4 DAYS REMAIN FOR AUTO TAGS

Better hurry if you still haven't obtained your 1960 motor vehicle license plates.

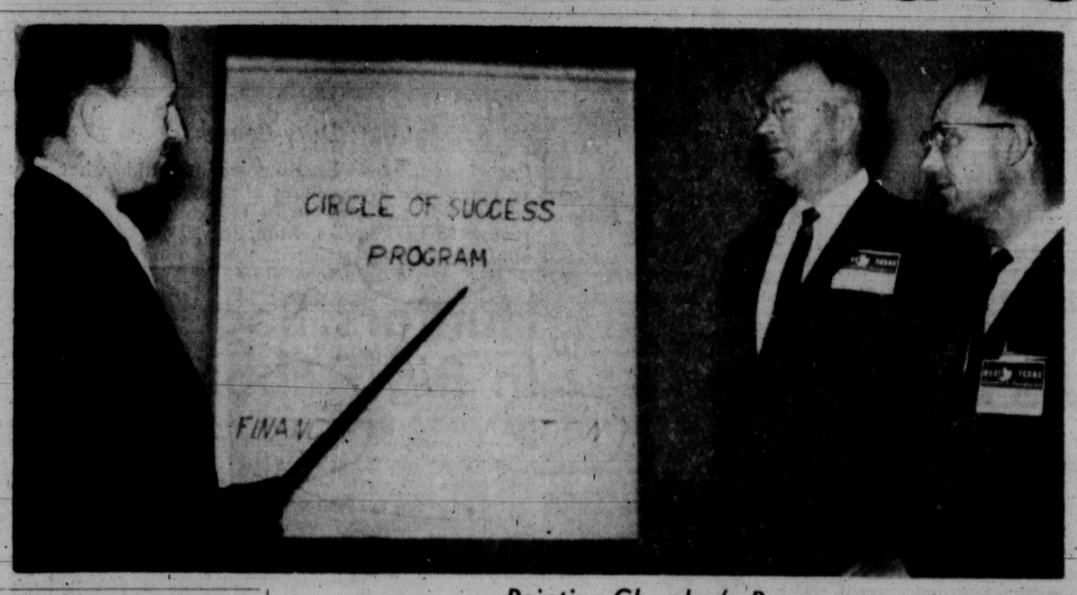

Last day to obtain the licenses is Thursday, County Tax Assessor-Collector Tom Glover reminded citizens Saturday.

And there is likely to be a long line in the late rush. That's because 2,750 passenger cars had been registered here Saturday noon and Glover's office expects to register about 5,000 cars and pickups.

Glover's office will be open through the noon hour Monday through Thursday to speed the line.

One more reminder: Be sure to have car title and 1959 license receipt when you go to obtain new plates.

Sons Of Pioneers Invited To Tumble Weed Festival

Pointing Chamber's Program

Pat Brady Also May Appear

Sons of the Pioneers, musical stars of western movies, and funnyman Pat Brady, Roy Roger's sidekick, are being invited to Colorado City's tumble weed celebration.

Leaders planning the festival here for April 29 voted Saturday afternoon to seek the entertainers.

Eldon Mahon, general chairman of the celebration, said the Hollywood stars are being invited to appear here 2 nights at Colorado High Gymnasium—April 28 and 29.

The entertainment would be in connection with the Tumble Weed Queen's contest — another highlight of the celebration.

Mahon said the Sons of the Pioneers and Brady, known for his antics in the jeep, Nellie Belle, already had been contacted in regard to the 2-night entertainment here.

Rex Felker, Chamber of Commerce manager and former movie and stage trick roper, contacted the Sons of the Pioneers in Hollywood Friday by phone. The western band — for years the musical organization in Roy Rogers' movies — was leaving Hollywood then for a $5,000 weekend engagement in Las Vegas, Nev.

Sons of the Pioneers liked the idea of the festival plans here especially since their theme song is "Tumbling Tumble Weeds."

The Pioneers reported they had open dates for both April 28 and 29 due to necessity of cancelling several appearances next month because of Roy Rogers' heart attack. They asked Colorado City's committee to contact them again Monday in Hollywood to confirm whether or not they would be here.

Plans for the tumble weed celebration began snowballing during the week after Harry Snyder, Cincinnati, Ohio, manufacturer, announced plans for manufacturing floral and display decorations out of tumble weeds in Colorado City.

The festival will celebrate the unique manufacturing plant and usher in the operation, so to speak.

