

Schedule Of League Meet Events Given

Merle Walker, athletic director of the Interscholastic meet to be held Saturday, April 4, in Wellington, this week announced the schedule for the various events.

Only athletic contests are being held this year, and these are being completed in one day, rather than the two required heretofore.

Mr. Walker stated that all students taking part in tennis should be at the high school gymnasium at 10:10 a. m. to draw for opponents, time and courts. Drawing for volleyball will be held at this time also.

"All representatives are requested to be on time, as it will be necessary to start on time to be able to finish the contests in one day," Mr. Walker said.

Former Guard Officers Eligible For Service

Adjutant General J. Watt Page announced this week that former field artillery National Guard officers, regardless of age, but under sixty, who have been honorably discharged since December 31, 1931, are now eligible under recent War Department authority for assignment to active service in the U. S. Army if they are physically qualified.

All such officers whose correct address is on file with the Adjutant General's office in Austin will, within the next day or two, receive registered notice of the War Department directive with full instructions for compliance, General Page stated.

Pointing out that a questionnaire accompanying such notice will furnish all information required, he said:

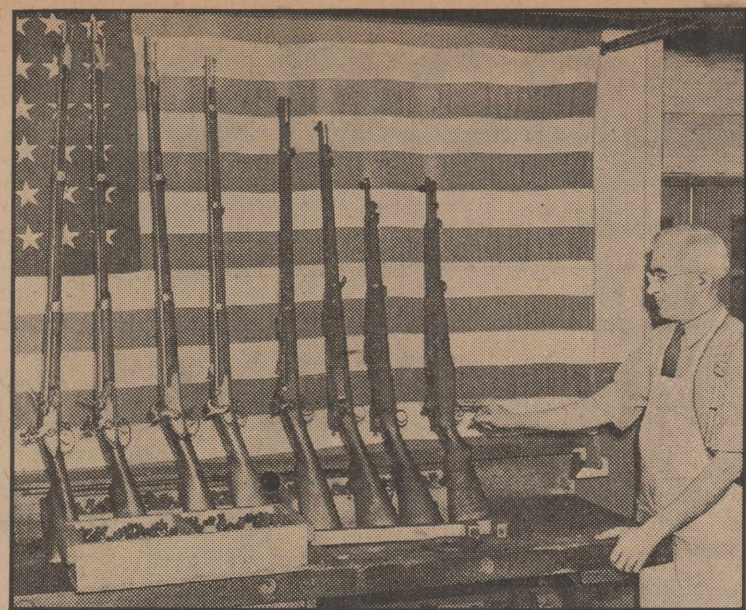

"Officers are kindly requested not to attach to the questionnaire, or to mail in separately, any letters or other supporting papers. This can serve only to delay and obstruct the procedure."

Officers coming within the purview of this authority who fail to receive such notice, General Page said, are urged to communicate immediately with the Adjutant General of Texas, stating age, rank, years of commissioned service, date of discharge, organization, and commission desired.

This information, he added, applies to former National Guard officers now residing in Texas, but whose records are on file in some other State.

The initial list is now being made up, according to General Page, to be forwarded not later than March 11. However, those officers who can qualify under this new policy and who fail to receive notice prior to that date should lose no time in communicating direct with the Adjutant General's Office at Austin.

The federal government, under the social security act, matches state funds dollar for dollar in providing Aid to Dependent Children, Aid to the Needy Blind, and Old Age Assistance. All three programs are administered by the Department of Public Welfare with offices in every county seat town.

START GARAND RIFLE PRODUCTION

Having proven its merit with MacArthur's men at Bataan, the Garand rifle goes into full production at Springfield, Mass. Left to right, famous predecessors are the Charleville, 1763 model; the Springfield musket of 1795; first percussion load rifle, made in 1837; the 1842 type of percussion load; the 1873 breech loader; the 1898 Krag-Jorgenson; the famous 1903 model Springfield rifle, and the 1936 Garand, newest and best product of the arsenal.

Scrap Drive A Success

DALLAS.—A total of 28,000 long tons, or nearly 63,000,000 pounds, of scrap have been collected as a result of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association's scrap campaign, Charles F. Roeser, general chairman, reported early this week.

Five hundred carloads of scrap have already been shipped to Texas foundries and eastern mills and three hundred carloads more are now on hand to be shipped at once, Mr. Roeser said. This makes a total of 800 carloads or around 28,000 long tons.

"These totals are for the 36 principal shipping centers used in our campaign," Mr. Roeser said. "There are an equal number of collection points from which we have not had full reports. When all these centers also report, the total should go over the 30,000 long ton mark."

Scrap is still being hauled into most of the shipping points, he added.

"Our reports are mainly on the results of our intensive collection drive," Mr. Roeser explained. "We are going to 'get in the scrap' for the duration of the emergency, so we hope to keep a smaller but steady stream of scrap metals and rubber coming in as long as this is needed."

High praise for the work of the county chairmen and co-chairmen and committeemen was expressed by Mr. Roeser.

