Kress in ten games this season has scored 274 points to its opponents' 79 points. In conference play, it has scored 210 to 60.

Wilson in ten games has scored 317 points to its opponents' 105 points, and in conference play has rolled up 193 points while the opposition has scored 52.

Halfback Eugene Gryder scored three of the Wilson touchdowns on runs of 9, 44, and 20 yards, while Halfback Daniel Verkamp scored the other two, one on a 5-yard run and the other on a 40-yard pass from Halfback "Mutt" Bruedigam. For the two extra points, Ronnie Foster caught a pass for one, and Breudigam kicked the other.

Wilson's season record follows:
Wilson 38, New Deal 14.
Wilson 26, Amherst 13.
Wilson 33, Petersburg 13.
Wilson 27, Frenship 13.

Members report a good program was enjoyed, with about 25 men present.

Plans were made for a Turkey Shoot to be held in the near future, with proceeds going to the Band Mothers Uniform Fund.

The broom sale recently conducted by the club resulted in $129.50 profit, which will be used on the Park improvement project.

T. B. Mason, Wilson Lions president, and Earl Cummings, secretary, attended the Zone meeting held in the Lubbock Hotel Sunday.

Tahoka Man At National Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill left Tuesday for Washington, D. C., where Frank is one of 67 delegates from Texas to the White House Conference on Education Nov. 28-Dec. 1, called by President Eisenhower.

They will be accompanied by Supt. and Mrs. W. T. Hanes of Cameron, formerly of Tahoka. They are going early to do a bit of sight-seeing and to attend the Army-Navy football game in Philadelphia Saturday.

O'Donnell Man Is Wreck Victim

Three people, one of whom was an O'Donnell farmer, were killed in an accident which occurred 20 miles south of Lamesa Sunday evening on Highway 87.

Victims included Clyde Wesley Meeker, 39, route 1, O'Donnell, and Mr. and Mrs. Esteban Gutierrez of Kerrville, who had been living in O'Donnell. Injured in the accident was Santos Gutierrez who had been attending school in O'Donnell. He was taken to a Lamesa hospital suffering head injuries and shock.

Meeker, who had lived in the O'Donnell area for about 20 years, was returning home from Big Spring, where he had been working the past week. The Gutierrez family was going south to Kerrville, their home.

No eye witnesses were located and according to highway patrolmen, neither car was attempting to pass. A Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma Coach driven by Raymond Bullock of Lubbock was the first on the scene, Bullock drove to a farmhouse where ambulances and officers were called.

Both Meeker and Gutierrez suffered from multiple injuries of the head, chest and sides. They were taken to Lamesa Hospital where Meeker died at about 3:15 p. m. and Gutierrez at about 4:30 p. m. Mrs. Gutierrez was crushed between the dashboard and front seat of the car and apparently died instantly.

Meeker is survived by his wife and three children, Carroll, Sandra and Wesley, all of O'Donnell; his father, John W. Meeker, Granbury, Texas; five sisters, Mrs. L. B. Nix, Tolar, Mrs. Dr. D. McInroe, El Centro, Calif. Mrs. Orlin Fancher, Carrolton, Texas., Mrs. W. H. Hibbitts,, Seagraves, and Mrs. H. R. Hibbitts, San Diego, Calif; and two brothers, Leroy of Tolar and Odell of Granbury.

RALPH W. YARBOROUGH

Yarborough Is Tahoka Visitor

Ralph W. Yarborough, twice an unsuccessful candidate for governor of Texas, was in Tahoka Friday greeting old friends and making some new ones.

The Austin attorney told The News he had not definitely made up his mind to run a third time but that he was receiving a lot of encouragement. In the Austin Belden Poll, he was shown ot be the favorite over such men as Price Daniel, John Ben Shepherd, Ben Ramsey, Jimmy Phillips, Will Wilson, and other proposed candidates.

John Saleh, county Democratic chairman and O'Donnell attorney, accompanied Mr. Yarborough in his "get acquainted" visit to Tahoka.

Talent Show Is Big Success

Three prizes were awarded in the talent show and three awarded for boxes at the Home Town Jamboree and Box Supper held here Tuesday night and sponsored by the Tahoka Band Mothers.

Winning first place in the talent division was Jan Thomas, in a tap dance number; second place, Doyle Parker, who also did a tap dance; and third place, Johnece Clem, who rendered a vocal solo.

Miss Barbara White won first for the prettiest box at the supper; Mrs. Buster Phipps, second, and Miss Geraldine Tippit, third.

Also starring, but not competing, in the talent show was the Phi Mu Alpha Glee Club from Texas Tech. Other numbers in the contest included songs, acrobatic and tap dances and skits.

Held in the Tahoka school gymnasium, the group made a profit of $204.50, which will be spent in benefit of the junior and varsity band.

