Blizzard Due In Panhandle

Spring is just one trip around the clock, but many West Texans may have to look at their calendars to detect it tomorrow.

The Weather Bureau this morning issued a snow and blizzard warning for the upper Texas Panhandle. According to the forecast, blizzard conditions are expected to hit the top of the Panhandle late this afternoon, and a cold blast weather is due to dip deeper into the state.

Spring is due to arrive at 2:55 a.m. Saturday, local time. When that hour arrives, a good portion of West Texas may have sub-freezing temperatures, with minimum readings of 20 to 30 degrees forecast for the Panhandle and South Plains areas tonight.

Travelers and stockmen were warned to take proper precautions in the Panhandle tonight.

The forecasts calls for scattered thunderstorms in the east part of North Central Texas during the afternoon, with temperatures plunging to freezing during the night.

For West Texas, the five - day forecast issued today calls for mild weather following the current cold spell, with little or no rain expected during the five-day period.

Snyder had a warm 80 degrees Thursday, with the low reading registered this morning a mild 50. Strong southwesterly winds whipped up dust throughout the night. The dust continued this morning as the winds shifted to the northwest.

Snow fell during midmorning just north of the Panhandle at Boise, Okla. That with an earlier light freezing rain made roads treacherous.

Two inches of snow was reported at Clayton, N.M.

In the upper Panhandle, Dalhart had morning winds in gusts up to 48 miles an hour and rain. The temperature was 37.

Lubbock reported wind gusts up to 50 m.p.h. Childress in the lower Panhandle had a light rain and some morning dust.

Far to the south, small craft warnings were hoisted all along the Texas coast and east to Morgan City, La., for southerly winds of 25 m.p.h., shifting to northerly winds of 30 m.p.h. by night.

Skies were generally cloudy to partly cloudy northeast of a line from Galveston to San Antonio to Mineral Wells to Dalhart. The remainder of the state was generally clear.

Freezing temperatures were forecast for Friday night in the Panhandle and South Plains.

Generally clear skies, brisk breezes and mild temperatures were recorded Thursday. Houston had a trace of rain as some clouds dotted the coast.

Some local dust was kicked up in the Panhandle.

WHITE QUESTIONED BY TRAVIS GRAND JURY

AUSTIN (AP) — The Travis County grand jury questioned Agriculture Commissioner John White for more than 1½ hours yesterday on possible election code violations in his department.

No report was made immediately. The grand jury is scheduled to meet again Tuesday.

White was calm and neatly dressed for the appearance. He carried a large briefcase. Asked if it contained the evidence he claimed he would present, White said: "I hope its evidence."

White repeated previous statements that the investigation was triggered as a malicious plot of his political enemies.

"I'm used to personal attacks," White said. "If you can't stand the heat, stay out of the kitchen."

Prior to Whites entrance into the grand jury room, Foreman Thomas Harper Jr. said the probe was prompted by two letters from a man who worked for the department three years ago.

He said the letters were written by John Clark of Chandler, who appeared Tuesday. Another former employe, O. A. Kirkland of Dallas, was questioned the same day.

White said he fired Clark in the spring of 1956 when he refused a temporary assignment in the Panhandle during a grasshopper plague.

The former employes told newsmen they had been solicited for money which went into White's political campaigns, but he never asked for it. White said this wasn't true.

Visit Dulles At Hospital

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Macmillan began their important talks on Berlin and German problems during a visit today with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles at Walter Reed Army Hospital.

The two leaders and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd paid a call on the ailing Dulles en route to Camp David in the Maryland mountains where the talks will start in earnest later in the day.

The White House said the visit with Dulles was more than a courtesy call. Presidential Press Secretary James Hagerty said he assumed the half hour or so stop at Walter Reed involved "some preliminary discussions" of the desire for a firm Allied stand in the Berlin crisis.

At the rustic retreat in the Catoctin Mountains, about 65 miles from Washington, Eisenhower and Macmillan will plunge into detailed discussions which will keep them occupied through Sunday. Final talks probably will be held at the White House on Monday.

Working with each man were four advisers, including Acting Secretary of State Christian Herter and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd.

During the conferences, they will seek to reconcile conflicting views and develop a unified allied viewpoint for negotiating with the U.S.S.R.

Macmillan, arriving from Ootawa, called for the development of "common policies that combine firmness and reasonableness."

Among the chief Allied leaders — Macmillan, Eisenhower, German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and French President Charles de Gaulle—there was no evidence of any disagreement on the need for firmness in facing up to the Soviet challenger over Berlin. The governments of the four have proclaimed their intention to preserve their rights and their access to West Berlin under the threat of Communist blockade and the danger of war.

The split among the Allies appears to be caused rather by the question of what constitutes "reasonableness" in the preparation of proposals which they may present to the Soviet Union in a foreign ministers meeting in May.

One of the points at issue is a possibility of following up the foreign ministers session with a summit conference.

Macmillan is known to favor promising Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev a summit conference, probably in July, whereas Eisenhower and De Gaulle believe such a meeting should be made conditional on progress by the foreign ministers toward a solution of German issues.

Courtesy Club Gets First Members Here

The "Courtesy Club" in Snyder was growing today, as interest mounted in the contest to name the city's "friendliest, most courteous" woman employe and "friendliest, most courteous" man employe.

Their membership cards in the "Courtesy Club" were presented by their respective store managers, Lee T. Stinson and Jay Rogers, Thursday afternoon.

Swallows Are On Schedule

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Calif. (AP)—As it does every year, life started anew Thursday in the ruins of the old stone church where 50 or more worshippers once lost their lives in a California earthquake.

For the swallows are back at San Juan Capistrano mission today, St. Joseph's Day, and their favorite nesting place is the church ruins with its inviting nooks and crannies. Here they will make their adobe nests, lay their eggs and raise two coveys before they fly away in the fall.

It was shortly after the turn of the 18th Century that the great stone church was shattered by a quake. The victims were Indians and others who were attending early morning mass.

The church has never been rebuilt so the swallows have taken over. An observer said that during the night they came in by the thousands.