"The results of the Texas campaign are due largely to the very fine work of these men," Mr. Roeser said. "Most of them have given time and effort which could not be measured in dollars. I have never before seen such wonderful cooperation as everyone has shown in this program."

The Texas Mid-Continent drive has just been commended by Geo. T. Weymouth, chief of the industrial salvage section of the bureau of industrial conservation of the War Production Board. Mr. Weymouth wrote as follows: "Your campaign provides an outstanding model to which I hope other associations in the industry may be persuaded to address themselves to relieve the critical need for scrap materials."

Texas appropriates 14 times as much for Old Age Assistance as it does for Aid to Dependent Children.

SOLDIER'S LIFE

... As Soldiers See It

Camp Wallace, Texas
March 19, 1942

Dear Deck:

I received The Wellington Leader and was proud to get it. It seemed like I was at home when I started reading it, and believe me, that is a good feeling. The Leader is about the only source of news from Collingsworth County I get. I don't know any one down here, and it is pretty lonesome.

I am in the Anti-Aircraft Battalion. The battery I am in is the searchlight division. We locate the planes for the gun batteries. We drill all day, then at night we trace planes until about 11 o'clock.

So you see, I am pretty busy. Most of the boys down here are in good spirits about the war. They believe that the sooner the enemy is crushed the better off we will be, and the sooner peace will come. You can print this in The Leader if you wish.

Thanks again for The Leader.

Yours truly,

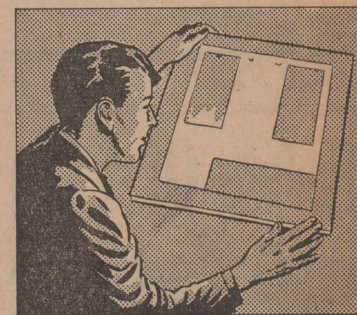

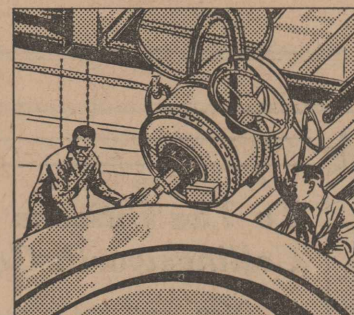

Edwin L. Sanders,
Btry C, 30 C A T Bn,

When a Child Needs a Laxative!

SYRUP OF BLACK-DRAUGHT is a tasty liquid that most children will welcome whenever they need a laxative. What's more important, it has the same main ingredient as BLACK-DRAUGHT, its older companion. Perhaps that's why it usually gives a child such refreshing relief from the familiar symptoms which show a laxative is needed. Comes in two sizes: 25c—50c.

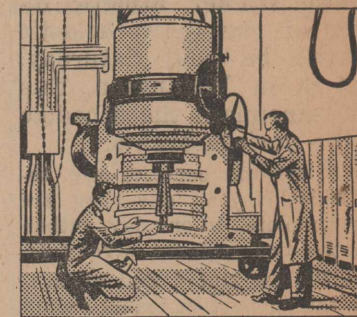

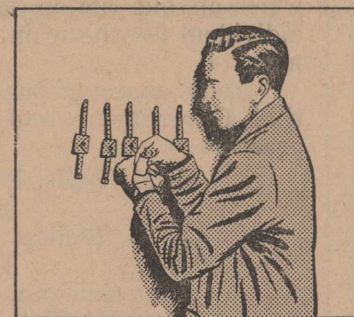

Steel-Piercing Eye

Steel used in vital parts for war machines—planes, tanks, ships, guns—must be flawless, because America's fighting men must have weapons that are both accurate and tough.

1. The new million volt X ray built by General Electric saves precious hours in finding flaws. It is so powerful that its rays can pierce thick steel castings.

2. Defects in the steel show up on X-ray film. Therefore faulty materials are tossed aside before costly hours of machining have been spent on them.

3. A regular check-up on pieces of X-ray film worn on workers' wrists helps guard against prolonged exposure to the rays given off by the X-ray tube.

4. X-ray exposure needed for 5-inch-thick steel is now 2 minutes instead of previous 3½ hours! Whole days are saved in examination of even thicker castings.

General Electric believes that its first duty as a good citizen is to be a good soldier.

WAR!

... after 10 years of perpetual e-motion

WASHINGTON officialdom complains that the public does not realize that the nation is engaged in war. A critical war. An all-out war... Washington chides the citizenry for its lethargy, its complacency.

"Where does the blame, if any, lie?"

Thus read the opening lines of an editorial in the official magazine of the United States Chamber of Commerce suggesting that the average citizen feels that the bureaucrats in Washington "are not taking the war seriously."

The average man, it is said, "has become impervious to 'emergency.' He has been exposed for ten years to perpetual emotion. It is natural that he ask his leaders for something more than words... He needs examples, actions, in high places."