Turkey Shoot Winners Named

Seventeen turkeys were given away Saturday at the turkey shoot sponsored by the Tahoka Jaycees, and held at the caliche pit south of town.

The organization cleared a total of $44.75 at the event. Money will be used to repair and fix up old toys for needy children for Christmas. The Jaycees have been collecting old toys for several weeks and will continue to do so until Christmas.

Those winning the turkeys were Ed Crooks of New Home, three turkeys; Dwain McClintock and Louis Bonham, two each; and Gerald Thurman, Alton Kelley, Bob Gibbs, Edward Pool, John Henry, Charles McClellan, Reuben McElroy, Albert Curry, Granvel Ayer, and George Glenn, one turkey each.

Mrs. Ruth Jolly At State Meeting

Mrs. Ruth Jolly, county superintendent, left Wednesday for San Antonio where she will attend the Texas State Teachers Association on Thursday through Saturday.

One of the highlights of the meeting will be when Dr. J. W. Edgar, commissioner on education in Austin, brings the principal address at the county superintendent's luncheon on Friday.

Bill McNeely was released Monday from Tahoka Hospital after spending several days there as a medical patient.

Christmas Contest Rules Announced

More extensive plans are being made by the Chamber of Commerce for Christmas lighting contests in Tahoka for this season.

There will be contests for merchants' display windows and doors and for homes and doors in Yule design.

The best decorated homes and business institutions will receive cash prizes of $15.00 for first place, $10.00 for second, and $5.00 for third. A $5.00 prize will be awarded for the best decorated door in a home.

There is no entrance fee for the contest which begins Dec. 15 and ends Dec. 23. The decoration project is being promoted to spread the spirit of Christmas and to beautify the city during the Yule season, according to Johnnie Reasonover, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

A few rules have been outlined to govern the competition.

(1) All merchants in Tahoka and all homes within the city limits are eligible to enter. (2) There is no entrance fee. (3) In the case of business institutions, all entries will be limited to window or door displays. (4) Lighting must be turned on between 6:00 and 10:00 p. m. Dec. 15 to 23 inclusive. (5) All entries will be judged on Dec. 15 or 16. (6) Entries will be judged as to originality, theme of display, attractiveness, and overall appearance of display.

The Chamber of Commerce is also sponsoring again this year the decoration of the business district. Colored lights will be strung from the court house, with Fred McGinty, Herman Heck and Mitchell Williams on the decorating committee.

A "Nativity" scene will be built as part of the court house decorations, with Alton Cain, H. W. Carter, Perry Walker, and Dr. Emil Prohl in charge.

The Christmas program will be handled by a committee composed of Winston Wharton, W. B. Slaton, and A. M. Bray.

Of the decoration contest Mr. Reasonover says, "Our community will receive many benefits from an all-out effort to decorate homes, windows and doorways. The contest will provide pleasure to all those who participate and by doing so will help beautify our city at this season of the year. We also hope that the contest will be an aid to foster a friendlier community spirit."

New Type Phone Station Installed

A new type telephone pay station has been installed by General Telephone Co. at the corner of Main and North Sixth in Tahoka.

The booth has built-in-lighting equipment which not only illuminates the interior for the convenience of users, but the lights also illuminate the signs to identify the station.

Bob Saunders of Lamesa, district manager of the company, said the pay station installed in Tahoka in the first of the new type in his district.

This gives Tahoka three pay stations located on the streets for use day or night. One is at the corner of Main and Lockwood, or Hwys. 87 and 380, and the other is outside the telephone building at South First and Harper.

Congressman George Mahon Hopes For Better Farm Program For U. S.

Congressman George Mahon, representative from the 19th District since its estabishment in 1932,, sounded a note of optimism in regard to both the farm problem and the "cold" war in a talk before Tahoka Rotary Club and about 40 of its guests Thursday noon of last week.

He declared the next Congress will certainly take a "new look" at the agricultural picture, and predicted that a different approach to solving the problem will be taken.

Although he does not know what the outcome will be, naturally, he said a radical overhaul of the farm program seems necessary and he has hopes new legislation may be passed to improve the status of farming in this area and in the nation as a whole.

The agricultural situation is growing more critical daily, he said. The spread is too wide between the price the farmer receives for the products he raises and the price he has to pay for his supplies. In fact, a crisis is at hand in the farming business.

Rayon and synthetic fibres have taken the place of 30 percent of our cotton. We now have 8,000,000 bales in government loan, and the surplus has become unmanageable. At the same time our foreign markets have all but vanished.

Mr. Mahon spent much of his time in discussion of the international situation.

In spite of the failure of the Geneva conference, he declared we have got to keep trying to improve the international situation, cultivate friends among the European nations, and keep a strong military force to protect ourselves.

He said, despite Russia's recent friendly attitude, the Soviet Union has not abandoned its crusade against freedom.

