It is reported that the safe contained more than 3,000 gasoline ration coupons. The theft was discovered Dec. 24 about 1:45 p. m. by Sheriff J. E. Shahan when he entered the courthouse and found the OPA office door open. The thieves are thought to have entered the courthouse through the basement and opened the office door with a key.

A lock on the east door of the courthouse was broken and it is presumed that a truck was backed up to the east gate to load the safe.

Club Women Sent Gifts for USO Christmas Treats

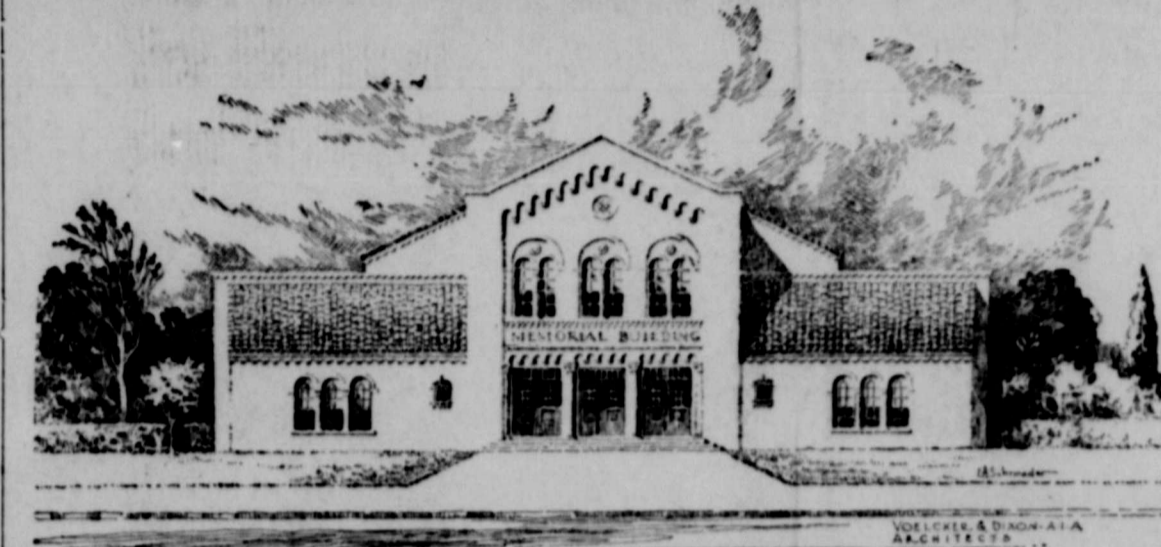

The Ochiltree County Home Demonstration Club women had a part in the USO Christmas program, which was given for the benefit of service men unable to be with home folks. The Club women of this county donated 50 gifts to the Amarillo USO for use in the Christmas entertainment, announced Mrs. Fred Tarbox, Chairman, Ochiltree County Council.

The gifts sent from here were individually wrapped and consisted of ties, handkerchiefs, leather goods, writing equipment, candy, cigarettes, etc. In thanking the Ochiltree county women for these gifts, the program director of the Amarillo USO wrote:

"I appreciated your gifts so much. This was a fine gesture and I know that the boys appreciated your efforts. These boys are returnees who have completed their missions for the most part in the European theatre. At this party we held open house for almost three hundred men and each received a gift that had been donated by various people over the Panhandle.

"I appreciated your gifts being wrapped as the boys got a kick out of opening the pretty packages. Please extend to your Home Demonstration club women my thanks and wishes for a Happy New Year."

Proposed Memorial Field House for Perryton Schools

Petitions are being circulated asking the directors of the Perryton Independent School District to call an election authorizing the issuance of $80,000 worth of bonds for a post-war building program. The money will be used for the erection of a Memorial Field House to provide for an adequate physical education program and a band room.

The field house would have a memorial plaque in the entrance lobby carrying the names of all men and women, former students of the Perryton schools, who served in the armed forces during World War II. There would also be a room for pictures of World War II vets and a museum room for the display of World War II trophies.

Adequate facilities for lockers, showers and physical education lecture rooms for both boys and girls would be in the building. The gymnasium would be large enough for two practice courts for basketball, volleyball and other games. Bleachers to accommodate 800 spectators at match games is also included in the proposed plan.

A part of the proposed bond issue would be used to remodel the present auditorium, providing a larger stage, better vision and acoustics and the elimination of the present fire hazards. The present gym would be converted into a playground for the children of the lower grades.

If the election is called and the issue approved, it is planned to sell only $80,000 of the issue at the present time as it is thought the $80,000 with present funds of the district will be sufficient to make the improvements.

Bonds can be sold now at a very low rate of interest, not over two and one-half per cent. The present outstanding indebtedness of the district is carrying five per cent interest.

The proposed building program is strictly a post-war proposition and no attempt would be made to proceed until after the war's end and the release of needed materials and manpower.

A large group of interested citizens met with the school board several weeks ago to discuss the proposed building. This group appointed a committee consisting of Carl Ellis, W. B. LaMaster, Aldon Bell, F. B. Sumpter and Van W. Stewart to meet with the Lions, Rotary, American Legion, Parent Teachers, Chamber of Commerce and other interested groups to outline and explain the proposal. The committee met with the Lions Tuesday and are meeting with the Rotary Club today.

Winter Wheat Acreage in 1945 Is Higher Than Last Year

WASHINGTON, January 1—Indicated production of winter wheat for harvest in 1945 is 761,581,000 bushels, based on crop conditions prevailing December 1.

The Agriculture Department making this estimate, said it was determined by factors which are now measurable and can be related to yields in previous years, such as the reported condition of the crop, rainfall and temperatures to date.

Winter wheat production this year totaled 764,073,000 bushels, while production of both winter and spring wheat combined reached the record level of 1,078,647,000 bushels. No forecast on spring wheat can be given until after the crop is seeded next spring.