But, it continues, "As far as the citizen can see, not one of the 150-odd peace-time bureaus, commissions and authorities has made any sacrifice. Not one. Rather, not a one but has found the war an excuse for expanding its personnel and 'services'."

The average man knows that wars are not won with words, piddling policies, or boondoggling. Wars are won with deeds, with production, and with the full cooperation of government, labor, industry, and of ALL the people.

He knows that to win the war there must be an end to petty politics while the battle rages. He knows that his country has no need for bogus reformers, hampering and reviling industry at a time when our greatest need is planes, tanks, ships—not ideologies.

The practical business men who built up and manage America's electric companies today are providing electric power where it's needed, when it's needed!

Despite the millions on millions of dollars spent for political power projects, business-operated companies are furnishing over 90 per cent of the nation's electric supply in the present emergency. Last year, they installed over 2½ million more horsepower! We now have in the U. S. more electric power than all the enemy nations together.

Careful, efficient and economical production of electric power will continue, fighting air fields, army camps, industries, your home and business. The war will be won, not with words of abuse but by wholehearted cooperation!

WPA To Drop Those Who Can Work On Farm

Farm labor is being drafted for service in the Army and Navy and also is leaving for work in defense industries. Farmers are beginning to fear that they will be confronted with a shortage of labor needed for the cultivation and gathering of their crops.

On March 11, H. P. Drought, State Administrator for Works Projects Administration, issued the following statement: "No man or woman who can earn a living as a farm laborer will remain employed on a WPA project in Texas."

"We are going to adhere rigidly to the policy stated by Mr. Drought and to do this in the most efficient manner, we must have the full cooperation of our district, area and project supervisors," states A. A. Meredith, district manager.

While each certified worker assigned to any project has been required to register with the United States Employment Service before his assignment to WPA projects, and this agency has authority to assign to private employment any or all workers on WPA jobs, it is quite likely that farmers in outlying counties of the District may find it inconvenient to go to the U. S. Employment Service office for the occasional limited labor they may need for temporary farm work. Mr. Meredith said that he felt certain farmers would soon begin to contact workers assigned to WPA jobs in an effort to obtain help. It is the purpose of the WPA supervisors to encourage the farmers to contact the superintendents each time they desire help so those in charge of the projects will know when private employment has been offered to a worker and will be in a position to discharge any worker who refuses to accept private employment.

Cowen To U. S. Court Of Claims

Wilson Cowen, former bi-regional head of the Farm Security Administration and a prominent attorney of Dalhart, has been appointed to the United States Court of Claims, it was announced officially Wednesday.

Cowen is in Washington to accept his appointment to the tribunal which is second in prestige and authority only to the Supreme Court of the United States. Judge Marvin Jones, former Amarillo congressman, is likewise a member of this court.

The appointee, who is widely known in Amarillo, moved to Dalhart in 1929, joining the law firm of Tatum and Strong. In 1934 he was elected county judge of Dallam County. He later resigned to accept a post with the FSA. His advance was rapid from the position of state administrator to regional chief. Several months ago he was given two regions, Numbers 12 and 8, with headquarters at Dallas.

SOLDIER'S LIFE

... As Soldiers See It

(Buford Young is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Young of Latic. He was on the U.S.S. Phelps at the time this letter was mailed to his parents.)

February 22, 1942.

Dear Dad and Arlene:

How is everything around home?

You were asking if I was around Pearl Harbor at the time of the attack; well, yes, I was there and saw everything.

We had a brush with the Jap bombers a while back and shot down 19 of them. One got away. I still hope to hear from you soon. I must close for now.

Your son and brother, Buford Young.

P. S.—Tell everyone hello for me and to write. Has James gone to the army yet?

Hqd. & Hqd. Squadron 43rd Air Base Group Portland Air Base Portland, Oregon March 16, 1942

Dear Deck:

I have been receiving The Leader for some three weeks and I want to thank you personally as well as any other person who may be responsible for it. This is indeed a worthwhile service to men in the Armed Forces and I am sure it is greatly appreciated by every one of them. To me, the paper is like a letter from home and through it I am able to keep up with the rest of the fellows in the service as well as the things of interest at home.

After enlisting in the Army Air Corps on January 8, I was sent to Sheppard Field for some three weeks of recruit training, then transferred to this base for regular duty. Until recently I have been doing Military Police duty but have now been assigned to radio operator's school and to clerical duties in the office of the Provost Marshall. I enjoy this work more as it is decidedly more in my line, and I think there is more opportunity for real service as well as advancement.

I passed my physical examination today for Officers Training School and will appear before the Officers Candidate Selection Board next Friday. If I am fortunate enough to meet their requirements I will be eligible for officers training after the seventh of next month. If I am selected I will be sent to the Air Corps Training School for Officers which was recently established in Miami Beach, Fla. Men who successfully complete this ninety day training course will receive commissions as Second Lieutenants.

