

Hilton To Build Twelve-Story Hotel In Lubbock Army Plane Lands After Soaring For Over 150 Hours

Dead Motor Forces Question Mark To Cease Record Test

Ship Glides to Perfect Landing at 2:07 p. m. Monday After Greatest Flight In History of Aviation

Exceeds All Marks

With One Motor Silent and Another Failing, Crew Is Forced Down; All Are In Excellent Condition

(By Associated Press)
METROPOLITAN AIRPORT, Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 7.—The army's endurance flight plane, the Question Mark, glided to a perfect landing here at 2:07 p. m. today after historic and record smashing flight of 150 hours, 40 minutes and 15 seconds. The ship had been in the air continuously for six nights and nearly seven days after its take-off here on New Year's morning at 7:25 a. m.

The end of one of the greatest flights in history came after a crew of five weary men had fought against time and motors which piled trouble on them an hour before the landing. Thirty hours before their work seemed near an end when the motors balked, but it cleared away and the flight went on. This time, as though in protest to the great strain placed on them, the motors stuttered, one went "dead" and with another failing, the men forced the nose of the ship earthward.

As the great plane with its yellow wings touched earth almost up on the spot where it had left many hours before, a cabin door swung open and it stepped the crew. In the milling crowd of laughing, cheering army officers, they were the calmest of all, broad smiles across their faces as they heard the acclaim.

Not one of the five, though worn looking, faltered. Major Carl Spaatz, commanding officer, Captain Ira C. Eaker, Lieutenant Harry A. Halverson and Elwood R. Quesada and

Robison Answers Injunction Suit

State Land Commissioner Files Answer Monday; Declares University Has Lost $5,000,000 By Act

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, Jan. 7.—Asserting belief that if the January 2 sale had not been stopped it would have brought Texas university $5,000,000 in bonuses, J. T. Robison, land commissioner, filed his answer today to the injunction suit of the state, joined by university trustees, restraining him from selling oil leases on 103,000 acres of university land.

The case will be on district court's appearance docket tomorrow, when it will be set down for a hearing. Robison also will file a motion at that time to dissolve the temporary injunction on grounds that it was not alleged that he or J. H. Walker, chief clerk of the land office, against whom the injunction was directed also, "Have done any act or are about to do any act in violation of the Constitution or any law of the state," but that it is compliance by these defendants with those provisions of the statutory law governing and controlling the sale of mineral interest in lands owned by the state set apart for the use and benefit of the University of Texas.

Early Ratification Of Pact Possible

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Early ratification of the Kellogg anti-war treaty appeared possible tonight after a day of conferences had brought an agreement nearer on the sole dispute in the treaty discussion—whether an interpretation of America's rights under the pact is necessary.

The tentative agreement calls for a report by the foreign relations committee stating its interpretation of American rights under the treaty pact, and others fighting for the interpretative resolution are ready to accept this proposition, which would place before all other signatory nations the views of the senate foreign affairs leaders on the treaty.

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Herbert Hoover spent today, his first in Washington since his election, acquainting President Coolidge with results of his Latin-American mission, and receiving suggestions from friends and republican leaders who called at his temporary headquarters at the Mayflower hotel.

The president-elect had nothing to say regarding his White House visit and the conference he had during the day. It was said however, that he had entered on a two or three days period of "listening" to what his callers had to say.

Talking With Curtis

After spending the day at the Mayflower the president-elect returned to his home for a dinner conference with Senator Curtis of Kansas, republican senate leader and vice president elect. Curtis will sit in cabinet meetings during the Hoover administration at the invitation of the president-elect extended before the election.

Many subjects were covered in the dozen conferences which Hoover had during the day and evening. Cabinet and other appointments, the promised extra session of congress in the event the present session fails to enact farm relief legislation were some of the things discussed.

If the next president had any comment to make on these subjects his callers kept it to themselves. Some of them said they did not believe Hoover had made up his

E. Merrill and Mrs. Carl Roberts, sold the property through their attorney Roger Q. Pierce. Representatives of the hotel company here for the transaction were, W. R. AUSTIN, Jan. 7.—The governor's office was pilled today with telegrams of congratulation on the arrival last night of Dan Moody, Jr., the first born child of Governor and Mrs. Moody. They came from all over Texas and the U. S.

