Dennis Clark Wins Aggie Scholarship

An 18-year-old ex-Pennsylvanian with a burning desire to attend Texas A&M, got his wish Thursday night when it was announced he had won the annual A&M Club scholarship at the Aggie barbecue in City Park Amphitheatre.

Dennis Clark, son of M. Sgt. Harold W. Clark, 188-A Hunter, was so excited at the announcement, he could hardly say anything for several moments. Then, speaking over the squeal of the microphone, he thanked Aggie Club members. Afterward, asked how long he had wanted to attend A&M, he said, "Just since I came to Texas from Pennsylvania. Boy, I'm excited."

Paschal Odom, who made the presentation, said the four-year scholarship, paid for by ticket sales to the barbecue, had just three stipulations — that Dennis pass his work, be in the Aggie

Corps and stay single. The scholarship is awarded on the basis of need and school records.

Dennis, who was in the top quarter of his Big Spring High School graduating class this year, played baseball for three years and was on the varsity squad his senior year. Born in Huntingdon, Pa., in 1946, he attended grade school in Dexter, N. M., and began attending Big Spring schools in the ninth grade in 1961. He plans to major in aerospace engineering in college and will try for the Aggie baseball team.

A large, hungry crowd, estimated at near 1,400 by Alton Marwitz, A&M Club secretary-treasurer, gathered at the amphitheatre at 7 p.m. to eat barbecue beef, potato salad, and drinks for their $1.50 tickets. Children, admitted free, were much in evidence.

Marwitz said the crowd was "probably the largest we've ever had—at least it was larger than we've had for the last two or three years." Last year about 1,200 were present. The scholarship cook-out was the 11th annual for the Big Spring A&M Club.

Odom, club president, expressed appreciation for the continuing support of Big Spring residents.

Halt Approved On Rail Runs

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission granted permission Thursday for the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway Co. to discontinue operating passenger trains No. 77 and 78 between Brownwood and San Angelo.

A hearing was held Jan. 14 in San Angelo and there was no opposition to the railroad's request, the commission said.

Red Copter Flies Over U.S. Facilities

BERLIN (AP) — An armed helicopter manned by East German Communists flew over U.S. Army installations today, a U.S. Army spokesman said. He called this a dangerous challenge against the Western Allies.

The Soviet-built helicopter was marked with East German insignia, the spokesman said, and on the bottom of the fuselage was a 12.7mm machine gun.

OVER COMPOUND
The aircraft flew over the U.S. Army quartermaster compound and near the McNair Barracks, which house the U.S. Army Combat Infantry Brigade.

It was the first time that an East German army helicopter had flown over the U.S. sector of Communist-surrounded West Berlin.

Flights of East German aircraft over the Berlin air control zone, which extends 20 miles in radius, are a violation of post-war four-power agreements.

FLIES BACK
The East German helicopter changed its course and flew back into East Germany after a U.S. Army helicopter arrived and shadowed it.

The quartermaster compound and the barracks are about 500 yards from the East German border on the southern end of the American sector.

China Initial Peace Target In Campaign

LONDON (AP) — Leaders of the British Commonwealth embarked on a campaign today to get a Viet Nam peace mission of five government chiefs into Peking.

The prime ministers and presidents of the 21 nations, meeting here for the 14th Commonwealth conference, agreed Thursday to British Prime Minister Harold Wilson's proposal that he lead four of their number to Washington, Moscow, Saigon, Hanoi and the Red Chinese capital.

President Johnson said the Commonwealth mission would have his government's "full cooperation." The South Vietnamese and Soviet governments were expected to welcome it.

But the Red Chinese and the North Vietnamese refused to receive an earlier British peace emissary, former Foreign Secretary Patrick Gordon Walker, and it remained to be seen whether they would be any more receptive to the commonwealth group.

U.S. officials expressed doubt that they would. A British spokesman said if either Peking or Hanoi refuses to receive the mission, "it will be their responsibility" before world opinion.

Excise Cut Bill Due Johnson's Signature

To Trim Prices On Autos, Gifts

WASHINGTON (AP) — The big excise tax cut bill is on President Johnson's desk. It does away with most of the federal sales taxes, hangovers from Korean War days and even earlier.

It was indefinite when Johnson would sign it into law. He was asked about it at a news conference Thursday, but gave no definite answer.

However, Johnson said today consumer benefits from the measure would begin Tuesday.

USER CHARGES

When all the cuts are in effect, the major remaining excise taxes will be those on liquor and cigarettes, a 1 per cent tax on automobiles — down from 10 per cent — and a group of taxes considered to be user charges for highways and other special facilities.

(Related Story on Page 5-A)

The most visible tax cut to be triggered by the President's signature probably is the first-stage reduction in the automobile excise tax — it amounts to about $70 on an average car; more, of course, on higher-priced models. The reduction is from 10 per cent to 7 per cent of the manufacturer's price, the first stage in a phasing out that would bring the tax down to 1 per cent Jan. 1, 1969.

IS RETROACTIVE

The first-stage automobile tax cut is retroactive to purchases May 15 or later. So is the repeal of the 10 per cent manufacturers' tax on air conditioners. Purchasers can get cash refunds.

Another repeal effective a day after signature is of the 10 per cent retail taxes sometimes described as anti-feminine. These are levies on furs, jewelry, luggage — including handbags — and toilet preparations.

Other immediate repeals are those of excises on business machines, cameras, household appliances, musical instruments, radios, television sets and phonographs and most sporting goods.

YEAR'S END

The next batch of reductions comes at year's end. At noon on New Year's Eve the tax on cabinet checks, race track admissions and tickets for plays, movies and other entertainments comes off. Another batch of reductions and repeals are effective Jan. 1, including another one percentage point of the automobile tax and 7 percentage points of the telephone tax. The telephone excise is to be phased out entirely by Jan. 1, 1969.

Among later repeals is the stamp tax on real estate transfers, which provides an official record of the amount paid for property. The House provided originally for repeal Jan. 1, 1968, but spokesmen for state governments urged delay. The states are expected to levy substitute taxes, not only for revenue, but to provide the records on which many local assessments are based. The effective date for repeal is Jan. 1, 1968.

Rebels Study Election Plan In Dominican

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — The creation of a provisional government and elections within nine months were proposed today to the rival factions in the Dominican conflict.

The rebel leaders, to whom the formula was first proposed by the Organization of American States peace committee, agreed to study it. The reaction of the rival civilian — military junta was not immediately known.

PLAN'S TERMS

Authoritative sources said the proposal calls for: elections within six to nine months; the return of all political leaders of "democratic" parties from exile, under OAS guarantee; termination of hostilities, the return of all army regulars to the regular armed forces and "irregulars" to civilian life; delivery of all weapons in the hands of civilian life; reopening of all business establishments; and formation of provisional government and the summons to general elections.

QUESTION OPEN

The proposal left open the question of the makeup of the government.

The rebel forces have insisted upon restoration of the 1962 constitution of former President Juan Bosch. The civilian military junta opposes this.

Meanwhile, action was reportedly being taken for the release of two U.S. paratroopers captured by the rebel forces.

MOSCOW (AP) — Yugoslav President Tito arrived in Moscow today for talks with Soviet leaders on the split in the Communist world.

Connally Vetoes Bill To Upgrade Odessa College

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Connally vetoed today the bill upgrading Odessa College to a four-year state-supported school known as Permian State College.

Connally said that despite a provision leaving the final decision on the school to the new college coordinating board, "that board might well regard the passage of Senate Bill 385 as a legislative mandate that Odessa Junior College become a fully state-supported higher education institution."

"In view of the duties and functions assigned the board and the urgency of that assignment, I am unwilling to subject them to the pressures that will inevitably follow my signature on Senate Bill 385," Connally said.

PANEL SUGGESTION

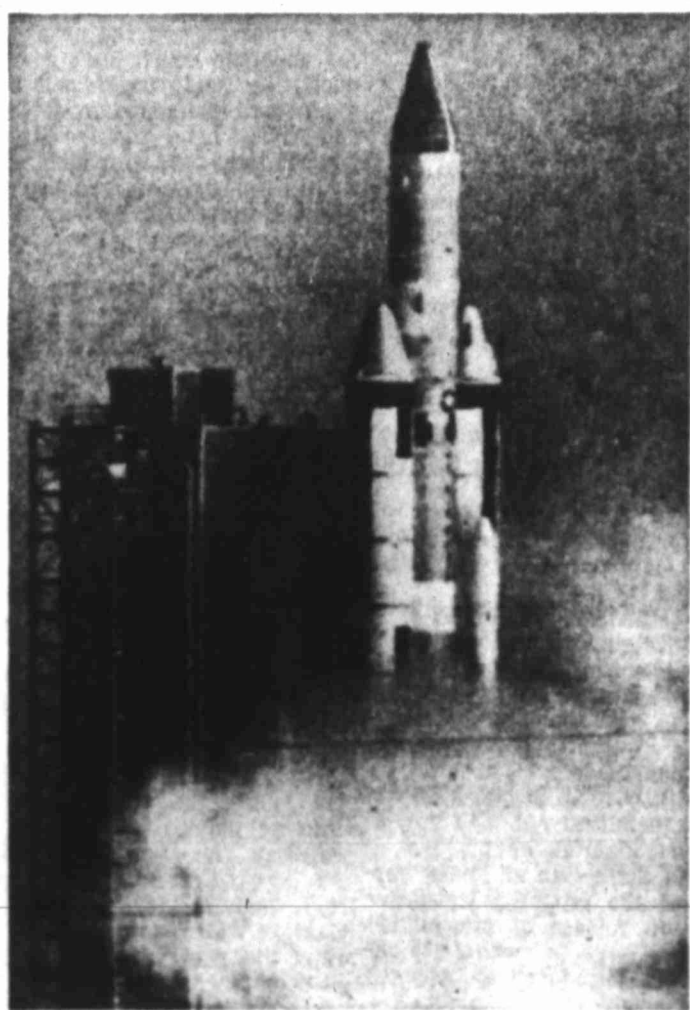

The governor noted that his committee on education beyond the high school suggested that as a matter of policy no junior college should be elevated to senior college status.

He recalled that he said in his Jan. 27 message to the legislature that "any further disorderly multiplication of state-supported units of higher education would dangerously dilute our resources." "These observations are as valid today as they were at the times they were made," the governor said.

THREE THERE

Connally said 90 per cent of all Texans live within 100 miles of a fully state-supported senior college, and "there are three such institutions between 125 and 150 miles from Odessa."

"The goal of excellence in education must have a higher priority than the economic advantages of any one geographical area. Effective coordination directed toward excellence requires restraint. . . . Texas must decide how far it shall go in providing an opportunity for its citizens to attend college within commuting distance," the governor's veto message said.

Maiden Flight

Titan 3C, the most powerful rocket ever assembled, scoots away from the launch pad on its maiden test flight from Cape Kennedy, Fla., today. Mighty Titan Roaring Aloft

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A triple-barreled Titan 3C, the mightiest rocket ever fired, blasted skyward on its maiden test flight today. Riding with it were U.S. hopes of developing a military capability in space.

The rocket was to orbit a 21,000-pound dummy satellite—the largest true payload ever launched.

Hooked between the two 85-foot-tall solid-fuel boosters was a three-stage liquid-fuel Titan 3A rocket. This 127-foot-tall segment was designed to ignite 24 miles up and provide 474,000 pounds of high-altitude thrust to push the satellite into orbit.

The launch was the loudest and one of the most spectacular ever witnessed here.

Shrine Plot Terms Meted

NEW YORK (AP) — Three American Negro men, described by the prosecutor as "subversive fanatics," and a French Canadian blonde have been handed maximum prison sentences ranging to 10 years for a plot to blow up national monuments.

Federal Judge William B. Herlands, however, conditioned Thursday's sentences. He said this would allow three months for probationary study of the defendants.

Sentenced to two consecutive five-year terms were Robert S. Collier, 28; Khaleel S. Sayeed, 22; and Walter A. Bowe, 33.

Michelle Duclos, 26, was given a five-year conditional sentence for her part in the scheme to dramatize the Negroes' struggle for equality.

Loan Granted To Corporation

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $120,000 Farmers Home Administration loan to the Martindale Water Supply Corp. in Caldwell County was announced Thursday by Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex. The loan will be used for improving the Texas corporation's system.

HIGHWAYS FOR PROGRESS

Bargain Price For Progress

(Second in a series of articles on the county road bond issue of June 22.)

A $600,000 bond issue, such as property-owning qualified voters in Howard County are asked to vote on next Tuesday, represents a pretty good bargain, in view of what can be expected in return.

In the first place, Howard County is in solid position to take on this obligation. It will be a short-term one, with the issue covering only 12 years.

GOING UP

The county now has taxable valuations of more than $60,000,000, and continued building means this should go up. Its bonded debt is only $1,025,000, and a part of this is to be retired in two years. Other than a few counties which have no bonded debt at all (the smaller, less populous ones), Howard ranks among the strongest financially in the state.

To finance the proposed $600,000 issue, the Commissioners Court, in consultation with fiscal agents, have found that a tax rate of 7 cents will be the maximum. If the issue sells at the interest anticipated, the rate could be a bit less.

Or, if there is no need to issue all the bonds at one time, the schedule could change downward.

REDUCED RATE

The county for this year reduced its tax rate by five cents (because of final payoff of an earlier bond issue), and the rate is now $1 per hundred dollars valuation.

However, this has been a bit of a bonus because of the county's good financial picture. The tax rate was $1.07 in 1961 and 1962, then was reduced to $1.03 in 1963.

If the seven cents is restored to finance the road bond issue, the cost to a family with a home actually valued at $20,000 would be $2.80 per year; a $15,000 actual value home would be assessed $2.10 per year; if it's a $10,000 home, the cost is $1.40 per year. (The county assesses on only 20 per cent of actual value.)

The individual bill, then, is less than the cost of a carton of cigarettes per year.

IN RETURN

What in return? The tangibles are important. The state's estimate on what it would spend on two improvement and extension projects on FM 700 runs to more than $2,000,000. Much of this money is spent with local suppliers, and for local labor.

Over and above the construction, the state takes on for continued spending, a sizable sum for annual maintenance and standard improvements.

There is an intangible that people who picture "highways for progress" quickly envision. That is the spur to more building — residential and commercial — that new highway segments always bring. This has already been seen in Howard County. It will likely be seen in dramatic fashion in the opening of new FM 700 segments.

For a small outlay on the taxpayer's part, then, the way is opened for a new spurt of growth, much new investment, that benefits the entire county. "Good roads more than pay for themselves."

DOES EVERYONE HAVE A RIGHT TO HIS OWN BELIEFS?

The First Amendment to the Constitution guarantees freedom of religion and separation of church and state. When any religious group meets to worship in this country it need never fear that the restraining hand of Government will close its doors or arrest its members.

Such has not always been the case in the long and bloody history of religious wars and persecution; such is not the case in many areas of the world today. Forgetting that only some things belong to Caesar, while the rest of man's allegiance belongs to God (Mark 12:17), Totalitarian Churches and Totalitarian States attempt to enslave the souls as well as the bodies of men.

We are rightfully proud of our wonderful freedom, but this freedom like all others may be abused. The greatest abuse of religious freedom is that men make it license to believe and practice what they choose rather than what God demands. Within our political system man may freely choose his way in religion. This political right, however, does not assure that God will approve men's choice. The right to choose necessarily implies that one may choose the wrong as well as the right.

That man cannot be trusted to choose rightly is seen in Jeremiah, where the Prophet says, "Oh Lord, I know that the way of man is not in himself; it is not in man that walketh to direct his step." (Jeremiah 18:23). In the light of this passage no man has a right to his own beliefs. He must submit himself to the authority of God.

The Constitution, one of the greatest documents of human wisdom, (guarantees political freedom, but only the Bible can give us the words of eternal life (John 6:63). The inspired Word of God is able to furnish us unto every good work (2 Timothy 3:17). We must follow His instruction.