The department estimated the area seeded to winter wheat at 49,589,000 acres, compared with 47,127,000 acres seeded a year ago and

Farmers Can Help Determine Trend

Farmers can be a powerful force in removing hindrances to the successful functioning of the economic system of the nation, Emil Schram, president of the New York Stock Exchange, told the annual meeting of the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers, in Chicago.

He declared "the farmer must face the fact that there is a worker movement and the trend toward a socialized state."

Indiana-born, Mr. Schram owns and operates a sizeable farm near the town of Peru in the Hoosier state, and spends much time there in its management.

"We see it all about us—what we do for the industrial worker we must eventually do for the farm hand," Mr. Schram said. "If farmers are to accept sweeping guarantees against crop losses, sooner or later the farm hand will insist that the benefit be passed along in part, if not in whole."

Fred Osborne Opens New Lumber Yard

In anticipation of the extensive post-war growth expected for the Perryton area, Fred Osborne, veteran lumberman, has decided to cast his lot with the future of Perryton. He has opened the Fred Osborne Lumber Co. in the 700 block on South Main.

The new building material business has a Main Street frontage of 150 ft. with a depth of 140 ft. Sheds and offices of a temporary nature have been constructed on the rear of the site. These will have to serve until building restrictions are modified to permit the erection of permanent facilities.

Mr. Osborne will operate an independent yard. He is the sole owner of the business. His wife and children, a daughter 3, and a son, 9, will move to Perryton as soon as they can obtain a place to live.

This is Mr. Osborne's first venture into business for himself. Originally from Wichita, Kansas, he has been with the Rounds & Porter Lumber Co. for 15 years. He has managed yards for the above organization at Wichita Falls, Lawton and Guthrie, coming from Guthrie to Perryton.

Prior to resigning from Rounds & Porter, he was in charge of sales promotion on FHA housing.

Bob L. Smith Passes Away Thursday, Dec. 28

Funeral services were held from the Methodist church, Sunday afternoon, for Bob L. Smith, who passed away at the Perryton hospital, last Thursday at 4:30 p. m., following an illness of a few weeks. Mr. Smith had just returned from California where he visited his son, Bob Jr., now serving overseas.

Robert Lee Smith was born March 20, 1882, at Knoxville, Tenn. He was a friend to all who knew him. He had lived in Perryton for about twenty years and enjoyed a wide circle of friends. He was a member of the Methodist church. Before the town of Ochiltree moved to Perryton, Mr. Smith was an implement dealer and grain buyer at Glazier. He dealt in grain buying at Wichita, Kans., and at Booker before locating in Perryton in 1925, where he continued to do extensive grain buying and later was associated with the Douglas Grain Company here.

Rev. H. L. Thurston, pastor of the Methodist church, conducted the services Sunday afternoon. A choir composed of Mrs. Clifford Beck, Mrs. Alfred James, Mrs. H. L. Thurston, Molina Caldwell and Mrs. Howard Holt sang three songs, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," "Rock of Ages," and "Abide With Me." Mrs. Dean Blank was at the piano.

Call bearers were J. H. Woodward, C. L. Schell, R. R. Adams, W. R. Zenor, A. J. Kelly and C. R. Nelson. Boxwell Bros. were in charge of the arrangements. Interment was made at the Blue Mound cemetery beside his wife.

Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. Frank Fowler, Parsons, Kans.; two sons, G. F. Smith, Perryton, and Bob Smith, U. S. Army; one sister, Mrs. Lucy Springsteen, and one brother, Fletcher Smith, Beaver, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Thomas and daughter Deanna Kay, Goodwell, Okla., and Mrs. O. V. Petrie, Pampa, spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Herrell.

JUST HERE and THERE

"Christmas Greetings from Sad Sack Hudson" was the heading on the printed greeting folder we received from T/3 Harold Hudson who is "Somewhere in Europe" but as the card reads, wishes he were "Somewhere in Texas."

From Fort Ord, Calif., Jack Parker sends us a copy of their camp paper, the "Fort Ord Panorama". It says: "There are six ages in a woman's life—baby, infant, girl, young woman, young woman and young woman."

Al Tremble sends us a copy of "Seadust" from the U. S. Naval Training Center, Gulfport, Miss. It is a bi-monthly publication.

We have just received another copy of "The Honolulu Advertiser". It was forwarded by Virgil Anderson. Thanks to you Virgil, and good shooting of the Japs.

Sgt. Wilbur Holland writes us from the Philippines. Wilbur says that he gets the Herald about once a month and that he enjoys it even if the news is old as it is still new to him. Says it's still raining like the devil over there. (Censor deleted average per day rainfall.)

Thanks, Wilbur, for the newspapers. They included the mimeographed newspapers: "Two Bit Daily", "The Hourglass", "The Helmet" and "Sixth Army Daily News", all published in the Philippines; also a copy of the Australian edition of "Guinea Gold."

Austin Coleman of the famous fighting 7th infantry division is home on a well deserved furlough. Austin's old outfit, the 7th division, helped wipe the Japs out on Leyte. Austin got a smashed ankle, broken in three places, when the 7th invaded Attu and regained this American territory from the Japs.

For many months he was a patient in a field hospital on Attu. He told us of the frozen earth floors in the field hospital, how it would thaw into a mucky, slimy slush during the day and freeze again at night. He told of 11 months out of a year of snow and then a month of rain. . . . of the fog that limited vision to a few feet most of the time. . . . of the terrific bone-chilling winds. . . . of the loneliness and the sameness of day after day.

Austin Coleman hasn't given his life as many boys from the Perryton area have. . . but he has given almost four years of his life to his country. It's true that he'll walk the rest of his life with a limp. . . but he can look his neighbors in the eye and tell them that he was a man and fought for his country when the liberty and very life of his country was in peril.

