starting to talk one month younger than the boys.

Waffle Breakfast Served Officers Of Baptist Class

Officers of the Fidelis Matrons class, First Baptist church, attended an executive meeting and waffle breakfast at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in the home of Mrs. J. A. Arwood. Class plans for the next three months were made, several new members were reported, and a new group was formed. Mrs. H. E. Crocker resigned as captain of the Blanche Groves group.

Those attending were Mesdames C. W. Parker, D. B. Jameson, E. M. Dean, R. W. Tucker, R. E. Gatlin, Joe Foster, H. E. Crocker, and the hostess.

EX-CONVICT HELD

Clyde Beatty, Seen Here in Summer With Circus, Back in Movie Classic Opening Three-Day Run in La Nora

To look to Clyde Beatty in his street clothes, one would never think that he is universally recognized as the foremost wild animal trainer in the world.

Short and slight, Beatty weighs only 145 pounds—a mild-appearing young man of 27 years, with a brilliant smile and curly brown hair. He looks like a young bond salesman, or a "snappy" clerk in a store.

And yet for the past two years Beatty has been the premier attraction of the circus world—a man who has accomplished each day a feat which has never before been attempted by any other trainer. He has assembled in a single arena a large group—(43 to be exact)—of lions and tigers, combining not only these two deadly natural enemies, but both sexes of each species. Men grown old in this most dangerous of professions have looked on in amazement.

"When I first took up the training of wild animals," said Beatty recently, "I was simply fascinated by my work. I had trained cats and dogs as a youngster at home, and in 1920, at the age of 15, I ran away to join Howe's Great London Show. A year and a half later I had perfected an act with animals, and with the Gollmer Brothers Circus I presented a group which included two leopards, two tigers and several lions.

"This gave me a start, and whetted my enthusiasm for what was to follow, though during the following winter, in training quarters in Peru, Indiana, I was rather severely clawed by a lion. This, however, was merely the first of my 25 trips to the hospital. The animal trainer comes to accept these mishaps as a necessary part of his profession, and if they cause him to lose his nerve there is nothing to do but adopt some other business. My longest hospital trip was occasioned by a lion bite which penetrated to the bone of my thigh. It resulted in the only case of true jungle fever known to American medicine.

"My sole defense in the arena is a whip which I snap to concentrate the wavering attention of the animals; a revolver loaded with "blanks" which I use for the same purpose; and an ordinary kitchen chair. There are no loaded guns either inside or outside the arena, for if an attendant should shoot an animal which might attack me, the wound would simply madden it to uncontrollable fury, and greatly lessen my chances of escaping alive.

"The trainer's main protection is intellect and will, which even the most savage of animals respect. Animals are naturally fearful of man, and if the trainer can completely overcome his own sense of fear he has a tremendous advantage over the dumb brutes. They must never be allowed for an instant to lose sight of the fact that man is their master."

Contract Bridge Lessons Begun By Club On Tuesday

Lessons in contract bridge, taught by Everett Buckingham, were begun by the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club this week in the home of Mrs. F. M. Culberson.

Mrs. Culberson stressed a pink and white color scheme and served refreshments of home made ice cream and cakes.

Those attending were Mesdames Roy Bourland, Carl Boston, Homer Elliott, P. C. Ledrick, Roger McConnell, Floyd McConnell, Jim White, Sherman White, Skeet Roberts, Felix Stalls, C. L. Craig.

Mrs. Boston will entertain the club the first Tuesday in April.

W. F. Catlett of Oklahoma City was in the city yesterday.

We Want To Meet You In Our New Home

Vice-President

RAEBURN THOMPSON is vice-president of the Pampa Hardware and Implement Company. Since boyhood he has been in the hardware business. He knows it all, but devotes special attention to farm implements and trucks. In season, he is the traveling representative of the firm. Rural people of several neighboring counties know him well.

Bookkeeper & Steno

THE WOMAN of it—that's Miss Mildred Overall, efficient bookkeeper and stenographer of the Pampa Hardware and Implement Company. Hers is the pleasant voice at the telephone. She, too, is happy over the new store arrangement and enlargement, although this may mean more work. Always willing to oblige, always pleasant is Miss Overall.

Floor Manager

FISHING, hunting and cooking—sportsmen know R. B. (Rufe) Thompson, floor manager of the Pampa Hardware and Implement Company, by these enthusiasms. And Rufe has the biggest assorted stock of fishing tackle in this section. He knows the public and is well known by reason of long residence. He is a former county clerk of Gray county. His friends drop in often just to talk of old times, but especially fishing.

Parts Man

WANT A PART for a balky machine? Well, John E. Killian, parts man for Pampa Hardware and Implement company, knows machinery as do few persons and is able to recognize parts by rambling descriptions. People come to him "from miles around" to get parts and to ask questions about the machines he knows so well. His stock of parts is huge.

Shop Foreman

A SHOP FOREMAN with an enviable reputation for making farm machinery perform like new—that's Oscar Johnson of the Pampa Hardware and Implement company. He is always to be found at the warehouse and shop on Ward street in West Pampa. He has been in charge of servicing International Harvester machinery for more than 6 years. The farmers take their troubles to him and he does the rest promptly.