Men must choose God's way or be lost. If this seems narrow, consider the words of our Lord: "I am the way, the truth, and the life, and no man cometh unto the Father but by me" (John 14:6); again He says: "Enter ye in at the strait gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction..." (Matthew 7:13). These scriptures show Jesus does not teach that man has a "God-given right" to his own religious beliefs. To the contrary, He teaches a very narrow approach to God through Himself as the only true and living way. If in the exercise of our constitutional rights, we choose any way but His way, we have chosen error and death instead of truth and life.

Let us never be guilty of abusing freedom in order to go our own way. Let us rejoice that we may without fear choose God's way. May we put aside all human opinions and simply worship God in His own appointed way, in His divinely established Church, following His divine Word as our only rule of faith and practice.

Editor Makes Point For Crime News

DALLAS (AP) — Critics of crime news coverage should not forget, an editor said Thursday, that the Bill of Rights follows a preamble to the Constitution advocating promotion of public welfare.

This reminder in an address to the Texas Press Association came from Felix McKnight, executive vice president and editor of the Dallas Times Herald.

"Too many attorneys and jurists are more interested in the Bill of Rights than the preamble to the Constitution which states that the purpose of it all is to promote domestic tranquility and public welfare," McKnight said.

PROTECT PUBLIC
Controversy over crime news coverage, he said, has been brought about by "an over-emphasized passion for the protection of the individual at the expense of the public welfare."

In the troublesome area of pre-trial coverage, McKnight said, newsmen need to "establish and meticulously follow principles based on responsible editing that will guarantee the rights of individuals and also protect the public from wanton criminal acts."

"Newsmen must be conditioned to act with wisdom, restraint and dignity," he said.

"It is not our purpose to sell our product with lurid bait that can only have a destructive appeal."

PRAISES DECISION
McKnight praised as a "sound decision" the Texas Legislature's removal last month of crime news coverage restrictions from a bill revising the criminal code.

"All parties involved should give their best effort to providing adequate answers," he said. The State Bar of Texas supported the proposed legislative ban on release of information about suspects which might later be introduced as evidence in a trial.

Despite Court's Ruling, Eubank May Stay In Jail

If the opinion of attorneys is regarded as sound, Jack Eubank, embattled New Mexico penitentiary fugitive, need be in no hurry to pack his belongings preparatory to leaving his cell in the Howard County jail.

It is agreed the mandate of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, when it is received here, will read, in substance, that the findings of the 118th District Court in Eubank's case are reversed.

It will also order that the petitioner be released from custody.

The question is—when will Eubank be released?

Wayne Burns, district attorney, pointed out that the state, if it chooses, has a right to ask for a rehearing of the case by the appellate court. Such a request, he said, could not be made until the mandate of the court is at hand and the state advised what it provides. If such a rehearing is requested, it would automatically stay the enforcement of the mandate for 15 days or longer.

Meantime, New Mexico prison authorities and the attorney general of New Mexico will be informed of the latest developments in their long efforts to regain custody of Eubank. It is likely a copy of the court's mandate will be sent to Santa Fe.

Armed with these facts, it is probable the New Mexicans will reopen their efforts to extradite Eubank from Texas—this time making certain that all provisions of Texas law are tracked.

Sheriff A. N. Standard will certainly make no effort to release Eubank until he has official orders from the appeals court to do so.

It is also possible that Lanny Hamby, attorney for Eubank, could go back into 118th District Court here, if the release of the man is not carried out and if no legal steps are taken to keep him in jail after the mandate is received. A new petition for a writ of habeas corpus could be sought.

It has been pointed out that news dispatches carried in state newspapers recently told of a case where the Texas governor had declined to honor an extradition request for a man who had been a fugitive for several years. The story implied the man in this case had led an exemplary life in the time he was in Texas.

Eubank has been a resident of Big Spring since 1957 and, until his arrest last March, had been regarded as an orderly, friendly law-abiding citizen. He was then known as Bob Johnson and was practicing the trade of carpenter.

Friends of the New Mexico fugitive may appeal to the governor to consider Eubank's record here before acting on any new request New Mexico may make to get custody of the prisoner.

So, anyway it is checked, the possibility of Eubank walking free from the county jail in the immediate future is not very bright.

From appearances now, he will continue as an unwilling guest of the county for some weeks at least.

Fem Film Director Retires At UCLA

By BOB THOMAS

AP Writer • TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Her UCLA students have bid a fond goodbye, Miss Chips, to Dorothy Arzner, who has closed out another phase of her amazing career. But she is far from retiring.

Miss Arzner is the woman who fought the tradition that directing movies was a man's profession. She won her battle and directed a score of films from 1926 to 1942, including "Craig's Wife."

For the past five years she has been teaching hopeful young movie makers in UCLA's motion picture division of theater arts. This semester was her last, since she has reached the university's retirement age of 65.

"WAS INTERESTING"

"It has been an interesting experience," said Miss Arzner, whose smooth face and vigorous manner give no hint that she is eligible to retire. "Each semester the students have produced eight or nine short films of their own, and usually one of them is very good."

Miss Arzner was as positive in her teaching as she was in her own film career. Starting as script typist with William De Mille after the first world war, she became one of the silent screen's best cutters. After a long campaign, she persuaded Paramount to let her direct. Her first assignment: "Fashions for Women" starring Esther Ralston.

A SUCCESS

It was a success, and she followed with such films as "The Wild Party" (Clara Bow's first talkie), "The Constant Wife" (William Powell, Ruth Chatterton), "Honor Among Lovers" (Fredric March, Claudette Colbert), "Christopher Strong" (Katharine Hepburn). Miss Arzner also directed "Nana" for Samuel Goldwyn.

Her top achievement was "Craig's Wife," which made Rosalind Russell a star. The film was shot for $280,000.

Miss Arzner sensed the pressure as the screen's only woman director. "I knew every picture had to be a good one or I would be through. Nobody really wanted a woman director. I had to prove myself with each picture."

Now she plans to activate her own film company, she'll direct "Only If I Have To."

Robin Takes To Home's Comforts

MELROSE PARK, Ill. (AP) — A fastidious free-loading robin which prefers comfort indoors to the great outdoors is right at home with the Raymond MacDonald family.

The bird was found by MacDonald last week after it was blown to the ground during a windstorm. It wasn't injured.

MacDonald brought the bird, now named Robbie, into the house and it has remained.

COMES IN

"He won't take to nature for some reason," said MacDonald. "Every time we put him outside he comes right back."

Robbie won't eat worms unless they are washed, said MacDonald, 54, a machinery mover and rigger. And it won't go outside to find them either.

After the bird is finished with the worms, it wipes its beak clean on Mrs. MacDonald's shoulder. But that's at dinner-time.

BABY FOOD

For breakfast, Robbie has baby food with a sprinkling of parakeet seed and milk added.

It bathes in the sink, splashing water all over the kitchen.

Despite all the trouble, MacDonald said, "My wife just loves him."

"He sits on her shoulder while she plays the organ and chirps along happily," he said.

Extra Costs For Roadways

STANTON — Martin County and the City of Stanton will have to "dig up" $5,146 to get additional frontage roads on the U.S. 20 by-pass around Stanton, according to estimates by the State Highway Commission. The political subdivisions have 90 days to accept or reject the conditions.

The 57-mile bypass will go around the City of Stanton to the north and will be a multi-lane road with signing and delineation costing an estimated $1,491,000.

The highway commission stipulated the conditions for additional frontage roads after appraisers submitted their estimate of "damages."

The original programmed work included the construction of frontage roads for only short distances near the interchanges. The Bureau of Public Roads (Federal) apparently prohibits continuous access roads outside of cities.

Martin County Commissioners and the City of Stanton requested the additional frontage through and adjacent to the City of Stanton "to provide for the proper circulation of traffic, connections with the local road network and the orderly development of the surrounding area."

The request has been granted on condition that the $5,146 be paid.

Texas Sector Gets Rainfall

By The Associated Press

Occasional showers dotted the west edge of the Texas Panhandle early today while neighboring areas of Northeastern New Mexico were awash from downpours measuring up to 8 inches.

There also were a few showers along the middle Texas coast. Other parts of the state had clear to partly cloudy skies.

In New Mexico high water blocked most roads from around Raton southward past Springer. National Guard units helped rescue householders and travelers from flash floods.

The Canadian River, which flows eastward across the Texas Panhandle, surged out of banks north of Springer and overflowed all bridges over the stream in that vicinity.

Forecasts called for continued warm weather in Texas and thunderstorms in the afternoons and evenings over about 20 percent of the western third of the state.

Top temperatures Thursday ranged from 90 degrees at Laredo down to 80 at Dalhart.

The dean's list for scholastic achievement at Howard County Junior College during the spring semester has been released by Dean Ben Johnson.

The list contains 37 names, seven of them with a maximum average rating of 3.0 grade points. These are rated cum laude and include Billy Myrhl Grisham, Robert W. Clay, William M. Clements, Joanna H. Epley, Janice E. Farmer, Marion F. Holt, Gary W. Kendrick. Others earning this high place were Loy Dean Pike, Barbara Ann Cole and Cheryl Lepard. (The order in listing is based on the number of semester hours carried as well as the grade points.)

Those ranked as cum laude ampla et magna were Linda K. Culpepper, Velma Ann Harlin, Delinda Bradford, and Becky Lou Pritchett.

Those magna cum laude were Bonnie Sue Crabtree, Phyllis Gayle Burns, Shara Lynn Bryan, Loyd F. Curley Jr., Kathleen Morton, Catherine Cantrell, Vernon Taylor Smith, Edward V. Hallmark.

Those ampla cum laude were Diane Smith, Thomas E. Hough, Sonja Jo Peach, Jerry M. Williams, Patty E. Jones, Patsy Lewis, Alma Valerio, Charlotte Shive.

Those cum laude are Glynda C. Fleming, Byrum C. Lee Jr., Michael K. Ridens, Sam M. Buchanan, Richard Caballero, Barbara Ann Thompson, and William Caire.

it to the air show, and a chance for Frenchmen to see America's space twins, developed a surprising political turn.

While their plane was high over the Atlantic, American officials announced that Humphrey and De Gaulle would meet Sunday afternoon at the Elysee Palace.

There was immediate speculation that Humphrey might try to set up a meeting between De Gaulle and President Johnson. Other observers thought Humphrey probably was only paying the courtesy call expected of the visiting vice president of an Allied nation.

De Gaulle and Johnson had a conference when the French president was in Washington for the funeral of President John F. Kennedy in November 1963, but they have not met since.

VIET CRISIS

There was no announcement of what Humphrey and De Gaulle will discuss. But it was considered almost certain that they would talk over the sharp policy differences between Washington and Paris on the Viet Nam crisis, the Dominican Republic and the North Atlantic Alliance.

With President Johnson's praise and thanks still ringing in their ears and with special medals given them by Johnson, the astronauts and Humphrey took off from Andrews Air Base in the President's jet at 4:27 a.m. EDT.

Before they got aboard the sleek Air Force One, Humphrey told newsmen they were going as observers and to let other people see them and "I hope they enjoy a very pleasant weekend which they richly deserve."

WIVES ALONG

The astronauts' wives went along, but their children were left behind—at the White House where the families had spent the night. The children were to go home to Texas later today.

Johnson announced the trip to Paris at a State Department reception Thursday night.

Humphrey was asked if the appearance of the space twins was America's answer to the huge new Soviet transport displayed in Paris several days ago.

"No, we are not trying to compete," Humphrey said. "We just want to give people the chance to see these great men."

Earlier this week the Soviets drew wide attention at the Paris air show by unveiling their giant new transport plane said to be capable of carrying 720 passengers or a payload of 80 tons.

There will be more to the trip abroad for the space twins. But the details were still being worked out, NASA spokesmen said.

Johnson made his surprise announcement at the State Department, where the astronauts appeared before a gathering of foreign diplomats and narrated the historic films they took during their flight.

"Many people in many lands were thrilled by what you have done," the President said. "I want you to join our delegation in Paris, at the Paris air show, and go out among the friendly

C. W. Nevins Dies Monday

Charles W. Nevins, 76, former Big Spring resident and a retired Texas & Pacific Railway Co. conductor, died in Veterans Administration Hospital in Bonham Monday night, friends here learned. Services for Mr. Nevins were held Wednesday in Sherman, where he resided at the time of his death. Burial was in the West Hill Cemetery there.

He retired as conductor here in 1954. He had served for 30 years at the time. The Nevins made their home here for a number of years. They were members of the First Baptist Church. He moved first to Fort Worth in 1957 and more recently, transferred his residence to Sherman.

He was a veteran of WWI and a past deputy commander of WWI Veterans of Texas. He is survived by his widow, and a sister, who lives in Sherman.

Cub Olympics Set July 10

July 10 has been set as the date for the annual summer Cub Olympics. Frosty Robison, camping and activities chairman of the Lone Star district, announced today.

Chuck Condray will be general chairman of the event, said Robison, and arrangements for the various events will be announced by him. There will be traditional relays, softball throw, javelin throw and other similar contests as well as one for the den mothers.

The olympics will be held at the old football stadium starting at 3 p.m.

Vessels Tied Up By Officer Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—The American maritime industry has begun to feel the pinch of the ship officers' strikes which already have immobilized two score ships in Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports.

In addition, tieups of three keystone tankers on the Pacific Coast were blamed on the stoppage. The unofficial explanation was that the tankers, although in Pacific coastwise operation, are among the few ships there covered by Atlantic Coast contracts. Outside of these tieups there was no sign of any immediate strike threat on the West Coast, where negotiations are continuing and several contract extensions have been made.

Some shipping companies have begun diverting their cargoes to foreign-flag ships, which are not involved in the stoppage. There also is some shifting of cargoes to U.S. flag ships operated by companies that are not struck.

MANY AT SEA

Twenty-five companies that operate 249 ships—more than one-quarter of the American merchant marine of 900 ships—have been struck. But only a small fraction of the 249 ships have been affected because most are at sea or in foreign ports. Some shipping companies, scenting trouble, stepped up their sailing schedules and rushed their ships to sea.

About 1,300 engine room officers are in the third day of a strike against nine companies that operate 184 passengers and dry cargo ships.

DECK OFFICERS

About 300 deck officers are in the second day of a strike against 16 companies that operate 65 tankers.

The contracts of the two unions expired at midnight Tuesday. Several other maritime unions, whose contracts expired at the same time, agreed to contract extensions.

The engine room officers strike tied up four military cargo ships, but one, the freighter Attleboro Victory, which had been delayed 1½ days, sailed from New York Thursday night for Greece and Turkey with 5,100 tons of military cargo.

The ship, owned by the Prudential Lines, is being operated for the Navy's Military Sea Transportation Service.

A spokesman for the engineers' union—the AFL-CIO Marine Engineers Beneficial Association—said military authorities originally had not included the Attleboro Victory on a list of ships seeking exemption.

Military ships traditionally were exempted in past maritime strikes.

Another military ship, scheduled to sail for North Europe, is reported strikebound at the

Replacement Nominated For Secretary Of Army

WASHINGTON (AP)—Stephen Ailes, whose resignation as secretary of the Army effective July 1 was announced Thursday by President Johnson, today goes before a congressional committee which is investigating alleged sharp practices of a firm making loans to servicemen.

It was learned earlier this week that Ailes in 1956 had bought 50 shares of stock in the firm, Federal Services Finance Corp., for each of his four children. Each of these holdings now amounts to 144 shares.

The firm does a $67-million a year business. It was known in the Pentagon at least three months ago that Ailes wanted to resign and return to his Washington law practice, so there was nothing sudden about the decision. The President nominated Stanley R. Resor, now undersecretary of the Army, to replace Ailes.

At the time of the stock disclosure, a Pentagon announcement said Ailes "has never participated in any corporation or government action affecting the operation" of the finance company. It said he invested funds in the stock as guardian of his children under the will of his mother.

The company has denied any wrongdoing in its lending practices to servicemen. There had been testimony before a House

Banking subcommittee about servicemen signing blank powers of attorney and paying charges they had not been told about.

At Thursday's subcommittee hearing, it was disclosed that eight of the 12 directors of the corporation are high ranking retired military officers.

