PARACHUTE HOLDS PILOT DOWN

A helicopter hovers low over the water in an attempt to rescue Ensign E. H. Barry of Indianapolis, Ind., after his Grumman plane (right) hit the sea on a take off from the aircraft carrier Block Island (rear). Barry is caught in a "tug-of-war" between the helicopter and his parachute, which opened unexpectedly. Seconds later he was yanked from the rescue sling and back into the water. He finally was saved by a boat crew from the destroyer Bearss, from which this picture was made by a Navy photographer.

Showers Fall On Parts Of This Section

By The Associated Press

Showers skipped around the Lubbock area northward Thursday.

Terry and Hockley counties, west and south of Lubbock, two of the driest in the state, got amounts varying up to one inch. An inch was reported between Meadow and Brownfield in Terry County, although Meadow received none and Brownfield got only a shower.

Showers also fell at Levelland, Whiteface and O'Donnell.

Rain started at 6:30 a. m. at Floydada northwest of Lubbock and continued at mid-morning.

Northward, Plainview got one-fourth of an inch, and the same amount fell at Happy, Tulia and Lockney. Downtown Amarillo got .70, but only .01 was recorded at the weather bureau gauge at the edge of town.

Over the rest of Texas temperatures started climbing again after a brief rain-cooled respite.

Rain reported through 6:30 a. m. Thursday was .68 inch at Borger, .17 at Dallas, .02 at Tyler and traces at College Station and Mineral Wells.

At mid-morning skies were clear to partly cloudy. A front which brought the showers had moved out of the state into the Gulf. Morning minimums ranged from 65 at Dalhart to 80 at Galveston.

Wednesday afternoon temperatures had ranged from the 70s in the Panhandle to the 80s in Central Texas and East Texas and on up to the 90s in extreme South Texas.

More 100-degree readings were expected Thursday, but any rain would be almost wholly unexpected, although there was a chance for some widely scattered thundershowers.

Thunderstorms Wednesday dumped nearly two inches of rain on several East, North and Central Texas points. But, even so, the rains were spotty and of little benefit to most localities.

The Department of Agriculture announced in Fort Worth that it had assigned a number of men from its Ofice of Compliance and Investigation to dig into reports of law violations in connection with the drouth relief program.

Texans had requested nearly 2,000 cars of grain and 126,054 tons of cottonseed meal, pellets and cake through the government's drouth relief program. But the Commodity Credit Corporation, which sells its surplus feed stocks at cut-rate prices under the program, said it had no way of knowing how much actually had been delivered. CCC said a shortage of cars had hampered feed deliveries.

1st Hurricane Heading For Cape Hatteras

MIAMI (AP)—The Atlantic hurricane with winds of about 100 miles an hour is expected to pass over or very close to the North Carolina coast near Cape Hatteras tonight.

Grady Norton, storm forecaster, said the center was about 200 miles south of Hatteras at 9 a.m. (CST). The North Carolina coastal area was clouding up and rain began as the tropical storm approached.

"It appears the storm will pass over Cape Hatteras or very close by about the middle of the night," said Norton.

"The winds will increase and tides will rise during the afternoon. The dangerous winds apparently will be confined to the section around Cape Lookout to Cape Hatteras, although the whole North Carolina coast will have pretty strong winds."

The storm, the second of the season, formed east of Daytona Beach, Fla., yesterday.

At 4 a. m. (CST) the hurricane was centered about 300 miles east of Brunswick, Ga., near latitude 31.3 north, longitude 76.3 west, and was moving in northerly direction at 8 to 10 miles an hour.

Movement in the same direction and at about the same speed was forecast for several hours. Winds of strong to gale force were forecast for the North Carolina coast late today and tonight.

A hurricane hunter plane found the hurricane 325 miles east of Daytona Beach yesterday and it moved steadily north northwestward.

Nearly 1,000 Dead As Quakes Continue

ATHENS (AP)—Severe earth tremors for the fifth day turned Greece's pleasant Ionian Islands into a place of terror today.

Billowing fires swept earthquake ruins and huge slabs of the ancient mountainous island of Kefallinia, loosened by the tremors, were slipping into the sea. Unofficial estimates said just under 1,000 persons have been killed.

The ministry of interior said that Argostolion, a city of 10,000 and the island's chief port, was "beginning to sink under water."

The Athens newspaper Katherini said sections of the town's waterfront were being submerged slowly.

(Walter Hawkins, TWA pilot, and Max Scribner, New York engineer, said their plane flew over Kefallinia yesterday and the stricken island looked like a forest fire. Great chunks of the coast could be seen sliding and splashing into the sea, they said. Clouds of dust rose over the earthslides.

(Hawkins said slides of earth could be seen under the water from the shelf surrounding the island. The biggest settling appeared to be on the northwest and northeastern coasts and huge bare spots could be seen where the land had fallen away into the water.)

Ships of all sizes shuttled inceasingly across the Ionian Sea, bringing hundreds of injured to hospitals in Patras, the closest big city.

There still was no official estimate of the total dead among the 120,000 people of the wrecked islands of Ithaca, Kefallinia and Zakynthos. Unofficially, the figure was placed so far at just under 1,000 with "countless" injured. It was feared the uncleared rubble hid many more bodies.

Fires were reported still burning in the cities of Zakynthos, population 15,000, and Argostolion, population 10,000. Both were destroyed by the earth disturbances.

Most or virtually all of the 120,000 islanders were reported homeless.

The Ministry of Interior said officials on Kefallinia advised Argostolion, the island's chief port, was "beginning to sink underwater."

No letup was in sight. The brief reports from the area said the tremors still were continuing.

From Naples, the speedy 20,000-ton cruiser Salem, flagship of the U.S. 6th Fleet, sped to the stricken islands with doctors, stocks and medical supplies and food and a helicopter aboard.

King Paul and Queen Frederika, cutting short an Aegean island vacation, planned to leave at once for the disaster scene aboard a Greek destroyer.

Defense Minister Panayotis Canellopoulos and Welfare Minister Constantine Adamopoulos already were at Kefallinia supervising relief work.

Pieping Says It Can Hold 'Guilty' GIs

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Allies sent back today the last Chinese Communist prisoner who wants to go home despite a United States threat to withhold some Red captives.

The transfer was made even as the Peiping Radio was saying it had the right to hold back Allied prisoners charged with various "crimes" and jailed even after the armistice was signed. Returning prisoners have said the prisoners were jailed on trumped-up charges.

The United States in retaliation had asserted it would withhold some Red prisoners charged with various crimes until communist intentions were known. Presumably, those to be withheld would be among the 50,000 North Korean Reds still to be exchanged.

It is believed Red China runs the show in Korea and is more concerned with getting back its own men than North Koreans.

Another 400 prisoners came back from Communist prison camps to this truce village today.

Prisoners freed today in the ninth day of the great POW exchange were 75 Americans, 75 British and 250 South Koreans.

Most of the repatriates appeared healthy as they bounced from the Red trucks.

This was the first large group from Camp 1 at Chongsong. Almost all POWs returned previously were from Camp 5 at Pyoktong on the Yalu River.

However, the stories of turncoats, informers and cruelty in Camp 1 struck a note heard before from the Camp 5 veterans.

Meanwhile, Red China's harsh warning backed stories from returning prisoners that buddies had been left behind, sentenced to jail for terms up to three years by the Reds on such charges as "instigating against peace."

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles warned the Communists Tuesday that the U. N. Command would not return Red captives convicted of crimes "until we know the attitude of the Communists toward ours." He said the UNC wanted all POWs returned.

Peiping radio said the Geneva Convention provides that prisoners facing "criminal proceedings for an indictable offense . . . may be detained until the end of such proceedings, and, if necessary, until the completion of the punishment. The same shall apply to prisoners . . . already convicted . . . "

Peiping charged Dulles with "blackmail" in his threat of retaliation and said that while he charged that the Reds do not intend to return all the POWs, "Dulles, nevertheless, has to admit that it is too early yet to know for sure whether any POWs are actually being withheld."

The broadcast said Dulles "thus . . . unwittingly stamps himself a liar."

Peiping said flatly there is no basis in the armistice agreement for the United States to demand the return of "convicted POWs" and added:

"On the contrary, this claim is in contravention of the Geneva Convention."