Perryton Veteran of Two Years Overseas Resents American Coddling of War Prisoners

Editor's Note: The following letter was received recently by Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Sharpe of Perryton from their son, Cpl. Bob Sharpe, who has been overseas for over two years. We think that Bob is exactly right about our coddling of prisoners of war. We call your attention to Larry Allen's story of the inhuman treatment of American prisoners of war by the Germans in the current issue of Cosmopolitan. Treat the Germans and Italians like the dogs they are. As for the Communist threat, we recall hearing Prince Otto of Hapsburg, speaking at a Knife and Fork Club meeting in Amarillo two years ago, make the prophecy that the Communist party would emerge the dominating influence in Europe after the war's end. The Prince said that while other parties and factions had merged in the common fight against the enemy, the Communist Party was keeping their organization intact and ready to take over when the opportune time came. Is not this forecast coming true in the liberated countries? We also agree with Bob as to the rottenness of Europeans and remember hearing Upton Close say, shortly after we entered the war, that the whole of Europe was rotten to the core and that no part of it was worth saving.

Bob's letter follows:

"We've all been chafing over the actions and treatment of some of the P. O. W.'s in the States. And we derived some satisfaction from the news that a few of the veterans returning on furloughs were trying to keep them in their place. . . . The attitude of German and Italian prisoners of war—and the American treatment of them and their attitudes—would tend to make anyone think of the American as being soft. These Europeans don't understand softness, or even kindness. Since they can't understand, they don't respect it. The Italians have less respect for Americans than any other foreign element in their silly little country—mainly because we try not to interfere with their government and their domestic strife. Because of their clannish and selfish nature they resent our common friendliness and big-heartedness. They're natural show-offs and braggarts and are willing to follow anyone who can make big talk and promises. They're born under-dogs and want nothing more than the life they lead. Communism is spreading like fire. They don't want it and most of the ardent followers scarcely know what it is all about—they're on the bandwagon because it promises to be a rowdy, big show, with lots of color and parades and celebrations. . . . The people may have lots of good ideas behind their treatment of prisoners, but the fellows really blow their tops when they read of P. O. W. sit-down strikes and demands for coffee while they work, etc. We resent very much the ideas of them even talking to our girls. They can sit there and eat good food and drink our beer, but social contacts with our girls, or being entertained by our girls, is out of the question. . . . The dottering old women, or whoever the humane treatment of prisoners consists of—who take those little Nazis out to dinner, and cuddle and baby them—should be sent right over here when they could have their little Fascists before their fangs are pulled—when they're really at their best. And one sweet, young thing who feels so lonesome she has to associate with any of these guys, well, I hope he takes her home with him. . . . I really can't see any end to this madness and chaos over here. The farther we progress the more confused and tangled things become. It certainly makes that good old civilian life obscure and far away. The main issue might be settled in a couple of years but it's going to take some pretty good sized armies to keep these petty little countries in line. . . . I guess I've expressed myself and my feelings enough."

A Guy with A Purpose

I am an American soldier. Yeah, I know there are thousands of my buddies that could boast the same thing but still I seem to be a little different or maybe it's just my way of thinking. But I had an ear and listen anyway. Buddy, because I am going to trouble you with my story.

My home was the average small town in Texas, a little cow town, perhaps, but we felt as civilized there as the next guy. We weren't rich but we were comfortable and happy.

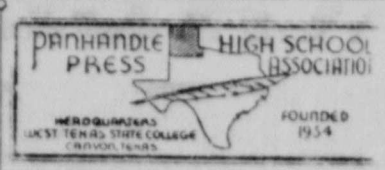

"Dissatisfied" is the one word that could sum up my personality because from the time I opened my eyes and let out an angry wail, I was discontented. You see, I lived knowing I had a purpose. My entire being seemed to hinge on this mysterious realization. I was constantly searching for my inevitable reason for living.

Grammar school, high school, that first hard crush on that little girl down the street, football. I had them all. And then came the night of my graduation. This must be it, this thing I had been looking forward to for so long. As I strode proudly across the stage to accept that important roll of paper from the superintendent, I experienced a thrill of joy that I had never before known but still I knew, deep in my heart, that this wasn't it. My life was still incomplete.

A saucy but secretly-scared freshman in college was my next role but I was most dissatisfied there because against Dad's wishes, I wanted to be in some sort of military service. Oh sure, we weren't in it yet but a big part of the world was and I felt sure the U. S. would be sooner or later. Then came the bombing of Pearl Harbor when the whole world shook with this treacherous attack.

Some time later my call came and I embarked on the greatest mission of my life—that of being a pilot in Uncle Sam's Air Force. This was a new life and perhaps the purpose for which I had been searching all these years. Through the hectic days of pre-flight, primary, basic, advanced, and finally I was right up there on top with the rest of them. Oh, I was pretty over-sure and cocky, and perhaps a little scared too, because now we got to put into practice all we were supposed to have learned. Our point of embarkation was San Francisco and after that orders were "Wake Island." We were disappointed. What was the idea of sending us out to some obscure little island no one had ever heard of? We wanted to get into the thick of it or nothing at all. Well, we got our share and we tasted the bitterest of it. A month of hell with the insects and snipers so thick you couldn't sleep, eat or rest on the ground and the "Imperial Air Force" chalking up victories day after day with heavy odds in the air.

One morning before sunrise after an unusually quiet night, a squadron of bombers was sent up to clip off a few lone Nips. While returning, my closest friend, a boy from Nebraska, was trailing along on the tail when out of the rising sun came a lone plane. Before we knew what was happening, the Jap's plane was going down in flames but not before he had riddled "Nebraska's"

PROMISED NEW YEAR

A new year has begun! What does it hold in store for us and for the people throughout this continent and others? Will it be a year filled with golden promises and glory or will it be one of despair and suffering? Can we rest assured that the coming year will be one of glorious happenings? This is the beginning of the fourth year of the Second World War. American boys still fight, still die, so that their children and their children's children may hold the honor of a free nation "conceived in liberty and dedicated to that purpose."

Our nation has been in a state of independence for 164 years. The security of the bonds of liberty have been donated and attempts made to destroy the very foundation on which our principles are based.

May the people of America be able to exclaim with exaltation that the victory is ours "that this nation under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people shall not perish from the earth." May four words, that hold more beauty and glory than any be uttered this year, the words that say "the war is won." These few simple words that mean so much in the hearts of every American, the four hidden words that seem to burst from the chest and ring out clear and loud for all the world to hear. Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men.

