VETERANS DAY CEREMONY

Holiday Promotion Begins Nov. 25

Christmas lights are up in the downtown business area and along Highway US 83, and Wellington's holiday season will open officially on the day after Thanksgiving, Friday, Nov. 25.

Tommy Hudson, Chamber of Commerce president reminds that several all-new Christmas promotions and business-builders will be used.

-Highlighting the promotion is the mystery Santa, with a new one to be selected each week between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

-Santa Claus will make his traditional visit to Collingsworth area children on Thursday, Dec. 15. Plans will be announced.

-Businesses will remain open on Thursday nights Dec. 15 and 22 to help shoppers who work during regular hours.

-A two-part Christmas decoration contest will be held, with the best decorated store and the best decorated residence each receiving $25 in script redeemable by participating merchants.

-With a new mystery Santa each week, Hudson revealed that he will be the owner of a participating business or one of the employees. It's up to Christmas shoppers to hunt the clues and identify the Santa.

Participating businesses will be divided into 5 groups, and a different color assigned to each group. Everyone in the same color group will post a large star of that color in his store window or on the door.

A mystery Santa will be chosen. Clues in the form of riddles will be scattered through all businesses, according to their color.

Those in one color group, for example, will post clues Monday, a second color will put up clues on Tuesday, third color group on Wednesday, until all 5 groups have posted clues.

On the following Monday, colors will rotate, until each group will have a Monday position.

Each merchant will place his clues where he believes they will do him the most good in promoting sales--such as in a display window or in an area of specially priced merchandise.

Shoppers will find the clues by visiting the stores.

"You must identify Santa in his or her place of business by saying, "You're the Mystery Santa," Hudson said.

The winner will receive $50 in script redeemable at participating stores; the winner identifying the reserve Santa, if there must be one, will receive $25 in script. As soon as Santa is identified a gold star will then be posted in West Texas Utilities Co. and Dairy Queen in Highway 83 for the first Santa, and a silver star if there is a reserve Santa.

The Christmas decoration contest may include any type the business or resident wants to use as long as the Christmas theme is carried out.

Out-of-town judges will select the winners, and decorations should be placed where they will be clearly visible.

Winners of the residential division will receive $25 in script, again redeemable by participating merchants.

A traveling trophy will be awarded to the winning business. The winner will retain it for one year, then it will pass to the 1984 business winner.

Members of the Christmas Committee are Billy Hatch, chairman, Billy Jackson and James Shepard.

Thirty-five merchants are participating at this time and more will be added.

They are Duncan Chevrolet and Olds, Harrell's Ben Franklin, Parsons Drug, House of Jewelry, Gifts and Flowers, Hatch Dry Goods, C&H Pharmacy, Montgomery Ward, First Wellington Agency, Nash Texaco, Hartman Air Conditioning and Electrical Service,

Wells and Wells Insurance and Abstracts, Saied's Department Store, Sears Catalog Store, Doodling Dodges, Livestock Supply and Western Wear, Sullivan Hardware, Langford Conoco, Jake's Cycle Shop, The Wellington Leader, D.C. Voluntary Fingerprint Program Planned for Elementary Children

Wellington PTO, B&PW Club and the county sheriff's office will soon begin a voluntary fingerprinting program for any pre-school and elementary children whose parents request the fingerprints.

Wellington School Board approved the program at regular board meeting Monday, Nov. 14.

PTO representative Debra Belew presented the program to the school board Monday. She said the program could start as early as the first week in December. She said that fingerprints have helped to identify lost or missing children in other communities and that there have been several requests from parents directly to the sheriff's office to fingerprint their children.

The sheriff's office will not keep a copy of the fingerprints on file. The original fingerprints will be given to the child's parents and, if the parents request, a copy will be placed in the child's school record.

Children in elementary school will receive request forms to take home to their parents, and a child must have this form completed before he will be fingerprinted. The program will also be open to parents of pre-school children.

In other action at school board meeting, the board waived the exemption from property taxes for automobiles. That means that the school district will tax automobiles next year.

The board heard a report from junior high principal Bob Allen that the number of 7th graders had risen to 76, forcing the creation of 3 sections of 7th graders, and resulting in overcrowding of junior high facilities. Some junior high classes are now meeting in high school and elementary buildings, Allen said.

The board tabled action on a delinquent tax suit, pending further discussion.

The board also visited the new Early Childhood Exceptional (ECE) program classroom. The program has been recently moved from the Community Action center to the old nurse's building west of the elementary building. Deanna Van Pelt, the ECE teacher, discussed the ECE program with board members. ECE is designed to help 3 and 4-year-old children with language and learning disabilities and physical handicaps. Mrs. Van Pelt said that the idea behind ECE was that extra stimulation of the children at an early age could prevent later problems in school. Parents may request that their children be tested for inclusion in the program. Mrs. Van Pelt said she currently has 4 students, and will soon have 5, who attend each school day from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

Principals reported current enrollment at 211 in high school, 206 in junior high and 319 in elementary.

Present were board members Bill Spillman, Frances Schmidt, Reed Souder, John Barton, Carroll Nunnelley and Dan Langford, Kirby Campbell was absent.

Hospital Board Honors Dr. Jones

Collingsworth General Hospital board honored the late Dr. Charles B. Jones with a resolution approved at its regular board meeting Tuesday, Nov. 15.

The resolution cited Dr. Jones' service to the community through his decades of family practice in Wellington. (The complete resolution appears on page 8 of this issue.)

The board also approved the budget for the hospital's new Home Health Agency.

The new agency will provide skilled nursing care, speech therapy and nutritional advice to homebound patients on an intermittent basis. Estimated expenses for the first year of operation are $47,000 and estimated income is $50,000.

Sharon Bowen, R.N., is in charge of the program. The agency already has 9 patients under its care.

In other action the hospital board approved purchase of four intravenous pumps.