The swallows will leave in the fall, usually about Oct. 23. They fly South but nobody seems to know exactly where. But next year comes around, they'll be back.

Two Fluvanna men were injured when their auto overturned 8 miles north of Snyder on U.S. Highway 84 at noon today.

They were Montie Browning and his brother Harvey Lee Browning, who both were taken by Bolger ambulance to Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

Their injuries were not believed serious.

Solons Face Two New Developments

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas legislators faced new developments in both taxing and spending today. There were:

1. A bill to erase 15½ million dollars from the state deficit was ready for House debate.

2. An accounting of progress on the big appropriations bill was due.

"I'll have a statement Friday," said Rep. Bill Heatly, Paducah, chairman of the Appropriations Committee, when asked about his the big spending bill would be ready about March 20.

The first re enue producing bill of the session was readied for debate yesterday when approved by the House Revenue and Taxation Committee. It would wipe out about 15½ million dollars of the expected 65 million dollar deficit on Aug. 31 by a "bookkeeping entry" between funds. Essentially it would have the comptroller make available to the General Fund the state income usually collected in August but not put on the books until the following fiscal year which begins each Sept. 1.

The Senate adjourned yesterday until Monday, but the House voted to come back today.

The House approved and sent to the Senate yesterday a bill (HB 98) curbing the annexation powers of big cities. It would allow farmers whose land had been included in city limits within the past five years to force removal of their farming land from tax rolls within 30 days. The bill was opposed by the Texas Municipal League.

The House also gave tentative approval to a bill authorizing a third state medical college at San Antonio. Amendments that would have placed the school at Galveston and Dallas are given additional support.

Flexible Car Surety Rates Are Urged

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas motorists are being "overcharged and gouged by 34 million dollars a year, a House committee was told in a public hearing that lasted until 1 a.m. today.

Vestal Lemmon, general manager of the National Assn. of Independent Insurers, was the final witness to appear in support of a bill to put Texas auto insurance rates on flexible rates based on driving experience. Insurance rates now have rigid rates with all drivers paying the same rates.

The bill went to a House Insurance subcommittee with no instructions.

Lemmon said that Texas' one-rate system costs drivers as much as $50 a year more than drivers in four surrounding states which have flexible rates.

Several committee members sharply questioned the comparison. They said the comparison failed to consider dividends that are paid by some Texas firms now.

The hearing began last Tuesday, then was continued yesterday afternoon and last night.

Captives Freed As Kidnaper Nabbed

By HERB LITTLE

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—A 29-year-old mother and her three children, pawns in an ex-convict's mad scheme against a former cellmate, were rescued by state police after being held captive for 20 hours.

Richard A. Payne, 23, surrendered late Thursday afternoon at a roadblock near Logan, 70 miles south of here, after firing two shots at trailing police. He had planned to use Mrs. John Baldwin and her children as a wedge to force the release of Burton Junior Post from the state penitentiary.

Payne had vowed vengeance—and death — on Post and threatened torture and death to his hostages if his demands were not met. The men were cellmates for 17 months of Payne's seven years in prison.

Payne was released from prison eight days ago. Today, the sallow, heavy-lidded young man faces kidnaping charges. He was held at Kanawha County Jail.

In jail, Payne stuck to his story of why he kidnaped the 29-year-old mother and her children from their home in nearby South Charleston Wednesday night.

He said he wanted them as hostages to force the release of his one-time cellmate, Burton Junior Post, 31, from the penitentiary so that he could kill Post.

Payne said he had planned the kidnaping for about two weeks but didn't select the Baldwins as his victims until he went to their home—three doors away from his house—and gained admittance on the pretext of wanting to use the telephone.

"I regret only that I was caught before I got Post," Payne said.

"I was going to get his head and sort of preserve it. He's an enemy of my existence, and I hate him." He described his feeling toward Post as "hatred at first sight."

Payne gave that motive for the kidnaping in a weird note addressed to Gov. Cecil H. underwood of West Virginia. The note threatened torture and death to the children if Payne's demand for Post's release was not met.

Department Store Sales Gain Again

DALLAS (AP)—Sales of reporting Texas department stores increased 12 per cent in the week ended March 14, the Federal Reserve Bank said today. San Antonio led gains over the previous week by 29 per cent. Dallas sales were up 26 per cent, Fort Worth 23 and El Paso 8. Houston sales were down 8 per cent.

Net Income Down

NEW YORK (AP) — Standard Oil Co. of Indiana reported today that 1958 net income slipped to $117,775,022 from $151,509,025 a year earlier.

Flight Record Seeker Over Atlantic Ocean

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Bill Mullen, 34, attempting a record flight, was out over the North Atlantic in his light plane today and everything "looks wonderful," a local backer said.

Joel Cummings, owner of a private flight service here, said Mullen was ahead of schedule and would have landed at Newfoundland if there was any doubt at all that he could reach Rome.

Mullen took off from here Thursday at 6:35 a.m. He hoped to reach Rome shortly after noon today.

Occupancy Rate Is High At Hospital

Cogdell Memorial Hospital averaged 84 per cent occupancy during February, Bill Newsom, hospital superintendent, reported to the county hospital board in its monthly meeting last night.

That is a high rate of occupancy, Newsom said, explaining that any average over 75 per cent is considered crowded, since it leaves little room to take care of daily turnover and makes handling of isolation cases difficult.

The hospital had 238 adult admissions and 32 newborns during the month. There was a total of 1,266 patient days.

Newsom reported to the board that he had been to Odessa to confer with Leonard Crockett, architect for the county on the two-story addition to be constructed at the hospital.

Plans have been approved by the Dallas office of the State Health Department and are soon to be reviewed by the department's Austin office. Mechanical drawings have already begun in anticipation of complete approval, Newsom said, adding that any changes from this point on will be minor.

Crockett probably will have finished drawings ready for review by the hospital board and commissioners court sometime in May. If they are approved at that time, the county will be ready to call for bids on the project.

Mrs. Goebel Dies Thursday

Mrs. Annie Goebel, Route 1, Hermleigh, died at 7:50 p.m. yesterday in Simmons Memorial Hospital at Sweetwater.