As chairman of the Congressional committee in charge of defense spending, Mr. Mahon said he felt his recent visit to Europe was necessary to keep in touch with our needs. His committee approves 32 billion dollars for defense, and he said it is a tremendous task to keep up even in a small way with such a big program.

Western Europe is the reservoir of civilization and power outside the United States, he said. Soviet Russia is the one great power that is devouring its neighbors, and will take over other countries unless we keep up a strong front.

We are trying to create a military strength that will compete with the Russian military. We are trying to reunite Germany in opposition to the Soviets. We are trying to keep the free European nations lined up with us, so their combined efforts will offer a detering effect on the Soviets' continued expansion. This we must do for our own good as well as to save the rest of the world.

In closing, he said we have not yet lost the "cold" war and our efforts to prevent a "hot" war.

Rep. Mahon was introduced by Dr, K. R. Durham, program chairman of the day.

President Harold Green introduced Roy Edwards, a new member of the club.

H. B. McCord Jr., chairman of the Rural-Urban committee of the club, had arranged, along with members, the inviting of about forty farmer friends from over the county to the meeting. Because of lack of time, these visitors were not introduced individually.

Basketball Season Gets Underway With Meadow Here Thursday, Dec. 1

Basketball workouts will get underway Monday in earnest, Jake Jacobs, head basketball coach, announces.

Thursday night of next week, Tahoka boys and girls teams will open the season with Meadow here. The first game starts at 7:00 p. m. Last year, Tahoka boys defeated Meadow in the finals to win the Seagraves tournament and lost to Meadow for the championship of the Abernathy tournament.

Meadow has had a week longer to get ready than has Tahoka. Although the Tahoka players were shooting goals this week, intensive workouts will not start until Monday.

December 2 and 3, the boys play in the Plainview tournament, and Dec. 6 they play at Seminole.

Coach Jacobs has the following returning lettermen: Gordon Smith, Jerry Williams, Junior Fitts, Carlton Bell, L. W. Castleberry, and Ted Pridmore. Due te football injuries, Smith will not join the squad before Christmas. Williams is also bunged up, as are reserves Donald Renfro, and Karl Prohl. Some of the Sophomores and Juniors will, however, be pushing the above boys for places on the team.

Coach Dean Wright will coach the B team and Seventh Grade boys.

Coach Bill Haralson, who coaches the girls team, as well as the Eighth Grade boys, has a real problem in that he has to rebuild after losing most of his first string squad of girls by graduation last spring.

J. B. Howell, South Elementary principal, will again coach Seventh and Eighth grade girls.

Winter Care For Farm Machines

College Station, Nov.—Farmers are advised not to put off the job of winterizing farm machinery. The first hard freeze can play havoc with auxiliary motors, tractor engines and sprayers unless they are winterized, says W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer.

He says auxiliary motors should first be cleaned; the crankcase drained and refilled with new oil and the motor run for several minutes to coat all surface with oil. Drain the radiator and flush with a reliable radiator cleaner and then flush the cleaner out with clear water.

Remove the spark plugs. Give them a good cleaning and adjust and oil before replacing them, says Ulich. While the plugs are out, lubricate the upper cylinder walls. Drain the fuel tank and allow to air dry. Cover the end of the exhaust and breather pipes to prevent moisture from entering the motor. Clean and charge the battery and store where it will not freeze.

To winterize the spray equipment, Ulich says flush the entire system. Remove all drain plugs and run the pump for a few minutes. Open all valves while the pump is running to release any trapped water and remove and place all value balls in oil. Drain the oil from the pump and flush pump with new oil. Grease and turn the shafts to distribute grease on shafts and bearings and hang hose so all water drains out.

On all machinery, give it a good cleaning; pack bearings to seal out moisture; remove belts and canvasses and store in a dry, rodent-proof container. Apply at rust inhibitor to all polished surfaces such as plow moldboards and sieves. While this job is taking place, inspect the machinery and either repair or mark for repairing during the winter, broken bent or worn parts.

The present cost-price squeeze is just more reason, says Ulich why farmers can't afford losses which can be prevented. For economy's sake winterize all farm equipment.

Miss Rose Marie Yandell Becomes Bride of John Robinson At Wilson

Miss Rose Marie Yandell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Yandell became the bride of John C. Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robinson of Wilson, in a ceremony Sunday at 3 p. m. in the First Baptist Church of Wilson. Rev. J. B. Vickery of Lubbock officiated at the double-ring service.

The altar was decorated with an arch of candles and emerald foliage centered with a spray of bronze mums and flanked with baskets of mums.

Mrs. G. L. Nelson of Wilson accompanied Mariana McGinty and Bobbye Draper of Tahoka as they sang "I Love You Truly" and "Melody of Love."

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a white floor-length velvet gown, designed with shirred bodice and scalloped neckline edged with lace and touched with seed pearls. The fingertip silk illusion veil was attached to a tiara of white net and lace encrusted with seed pearls. The bride carried a cascade arrangement of talisman roses.

