

Looters In Hurricane Sector

By the Associated Press
An army of 100,000 WPA workers, reinforced by thousands of volunteers, regular army soldiers and national guardsmen, toiled far into Saturday night on the gigantic task of cleaning up the seven-state hurricane front where nearly 500 known victims lay dead and scores of others were missing amid $300,000,000 property damage.

Jackals of the storm—roving bands of looters—led Adj. Gen. Charles H. Cole of Massachusetts to issue "shoot to kill" orders to national guardsmen.

As the reconstruction work went forward, General Cole rushed 250 guardsmen to Cape Cod to stamp out reported looting of rich estates at Falmouth, Gray Rabies, Bourne, Buzzards Bay and Mashpee.

"It is open and bold-faced," Cole said. "At such a time as this, nothing is more despicable. We have issued orders to shoot to kill."

Officials estimated the damage in Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Massachusetts at more than $150,000,000.

State and federal authorities rushed tons of food, blankets and medical supplies to the widespread stricken areas, where 12,000 families were homeless.

A revised tabulation of the known dead by states:

Rhode Island, 206.
Massachusetts, 127.
Connecticut, 65.
New York, 50.
New Hampshire, 16.
Vermont, 3.
New Jersey, 2.
Quebec, 2.
Total, 465.

Crowning the three-day ordeal of stunned tragedy and desolation, fears of a possible disease epidemic led to emergency measures in many communities.

Relief workers inoculated 700 persons against typhoid fever at Adams, Mass., and town officials at Ware, Mass., where drinking-water reservoirs gave way, asked for 200 vials of anti-tetanus vaccine.

Slowly ebbing flood waters gave the "mop up" legions a chance to bury the dead and sift through mountains of debris for the bodies of scores still missing.

Tree-clogged highways and wrecked lines of communication prevented a final accurate assessment of the life and property loss, but many officials agreed it was the area's worst since disaster—striking with appalling suddenness Wednesday as it howled out of the tropics and raged along the Atlantic seaboard—in more than a century.

In New England alone, telephone company officials said 250,000 miles of wire would have to be replaced.

Airplane observers reported New Hampshire's tall pines and birch trees were leveled by the hundreds.

The two great rivers of New England, the Connecticut and the Merrimack, were reported past their danger point crests and receding but fresh alarm developed in eastern Connecticut when the Dyer dam, south of Danielson, burst and started a river swell.

Sufferers on Long Island heard cheering news for the weekend when Commissioner David C. Abie of the department of social welfare at Albany announced 188,000 pounds of food was being shipped to the distressed area.

REVIEWING THE BIG SPRING WEEK

BY JOE PICKLE

The Big Spring water problem monopolized public attention here during the past week, and for that reason it might as well monopolize this column today. Certainly Big Spring has not been called upon to face a more important situation in years. The climax will be Tuesday when the voters go to the polls to pass upon a $275,000 bond issue, a matter which must be approved at this time if PWA is to make good its offer of a $225,000 outright grant for water improvement.

When we came here little less than 20 years ago, Big Spring had an acute water problem. Residents were told not to water lawns except at specified times. Then, addition of a few wells solved the situation temporarily. When, in 1926, this supply became inadequate, the late E. A. Kelly pointed out the spot where the city's prolific deep wells were later found. Until now, the combined sources have kept the town in water. But history is repeating itself, and another supply must be found.

Some people think all this is a hurried proposition. That's hardly so, since the city, T. & F. railroad and federal agencies have spent well over $15,000 in 10 years to find a solution to the problem. Some of the best geological minds in the country have been at work on the matter. They have come to one conclusion: The present supply is fast being depleted; it can last but two years under the present demand; additional source from surface water must be secured and supplemented by other wells.

There seems little doubt that the City To Write Its Answer To PWA Offer Of $225,000; Complete Unit Promised To Boost Supply

With a vote on a $275,000 bond issue only two days away, the attention of Big Spring residents will be focused on discussions of the water situation today and Monday.

Now that the Concho dam proposition has been ruled out by the city commission as too costly, solution of the problem will concentrate on construction of a dam nearer at home and additional supplementary wells.

This, city commissioners pointed out, will give the city a complete project for the $275,000, plus a PWA grant of $225,000 if the local bonds carry. The program, they believed, would solve the supply problem for at least 15 years with normal growth of the city.

The vote Tuesday, it was pointed out, is made necessary because PWA must have an answer by Oct. 1.

DEATH VICTIM

LONDON, Sept. 24 (AP)—The British government announced Premier Edouard Daladier of France and his foreign minister, Georges Bonnet, would fly to London tomorrow to hear Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's account of his latest talk with Adolf Hitler.

of Czechoslovakia if pressed too far, it was said in Berlin Hitler had preferred peace to war.

He still insisted upon surrender of the Sudetenland to Germany—Czechoslovakia has agreed to do by negotiation—but he gave her until October 1 to do it.

Previously the fuhrer had been represented as insisting upon immediate evacuation by the Czechoslovakians and occupation by German or Sudeten German forces pending formal demarcation of the new frontier.

But a Berlin informant who saw Hitler's memorandum said he declined to become a guarantor of the new Czechoslovak frontier unless other minorities—Poles and Hungarians—also attained their desires of reunion with their homelands.

Official Czechoslovak quarters in London viewed this refusal as an extension, in effect, of Hitler's demands for "self-determination" to include Poles and Hungarians. The Czechoslovakians therefore regarded the "final" memorandum as going beyond their agreement of last Wednesday with the French and British to concede the Sudetenland as the price of peace.

The memorandum was said by the Czechoslovakians to demand evacuation of the areas where 75 per cent or more of the population is German, and a plebiscite in remaining Sudeten districts.

Prime Minister Chamberlain, after returning from his Godesberg conference with Hitler, yesterday conferred with his cabinet and army.

State's Police Chief Dies Of Heart Attack

Col. H. H. Carmichael Stricken While Driving Alone

AUSTIN, Sept. 24 (AP)—Col. H. H. Carmichael, 51-year-old director of state police, was stricken fatally with a heart attack while driving alone here today.

Physicians believed he died instantly. His automobile left the Barton Springs road, ran across a flower bed and struck a filling station post.

Colonel Carmichael had been head of the state police system since May, 1936. During that period, the comparatively new organization was materially expanded.

The 230-pound state police chief returned from the war with a brilliant record of service in France, where he was a captain of a machine gun company in the 144th infantry, 36th division. Retired from the army as a major, he was made lieutenant colonel, then colonel, in the Texas national guard.

He was assistant adjutant general under former Governors Dan Moody and E. S. Sterling and James V. Allred, the present chief executive. The Texas rangers, now a unit of the state police, were under the supervision of the adjutant general's department most of that time.

Associates of the tactician but genial officer said he suffered a heart attack several days ago but disclosed it only to personal friends. Doctors who examined Colonel Carmichael after his death said there were no evidences of injury other than a slight high bruise.

Survivors are the officer's widow, who lives in San Antonio, his sons, Jack of San Antonio, Lieutenant Richard of the United States air corps, Honolulu, and Dix, Chicago, business man, and his brothers, Floyd of Fort Worth, Dodson of Ellaboro, J. Q. of Dallas, and his sisters, Mrs. Paul Bachus of Wichita Falls and a Mrs. Wagner of Fort Riley, Kan., were notified.

W. H. Richardson, Jr., of Austin, chairman of the public safety commission, said Homer Garrison, assistant state police chief, will be in charge pending appointment of a successor.

The gift of little less than a quarter of a million dollars has been held this long by state of construction on a $19,000 elevated storage and pressure equalizing tank on the north side of town. Chicago Bridge and Iron Works, successful bidder on the job, has all material on the grounds, foundation holes dug and concrete footings in the process of being poured. Location is north of the football stadium.

Two quarter hour radio programs are scheduled for today and Monday. The one today will be over KBST at 12:15 p. m. and the Monday program at 12:45 p. m.

Monday evening the matter will be outlined briefly before a mass meeting of the Sales Crusade participants.

Polls will open in the city this station at 8 a. m. Tuesday and will close at 7 p. m. Persons who are otherwise qualified voters who live within the corporate limits, and who have property for taxation and who actually rendered it for taxes prior to the time the rolls were closed after the board of equalization meeting in August will be entitled to vote on the issue.

Labor Groups Lay Groundwork For Convention

HOUSTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Pro-labor members of the 1938 convention of the American Federation of Labor were under way tonight, with the metal trades branch ready to open its own convention Monday.

The building and construction trades department and the union label trades department will meet later in the week and the federation's general convention will be called to order October 2.

Resolutions on new deal legislation were expected in view of recent suggestions by William Green, federation president, for revision of the Wagner act and in view of resolutions passed at last year's convention in Denver calling for changes in the administration of the act.

CZECHS IN TEXAS TO STAGE A RALLY

EAST BERNARD, Sept. 24 (AP)—Representatives of the 400,000 Czechs of Czechoslovakian descent tonight prepared for a mass meeting here tomorrow to discuss the crisis in Central Europe.

The meeting has been called to lend moral support to the Czechs. C. H. Chernosky, temporary chairman, said Dr. Charles Holub, Czech consul at Houston; State Sen. L. J. Sulak, H. Matucha, Rev. J. C. Kunz and Rev. P. P. Kaspar, will address the American Czechs.

BONUS FOR CREW

GALVESTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Crew members of the Lykes Brothers freighter Liberator, which is sailing from here tonight for Bremen and Hamburg, will be paid a bonus of $50 per man for each port which the vessel makes which belongs to a nation in a state of war.

Such an agreement was reached between the Galveston branch of the National Maritime union and the steamship company today. The payment, however, is entirely contingent on a state of war developing and the ship entering the war zone.

Americans Advised To Get Out Of Hungary As Troops Are Mobilized

BUDAPEST, Sept. 24 (AP)—The United States and British legations in Budapest today made ready for possible emergency evacuation of American and British citizens as Hungarian and Czechoslovak troops were arrayed on each side of the border.

American inquiring at their legation were advised to leave Hungary immediately if they could. The legation has a train ready to take Americans to the coast if an emergency arises—Trieste, the Italian Adriatic port, is the nearest coastal point.

The British legation has taken similar measures.

WAR ALMOST INEVITABLE, THE WAY MUSSOLINI LOOKS AT IT

ROME, Sept. 24 (AP)—Italians considered war almost inevitable tonight after a speech by Premier Benito Mussolini disclosing that Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler had given Czechoslovakia an Oct. 1 deadline for a reply to German demands.

Italy's most authoritative editor, Virginio Gayda, writing in Il Giornale d'Italia assumed Prague would reject the German fuhrer's demands and added:

"It may therefore be considered that events are moving toward an armed, bloody conflict."

Premier Mussolini, addressing 300,000 Fascist Blackshirts at Padua in northeastern Italy, said "If the conflict must nevertheless break out there is a possibility of localizing it," but added that in event of an ideological war against nazism, Italy and Germany would form "a single bloc."

He said Germany "has sent requests to Prague and has given until Oct. 1 for a reply." He continued:

"There are, therefore, exactly six days for the Prague government to resume again a way of sanity, for it would be truly absurd and even criminal that Europe's millions should be hurled against one another over that land."

Four Texas Towns Approve Municipal Ownership

By the Associated Press
Four Texas municipalities voted overwhelmingly Saturday for municipal ownership and operation of power distribution systems, which would purchase current from the Lower Colorado River Authority.

Marble Falls voted 144 for and 9 against the proposal; Burnett, 298 for and 102 against; Bastrop, 323 for and 105 against; and Smithville, 437 for and 14 against.

Earlier this week, Fredericksburg and Lampasas also voted for municipal ownership.

ITS ALL OVER

GOOSE CREEK, Sept. 23 (AP)—If Attorney General William McCraw investigates the municipal light and power company bond election procedure in Goose Creek he will do so without help from the Goose Creek.

The crop, most observers predicted, would be comparatively short, especially against the record breaking 45,000-bale ginning total of a year ago. The top estimates Saturday were around 17,000 bales.

Failure to receive rain in the first week of September plus the heaviest infestation of leaf and bollworms and resultant damage of poisoning out the top crop short.

Ginnings this year are far behind those of the past two years. At the same time in 1937 there were 795 bales handled in town. Last year there were 1,305 bales. Prices levels, too, were at variance. In 1937 the cotton was bringing around 10 to 12 cents and seed $31 a ton. Last year cotton ranged between six and nine cents and seed were worth $17 a ton.

Crusade Swings Into Final Week

Mass Meeting Is Scheduled Monday Evening

The Sales Crusade swings into its third and final week Monday with a series of meetings and special days designed to close out the salesmanship campaign with a round of rapid-fire activities.

Standing out in the early week plans is the mass meeting for employers, employees and others Monday at 8 p. m. in the city auditorium. Classification chairmen were urged to arrange a full representation from their groups and the general public was invited to participate.

On the program will be two short motion pictures, "Main Street" and its sequel, "The Human Touch." Ray Simmons will be heard in a follow-up inspiration address on salesmanship and courtesy. Marie McDonald will advertise Go to Church Sunday on October 2.

City Manager E. V. Spence has been invited to speak briefly concerning the city's water problem in view of the bond vote Tuesday.

Every day of the week will see one or more special events. Monday is to be Bedding Day for furniture dealers.

Tuesday grocers will observe their third extra effort of the crusade.

Fuehrer More Conciliatory In His Stand

Refuses, However, To Guarantee Proposed New Boundaries

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER

(Copyright, 1938, By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Sept. 24 (AP)—

By October 1 at the latest the world will know whether Czechoslovakia will yield to Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler's final demands to cede peacefully to Germany those sections of her Sudeten region which are overwhelmingly German.

Prefers Peace

Confronted with the possibility Europe's western democracies might yet rally to the republic's defense unless the Sudetenland transfer were made by mutual agreement, Hitler preferred peace to war.

The fuhrer phrased his demands in such conciliatory words that Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain agreed to submit them to the Prague government, a reliable informant declared.

Hitler merely insisted that by Oct. 1 the scheme must be carried out for giving Sudeten German districts to Germany—the scheme which Britain and France imported Czechoslovakia to accept and the Prague government agreed to under pressure last Wednesday.

Complete dismemberment of the Czechoslovak state no longer was insisted upon except by the implication in Hitler's refusal to become a co-guarantor of the whittled-down state's boundaries unless other minorities attained their wishes.

Official Germany seemed confident tonight a general European war or even a localized German-Czechoslovak conflict had been averted by the Hitler-Chamberlain negotiations.

But the German army and air forces remained close enough to the Czechoslovak border to be prepared for all emergencies.

The points in Hitler's stand, as outlined here by an informant who saw the fuhrer's memorandum to Chamberlain and by other sources, included:

1. Eight days, counting yesterday, are envisaged for peaceful handling over of the Sudeten German territory to Germany.

2. If Czechoslovakia refuses, she will carry the responsibility for all that might follow; if she agrees, peace will be preserved.

3. Germany declines to become a co-guarantor of the new Czechoslovak boundaries unless other minorities in the republic also attain their wishes.

4. Chamberlain was assured Germany had no intention of annexing territory overwhelmingly inhabited by Czechs.

5. The memorandum contained positive suggestions for effectuating the transfer of such parts of the Sudeten region as were conceded to Germany by Britain and France in the plan accepted by the Prague government.

6. The memorandum positively stated Germany's last offer to Czechoslovakia.

With Oct. 1 as the deadline, they obtained the prospect of another whole week in which Europe's nerves would be strained to the snapping point. But today everything appeared to have gone off relatively smoothly.

It appeared that for many anxious hours Friday it was uncertain whether Hitler would agree to wait once more in the hope of a peaceful transfer of Sudetenland to greater Germany.

