San Angelo Firm Submits Low Bid

McRan Inc. of San Angelo is scheduled to begin construction of Mitchell County's new agriculture building in time for mid-December completion.

The San Angelo firm was low bidder here Tuesday among 7 out of town firms who submitted proposals for the rigid frame steel structure.

McRan's proposal was $11,012.50 for the complete job—as specified by the county in the first stage of the agricultural site development west of Colorado City on Highway 80.

The low bid includes $9,694 for the 50 feet by 122 feet building proper, $907 for concrete foundation, ramps and stoops, level grading of site, and $411.50 for electrical work.

Commissioners' Court, who approved McRan's low bid by unanimous vote, have specified no concrete floor for the building at this time so that the county can pay for the development on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Delta Engcon Inc. of Dallas submitted a bid of $10,688 but the proposal was for a building 120 feet in length instead of the specified 122 feet. There also were other stipulations in the Delta bid, including brush painting on the site, that caused the commissioners to favor McRan proposals.

Other bidders were Stanford Engineering Company of Midland, $12,700; Fabricated Steel Building Inc. of Midland, $13,800; T. E. Shelburne & Son, Inc. of Snyder, $14,140; Ray Dunlap of Big Spring $16,190; H. E. Abbott and Sons Inc. of Odessa, $12,005.

Contract between McRan and the County, including performance bond and other safeguards for the county, is being prepared for County Attorney Frank Ginzler's approval. And material is already being channeled toward Colorado City.

The 50 by 122 building will have eave height of 12 feet. It will have ventilators 20 inches in diameter in the roof with bird screen and damper with damper controls located at wall line.

Skylight panels will add to the building's lighting. Steel walk doors will be Truscon and truck doors will operate on a track with rollers.

Lighting will include 15 lights of 300 watts each with 14 inch reflectors. There also will be 12 double outlets 4 inches from the floor.

Top of the all metal building will be an off-white and sides will be aqua. Adding striking appearance will be coral doors.

The contractor is required to complete the building in 35 working days from date of contract letting or not later than Dec. 15.

SOME HAIL, CROP DAMAGE

County Rains Heaviest In Northern Sections

Heavy rains, measuring more than 4 inches in some areas, poured down on Mitchell County early in the week.

Downpours were heaviest in the northern areas of the county — around Cuthbert and China Grove.

Spotted hail at the weekend and early in the week caused some damage. But the hail loss was confined to small areas.

However, some farmers reported the exceptionally heavy moisture would cause a down grading of their cotton at the gin.

Here in Colorado City the total was 1.47 inches, about on par with the lower half of the county.

Some hail was reported in the Cuthbert area, but the real threat was in the county's northeast section at spotted farms.

Cotton crops on James Stewart, E. A. Narrell, Wilson Kidd farms, about 6 miles northeast of Loraine, were severely damaged. Spotted a crease in the China Grove area also was hard hit.

Loraine rain gauges meas some damage to yard, according to L. F. Dunn.

Fairview community 2.5 inches of rain, some hail but no damage, according to W. L. Dunn. Westbrook measured 2.6 inches.

Here are other reports from over the county gathered by The Record: Loraine community — G. F. Colbert reported 3 inches of rain and no hail. Dora community — T. W.

COUNTY JAIL SPREE

Convicted Burglar Smashes Windows

Tony Esquivel, young convicted burglar went on a spree in County Jail Tuesday — a mad goodby before being hustled away to the state prison.

He knocked out 22 window panels, 3 glass panels in jail doors and broke at least 2 wash basins.

The youth, sentenced to 2 years in the pen last Sept. 2 for burglary of Tex Keel Sports Shop, began smashing jail property Tuesday afternoon.

Esquivel was inside the cell block when he yanked loose a long metal device that allows prisoners to open or shut steel casement windows outside their jail block and the jail run-around. The device extends across several feet to control the windows without requiring attention of a jail deputy and still keeping prisoners inside the jail cells.

With the metal rod, the burglar punched out 9 window panels on the east, 3 on the south and 11 on the west.

Then, he yanked the metal rod apart and knocked out small glass panels in the steel panel jail doors.

About the same time he began beating upon the basin, breaking 2.

Sheriff R. E. (Dick) Gregory and deputies rushed into the jail area, but Esquivel threatened them with the metal instrument.

However, the sheriff calmly approached him and took the metal rod away without further incident.

Esquivel, who was in Jail in Laredo for assault before being returned here for his burglary trial, spent 2 more nights in the jail.

Tuesday he was hustled away to prison in a paddy wagon sent here by prison officials.