Miss Tubb Is Honoree At Shower

Miss Patricia Tubb, bride-elect of Kenneth Eubanks, was honored Thursday with a kitchen shower in the ranch home of Mrs. Bill McIlvain.

Miss Tubb was attired in a white pleated skirt topped with a yellow lace overblouse and was presented a corsage fashioned of small kitchen gadgets.

Joining the hostess and honoree in greeting guests were the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. H. E. Tubb, and her fiancé's mother, Mrs. C. R. Eubanks.

The honoree's sister, Miss Gloria Tubb, presided at the refreshment table which was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of white and yellow roses in a crystal vase. Other appointments were of crystal and silver.

Guests were registered in a large cook book which was presented to Miss Tubb as a gift from the hostess.

Approximately 25 guests called.

The couple plan to be married July 1 in the Lakeview Baptist Church.

TEL Class Gives Blankets For Use Of Victims

Quilts were donated to disaster victims this week by the TEL Sunday school class of First Baptist Church. The group met Thursday for the regular work day and covered dish luncheon at the church.

The class sent two quilts to Hale Center and will donate two more which will go for use at Sanderson.

The invocation was by Mrs. Ealy Jackson, and Mrs. J. E. Brown was in charge of the business session.

A report was heard on the farwell coffee held Wednesday morning in the home of Mrs. Irene McKinley, 617 Colgate, for Mrs. Pearl Coker who is moving to Mount Vernon this week.

Eight members and three visitors attended. The guests were Mrs. Hilda Harding, Mrs. Eula Hall and Mrs. Ethel Berryhill.

The next meeting will be July 8.

The Truth About WIGS by Bette B.

BETTE B.

There have been rumors spreading around that the Bette B. Wig Clinic is planning to close its doors or sell out. This is the most ridiculous idle gossip I can think of and the person or persons responsible, should bow their heads in shame.

The Bette B. Wig Clinics are in their infancy. We are expanding and growing slowly but gradually. Besides our Odessa shoppe, we have a branch in Austin, which my mother runs, and will soon have one in Oklahoma City and another in Midland.

When we opened our Big Spring shoppe, it was like coming back home to me, and we are not about to give it up. The reception here is great and I honestly believe we can do a great service to you gals and guys too, we have toupees for you fellows.

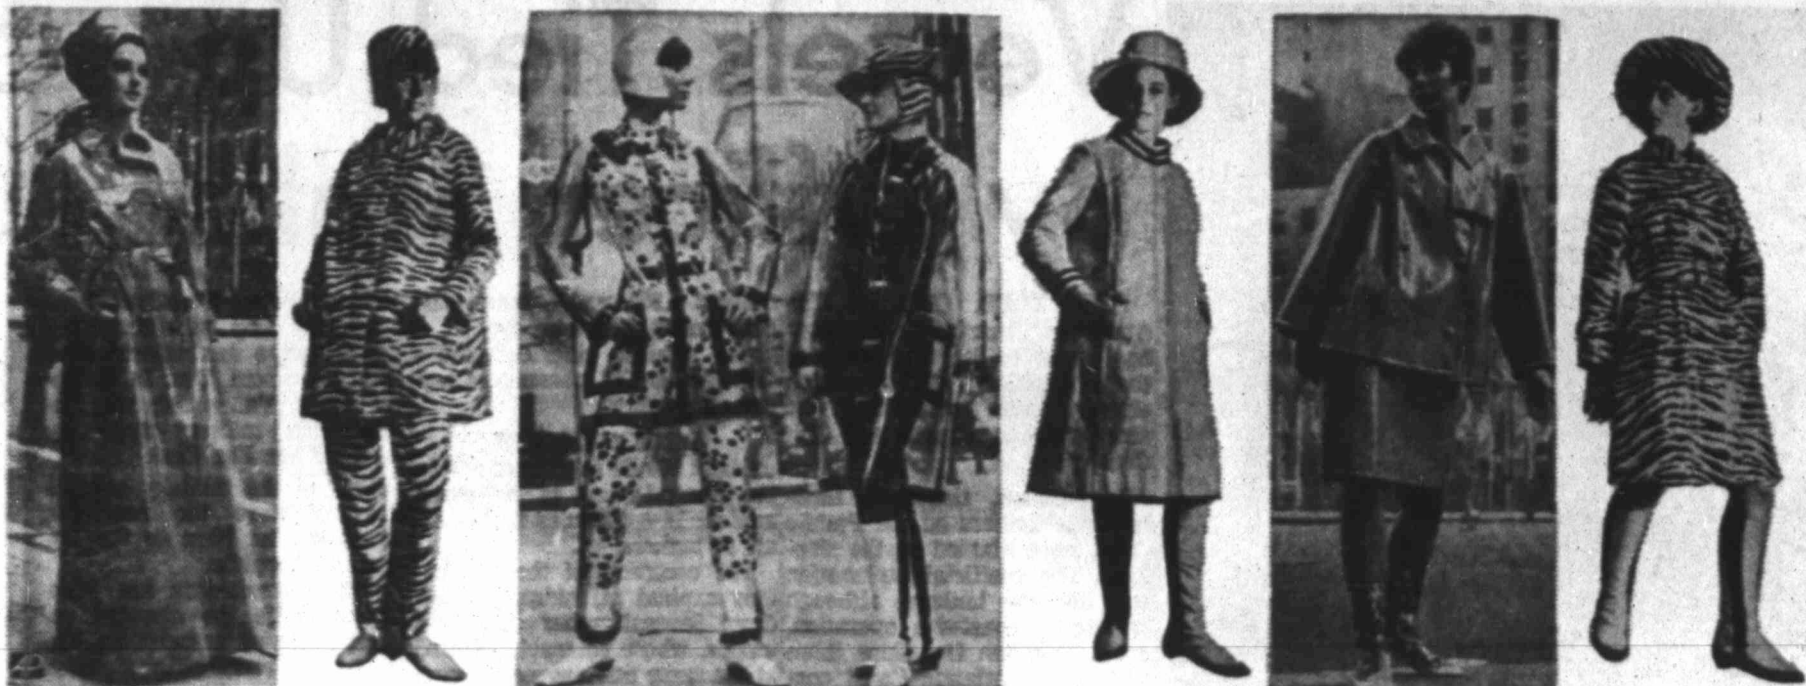

Some years ago I did sell out my Beauty School here but I'm back in Wigs, to stay.

Our shoppe may not be ultra swank, in fact the emphasis is on the finest quality wigs at fair low prices. We can do this with a very low overhead, rather than expensive surroundings. Wig sales and wig styling have to pay our overhead and bring in some income, so by keeping our overhead low, we can sell quality wigs at wholesale and below and still make out.

We buy beauty supplies at jobbers prices which are 40% below wholesale, these we sell to beauty shops. Our wigs, however are all purchased directly from the factory at quantity prices, enabling us to sell to jobbers who in turn sell wholesale to retailers. This is the answer to our very low prices. Our prices are 40% to 50% below retail even when not on special sale.

All our wigs are 100% human hair and 100% guaranteed against any defects during the lifetime of the wig. If our styling isn't 100% satisfactory, there is no charge. We custom fit all wigs and guarantee perfection in the fit.

We are at 1704 Gregg St. Phone 3-4411, why don't you come in for a look? —Adv.

Slippery Vinyl—Sleek Status Seeker

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP)—A slippery character has oiled its way up the fashion ladder until it really has made it big. It's vinyl. It's camp. It's in.

Despite its plebeian beginning, the material is now so well polished it is socially acceptable.

to, indeed in great demand by all chic women.

Ironically, vinyl had to be recognized abroad before it could be appreciated at home. So vinyl went to Paris, charmed the French couturiers and eventually the world's fashion press. Then it was ready to return home again, a fashion celebrity.

In all fairness American snobbery had nothing to do with vinyl's early lack of acceptance. It simply wasn't ready yet for its place in the sun, wind and rain.

During its humble beginning, it was praised as practical, hardy, and a good worker. But it lacked class. It served well as a scrubable kitchen table cloth but it was not aesthetic enough for the dining room.

It tried hard to substitute for leather, it got hot and sticky in summer and clammy cold in the winter. In the fashion industry, despite its water-shedding qualities, vinyl was strictly back closet.

Then it got around to improving itself. It learned to unbend. Today vinyl is soft and flexible. Its personality shines in bright reds, yellows, greens and oranges.

It has gotten culture. Zebra stripes, dalmatian spots, bold color panels—all on art stuff—has become a part of its make up.

More over, the new vinyl has become daring (in its transparent form), fun and young. American manufacturers, like the French, are completely won over by its new charm.

Men like these: Onion sandwiches. Use buttered thinly sliced white bread and paper-thin slices of Spanish onion. Mayonnaise and minced parsley can go along with the onion filling. Don't forget to sprinkle the onions with salt.

When you are using canned minced clams for a dip and have clam juice left over, mix it with tomato juice and seasonings and serve as a "cocktail."

Cook chicken livers in butter and chop; add to scrambled eggs just before the mixture sets. Nice for lunch or brunch.

From an old Southern cookbook: Boil or steam large sweet potatoes. Remove skins and slice about half an inch thick. Spread each slice with soft butter and sprinkle with sugar. Brown in the oven.

Cooked green snap beans take to minced dill (fresh or dried).

If you are serving salmon loaf as one of the hot dishes for a buffet supper party, make the loaf from the finest variety of canned salmon that you can buy. The flavor will count!

Red caviar is delicious added to canned madrilene and served as a dressing for sliced avocado on crisp greens.

Epicurean spread for crisp thin triangles of buttered toast: red caviar mixed with sour cream and a dash of lemon juice.

Friday night supper: salmon patties served with French fried potatoes, broccoli and lemon butter.

Cook pared diced squash (any kind) in a small amount of salted boiling water just until tender; drain. Mash with butter and lots of freshly-ground black pepper. The pepper does the trick in making a bland vegetable really flavorful. Try it!

FAREWELL PARTY

Mrs. Norman Furlong Complimented At Tea

A farewell tea, honoring Mrs. Norman Furlong, was held Thursday in the director's quarters of the Veterans Administration Hospital. Mrs. Donald D. Van Meter was hostess for the complimentary affair from 2 to 4 p.m.

Dr. Furlong has retired from service with the hospital, and the couple planned to leave today for their new home in Orange. They had resided here for almost a year.

As Mrs. Furlong said goodbye to local acquaintances, she was attired in a pink linen suit with matching accessories.

Mrs. Van Meter wore a white linen sheath.

Guests were served from a tea table covered with a white linen cutwork cloth and appointed with silver and crystal. The centerpiece was of gold and yellow spider chrysanthemums. Mrs. R. H. Alonzo and Mrs. I. B. Branges presided at the table.

Mrs. Van Meter presented a gold and jade-colored bracelet to the honoree as a farewell gift.

Approximately 40 guests called.

Here's How Excise Cut Affects Buyer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are questions and answers on consumer angles of the new excise tax reduction bill passed by Congress and awaiting President Johnson's signature.

Q. How will consumers benefit from the excise tax reduction?

A. By $4.6 billion of tax savings, a stimulus to prolong the business expansion, and quite probably, a small drop in the cost of living.

Q. How much stimulus to jobs and production is foreseen?

A. Economists say the savings, when spent and resented, will generate about $10 billion worth of new national output. That is about one-third as much as the massive 1964 income tax cut provided.

LIVING COST

Q. What will happen to living costs?

A. A decline of 3-10 of 1 per cent in the July consumer price index is possible, and then a smaller drop in January when the second stage of cuts takes effect.

Q. Why "possible"? Why not certain?

A. Because price rises for other products may cancel out the savings. And because some firms may not pass on all the tax savings to consumers in the form of price reductions.

Q. Aren't price reductions automatic?

A. No. Manufacturers and sellers are not legally bound to pass on the savings. If some decide instead to pocket them for extra profit, the economic benefits will be lessened.

Q. What can consumers expect, then?

A. Most manufacturers, including the biggest, will cut prices. Some already have. Many retailers have announced — in the case of the 10 per cent retail taxes being abolished immediately, on furs, jewelry, luggage, handbags, toiletries and cosmetics — that the tax would simply be scratched off the price tag.

Q. How soon will retail prices reflect the repeal of the other group of excises — those levied on manufacturers, such as the 10 per cent tax on freezers and garage disposers?

A. At once, in most cases. All major makers of radio and television sets and phonographs, for instance, already have posted new "suggested retail prices." Most of these are 6 to 8 per cent lower.

Q. Why not 10 per cent lower?

A. Because the 10 per cent excise tax is on the factory cost, before distribution and sales expenses and dealers' markups are added.

Q. What manufacturers' excises are being eliminated immediately?

A. Besides radio and television sets and phonographs, the list includes refrigerators, freezers, records, electric and gas appliances, sporting goods, cameras, film, photographic equipment, room air conditioners, business machines, musical instruments, fountain and ball-point pens, mechanical pencils, lighters, matches and playing cards. Most were taxed at 10 per cent, a few at 5.

Q. What about automobiles?

A. The 10 per cent tax on new cars is reduced to 7 per cent, retroactive to May 15. It will drop to 6 per cent next Jan. 1; to 4 per cent on Jan. 1, 1967; to 2 per cent a year later; and to 1 per cent on Jan. 1, 1969.

NEW CAR

Q. How much will I benefit in buying a new car?

A. The manufacturers are reducing prices by the full amount of the tax cuts. The first-step cut — 3 per cent of the factory price, retroactive to May 15 — represents an average saving to the buyer of $85 to $70 a car. By Jan. 1, 1969, when the tax drops to a permanent 1 per cent, the over-all saving will be about $200.

Q. Will automobile dealers pass the cuts along to consumers as the factories reduce prices?

A. The full cuts will be reflected on the "recommended retail price" sticker on the car window. However, a dealer could shave down your saving by giving you less on your trade-in.

Q. I have bought a new car since May 15; how do I get the benefit of the retroactivity clause for passenger cars?

Flooded Streams Bring Colorado More Misery

DENVER (AP) — Rampaging rivers and creeks, fed by continuing rains, heaped more misery and property damage today on flood-stricken Colorado.

At least four dams burst and numerous bridges washed out late Thursday night in the eastern and southern parts of the state. The floods have left hundreds homeless and damaged many businesses.

DAM GONE

The state patrol reported Agate Dam was knocked out, about 65 miles east of Denver. As a result, US 40 was closed by the patrol from Strasburg to the Kansas line.

Dams were reported burst on Big Sandy Creek in El Paso County and on the Fountain River north of Pueblo. Cripple Creek Dam was reported collapsed, sending high water toward the Arkansas River near Canon City.

GIRL DROWNS

A 13-year-old girl drowned when she attempted to cross a swollen creek near Loveland.

Meanwhile, the metropolitan area of Denver continued to dig out of the mess left by the South Platte River.

Surveying flood damage to his home district, Rep. Roy McVickers, D-Colo., said: "It isn't possible."

Representatives of federal and state agencies planned to meet in Denver to discuss flood relief action for the city and other areas of the state. President

POWs May Win Release

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Arrangements were reported being made today for the release of two U.S. paratroopers captured by Dominican rebels.

Pfc. Larry Leed of Conestoga, Pa., and Spec. 4 Donald Jones of Pomona, Calif., were captured Thursday after entering the rebel sector of the capital in a jeep and trailer. The two told newsmen they had driven up to a checkpoint at the security zone boundary and had been waved on into rebel territory by Honduran guards of the Inter-American Peace Force.

Col. Francisco Caamaño Dengo, the rebel leader, indicated their release was contingent on the peace force returning rebel prisoners in its hands. He told a newsmen they would be held "until we hear about 30 of our prisoners."

But Gen. Teimo Vargas of Ecuador, military adviser to OAS Secretary-General Jose A. Mora, said arrangements were being made for release of the paratroopers probably today.

Vargas said rebel leaders in notifying the Inter-American Peace Force of the paratroopers' capture, had also asked about 30 Dominican civilians detained by the peace force Tuesday, the first day of renewed fighting in the Dominican capital.

But Vargas stressed that rebel leaders had said nothing about holding the Americans hostage until the Dominicans were released.