Chamberlain was said to have insisted on some sort of truce on both sides.

He also argued eloquently, it was reported, that even with good will on all sides the transfer of the predominantly German-speaking sections of Sudetenland was a complicated matter involving as it did grave economic issues, the rights of minorities in the ceded territory, the treatment of Germans in the non-ceded areas and the possibilities for the exchange of people living on the "wrong side" of the new frontiers.

To all of this Hitler, to whom reports of added French defensive measures and British fleet movements appear to have brought home the possibility of a general war, agreed finally.

FASHIONS FOR FALL

Autumn actually came into being this past week, and "fall" is in the air. Fall styles are much in the forefront, too, as smart West Texas women renew their wardrobes for another season.

Big Spring merchants are prepared to meet all the needs of these women. Their stocks are complete with the latest in wearing apparel, in new furnishings for the home.

Their message will go out to all West Texans in a special Fall Style Section of The Herald to appear Wednesday. Extra copies will be distributed throughout the area, and the paper will contain style messages and special feature articles and pictures of fashions. Watch for the special section Wednesday.

THE SPORTS PARADE

BY HANK HART

Local football fans are becoming convinced that the 1938 edition of the Big Spring Steers is about the weakest representative to sport black and gold colors for a decade and many reasons have been given for the dismal showing the team has made thus far this season so this observer will not contribute to the list. Certainly we are no football expert, do not study the game as one paid to do that, are not as informed in phases of the sport as some but we can see and do say that several of the key men of the 1937 crew are being played out of position, will never improve to any degree until changed back. It is very difficult; it would appear to your correspondent, to make a back out of an end, a center out of a guard and an end out of a center when those boys had been schooled so tediously at those positions last year. The line, in both starts this fall, has looked slightly doubtful, has been outplayed in each occasion. Mentor Murphy, no doubt worried over the situation, still has plenty of time to experiment, certainly can lose nothing.

The Oil Belt family, as a general rule, appears to be at its weakest in several years. Sweetwater is undoubtedly the outstanding team of the eleven members at the present time, will probably have very little difficulty in settling the argument in November. Abilene's Eagles lost out, 14-0, to Lubbock Friday night while San Angelo and Breckenridge both fell by the wayside. The Angelenos lost no game in losing, 6-0, before North Side (Ft. Worth) who had dropped a 7-6 decision to Lubbock a week before while the Bucs, with Bill Ramsey, as both the goat and the hero, were beaten, 20-0, by Vernon but had the upper hand in yards gained. At this time it still looks like Brock and Sweetwater will meet for the Oil Belt title Turkey Day with Angelo given a great chance for an upset. When the Steers were shut out by Colorado Friday it was the second time in four years that a Big Spring team had failed to score, the first time since the 1936 season that they hadn't been able to chalk up at least two points. Breckenridge turned the trick in 1936 with a 35-0 rout but the next day the Bovines came to being blanked last fall was the 13-2 reversal at the hands of the Wink crew. Clyde Smith served as the Longhorns' game captain in the Colorado nightmar.

New favorite in the FSAA six-man grid conference: Garner, which rolled over Courtney Friday, 19-8, making but one first down. Frankie Jacot has landed a job here and will spend the winter as a Big Spring citizen. Frank's batting average for the 1938 season wasn't published along with the other Barons last week but his mark approached .300, a fair mark for a pitcher who had to play a lot of outfield. Officials of the country club are interested listeners at all the city's water conservation meetings. Reason: If they can get a new water deal, they'd put in grass greens and make the Big Spring course the finest in West Texas.

FROGS OUTCLASS CENTENARY, 13-0

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT
PORT WORTH, Sept. 24 (AP)—Wee Davey O'Brien, Texas Christian's 150-pound thunderbolt, pitched a couple of polonious passes—one for 65 yards, the other for 47—that buried Centenary's Gents, 13-0, in the Southwest's top grid curtain-raiser today.

Handcuffed by a strapping Centenary line that wouldn't budge in the clinches, it took O'Brien's aerial wizardry to hit pay dirt.

The little fellow started his barrage 10 minutes after a kick-off in broiling heat that had 10,000 owners. Dropped deep into their own territory by successive 15-yard penalties for holding and clipping, the Christians scored on a third down heave that O'Brien sailed 32 yards before rangy Don Looney, and speared it on the Centenary 35.

Only Weenie Bynum, the Gents' courageous halfback, stood between Looney and a touchdown and he sidestepped the Gent with a dead stop and shuffle that left him in the clear. O'Brien booted the extra point.

Rested a few minutes while second stringers worked the same pass magic but failed of a score from the seven-yard line after completing a 32-yard heave from Jack Odle, sophomore star, to Logan Ware, sophomore halfback, the regulars rumbled back into the game midway of the second period and scored again.

Soon after a kick exchange O'Brien found himself at midfield and, waiting for his spot while the massive 210-pound line held out Gent interference, sent a "clothes-line" heave to Johnny Hall that the halfback bagged 47 yards away on the Centenary three-yard line.

On the second try Connie Sparks, 200-pound sophomore fullback, burrowed through the middle for the score. O'Brien's attempt at conversion failed.

Moers Scores Touchdown In Last Minute

Bryan And Lawson Supply Rare Treat For Jayhawk Fans

By WHITNEY MARTIN
LAWRENCE, Kas., Sept. 24 (AP)—The University of Texas Longhorns, a football team that doesn't know when it's licked, spotted the University of Kansas Jayhawks 19 points in a torrid game here today, then were robbed of a tie by a placekick which zoomed outside the uprights in the final 45 seconds of play.

The score was Kansas 19, Texas 18.

Longhorns' sweating spectators were treated to an orgy of thrills including every variety of passing, running and kicking.

Gaps brought by a powerful Texas running attack at the start soon gave way to incredulity as the Jayhawks, with sophomore Ralph Miller and veteran Max Replogle, the shining lights, piled up 12 points in the first period and seven in the second to take a 19 to 0 half-time lead.

Open Air Show

Then the Texans, with sturdy Boofus Bryan and supercharger Wallace Lawson alternating, uncorked shovel passes, long forwards, laterals, and running plays to score once in the third period and twice in the final quarter while the alarmed Jayhawks battled futilely.

The Jayhawks started their first drive on their own 48. With Miller running and passing expertly advanced to the Texas 35. Here Miller, apparently caught far back trying to pass on fourth down, squirmed his way down the center of the field to the Longhorn five, and two plays later he passed to and Dave Shirk for a touchdown. Ed Hall's place kick was wide. Soon after, Lawson uncorked a long hope pass, which Miller snared on the Kansas 10, going for a touchdown without being touched.

In the second quarter Max Replogle broke through tackle from the Texas 43 yard stripe, cut back and traveled to the one-foot line, from where Hall plunged for the score. Chester Gibbons dropped back for the extra point was good, and it meant the ball game.

Early in the third quarter, the Longhorns drove 77 yards for their first score. A 15-yard pass, Bryan to John Peterson, with a five-yard run on the tail end of it, was the scoring play. Bryan tried to run for the extra point, but was spilt. Lawson plunged over from the one-yard line, and then sent his placekick for the extra point tumbling outside the uprights. The Texans thus wound up a 40-yard drive.

Then Shelby Buck recovered a fumble for the Longhorns. Lawson roared around right end for seven yards, then whipped a pass to speedy Bob Moers, who took the ball while racing pell-mell over the goal. Just 45 seconds of the game remained, and the 10,000 held their breath as sophomore Bob Evans trotted on the field to try for the extra point. His kick floated to the right of the uprights, and it was Kansas' ball game.

DUNN, Sept. 24 (AP)—Coahoma's Bulldogs were swamped by Dunn, 52-6, in their first grid test of the season here Friday afternoon.

Weldon Engle accounted for the Coahomans' only tally in the second quarter when he intercepted a Dunn pass and raced 70 yards for the score.

Martin scored three of Dunn's touchdowns, Johnson had three while Allen accounted for the other. First downs stood 11 to 3, favoring Dunn.

P. Berg Unseats Estelle Lawson Page In Finals

CHICAGO, Sept. 24 (AP)—Determined Patty Berg won the women's national golf championship today—and a place among the sport's all-time greats.

Climaxing an amazing burst of sub-par golf, the Minnesota marvel captured her first national crown by overwhelming the defending champion, Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page, of Chapel Hill, N. C., 8 and 5.

A year ago, Patty bowed in the finals to Mrs. Page, by a 7 and 6 margin.

Going into the final match after playing her last previous 42 holes in eight under par, Miss Berg uncorked a game which sent her into command during the morning round and made the match a rout which ended on the 31st green.

Wilson Hurt As Army Wins, 32-0

WEST POINT, N. Y., Sept. 24 (AP)—The "cassons went rolling along" today as army romped to a five touchdown, 32-0, triumph over Wichita University's Shockers.

The invaders' flanks were turned and their tackles pierced by Russ Long, John Schrader and Jim Dubulson, a trio of army backs.

Wichita threw a scare by marching to the Army 14 on six plays after taking the kickoff. That was their only threat.

Woodrow Wilson, first string No. 1 back, suffered a mild concussion and was forced to leave the game.

GARNER BILLIES SCORE 19-8 WIN OVER COURTNEY LIONS

COURTNEY, Sept. 24—Showing toughness in the fourth on a pass unexpected strength, the Garner from Lawley to Chapman after Courtney had scored on a Garner fumble behind the goal line.

The Burnetts made only one first down during the game, that renewal coming in the second quarter.

The Garner crew will oppose second when Lawley read 35 yards in Garden City next for a score and tallied their thirdweek.

TEXAS AGGIES ROMP TO EASY 52-0 WIN OVER TEXAS A&I

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 24 (AP)—Coach Homer Norton's Texas Aggies were supplied with what it took Saturday to give the Texas A. and I. Javelinas a lesson in offense on Kyle field here. The score was 52 to 0.

Throwing no fewer than four complete teams into the fray, Norton gave Southwest conference teams a warning he is supplied with sparkling reserve strength.

Aggie scoring was touched off in the first quarter when Dandy Dick Todd, the Aggies' candidate for All-American honors this year, swiveled his way to a touchdown standing up. Todd received a good block from James Thompson, Blackwood sophomore halfback.

Cotton Price hurled snappy punt and long accurate passes throughout the afternoon, accounting for the second Aggie touchdown by a heave to Britt in the second quarter.

The Aggie line was charging so fiercely in the second quarter that Duncan and Dawson broke through to block a kick and Duncan covered for the score.

Three tallies were counted in the third quarter. Capt. Slick Rogers making two and Marion Pugh plunging for the other. Pittman and Pugh tallied on plunges in the fourth quarter. Points after touchdowns were kicked by Todd, two, Herman and Wood.

Aggie scoring: Britt returned one punt for 20 yards. Bethell returned one punt for 20 yards. Chock Smith kicked off once for 50 yards. Brummett returned one for 40 yards. Chock Smith returned one for 22 yards.

2nd Half Drive Gives Porkers 27-7 Victory

Kay Eakin Stars As Oklahoma A&M Falls After Leading

PAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 24 (AP)—Arkansas university recovered from their first half fitters to score 27 points in the final half and defeated Oklahoma A. and M. here this afternoon 27 to 7. A crowd of 4,000 saw the game.

Veteran Kay Eakin, leading the Razorback offense, punted, passed and ran with the ball for the greater part of the ground gaining.

A pass over the goal line from Cowling to Hancock produced the Aggie touchdown in the first half. Arkansas sophomores appeared nervous during the first half and dropped pass after pass which Eakin laid in their hands.

Passes began to click in the second half and Arkansas held possession of the ball practically all of the time. Hamburg, little junior quarterback, paced the drive for the first touchdown and personally took it over from the five-yard line. Coming back down the field to the 25-yard line, Eakin shot a pass to Hickey in the end zone for a second touchdown.

This time the point was made by Miller.

The rest of the third period and the first of the last quarter found Arkansas making several unsuccessful forays deep into Aggie territory. Finally the Cowboy defense cracked and Arkansas put over two more scores shortly before the game ended. Martin and Mosley aided Eakin in these drives spotted by the bullet passes of Eakin.

Mosley scored from the six-yard line and Eakin made the final marker from the one-foot line. Mosley and Birmingham converted both extra points.

Green Wave Upset

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 24 (AP)—Clemson college defeated Tulane University 10 to 10 here today in a season's football opener upset that stunned a crowd of more than 12,000, who had expected an easy victory for the Green Wave.

Westbrook In 42-6 Victory Over 'Kats

Oglesby Stars In Rout; Swindall Scores

GARDEN CITY, Sept. 24—R. G. Crouch's Westbrook gridders stamped themselves as serious threats for FSAA six-man football honors by defeating the Garden City Bearkats, 42-6, here Friday afternoon.

It was the second victory of the season for the Panthers who last week defeated Courtney, 14-6.

Junior Oglesby, rangy half back, accounted for four of the Westbrook touchdowns while Sidney Jones went into the end zones for the other two. Jones chalked up three of the extra points while Moody, Oglesby and Board had one each.

Hershel Wheeler's forces crossed the last line in the fourth period when Lee Swindall took a short pass from Alvis Ray Cox and fought his way to pay dirt. It was the first touchdown of the season for the Bearkats.

Croucher Stars As Ships Take Sixth Game

BEAUMONT, Sept. 24 (AP)—Using a ninth-inning homer as an example Frank Croucher, Beaumont infielder, proved late this afternoon that you haven't won a Texas League pennant until the last man is out. San Antonio was leading 3-1 in the ninth and two were out. The Missions needed only today's game to decide the final playoff round. Runners were on second and first and the count on the batter was 2-2 when Croucher smashed the ball over the fence for a homer, making the final tally 4 to 3.

The teams will play the deciding game here tomorrow afternoon with Jack Kramer for San Antonio and John Tate for Beaumont the probable pitchers. The winner then meets the Southern association titlist in the Dixie series.

Texas League playoff at Beaumont: San Antonio 200 100 000 - 3 11 1 Beaumont 000 010 003 - 4 9 1 Kimberlin and Swift; Selway, Diets, Stith and Parsons.

Completes His 'Grand Slam'

Don Budge Trims Gene Mako; Alice Marble Fem Champ

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 24 (AP)—Donald Budge scored a light-hearted victory over his old pal Gene Mako in the final of the national tennis championships today. The scores were 6-3, 6-8, 6-2, 6-1.

The triumph completed the red-head's sweep of the world's major tournaments this season—the Australian, French, British and American. The record has not been approached before.

Another California star, Alice Marble, joined Budge as a two-time champion here as she overhauled Nancy Wynne of Australia, 6-0, 6-3, in an unexciting women's final. Miss Marble, winner also in 1936, completely outclassed the tall visitor.

The men's final was something of an anti-climax. Mako realized he didn't have a chance of beating the super-player who has been his doubles partner, and so did the crowd after the first few games.

After their match, Budge and Mako joined forces again to defeat J. Gilbert Hall and Harry Hopman in a doubles exhibition, 6-2, 6-3.

Panthers Win, 19-0

PITT STADIUM, PITTSBURGH, Sept. 24 (AP)—Mountaineer hopes of opening the 1938 football season with a staggering upset collapsed this afternoon as the rebuilt forces of Jock Sutherland's Pittsburgh Panthers crushed West Virginia, 19 to 0, before 35,000 spectators.

Locals Fail To Show Improvement In 'Easy' Game

By HANK HART
Propelled by a dynamic 145-pound youngster by the name of Tommy Chadwick who combined his triple threat abilities with some smart field generalship, the Colorado Wolves exploded the myth concerning the strength of the Big Spring football eleven by sending the Bovines in mad retreat and coming out with a 7-0 victory in Big Spring's first grid game of the year here Friday night.