Mrs. Goebel, 69, was a longtime resident of Scurry County, having come here with her parents in 1909. She was born Nov. 11, 1889, in Moulton. She was married to Arthur Goebel by the Rev. C. E. Leslie at Hermleigh Feb. 5, 1920. Mr. Goebel died Oct. 20, 1938. Two of Mrs. Goebel's sons, Jimmy Goebel and Victor Goebel, were killed in action during World War II.

Funeral mass will be at 9 a.m. tomorrow at St. John's Catholic Church in Hermleigh, with the Rev. W. Riechel, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Hermleigh Cemetery under direction of Bolger Funeral Home. Rosary will be read at Bolger chapel at 6:30 o'clock tonight.

Pallbearers will be Walton McMillan, Leo Nachlinger, Frank Nachlinger, John Roemisch, John Bartels, and Elbert Kuss, Jr.

Survivors include one son, Roy Goebel of Hermleigh; two brothers, John Zalman and Frank Zalman, both of Hermleigh; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Saltisek of Moulton and Mrs. Mellie Darislek of Moulton; and four grandsons.

Nab Burglars In Grocery

FORT WORTH (AP) — Police and Tarrant County officers trapped and fired at two burglars inside a west side grocery early today and arrested four more persons in what appeared to be a burglary ring.

City detective H. L. Stephenson and police Sgt. Phil Coker were suspended indefinitely a short time after the arrests.

The suspensions were ordered "in view of the information we have," Police Chief Cato Hightower said.

Stephenson denied any knowledge of the affair, and said he had "never made any deal" with burglars. Coker did not comment.

Police said they discovered two men inside Chicotsky's Grocery. The two were identified as David Curtis Sampson, 24, of Denison, and Ollie Chester Wilson, 26, of Austin.

Depletion Allowance Curbs Shelved

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Urgent Treasury appeals for a clampdown on expanding income tax benefits for the oil, gas and mining industries appear to have been quietly shelved in the House.

The Treasury, contending hundreds in tax revenues may be lost if the trend continues, has asked tightening of the laws prescribing methods of computing percentage depletion allowances for income tax purposes.

Recent court rulings have held in some cases that the depletion tax benefits could be computed on the value of the finished product, rather than on the value of the basic minerals involved. This would permit a much greater tax deduction, which the Treasury seeks to halt.

But members of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee say privately that for all practical purposes they consider the Treasury's recommendations dead for this session—possibly for good.

They said the Treasury's proposals are indefinite and would hopelessly upset long-standing practices, invite endless litigation, go too far, or ignore the larger problem of how big a tax break the various segments of the mining and drilling industry should enjoy.

Key committee members, however, say they expect a review will be made of the whole matter of percentage depletion whenthe committee starts a study of general tax law revision later this session.

Depletion allowances granted mineral producers and the oil and gas industry have been a political hot potato for years.

The law now allows producers to deduct from taxes a percentage of their income as compensation for the depletion of their mines and wells.

Congressmen from oil and mining states contend this is only fair to offset the declining reserves in the mines and wells. Opponents criticize the allowances as tax loopholes and have demanded without success that they be eliminated.

The percentage depletion allowances range from 27½ per cent of gross income in the case of oil and gas down to 5 per cent on a wide variety of minerals like clay, stone and slag.

The effect of the recent court decisions is to permit the tax allowance to be taken on income from sale of finished building brick rather than the clay from which they are processed, on bagged cement rather than limestone, or ceramic products rather than refractory clay.

In a case involving the oil and gas industry, a District Court has permitted a company to deduct a percentage of income derived from expensive petroleum products produced from natural gas, rather than on the lesser value of the gas itself.

Secretary of the Treasury Robert Anderson of Texas says he does not consider "depletion on such an inflated scale is either reasonable or was intended." If permitted to continue, he said, "the revenue losses will be serious indeed."

Anderson has asked, but now seems unlikely to get, a revision of the law redefining mining and establishing a manufacturing cutoff point beyond which depletion allowances may not be taken.

Deductions Can Help Reduce Your Income Tax Payments

Editor's note—Deductions—and how to calculate them—has mystified many a taxpayer pushing against the April 15 income tax deadline. This last of five articles on the income tax gives you some helpful hints on how to claim what's coming to you.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — You'll save money on your 1958 income tax return if you can claim enough deductions. And some people can reduce their tax by subtracting for things like sick pay and dividend credits.

If you were home ill only seven days or less, the pay you get is taxable. You can't exclude it. If you were home sic more than seven days, you can exclude for every day thereafter up to $100 a week.

If you were laid up at home because of injury, or were hospitalized for as little as one day, you can start excluding your sick pay from the first day of absence, without waiting out the seven-day period that applies to illness alone.

Sick pay, technically, is an exclusion, not a deduction. You claim it on line six, page one, Form 1040. You can't claim it on 1040a. For further information, check page seven of the Internal Revenue Service instruction sheet.

Remember: You can deduct the first $50 of dividends from stock you own in domestic corporations. You can deduct $100 if your wife owns the stock jointly with the and files a joint return with you.

If you're using form 1040, you do the deducting on page 3, schedule A. If you are using from 1040A, just deduct on scrap paper and report what's left on line 6.

Then there's the thing called dividend credits. You can deduct 4 per cent of what's left of your dividends — after subtracting the $50 just mentioned—on page four, schedule J. Form 1040.

Then deduct that 4 per cent—that you arrived at on schedule J—from tax on page one of Form 1040. You can't use this dividend credit benefit on Form 1040A. There's no place for it there.

There's something else if you're retired and on pension or annuties. Retired people get back, tax free, the amount they paid toward pension or annuity plans while working. For more on this see page 12 of the instruction sheet.

Now for the so-called regular deductions:

Everyone filing a return gets a deduction of about 10 per cent from his income for personal expenses—up to a limit of $1,000 for a single person or a couple filing jointly — without itemizing and whether your deductible items ran that much. The limit for a couple filing separately is $500 each.