GOP MONKEY BUSINESS

Hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil of GOP blunders at home and abroad... says the GOP. It might give aid and comfort to our enemies.

Is there comfort at home in closing our eyes to world turmoil from Cuba to the Congo?

Is there comfort in closing our ears to jeers of insolent mobs in countries where our Vice President is stoned and our President denied entry?

Is there comfort in closing our mouths when 25 million American mouths are open in hunger — by Secretary Benson's own figures?

It's time for a change in leadership!

THE EYES OF PLANT-SITE CHOOSERS ARE UPON

The Opportunity Frontier OF TEXAS

WE'RE TELLING THEM
ABOUT THIS
MILLION-MAN MARKET

Among the readers of the ad reproduced at left will be company board chairmen, presidents, executive vice-presidents, and general managers throughout the nation. These are the men who decide where to build new plants or relocate . . . where to establish important branch offices or key warehouses.

To these executives we are telling the facts about THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER OF TEXAS—its industries, its growth, its people, its natural advantages.

Your electric service company has scheduled this advertisement in Business Week and U.S. News & World Report; in The New York Times and Wall Street Journal. This is an investment in area progress.

We are doing this because each new business or industry added will benefit us all. It will bring new customers to THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER OF TEXAS. It will bring added tax revenues. It will bring new job opportunities.

SHE'S ONE
IN A MILLION
IN
The Opportunity Frontier
OF TEXAS

In fact, she's one of the 1,127,650 citizens served by the Texas Electric Service Company in the OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER OF TEXAS—America's most exciting growth market today.

Here is a land rich in resources. The area's more than $1-billion annual production of oil and natural gas brings basic prosperity. Cattle ranches, cotton and chemicals, aviation and grain sorghum, packing and canning, automotive, aircraft and electronics—all contribute to the growth future of THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER, much of which is served by Texas Electric Service Company.

But the greatest asset of all is the area-building Texans with their energy and buying power. Within the past 20 years, population in our service area has tripled. And there's room for a lot more. Economic progress has been equally impressive. For example, in the past 12 years retail sales in the area have nearly doubled.

Genial climate, rich soil, mineral wealth—THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER OF TEXAS has these natural advantages—plus water, excellent transportation, and a cooperative, friendly Texas attitude toward industry.

Reaching a growing market is in your future plans, consider a site for a new plant, warehouse or branch office in THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER OF TEXAS.

Our Area Development Department will gladly supply print site information to fit your specific needs.

Check Urged For Heating Equipment

"The comfort of the entire family will be assured during the coming cold weather without delay if you have your gas heating equipment inspected and adjusted now for winter use," R.J. Porter Lone Star Gas Company manager indicated Thursday.

He suggested that users of gas floor furnaces, wall heaters, unit heaters, central heating plants and other gas heating equipment arrange now to have them inspected and adjusted by calling their heating equipment company or Lone Star Gas Company.

The heating equipment companies and Lone Star always receive hundreds of calls for service the day that cold weather hits. This usually results in considerable delay in filling individual orders.

"But, there is no delay, when you do it today," Porter said.

By VERN SANFORD
It's suicide—that's what it is!

New Mexico has had 20 hunter casualties so far this year. Full reports are available on 15 of them.

Investigation by the New Mexico Department of Game and Fish shows that 11 of these 15 casualties were self-inflicted. What a shocking revelation!

All the time we're hunting we try to watch out for "the other fellow." This indicates we'd better be more watchful of our own actions.

It's really hard to believe that over half of the fatal shootings are self-inflicted. Makes one stop and think!

If you're interested in your own future, perhaps you'd better read further—because here's how those accidents occurred.

1. Weapon fell.
2. Weapon defective.
3. Removing loaded weapon from vehicle.
4. Discharged while being pulled from holster.
5. Climbing tree with loaded weapon.
6. Gun off safety.
7. Stepped on shell.
8. Tossed gun, which hit rock and discharged. (This one proved fatal.)

All of which prompts our neighbors to the west to remark that "accidents don't just happen—they are caused."

Discharging a firearm in a reckless manner in a hunting area, has caused many a hunter in New Mexico to lose his hunting license—for 10 years.

Such an incident, that results in a fatality in that state, is cause for revocation of hunting privileges—for life.

Texas' legislature would do well to adopt like penalties. The least that can be done is to rid the field of careless hunters.

