

Moisture!

Moisture in various forms has aided young wheat and conditioned row crop land since last Thursday when a week of rains, snow, sleet and heavy fogs started. Heavy clouds were over this section at press time Wednesday.

METHODIST OBSERVE COMPASSION DAY

The local Methodist have planned a special service for next Sunday morning the purpose of which is to remember the needs of a war-torn world. It is known as Day of Compassion. The Pastor, Rev. Foote, is to bring a message suitable for the occasion and the Glee Club of the High School is to furnish the music. Everyone is invited to attend these services.

Sunday evening at the Methodist Church, the Pastor is to preach a special sermon on the book of Jonah. Many will be interested in this message because of the fact that much has been said about Jonah and the whale. Much that is foolish, says the pastor. You will find a welcome to all the services.

Y. W. A.

The Blanch Groves Y. W. A. met last Thursday with Miss Carver in the Bob Reid home.

God bless America was the theme of the program.

The following were present: Bernice Douglas, Willene Crow, Earline and Evelyn Ellison, Cynthia Struve, Faye Heath, Dollie Williamson, Margaret Dixon, Joyce Graves, and Melva Vineyard and Helen Richter, new members, and the counselor, Miss Carver.

The next meeting will be at Wilene Crow's today at 6:00.

Births

The 8 pound son born February 18 to Mr. and Mrs. M. D. (Coot) Evans has been named Madison Charles.

The cast includes Ken Murry, Rose Hobart, Brenda and Cobina (the girls on Bob Hope's radio program), J. Carroll Naish, Russell Hicks, Lillian Cornell and Billy Gilbert.

Who Wrote This?

"There never was a good war or a bad peace."

UTES HELD FOR VICTIM OF CAR-TRUCK CRASH

Injuries suffered in a truck-car collision eleven miles northeast of Abernathy January 4 resulted in the death of Bill Evetts, 43 in a Plainview sanitarium Saturday morning. He had been a resident of Plainview for three years.

Evetts was riding in truck with his employer, L. Buchanan, of Plainview when it was in collision with an automobile driven by Mrs. R. A. Daugherty of Lakeview. Wife of Hale county precinct two commissioner, Mrs. Daugherty and her two children suffered painful injuries in the wreck.

Supt. R. Lee Snider said students with written permission from home would be excused from classes on Monday and Tuesday afternoons to see "Gone With the Wind".

Dick Norris last week shipped 800 head of sheep from here to market.

Personal Mention

Shelton Hardin, Jesse Webb and Beauford Haynes, National Guardsmen of Camp Bowie, were here last week-end.

Guests in the Bill Wolf home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Caywood, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wimberly of Portales, N. M.

Devey Price, who has been working at Mineral Wells the past two months, was here early this week.

Condition of Mrs. Elbert Brown, who underwent an operation in a Lubbock sanitarium Friday, is said to be improving.

Mrs. J. W. Pool visited in Amarillo last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carpenter have returned from a visit with relatives near Joplin, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ragland spent last week-end with their daughter, Mrs. Tom Moore Cox, in Denton.

J. U. Peel has returned from work at Mineral Wells.

Thought For The Week:

The best way to conquer an enemy is to show him kindness.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Rutledge To Receive Eagle Scout Award Friday Night

W. L. Rutledge, above, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Rutledge, is to receive the Eagle Scout award in the monthly court of honor meet to be held Friday night in Lubbock. He is the first member of Abernathy Troop 81 which was organized in 1938 to receive the Eagle award. Foy McMaster, of the local troop, is to receive his Eagle rating in June, and Gene Weldon McMaster is due to receive this high award in August. They were in the Scout group picture appearing in the Review February 6.

Rutledge, 17 years old and a student in Abernathy High school, received his Tenderfoot award in June of 1938. The other badges and dates he received them are: Second Class, April, 1939; First Class, January, 1940; Star, April, 1940; Life, July, 1940. He is a senior patrol leader.

He was awarded 24 merit badges from December, 1939 to January, 1941.

The badges were for: Reading, safety, pathfinding, first aid, public health, personal health, handicraft, beef production, dairying, physical development, poultry, fireman ship, farm home and its planning, swimming, bird study, camping, dramatics, civics, life saving, cooking, woodwork, pioneering, farm layout and building arrangement and carpentry.

He joined the troop when he was 14 years old.

Advancements Scheduled

Scoutmaster Q. D. Hallmark said a large number of advancements are scheduled to be awarded local Scouts during the court of honor meet.

Scouts and the advancements to be received are:

Hubert Robertson, second class, Vanoy Parsons, Weldon Ritchey and Billy John Motheral, tenderfoot; Roy Downs and Elton Renfro, second class; Billy Lroy, Star scout rating and Physical development and first aid merit badges; Kenneth Davidson, Life scout rating and zoology and public health merit badges; Merit Badges: Boyd Dale Prather and Eugene Garvin, music and reading; Gene Weldon McMaster, music and bird study; W. L. Rutledge, athletics; Billy Frank Skipper and Don Duty, first aid and physical development; Delvis Hallmark, metal work; Paul Turpen, reading. Charles Bucks, merit badge.

TWO CANDIDATES FOR DEGREE

Two candidates, Edwin Lee Thompson and Carroll Turpen, are to receive the first degree during the Odd Fellow lodge meeting Thursday night (tonight), said Arthur Reed, secretary. Turpen received the initiatory degree last week.

Local lodgemen were to have attended a meeting in Lubbock Wednesday night to observe work of the Hobbs, N. M., third degree team.

