Allies Await Guarantees Of Envoys' Safe Conduct

Russians Join In Parleys

BERLIN, July 5. (AP) — Four-power talks in Berlin on trade and transport questions resumed today after a two-year lapse.

The Russians sent their occupation economics chief, V. Bashkin, to join with American, British and French officials in British headquarters.

The core of the problem was West Berlin's need for an unhampered flow of imports and exports through the Russian zone which surrounds the city. The Russian interest in discussing the whole subject appeared to Allied officials to be concentrated on stopping illegal smuggling of scarce raw materials from the East into West Berlin.

Meeting with Bashkin were Ray W. Smith, Arthur Stroh and M. S. McKnight of the American High Commission; J. A. M. McEwan, George N. Creasy and W. E. Penfold, for the British, and Armand Dauve of France.

The Russian chief, accompanied by two aides, arrived in a good humor a half hour late.

The Russians Wednesday accepted a week-old invitation from the west to join in the trade discussions. The acceptance came only a few hours after Chinese Communists said they were ready to discuss a Korean cease-fire, and as Soviet officials in one of their rare appearances at a Western function attended United States Maj. Gen. Lemuel Mathewson's Fourth of July reception.

Only the Russians knew why they came back to the Four Power talks after letting West Berlin struggle along in its own way. Western sources had the idea, however, the Soviet zone has been set back considerably by West German trade embargoes and the Communist regime is fearful for the future of its five-year plan.

Eisenhower, right, supreme commander of the Atlantic Pact forces in Europe, greets Winston Churchill with a handshake on meeting Britain's wartime prime minister at a dinner of the English Speaking Union in London. Two Americans Are Expelled From Hungary

BUDAPEST, Hungary, July 5. (AP) — Hungary today ordered two United States diplomats to leave this country within 24 hours, labelling them "persona non grata" (unwelcome persons.)

The note was handed to the United States legation after the United States rejected Hungary's previous demand that three members of the legation be recalled as plotters against this country's Communist government.

The two diplomats involved must cross the Hungarian border into Austria by Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The Hungarian note said that Budapest "considers Legation Secretary Albert Scherer, Jr., and Attache Ruth Tryon persona non grata and demands that they leave the territory of the country within 24 hours upon receipt of the present note." It added that the Hungarian government also "considers undesirable the legation official Mary Eich."

Miss Eich left Budapest last week on home leave. The Hungarian note said Miss Eich, now staying in Vienna, would not be granted entry any more into Hungary.

This is the latest development in the diplomatic clash between U. S. and Hungary following the recent trial of Archbishop Jozsef Froesz, who was sentenced to 15 years in prison as a plotter against the government. The confession of the archbishop, successor to cardinal Mindszenty as head of the Roman Catholic Church in Hungary, mentioned the Americans in Budapest.

The new Hungarian note said that at the archbishop's trial "it had been proved that they (the three Americans) have carried out spying and diversionist activities."

Truman Fights For Stronger Controls

WASHINGTON, July 5. (AP) — President Truman prodded Congress again today to enact the kind of controls legislation he wants.

With the House beginning debate on its measure, Mr. Truman told a news conference he sincerely hopes the House members will come up with a workable bill. He has been sharply critical of the bill the Senate has passed. It would restrict—and possibly prevent — price rollbacks.

Even as Mr. Truman was meeting with newsmen, Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston announced an administration-wide campaign for passage of a strong controls act.

HIGH PRICES FEARED

Johnston said that without a strong act inflation can cost consumers one dollar a day in higher prices.

Johnston said an "education" drive is planned aimed at consumers, business, labor and congress.

He said it would have full White House support.

It will be "disastrous," Johnston declared, unless Congress gives the administration the power to roll back prices.

Mr. Truman said nothing about an "education" campaign at his meeting with reporters, but he told them he would keep putting forward every effort to get a strong controls bill. He said he did not plan any further formal messages to Congress on the subject.

NO BEEF COMPROMISE

Criticism of price rollbacks in Congress has centered chiefly on the 10 per cent rollback already made in beef cattle prices and the additional rollbacks the Office of Price Stabilization has announced it intends to make later.

Mr. Truman was asked if he has been considering a compromise with the cattle raisers on price rollbacks. He replied he never had any such idea.

He said he had wanted to see that the cattlemen had a fair hearing on their objections to beef price rollbacks.

Johnston announced at a news conference his plans for an "education campaign" on price controls.

PRICE BOOSTS SEEN

He said that if Congress passes a final Defense Production Act written on lines of the present 31-day extension it could mean price boosts of five to seven per cent in the next year.

"For the average family this would bring increased costs totaling $360 a year — or a $1 a day for every family in the United States," he said.

Johnston said he was "ready to debate any member of Congress on this issue any time, any place."

The old price control law expired June 30 and Congress passed a temporary law lasting only through July. The idea was to consider, meantime, a longer term measure.

Order To Ban New Gas Users

WASHINGTON, July 5. (AP) —The Petroleum Administration for Defense said today it has drafted a "tentative nation-wide order" to bar installation of new equipment using natural gas for heating homes and other buildings.

Deputy Petroleum Administrator Bruce K. Brown, said the order may be used to limit the consumption of natural gas in order to protect present customers and assure adequate supplies for defense needs.

Brown said the tentative order would bar suppliers after a given date from providing gas to:

1. Any new space-heating customers.

2. Any new large-volume customers without approval by PAD.

Brown said the space-heating (room-heating) limitation would forbid new gas installations or conversions in homes.

Little Damage Results From Fire at Grocery

The fire department last night answered its first fire call of the month when firemen handled a small emergency at the D&R Food Store at 2518 Avenue R.

Slight damage resulted from an electrical short circuit in a refrigerator motor shortly after midnight. Firemen arrived in time to prevent a fire starting from the smoking motor.