The base where I am stationed is made up of active Transport, Pursuit, and Bombardment Squadrons. Although it is a rather small base from the personnel standpoint it is one of the more important West Coast bases. Since I am not allowed to discuss military matters I will say that it is situated about eight miles from the city of Portland and on the beautiful Columbia River. Even at this off season of the year the scenery here is beautiful and if it were not for the heavy rainfall, some of which could sometimes be used in Collingsworth County in July and August, this would be an ideal place to "soldier."

About 50 percent of the personnel here is from Texas so I really don't feel so far away from home. There is one other Wellington soldier on the base—Kenneth Harris, of the 144th Infantry. In closing let me again thank you for The Leader and also say hello to all my friends in and around Wellington. I know that the people of Wellington and Collingsworth County are doing their part with some to spare to "Keep 'Em Flying."

Sincerely yours,

Pvt. Harold L. Leach.

IT TAKES CO-OPERATION...

Fifty years ago nobody thought of trying to stimulate the industrial growth of a whole region. The American pioneer spirit took care of everything.

Today, with our country largely settled, it is not enough to leave our industrial future to nature. Realizing this, our Company is telling the nation about the splendid opportunities for war and peacetime production that are available here in the Gulf South.

The program is designed to co-operate with all other groups interested in building a greater Gulf South —to work with you, and your local organizations—and to help build your community and the rest of the Gulf South area.

But the job is big—it takes co-operative pulling power—the co-operation of everyone working shoulder to shoulder in the interest of the whole country's defense and its peacetime progress after war. All of us in the Gulf South know that only through close co-operation and unified action can victory be assured. We deeply appreciate our responsibilities in this great crisis.

Deck's DID ACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

A mass meeting of the entire citizenship of Collingsworth County has been called for Friday night, March 27. It will be held in the Methodist Church. The keynote of the meeting will probably be that we must win the war and that no selfish minority can be allowed to stand in the way. You should be there.

If I understand the feeling of the men who have called the meeting, it won't be an anti-labor meeting. It won't be an anti-industry meeting. But strikes and excess profits and lockouts will be discussed with no holds barred. The purpose is to express the desires of the people of this county. The officials who have called the meeting feel that the overwhelming sentiment is for unity and an all out effort. By all out, they mean ALL OUT.

They know that a day now is worth a month next year. They know that if we lose this war we have lost it forever. You know it too. Be there.

Since he did not have time to get a proclamation in the paper, Mayor Pink Sullivan requests all business houses to close their doors from 8 p. m. to 9 p. m. on March 27 in order to attend the meeting.

Amarillo is planning a giant Army Day parade for April 6. The President has requested it. Ordinarily Wellington would join in to make it a Panhandle demonstration. Due to the tire situation, John L. Beard informs me that it is impossible to send the band. He suggests that Wellington have an Army Day parade of its own. It sounds like sense and patriotism to me. What do you men of the Legion, Rotary, Kiwanis, AAA, etc., think of the suggestion? I think the suggestion of the superintendent is an excellent one. And if we have it, how about having all the mothers and wives who have sons and husbands in the forces ride at the head of the parade? Their sons and their husbands are not here to march, but you know that these women fight the war every hour and every minute in their hearts.

Personal note to the shades of the Earl of Aberdeen and the Baron of Tweedmouth: They have discontinued the post office at Aberdeen, Texas. It was due to a lack of business. I regret that this has come to pass for more reasons than one and Virginia Robey intends to write a story about it. I do not know whether you ever said "we planned it this way" but I do know that you planned to make Aberdeen the headquarters for a vast colonization effort. I have a great affection for your plans, but I beg to report that plans are often changed by men of action. Right now I am thinking of Houston, Knudsen and McArthur.

Elmer Knox Jones will be in Wellington next week. Within a short time he will be in the armed forces of the nation. His father was in the last war and volunteered for this one, but it is the young men who are called to the colors.

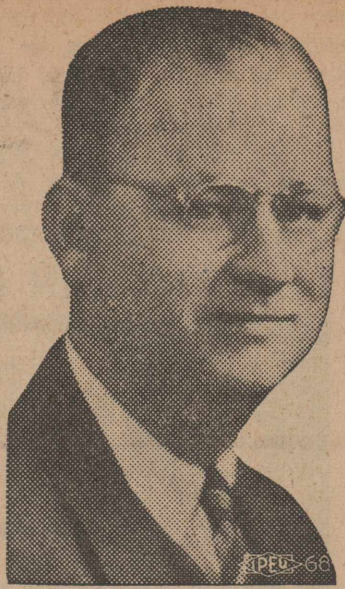

The fathers would rather go themselves than send their sons, but if it is their sons' duty to go, they want their sons to go also. Arthur Cochran gave me a view on this. Cochran was in the thick of the last one. Fathers fight the war just as the mothers do.

It was pleasant to have J. C. Phipps come by and visit me the other evening. We have quite a conversation about hogs, but it was in the past tense. He lost over 400 the year I lost 120 and the hogs were worth only 20c a pound that year. As we bragged to each other about how much we lost—both of us can prove it—I was heartened at the solid and healthy view of this man who has made his money out of SHWH—saving, hard work and hogs. For your information, he has bought more than his share of bonds.