If your deductible expenses were more than 10 per cent, than itemize, and thus claim all you're entitled to.

When you itemize you figure your own tax with the help of one of the three rate schedules—page 15 of the instruction sheet—which applies to you. When you itemize you must use Form 1040. You can't use 1040A.

You can deduct interest:

On your house mortgage; a life insurance policey if you pay the interest in cash; delinquent taxes; your personal note to a bank or individual; or on personal property like automobiles and radios bought on the installment plan.

You can deduct: state income taxes, personal property taxes, real estate taxes, state gasoline taxes, auto license and registration fees (but not auto inspection fees except as a business expense where the auto is used to produce income), poll taxes, and most retail sales taxes.

(You can not deduct such taxes as these: federal social security payments by you as a worker, federal income taxes, estate and gift taxes, state inheritance taxes refuse collection taxes, fishing and hunting license fees, dog licenses, federal gasoline taxes, federal excise taxes on your personal expenditures for theater tickets, furs, jewelry, luggage, telephones, air, rail or bus tickets.)

You can deduct for contributions to:

Organizations set up for purposes that are charitable, religious, educational, scientific, or literary. Examples: Community Chest, Salvation Army, churches, Red Cross, cancer associations, tuberculosis societies, gifts but not dues to YMCA, YMHA, YWCA, YWHA, American Legion, societies for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals.

Contributions generally may not exceed 20 per cent of your income but 30 per cent is allowed if one-third of your contributions were to churches and to tax-exempt hospitals and educational institutions.

Medical expenses:

You can claim them only by itemizing on Form 1040 and only that much of your medical expenses that is more than three per cent of your adjusted gross income. You arrive at your adjusted gross income on line 11, page 1, Form 1040. If you or your wife were 65 or over the 3½ per cent limit does not apply. For further details, see page 9 of your Form 1040 instruction sheet.

Casualty losses and theft:

You can deduct the net amount of actual property loss from accident, fire, storm, or theft. These may be business or nonbusiness losses. For more details see page 10 of the instruction sheet.

Care of children and certain other dependents:

You can deduct up to $600—if you are widowed, divorced or legally separated—for money spent to care for dependents who are under 12 or are physically or mentally unable to care for themselves. Under certain circumstances a working wife can claim this deduction — as outlined on page 10 of your Form 1040 instruction sheet.

This care must be necessary to allow you, the taxpayer, to hold a job or seek one.

Education:

You can deduct expenses for your education but only if it was to help you improve or keep up with the skills in your job. You can't deduct if the education was to help you get a better job or for personal purposes.

Miscellaneous:

You may deduct for union dues, dues in professional societies, alimony payments by the person making them, fees to employment agencies, club dues if they're necessary for business purposes; books or newspapers purchased wholly for use in your profession.

If you have any doubts about deductions examine your instruction sheet or consult your nearest Internal Revenue Service office.

WHAT IS BEYOND THE GRAVE?

"I don't want to die and go to hell," said a husky young sailor who lingered at a church after the worship service.

He told the pastor how he ran away to sea as an overgrown fifteen-year-old, and had, during World War II, sailed on freighters through mine-infested waters. He said: "Preacher, I've never been in jail, though I've done things I should not have done. I never worried much about it until recently. In the last few months I've dreamed several times that our ship was shipwrecked and that I was drowned in the ocean; and preacher, I know that if I die like I am, I'll go to hell. I don't want to die and go to hell."

In those unforgettable words; "I don't want to die and go to hell," the sailor voiced his conviction that there is a life beyond the grave and that choices in life determine fate in death. He believed that unrepenting sinners would spend eternity in hell, and that godly believers would know the joys of an eternal abode in heaven. The Bible says: "The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Romans 6:23). Two things lie beyond the grave—eternal death and life everlasting.

The death beyond the grave of which the Bible speaks is a living death where "the fire is not quenched" (Mark 9:44). It is the inevitable end of the rebellious soul, an "everlasting punishment" (Matthew 25:46) that the unbelieving bring upon themselves.

The life beyond the grave is "everlasting life" (John 3:16). It is the place of perfect knowledge. "For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face" (1 Corinthians 13:12). It is a place of perfect peace, for "God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain" (Revelation 21:4).

What lies beyond the grave for you? It depends on what you do with Christ. He said, "He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life" (John 5:24).

Baptists preach Christ and him crucified, as the one and only way—the complete and adequate way to heaven. Right now, you can turn from all known sin and trust Christ as your personal Saviour. If you will do this God will give you his free gift of eternal life. You can't have it any other way.

OUR VIEW

Benson's Hasty Reasoning

Cattle rustling is not an extinct profession, according to recent reports, although the thieves use modern equipment nowadays.

There was even a report the other day that a cattle rustler had fled all the way to South America to avoid capture. This would indicate that the opinion most people hold for cattle rustlers has remained unchanged through the years, especially in the cattle country.

This brings us to some comments by Norman Moser of DeKalb, who is president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association. Mr. Moser is miffed at the Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra Taft Benson (he had plenty of company at last reports) because the Department of Agriculture is asking that the brand inspection service at livestock auction markets be discontinued.

The TSCRA has checked brands at posted markets to locate lost or stolen cattle for its members since 1892, and by authority of the Secretary of Agriculture for all cattlemen in the state since 1941.

Mr. Moser says the cattle owners themselves pay the fees for the service, and the TSCRA charges a smaller fee than any other Western state.

Sec. Benson reportedly reasoned that not enough cattle are branded these days to justify the checking service.

Mr. Moser counters with the disclosure that about 5,000 cattle brands have been registered in Texas during the past year.

Sec. Benson may have "reasoned" too hastily again. There are those who believe he has had adequate practice at hasty and ill-advised action.

Ike's Restraint Is Paying Off Again

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — History may show President Eisenhower's greatest contribution to the presidency was his restraint in time of danger and critical stress. Apparently, it has just paid off again.

In a week's time there has been a definite relaxing of tension over Berlin.

Eisenhower has shown restraint a number of times when, through emotionalism or aggressiveness, he could have precipitated unpredictable events, including war.