Children Die Aboard Boat In East Germany

BERLIN, July 5. (AP)—A ship carrying at least 120 children exploded in the Spree River behind East Berlin's Iron Curtain today. Many may have been killed and injured, but Communist "people's police" pushed aside all inquiries about casualties.

Rumors reaching West Berlin said dozens of the children were killed. Residents of the area said at least 60 children were treated for cuts and burns.

The ship blew up this morning, not far from the Soviet Memorial Park in Treptow. Communist police kept crowds from getting near the area.

All the Communist police would say was that there had been 120 children aboard the excursion boat when its boiler exploded, and that the children were from an East Berlin "people's school."

Worried mothers massed at the Treptow railroad station, as close as police permitted anyone.

West Berlin police said that upon hearing about the explosion, they offered aid, but the Communists refused it. The Spree is narrow and shallow at that point.

Thundershowers Cool Three West Texas Areas

By The Associated Press

It was just like the Fourth of July in Texas again today — hot and sunny.

The only cooling rains during the night were at El Paso, which got .95 of an inch, Marfa with .24 and Salt Flat with .16.

The Weather Bureau said scattered thundershowers were expected in the northwest part of East Texas tonight and Friday and throughout West Texas this afternoon and evening.

Truman, Vinson Warn Against Relaxing U.S. Defense Program

WASHINGTON, July 5. (AP)—A grim-faced President Truman said Wednesday night it still is too early to tell whether the Communists mean business about calling off the war in Korea.

And even if they do, he warned in a Fourth of July address punctuated by bursting firecrackers, "we cannot ignore the danger of military outbreaks in other parts of the world."

Leading the nation's celebration of the 175th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, Mr. Truman joined Chief Justice Fred Vinson and Defense Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson in broadcasting this message to the American people:

We dare not relax.

THREAT REMAINS

Said the President, standing alone on a wide platform before a restive crowd of around 200,000, with the floodlit Washington Monument rising ghostlike in the distance:

"The greatest threat to world peace, the tremendous armed power of the Soviet Union, will still remain even if the Korean fighting stops.

"We have the hard task of increasing production and controlling inflation in order to support the strong armed forces we must have for years to come."

Across the land, more than 10,000 communities — notably Philadelphia, birthplace of American independence — rededicated themselves to the ideals of 1776.

COMPLACENCY HIT

The Truman aministration used the holiday to hit hard its campaign against complacency.

Vinson, broadcasting from the Supreme Court building, declared that "the relaxing of our preparedness program — a little or more than a little — could have dire consequences."

His was an unusual address, since Supreme Court justices almost never speak publicly on issues affecting current legislation. The whole program of controls and defense spending is before congress now.

Defense mobilizer Wilson followed through, saying in his quarterly report to the President that the three-year defense program "must and will continue." He said it must be bolstered with vigorous price control, price rollbacks and stiff taxes.

ROAD IS OPEN

In his speech, the President said "it may be" that the Communists have decided to give up their aggression in Korea.

"If that is true," he said, "the road to a peaceful settlement of the Korean conflict is open.

"But we cannot yet be sure that the Communist rulers have any such intention. It is still too early to say what they have in mind.

"I do not wish to speculate on the outcome of any meetings Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway may have with the commanders on the other side.

"I hope these meetings will be successful.

"If they are not, it will be because the Communists do not really want peace.

"Meanwhile, let us keep our heads, and be vigilant and ready for whatever may come."

U. N. FORCES PRAISED

The Chief Executive praised the U. N. fighting force in Korea as "the most magnificent army on the face of the globe today," and he addressed this Independence Day message to them:

"You will go down in history as the first army to fight under the flag of a world organization in the defense of human freedom. You have fought well, and without reproach. You have enslaved no free man, you have destroyed no free nation, you are guiltless of any country's blood.

"Victory may be in your hands, but you are winning a greater thing than military victory, for you are vindicating the idea of freedom under international law. This is an achievement that serves all mankind, for it has brought all men closer to their goal of peace."

World Court Tells Iran And Britain to Avoid Hostile Act

THE HAGUE, The Netherlands, July 5. (AP) — The International Court of Justice announced today it is proposing provisional steps to Britain and Iran which would protect British oil rights pending negotiation of their oil dispute.

The court urged that both Iran and Britain avoid any acts which might prejudice its findings in the dispute over Iran's seizure of properties of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company.

The British had asked for an injunction to stop Iranian "interferences" which the British claimed threatened to prejudice final settlement of the dispute.

The court further proposed that:

Both countries should guarantee they will take no measures to hinder the normal operations of the Anglo-Iranian Oil company as they were carried on prior to May 1, 1951 — the date of the Iranian nationalization law.

That Iran and Britain agree to appoint a five-man board — two from each country and one from a neutral country — to supervise the carrying out of the court's proposals for normal operation. If they cannot agree on the appointment of the board, the president of the court would name its members upon joint request by both parties.

The board would have the duty of auditing the company's revenue and expenses and ensuring that all income over normal operating expenses be paid into banks selected by the board.

Before issuing its proposals for interim measures, the court said it could not accept without examination the British charge that Iran had violated international law.

New Powers In Siam May Play Into Red Hand

BANGKOK, July 5. (AP)—The military junta that crushed last week's navy revolt has seized power in Thailand.

It made a figurehead of Premier Pibulsonggram, a staunch friend of the United States.

Observers said that may permit Communist inroads.

Pibulsonggram lost face when he was kidnaped during the navy's short-lived revolt. He escaped when the ship on which he was held captive was sunk by the Thia air force.

Three generals and an air marshal then deposed the country's strong man.

Anit - American rumors are spreading. Some of the rumor-mongers are saying "American guns killed our people." Discontented navy elements may be willing to go along with any group supplying them arms. That could be the Communists.

The United States provided Pibulsonggram with military supplies.