The board also heard a report from hospital administrator Perry Foster on the status of deficiencies cited in the last Medicare inspection. Medical records are almost caught up, the new sprinkler system is now working, and the new fire alarm system will be completed next week, Foster said.

The board tabled for further consideration action on a suit proposed by the county to collect back taxes on an oil lease.

The board also appointed Dr. Darwin Cole, D.O., of Hollis to the courtesy medical staff for the purposes of assisting in surgery when another physician is not available to assist.

The board also wrote off $882.50 in indigent care debts, and turned over $7,357.81 in bad debts to be filed on for judgements.

Present were board members Dr. J.M. Orr, Yates Parker, Loretta Wright, Robert Owens, Bill Patrick and Corky Bowen. Emory Ewing was absent.

Community Thanksgiving Service Sunday

The annual Ministerial Alliance Thanksgiving Service will be held Sunday, Nov. 20, at the Church of the Nazarene, beginning at 7 p.m.

The Rev. Stanley Hughes, pastor of 1st Baptist Church, will preach the Thanksgiving sermon.

Jamie Johnson, choir director at 1st Methodist Church, will lead the song service. Two groups will present special music, one from 1st Baptist Church and the other from the Abundant Life Fellowship.

The service will open with the invocation by the Rev. Larry Boyd, pastor of the Assembly of God and president of the ministerial alliance.

The Rev. Elvis Pitts of Quail Baptist Church will welcome the congregation, the Rev. Jim Horton of Abundant Life Fellowship will read the scripture, the Rev. Tom Thomson of 1st Methodist Church will take the offering, and the Rev. Don Bland of the Church of the Nazarene will give the benediction.

"The offering will go to the transient fund that we operate under the ministerial alliance and to carry out the various functions as a ministerial alliance group," said Rev. Horton. "This is for real transients who may find themselves in need as they are traveling in the Wellington area," he explained. "We either buy gas or provide food from one of the local groceries. We don't buy junk food, or

WHS Basketball Season Opens Nov. 22, 4 Games at White Deer

With football just 10 days behind them, high school athletes will open the Skyrocket-Rockette basketball season Tuesday, Nov. 22, when they travel to White Deer.

Four games will be featured, beginning at 6 p.m. and including the Skyrockets and Rockettes, junior varsity boys and girls, said Coach Dale Morris.

Besides these four teams, there will be two others in high school this year, 9th grade boys and girls playing a regular schedule.

Furthermore there will be the four junior high teams, 8th grade Firecrackers, boys and girls, and 7th grade boys and girls.

Morris, who coaches the girls, will have the varsity, junior varsity and 9th grade teams.

Gano Wilson will coach the high school boys teams.

Carl Taylor will coach 8th grade girls and Tom Johnson the 8th grade boys (Firecrackers).

Ronny Williams will have the 7th grade boys and girls.

Gym practice started Monday, Nov. 14.

Coach Morris this week looked at prospects for his girls team.

He has only one returning starter from the 1982 season, Dee Ann Williams, who plays post. A senior, this will be her third year on the varsity team. She is 5-8 and Morris refers to her being "quick and she jumps real well."

There are two returning letter players, both seniors.

Sandie Cobb, 5-4 forward is valued for her quickness. Last year she played quite a bit and developed accuracy as an outside shooter.

Mary Torrez is in her second year on the varsity team and is a 5-3 guard. "She has good floor leadership qualities," says Morris.

The remainder of the team is up from last year's junior varsity.

Lisa Archie 5-7 forward, senior; Mischelle Black, 5-4 forward, junior; Sandra Culpepper, 5-7 post, junior.

Traci Hunnicutt, 5-5 guard, junior; Juanita Martinez 5-3 guard, junior; Vanda Wood 5-6 post, junior, and Paula Nash 5-4 guard, senior.

Managers are Amy Williams and Lori Lacy.

"We ended last season with a 16-12 record and tied for third place in District 2-AA," said Morris. "The polls have us picked to finish 5th in district this year, but we plan on finishing much higher than that.

The Rockettes scrimmaged Hedley girls here Saturday, Nov. 12.

"I was real pleased with the way the girls played," said Morris. "We played with a lot of teamwork. We had four girls who scored in double figures and there was good team balance in scoring.

"They showed a lot of team quickness and overall, they played pretty good."

"To be able to compete in district, we are going to have to improve on defense. But I feel that with some more work and more experience that will come around."

After the opening game at White Deer Tuesday, Wellington teams will see no more action until Monday, Nov. 28, when 9th grade boys and girls play at Shamrock in a double header beginning at 6 p.m.

This will be followed that same weekend - Thursday through Saturday, Dec. 1-3, by Wellington's own tournament. That is the next action Varsity and JV will see.

With just under a week of practice, Wellington Skyrockets will open their

"Aid to local needy is done within the confines of our local churches," he added.

Other events will be sponsored by the ministerial alliance in early 1984.

The motion picture, "The Cross and the Switchblade," featuring the life of Nicky Cruz and David Wilkerson, will be shown Friday, March 9.

Eric Estrada has the film role as Cruz, who in real life, was a member of a street gang in New York City. Wilkerson, a pastor who began working with youths and turned around an entire gang, is played by Pat Boone.

This is a prelude to a city-wide crusade which Nicky Cruz will conduct in Wellington Friday through Sunday, April 6, 7 and 8. Cruz, described as "going from dope dealer to evangelist," now has headquarters in Denver, Colo.

basketball season against White Deer Bucks there Tuesday, Nov. 22.

After closing their football season Friday night, they had their first workout in Skyrocket Gym Tuesday, Nov. 14.

Thirty-one boys were on hand, and they will make up the varsity, junior varsity and 9th grade teams.

Coach Gano Wilson is expecting a hard game for the opener, with perhaps a little football showing up on the part of both teams.