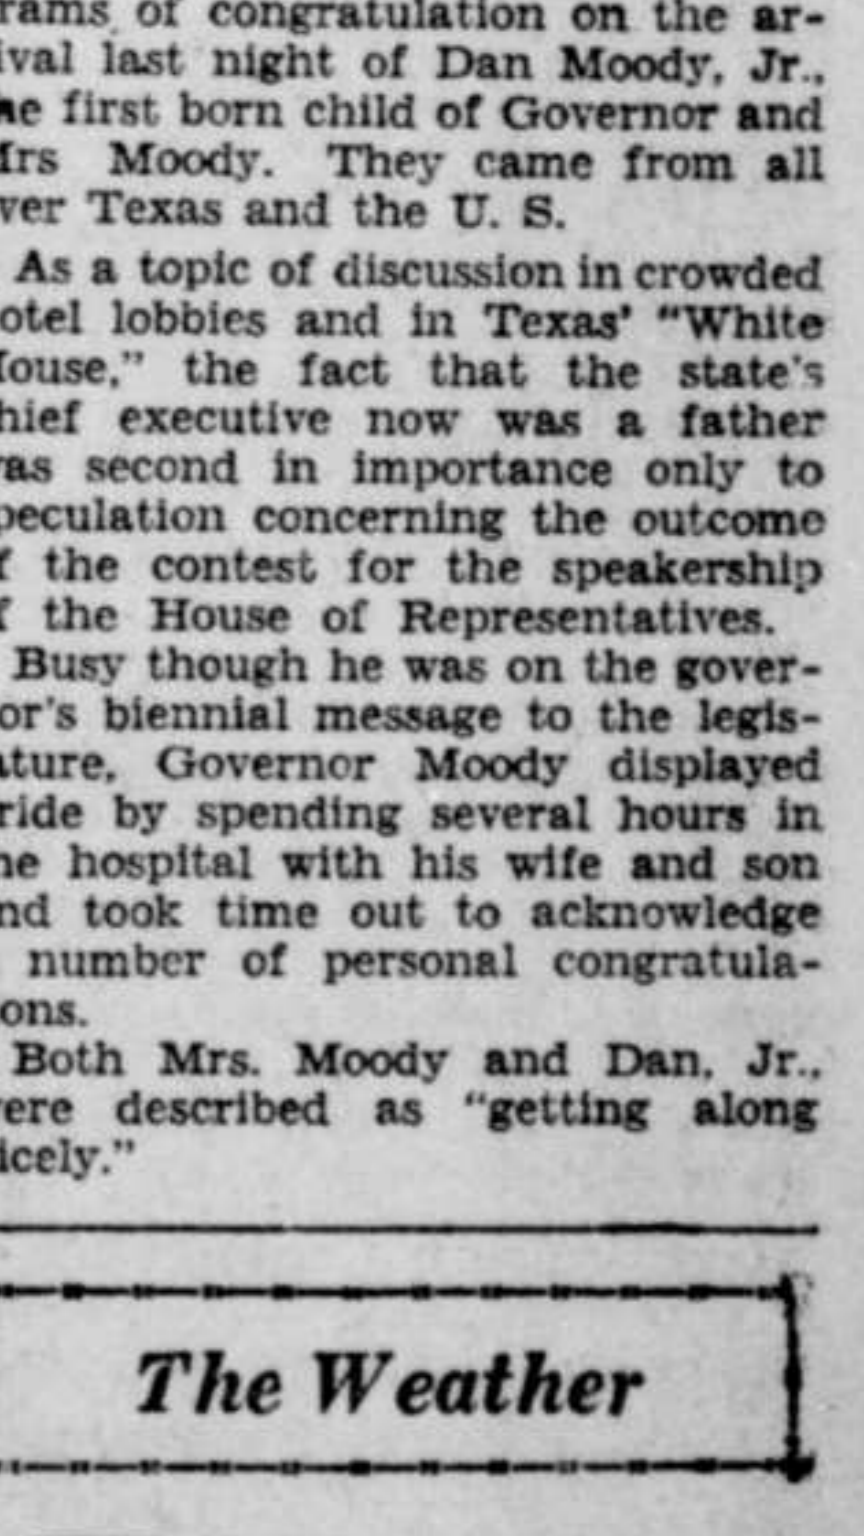

As a topic of discussion in crowded hotel lobbies and in Texas' "White House," the fact that the state's chief executive now was a father was second in importance only to speculation concerning the outcome of the contest for the speakership of the House of Representatives.

Busy though he was on the governor's biennial message to the legislature, Governor Moody displayed pride by spending several hours in the hospital with his wife and son and took time out to acknowledge a number of personal congratulations.

Both Mrs. Moody and Dan, Jr., were described as "getting along nicely."

Past Week Held Developments In Foreign Affairs

Optimism and Pessimism are Contenders for Supremacy in Week's Activities; Germany Is Calmer

By MELVIN E. COLEMAN Cable Editor, Associated Press Optimism and pessimism contended for supremacy in many of the international affairs of last week, especially so far as Germany's ability to pay for the World War was concerned.

An exception was the rapid clearing up of the Pan-American conference at Washington with acceptance by Bolivia and Paraguay of mediation in their border fighting and framing of multilateral pacts for compulsory arbitration of international disputes in the western hemisphere.

Although at the end of the week Germany was in a calmer frame of mind over the annual report of S. Parker Gilbert, agent general for reparations, the start of the year saw an odd debate between the viewpoints of that country and France, the subject being whether Germany is prosperous or staggering under a burden of economic ills and mistakes.

Polish officialdom first hailed and then viewed with suspicion a proposal by Soviet Russia for immediate application of the Kellogg pact to these countries. It appeared as a practical way of quickly clearing up halting negotiations for a treaty of non-aggression, but when Poland learned that the same proposal had been made to Lithuania she saw in it the plan a possibility that the Soviet set was maneuvering to become mediator in the acrimonious Lithuanian-Polish frontier dispute.

Monarchists Organizing An interesting sidelight of the Baltic situation came from Stockholm where semi-official sources heard that monarchists of Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia were organizing a campaign for union of those buffer states and that they were considering election of Count Folk Berradotte as king. The Count, who is member of the Swedish royal family, recently took as a bride Miss Estelle Mandeville of New York.

No less than four native gatherings have been held in India recently to debate home rule and governmental reforms. In many respects the various conventions differed and British commentators described the results as "chaotic." Meanwhile the Simon commission continued its attempts to collect data on India's capacity to govern herself.

The Afghan rebellion seemed to be approaching an end but information as to whether King Amanullah's social and political reforms were to continue was lacking.

FOUR COUPLES ARE WED Licenses Issued on Week-End Bring Total to 12 With four marriage licenses issued over the week-end, this year's record has climbed to an even dozen which is six more than the number of divorce suits filed since January 1. The last four marriage licenses were issued to the following: Johnnie Baggett and Miss Edna Mae Wright, Clifton Bailey and Miss Minnie Lou Hinson, Earl E. Fats and Miss Gomeria Walker, George Parlor and Miss Thelma Bryant.

"CLA'S HIKES" LENGTHY The students who would like to go out for cross country hikes similar to those conducted in some colleges would have a good start in practice. Many of them have a class at the Textile Engineering building followed the next hour by one at the Administration Building. One girl has two classes in one building and four others in different buildings, and there are many similar cases.

Changes Planned On Rail Schedule

Santa Fe Contemplates New Time On The Seagraves Branch, Placing Trains Several Hours Earlier

(Special To The Avalanche) BROWNFIELD, Jan. 7.—Ever since the Panhandle and Santa Fe railway reached Brownfield, the mixed train which has been serving the territory, has been running on the same schedule, reaching this place on its way to Seagraves at about 3 p. m. and returning at 7:30 in the morning.

Recent changes of running time on the main lines have caused the officials to decide that a change was necessary and letters have been mailed to different towns along the line asking their approval of the contemplated schedule which would cause the train to reach Brownfield on its way to Seagraves at 10 a. m. and returning to Lubbock at 2 p. m. This would cause the trains to receive mail from the north and daily papers several hours earlier than at present and allow a few more hours in which to reply to letters received and therefore the proposal meets with sections entire approval.

Hammond Named Temporary Successor To Tex Rickard

Ranking Of Fighters For 1928 Was Promoter's Last Literary Contribution

Fight Arena Will Be Scene of Last Rites for Texan

No Change To Be Made In Plans for Sharkey-Stribling Fight In Miami On February 27

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Holding their first meeting since the death of Tex Rickard, the board of directors of Madison Square Garden today named Col. John S. Hammond, hitherto assistant to the promoter, as acting general manager.

The directors adopted resolutions of tribute, decided to close the Garden Tuesday and Wednesday and tendered use of the sports arena to Mrs. Rickard as a place for the promoter's body to lie in state until Wednesday, when the funeral will be held.

Shortly after the meeting telegraphed word came from the funeral train en route from Miami Beach, that Mrs. Rickard had accepted the suggestion and agreed to have the burial take place from the Garden.

Speculation concerned the possibility of Jack Dempsey's assuming a major role in Garden affairs but there was no evidence to support this other than that the former champion is expected to help through plans for the Stribling-Sharkey fight at Miami Beach, Feb. 27. Col. Hammond announced no change would be made in plans for this bout.

Tunney Touched by Promoter's Death
By GENE TUNNEY
ST. MORITZ, Switzerland, Jan. 7.—I am very grieved to learn of Tex Rickard's untimely death and sympathize with Mrs. Rickard and her little daughter in the great loss.

Tex Rickard was a man of genius in his way. He made a place for himself through his education of the public to his idea that no man ever before has held one which it is quiet doubtful will ever be held again by any individual.

His passing is a great personal loss to many people of whom I am but one.

DALLAS, Jan. 7.—(P)—J. Donk Roberts, president of the Texas Baseball League, was in a hospital here today, taking a "rest cure," his physicians said. Roberts, weakened by influenza, was advised to take treatment to regain strength, and his condition is not serious, it was announced.

TECH TEAM RETURNS
ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 7.—(P)—Greeted by one of the wildest outbursts of enthusiasm seen in Atlanta in years, Georgia Tech's Golden Tornado came home tonight from its victorious encounter with California's Golden Bears in the Tournament of Roses football game at Pasadena New Year's day.

YOU and BASKETBALL
By H. C. CARDSON, M. D.
University of Pittsburgh Basketball
The fundamentals of basketball are those integral parts on which degree of perfection determines quality or success or limits of perfection.

In basketball, shooting goals is the most important fundamental. Although the game emphasizes the value of team work and the advantage of having friends, there still remains the player's task, which can be helped by no other person.