Meet the Teachers

An attractive smile and dark hair and eyes are the possessions of Miss Jane Moore. She is a native of Dallas and received her first college training at the University of Texas. She completed her education at North Texas State Teachers College, Denton. She is the holder of a B. A. degree and is a teacher of English in Perryton High School. Miss Moore is a faculty advisor for the school annual this year. She has been teaching school two years.

Miss Moore declares fried chicken her favorite food, and Van Johnson her favorite actor. Her favorite, and newest pastime, is knitting.

Mrs. Lester Evans and Mary Kay of Guyton, Okla., visited last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Allen and family.

Ship with bullets. After several attempts at centering off, the plane dove into the ocean with a deafening crash. My heart turned cold and bitter at the terrible death and destruction all about me. I swore revenge if it took my life as well.

Then we were asked to move on to Bataan after defeat at Wake. Pretty discouraged and with heavy losses, but each with a personal score to even, we moved in one morning before dawn. Heavily infested skies was our destination. Planes coming in on our tail kept us pretty busy but I had settled my score with six of them. Then I got mine, first the ship and then me. With the blood pounding in my ears and the crashing down around me, I thanked God because you see, a glorious revelation had just come to be. This was my destiny. This was my purpose.

Ranger Squads Lose One Game And Win One

The "B" squad of the Perryton Rangers defeated Spearman 27 to 22 Tuesday night before a large and enthusiastic crowd. The scrappy "A" squad went down in defeat at the hands of a much more experienced and taller Spearman team. Spearman has not lost a game this year but got a scare from the Rangers in this game.

The lineup for the B squads: Perryton Rangers: K. Fuller, K. Flowers, R. Revis, E. R. Bell, R. Slaughter and J. Clements; Spearman: Larson, Berry, Heard, Sheets, Beck, Womble and Moore.

The "A" squad Rangers: Schroeder, Jones, Bartel, Schell, Pugh, Flowers; Spearman: Davis, Wilson, Becker, Robertson, Womble, Jones. Coach R. C. Elrod and the entire basketball teams wish to thank the C. L. Schell for treating them with a big steak dinner at the Club Cafe after the games. More fans like these would certainly help Perryton to have better teams in the future.

El Toro

The Christmas holidays started off with a bang, with a large number of ex-students back. It seemed like old times.

They seemed to have gotten a round plenty, by the way. For example, take Dudley Hargrove, two dates in one night. If you don't believe it just ask Nettie Mae or Pat Arnold.

Cecil B. didn't seem to mind playing second fiddle while the Navy was here because later he was seen escorting Helen Hudson to the dance.

Ruby Ann rated a beautiful corsage for the dance the Rainbow Girls gave. Another one of the alumni, My, My!

Has anyone noticed the flattering plaid shirts the girls are wearing? Well, anyway, they're warm.

Wetah Jean S. and Nelda Ruth P. seem to be giving Don Smith from Spearman a fling. Nice going, girls!

Bob Thurston and Norma Flowers are still continuing their "friendship." Aw—yea, agreement is a wonderful thing. You two should try it more often or read "Advice to the Lovelorn" by Dorothy Dix.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Gregg spent the first part of the holidays with their families at Roswell, N. M.

Second Semester Subject Changes

As the first semester comes to an end and the second semester begins there will be no change in the schedules except for the new half credit courses which will be given. Economics will take the place of Civics. Trigonometry will be taught by W. T. Paryear. There is a chance that Texas history might be given if there are enough demands for it by students.

Mad Fads . . .

"Mad Fads" is an alarming, exasperating, shocking and very often a tantalizing subject, but I remember when—

A long time ago, (I was only a wee small tot) all the older girls were simply mad about those funny hats with the great big brims, and they tied the hats on in any old fashion; they looked like—well—you remember.

The evening dresses had real high necks with collars, then someone got the idea of putting a little "peck-a-boo" slit down the back. Next, someone daringly took out the complete back.

Bathing suits got skimpy and even more skimpy until, at last, people could actually swim in them. Some folks call it "sinfu" when they see the modern swim suit, but if it's sinful to wear the modern swim suit, the sinner's certainly punished when he suffers with a sunburn all over.

After the bustle went out of style, the ladies quickly and happily joined the "more comfort, and fewer girdles" age.

The ladies' earrings looked like a flower garden dangling from their ears, and the hats had bowls of fruit on them—I nearly died of starvation every time I went to church and had to sit behind some lady wearing all that fruit. Once I got an awful stomach ache, how was I to know that the fruit was some kind of plastic stuff!

The ladies soon grew tired of the hats, and started putting their curly (permanent wave) locks under snoods and bandanas—along with the bandanas they wore slacks. (A carbon copy of the men's trousers are called slacks when on a woman.)

Meet the Seniors

On April 14, 1927, Naomi Ediger first began her life in a new world. She is now 3' 4" in height and 110 lbs. With blonde hair and flashing green eyes, she is one of this year's outstanding seniors. Naomi likes "Don't Fence Me In" for a favorite in the musical world. Betty Davis and Orson Welles rate tops among actors and actresses, and her favorite motion picture is "Mr. Skeffington." Swimming and reading satisfy her lounging when she has an abundance of leisure time. "Jane Eyre" is the best novel she ever read and her pet peeve happens to be people who call her "Blondie."

Another blonde of the week is Mickey Edge. She was born on June 20, 1928, and, in addition to blonde hair, she possesses very flashing blue green eyes. Mickey is only 4' 11 1/2" in height and weighs 115 lbs. She enjoys football thoroughly in the field of sports, but prefers horse-back riding and playing the piano for a pastime. "Thousands Cheer" is her favorite movie, while Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon rate first in actors and actresses. "Jane Eyre" is her favorite book and her pet peeve is snobbish people. Mickey plans to be a beautician when finishing school.

I could say things about ladies in slacks, but the "more comfort" age is still in progress. The slacks were and are a great thing with the older generation, but levis hold sway over the youth.