"White Deer should have some pretty good players. They have the size and age," he said from his knowledge of the Buck football players who have gone on into basketball.

"They will have tall seniors and they'll be fundamental. White Deer has some good coaches."

Wilson intends to carry at least 10 players, maybe 12 or 13 on his squad.

There are four senior lettermen back from last year.

"Joe Bill Munn, will be the spark plug. He'll play up front," said Wilson. Munn is 5-9.

Resendo Villanueva is in his third year of play and is 5-10.

Dwayne Culpepper, a 6-footer, is a three year letterman, but at this point he is still recovering from football injuries that hampered his play in the Wellington-Stratford bi-district football game Friday.

The fourth of this basic group is Jay Warrick, 6', a two year letterman.

Others among the varsity players and players up from last year's junior varsity team are Mark Hunnicutt and Eddie Pena.

"We're looking at Chad Holland. He was pretty good Tuesday. He's about 6-2 and is quicker than I thought he would be--he showed quite a bit of agility," said Coach Wilson.

"Armando Snachez is little and real quick and plays good defense. He was on JV last year."

Others up from last year's junior varsity are Michael Souder, James Benton and Kirby Pennon. Two sophomores, Shaun Davis and Johnny Nash, round out what will probably be the Skyrocket traveling squad.

The remaining players will make up the junior varsity and 9th grade teams.

Junior varsity will also open its season Tuesday night against White Deer JV, but the 9th grade, which will also play a regular schedule this year, will not have a game until Monday, Nov. 28, when it will meet Shamrock there at 6 p.m.

"The Skyrockets ended their season last year third in the district and this year they are picked 4th or 5th, depending on which poll you read," says Wilson. This isn't bothering him for he predicts: "We'll be in the playoffs."

Christmas in November Set As Day-Long Program Nov. 29

A day-long Christmas in November will be presented by women of the Collingsworth area Tuesday, Nov. 29 under the sponsorship of the Extension Homemaker Clubs.

The program will be held in Bura Handley Community Center beginning at 10 a.m.

The program will focus on hand-crafted gifts which any woman can make for her entire family--and at a low price, said Nancy Bigby Janes, extension agent for home economics.

The guest speaker will be Susie Elmann, of Stratford, Sherman County extension agent.

Her presentation will be Christmas from a Tow Sack.

"These will be all-new ideas, all made from tow sacks or from burlap sold by the yard," said Mrs. Janes.

These will be both practical and attractive, she added.

Ms Elmann has presented this program in a number of counties over the Panhandle and in each it has been especially popular with both homemakers and singles, and among those of all ages.

She has served as Sherman County extension agent, for almost 5 years and has gained an area-wide reputation as being "real good at this type of program."

Mrs. Janes will then present A Patchwork Christmas, which will cover the many items that may be made from patchwork designs.

-The lunch break will be from 12 to 1 p.m. and those attending will be on their own or they may bring a sack lunch.

In the afternoon, each of the 6 Extension Homemaker Clubs will teach a unit relating to handcrafted gifts.

Included will be candle-wicking, making cornhusk wreaths, and other similar projects.

The program has been set up with several breaks through the dav. and women are invited to come for the entire "Christmas in November, or for any portion of it.

"We realize that many of you who work would like to be a part of this, and we invite you to come as you can and sit in for any period of time you can give," said Mrs. Janes.

Missionaries Due Sunday at Wellington, Dodson Churches

The Rev. and Mrs. Paul Stroud, who have been reappointed as missionaries from the Church of the Nazarene to the Republic of Cape Verde, will hold services at two county churches on Sunday, Nov. 20.

They will be at the Wellington Church of the Nazarene for the 11 a.m. Worship service, according to the Rev. Don Bland, pastor.

The congregation of the Dodson Church of the Nazarene will hear the couple at the Sunday night service, the Rev. C.M. Huff, pastor, announced.

The Rev. and Mrs. Stroud, who will go to their assignment in January 1984, were first assigned to the Cape Verde Islands in 1966 and served there for four years. Since 1971 they have been involved in the pastoral ministry in Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri and Texas.

The first term of missionary service involved Rev. Stroud in offset printing. Mrs. Stroud was organist for the Mindelo church and served as field treasurer for part of that time. Stroud's new assignment will be teaching in the Bible School.

REV. AND MRS. PAUL STROUD

The Strouds will present a service featuring the work of the Church in the Islands as they knew it. The message will update the work there and present the current challenge. Color slides and curios will be available along with the singing of Portuguese choruses originating from the Islands.

Rev. Stroud was born in Oklahoma and received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Bethany Nazarene College. Mrs. Stroud was born in Texas and attended a business college in Oklahoma. They spent seven years as pastors of Nazarene churches in Oklahoma before going to their first missionary assignment.

School Given Birth Defect Study Kit

The Golden Spread Chapter of the March of Dimes Birth Defect Foundation presented Wellington High School with educational modules for use in classes in health, home economics, life planning, life sciences, biology or social studies at the junior high or high school level.

"These units present parenthood in a way that is relevant to the needs of the young people and are also sensitive to the concerns of the community. Parenthood is usually entered into without any training or preparation and maybe this educational program will help define the responsibilities of parenthood," said Quetha Hale, community service representative. "It is the right of every infant to have the best possible start in life--and it is the responsibility of every adult to insure that right."

Mary Lois Scott, the home economics teacher, plans to use this program in her classes. "Starting a health family" consists of three modules entitled: "Starting a Healthy Family: Choosing Parenthood;" "Families with Special Needs Children" and "Families and Futures: Helping Self and Others."

The Golden Spread Chapter has made this possible through educational funds for Stinnett, Memphis, Borger, Perryton, Spearman, Pampa, Wellington, Vega, and Dumas in the Panhandle. All Amarillo highschools and Region XVI library also received the modules.

Those wanting more information can contact the March of Dimes office in Amarillo, 355-5321.