Mrs. Olin Parris of Hereford served her niece as matron of honor. Miss Janell Martin of Tahoka, Miss Hazel Robinson of Wilson, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Nettie Faye Yandell, aunt of the bride, were bridesmaids. The honor attendant wore a tangerine velveteen dress, designed with round neck, three-quarter length sleeves and gathered skirt. The other attendants wore bronze dresses of identical design.

They carried crescent shaped arrangements of yellow pom-pon chrysanthemums.

Olin W. Parris served as best man. Delbert Sanders and Alfred Clary of Wilson and Joe Autry of Tahoka were ushers.

The candles were lighted by the bride's cousins, Walker Parris of Hereford and Kenneth Stalcup of Tahoka.

A reception followed in the dining hall of the church. The room was complemented with baskets of bronze mums. The bride's table was laid with a lace coth over green and centered with yellow pompon chrysanthemums.

Assisting in hospitalities were Mrs. Bill Moore of Lubbock, Mrs. Chester Watley of Tahoka and Miss Mary Alice Roberts of Tahoka.

After a trip to New Orleans, La., the couple will be at home at Wilson. For travel the bride wore a tweed suit styled with box jacket and black and pumpkin accessories.

For '56 Plenty of EXTRA in this SPECIAL

The 1956 Buick SPECIAL 4-Door Riviera

This one is the news-maker that's front-page big.

This one is the new Buick SPECIAL for 1956—the biggest bundle of high-powered energy and high-fashion luxury ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

Just a quick listing of some certain facts will give you the picture.

First—its engine is a big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine with an all-time high in horsepower for this Series—and an engine that hits the record book at a neat 8.9 to 1 compression ratio.

Second—its getaway—with the double-action take-off of the new Variable Pitch Dynaflow*—is spectacular even at only part throttle—and comes with a new boost in gas mileage to boot.

Third—on ride, this new SPECIAL is more than great—what with all-coil springing, and torque-tube stability, and a new deep-oil cushioning, and a whole new front-end geometry that adds a wonderful "sense of direction" to the car's travel.

Fourth—on room, luxury, interior finish—there's never been a Buick SPECIAL like this before. From the big, broad seats to the stunning new instrument panel—there's new decorator smartness and quality throughout.

But get the picture on price, and you have the biggest reason why this sizable automobile is so extra special a buy.

For this Buick comes to you at a figure so close to those of the most widely known smaller cars, the difference in price is small change.

So—come in and see and sample this beauty. You'll find it, we firmly believe, the biggest package of automobile at anywhere near its budget price.

New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.*

Bulldogs Lose Final Grid Game To Spur

Spur Bulldogs defeated the Tahoka Bulldogs 46 to 13 Friday night at Spur to take the District 5-AA championship and the right to meet Crane of District 6-AA in bi-district at Spur Thanksgiving Day at 2 p. m.

Thus, since the coming of Coach Bill Haralson to Tahoka (he played high school ball at Spur), Spur has won two district championships and Tahoka has won three.

Although hurt by the loss of Quarterback Gordon Smith and injuries to other players Tahoka put up a game fight, and Jimmy Harter, played his best game substituting for Smith. Fullback Donald Blair pounded out 138 yards in 28 carries, an iron-man chore. Ends Carlton Bell and L. W. Castleberry were standouts at end on offense.

All the boys put up a battle, but Spur proved to be an explosive, break-away outfit.

This is one game where statistics are deceiving for Tahoka ran up 18 first downs, 219 yards net rushing and 71 passing, enough to win most ordinary games. Spur had 11 first downs, 218 net yards rushing and 30 passing, but the rushing yards do not include a 78-yard runback for a TD and a pass interception run back 64-yards for a score.

Actually, the game was much better than the score would indicate, leaving out four or five Spur plays, and a half dozen bad breaks for Tahoka.

Statistics

Tahoka		Spur
18	First downs	11
219	Rushing, yds.	218
7 for 71	Passes, yds.	2 for 30
1	Incomplete	2
3	Had intercepted	0
2 for 19	Punts, avg	0
1 of 2	Fumbles lost	2 of 2
6 for 70	Penalties	5 for 41

Spur Scores Quickly

Tahoka received the kickoff on the 15, Jerry Williams and Blair made it a first on the 28, and Tahoka moved to the 37. Williams boomed a 44 yard punt which Don Snodgrass, 185 pound halfback gathered in on his 22, cut to the right, saw he was hemmed in, and then went to his left, and raced 78 yards to the goal. Quarterback Alton Williams kicked the extra point. Score 0-7.

