KC Houndettes Fall In Playoffs

Knox City's Houndettes found their playoff hopes dwindle as they were defeated in last Thursday night's bi-district contest falling to Bronte 1-15, 13-15.

In the Tuesday night, November 2, contest with Aspermont to determine the district championship, Aspermont came out on top in the contest, 10-15, 15-6, 10-15.

Coach Linda Haragan's Houndettes have made the playoffs the past six of seven years. This season found the Houndettes with no varsity experience and after overcoming numerous adversities, held themselves together and complied a season to be proud of.

Judge Hajek Sentences Two In District Court Cases

SEYMOUR - - Steve Louis Oudems, 26, of Knox City was sentenced to two separate seven-year penitentiary sentences by District Judge David Hajek in the Knox County District Court in Benjamin November 3, 1993, according to District Attorney Bill Neal.

Both felony convictions were for Aggravated Assaults. Oudems has been on a seven-year probation sentence for an Aggravated Assault on Freddie Murray since July 18, 1988. He was again indicted for Aggravated Assault on August 24, 1993 in connection with an assault on Eddie "Bo" Johnson, 37, of Denton, Texas, by hitting Johnson in the head with a tire tool. The blow resulted in a fractured jaw.

As a result of his attack, District Attorney Neal filed a Motion to Revoke the original probated sentence as well as seeking a Grand Jury indictment with respect to the attack on Johnson.

Oudems then plead guilty to violating his original probation and plead guilty to the indictment charging him with the subsequent assault on Johnson.

Also, on November 3, 1993, Judge Hajek held a sentencing hearing on Lynda Faye Flye, 31, of Knox City. Flye was convicted in the Knox County District Court on October 12, 1993 following a one-day trial before the Court on a charge of felony theft in connection with a welfare fraud. Judge Hajek, after hearing the evidence on October 12, 1993, found the Defendant guilty of theft of welfare funds from the State of Texas, and set a sentencing hearing on November 3, 1993. At that time, the Court heard punishment evidence, and set punishment of Flye at a 10-year probation sentence with the Defendant ordered to make restitution to the State over the 10-year period of the sum of $20,572.62, being the amount of welfare benefits the State paid to Flye to which she was not entitled to receive.

The State's evidence indicated that Flye had falsified information on her application for welfare benefits to the Texas Department of Human Services which caused the department to certify Flye for benefits to which she was not entitled.

District Attorney Bill Neal represented the State in all three cases. Carl Quisenberry of Seymour represented Oudems and Kristen Fouts of Haskell represented Flye.

'MA SHULTZ' made another historic appearance in Knox City last Saturday evening during the benefit musical that was held as a fundraiser for the Knox City Volunteer Fire Department. Sporting a new 'guitar' and singing new tunes, the ever popular entertainer put on a show that few are likely to forget. For those of you who missed the show and might be wondering about the real life identity of 'Ma Shultz,' a clue would be the boots, 'Ma' wears them in real life too!! JUNIOR CLASS NEWS
By Heather Tilson

Well, football season is officially over for the Greyhounds. It's been a long season but well worth watching. Now, it's time for basketball season. My favorite time because I am in a warm building the whole time. Not to mention I don't have to walk a mile to the concession stand or the bathroom.

The Junior Class has been working hard this past six weeks. We have all been working hard on our themes. I think we will all be relieved to turn it in. The Juniors have also been selling tickets to the Thanksgiving supper. So, if you haven't bought one contact one of the Juniors. We need all the turkey eaters we can get. The supper is Thursday, November 11, from 6:00 to 8:30 p.m. I hope everyone who attends enjoys the meal.

I would like to apologize to all the Dallas Cowboy fans out there. In last week's article, I mentioned that it would be a mistake for someone to be a Cowboy football player. I am sorry if I offended anyone out there. I just wrote what I felt forgetting that Dave Thompson is a Cowboy fan! Well, I hope that you all can find a place in your heart to forgive me. But this doesn't mean I like the Dallas Cowboys, just that I am sympathetic towards their fans!

It's another six weeks brewing up again. I hope everyone can hold on till Christmas. I know you can. Just think Thanksgiving break is coming up. Ahh! I live for relaxation and doing absolutely nothing! Well, have a good week!

Ex-Paducah Resident Is Sentenced

SEYMOUR - A former resident of Paducah now residing in Lubbock was sentenced to 25 years in the penitentiary Thursday, November 4, 1993, by District Judge David Hajek in the Cottle County District Court.