Well, I will see you next week after I have hoed my onions and radishes. Personally I doubt the efficiency of some of the town vegetable raisers, but I am planting vegetables in my flower bed just the same. However, I do intend to hide my gardening effort behind a thin row of flowers. There are a lot of people who will laugh out loud when they see my lettuce. Laugh if you want to, but come around this summer and see my okra.

If Ed Crawford will call by the Leader office I will pay off. The County ginned 23,732 bales.

ABRA By MRS. JOHN GROVES

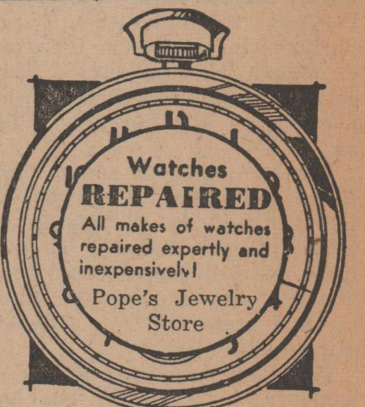

W. J. Puett, age 80 years last Tuesday, father of Mrs. John Groves, has just returned from a visit in Long Beach, Calif. He left Shamrock the 22nd day of February at 6:30 a. m. on the bus. He enjoyed the ride, seeing many beautiful sights and scenery. He went through a terrible blowing snowstorm in Arizona. He arrived in Long Beach at 1 p. m. on the 23rd. His daughter, Mrs. Bessie Randall, met him at the bus station.

Mr. Puett said the first attempted invasion of the Japs took place at 7 o'clock after he arrived. A Jap submarine threw 25 shells in the oil fields about one hundred miles from Long Beach at Santa Barbara. The estimated damage was between four and five hundred dollars.

The morning of the 25th at 2:25 the largest black-out they have had lasted until 7:25. He stated it was wonderful and thrilling to see the searchlights or spotlights, looking and watching for the enemy flyers, and declared the shells from the defense guns going up through the light was a spectacle well worth seeing.

Mr. Puett visited a house four blocks from where he was staying that belonged to Dr. F. W. Stewart. A three inch anti-aircraft shell failed to explode until it entered the physician's home. The shell pierced the roof, passed through a medicine cabinet and a wall and exploded after shattering the kitchen floor. He has as a token a piece of the fragment of the shell that demolished the kitchen.

Mr. Puett was asked if he was scared. He answered no, that was the BIGGEST THRILL of his life and if the Japs were going to drop a bomb, he wished they had done it while he was there. He wanted to see it.

Fresno P.T.A. To Meet Thursday Evening

The Fresno P.T.A. will meet Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock at the school building. Each family is requested to bring home made cookies. Games have been planned for entertainment following the business meeting. Families who have dominoes, cards and tables are asked to bring them along.

Leaders Honored By Circle No. 2 Monday Afternoon

Following the regular meeting of Circle No. 2 of the Baptist Church, Mrs. J. W. Harper and Mrs. T. E. Bengue were honored at a tea in the home of Mrs. Lee Fortenberry. Mrs. Bengue, Mission study teacher, and Mrs. Harper, Bible study teacher, were presented with a handkerchief shower by members in appreciation for their loyal work in the W.M.U. Mrs. A. N. Hutcherson and Mrs. C. C. Bishop were co-hostesses with Mrs. Fortenberry.

Mrs. Hutcherson poured tea from a lace covered table appointed in red, white and blue. Red bud blossoms and red hyacinth were arranged in a crystal bowl as a centerpiece. Star sandwiches, cookies, iced in the patriotic colors, and tea were served.

Favors were given to the following members: Mmes. L. A. Moore, J. B. Sasser, Bruce Hite, J. A. Dukeminier, Russell Gallia, J. W. Harper, T. E. Bengue, Orval Couch, Charles Slay, J. C. Whisenant, Bishop, Hutcherson and Fortenberry.

Culture Club Hears Program On Paris

Miss Katherine Boverie was hostess to the Culture Club Tuesday, March 17, when members heard a program on Paris. Mrs. C. C. Bishop was leader and told "The Story of Paris." Mrs. Austin O'Neil gave as her topic, "Public Squares, Parks, Gardens and Interesting Buildings."

Roll call was answered by eight members on Paris Styles.

St. Patrick's Day favors were miniature Irishmen made of green candies.

Attending were Mmes. Bishop, O'Neil, Cliff Campbell, Harry Gilbert, Jimmie Kelson, Marguerite McCampbell, G. A. Ream, and hostess, Miss Boverie.

Mrs. N. W. Murray Hostess To Bible Study Group Monday

Circle No. 3 met with Mrs. N. W. Murray Monday, March 23 for Bible study. There were nine members and two visitors present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. R. L. Porter on March 30.