Perhaps this is as good as any to repeat the 10 Commandments of Safety. Please, for your own good—read and repeat after me:

1. Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun. This is the cardinal rule of gun safety.
2. Guns carried into camp or home must always be unloaded, and taken down or have actions open; guns always should be encased until reaching shooting area.
3. Always be sure that the barrel and action are clear of obstructions.
4. Always carry your gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle, even if you stumble. Keep the safety on until you are ready to shoot.
5. Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger.
6. Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot.
7. Unattended guns should be unloaded; guns and ammunition should be stored safely beyond reach of children and careless adults.
8. Never climb a tree or a fence with a loaded gun.
9. Never shoot at a flat, hard surface or the surface of water.

10. Do not mix gunpowder and alcohol.

We are told that more Texans hunt in New Mexico than New Mexicans hunt in their own state. If this be true, then it's highly possible that a number of those New Mexico casualties were Texans.

But, wherever you hunt—let's be more careful!

Local Pair Wins Honors At Convention

Local members of the Brush and Palette Club who were among the citation winners at the West Texas Art Association's Annual Convention were Harry Ratliff and Bill Worrell.

Ratliff's historical oil painting of the old Mitchell County Courthouse and Worrell's desert water-color landscape were chosen from among 200 entries by Raymond Elintman, Director of the Ft. Worth Art Center who judged the show.

These paintings will be in a group of 30 which will be on tour in West Texas during the winter and will be shown in Austin at Laguna Gloria in the Annual Summer State Show.

Replacing R. H. Ratliff as director of the W.T.A.A. for the coming year will be George Womack.

DON VEST AND MIKE SANDERS

Wolves-Chiefs Contest To Match Top Scorers

When Colorado City and Lake View open their District 3-AAA play Friday night at Lake View, the encounter will be more than just a district opener.

The game will match the surprise teams of 3-AAA football.

And it will pit the district's 2 top scorers against each other.

All in all, it promises to be one of the most exciting contests of the 3-AAA 1960 season.

Lake View, under the coaching of Jerry Session, has developed a small, eager squad into a unit that has produced 4 consecutive victories.

Infact, the string of 4 wins is the longest victory record the Chiefs have put together in more than a decade.

Colorado City, whose only win last year was over Lake View, can't boast as fine a win record as the Chiefs.

But the Wolves have scored impressive wins against Post and Winters. They've flashed surprising strength and durability, also, in contests with top caliber teams — Brownfield, Monahans, and Littlefield.

And defeat for the Wolves has been something of a hard luck variety — like Friday night when with only 14 seconds to go, Littlefield maneuvered for a 22 to 17 triumph at their homecoming.

Lake View in its surprising path of 4 consecutive victories — 1 against Ballinger, a team which knocked over the Wolves at the end of a scoring thriller — has been helped mostly by Fullback Mike Sanders.

All that Sanders has done is score 11 touchdowns and 4 extra points. That's a total of 70 points in 6 games, in case you don't have an adding machine handy.

Nearest rival to Sanders' scoring spree is Colorado City's sturdy tailback, Don Vest, who scores in just about every manner the rules allow. In 5 games, he has combined touchdowns, extra points and field goals for something like 50 points.

Considering the opposition he's been against, that's something special.

There's an interesting factor in this game coming up Friday night. Lake View and Colorado City are the fastest scoring District 3-AAA clubs so far this season.

Lake View has managed 120 points in 6 contests while opponents notched 113.

Coach Sam Christy's Wolves have marked up 118 points in 5 games while opponents were traveling for 92.

Nearest rivals to the 2 teams is the district favorite Sweetwater with 101 points in 6 games against 109 for opponents.

While C-City was dropping the heart-breaker last Friday night to Littlefield, 22 to 17, the Chiefs were bowling over McCamey, 30 to 8.

The Badgers from out McCamey way put a fence around Sanders for most of the game, limiting the high score fullback to 90 yards on 17 carries.

But while they were watching Sanders, sophomore Larry Hudson traveled for 97 yards in 9 efforts. On a bum ankle, too.

Hudson, by the way, tied with Ronnie Cox of Sweetwater for No. 5 in 3-AAA scoring. He's just 1 notch against Colorado City's talented quarterback, Jerry McKay, and Mike Moffett of Snyder, Gene Westmoreland of Lamesa and Larry Durham of Sweetwater.

This fact — the scoring prowess of Hudson and McKay — also points toward a thriller Friday night at Lake View.

Colorado City opened the season with a loss to Brownfield, then walloped Post, dropped a thriller to Ballinger, lost to Monahans, defeated Winters and then saw victory fly away with 14 seconds left last week in Littlefield.