"Pick a Phone, Any Phone?"

Just because a phone will plug into your wall jack, it doesn't mean that it will work.

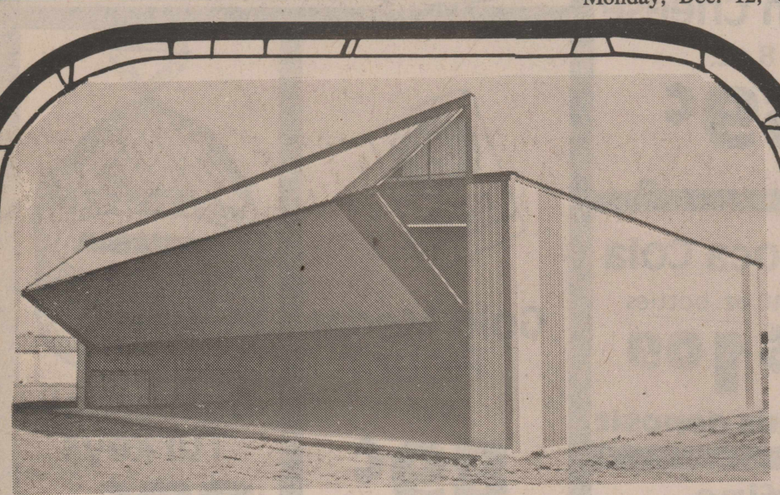

Why?
Well, for instance, let's look at a phone that will be used on a party-line. Since customers share a common line to the telephone company switching office, each phone has it's own special ringing-cycle setting which allows the phone to know when it should ring on the party-line.

Even if you have a 'Private Line', you still may have problems.
Single-line customers may also have special dialing or ringing requirements that are not apparent. So, they purchase a new phone and sadly discover that it won't work. This is especially true for customers who may be considering a cordless telephone or even a universal dialing telephone, a clock radio that offers telephone access capability or any other special telephone service.

Trading in your dial phone could be asking for trouble.
The joy of owning your very own 'Touch Tone' phone could turn into tragedy if your phone line is designated for a dial or pulse phone. A pushbutton 'pulse' phone will work on most lines, since it also duplicates the signal of a regular dial phone. However, a 'Touch Tone' phone emits a 'beeping' tone that requires special equipment to recognize the signal. Some dial phones, even if you have Touch Call Service, are not compatable under certain circumstances.

So, if you decide to buy a new telephone, take the time to stop by your neighborhood GTE Phone Mart and see if your particular line has any special limitations. It could possibly save you a lot of frustration and money.

Children Study in Their Own Gifted and Talented Program

BY DEANNA VAN PELT

School children from all over the Panhandle have been offered the opportunity to participate in West Texas State University second annual Gifted and Talented Institute. Twenty elementary and junior high students from Wellington participated in the G/T Institute Enrichment classes during the 1982-83 year.

Each area such as advanced reading, military skills, perceptual motor training, art, museum and Spanish that the students attended was taught by WTSU professors. The students reported that they learned many new and interesting things and enjoyed the experience.

Parents organized car pools to transport the children all 6 Saturdays in the three sessions. Because of the enthusiasm of the children and parents for the variety of topics taught, they began to question the possibility of offering Saturday classes in special areas locally.

After contacting many persons to teach areas they enjoy sharing, Gayle Hankins has coordinated all the details to make the Saturday Enrichment Classes in Wellington a reality.

The second session of Enrichment classes is now under way and the students are exicted about the opportunities they are having to work on projects they enjoy.

The second session of the Saturday Enrichment Classes started Nov. 5 with an enrollment of 40 taking classes in computers taught by Jackie Wilkerson, Quilling, by Lois Ratliff, crafts by Barbara Settle and ABC cookery by Beverly Hudson.

Keep a Household Inventory-You May Be Worth More Than You Think

The things inside your home are probably worth far more than you realize.

An inventory of household furnishings and possessions can help determine the value of your property, says home economist Nancy Granovsky.

The inventory is important to estimate your need for insurance, and to settle insurance claims quickly and efficiently, says Granovsky, a specialist in family resource management with Texas A&M's Agricultural Extension Service.

"Your memory may fail you, especially under the stress of a natural disaster or a burglary, but an inventory will have information needed for a claim", she says.

An inventory should note the date or year of purchase and purchase price for each item. If you don't know when you bought an item or what the purchase price was, says Granovsky, you can estimate the replacement cost. This information can help you specify exactly what was lost and its worth, she explains.

No matter what type of inventory you make, it's critical to store it in a safe deposit box or some other secure place away from your home, notes the specialist.

Photographing each wall of every room in your house with all cabinets and drawers open is the easiest way to make an inventory. Also save the negatives from these pictures to make enlargements which could provide important details for an insurance claim, she says.

Another method for making an inventory is to list all household goods, room by room. Include everything on the walls, in the closets, food in the freezer or pantry and items in the garage, says the home economist.

If you have extensive collections of things that are difficult to photograph or tedious to write down, such as book or record collections, Granovsky suggests using a tape recorder to dictate the information onto a cassette. Microcomputer owners may wish to invest in a software package to maintain a household inventory on a disk.

COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY AGENT REPORT

by Nancy Janes

LET'S TALK TURKEY

It's time to talk turkey.

Consumers shopping for the traditional holiday bird will be pleased to find that it's just as economical as last year. Retail prices will be about the same, or only slightly higher than last year.

Shoppers will find plenty of turkey in the stores, but prices will vary significantly between different types of turkey products--plain whole turkey, self-basted store brands and self-basted national brands.

Economy and tradition aren't the only reason that the average American consumes about 11 pounds of turkey per year. "Turkey is one of the best high-nutrition, low-calorie foods around."