When the British, French and Israelis invaded Egypt in 1956—and the Soviet Union threatened retaliation that would have meant world war — Eisenhower cracked down on the Allies to stop and get out. They did.

The Red Chinese—bent on destroying Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Chinese on Formosa—at various times have bombarded the offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

Eisenhower could have resorted to extreme steps.

He could have ordered American planes to bombard the Chinese mainland.

This would have been a good bet to bring on a war with Red China's ally, the U.S.S.R. Instead, Eisenhower used less drastic means to bolster the defense of the islands and sweat out the Red attacks until the Communists quieted down.

The same was true in Indochina when North Viet Nam was falling to rebel forces of Communist Ho Chi-minh and the French colonial masters of Indochina were disintegrating.

Eisenhower could have sent in American planes to bail out the French and smash the Communists. This could have meant war with Red China. Eisenhower didn't.

True, half of Viet Nam was lost to the Reds. But the rest of the country, freed of the French, began for the first time to have a democratic government of its own.

It can be argued that Eisenhower's restraints were a series of negative actions. But Eisenhower, responsible for the leadership not only of this country but of the Western world, used restraint to avoid catastrophes.

There have been other instances, most recently the Berlin crisis created by Premier Nikita Khrushchev who demanded last Nov. 27 that the Allies get their troops out of West Berlin. He appeared to be setting a six-months' deadline for it.

The West assumed he meant by May 27. The West stood firm in refusing to get out, although the Allies eyed each other carefully, wondering if any of them might weaken.

Since November Khrushchev has made puzzling statements, some belligerent, such as warning the West it faced war with the Soviet Union if the Allies, refusing to pull out their troops, attempted to force supplies through Communist East Germany to their Berlin garrisons.

At a couple of news conferences Eisenhower sounded a little heated talking of Khrushchev and his Berlin demands. He even indicated that any Soviet attempt to throw out the Allies might mean nuclear war.

And he poked hard at Khrushchev, who kept insisting on a summit conference to settle things, that such a conference was useless until the Soviet leader began showing more signs of willingness to negotiate.

Foreign Aid Fund Is Mismanaged

By Omar Burleson, M. C.
17th District Texas

WASHINGTON, D. C. — THE SUBCOMMITTEE FOR Review of the Mutual Security Programs, (commonly known as Foreign Aid), of which I am a member, has issued a interim report revealing startling mismanagement on both the part of our own Government and governments we are supposed to be helping.

SINCE SOON AFTER THE END of the so-called Marshall Plan, I have been voting against Foreign Aid. My opposition is not that of an isolationist by any means. Rather, it is because of the scope and operation of programs launched in over-ambition.

THE REPORT OF OUR COMMITTEE will show that the Executive Department has come to Congress year after year with a system known as "illustrative programs." This simply means that they believe certain things can be accomplished in certain foreign nations by the appropriation of a certain number of dollars. After the money is appropriated, they then send the experts to the countries to be aided for the purpose of planning projects to fit the money.

IT SEEMINGLY BECOMES THE DUTY of the "experts" to figure out projects which will cost the amount of money appropriated. In many instances the Congress has appropriated too much money, and projects are overplanned. Obviously it results in a waste of the taxpayers' money, as well as placing a burden on the economy of the country to be benefitted. Our Subcommittee has found that in numerous instances officials of certain foreign countries were not interested in carrying forward the proposals of our own Government, but as is often the case in our own Country, evidently they felt that they would take whatever they could get, and as much of it as possible.

AS AN EXAMPLE OF SOME OF THE THINGS found by our Committee, funds were appropriated in 1952, with additional amounts being appropriated in succeeding years, for a sawmill in Pakistan which has not yet been started and, in fact, the engineering is incomplete. The sum of $611,500 has been obligated for the purpose. There is still no proof that it is a practical operation.

MANY EXPENDITURES AROUND THE WORLD have been made under pressure of "doing something." In many instances, "doing something" has been worse than "doing nothing." We have tried to "do something" to stem the tide against Communist influence, but we have now become a sort of victim of blackmail by many countries. They tell us that unless we continue to pour out our dollars they may yield to Communist influence. This is becoming an old story.

THERE IS NEED FOR world cooperation against the influence of Soviet Russia. We can not sit still and assume that all people around the world are going to love us, but on the other hand we can not buy their loyalty and respect. Our failures, in my considered opinion, result from our not understanding the needs and aspirations of other people, as well as failing to have them understand us. This can not be accomplished by dollars alone and, in fact, in some instances it has been our handicap.

BY OUR FOREIGN AID we have created jealousies among nations. By our lavishness, we have created a feeling of obligation on the part of many nations, which is never conducive to friendship and understanding.

ALL OUR EFFORTS IN THIS RESPECT have not been failures. There are visible successes, and strangely enough, some of the greatest successes have been in those places where our expenditures were most modest.

Dick Zanuck Past First Big Hurdle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—It isn't easy to follow in the footsteps of a famous father.

But at 24, Richard Zanuck has taken his first big stride.

His dad, Darryl F. Znuck, has supervised more than 1,000 films, three times won the Irving Thalberg award. Young Zanuck, vice president of his father's independent company, has just finished producing his first picture.

Dick, a short athletic man whose neat mustache makes him look younger than his years, is aware of both the perils and privileges of his name.

"I realize the chances of my doing what I'm doing now would be a lot smaller if I weren't the son of Darryl Zanuck," he said.

"But I haven't experienced any resentment on the part of others. There would be if I abused the opportunities, or if didn't do a good job."

Dick is reasonably sure he did do a good job in his initial venture as a producer. He brought the picture in at $1,250,000 — some 100,000 under budget—and shot it in 27 days, five under schedule.

"It was an enthusiastic group, down to the last man," he said.

Dick isn't a bit bashful about admitting he sought the elder Zanuck's help.

Dick has worked in every branch of the movie industry.

"I can't remember ever wanting to be in any other field," he said.

"I was raised around the studio and started selling newspapers there when I was 8. I also worked on the labor gang, in the story department, and in the advertising department."