The Bovines hardly put up an argument with the Class B aggregation and most of the patrons that looked onto the pitiful sight were convinced that the wrong team was playing Class A ball, that something was radically wrong, in other words that "there's a nigger in the woodpile, somewhere."

Instead of improving over their form of a week ago when Lamasa soundly spanked them the locals looked sadly out of place on the field with a team that certainly hasn't been impressive in its other starts of the year. True, the Longhorn plays were functioning better and for the first time the paper squad was making more noise during the huddle periods than were the players but it was apparent that, like butchers who make better butchers than they would fencers should be left in butcher shops, wings should have been left at wings, guards at guards and centers at centers. At it was the crew was playing, willingly but not capably, probably will look to disadvantage until the key men are placed in the key positions.

A look at the statistics shows that Big Spring was in the ball game even if the score indicates otherwise. But games aren't won on statistics. And with such opponents as Austin High, El Paso, San Angelo, Abilene and Sweetwater just up ahead, the time has come for the real experiments.

Shines Briefly
One bright spot in the Big Spring drive was Lefty Bethell, the mercury footed fullback who has been out with injuries. Lefty played less than a quarter but it was evident that if the southpaw had been in there for a greater length of time the ending might have been different. The big boy dug in two of the three passes thrown at him, missed the third when the ball sailed out of reach, intercepted a

Tests Cleaning Out
Sun No. 5 Snyder, in section 25-30-1a, T&P, was cleaned out after shot as was Moore Bros. No. 4-A O'Daniel, in the southwest quarter of section 34. The latter well was shot with 600 quarts at 2,500 feet and was 125 feet off bottom.
Four miles to the southwest, the Lockhart Petroleum Corp. No. 3 Housinger, section 27-29, W&NW, set the oil string at 2,530 feet. A mile and a half west and slightly south, the wildcat Ajax-Anderson & Prichard No. 1 Scott estate, section 25-29, W&NW, neared anticipated pay horizon at 2,685 feet.

In the territory west of Big Spring, where three wildcat tests have been started, one was shut down, another had repairs to make and the third was experiencing trouble in shutting off water. There were rumors, again, that the S. S. Owens No. 1 Dr. J. G. Wright, in the northwest corner of Howard county, would resume drilling below the 1,400 foot mark after a three month's shutdown. W. B. Powell No. 1 Gular estate, section 17-A, B. & C. survey, had trouble in shutting off water at 5,100 feet, and T. G. Shaw No. 1 H. H. Wilkinson, just over the Marlin county line in section 35, A. B. & C., was shut down for repairs at 700 feet.

Other tests drilling the Snyder pool were as follows:
Shell No. 3-T&P, section 33-30-1a, T&P, loosening stuck drill stem at 2,710 feet; Eastland No. 3-A, 1-2-3, set eight inch casing at 1,630 feet; Moore Bros. No. 7-A Snyder, section 28-30-1a, T&P, set eight inch string at 1,630 feet; Moore Bros. No. 8-A Snyder, same lease, moving in; Moore Bros. No. 5-A O'Daniel, digging pits 330 feet from the west and 1,550 feet from the south lines of section 34-30-1a, T&P; Cosden No. 2 O'Daniel, 2,310 feet from the north and east lines of section 34, at 1,830 feet; Moore Bros. No. 3-B O'Daniel, northeast quarter of section 34, set oil string below 2,500 feet; and Moore Bros. No. 4-B O'Daniel, building derrick on the same lease.

MISS ELAINE RUSSELL

America's plea for peace in a tiny delicate handiwork across half the continent.

The "peace" float represents a moving world, ruled by a queen of peace. The queen is the beautiful Miss Elaine Russell, chosen by legionnaires of the U. S. as "Miss American Legion." Arrayed in a sheer white mantle of the Goddess of Peace, the queen commands and entertains the nations of the world revolving before her moving throne.

SCURRY CO. TEST GETS OIL SHOW

Link Between Denver And Walker Pools Indicated By Yoakum Strike

SAN ANGELO, Sept. 24.—The nearer linking of the Denver and Walker pools in southwestern Yoakum county by Magnolia No. 1 Lynn, a quarter mile extension to the Foster field in Ector county by Hilltop Oil, Inc., No. 1 Wither and an indicated strike in the southwest corner of Scurry county by Coffield & Guthrie No. 1 E. E. Spears were among highlights of West Texas oil development this week.

Adding increased the yield of Gulf No. 3 Mallett, 1 1/4 mile north-east extension to the Slaughter pool in southwestern Hockley county, Humble added another large well on the east side of the Means field in north central Andrews county, while a one-mile southeast outcrop ran low on the anhydrite as did a Gaines county wildcat on the trend between the Wasson and Seminole pools. Failure included a wildcat each in Reagan and Terrell counties. Among locations were those for outposts to two producing areas in Andrews county and one in Gaines and for one wildcat each in Reagan and Ward counties.

Magnolia No. 1 Lynn in Yoakum county, 1 3/4 miles northwest of Gulf No. 1 Futch, Denver field west outcrop, and two miles northeast of the Texas Co. No. 1 Walker, a discovery, swabbed and flowed 11 barrels of oil hourly at 5,165 feet after treatment with 3,000 gallons of acid. Before acidizing and following a 110-quart shot it swabbed 25 barrels daily. Location is in the northeast quarter of section 770-D-John H. Gibson.

1200 Feet of Oil

Coffield & Guthrie No. 1 Spears in Scurry county filled 1,200 feet with oil in 15 hours after being shot with 500 quarts from 2,500 to 2,445 feet following plugging back from 3,545 to 2,500 feet. Cleaning out was underway. The test is in the northwest corner of the southwest quarter of section 130-97-H&TC, 3 1/2 miles west of Ira and 18 miles northwest of Colorado. Elevation is 2,294 feet. Cold air struck at 1,100 feet supplied power for the further drilling of No. 1 Spears and will be used for pumping in the event production is developed.

Devonian No. 1 King estate, Gaines county wildcat on a direct trend between the Wasson and Seminole pools, ran low in topping the anhydrite at 2,510 feet and the salt at 2,550. It has an elevation of 3,225 feet and is in the northeast corner of block 6, league 305, Dawson county school land. Harry J. Brown stated No. 1 Wasson, one mile west of the Texas Co. No. 1 in the Wasson field and 2,310 from the north, 1,650 feet from the west line of section 51-A-psl.

Plugged Back

Gulf No. 1 Elliott on the northwest edge of the Denver field in Yoakum county struck a small amount of salt and sulphur water at 5,241 feet, a record depth for the area. It plugged back to 5,222 and tested one barrel of oil hourly before being shot with 610 quarts. Cleaning out was under way. The test is in the southeast corner of section 768-D-John H. Gibson.

Shell No. 4 Dora Roberts, lengthening the west side of the Walker area west of the Denver pool, was completed at 5,164 feet for a 24-hour flow of 296 barrels of oil. It is in the southwest quarter of section 783, Honolulu No. 1 Kendrick, 1 1/2 mile east outcrop to the Denver field, topped the solid lime favorably at 4,510 feet, 943 feet below sea level, and was to set seven-inch pipe at 4,770 and standardize.

Slaughter Extension

Gulf No. 2 Mallett, 2 1/2 mile northeast extension to the Slaughter pool in Hockley county, swabbed 190 barrels of oil through casing, then bailed 6 1/2 barrels of acid water off bottom. In 24 hours, following treatment with 6,000 gallons of acid at 5,070 feet.

The Texas Co. No. Della Slaughter Wright, 1 1/2 miles northwest of Geo. P. Livermore No. 1 Wright, a small discovery pump in eastern Cochran county, swabbed 37 barrels of fluid in 24 hours, 60 per cent oil and 40 per cent water, after being treated with 2,000 gallons of acid at a plugged back depth of 4,510 feet. Earlier it was shot with 120 quarts of nitroglycerine. Magnolia No. 1 Wright, 2 1/2 miles northeast of The Texas Co. test, had drilled to 4,600 feet in lime.

Plans were reported under way by a Texas group for the early building of a topping plant at Jewellville, Hockley county, with a daily capacity of 2,500 barrels, to handle crude from the Slaughter field in Cochran county. These areas have no pipe line outlet and their restricted output is trucked to Humble's pipe line station in the Bennett field in Yoakum county.

Farm, Home Agents To Convene Here Monday Morning

County agents and home demonstration agents from a large list of counties in this area will convene here Monday at 10 a. m. for a sub-district parley on farm work. J. D. Prewitt, district agent, and Ruth Thompson, district home demonstration agent, will head the parley.

CENTRAL ILLINOIS AREA VERY ACTIVE

Activity in the central Illinois basin, attracting attention of oil men, continued at a rapid pace last week. The area had 56 completions with an additional 295 rigs in operation. Because Illinois does not have a conservation statute which imposes production drilling has been rampant in that area. While several rig builders in this area have watched the play there, none had actually moved to enter the field of play, so far as could be learned. One local trucker, however, has sent trucks to the territory.

Exports of American farm products for the year ending June 30, 1938, increased 20 per cent over the previous year.

Noodle Area Has A Heavy Producer

Humble No. 1 Huddleston Gauges 60 Bbls. Hourly

ABILENE, Sept. 24.—Completion of the second deep Swastika and producer in the east extension area of the southwestern Jones county Noodle Creek field and probably the largest well for the 12-year-old area featured activity in this part of the West Central Texas district during the week.

At the weekend, official gauge on the producer was awaited, although the Humble Oil & Refining company No. 1 L. L. Huddleston had flowed 60 barrels an hour on short gauges earlier when cement plugs were drilled from 2,912 feet.

8:15 Dick Jurgens, MBS, were drilled, the well flowing into pits for an hour and a half before being turned into tanks for the high initial gauge.

Offset To Discovery

No. 1 Huddleston is a direct 660-foot north offset to the Humble No. 1 Horton, discovery well of the deep pay about a mile east of the main part of the Noodle Creek field, which was opened in September, 1926. Location of the new well is 330 feet out of the southeast corner of section 49-18-T&P survey.

Its diagonal southeast offset, Humble No. 1 Graves, which had tested about 200 barrels daily natural from the shallow Tannehill sand at 2,375 feet last week, drilled ahead and found two feet of oil saturation and then water in the Fisher county lime topped at 2,547 feet. It continued for the Swastika.

Humble remained the most active operator in Jones county. The firm spudded its No. 1 W. L. Chittenden estate, set 110 feet of surface casing, and late in the week had drilled ahead below 1,100 feet. No. 1 Chittenden is a south offset to the Montour & Hays No. 1 Chittenden, which last spring opened western Jones' first Swastika pool from a sand at 3,020 feet. Location is 380 feet out of the northwest of subdivision 25, L. Kratz survey No. 355.

Avoca Completion

In the northeastern Jones county Avoca field, Humble finished its No. 15 J. W. Hollums for a potential gauge of 475 barrels of oil in 11 hours and 30 minutes. Flowing through a 3 1/2 inch choke, it was completed natural from Palo Pinto lime at 3,225-31 feet, total depth. Location is in the south half of section 190-B&B&C survey.

Dancer Oil & Refineries No. 1

G. J. Peterson, first entry of the Fort Worth company in the Avoca territory, was spudded as a southwest outcrop. It is located 289 feet out of the northeast corner of the south half of the southeast quarter of section 195-B&B&C survey.

ILLEGAL IMPORTS OF MEXICO CRUDE ARE CHARGED

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 24 (UP)—The North Texas Oil and Gas association charged today that crude oil from Mexico was being imported into the United States in violation of the federal anti-dumping act of 1921 and sent letters to customs officials asking an investigation.

The association charged that 300,000 barrels of Mexican crude were landed at Houston during August and September, bringing a price of $1.01 per barrel. West Texas crude is delivered at a cost of $1.17, the body said.

4-H Boys To Feed Lambs

Howard county 4-H boys will not confine their efforts to competing for honors in the calf feeding division here next spring when the second annual Big Spring 4-H club and FFA Livestock show is held.

Several boys will be out to share in the fat fed lamb honors. Saturday County Agent O. P. Griffin said that six boys were feeding out 14 lambs.

There are 14 boys feeding 17 calves in the dry lot calf class. The animals appear to be generally a higher quality than the lot of last year when a herd was topped for the feeders. Boys this year have bought one or two top calves out of different herds.

Feeding calves are Weldon Dennis (2) and Leldon Dunn (2) of Coahoma, Willis Winters, Jr. (2) and Erwin Moeller of Vincent, Norvin M. Smith, Jr. and W. L. Wilson, Jr. of Luther, Wallace Bly, Bert Matthews, Varnie Jones, and J. W. Miller of Knott, Wilford Anderson and Morris Crittenden of Center Point, Billy Ward of Moore, and Jack McIlvain of Loma.

Sheep feeders are Thomas Tubb (2) of Midway, Joe Ab Jones (2) of Knott, Delbert Simpson and Alfred Thieme (5) of Luther, Hulen McKinney (2) and Donald Hayes (2) of Center Point.

SMU Mustangs Come To Life In Last Half To Win, 34-7

Roy Holbrook Star Of Show Of Sophs

Bill Dewell Scores First Touchdown On Reverse

By DAVE CHEAVENS

DALLAS, Sept. 24 (AP)—A high-stepping sophomore backfield paced by Roy Holbrook of Kerrville, gave Southern Methodist an easy 34 to 7 victory today over North Texas Teachers college of Denton.

A hellish first half played under a blazing sun produced nothing but reliable line-play by a veteran forward wall bulwarked by another sophomore, towering Fred Harris of Garland. A new backfield, sophomores Mueller, Gelse, and Holbrook and Eberhard, from last year's team, took less than three minutes to score in the third period.

Gelse, fleet halfback, and Holbrook, took the ball to the North Texas 10-yard line, whence Billy Dewell carried it across on an end-around play. George Sanders placed kicked extra point.

A pass from Holbrook to Gelse soon after put the ball on the Teachers' three and Gelse scampered across on reverse. Sanders' attempt to convert failed. At this point another highly-dressed sophomore, Ray Malhot, went in for Eberhard and promptly picked up 20 yards on two sweeping end plays. The ball was on the Teachers' three at the end of the third quarter.

Southern Methodist failed to score on this threat, but Johnny Clements soon passed 30 yards to Collins on the Denton four. Clements scored the touchdown on a line play and Belville converted. Another pass Clements to Belville brought the Mustangs fourth touchdown and Belville's toe again was good. Eberhard scored the final tally, racing 35 yards through a broken field, and Jackson converted.

The Eagles came to life briefly in the last few minutes of play and scored on a pass from Edie to Payne, from the Mustang 40. Ochen converted.

Foxx Hits No. 48, Sox Win

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Jimmy Foxx's 48th homer of the year broke a tie in the ninth inning today and gave the Boston Red Sox a 7 to 6 victory over the Yankees. Bill Dickey hit a homer for the Yanks.

TIGERS EKE OUT
DETROIT, Sept. 24 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers came from behind with a six-run rally off Al Milnar and Willie Huddin in the seventh inning, featuring by Charlie Gehringer's 18th homer, to defeat the Cleveland Indians 7 to 6 here today.

SPLIT TWIN BILL
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 24 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox, on hits by Hank Steinbarger and Lake Appling, shoved across a run in the seventh inning to break a tie and defeat the St. Louis Browns, 3 to 2, in the second game of today's double-header. The Browns won out the Sox, 8 to 7, in the opener.

COME FROM BEHIND TO WIN
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24 (AP)—Scoring four runs in the tenth inning on six hits, the Washington Senators came from behind today to beat the Athletics, 7 to 3. George Caster was knocked out of the box in the 10th after holding the Senators to six hits for nine innings.