LET THE DEAD SPEAK

(An Editorial from The Dallas Morning News)

It is a strange voice that comes from Washington-as-usual to rebuke the people for getting too much in earnest about an all-out working week for an all-out war.

Washington-as-usual, it appears, means only all-out for forty hours a week. Washington-as-usual thinks that an eight-hour day on Saturday, after eight hours on the other days in the week, is so cruel as to entitle the worker to reach down into the tax money for an added premium on his sacrifice. Washington-as-usual is not disturbed at pyramided war profits and exorted war benefits. Washington-as-usual wants unity, while the country is expected to resign itself to a beating for months and months before we finally begin winning this war.

But the country is not resigned. It wants to begin winning this war now. The blood and tears can't be limited to forty hours a week—why should we sweat? The country is boiling angry at cantonment profits, at shut-downs for want of materials to keep going, at paying a union band $100 to stand idly by while a famous musical group plays the national anthem without charge at a patriotic meeting, at the spectacle of workmen on rush defense jobs charged $25 to $100 for the right to work. These things make utterly furious the fathers and mothers of boys who are still empty-handed in uniform, though drafted to face death on the battle line.

Sick and tired are these fathers and mothers of Washington-as-usual, with its card-indexes, its swivel chairs—and its alibis. The people are aroused as they have not been in many decades. This is no mob spirit, no sudden impulse, no wild and disordered eruption. It is as determined as the strap in the woodshed. It is as methodical as the housewife's broom. Washington-as-usual will never forget what is about to happen to it.

Let the Speaker of the House each day place on the wall behind his chair, where Old Glory's folds are draped, a fresh list of the dead heroes of America, killed in battle—and never yet fully supported by their country's effort. Let the President of the United States face at his desk that roll of the dead every working minute of his day. If the living are not to be heard in Washington-as-usual, then let the dead speak.

OTHER EDITORS SAY--

• What The War Will Do

In World War II we will develop synthetic rubber, an American tin industry, substitutes for Japanese silk, new plastics and many new uses for products of farm and forest. American ingenuity in the home, dulled by soft living and dependence on can-openers and gadgets ordered over the telephone, will buckle down and demonstrate that we are just as resourceful as our ancestors were—when we have to. We will learn the hard way to do a better job in shop, store, mill, farm and home. —East Texas Magazine.

• Trees On The Plains

Deaf Smith County farm families are planting trees this year, with plantings for windbreaks and orchards already started in many sections of the country. If the trend keeps up for a few years, this country may lose its reputation as treeless plain.—Jimmie Gillentine in The Hereford Brand.

• Governor Urges Economy

Another reason why Governor Coke Stevenson is one of the most popular executives Texas has ever had, is his frank recognition of the needs for economy in government from the precinct to Washington. The governor has been recognized by Texas voters as an executive of unusual practicality in his approach to all state problems since his induction into office following the resignation of his predecessor, and his unequivocal stand on immediate slashes in state and federal spending except those germane to a victorious war effort, brought him further and renewed approval from his constituency.—Sam M. Braswell in the Clarendon News.

• Stamford Citizens Act

Resolutions petitioning Congress to "cease political intrigue and strife and get down to business on the problem of winning the war" were adopted in a public mass meeting of Stamford citizens at St. John's Methodist Church Tuesday night.—Clebun Huston in The Stamford American.

• "Somewhere"

In spite of the fact that the news has been published in all of the architectural and engineering journals, censorship prohibits the publication of anything more than that a munitions plant is being erected "somewhere in Texas." Naturally from all of the elation and activities in and around and east of Amarillo, it might be guessed that the plant is being placed somewhere in the Panhandle. Now isn't that silly! Every Jap and Hitler spy in the nation knew the day announcement was made in Washington the exact location of the plant; what the contract calls for; when it will be finished and what is going to be made in the plant. Yet the plant is "Some Place in Texas" and Texas is a big state.—Clyde W. Warwick in The Canyon News.

• Fence Damage

Government agencies are issuing warnings against burning grass from pastures and fields. One damage seldom thought of is ruining the temper of wire fences, causing swift deterioration. As fencing will be hard to get for a long time, this alone is worth considering, if the damage to grasses, shrubbery and soil was not involved.—T. A. Landers in The McLean News.

The Bright Side

Time To Grow

The train was one that stopped at all stations and sometimes in between. Toward the end of the long, tedious journey the conductor came around collecting tickets.

"Madam," he said to a mother, who had her son with her, "this boy is too big to travel half-fare."

"Is he really?" replied the mother. "Well, he was small enough when we started."

No Use Winning

A missionary society member approached Henry. "We are having a raffle for a poor widow," she said. "Will you buy a ticket?"

"Nope," said Henry. "My wife wouldn't let me keep her if I won."

Tacturnity

Grandpappy Morgan, hillbilly of the Ozarks, had wandered into the woods and failed to return for supper, so young Tolliver was sent to look for him. He found him standing in the bushes.

"Gettin' dark, grandpa," the tot ventured.

"Yep."

"Supper time, grandpa."