Roasted dark turkey meat contains 30 percent protein, 8.3 percent fat and 203 calories for 100-gram serving, which is just under a quarter-pound. Roasted light meat contains 32.9 percent protein, 3.9 percent fat and only 176 calories per serving.

When shopping for a turkey, look first for the white, circular USDA inspection mark located on the package. This mark assures that the processing was done under sanitary conditions.

The designation of a grade on turkeys is not mandatory, but a high percentage do have a USDA grade mark, she says.

Most turkeys sold at retail are Grade A turkeys. Some stores also have Grade B turkeys and a few may package grade C turkeys. "Don't hesitate to buy grade B or C turkey when they are available. The price will be lower, and the factor that caused the lower grade, such as a skin tear, has nothing to do with the wholesomeness of the bird.

Since tenderness of the meat is determined by the age of the bird, and not the grade, size or sex, look for the words "young" or "fryer-roaster", to get a tender bird.

Plan on buying a turkey big enough to supply three-fourths pound per person, or one pound if you want leftovers.

Smaller families and singles can enjoy a holiday turkey without having to purchase more than they can eat, by shopping for a turkey half or quarter.

Since turkey leftovers can be frozen in any high-quality moisture and vapor-proof material for up to a year without losing quality, planned leftovers make good food management for large or small families.

Dieters should select fresh-dressed or frozen plain turkey. Pre-basted frozen turkeys have more calories and usually cost more. Those on salt-restricted diets should also avoid pre-basted or processed turkey, since salt is added to preserve the meat and enhance flavor.

For a good way to use any of your turkey leftovers try this recipe:

TURKEY HAM ROLL-UPS

Combine 5 cups chopped cabbage, cooked and drained, ½ cup Cheddar cheese

Spoon 3 Tablespoons cabbage mixture on each 8 thin slices fully cooked turkey ham (about 1 pound)

Roll up slices. Place in baking dish, seam side down . In medium pan, saute ¼ cup onion, chopped, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Blend in 3 tablespoons flour

Add; bring to boil, stirring constantly 1½ cups milk, 2 tsps, horseradish mustard

Add ½ cup Swiss cheese, grated and 1 tablespoon chopped parsley

Pour mixture over turkey ham rolls.

Combine in a bowl 1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine and ¼ cup bread crumbs.

Sprinkle over cheese sauce.

Bake uncovered at 375 degrees F for 25-30 minutes.

Serves 4.

Health Caution: Check Before Giving Aspirin to Children

The United States Surgeon General has issued a warning to parents: don't immediately give aspirin to children who are suffering from chicken pox, influenza or a flu-like illness.

The caution is a result of medical research that indicates a possible association between children under age 16 taking aspirin and a condition called Reye Syndrome.

Reye Syndrome (pronounced "rye" and sometimes called RS or Reye's Syndrome) is a dangerous condition that may follow influenza or chicken pox infection in children from one month to late teens. It is characterized by persistent vomiting, violent headaches and bizarre mental and physical behavior. The affected children are usually recovering from a viral illness when Reye strikes.

The condition, according to C. Everett Koop, M.D., U.S. Surgeon General, is rare but may be fatal. Fewer than 1,200 cases occur each year in the U.S. Death occurs in 20 to 30 percent of all reported cases and permanent brain damage has been reported in many children who have survived.

Reye syndrome most often occurs in children between the ages of five and 16.

Although the relationship between aspirin is suspected, not proven, Dr. Koop recommends that parents with children who are sick with chicken pox or a flu-like illness leave aspirin on the shelf. Instead, he suggests calling a pediatrician or family physician for advice. The American Academy of Pediatrics makes the same suggestion.

If your child has chicken pox or a flu-like illness, call the doctor before reaching for the aspirin.

Most childhood illnesses, Dr. Koop points out, are minor and self-limiting . . . they quickly go away with no need for medication. Therefore, it's not only unwise to give your child aspirin during a viral illness, it's probably also unnecessary.

If there is a need to reduce fever, to make the child more comfortable, seek the advice of your physician.

Delta Kappa Gamma Hears Cavitt on School Economics

Garland Cavitt, superintendent of Samnorwood Schools, was guest speaker at the two o'clock tea held Saturday, Nov. 12, by Gamma Kappa Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma at the Hospitality Room of 1st State Bank, Childress.

Theme of the talk was "Economics and Education," and his focus was "Educate for understanding the relationship of economics and education.

Cavitt stated that with each historical event, such as the Invasion of Grenada to prevent a communist takeover, school text books should be updated.

One economic phenomena is the awesome amount of paper used in education, he pointed out, adding that it is necessary to teach computer science in the schools, as everything in the business world is becoming computerized.

Other points he brought out were:

-Schools will have to look to something other than the present taxes to support the schools.

-The entire school program must be continually updated to meet the needs of education.

-The amount of money spent on education is about one-tenth of what it should be.

Cavitt went on to pay tribute to the teachers by asking who made the engineer or scientist. It is the teacher, but when credit is given, the teacher is the last to be thought of, he said.

He compared the education of the children of the United States with those of Japan.

A small percentage (5%) of children complete their education in Japan, while the remainder become common laborers. In the United States, the percentage to complete education is much higher.

Those attending the tea were Mrs. Marjorie Bain, Turkey, Mrs. Carrie Bell King, Miss Alma Bruce, Miss Ethel Hillhouse, Miss Helen Madden, all of Memphis; Mrs. Jean Cavitt, Miss Maudie Coffee, Mrs. Myrtle Hill, Mrs. Gav McAlister, Mrs. L.C. Sweat Mrs. Juanita White, Miss Bonnie Willis, all of Wellington; Mrs. Barbara Currie, Mrs. Betty White both of Childress; Mrs. Zola Donald, Mrs. Evelyn Messer of Clarendon.

Mrs. Currie and Mrs. White were the hostesses.

Attend the church of your choice this Sunday!