HUSKIES FALL, 15 TO 0; TIDE FLASHES

Tackle Races 85 Yards For Touchdown

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 24 (AP)—Minnesota's Golden Gophers hurled another sharp challenge to the football world today, defeating the Washington Huskies, 15 to 0, before 50,000 persons in a game closely fought for the first half only.

The Gophers had a bad scare in the opening period and missed a great chance for scoring in the next quarter. Finally with a minute of the first half play remaining a field goal sent Coach Bernie Bierman's outfit into a lead which they augmented by touchdowns in each of the last two periods.

Pass interceptions paved the way for the first score, a field goal by quarterback George Faust, and brought the first touchdown when tackle Bob Johnson snatched half-back Jimmy Johnston's short forward and raced 85 yards to count. The second Minnesota touchdown in the fourth period came after McAdams punt, the ball rolling out on the Minnesota 30. Shortly afterward Buhler ripped over for the score.

Alabama, Pitt And Minn. Stand Out

By HERBERT W. BARKER
NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Three of the great powerhouses of 1937—Pitt, Alabama and Minnesota—apparently are headed for the football heights again.

As the 1938 season opened today on all fronts with scattered form reversals all along the line, these three stalwarts stood firm. A crowd of 65,000 looked on at Los Angeles as Alabama swept aside South California's Trojans 18-7 and gained partial revenge for its set-back by California in the last Rose Bowl game.

At Minneapolis, Bernie Bierman's Minnesota Gophers generated entirely too much power for the Washington Huskies and romped to a 15-0 triumph before 50,000.

Pitt, led once more by All-American Marshall Goldberg, crushed West Virginia's hopeful Mountaineers, 19-0, before a crowd of 35,000 who saw Dr. Jock Sutherland uncover another bone-crushing Panther array that never was threatened.

Twine, Illinois, Maryland and Oregon State were the principal upset victims. Clemson's veteran outfit whipped Tulane's highly-favored Green Wave, 13-10; Illinois was spilt by Ohio university, 6-0; Maryland, touted as a Southern conference power this season, was trounced by Michigan, 19-0.

Wolves

pass when the Wolves were threatening for a second touchdown and almost got away on a punt. Harold wasn't allowed to carry the ball at any time that Big Spring had the ball due to the fact that he did not learn the plays but he probably could have done as well as the others with the pig hide.

The other members of the secondary were trying hard enough. Chock Smith looked to advance with his bull-like rushes into the line. Ross Callahan was impressive on off tackle plays while Alton Bostick played his usual sterling game but that combination simply wasn't enough.

Chadwick started out with the opening gun and led the Wolves in a drive all the way down to the Longhorn nine yard line before the Steer wall stiffened and held. He continued to pound away toward the Big Spring end zone with a well paced attack, certainly was not playing second fiddle to any man on the field.

The Boyines retaliated with a drive that netted three first downs and pushed their way down into Colorado territory but the visitors put up the first of their many magnificent stands for territorial rights and the Big Spring attack bogged down. A pass to Wood that netted 27 yards and an end sweep by Chadwick that saw the Colorado blockers cut away the entire left wall of the Bovine line gave the Wolves another chance to break the ice before the quarter ended but somehow the Herd fought them off, taking over within their own ten yard line when Henry Bug recovered a fumble by Jack Smith.

Aerial Drive Clicks
Howard Hart came down with two passes and Chock Smith contributed another fine catch to get the local drive in working order as the teams changed ends of the field but Colorado took possession again when Bostick fumbled and drove back into Big Spring territory. That onslaught was stopped cold on the 29 yard marker but the invaders finally hit the jackpot after Bostick had kicked into Colorado territory. Chadwick pumped through the Steer line for a 14 yard gain, putting the ball on the Steer 47 yard line. With Smith and Wood figuring, the Wolf drive netted 19 yards on three plays, setting the stage for the touchdown. Chadwick took his time in fading back for a pass, finally spotting Duff Chasney in the end zone and laid the melon in his hands for the score. Chadwick's kick was good and the Wolves led, 7-0.

From that point on Colorado seemed content to defend what they had gained, succeeded so well that Big Spring was never able to pierce the Wolf 20-yard line at any time during the game.

The Bovines' only sustained drive came late in the second quarter but bogged down when Coach Murphy sent in four substitutes and Colorado received the benefit of the time-out period. An outstanding feature in the visitors' defense was their ability to bat down Bostick's passes. Fairly successful in the first half, the aerial game got absolutely no where after the intermission.

Statistics Show Edges
The Bovines piled up 16 first downs to 14 for the opposition and their plays from scrimmage resulted in gains totaling 228 yards, overshadowing the 171 made by Colorado but the visitors had a clean cut advantage in the passing game, gaining 307 yards to 103 for Big Spring.

mond, 18-4; and Oregon State was outplayed by Idaho, 15-0. St. Bonaventure gave the East his only surprise by nipping Manhattan, 7-6.

California, the 1938 Rose Bowl champion, had to score twice in the fourth quarter to outpoint St. Mary's Gaels, 12-7. Oregon stopped Washington State, 10-2.

Vanderbilt and South Carolina scored intersectional triumphs for the South in the Mid-West, the former halting Washington university of St. Louis, 20-0, while South Carolina won over Xavier of Cincinnati, 6-0. Purdue whipped Detroit, 19-6, while Kansas, of the Big Six, just hung on to half Texas' late rally, 19-14.

In the Southwest sector, Texas Christian whipped Centenary, 12-0; Arkansas swamped Oklahoma A. & M., 27-7; Southern Methodist stopped North Texas Teachers, 24-7; and Texas A. & M. ran up a 23-0 count on Texas A. and I.

In the South, Tennessee met unexpected resistance from Sewanee in a Southeastern conference game but won handily, 26-3. North Carolina chalked up a Southern conference victory over Wake Forest, 14-0.

Army and Navy both earned easy victories. The Cadets swept Wake Forest, 23-0, while Navy's deceptive attacks sent William & Mary down to defeat, 26-0.

Rassle Royal Feature In AC Finale

Williams, Stratton And Kopecky Are On Card

Herman Fuhrer will present his final wrestling show of the year at the Big Spring Athletic arena, featuring a rassle royal with six pugs taking part in the celebration.

Walter Stratton, who made such a hit in drawing with Gus Johnson last week, Johnny Nemanic, Joe Kopecky, Johnson, Scotty Williams and Shick Mar-Allen will be seen in action.

Nemanic is putting on his wrestling tuggery for the first time in several weeks here, having served as referee during the summer months.

The six men will take the ring at the same time and decide in which bout they will wrestle by a series of eliminations.

The first two to fall will return for the special 20-minute special event, the next two for the semifinal and the remaining pair will come out for the main event.

Power

Creek municipality, Mayor J. H. Meek said tonight.

The election on the revenue bonds was defeated Friday. Previously Mayor Meek had asked the attorney general to investigate the Houston Light & Power company's activities.

"So far as I am concerned, the whole thing is over," Meek said.

Czechs

ranged a conference with the French premier, Edouard Daladier, today in London.

Czechoslovakia was turning herself into an armed camp behind a wall of steel and cement, 1,500-000 soldiers were mobilized under the leadership of a government headed by a one-eyed military hero, and her isolation was virtually complete.

Under the circumstances little expectation was expressed anywhere in Europe that Prague again would surrender.

The British home fleet steamed in a procession eight miles long from Ivergordon in North Scotland out into the North Sea—in position, apparently, to clamp down a blockade if war came. But there was no British conscription or mobilization —which could only come after action by parliament.

France ordered up 330,000 reserves of the second and third Echelons and began evacuating civilians from border towns. The first already had been called up and it was estimated the 4th, 5th, and 6th might be called in the next three days to augment the more than 2,000,000 men already under arms.

Hungary apparently completed her defense measures. The time, though she denied a general mobilization had taken place. An official statement said that a "united Hungarian-German-Polish front" exists and that Hungary would not recede from her demands for return of 700,000 Hungarians from Czechoslovakia.

Berlin was filled with army officers dashing about in camouflaged automobiles. Huge army trucks rumbled through the streets, and the German army and air force was admitted to be largely concentrated in a half ring about Czechoslovakia.

Little was known of what was going on within Czechoslovakia.
All railway communications with Germany were cut, and train service with Poland and Hungary was interrupted. The Prague government had ordered civilian air traffic grounded.

Guerilla warfare swept along the frontier with numerous engagements between Czechoslovak troops and Sudeten German free corps detachments reported.

Czechoslovak troops blew up bridges and tracks all along the borders of Bavaria and Saxony.

PLAN ORGANIZATION
FOR BAPTIST MEN

FORT WORTH, Sept. 24 (AP)—
Mobilization of the 15,000 Baptist men in Texas into a unified body to promote church work will be the aim of the first annual Texas Baptist Laymen's conference which opens here Monday.

Dr. George W. Truett of Dallas, president of the Baptist World Alliance; Dr. L. R. Scarborough of Fort Worth, president of the Southern Baptist convention; Dr. Earl V. Pierce, of Minneapolis, Minn., former president of the Northern Baptist convention; and Lawson
Cooke of Memphis, Tenn., general secretary of the Baptist Brotherhood of the South, will speak.

There are about 20,000 administrative officers in the American public school system.

MARKETS

Late Wall Street
Rally Restores
Share Declines

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—A sharp decline in the stock market, followed by a quick rally, repeated in miniature today the week's bewildering swings in Wall Street sentiment between hope and fear for European peace.

The pendulum in the nervous money district swung back toward hope on the reports Chancellor Hitler in negotiations on the Sudeten problem had sounded a conciliatory note and given the Czechs until October 1 to decide.

Most of the starting losses, amounting to two or three points in many shares, were recovered in the two hours of brisk trading.

United States steel broke 2 1-4 points to 52 on an opening block of 4,000 shares. It finished at 54 1-2, up 1-4 for the day. The market generally followed the same erratic course.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Cotton recovered from early losses today when active Wall Street covered developed on a slightly more hopeful view to the European crisis. December advanced from 7.76 to 7.90 and closed at 7.88, with final quotations three points net lower to two points higher.

The market opened six to 10 points lower and soon eased to net losses of 11 to 13 points under heavy October liquidation and foreign selling of later months. Foreign interests were believed to be undoing straddles but support through commission houses appeared on the reactions. The demand from Wall street was heavy and was believed to represent the reversing of a spread between wheat and cotton when later foreign deals held out a ray of hope.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 24 (AP)—War fright in Europe stirred the world's wheat markets into a frenzy of excitement today but rapid, wide price fluctuations betrayed a touch of trade skepticism concerning the inevitability of widespread hostil-ties.

Wheat closed 3-4 to 1 cent higher compared with Friday's finish, Dec.
36 1-8 to 66, May 67 to 66 7-8; corn
1 to 1 1-4 higher, Dec. 51 to 50 7-8,
May 53 1-4 to 1-8; oats 1-2 up; rye
1-2 to 5-8 higher; lard unchanged to 5 lower.

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK

FORT WORTH, Sept. 24 (AP)— (USDA)—Cattle 300; calves 200;
today's trade nominal. For week:
most fed steers and yearlings 7.00-8.25, few yearlings to 9.00; load outstanding 1,300 lb. grass fat steers 8.00; plain grassers down to 5.00;
butcher and beef cows 4.00-5.00;
bulls mostly 5.00 down; slaughter calves 4.25-7.00; good and choice stock steer calves 7.00-8.00.

Hogs 200; top 8.85; paid by city butcher; packer top 8.75; good to choice 175-270 lb. 8.70-8.85; packing sows 7.75 down.

Sheep none; today's trade nominal. For week: bulk medium to good spring lambs 5.25-6.50, few to 8.75; yearlings 4.00-5.00; aged wetters 3.00-5.00; fat ewes mostly 2.50;
feeder lambs closing 4.75 down.

AMIEE SUES AGAIN

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 24 (AP)—
Veteran of many a legal skirmish, Evangelist Amiee Sempie McPherson, assumed the role today of plaintiff in a $1,500,000 libel suit against Look, Inc., publishers of a nationally circulated picture magazine. The suit grew out of an article entitled "I am God's best publicity agent."

MARRIAGE COURSE

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 24 (AP)— Fifty-two students enrolled for Syracuse university's second annual "marriage course" which last year was very popular among students. There's not a man on the list.

SHARK'S HUNGER STRIKE in Sydney, Australia, aquarium has persisted since May. Keeper Charlie Camp says. The shark, Skipper IV, ate twice in May, once in June, and won't even bite on the tasty mullet being offered, above. The turtle is his inseparable companion.

GRID PLAYER HURT

PAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 24
(AP)—Paul Cochran of Ardmore, Okla., a tackle on the Oklahoma A.
& M. football team, suffered a brain concussion in today's game, his physician said tonight.

The injury was received in trying to make a tackle in the game with the University of Arkansas here.

FDR PONDERS CRISIS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—
President Roosevelt is staying close to the White House this weekend while Europe broods over war.
The chief executive saw no visitors today but was in close touch with Secretary of State Hull, who relayed to him the latest reports from abroad.

The Week

best solution would have been a dam on the North Concho river and a pipeline from there to Big Spring. But this project is beyond the city's means, would involve the city heavily in debt, and for this reason was discarded Friday by the city commission.

Now the next best solution appears to be construction of a dam closer at home, although it will catch decidedly less water. Anyone of three such dams under consideration would impound enough water, together with many additional small wells, to give enough water for around 15 years. If the town grows in that time to the point where more is needed, perhaps it will have grown far enough that it will be able to support a more costly project.

A lot of folks argue that the election should not be held until a definite project is planned. That point is well taken, but the city has no choice in calling the vote. PWA demands an answer on its offer of $225,000 free money to the city by Oct. 1. If the city votes the bonds, it will get the money. If it does not, PWA will rescind the order and give it elsewhere.

As for us, we have enough confidence in city commissioners to take the money and use it as they believe best. All are men of mature experience, conscious of the great responsibility reposed in them, and will try to get a full half million dollars worth of good out of the $200,000 spent.

From the point of view of the taxpayer and general public there are some things to be considered.
The $275,000 issue will require a 40 cent increase in the tax rate.
The issue, however, will not call for another, as would the abandoned Concho idea. A half million dollars likely will be needed to solve the situation. If the present grant is rejected and the city has to vote the full $500,000 later, the tax increase then will be about 75 cents.
For those who look on the sunny side of it, the $225,000 grant is equivalent to twice that amount in saving because the city would have to pay back $450,000 to retire a $225,000 long term issue. Finally, much of the development program would amount to a powerful business stimulant, even if the "pump priming" variety.

There are nearly 250,000 public school buildings in the United States.

It costs about $70 a year on the average to keep a pupil in school in the United States.

Plenty Fun Promised When Clubs
Clash In Donkey Baseball Game

More than 800 people who roared with laughter for an hour and a half a year ago when the Lions and Kiwanis clubs tangled here in a donkey baseball game are counted on to form the nucleus of a much larger crowd this year when a repeat performance is scheduled here Oct. 4 under the auspices of the Lions club.

B. J. McDaniel, president of the Lions club, said Saturday that preparations were going forward for a hilarious evening here Tuesday week when a specially trained troupe of donkeys will be brought here for the encounter.

Cliff Wiley, tall-talker of the Lions club, has been appointed captain of the Lions team. Virgil Smith, who starred with his hitting and riding in the comic fiasco of a season ago, will direct ticket sales. L. I. Stewart and C. L. Rowe are in charge of competition and grounds.