Radio — Specialties

CECIL MILLER is the employe of Pampa Hardware Company in charge of specialties—radios, washing machines, vacuum cleaners, and refrigerators. He's in and out, going and coming to sell standard brand appliances. He is thoroughly familiar with these specialty lines and in servicing them after they are placed in the hands of his patrons.

EVIDENCING our faith in Pampa and Gray County, we are presenting as modern and up to date hardware store as can be found in the entire southwest. Every effort has been made to make shopping in our store convenient and pleasant for you. Open display, wide aisles, systematic grouping of related items will contribute to the satisfaction of your visits to our new store. We will continue to feature all the standard lines of merchandise which we have carried in the past, to which we are constantly adding as the demand in this territory justifies . . . Our store is the home of:

Cheese Making Discussed For Club of Women

"Milk for cheese making should be of the highest quality possible," said Miss Ruby M. Adams, county home demonstration agent, in demonstrating the making of American cheese to the Kingsmill home demonstration club Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. R. Sunkel.

She said further: "The milk should be produced from normal cows of good health. The cows should be groomed before milking, especially if there is any coarse dirt adhering to the flanks and udders. The milking should be done in a clean, sterilized milk bucket. All utensils used in milking should be thoroughly sterilized. The milk should be cooled immediately after milking to as low a temperature as possible. Sixty degrees Fahrenheit will be sufficient and is about as cold as the milk can be cooled under average farm conditions. The milk should be free from any off flavor and should be absolutely clean and free from harmful bacteria. If milk is of poor quality the cheese will be of poor quality, regardless of the care used in the making and the curing precesses."

The following club women were present: Mrs. N. B. Cude, Mrs. A. R. Walberg, Mrs. Tom Eller, Mrs. G. A. Maul, Mrs. G. G. Frashier, Mrs. Jno. Peacock, Mrs. E. R. Sunkel. Visitors were Mrs. E. F. Gardner, Mrs. Weldon Wilson, Mrs. J. F. Meers, Mrs. W. A. Mills, Mrs. B. F. Byrum, Mrs. Maggie Amour.

The next regular club meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. J. Broom, and with Mrs. O. G. Smith, president of the club, demonstrating the refinishing of floors. Mrs. Smith is Kingsmill bedroom demonstrator.

LINES STRAIGHT FOR SPRING

By RITA FERRIS

(Associated Press Fashion Editor)

PARIS, MARCH 23 (AP)—Fashion's silhouette for 1933 has taken on new lines. The general line is straightened. Skirts are longer. The waistline is coming down.

Spring clothes designed for the Easter parades on Fifth avenue and Main street are fashioned on an easy fitting silhouette giving a straighter effect than last season and no longer hugging the waistline. Sleeves are generally fairly plan, although their lengths vary from a five-eighths cut to three-quarter length bells.

Daytime skirts are decidedly longer in many prominent houses, varying from six to 10 inches from the ground. Evening skirts often touch the floor.

The waistline—point of great controversy last season—is placed at the natural line or lowered to a point a few inches below, depending upon the figure.

Coat Lengths Vary.

Spring coats are an interesting item of news in themselves. They may be either three-quarter or full length; they fit the figure very slightly at the waistline and they almost never button. Some hang open, others are held in place by a belt, and a third group is fastened by means of a little scarf. Few of them are furred.

The frocks which accompany them offer a score of varied designs ranging all the way from frivolous short-sleeved models to long-sleeved ones. Plain colored crepes, floral prints, stripes, checks, and polka dots are all seen. Bodices show more trimming than last season, while skirts display a tendency to pleats. Flat and diagonal wools, pebbled crepes, prints, stripes and checks are favorite fabrics.

Color is one of the most important items in style news. Coats no longer match frocks in the old ensemble idea, but are linked to the complicated color scheme by means of scarfs, hats, belts, and gloves.

Accessories Important.

Accessories are more important than ever. Gloves of every conceivable fabric in every conceivable color, novelty bags and tricky belts of straw or wire are the order of the day. Bright accessories with a dull colored frock are the general rule.

Hats are varied in design. The little flat crowned sailor is a favorite, while a new tall toque, sometimes seven inches high, made of straw or silk crepe is the headgear sensation of the hour.

Miss Ruby Adams Is Given Shower Of Handkerchiefs at Conclusion Of Her Demonstration at Groom

"The making of quality farm cheese involves three distinct processes, namely: the selection of the milk, the making process, and the curing of the cheese," said Miss Ruby M. Adams, county home demonstration agent, demonstrating the making of American cheese for the Bluebonnet home demonstration club Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Gus Davis, near Groom.

"Cheese making is an art within itself and conditions vary in different sections, but it must be remembered that there are no short cuts in the making of cheese. Careful attention should be given to each detail in order to insure the best results," said Miss Adams.

During the program a "special delivery" was announced for Miss Adams that included many beautiful handkerchiefs from the club for their home agent.