The renewed fighting Tuesday and Wednesday cost the lives of four U.S. paratroopers. Another 35 Americans and five Brazilian soldiers, including a lieutenant, were wounded.

Stations Use Closings As A Profit Bid

DALLAS (AP) — About 600 service stations plan to close here Sunday in hopes of inducing oil companies to give operators a higher profit margin, a station operator said here.

Jim Stobaugh, president of the Greater Dallas Texaco Dealer Association and co-ordinator of the protest, said last Sunday, the first day of the closings, that about 200 stations in the Dallas area closed.

"We feel like we're gaining momentum," he said. "I hope we can bring this to the public's attention and we have every hope of being able to discuss the problem with the companies."

Stobaugh said the major oil companies have failed to adjust profit margins to increased operating costs.

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Fri., June 18, 1965 5-A

Stock Plunge Not Bad As It Looks

NEW YORK (AP) — Judged by the popular indexes, stock prices have taken a big shellacking in the last month. But other figures tell a less disturbing story. You have to know how each index is fashioned and how to interpret it.

The Dow Jones index of 30 industrial stocks dropped from a record 939.62 May 14 to 868.71 June 14. This plunge of 70.91 points caused many people to call this a major break. But the decline was around 8 per cent, a mere drop in the bucket compared to the 27 per cent slide from the 1961 high of 734.91 to the 1962 low of 535.76, or the 89 per cent plunge from the 1929 high of 381.17 to the 1932 low of 41.22.

And the prices of the 30 industrial stocks used in the index bear small resemblance to the big figures in the index. Prices on June 14 ranged from a high of $238 1/4 for Du Pont to a low of in 1957, and thus is closer to modern stock prices than the Dow, which originated in 1897 with 12 stocks but took its present form of 30 industrial issues in October 1928.

The S & P is weighted to give effect to the number of shares outstanding in each issue, and to any stock splits, and to the average during the base years of 1941-43.

CHANGES COME

The Dow Jones 30 industrials have seen many substitutes since 1928, some being dropped and others added to make the index more representative of the stock market as its character changes with the years.

The divisor is changed to show the effect of stock splits and stock dividends, and such things as Du Pont's distribution of its General Motors stock holdings. And that is why today the total closing price of the 30 stocks isn't divided by 30 but by 2.278 — the latest change June 16 being due to a two-for-one split in Union Carbide.

Another popular index is Standard & Poor's 500 stocks. On June 17 this index stood at 84.01, with the 425 industrial components at 89.09. This is closer to the actual market. But this index is weighted so that it also doesn't give the actual average price.

Why and how are the index averages weighted? The S & P index was started

Minister Decides On Medical Field

GALVESTON (AP) — A minister, who decided he wanted to be a doctor, took a long route to get there—64,000 miles in 24 months during one period.

But, on graduation from the University of Texas Medical Branch here this spring, the Rev. Maple L. Avery of Brady received his medical degree.

Dr. Avery, or the Rev. Dr. Avery, became pastor of a 1,000 member East Fourth Street Baptist Church in Big Spring. It was during this pastorate that the affable, soft-spoken minister decided to return to college to further his education.

"I have never attended a seminary," he said, "as the Baptists do not require it as a prerequisite to being ordained, but I wanted to continue my education."

With this in mind the pastor drove, after Sunday services every week for two years, to Baylor University in Waco. The distance was 310 miles. He attended classes Monday through Friday and then drove back to Big Spring on Friday nights for an average of some 64,000 miles in 24 months.

He received a bachelor of arts degree from Baylor in 1956. He had attended Howard Payne College in Brownwood earlier. Rev. Avery then completed his pre-med work at McMurry College in Abilene, where he was also pastor of the University Baptist Church.

Dr. Avery was named, recently, as one of 10 national recipients of the 1965 Sheard-Sanford Award of the American Society of Clinical Pathologists.

Dr. William O. Russell, society president, said Avery was selected as a winner for his research paper, "Urinary Riboflavin Excretion in Tumor-Bearing Rats." This research was conducted under the sponsorship of Dr. F. Lamont Jennings, chairman of the department of pathology at the medical branch. He also presented a paper to the International Academy of Pathologists in Philadelphia last March.

He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa medical fraternity, Alpha Omega Alpha honor medical society, and Mu Delta. He is serving his internship at Memorial Hospital in Houston.

Dr. Avery is married to the former Iva Johnson of Brady, and they have three children.

Two Little Averys Were Born Here

The Rev. Maple L. Avery came to Big Spring, as pastor of the East Fourth Baptist Church, from the Plainview Baptist Church, Colorado City. He was 18 years old when he assumed the pastorate at Plainview.

The young pastor, who had been preaching since he was 12 or 13 years old, according to the Rev. Billy Rudd, associate pastor at East Fourth Church, was 20 years old when he came to Big Spring as pastor in July, 1951. During his pastorate here he commuted to Waco weekly for two years, and received his bachelor's degree from Baylor University in 1956.

He served East Fourth until March, 1957, when he went to Levelland as pastor of the First Baptist Church. From there he went to the University Baptist Church in Abilene and, at the same time, did his pre-medical study at Howard Payne College.

The Averys' first child, Janice, 15, was born before they came to Big Spring, but Graham, 11, and Kendra, 8, were born in Big Spring.

SLIPPED IN GOD'S SIGHT

Solomon, who asked for divine guidance in ruling his people, and an understanding heart, was destined to build the magnificent temple. When it was completed, the Lord appeared before Solomon and made a promise to establish the throne of His kingdom upon Israel forever if Solomon continued to walk before God.

"Consecrate Life to God," is the title of the Sunday School Lesson for June 20, and the text is found in 1 Kings 9:1-9.

Even though he spoke 3,000 proverbs, wrote a thousand and five songs, and gave audience to thousands of people who sought the advice of his wisdom, he slipped in the sight of God. He gave thought only to enlarging his kingdom and to building magnificent structures, and all this led to his downfall.

Brotherhood To Hold Barbecue

WESTBROOK (SC) — The Baptist Brotherhood will have a barbecue at the Col-Tex Cabin on Lake Colorado City next Friday night, June 25. Families of Brotherhood members are invited.

Busy Tour Waits Orand

A busy and exciting four weeks await Byron Orand, pastor of the College Baptist Church, when he exchanges pulpits next month with the Rev. J. R. G. Graham, minister of the Viewfield Baptist Church in Dunfermline, Scotland.

Rev. Orand will pastor the Viewfield church, second largest Baptist church in Scotland, June 11, 18, 25 and Aug. 1. During that time he will also lead the entire Scotland Baptist Convention in a vacation Bible school clinic. He will attend a seminar by William Barclay, noted Scottish theologian, during the week of Aug. 28. He will visit in London, Brussels, Amsterdam (where he also will attend other theological lectures), Paris, Zurich and spend a day in Rome. The only other person in this area participating in the exchanges will be Tommy Brinkley, organist at the First Baptist Church in Midland, who will be accompanist for a Southern Baptist choir which will be part of the American group.

Graham's Film To Be Shown

Evangelist Billy Graham's feature-length dramatic film, "Shadow of the Boomerang," will be shown Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Sand Springs.

The public is invited to see this free showing, said the Rev. Dan Burrows, pastor. The film stars Georgia Lee and Dick Jones. The picture has an outdoor setting in Australia's outback, the vast interior region of the land "down under." The story is put against the backdrop of Billy Graham's Australian crusades and seeks to underline Godly reaction to human crises.

JAMES M. STEPHENS

Stephens Joins College Baptist

James M. Stephens has accepted a call to be the full-time minister of music and education at the College Baptist Church. He will move here the last week in July.

"We look forward to arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Stephens and to working with them in an enlarged ministry of reaching into the city with the outreach of our church," said the Rev. Byron Orand, pastor.

Stephens is a graduate of W. B. Ray High School in Corpus Christi. He earned a BBA degree from the University of Texas and is a graduate of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary where he earned his degree in religious education. Currently he is at the First Baptist Church in Granbury, where she owned and operated the Brazos Insurance Agency for the past three years.

Duties of the new staff member will include all ministries of the church related to the graded choir program, the educational and administrative work of the church, said Rev. Orand.

Departmental Convention Set In Bryan In July

BRYAN — Reports, sermons and fellowship will characterize the Mexican Baptist Departmental Convention when it meets here July 12-15.

An integral part of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, the convention will meet on the four evenings while auxiliary meetings are scheduled for the mornings and afternoons.

Highlight of the first convention session at Bryan's First Baptist Church will be the president's message by Josue Grijalva, dean at the Mexican Baptist Bible Institute in San Antonio. Hugo Ruiz, Fort Worth, will lead a Bible study. Jose Rivas, professor at Howard Payne College, Brownwood, will report on the monthly magazine, El Bautista Mexicano.

Other speakers at convention sessions include Lazaro Garcia, Lamesa, Ramiro Rodriguez, Bastrop, and T. A. Patterson, Texas Baptist Executive Secretary.

Woman's Missionary Union and the Pastors' Conference meet Tuesday morning. The WMU continues in the afternoon while the men's organization, Brotherhood, follows the ministers' meeting. The Sunday school organization will meet Tuesday morning and afternoon, while the Training Union meets Thursday. A total of 58 churches will be recognized for progress toward self support.

Berea Slates Parent's Night

Berea Baptist Church, where a two-week session of vacation Bible school has been completed with an enrollment of 327, will hold parent's night Sunday at 6:30 p.m.

The program will be presented by the children, and refreshments will be served in the Fellowship Hall following the program.

Speaker Justifies War-Time Killing

How to reconcile Christian teaching — to love one's neighbor — with the serviceman's obligation to kill in war when necessary, was discussed by Lt. Col. William R. Smith, USAF Retired, at the June 9 meeting of the Webb Holy Name Society.

Col. Smith said that one of the first things a Catholic is taught is to love his neighbor, even if he is an enemy, or if his ideology is different. He contrasted this ideal, and the fifth commandment not to kill, with the position of a man in the armed forces, trained to defend his nation at any cost.

"We don't want war but if it becomes necessary, we know we will have to fight," Col. Smith said. "We may even have to kill the enemy to achieve our goal."

"Moral theology traditionally upholds the principle that a war can be just and therefore lawful. Support for this principle can be found in the Old Testament where God commands wars to be fought. The books of the Macabees glorify defensive war. In the New Testament, soldiers are not required to lay down their arms," Col. Smith said.

"Natural reason also defends just war. The argument runs along these lines: The individual may use force to defend himself against unjust and violent attack; therefore, the state may do the same. A just war does not offend against the prohibition of killing because it is directed against a community which has committed an injustice. Because of the possibility of just and necessary wars, civil powers have the duty and the right to demand of their subjects what is necessary for the preservation and defense of the state."

Col. Smith then pointed out the requirements for a just war.

"First," he said, "it must be for a grave reason and all diplomatic efforts to reach a settlement — including arbitration, boycott, appeal to highest authority — have failed. Secondly, it must arise from a right intention — that is, to protect rights or to gain rights. Thirdly, the war must be waged in a just way with observation of international law."

Col. Smith, who retired from the Air Force after 23 years, has been active in the Holy Name Society at Dyess Air Force Base in Abilene, and is currently Grand Knight of that city's Knights of Columbus.

Church Plans Visitation Day

Kentwood Methodist Church is to observe a day of challenge and fulfillment Sunday in seeking commitments to a $19,300 budget.

Trained workers will visit in homes of members to explain the Kentwood Methodist program. More than a financial commitment is involved, for the visitation will stress attendance and participation in the church. Workers will interpret the program of benevolence to others, ministries on all levels, local congregational activity, Christian education, and building and grounds.

Officers of the every-member visitation are Floyd Pringle, Charles Richards, Tommy Franklin and Robert Cozart. The Rev. Henry Salley is pastor of Kentwood Methodist.

BEEN SHOPPING LATELY?

Sure! People go shopping for many things. Even a Church! But, then, they take Dad along!

Before you go shopping for a Church, make sure you know what you're looking for. For a Church isn't a theatre to provide entertainment, nor a club to fortify one's social position, nor a foundation to channel our charities.

A Church is a SCHOOL that trains whole families in spiritual perception. It is a FACTORY that makes earnest Christians. They're in evidence all over town.

A Church is a TOWER, giving a glimpse of life's horizons, far beyond the petty problems of each day.

A Church is a WORK-SHOP where one volunteers his talents in the most challenging tasks that confront humanity.

And, of course, a Church is HOME — the place where we're appreciated, where we're one of the Family!

But it doesn't hurt to admit that in one respect our churches are like our stores: There wouldn't be one in town if we didn't need what they offer!

Dawson Rodeo Opens Thursday

LAMESA (SC)—The 16th annual Dawson County Rodeo and Parade, sponsored by the Dawson County Rodeo Association, began Thursday at 4 p.m. It will continue through Saturday.

Eleven sheriff's posses and six junior riding clubs were in the parade. The Lynn County posse won first place, followed by the Martin County group in second and the Howard County posse in third.

The Lubbock Rangers took first place in the junior riding club division. The O'Donnell Gauchos were second and the Stanton Rangers third.

Winners in the rodeo events were:

Calf Roping — R. E. Josey, Post, 12.2 seconds; Robert Ragan, Big Spring, 13.1; and Muri Madis, Muleshoe, 13.4.

Barrel Race — Jim Brock, Dimmitt, 47 points; Sidney Johnson, Snyder, 42; and Tony Haber, Muleshoe, 38.

Bull Riding — Johnny Shields, Odessa, 47; Larry Sturgess, Tulia, 43; and Tom Pruitt, Lamesa, 39.

Judges were Lloyd Coslin, Lubbock, and Daniel Barr, Big Spring.

Girls' Barrel Race — Dorothy Boulden, Midland, 18.7 seconds; Iris Smith, Lamesa, 19.2; and Judy Garnett, Post, 19.3.

Dawson County Ropers Association Calf Roping — Frank Menick, Eunice, N. M., 14.8 seconds; Kenneth Thomas, Lamesa, 15.4; and Kent Youngblood, Lamesa, 21.1.

JOANNA PATTERSON

Miss Patterson Is Finalist For Miss Wool

ODESSA — Joanna Patterson of Big Spring is among the finalists who will be competing tonight in the Miss Wool of the Year contest.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Patterson, 407 Edwards Blvd., and a freshman student at Howard County Junior College.

Twelve beauties, wearing a variety of wool outfits, will compete to succeed Lynda Allen of Sterling City as Miss Wool.

The winning contestant will receive a complete wardrobe, a one-year college scholarship and expense - paid trips representing the wool industry.

The Texas titlist will also compete for the national Miss Wool title.

Pageant activities began Tuesday, with preliminary interviews with the judges Thursday.

Wool swim suits, evening gowns and sports outfits were tailored for the entrants Thursday.

The finalists are Miss Patterson, Carolyn Hand and Sharon Ross, both of Fort Worth; Janice Archer, Austin; Jacqueline Broussard, Houston; Connie Chadwell, Junction; Marguerite Gunn, San Angelo; Janice Kinard, Abilene; Sandra Whitaker, Ozona; and Frances Rudolph, Coleman.

Stanton Hires Attorney In School Case

STANTON — The Stanton school board has retained W. M. Browder Jr., with the Midland law firm of Stubbeman, McRae, Sealy and Laughlin, to represent the district and board in legal action filed by two former Negro teachers. The suit, asking for contracts for the 1965-66 school year, was filed in Pecos after the two Negroes and two white teachers were not given contracts for the coming school year.

The faculty members were not rehired after schools were consolidated for economic reasons, along with lack of a sufficient number of students to maintain the closed schools at Stanton and at Courtney.

A petition was served on Supt. Beryl Clinton and five school board members, naming them in the suit alleging discrimination. The two teachers were represented by one attorney from Houston and two from New York.

The Stanton board's attorney in the case is preparing an answer to the petition, but no indication has been given as to when a hearing will be called in Pecos.

Bare-ly Holding On

"Hey, mom, what's coming off here." Eating quickly, many youngsters rounded out the annual Aggie barbecue playing games in the giant amphitheatre. The smaller ones were content to watch.