The greatest happiness in the world is the conviction that we are loved, loved for ourselves or rather loved in spite of ourselves.

Love is what all our dear friends have shown us with their gifts of love, cards, telephone calls, flowers, gifts, and food during my surgery and stay in the hospital. There's not enough words to tell you how we "thank you" and appreciate every little word of kindness.

Many many thanks for everything- is our sincere prayer of love-

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Travis County District Attorney Ronnie Earle, who this year came onto the statewide picture via his present prosecution of Attorney General Jim Mattox on commercial bribery charges, said recently the public is demanding a higher standard of conduct from public officials.

The image of the public official has been more than a little tarnished this year, what with House Speaker Gib Lewis being fined $800 for financial disclosure irregularities and a former legislator sentenced to prison for cattle rustling.

Now another legislator is being investigated by the House ethics committee for alleged misuse of state funds in '81 and '82. This time the legislator apparently is going to investigate the committee, too.

Houston State Rep. Ron Wilson won't say why he is doing it, but he obtained the office expense accounts of 25 other representatives and two former members.

One legislator speculated Wilson, if found guilty, was going to take a few other careers down the tubes with him. Whatever the motive, another legislator warned, Wilson may have trouble getting his targets' votes when he needs an important bill passed.

Redistricting

The redistricting battle is well into the end-game stages, but yet another challenge to the plan must be resolved.

This one, a joint effort by the Texas Republican Party and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, seeks to redraw district lines in Dallas County.

In 1981, the Legislature drew lines which created two GOP districts and a minority district. Later, the federal court altered the plan to produce two white Democrats and one Republican.

But with the challenge back in court again, one of those judges, controversial William Wayne Justice, has excused himself from the case. The judge dropped out after Republicans hired a Tyler attorney who had represented Justice on private legal matters.

New Polls

Behind-the-scenes campaigning is in full gear, as candidates jockey for funds and support in the coming May primaries, and the first of the season's major polls was released last week in Texas.

A Dallas Morning News/Gallup Poll tested 1984 presidential and Senate races with the following results:

—President Ronald Reagan leads in Texas with 50 percent approval against major challengers.

—Democratic challengers Walter Mondale and John Glenn each posted 48 percent matched against Reagan.

—A Mondale-Bentsen ticket rated 50 percent against 47 percent for the Reagan-Bush ticket.

Senate Races

On the Democratic slate, Bob Krueger at 38 percent leads liberal Lloyd Doggett with 12 percent and conservative Kent Hance with 8 percent; undecideds, the big factor, posted a high 44 percent.

For Republicans, Phil Gramm at 46 percent had a big edge over Houstonians Ron Paul, 16 percent, and Rob Mosbacher, 4 percent.

The poll also indicated Krueger could beat Gramm today by a 50-to-38 margin.

In a surprise to many Texans, the poll also indicated Gramm would lose to Doggett by 41-to-44, but beat Hance by 43-to-41.

Doggett, Hance, Tower

Doggett, a feisty consumer advocate in the Texas Senate, caused much speculation about his lack of campaign funds last week when he laid off his campaign employees by about half. He held his first major Washington fund-raiser this week.

Hance, meanwhile, has shown his seriousness for the campaign battle by hiring a former campaign director to Gov. Mark White, a Washington media consultant and a Boston pollster.

U.S. Sen. John Tower was expected to be named chairman of Reagan's reelection campaign in Texas, along with five finance co-chairmen.

Prison, Insurance Boards

The State Board of Insurance voted unanimously last week to ban blanket accident insurance policies which many small businesses buy as substitutes for workers' compensation.

Gov. Mark White successfully backed the state prison board away from its plans to implement a prison dairy last week. The board voted to scuttle the project after White and legislators objected to the use of funds.

White reportedly was angry that his request to hire more prison guards was ignored.

No Aoudad Hunt at Caprock

Quitaque - Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials said there will be no public hunt for aoudad (Barbary) sheep at Caprock Canyons State Park this year because of low aoudad populations.

Very few sightings of aoudad sheep were reported by the park staff this year, officials said. The 39 hunters participating in the January 1983 hunt were able to take only eight sheep.

Rocket JV-Samnorwood Basketball Scrimmage

First Basketball of the 1983-84 season came Tuesday night, Nov. 8, with the scrimmage between Wellington JV and Samnorwood varsity girls.

Scores were erased at the end of each of the five 10-minute periods of play, but the two appeared to be about equal, said Mike Smith, Norwood girls coach. Both got a good workout, he added.

"We are quicker than they are, but they out-rebounded us. Both teams will improve after coming off this scrimmage."

Samnorwood Girls team has 9 players this year, although two are on the injured list presently, neither injury related to basketball. Becky Barton a junior has a torn Achilles' tendon and may not be back until district play begins at the first of the year. Sandy Henard, a sophomore, has had dental surgery.

Coach Smith has no seniors on his team this year, and this lack of experience is felt, he said.

There are 6 juniors, however, each with two years experience to her credit. These are Sandy Henard; Stacy Brandvik, April Castillo, Ersilia Del Bosque, Stephanie McWhorter.

Sophomores all of whom played last year, are Becky Barton, Stephanie Brandvik, Linda Garza. The only freshman is Leslie Brandvik.

"We are going to make use of our quickness and speed and we'll try to press our opponents," Smith pointed out.

The next scrimmage will be on Thursday, November 17, when both Samnorwood varsity boys and girls go against Lefors there.

Samnorwood Eagles will not have a scrimmage until they and the Eaglettes travel to Lefors Thursday, Nov. 17.

Coach Ralph Decker has 9 players this year--five lettermen, four of whom were starters last year.

Altogether, Decker has three seniors, Scot Martindale and Tommy Barker were starters last year.

Senior Gilbert Garcia is playing for the first time.

Tony Kidd, a junior did not play last year due to a foot injury.