Passing and receiving represents co-operation. The welfare of the individual must be the welfare of the team. Like learning the value of co-operation in self-preservation is the development of passing in basketball.

The dribble is next in importance, both as a matter of individual effort and as a part of teamwork. Cutting is important. By cutting we mean getting under the basket or in the most advantageous place on the floor in order to facilitate receiving the ball.

The pivot, because of its greater utilization in team play, has become a fundamental in itself. Defense or recovery of the ball to prevent scoring by the opposition is also of utmost importance. It is well to remember that a lot of clever things seem to be done unconsciously, but these are the results of previous sustained thoughts and the visualization of them. Image yourself executing the fundamentals properly under different circumstances—practice them physically, persevere—then success will surely come.

Strolling Down Sports Lane

With Allan Carney, Avalanche Sports Editor

Considerable comment has been coming from Fort Worth and College Station relative to the acquisition of Matty Bell as head football coach at Texas A. and M. to succeed Danna X. Bible, who goes to Nebraska university. According to school authorities of Southwest Conference, the conference of luring away each other's coaches is anything but desirable. If allowed to go too far it will defeat one of the basic principles of the conference—development of friendly relations between the schools, says Joe Utay, president of the Southwest Board of football officials.

Undoubtedly, A. and M. could have done better by going outside the conference and taking away T. C. U.'s coach. Many prominent A. and M. supporters feel that the friendly spirit that has long existed between T. C. U. and A. and M. has been needlessly jeopardized. Some object on other grounds. Bell has made himself famous for his powerful defensive teams, they contend, and is too conservative for an Aggie coach. His teams have lacked the color that A. and M. teams have been noted for. They are frank to admit that A. and M. doesn't want a "strong contender" but a championship team.

Although no official protest has been raised at T. C. U., reports from the campus of the Fort Worth institution indicate that considerable unfriendly feeling has been aroused over the matter. Horned Frog followers say it wasn't so much the deal that stirred their blood as the manner in which the deal was put through. A. and M. officials had assured the Fort Worth school that no attempt would be made to get Bell, since he had already agreed to stay with the Purple forces for another five years. At the same time reports not without some foundation without the willing consent of T. C. U., and that the latter would always be given a chance to protect its interest. The recent action of A. and M. certainly shows that not one of these guarantees were considered.

A. and M. without going so much as notifying T. C. U., called Bell to College Station and made him a tempting offer which was immediately accepted. The Frog mentor apparently didn't give his present employer proper consideration in leaving after he had agreed to stay. With Bell and Kubale both gone, the entire coaching system at the Christian institution is wrecked. These in close touch with T. C. U. athletes feel that it is certain that at least one of the new coaches will be a man schooled in the same style of football used by Bell and Kubale. For this reason, former Centre and T. C. U. players will likely be given first consideration.

The passing of Tex Rickard, premier of all times, came as a stunning blow to the sport world. Probably no other man has held so wide an influence and has left behind him a career so colorful. One cannot realize until after such a figure has died how important an individual can play a part as important as did Tex Rickard. His place will be extremely hard to fill. Mention of Jack Dempsey as his successor is not at all surprising. Dempsey has been one of the closest friends of Rickard during the past several years during which time the promoter rose to fame, and his popularity with the sport world makes him the most eligible successor. It is present rumors materialize and Dempsey does not step in to fill Rickard's shoes, it will likely mean the end to the fighting days of the Mauler.

College basketball will be going at full blast before this week is over. With three contests already tucked away on the win side of the ledger, Coach Payne's Tech Matadors will meet their first conference competition Friday and Saturday night when the A. C. C. Wildcats come seeking further laurels at the expense of a Scarlet and Black team. Reports from the Wildcat's training camp indicate that the Christians will have a team this season about on a par with Tech. Incidentally, the college pep squads will make their initial appearance of the cage season at the games this week.

All conference basketball teams also swing into action this week. T. C. U. hooks up with Arkansas Monday and Tuesday; A. and M. and Rice meet on Thursday and the Baylor Bears clash with Texas Saturday.

Tunney Placed At Head Of Heavies Dempsey Was 2nd

Forecast of Dempsey's Plans Also Included In Copyrighted Story Written For Boxing Publication

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—(P)—Tex Rickard's last contribution to boxing literature is his ranking list for 1928, coupled with what he planned to be the definite announcement of Jack Dempsey's comeback this year. It is contained in a copyrighted story written by the promoter for the issue of "The Ring," monthly boxing publication, appearing Friday.

Rickard's rankings are significant, as giving the promoter's final analysis of the game he developed so extensively. Equally interesting is his forecast of Dempsey's plans, even though they now are in doubt as a result of the promoter's death.

The promoter ranked the former champion as the outstanding heavyweight now that Tunney had retired and declared that Dempsey would fight once, either in August or September, as a finalist in the elimination tournament that gets under way with a battle between Jack Sharkey and Young Stribling at Miami Beach, Florida, February 27.

Predicted Comeback
"Jack Dempsey will come back this year," Tex wrote. "One cannot think of Dempsey except in terms of greatness and therefore in his case inactivity last year must be disregarded in the rating of the world's leading heavyweights, for he is greater than any fighter now backing the limelight and striving for the title left vacant by Gene Tunney."

"The return of Dempsey will cause the public to accept the appointment of a successor to Tunney as a genuine champion. The fellow who can whip Dempsey will earn the recognition of the public as champion. He will win their confidence and after all public opinion is what will count most in deciding Tunney's successor. Although Dempsey lost, the verdict of Tunney at Chicago, there are thousands of fight fans throughout the world who feel that he is the uncrowned world's heavyweight champion."

Only Once More
"Dempsey will fight only once and it will decide the holder of the crown. He will be one of two finalists, the other to be selected from other contenders. Dempsey is the former champion and as such is entitled to more consideration than Sharkey, Stribling, Paulsen, Heeney, Risko and the rest of the field. The date of the title bout will depend on how long Dempsey needs to get in condition."

Dempsey is coming back to give the heavyweight class the punch it now lacks, to re-inject a lot of the old interest and Dempsey color into the situation. The public wants Dempsey to return and he will head public clamor as did Jim Jeffries."

Tunney At Top
In rating 426 boxers from all parts of the world in the various divisions on the basis of the ring wars of 1928, Rickard placed Gene Tunney, although he is retired, at the head of the heavyweights, named Fidel LaBarba as the outstanding bantamweight in a vision that knows no generally recognized ruler, and gave the same recognition to Spider Plandner, of France, of the leadership flyweights.

The promoter gave Jimmy McLarnin the palm among the junior welterweights in preference to Mushy Callahan, considered the champion of this unorthodox division, but recognized all other titleholders as the leaders of their classes during 1928.

Rickard ignored claims of Izzy Schwartz, New York state champion, and Frankie Genaro, National Boxing Association titleholder, among the flyweights. Similarly Bushy Graham, New York champion, and Al Brown, N. B. A. titleholder, ranked behind LaBarba among the bantams.

Baker Leaves On Trip To Market
Norton Baker, owner and manager of the Baker Furniture company, has left for a two weeks buying trip for the firm, going from here first to DeQuincy, Ill., where he will purchase a Cadillac car for the undertaking department of his Plainview store.

From DeQuincy, Mr. Baker will go to the furniture mart at Chicago and then to Grand Rapids, Mich., where he will visit the large furniture store of the firm.

On his return, Mr. Baker will go by way of Rochester, Minn., and bring back with him, his sister, Miss Mary Baker, who has been in the Mayo Bros. sanitarium for the past several months. Following an operation, Miss Mary is said to be getting along well.