As I was about to sign my "30" for this week, I discovered the most maddening of all "Mad Fads"—the "teen-age" generation has donned very short skirts and hidden them under huge, loudly plaid shirts.

That old saying "Be not the first by which the new is tried, nor last to put the old aside," seems to have been forgotten by many.

The rivalry spirit that is even present between the ex-graduates of Perryton High and the Rangers has been displayed. There were two games played between them over the holidays, which ended in a victory for each side.

The first game was played Friday, Dec. 22. The starting lineup for the ex's was Ellis, Schollenberger, guards; Curtis, Rogers, forwards; and Allen at center. The starting lineup for the Rangers was Pugh, Schell, guards; Slaughter, Schroeder, forwards; and Bartel at center. The final score of this game was 36-40 in favor of the Rangers.

The second game between these teams was played Wednesday, Dec. 27. The ex's won with a thrilling score of 36-28.

Immediately following this game the Rangers again hit the court to battle the Booker Kiowas. Although the Rangers tried their best, they were defeated with the score of 33-28.

Harold H. Sharpe, TC 3-c and his wife have been spending the holidays in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Sharpe. Harold will report in Norfolk, Va., for approximately three months special schooling. Mrs. Sharpe is working in Dallas while her husband is in service.

For cold wash days: When the weather is freezing and you must hang your wash outdoors, add two tablespoons of salt to the last rinse water. This shortens the time needed to gather the clothes, as the salt prevents clothes from sticking to the lines. And incidentally, it's easier for a child to remove the clothes from the line when the salt solution has been used.

Pyle's Slant on the War:

Taken to War Like Galley Crews, GIs Stage Gala Show American Soldiers Were Quick To Adjust Themselves to Algeria

By Ernie Pyle

(Editor's Note: This dispatch was written and first published when Pyle was in the GIs during the landing at Algeria. He is now on his way to cover the war zones.)

ALGERIA.—I came to Africa by troop transport, in company with a heavy escort, although no matter how much escort I have it never seems enough to please you.

It was a miserable English day when we sailed—cold, with a driving rain. Most of us just lay in our bunks, indifferent even to the traditional glance at land.

The ship seemed terribly crowded, and some complained bitterly of the lack of food. The worst trouble was a lack of hot water. British standards of sanitation are so different from ours that the contrast is sometimes shocking. The water for washing dishes was only tepid, and there was no soap. As a result dishes got greasy.

Our cabin had had water only in a day—7 to 9 in the morning and 5:30 to 6:30 in the evening. It was unheated, so we shaved in water.

Our correspondents knew where we were going. Some of the officers were, and the rest could guess. Some of the soldiers thought we were going to Russia over the Murmansk route, and some thought it was Norway, and some Iceland. A few sincerely believed we were really in America. It wasn't until the fifth day out, when the army distributed booklets on how to conduct ourselves in North Africa, that everybody knew where we were going.

The troops were warned about smoking or using flashlights in a dark room, and against throwing cigarettes or orange peels overboard. It seems a sub commander can spot a convoy, even after it has passed, by such floating debris.

The night a nurse came on deck to see a brilliant flashlight guiding an officer screamed at her—so loudly and viciously that I thought first he was doing it in fun. He loved it.

"Put out that light, you blankety-blank!" Haven't you got any sense at all? I realized he meant every word of it. One little light might kill us all. I was sorry he didn't kick her pants for good measure.

Smoking was prohibited in the dining room. There was a bar with soft drinks, but no liquor was sold. As someone wisecracked, "We catch it all ways. We can't smoke because it's a British ship, and we can't get liquor because it's an American ship."

At Last—Fighting. From now onward, stretching for months and months into the future, life is completely changed for thousands of American boys on this side of the earth. For at last they are in there fighting.

The jump from camp life into front-line living is just as great as the original jump from civilian life into army. Only those who served in the last war can conceive of the makeshift, deadly urgent, always-moving-onward complexion of front-line existence. And existence is exactly the word; it is nothing more.

The last of the comforts are gone. From now on you sleep in bedrolls under little tents. You wash whenever and wherever you can. You carry your food on your back when you are fighting.

You dig ditches for protection from bullets and from the chill north wind off the Mediterranean. There are no more hot-water taps. There are no post exchanges where you can buy cigarettes. There are no movies.

When you speak to a civilian you have to wrestle with a foreign language. You carry just enough clothing to cover you and no more. You don't lug any knickknacks at all.

When our troops made their first landings in North Africa they went four days without even blankets, just catching a few hours' sleep on the ground.

Everybody either lost or chucked aside some of his equipment. Like most troops going into battle for the first time, they all carried too much at first. Gradually they shed it. The boys tossed out personal gear from their musette bags and filled them with ammunition. The countryside for 20 miles around Oran was strewn with overcoats, field jackets and mess kits as the soldiers moved on the city.

Arabs will be going around for a whole generation clad in odd pieces of American army uniforms.

At the moment our troops are bivouacked for miles around each of three large centers of occupation—Casablanca, Oran and Algiers. They are consolidating, fitting in replacements, making repairs—spending a few days taking a deep breath before moving on to other theaters of action.

They are camped in every conceivable way. In the city of Oran some are billeted in office buildings, hotels and garages. Some are camping in parks and big, vacant lots on the edge of town. Some are miles away, out in the country, living on treeless stretches of prairie.

The American soldier is quick in adapting himself to a new mode of living. Outfits which have been here only three days have dug vast networks of ditches three feet deep in the bare brown earth. They have rigged up a light here and there with a storage battery. They have gathered boards and made floors and sideboards for their tents to keep out the wind and sand. They have hung out their washing, and painted their names over the tent flaps. You even see a soldier sitting on his "front step" of an evening playing a violin.

Our Defenders Speak!

The Herald asks that men and women from this community serving in the armed forces write letters to this department for publication. Letters to relatives that would be of interest to the public will be published under this heading.

December 6, 1944

Dear Van and Jessie: I am having my first experience at helping run a town. We took over the small town all right. At least we are holding our own.