Bangkok police chief, Gen. Phao Sri Yanondh, is said to be the new dominating figure in Thai politics. His 40,000 police are stronger than the 35,000 man army. The premier promoted him from deputy to police chief after the revolt.

175-Year-Old News In Paris

PARIS, July 5. (AP)—The news spread on the front page of the July Fourth edition of the Paris News was 175 years old.

"When in the course of human events . . ." it started off.

A reproduction of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, in the flowing script of the 18th Century covered the entire page.

Up in the left-hand corner, the News asked its readers: "Ever read the entire text of the Declaration of Independence? Know what it really says? The Paris News offers this reproduction for its readers to study and think about this day — July 4, 1951. World and local news can be found on inside pages today."

Egyptian Says Houston Police Beat Him Up

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 5. (AP) — An Egyptian newspaperman touring the South said today he fled Texas because Houston police gave him the "gestapo" treatment.

Shavarsh Benlain, correspondent for 15 Middle East newspapers, said he was arrested "for nothing," beaten and strongly advised to leave the state.

Benlian was touring Dixie to collect material to "make America understood in the Middle East." Now he plans to head back to New York City.

In Houston, Police Captain H. McGill said Benlian was booked for disturbing the peace early Tuesday after his arrest at a drive-in for "annoying carhops." He wasn't mistreated by officers, McGill said, but got into a fight with a drunk in the main cell.

Belian's version of the incident went like this:

The trouble started when he was refused service at a restaurant. Two threatening men followed him outside. He phoned police from a gas station.

"But when they came they frisked me and took me off to jail," he said. "After three hours in the cell I asked to be allowed to make one telephone call — which I think is a right granted by law — then three officers took me out of the cell and beat me up."

He sent telegrams of protest to the Governor of Texas and the Houston police commissioner after being released on $15 bond. He was rearrested for "illegal driving" when he went back to the station.

"They took me straight to a police lieutenant" he said. "The lieutenant told me to 'stop sending smart-guy telegrams to governors and police commissioners and get out of Texas, immediately if you know what's good for you'."

Benlian drove to Memphis. He said he plans a protest to the Attorney General of the United States.

Englishmen Can Pledge 'Full Obedience' To Iran, Or Leave Fields

TEHRAN, Iran, July 5. (AP)—British technicians must leave Iran's newly nationalized oilfields unless they promise "full obedience" to the Iranian National Oil Company, a government spokesman told parliament today.

The spokesman is Nasser Quili Ardalan, member of parliament's joint oil nationalization board. He told parliament the great refinery at Abadan may be closed within 25 days, but he called for "patience and perseverance" to overcome Iran's crisis engendered by the nationalization of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company's holdings.

There was no hint of compromise on the part of the Iranians, however.

Club members are now contacting merchants, but arrangements may also be made by calling Mrs. Roberts at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Correspondent Begins Long Prison Term

FRANKFURT, Germany, July 5. (AP — William N. Oatis today began serving a 10-year prison sentence meted out by Communist Czechoslovakia for "spying out state secrets" while doing his job as an Associated Press Reporter. The court said "good behavior" might take five years off the sentence.

Oatis, chief of the Associated Press Bureau in Prague, and three Czech employes of the bureau were senteneed Wednesday in grim Pankrac Prison after a two-day trial.

Two United States embassy observers, who attended the trial said that after the five-man Red court handed down the sentence, they heard Oatis say faintly:

"I accept the sentence of the court and ask that I be sent somewhere where I can do some useful work."

The three Czech co-defendants, who had been employed mainly as translators, drew heavier sentences.

In New York, the Associated Press branded the trial as "adham and a mockery of elemental justice." The AP said legitimate newsgathering had been "twisted and distorted" into espionage, and "the Associated Press will continue, by all means available, to seek Oatis' release from this cruel and unjust detention."

The United States Department labelled the trial a "ludicrous travesty of justice" and declared:

"The confession of espionage was in truth but the admission of an American reporter than in the high traditions of his profession he was attempting under the most unfavorable conditions to report a true picture of conditions and events in Czechoslovakia as he saw them."

Safety Called Last Hitch In Peace Talks

TOKYO, July 5. (AP) — Arrangements were made for Communist and Allied truce envoys to meet in peace Sunday. But that didn't stop the shooting in Korea.

Today Reds shot at two United Nations patrols as they approached Kaesong, war-scarred ancient capital of Korea where ceasefire talks will be held. They had permitted one patrol Wednesday to enter the deserted city near the 38th Parallel.

U. N. Commander Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway still sought a guarantee from the Communists they would not fire in similar fashion on the emissaries he will send to Kaesong Sunday.

ONE HITCH REMAINS

That one hitch remains to be settled before representatives of the opposing top commands can meet. And when they do get together it will be merely to make plans for the real ceasefire conference. That will be Tuesday.

Thursday, passed without word that Chinese and North Korean commanders had guaranteed safe conduct to the U. N. delegation.

Instead the Reds' Peiping radio said the success of ceasefire talks "depends on whether the United States government and other governments taking part in the Korean war are sincere." Reds told the Chinese that even after the shooting ends in Korea they must continue to build defenses to guard against American "attempts at aggression."

SUNDAY AGREED ON

Thursday morning Ridgway agreed to the Red suggestion that preliminary talks be held Sunday. Reliable sources said he would send three colonels — a Marine, an airman and a South Korean.

Ridgway asked that the Communist generals guarantee them safe conduct to the meeting in no-mans-land.

Earlier he had pledged his forces wouldn't shoot at the Red delegation.

American battle casualties increased 1,361 this week to a wartime total of 78,110, the Defense Department announced in Washington.

ACTION DWINDLES

Battle action dwindled as armistice talks drew nearer. But Reds opened up Thursday with the heaviest artillery and mortar fire they've used on the Western Front in a week. Their guns stopped shooting in the East where they've daily harassed Allied lines.