Blair brought the kick-off from the 15 to the 34, and two plays later, Carlos Bass, 183, Spur tackle who played a whale of a game, covered a Tahoka fumble on the Tahoka 35. HB Jerry Dunaway, FB Eddie Hagens (who carried 13 times for 118 yards), and Snodgrass moved to the Tahoka 3 in five plays. Hagens hit the line twice, the second time scoring. The kick missed. Score, 0-13.

Tahoka Threatens

Receiving the kickoff, Williams brought out to the 38, and then collaborated with Blair and HB Ted Pridmore in moving all the way to the Spur 13 to open the second quarter. But, here Tahoka drew a 15 yard penalty for holding back to the 28. Williams made one, Blair one, and then Harter passed to Bell complete on the 12, but a fourth down pass was intercepted by Hagens on the Spur 10.

Spur marched right down the field, including Snodgrass runs for 12 and 15 yards, Hagens for 38, to the Tahoka 12, Then, Spur's Williams hit RE Ronnie Ensey with a pass for a TD. Score, 0-19

Tahoka got started again, but two 15-yard penalties ruined any hope for a drive, and kicking from his goal line, Blair's punt was partially blocked and went out of bounds on the Tahoka 17, to set up another Spur score.

Six plays were required before Snodgrass bucked over from the four yard line. Williams kicked. Score 0-26.

Prehl brought the kick to the 35, Harter and Blair moved to the 50 on three plays, and with 15 seconds left Harter lost 11 trying to find a open pass receiver. He then made 3 as the half ended.

Tahoka Scores in Third

Tahoka scored its first touchdown in the third period, while controling the ball and prevented Spur from scoring in this stanza.

Spur received the kickoff, an on-side kick to the Spur 49, moved down to the Tahoka 34, and then Guard Ware High of Tahoka recovered a Spur fumble on the Tahoka 28.

From there, Tahoka marched 2 yards to score. Blair, Williams and Harter carried out to the 43, then Harter hit Bell with a 9-yard pass, Tahoka moved to the Spur 34. Castleberry, on an end-around play, went to the 22, Blair bulled to the 15. Harter found Bell with a 7-yard pass, and Blair moved to the Spur 1. Here, W. H. McNeely, carrying for his first time in the game, bucked the line for the score. Blair's place kick was no good. Score, 6-26.

Fourth Quarter Wild

Spur moved down to the Tahoka 26, where a Tahoka boy covered a Spur fumble, and Tahoka had another drive underway, moving to the Spur 42.

But, it happened again. Spur LE Bobby Dyess intercepted Harter's pass and ran the ball back to the Tahoka 40. On the first play from scrimmage. Hagens raced through the middle 40 yards for another Spur score, and Williams kicked. Score 6-33.

Tahoka bounced right back, in spite of a 15 yard clipping penalty and marched for another score. Castleberry took an 8-yard pass to start the ball rolling, Blair moved 30 yards in three carries, McNeely made one, Pridmore one, and then Bell caught a pass good for 15 to the 20. Then, Harter hit Castleberry with another jump pass, and L. W. ran the rest of the way to score. This time, Blair's kick was good. Score 13-33.

But Spur was to score twice more on four plays.

Tahoka's on-side kick-off was a fluke, and Spur had the ball on the Tahoka 41. Dunnaway made 17, Hagens 3, and then Dunnaway raced 21 yards on the next play. Williams kick was good. Score, 13-40.

With 50 seconds left, Tahoka received, Harter bringing from the 5 to the 30. Spur was penalized 15, and Blair carried to the Spur 43 on the next play. Then, Snodgrass intercepted Harter's pass on his own 36 and ran for another TD as the time ran out. Final score, 13-46.

Two chartered buses carried 80 Tahoka fans to the game, and fans also paid for a chartered bus for the boys.

Tahoka's band, directed by Don Wortham, put on its best performance of the year.

FIRE DEPARTMENT TO DISPLAY DILLINGER CAR

The personal car of John Dillinger, gangland kingpin of the prohibition era, will be on display at Tahoka, Monday, Nov. 28.

The Fire Department, sponsors of the car, will make a modest charge to view the bullet-proof car.

Dillinger's 16 cylinder 1931 Cadillac was considered the most formidable machine for crime in its day. The car weighed 9,144 pounds, over twice the weight of ordinary cars - and was equipped with several anti-pursiut mechanisms.

The big V-type engine had smoke and tear gas generators, and a device beneath the car sprayed tacks onto the road to puncture tires of would-be apprehenders.

The car was equipped with a two WAVE Radio to pick up police calles, it was equipped with its own generator.

Designed for speed in excess of 100 miles an hour, the car had one and one-fourth inch thick bullet-proof glass with ports through which guns could be fired.

Inside the quarter-inch steel body special compartments were built to house a machine gun and large quantities of ammunition.

Dillinger and his mobsters reportedly used the car in a total of 39 holdups and 13 murders. The vehicle was finally abandoned near East St. Louis when it ran out of gas during a chase by police.