It is cold as the dickens and there isn't much coal to be had. However, we have enough for our own needs and the civilians will have to root for theirs. It seems that the first thing these people want to do is visit someone. Of course they need a pass from us so they swarm to the office. Then there are refugees and displaced persons, though we haven't had many of them yet.

I just missed seeing Jack M. Allen on my way here. I had a few minutes in which to look him up, and by luck I found where he was. But he had left a few minutes before so I missed him.

The mail seems to have been left behind during the last few days and I have gotten behind in the Herald. But I'm looking for it any day.

Yours, Harold Hudson

Noticed by the paper that several of the boys from home are now over here someplace, but so far haven't run into any of them.

Have a few more papers to send you but won't send them yet. Censor won't pass them. Am sending you a copy of the first edition of "Yank" Far East.

Had better close and get to bed as we have to get up pretty early. That is if we get to sleep any tonight.

Sincerely, Sgt. Wilbur Holland.

Dear Mr. Stewart:

Have you ever been so busy that a day is just another sunrise and sunset? That is the way these past eight weeks have seemed to me. However, the course here is new, and interesting. The main thing is gunnery but we have our radio work also.

We are here six weeks. The six weeks are sub-divided into two week periods. The first two weeks are weapons. In which we learn about the 50 cal. how to sight the gun. The next two weeks we shoot subguns. They are mounted on regular machine gun adapters and have the same method of sighting. We shoot them at skeet. We hear a lot about angles of deflection. Who knows, maybe someday we will have a chance to use it on birds. The first week we shot at clay pigeons, using a fixed base. The next week, we fire from moving bases, or the back of pickups. If you have shot at posts from a car you will have an idea of what I am trying to say. The only difference is the bird is also moving.

The next two weeks we fly four hour missions, every other day. There we fire the 50 at targets in the air and on the ground. At the end of these two weeks we are in a sense polished gunners.

I am to graduate Sunday. Then

Dear Van and Jessie: I guess you folks will think I have forgotten you but it takes me sometime to get around to answering letters. I have really enjoyed the candy you sent. Thanks a million. I think some of my buddies would have something to say about it also. I was quite a distance from here last Christmas and mail was the best I could ask for then. I hope next year at this time finds me and a lot of other fellows at home. I have been receiving the paper pretty regular and I enjoy keeping up with things that are happening at home. I had the pleasure of seeing Gabby the other day. His ship is here also. The navy has made an old man out of him (don't tell him I said so, ha). He showed me through his ship and gave me the line-up of his work. I hope I get the chance to see him again. So far the navy has kept me on top of the water so I guess I have nothing to complain about. Say hello to the gang for me. Here's hoping you folks have a Christmas that will be remembered through the years to come.

Dear Van and All: Have a few minutes to spare tonight so had better write you a line or two. Haven't had the time before since we landed here as we have been pretty busy.

About the only mail that I have received the last week or two was three issues of the Herald for the first three weeks of Sept. No need to tell you that I enjoyed them very much for you already know that.

You know Van I thought it rained a lot in the Dutch Indies but this place beats them all. It pours here and if we have a clear day that which we are very lucky.

OUR NO. 1 JOB IN 1945 AND FOR THE FUTURE

Keeping War-vital Power Flowing

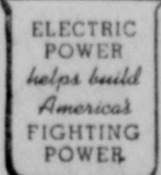

Every year since the war began, more and more power for war production has been supplied by this company.

During 1944, we delivered more power for wartime industrial and military use alone than we delivered for all purposes in any one year prior to 1941.

Today, with approximately three-fifths of our entire output going into the task, supplying the energy for producing the raw materials and finished products of war is more than ever our No. 1 job and will remain so for the duration.

Until victory is won, employees of this company will stay at "battle stations"—on the lines and in the power plants—keeping war-vital power flowing to back the attack.

To Earn More, Buy More, Have More

Although peace on all fronts may not come in 1945, the year we will see the laying of foundations for the postwar world. It seems likely that America will be the largest island of free economy in a sea of collectivism. Our economy, then, must be so strong as to survive and inspire the world's peoples to recover their freedoms. The basic interests of our country's industrial management and labor are identical in these circumstances. The prosperity of management, labor, and agriculture—indeed, of all Americans—depends upon high productivity. It is certain that industry does not seek a postwar return to "normalcy." It wants to go ahead—ahead to peace, and jobs for returning veterans and war workers alike; to plan now, with the public's cooperation, to the end that all of us may earn more, buy more, and have more.

Christmas Card From a WAC in Paris, France

WITH THE WACS IN THE EUROPEAN THEATER—Merry Christmas and best of cheer to everyone back home, to my family, to all my friends, the folks who live next door, the mail man who brings you my letters, the grocer in our neighborhood store, the gang in the drugstore where I buy my cokes, the bus driver on our run, all the people who would greet me with a warm "Merry Christmas" if I were there. Over here, we'll be saying "Joyeux Noel" but the meaning is the same in any language—Peace on earth, Good will toward men. On Christmas Eve we will attend services in famous European cathedrals, but we'll be remembering the services in our church back home. We'll be remembering the sound of children's voices caroling "Away in a Manger." A white Christmas with holly wreaths and tinsel everywhere, and Christmas tree lights shining out into the night. All day Christmas we'll be remembering how it is at home. We'll visit soldiers in field hospitals and talk with combat men on rest-leave, sharing our tree and turkey dinner, and the packages you sent us in October. But most of all we will enjoy telling each other about the little things that make our Christmas Day at home different from anything else in the whole world. We hope it is just as we remember it and maybe next year we'll be there too. For now we can only write you and wish you "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year." Pfc. Ellen P. Jordan Perryton, Texas

More Than a Policy . . . Your Peace of Mind

A Boxwell Bros. Burial Association burial policy is more than just the funeral service policy sold. It is peace of mind. It assures you and your family of help in your hour of need—of kindly service and consideration—of every facility.

The Desire for— a decent and adequate burial is as old as history itself. Thus the idea of burial protection is not new. Burial insurance is as natural as humanity itself.