Chinese stabbed at U. N. lines with three minor probing attacks. But almost everywhere they pulled back from Allied patrols.

The United States Fifth Air Force sent only 210 sorties against the Reds in daylight Thursday. One mustang fighter was shot down.

WEATHER

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy tonight and Friday. Widely scattered thundershowers. Not much change in temperature.

REDS SHOWER LEAFLETS

Communist leaflets shower on U. S. soldiers marching in a London ceremony honoring 28,000 U. S. service men who died on duty in London during World War II. Names of American dead were enshrined on an honor roll in bomb-scarred St. Paul's Cathedral. Leaflets, bearing the imprint of the London district of the Communist Party, accused the U. S. of "using British troops for cannon fodder" and asserted England has become a U. S. atom bomber base.

First Bids Sought On Construction Of County Roads

Coleman L. Hasie, of the Lubbock firm of Hasie & Green, engineers on about 77 miles of the county's 157-mile road project, met with the commissioners court Monday afternoon and agreed to advertise for bids for construction of about 25 miles of the roads, the bids to be opened July 18.

Right of way deeds, however, have not been secured, he said. Edgar Taylor, county judge, said construction probably could not begin until right of way was assured.

Hasie told the court he might let his share of the road building in two contracts, the first being for about 25 miles, and the remainder in a second contract.

Hasie said his egineering plans had been completed for his company's part of the road project.

According to the contract between the engineering firm and the commissioners court, the firm is to be paid 30 per cent of the engineering fee when preliminary surveying is completed and another 30 per cent of the fee when construction plans are delivered. The court last week authorized payment of $17,534.66 to the firm for survey work on 69.5 miles. The entire fee will amount to six per cent of the construction cost.

Officials of the state highway department said last week contracts would be let at least on part of the state's share of the project as soon as right of way deeds are secured. The state department has completed its surveys on part of its share of 80.2 miles.

The commissioners court is to secure the right of way needed on the entire project.

Official Count In Election In Borden County

Canvassing of Saturday's bond and tax elections in Borden County has been completed in the county's 11 boxes, and all issues carried by wide margins, C. S. Harris, county judge, said.

Total results on the school bond election of $500,000 were 128 votes for issuance and 28 opposing votes.

There were 183 votes favoring re-allocation of county taxes to provide for larger portions in the road and bridge and improvement funds and 21 votes were cast against the proposal.

Voters approve the $420,000 road bond issue to build about 35 miles of farm to market roads by a vote of 179 to 27. An additional ad valorem tax of 30 cents per $100 valuation for road purposes was approved by a vote of 177 to 27.

The election was called after an election June 5 when voters approved consolidation of the county's five common school districts, forming one district of four schools. With the first election was also the approval of plans to build new school buildings which will be constructed with funds from the school bonds. The road bonds will provide funds for roads constructed between the schools.

Business Poor In City Court

You've heard about the city's deficit? Evidently, it isn't entirely the result of the lowering of the tax rate last year from $1.50 to $1.

The drastic drop in income from the city court has considerable bearing on the city's financial cramps.

For instance, last month the city court collected in fines $1,481. But a year ago, the fines collecied in June, 1950, were more than five times that much, and for that month alone amounted to $8,314.

In July of last year fines amounted to $6,474. For the whole year of 1950, almost $68,000 found their way into the city treasury via the corporation court. It will not produce nearly so much this year.

But those were the days when Snyder was at the height of its boom, filled with men who had left their families behind. It was not uncommon in those days for the city jail to be bulging each morning with from 35 to 40 inmates.

Today the average is about five.

Police Department Reports 96 Citations Issued During June

The police department issued 96 citations for the appearance of local traffic ordinances and the Texas Uniform Act during June, according to a report filed with the city council by Chester Bairrington, chief of police.

Eighty persons were arrested and booked by the department on charges including intoxication, reckless driving, simple assault, petty theft, swindling by worthless checks, driving while intoxicated, disturbing the peace and drunkness in an automobile. Intoxication charges, filed against 54 persons, led the list of complaints as they do almost every month.

Officers answered 237 calls during the month, driving 7,081 miles on calls and regular patrol activities. These calls included 16 traffic accidents within the city.

A total of 128 criminal cases was investigated by the department.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt have lived in Snyder since 1949, and operated the Corner Cafe before taking over the Scurry Cafe. They now plan an extended tour of the Western states, accompanied by their son, Mark Wyatt.

Feeders Agree With Ranchers That Rollbacks Are Unfair

(Editor's note: Associated Press Special Correspondent Don Whitehead went into the Midwest to find out what farmers are saying and doing about the administration's efforts to control beef prices. This is another story in his series dealing with the battle of beef.)

By DON WHITEHEAD

DES MOINES, Iowa, July 3. (AP)—Are farmers demanding excessive profits on their beef cattle at the expense of the American housewife?

That question is being asked these days and you can get arguments on both sides even in the farm country.

GENERAL OPPOSITION

Throughout the cattle region from Texas to the corn belt in the Middle West there is opposition from the great majority of ranchers and farmers to the administration's price control program.

Right or wrong, there is a general feeling the national emergency and inflation are not so critical that the farmers should be forced to sacrifice any of their profits on cattle.

One farmer, who asked his name not be used, put it this way:

"Some are saying it isn't patriotic for us to oppose beef price controls. But I've got to think of myself and my family, too. And if the emergency is so great, then why doesn't the administration put controls on everything and not pick on us?"

The Office of Price Stabilization which cracked down on the high cost of beef with a 10 per cent rollback on live cattle prices last May, says the cattle feeder can make a profit even if prices are rolled back another 9 per cent by Oct. 1.

EXTRA NINE PER CENT

There are indications the cattle feeders will not be too unhappy if they can escape that extra nine per cent cut. Cattle feeders are those who buy cattle and fatten them for slaughter.