Wildcat Fails In Howard At Top Of Reef

Urice Drilling Co. No. 1 Rosa Harper, Central Howard wildcat four and one-half miles north of Big Spring, failed to find any shows of oil or gas on a drill-stem test in the top of the Pennsylvanian reef.

The test was run from 8,829-853 feet, with recovery 80 feet of drilling mud with no shows of oil, gas or water. No length was reported.

Top of the reef lime was at 8,806 feet on a datum of minus 6,219 feet. That makes it 21 feet high to Sunray No. 1 Harper, a dry hole at 9,505 feet in Mississippian.

The Sunray duster had some shows in the reef lime, but the shows could not be developed for commercial production. It was in the southeast corner of section 15-32-tln-T&P, three - quarters of a mile southeast of the Urice project.

Urice No. 1 Harper, 660 feet from north and west lines of section 15-32-tiln-T&P, is now drilling below 8,853 feet in lime and is to continue drilling through the Pennsylvanian. It may also test the Mississippian and Ellenburger.

DAWSON TEST

Seaboard Oil No. 1 Herman Pettaway, Dawson wildcat, is preparing to test from 7,933-983 feet after coring from 7,944-983 feet.

Recovery on the core was 38 feet. Of this, one and one-half feet was light gray crystalline lime with very vugular porosity, good oil and odor and stain; one-half foot was green shale, farily vugular with pen-point porosity, eight feet were green shale, eight feet were green shale with fair to good vugular marks and porosity, three feet were dense, light gray crystalline lime with no stain, odor or porosity and 17 feet were green shale with fair to good vugularity and porosity.

BORDEN COUNTY

Magnolia Petroleum No. 3-D Conrad, Borden test in the Lake Thomas lake bed, is swabbing on perforations from 4,572-582 feet. It swabbed dry in five hours and reacidized with 5,000 gallons. A flow was then developed, bringing out 29 barrels of load oil in two hours before it died. The project swabbed 11 barrels of load oil and 27 barrels of acid wafer in the next eight hours.

NEW WELLS

C. T. McLaughlin of Snyder No. 2 Birdwell has been staked for immediate drilling in the Diamond M-Clear Fork field, nine and one-half miles west-southwest of Snyder. It is 330 feet from west and south lines of the northwest quarter of section 177-97-H&TC on a 120-acre lease. Cable contract is to 3,400 feet.

Phillips Petroleum Co. has staked its No. 2 Hamlin in the North-Luther Canyon reef field of Howard County 25 miles north of Big Spring. It is to be 660 feet from north and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 44-32-tln-T&P. Projected depth is 8,300 feet.

Air Force Must Bring Accused Slayer Back

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal Judge Walter Bastian ordered the Air Force today to return former Sgt. Robert Toth of Pittsburgh from Korea to Washington Sept. 1. Toth is charged with murder in the slaying of a South Korean civilian.

Judge Alexander Holtzof ruled June 25 that Toth, 22, an honorably discharged veteran, had been arrested illegally. He ordered the Air Force to return Toth to the United States by July 9.

Holtzof stayed his order to permit the Air Force to appeal. The higher court dismissed the appeal on a technicality, opening the way for Toth's return.

9 CHILDREN DIE IN 2 ICE BOXES

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Four young boys were found dead today in an abandoned ice box near their homes at McGuire Veterans Administration Hospital.

John Turner of the hospital staff made the discovery, closing a two-day search by upward of 1,000 aided by planes and helicopters.

It was a tragedy almost identical to one yesterday at Proctor, Ark., where five children were found suffocated in an old refrigerator.

The Richmond victims were children of two members of the hospital staff. Three of them, twins Woodrow and Wilson, 7, and George, 5, were the only children of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson Blackstock. The father is hospital maintenance engineer. The other boy, Walter Boykin, 7, was the son of the hospital's acting manager, Dr. Melvin Boykin.

The old refrigerator, in an unused building less than 25 yards from the Boykin home, was one of the early places spotted for a check—but somehow was overlooked.

PROCTOR, Ark. (AP)—An old ice box that used to cool soft drinks in a country store caught four brothers and their sister in a death trap at a farm home near here last night.

The blond youngsters, ranging in age from 9 to 2, were found crumpled in the coffin-like box by a deputy sherif called by the frantic mother.

The oldest, 9-year-old Edward Hallman, bore the only visible injuries. He apparently butted his head against the latched lid in an desperate effort to force it open.

T. H. McGough, Crittenden County Coroner, said there was no evidence of foul play. "Looks like they were in the ice box playing when the overhead lid slammed down," he said.

Death was blamed on suffocation.

Deputies were called by Mrs. J. W. Hallman when she returned from the fields with her two oldest children and found the youngsters missing.

Deputy Billy Williams said he and other officers searched the premises and were ready to scour nearby woods when he passed by the ice box on the front porch and lifted the lid.

There he found Odie and Tommy, 4-year-old twins in overalls; Edward and Wesley, 7, in blue jeans and without shirts; and Barbara Ann, 2, in a colorful dress.

"I must have walked by that ice-box a dozen times while hunting for them but I never dreamed they might be in there," the distraught mother said.

She told officers the box had been discarded by a nearby store. The family used it for awhile, then shoved it out on the porch.

The father, 34-year-old J. W. Hallman, was away from home, working in Rockford, Ill.

Italians Try For Cabinet

ROME (AP)—Italy turned today to Giuseppe Pella, a trusted financial expert in five cabinets, for help in her deepening government crisis.

The Christian Democrat, 51, longtime ally of former Premier Alcide de Gasperi, was called by President Luigi Einaudi for consultations.

Einaudi was expected to ask Pella to form a "business government"—a cabinet to push through a budget on which the politically confused nation can operate until a more permanent solution is found.

Italy was thrown into a new muddle yesterday when Christian Democrat Attilio Piccioni told the President he could not form a cabinet.

AFL Calls For Federal Aid In Building Houses

CHICAGO (AP)—The AFL Executive Council today called for a six-year government-aided program to build 12½ million new homes.

If the required homes are to be built to take care of the expected population increase by 1960, the council said, construction will have to average more than two million units a year. This compares with a record of 1,400,000 produced in 1950 and an average of 1,100,000 during the 1950-1953 period.

Allowable Cut Is Indicated

AUSTIN (AP)—Major oil companies want less Texas oil next month, the Railroad Commission said today.

Advance nominations for crude totaled 3,139,206 barrels a day, down 30,911 from advance indications a month ago.

The present daily allowable is 3,119,288.

Purchasers will explain their requests at Wednesday's proration hearing for September.

The Bureau of Mines estimated market demand for Texas oil would be 2,850,000 barrels daily in September. That was 50,000 barrels more than the bureau's estimate a year ago.

Nominations for September increased only in the North Texas District, up 3,437 barrels per day; West Central Texas District 7-B, up 765; and outside East Texas Field, up 258.

The biggest decline was in West Texas, where purchasers indicated they will need 978,667 barrels daily, down 13,054 from their advance requests last month.

OVERTURE FROM LEWIS

Union Leaders Have Words After Carpenters Walk Out

CHICAGO (AP)—Dickering between the AFL and CIO for a merger already has produced a major casualty. The powerful Carpenters Union has pulled out of the AFL in protest.

The 822,000-member carpenters group, a pillar of the AFL and one of its founding unions, suddenly severed connections with the federation yesterday.

Action by other AFL leaders in okaying an agreement with the CIO to ban "raids" of rival union membership was given as the reason but Carpenters' President Maurice A. Hutcheson conceded:

"It's the climax of something that's been going on for a long time in the AFL."

Hutcheson wrote in a letter to AFL President George Meany revealing his union's secession that he objected to the AFL agreeing to ban fights between AFL and CIO unions when, he said the AFL hadn't taken steps to stop scraps among its own unions.

Hutcheson's letter complained that AFL leaders "are more concerned with the affairs of the CIO than they are with those of the federation."

Meany fired back that Hutcheson's reasons for quitting "didn't seem to make sense." He said the "no raiding" agreement with the CIO was a necessary first step toward achieving an actual AFL-CIO merger—something Meany said almost everyone agreed would benefit all labor.