Two sophomores were the other starters last year, Ty Bonner and Steve Bentley.

Three freshmen round out the team, Spencer Seale, Robin Fulfer and Shaun Coleman.

Looking at Eagle prospects, Coach Decker believes his team is quicker and shoots a little better than last year. The experience from the four starters helps. "They don't look so fast, but they are faster than they look," says Decker.

The Eagles also have some height, with Bonner and Bentley both 6'1". Other players are in the 5-8,5-9 range.

Sales Tax Rebate Check is $14,061

State Comptroller Bob Bullock on Wednesday Nov. 9, sent a city sales tax rebate check for $14,061.37 to the City of Wellington, representing its sales and use tax allocation for the month ending Nov. 4.

This is up almost $1,300 from the sales tax allocation for the same period in 1982, which reached $13,690.

Payments to date for 1983 total, $69,662.91 up from $67,902.43. This represents a 2.59% increase in sales tax rebates for the year to this point.

"We're sending these checks early because $134,000 Texas taxpayers paid before the deadline," Bullock said. "This kind of cooperation among taxpayers is helping us avoid new and higher taxes. It's obvious this change will help local governments put these tax revenues to work faster in their cities.

Starting in November all taxpayers will be required to file by the 20th of the month instead of the last day of the month.

The earlier deadline set by the Legislature will bring in $500 million more for the current state budget without a tax increase.

GATE Parents To Meet Thursday

The fall meeting of the GATE (Gifted and Talented) Parent Association will be held Thursday, Nov. 17, at 7 p.m. in the chapel of First Baptist Church.

"We will have slides of last year's Science Fair at West Texas State University in which two Wellington GATE students won awards," said Deanna Van Pelt, director.

"We will also have presentations from some students enrolled in the Saturday Enrichment Classes which have been so well attended.

"Seminar descriptions will be given by High School students to let you know the rich variety of offerings they have to choose from each month.

"There will be a report of our Fun Fair projects and a discussion of other projects for the year by the officers and members," Mrs. Van Pelt continued.

"We hope all of you will make plans to attend so that we may have an active organization this year."

SOIL TEST THIS FALL

Farmers should not wait until next spring to begin planning their crop fertilization programs.

By collecting samples now and having soils tested, farmers can get a jump on next year's production.

Testing soils this fall offers several advantages:

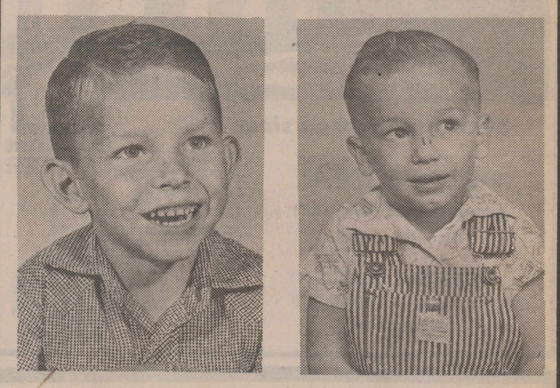

--Samples often can be collected when fields are dry and more accessible. In the spring, it's often difficult and sometime impossible to collect samples because soils are wet or even flooded.

--By testing this fall, farmers avoid the typical spring rush in the Soil Testing Laboratory.

--Applying fertilizers in the winter minimizes spring planting delays because of tighter dealer schedules and reduces the potential for moisture loss just prior to planting. Also, fertilizers usually cost less in the fall than in the spring when demand is greater and supplies tighter.

Fall testing also eliminates the risk of not getting fields sampled. If soils are not tested until near spring planting time, chances are good that fields will not be tested at all.

During his career as an actor and light-opera singer, DeWolf Hopper recited "Casey at the Bat" at least 10,000 times.

Yards of the Month Chosen

Yards of the month for October and November were announced by Mrs. Tom Caterlin, president of Wellington Garden Club, which sponsors the project.

The October yard was that of Mrs. Jessie Metz, 1208 15th Street. The November Yard of the Month belongs to Louis Graham, 110 15th Street.

There is much of sentiment about Mrs. Metz yard, for she lives in the home that many years ago belonged to her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. T.B. Sledge.

The Garden Club made its selection on the basis of its growth of trees and shrubbery. Fruitless mulberry and maple trees were used and there is a large ash set out by Mrs. Metz father some 65 or 70 years ago.

At this season, red berries give color to the Nandina and pyracantha plantings. Some were set out by Mrs. Metz and her sister, the late Mrs. Sandy Parsons, Sr., brought from the latter's yard.

Graham's yard both the front yard and the fenced back yard, are filled with fall flowers.

Two new varieties of chrysanthemums are Patriot, with white blooms, and Redcoat, which lives up to its name.

Berries are bright on the red honeysuckle, and the lawn, set with Kentucky Fescue, will remain green all winter.

In the back yard fall-blooming crocus and Stars of David are at their peak.

Roses have outdone themselves, blooming later than usual.

"I've had them bloom this late in the past, but not as pretty as this year, and they are a lot larger," Graham said.

Varieties include Promise, a pink rose, and Brandy, whose name describes its color. Red coloring is provided by the Triumph variety.

Transformer Blows Up on November 8

A West Texas Utilities Company transformer located in the alley behind the Henry Sullivan home in the 1600 block of El Paso Street blew up Tuesday, Nov. 8, sending a surge of electricity into 5 homes in the immediate area.

Tommy Hudson, WTU manager, said this resulted in damage or loss of appliances in each of these houses. Included were at least 5 televisions, one or more refrigerators, and other items.

The loss is still being determined, he said. Those whose homes were affected were Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Crawley, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crosby and Robbie Hays.

"We don't know how much voltage went into the houses or how high it got, but the distribution lines carry 7200 volts," Hudson said.

A sixth house located in the same block and served by the same line, was unaffected, he added.