The results of the expansion work being done by the club members was very evident as there were fifteen visitors for the demonstration. Club members present were Mrs. Harry Britten, Mrs. F. P. Britten, Mrs. Paul Davis, Mrs. Gus Davis, Mrs. C. D. Hill, Mrs. W. Z. Barron, Mrs. Frank Knight, Mrs. Walter Ollinger, Mrs. N. M. Parker, Mrs. Davis. Visitors were Mrs. Paul McDonald, Mrs. J. Y. McAdams, Mrs. J. S. Tidwell, Mrs. Carol Hoyt, Mrs. I. C. Howlett, Mrs. E. McDonald, Mrs. Willard McAdams, Mrs. R. I. Davis, Mrs. A. J. Dunn, Mrs. Cleo Schaffer, Mrs. J. H. Clark, Mrs. Frank Burgin, Mrs. C. J. Shaw, Mrs. R. G. Lehnick.

Use of Foundation Pattern Shown To Women in Hoover

"To have an adequate and harmonious wardrobe requires the expenditure of either considerable money or time. As the farm woman has less money to spend than ever before, she will have to make up for this lack by spending more time in planning and making her clothes."

These remarks were among those made by Mrs. C. A. Tignor while demonstrating the making of well-fitting foundation patterns before a group of women in the home of Mrs. C. V. Fleming at Hoover on Tuesday.

Mrs. Tignor was assisted by Mrs. Clyde Carruth, the junior wardrobe demonstrator of the Priscilla club, and the two showed the women how to use the patterns in cutting many different kinds of dresses.

Dutch Program To Be Given by Pupils At Woodrow Wilson

Dutch boys and girls will be cleverly impersonated by pupils of Woodrow Wilson school at a chapel program scheduled for Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. R. E. Koiner and Miss Willena May are the directors.

Numbers will include the following: Rhythm band numbers, first grade boys; welcome reading, Betty Jo Kuehl; Hansel and Gretel dance, Evelyn Kidwell and Doyle Lane, in costume; flower girl, Florence Dillman; Dutch dance and song, Sweet Tulips, eight little girls; Dance of the Tulips, 12 little girls; Wooden Shoe song and dance, Lameta Bagley and Neely Joe Ellis, wearing wooden shoes and appropriate costumes; Dutch Doll Song, Patricia Lively; reading, Goodbye, Lev is Fitzgerald.

Communion Will Be Held on Sunday For Women's Auxiliary

The corporate communion service for the Women's auxiliary, St. Matthew's Episcopal church, will be held next Sunday at the 10 o'clock service, and the United Thank Offering will be taken.

PENNEY GROUP ENTERTAINED IN KEYS HOME

DINNER IS SERVED TO EMPLOYES; GAMES ENJOYED

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Keys entertained in their home last evening for employes of the J. C. Penney store and wives of the men. Mr. Keys is manager of the local store.

Dinner was served to the group, pink and white being the colors emphasized, and bridge and anagrams were played later in the evening.

Guests were Miss Lois Ford, Mrs. J. L. Bennett, Miss Ruth Henry, Mrs. O. C. Pipes, Mrs. R. E. Williams, Mrs. Alice Surls, Mrs. C. H. Whittle, Miss Dorene Nicholson, John Lester, Martel Peters, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. King, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Beatty, and H. F. Beatty, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Midkiff and daughter.

Famous Quartet Will Entertain Monday Evening

CANYON, March 23 (Sp.)—One of the most famous chamber music organizations in the world, the London string quartet, will appear in a return engagement Monday evening, March 27, in the administration auditorium of the West Texas State Teachers college, Canyon, as the first program of the spring lyceum series at the college.

John Pennington, first violin; Thomas Petre, second violin; William Primrose, viola, and C. Warwick Evans, violincello, compose the ensemble which has played in almost every country in the world where fine music is demanded by discriminating audiences. Every member of the quartet is a distinguished concert artist in his own right.

The quartet, playing almost every other day last season throughout the country from coast to coast, drew as on all its previous tours full houses and superlative reviews. Programs are of the highest order of excellence and in addition to its fame as interpreters of the classics, more than a hundred new works have been introduced by this tmique organization.

Those who heard their first performance in Canyon are high in praise of the tone and quality of the program. The program will begin at 8:15 o'clock. Tickets are $1 each.

Current Events Not Unknown To School Children

Present-day banking problems and practically all other current events can be discussed intelligently by pupils of Woodrow Wilson school, even those as low in rank as the second grade being taught these facts necessary for good citizenship.

The Weekly Reader for classroom use is the chief source of information for the children. Copies of this paper were placed in the hands of every child above the first grade as the result of the sale of sandwiches and chily bears at the school.

Letters were written by Woodrow Wilson children to the Weekly Reader, published in Columbus, Ohio, and an interesting reply was made by H. M. Sayre, managing editor.

Girl Scouts Are Party Hostesses To Large Group

Girl Scout Troop 2 of Pampa held a recent meeting in the high school gymnasium with several parents and friends and a number of Boy Scouts as their guests.

Games and contests were played, a jigsaw puzzle contest being one of the favorites. Winners of this contest, Richard Kilgore, Geraldine Yankee, Wanda Beck, and W. J. Brown, received the extremely coveted prize—a soap bubble outfit.

Just before the close of a lively evening the boys won in a treasure hunt, which ended in their finding of chily bears and slices of devil's food cake.