Center Gets Only 1 Gift

The Howard County Rehabilitation Center reported only one gift Friday morning in its drive to equip its building at Third and Lancaster. The gift, a sewing machine, has now reached $6,391.77, about one-third of the needed $20,000.

Friday's gift was $10, given in memory of H. C. Hooser Sr. by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eudy.

Center officials stress that the center needs actual therapeutic equipment, but will accept gifts in any amount. Information about needed devices is contained in a brochure available at the center's offices. Anyone interested in helping may call AM 9-2880.

Some previous donors: Donna, Ann and Jimmy Young, $3; Joe Froman, $3; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hartley, $45; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mead, $100; E. C. Ahrhart, $10; Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, $5; Eunice Kilgore, $5; Bill and Pearl Ashby, $15; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Underwood, $10; Frank Appel, $10; Mrs. J. H. Green, $5; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Satterwhite, $5; Lona Satterwhite, $5; Brenda and Francis Butler, $5; Frank C. Perry, $10; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wood, $5; J. and Thelma Tucker, $10; Board member $15; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wilbanks, $5; Ronnie and Robin Hughes, $10; A. S. Smith, $5; Bill and Lucille Joy, $10; Mrs. O. F. Williams, $10; John Gary and family, and Daryl Hahertz and family, $100; Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Safford, $5; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Langshore, $10; and F. D. Rogers, $10.

District Gets Federal Funds

The Office of Education, Washington, D. C., has certified payment of $169,312 in impacted area funds to the Big Spring Independent School District, according to a telegram received this morning from Sen. John Tower.

The funds are made available by Congress for support of school districts serving children of federally-connected families, and in lieu of taxes formerly paid on property now owned by the government and taken off tax rolls.

"The district has a total tentative entitlement of $225,750 for the 1965 fiscal year," Sen. Tower said, "and the additional funds will be provided later."

Supt. Sam Anderson said $215,000 had been placed in the budget figures for the 1965-66 school year because the total allotment is not always paid because of insufficient appropriations.

"We can certainly use the entire $225,750," he said, "but we cannot be sure enough to justify setting the budget for the entire amount."

Mr. Roper was a member of the Baptist church and of the Woodmen of the World.

At the time of his death, he was the second oldest resident of Borden County. He had been in ill health since Jan. 8, 1964.

Palbearers will be Mardes Clayton and Don Cox of Gail, Pete Buchanan, Lamesa, Pink Mitchell, Lubbock, and Buford Hull, Ernest Rainey and R. V. Middleton and Charles Engle Jr.

Mr. Roper is survived by a host of nieces and nephews in this area of West Texas, among them Mrs. Floyd Hull, whom Mr. and Mrs. Roper reared,

Anti-Firearms Bill Explained To Republicans

Republicans of Howard County, assembled at the First Federal Savings and Loan building Thursday night, heard Donald Judd, with Cosden, present a review of past and presently proposed firearms legislation in Congress. He explained features of SB-1592, sponsored by Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.), which points to limiting freedom to sell and own firearms.

"The purported purpose of the bill, to limit criminal use of firearms," Judd said, "will not be realized by the Dodd bill. The Second Amendment to the Constitution reads: 'the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed,' and the bill will be in conflict with this amendment."

Judd, a member of the National Rifle Association, urged citizens to write Congressmen their views on the Dodd bill.

Harold Hall, candidate for state representative in the June 28th special election, reviewed his campaign activities and reported support everywhere in the seven-county district. He said he intended to work a 24-hour day from now until election.

Bill Sheppard, Howard County Republican Chairman, closed the meeting with a request for all-out support for Hall. He announced plans for the appearance of Rep. Frank Cahoon of Midland when he arrives in Big Spring June 24.

Judge's Ruling Arrives Here

A copy of the ruling by Justice K. K. Woodley of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals on the Jack Eubank habeas corpus matter has been received by Wayne Burns, district attorney.

Burns said he is doing some research on the matter and it is possible the state will ask for a rehearing in the case. The appellate court reversed the holding of the 118th District Court in the case and has ordered the release of Eubank from custody. He is being held in the county jail here while New Mexico authorities are seeking to return him to New Mexico to continue serving a life sentence in that state.

Burns said he has 15 days in which to ask for a rehearing. He said that he would decide soon if the state has grounds for such a request.

Until the official mandate is received in the case, he said, Eubank will continue in the custody of Sheriff Aubrey Standard.

The ruling of the court, as has been announced, held Eubank entitled to release on the habeas corpus writ because the extradition warrant was not accompanied by a copy of the indictment, the sentence or other papers confirming his conviction in New Mexico.

Webb Class 65-H To Get Pilot's Wings Saturday

A total of 32 officers at Webb AFB will step up to the ranks of Air Force pilots Saturday morning after a year of undergraduate pilot training. Class 65-H will hold its dining-in tonight at the Officers' Open Mess and the traditional wing review and graduation will be held Saturday on the base flight line.

Scheduled as Dining-In guest speaker is Lt. Gen. Thomas P. Gerrity, deputy chief of staff for Systems and Logistics, Headquarters USAF, Washington, D. C. The dining-in begins at 7 p.m. with dinner at 8 p.m.

Saturday at 9 a.m., the 32 graduating students will assemble on the flight line ramp to receive silver wings of Air Force pilots. On hand to witness the ceremony will be the guests, parents and wives of graduating officers. In case of inclement weather, the graduation will move to Withycombe Hall.

The Sheppard AFB band will provide music for the dining-in, tomorrow morning at the review and parade, and a unit will perform at the graduation ball Saturday night at the Officers' Open Mess.

The "commander's coffee" is set for graduation day as well as a base visitation for the wives and parents of class members. The group will make stops at the student squadron, aviation physiological training unit, synthetic trainers, static displays and the open mess.

Graduation evening there will be a formal reception beginning at 7 p.m. which will be followed by a buffet dinner and graduation ball.

Gen. Gerrity Speaks At Dining-In For Class

Lt. Gen. Thomas P. Gerrity will be the Dining-In speaker tonight for Undergraduate Pilot Training Class 65-H Gen. Gerrity is the deputy chief of staff for systems and logistics, Headquarters U. S. Air Force, Washington, D. C.

The general speaks to the 32 officers who will tomorrow pin on silver wings of Air Force pilots.

Gen. Gerrity is a native of Harlowton, Mont. He attended Chicago public schools and later attended the Illinois Institute of Technology.

In August, 1939, he was appointed a flying cadet and completed his flying training in May, 1940, commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Air Reserve. His first assignment was with the 15th Bomb Squadron at Barksdale Field, La., and in October, 1940, he was transferred to the 17th Bomb Squadron at Savannah Field, Ga.

After graduating from the advanced management course at Harvard University in 1948, Gen. Gerrity was assigned to Wright Field, Ohio, becoming the chief of the bomb branch. Moving to Carswell AFB in 1950, he assumed command of the 11th Bomb Group, SAC. In 1952, after promotion to brigadier general, he became commander of the 19th Air Division at Carswell.

In 1962, he became deputy chief of staff for systems and logistics at Headquarters USAF and was appointed to lieutenant general.

LT. GEN. T. P. GERRITY

His current duties include headquarters staff responsibilities for weapon and system development and production, procurement management, transportation, supply, logistics plans, foreign military assistance and maintenance.

The general is a command pilot, and his decorations include the Distinguished Service Medal, Silver Star, Air Medal and the Purple Heart. He holds an honorary doctor of humanities degree from the University of Tulsa.

Fire Damages House On Bell

A fire discovered shortly after 8 a.m. this morning spread quickly through several rooms and the attic of a two-story frame house at 510 Bell, leaving heavy damage to the interior.

Flames were breaking out of the west wall of the house when firemen arrived, with heavy black smoke coming from attic windows. The fire did not break through the roof, however.

The west portion of the house and the attic received the major damage. Fire Marshal A. D. Meador said. The fire apparently started at the kitchen stove, moving up a wall and into the attic, he said. Owner of the house was Aleno Bond.

No one was in the structure at the time the fire began, firemen reported.

Firemen were called at 8:15 a.m. when a neighbor saw the smoke. Fire units remained at the scene until after 9 a.m. when remnants of the blaze inside the attic were extinguished.

OIL REPORT

Garza Wildcat To Test Abo

The location was staked 667 feet from the south and 1,957 feet from the west lines of section 93-25, H&T survey one-half mile northeast of discovery in the Von Roeder (Wolf-camp) field and one location west of the second well.

The location was spotted 467 feet from the north and east lines of section 603-97, H&T survey. It is also 1 1/2 miles south of the Rocker "A" multi-pay field.

Sun Oil Co. will drill its No. 1 Elizabeth Horwood to 8,800 feet as an Ellenburger wildcat 14 miles southwest of Sterling City. Operator will also test the Wolf-camp and Fusselman on the way down.

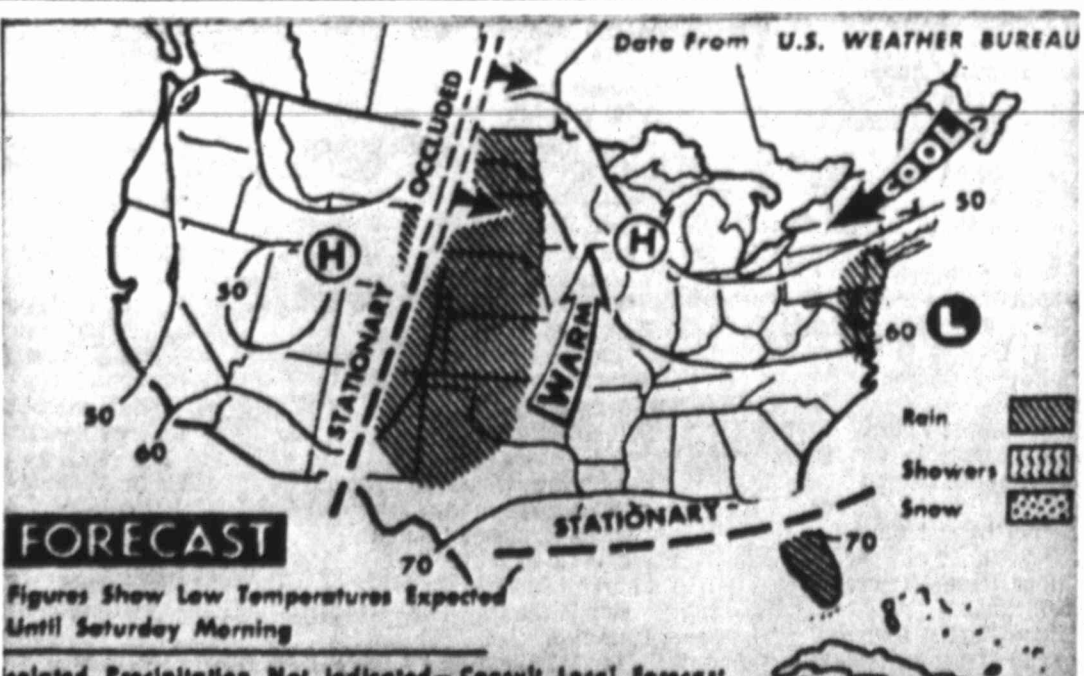

Location was staked 660 feet from the south and east lines of section 48-A, GC&SF survey, and is one location west of the Fusselman pool opener.

Amerada Petroleum Corp. has recovered oil and gas in its No. 8 Ed Murphy in Borden County 13 miles west of Ira. Operator drilled to 6,055 feet, set a 4 1/2-inch liner from 2,088 to 6,055 feet, and was waiting on cement.

He took a drillstem test from 6,005-55 feet. The tool was opened two hours and he had gas to the surface in 21 minutes at an estimated flow of 7,180 cubic feet per day. He reversed out 3.36 barrels of heavy oil and gas cut mud; 10.44 barrels of 39.7 gravity oil were recovered from below circulation stop, plus 180 feet of fluid with an estimated 25 per cent oil. Flow pressure ran from 112 to 648 pounds per square inch, and the one-hour final shut-in pressure was 2,279 pounds.

Minor Accident

One minor traffic mishap was reported Thursday evening, at Airbase Road and US 80. Officers said a car driven by Robert Allen, 1301 Utah Road, struck a highway sign, with minor damage to the car.

Weathermen predict showers Friday night in the mid-Atlantic coast, southern New England, Florida, the Plains states and along the eastern slopes of the Rockies. Clear to partly cloudy skies are forecast for the western third of the nation. It will be warmer in the Carolinas, the central Gulf states and upper Mississippi Valley. (AP WIREPHOTO MAP)

TO CIRCUIT COURT

Thornberry Appointment Leaves Patronage Plum

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A Texas patronage plum is up for grabs following President Johnson's appointment Thursday of U.S. Dist. Judge Homer Thornberry of Austin to the 5th U.S. Circuit Court.

Thornberry's appointment was accompanied by the transfer of U.S. Dist. Judge Adrian Spears from San Antonio to Austin.

PROMINENT FAMILY
Spears, member of a family prominent in San Antonio politics, was a lawyer when named to the bench in 1961. Among the matters he handled were pre-trial procedures in electrical equipment antitrust cases filed in Austin, Waco and San Antonio federal courts.

Thornberry, 56, was sworn as judge for the El Paso and Pecos divisions in December of 1963 and was shifted to his home town of Austin last year.

Joining him as a freshman on the circuit court bench will be former Mississippi Gov. J. P. Coleman, also appointed Thursday.

DRAWN ATTENTION
The circuit court recently has

JUDGE THORNBERRY

drawn attention because of the civil rights cases it hears. The court's jurisdiction includes parts of Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and the Canal Zone.

Thornberry resigned from Congress, where he established a reputation as a firm supporter of the administration and held a seat on the House Rules Committee, after representing Johnson's old 10th Texas District for 15 years.

Johnson attended a Thornberry appreciation barbecue two months before he became president and told the crowd: "No man has ever had a brother who was more faithful to me or to the people of the 10th District than Homer Thornberry."

SON OF MUTES
The son of deaf mute parents, Thornberry began a successful campaign for the legislature as he was completing courses at the University of Texas law school in 1936.

He was district attorney in Travis County during 1941-42, served in naval intelligence during the war and was a city councilman before succeeding Johnson in Congress.

Kiwanians Told Road Story, Urged To Support Bonds

Big Spring Kiwanians Thursday were urged not only to vote on Tuesday but to act as missionaries between now and that date to recruit support for the road bond election set June 22.

Joe Pickle, speaking for the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce highway committee, discussed the proposed improvements which are wrapped up in the election next week.

He said that the county must provide road-way for the jobs if the state is to move in and build the badly needed highways.

One of the projects for which right of way must be acquired soon, he said, is the North extension of FM 700 from its intersection with IS 20 east to connect with the Snyder highway. Funds for this project have been provided by the State Highway Department and the department is ready to start work as soon as right of way is secured.

Pickle said the bond issue will be in the amount of $600,000. The right-of-way costs for the project described above will be about $400,000.

The remaining $200,000 would be needed to acquire right of way for extending FM 700 from Goliad Street westward and north to tie into IS 20 about at the point where the Sands Motel is located.

Pickle told of the amazing development which followed the building of FM 700 along the southern and southeastern edge of town and also stressed that highway construction in this county has been a major income source for the past decade.

Communities which do not keep pace with their road programs and road needs are towns which diminish in population and income, he warned.

The bonds, if approved, would cost the average taxpayer only seven cents on each $100 taxable valuation on his property. "For the average resident," he said, "the annual cost will be less than the price of a carton of cigarettes."

The tax rate, he pointed out, will be $1.07 per hundred dollar valuation as compared with $1 at this time. However, Pickle explained, two years ago the rate was $1.07.

He warned that a simple majority is not enough to get the bond issue plan approved. The law requires a two-thirds majority. This makes it most imperative, he said, all qualified persons vote and that every one who believes the program of road building is important, make certain to go to the polls.

Charts and diagrams showing proposed road development were used to illustrate Pickle's remarks.

Radio Costs On Agenda

Representatives of manufacturers of radio transmission equipment will be in the Howard County Commissioners Court Monday to discuss the costs of providing the sheriff's office with a radio transmitter.

A. N. Standard, sheriff, told the court Thursday that the county's application for a license and construction permit had been approved by the Federal Communications Commission.