Originally, the celebration was planned for one day with queen's coronation that night, April 29. But if the Sons of the Pioneers and Pat Brady come, then the night of April

SNETHEN TO CORSICANA APRIL 16

Council Starts Hunt To Replace Manager

Mayor Trevor Crawford called an informal conference Saturday afternoon for City Council to begin prospecting for a new city manager.

Prompting the move is the resignation of Rollin K. Snethen, who has been city manager here since Feb. 1, 1956.

Snethen will report April 16 in Corsicana to become city manager of the Navarro County seat.

Corsicana City Commission Thursday with unanimous vote elected Snethen as its manager.

Snethen was named at a luncheon meeting of the commission at which he and other citizens were guests.

The 51-year-old Colorado City manager will succeed Morgan Works, Corsicana's first city manager who recently resigned.

Snethen, who receives $7,300 annual salary here plus $900 allowance, will start at $9,000 salary in Corsicana, plus fringe allowances and an automobile.

The Corsicana pay will increase regularly over a period of a few years.

Representatives from Corsicana came here 2 months ago in their initial contact with Snethen in regard to the promotion to the East Texas city. He was asked then if he could be considered for the post.

He was called to Corsicana 2 weeks ago to confer with municipal officials there, then returned Thursday for the luncheon announcing his appointment.

Only a few citizens of Colorado City knew of the developments in Corsicana. They had been contacted by Corsicana civic leaders when the City Commission there decided to seek Snethen for their job.

Snethen, a native of Pontiac, Mich., is a 1930 graduate of University of Illinois and a registered civil engineer. He came here from Plainview, where for 8 years he was city engineer.

From 1941 to 1947 he was with Post Engineers Department of the Army and for a year after that was with Haise Green Engineering Company of Lubbock. He now has the rank of lieutenant colonel in U. S. Army Reserve.

Snethen in a letter to councilmen here Friday formally notified the council of his re-

Ray Albaugh, another Big Spring operator, staked three new explorers — 1 to test the Clear Fork and 2 for deep Fusselman tests in the southwest corner of the county.

In addition Albaugh staked 5 drilling locations to test the Yates pay section on Mitchell County side of Howard-Glasscock Field, plus 8 similar Yates drillsites on the Howard County side of the field.

Adding to the county's oil development, too, was the completion of McCullough Oil Exploration Corporation No. 2 York as a Glorieta pay in the Turner, Gregory Field (Clear Fork) of Mitchell County.

The No. 2 York was completed for 100.71 barrel discovery potential of 26 gravity oil with 5 per cent water. Perforations were between 2,413 and 2,560 feet.

No. 2 York earlier was completed as a Clear Fork oiler with pumping potential of 86.30 barrels of 25 gravity oil, plus 2 per cent water, from perforations between 2,604 and 2,849 feet.

Charges have been filed in County Court against 2 persons as a result of auto accidents during the last week.

The charge alleges that the woman, while under influence of intoxicating liquor, willfully and negligently caused her auto to collide with the Davis car.

Mrs. Mayes suffered severe head cuts and Mayes received chin cuts in the collision.

AT LOCAL LEVEL

Martin Chairmans Study for Aging

County Judge Elmer Martin will serve as Mitchell County chairman on the Governor's Committee, White House Conference on Aging.

His appointment was announced Saturday jointly by Gov. Price Daniel and State Senator Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro, steering committee chairman.

Judge Martin during the last year served as county chairman for the governor's committee for the White House Conference on juveniles. Information gathered here under his supervision went to the state headquarters, where it was compiled from other county reports for the nationwide study in Washington.

Work on the state level in the study on aging will be directed by a steering committee of 9 prominent Texans associated with agencies concerned with problems of the aged and an advisory body of some 150 Texas citizens.

Sen. Martin informed the Record that Judge Martin and other county judges will be responsible for forming county organization to gather information and make recommendations on the aging problems at the community and county levels.

He said that grassroots studies are necessary to ascertain the extend of income, employment, health, housing and other needs of the ever-increasing number of older people in Texas and throughout the country.

The Texas study, as well as those in other states, is being made by authority of a 1958 act of Congress. The act calls for a White House Conference on Aging to be held in Washington in January of 1961, as well as for local surveys and for state conferences in advance of the Washington meeting.

The announced goals of the project — nationwide, statewide and on the local level — are several:

1. To motivate members of interested organizations to work together in solving common problems of older people.

2. To encourage organizations to study their own work and determine how the needs of the aging and aged can be met more effectively.

3. To correlate public and private services to aging in many fields, including counseling on family relationships, jobs and retraining opportunities, compulsory retirement, health services, housing, nursing homes and recreational programs.