In San Francisco, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, said the carpenters' action "exemplifies the fallacy of this tweedledum and tweedledee policy of the AFL Executive Council in avoiding the basic question of unity."

Lewis refused to say whether he will ask the carpenters to join in his reported move to form a new labor federation of miners, AFL teamsters and CIO steelworkers.

Meany hinted broadly to newsmen that he considered the carpenters primarily at the root of many jurisdictional troubles within the AFL.

He said Hutcheson, while protesting against lack of AFL power to stop fights between AFL unions, probably would be the first one to protest against vesting any such power in the AFL leadership.

Twice before, the Carpenters Union has pulled out of the AFL only to return later.

Meanwhile, there were reports that a cleanup faction of the beleaguered International Longshoremen's Association had seized power within the union with the intention of making some fast moves to help rid the ILA of criminal elements.

The AFL Executive Council voted Tuesday to recommend the ILA's suspension at next month's AFL convention, contending the waterfront union has been too slow in ousting racketeers.

Senators To Check On Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate group will visit Southwest drouth areas in October to see how the government's emergency relief program was handled and what results were obtained.

A Senate agriculture subcommittee, headed by Sen. Schoeppel (R-Kan) also will determine if there is need for permanent legislation to handle such disaster conditions.

Congress recently appropriated 150 million dollars for drouth relief. The program includes low-interest loans and the sale of government-owned grains at reduced rates.

Schoeppel said the program should be tapering off in October. Recent rains have improved the outlook, he added.

He said the subcommittee does not plan hearings during its survey of parts of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, New Mexico, Colorado, Arkansas and Missouri that have been declared drouth disaster areas.

Schoeppel is a member of a joint House-Senate committee advising the Agriculture Department and other agencies on drouth aid and loan matters. With him on that committee are Sen. Anderson (D-NM) and Reps. Belcher R-Okla) and Poage (D-Tex).

The mercury scurried up to a dry, hot 95 degrees in Snyder yesterday and stopped. It was the coolest day in the last six, when 95 degrees was also recorded for the high on August 6.

The overnight low was 71 degrees, Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, weather observer, said, and the temperature at 7:30 this morning was 75 degrees.

Heavy Budget Cuts Planned By Dodge

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new federal budget for the current fiscal year, with spending figures marked down below the levels approved by Congress, was reported in the making today.

It was learned Budget Director Joseph Dodge plans to get the new spending estimate out late this month. He has already ordered stringent money-conserving measures to go into effect immediately and has told government departments to plan budget slashes for next year at least as deep as this year's.

These steps were disclosed yesterday when a secret Dodge letter to all government department and agency heads came to light. It was dated July 9, more than a month before President Eisenhower publicly called for all government executives to "take every possible step" to cut spending immediately.

Dodge not only ordered economizing up and down the line but directed government executives to look for programs and projects the government could drop. He directed heads of federal lending agencies to reduce lending and swell Treasury coffers where they can by selling government-held mortgages to private business. He told service agencies to charge higher fees so as to put their offices on a self-supporting basis.

He called for reduced government payrolls. Additionally, he demanded intensified efforts to get the government out of business-type programs.

Dodge's letter went out to all agency heads three weeks before the administration made a fruitless appeal to Congress to raise the legal debt limit from 275 to 290 billion dollars. It was issued a week after the 1953 fiscal year closed on July 30 with a record peacetime deficit of $9,389,000,000, some 3½ billions bigger than had been anticipated.

The Dodge letter said, in part:

"Every possible reduction will have to be made. No saving can be considered too small, and no soundly conceived individual reduction too large or too difficult to be attempted. Reductions will have to be at least equal to and may have to be greater than those already made."

HOSTAGE RESCUED

His eyes full of tears, George Hightower (wearing coat) emerges from a ditch near Adairsville, Ga., after two desperate fugitives who had held him hostage elected to surrender to National Guardsmen. A four-day manhunt for the fugitives—25-year-old Herberft Juelich and 31-year-old Lewis Larson—began after the murder of U. S. Deputy Marshal Sam Vaughn, Murfreesboro, Tenn. Vaughn and Hightower, a special deputy, were driving the two men from Nashville, Tenn., to the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta.

French Strikes Spread Into Private Industries

PARIS (AP)—New walkouts were called today in the newspapers and national defense establishments as the huge strike wave involving four million workers swelled in France.

No end to labor's great upheaval was in sight as the unions battled Premier Joseph Laniel's economy program.

There were no negotiations between the unions and the government, which was trying to cope with the situation by putting police, soldiers and even convicts to work cleaning streets and helping sort mail.

There was one bright development for thousands of annoyed tourists—customs agents quit their jobs in ever increasing numbers at ports, air fields and border points, so that baggage was going in and out uninspected.

Most luggage going out belonged to fleeing tourists.

The French News Agency said it expected to be hit by a strike tomorrow.

Unions ordered pressmen and journalists to strike so that there would be no newspapers Monday.

The Socialist Workers' Force Labor Federation ordered workers in arsenals and other military branches to strike tomorrow for 24 hours. Building trade unions were discussing the calling of a walkout.

A few trains were running and some mail was being distributed, but most railway, postal, telephone and telegraphic services were paralyzed.

The strikes had spread from nationalized services like the railways, airlines, mines and post office to private branches of commerce and industry. Behind the strike wave now was labor's bid for a large scale rise in all wages and salaries.

The French Army manned 900 trucks to replace the strike-bound Paris subway and bus system and to service the suburbs. The Army might have to go on doing so, for the city transport unions were meeting to decide if they would continue their walkout tomorrow.

In the ninth day of the strike wave, Laniel, a multimillionaire textile industrialist who learned to fight in the wartime French underground, stuck his chin out and said he would not yield.

In a fighting speech to the nation last night, the 64-year-old Premier exclaimed:

"I say not to strike. I say no to pressure moves, direct or indirect, which have been imposed on the government."

All factions of French labor were pressing him. The first walkouts last week were called by the Socialist Workers' Force (FO), but the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor (CGT) and the Christian (Catholic) Trades Union (FCTC) quickly joined in.

Laniel declared it was the duty of the government of a democratic state to oppose the strike. He asserted the quicker workers realized the strike would end sooner or later, the quicker the nation could buckle down to carrying out the "generous social program" he said he has in mind.

The wave of walkouts was sparked by disclosure that the government's program for rescuing the nation's treasury from near-bankruptcy included lopping some employes off public payrolls and upping the retirement age for civil servants.

Workers also were angered that Laniel's plan did not put a heavier tax bite on the nation's wealthy. And the Communists chimed in with calls for a general wage boost.

CAUGHT IN WRECK

William J. Willis of Melrose Park, a Chicago surburb, sits trapped on his motorcycle after he was caught between a bus and an auto at a Chicago near north side intersection. Willis told police that he and his wife, who were riding the cycle, were thrown against the bus by an auto. No one was seriously injured.

Guard Is Kept With Escaping Men Four Days

ATLANTA (AP)—A man who lived with terror for four days in the north Georgia woods returned to his family today after his two convict captors were bound over without bond on a charge of murdering a U. S. deputy marshal.

George Hightower, 34, whose role of guard was turned into that of hostage by Herbert Juelich and Lewis Larson, told in a copyrighted story in the Atlanta Constitution today how Marshal Sam Vaughn was shot to death.

Juelich and Larson are awaiting action of a federal grand jury after waiving preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner Rowell Stanton at Rome, Ga., yesterday.

They were brought here to the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary, finally concluding a trip interrupted by tragedy and four days of terror while Georgia's biggest manhunt relentlessly tracked them down.

Hightower told of spending days in a dried-up creek bed, suffering from hunger, thirst and fear, with the two convicts for company. He gave the following account of the end of the trip on which he and Marshal Vaughn sought to bring the pair to Atlanta from Nashville, Tenn., to serve five years for transporting a stolen car across a state line.

"We were coming down the highway toward Atlanta. Mr. Vaughn was behind the wheel . . . Then suddenly this one called Lucky (Juelich) came up over the back of the seat.

"He had his handcuffs off . . . I don't know how he got them off . . . He grabbed Mr. Vaughn and they started fighting. The other one grabbed me.