Those present were:

Minna Gombell

NEA Service

HOLLYWOOD, MARCH 23 (AP)—Prints are blooming in the Spring, all right, out here.

Minna Gombell has a new brown and white polka dotted dress with a trick cape of white matalasse crepe, made double and shirted into a neckline, fastened with a handsome gold buckle set with carnelians.

The sleeves are full to the elbow, with tight cuffs below and her flaring gauntlet gloves are of the white matelasse crepe of the collar. Her white hat has a banding of the polka dotted crepe that crossed the crowns and then ducks back under the brim on one side.

Genevieve Tobin has a lot of brown things this year. Shopping along Hollywood Boulevard the other morning, she wore a brown tailored suit of soft tweed, the jacket one of the new belted box coats. Her brown felt hat rolled way up high on one side and had a grosgrain ribbon fancy on it on the other side.

Helen Vinson is another brown-addict. Taking her Scotty for a walk, she wore a brown soft wool suit with swagger coat that came to within six inches of the hem of her skirt, swinging free and full. Her hat was a brown stitch straw, tilted over her forhead, perched high in the back.

Joan Blondell, lunching at the Brown Derby with her husband, George Barnes, wore a black and white rough wool crepe tailored dress and black straw hat with white gardenias piled in the back of it.

Benita Hume, lunching at Levy's with a Hollywood newcomer, more a gray tailored tweed suit, also mannishly tailored, a white pique blouse with a cravat tie of the same and swanky new white pique gloves with gray tweed tops.

Womanless Display of Apparel Will Be Source of Much Amusement; To Be Sponsored by Council of Clubs

As announced some time ago, the Council of Clubs will present a burlesque style show on April 6 at the city auditorium. About 50 men will participate in the womanless display of feminine apparel. Mrs. J. M. Dodson, chairman of the event, announced today.

Preliminary plans will be made by the committee at a meeting this week, but the plot of the "expose" will be drafted at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Dodson next Wednesday night.

Proceeds of the show will be used to furnish the club room in the city hall.

A great variety of women's clothing will be worn by the men, but with a vengeance, it was said. The "models" will attempt to show off their costumes in the manner affected by feminine models. The show will have a definite plot and a number of exciting and surprising events will take place. Mrs. Dodson emphatically asserted that there will be little decorum on the part of the participants, since the chief purpose of the entertainment will be to provide constant laughter for the audience.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Park of Sayre, Okla., visited Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Cottrell during the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moyar have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Foran of San Angelo.

Farewell Breakfast Will Be On Friday

Mrs. Dan McIntosh and Mrs. Ova White, who are soon to leave with their families to reside in Breckenridge, will be honored by the Dorcas class, First Baptist church, with a waffle breakfast at the church Friday morning at 9 o'clock. All class members are invited.

VISIT THE SICK

Following a meeting held by the Dorcas Sunday school class yesterday at the First Baptist church, the entire group visited the sick and absentees.

DECLAMATION WINNERS FOR SCHOOL NAMED

JUNIOR HIGH STUDENTS AND PARENTS HEAR FINALS

LEADING declaimers of Junior high school were selected in a final contest held yesterday at the Methodist church with the entire Junior high school and a number of parents in attendance. In addition to the declamations, three organ selections played by Mrs. May P. Carr were enjoyed.

Winners were selected as follows: Senior boy, Buck Fleming; senior girl, Bonnie Shannon; junior boys, Clarence Cunningham, first, and Cecil Hubbard, second. Katherine Barrett, Ruby Scaief, and Leona Hurst tied for first place among the junior girls, and a run-off will take place this afternoon at 4:10 o'clock. More than fifty students entered the preliminary contests. Judges were Miss Arless O'Keefe, Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, and Judge James Todd Jr.

Double Award Is Won at Party By Mrs. Gomillion

The honor of winning high score and making first grand slam went to Mrs. L. C. Gomillion yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Roy Sullivan entertained the Silver Spade Bridge club in the home of Mrs. R. A. Hankhouse. Mrs. Will Murphy was awarded for second high, and Mrs. Jack Danner was given the guest prize.

Ice cream and angel food cake were served by the hostess to one guest, Mrs. Danner, and the following members: Mesdames L. C. Gomillion, Porter Beck, Bob Montgomery, Will Murphy, R. A. Hankhouse, George Alden, Clyde Peed, L. L. Dyer, W. Wilkes, and Dewey Voyles.

G. M. Wallace underwent a minor operation at Worley hospital this morning.

WEAK SPOT IN CUBS IS LACK OF SOUTHPAWS

GRIMM RELYING MUCH ON HERMAN'S AS HITTING ACE

(NOTE: This is the tenth of a series of stores analyzing the prospects of major league baseball clubs for the 1933 season.)

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND, Associated Press Sports Writer.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23. (AP)—Charley Grimm is starting his first season as manager of the Chicago Cubs with a smile on his lips and an ache in his back. He has been battling the lumbago for several weeks.

"The only grim part of the business is my being laid up when my feet are itching to get out on the field," said the likeable skipper of the defending National league champions. "Say, that's not a bad line, is it? 'Grim details worry Grimm.' Well, I've got it licked now. Expect to be back at first base in a few days.