If there is no forced cut-back in prices for live cattle, then any drop in retail prices will depend largely on the number of cattle going to slaughter.

As for slaughter the farmer is making too much money on beef, here are some of the arguments:

OPS had figures based on department of agriculture studies which show that a feeder who bought a 700-pound, commercial steer can fatten it up to 1050 pounds, sell at the ceiling price of $31.20 per hundred-weight in October and still wind up with a profit of $40.20 on the animal.

THE ARGUMENT

OPS argues this $40.20 profit compares "very favorably" with the average profit of $22.91 a head which farmers have received for their cattle during the past ten years.

On the other side, the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation produces cost figures of individual farmers to bolster the argument that the rollbacks — including the 10 per cent cut now in effect — is a drastic burden on the farmer.

The federation contends farmers are not getting rich under present prices and that production costs on the farm still are going up.

In this argument, the federation has compiled cost figures on the operations of several farmers which it says are typical. A report by farmer Emmet Ryen of Pottawattamie County showed that on Jan. 1 — before the price ceiling on beef went into effect — Ryen bought 260 steers averaging 820 pounds and costing $246.25 each.

FEEDER LOSES MONEY

In four months of feeding, Ryen raised the average weights to 1,000 pounds each at a total cost of $36.04 a hundredweight. But he sold them for only $33 a hundredweight which the federation says meant a loss of $7,800 to Ryen.

OPS contends anyone who bought beef cattle at high prices early in the year knew it was a gamble, deliberately took a risk and now has no kick coming.

(Next: Farmers deny strike against price controls but confusion has produced slow-down in marketing that has same effect as strike.)

Justice Court Fines Higher Than Last Year

Receipts in the office of W. C. Davidson, justice of the peace for June this year showed a gain over the same month of 1950, his records showed today.

Last month the receipts for fines and costs totaled $2,228.40 as compared to $2,139 of June last year, Judge Davidson said.

The game of polo is believed to have originated in Persia, and then spread to Constantinople. The game flourished in India in the 17th century.

Suspended Sentence Is Given When Man Pleads Guilty to Forged Check

Gerald Paulson, 20, entered a plea of guilty to passing a forged instrument and was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary in 132nd district court yesterday afternoon, but the sentence was suspended by Judge Ben F. Thorpe upon the recommendation of Bob Davie, district attorney.

Paulson was charged with passing a $197 check on a Snyder store last January, and later was arrested by Sid Reeder, sheriff of Borden County, at Albany.

Paulson had been charged in the oil well casing theft at the L. H. Armer McAdam lease in the Vealmoor field in Borden County, but the charge there was dismissed.

Sheriff Reeder said Paulson was a state witness in the case, which involved three other men, E. E. (Ed) Burge, 38; L. H. Castleberry, 28, and Hillard W. White, 35. Burge and White were sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. They are now on appeal.

Texas Casualties In Korean War Show Heavy Toll Taken

By The Associated Press

The undeclared war in Korea has cost heavily in Texas lives.

Texans fallen there now number 621 — more lives than Texas lost in its historic revolution against Mexico in 1836.

In addition to the 621 killed in action, 2,598 have been wounded in action.

Actually, the figures are higher. The Associated Press compilation is based on the casulty lists released almost daily by the Defense Department. Those lists lag considerably behind actual battle action.

Figures on the number who died of wounds, were injured or are missing in action were not available. Many are missing in action.

By contrast, only 546 lives were lost in the rebellion against Mexican rule more than a century ago.

The Korea casualties are not nearly so heavy as those which Texans suffered in the two great wars — World Wars I and II. But those battles stretched over several years, and involved huge masses of men.

The Korea conflict is only a few days more than a year old. It was June 25, 1950, that the North Korean Communists invaded South Korea.

In World War One, 2,722 Texans were killed, and 7,331 wounded. In World War II, 13,810 Texans were killed.

Best available records show these Texas casualties in the revolution against Mexico: Battle of San Jacinto April 21, 1836, nine killed. Goliad Massacre, March 27, 1836, about 350. That adds up to 546 killed.

By Tradition, White Sox And Brooklyn Should Win Pennants

By The Associated Press

If Brooklyn and the Chicago White Sox fail to win the pennant, chalk one up against tradition.

Baseball history discloses the team in first place after games of Fourth of July walks off with the flag about two thirds of the time.

Both leagues show the same figures. Since the turn of the century, the Independence Day leaders in the National and American Leagues won in 33 of the 50 campaigns.

The White Sox joined the Dodgers as July 4 leaders Wednesday by splitting a double header in Detroit while Washington's Senators stunned the Yankees with a sweep of their twin bill in New York.

Chicago won the second game, 5-4, after losing a 6-3 opener to wrest first place in the American from the Yankees by a half game. New York dropped 9-8 and 6-5 decisions.

BUMS EXTEND MARGIN

Brooklyn increased its first place margin in the national to six and a half games over New York, thumping the Giants twice, 6-5 in 11 innings and 4-2.

Boston's third place Red Sox climbed to within two and a half games of the American League lead, winning two in Philadelphia, 9-0 and 9-5. Cleveland helped tighten the race even more by sweeping a pair in St. Louis, 6-5 and 4-3 in a 15-inning marathon.

The St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Cubs in Chicago, 10-5. The second game of the scheduled double header was rained out. Philadelphia moved into fourth place past Cincinnati by rapping the Braves in Boston twice, 4-1 and 3-1.

PITT MOVE UP

Pittsburgh moved to within three games of seventh place with a pair of wins against Cincinnati, 4-1 and 16-4.

It took some fine bounce back baseball for the Dodgers to win Wednesday's opener. They trailed 4-0 going into the eighth. Homers by Roy Campanella and Pee Wee Reese made it 4-3. Gil Hodges' single tied it 4-4 in the ninth and chased starter Sal Maglie.