"Mr. Vaughn finally took his hands off the wheel and started fighting back. Then this Lucky, he pulled out Mr. Vaughn's gun and shot him. I think in the neck the first time. He just seemed to keep shooting . . . One of them shoved the door and pushed Mr. Vaughn out . . .

"There wasn't too much talking between them. They just kept driving fast, up these dirt roads. When they stopped we all got out of the car . . . I thought I was going to get it right there."

Instead, Hightower said, the pair took him with them as they stumbled through the brush until they came upon a dry creek bed, partly hidden by foliage. There they crouched for four days until flushed out by Georgia National Guardsmen yesterday morning.

Thompson was fined $30 on a vagrancy charge and $14 on a drunkenness charge, both including justice court costs.

Editors Split On McCarthy Probe In May

WASHINGTON (AP)—Did Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) pose a threat to the freedom of the American press by his closed-door questioning of James A. Wechsler, editor of the New York Post?

A special committee of the American Society of Newspaper Editors (ASNE) spent more than two months studying this question—and failed to agree on a yes or no answer.

The committee's report, made public last night, shows 4 of the 11 members called McCarthy's two-day interrogation of the editor "a peril to American freedom."

Opinion among the others, the report said, ranged through various degrees of concern all the way to the viewpoint that McCarthy's inquiries did no damage to press freedom.

The special committee, headed by J. Russell Wiggins of the Washington Post, was set up at Wechsler's request after the editor was questioned in detail about his past politics and other matters April 24 and May 5 by the Senate investigating subcommittee.

Wechsler contended the transcript, later made public, would show McCarthy, as chairman of the subcommittee, was trying to intimidate an editor whose newspaper had criticized him.

McCarthy denied any such intention. He said the questioning was justified because Wechsler had written a book circulated by the State Department in one of its overseas libraries, which the subcommittee was investigating.

Wechsler is an acknowledged ex-Communist. He told the senators he quit the Communist party in 1937 at the age of 22 and has opposed it actively since then.

In New York, McCarthy said in an interview yesterday he was pleased that the ASNE committee has urged all editors to read the hearing transcript.

The full committee of editors agreed that hearings such as the one McCarthy conducted should be open to the press and public and advised all editors to seek legal advice on whether they should answer questions about their editorial and news judgments if they are ever called before any investigation.

"If there is a genuine constitutional question here, then it should be raised and settled," said the report.

Wiggins was one of the four editors who filed a separate statement blasting the Wechsler hearing as a definite menace to press freedom. The others were Herbert Brucker of the Hartford (Conn.) Courant, William M. Tugman of the Eugene (Ore.) Register-Guard and Eugene S. Pulliam Jr. of the Indianapolis News.

Deductable Insurance Not Acceptable Under Responsibility Law

AUSTIN (AP)—Auto owners trying to shave the cost of liability insurance by buying $50 and $100 deductible policies were entangled today in legal interpretations.

Their policies weren't acceptable to the Department of Public Safety because of the Texas driver responsibility law, even if the owners deposit cash to cover the deduction.

J. B. Alderdice of the department said the law defines an acceptable policy as one covering "all" the liability claim against a driver. No policy carrying a deduction could so qualify, he said.

State Casualty Insurance Comr. Garland Smith informed auto owners of the ruling. He said, however, he could not understand why a cash plus policy combination would not be acceptable.

"It would certainly pay off any claim," he said.

Alderdice indicated more study but said deductible policies would remain unacceptable.

Such policies are written to cover damages and injuries above a specified amount, usually $50 or $100, and sold at cheaper rates than policies with full coverage.

Good News In Grocery Stores

By The Associated Press

There's good shopping news for the economy-minded wife this week. Most food stores are cutting prices on pork chops, sirloin steak, rib roasts and frying chickens.

Many good values are in the vegetable department.

Loin pork chops have gone down in many cities for the second straight week.

One big chain says its week end prices for loin chops will be off 10 cents a pound in Boston and Detroit, nine cents in Los Angeles, and four to six cents in Pittsburgh, Chicago and Jacksonville, Fla.

Sirloin will be 10 cents lower in Detroit and Chicago, and off four cents in Jacksonville and New York. Rib roasts will be two to six cents lower in most cities. Leg of lamb also will be down four to six cents in many places but will be higher in some parts of the East.

Frying chickens will be featured in a number of cities, off two to six cents a pound.

Eggs range from four cents lower to two cents higher. Butter is unchanged.

Produce men say vegetables are definitely lower. Good buys are peppers, cabbage, tomatoes, celery, beans, egg plant, squash and radishes. Western carrots and lettuce are higher.

Bartlett pears, peaches, oranges and grapes are being reduced in some cities.

Food prices generally, and meat in particular, should decline about 10 per cent within the next year, says Hugo Slotkin, president of Hygrade Food Products Corp. Slotkin bases his forecast on a general survey of the cattle ranges, supplies and government policies.

British-Egyptians Are Unable To Agree Again

CAIRO (AP)—Sources close to the government said today Egypt had decided to break off the present informal talks with the British over Suez.

Formal negotiations broke down last May. Egyptian and British officials had gotten together on three occasions since July 30 to see if they could pave the way for resuming long standing issues over the Suez Canal Zone.

Egypt wants evacuation of the 80,000 British troops in the Canal Zone. Britain wants assurances first that arrangements can be made to keep the waterway in good working order and to assure its defense.

Jail Terms In Eastern Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—East German food-seekers brought word today of a three-month jail sentence given a Soviet Zone for bringing an American food parcel back from West Berlin. It was the first report of such a penalty.

Border crossers told also of two new measures which have stirred up resentment:

Police handling the control point on East Berlin's Warsaw Bridge seized dozens of packages and threw them into the Spree River.

Police checking all passes on trains are tearing up those which do not belong to the holder.

Many East Germans bring the passes of friends to pick up food packages for them. An East German who lacks an identity pass is in trouble. Those still coming over the border say most packages are being smuggled through.

The West has distributed almost two and a half million parcels since July 27. The distribution is to end Saturday, but West Berlin officials say they plan to start up again Aug. 27.

Wheat Quota Election Set Here Friday

Approximately 500 farmers and land owners in Scurry County are qualified to vote in the wheat quota referendum election here tomorrow, Irelan Finley, Production and Marketing Association director, said.

The election will be held in the county PMA office over the Texas Electric Service Co. on the west side of the square. The polls will be open from 8 o'clock in the morning to 7 tomorrow night.

"All farmers who plan to raise as much or more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest in 1954, owners of such land if they are to share in the income from the wheat crop, and the farmers or landowners wives are eligible to vote," he said.

If the vote is in favor of wheat quotas for 1954, the quotas will be in effect for all farms planting more than 15 acres of wheat, and marketing penalties will apply on any wheat produced on acres in excess of the farm's allotment. The price of wheat raised under the quota regulations will be supported at 90 per cent of parity.

The vote will have to carry by a two-thirds majority for the quotas to become effective.

If the vote is against the quotas the price supports will drop to 50 per cent of parity for co-operators. Non-cooperators — any who exceed their acreage allotments— will not be entitled to price support; even at the 50 per cent level, Finley said.

Huge Fire Hits GM Operation

DETROIT (AP)—A 35 million dollar fire roared through the General Motors Corp. transmission and instrument plant in suburban Livonia late yesterday, leaving a charred building.

Two men were killed, more than a score injured.

One GM official, who estimated the damage cost, said that production in the Cadillac, Oldsmobile and Pontiac plants would be hit. An estimated 45,000 workers may be out of their jobs temporarily.

The fire raged for three hours before it was brought under control. Within another hour the dead were brought out of the building. They were:

Lt. William G. Degner, 43, acting chief of the protection force of the Ternstedt instrument division located in a wing of the building.

Danny Staley, a production worker.

Most of the injuries were slight.

Firefighters said that a spark from a welding torch set off oil which spread to the rest of the building.

The fire started just before 4 p.m. A pair of plant safety men cleared 3,500 workers out of the building.

Seek Red View On Korea Talk

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold hoped to find out today what Russia's views are on the forthcoming Korean political conference.

Hammarskjold already has conferred with Western big power delegates, but no one has had so much as a hint what the Soviets will do during the General Assembly, which opens Monday.