Saturday the opposition had not been announced, nor the playing spot arranged. However, said Mc-Daniel, the game will be played under the lights. He added that he expected the Lions club to repeat its 1-0 triumph of last season.

Among the tricky beasts of burden, noted for their diabolical bucking and unpredictable antics, will be such wild characters as Strawberry Roan (unridden last year), Mae West (wilder than her namesake), Sweet Milk and Sonny Boy (don't be fooled by the name).

INDIANS IMPRESSIVE

HANOVER, N. H., Sept. 24 (AP)—
The Dartmouth Indians, as impressive as they were last season when they escaped defeat, opened their football campaign today by riding rough shod over a courageous but inexperienced Bates team for a 46-0 victory.

SNAP DOLDRUMS TO WIN

BERKELEY, Calif., Sept. 24 (AP)— Beaten and befuddled for three periods, University of California's Coast conference and Rose Bowl champions of a year ago opened their 1938 football campaign today with a 12 to 7 victory over the St.
Mary's Gaels.

Memorial Conducted By Class

Dorcas Class Meets To Honor Mrs. Willis

Members of the Dorcas class of the First Baptist church conducted a memorial service recently honoring Mrs. Mary Willis who died more than a week ago. She was the last charter member of the church and had been a member of the Dorcas group for many years.

The service was conducted at the home of Mrs. M. Ehlmann, 603 Runnels, with Mrs. D. C. Maupin as co-hostess.

Mrs. W. B. Buchanan opened with a prayer and the devotional was given by Mrs. T. J. A. Robinson. Mrs. E. Reagan, a guest of the class, paid the memorial tribute.

The hostesses were assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Tom Underhill and Mrs. Geo. Pittman to Mrs. C. S. Studer of Houston, Mrs. D. Phillips, Mrs. K. S. Beckett and Mrs. Reagan who were guests. Members there were Mrs. A. T. Lloyd, Mrs. A. P. Clayton, Mrs. Susie Bennett, Mrs. C. M. Chesney, Mrs. Mildred Jones, Mrs. Ida Gentry and Myrtle Stamps.

Frances W. Hill Is Honored With Party On 11th Birthday

Eleventh birthday anniversary of Frances Woodline Hill, daughter of Mrs. Edith Hill, was celebrated recently when she was entertained with a party at her home, 704 Douglas.

The afternoon was spent in playing games on the lawn and looking at the lovely gifts received by the honoree.

Pink and green colors were used for the cake which was topped with eleven pink candles. While the candles were lighted the guests made wishes for the honoree and refreshments were served. Miniature umbrellas were given as favors.

Guests were Wandalee Richardson, Don Richardson, Mary Jo Morrison, Eva Sue Simmons, Betty Jo Jenkins, Marilyn Youngblood, Billie Jean O'Neal, Nelson Allison, Lavonia Vickers, Corinne Hulse, Maedeen Hill and Woodline. Mrs. Hazel Richardson and Mrs. Bill O'Neal assisted Mrs. Hill in entertaining.

Wedding Ceremony Read For Couple By Rev. Lancaster

Wedding ceremony was read Friday evening at 7 o'clock for Mrs. Frances Youngblood and Cal J. Watts at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Lancaster with the Rev. Lancaster, pastor of the First Baptist, reading the single ring ceremony.

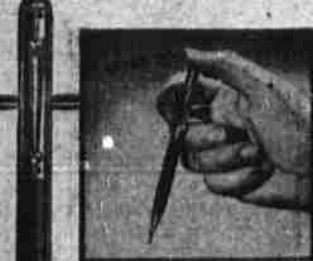

The bride wore a royal blue crepe frock with black accessories and had a corsage of pink snapdragons. The couple was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jenkins.

Mrs. Watts, who has been an expression teacher in Big Spring for the past five years, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Gossett of Dallas. Watts is a plaster contractor and has lived here and at Midland for a number of years. They are at home at 506 11th Place.

Sub-Deb Pledges Take The First Week Of Initiation Smiling Tea Given

These pledges to the Sub-Deb club, high school social organization, have just gone through a strenuous week of initiation but here they are all smiles and ready to take it on the chin again for five more weeks before they become members at a presentation dance the Friday following Thanksgiving. The girls are Marie Dunham, Mary Freeman, Jacqueline Faw, Joyce Croft, Champs Phillips,

Janice Slaughter, Mary Jo Russell and Sara Lamun. Initiation began last week and the first three days they were not allowed to speak to anyone but Sub-Debs or teachers; Thursday night they met in town and paraded, escorted by "Charlie the Cop". Two were dressed in hot frocks, riding boots with buckets for hats; two wore knickers, blouses, tennis shoes and hanky tied Southern style; two had on short dresses and long bloomers, cowboy boots and stockings on their heads; and two others wore their mother's dresses, high heel shoes and anklets and boy scout hats. Pledges are given first, second and third degrees preceding their presentation and the two weeks before the dance is a period known as "hell week" when they are initiated every night instead of only on Thursday. Solemn ceremony is observed the week before Thanksgiving.

H. D. Show Set For Oct. 28-29 At Council Meet

First Meeting Of Group Since July Is Held

October 28-29 is the time set for a county-wide comfort, bedspread and linen show at Barrow Furniture store, according to an announcement made by the exhibits committee at the first meeting of the Howard County Home Demonstration council since the August vacation at the agent's office Saturday afternoon.

The show, which is to be sponsored by the county clubs, is to be judged the first day and the second day the winners will be recognized by their ribbons.

Social reports of the various clubs for the month of August were heard and it was announced that the yearbook committee is to meet October 30. Members of the committee are Mrs. Shirley Fryar of Hiway, Mrs. C. A. Coffman of Comona and Mrs. Ed Carpenter of Vincent.

Definite date for bedroom achievement day is to be told later by the educational committee.

It was decided that officers of the council of 1939 will be elected for the first time by a nominating committee composed of Mrs. Hart Phillips, Mrs. W. Smith and Mrs. H. C. Reid.

Mrs. Duke Lipscomb, chairman of the reporters, announced that a meeting of her group would be held next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the agent's office.

Attending were Mrs. C. A. Ballard, Mrs. O. N. Green, Chalk; Mrs. E. Echols, Mrs. C. A. Coffman, Mrs. W. J. Jackson, Mrs. T. K. Hardy, Mrs. Beale Lee Coffman, Coahoma; Mrs. A. D. Martin, Mrs. E. C. Reid, R-Bar; Mrs. W. H. Wood, Mrs. Willard Smith, Mrs. G. J. Couch, Fairview; Mrs. O. B. Gaskins, Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Jr., Knott; Mrs. Ed Carpenter, Mrs. Ben Brown, Vincent; Mrs. Myrtle Spruell, Mrs. Lawrence Anderson; Luther; Mrs. Jim Milam, Mrs. Shirley Fryar, Hiway; Mrs. Duke Lipscomb, Elbow; Mrs. I. H. Sevance, Cramer; and Lora Farnsworth, county agent.

Mrs. Mary Robbins Presented With A Shower Of Gifts

After a business meeting of the Royal Neighbors, camp No. 1277, presided over by Mrs. Edna Pond, president, Mrs. Mary Robbins was presented with a shower of gifts.

Attending were Mrs. Lela Mason, Mrs. Bertha Barton, Mrs. Alma Buzbee, Mrs. Cleo Byers, Mrs. Rita Meneghetti, Mrs. Alice Wright, Mrs. Beatrice Bonner, Mrs. Ada Vaughn, Mrs. Ella Early, Mrs. W. C. Myers, Mrs. Edna Masters, Mrs. G. F. Williams, Mrs. Parlee Nabors, Mrs. Dollie Sanders, Mrs. Glass Glenn, Mrs. F. W. Davis, Mrs. Pond, Mrs. A. L. Sending gifts were Mrs. Smith, Mrs. L. M. Gary, Mrs. Tom Currell, Mrs. W. W. Satterwhite, Mrs. Granville Glenn, Mrs. Jack Glenn, Mrs. J. M. Bailey and Mrs. Bailey.

Flowers Used By Hostess To Club

Bouquets of fall flowers were arranged in the entertaining rooms of Mrs. Ben Cole when she was hostess to members and four guests of the Harmony club.

Mrs. E. H. Phillips, Mrs. Pollard Runnels, Mrs. J. E. Hogan and Mrs. Seaman Smith were guests with Mrs. H. W. Smith, Mrs. H. E. Clay, Mrs. E. M. Conley, Mrs. Herschel Petty, Mrs. Marie Stewart, Mrs. Walter Wilson and Mrs. Boyd McDaniels attending as members.

Club high was awarded Mrs. Smith and guest high to Mrs. Phillips. Bingo honors were claimed by Mrs. Hogan.

Medical Group Meets For 1 O'clock Affair

Mrs. M. H. Bennett And Mrs. Chas. K. Bivings Are Hostesses To Auxiliary With Luncheon At The Settles Hotel

First fall meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Six-County Medical association met at the Settles hotel Friday for a 1 o'clock luncheon and to later discuss plans for the winter.

In the business session presided over by Mrs. E. V. Headlee, president, of Odessa, members decided to change the meeting date from the fourth Friday of every month to the third Friday. Under the new set-up, fifteen minute talks pertaining to medical subjects will be heard at each meeting followed by a social hour.

Mrs. W. H. Bennett and Mrs. Chas. K. Bivings were hostesses for the occasion. The luncheon table was centered with a crystal bowl of pelicans and on either end was a white bowl of colorful daffodils.

Attending were Mrs. Headlee, Mrs. Bradford Miller, Mrs. J. H. Bargerline and Mrs. Elbert Thornton of Odessa, Mrs. W. E. Ryan, Mrs. W. G. Whitehouse, Mrs. J. H. Chappel, Mrs. L. W. Leggett, Mrs. G. L. Morgan, Mrs. L. Alton Absher, Mrs. J. M. Deversau and Mrs. T. O. Bebe Midland.

Clark Gable And Myrna Loy Co-Starred In New Thrill Drama, 'Too Hot To Handle'

Story Tells Of News Cameraman's Experiences

King and queen of the movies by the grace of one nation-wide contest, and doing very well at the box office, thank you, are Clark Gable and Myrna Loy, whose last cinema triumph was an adventure-packed opus called "Test Pilot."

Clark and Myrna are starred again in another thrill story, "Too Hot To Handle," which comes to the Ritz theatre today and Monday as another of those films listed in the $250,000 Movie Quiz contest.

This one deals with the thrills in the strenuous life of a newsreel cameraman, and the romance between Gable as the adventurer of the lens and Miss Loy as a daring aviatrix. They are two people whose lives are a constant quest for excitement.

Gable and Walter Pidgeon play rival newsreelers covering fighting in the Orient. Constantly using trick and device to "scoop" each other, they clash when Miss Loy, as the aviatrix, attempts a "mercy flight" with serum, and Gable, barred from the field, reaches it in an ambulance but wrecks her plane. The filming of the "Chinese Big Apple," and finally Miss Loy's dash into the South American wilds to find her lost aviator brother, with Gable following with his camera, are among sensational details, also Gable's filming of a blasting line from a plane piloted for him by Miss Loy. A special company was sent to Dutch Guiana to film location scenes for the South American episode.

Five major thrills, reminiscent of great news events, provide some of the "hottest" background for the picture.

They include the aerial bombing of Shanghai, the crash of a famed aviatrix's plane on a round-the-world flight, the explosion of a mystery munitions ship, the disappearance and rescue of an American flier held as a white god by natives in the South American jungles, and a pitched battle between the New York police and a notorious two-gun gangster barricaded in a tenement flat with a "tommy-gun."

Jack Conway, who directed "Viva Villa!" "Libeled Lady," "Saratoga" and other hits, directed "Too Hot To Handle," which is based on a story by Len Hammond and on a screen play by Laurence Stallings, author of "The Big Parade" and "What Price Glory" and himself a veteran newsreel editor, and John Lee Mahin.

The cast, includes Walter Connolly as the newsreel manager, Leo Carrillo as Gable's sound man, Johnny Hines, Virginia Weidler, Betty Ross-Clark, Willie Fung and Patsy O'Connor. Hundreds of Chinese play in the Oriental scenes in which Gable, under shot and shell, films the bombing of a village.

ROMANCE — ACTION — CAMERA!

Top favorites with the movie fans, who cheered them in "Test Pilot," are Clark Gable and Myrna Loy, who are co-starred again in an action-packed melo-drama of excitement and romance, "Too Hot To Handle." The picture, one of the Movie Quiz contest eligibles, is at the Ritz theatre today and Monday. It tells of a newsreel cameraman's adventures, and his pursuit of a daring aviatrix.

IN PRISON DRAMA AT LYRIC

Given top roles in a drama of prison life, "Prison Farm," which plays Sunday and Monday at the Lyric, are Lloyd Nolan and Shirley Ross. The story tells of the girl's sacrifice for a man unworthy of her love.

Ritz Brothers Farce Offered At The Queen

'Kentucky Moonshine' A New Version Of Radio Talent Hunt

The three Ritz Brothers, taking a hilarious, tongue-in-the-cheek poke at the radio broadcasting studio's penchant for talent-quests, are scheduled today and Monday at the Queen in their latest starring comedy, "Kentucky Moonshine."

In this 20th Century-Fox film, with Darryl F. Zanuck in charge of production, the now established madmen of the movies have added many extra film frenzies to provide merriment.

Interpolated through the plot of "Kentucky Moonshine" is a romance between Tony Martin, the popular radio (and more recently) screen crooner, and the delightful Marjorie Weaver, who has come a long way toward stardom since her "break" in "Second Honey-moon."

The romances in turn is accompanied by three hit-parade destined songs by the prolific songwriting team of Lew Pollack and Sidney D. Mitchell, who provided three of the tunes for "In Old Chicago," among nearly two dozen other hits during the past year.

The story of "Kentucky Moonshine" is that of a group of unemployed entertainers, Marjorie Weaver, waiting her turn for an audition at a radio station, overhears a conference at which it is decided to send Tony Martin to the mountains of Kentucky to get "real" hillbilly talent. Miss Weaver foregoes her audition to rush back to the theatrical boarding house and apprise the Ritz Brothers of the radio company's plan.

How the brothers and Marjorie meet this situation does justice to the poet laureate of one of the more exclusive madhouses. They all hie to the hills of the Blue Grass State...don't whiskers... become involved in a long forgotten feud...but manage to steer the talent scouts in their direction.

Extricating themselves from the obvious results of this fraud is what provides most of the uproarious fun of the plot.

In addition to the three Ritz Brothers, Tony Martin and Marjorie Weaver, the cast includes Slim Summerville, John Carradine, Wally Vernon, Berton Churchill and Eddie Collins.

Scout Board To Meet Here

Field Executive To Be Approved At Monday Session

Executive board meeting of the Buffalo Trail council will convene here at 7 p. m. Monday under the direction of Charles Paxton, Sweetwater, president of the council.

Among important matters to be considered at the quarterly meeting of the board will be the selection of a field executive. Jack Penrose, St. Louis, who recently finished the national leaders training school, was due to be approved officially for the post. Penrose is already here in preparation for his work.

In addition to reviewing the summer's work and hearing reports on camp and the water meet, the board will map plans for the autumn work.

Representatives are expected here from the Sweetwater, Colorado, Snyder, Big Spring, Midland and Pecos districts.

LOCAL MEN TO GO TO MUSIC MEET AT S'WATER TODAY

Dan Conley, high school band director, and William R. Dawes, director of public school music, will attend a regional meeting of the Texas Music Educators association in Sweetwater this afternoon.

Conley, who left Saturday for Abilene with his family, was to return to Sweetwater in time for the party. Dawes was to go to Sweetwater Sunday.