4. To find ways to help older people continue to grow mentally and spiritually.

5. To examine public programs for the aged and determine whether revisions or alterations are needed.

Sen. Martin said the county chairmen are free to determine ways and methods of

5,353 Acres In Choice B Cotton Plan

Mitchell County farmers so far have released approximately 400 cotton acres for the 1960 crop year.

That's the report Saturday by Wayne Worley, office manager here for Agricultural Stabilization & Conservation Committee.

Farmers have until April 8 to release acres under the 1960 cotton allotment program. And farmers have until April 8 to apply for the released acres.

Worley emphasized that a farmer must have proper application on file at the ASC office to be eligible for any of the released acres.

Fifty-one farms in Mitchell County have been signed for the Choice B acreage and marketing plan for the 1960 cotton crop. This is 20 more farms than were placed under Choice B for the 1959 crop year.

Choice B plan allows producers to plant 40 per more acreage than allotment, but with a loan support price of only 60 per cent of parity.

Loan support of 75 per cent of parity is provided for the Choice A plan which conforms to the regular acreage allotment.

The 51 farms in Choice B for this year include 3,353 cotton acres. Last year 31 farms with 1,132 acres were in Choice B.

AHEAD OF '59 PACE

Bowling Center Sends Building to $347,750

New construction is building up here for a fast pace in 1960.

In less than 3 months, construction inside Colorado City has jumped to a total of $347,750.

And this total is not estimate, but the actual dollar count of building permits issued at City Hall.

The $347,750 total is more than $150,000 ahead of the construction pace established through the first 3 months of 1959 — a year, incidentally, which was the third highest in building in the city's history.

March has been the big month so far in this young 1960. With four more days still remaining on the calendar this one month has provided a total of $292,450 in new construction.

Included in the $292,450 this month are $16,450 for residential remodeling and additions, $22,500 in new residences, and $253,500 in new commercial construction.

Big lump in the commercial construction is the $240,000 building permit for Colorado City's bowling center being built at State Highway 208 (to Snyder) and the future Interstate 20 freeway loop.

Construction on the 80 by 140-foot tile building began Monday. It will include 12 automatic Brunswick bowling lanes with under-floor returns, snack bar and other features.

The current year began with $13,500 in January, added $41,800 in February and $292,450 so far in March for a 1960 total of $347,750. For the first 3 months last year the total was only $189,700.

Construction in 1959 continued to a total of $694,028 and teamed with $636,228 in 1958 for the second largest 2-year building period in the city's history. The 2-year mark was just under five million 24-months total—$1,330,256—recorded in 1942 and 1950 with $3 & 2nd St., $450.

the aid of new school building.

Permits obtained for new construction this week at City Hall, addition to the bowling center, include:

W. W. McCullough, new frame residence of 1,250 square feet, 2100 block of Vine, $10,000.

Lloyd Moore, 20 by 25 foot addition to residence on S. Dallas St., $1,000.

Curtis Carpenter, remodel and enlarge garage and carport at residence of Claude Hooks, 543 E. 13th St., $1,800.

H. Greene, addition of 10 by 20 metal carport at duplex residence in 500 block E. 7th St., $200.

Eleventh Street Baptist Church, 30 by 60 foot building moved into the city, $13,500.

John Harvey, new frame residence, 1,196 square feet at 1014 E. 16th St., $12,500.

Pitzkie Joplin, 16-foot by 8 foot office, at residence, 1st of Cuyler, $450.

GAME WARDEN SAYS

Illegal Fishermen Hurting New Lake

State Game & Fish Commission is concerned about persons fishing in Colorado City's new Champion Creek Lake.

Not only are the fishermen violating the law that has closed the new lake until 1961, they are robbing the lake of brooder fish which will make the waters fine fishing for everybody in a year or 2.

Roy Linn, game warden for this area, said the unlawful fishing is taking seed stock of bass which were released in Champion Creek Lake waters last year.

"They take and keep fish," the game warden said, "that are badly needed as brooder stock to provide more fish when the lake catches additional water during the usual spring run-off.

"To make it worse, these fish are not big enough to be legal keepers even if they were, barely fit the legal measurements."

Linn emphasized that every female bass taken from the lake in this "wasteful manner" is capable of producing 10,000 of her own kind within the year.

"And it is pretty poor economy to indulge in such waste," he added.

The game warden said he believed, personally, that a person guilty of this illegal fishing, for the most part, thinks he or she is the only one doing this sort of thing and that a few fish won't be missed.

"But they don't realize," Linn explained, "that collective abuse can undo all the effort the Texas Game & Fish Commission has done to make Champion Creek Lake an excellent fishing lake for the future."

The closed seasons, extending until at least into 1961, where, adopted by ordinance for the lake so as to provide adequate incubation and build up of fish after stocking.