The court asked Standard to contact the radio manufacturers' representatives and invite them to draw up some prices for the court to consider.

Sheriff Standard has asked that the county commissioners provide his office with its own radio station. The sheriff's office is now served by the city police radio—the county paying $100 per month to the city for the service.

Standard argues the savings from the monthly unit would pay for the county's equipment in a few years. He also points out that the office needs an independent radio communication system and should be independent of the city police station.

N.Y. Lawmakers Support Lottery

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The New York Legislature is officially on record in favor of a state lottery to provide more money for public schools.

The lottery plan, passed by the Senate Monday, won Assembly approval Wednesday, 116-18, despite the opposition of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

DEAR ABBY

Keep It
At Home

DEAR ABBY: We have neighbors of ours. Every time they have a fight (which is about three times a week) the wife comes over here to cry on my wife's shoulder. The trouble is that they happen to be friends.

die of our dinner. Then the husband comes over here and tries to get his wife to go home with him. Then they start up all over again. Abby, we have three small children and you can imagine what it looks like to them. Please tell us how to put a stop to all this.

J. AND R.
DEAR J. AND R.: If your wife wants to be a human wall for her neighbor, tell her to do it during the daytime — and preferably at the neighbor's house. Furthermore, if you permit your home to be used as a domestic battleground, you are foolish. Tell your neighbors that you enjoy their company when they're compatible, but please to bury the hatchet at home because they are giving your children a rather ugly perspective of married life.

DEAR ABBY: I work in a large office. Recently a young man bought a toupee. It made him look years younger and very attractive. Yet the other men in the office kidded him about it until he doesn't wear it any more. Who do you think of toupees for men, Abby?

JEKYLL ISLAND, GA.
DEAR J. I., GA.: I think a good toupee — properly fitted — can do wonders for a man's morale. Some men are bald and couldn't care less. But if a man feels that he NEEDS hair, I say, buy a toupee and turn a deaf ear to all the kidding.

(And don't listen to any hair-raising stories.)

DEAR ABBY: In your opinion is there any help or hope for a liar? My son is married to one. She lies about anything and everything when the truth would do just as well. I've caught her in some big ones, but she makes up more lies to cover up. I have never made a scene about it. I pretend I believe her and change the subject. I love my son very much and would like to love his wife, too, but it is impossible under the circumstances. I have heard that lying with some people is a disease. If so, is it hereditary? My daughter-in-law's mother has a reputation for telling some pretty tall tales, but I do believe my daughter-in-law has her beat. What makes people lie anyway?

FOR TRUTH
DEAR FOR TRUTH: Most people lie occasionally because they aren't big enough to tell the truth, or because they don't want to admit they don't know. The pathological liar lies compulsively for no apparent reason. Your daughter-in-law could be this type, in which case she needs professional help. Lying is not hereditary, but children tend to imitate their parents, which accounts for successive generations of liars. I suggest you tell your son the truth about how you feel.

Pastor Gets Separate Trial
In Book Case

HOUSTON (AP) — A Methodist minister accused by the government of writing an obscene book will not be tried with two California men on charges of transporting five obscene books in interstate commerce. Dr. Arthur Shelton of Norfolk, Va., was granted a separate trial Thursday by U. S. Dist. Judge Ben Connally. Shelton was indicted in March with Sanford Aday, 47, and Wallace de Ortega Maxey, 68, of Fresno, Calif.

Connally took under advisement a motion to dismiss the indictment naming them. He denied a request to transfer the case to California.

The Californians' trial is scheduled for early fall and Shelton's will follow.

Unique Restaurant Sets Big Opening

A new and unique Big Spring restaurant will have its grand opening Saturday and Sunday. The Spanish Main will specialize in quality foods — Mexican, seafood, and steaks, as well as the usual restaurant fare.

H. W. (Pete) Peveto, owner, said the Spanish Main will serve fresh seafood, shipped twice a week, of all types, from oysters on the half shell to several kinds of fish. He cuts and prepares the fish himself.

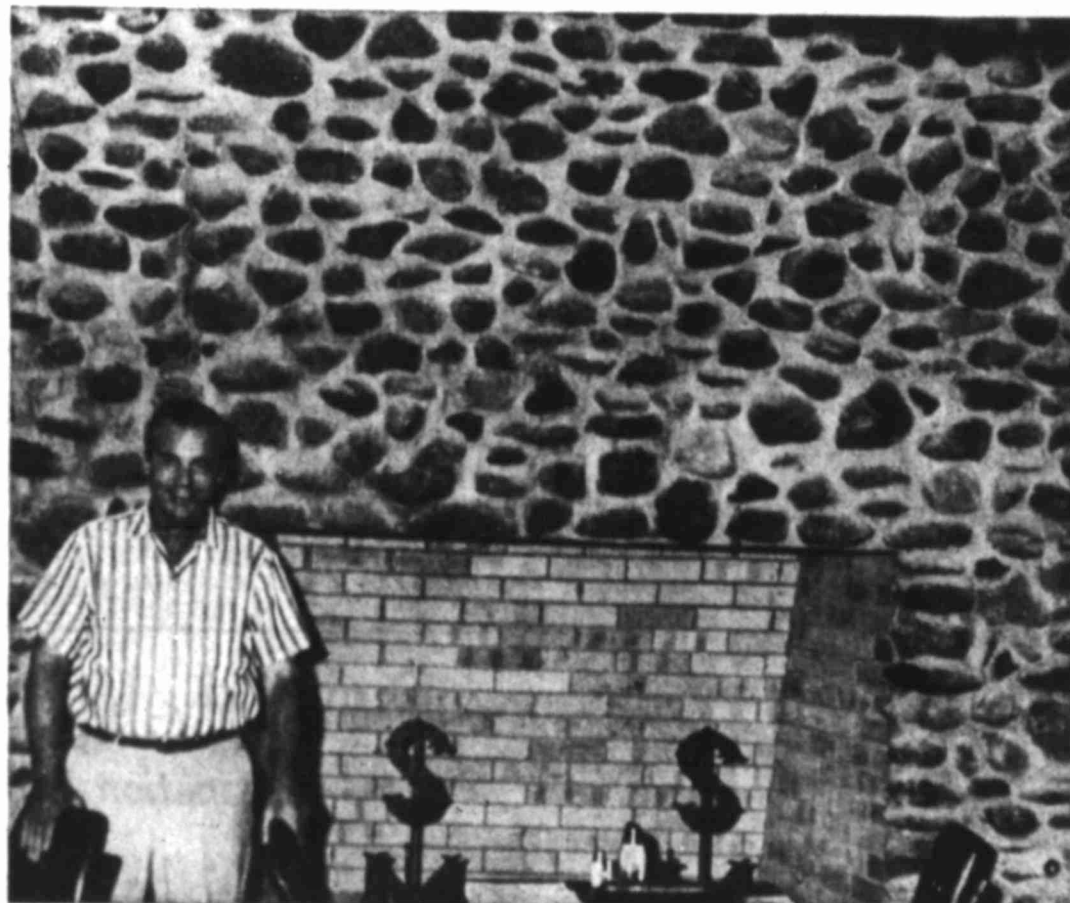

In Mexican foods, the house will serve almost every kind, including nachos, tacos and specialty dishes.

They will have a variety of steaks, as well as dinners. Peveto does all the basic cooking and prepares all sauces and dressings himself.

Eventually the Spanish Main will also specialize in fine French cuisine.

Peveto operated Jack's Little Mexico in Monahans, for seven years before moving to Big Spring.

The restaurant is located in the 600 block of Marcy Drive. Serving hours are from 11 to 11, except this Saturday and

Pevetos Also Operate Restaurant In Monahans

H. W. (Pete) and Maxine Peveto, owners of the new Spanish Main restaurant on East Marcy Drive, have been in Big Spring for only six months, but have been in the restaurant business for over seven years.

The Pevetos operated Jack's Little Mexico in Monahans for seven years (they still own it) before coming to Big Spring. They live at 1212 Willard St.

Before going into food-serving, Peveto was a transportation supervisor for Shell Oil Corp. in Hobbs, N. M. He is originally from Orange. He and his wife, who is from Monahans, have two children, John, 21, and Mrs. Donna Burke, and a grandchild, Warren Ray Burke, 4 months.

"We are very happy to be here," Peveto said Tuesday, "and are looking forward to meeting, as well as serving good food to the people of Big Spring."

Unmistakable Spanish Motif Featured In Modern Decor

Visitors will have a great deal to see when the Spanish Main restaurant holds open house Saturday and Sunday. The new restaurant at 600 E. Marcy Drive has a decor unique to Big Spring.

The motif, as indicated by the name, is throughout a rustic, unmistakably Spanish one.

The "patio," actually a 75-seat main dining room, sets the style with its stuccoed walls, imported coats of arms, antique-looking pillars and lighting. The tables and chairs are of rattan cane. Entering the patio from the flagstone entrance-way and foyer, the visitor definitely feels the Caribbean influence.

The Buccaneer Room features a huge stone fireplace with a five-foot wide hearth. It reaches from floor to ceiling along a 15-foot stretch of the north corner of the room, which is also stuccoed and pillared. It will seat 40, or for a banquet, 50 persons.

Gold is the color scheme of the Captain's Room, a semi-private dining area which will seat 40 diners. Spanish galleons sail across the walls of the half-paneled room, which is carpeted.

For small parties or business meetings, the private Conference Room is ideal. Seating 12 at a long table, the room is completely paneled for quiet beauty. The lighting, as in the rest of the restaurant, is "infinitely" adjustable, by rheostats, to any degree of brightness or softness.

Open house will be from 1 to 5 p.m. Saturday after a chamber of commerce ribbon-cutting and 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday. Refreshments will be served.

Another Bonus For Educators

AUSTIN (AP). — Another bonus for educators became law Thursday when Gov. John Connally signed a bill letting newcomers to Texas teaching in state colleges qualify for low resident tuition rates.

"Heretofore, faculty members who are new residents have had to pay non-resident fees to continue their own education or that of their families," Connally said. Texas residents pay $50 per semester. Persons who have lived here less than one year must pay $200.

Salem Cemetery Being Cleaned

A cleanup program at Salem Cemetery is under way, according to Earl Hull. The cemetery association is employing workers to cut the weeds and rake the tract.

All residents of the county who have relatives buried in the old cemetery are asked to contribute to pay the workers, Hull said.

R. E. Martin, Route 1, is secretary and all donations should be made to him.

"We have some money," Hull said, "but we do not think we have enough to pay the workers for their efforts."

Salem Cemetery, located near the Salem church, is one of the older burying grounds in the county. Hull said some of the interments date back 60 years.

A Devotional For The Day

Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. (John 1:29)
PRAYER: Lord, lay Thy divine interest in persons upon my heart. Love them through me, I pray. And may I humbly do my part to win some soul for Thee. I ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Proving Its Great Value

Now that 47 per cent of the 41,000-mile, $46.8 billion interstate highway network has been opened to traffic, studies are beginning to show how valuable the finished system will be. A report by the National Geographic Society indicates that the completed system is expected to save 8,000 lives a year. That is based on findings that the traffic accident fatality rate on expressways is only 2.8 deaths per 100 million vehicle-miles, in contrast to the 9.7 per 100 million rate on older highways in comparable areas.

Surveys to date also indicate that individual motorists will save about 2 cents a mile in urban areas and a penny a mile in rural stretches. As vacation and pleasure travel alone will soon top 50 billion miles annually, the cumulative saving will be enormous when added to lower costs for commercial and business traffic.

It is next to impossible to accurately measure the benefits in terms of time savings, convenience, and economic activity generated. But it seems obvious that they will far exceed the cost of the construction program, which is equal to about half of one year's federal budget. The most valuable innovation in the interstate highway system made since its inception is the Johnson administration's emphasis on beautifying routes and preserving the scenic assets already existing along the developing network. Of rival value is the recent new requirement that urban expressways must be fitted into comprehensive community development plans—or city master plans.

When it is completed, the interstate highways will be only 1 per cent of the nation's street and road mileage, but are likely to carry at least 20 per cent of all traffic. The success of the interstate program, nowhere more pronounced than in Texas, has already inspired preliminary advance planning on extension of the system after the presently designated network has been completed around 1972.

We can think of no engineering program in all world history that even closely rivals this remaking of the face of a continent. Texas can take great pride in holding the lead among the states for participation in this program.

Helpful Agency

One of the major modern improvements in Texas state government was the creation in 1949 of the Texas Legislative Council. This is the Legislature's full-time research agency. Its most important work is the between-sessions studies it makes of state problems on which to base legislative recommendations to the next session.

When it was established it was feared that it would encourage sweeping urgent issues under the rug of inconclusive studies. Some of that has happened, but most of the council's reports result in constructive legislation, usually in the next session.

It has earned general agreement that the biennial legislative product would be a lot worse without the council's expert staff research and the thought-out policy recommendations.

The 59th legislature gave the council a heavy workload sprinkled with important issues. It directed the council to make nine studies, and authorized it to make two score others, which the council may or may not undertake at its discretion. The council also may initiate studies.

Certainly the Texas Legislative Council's work is worth—in constructive achievements as well as avoidance of mistakes—much more than the under $200,000 a year that it costs. In fact, its record suggests that its research staff and facilities could profitably be expanded.

A valuable aspect of the Texas Legislative Council's work is that it is cumulative. Its past reports already constitute an indispensable library on state governmental problems.

Richard Starnes A Million And A Half Men

WASHINGTON — If double-talk killed, Washington would be a ghost town this day.

Never in the long, squalid history of governments conditioning people for war has so much rubbish, half-truth, dissembling, falsehood and righteous paltering been heard.

EXAMPLE: Last week Ambassador Maxwell Taylor told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that there is no plan for a dramatic increase of U. S. troops in Viet Nam. "I know of no such project," he later told reporters who pressed him on reports "first printed here" that troops committed to Viet Nam would soon reach 300,000.

The truth, of course, is that the 300,000 figure came from the lips of Defense Secretary Robert McNamara, who told 25 U. S. Senators gathered in the Blue Room of the White House that they had to prepare themselves to see that many men thrown into the jungles of Southeast Asia.

ANOTHER TRUTH (and paste it in your hat): There is no more fight left in the army of South Viet Nam, a cheerless reality that screams for recognition in spite of the best efforts of new managers, in uniform or out. If the United States intends to stay in Viet Nam, it can do so only at the price of many thousands of American lives. Ordinary war college arithmetic long ago taught Gen. Taylor that successful counter-guerrilla warfare requires an overpowering preponderance of men. Ten-to-one is a rock-bottom ratio (and probably unrealistically low), and that means that to contain successfully present Viet Cong forces, our side must field a minimum of 1.45 million men. With South Vietnamese desertions running at 20 to 35 per cent every 90 days, it takes no genius to see where the manpower must come from.

Billy Graham

I have always been "bossy." I guess you could call me a "Nag." I guess my trouble is, I always have to be right. I believe that I do have high ideals, and perhaps I try to impose them upon others. I would appreciate it if you would send me information that would help me to forget myself, my selfishness and my pride.

L. T.

You have almost analyzed your trouble, and as they say, "a case well diagnosed is half-cured." You say, "I always have to be right." You are not alone in this, most people want to be right. But life is a game of give and take. Sometimes you must give in to others. As we say, you can't win them all. Not even the best pitchers win every ball game, and the best of golfers hit a bad shot every now and then. When you "hit a foul ball," admit it.

You say, "I have high ideals." This is as it should be, and I'm glad you have. But to expect perfection of everyone else, and to express your displeasure at some imperfection, is the shortest road to unpopularity with others. One of life's highest ideals is to be patient and understanding of others. Impose this upon yourself, and stop worrying so much about others.

As to "information" about how to forget yourself, your selfishness and pride, I cannot improve on the words of Christ Jesus who said: "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself."

Johnson Grabs Spotlight From Goldwater

WASHINGTON (AP) — The timing of President Johnson's news conference was excellent for him in a couple of ways and once again he expressed hopes for peace. But when he was all through the prospect of peace looked dismal.