Dick expects to stick to the producer's role, and has no present desire to direct.

Young Zanuck is strongly optimistic of filmdom's future, feels certain the advent of pay television will boom it tremendously.

"There is a lot of gloom in the industry," he said. "It is sad to see, but I don't know what it is all about. There is too much fear.

"Pictures today — the big pictures—are turning in the biggest grosses in history. The biggest need of the industry is to make more pictures for the present audience—which is the younger generation.

"Seventy-five per cent of movie fans are under 21. A lot of people lose sight of that."

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

THE FELLOW WHO WAS scheduled to toe the rubber for the Monterey Plainsmen in today's game with the Tiger baseballers at Towle Park, is one of the state's outstanding footballers.

Arlan Flake, big right hander, was an all-state choice for the Plainsmen in football last fall and was named on the second team All-America Prep team.

The latter was polled by Mose Sims, representing the Wigwam Wisemen of America of Oklahoma City. It's the same poll that the Tigers' Mickey McGrew and Richard Mahan were named on the Honorable Mention list.

Sims picked seven teams from the nation's 48 states who play high school football in addition to the Honorable Mention list.

Flake was one of seven Texans named on the first seven teams. Johnny Gennung, Wichita Falls halfback, was the only Texan on the first team while Flake and end Carl Choate of Pasadena were the second team choices from the Lone Star State.

Pat Culpepper of Cleburne, at fullback, was named on the third team. Other Texans named were Charles Huddleston of Breckenridge, and Mike Gieb of Garland, both tackles, on the sixth team; and fullback Douglas Harvey of Kingsville on the seventh team.

Flake is quite a pitcher in the diamond sport, too. He is the ace of the Plainsman staff.

Monterey, incidentally, has been tabbed the District 3-AAAA favorite in baseball this spring by the coaches and sports writers of the district.

Florida Weathermen 'Fouling' Up

Unless the Chamber of Commerce managers in the state of Florida "get on the ball," they're apt to lose some of the major league teams who pitch spring training camp in their state every year.

Rain has canceled all exhibition games scheduled in Florida the past five days. It seems the CC managers and the weathermen in Florida are at "odds."

At any rate, the situation is getting the major league brass a little worried. Unless the rain lets up pretty quick, the majors will have to start from scratch again in their conditioning program when and if it does let up.

sports add buckin the line Jo

Two teams, in fact, the Dodgers and Redlegs, will play in Havana this weekend to get away from the rain. The Reds and Dodgers were originally scheduled to play in Tampa, Fla.

Arizona is offering quite a bit of competition for the services of the major league teams in the spring. Already four teams have switched their training camps from Florida to Arizona.

The rains this year in Florida may run a few more off when spring camps are arranged for 1960.

Canyon Reef Tops In 4 Events

Te Canyon Reef Relays currently furnishes four best times and distances in West Texas track circles this spring.

And, of course, Spencer Johnson's discus throw is tops in the state and possibly in the nation. The Amarillo Tascosa lad hurled the discus a tremendous 181 feet 8¼ inches here last week.

Other West Texas firsts owned by the Canyon Reef Relays are R. L. Laster of Big Spring in the 220 with 21.4; Marshall McCrummen of Lubbock Monterey in the broad jump with a leap of 22 feet 8¼ inches; and Charles Giesey of Midland in the high jump with 6-3¼.

Two other West Texas firsts are held by fellows who competed here. Don Box of Borger holds the best time in not only West Texas but the state as well in the 880-yard run with 2:00.0. In the Canyon Reef Relays, the high winds slowed Box to 2:06 in the half-mile.

Emory Martindale of San Angelo holds the top distance in the shot put with a toss of 57-4 ¾. Martindale won the shot put here with a put of 56-11¼, or about five inches shy of his best mark.

Town and Country Bowl will be buzzing with activity Sunday afternoon. The local lanes will host the West Texas Traveling League. Eight West Texas teams are in the league. The league bowls once a month with the site being on a rotation basis.

In Jimmie Guy the Snyder entry has the top individual bowler for the season. Guy has averaged 189 pins over the season which is high in the league.

St. John's, Bradley To NIT Finals

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Bradley was made the early favorite today to beat St. Johns of New York in their Saturday afternoon championship game of the National Invitational Basketball Tournament.

The top-seeded Braves, fourth ranked nationally, and the New York Redmen reached the final by whipping NYU and Providence, respectively, in Thursday night's semifinals before a sellout 18,496 at Madison Square Garden.

Bradley blew a 10-point lead in the second half, but pulled out a 59-57 squeaker over NYU. St. Johns routed Providence, the cinderella team of the tourney, 76-55.

Bradley holds a regular season 71-66 victory over St. Johns and it is primarily on this basis that the Braves are favored to repeat their 1957 victory in the NIT final.

As Chuck Orsborn, Bradley coach, put it "We know what St. Johns is all about."

Joe Lapchick, St. Johns coach, declared "Bradley looks like a giant." Bobby Joe Mason and Joe Billy McDade helped the Braves win the 1957 net title and this is another factor in making Bradley the choice.

NYU fought from behind all the way after Bradley got off to a quick 9-0 lead. Mike Owens was high for Bradley with 16 points, but it was McDade's good defensive job on NYU's Tom Sanders that drew praise from Orsborn. "That hook shot of his that broke the tie was a thing of beauty." Altogether McDade finished with 10 points, nine rebounds and two assists. Russ Cunningham wound up with 18 points, 15 in the last half.

Providence made a gallant stand in the first half, rallying to take the lead twice at 16-15 and 18-17 and to tie twice at 20-20 and 22-22, but then the witching hour struck. A free throw and basket by Dick Engert broke the tie. Providence never threatened again.

Big Lou Roethel, with 22 points sparked St. Johns. Lennie Wilkens starred for Providence with 17 points.

The Bradley-St. Johns game will be nationally televised (NBC). NYU and Providence will play for third place.