"There is nothing to worry over so far as the club is concerned. With Babe Herman in right field we have added batting punch that should mean a lot more runs this year. Our only weakness, as I see it, is a lack of experienced left-handed pitching. Still, we've had the same weakness for four or five years and managed to win pennants.

"We have a great young club. I never played with a finer bunch of fellows. If we don't win it won't be because of poor team work."

Grimm took over the managerial reins the last seven weeks of last season. The team was on a road trip, in second place and six and one-half games behind Pittsbugh. When it returned to Chicago it was in first place by half a game and stayed in front.

The Cubs' pilot starts this season with a strong club. Largely because of the acquisition of Floyd "Babe" Herman, for years Brooklyn's clouting mainstay. Herman's presence should relieve Riggs Stephenson, left, of some of the clean-up hitting burden.

Kiki Cuyler will roam center field as usual. Frank Demaree, who made good his first season up last year, will be on hand for emergency fly chasing duties and either Vince Barton or Paul McCarron will round out the outfield.

Grimm is impressed with the work of McCarron, recruit picked up this year from the Albany, N. Y., club. He will stick with the team until it reaches Chicago for the opening of the season and may hang around a lot longer if Barton does not come through. Barton who has had three trials, is nursing a bad arch in his left foot.

The Cubs are "set" in eight pitching positions with Burleigh Grimes, Guy Bush, Leroy Herrmann, Pat Malone, Lon Warneke, Charley Root, Lyle Tinning, and Carroll Yerkes, the latter a left-hander. Two other southpaws, Beryl Richmond and Roy Henshaw, and the right handers, Lynn Nelson and Lyle Newsom, are fighting for the ninth place.

With left-handed help desired, Richmond, for whom a fair sized piece of change was given to Baltimore, and Henshaw, university of Chicago recruit, have the inside track. Henshaw has been the most impressive to date but Richmond has been troubled with a sore arm.

The Three Musketeers behind the plate are "Gabby" Hartnett, Zack Taylor, and Bill Campbell. Grimm says the catching staff will do until a better one dashes up.

Thompson Winner Of Proxy Battle

CHICAGO, March 23. (AP) — The Thompson restaurant chain, founded in 1891, today was again in control of the family by whose name it is known.

John R. Thompson, Jr., son of the man who developed a "one-armed" lunchroom into a multi-million dollar corporation, has regained power on the board of directors of the John R. Thompson company after a bitter battle of proxies.

Thompson and his associates won five seats around the board of directors' table. "Collins men", representatives of the opposing faction headed by William M. Collins, were given four seats.

Thus, Thompson Jr. was assured of election by the board as president of the company, a position he lost to Collins last December.

Churchmen Protest Beer Celebration

MILWAUKEE, March 23. (AP) — Church leaders stepped forward today with a request that Milwaukee postpone its civic celebration to commemorate the return of real beer.

With a half holiday April 7, already proclaimed by Mayor D. W. Hoan and Eugene Franimont, chairman of the county board, Clifford P. Morehouse, editor of the Living Church, announced he has elicited the approval of religious and civic leaders for a postponement.

Morehouse asked that the festivities be held after Easter to avoid conflict with observance of passion week in the churches. In a letter to the petitioners Mayor Hoan replied that he would do "all in my power to see that your wishes are respected."

DIVORCE RECOMMENDED

MIAMI, Fa., March 23. (AP)—T. J. Dowdell, general master in Chancery for Dade county, announced this afternoon he would recommend to circuit court that Mrs. Janet Allen Walker be granted an absolute divorce from her husband, James J. (Jimmy) Walker, former mayor of New York City.

GERMAN ENVOY

DR. HANS LUTHER (above), former president of the Reichsbank in Berlin, is the new German ambassador to the United States, succeeding Friedrich Wilhelm van Prittwitz und Gaffron, who resigned because of differences with the Hitler government. Luther, 54, former mayor of Essen, great industrial city of the Rhineland, was chancellor of Germany for brief terms in 1925 and 1926.

Markets

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, March 23. (AP)—A swift rebound in the share market interrupted a decline which had endured for five sessions today, but prices settled back after an early upswing, and gains of 1 to 4 points were mostly cut in half. The closing tone was barely steady. Transfers approximated 950,000 shares.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, March 23. (AP)—Sharp upturns in grain prices early today followed Washington reports that were construed by traders as bullish regarding agricultural legislation. Dispatches from Washington said it was understood President Roosevelt was not opposed to revisions of the farm bill if the senate deemed them needful.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1-1¼ above yesterday's finish, corn ¾-⅞ up, oats ¼-⅜ advanced, and provisions unchanged to 22 cents higher.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, March 23. (AP)—Cotton had a firm opening today. Liverpool came in quite as good as due and there was a considerable accumulation of trade buying and price-fixing orders overnight.

The market continued to improve during the first half of the morning in sympathy with stocks' firmness and due to short covering and some trade buying. May traded up 6.38, July to 6.55 and October to 6.75, or 15 to 17 points above yesterday's close.

Later in the morning, prices eased off in sympathy with some reaction in stocks and on realizing and May declined to 6.29, July to 6.45 and October to 6.66, or 9 to 10 points under the earlier highs but still 7 points above the close of yesterday.