Bobby Thomson slammed his fourth homer in as many games in the top of the 11th off Preacher Roe to give the Giants a 5-4 lead. But a double by Duke Snider and Jackie Robinson's single tied the score in the Dodgers' half. An error and Roe's squeeze bunt enabled Robinson to cross the plate with the winning run. Carl Erskine's two-run single gave the Dodgers a sweep.

DOBSON TAKES HELP

Veteran Joe Dobson pitched the White Sox into first place with a nine-hit victory over the Tigers. He needed help however, from Marv Rothlatt. Al Zarilla's two-run homer featured a four-run first inning blast against Dizzy Trout. Detroit's Hal Newhouser, aided by Hoot Evers' three-run homer, outpitched Randy Gumpert in the opener.

Gil Coan hammered two three-run homers off Vic Raschi and Joe Ostrowski to lead the Senators to their first game win. Superb relief pitching by Mickey Harris enabled the Nats to make the sweep.

Buffs Extend Lead, May Be Due Pennant

By The Associated Press

It wasn't a very happy holiday for three of the four first division teams in the Texas League. In fact, it was a miserable Fourth of July.

Dallas, San Antonio and Beaumont dropped doubleheaders. Pace-setting Houston won one. That gave the Buffs a three-game lead over Dallas, eight over San Antonio and an eight and one-half over Beaumont. And tradition is on the team on top the Fourth wins the pennant.

Houston chilled San Antonio, 2-0, 5-2, while Oklahoma City dumped Dallas, 4-3, 5-4, and Shreveport socked Beaumont 5-4, 6-3. Fort Worth licked Tulsa twice, 7-1, 3-0, to move within a game of the first division.

The holiday games drew a total of 25,814 fans with the biggest crowd at Houston — 11,251 paid — and the smallest at Shreveport, 2,319.

Jerry Witte's 24th homer broke up the first game for Houston in the ninth inning and Octavio Rubert staggered to his 11th victory in the nightcap.

A home run by Grant Dunlap won the first game for Shreveport and another by him and Neb Wilson helped win the second. Homers by Bob Bundy and Ben Guintini featured Fort Worth's twin win, while a three-run pinch homer by Frank Baldwin gave Oklahoma City a clean sweep after Hugh King had set Dallas down with four hits in the opener.

The same teams meet again tonight in single games at Shreveport, Houston, Fort Worth and Dallas.

Summer Projects Are Completed by Ten Hermleigh Students

Ten home economics students at Hermleigh high school have completed requirements to receive credit for summer project work.

Students participating in the project were Iona Boatenhamer, LaJuana Robinson, Martha Jean Hungerford, Iris Nell Evans, Billisue Groves, Betty Hillis, Ann Borland, Mary Tate, Jeanette Coan and Wanda Sue Vandiver.

Garments made by them as part of the project were modelled at the school Friday, and other articles mare were also on display. A bedroom remodelled by Miss Coan as her home project was also visited.

The students met Thursday to help clean up the building where the home economics department is to be moved in time for fall classes.

Skeet Champs Retain Pan-American Titles

DALLAS, July 5 (AP)—Sgt. Glenn W. Van Buren of Carswell Air Force Base, Fort Worth, and Grant Ilseng of Houston retained Pan-American skeet titles Wednesday.

Ilseng broke 486 out of 500 targets to nudge Ed Scherer by one for the high-over-all championship.

Van Buren repeated as service individual champion. He also was on the Bergstrom Air Force Base, Austin, team that won the service team title for the Strategic Air Command. This same group won the open five man team championship.

The open title in the all-gauge division went to Bob Brown of San Antonio with 200 straight targets.

Resignation of Hester Rejected by Coaches

BEAUMONT, July 5 (AP) — The Board of directors of the Texas High School Coaches Association unanimously rejected the resignation of President Grady Hester in a telegraphic poll taken Wednesday. The poll was conducted by executive secretary L. W. McConnacle.

Hester submitted his resignation Tuesday giving as his reason the fact that he is no longer in the coaching profession. He recently accepted a position as superintendent of the Weslaco school district.

TEXAS BRANDS

F

By JOHN M. HENDRIX

In the early days it was customary to use the first letter of one's name as a brand, hence the filing and general knowledge of the F brand in Presidio County by Milton Faver. In 1849 Faver set out on the long trek to California in search of gold, but strayed from his route and landed in Presidio County at a point known as Cibolo Springs where he settled and soon attracted a sort of feudal gathering around him that made it possible for him to withstand Indian raids and border bandits. By 1857 he was fairly established in the cattle business and it is estimated that by the early '80s there were 20,000 head of the F brand and some 4,000 to 5,000 unbranded cattle on his ranges.

Cibolo was ranch headquarters; was located at the southeast end of three or four other establishments of camps over his ranges. With the coming of Fort Davis to the mountains, Faver had a ready market and by the time the Fort was established had amassed a great fortune. Faver's descendency began shortly after '83; due to changing of methods from feudal days to fenced pastures, Faver lost his hold on the country and died a pauper. He was probably the first cattleman in Presidio County; all of the range was open at the time, and he was lord of all he surveyed practically.

Joe Humphreys bought the F herds later; Juan Faver, a son, continued to use the brand until he sold the Cibolo ranch to Joe Bunton about 1915. At one time F's cattle ranged all over Presidio County, which at that time included the present counties of Jeff Davis, Brewster, and Presidio.

The story of Milton Faver has become almost legendary in the Davis Mountains country and there are many tales about the size of his outfit and the hospitality extended to wayfarers who came his way. His old range as a whole is now the well fenced and well conducted ranches of half a dozen or more of the larger Davis Mountain outfits.

Pat Garner to Second Round at Broadmoor

COLORADO SPRINGS, July 5 (AP)—Pat Garner of Midland, Tex., advanced to today's second round of the annual Broadmoor Women's Golf Tournament by defeating Mrs. Phil Long, Colorado Springs, 6 and 5.