TIGER MUSCLEMEN—Pictured are the two Tigers who'll represent the Black and Gold in the shot put event at the 1st annual San Angelo Relays today and Saturday. Ready to heave the 12-pound ball is sophomore Tommy Minton while Mickey McGrew looks on. Both have been tossing the iron ball between 45 and 50 feet. (Lee Watson photograph)

Tiger Thinlies To San Angelo Today

With sprinter John Weaver back in action, the Tiger tracksters have high hopes of making a serious bid for the San Angelo Relays title today and tomorrow.

The Tiger thinlies left early this morning for the Angelo meet. Preliminaries were slated to get underway at 1:30 p.m. today.

The finals will start 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

One final event in the High School Division will be held today. The 880-relay finals in the schoolboy division will be unreeled late today.

Weaver, sophomore speedster, missed last week's Canyon Reef Relays with muscle spasms in his leg he suffered at the Border Olympics at Laredo two weeks ago.

Weaver anchors both the Tiger 880 and 440-yard relays. The Tigers set a new Canyon Reef record in the 880-relay last week with Weaver out. Jesse Crawford filled in for Weaver in the half-mile relay last week.

Crawford and Jimmy Maroney will be the busiest Tigers at the Angelo meet. The sophomore sprinter will enter the 100-yard dash, 180-yard low hurdles, run a leg on the 440-yard relay team and will compete in the broad jump.

Maroney will run legs on both the 440 and 880-yard relays and will enter the 100-yard dash and broad jump.

Stanley Woolever, one of the top favorites to capture the hurdles titles, will compete in three events. Woolever will enter both hurdle events, the 120 highs and 180 lows, and will run a leg on the 880 relay.

Weaver, Richard Mahan and Wayne Berry will each enter in two events. Weaver and Mahan's activity will be limited to the 440 and 880 relays, while Berry will compete in the 120-yard high hurdles and will run a leg on the mile relay team.

Other Tiger entries in the San Angelo meet will be Perry Culwell in the pole vault; Tommy Minton in the shot put; Jimmy McFarland in the mile run; Larry Patterson in the mile relay; Ronnie Giles in the discus; Mickey McGrew in the shot put; Alex Cross in the mile relay; and Bo Brown in the mile relay.

Tigers Rated 'Darkhorse' In Angelo

SAN ANGELO (AP)—Spotlighting a team duel between Texas and Abilene Christian College, the first San Angelo Relays open today.

A dozen high schools were scheduled for preliminaries with the big show coming tomorrow when Texas, Abilene Christian, SMU and Texas Tech battle it out in the university division.

Abilene, winner of both the Border Olympics and Southwestern Recreation Meet, is a heavy choice for the high school championship. San Angelo, with its mighty weightmen, Emery Martindale and Ken Henson, and Snyder, strong with its hurdler Stan Woolever leading the way, offer the major opposition.

Texas edged Abilene Christian in the Southwestern Recreation meet last week, mainly because ACC had to withdraw from the mile relay when a top runner, Frank Taylor, was injured. Taylor still won't be able to run this week.

If Eddie Southern, the Texas sprint star, enters the 100-yard dash it will furnish an individual duel to feature the meet. Bill Woodhouse of Abilene Christian ran a 9.3 last week.

Hollis Gainey and Ralph Alspaugh of Texas also will run the 100. Southern has said he will compete if the weather is favorable.

Don Stewart, the NCAA high jump champion, and a mile relay team are the strong points of SMU. Stewart already has leaped 6 feet 8¾ inches this season. SMU's mile relay team looks almost as good as the Southern-sparked Texas quartet which has turned in a 3:13.4.

Tiger 9 Faces Monterey At 4

The Tiger baseballers went after their first victory of the season today at Towle Park where the Bengals were scheduled to do battle with the Monterey Plainsmen of Lubbock.

Game time was set for 4 p.m.

Norman Gladson, junior right hander, was Coach Speedy Moffett's choice to open on the mound for the Tigers. Gladson, plagued with ill luck so far this season, has been charged with three of the Tigers' four losses to date.

Monterey, with its best baseball prospects in the school's history, date. The Plainsmen hold wins over Odessa Ector, 12-9; Odessa 6-2 and 5-2; Levelland 8-2 and 8-2; and Midland 6-2. The lone loss was a 4-3 decision to Midland.

Today's game will open a busy weekend series for the Tiger nine. The Bengals go to Lubbock tomorrow for a doubleheader against the Tom S. Westerners, beginning at 2 p.m.

MONTEREY

The Tigers have dropped four straight games to date, 7-6 and 8-0 to Big Spring, 7-6 to San Angelo, and 8-0 to Abilene.

Sime, Morrow Meet For 4th Time Saturday

ODESSA, Tex. (AP)—Another duel between Dave Sime and Bobby Morrow, a couple of those "world's fastest humans," furnished all the talk today as the West Texas Relays opened with 700 schoolboys in action.

The high school preliminaries, with 52 schools competing, are due to produce some records, particularly in the field events where Spencer Johnson of Amarillo Tascosa, Charley Giesey of Midland and Marshall McCrummen of Lubbock Monterey are in the limelight.

But tomorrow's when Sime, the Duke red-head, and Morrow, the Olympic sprint champion from Abilene Christian College, have at it for the fourth time. Sime, holder of the world's record in the 220-yard dash at 20.0 and co-holder along with Morrow and five others of the world's 100-yard record at 9.3, is one up on the Abilene Christian great.

Twice Sime beat Morrow in the 100 and once Morrow beat Sime in the 100 meters.

With Glenn Davis, the Ohio State hurdles and quarter-mile king, as competition plus four other Texas sprint stars, Sime and Morrow clash tomorrow afternoon in the 100 at 1:55 p.m.

It's a special race since both are ineligible for further college competition. Davis, however, is still a collegian and will not only run 100 and 220 special races but compete for his team in the mile and sprint medley relays in the relays proper.

Sime may not run in the 220, which comes two hours after the 100, explaining that he isn't in top condition. But Davis and John Spencer, Jimmy Weaver and John Cotten of North Texas and Ollan Cassell of Houston will be in it.