Dillinger evidentally was slain by police (July 19, 1934) outside a Chicago theatre on a tip from the gangster's ex-girl friend, later to become known as "The Lady in Red."

P. E. Askew Has Fine Farm At Wells

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Askew, residents of the Wells community for 32 years, are the owners of Mystery Farm No. 70, pictured here.

Miss Ina Ledbetter and Roy Askew were the only two to correctly identify the place to The News. Several other guessers were evidently wrong.

Mr. Askew, with the help of his boys, buit the house and most of the improvements himself, although the place has been added to and improved as the years went by. The smaller house to the right is occupied by a son, R. B., who works the one-section home place.

P. E. Askew saw his earlier years in Indian Territory, his dad going there in the land "run" but they moved on to Palo Pinto county when P. E. was just a young fellow.

Mrs. Askew, the former Hettie Holder, was also reared in Palo Pinto county, and the two met and married there, living at Gordon.

They came to Lynn county in 1923, buying a half section north of Wells store. The late Waldo McLaruin took up the northwest quarter of the same section and the late Ed Cook the northeast quarter and held them until Mr. Askew could get the money to complete his section.

While raising a big family of 10 boys and girls, Mr. and Mrs. Askew through thrift and hard work have acquired enough land to take care of them and have retired to let others do the hard work. R. B. farms the home place.

They also own a section of land 13 miles north of Brownfield and a half section six miles east of Brownfield.

Roy says he well remembers coming to the Plains with his parents in two wagons. They had a hard time getting started, with a house to build and most of the land to break out. But, the land is fine soil and they have managed to get through drouths, sandstorms, low prices and depressions.

Roy, a bachelor, lives with his parents, but owns a quarter section irrigated farm near Foster, Terry county, and also farms a quarter of dryland.

W. D. (Dalton) Askew is a stock farmer at Elida, N. M., where he operates about four sections; Kenneth works in Long Beach, Calif.; Cleatus farms the section north of Brownfield; Arlyce farms 390 acres of the Bob Cook land at Wells; and Bertice owns a half section adjoining his dad.

The daughters are: Mrs. Vera Etter, secretary at O'Donnell High School; Miss Helen Askew, who has worked for Douglas Aircraft in Los Angeles, Calif., since 1937; and Mrs. Geraldine Shanklin, who operates a health center in Lubbock and whose husband works for a floor covering firm.

Dan Cowan Gets Good Conduct Medal

10th Div., Germany—Army Specialist Third Class Daniel R. Cowan, son of Mrs. Florence Davies, Route 4, Tahoka, recently was awarded the Good Conduct Medal in Germany while serving with the 10th Infantry Division.

Cowan, a wireman in Battery B of the division's 33rd Field Artillery Battalion, received the decoration for his exemplary behavior, efficiency and fidelity.

Specialist Cowan entered the Army in January 1954 and completed basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas. He arrived in Europe in November, 1954.

A 1952 graduate of New Home High School, Tahoka. Cowan attended Henderson County Junior Colege, Athens, Texas, before entering the Army.

New Home Loses Closing Game

New Home closed out its first season of regulation football Friday night at Meadow with a 55 to 12 loss.

The Leopards won three games in tough competition of District 4-B. They took their first game, a non-conference game, over Hart, and later defeated Plains B and also Cooper, a member of the conference.

Coaches Hubert Williams and Max Dickerson have accomplished much at New Home, however, and will lose only four seniors from their 25-man squad.

In the one-sided game with Meadow, Nick Ford, a little Freshman halfback went eight yards for a touchdown in the second quarter. Later in the game, Jimmy Keith returned a kick-off 60 yards for a score.

Odds and Ends

(By E. I. The Elder)

Last week I started in to give my readers, if any, the low-down, and also the high-up, of the three mountainous counties of Texas that lie in or adjacent to the "Big Bend" and contiguous territory, Brewster, Jeff Davis, and Presidio counties, but I barely finished the story about the first of them, Brewster. And I do not think that I even mentioned the fact that Brewster county is the biggest county in the biggest state in the Union. Nor did I remind you that Brewster county is almost exactly five time as large as the whole state of Rhode Island and more than two and a half times as large as Delaware. It is almost as large as seven counties the size of Lynn.

Its two companion counties in that mountainous region, as we have already suggested, are Jeff Davis and Presidio. Presidio lies directly west of Brewster, and its topography is apparently more like that of Brewster than that of Jeff Davis. Like Brewster, it lies right along the north bank of the Rio Grande and only this historic stream separates it from Mexico. Therefore we choose to treat it first.