County Receives Remittance for Mixed Drink Tax

State Comptroller Bob Bullock has sent a check for $298.10 to Collingsworth County for its 15% mixed drink tax remittance for the third quarter (July, August and September) 1983.

The total county tax revenue on mixed drinks was $1,987.32 for that period.

The State collects a 10 percent mixed drink tax and of this the county or city receives 15% of this tax collected on mixed drinks sold within their boundaries under the law that legalizes the sale of mixed drinks in the State.

Bullock said the state collected a total of $37.2 million in taxes on the sale of mixed drinks during the third quarter, up 7.4 percent over the same period last year.

Stratford Slashes Skyrockets 21-6 for Bi-District Title

The Stratford Elks defeated the Wellington Skyrockets 21-6 to end the Rocket season in the 1-2A/2-2A Bi-District playoff Friday, Nov. 11 at White Deer.

Stratford, scored on their first possession, an 80-yard, 10-play drive that ended in a 1-yard touchdown dash by Albert Olivas. The extra point kick failed and the Elks held a 6-0 lead.

Olivas and Sammy Gomez were an unstoppable running team behind an offensive line that controlled the line of scrimmage for Stratford. Stratford quarterback Kent Holman played with a dislocated shoulder and didn't complete a pass but Olivas and Gomez' quickness made up the difference.

The Skyrockets played without the services of injured fullback James Benton and with Dewayne Culpepper still hurting from rib injuries.

The Rockets came back to tie the game up in the second quarter with their own long drive, a 77-yarder, that saw Mark Hunnicutt carry for a 6-yard touchdown with 10:35 to play in the half. A bad snap from center forced Hunnicutt to run on extra point and he wound up just shy of the goal leaving the score 6-6.

Stratford took the lead again with 2:57 to play in the half on a 38-yard pass from Albert Olivas to David Naugle. An extra point run by Sammy Gomez made the score 14-6 at halftime.

But the Skyrockets came back strong after halftime with a fumble recovery by Dewayne Culpepper, and a strong defensive effort on the next series.

The Rockets wound up with the ball on Stratford's 29 and moved to within 6 inches of the goal line.

But on fourth and inches, the Rockets took a 5-yard illegal motion penalty. And on the next play Darvin Nix scrambled for the goal line and two officials signaled a touchdown, but were overruled by another official who said the ball carrier's knee went down before the score.

That play marked the turning point in the game, which might have enabled the Rockets to tie the score, although the Skyrockets had several more big efforts.

Wellington blocked Stratford's next punt, but fumbled the ball back to the Elks two plays later.

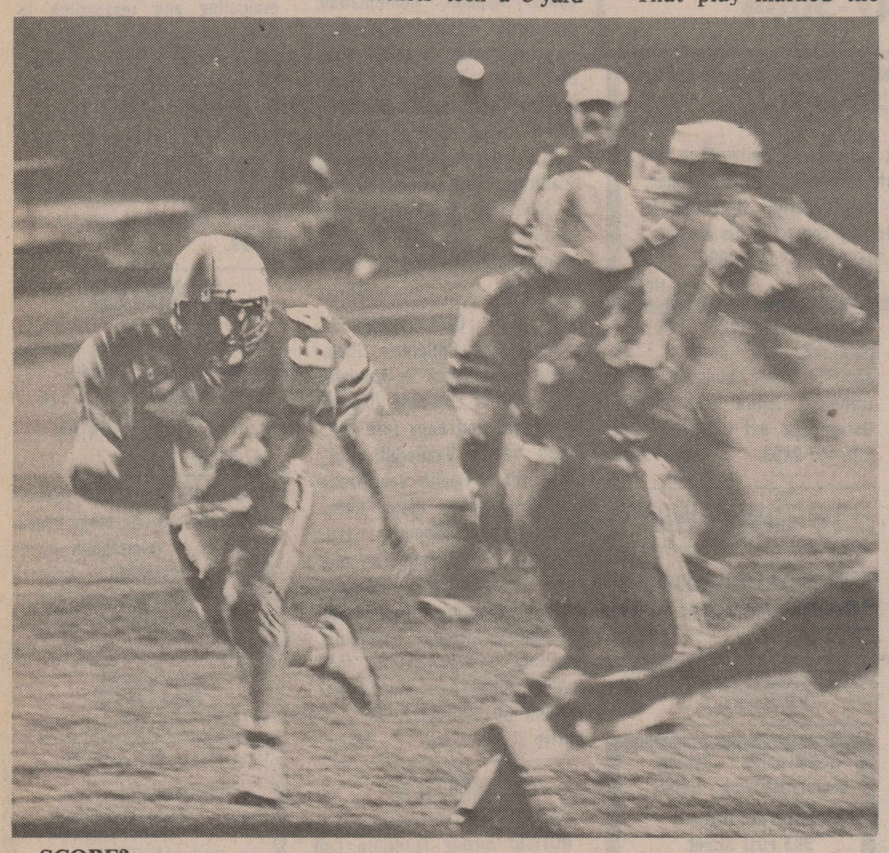

The Elks put the game away with 3:58 to play on a 5-yard touchdown by Albert Olivas. An extra point kick by Olivas made the final score 21-6.

The Rockets came back with one more drive, including a 29-yard guard-around play by Darvin Nix, and moved to Stratford's 34 where the ball went over.

The loss gave the Rockets a 7-4 season, and put former Skyrocket Jackie Needham's Elks into the Area playoffs with a 10-1 record.

IN THE AIR
Mark Hunnicutt, 81, catches a pass from Joe Bill Munn, 20, as Kenny Peeks, 63, and Chad Holland, 70, move downfield against Stratford in the Bi-District game.

SCORE?
Darvin Nix carries the football on a controversial play that two officials called a touchdown. They were later overruled, and the Rockets turned the ball over to Stratford at the 1-yard line in the Bi-District game.