"Yep."

"Ain't you hungry?"

"Yep."

"Wal, ain't ye coming home?"

"Nope."

"Why ain't ye?"

"Standin' in a b'ar trap."

Innocence Abroad

Sweet Young Thing: "Why are you running that harrow over that grain field?"

Young Farmer: "Oh, I'm raising shredded wheat this year."

Alibi

"Who beat you up?"

"You see, it's this way. I took my girl to a restaurant last night, and she found a fly in her soup. She called the waiter and said: 'Take this insect out of here.'"

"So he threw me down a flight of stairs."

War Reports

Thinking the marines on Midway Island might be running short of supplies, and finally getting in communication by radio with them, headquarters asked, "What shall we send you?"

The marines called back: "Send us some more Japs."

TEST YOUR I. Q.

More than three months have passed since Pearl Harbor. Can you remember these war facts?

1. Which U. S. Island outpost was the first to fall to the Japs?
2. How many men were in Uncle Sam's Army on Dec. 7?
3. On what peninsula has Gen. MacArthur been making his wonderful stand?
4. What is the nickname given to American flyers in Burma?

Your Town And Mine

—By CHARLES L. ALLEN

Mrs. Deming came over to our house the other day saying she didn't know what in the world she'd do about those three boys of hers. They are not old enough to go to school and yet they fight like tigers nine-tenths of their waking moments.

"I don't understand boys at all," said Mrs. Deming. "Why when we were children we never fought with our brothers and sisters. If we had tried it our parents would have whipped us soundly and put us to bed without our supper. But these boys of mine, land's sake, it seems they're scuffling or boxing or wrestling all the livelong day. For all I know they may grow up to be gangsters."

Good Mrs. Deming's boys are three of the most robust, healthy, husky, happy youngsters in our block and when they are over at our place they are paragons of good behavior. We've seen them at home, too, and very often they are anything but shining examples of good decorum. Like all human beings, they think that home is a place where you don't have to be on your good behavior all the time, where you can romp, and run, and enjoy yourself. That is certainly not an improper way to look at it, and their romping and playing is no reflection on their excellent manners she has taught them. They are simply acting like normal children who feel at home.

My brother and I used to fight so much of the time that mother finally had to put us in different parts of the house and make us play with our own toys entirely by ourselves. Not until we were young men did we realize that our scuffling and boxing and wrestling really annoyed her a great deal, and only then did we give it up.

Parents do not realize that childish scraps between brothers, and between brothers and sisters, are actually little lessons in sociology and psychology. They are children's ways of learning how to get along with people. Boys, it seems to me, have to learn these lessons more thoroughly and more painfully than girls. Girls apparently are born with a greater genius for getting along with people—probably, according to a lady friend of ours, because they are destined to have to get along with men. Undoubtedly there is a deeper reason for the phenomenon. Every boy will some day have to go out into the world and battle for a living, not only for himself but also for his dependents. Nature makes him with spirit, with a fighting heart, because only that kind of man can overcome the obstacles with which the world confronts us. When he is a boy these qualities manifest themselves in scuffling and fighting with anyone who is handy. If the handiest protagonist happens to be a bigger brother or sister, it is only incidental to his education.

Your three boys are not in any danger of growing up into gangsters, Mrs. Deming. On the contrary—they are three of the most normal little men in Our Town and you would be utterly confounded if you could see how gentlemanly they behave when they come over to our house for a few hours. Of course they occasionally get in a slight mixup with our youngsters, but that's to be expected, and after all, our sons have to learn to live with other people, too.