Near noon, the market steadied again, recovering 2 to 5 points of the reaction.

BUTTER AND EGGS

CHICAGO, March 23. (AP)—Butter, 10,093, easy, prices unchanged. Eggs, 26,939, easy; extra firsts, 12¾; fresh graded firsts 12½; current receipts 11½.

Hitch-Hiker Killed In Jump From Auto

YALE, Okla., March 23. (AP)—Russell Trump, 25, hitch-hiked his way to death.

Picked up by I. E. Kenworthy, of Stillwater near here late yesterday, Trump jumped from the automobile when Kenworthy raced across a grade in front of a Missouri-Kansas-Texas passenger train.

Trump was struck by the locomotive and killed. The train did not touch the car and Kenworthy was unhurt.

Trump was a farmer south of here.

The criticisms resulted from a statement by Federal Attorney Geo. Z. Madalle in New York that he delayed the prosecution for three months on orders from the department.

Connally asserted to newspapermen the department was "almost guilty of criminal negligence."

How Doctors Treat Colds and Coughs

To break up a cold overnight and relieve the congestion that makes you cough, thousands of physicians are now recommending Calotabs, the nausealess calomel compound tablets that give you the effects of calomel and salts without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bedtime with a glass of sweetmilk or water. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified, and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish—no danger.

GRID EXPERT DIES

COLUMBUS, O., March 23 (AP)—Dr. Fonsa A. Lambert, nationally known football authority, died at 6:15 a. m. today of wounds received when shot by his son Samuel, 17, during a family quarrel. Lambert, a member of the advisory council of the national football rules committee, absolved his son of all blame before he lapsed into unconsciousness following the shooting yesterday.

W. E. McCarthy, with the Texas Pipeline company, Wichita Falls, is a Pampa visitor for a few days.

WOOD HOLDS MONEY LEAD

Professional Golfer Boosts Winnings to $4,855.08 By Taking Open.

CHICAGO, March 23. (AP)—Victory in the Radium Springs open, his fourth championship of the season, has extended Craig Wood's lead in the race for top money honors in the winter golfing campaign.

By winning $300 at Radium Springs, the Deal, N. J., professional boosted his total winnings to $4,855.08. Paul Runyan, his former assistant at Deal, ranked second with $4,092 with Denny Shute, Hudson, O., hight behind him with $4,036.65, official figures at the Professional Golfers' Association revealed today.

Other leaders and their winnings so far:

Horton Smith, Chicago, $2,947.90.

John Revolta, Menominee, Mich., $2.315.

Charles Guest, Deal, N. J., $7,928.83.

(x) Walter Hagen, Detroit, $1,895.75.

Harry Cooper, Chicago, $1,788.33.

Olin Dutra, Santa Monica, Calif., $1,599.

Al Espinosa, Akron, O., $1,384.50.

Willie Hunter, Los Angeles, $1,570.

Leo Diegel, Agua, Caliente, Mex., $1,359.70.

At Watrous, Detroit, $1.295.

Ray Mangrum, Dallas, $1.150.

Gene Sarazen, New York, $1,050.

Ed Dudley, Augusta, Ga., $1,050.

x Hagen won first money of $300 in his own tournament at Jacksonville, Fla., March 12 but refused to accept it.

Two important money tournaments remain on the winter schedule—the Charleston open and the north and south at Pinehurst.

Hoppe's Lead On Cochran Gaining

CHICAGO, March 23. (AP)—Willie Hoppe, veteran New York billiards wizard, today had stretched his lead over Welker Cochran of San Francisco, in their 600 point match at three cushions, to 21 points.

The New Yorker took yesterday's afternoon block, 50 to 26, in 40 innings. Cochran came back to win the night affair, 50 to 36, but trailed in total points, 279 to 300. The night block also went 40 innings. Cochran has won four of the six blocks, has failed to maintain his pace after reaching the 50-point mark.

Clingman Will Meet Jarbo At Borger Tuesday

Many Pampa wrestling fans plan to drive to Borger Tuesday night to see Sailor Otis Clingman, pride of Pampa, meet Dick Jarbo of Dallas in a finish wrestling match. Clingman has not been seen in these parts in several months.

Jarbo is one of the strongest lightheavy contenders in the game today and he is dopet to give the sailor a hard night, Clingman is preparing for a match with the champion and a win over Jarbo would give him a boost.

In the semi-final, Dutch Mantell will meet Jack Curtis. It is always a treat to see the old maestro in action and it is reported that Curtis can get just as tough as Mantell. Good preliminaries will open the card.

Admission will be 75 cents for ringside seats and 55 cents general admission.

ATKINS GIVEN DECISION OVER BORGER YOUTH

MURDOCK IS DEFEATED BEFORE FOULING GUTHRIE

Chet Atkins of Woodward, Okla., won a judges' decision over Pug Grubbs, Borger flash who is now calling Pampa his fighting home, in the last 10-round main event at the Pla-Mor auditorium last night. In the other main event, Floyd Guthrie of Woodward won on a foul from Kid Murdock of Childress in the sixth round.