Lake View, after winning and losing in opening encounters with Winters and Kerrville, has romped impressively with 40 to 28 victory over Del Rio, 24 to 18 over Odessa, 20 to 15 over Ballinger, 30 to 8 over McCamey.

Ellis, NRECA general manager. Ellis was appointed a consultant and was a member of the committee on this 31-day trip.

Thursday morning program included reports by NRECA officers and directors, a report by Walter Harrison, president, and David A. Hamill, NRECA Administrator, will speak to delegates at the close of the morning session.

Luncheon meeting will include a report to members by Ellis.

Panel discussions, reports on legislation, retirement, safety insurance and public relations and member education programs will be presented during Thursday afternoon session.

Newspaper Week Is Your Week, Too

National Newspaper Week is 21 years old in the United States this year.

But individual freedom in the United States is 169 years old this same year.

National Newspaper Week was initiated and is sponsored annually by Newspaper Association Managers, Inc., an organization of executive heads of national, regional and state newspaper publishers and press associations.

Our three great freedoms set forth in the Bill of Rights are "Freedom of the Press," "Freedom of Speech" and "Freedom of Religion." The free press of Colonial America paved the way for these basic freedoms which became fact with the coming into force of the Bill of Rights on December 15, 1791.

These freedoms belong to the people.

"Freedom of the Press" is not the property of newspapers, but of all the people. It is their guarantee of the right to know; their insurance against demagoguery.

"Freedom of Speech" is not the property of politicians and platform speakers, but of all the people. It is their own guarantee of free and unafraid expression of their convictions. "Freedom of Religion" is not the property of minister, priest or rabbi, but of all the people. It is their guarantee of freedom of conscience and of divine worship in accord with that conscience.

National Newspaper Week is designed to focus attention on these freedoms. A free press is the partner of the people in the effort to preserve these rights.

Newspapers promote National Newspaper Week, not from a selfish motive, but to emphasize these basic and vital freedoms, the partnership of press and people and the need for everyone exhibiting dedication and diligence in the eternal effort to preserve these freedoms.

National Newspaper Week this year began Saturday and ends Friday.

It is of utmost importance we present a solid front for freedom in a world in which freedom is being attacked so violently and so unscrupulously. Truth makes us free. Let us now resolve to continue the dissemination of truth as the indestructible bulwark against ignorance, enslavement, bigotry and political chicanery.

'Good Turn' For County Scout Leadership

There always will be a problem, no doubt, in finding enough men and women who can give proper time and talent to youth development programs such as scouting.

However, the reorganization of scouting's adult leadership on a local basis here in Mitchell County is a step in the right direction.

In previous years the scouting leadership program was dovetailed into a district wide organization involving Mitchell, Scurry and Borden Counties with the focal point in the county seat of the middle county, Snyder. Although the scout program, of course, was developed on the local level of the 3 counties of Lone Buffalo District, many of the training and planning events were centered in Snyder.

This fact of location increased the time demands upon Mitchell County scouting leaders, requiring more travel, inconvenience and extra effort.

Under the new plan just now developing under the new county-wide leadership men like Martin Weaver, Henry Lewis and A. V. Sheppard, the adult leadership training, planning and work program will be centralized within Mitchell County.

This is a step in the right direction which should provide more interest, more willing effort and a more efficient scouting program for all Mitchell County.

TEXAS AGRICULTURE

House Committee Looks at Farmer

By JOHN C. WHITE
Agriculture Commissioner

After some two years of investigating farm price support and production adjustment activities, the House Committee on Government Operations has finally come up with a final report on some facts and figures which many Texas farmers could have told them all along.

Confirming the suspicions of some of these farmers about what has been going on for the past several years, the committee has reported the following as part of its findings and conclusions:

"Agricultural productivity increased more than three times as rapidly as that of non-agricultural industries during the past decade; however, farm income dropped 23 per cent while non-agricultural income nearly doubled in the same period.

"The cost of living has increased more than 25 per cent from the 1947-49 average, but during the same period the farm price of food actually declined 14 per cent.

"The farmer received only 38 cents of every dollar spent for food in 1959 as compared to 50 cents in the 1947-49 period."

The committee also found, as many Texas farmers have known at first hand for a long time, that much of the criticism aimed at so-called government support and "subsidies" for farmers has no foundation in fact. The House group called particular attention to these points:

"Because of changes in production which are beyond the control of individual farmers, prices of most agricultural products would be subject to drastic fluctuations without the assistance of a government program to co-ordinate production and marketing.

"The farm program is only one of many government programs which are intended primarily for the benefit of a particular segment of the economy; the cost of other programs has far exceeded that of the farm program.