TELEPHONE TALK

by Truman Black, Manager

THEY'LL BE TALKING

One thing for certain: Plenty of people are going to be talking about tumble weeds and Colorado City.

Of course, some have known about the tumble weed developments for a period of weeks as information was being exchanged between here and Cincinnati, O. But for most of us, the arrival of Harry Snyder and his plans for manufacturing tumble weeds into floral and display decorations is both news and a surprise.

Like most of you, I had often thought about tumble weeds. And my thoughts were far from anything particularly nice.

So, now, my hat is off to Mr. Snyder, the Chamber of Commerce's Rex Felker who had the foresight to send the first tumble weeds to Cincinnati for experiments instead of throwing the request into the wastebasket, and the other citizens who pitched in to work with Mr. Snyder instead of laughing or saying "that won't work."

PICK-A-PHONE . . .

"Sure be nice when the spring flowers start blooming," a fellow down the block said the other day. "Just looking at their colors makes me feel good."

"Say," I said, "since you like color so much I have a suggestion."

"What's that?" he asked.

"A color phone. You have a wide choice, red, white, green—nine altogether." Almost as an afterthought I added, "You can pick your phone from . . . a garden of colors!"

That did it. "Now you're talking my language," said my garden-loving friend. He chuckled. "Colors of the garden in my house with color phones. Think I'll get one—maybe even two."

Why don't you do as he did? Treat yourself to color phones.

IT'S SMART TO LOOK UP THE NUMBER

"The best way to learn and remember something is to look it up . . ." That's what a teacher told me years ago when I asked how to spell a word.

It was good advice then. It's good advice now. When you want to know a number, for instance, the best thing to do is look it up in the directory.

Incidentally, if you'd like a free Blue Book for keeping frequently-called numbers, just phone the telephone business office.

MRS. LANGLEY AND MRS. REES

Favorite Recipes Told by HD Members

Mrs. F. A. Langley and Mrs. Bill Rees, members of the Carr Home Demonstration Club, tell their favorite recipes.

Mrs. Langley says that her recipe is Peanut Butter Loaf. She says to make this loaf use 1 cup peanut butter, 2 cups canned tomatoes, drained, 2 cups finely grated carrots, 2 medium green peppers, diced, 2 medium onions diced, 2 cups cracker crumbs, 2 eggs and sage to taste.

Mix peanut butter and tomatoes well; add remaining ingredients and place in oiled loaf pan and bake in a moderate oven 1½ hours.

Mrs. Langley stated that you can serve hot or sliced cold as a sandwich filling.

Mrs. Rees related that her recipe is coconut cake.

To make the cake use ½ cup crisco, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup sweet milk, then stir in 2 cups sifted flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt and mix well, then add 4 egg yolks and 1 teaspoon vanilla and stir well. Pour into 2, 8 inch cake plates already prepared and bake in 350 degree oven.

To make the filling for the cake use 1 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1/3 cup water and place on heat and stir until sugar is dissolved. Then stir only to prevent burning or boiling over. Beat the 4 egg whites until they stand in peaks. Then when sugar mixture starts to spin thread slowly pour over egg whites, beating vigorously. As soon as the syrup has been added, add 24 to 30 miniature marshmallows and continue to beat until they are dissolved and mixture is as thick as desired. Spread between layers and on top, and sides sprinkle with flake coconut.

BETA SIGMA PHI

Mrs. James Trammell is Elected to Head Sorority

Officers for the new year were elected by members of Beta Sigma Phi's Mu Pi Chapter when they met in the home of Mrs. James Trammell Tuesday evening.

Officers elected for the coming year were Mrs. Trammell, president, Miss Bertie Lou Dorn, vice president; Mrs. Jim Roberts, recording secretary; Mrs. Bob Barman, corresponding secretary; Miss Mary Hickman, treasurer; and Mrs. W. D. McClure, director.

Featured on the program was Mrs. Bill Holbert, who presented a biographical sketch of the life of Norman Rockwell, the popular artist whose works have appeared on covers of Saturday Evening Post magazine.

She stated that part of Norman Rockwell's success must undeniably be credited to the people who have posed for him.

He has, she said, depicted their stories in more than 300 magazine covers.

"But there certainly was godliness in the faces of the men and women who had posed for Rockwell's "Freedom of Worship."

Mrs. Holbert stated that at age 21 he sold his first magazine cover.

"Each passing year brought keener preception to his work, until now he is the leader of American illustrators," said the speaker.

She explained that at 60 he has the same energy and enthusiasm as in his teens when he opened his first studio in Greenwich Village.