Grubbs entered the ring at 136 pounds and Atkins at 137 pounds, ringside. The boys started out slowly in the first round, content to feel each other out. Atkins connected with a few in the second round, but the display was mostly foot work. The third round was somewhat the same with Atkins willing to mix but with Grubbs still in his shell. Atkins shot long left jabs to Grubbs' chin that connected solidly and made the Borgerite cover.

There was little action in the next two rounds, but Grubbs came to life with a flurry in the seventh and landed a few nice blows to the head and body. The boys subsided in the ninth but threw more leather in the tenth round than during the rest of the fight. Grubbs could have put up a much better fight but his manager kept him in a shell and he failed to show the fans anything that they anticipated. His flurries were pretty to watch but he opened up only two or three times. Atkins was always ready to mix but failed to get many opportunities.

The battle was the cleanest ever seen in a Pampa ring. Both boys broke at the command of Referee Sam Fenberg, and there was no hitting in the clinches or low blows.

Bout Ends In Foul

Outweighed, Floyd Guthrie handed Murdock a nice trimming for six rounds before the Childress boy shoved a knee into Guthrie. The bout started slowly with Guthrie feeling out his heavier opponent. The second round was more lively and in the third Guthrie did all the work while Murdock covered.

Guthrie took the next two rounds by a large margin as he hit with a left hook repeatedly. Murdock got in a few nice blows but Guthrie was going away. Guthrie took Murdock's knee and went to the floor in the sixth. He was unable to continue.

Murdock was booed freely, but offered to meet Guthrie or any other boy later, and if the crowd was not satisfied with the fight, Murdock would give his purse to charity. He is a brother of Eddie Murdock, who recently defeated the welterweight champion in a non-title battle. Rusty Cahill was the third man in the ring.

Knocked Out

Brigham Young of Panhandle lasted one minute and 20 seconds against Joe Vernon, local boy, in the event that replaced the Cahill-McGinty fight when McGinty failed to appear because of an injured hand. Vernon connected with a right cross to the eye and Young took the count.

Skeet Sherrod, local boy, shaded Gerald Berry of Woodward in a special four-event event. The boys worked hard and mixed freely with the Pampa boy hitting the more solid blows.

Ray Young of Perryton and Toughy Simons of Borger, two of the best matched boys seen here in some time, boxed four rounds to a draw. The youngsters gave the crowd a good time.

Lefty Hawkins lasted only two rounds with Saltzman in the opener. The blond Saltzman took the first round and then pounded the lefthander into submission in the second round. Hawkins was unable to start the third round. Sam Carlton refereed the preliminaries.

Allen Whitlow of Indiana will be here to meet Pug Grubbs in the main event next Wednesday night. Whitlow is one of the best boys in the lightweight class. He has met such men as Tony Herrara, Pete Dublin and Sammy Mandell, world champion. His manager is J. W. Rittenhouse, an uncle of Paul Rittenhouse of this city.

THINCLADS GO TO AMARILLO MEET FRIDAY

BOYS RAPIDLY GAINING CONSISTENT FORM AND CONDITION

Wind and sand meant nothing to Coach Odus Mitchell and his thin clads yesterday afternoon as they went through an hour and a half of hard practice. In an effort to improve his strength in the dash events, Coach Mitchell sent every boy on the team through the dashes.

He made no comment after the workout but appeared thoughtful. The railbirds believe that he has uncovered a sprinter or two and are in hopes of seeing things this afternoon. Eliminations in some events were to be held this afternoon and the boys to represent the school in the three-way meet in Amarillo Friday afternoon will be named.

The coach has decided on most of the members but there are a few events in which he has not been satisfied with the showing. Then, some of the new boys have been showing up remarkably well and might get into some of the events.

Lubbock has a team strong in the same events in which the Harvesters excelled against the Sandies last Saturday. Both coaches have since tried to strengthen their weaknesses.

The first event will be called at 3:30 o'clock. Coach Blair Cherry of the Sandies announced yesterday that the events would be run off in one and one half hours. A dash will be called every 10 minutes.

Officials for the meet will be Davis Hill, Howard Lynch, Dr. R. P. Parcells, and Adrian Odom.

Sam Houston's Football Team Awarded Trophy

The Sam Houston grade school football team was presented with a trophy, emblematic of the school-boy football championship of 1932. The team defeated other grade school teams and won the trophy which was presented by Supt. R. B. Fisher. Principal R. A. Selby received the trophy for the boys.

A silver football player stands on a large square base on which is a silver plate bearing the name of the school and the championship emblem. Principal Selby is having a plate printed with the name of the team members for the other side of the base. Jim Groom, former Harvester star, and Principal Selby coached the team.

The starting team saw the following boys on the field: Doyle Aulds, le; Lloyd Hulsey, lt; Linwood Higginbotham, lg; Leon Holloway, c; Jack Spangler, rg; Eugene Weatherford, rt; Cody Goddard, re; Bobby Sullivan, q; J. W. Graham, lh; Kenneth Kyle, rh; Carl Brown, fb. Substitutes were: Charles Hichman, Jimmie Jones, Herbert Maynard, Charles Cunningham, Jack Hessey, Hugh Stennis, Frank Thompson, Junior Barrett, Ralph Barnett.