What is More Natural— more practical or sensible than to prepare for an eventuality—that of mortality, from which there is no alternative and nothing in life is more certain?

Do not delay! Come in and let us explain how you can have this protection for your entire family for a few cents per month.

Governor Plays Screen Cowboy

Jimmy Davis, the singing cowboy star, received a telephone call which made Hollywood history during the filming of his latest picture.

Called long-distance on the Columbia set of Charles Starrett's western, "Cyclone Prairie Rangers," playing this Saturday at the Ellis, Davis turned to Director Ben Kline and apologized for holding up production.

"That's all right," said the director, "if it was important."

"Well," drawled Davis, who at the time was the Railroad Commissioner for Louisiana, "now I don't know if it was or not. Some friends just called me. They want me to run for Governor of Louisiana."

Since then, Jimmy has become the popular governor of that state, and there is every indication that he will run his political career with the same easy, straight-forward manner with which he personified his movie roles.

Gas Conservation

Throughout the north and east people have been urged during past weeks to make whatever provision they could for fuel. Because of tremendous war demands all fuels are being rationed, including gas. A lot of homes will not be too comfortable during the winter months ahead.

Here there has been no rationing of gas by the government but consumers should not take advantage of that fact. Gas has been playing a major role in the war effort and because of that contribution it isn't too plentiful. Barring unforeseen accidents there should be sufficient gas for consumers' needs during the coming winter but they are urged to practice conservation as much as possible.

It can always be done better with gas, but now is the time to save as much of that important fuel as you can.

GOOD YEAR THE GREATEST TRACTOR TIRE BUILT

SURE-GRIP

The Tire With The O-P-E-N C-E-N-T-E-R TREAD

For more "honest day's work," over more years, you need the extra pulling power that's built into long-wearing, hard-working Goodyears. Unlike other tractor tires that may lose pulling power and traction due to smooth, slippery packs of mud between lug bars, Goodyears with the famous O-P-E-N C-E-N-T-E-R Tread clean themselves as they roll, allow plenty of grip rubber to stand out and bite deep into the ground with every turn of the wheel. These big, self-cleaning, evenly spaced lugs are fortified against tearing with an extra strong buttressed base that resists ripping under the toughest working conditions. See us for help with your tractor tire application . . . and when you "see" a certificate, see us for a Goodyear . . . The greatest tractor tire made.

Farmers' 1944 Income Tax Returns Due

COLLEGE STATION—Texas farmers are required to file with the collector of internal revenue on or before next January 15 a declaration or estimate of their income tax for 1944. Then a final return for the calendar year 1944 is due on or before March 15, 1945. The Victory tax as such is eliminated this year, but the normal and the surtax remain. However, farmers may if they desire, make the final return by January 15 in place of the declaration. Tyrus R. Timm, economist in farm management for the A. and M. College Extension Service, says that this is the thing to do when possible. Most farmers will know enough about 1944 transactions to make their return by January 15, he believes.

A farmer must pay all of his tax due not later than January 15 regardless of whether his return is a declaration or the final one. Of course, if he made an earlier declaration and this is a corrected one previous payments are subtracted from the total tax bill and he merely pays what remains.

Three points should be remembered in making an income tax return, as a farmer, namely, who is a farmer under the new tax bill; who makes a return; and personal exemptions. Uncle Sam who is particularly defines a farmer as one who obtains at least two thirds of his income from farming or ranching. Part operators who have worked part time in war plants, on highways or at other jobs off the farm should note whether they belong within the "farmer" class before filing a return.

Married or single farmers who made adjusted gross incomes of $900 or more must file. The "adjusted gross income" is the total income for the year less business expenses. The adjusted gross income for a farmer who had no outside income would be the same as his net farm profit calculated on form 1040-F. Personal exemptions are somewhat different from those of last year. Under the normal tax the taxpayer and his wife are allowed exemption of $500 each, but none for dependents. For the surtax, however, the personal exemption is $500 each for the taxpayer, his wife and dependents.

"Summer Storm" is Suspense Drama

The love of three men for one woman a woman of such lush and enticing beauty that she inevitably destroys those whom she favors, forms the basis of the story of "Summer Storm", exciting drama of passion and violence which plays next Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ellis Theatre.

George Sanders and Linda Darnell are co-starred with Anna Lee and Edward Everett Horton playing featured roles. The picture is filmed against the background of the brittle, decadent Russia of the Czars.

Burl Schollenbarger returned to Fayetteville, Ark., Thursday after visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schollenbarger.

Mrs. Earl Glasgow left Wednesday evening to catch the train at Liberal, Kans., for Fort Leonardwood, Mo., to spend a few days visiting with her husband, Sgt. Earl Glasgow. Mrs. W. C. Williams took her to Liberal.

Horton Kinder in Florence-Bologna Italian Drive

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY ITALY—Pvt. Horton L. Kinder, southwest of Perryton is fighting with the 363rd Infantry Regiment in the current Florence-Bologna offensive in Italy. The regiment is part of the 91st "Powder River" Division with Lieutenant General Mark W. Clark's Fifth Army.

The 363rd entered combat in Italy last July 4 north of the Cecina River on the right flank of the 34th "Red Bull" Division, to which it was then attached.

The regiment rejoined the 91st Infantry Division south of Chianchi where it experienced one of its roughest battles. A battalion of the 363rd captured Hill 634, four miles southwest of Chianchi, and repelled a number of savage enemy counterattacks in hand-to-hand fighting. The rockiness of the hill made it impossible for the doughboys to dig in sufficiently to withstand a highly concentrated artillery and mortar assault that followed, but after withdrawing slightly, the outfit returned and retook the hill.

During the night of July 17 the 363rd, as the infantry element of a task force attached to the 34th Division, moved into position southeast of Leghorn. The next morning the 363rd shifted its strength to the northeast corner of the seaport, maneuvering with support of tanks and tank destroyers. That night it fought its way through the next 20 miles of the enemy line to Leghorn. American troops to enter the city.