The secretary general planned to go over the whole question with Soviet Delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky, who arrived here Tuesday from Moscow. He hoped to persuade Vishinsky to avoid bringing up any issues which might complicate the Korean discussions.

The United States and its 15 U.N. allies in the Korean War met for more than four hours last night in an attempt to hammer out a plan they could sponsor jointly. At the end of the meeting, however, they said they got no further than a preliminary exchange of views.

Pick Junior High Twirlers

Adaleen Soles, Jo Ann Miller and Toni Best have been selected twirlers for the junior high school band, with Nancy Carey and Jo Ann Hamblen alternates.

The twirlers and alternates were chosen on a point basis after performing nine basic twirls, a twirling routine and demonstrate marchine technique. Judges for the competition were Odis Claxton, former McMurry College drum major, Herman Trigg, junior high school principal and a former band director, and Audraleen Head, high school band twirler. Jo Nell Eubanks, Lou Davis and Linda Beth Ramsey also entered the competition.

Waiting Over Now For Wife Of Dead POW

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — On June 9 Mrs. Ruth La Rose's house was leveled by the tornado that swept central Massachusetts.

Yesterday she received word her husband, Sgt. Robert J. La Rose, died in a Communist prison cap in April 1951.

"The only previous word I had had about Bob was that he was missing in action on Nov. 2, 1950," she sobbed as her 3-year-old son played nearby. "Now the waiting is over."

Weds Daughter Of Ex-Wife

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Screen writer Borden Chase, 49, says he will marry Mrs. Pat Stamm Moore, 27, daughter of his former wife, this weekend.

Mrs. Moore is the daughter of Mrs. Leah Keith Chase, who divorced the writer in 1949.

"Pat was only 7 years old when I married her mother," said Chase, "and there was never a thought of romance. My wife almost ruined me in the picture business with her insinuations, however.

"I couldn't say how it came to the point where we intended to be married, but it all started after my wife made those charges. After being slapped around like that we started to look at each other. Four years passed, and that's the story. The fact that we were accused really started it."

2 Highest North Koreans Are Both Operating As Imposters

(Editors note: Bill Shinn, the Korean-born AP correspondent who has reported some notable beats including the Inchon landing, here gives an exclusive account on the hitherto shadowy background of North Korea's leader, Kim Il Sung and a swiftly rising newcomer, Nam Il.)

By BILL SHINN

SEOUL (AP)—Marshal Kim Il Sung and Gen. Nam Il, the two men who emerged as kingpins in the newly-purged North Korean Communist regime, were revealed today to be "fantastic imposters" who borrowed their names from well known North Koreans of years ago.

Only today, Red China's Peiping radio disclosed that Kim—one time Russian army major—has been awarded the title of "Hero of the People's Republic of Korea" by the standing committee of the North Korean Supreme People's Assembly in recognition of his wartime leadership.

The title apparently is an imitation of Russia's "Hero of the Soviet Union," which makes the recipient in Russia a virtual demigod.

Information that Kim and Nam Il are imposters with borrowed names came from a highly placed South Korean intelligence officer with excellent connections in North Korea and access to top secret reports on the muddled situation behind the Reds' Bamboo Curtain.

His name cannot be revealed because of possible retaliation against relatives still living in North Korea.

Kim's role as an imposter who borrowed the name of a North Korean hero who fought the Japanese during the occupation of Korea has been known for some time.

But for the first time it was revealed that Nam Il, chief Red negotiator in the truce talks at Panmunjom, also borrowed the name of a prominent North Korean.

Here is the story as detailed by the intelligence officer:

Kim's real name was Kim Sung Joo. He was born 42 years ago in a small village near the Red capital of Pyongyang, the son of an anti-Japanese Nationalist.

When Kim was eight his father was forced to flee to Mancharia to escape the Japanese police. Kim stayed with an uncle in Korea until he was 13, then joined his father.

He became a member of the Chinese Youth Association of the Communist party when he was 17.

At the age of 30, Kim became commander of the guerrilla corps in Manchuria. At about the same time Japan sent its powerful Kwantung army into Manchuria. Kim fared badly against the Japanese and gave up his command to visit Russia.

During World War II Kim commanded a Korean army corps that fought alongside the Russians.

In the battle of Leningrad, he won special recognition from Premier Stalin. He was ordered to Manchuria to fight the Japanese in the final days of the war.

However, by the time he reached Manchuria Japan had surrendered.

Kim arrived at Nam-hi, his birthplace, in September, 1945, carrying secret instructions from Stalin on how to communize Korea.

He adopted the name of Kim Il Sung, a widely known Korean patriot who had been fighting the Japanese as a guerrilla in Manchuria.

The real Kim Il Sung was then about 53 years old, while the imposter was about 34.

In October, 1945, the bogus Kim appeared in public for the first time under his new name.

On Oct. 14, he was introduced as a "victorious general" to more than 200,000 North Koreans assembled at a parade ground in Pyongyang.

The story of Nam Il's life as reported by the intelligence source, revealed that his real name was Kim Chang Man.

Reportedly now about 47, he was born in a small village near Pyongyang.

Nam Il was propaganda chief of the North Korean Labor (Communist) Party until he was appointed chief truce delegate for the Reds in July, 1951.

That appointment was made partly because of Nam Il's ability in negotiations and debate.

He was not a military general. He appeaered at the Kaesong and Panmunjom truce negotiations first under a title of lieutenant general and later as a full general, presumably given him to influence the Allied truce team

The real Nam Il is a man about 50, trained in Russia. He was president of a Communist college in Pyongyang and also an instructor at the Kim Il Sung University there.

Kim Chang Man, the imposter now known as Nam Il, presumably took his new name because the authentic Nam Il was more highly regarded by the people.

Like Kim Il Sung, Nam Il is considered a pro-Russian as against the pro-Chinese and the Nationalist Korean factions in North Korea.

This pro-Russian faction, considered moderates rather than rabid pro-Russian, now appears to have gained control of the North Korean government following the sweeping purge in recent weeks.

Five Tons Stack Up On Baltimore Worker

BALTIMORE (AP) — William Andrews spent an hour and a half yesterday with five tons of dried cocoanut on his back. His head was sticking out of a chute so he could breathe.

The 40-year-old Negro was supervising the flow of copra from a bin through a chute to a conveyor belt. The flow stopped and Andrews climbed in the bin to break the jam.

Suddenly the whole pile started to cave in on him. He dived for the chute and got his head through before the avalanche caught him.

A hospital checkup showed him suffering only from shock.

Cogdell-San Andres Field Project Complete

Chapman & McFarlin Producing Co. has completed the No. 21-B D. M. Cogdell in the Cogdell-San Andres field of Kent County.

The project pumped 24 hours for a potential of 29.13 barrels of 38.2-gravity oil with no water. Four and one-half inch-casing is cemented at 1,555 feet, top of the pay, and total depth is 1,579 feet. Derrick floor elevation is 2,218 feet. The pay section was acidized with 6,000 gallons.

Admiral Says Soviets Have Plenty A-Bombs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice Adm. Leslie C. Stevens, former U. S. naval attache at Moscow, says there is every reason to believe the Soviets by now have a "respectable stockpile" of atomic bombs and may soon have hydrogen bombs.

Stevens also told a John Hopkins University conference on "Soviet imperialism" yesterday that the Soviet Air Force is estimated a 20,000 first-line aircraft, including more than 1,000 heavy bombers capable of carrying the atomic bomb.

Cautious Shoplifter

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A pessimistic shoplifter explained to police why he always carries two paper sacks in his pocket when he goes into a store:

"I'm sort of like the man who carries a raincoat on a sunny day. The first sack is to carry the stuff away. The second is a spare in case the first sack tears before I get away from the store."

British Woman Finishes Solo Trip Across From England In Sailing Boat

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A smiling, blue-eyed widow rested and caught up on her correspondence today aboard the 23-foot yacht Felicity Ann after a 15-month voyage alone across the Atlantic.

Mrs. Ann Davison, 38, arrived in Miami yesterday to become the first woman to make a solo voyage from England to America in a tiny sailing craft.

The trip began at Plymouth, England, on May 18, 1952, and Mrs. Davison estimates she traveled 8,000 to 9,000 miles by sail and auxiliary power to reach Miami.