Combined under the association, formerly the Texas School Band association, are the band, orchestra and vocal divisions of music education. Among other things, the music directors will select a convention site for the band contests next spring. The regional band executives meet was held here last autumn.

One egg produced during the months of October and November is worth on the market about two produced in April and May.

Many New Headline Features Go Into KBST's Daily Schedule

Programs Changed As Daylight Saving Time Goes Out

Distinctive new programs make their appearance on the KBST log this week, while other popular programs change time as a result of eastern stations on the Mutual Broadcasting System switching from daylight saving to standard time.

First of the outstanding programs which will be aired today and which is to be a regular Sunday feature on KBST is "Famous Homes of Famous Americans." Prepared under supervision of the Federal Housing Administration, each of these programs takes the listener on a journey to some noted American hall.

Today's program will carry the listener to Benjamin Franklin's beloved home in Philadelphia. Places to be visited in succeeding programs include Independence Hall, home of American liberty; Washington Irving's "Sunnyside," Betsy Ross, Edgar Allan Poe, Robert E. Lee, Ralph Waldo Emerson and others.

"Show of the Week" "Famous Homes of Famous Americans" will be heard from 12 to 12:15 today. Beginning next Sunday it will be aired from 12:15 to 12:30.

Two other outstanding programs will be presented on KBST for the first time today—"The Show of the Week" from 8:30 to 9:00 and "The Question Bee" from 8:30 to 9.

KBST is extending its Sunday operating period one hour—until 9 o'clock—to present "The Question Bee." This program will originate each Sunday evening in "The Den," Texas hotel, Fort Worth.

"The Show of the Week" will originate in the Mutual Broadcasting System's acoustically-perfect Playhouse in New York. Each Sunday it will feature "the band of the week," "the song of the week," and three two-minute newscasts. Ray Perkins, noted radio humorist, will be master of ceremonies.

Sports Events Richard Himber and his orchestra will be heard today. A different "name" band will be heard each Sunday night.

An outstanding sports program becomes a "headliner" on KBST beginning Monday. It is the All-Texas Football Roundup. Originating on the campuses of Texas leading colleges and universities, the program will be heard Mondays through Thursdays from 5:45 to 6 p. m. and for the full hour between 6 and 7 p. m. on Fridays.

Zack Hurt, Texas State Network sports supervisor, will be in charge of the program and will interview coaches, players and co-eds on the campuses of Texas universities, T.W.C., S.M.U., Hardin-Simmons, Texas Tech and other institutions during the 10 weeks for which the series is scheduled. Each Friday night pep rallies will be broadcast from campuses of colleges playing against the following day.

One of the most popular programs on KBST, "Neighbors," with Blanchard McKee, heard during the past week at 8:15 each week-day, moves to a new slot tomorrow. It will be heard in future at 11:15 a. m.—at least for the programs.

Virtually all Mutual Broadcasting System programs heard on KBST move to new periods Monday. However, Gail Northe, whose program, "Fashions," is heard Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 9 a. m. will continue at this same time.

THEY'RE PERFECTLY HARMLESS

These men may frighten the baby, but they're only the Ritz Brothers in disguise. The maniacs return to the Queen today and Monday in a farce called "Kentucky Moonshine." Marjorie Weaver and Tony Martin add some sanity to the cast.

Prison Story Unfolded In Lyric Film

Shirley Ross And Lloyd Nolan Star In 'Prison Farm'

The story of a young girl's harrowing sacrifice for a man unworthy of her love is set against the startling background of a brutal and corrupt penal institution in "Prison Farm," the new drama which is offered Sunday and Monday at the Lyric theatre.

With Shirley Ross, Lloyd Nolan and John Howard heading a cast of favorites, "Prison Farm" tells of a girl, played by Miss Ross, whose love for her sweetheart, Nolan, is so strong that she gives up her home, her job and her friends to follow him. She even sticks by him when he receives a jail sentence and accompanies him to a degraded and brutal prison camp.

In the camp, Miss Ross undergoes all the cold horrors that characterize the worst penal institutions. House and fed inadequately, she works at back-breaking labor 12 and 14 hours a day for the personal profit of greedy and corrupt officials. When she and her fellow prisoners rebel at the unbearable conditions, they are met by the authorities with a barrage of live steam.

Howard, in the role of the crusading prison doctor, takes an increasing interest in Miss Ross and shows her what the love of the right man can accomplish. When Nolan's past catches up with him and he leaves the prison farm to pay for a murder he has committed, Howard goes away with the girl to help her build a new life.

Prominent in the supporting cast are J. Carroll Nash and Porter Hili, as two of the prison officials, Anna Q. Nilsson and Esther Dale, Louis King, who brought several "Bulldog Drummond" stories and "Tip-Off Girls" to the screen, directed the film drama.

Mrs. Hollinger And Mrs. Jennings Score High At Club Meeting

Mrs. Henry Hollinger made guest high, Mrs. J. P. Jennings scored club high and Mrs. L. N. Million binged at an entertainment given for the Seven Aces bridge by Mrs. Sherman Tingle.

Mrs. W. K. Harmon and Mrs. C. B. Faught were also guests and Mrs. Bob Lee and Mrs. C. C. Berry were the other members attending.

KBST Extends Its Broadcast Time On Sundays

Additional service to its listeners becomes a regular part of the Sunday schedule of KBST today with the extension of the station's operating time one hour.

Instead of closing down at 8 o'clock, as in the past, KBST will remain on the air until 9 p. m. each Sunday, effective today.

Purpose of the extension is to bring to KBST listeners a feature program, "The Question Bee," starting today on the Texas State Network. The program will be aired from 8:30 to 9:00 p. m. from the Den, Texas hotel, Fort Worth.

Another newscast, from 8 to 8:05 p. m., also becomes available to KBST listeners. Orchestra music from the Mutual Broadcasting System, will be heard from 8:05 to 8:30 tonight.

Questions And Answers On Big Spring Water Situation

Question—What is the source of Big Spring's water supply?

Answer—Underground exclusively from the Trinity sands.

Q—Is it necessary to treat this water?

A—No, it is served exactly as it comes from the wells, being tested perfectly pure.

Q—Is this supply limited? If so, is there any geological condition which makes it particularly binding?

A—Yes, it is limited extremely. A geological condition exists which limits it both as to: 1) Replenishment, because the present supply is from sinks (underground wells) and not from surface water (underground flows), and as to 2) sub-surface water in other areas, same being of high mineral content.

Q—What is the rate of water consumption in Big Spring?

A—It has grown from 150,000,000 gallons in 1931-32 to 241,489,000 gallons in 1937-38; average daily consumption is around 1,000,000 gallons.

Q—Are the sinks from which our water comes being replenished, and if so, at what rate?

A—They are being replenished, but at the rate of about 450,000 gallons a day.

Q—Then we are taking out more than is coming in. How much is this per day, and at this rate how long would it be before the city, consuming at its present rate, would exhaust this supply?

A—Tests have proven that we are drawing out 550,000 gallons a day more than is coming into the water area; at the present rate, the supply will be about exhausted within two years. The water level in the sinks has dropped 65 feet in nine years, dropped 10 feet last year and can be expected to decline more rapidly as "draw" slope narrows.

Q—Has the city been alert to the fact that the supply is limited and being decreased, and have any studies been made toward finding other underground supplies in this area? If so, by whom?

A—Yes, for at least 15 years. The city engineering department has investigated every possibility and drilled many test wells. In 1925, with the city and T. & P. co-operating, Hawley-Freese-Nichols, hydraulic engineering firm, made a survey at a joint cost of $5,000. In 1935 Joe Ward, water engineer, made a survey looking toward a PWA application, the city spending $2,000 for this survey. In 1937 J. Howard Samuel conducted a Works Progress Administration ground water survey of Howard county, the city contributing $500. In 1937-38, the United States Geological Survey made an exhaustive study of this area, the city contributing $2,500 and the U.S.G.S. matching the amount and making supplementary appropriations to complete the work.

Q—What is the net substance of the findings?

A—That there is no other adequate underground supply, within itself, in sight.

Q—Is it true that fair wells have been found in certain areas, but that there are conditions which make dependence upon them impractical?

A—Yes, impractical because of adjacent waters with high mineral content.

Q—Why must the factor of highly mineralized water be taken into account here?

A—The T. & P. shops and other industries are here today because of our good water; and because absence of high mineral content gives better tasting and a healthier water.

Q—Has the city considered the possibility of a surface water supply?

A—Yes, in every conceivable area within reasonable distance of Big Spring.

Q—What about the Bear's creek reservoir site?

A—Eliminated due to the drainage area being highly mineralized, and unreservedly condemned.

Q—What about the Mustang Draw site?

A—Mustang Draw has highly mineralized water, and the water in the drainage area quickly disappears underground instead of running off into lakes.

Q—What about the Luther site?

A—This offers an ideal dam site, but drainage area is very limited, and is twice as distant as other equal sites.

Q—What about the Vincent site?

A—This, too, has an ideal dam site, but its drainage area is extremely small, and it is still farther away.

Q—What about Elbow creek and Moss Springs?

A—These two offer the best possibilities nearby, but have limited drainage areas, Elbow some 50 square miles with some of that cultivated land which has little runoff; and Moss Springs about 27 square miles with better runoff. Both are in areas where the underground water is more mineralized than the Trinity sand water, but possibly usable by softening.

Q—Would a small lake and auxiliary underground supplies be a possible solution to the problem?

A—Yes, it is hoped that the solution of the problem lies in the manner which the question suggests.

Q—What about a North Concho river dam site?

A—Two sites were studied on that channel, the first being 28 miles distant, and the other 31 miles away.

Q—What would be the effect as to cost of dam and pipe line, and as to drainage area and supply between the two sites?

A—Either place would give an unlimited supply which could be increased by heightening the dam.

Q—The 28-mile site would have a 450 square mile watershed, the 31-mile site a 350 square mile watershed. Dams on all locations would cost about the same, around $350,000. Pipe line to the 28-mile location would cost $700,000, to the 31-mile site some $650,000. Because of this cost, the Concho projects have been eliminated as being beyond the city's ability to pay.

Q—Why is it necessary to vote on a $275,000 bond issue Tuesday?

A—Because this is our 55 per cent share of a $500,000 project, and the government has demanded an acceptance of a grant of the other 45 per cent, or $225,000, not later than Oct. 1.

Q—Would this $225,000 cost the city more if it were borrowed as a long term loan if the grant were refused?

A—In reality it approximates a $450,000 saving for the city, since long term loans eventually cost about twice their face amount.

Q—If the PWA grant is accepted by voters Tuesday, would it be spent immediately?

A—No, the project would be staggered so that each move could be made after due deliberation and exhaustive study. Project units could be done in order of importance to utilize the grant; for instance, the elevated storage tank, revamping of distribution system, covering of city reservoirs (state health department requirement), filtration plant, pump station, dam, pipeline.

Q—How long has the city worked to secure this grant?

A—For three years, constantly. It is unusual that a city this size secures such a large grant. For there are no grounds to hope for any grants later on.

Q—What would be the tax increase necessary to finance the $275,000 bond issue if approved?

A—It would be 40 cents per $1 valuation at first, then would decline as the debt declined. The would be $8 per annum on $1 average home owner whose holdings are valued for tax purposes at $2,000. It would mean an increase of the tax rate from $1.70 to $1.78, but far under the limit of $2.50.

Q—Who may vote in the election Tuesday?

A—Any qualified voter, residing in the corporate limits, who is property (real or personal) subject to taxation and who actually rendered the property for taxes between January 1 and the time the rolls were closed, about Sept. 1.

Overload Permits To Truckers Now Available Here

Announcement was made Saturday of the inauguration of service in Big Spring for truckers who require overload permits.

The state highway department, through the division office at Abilene, has stationed a man here who will issue such permits, and officers will be maintained at the highway department building, 2300 Security street.

Heretofore, truckers operating in this area have had to obtain overload permits at Abilene, Lubbock, San Angelo or Pecos. The new arrangement is for the convenience of those hauling excess loads in this territory.

Trustees To Meet Monday Evening

Big Spring Independent school district board of trustees will meet Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the superintendent's office at the high school building to attend to several important matters.

First order of business will be the official setting of teachers salaries, although this is fixed by the approved salary schedule which guarantees a teachers pay according to the number of years in the local system.

Preliminary plans on the remodeling project, embracing demolition of the old auditorium gymnasium wing of the high school building and erection of a storage room and school tax office out of a storage room and school tax office out of the salvage materials, may be presented to the board.

Resignations and election of teachers will be submitted to the trustees for action.

To Open Classes In Ballroom Dancing

Mary Ruth Diltz announces the opening of classes in ballroom dancing, on Tuesday of this week. All types of dances will be taught, with classes for beginners and advanced students. Miss Diltz will be assisted in instruction work by Mrs. Maxine Riegel.

Classes will be in the Crawford hotel ballroom. Information as to schedules, etc., may be had by calling Miss Diltz.

FACILITIES ERECTED HERE FOR A CAMP FOR COTTON PICKERS

A long-planned concentration point here for cotton pickers in mid-West Texas became a reality here Saturday with start of construction on a camp shed.

The pickers' depot will be located in the Mexican quarter of town and will consist of a big camp and sanitary facilities. Through the chamber of commerce and cooperative efforts of local governmental units and citizens in Howard and Martin counties a one year lease, with options for leasing two additional years, was secured from Mrs. Lela Bryson Ault of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Harvest laborers, following highway No. 9 north from San Antonio toward the big high plains cotton crop, will be urged to take advantage of the free facilities of the local camping grounds.

S. G. Merritt, district director of the Texas State Employment service, who took an active part in the promotion of the depot here, will supervise the placement of pickers in fields of this area.

Large Mexican crews will be urged to make this their control point while arrangements are being made for contracting picking jobs. Farmers in this territory, in turn, will be invited to come here to find pickers when the home supply proves inadequate.

C-C MEETING

Directors of the Big Spring chamber of commerce will meet Monday morning, for a breakfast session at 7:30 at the Crawford hotel. Every director is urged to attend.

Baton Twirling To Be A Common Sight This Year

An abundance of drum major talent will feature the Big Spring high school band this autumn when it appears for special drills at football games.

In addition to three drum majors who performed in the Big Spring-Colorado game stunt Friday evening, there are six others in training. They will appear later in the season when their uniforms arrive.

The band elected Joan James, Jr. as president. E. H. Miles, Jr. was named vice-president. Neil Ray McCrary, reporter. The active drum majors now are Elmer Dorsett, head drum major, E. H. Miller and Neil Ray McCrary. Others who will be on the baton twirling staff are Joan James, Nettie Carter, Mary Ellen Miles, Elmer Hubbard, Nathalie Davenport and Jon Edna Dodge.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Service left this morning for Galveston and South Texas points where they are expected to remain several weeks.

YOUR CITY'S WATER PROBLEM IS UP TO YOU!

POINTS TO CONSIDER

Here are factors to consider in your study of the bond issue:

1. There is no question but that Big Spring's present underground supply is limited, can reach a dangerously low point if some provision for a supplemental source is not provided. This is the unreserved opinion of many competent hydraulic engineers and geologists, given after months of exhaustive study. They have asserted flatly that this city cannot much longer depend solely upon the "sinks" from which water is at present pumped.
2. The city commission pledges to give full value, in the way of water development, for the money provided. The Concho dam project has been rejected because completion of that undertaking would call for far more expenditure than Big Spring can at this time afford. Three other sites are being studied, and the most feasible of these will be selected. Any undertaking will be carried through as a completed unit; that is, the dam will be constructed, the pipeline built. So that the cost, as provided in the current $275,000 proposal, will be the entire cost. The lake, with present wells (pumped more moderately to prevent exhausting the supply) and possibly additional wells will, in the opinion of engineers, give Big Spring the volume of water it needs.