Bobby Charles Evans, 36, had been tried by a Cottle County jury on October 20, 1993 on an indictment charging him with selling cocaine to an undercover narcotics agent in Paducah on July 30, 1992. After deliberating for approximately two hours the jury returned with a verdict of "guilty". Evans then elected to have the District Judge assess his punishment, and a sentencing hearing was set for November 4, 1993. At the punishment hearing, evidence was produced by District Attorney Bill Neal that the defendant Evans had one prior felony conviction out of Cottle County for criminal mischief.

Evans had testified at his trial that the narcotics officer had misidentified him as the person who had sold the officer cocaine. Evans claimed he was in Lubbock at the time.

Evans was represented by Gene Heatly of Vernon.

In 1990, 1.8 million Americans lived in nursing facilities, 24% more than in 1980. People over 85 accounted for 42% of residents while about 10% were under 65.

WEST TEXAS UTILITIES

ONE OF THE HIGHLIGHTS of the musical held as a fundraiser for the Knox City Volunteer Fire Department last Saturday night was the appearance of several firemen in a 'fashion show' that provided more laughs than fashion tips. The fireman shown here was truly a crowd pleaser, with most in attendance guessing 'his' real identity right away. The fu-man-chu mustache must have provided a big clue! O'Brien Happenings By Audle Johnston

"A man of influence wanted to give a politician a new car. "You know I can't accept a car," the politico protested. "That's bribery." The wheeler-dealer pointed out that he could sell the car to the politician for $20. "In that case," replied the elected official, "I'll take two of them."

HERE AND THERE
Lowell and Sue Rowan of Denton spent the weekend with Lowell's mom, Bernice Rowan. They enjoyed the musical sponsored by the Fire Department Saturday night.

Sammie Murry of Plainview, David Ellis of Edmonson and Sandra Childress of Ozona visited their parents, Grady and Sammie Ellis, last week and helped Grady celebrate his birthday.

Visiting with me over the weekend were two sons, John Johnston of Haughton, Louisiana; and Jim Johnston of Lubbock. Lots of "old times" were remembered by all.

Winnie Johnston spent several days last week in Stamford with her daughter, Barbara McGaughey, and helped her with a garage sale.

Claudale and Jean Barnard were in Lubbock last week for Claudale to have a checkup with his doctor. He was very happy over the results and won't have to go back for awhile.

Ranzy and Adelle Herring returned home on Wednesday night and their grandson Andy Hines brought them home and spent the weekend with them and attended church with them on Sunday.

IN FORT WORTH

Faye Shaver was in Fort Worth Friday night to attend the football game between Fort Worth Hal-tom and Richland Springs.

Braxton's team defeated Richland Springs 18-14 and will play Saturday in Texas Stadium.

Lyndel Reeves of Munday visited them on Saturday night.

Bobby and Roseann Cox of Fort Worth spent the weekend with Bobby's mom, Lee Cox.

Billie Ruth Walker of Cedar Hill visited her parents, Arthur and Fannie Cameron and also visited Berlie Banner.

Local Couple Attends Retirement Party

Sequoyah and Bud Reynolds recently returned home to Knox City after a trip to Dallas to attend a retirement party for Wayne Harden, a Captain for American Airlines and brother to Sequoyah.

With a flight career that scanned a forty year time period, Capt. Harden retired after reaching the highest position available to an American Airlines Pilot: that of Chief Pilot at DFW airport in the metroplex area.

Beginning his flying career as a navigator for the United States Air Force in 1954, Harden's first flying assignment was at Biggs Air Force Base in El Paso. Flying as a navigator, he was a crew member of the giant C-124 piston engine transport.

Pilot training followed in 1956 with flights in both the T-28 and T-34 trainers. After receiving his pilot wings, Harden was assigned to Reese Air Force Base in Lubbock as an instructor pilot for the TB-25 aircraft. Following two years at Reese and an accumulated 1000 hours of flight time, Harden was selected for training in the B-52 bomber for the Air Force's Strategic Air Command. The B-52 was the most modern and up to date in the Air Force inventory at that time, weighing 488,000 pounds and capable of altitudes in excess of 40,000 feet with bomb loads of up to 50,000 pounds.

Serving as both pilot and aircraft commander on the B-52, Harden spent five and a half years flying the B-52 with over 2000 hours logged in the cockpit.