Presidio's very name suggests warfare, defense against enemies, Danger! The word "prescidio" means a garrison, a fortification, a body of soldiers stationed at some particular place or in some general location for the protection of men or property or claims, etc. History tells us that long years ago, when Spain still owned Mexico, a garrison was established on the north bank of the Rio Grande River at the point where the town of Presidio now stands—and long has stood—to protect its rights or claims in Texas, which she then claimed as her own territory. What was there on this side of the River which Spain meant to protect? In the Chinati Mountains, and the Sierras, and the Capotes, and other mountain groups, silver and lead and zinc and mica were known to exist, and silver mines were established at or near Shafter in what is now Presidio county at an early date in the time of Spanish rule in that area. For fifty years or more thereafter the Shafter silver mines were worked by the Spaniards or under their direction. The Spaniards opened silver mines at various places in Mexico during their rule in that country, and some of the mines are still being worked. W. G. Boyd and I visited a silver mine near Taxco many miles south of Mexico City while we were visiting in that country three years ago. When that militant Spaniard Hernando Cortes made that conquest of Mexico in 1519 and the years immediately following, he took charge of the gold and silver mines throughout the country, the Aztec and other Indians having little conception of the value of either gold or siver, and he thus got the means whereby he built numberless Catholic churches in that country. I don't think Cortes ever got into northern Mexico and he probably had no part in opening this silver mine at Shafter. That was doubtless the work of Spaniards who came to the north of Mexico many years later. Many of them were just as geredy of gold as were Cortes and his coterie of priests and viceroys who helped him to rob the land during and following his conquest.

On the opposite side of the Rio Grande from Presidio is the little Mexican town of Ojinaga, you will find by consulting a map.

Another circumstance that lends interest to this rugged mountain country is the fact that centuries before the white man came to America, this was notably the habitat of very ancient Indian tribes. Ruins of the Cliff Dwellers are still to be seen on the rock walls of canyons along the Rio Grande River near Presidio, according to Lynn county men who have visited that region. Some who have visited Presidio never took the trouble possibly to hunt up these ancient dweling places, but Bud Miliken a few years ago told me that he had seen them and proceeded to describe some of the wonders of the place. Southwest Texas, southern Arizona, and areas in southern California, lay in the path of the alleged migration of destitute and desperate Indians many centuries ago as they moved down the western coast to people gradually all of the marvelous country which we now know as Mexico. And other tribes of Indians have come on down to take the places of those ancient tribes. When we think of this region now, we think of the Apaches, the Navahos, the Zumas, the Pimas, the Zunis, and the Hopis. And invariably we always think of that prince of human devils, Geronimo, chief of the Apaches, though it may be that he never actually visited Presidio county itself—but he belonged to just such a country as that. In the raw, it is a land of cacti. and prickly pears, the yucca, the century plant, scrawny shrubs, mesquite trees, some pine and pinyon trees, mixed in with much prairie, and rugged and often barren mountain peaks.

Near Paisano Peak nesr Marfa in Presidio county, Texas Baptists have established a great camp ground where evangeistic meetings are held each summer. Near this camp ground is a switch station on the Southern Pacific Railway, elevation 5,078 feet, the highest railway station on the Southern Pacific railway between the Gulf of Mexico and the Pacific Ocean.

The altitude of Presidio county runs from the low level of 2,400 feet to the top of its highest mountains at a level of 7,730 feet. It is an exceedingly drouthy area, the annual rainfall being only a little more than 10 inches; yet it is one of the finest cattle-raising regions in Texas, its "Highland Herefords" usualy winning more blue ribbons at state and national fairs than any other breed or entries. And just to show its broad versatility, it raises more than 1,100 baes of cotton annually.

Marfa, the county seat of Presidio county, is a fine little city, its population being 3,603, according to the U. S. Census of 1950. Presidio had a population of 890; the county population was 7,354. But the county has an area of 3,877 square miles, nearly four and a half times as large as Lynn county.

Now, I will return to Jeff Davis county for the rest of this story. First, though, I want to backtrack just a little to Paisano Mountain and camp grounds, for, according to the maps, they are just back over the Presidio-Brewster county line in Brewster county—at least the mountain is, and I think both counties are proud of it, for all passengers on Southern Pacific railway trains pass right along the foot of the lofty mountain, and whether they are bound for Houston or Los Angeles, they never anywhere pass over a foot of dirt closer to Heaven than Paisano Switch.

But if you are starting out by car to visit the Davis Mountains and the Big Bend from any point in West Texas, you will find your most scenic route to lie by the way of the Guadalupe Mountains near the southern border of New Mexico, htence turning south to Van Horn, east to Kent; and there you are right at the northern entry into the Davis Mountains. Nearer but less scenic routes would take you by the way of Pecos and thence to Balmorhea, where you would enter the mountains, or by way of Fort Stockton and Alpine, your nearest point of entry. But if you have the time, your route by Carlsbad, New Mexico, and thence southwestward around to old Guadalupe Peak, the tallest mountain in Texas, thence by Van Horn and Kent, is by far the best route to travel. That puts you right into Jeff Davis county, and before you can count "Ten, ten double ten," you are right in the heart of the mountains.