She still wore a wedding band given her by her late husband, who was swept overboard and lost at the start of an Atlantic voyage four years ago.

Mrs. Davison plans to continue her voyage to New York aboard the Felicity Ann. She will return to England in October to write a book.

Ike Catches Trout; Cooks Them Himself

DENVER (AP)—It's hard to tell, watching President Eisenhower, whether he gets a bigger kick out of catching trout or cooking them over an open fire on the bank of the creek.

But one thing is certain. He sure looked happy doing both yesterday.

And he displayed as much skill at the frying pan as he did with the casting rod.

Those trout, only an hour of the stream, were delicious.

The President drove about 50 miles southwest of Denver, his vacation headquarters, to the ranch of an old friend, Bal P. Swan, about 7,000 feet high in the Colorado Rockies.

Within 30 minutes after he arrived, Eisenhower had pulled on his waders, a brown jacket, clapped a Western-style blue hat on his head and was fishing the north fork of the South Platte River.

He landed his first trout, a rainbow, in about eight minutes and his luck continued good for the first hour. He and Aksel Nielsen, Denver businessman and also a long-time friend, caught more than a dozen between them—rainbows, brooks and browns—in short order.

Then they took time out for lunch. The President borrowed a couple of pounds of bacon, a pound of butter, salt and pepper, some corn meal and two skillets from the wife of a ranch hand, and then he went to work.

Three reporters representing the press asspciations looked on with mouths watering. They stopped watering a few minutes later when the President invited them to "come and get it."

Eisenhower cooked for the party before sitting down on an overturned bushel basket to lunch himself.

After lunch, Eisenhower and Nielsen waded back into the creek and fished until late in the afternoon. The heat of the day apparently had driven most of the trout to the cooler depths, and the fishermen had less luck than during the morning.

After a watermelon snack, the party set out for Denver, arriving shortly after 7 p. m.

Eisenhower planned to spend today in Denver. He arranged to confer at his Lowry Air Force Base office with former Sen. Harry Darby, the Republican national committeeman from Kansas.

Mrs. Jack Winters arranges a plant in an antique satin glass rosebowl on her marble coffee table. The glass which is rather expensive is becoming hard to find, she said.

Antique Furniture Found In Jack Winters Home

By DOLORES KETCHERSID

When shopping Mrs. JACK WINTERS looks for antique furniture that will harmonize with the rest of her house instead of collector's iterms.

She said she knows nothing about periods and cares little of the history of the piece but rather is only concerned about how it looks with the rest of her furniture. The Winters' home at the Lion Oil Co. camp is furnished almost throughout with antiques. But probably the most impressive piece is the living room coffee table.

The heavy marble topped table, about five feet in diameter, is a reconditioned and cut down lamp table. It is made of crotch mahogany but was finished by Mr. Winters in a walnut color to match the other living room tables. The marble is black Italian.

Mr. Winters, who said he likes antiques as much as his wife does, frequently refinishes and reconditions the furniture himself. Although the furniture is heavy, some times over the years it comes apart. The chest to a bedroom suite was rebuilt from the floor up by Mr. Winters, and he says it is ready for another 100 years' wear.

The Snyder woman said she bought the suite because the bed has no canopy and the headboards are small enough to fit into any room. Both the lamp table and the dresser have marble tops.

Polished brass is found in many parts of the Winters' home. One pot was converted into a planter and placed in a corner on a candle table. Mrs. Winters said she prefers antique brass to modern brass since the latter is too shiny.

When movers packed china in the Winters' Eldorado, Okla., home for the trip to Snyder about a year ago, they were surprised to find that they needed 11 barrels for it. Part of it was Mrs. Winters' painted fruit china which includes compotes, salt and pepper shakers and glasses as well as other parts of a dinner service. Not one piece was broke in the move.

Mrs. Winters did all the interior decorating of her home when she moved in. She even did all the painting by herself.

Included in the furnishings in the living room is a brass clock about 200 years old. Small glass doors open in front and back of the clock. Mrs. Winters also has a painted gilt vase she estimated was about 100 years old. The vase and three plates are all heirlooms, but most of the furnishings were bought in antique shops, she said.

A walnut desk with a what-not shelf built on the top holds two bisque figurines from France. The bisque is hard to find, now, she said.

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. CLEMENTS and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. McKINLEY, JR., and son, LEE, brought back about 75 fish from Possum Kingdom where they spent last week. The group caught catfish, bass and crappie, the largest of which was a catfish weighing 18 pounds.

The Robert F. Wassons and their friends at Corpus Christi, Mr. and Mrs. TOM MATTHEWS, were also pulling in fish last week. The Wassons estimate they stacked up about 170 pounds of trout and flounder. The largest one was a 27-inch trout. The group fished about 35 miles south of Corpus Christi.

What is a cake that packs well for a picnic? E. C. L.

Yam spice cake is a little different to take on a outing. It will stay moist in a picnic hamper, too. You'll need 4 cups cake flour, 1½ teaspoons salt, 4 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon baking soda, 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 2 teasponns nutmeg, ¼ teaspoon ground cloves, 1 cup shortening, 1½ cups sugar, 4 eggs, two No. 2 cans yams, drained and mashed, 1 cup milk.

Sift flour, salt, baking powder, baking soda and spices together. In a bowl, cream shortening. Gradually add 1½ cups sugar and cream until light and fluffy. Add eggs, beating well. Add yams and mix thoroughly. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk to the creamed mixture, beginning and ending with dry ingredients. Bake in a moderate oven for about 1 hour and 20 minutes. Cool. Spread with favorite icing, preferably one with a lemon flavoring.

What is the best way to broil fish fillets or steaks? S. H.

First brush the fish with melted butter or margarine or salad oil; sprinkle with lemon juice and dust with paprika. Place on greased broiler or cookie sheet. Broil on one side only, avoiding very high heat, until fish is tender and can be easily flaked with a fork. The time will depend on the thickness of the fillets or fish steaks.

Have you a slaw recipe besides the old one that uses only green peppers and tomatoes? L. S.

Dutch green bean slaw incorporates green beans and radish. The recipe calls for 4 strips bacon, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, 3 tablespoons flour, one 1-pound can green beans, 4 tablespoons cider vinegar, ¾ teaspoons salt, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, 1 tablespoon sugar, 4 cups shredded cabbage, and 6 radishes, sliced.

Fry bacon until crisp, drain and crumble and reserve. Add onion to drippings and cook until tender but not brown. Add flour, stir to a smooth paste. Drain beans and reserve. Add their liquid and cook, stirring constantly until mixture thickens and comes to a boil. Add vinegar, salt, prepared mustard and sugar and mix well. Add beans; heat to serving temperature. Remove from heat and add to cabbage, radishes and crumbled bacon. Toss lightly. Serve warm with cold cuts. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Man Lucky He Tried To Kill Another Man Near Naval Hospital

BALTIMORE (AP) — A federal judge was told yesterday it was lucky for both Clarence Dawson and John Walker that they had an argument near the Bethesda Naval Medical Center.

Otherwise, Walker probably would be dead and Dawson would have been charged with murder, Asst. U. S. Atty. Herbert H. Hubbard said.

Walker was stabbed in the heart during an argument with Dawson. Walker's life was saved because surgery was available promptly at the nearby medical center, Hubbard said.

Dawson was sentenced to three years in prison.

Car Just Falls Apart When Driver Arrested

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP)—An ancient automobile rumbled down the street.

Patrolman Sam Clarkson pulled alongside, motioning the driver to stop.

As the car stopped its bumper fell off. A few seconds later the radiator collapsed. A wrecker was called.

When it hitched a tow line and started tugging, the car's trunk door fell off and a fender broke loose.

"I was afraid we were going to have to call a truck and just load the heap of parts on it," said Clarkson after seeing the car to a garage and charging the driver with drunken driving.

THREE COOL MAIN DISH LOAVES ADD VARIETY TO PARTY MENU

SERVE FRUIT SALAD IN PINEAPPLE BOATS

Lagging Appetites Tempted With Cool Summer Treats

When August days arrive, summer appetites already have begun to lag. This is the time the family cook and menu planner needs to muster all the ingenuity at her command to serve meals that are tempting.