In 1965, Harden began his career with American Airlines as a co-pilot and flight engineer on the DC-6 and DC-7 aircraft, then training on the Lockheed Electra aircraft.

In late 1966, Harden began flying in the DC-7, B-727 and B-707 as a co-pilot. In 1973, he began a four year stint as a DC-10 First Officer, prior to becoming an American Airlines Captain in 1977. Shortly after that, he became a Check Airman in the B-727. This position of trust and responsibility was the first of many he was to assume during the remainder of his career with American Airlines. He assumed command of a B-707 in 1978, then commanded a DC-10 in 1982. In both those aircraft, he served as a Check Airman.

Capt. Wayne Harden

In March of 1987, Capt. Harden was rated on the giant B-747 aircraft, then served in various capacities in the DFW American Airlines area. He was Assistant Chief Pilot, Assistant Area Director of Flight, and Supervisor of Flying. In the fall of 1992 he assumed the prestigious and top ranked position of Chief Pilot in the DFW office.

In another area of distinction, Capt. Harden also served as the charter pilot for the Dallas Cowboys Football Team.

Married to the former Juanita Ruth Parker, the couple has four children, Stephen, Bradford, Jill and Sean.

During his retirement party, Captain Harden was praised for his dedication to excellence, his steadfast performance, his spiritual leadership, his commitment to family, and his uncompromising stand for God.

Editor's Note: Wow!! What a career! With that type of work record, Capt. Harden has certainly earned his retirement. While we have never actually had the opportunity to meet Sequoyah's brother, we certainly wish him all the best in the future.

'A Glimpse of Europe'

By Stephanie Pepper
Part Nine

Kolpinghaus, Vienna, Austria (November 9, 1993) - Boxes line the wall. Filled to the top with letters from all over the world, these boxes hold requests from every nation for one thing. "Please send me a Bible. I want to learn about God."

Our job is to take these boxes and sort them by "zip code" numbers so the addresses can be put on file, giving opportunity for further correspondence. We make many trips out to EEM to pickup the many boxes and help out as much as we can. Our goal is to have everyone of them finished before we leave (which I might add is in 28 days!)

Speaking of home, I spent the weekend in Switzerland in a tiny town (wee Knox City) called Wengen. Mountains surrounded the town. Because it was situated in a valley, the cold was more than bearable. We thought we wanted to do a little hiking before dark, so up we headed! Instead of taking the trail, as any smart person would do, we went straight up following the waterfall. The climb proved to be...let me just say, I was gasping for breath. I felt like I was in the middle of a scene straight from "Cliffhanger". We were climbing standing straight up but it appeared as if we were "crawling" on the ground. To top that all off, all of a sudden night fell upon us. A small-almost-burnt-out flashlight pointed our way. We thought we'd "climb" back down the mountain. Oh no-we became human alpine slides who in the end looked like one big grassstain. Thankfully we made it down in one piece and resolved to leave the climbing for daylight hours.

From there we stopped in Lucerne, famous for its historical bridge. Sadly, the bridge, which was built in the early 1930s, recently burned, and is destroyed. Inside the bridge were original paintings that told of Lucerne's history. Switzerland is also famous for their Swiss Army knives, so we all picked the "perfect" one to fit our needs! The train ride back through mountains left the sun reflecting colors off the mountains, and one trying to capture every last second of it.

This week we have had the privilege to meet and hear all of the Christian University speakers at ICU's Presidential Lectures week. Our President and his wife, Dr. and Marti Johnson, visited the Kolpinghaus Sunday afternoon bringing us valuable treats such as Reese's, M&M's and hot chocolate. Sunday evening, they treated us to a dinner at McDonalds! I also spoke to ACU's President and he informed me of how cold our area has been during the past few weeks. The Presidents are also meeting together to plan for further progress in Christian education.

What would German class be without Frau Ehler? She has become one of my favorite professors - always laughing and looking for the good in every student. We only have three more classes left before our semester in German is through. I may not remember how to conjugate those German verbs, but I know our whole group will never forget our classes with Frau Ehler! Since I'm on the subject, I would like to say a big Hello to Mrs. Burnett! Thanks for giving me the skills and desire I needed.

I will spend this weekend in the rolling hills of Ireland. From there I will travel through Belgium, Luxembourg and hopefully back down through my favorite country - Switzerland. It's hard to believe in one short month I will be home. We are working hard to fulfill our work at EEM, get in as much study time as we can with our students, and see the last bits of Europe we can before we return to the good USA! Thanks to all who have kept me in their thoughts - and thanks again for your letters!