Historically and scenically, Jeff Davis county is one of the most interesting counties in all Texas. It was named, of course, for Jefferson Davis, President of the Southern Confederacy, but who served in a military capacity at Fort Davis several years before Texas seceded from the Union. Fort Davis was established by the Federal Government near the site of the present town of Ft. Davis in 1854 as a protestion against Indian attacks. A stage line was established to carry mail, passengers, and all sorts of supplies from the Fort to southern California and thence on up to Sacramento, such a line having been made necessary by reason of the discovery of gold in California in 1848, precipitating what was known as the "Gold Rush" in 1849, most of California having become a possession of the United Sattes as a result of the Mexican War and the treaty of peace which followed. Hostile Indians and white-skinned desperadoes made frequent attacks upon the stage coaches traveled over this route and often robbed and sometimes killed the operators and passengers. It was this sort of situation that prompted Col. Jefferson Davis to purchase and bring over a group of camels from the desert lands of Asia and Africa to be used in caravans for the transportation of passengers and freight from the east to the west and vice versa. But in traveling over so much rocky grounds the camels would become foot-sore and unserviceable, and the experiment proved to be a failure and was abandoned. The Fort itself was evacuated in April, 1861, when Texas seceded from the Union but it was reoccupied by Federal forces , in 1867 after the Civil War was over, and permanent buildings were constructed. The Fort was maintained until 1891, when it was finally abandoned by the Federal government, but the ruins of many of the old buildings still stand and constitute one of the chief sites in the old town for tourists and other visitors.

Fort Davis constantly publicises itself as the "mile-high" city, its claim being that its average elevation above sea-level is approximately one mile, and it is claimed that the average elevation of the entire county of Jeff Davis is more than 5,000 feet. Its claim that it is the highest county in Texas is undisputed. Mt. Livermore is the highest mountain peak in the county, its elevation being 8,382 feet. It is the second highest mountain in Texas, being topped by Guadalupe mountain only. Sawtooth in the Davis Mountains has an elevation of 7,748 feet.

My information is that there is no mountain in the United States in or east of the Mississippi Valley at tall as the Guadalupe, or the Livermore, the Emory, the Sawtooth, the Black, the Blue, the Crown, or as numerous other mountains not quite so tall, that might be mentioned in tte Guadalupes, the Chisos, and the Davis Mountains of Texas.

I have mentioned heretofore the 74-mile loop highway that extends practically all the way around the Davis Mountains, enclosing practically all of the chief mountains of the group within the circle. Inside this circle one will also find the Great Rockpile sheltering various rooms and passages, with strange Indian inscriptions painted or carved on the walls.

Other places of interest in this group of Mountains include Mount Locke, on the summit of which one of the greatest astronomical observatories in the world, the McDonald Observatory, has been erected. From the summit of the Mount one can see a long ways, even with the naked eye, over the mountains and the hills and the valleys that surround Mt. Locke, but I decline to tell you how far one can see through that mighty telescope up into the starry heavens.

Last week our Linotype machine made us say that we had once entered into the Big Bend area of Texas from Marathon situated some 25 miles southwest of Alpine. Marathon in fact is situated about 25 miles southeast of Alpine, so the machine sent us dawn into the great Park fifty miles too far west. I just wanted to correct that error. But the next time I go down to the Big Bend, if ever, I want to do down from Marfa to Presidio and take a look at the curious homes of those ancient cliff-dwellers.
cient ciff-dwellers.

Most of our people of today, however, are far more concerned over the problems of the immediate future than they are about the activities of ancient tribes of Indians. I am convinced, nevertheless, that even the best informed and the most intelligent Americans of today know little more about what tomorrow will bring forth than the basket-makers of Presidio and Ojinaga know about the Einstein Theory of Relativity or the religious beiefs of the inhabitants of Mars if any. Congressman George Mahon is one of the best-informed and wisest leaders in Congress today, and he frankly told us at the Rotary Club here last Thursday that he did not know what this world is coming to or what disasters may hit our nation any day. He could see only shadows and dark spots and gray ones, and only his Faith gave him hope and comfort and kept him from becoming pessimistc. Russia had just given us and the world fresh assurnaces that she was not seeking peace or justice for other naions. She was a hungry, powerful, vicious bear standing in our pathway—at our front door, if you please—ready to spring at our throats and to gobble us up if possible, if we refused to bow to her demands. She seems to be gleefully threatening the peace of the world at a time which another world war might mean the destruction of all nations. In my opinion, this is no time for Americans to coddle treacherous men, whether they are soldiers or civiians, who would pedde our own secrets to the communists, whethers they be Russians or Russian satellites. I am not strong for capital punishment but I am strong for imprisonment in this country of every person fraternizing with known communists, with Russians, or sympathizing with Russian ideaologies.