The easiest way to create interest in August meals is to serve foods that the family has not seen before. There is nothing quite like a surprise to awaken an appetite.

Here is a collection of summer treats, the coolest of summer recipies. Each is chosen because it provides necessary nutrients and will serve as the main part of a summer meal.

For salad lunches there is the popular fruit plate, called here a banana luncheon plate. Actually many variations are possible, depending on the fruits you happen to have in the refrigerator. This combination is chosen with a thought to texture, color and contrast of flavors.

BANANA LUNCHEON PLATE

½ ripe banana
½ cup strawberries, washed and hulled
3 slices pineapple halves
6 strips (2 ounces) American cheese
Salad dressing

Use fully ripe banana, the yellow peel flecked with brown. Peel banana and cut once lengthwise and once crosswise into quarters. Arrange with strawberries, pineapple and cheese. Garnish with crisp salad greens. Serve with a sweet or tart salad dressing. Makes one large individual salad.

A fruit salad served in boats, of the pineapple variety, will make a conversation piece for any luncheon table. Plenty of cheese and wheat crackers make this simple luncheon a filling meal.

FRUIT SALAD BOATS

2 pineapples
2 cups grape halves
2 large bananas, sliced
8 ounces cottage cheese
Watercress
Crackers

Cut pineapples in half; scoop out center. Remove core; cut in bit size pieces. Mix pineapple with grape halves and banana. Pile back into pineapple sheel. Divide cottage cheese in four balls; place one on each salad. Garnish with watercress. Serve with crisp crackers. Serves four.

For a special treat that you can whip up on a moment's notice when unexpected company drops in, here is a recipe for "lunch in a loaf." It's made from a round loaf of bread, sliced and piled into a four-decked sandwhich loaf, coolly frosted with cream cheese and mayonnaise combined. The fillings are on any well stocked pantry shelf.

LUNCH IN A LOAF

4 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
¼ teaspoon salt
¾ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
½ cup deviled ham or chopped luncheon meat
2 tablespoons chopped sweet pickles
1 six-inch round loaf rye, white or whole wheat bread, unsliced
Butter or margarine
2 medium-sized fresh tomatoes, sliced
4 lettuce leaves
1½ eight-ounce packages cream cheese
Paprika

In a bowl, combine eggs, salt and four tablespoons mayonnaise or salad dressing; mix thoroughly. In another bowl, combine deviled ham or luncheon meat, pickles and two tablespoons mayonnaise or salad dressing; mix thoroughly. Soften cream cheese and blend with three tablespoons mayonnaise or salad dressing.

Cut off all hard crusts from loaf of bread. Then cut crosswise into four slices. Spread each cut slice with softened butter or margarine. Spread bottom slice with two tablespoons mayonnaise or salad dressing; arrange sliced tomatoes and lettuce over this. Top with the second slice of bread; spread with egg salad. Then the third slice of bread spread with meat filling. Cover with the top slice of bread.

Place the sandwich on a platter and frost sides and top with cheese-mayonnaise mixture. Sprinkle top with paprika.

If you wish, decorate frosted loaf with half slices of a scored cucumber and surround with radish roses. Cut into six or eight wedges to serve.

Star performers at summer meals are the cool gelatin salads that are a treat for everyone. For a rich flavored salad, start with condensed beef comsomme as the base and just add chopped meat and vegetables. You'll have a meal in one cool dish.

JELLIED CONSOMME TONGUE SALAD

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
½ cup cold water
1 cup (1¼) cups) condensed beef consomme
2 to 4 tablespoons lemon juice
½ cup diced tongue (smoked, canned or cured)
½ cup minced cucumber
2 tablespoons sliced, stuffed olives
1 hard-cooked egg, chopped

Soften gelatin in cold water; then set container of gelatin in pan of boiling water until gelatin is dissolved. Combine gelatin, consomme and lemon juice; chill until mixture begins to thicken. Fold in remaining ingredients. Rinse a 1-quart mold or loaf pan with cold water (for decorations, arrange slices of tongue in bottom of mold so they form a pattern on top of jellied salad); pour in salad. Chill until firm. Unmold and serve on crisp greens. Makes four servings.

This recipe can be varied slightly to make a jellied consomme chicken salad. Follow the recipe for consomme tongue salad, except use cup diced cooked chicken instead of tongue. And use the 4 tablespons lemon juice.

Three cool main dish loaves to charm a lagging warm weather appetite are cheese-tomato aspic loaf, ham'n potato salad loaf, egg 'n olive loaf. The meat, cheese and egg ingredients provide heartiness. All three might be served on a party menu for variety of selection.

CHEESE-TOMATO ASPIC LOAF

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¾ cup cold milk
2 cups creamstyle cottage cheese (2 eight-ounce packages)
½ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons grated onion
¼ teaspoon Tabasco

Soften gelatin in ½ cup cold milk. Place over boiling water; stir until gelatin is thoroughly dissolved. Blend remaining ¼ cup milk with cottage cheese, salt, onion and Tobasco. Stir in dissolved gelatin. Turn into 6 cup loaf pan; chill until almost firm.

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
3½ cups cold tomato juice
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon sugar
⅛ teaspoon Tabasco
2 tablespoons lemon juice

Soften gelatin in 1 cup cold tomato juice. Place over boiling water; stir until gelatin is thoroughly dissolved. Add to remaining 2½ cups tomato juice; stir in salt, celery, salt, sugar, Tabasco and lemon juice. Chill until the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Turn on top of cottage cheese layer and chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with ripe olive and pimento rounds. Makes eight to 10 servings.

HAM 'N POTATO SALAD LOAF

1 envelope unfalvored gelatin
1¼ cups cold water
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup vinegar
¼ cup diced celery
¼ cup diced sweet pickle
1½ cups diced cooked ham

Soften gelatin in ½ cup of the cold water. Place over boiling water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add remaining ¾ cup water, salt and vinegar. Chill until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Mix in celery, pickle and diced ham. Turn into a 6 cup loaf pan; chill until almost firm.

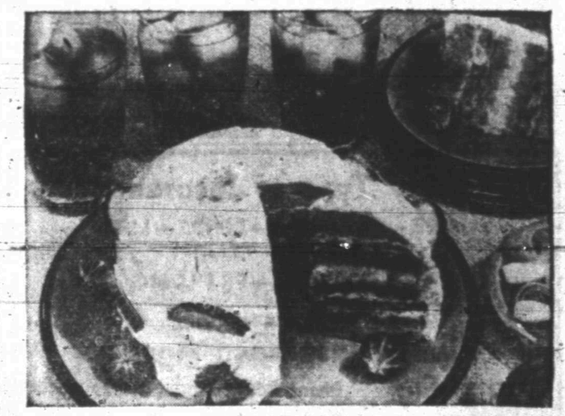

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
½ cup cold water
½ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
1 tablespoons vinegar
2 cups diced cooked potato
1 cup diced celery
1 small onion, minced
2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper
1¼ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Soften gelatin in cold water; dissolve thoroughly over hot water. Cool. Combine mayonnaise and vinegar; gradually stir in gelatin mixture. Combine diced cooked potato, celery, onion, green pepper, salt and pepper. Mix in gelatin mayonnaise mixture. Turn on top of almost firm first layer; chill until firm. Makes eight to 10 servings.

EGG 'N OLIVE LOAF

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1 cup cold water
2 teaspoons salt
¼ cup lemon juice
⅛ teaspoon Tabasco
2 cups mayonnaise or salad dressing
1 tablespoon grated onion
1½ cups finely diced celery
½ cup finely cut stuffed green olives
8 hard cooked eggs, chopped

Soften gelatin in cold water. Place over boiling water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add salt, lemon juice and Tabasco; cool. Gradually add gelatin mixture to mayonnaise, stirring until blended; mix in remaining ingredients. Turn into a 6 cup loaf pan; chill until firm. If desired, garnish with sliced stuffed olives. Makes eight to 10 servings.

Durocher Gets Two Year Renewal Pact

NEW YORK (AP)—Fortified by a new two-year contract, Manager Leo Durocher said today he was prepared to trade any of his star players if it meant improving the club for 1954.

The fiery little skipper, dismayed by the midsummer collapse of the Giants that, to all intents and purposes, eliminated them from pennant contention, cautioned that he was not planning anything drastic but . . .