A FEDERAL GIFT

The city has an offer of free help from Uncle Sam

Several weeks ago, PWA announced approval of Big Spring's application for a grant to help finance water improvements. This grant is for $225,000, representing 45 per cent of the entire $500,000 project. This is an outright gift, and there will be no repayment. You are asked to approve a bond issue of only $275,000, for which amount you will get a water development project costing $500,000. You finance only 55 per cent; UNCLE SAM PAYS THE REST.

You are asked to approve this bond issue on Tuesday, because PWA has said it must have its answer on the project by October 1. That is the "deadline," because the federal agency wants to put its money where it will be spent. If Big Spring does not take the $225,000, it will be withdrawn and assigned to some other community, and yet Big Spring, through federal taxes, will be paying on this sum, helping some other community. Our answer must be given this week.

It probably will be the city's last chance at such federal help. Now is the time to get a needed water project at almost one-half the actual cost.

For Your Information

Representatives of the city administration — men who can give you the facts — will be heard in talks over Radio Station KBST today and Monday, outlining the commission's position on the water development program and telling why it is essential to Big Spring that the bond issue be approved at the polls on Tuesday, September 27. Hear these talks.

Put A Fruitful Harvest On Your Luncheon Set For Extra Appeal

Prepare for fall luncheons by making a colorful table set with applied fruit decorations.

By ELIZABETH MAY BLONDEL
Prepared By McCall's Magazine
For The Herald

A dramatic meal needs a dramatic setting. If you are tired of the way your table has been looking lately, why not try a new applique fruit tablecloth or luncheon set? On a rich red linen, applique the fruit in white, touch with black embroidery, and with edges bound with black linen. The napkins are in red linen, bound with black and monogrammed in white. Can you see these with black glass plates and centerpiece and clear glasses with black bases? The applique patches can be stamped with a hot iron transfer and cut evenly with sharp scissors. The pieces are turned at the edges, basted and hand-stitched to the cloth with invisible stitches. If you make a brown paper pattern from the transfer, you can cut as many patches as you need. The fruit may be done in patches of natural colors, with green leaves, the sewing cotton matching the colors. This effect is charming on a cloth of white, yellow or pale green. Linen may be used for the appliques as well as the cloth. Or the designs may be stamped on fine gingham and used on a cloth of the same material, or on unbleached muslin, cotton broadcloth or cotton with a linen finish. Of course, the fruit patch fabric must be color-fast. Grapes, strawberries, pears, peaches, lemons, plums, cherries, apples, oranges and small plums—you can have them all. The designs are about 2 1/2 by 3 inches. For a delightful ensemble with the luncheon set or tablecloth, the designs may be used on a little apron or on the dining room curtains.

READING AND WRITING

"APPENTHOUGHTS ON THE U.S.S.R." by Andre Glide (Dial: $1.00).

The plain fact about Andre Glide and his controversy with the orthodox Stalinists is that, judged by any law of evidence with which this department is familiar, M. Glide is perfectly correct in his statements.

You will recall that a year or so back M. Glide wrote "Back From the U.S.S.R." and was scarified by the Stalinists because he did not see Utopia in Russia today — because he even found the so-called revolution futile, since a bureaucracy is now dictating to the proletariat which once was assumed to be the dictator. Because it also is gobbling up the money, the good apartments, the beds in rest homes, the best theater seats and so on.

This scartification apparently hurt M. Glide very much, and it is this hurt which leads to the only serious criticism we can make of the book. It gives itself the airs, on occasion, of a dowager who has caught some of her friends gossiping about her behind her back.

For the rest, M. Glide produces figures from Soviet sources. He asserts that after 20 years, wages and living conditions are still inferior to pre-war conditions for those workers without political pull. Freedom is still a myth — one dares not speak to anyone about anything, since it is still possible to advance oneself in Russia by tale-bearing, or invention.

The extraordinary failure of the Soviets in cultural matters exercises Glide considerably. The campaign against what he and the Russians call "analphabeticism" is, according to figures produced in the book, a failure. There are parks of culture and all that, but these can care for only a small fraction of the people, and the best part of all the cultural program is inaccessible to the majority. The figures quoted from Soviet sources on faulty production in those much publicized model factories are hair-raising. And most devastating of all are the facts about the bribes, direct and indirect, offered M. Glide in Russia — provided he wrote "usable" material. The services, the solicitude, the two- and three-hour dinners, the royalties.

It's a very ugly picture, better documented than most material about Russia.

Joe Marting was a business visitor in the Panhandle last week.

Mrs. John Kubecka is spending the week in Sonora with her husband, W. B. Dunn, who has been in for several weeks.

O. L. Bradham was returned to his home in the Sun camp last week after undergoing a tonsillectomy in a Big Spring hospital Monday.

Clark Smith of Pine Bluff, Ark.,

will arrive here Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blake in the Humble camp. Smith is returning to his home after attending the American Legion convention in Los Angeles, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McCleskey announce the birth of a daughter, on Tuesday, September 20. The girl has been given the name of Wanda Nell.

Runway Base Work At Airport Now At The Halfway Mark

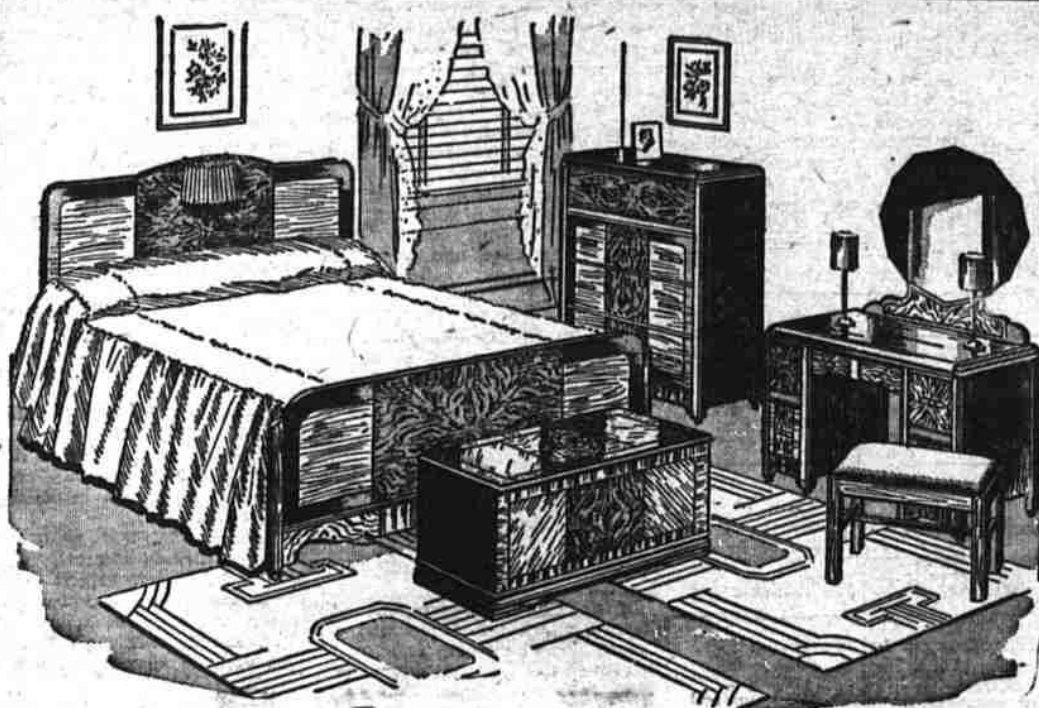

Installation of caliche base on the airport project reached the half way mark during the week, a check of the job showed Saturday.

In fact, more than half the base material work was done for with one of the long runways complete and the dirt in to the halfway point on another, there remained only half this runway and all of a shorter one.

R. H. Morton, superintendent of the city-WPA project, said that 75 men were now at work on the project, that shoulder dirt was hauled for the second runway, and a new caliche pit stripped and ready for use.

With nine trucks on the job and ample men to operate loading by hand and by machine, he estimated around two weeks would be required to finish the base for the second runway and an additional month for the last and shortest runway.

Planes are now using the first runway which stretches north and south for a distance barely short of a mile. The runways, which will be surfaced, are 150 feet wide and flanked on either side by graded shoulders 175 feet in width.

Karpen "PIL-O-REST" MATTRESS

The "Pil-O-Rest" is a Karpen masterpiece in mattress comfort. The unique feature of this marvelous mattress is the fluffy pillow attached top and bottom. This feature, as well as the entire Karpen inner-spring unit, is fully patented and cannot be bought elsewhere. The hinged-type spring unit is double tempered—encased in muslin—insulated with sisal—surrounded with deep layers of felted cotton and covered with muslin. Then the mattress-size pillows are attached top and bottom and the entire mattress covered in a beautiful and durable imported striped damask in lustrous pastel shades. This is why the Karpen "Pil-O-Rest" conforms to the body with the gentle softness of a pillow and supports it perfectly from head to foot. See the "Pil-O-Rest" at our store.

MORE WATER AT LESS COST

The water issue before the people of Big Spring, as developments present themselves, boils down simply to this:

The city has to have more water, and can either accept government help in getting it now, or can delay until a crisis forces immediate action with probable much greater cost.

It becomes a fact that the city must have more water, on the basis of expert opinion. Competent engineers, including some of the best in the United States Geological survey, and including "water men" whose experience in West Texas covers many years, assert flatly that the present supply—those "sinks" in the hilly area to the south, is rapidly diminishing.

It is a fact that water "head" in that area has dropped 65 feet in the past nine years, and that the level is going down now at the rate of seven to ten feet per year. And this in the face of the fact that Big Spring's water consumption now is 70 per cent greater than it was seven years ago.

The increased demand and the diminishing supply eventually must create the vanishing point.

City officials have long known this situation existed, and they have worked steadily toward developing a solution. The election scheduled for Tuesday is a hastened affair only in the sense that the Public Works Administration, in offering a federal grant of 45 per cent of the project—$225,000 to be specific—has demanded a commitment from the city.

THE CZECH ACCEPTANCE

I suppose that in the long run, nothing is ever really lost. I have no doubt in my heart that some time, no one knows how remotely, when this world returns to the admiration of reason, respect for integrity, and rule by law, and therefore can again claim to be civilized, peoples who have never set foot on the soil of Czechoslovakia will set up monuments to the incredibly courageous man who, under fire, set the world a model of how a civilized human being ought to act—and whose people displayed to the world the same qualities.

The Czechoslovak government's acceptance of the Hitler-Chamberlain-Daladier ultimatum, is one of the most civilized documents of history. It is without rancor, without vituperation, without self-justification and without a single word of attack on any one. But it has also not missed a single vital point.

"We wished to suggest a settlement of the dispute by arbitration, but the suggestion was rejected by others."

The others are England and France who have preached peace by arbitration for 20 years.

"The government is determined to maintain peace and order and independence under the new conditions, strengthened by the love of all people who belong to our state."

There is again a strong plea against provoking violence. "Farmers, workers, industrialists, employers and soldiers, all remain at your old posts and do your duty! Remember that you cannot do anything by violence or by demonstrations in the streets. Authorities continue your usual duties."

"Do not permit yourselves to be moved to inconsiderate actions by agitators and provocateurs. Do not be depressed. Remain firm in your faith in the republic."

One of the last sentences is amazing. "Our state and administration remain responsible to the world for the protection of the interests and security of the whole population of Czechoslovakia. Czech and German. This responsibility will be met."

Several important things have happened within the last 24 hours that indicate that the issue of war or peace is still not settled—not settled even on the basis of the extreme capitulation of Mr. Chamberlain.

I write these lines as the conference at Godesberg is going on, but if the German press can be credited—and the German press is merely Hitler's mouthpiece—then Hitler will raise his demands. This would be logical and according to pattern, because throughout the entire history of his regime, internally and externally, every single concession ever made to Hitler has been the basis not on which to achieve stability and peace but from which to move forward.

Hitler, anxious to sever the Franco-Polish alliance once and for all, has been conspiring to hand a piece of Czechoslovakia to Poland; Hitler, anxious to bring Hungary into a hard and fast alliance with him, has been conspiring to hand another slice to Hungary.

The German press is clamoring that President Benes shall meet the same fate as Schuschnigg.

In other words, as I write these lines, it looks as if Mr. Chamberlain were going to Godesberg to get himself an even stronger ultimatum than he got at Berchtesgaden.

The entire democratic process has practically been suspended in Great Britain. An "authoritative" source says that Chamberlain is going this time with demands of his own—the demobilization of German reservists now concentrated on the Czechoslovak frontier; the international demarcation of Czechoslovakia; an international commission for exchanging and transferring populations; cessation of the German press campaign against Czechoslovakia; an appeal from Hitler for peace in the interval, and guarantees, including economic ones, for the integrity of what remains of the Czech state.

Unfortunately, however, it is not known whether these are really Mr. Chamberlain's demands, so that he has put himself in the position of backing down without having to repudiate any previously given promises.

It is certainly important that "The London Times" states that any threats to the Czechoslovak part of Czechoslovakia will be an entirely different matter from the ceding of the Sudeten areas. Also, Lord Winterton's broadcast saying that Britain is determined not to approve the demands of the Polish and Hungarian governments is particularly important because of the sources from which it comes, for Lord Winterton is close to Lord Halifax.

The crucial point now is whether the British are willing to guarantee the remnants of Czechoslovakia and the limitation of losses of Czech territories to really German parts of the country.

But the previous concessions that have been made have made a promise from Great Britain to guarantee the independence of what is left of Czechoslovakia an infinitely more dangerous thing than it would have been to guarantee the whole of Czechoslovakia.

First of all, the British and French have conceded the principle of the rights of racial or linguistic minorities to secede under the threat of force from a sovereign state. Once that principle is conceded the Hungarian and Polish rights are exactly as just as the German.

Second, in conceding the right of the Sudetens to secede, they have appallingly weakened the defenses of what is left of Czechoslovakia and made it very much harder to defend her.

Sights And Sounds

HOLLYWOOD—The week's new movies live up to that "best entertainment" talk.

Excitement, thrills, humor and romance travel the world with Clark Gable and Myrna Loy in "Too Hot to Handle," melodrama of newsworld-shooting.

Out to tip its own "Test Pilot," Metro went for big stuff in bombed Shanghai, planted hero and heroine in an airplane over a flaming munitions-laden vessel at sea, took a whirl at voodoo among the savages of Dutch Guiana, and wound up with gang war in New York.

Gable plays the crack newsreel who'll risk his life to get a scoop for the camera headed by explosive, raucous, ruthless "Gabe" by Mac Arthur (Walter Connolly)—but if he can't get it by risking his life he'll take it just as merrily.

Wild mushrooms have caused the death of 22 persons within a fortnight in the united provinces of India.

funds for a search for her flyer-brother, lost in South American jungles. Walter Pidgeon is Gable's arch-rival, Leo Carrillo his faithful aide.

When Myrna becomes the discredited paty—too hot to handle—in the mutual double-crossing of Pidgeon and Gable, the repentant pair hook their equipment to follow her flight to the jungle and follow her down. There the trio meet adventures like those you remember from the serials—leavened, however, with fantastic humor.

Jack Conway's direction is swift and sure.

"Hold That Co-Ed" is bright action, with music, on politics and college football.

John Barrymore, at his wild-eyed best, steals the show as the governor who wants to be senator and uses the state college as a political pigskin. He puts out millions for education and football—and incidentally promises $600-a-week pensions for the aged, saying to his protesting secretary (Marjorie Weaver): "They won't get

NEW YORK—"Cafe Society" is about ready. We were privileged to sit in on the composition of the last movement of this latest suite by Ferde Grofe, who sometimes likes to indulge the whimsy of having factory whistles blow and chains clank in his musical compositions.