Hornsby Takes Crown to Chicago

One year ago the acquisition of Kiki Cuyler and his trusty bat by the Chicago Cubs was accepted as reason enough to award them the National league flag without playing out the season. Most fans will recall that Cuyler failed to hit his stride at the start of the season and his failure to come through handicapped the Cubs.

Still bating on a heavy leader to give them the punch needed to turn the trick the Cubs, some months ago, grabbed off Rogers Hornsby. If bating power will turn the trick, Hornsby ought to lead the team to a flag. Official National league batting averages, recently issued, award him the batting crown—his seventh batting title in his career as a major league player. One more championship will tie him with the great Hans Wagner, who led the old circuit eight times during his enviable career with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Hornsby is, without a doubt, the greatest natural batter in the National league. Not only that, but he is a good second baseman.

Games Postponed In City League

Failure of two teams to appear for games scheduled in the City Basketball League last night forced the postponement of two more games in city competition, making a total of four games which will either be forfeited or played on odd nights.

The National Guard five scheduled to meet the Wheelers last night were on hand for the contest but their opponents failed to arrive. Bell Telephone Girls likewise appeared for their game with Montgomery Ward but the opposition was not there.

Because of the frequency of these instances where one or more teams fail to appear when they are scheduled to play will likely force officials of the league to forfeit the games to the teams which are on hand when the time for the contest comes. The Nut Cracker

By Joe Williams

Blue Lowell of Nebraska made a 667 record during the holidays. He played with two winning all-star teams and lost one fight.

It all goes to show that team play is the thing on the football field.

Why couldn't the promoters have anticipated a fight? It might have meant a lot for the gate receipts.

O'Goofy has a hunch that many alumni of Nebraska rivals who had never seen Howell beaten might have journeyed down to Texas to have witnessed Baccus crawling all over him.

Well, those who like their fights can go to Florida to see Sharkey and Stribling. But somehow or other, the word "fight" seems wrong in this case.

Two Indiana basketball teams played a game recently. The score was 102-9. We wonder if there were TWO tams!

On second thought, that Stribling-Sharkey go may be a fight. The customers may get incensed enough to start one.

Shell Petroleum Opens Office Here

Perhaps an indication that Lubbock is more and more becoming the center of oil activities, is the opening of a suite of offices on the fourth floor of the Myrick building, by the Shell Petroleum Corporation, subsidiary of the Royal Dutch Shell.

Mr. B. Pyle will be in charge of the Shell corporation's office here and associated with him will be Joe Clingan, geologist, and scout, H. W. Sharp, geologist and scout, and Miss Hazel Alfred, who is a sister of James V. Alfred, Wichita, Falls, attorney who ran for attorney general of Texas last year.

Southwestern headquarters for the Shell corporation is at Dallas, and the establishment of the offices here is occasioned because of the company's holdings in leases throughout Cochran, Hookley and Terry counties.

Several other major oil companies are reported as soon to locate offices in Lubbock, and this year may see quite an extensive oil play in the immediate vicinity of this city.

Mr. Penney, among others, represents E. L. Steck, of Austin, and O. B. Kershner, of Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, both landowners in Lubbock county.

Men who pride themselves on keeping fit discovered this long ago. They know that Luckies steady their nerves and do not impair their physical condition—many prominent athletes have testified to this fact. They discovered, too, that Luckies don't irritate the throat—a fact subscribed to by 20,679 physicians.

A reasonable proportion of sugar in the diet is recommended, but the authorities are overwhelming that too many fattening sweets are harmful and that too many such are eaten by the American people. So, for moderation's sake we say—

FRESH AND RELAXED AT THE JOURNEY'S END

ONE of the fine things about driving the new Ford is the way it takes you over the miles without fuss or fatigue.

Mentally you are at ease because you are sure of the mechanical performance of the car. No matter how long the trip, or rough or devious the roadway, you know it will bring you safely, quickly to the journey's end.

Through thickest traffic, up steepest hills, along the open road, you will drive with security and confidence because the new Ford is so alert and capable and so easy to operate and control.