Ohio State, Duke, Houston, Baylor and North Texas make up the field for the university class of the relays. The college division has East Texas, Howard Payne, Hardin-Simmons, McMurry, Sul Ross and Texas Western, with East Texas defending champion.

The collegians see first action tomorrow morning in some preliminaries and field event finals. Finals in all classes are scheduled tomorrow afternoon.

Andrews and Midland are expected to fight it out for the high school championship but competition should be strong from Tascosa and Odessa.

Houston is a mild favorite in the university class and East Texas is expected to again win the college division title.

A golf tournament also starts today with Texas Tech, defending champion in the college-university class, entering two teams. Hardin-Simmons, McMurry and Abilene Christian are other entries.

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP)—The race for the championship in the National Junior College basketball tournament will be narrowed to two teams tonight.

Henry Ford College of Dearborn, Mich., will play Bethany Lutheran of Mankato, Minn., to determine one of the finalists. Weber of Ogden, Utah, will play Cameron of Lawton, Okla., to decide the other.

Henry Ford and Bethany Lutheran reached the semifinals by defeating Paris, Tex., and Chipola of Marianna, Fla., respectively, Wednesday night.

Cameron defeated San Angelo, Tex., 83-79, and Weber downed Pratt, Kan., 81-66, last night to decide the other semifinal pairing.

Giambra Knocks Out Anderson In Second

Giambra, now of Dallas, has been out of action since last year with an elbow operation.

He landed a flurry of lefts and rights that dropped Anderson for the count in 1:50 of the second round of their scheduled 10 rounder last night.

Holy Week, Revivals, Mission Speaker Set Here

Special Holy Week services, a missionary speaker, and pre-Easter revivals are among highlights on the Snyder area church scene this weekend. Holy Week opens with Palm Sunday and ends with Easter on the following Sunday.

REV. WALTER KORNELSON

Assembly Of God

A missionary who was formerly in Liberia and more recently in Nigeria for the Assemblies of God will be speaker tonight at the First Assembly of God at a special service at 7:30 o'clock.

He is Walter J. Kornelsen, who will tell of experiences and progress of missions in Nigeria. He went in 1950 to Liberia with his family as a vocational volunteer to fly and service missionary planes, completing more than 4,000 flights. He and his wife also established 15 churches, trained national ministers, and supervised a day school. In 1954 he went to an unevangelized section of Ogoja Province, Nigeria, built a mission and helped found a Bible school. Fourteen self-supporting churches were established. He is now pastor of one of the national churches there, on furlough. He formerly did evangelistic work in the Ozarks.

DR. ANTHONY HUNT

Trinity Methodist

Dr. Anthony Hunt, president of Howard County Junior College, will be first speaker in a pre-Easter layman's revival which will be held next Wednesday through Friday at the Trinity Methodist Church. Services will be at 7:30 p.m. each of those days.

Other speakers will be R. L. McMillon of Abilene, life insurance man who is a trustee for the National Association of Life Underwriters, and O. B. Paty, superintendent of the Hermleigh schools.

Dr. Hunt is the son of the late Dr. J. W. Hunt, founder and first president of McMurry College and former pastor of the First Methodist Church here. He is district lay leader for the Big Spring Methodist District. All three men are well-known Methodist laymen. Paty, superintendent at Hermleigh nine years, is past president of the Snyder Shrine Club, the Hermleigh Lions Club, and was first president of the Scurry County Teachers Association.

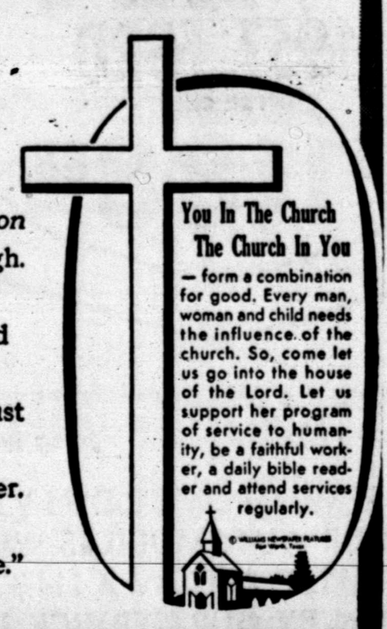
THE LAST SUPPER

What a significant meal for these twelve men! What a privilege to be in such high company! They were chosen to carry on God's work and to help bring in His kingdom. Can we hear him say, as Dr. Gordon did, "I have no other plan, gentlemen, I am depending on you." Imagine the seriousness of the situation. Jesus was through. Tomorrow He would die on the Cross. These twelve imperfect men must carry on. One loved his money, one was afraid, two had unruly tempers, and the others sometimes ran away. But Jesus loved them and needed them as He needs you and me. His kingdom must come on earth. Thus, the Lord has no other plan but to count on you and me. The Last Supper has become a continuing supper. Churches call their members together about their Lord, and administer the ordinance, saying, "this do in remembrance of me."



The Public Spirited Firms and Individuals on this page bring you this weekly message in the hope that it will point to a better way of life and be an inspiration to everyone.

A PRICELESS POSSESSION

(Question) "What has God prepared for those who love him?" (1 Cor. 2:9) (Answer) If we plan wonderful things to bless those we love, we need not be surprised that God does too. "But as it is written, Things which eye saw not, and ear heard not, and which entered not into the heart of man whatsoever things God prepared for them that love him." (1 Cor. 2:9) So many this verse speaks of Heaven. Though such could be said of Heaven, it is more comprehensive. It is God's great wisdom revealed to man. A message so thrilling that it excells man's fondest dreams. It includes the great church of our Lord and the provisions that he makes for his children therein. So precious are the promises of God that several Polish men once determined to commit the Bible to memory for fear it might be taken from their possession and destroyed. Do you have God's word in your heart? Jesus answered Satan with, "It is written." John tells us that the word committed to the heart will keep us from sin. (1 John 3:9) God's word hidden in our hearts will also keep us from falling to temptation. Let us think of God's word, the Bible as some priceless treasure. It will then enrich our lives and usher us finally into Heaven. "Oh how I love thy law! It is my meditation all the day." (Ps. 119:97)