And while he was talking for an hour and 20 minutes to newsmen in the White House a fleet of B-52 bombers was flying from Guam to do high-level saturation bombing on the Viet Cong guerrillas in South Viet Nam.

It was the first time those planes had been used in the war.

BUT BY holding the news conference Thursday afternoon Johnson took the edge off, and the play away from, the news conference former Sen. Barry Goldwater had held just a short time before.

This didn't go unnoticed by Goldwater.

At the same time, by meeting the press when he did, Johnson was able to give the quickest public assurance of cooperation to the British Commonwealth which Thursday decided on a peace mission.

Two nights ago it was announced Goldwater would meet reporters yesterday to announce a crusade for conservatism through a new organization called the Free Society Association headed by Goldwater.

THEN THURSDAY morning the White House announced Johnson would also hold an afternoon news conference, although the time was indefinite and reporters waited hours in the press lobby, Johnson met them after Goldwater's session.

The Arizona, whom Johnson defeated for the presidency last year, told reporters that every time a Republican calls a news conference, Johnson has one of his own and grabs the spotlight. Thursday was no exception.

Earlier in London representatives of the 21 nations in the British Commonwealth decided to send a five-man mission in search of peace in Viet Nam. It will be headed by British Prime Minister Harold Wilson.

There has been increasing concern in Britain about America's war build-up in Viet Nam. The mission will try to visit the countries concerned, particularly the United States, Red China, North and South Viet Nam.

It's possible the Red Chinese and the North Vietnamese will refuse to receive the mission. If they do, they will damage themselves in world opinion, although that may not mean much to them.

BUT BEFORE they could say yes or no Johnson was telling his news conference "we are delighted" and he said the commission "will have our full cooperation."

Johnson seemed pleased by what he regarded as strong overall support in Congress and this country for his Viet Nam actions. But when all was said and done there wasn't much new to report.

Johnson indicated there is no sign the North Vietnamese want to talk peace. And he pretty much torpedoed the idea of talking about it with the Viet Cong guerrillas who, he explained, are only the tools of the North Vietnamese.

Emotions Mixed On Leaving Viet

NHA TRANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — She was close to tears.

It was the last day of duty for Lt. Julie Klebaum, 24, Wapato, Wash., one of seven American nurses at the 8th U.S. Army Field Hospital.

She was going home after a year here, a year in which some 5,500 ailing, injured and wounded men went through the hospital.

JULIE IS 5 feet 3 and has dark hair, blue-green eyes and a nice figure. She would be called pretty in any part of the world, but it is her friendly, outgoing personality that has made her a favorite here.

She smiled a little tremulously when Capt. Frank Harbor of Starkville, Miss., told her a company of airmen wanted to turn out in formation to give her a farewell tribute salute when she left.

"That'll be lovely," she said warmly.

"I have mixed emotions about leaving. There is a job satisfaction here you don't find so frequently in the States.

"These wonderful men, wonderful patients. They aren't goldbrickers. I'll miss them."

AS ONE of seven American women among several thousand men, Lt. Klebaum naturally received a flattering amount of male attention.

"You become a combined mother, wife, sister and girl friend," she said, laughing. "They all want you to help them shop for things for their women back home."

"It's an honor in a way. It's a very unusual position, one I've never been in before. The men are interested in you first because you are around, second because you speak English, and only third because you're an American girl. But they're great. They'll do anything for you."

Back home nurses aren't supposed to wear perfume on duty.

"But we all do here," said Julie. "The patients want us to. They want us to wear lipstick and nail polish. They want us to look very feminine. To them we're the idealization of American women because they don't see any others."

THE NURSES work a 12-hour day or longer six days a week.

"I've helped nurse everybody from a Vietnamese baby with tuberculosis to GIs with worms, malaria, dengue fever, appendicitis, or gunshot wounds," she said.

The case that most upset her was a pilot about 30 whose abdomen was riddled by ground fire.

To Your Good Health Labyrinthitis A Problem Of The Inner Ear

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
Dear Dr. Molner: Please write about labyrinthitis at least one-third of my time I'm so dizzy and nauseated I can't do a thing but lie down with my eyes closed.

At times nausea and vomiting grip me so that when it is over even the top of my head is sore. — P.W.B.

One must first make certain that the trouble is labyrinthitis, because other conditions can have similar consequences.

Labyrinthitis is an irritation of the inner structures of the ear — these structures having a good deal to do with your sense of balance. When your balance is thus upset the nausea is a natural result.

What irritates these inner ear structures? Infection, from bacteria or viruses; or toxic states, as from drugs, certain medications in large quantities, alcohol, tobacco, etc.

Another possibility is Meniere's disease, which likewise involves dizziness, along with ringing in the ears, and deafness as the classic and usual symptoms.

Meniere's disease, unlike labyrinthitis, is usually due to hemorrhage (bleeding) into the ear canals.

Still other possible (but less likely) causes of such violent dizziness can be a tumor of the auditory nerve, or neurological disorder at or beyond that point.

You did not mention how long you have had this trouble, and that information might very well be a valuable clue.

For labyrinthitis treatment is aimed at subduing the underlying infection, of course, along with restriction of salt in the diet, and diuretic drugs to eliminate water and reduce congestion in the critical area. Vertigo pills (medicine to relieve "vertigo" or dizziness) usually help.

If these fail, one must search for the other causes that I have mentioned. Incidentally, ultrasound therapy is used now for severe and protracted Meniere's disease.

To be more specific, if you have not seen an ear specialist, I suggest that you do so.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am interested in learning more about douching. — MRS. A. J.

Douching is useful only if there is some purpose in applying heat or medication to that area. If you have any health problem, tell me what it is and I'll try to explain it and the treatment which applies to it.

Despite a considerable amount of folklore, the normal female doesn't need douching. There is no health aspect involved. The douche is useful medically for quite a lot of purposes, but is neither necessary nor helpful (and could at times even be harmful) for a healthy woman.

How to get rid of leg cramps and foot pains? The answer may be simple. Write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald for a copy of the booklet, "How to Stop Leg Cramps and Foot Pains," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Molner welcomes all mail from his readers, but because of the great volume received daily he is unable to answer individual letters. Dr. Molner uses readers' letters in his column whenever possible.

Around The Rim

De Montfort And His Great Dream

On June 22 the British nation will commemorate a day not only of considerable importance in its own history, but to other nations as well—the founding of Parliament.

THE CELEBRATION will actually be several months late, for the 700th anniversary of Parliament was Jan. 20.

The observance was postponed several months because of the illness of the late Sir Winston Churchill.

In 1265 Westminster, "the mother of Parliaments" was first called by Simon de Montfort, the earl of Leicester.

THAT FIRST Parliament was composed of earls, barons and knights, as well as representatives from 200 spots in England. It met for three months and then ended. Yet it signaled an opportunity for ordinary people to participate in a nation's government.

The concept of Parliament began during the reign of King John, when in 1216 the Magna Carta was signed, and Westminster was the fruition of the ideas of the Magna Carta.

DE MONTFORT had been swung into power in a revolt led by barons, at a time when people were restless and King Henry III was unpopular.

partly because he had sold corn obtained from Germany for his own profit during the time of famine.

A man then held prisoner by de Montfort, Prince Edward, escaped and gathered an army of royalists, killed de Montfort and destroyed his army at Kenilworth in 1265. Prince Edward became Edward I and 30 years later called the Model Parliament, extending the concept begun by the man he had killed on the field of battle.

"HE HAD INSPIRED hope that he could end or mend the suffering and oppression of the poor," Winston Churchill wrote of De Montfort's contributions to the British nation. "For this they remembered him when they had forgotten his faults." De Montfort had lighted a fire never to be quenched in English history.

So next week, while most of us know little of the man named De Montfort and while his name is overshadowed by more legendary figures of history, the people of England will commemorate his founding 700 years ago an institution which, like our Congress, extended the participation in a nation's decision-making to the people themselves.

Ugly Is As Ugly Does

WASHINGTON—Victor Lasky is a jolly extrovert. Though he has 20-20 vision for the foibles of our intolerant and self-important American Liberals, he is incapable of writing a "hate" book.

His needling biography of President Kennedy ("JFK: The Man and the Myth") found plenty of clay in the underpinnings of the late President, but there was no slime on the irreverent portrait. Now comes this good-natured iconoclast, this tireless rag-picker of pertinent historical details, with a book that should make him justly famous as long as the Cold War lasts.

IN "THE UGLY RUSSIAN," Lasky has shoe-leathered the Soviet administrator through a score of countries in Europe, Africa and Asia. It is the best piece of transworld reporting since John Gunther was in his prime. It is the best news for Americans since Hitler died.

Reportage and news are the key words here. Vic Lasky loathes Communists and despises Leftists, but he's got much better use for his 312 pages than to celebrate his malice. The Ivan who emerges from this vernacular prose is a stupid, vain, prejudiced, bungling bureaucrat who is intensely disliked wherever he sets foot with Russian foreign aid on foreign soil.

BUT NOWHERE does Lasky argue his point. He simply shows it by example and anecdote. And in so doing, Lasky tells us that as "ugly" as some of our despairing critics have painted the American aid-bribe, there is nothing to match the hideousness of the hu-lo-lo-mao-tze ("the crazy old hairy one") as the Red Chinese call Russian do-gooders around the world.

WITH THE Foreign Aid bill being debated in the Senate as this column is written, it's easy to hear the oft-told tales about how we've sent television sets to nations with no electricity and fishing tackle to desert countries. Well Indonesia got a Communist beet sugar plant, although that country produces only cane sugar. The Kingdom of Nepal got a Russian-made hydroelectric plant, but it was built on a river which runs almost dry for eight months of the year.

In Somalia the Russians put up a meat-packing plant and a dairy in an area where there was no enough cattle to supply either one. On the docks of Conakry, the capital of Guinea, there stand two giant Russian machines—either snowplows or earth movers, but equally unusable to the natives. Nearby are nearly a hundred light tractors and a heap of electrical equipment, rusting away, says Lasky, "in silent testimony to the blundering of Soviet-bloc aid."

IT WOULD BE cheating the book reader to cite more testimony from "The Ugly Russian." Suffice it to say that this volume is the best account you'll ever read of Khrushchev's failure and the reason why he is removed from power. It is also the best explanation of the Sino-Soviet split, and the best medicine for Americans who suffer from an inferiority complex about our own foreign aid muddling.

An Explanation For Viet Nam

WASHINGTON—There was an art festival at the White House on Monday. It took the time and attention of the President of the United States. The occasion had a praiseworthy purpose. But there is something far more important which needs the time and attention of the nation's chief executive right now. It's the wavering morale of the parents and relatives of the more than 50,000 American boys who are fighting the war in Viet Nam.

THESE FAMILIES cannot know what is going on in the jungles of Viet Nam just by reading the newspapers, and naturally little mention of individuals is made unless there are casualties. Meanwhile, what the critics are saying, both here and abroad, is widely publicized. The impression is given that it is a useless war and that the lives of the American boys are being sacrificed in vain.

The real truth, however, is that the Americans in Viet Nam are performing a service not only for the 190 million people in the United States, but also for the hundreds of millions of human beings in other countries who are being protected against a nuclear war because of the steadfastness and resoluteness of America's armed forces.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON could readily dramatize at a ceremony in the White House the reasons why American troops are in Viet Nam. A delegation of parents of soldiers, airmen and sailors in Southeast Asia could be brought to the White House at government expense so that the President personally could explain the war and what it means not only to the American people but to the world as a whole.

President Johnson did make a generalized speech on April 7 at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, but what he said then about Viet Nam needs reiteration. Mr. Johnson declared:

"TONIGHT AMERICANS and Asians are dying for a world where each people may choose its own path to change."

"This is the principle for which our ancestors fought in the valleys of Pennsylvania. It is a principle for which our sons fight tonight in the jungles of Viet Nam."

"Viet Nam is far away from this quiet campus. We have no territory there, nor do we seek any. The war is dirty and brutal and difficult. And some 400 young men, born into an America that is bursting with opportunity and promise, have ended their lives on Viet Nam's steaming soil.

"WHY MUST WE take this painful road? Why must this nation hazard its ease, its interest, and its power for the sake of a people so far away?"

"We fight because we must fight if we are to live in a world where every country can shape its own destiny, and only in such a world our own freedom be finally secure."

"Over this war — and all Asia — is another reality. The deepening shadow of Communist China. The rulers in Hanoi are urged on by Peiping. This is a regime which has destroyed freedom in Tibet, which has attacked India, and has been condemned by the United Nations for aggression in Korea. It is a nation which is helping the forces of violence in almost every continent. The contest in Viet Nam is part of a wider pattern of aggressive purposes."

"WE ARE ALSO there to strengthen world order. Around the globe, from Berlin to Thailand, are people whose well-being rests in part on the belief that they can count on us if they are attacked. To leave Viet Nam to its fate would shake the confidence of all these people in the value of an American commitment and in the value of America's word. The result would be increased unrest and instability, and even wider war."

The President could say a lot more at a White House ceremony and awaken an appreciation of the service being rendered by brave American boys as they risk their lives so that their families and their fellow Americans at home may be spared the horrors of a nuclear war.

Jack Nicklaus Is Still Confident

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Jack Nicklaus surveyed the collapse of his game, wrecked by the tricky winds and a kink in his swings, then calmly announced: "I still think I can shoot this course in 65 or 66. And that kind of golf will win it."

The Ohio strongboy never recovered from a double bogey on the first hole of the U.S. Open Golf Tournament Thursday and staggered in 10 strokes back of Australian Kel Nagle's leading 68.

ELITE CROWD

Nicklaus, however, had some high-priced company. Arnold Palmer, the slumping four-time Masters champion, limped home with a 76 and defending champion Ken Venturi's dream of a repeat burst on a shocking 81.

All three may have trouble making the cut at the halfway point tonight when the starting field of 136 pros and 14 amateurs is trimmed to a low 50 and ties. Four already have dropped out and the troubled Venturi has hinted he, too, may have had enough.

Stricken with a circulatory ailment in his right hand, Venturi had 40 putts on his round and said: "I had practically no feeling in my hand. I hope I can play Friday."

The 7,191 yards of the Bellerive Country Club course, longest ever for a U.S. Open, shocked the experts who called it a hitter's course and gobbled up the sluggers.

AMATEUR SECOND

The 44-year-old Nagle, who once won the British Open but has never won in the United States, never has been a slugger. He's one stroke up on amateur Deane Beman, another light hitter, and Mason Rudolph, a tour regular, the only others to break par 70.

Little Gary Player of South Africa turned in a near flawless round for a par 70, matched by Rex Baxter, Al Geiberger and Lou Graham.

A better name for Cassius Clay, perhaps, would be Ali Babel.

Big Spring's Johnny Hughes was named to the All-America High School track and field team by an Indiana-based publication, for his feat of running the low hurdles in 18.8 in a New Mexico invitational the past spring. He was one of five low hurdlers so honored.

The national high school record for the hurdles is 18.1, held by two individuals. Best high school time in the nation this season, 18.4, was turned in by two boys, Rich Flowers of Montgomery, Ala.; and Barry Snyder, Little Rock, Ark.

A Pasadena, Calif., high school foursome ran an incredible 3:15.8 this spring. Time was when the college athletes never expected to tour the four laps in that time.

Big Spring's Jim Baum can have the commissioner's job in the National Baseball Congress District 5 setup for the asking but Baum is understandably hesitant about accepting such a chore.

With the appointment would come the responsibility of staging a district tournament, winner of which would become eligible for the State meet at Lubbock in August. Robert Lee will probably field a team within District 5. There is a possibility Sweetwater will come in with a team, too.

It would cost several hundred dollars and require a lot of volunteer labor to conduct such a meet here. And Baum still hasn't found the money tree.

Probably the most improved golfer in town is Ted Gross, who played the game on an average of once a month about a decade ago, then quit entirely until about a year ago.

In between, Ted concentrated on softball and emerged as one of the area's better infielders.

Gross combined with Dan Greenwood to finish in a tie for fifth place in the True Amateur division of the recent Big Spring Open but didn't wind up with a prize due to the luck of the draw.