Medalist Lucille Mann of Omaha also won her way into today's round by defeating Mrs. Shirley Briggs, Denver, 8 and 7.

In other results, Mrs. Patti Blanton, Enid, Okla., defeated Billie Dodge Tulsa, 6 and 5.

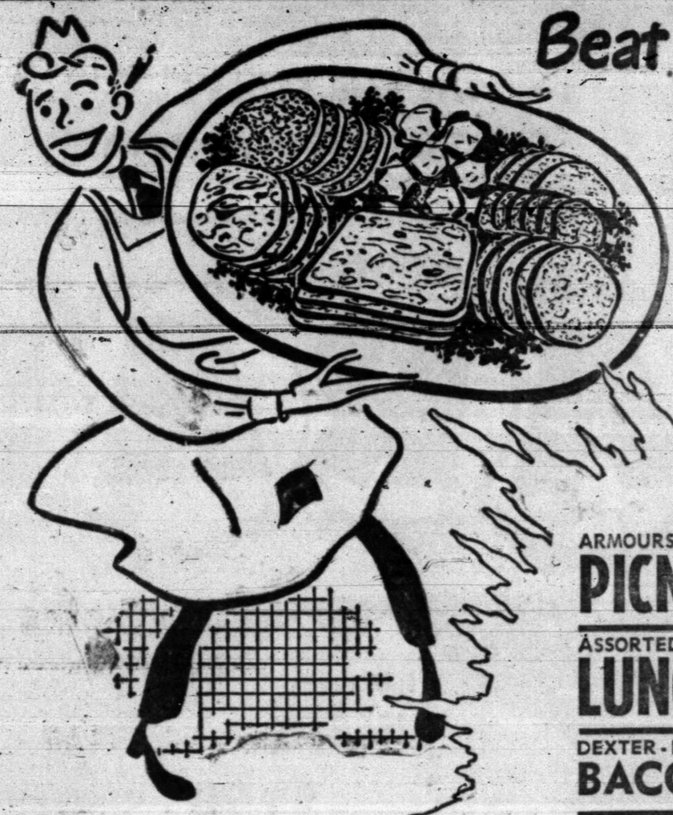

Wins Paris Tourney

PARIS, July 5 (AP)—Tournament Medalist Buster Reed, North Texas State College, licked defending champion Frank Wear, Jr., of Paris, 2 and 1, Wednesday to win the fifth annual Paris Golf Club Tournament.

The U. S. Government established the Pony Express in 1860 for fast communication between the older states and California. It was succeeded 16 months later by a telegraph line.

Retail Price Cuts Foreseen On Some Clothes, Furnishings

For the first time in several years, the United States is having a buyer's market — more goods than consumers. Because of that, the consumer may be able to get a better bargain on many goods than he has lately, or may be able to get in the future.

Retailers across the nation have and he was invalided home. The ease price cutting, the U. S. News and World Report magazine reports; but even at that, they have failed to attract the volumes of sales for which they hoped.

People who bought goods at any price a few months ago have exhibited resistance to present prices, and dealers find themselves overstocked in many departments. Consumers apparently believe the reports of coming shortages were exaggerated.

SHORTAGES?

It is highly possible that the anticipated shortages will develop within the next few months as government defense contracts take up more raw materials and manufacturing plants. Although government spending has risen sharply, it will go up even more soon and put more money into competition for smaller amounts of consumer items.

All factors seem to indicate that prices will rise on many products in the months to come, although it will not be such a sharp rise because of wage and price controls, and it may not be so apparent for quite some time.

The consumer can probably get a break by buying many goods at this time, the magazine reports, and lists items of clothing, home appliances household furnishings and possibly automobiles in this class.

Clothing items listed as especially good buys now include shorts, shoes, nylon hose, children's pajamas, underwear and play suits. Woolen winter suits can best be bought at preseason sales late this summer, since wool will be harder to get and higher later in the season.

Curtains, draperies and upholstery are listed as good buys for the home. Wool carpets, which are being sold at low prices to clear stocks now will be harder to get later and synthetic fibers will be used.

Furniture is not likely to become scarce, although metal and wool-upholstered pieces may be harder to find and all pieces will probably be higher.

Household linens can now be bought at lower prices, and August white sales will probably bring the cost lower before new shipments with higher prices are received.

NO DROP SEEN

Houses are not likely to become any less expensive because of high labor costs and a decrease in the rates of building. Credit controls on the purchase of old houses will probably be eased. Farm land seems to be another item where prices are not likely to decrease, although the price seems too high now to justify further rises.

The outlook for business continues good, the magazine reports, because of higher employment, higher hourly wages, business expansion and government spending.

THE STARS

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, July 5. (AP)—Want to make a hit with Peggy Dow? Just dangle a Phi Beta Kappa key in front of her.

That's exaggerating the situation a bit, but it's true that the rising young dramatic actress prefers to date college boys instead of actors.

"I have nothing against actors," she declared. "But let's face it—they are self-centered and egocentric. They have to be, or else they wouldn't be actors. But a girl doesn't want to go out on a date and hear the man talk about himself all evening.

"I'll admit I'm a ham, too. It goes way back to my childhood; whenever they asked me to perform in the living room, I was more than happy to oblige. Even today I'm willing to put on my southern accent or even a Russian accent to get a few laughs. So you can see I don't want to compete with an actor when I date."

Peggy went further to say that being with acting folk during the work day is enough.

"That's why I like to spend nice, normal evenings. Through going to Northwestern and making sorority connections at UCLA, I've met a lot of college kids and we have a lot of fun. We don't have to go night clubbing to enjoy ourselves.

Some nights we just play bridge and end up with a binge at Will Wright's ice cream parlor. Or we might go to the amusement pier at Ocean Park and ride all the rides. You'd never find an actor doing things like that."