Straight Talk

By Dave Thompson

In an unprecedented display of dropping denominational barriers, the Knox City Ministerial Alliance joined together to serve as host for a first ever Christian rock concert in Knox City. Aimed at the youth at Knox City, the concert featured the duo, 'Word Up, Inc.' from McKinney.

Featuring Dave Davlin, a world famous basketball star, the concert thrilled the young crowd on hand for the event. With over 200 in attendance, the concert provided a type of music never heard before inside the W.R. Baker Auditorium on the Knox City School Campus.

Working with a brilliant display of stage lights and a tremendous VOLUME of music, Dave and Jamie used a format that appeals to the youth of today to spread their message of the gospel and Jesus Christ.

Viewing the event from the safety of the sound room, I had the opportunity not only to watch the concert, but also to watch and listen to our young people of Knox City. Their open display of coming together for a single cause was truly inspiring.

Regardless of what church they or their families attended, the youth present at the concert sang together, prayed together, and really seemed to be enjoying and intently listening to the message coming from Dave and Jamie.

The Ministerial Alliance is moving in a new and exciting direction. They are gearing their efforts to work more closely with the youth of our community. In an era of gang wars, drive by shootings and other youth related crimes being reported almost daily in large city newspapers all across this country, this effort by our area ministers should be applauded by all of us.

The next time you talk to your minister, or pastor, let him know how much you appreciate the efforts of the Ministerial Alliance. As a group, the alliance spends most of their time working in the background without much public recognition. Their efforts to work with our youth deserve a lot of recognition from all of us. Let them know how you feel. The members of the Knox City Ministerial Alliance are Ross Anderson of Gillespie Baptist Church, Bill Christian of First Christian Church, Bobby King of First Baptist Church, Farrel Lemmings of Foursquare Church, Jim Teeter of First United Methodist Church, George Yarger of First Baptist Church of O'Brien, and Leon Ward of Church of God in Christ.

My hat is off to each of these men, I wish them much success in this new endeavor. At the concert on Monday night, one local youth came to know Jesus Christ and went forward during the invitation. That, my friends, is worth whatever the concert cost in dollars, and is what it's all about.

The Ministerial Alliance raises funds by donations and offerings at seasonal community church gatherings. The next time you are ready to make a donation or memorial, you might keep the Knox City Ministerial Alliance in mind.

Benjamin News

The holiday spirit has already begun to feel the air and the weather also is a reminder that colder days lie ahead. The community is busily preparing for our annual Thanksgiving supper and program. It will be Wednesday evening, November 17, beginning about 6 or 6:30. (I haven't heard the exact time). The program will consist of a community choir, special music and an inspiring Thanksgiving message. Make plans now to be there.

The Cartwrights (Dub and Jo) have already begun getting their "fairy land" ready for Christmas. They will have it all ready to go and will "light up" on Thanksgiving. Everyone appreciates and enjoys their efforts and the results every year. They kind of put us all in the holiday spirit.

Please remember - if you have a 1993 crop that has failed - program or non -program - come in and file for disaster before you destroy the crop.

Set-Aside 1994 Requirements

The set-aside requirements for 1994 crops is as follows:

Crop	% Of Base
Wheat	0
Oats	0
Grain Sorghum	0

There is still no word on the required percentage for flex acres for 1994. I think you can safely assume it will be at least 15% of the base on all crops.

Mrs. Finley To Be Honored On 90th Birthday

Louise English Finley will celebrate her 90th birthday with a party in her honor on November 17 at the Brazos Valley Care Home hosted by her daughter, Mrs. Alex (Carol) Godsey.

Mrs. Finley was born November 25, 1903, and came to Knox City in April 1926 when her father, the late Rev. Joseph W. English and mother Annie Laura English, were called here for Rev. English to pastor First Baptist Church. The English family were the first occupants of the then new church parsonage.

Mrs. Finley taught school prior to her marriage to H.W. Finley and continued for a while during World War II leaving teaching to work at the local clinic. She also worked at the Knox County Hospital and Cobb's Department Store. Mrs. Finley served as First Baptist Church's church librarian from 1954-1979. She is a past member of the Knox City Garden Club and Retired Teachers.

She also has three grandsons, Jon, Joe and Dan Godsey.