TO PREACH HERE SUNDAY

J. T. Stanfill, Lubbock minister, is to preach at the Church of Christ here Sunday, C. C. Shipman announced.

TO ATTEND MEET

DEBATORS WIN HONORS IN LEVELLAND TOURNAMENT

One second place and three certificates of award for outstanding work were taken by members of the Abernathy Forensic Society at the debate tournament held at Level-land Saturday, Feb. 22.

After defeating Lubbock A in the semi-finals, our girls' team, composed of Bernice Douglas and Maxine Harp, lost to Lockney in the finals. The team will receive an eight inch cup.

The boys' team composed of Rudolph Upchurch and Sidney Knox, won all debates in the preliminaries but were defeated by Lubbock in the semi-finals. Earlier in the day the boys had defeated the same Lubbock team with a 3-0 decision. Sidney and Rudolph won certificates of award for outstanding work in debate during the day.

A mixed team composed of Elayne Halford and Kenneth Davidson also entered in the tournament but lost out in the preliminaries. A certificate for outstanding debate, however, was awarded to Elayne.

Miss Margaret Carver, coach, Marjorie Ruth Price and Robert Hurst, extemporaneous speakers, and Weldon Crow, bus driver, also attended.

F. H. T. SPONSORS PLAY HERE MARCH 7

Mrs. Jack Hackler and her Future Homemakers of Texas chapter are sponsoring a three-act comedy, "A Merry Death," to be presented here Friday night, March 7. Thirteen students are in the cast.

DISTRICT BASKETBALL MEET

Abernathy Antelopes were eliminated from the District three meet at Lubbock Friday afternoon by the Ralls Jackrabbits. When the game ended, the score was 21 all. Three minutes over-time playing failed to break the score. Then the next period saw Rex Parish of Ralls a former Abernathy boy, score two free pitches to end the game. Starting line-up was Olen Anderson, Rollin Albers, J. P. Settle, Henry Houpt, and Green Hazle.

F. F. A. BANQUET

Fifty-four people attended the annual FFA banquet Friday evening, Feb. 21, in the H. E. cottage.

Besides the members' fathers, the guests included Rev. C. W. Foote, Rev. Melton Thomas, Rev. J. F. Nix, R. Lee Snider, Sam Davis, J. F. Haynes, and Dan Z. Ward.

Wilma Toler, FFA Chapter sweetheart, and her assistant, Sue Harris, were honored at the affair.

An inspiring speech, "Boys and Agriculture," was given by Rev. Nix. The group also heard speeches over the radio from Washington, D. C., and Austin.

Every FFA Chapter in the state held its annual Father and Son Banquet on Friday evening.

WHITE ELEPHANT SALE

The F. H. T. club met Tuesday, Feb. 18, at the H. E. cottage for a regular meeting. Tressie Lebow led a very interesting program on "Buying". Tommy Gwendolyn Corpiere gave "When You Buy". "Why Fabric Wear Out" was given by Othello Stephens and Phyllis Goeth. After the program the girls held a "White Elephant Sale." Each girl had brought some article from home which she no longer needed or had grown tired of; and these articles were auctioned off by Alvae Fuchs. The girls use pins to buy with instead money. Ernestine Loveless, the hostess, served delicious refreshments in patriotic colors.

The next meeting will be the theatre party, which is to be sometime in the first week of March. The date is indefinite and will be announced later.

The F. H. T. girls plan to attend a Home Economics Rally at Plainview on March 1.

GLEE CLUB TO SING AT CHURCH

The high school glee club girls will sing Sunday, March 3, at the Methodist Church. The girls will wear their vestments and will all be dressed in black and white.

CHAPEL PROGRAM

The Speech Arts class will have charge of the chapel program Friday, February 28, at 11 o'clock. The class will present two plays, "The Telegram" and "Learning to Say No". Both plays are one act comedies.

NEW CREDITS RECEIVED

The county supervisor was here to check the work of the school Friday, and he was very pleased with the work. The scholastic standard of the school was raised. The supervisor recommended the school retain all its credit in Journalism work. In the English department the school now has four credits in English, one credit in Speech Arts, and one in Journalism.

GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

Kenneth Wayne Apperson has recovered from pneumonia and has come back to school.

Mack Rankin is out of school from a tonsilectomy.

The fourth grade students are making folders this week to keep their work in.

IT HAS BEEN DISCOVERED

That a certain Senior girl went with a freshman boy.

That the Journalism class has started working on the annual.

That Joyce Conn likes new maroon pick-ups.

That the only thing Phyllis wants for graduation is a new car for herself.

That Ula Mae doesn't get letters very often.

That the Seniors just have twelve weeks of school—We hope.

That Jessie has something wrong with her leg and arm.

That the Debate Club brought back honors from Levelland.

That Katherine is back in school.

That the Seniors have been writing letters applying for jobs. I wonder if they will get them.

That Gladys Elkins ranks very high on the list of most beautiful girls in Abernathy High School.

That many romances bud and flourish and die in the study hall.

That several high school teachers have a very keen sense of humor and appreciate funny stories more than the students.

That Nita Beth's name is Juanita Elizabeth, and Jo Dean's is Josephine Dean.

That Buddie Lutrick changes girl friends every spring.

That you should always have a spare tie and pump, when going after your girl friend. Isn't that right Glen?

That Newell is really timid at heart.

That there are two new boys—a sophomore and a freshman.

That some students have pretty middle names.

That when it rains it pours, and the same holds true in lesson assignments.