Ease of control adds to comfort of driving

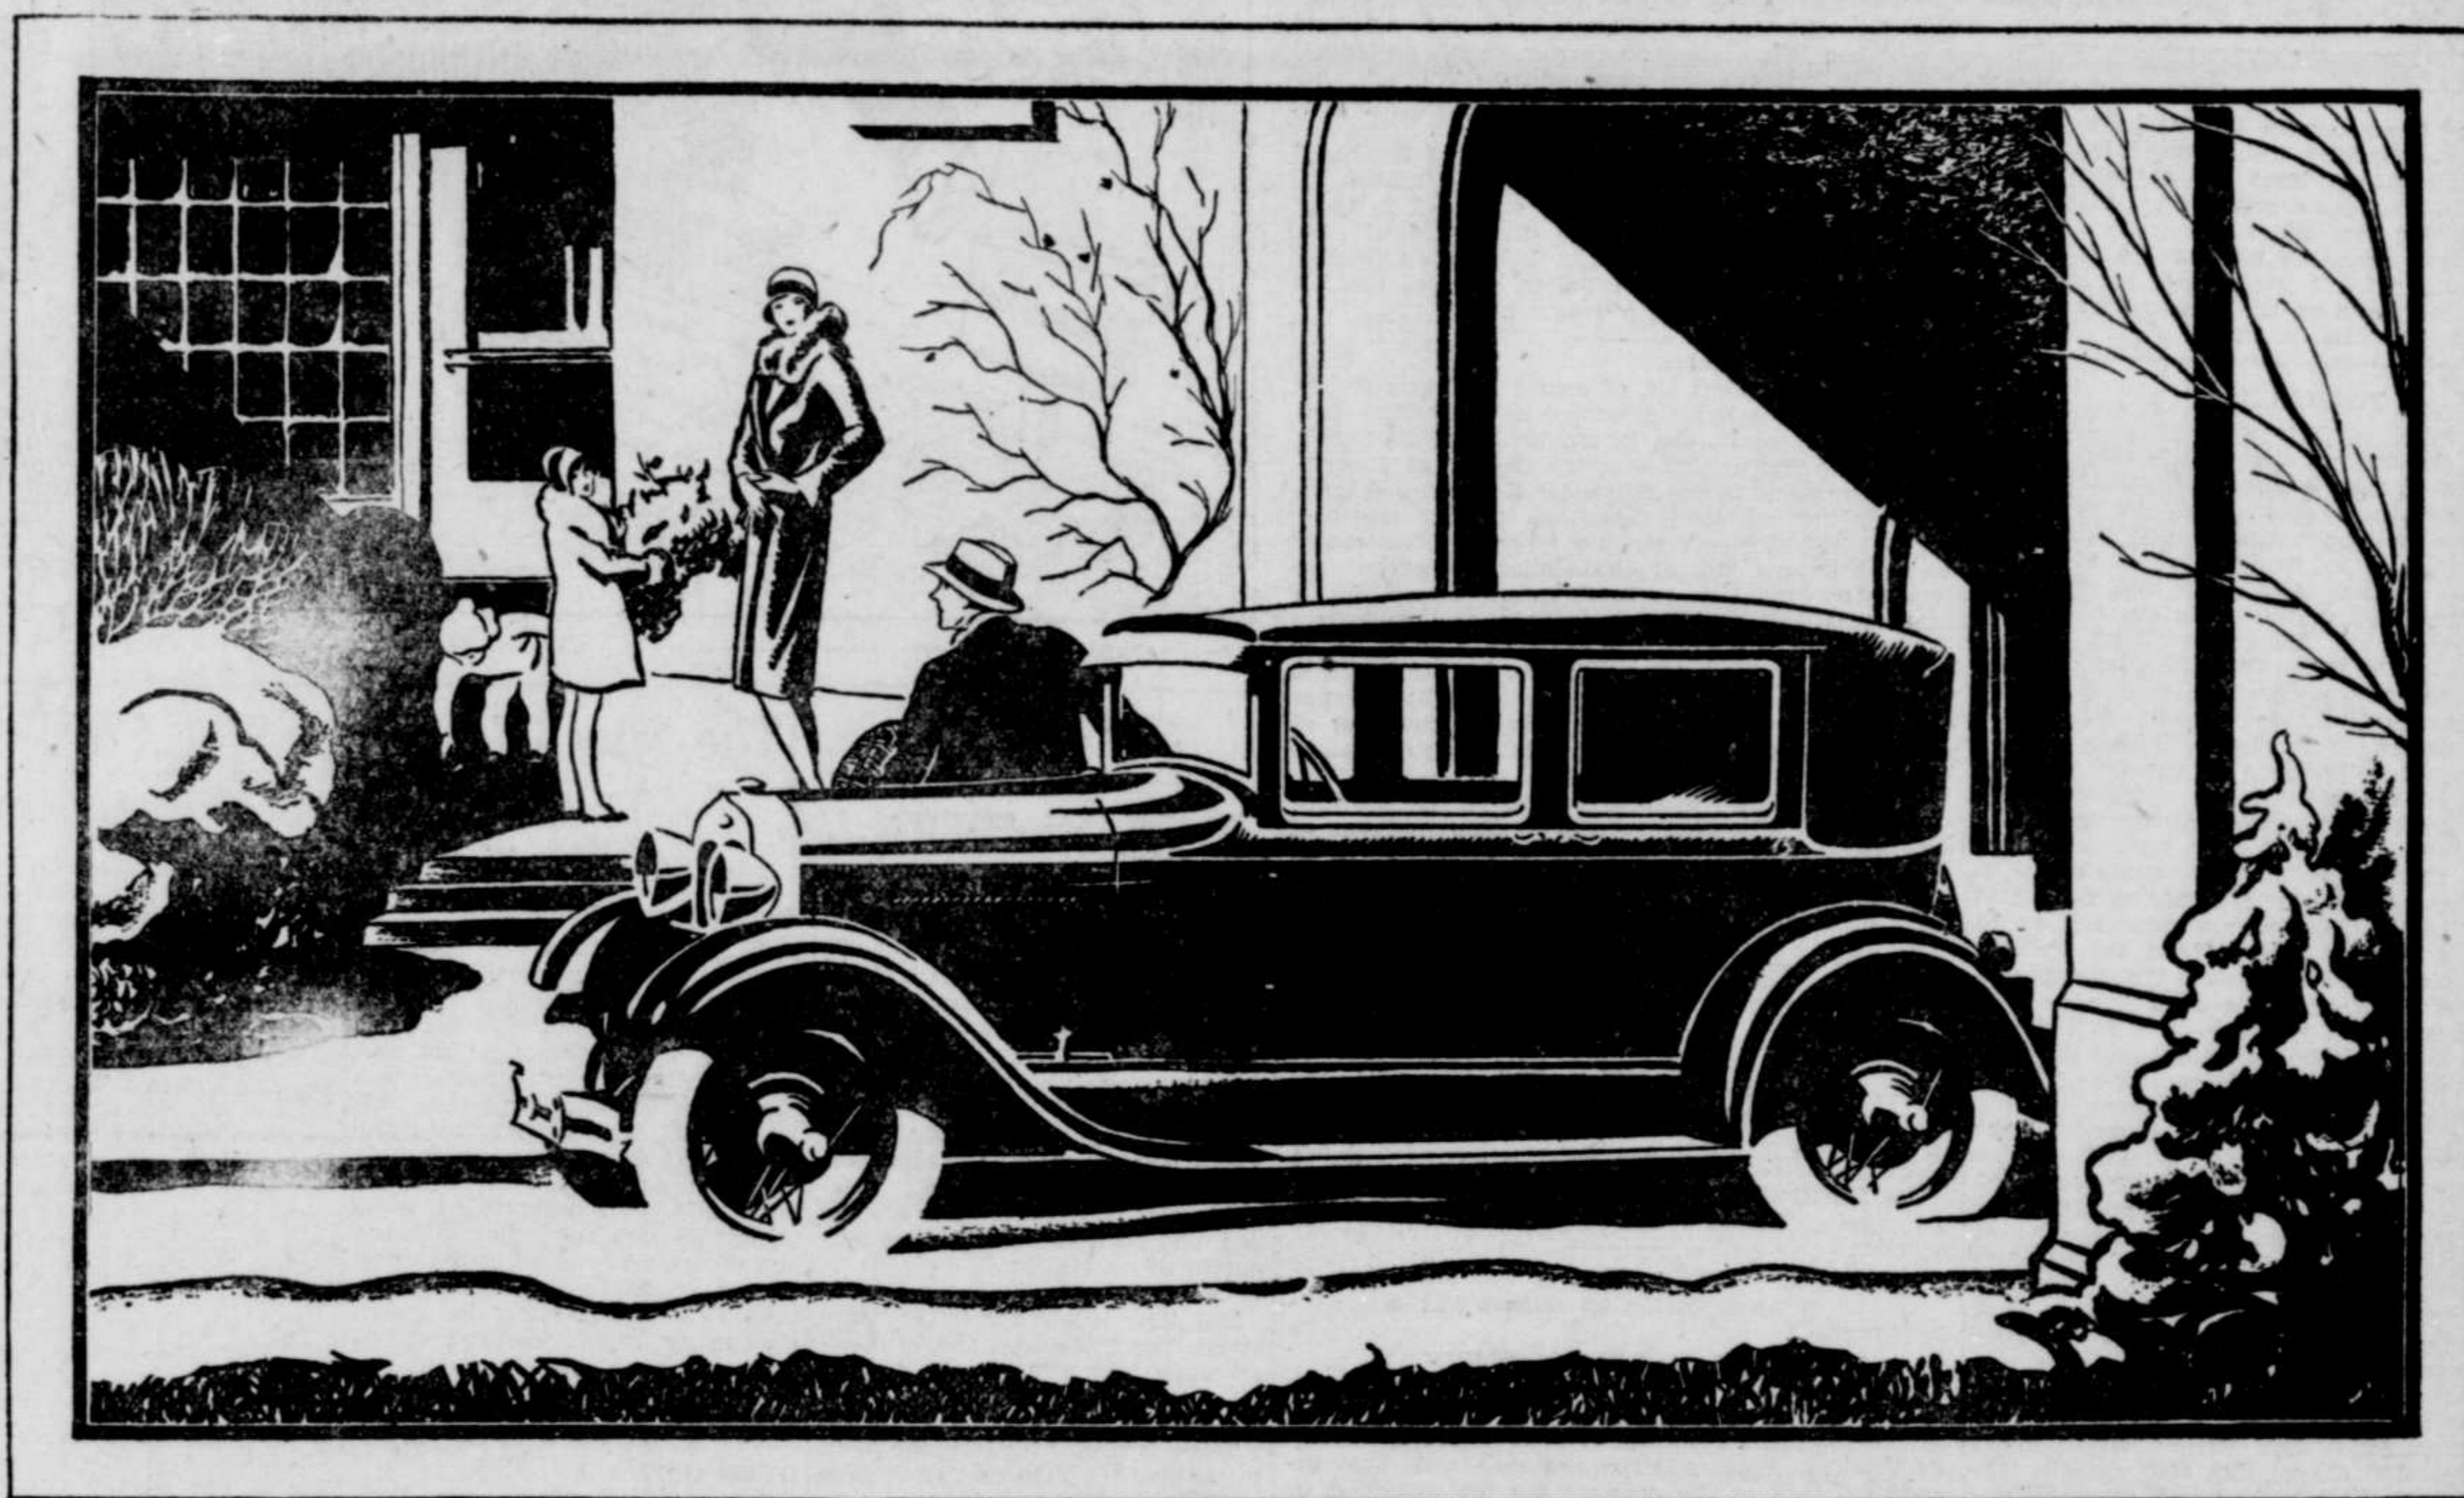

The steering wheel answers to the touch of a finger. Gears shift smoothly and silently. Brakes take hold quickly and firmly even on slippery pavements.