The 363rd next broke across the canal north of Leghorn, and completed a canal see off at Pisa, one of its battalions entering the city before the other one reached the Leaning Tower. The city was captured to the east of the city. The division after holding that position a south of the Arno for four days. The regiment was on Fifth Army's right flank, fighting as a unit of the 91st Division, when it went into action again.

Colonel W. Fulton Magill, Jr., of Portland, Oregon has commanded the 363rd since last February. The colonel's wife and two children live in Okla. City.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kerns, Booker, had as their holiday guests their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lile, and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lile and family all of Wichita, Kans.

Mrs. John Foster and son Ethnis Burt returned Monday from a few days visit in Thomas, Okla., with her husband's mother, Mrs. Bessie Foster.

Pvt. Charles Brillhart, stationed at Camp Wolters, is spending a furlough visiting with relatives.

Zenor Brothers Are Serving in Navy and Marine Corps

BOB ZENOR

ROSS G. ZENOR

CPL. BILL ZENOR

The three sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Zenor of this city are serving in the Seabees, the Marines and the Navy. These young men were born in Glazier, Texas. Ross and Bill are both in the Pacific now. Bob has just completed his boot training.

Ross Gale Zenor, BM 1/c, with a construction battalion in the Seabees, volunteered in June 1942. He finished high school at Follett in 1936. In August 1941, he married Miss Cloie Sawyer. When he enlisted, he was employed at Harry Sawyer's service station in Higgins. He received his boot at Norfolk, Va., and then took special training at Davisville, R. I. Date of his birth is May 8, 1919.

Cpl. Bill Zenor, born Nov. 19, 1924, was a student in Perryton high school when he volunteered August 25, 1942. He took his basic in the Marines at San Diego. When he was home in December 1943, he and Miss Mary Jo Hulsey were married. In November 1944, he was promoted to Corporal. His wife is serving as Deputy County Clerk.

Bob Gene Zenor, Seaman Second Class, inducted into the Navy in October, has just completed his boot training at Great Lakes. He attended Perryton high school four years, graduating in May 1944. Prior to leaving for the Navy, he was working with his father at the Perryton Wheat Growers. Bob was home on leave during the Christmas holidays.

Sgt. Fred L. Wilson came in Thursday on a thirty day furlough to visit with his mother, Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Gray, Okla., and with other relatives and friends. Sgt. Wilson, inducted into the army in July of 1941, has been overseas since Jan. 1942.

members of the board of directors. Project Material Here Earl Waide, coordinator for the North Plains Cooperative, reports that the contract for construction of the first section, consisting of 215.3 miles of line, has been let to the Cisco Construction Co., Houston, Tex. Much of the material for the project has arrived and additional shipments are arriving every few days.

The first section begins at Canadian and extends to Glazier and Lipscomb, one branch runs up Wolf Creek to the Sam Handly place and the other branch runs across the south part of Ochiltree county into Hansford county and south into Hutchinson county.

The second proposed section, now in formulative stage, is expected to run across the north part of Ochiltree and Hansford counties, across the west part of Hansford county into Hutchinson county.

The stockholders' meeting next Tuesday is expected to draw hundreds of interested persons from Lipscomb, Hemphill, Hutchinson and Ochiltree counties. The meeting is open to the public and everyone interested is invited and urged to attend.

Mrs. O. W. Dunkle, Inyokern, Calif., and her mother, Mrs. C. R. Patton, Higgins, were visiting with friends in Perryton last Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. Dunkle, a former teacher in the Perryton schools, is teaching in California. Her husband, Cpl. Dunkle, has been in the south Pacific for over a year, and has been in New Guinea most of the time.

men around the Perryton area can say about their war record. Yes, they do have fine black market automobiles, thirty dollar hand made boots, and the best of Stetson hats. They strut and loaf around smoking two-bit cigars, bragging about how much money they've made. They've got the jack but they've lost the respect of their fellow-men and we are pretty sure that some of them have enough manhood left in them to even hate their own yellow skins.

Austin reports at Camp Swift, Texas on Jan. 15 for reassignment. The war is not over for him.

Another of Ochiltree's fighting heroes was home for a brief visit. He was Lt. H. D. Hearne, U. S. Navy "Hell Diver" pilot. You notice that H. D. has recently been promoted from Ensign to Lt. jg. H. D. has served one hitch in the Southwest as a fighter pilot. He came home for a rest, then joined up with a newly commissioned carrier on the Atlantic coast. The carrier and its fighting crew will take off from the west coast for another crack at the enemy, and L. D. will be right in there doing his part.

We sure enjoyed our visit with Dempsey Malaney the other day. Dempsey has just finished his basic training at Camp Wolters and his next station will be Fort Meade, Md., from which place many men ship overseas. Others from the Perryton area who have finished basic at Camp Wolters are reporting to Ft. Meade are: Alvin Holmes, Roland Hurter, Claire Brillhart, Roland Pierson, Charles Brillhart, Ben Hardy, Leon Engleman, Johnnie Gurley, Lloyd Thomas, Harley Atchinson and Dent Linderman. All of these young men are visiting home folks now.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Reeves, Eva, Okla., spent the holidays visiting in the home of Mr. Reeve's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Allen, JoLayne and Claud Jr.

Pvt. and Mrs. John Stubblefield have been here from Camp Crowder, Mo., spending a ten day furlough with relatives.

Mrs. Anna Holmes and daughter, Ann, were in Mineral Wells for Christmas to be with their son and brother, Pvt. Alvin Bruce Holmes, stationed at Camp Wolters.

Sgt. Myrtle Conley accompanied Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Dodson to Amarillo Monday where she took the train to return to her base at Colorado Springs, after enjoying a fifteen day furlough with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Conley and relatives Mr. and Mrs. Dodson on to Albuquerque, N. M., to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tucker. Mr. Tucker had the misfortune of falling and fracturing left hip.

Julia Hamilton, bookkeeper at the Amarillo Times, enjoyed Christmas week end with her parents, and Mrs. A. C. Dial.