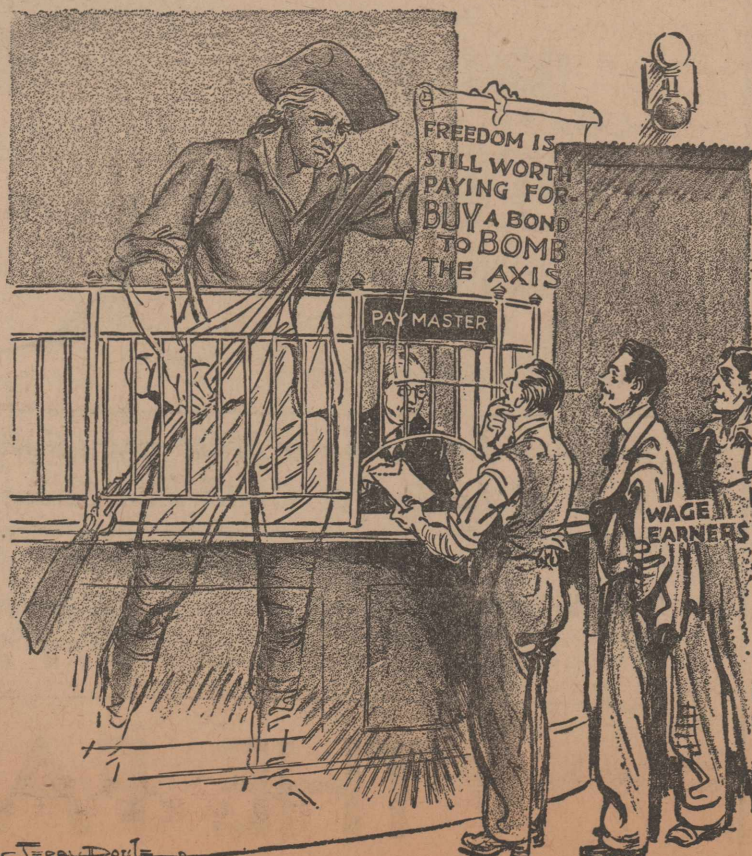

Tact

Housewife: "You seem to be an able bodied man. You ought to be strong enough to work."

Hobo: "I know, mum, and you seem beautiful enough to be in the movies, but evidently you prefer the simple life."

Housewife: "Step into the kitchen and I'll see if I can stir up something for you to eat."

DO IT EVERY PAY DAY!

I Saw

—By VIRGINIA ROBEY

Ben Hurst, his voice so hoarse he could hardly talk, when asked what had happened, replied simply: "Fat Stock Show." . . . Polly O'Neil standing in line to buy new license tags.

Sunday was such a pretty day, even the prospects of no more tires couldn't keep folks from getting out and driving around—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bennett, Miss Effie Rankin, the Joe Terrys, and ever so many others. . . Joe Grigg, who last week came back to Wellington to supervise the shelterbelt work, telling of guayule in California. It will grow all right in semi-arid sections, he said, but the hitch in using it for rubber has always been that natural rubber could be imported from the Dutch East Indies for around 25c a pound, while it costs about 75c to 80c to produce a pound of rubber from guayule here at home. He thinks the production cost will go down, now that so much attention has been turned to it.

Selecting their senior invitations—Ira and Doris Jenkins, Cora Elizabeth Clark, Ruby Brewer, Eugene Hunter, Virginia Ann Williams, Geneva Mitchell, Marguerite Loving, Mildred Stafford, and Louise Aduddell.

Miss Katherine Schellenberg saying that she got to attend the Teachers meeting in Amarillo and also visit her home in Kansas during the latter part of last week . . . and Miss Mildred Hulsey did the same, only she didn't have so far to go, since she is from Tulsa.

Germination tests of old garden seeds may be made by planting several kinds in boxes of moist dirt kept in a sunny place. Steam Asparagus

Fresh asparagus is seldom cheap, because the tough ends of stalks must be discarded, so it is essential to preserve its food values as well as its form. Always tie asparagus stalks in convenient size bundles and stand upright in about one inch of water in a sauce pan with closely fitted cover. Turn flame to point where it will maintain the water at gentle boiling; the rising steam tenderizes the stalks and yet the more delicate heads remain firm.

There is no dessert problem that can't be solved with ice cream which can be served in countless new and interesting ways. What could be newer than vanilla ice cream topped with a fresh rhubarb and strawberry sauce. It is as pretty as a picture and oh! so delicious. RHUBARB STRAWBERRY SUNDAE—2 cups diced rhubarb (3/4 lb.); 1 tablespoon water; 1 cup sugar; 1 pint strawberries, washed and hulled; 1 quart vanilla ice cream. Cook rhubarb with the water in a covered saucepan until rhubarb is tender, 3 to 5 minutes. Add sugar and sliced strawberries, and simmer 3 minutes longer, until berries are soft. Stop Strikes, Amarillo Man Tells Kiwanis

"We cannot wait forever on the unions to make up their minds. Strikes must be stopped and stopped now," Bill Beechler of Amarillo, Lieut. Governor of Kiwanis, told members of the local club at their luncheon meeting Friday.

Throughout his talk, Mr. Beechler spoke pointedly of the loss in time and equipment caused by strikes, and the absolute necessity that they must be stopped.

"It is unfair to send boys without proper equipment to fight," he said. Later he added this: "The soldiers are protecting us. It is our duty to see that they get equipment."

If strikes go on, Mr. Beechler told graphically what could happen: Conquest, then 18 hours of work per day for beans; the making of ammunition to kill our own people; and torture if work is not up to standard.

Mr. Beechler was accompanied here by George Kercher and W. E. Haley of Amarillo.

Following Mr. Beechler's speech, the membership voted to wire Senator Tom Connally urging him to exert his influence in securing the repeal of the 40 hour work week, and the securing of proper anti-strike legislation. In a meeting of the executive committee following the session, the following telegram was drafted:

Wellington, Texas
March 20, 1942

U. S. Senator Tom Connally,
Senate Building,
Washington, D. C.

The Wellington Kiwanis Club in weekly meeting, realizing that our Country, our Liberty and our opportunity are at stake, vote unanimously requesting that you use your vote and influence to repeal the forty hour work week. We also request that you do all in your power to get proper anti-strike legislation passed.

Cliff Campbell, President,
Wellington Kiwanis Club.