R. W. Rine of Kaw City, Okla., is visiting here today.

O. C. Staples of Oklahoma City was a Pampa visitor yesterday.

NINE AMERICAN HORSES RUN IN STEEPLECHASE TOMORROW

Odds Better For American Triumph But Not Taken Seriously in England.

By FRANK H. KING

AINTREE, England, March 23. (AP)—The 94th grand national steeplechase run here tomorrow over 4½ miles of green English turf, studded with 30 hedges, dangerous ditches and water jumps, by a field of thirty-odd high jumping horses promises spectacular sport and perhaps an American victory.

With nine American-owned chasers among the starters, one of them American bred Trouble Maker, the odds by sheer numbers are better for an American triumph than in recent years. Odds of a sort, nearly a century of Aintree hurdle racing shows, aren't worth much in a race where the only certainty is uncertainty.

Trouble Maker's challenge isn't taken seriously in England. A win by Mrs. T. H. Somerville's Big Hunter would be as sensational as the last, and only American home-bred national victory, by Rubio, in 1908. A part of Rubios' training was pulling the old hotel omnibus at Towcaster. Although foaled in California, Rubio was owned by an Englishman.

Two Americans have won the national in the last ten years, Stephen Sanford with 13-year-old Sergeant Murphy in 1923, and A. C. Schwartz with Jack Horner in 1926. Both horses were British bred. Both won from small fields, Sergeant Murphy from 28 starters, Jack Horner from 30. Not since Jack Horner's victory has the Aintree field been so small as for tomorrow's renewal.

J. H. Whitney's Dusty Foot and Mrs. C. S. Bird's Heartbreak Hill, nimble Irish mare, probably are the the best of the American owned jumpers. Whitney entered five but scratched Lone Eagle, Thomond II and Royal Ransom and Sold Slater, leaving Dusty Foot to sustain his interest in the classic.

The other American owners and horses are: M. D. Blair's Ballyhanwood; F. Ambrose Clark's Chadd's Ford and Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark's Kellsboro Jack; J. A. Drake's Big French leaper, Coup de Chapeau, a fine chaser with a good record; J. B. Snow's Delaneige, and Jess Metcalf's Theras.

Three national winners will be in the going, Forbra, an outsider that won last year; Shaun Goilin and Gregalach. Only Sea Soldier, the American horse of the 1932 field, of all last year's finishers will not start tomorrow.

Golden Miller, owned by Miss Dorothy Paget, making its grand national debut after sweeping the steeplechase field victoriously, and Gregalach, have been the favorites at odds of 9-1. Other betting on leading horses is: Heartbreak Hill and Egremont, 20 to 1, Remus, 22 to 1, Annandale and Delaneige 25 to 1, Pelorus Jack 28 to 1, Near East, Forbra, Merriment IV and Kellsboro Jack 33 to 1 and Theras and Coup de Chapeau 40 to 1.

McConnell Wins Second in Jump At Fort Worth

Russell McConnell, son of Mrs. Girtha McConnell, won second place in the high jump, preparatory division, at the Southwest Exposition track and field meet in Fort Worth Saturday afternoon.

"Russ" graduated from Pampa high school with the class of 1931. He went to Amarillo college the next term and then registered at Texas Christian university.

The event was won by Cozzell of Terrell Preparatory school who topped the bar at 5 feet 7 inches.

OKLAHOMA AND TEXAS GIRLS ARE FAVORED

FOUR TEAMS TO ENTER SEMI-FINAL PLAY TONIGHT

By CHARLES A. GRUMICH, Associated Press Sports Writer.

WICHITA, Kan., March 23. (AP)—The women's National Basketball title race simmered down today to a scramble between the defending champion Cardinals of Oklahoma Presbyterian college for women, one former champion from Texas and contenders representing Wichita and Kansas City, Missouri.

The Oklahoma Redbirds, who hail from Durant in the Red river country along the Texas border, defend their title against the Steuben club of Kansas City in the semi-finals tonight after having scored their 60th consecutive victory last night. Dallas' Golden Cyclones, who yielded the championship to the Cardinals last year at Shreveport, are billed for the other semi-final engagement with the Wichita Thurstons.

Victim No. 60 on the Cardinals' undefeated record extending through two seasons was the Lucas team from Fort Worth, Texas, which held the champions in check early in their quarter-finals game. The Durant attack of assorted one-hand angle shots by Coral Worley and Lucille Thurman was unlimbered then and the final score was 40-25.

Gussie Coleman, a tournament veteran, keep the Steuben club in the running by sending four goals through the hoop in rapid order, giving her team a 31-24 decision over the Houston, Texas, Doctor Peppers.

The surviving Wichita team, led by Mae Ceurvorst of tennis and basketball fame, depending upon a little pony forward to clinch its 27-23 victory over the Shreveport, La., team. The Midget Marge Newman was inserted in the last minute when the Wichita lead had been reduced to two points and she did the feminine counterpart of a Frank Merriwell by sinking a weird one-hand jab from the side as she charged over the end boundary.

Babe Didrikson's former team—the Cyclones—pulled out a 40-32 victory over the Eldorado, Ark., Unions who put up a strong battle after trailing by 10-24 at the half time intermission.

W. B. Wilson of East St. Louis is a Pampa visitor this week.