It appears that the southern belle is a profoundly normal girl. She pleads guilty to that.

"I'm the bane of the fan magazine writers," she sighed. "They keep trying to discover exciting things in my life but I can't help them. I simply lead a normal life and enjoy it immensely."

Dominican Priest Asks That We Make Habit of Being Saint

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK, (AP) — "Anybody can be a saint once in his lifetime," said the Rev. Anthony G. McCabe, "But it is the habit that counts."

And then the big, rugged 42-year-old Dominican priest said another thing, rather gently:

"Too many people hear only in this world, and can not hear the cries of the starving."

Father McCabe, a former Army chaplain who was orphaned before he was a year old, has been haunted by those cries all his life.

He now heads the Mission of Blessed Martin De Porres, a school for poverty - stricken Negro children in Columbia, S.C. Every few months he hitch-hikes to New York with a big smile on his face — and his big hand held out for help to keep his Mission going. And he gets it, too.

"Many of the contributors are Protestant and Jewish friends," he said, and laughted: "One of my Jewish friends raised funds by making a personal appeal to a Protestant congregation."

Father McCabe lost both his father and mother in a Southern Illinois coal mine explosion.

"My mother had gone down into the mine to take my father his lunch," he explained.

He lived in an Alton, Ill., orphanage until the age of seven and then was adopted by a farmer. The chance reading of a religious magazine decided him as a boy to embrace the Dominican order, whose priests forewwear all worldly possessions and take rigorous obedience.

Father McCabe went to the Pacific with the 165th regiment during the war. During the battle for Makin he buried 30 American dead with his own hands. He was awarded a Purple Heart after his jeep was blown up by a land mnie on Saipan, and he was invalided home. They still are close to his heart.

"If the lesson of sacrifice they taught us has not been learned," he said soberly, "It is not their fault. I pray for them every day."

TRICK RIDER IN RODEO

One of two young women who will give exhibitions of trick riding at the Scurry County Rodeo July 18-21, is shown above. The exhibitions of horsemanship are among many events, which will include roping, steer riding, bareback riding, bronc riding, and cutting horse contests. Prizes total more than $3,400.

Businessmen Expect High Level Of Prosperity Through Year

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK, July 5. (AP)—What's ahead for business? A number of businessmen, manufacturers, purchasing agents, and bankers appear willing today to guess how their own firms will fare the rest of the year.

Surveys from several independent sources show that most of them look for their companies to do as well or better in the next six months as they did in the last half of 1950 when the Korean war was touching off a boom. They look for momentum to carry them through as defense orders build up.

WIDE SAMPLING

Here is a wide sampling of business opinion, taken before a definite offer of truce talks in Korea, but while peace rumors were widely circulating — and believed — in business circles:

Business will go wheeling along in high gear the rest of the year, in the opinion of most of the 142 manufacturers around the nation polled by the national industrial conference board. Large backlogs of unfilled orders and a growing volume of defense business will do the trick.

Seven out of ten are operating at or near capacity now, and nine out of ten are working on military orders although with most the defense work is still a small part of their total volume.

HIGHER BACKLOGS

Nine companies out of ten have much higher backlogs of orders now than a year ago. This doesn't hold true for electrical appliances, apparel, chemical, rubber and textile industries.

Half of the 142 have larger inventories than last year, but many stress that the stocks are in line with increased volume of business.

Purchasing agents, on the other hand, are taking "a very cautious view" of summer business, the National Association of Purchasing Agents says.

"July and August, heavy industrial vacation months are expected to be slow," it reports after a survey of its members.

ACCOUNTANTS OPTIMISTIC

But the men who keep the books for industry apparently think they'll be using black ink the rest of the year.

The New York State Society of Certified Public Accountant's says 43 per cent of its members answering a questionnaire expect business to improve, 40 per cent look for little change from present high levels, and only 17 per cent think it will sluff off. However, a third of them see small business having a harder time.

Prices will go up a little, say 58 per cent—up a lot, say 17 per cent.

Truck Driver Pleads Guilty

Albert A. Hutton, 30, of Lubbock, a truck driver, charged with driving while intoxicated, entered a plea of guilty before Judge Edgar Taylor in county court Tuesday morning and was assessed a total of $273.50, which included a fine and costs.

His driver's license was automatically suspended for six months. Hutton paid the fine.

O. O. Devers, deputy sheriff, said Hutton, driver of a coffee company truck, struck a parked car owned by Harlan Birdwell at Avenue R and Twenty - fifth Street about 9 o'clock Monday The truck was later found parked in a tourist court about four blocks away by Deputy Dever.

When Hutton came back to get his vehicle, he was arrested and put in the county jail.

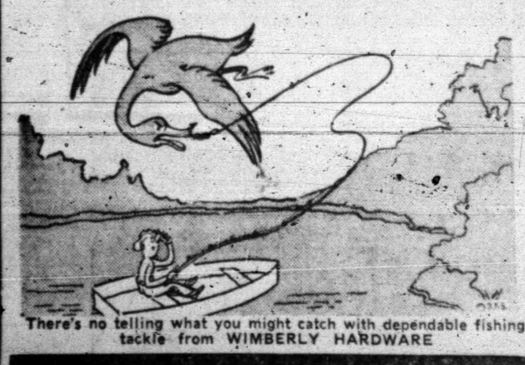

Also in the car with Hutton was Harrell R. Coffer, 38, of Lubbock, who was booked on charge of drunk in a car and also was placed in the county jail. Tuesday morning, Coffer paid $38 to cover fine and costs in the court of W. C. Davidson, justice of the peace.

L. E. Haynes, deputy sheriff, and Jack Stephens, city patrolman assisted Dever in the case.

Hutton told the court and the officers that he would assume responsibility for the damage to the Birdwell car.