"There is not a man on this club who is indispensible," he said. "There is nobody I wouldn't trade if I thought that by doing so it would help us achieve our aim.

"Right now I have one goal in sight—a pennant in 1954. There are some good players on this team. Undoubtedly they'll be around next year. But you can bet there are several who won't be here. Naturally, I'm not going to mention names, but those fellows know whom I have in mind. It will be up to them during the remainder of the season to show me why they should be kept."

Durocher stubbornly refused to concede to Brooklyn, insisting that "anything can happen," but he knows this season has been a total loss. He will be aiming at rebuilding for next year.

"Naturally, we think we're going to do better next year," he said. "First and most important, Willie Mays will be back. His return not only will strengthen us materially but undoubtedly will give the rest of the club a tremendous lift. When Willie left for the service in May of 1952, it seems he took a part of the team with him. You've got to know Willie and the effect he had on the rest of us to realize how much he means to the morale of a club."

The Giants' biggest problem, Durocher admitted will be pitching. The steady succession of injuries and ailments of such key moundsmen as Sal Maglie, Larry Jansen and Jim Hearn has all but ruined what was once the most skillful pitching staff in the National League.

"There are some guys I've got to find out definitely about," he said, "with special emphasis on the pitchers I've got to know whether the guys will be able to help us next year. Maybe some of them have outlived their usefulness at the Polo Grounds. Maybe they can't help us anymore. Maybe they won't fit into our plan. I intend to know about them one way or another before the season is over."

President Horace Stoneham, who absolved Durocher from all blame over the team's sad plight, said he would back Leo to the limit.

"We will not be satisfied with anything less than a pennant in 1954," he said. "We think we have the nucleus of a championship club right now. We got off to a wretched start and we've just never been able to get out of the rut. I am quite satisfied with the way Leo has handled the team. The fact that I gave him a two-year contract ought to show the confidence I have in him."

Giant players, to a man, lauded Stoneman's decision to renew Durocher's contract.

Hammett Has 8 Under Par In Littlefield

Snyder's enterprising J. T. Hammett was the big winner in Littlefield's annual West Texas pro-am golf tournament as play opened there yesterday.

Hammett set a new course record, an eight under par 64, to be low pro among the 18 entered. He garnered $75 in the $200-added pro sweepstakes, and an additional $19 in merchandise.

Hammett led his foursome to first place in the pro-am, turning in a low-ball 62. Playing with him were C. A. Rodgers of Lubbock, Jim Mangum of Littlefield and Dean Herring of Hereford.

Trailing Hammett were Horace Moore of Brownfield with 66, J. D. Taylor of Clovis with 68, Jack Smith of Amarillo with 69, Gene Mitchell of the Lubbock Country Club, C. L. Spense of Lamesa and Gidd Faircloth of Jal N. M., posted 70s.

Hammett made his pace-setting score on eight birdies, an eagle and two bogies. Both of the one-overs came on the No. 9, a 188-yard par three hold. The eagles came on 456-yard par five No. 4.

Swim Meet In Pool Yesterday

Dickie Martin of Troop 27 and Charles Light of Hermleigh's Troop 77 were winners yesterday of the Buffalo Hide District Boy Scouts swim meet here and will represent the district in a larger contest at Midland Aug. 22. They won first and second places as individuals, respectively.

Bob Eastus, field executive for the district and recorder in yesterday's meet, said winning troops were No. 27 with 56 points, No. 34 with 24 poings, and No. 77 of Hermleigh with 18 points. Other troops participating were numbers 38 and 36.

Judges in the meet were Bernard Bartells, Sig Line, and Grant Teaff. Teaff, lifeguard at the county swimming pool, also gave demonstrations in diving and swimming.

The Midland contest is open to district winners throughout the Buffalo Hide Council.

Events in yesterday's meet included breast stroke, back stroke, free style, medley and free style relay, cross-chest carry and diving.

LaStarza Says Rock Is Not Hardest Hitter

By GAYLE TALBOT

GREENWOOD LAKE, N. Y. (AP)—Without taking anything away from Rocky Marciano, whom he fights for the heavyweight championship of the world next month, Roland LaStarza insists he has been hit harder than Rocky hit him in their other meeting over three years ago.

"A big fellow out of Oklahoma named Gene Gosney hit me harder," said the trim-looking young challenger as he polished off a plate of ham and eggs at his living quarters here. "That was in my first semifinal at the Garden, and I was scared. He had me down twice, but I got up to stop him in the seventh.

"I'm not saying that Rocky doesn't flit hard. Maybe it was just that Gosney caught me more squarely, but I still remember how it felt. When Rocky knocked me down I was all right a second or two after I hit the floor, but I took the eight count because I figured I had lost the round anyway.

"I did my best fighting after that. I had him in real trouble in the last two rounds. I was hitting him with everything I threw and he was reeling around the ring. I thought I had sewed up the decision right there, just as nearly everybody else in the Garden did.

"Did you know that Marciano's younger brother left the ringside in tears before the decision was announced and that bookies all over the place were offering 4 to 1 that I had won?"

"They were offering up to 6 to 1," interjected Jimmie De Angelo the challenger's manager. "There wasn't any question about it."

"All right," Roland agreed. "Make it 8 to 1. All I know is that he didn't beat me. Rocky has agreed all along it was close. Now we'll find out."

Only once in the course of a lengthy and leisurely discussion of his prospects of winning the title did the former NYU student even touch upon the possibility that he might lose.

"After all this hollering and yelling I've been doing about getting another chance at him I guess they'll think I'm an awful phoney if I should lose," he said with a wide smile.

"You can't even think about losing," interrupted trainer Danny Florio.

"Don't worry, I'm not," Roland pacified him. "I'm just talking. What I'm saying is, How was I to get the chance if I didn't yell and holler? I tried being a gentleman for two years and a half and all it got me was birdseed. That isn't what I want. I want the championship and the money that goes with it."

The speed record for U. S. trains is believed to have been set in 1905 when a train ran three miles at the rate of 127.06 miles per hour.

POWERFUL LINEUPS

Dusters, Rainmakers Doubt Other Team Has Much Hope

"If 'Sluggar' Duggar is not in our lineup Friday night the Rotary Rainmakers may as well concede defeat," Bill Bryant, manager of the heavy hitting team, said this morning.

Bryant had just been informed that R. L. Duggar, one of last years most colorful players for the Rotary Rainmakers would be out of town Friday night.

However, Bryant released a lineup of players that promised to give the Kiwanis Dusters some trouble when the two teams meet for their annual soft ball game.

It will be played in Veteran's Park at 8 o'clock Friday night.

"Looks like there will have to be some subsititutes ready to go in at the drop of a bat for the Rainmakers, because most of them probably can't hold a bat up long enough to strike out even," Don Hire, Duster manager, predicted.

Bryant said that he could guarantee a subsitituion at least once every inning.

Bryant said the Rainmakers will probably start this lineup: Charles Gibson catching, Bill Fisher pitching, H. F. Clark at First, Truman Black at second, Weldon Kincaid at short stop, Rex Miller at third, and Broadway Browning, Max West, and Elroy Miller in the field.

Rex Miller was a star of last year's game when the Rainmakers downed the Dusters 37-17. He got four home runs in five trips to the plate bringing in 10 of the winner's runs.

Starting pitcher for the Kiwanis Dusters will be Don Hire, manager of the club.

"I'll pitch the first inning, at least unless I am knocked out of the box," he said.

Jerry Hughes will be Hire's battery mate behind the plate. Other starters for the Dusters are: Mitchell Jackson, third base, Ford Kenner, second base, B. L. Rhoderick short stop, H. A. "Bull" Johnson first base, Frank Wilson left field, Frank Stephenson center field, and H. W. Cargile right field.

Warming the bench at the start, but sure to be used in the lineup during the game by the Dusters are: N. E. Gambrell, Ben Costin, Ford Caperton, the Rev. Edward Chrisman, Bill Brown, Dawson Mooreland, L. A. McClanahan, Leroy "Speedy" Johnson, the Rev. Bill Lewis, Wade Watts, Myrle Greathouse, Doyle F. "Babe" Gallman, and Bob Crowell.