Rockwell's character shows in his face and friendliness quickly lights his alert eyes; sincerity brings forth frowns as he talks intently of his many interests.

His family love evidences itself in the keen enjoyment he has sitting at home with his wife, Mary, a former school teacher, and his 3 sons, now college students, as they discuss books, art and people. Mrs. Holbert explained.

She stated that people love Norman Rockwell, for to them he is not just a man of rare talent, he is a friend who knows them as they know themselves and who finds an essential goodness in what he knows.

In Time of Need

Within minutes . . . as near as our telephones when the need arises . . . are modern medicines and sickroom supplies . . . for us and for those dear to us.

Within minutes, too, are plentiful supplies of foods, clothing, tools for doing our jobs, and services which are often vitally important to living in Today. These are some of the material blessings to which we have become accustomed . . . as part of life in a typical American town area . . . built and supported by trading among ourselves.

But emergency needs . . . those things and those services for which we cannot wait many hours or days . . . are but a relatively small part of our total trade . . . never enough to wholly support the stores and service facilities we find so convenient in times of sudden need.

And . . . we can enjoy the best possible service in emergencies only if we keep our community economically strong and vigorous with our everyday trade.

"I have enjoyed my work here to the fullest," he continued, "and naturally it fills me with emotions of happiness for having a promotion to a bigger responsibility. The tracksters and Coach Sam Christy were looked for by the highway patrol as they were enroute to Brownwood and the annual Bluebonnet Relays.

But the bus load of athletes couldn't be caught. Instead, they made the trip and then found out the relays had been cancelled.

Brownwood officials phoned the Christy resident Saturday morning shortly after 8 a. m. to notify the local team that the relays had been called off. But Christy and his runners already were on the highway.

Police were notified here, and they passed the word by radio to police and highway patrolmen along the route to try and intercept the bus.

ALSO, 'THE LAST ANGRY MAN'

'Flying Fontaines' To Show at Palace

Another role as a doctor may win Paul Muni another Academy Award. At least, he has been nominated for one for his role as a general practitioner in "The Last Angry Man", showing Tuesday and Wednesday at the Palace Theatre.

Co-starring with Muni is David Wayne. Featured players are Betsy Palmer, Luther Adler, Claudia McNeil and Joby Baker.

Fame and fortune, which Muni has scorned all his life, beckon when television executive Wayne asks him to appear as the first personality on a new TV show, 'Americans, U. S. A.', on the strength of a little human interest item printed about the medico and his condemnation of 'the galoots who won't let you live'. Both for Wayne and Muni the forthcoming TV show is seen as a means of resolving personal crises; Muni's continuing dissatisfaction with his neighborhood and his patients, and Wayne's failing marriage to lovely Betsy Palmer.

The glamour, the gaiety, the drama and excitement of the circus are reportedly depicted to advantage in "The Flying Fontaines", showing Thursday and Friday at the Palace Theatre.

Starring in the story of life under the big top is Michael Callan, Evy Norlund, Joan Evans and Rian Garrick. They play circus aerialists who carry their turbulent passions aloft with them in soaring, breathless flight.

Callan portrays an outspoken young trapeze artist determined to become the world's greatest 'flyer'. His interest in Miss Norlund sets off a chain reaction of bitterness and near-tragedy, within the act and within the circus world itself.

Garrick is seen as a fellow-flyer, also interested in the blonde beauty and Miss Evans is seen as Callan's former girl friend jealous of his newest feminine absorption.

In early times barbers' work included dressing wounds, blood-letting and surgical operations.

High Fliers!

Conservation Stamp Issue Set April 18

Soil and water conservation leaders here in Mitchell County area are looking forward to issuance of the world's first water conservation postage stamp by the Post Office Department.

The commemorative 4-cent stamp, printed in 3 colors, will be issued April 18 at the National Watershed Congress in Washington, D. C., according to A. V. Sheppard, unit conservationist here for Mitchell County Soil Conservation District.

Here in Colorado City, Loraine and Westbrook the conservation stamp will go on sale the day following the ceremony — April 19.

"The new stamp dramatizes the fact that water is today our most precious and most limiting natural resource," Sheppard said.

"Release of the stamp at the 7th National Watershed Congress is to emphasize the influence of upstream land treatment and small dams in small watersheds on our nation's water supplies, Sheppard continued.

The Watershed Congress each year gathers together representatives of 30 or more agricultural and conservation organizations concerned with water problems in the nation's small watersheds.

Ceremony in Washington April 18 for the issuance of the stamp will feature 3 cabinet members — Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson, Interior Secretary Fred A. Seaton and Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.