They say Gross has one of the better swings around.

One thing about the regents at the University of Texas, they're not pikers.

They're talking now of building a new stadium down in Austin that would seat 100,000. Their present plan handles a crowd of 65,810 and there are rarely enough seats to go around when the Longhorns play at home.

Fagan Mullins, new head football coach at San Angelo Lake View High School, has transferred both his boys, Gary and Raymond, to the Lake View rolls from the San Angelo Central system.

Mullins will not commit himself on whether the moves are permanent. He did tell a San Angelo reporter recently: "It's just a case of just being safe instead of too late."

Then he added, cryptically, "Just in case something should happen during the summer."

His decision, according to the writer, may be because of the manner in which one of his coaching aides has been treated in city summer-time employment.

Gary was an all-district performer for San Angelo Central last season and still has two years of eligibility remaining. Raymond has all of his high school eligibility ahead of him.

Of all the major horse tracks in the country, Churchill Downs' mutual handle is lowest, mainly because after the Kentucky Derby is run, the mint julep drinkers stay downtown.

In other words, the mint julep drinkers stay downtown.

Red Sox Outlast Orioles, 3 To 2

Rocky Wooley scored on a Charlie Lewis single and a fly ball to put the Red Sox over the Orioles, 3-2, in a closely-played Sophomore League baseball game Thursday.

Gary Chane, who drove in one run with a first inning triple, allowed four hits in winning the contest. Tom Wood gave up but three hits in a losing effort.

The Sox opened the scoring in the first with Kenny Brown drawing a walk. Chane's triple followed, scoring Brown. Then Chane scored on Oriole short stop Bill Jones' error.

In the top of the fourth the Sox tied it up on singles by

Rogers, Johnson Tangle Tuesday

LUBBOCK — Roy Rogers of Levelland and Scrap-Iron Johnson, Oklahoma City, tangle in a ten-round heavyweight fight in Fair Park Coliseum here Tuesday night.

In the semi-windup, Alonzo Harris of Oklahoma City and Tiger Brown of Dallas mix it up. The show starts at 8:30 p.m. Ringside seats will sell for $3 while general admissions will be offered for $1.50.

Record Six Mile

Doug Brown of the University of Montana finishes the fastest six-mile race ever run by a collegian Thursday in 27 minutes, 59.2 seconds. The 5-foot-4 youth of Red Lodge, Montana, set the pace among 13 runners for the entire grueling distance around the track at Edward's Stadium at the University of California in Berkeley. This was the one final event of the first of three days. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Hardware Club Trounces ABC Behind Wes Ballou

Big Spring Hardware scored four runs in the second inning on a Gary Rogers double and two singles and went on to take a Hi-Junior League baseball game from ABC, 7-5, Thursday. Wesley Ballou gave up only four hits to ABC players, but they scored twice on Hardware fielding errors. Johnny McCul-

Powell Has 76 In West Texas

ABILENE — Eddie Smith of Coleman, a former TCU player, won medalist honors in his bid to repeat as champion of the Men's West Texas Golf tournament here Thursday. Smith shot a seven under par 64.

Frank Powell, Big Spring, qualified for the championship flight with a 76.

Buster Carter of Pampa toured the course in 65 while Jerry Smith, Andrews, was two strokes back of the leader.

After the second round today, the low 32 scorers will remain in the championship flight while all others will drop back to the president's flight.

Umpires Session Again On Sunday

Assignments for the ensuing two weeks will be made at Sunday's meeting of the Big Spring Umpires association, scheduled to start at 2 p.m. in the Permian building.

The conclave will also be used as a refresher's course on rules and regulations governing the games of baseball and softball.

NFL To Meet Again Monday

NEW YORK (AP) — The pro football expansion war is heating up with the National Football League meeting Monday to consider accepting Atlanta in 1966 while the American Football League screens applicants for a new franchise in Philadelphia.

The battle for Atlanta's new $18-million stadium centers around the reaction of the Atlanta Stadium Authority which has set a July 1 deadline for a decision.

"We would like to see them both expand because we would like to be in a position of receiving proposals from both leagues and see which one is best," said Arthur Montgomery, chairman of the authority in Atlanta.

Montgomery said the authority could, if it wishes, change the deadline.

At least three applications have been made to the NFL for an Atlanta franchise. The AFL already has granted a franchise to the Cox Broadcasting Corp. for a record $7.5 million.

In addition to applications for NFL franchises from groups headed by Lindsey Hopkins, Jr. of Atlanta and individually by Rankin Smith, Atlanta insurance company executive, there is a bid by William G. Reynolds of Reynolds Aluminum Co., which has a major distribution center in Atlanta.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who called the NFL meeting, had visited Atlanta last week while the AFL was granting a franchise to the Cox company. Rozelle previously had recommended the NFL expand from 14 to 16 teams by 1967. In Atlanta, he said: "We could expand with no trouble in 1966."

If the NFL owners decided to go into Atlanta in 1966, the league undoubtedly would operate with 15 teams, pending addition of a 16th member in 1967.

It is expected that Rozelle will get the 12 affirmative votes necessary to bring in Atlanta as a 15th team.

The AFL will be starting the job of screening applicants for a Philadelphia franchise which probably would play in the new stadium to be built in that city. The NFL, of course, already has a club in Philadelphia.

Matson Eyes Russian Meet

HOUSTON (AP) — Randy Matson, the world's top shot-putter, isn't sure yet that he will be able to compete in the U. S. Russian meet July 31 but he's working out just in case.

Matson, who was informed that he could get into the meet because a knee injury prevented his competing in either the NCAA or AAU, has been unable to contact Co. Don Hull, executive director of the AAU, but will keep trying.

Meanwhile, he is working out daily and says his knee is showing great improvement since he had some shots last week. "I believe I can get in shape for the Russian meet," said Matson.

Matson has a strained ligament that caused bursitis in the knee and he said it started bothering him last November. "But I don't have to have an operation to straighten it out," he said.

Col. Hull was quoted as saying Matson could apply to the AAU for a place in the meet with Russia and make it on the basis of injury that is keeping him out of both the collegiate and AAU meets.

Matson passed up the NCAA and couldn't compete in the AAU because of the NCAA-AAU feud. But if he skips the AAU also, he will be able to qualify for the Russian meet on the grounds that injury kept him out of the other two meets.

DALLAS (AP) — Two championships had been decided and some other divisions were up their final today as the Texas Open Tennis Tournament moved into its fifth day.

Charles Azar of El Paso won the boys 12 and under title Thursday when he beat Ronnie Brownstein of Corpus Christi 6-1, 6-1, in the semifinals and then took out Charles Emley of San Antonio 6-1, 6-1 in the finals.

Fancho Walthall of San Antonio and John Smith of San Antonio won the boys 16 and under doubles by beating Bruce Banisky of Odessa and Lee Busby of Abilene 6-4, 6-4.

The men's singles division was in its quarter-finals with top-seeded Ronnie Fisher of Houston and second-seeded Don Walraven of San Antonio sailing along easily.

Pearl's spring water formula tells you fast: This is the beer to stay with! It probably happened to you, or to someone you know: You drank a bottle of Pearl to satisfy your curiosity, and it satisfied you so completely that you've stayed with Pearl ever since. That's why Pearl turns so many tryers into steady buyers. And Pearl holds its customers longer than any other brand. Result: Pearl drinkers know Pearl is better beer because it's brewed to the famous spring water formula from the Country of 1100 Springs.

MIG17s Downed In Viet Dogfight

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Two U.S. Navy Phantom jets shot down two Communist MIG17 fighters in flames Thursday in a dogfight 50 miles south of Hanoi, a U.S. military spokesman announced.

The clash occurred while the Phantoms were flying escort for other U.S. warplanes bombing targets about 20 miles north of Thanh Hoa.

The spokesman said four Communist jets appeared and turned toward the American planes as if they were going to attack. But apparently they were hit before they had a chance to open fire, he said.

One parachute was seen opening, but it was not known what happened to the Communist pilot. The other two MIGs escaped.

"FIRST FOR ME"

One plane was shot down by Cmdr. Louis C. Page of San Diego, Calif., who told newsmen in Saigon, "This was the first enemy aircraft I have shot down. Other than that, we were just doing a job."

The pilot of the second Phantom, Lt. (j.g.) E. D. Batson Jr. of Buffalo, N.Y., said: "I'm tickled to death."

The spokesman said the dogfight lasted only 29 seconds and that the Phantoms hit the enemy with air-to-air missiles.

It was presumed that the MIGs were North Vietnamese, although Navy planes have had one brush with Communist Chinese MIGs off Hainan Island, in the Gulf of Tonkin.

The Phantoms were flying at an altitude between 10,000 and 20,000 feet when they spotted the hostile aircraft.

Page was asked how they knew the MIGs were about to attack.

"If he's in your general area and headed toward you, you have to assume he's up to no good," the pilot replied.

PHANTOM SWIFT

The MIG17 is of Korean War vintage, armed with one 37mm cannon and two 23mm cannons. The Phantom, one of the fastest and most heavily armed fighters in the American arsenal, is equipped with heat-seeking Sidewinder missiles which home in on the exhaust trail of enemy jets.

The two pilots flew with their radio intercept officers to Saigon for a news conference. Page's officer was Lt. John C. Smith Jr. of Bellevue, Ill., whose wife and children live in Powan, Calif. Batson's officer was Lt. Cmdr. Robert B. Doremus of Montclair, N.J., whose wife and children live in Wilmington, Del.

Page, who served as spokesman for the group, declined to discuss the tactics used in shooting down the MIGs.

Page also declined to say whether the missiles used were Sidewinders or Sparrows. The Phantom carries both.

He said he assumed the MIGs were North Vietnamese. The four enemy planes were silver and bore the yellow and red insignia of North Viet Nam, he said.

SPOTTED ENEMY

U.S. airmen attacking North Viet Nam last reported spotting hostile planes June 1 while bombing an ammunition dump 45 miles southwest of Hanoi. Eight MIG fighters appeared but wheeled away when the American planes started to close in on them.

On April 4, Communist MIGs shot down two U.S. F105's on a bombing raid about 65 miles south of Hanoi. A pilot of an American F100 said he believed he hit one of the MIGs in that engagement and downed it.

South learned that an adverse diamond ruff was not necessarily fatal to his four spade contract, provided that the evil moment was put off until he was ready to assume full control of the play thereafter.

South might have given his partner some voice in the auction, by jumping to three spades over North's one no trump bid. If North decides to rebid three no trump, South's holding will make a suitable dummy. Nine top tricks were available at no trump.

West opened the ten of diamonds against four spades.

East played the ace and returned the queen. South was about to cover; however, he paused for a moment to consider the consequences if he played the king.

If West had started with a doubleton diamond, South would win the trick of course and, after trumps are drawn, he clears the diamond suit with one more lead and thereby establishes dummy's long cards for a heart sluff. If the diamonds are three-two, declarer is assured of making an over-trick since he loses only the two diamonds.

The thought that had prompted South to hesitate before playing to the second trick was the possibility that West might have a singleton diamond and consequently ruff away the king. If it then developed that East had the king of hearts, a heart switch by West would establish a trick in that suit for the defense, and East could cash the jack of diamonds when he gets in to defeat the contract.

Declarer was quite willing to invest the price of a possible over-trick to assure his vulnerable game, and he ducked the queen of diamonds—permitting East to hold the trick as West discarded. A diamond was continued and West ruffed away South's king. The shift was to a heart; however, the declarer was in position to take full charge of the proceedings.

He put up the ace of hearts, cashed the king and jack of spades and then led a fourth round of diamonds from dummy—ruffing away East's jack and establishing North's eight of diamonds for a sluff. The ace of spades drew the last trump, dummy was reentered with a high club and South discarded his heart loser on the good diamond.

U.S. Rules Out Pause Now In Air Strikes

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials said today the United States does not plan another pause in the bombing of North Viet Nam at this time.

The officials, who declined to be identified, did not rule out the possibility of a recess in the air attacks on the Communist North at some future time. But they ruled out for now a repetition of the May 13-17 bombing pause designed as a bid for a Hanoi peace overture.

North Viet Nam and Communist China denounced the five-day lull as a trick, the U.S. officials noted. And, contrary to contentions that the American pause was not long enough to allow for a Communist response, the officials said Hanoi's harsh denunciation came when the five-day respite was only half-way through.

SEEK TRUCE
The U.S. officials made their views known as British Commonwealth leaders in London were considering ways in which a Viet Nam peace might be achieved.

Washington's analysis at this time is that the Reds, having rebuffed repeated feelers for peace negotiations, are focusing at this time on the military attacks on the South.

MORE AMENABLE
But if the Viet Cong guerrillas fail in their monsoon offensive, it is believed here that Hanoi will be more amenable to negotiations. That time is not expected to come for several months.

The U.S. officials took the view that it makes little difference whether the Viet Cong guerrillas sit with Northern Vietnamese government representatives in any negotiations because Hanoi right along has been the mentor of the guerrillas.

However, the United States does not favor negotiating directly with the Viet Cong. The officials, among other things, pointed out that there are a number of groups in South Viet Nam of whom the Viet Cong are only one. They said choosing just one faction to deal with would cause serious difficulties.

Salinger Will Wed Writer

PARIS (AP) — Pierre Salinger, former White House press secretary, and Nicole Helene Gullmann, a Paris magazine writer, will be married Friday. Salinger, 40, met Miss Gullmann, 28, while he was campaigning for the U.S. Senate in California last October. Salinger is now vice president of a firm which operates motion picture theaters.

Salinger's wife, Nancy was awarded an uncontested divorce in Hot Springs, Ark., on Tuesday.

U.T. Sells Oil Leases

AUSTIN (AP) — The University of Texas sold oil and gas leases on 47,014 acres of land for $10.1 million Thursday.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler said the average of $215 per acre made it the most profitably such auction in nine years. All leases were for five years' and one-sixth royalty to the state on mineral production.

Standard Oil Co. of Texas and Union Oil of California made the highest bid, $260,000 for a 320-acre tract in Ward County.

Viet Peace May Hinge On Combat

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the judgment of U.S. policy makers the prospects for peace in Viet Nam are more likely to be decided by the course of combat over the next several months than by diplomatic maneuvers in this and other world capitals.

Officials say President Johnson is determined to press his peace offensive at every opportunity, even while expanding military operations.

At the moment officials here are looking to a conference of British Commonwealth leaders in London for some possible new move for the negotiations. The Johnson administration will undoubtedly welcome one, if it comes.

STILL OPEN
Several other peace conference possibilities, arising from proposals made in the past by Britain, India and the United States among others, are still open. The possibility that Johnson might order another pause in the bombing of North Viet Nam is not ruled out, officials say.

But the conviction in high quarters here today is that the Communist North Vietnamese, the Red Chinese and the Red Viet Cong leaders in South Viet Nam still believe they can win the war. They are therefore not interested in negotiations at this time on any terms acceptable to the United States and South Viet Nam.

REDS CONFIDENT
The basic assessment in Washington of the current Vietnamese situation is that with the recent onset of the monsoon season the Communists decided on major offensive operations in the belief that bad weather would seriously hamper U.S. air actions. The Communists thus would hope to win extensive victories on the ground in South Viet Nam.

The U.S. counter strategy for this period is to convince the Reds that they cannot win in this manner and that the United States will throw into the fight whatever is required to prevent their taking over South Viet Nam. The U.S. hope is that after several months the Communists will be compelled to reassess their position and prospects, perhaps taking a different view of peace negotiations.

Against this background, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced Wednesday that 16,000 to 21,000 more American troops are going into South Viet Nam in the immediate future. They will raise total American strength there to nearly 75,000 men of whom 21,000 will be ground combat personnel. Last week it was disclosed that U.S. troops will fight side by side with South Vietnamese troops when necessary.

BROAD RANGE
The State Department's 13 points on peace negotiations range from direct talks with the Soviet Union and Red China to Johnson's offer last April of "unconditional discussions" to a Canadian approach to North Viet Nam last month. In the last few days the paper has been circulated to U.S. embassies abroad, evidently to arm diplomats with information to counter critics of American policy in Southeast Asia.