Unusual acceleration, speed and power are especially appreciated in emergencies. A space little longer than the car itself is all you need for parking.

These features simplify the mechanics of driving and, together with reliability, add a great deal to the mental comfort of motoring.

Physically, too, you will feel fresh and relaxed in the new Ford because it is such a roomy, easy-riding car.

The restfully tilted seats are made generously wide and are deeply cushioned, with coil springs of straight and hour-glass type.

The backs are carefully designed to conform to the curves of the body.

Perhaps the most outstanding feature of the new Ford is found in its riding comfort. Somehow it seems to just glide along, as if every road were a good road. The rough spots are there, just as they have always been, but you do not feel them. It is almost as if a giant hand had smoothed the way before you. Even bad stretches may be taken at a reasonably fast pace without hard jolts or bumps or the exaggerated bouncing which is the cause of most motoring fatigue.

One reason, of course, is the use of four

The Fordor Sedan is a particularly good family car not only because of its comfort, safety and beauty, but also because of its low first cost and low cost of operation and up-keep. Finished in a choice of colors—an unusual feature in a low-price car.

Houdaille hydraulic shock absorbers—two in the front and two in the rear.

Of even greater importance, however, are the low center of gravity, the carefully planned balance of the car, and the many advantages of the transverse or crosswise springs.

Special Ford springs soften force of road impacts

These springs rest on their flexible ends with the heavy center part uppermost. Thus the very weight of the springs receives the benefit of spring action instead of hanging below as dead weight and increasing the hammer-like blows of road impacts.

Another element in decreasing unsprung weight (the weight carried below the flexible ends of the springs) is the construction of the front axle and rear axle housing. Through the use of fine steel and electric welding, they are made of exceptional strength, yet kept comparatively light in weight.

Another feature of the new Ford is the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield. This is so made that the glass will not shatter or fly under the hardest impact. It is an important safety factor in these days of heavy traffic.

All of these factors combine to reduce or absorb the force of every unevenness in the road before it reaches the frame, chassis and body of the car. This means more comfort for you personally and also contributes to better performance and longer life for every mechanical part.

BEWARE THE COUGHS THAT FOLLOW FLU!

They May Weaken Your System and Lead to Serious Trouble

You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion may help you avoid flu, but is not sold as a flu remedy. If you have fever, or think you may have the flu, see your doctor immediately. (adv.)

Slaughter steers sold at 8.50 to 11.35. The better steers a little higher than last week's close. Four loads of 2-way cattle sold at 10.25 to a stocker buyer. Bulls were plentiful with values steady and a good demand. Five loads sold at 7.40 a load at 7.85 and a load at 8.00. Slaughter yearlings and heifers, early sales 10.50 to 11.35; common ones sold around 7.00. Canners and cutters about steady at 4.50 to 5.50, with a few of the thin ones around 4.00. Bulk of early sales steady to 15c lower. Cattle lots up to 8.00, individuals up to 8.50. The supply of calves more liberal than in quite some time. Early sales fully steady, calves at 10.25 and 11.55. Stocker calves sold at 11.00 to 11.50. Rail hogs sold 10 to 15c higher, best butchers at 9.10; truck hogs showed a little more advance, 8.50 to 9.00; bulk of early sales 8.25 to 9.10; packing sows 7.25 to 8.00. KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK

Choice sorted fed western lambs reached $16.90 at Chicago, while at the river markets $16 was paid rather freely. Matured classes ruled strong to 25 cents higher, with fat ewes selling at 8.50 to 9.50; bulk of early sales 8.25 to 9.10; packing sows 7.25 to 8.00. Sheep steady; fall shorn wethers at 8.50; wooler fed lambs at 13.00 and yearlings at 11.00.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Jan. 7. (P)—The stock market underwent another sharp downward readjustment of quoted values today despite the desperate efforts of pool operators to bring about a general rally. Several of the high priced specialties cracked 5 to nearly 15 points, and a long line of standard industrial and rail closed 1 to 4 points lower. Recorded substantial net gains. Uneasiness over the credit situation, which has been heightened by fears of an increase in federal reserve rediscount rates, promoted much of the day's selling, as business and trade news continued favorable in character. Call money, which dropped from 12 to 6 percent last week, held steady at 7 percent today. Federal reserve officials intimated that call money is not likely to go any lower. The central banks have been decreasing the volume of acceptances held by them which has ruled the effect of throwing that form of financing back on the member banks, and thereby restricting the volume of speculative credit available. Radio Corporation common broke 24 1/2 points to 365 in the midday selling movement, but recovered half its loss. The new stock will be admitted to trading tomorrow on a "when issued" basis. Midland steel products preferred broke 14 1/4 points. National Tea 14. Rossia Insurance 12 and American Smelting, Burroughs Adding Machine, Du Pont, Genera Electric, Greene Cananea Copper, Marmon Motors, Montgomery-Ward, Union Carbide and Walker Bros., all showed net declines of 5 to 8 points. Despite the gloomy predictions of 1929 production and sales, most of the automobile shares were under selling pressure, probably in reflection of fears that the keen competition shown by recent price cuts would impair profits. Studebaker however, ran up more than 6 points to 83 and closed within a fraction of the top, and the Pierce Arrow issue moved into new high ground. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 7. (P)—Assertions that cold weather damage threatening much United States winter wheat may equate to disaster witnessed last year went along with considerably higher prices today. Reports in particular from Wayne and White counties, Illinois, said indications there pointed to a heavy acreage on a par with that suffered from similar conditions in 1928. Closing quotations on wheat were firm, 3-4/8 7-8c to 1-1/8 1-8c net higher. Corn finished at a shade to 3-8c down, oats a shade to 1-8c advance, and provisions varying from 5c decline to a parallel gain. Wheat values displayed an upward trend from the outset, and the close was at virtually the day's top level.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Jan. 7. (P)—Renewal of liquidation combined with southern and local selling sent cotton prices lower today on the New York market. Selling was accompanied by talk of unfavorable cloth and consumption statistics for December. Prices touched new lows for the movement to date after selling off from 19-31 to 19.60 for March, recovered part of their loss in the late trading on trade buying and covering. March closed at 19.72. The general market closed steady at net declines of 7 to 11 points. A decline was checked by increased demand from the trade for shorts around the 19 3/4 cent level for the spring months. This buying was supplied, and the market weakened again later. Brokers with Wall Street and western connections were among sellers, and some stop orders were uncovered as prices worked into new low ground. January sold off to 19.53, May to 19.62 and July to 19.25, making net declines of about 17 to 21 points. The trade was reported a buyer on scale down orders, however, and their offerings tapered off after the stop orders were executed, the market steadied on covering. Closing prices showed rallies of about 10 to 12 points from the low. New style October contracts sold off with the rest of the list and at the close were 1 point below the old style October contract.