They did this in "Metropolis." In "Grande Canyon Suite" you get the pipit of donkeys coming down the trail. From "Mississippi" is the color and excitement of Mardi Gras in New Orleans. And now, in "Cafe Society," Ferde Grofe has painted a musical picture of an integral part of New York life.

You know what cafe society in New York is, of course. It is mostly a conglomeration of snobs, vising royalty, and upper-drawer social avails and awaiters who like to gather and be seen in the better cafes and restaurants.

And so Senor Grofe, who hasn't a drop of Spanish blood in his veins, has painted a broad canvas to sketch, in his peopled it with a swell lot of characters, each fitted to a tune, and the finished product is a bit of New York that everybody who knows this town will easily recognize.

Among the various movements is the "Ballet of the Drinks," and the drinks identified are champagne, rye and ginger ale; gin, and scotch and soda.

We are especially interested in this movement for Mr. Grofe was kind enough to ask us for an opinion on how the gin should be created and our suggestion was accepted and utilized. The champagne, of course, will be a waits. Then comes the rye and ginger ale, which will be a gavotte. And the scotch and soda will incorporate a suggestion of scotch bagpipes, or a reel, to be heard in the background. It was the gin that puzzled Mr. Grofe, who hasn't a drop of French blood in his veins, and we suggested that in-as-much as he wanted the movement to be as varied as possible he should treat it in the low-down, moaning blues manner of a Gulf wharf scene. This he has done and now "Cafe Society" is about ready for its premiere.

This latest Grofean exercise, which will run about 25 or 30 minutes, takes in the full sweep of a metropolitan cafe. There are the haughty waiters, the cigarette girl, the last-check girl. Visiting royalty comes in. The highbrows saunter to their tables and are seated. T60, come a honeymooning couple, and the heavyweight champion with his manager and retinue of pugilism's followers, asking for autographs.

In an exuberant moment the Champ selects the bride and embraces her. The groom punches the Champ in the jaw, and kayoes him. They take the Champ out, feet first, to the strains of a dirge. It goes on like that through eight or nine movements. If you know your Grofe you have an idea what this is to be like.

And about the time you are reading this it will be having its premiere in Chicago. Grofe himself will direct. And of course, of that premiere a master record will be made.

I certainly aim to get a copy of it, too.

Stewardship Program Conducted By W.M.U.

FORNAN, Sept. 24—Ladies of the W. M. U. met at the Baptist church for a Stewardship program under the direction of Mrs. Glenn Smith. Devotional was brought by Mrs. J. B. Hicks with Mrs. O. H. Mississippi farmers cured 2,073,629 pounds of pork in 45 cold storage plants during the 1937-38 season.

The United States has about four and one-half million colonies of honey bees that make about 160,000,000 pounds of honey a year.

em, but it makes 'em happy to be promised things like that."

After "State"—with trick-kneed Joan Davis as "the only girl grifter in the world"—has tied Louisiana and romped over Michigan, Yale, and Princeton, Barrymore wagers the senatorial race on the outcome of a game between his school and his opponent's. That outcome represents the ultimate novelty in hilarious ways to finish a movie football game.

Barrymore's politician is a crafty, loud and conscienceless show-off with a touch of mellowing philosophy and, in the end at least, of sportsmanship. Musical interludes are provided by George Murphy (the coach) who leads a new swing step called the "Limpy Dimp" and dances and sings the tune "Here I Am Doing It" for Marjorie Weaver. Joan Davis is tops in her line, but Jack Haley is buried in absent opportunities.

In "Room Service" those professional lunatics, the Marx Brothers, strait-jacket themselves within a legitimate plot for the first time. Although the screen translates the George Abbott stage hit faithfully, the Marxes give typically Marxian interpretations of their roles.

Groucho plays the shoeing producer looking for an "angel" while his hotel bill, for himself and cast, mounts to the room-service-discontinued point. Chico and Harpo are his aides. As chief batter in frantic efforts to keep cast, body and soul together against all the hilarious odds, Groucho has the best role, and Chico (minus piano) and Harpo (sans harp) take the leadings.

The champagne, of course, will be a waits. Then comes the rye and ginger ale, which will be a gavotte. And the scotch and soda will incorporate a suggestion of scotch bagpipes, or a reel, to be heard in the background. It was the gin that puzzled Mr. Grofe, who hasn't a drop of French blood in his veins, and we suggested that in-as-much as he wanted the movement to be as varied as possible he should treat it in the low-down, moaning blues manner of a Gulf wharf scene. This he has done and now "Cafe Society" is about ready for its premiere.

This latest Grofean exercise, which will run about 25 or 30 minutes, takes in the full sweep of a metropolitan cafe. There are the haughty waiters, the cigarette girl, the last-check girl. Visiting royalty comes in. The highbrows saunter to their tables and are seated. T60, come a honeymooning couple, and the heavyweight champion with his manager and retinue of pugilism's followers, asking for autographs.

In an exuberant moment the Champ selects the bride and embraces her. The groom punches the Champ in the jaw, and kayoes him. They take the Champ out, feet first, to the strains of a dirge. It goes on like that through eight or nine movements. If you know your Grofe you have an idea what this is to be like.

And about the time you are reading this it will be having its premiere in Chicago. Grofe himself will direct. And of course, of that premiere a master record will be made.

I certainly aim to get a copy of it, too.

Stewardship Program Conducted By W.M.U.

FORNAN, Sept. 24—Ladies of the W. M. U. met at the Baptist church for a Stewardship program under the direction of Mrs. Glenn Smith. Devotional was brought by Mrs. J. B. Hicks with Mrs. O. H. Nichols, Mrs. A. C. Shaw, Mrs. R. M. Brown, Mrs. A. A. Chambers, Mrs. C. C. Kent on the program. Others attending were Mrs. H. A. Hobbs, Mrs. J. C. Scudgery, Mrs. J. E. Thompson and Mrs. Pete Huddleston.

Mississippi farmers cured 2,073,629 pounds of pork in 45 cold storage plants during the 1937-38 season.

The United States has about four and one-half million colonies of honey bees that make about 160,000,000 pounds of honey a year.

After "State"—with trick-kneed Joan Davis as "the only girl grifter in the world"—has tied Louisiana and romped over Michigan, Yale, and Princeton, Barrymore wagers the senatorial race on the outcome of a game between his school and his opponent's. That outcome represents the ultimate novelty in hilarious ways to finish a movie football game.

Barrymore's politician is a crafty, loud and conscienceless show-off with a touch of mellowing philosophy and, in the end at least, of sportsmanship. Musical interludes are provided by George Murphy (the coach) who leads a new swing step called the "Limpy Dimp" and dances and sings the tune "Here I Am Doing It" for Marjorie Weaver. Joan Davis is tops in her line, but Jack Haley is buried in absent opportunities.

In "Room Service" those professional lunatics, the Marx Brothers, strait-jacket themselves within a legitimate plot for the first time. Although the screen translates the George Abbott stage hit faithfully, the Marxes give typically Marxian interpretations of their roles.

Groucho plays the shoeing producer looking for an "angel" while his hotel bill, for himself and cast, mounts to the room-service-discontinued point. Chico and Harpo are his aides. As chief batter in frantic efforts to keep cast, body and soul together against all the hilarious odds, Groucho has the best role, and Chico (minus piano) and Harpo (sans harp) take the leadings.

Public Is Invited To Inspect New Cottage In Park Hill Addn.

Bungalow In Fast-Developing Area Open Today, Monday And Tuesday

With seven houses either completed or in the process of construction, the new Park Hill addition in southwest Big Spring is fast becoming one of the residential show spots in the city.
At least four other residential projects are in the making. J. C. Velvin, member of Velvin-Stranch, Inc., promoters and developers of the addition, announced.
An attraction for the public will be open house in a California bungalow at Park Hill on Sunday between the hours of 11 a. m. and 9 p. m., and on Monday and Tuesday between the hours of 2 p. m. and 6 p. m.
The new section, cut out of the old Brennan addition, is located immediately north of Edwards Heights. It can be reached by driving out South Scurry street to West 18th, then west to Lancaster, half a block south to Dallas, and west to 600 block on Dallas and half a block north to the addition.
There are 18 acres of land in the addition as it is subdivided now, and an equal amount will be added when the present space has been filled sufficiently.
It is the policy of Velvin-Stranch, Inc., to build at least 60 per cent of the space along a given street or area before opening a new territory. When this is done, all premises are completely landscaped and trees planted along the streets.

Selective selling also is a policy with the concern. Not only is the quality of the homes kept above a given level, but the class of home-owners is kept among the group of substantial citizens.
All lots in the Park Hill addition are approved by F.H.A., making possible F.H.A. liberal terms for home ownership.

ON STATE COMMITTEE

C. S. Blomshield of this city has been made a member of the nominating committee for the Texas Manufacturers' association convention which is to meet in Waco October 10-11, according to word received here Saturday. Blomshield plans to attend the convention in Waco next month.

If old poultry can be frozen at a low temperature before cooking, the tough fibers are broken down and the meat cooks up tender.

Game Preserve Area Boosted

80 Sections Added In County's Wildlife Project

Addition of approximately 80 sections to demonstration game preserves in the county was announced by County Agent O. P. Griffin Saturday.
Coupled with little more than 90 sections listed in the preserves areas earlier in the week, this gave the county around 170,000 acres of protected wildlife area.
Biggest block announced Saturday was the H. H. Wilkerson ranch west of Big Spring. The George White ranch and many small farms in that territory were also signed. Should the Guitler estate ranch come under the preserve, it would make it the biggest block in the county.
The demonstration preserve provides for regulated and optional restricted hunting. Hunters must secure written permits at the property headquarters and report the kill when returning the permit.

Strong Man Of Cuba Asserts He Would Stand With Democracies In Clash With Dictatorships

Editor's Note: What effect European ideologies are having on Latin American nations has become a subject of increasing interest. Edmund Chester, executive director of the Latin-American department of the Associated Press, has returned to the United States after months of travel in Latin America. He talked to men in the palaces of government and to those in the street. In the following article he tells what the "Strong Man of Cuba" says his nation will do in respect to totalitarianism.

By EDMUND CHESTER

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Col. Fulgencio Batista, strong man of Cuba and one of Latin America's most active leaders, told me he has placed his nation on the side of democracy in the "democracy against totalitarianism" fight now being waged in Europe.

It was the army leader's first public statement on international affairs and it was made during an exclusive, informal interview in Havana.

"I understand," said the former army sergeant, "that the peace of the world depends upon the action of four great powers in Europe—France, England, Germany and Italy. It is, it seems to me, a matter of democracy against totalitarianism. If these powers can lay their equilibrium, we may find peace. If they do not, we will have war and the American nations must be prepared for it."

Colonel Batista said he believed Latin America unsuited for European political doctrines and that efforts to extend "European influence" in Latin America should be met with purely American democratic doctrines.

"In America," he said, "democracy is the most suitable political doctrine. It is a doctrine deeply rooted in the people and the only one that is in complete accord with American history and with the American spirit."

"Totalitarianism cannot live in these countries. If it does enter our nations it can only be of a transitory nature because it will create conditions much worse than the conditions it is supposed to correct. The cure is worse than the disease."

"If Americans should, for some reason, allow themselves to become inspired by European political or cultural doctrines, not in accordance with American sentiments, they would be taking action against themselves, in the long run. There may be circumstances under which certain European doctrines are desirable in America and it may be necessary, in certain circumstances, to take actions that are not democratic in principle. But even in such extreme cases the action should not bring about a complete breakdown of democratic principles or of democratic governments."

Colonel Batista said his army of 25,000 men would devote its efforts to bringing the nations of America closer together. "Our army is an enemy of war. It is an army of peace, dedicating itself to building schools and hospitals in Cuba."

"But if war cannot be avoided, Cuba will be on the side of the United States, whatever the course of that great nation."

How Bad Is A Breath? It's A Matter Of pO's

To test breath, a person breathes into tubes (left). The breath is frozen in the thermos, foreground, then liquefied and sniffed through an oscilloscope (right).

By the AP Feature Service

CHICAGO—A halitosis clinic where one can learn how bad his breath smells without fear of social repercussions has been established by the Northwestern university dental college.

Five scientists working under direction of Dr. L. S. Fossick, professor of chemistry, have designed apparatus to put a "pO" or odor concentration rating on anyone's breath so they can trace the cause of objectionable halitosis. Their odor scale ranges from 0 to 6 pO's. They have discovered, for instance, that 75 per cent of all persons tested had smelly breaths rating at least two pO's which is faint enough to get by most anywhere. As for the nose crinkling breath so widely advertised—44 per cent had it in degrees noticeable from kissing distance to that of a hand shade.

Federal Bounty Enriching Howard Cotton Farmers

Although the cotton crop was lagging far behind in its movement to the markets, Howard county cotton producers were reaping a golden harvest in government benefits as the week ended here.

Receipt of 240 subsidy checks Friday afternoon brought $36,768 to farmers.

This brought the number of subsidy payments the past week to $125,219.15 in 804 checks. The county agent's office estimated there were more than 200 checks to be received here on the subsidy payments in the amount of approximately $25,000.

Having captured pO in a test tube Dr. Fossick and his assistants started listing causes. They found that the worst cases, six pO's, were caused by pyorrhea. Others above two pO were caused by sinus, throat or nasal infections. Stomach ulcers popped up occasionally. Smokers registered strong pO's and if one had a few drinks the night before Dr. Fossick's boys will sniff them through their cyroscopic gadgets the next day.

Getting the pO is accomplished in two steps. The "patient" breathes into a glass tube immersed in liquid nitrogen freezing the breath to 319 degrees below zero, Fahrenheit. This solidifies all organic matter in the breath. The frozen mass is liquefied and sniffed through an oscilloscope which looks like a picnic table and measures the degree of odor.

Stanton School Band Planning A Busy Season

STANTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Taking the spotlight this week in school affairs was the Stanton school band, with announcement of plans for the near future. The band is composed of 55 members this year, and is under the direction of W. M. Bucy. During the football season, the band will have a full program, since arrangements have been made for it to accompany the team to out of town games. The second trip of the season was made Friday night, to Monahans, for the game there.

On Sunday, Director Bucy plans to take five of the band members to Pecos, to attend the Regional 6 band meet of members and directors. Those who will make the trip are Clint Eldson, Maxine Sprawls, Wilma Turner, Mary Catherine Barfield and Josephine Houston. An invitation has been received to participate in the band meet to be held in connection with the West Texas Fair in Abilene, October 4. Tentative plans are being made to make the trip.

The Band Mothers club will meet with the school board Tuesday afternoon, to make the final decision on the new uniforms, from samples already received from various firms. The uniforms will be red trimmed in gray, school colors, and will be of military design, featuring Sam Browne belts. The drum major, Maurice Bond, will have a uniform suitable for that position, as will Mary Prude Story, band sweetheart. Stanton's two tiny three year old mascots, Bobby Bryan and Jo Jon Hall have been organized, in their colorful red suits. They accompany the band on all trips.

Hospital Notes

Big Spring Hospital
Mrs. Bill Gage, who has been in the hospital, will return to her home Sunday morning.

Carrel Richardson, 4-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Richardson, was somewhat better Saturday afternoon, although he was not out of danger.

John Albert Smith, who sustained an injury to his left knee in an automobile collision on Wednesday, was improving Saturday.

Earl Downs of Amarillo, who has been in the hospital following surgery, was improving.