ORDER PROBE OF DRINKING

VIOLATION OF LIQUOR LAW IN UNIVERSITY IS INVESTIGATED

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 7.—(P)—Governor Byrd today ordered an investigation of liquor drinking in all colleges in Virginia, both public and private to be conducted by Attorney General Saunders as prohibition commissioner of the state. At the same time the governor wrote college officials asking that efforts be increased and every vigilance be used to decrease student drinking. The action followed charges of excessive drinking at Virginia University. The Rev. David Hepburn, superintendent of the Virginia Anti-Saloon League, made the allegation. In making this request I do not mean to imply that the charges made are well founded or otherwise but I do feel that an investigation is wise and in the interest of the educational institutions in whose management I have so much confidence and for whose officials I cherish a high respect," the governor told Saunders.

FINANCES GOOD IN BIG SPRING REGION

(Special To The Journal) BIG SPRING, Jan. 7.—Big Spring, the fastest growing city in West Texas, closed the year in the best financial condition of any time in her history. On December 31, the resources of the three national banks showed a total of $5,084,050.58 with deposits amounting to $4,472,942.24. The city has more than doubled in population in the last two years due to oil activity in the Big Spring area. The number of business houses constructed in Big Spring during 1928 will surpass the total of the last ten.

Complete Dickens Terracing School

SPUR, Jan. 7.—E. L. Tanner has just completed his fifth terracing school which brings the total of trained men up to thirty-one. These men have completed a thorough course in terracing and have successfully passed rigid examinations, thus qualifying them to run terracing lines on any farm in Dickens county. The county agent will continue to give these terracing schools throughout the winter months and for his goal he hopes to have at least 75 men who will be proficient in the use of the terracing level.

CHEAP WATER AID FOR MODEL FARMS

(Special To The Journal) SNYDER, Texas, Jan. 7.—The city of Snyder with the lowest water rate in the state of Texas with a municipally owned plant, has sufficient revenue from the water system to meet a considerable portion of the expenses of the city. Snyder is one of the most fortunate towns in West Texas with an inexhaustible supply of pure soft water found at depths of from 40 to 150 feet anywhere in the county. Two of the local wells have attracted wide spread attention among business men and town officials of West Texas with a 2,200 gallon per minute average on a 72 hour pumping test. The unlimited supply of water here is going to make the 2 1/2 and 5 acre model poultry colony tracts profitable. Charles Weeks of Owenmouth, Calif., originator of the famous one-acre colony projects on the west coast, will assist the local organization, working with the Security County Chamber of Commerce in putting the idea across.

ALEXANDER IS NEW DICTATOR

(By Associated Press) BELGRADE, Jugoslavia, Jan. 7.—King Alexander was virtually dictator of Jugoslavia today, having suspended the constitution and named a non-party cabinet. He formed a non-parliamentary government of military stamp after a futile attempt to reconcile strong party and racial antagonisms with which the parliamentary regime has been split since last June. He announced that all laws would remain in force until suspended by decree. New laws would be made by decree. The royal order did away with the constitution which the turbulent Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats, and Slovenes has adhered to since June 28, 1921. Zivkovich was named premier and took the interior portfolio as being the minister responsible for the administration of law and order under the extraordinary regime. The action of the king created a sensation, but it was announced that no disturbances occurred. Although denied their demands for self-government, Croats were jubilant over the suppression of the parliament and three of their members were murdered. Three members of the Croatian party, which withdrew from the national parliament after the shooting of several of its leaders, were appointed to the new cabinet.

Line of Taxpayers Shorter at Office

Not quite so many folks were noticed standing in line at the windows of the county tax collector's office Monday, as has been the rule since January 1, yet a regular stream of tax payers wended their ways in and out of the office throughout the day.

Result of the day was the arrival almost to the 5,000 mark, of 1929 automobile licenses. So far no fines have been reported as having been paid by motorists driving their cars with their old 1928 license plates on.

The deputy tax collector's office opened in the city hall at 8 o'clock Monday, in charge of E. C. Priest, will help to relieve the congestion at the Lubbock office. The Slaton office will be continued throughout the month of January and all county taxes may be paid there.

South Plains

sandy clay loam soil is discussed.

"We think you will like us folks out here on the South Plains of Texas," the spokesman says. "There is nothing high about us. We're just plain folks. But we're interested in each other. We pull together. We welcome the stranger to our midst and make him one of us."

"This is a new country, as far as agricultural development is concerned. You plow under virgin land that never before felt a plough share. There's a thrill in that. You grow up with the country and see your land increase in value with each passing year."

"Then there's just something about the air out here that makes one feel young and full of get up and go. The air and water are invigorating. You'll soon feel a lot younger than the calendar and the date in the family Bible tells you."

"The South Plains is a bit will rejuvenate you. You'll soon feel that you're one of us, and you will be. You'll want to take hold and lift, too. Come on out, we need you to develop this marvelous country."

In speaking of the educational advantages on the South Plains, the booklet calls attention to the fact that "educational facilities on the South Plains are extremely modern and efficient." Lubbock county alone has over 28 brick school houses and not a single wooden structure in the county. Brick school houses dot the level plains of the entire 15 South Plains counties. At Lubbock the Texas Technological college offers college work to any who may be ready for college and the Experiment Station gives the farmer a chance to make the most of his South Plains farm.

"Well, my friend, that finishes up our little book, and I feel I haven't told you half of our wonderful story," the spokesman says on the front flap. "You can't know half about this marvelous country till you've seen it. Won't you plan to come out and look it over yourself?"

"Say Partner, what are you waiting on. Come on out to the South Plains of Texas where farming pays a real profit."

The fifteen South Plains counties named in the booklet are: Floyd, Hale, Lamb, Bailey, Cochran, Hook-

Legionnaires To Aid Slaton Post

Local Men To Install New Officers For Group; Committee On Building Plan For New Structure

Twenty-five or more members of the Allen Brothers Post No. 148, of the American Legion, will install the new officers of the Luther Powers Post, at Slaton, next Friday night, it was announced following the regular meeting of the Lubbock post Monday night.

Monday night's meeting was featured by a sing song, a spelling match in which the feat of spelling words backwards as well as forwards was practiced, and a big feed following the regular program. More than 50 Legionnaires were present, practically every one of them paying up their post dues for the year.

Report of the building committee announced that the new building for the post is contemplating starting soon will be planned and definite statement made within the next few weeks. The program committee told of plans for the post for this year.

Guy A. Gibbs, executive committee member for the region of Plains, was invited by the local post to come to Lubbock the first Monday night in February.

Hoover

and regarding selection of his officials. Others believed he had formed a tentative state

They had no suggestions to offer as to what names might be on the slate, although it appeared that Andrew W. Mellon would remain as secretary of the treasury and that the attorney generalship would be offered William J. Donovan, New York.

There were several guesses as to the secretary of state.

Several names were mentioned but no new ones were added, the supply seemingly becoming exhausted with the roll call. Of Senator Borah, Idaho, Ambassador Morrow to Mexico and Ambassador Fletcher to Italy.

Selection of Ambassador Morrow for secretary of state was urged by Senator Edge and Senator-Elect Keen, of New Jersey. They also presented a letter from Daniel Pomeroy, of New Jersey, vice chairman of the republican national committee.

Many congressional leaders who saw Hoover favor immediate passage of the pending McNary farm relief measure which has endorsement of the Coolidge administration, and postponement of an extra session to consider tariff revision until fall.

Mr. Hoover will get the other side of the picture tomorrow in succeeding days when Senators Borah of Idaho, Brookhart of Iowa, and other proponents of an early extra session call.

New Hotel

drawn up. Mr. Irwin stated, the building itself to cost $500,000 and the furnishings $200,000.

"This will make our company's seventh hotel," declared Mr. Irwin, "and our fifth one in West Texas, the others being at Dallas, Waco, Abilene, San Angelo, Wichita Falls and Plainview. You can see from the fact that this makes our fifth hotel in West Texas, what we think of this section. And this deal in Lubbock is the most gratifying we have yet closed, from many angles. Your city is more typical of the spirit of West Texas than any other city I have visited, and I believe 'the Hub of the Plains' is destined to become one of the principal cities in the entire state of Texas. The mighty South Plains area is just in its infancy, and I dare say it would tax the imagination of the most optimistic of us to try to tell just what it will become within the next few years."

Legislature

er, scheduled to become chairman of the senate finance committee, has the bills prepared and ready to go into the hopper. He has been in conference with departmental heads on items over which there is likely to be committee dispute and believes he has put them in shape to avoid delay in hearings.

Members Impatient

With practically all members of the senate and house in town and impatient for the "long grind" to start, both houses will convene at noon tomorrow.

Interest in the race for the powerful house presiding officer's place is keen with W. R. Montgomery of Edinburg and W. R. Barron of Bryson apparently going to the voting-counting stage with the result in doubt.

In the senate, Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman and Senator Cass Rusk of Schulenburg, have been put forward as candidates for president pro tem.

Senate Officers Chosen

Senator Archie Parr of Duval county, by reason of his seniority of service, will preside over the senate caucus, called for tomorrow morning, when officers of the senate will be chosen.

Several senators and a number of house members contend that the appropriation bills, which Lieut. Gov. Miller will attempt to have passed during the regular session, cannot possibly get attention until a special session.

Governor Moody several weeks ago announced that he had decided that the money bills best could be considered at a special session and that he had ascertained that a majority of the legislators preferred this plan in order to be free to get off legislation during the regular session.

DEMOCRATS LOSE FIGHT

Deficiency Appropriation Is Passed to Senate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7. (AP)—After an unsuccessful fight by democrats to place a limitation upon the amount of tax refund payments that could be made without an investigation, the house late today passed the $84,128,000 first deficiency appropriation bill, by a vote of 198 to 150. The measure now goes to the senate.

"Baby" Costs $25

Parrot Is Jinx To Man In Court

CHICAGO, Jan. 7. (AP)—"Baby," a green parrot of uncertain age but of fixed opinions, cost John Slovick $25 when the bird appeared in Municipal Court as a witness in a case in which Mrs. Olympia Blair, a former roomer in Slovick's flat, claimed her landlord refused to give up her parrot when she moved. Slovick said the parrot was his.

"Well," said the judge, "let's hear what the parrot has to say."

"Baby" cast an eye at the judge, ruffled his feathers and said nothing.

"Hello, Baby," called Mrs. Blair. "Hello, Mamma—Hello, Mamma—Hello, Mamma," rattled "Baby."

"Now, Mr. Slovick, you try it," invited the court.

"Hello, Baby," said Mr. Slovick, extending a finger in greeting.

"Qrr-rr," responded "Baby," miscalculating as it made a vicious jab at the finger.

Develops Poultry Farm

Mr. Garner's newest project is the development of a real poultry farm and is backing his judgment with real coin of the realm. He is asking no neighbors on the west coast, but is sold on West Texas, its air, its climate, and its future possibility as the poultry center of the United States. Since his pilgrimage to California last fall with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the movie-makers who are also to operate another starting January 15th, Mr. Garner has contended that here is the most ideal location in the world for the successful raising of poultry. To prove the point, he has placed an order with a nationally known hatchery for 4,500 white leghorn pullets to be nine weeks old when delivered August 1st. These pullets are guaranteed to come from registered 250 to 300-egg hens. Along with the order for pullets, Mr. Garner has also purchased 200 baby chicks coming from hens known to have better than 300-egg average. The baby chicks costing him $2.50 each, from the latter chicks he will lay the foundation for his flocks. Careful selection will give him a goodly number of birds from which basis stock will maintain the quality and class of his poultry farm.

Endurance

staff Sergeant Roy Hooe walked to a waiting car which carried them to a hangar and then to Clover Field, Santa Monica, Cal., for a physical examination.

Just what happened aboard the Question Mark was told by Lieutenant Quesada in simple words as he lounged in the automobile speeding to the medical base.

"Just as left the controls at 1 o'clock this afternoon, Captain Eaker took the wheel and the left motor went dead. We sent Sergeant Hooe out on the catwalk, but his weight was too heavy on the unstable condition of the Question Mark."

"We knew then that the flight was over. We dropped the gas within two or three minutes after we had taken it."

Not First Trouble

"This was not the first trouble. Saturday night we thought it was all over. All three engines lost their power. That was fouled spark plugs. We were all ready to end the flight but finally we cleaned that up. It was not necessary for anyone to go out on the catwalks then. The first time during the flight that it was necessary to go out was at one o'clock today when Sergeant Hooe went out to the left motor."

"It was worse than spark plug trouble this time. It looked like valves. Shortly after one o'clock the right motor began to weaken. Then we knew the flight was about to end."

When the plane landed, the left motor was silent, the right motor was functioning, but a stream of oil spouted from it and the center motor was idle but 1300 revolutions per minute.

Crew Members Lose From

CLOVER FIELD, SANTA MONICA, Calif., Jan. 7. (AP)—Members of the crew of the Question Mark were reported by army surgeons to have been found in "excellent" physical condition in an examination made three hours after their endurance flight ended this afternoon. The only effects noted were slight "bruises" on the chest and the surgeons said, and loss of one to four pounds in weight by each of the five.

Parents of Eaker In Texas Happy Over Success

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 7. (AP)—Two ill and anxious persons, a father and mother—tonight expressed tremendous joy that their son, Captain Ira Eaker of the army plane "Question Mark," was safe after almost a week's continuous flight on the big ship.

"I'm glad he had landed, now I can rest tonight," Y. Y. Eaker, the father, said tonight from his hospital bed here, where he lies with a mastoid trouble. "I didn't sleep a wink last night and when I did sleep I kept dreaming that I was working on his ship."

The mother, telephoned at her home in Eden, Texas, told the San Angelo Standard Times, "My heart is full of thanks and gratitude."

The elder Eaker, though never up in a plane, said he would not hesitate to fly with his son.

Scurry County Man Comes to Front In Poultry Industry

Giles Garner, Famed for His Wheat Crops, Makes Raising of Poultry His Newest Project

(Special To The Avalanche)

SNYDER, Jan. 7.—Giles W. Garner, master wheat farmer of Scurry county who has broken world's records for average production per acre has again come to the front of West Texas progress, this time with a poultry project.

Garner whose farm is two miles west of Snyder, in 1925 established a mark for other wheat farmers to shoot at when his crop averaged 66.15 bushels per acre. His total average over a period of fifteen years in Scurry county he places at 20 bushels per acre, an deducting all expenses estimates his net profit at $25 per acre.