"Less than half the expenditures charged to the U. S. Department of Agriculture are for programs predominantly for the benefit of the farmer."

On this last point, the committee noted that "during fiscal 1960, the USDA states that $2,955 million was spent on multiple benefit programs and $2,474 million on programs predominantly for the benefit of the farmer."

Of the expenditures allocated to multiple benefit programs, $563 million disbursed by the REA and FHA is really not an expense; it is an investment in loans for rural electrification and telephones and for farm ownership, operation and improvement. All this money is repayable with interest.

BIBLE COMMENT

Christian Choice Straightens Path

The whole record of the life of Joseph shines with brightness out of a far-off and dark time. He was great by Christian standards. Not is the case of Joseph exceptional. Out of the darkest times and situations men and women of unusual character appear. One may wonder what may be the underlying psychological and spiritual causes in such cases. One man, no longer living, was a profane and blasphemous character, yet his name has been followed in the footsteps of David, Jesus and a host of others in the building of a Christian community.

Battle Lines Forming Already On Path For New State Taxes

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

Though the legislators are still home, shots already are whizzing in the battle over how to raise more state revenue in 1961.

When the lawmakers arrive in January, they will have a hard time finding a road to new money that hasn't been land-mined and strewn with barbed wire by some group that opposes that course.

Advance studies indicate he need for as much as $100,000,000 a year in new taxes.

Business groups, who have been holding meetings over the state, have come out flatly for a retail sales tax. They contend that to meet its needs, present and future, Texas must have a broad-based, spread-thin tax that will grow with the economy.

Representatives of organized labor, strongly opposed to a sales tax, fired back. Labor has endorsed the idea of a broad-based, "growth" tax, but insists it should be an income tax, on corporations and individuals.

Governor Daniel has voiced opposition to both sales and income taxes. Many legislators were elected on platforms opposing both.

Only other likely courses would be to raise taxes that already exist, or vote taxes previously rejected. But these roads also are blocked by groups ready to defend to the last.

On such a battlefield, lawmakers might be tempted to retreat — except that this course is cut off too by supporters of better colleges, teacher raises, medical payments for the aged — all of which require more money.

AID APPROVED — Commission on Higher Education recommended that the University of Houston be added to the state college system. It wouldn't cut into funds needed by the 19 already existing state colleges.

Final decision can be made only by the Legislature.

A Commission study indicated the University of Houston would cost the state approximately $1,000,000 a year more from the general revenue fund. It has a 22-acre campus and a plant value at $22,000,000. Enrollment for this year is 11,500, second only to the University of Texas with 19,000.

Commission emphasized that adding the Houston school should be conditioned on providing adequate financial support to existing state schools. Commission is tentatively recommending an appropriation of $69,350,000 for higher education in 1962. University of Houston's needs would be in addition to this, meaning more money-raising problems for the Legislature.

AUTO INSURANCE — State Board of Insurance has removed certain driving violations, mostly minor, from the list of those incurring penalties under the state's merit rating plan for auto accident insurance.

Board members disagreed among themselves over whether to retain the present plan or abolish it and let companies set up merit rating on an individual basis. Board Chairman Penn J. Jackson favored the individual plan but was voted down by members Robert W. Strain and Ned Price.

Removed from the list of driving offenses which cause the driver to have to pay higher accident insurance rates were such offenses as fraudulent use of drivers license, mental incompetence, physical incapability, driving on the wrong side of the street, going the wrong way on a one-way street, blocking traffic, illegal backing, improper signals, etc.

Points will still be assessed against the driver for such violations as speeding, running red lights or stop signs, illegal turns, negligent collision, illegal passing, failure to have license, whether involved in an accident or not.

Changes go into effect Jan. 1.

BOWLING TAX — A big bowling alley costs less than a tiny one, state tax-wise.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson ruled that the operator of a regular bowling alley should pay only the $10 occupational tax, but that owners of 30-in. -operated miniature bowling machines must buy a $60 license for each machine.

Two machines joined to gether cannot get by on the same license, said Wilson in the same opinion, given at the request of State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert.

Only service machines are tax exempt, said Wilson.

TOURIST BOOKLET

Texas Highway Department expects to have a new 32-page booklet designed to attract tourists to Texas ready for distribution by the end of this month.

It will be the first booklet of its type paid for with state funds. It will have 76 color pictures to show people why they should spend some time — and money — in Texas.

Texas' tourist industry, an important source of revenue to the economy and the state treasury, has been slipping in the past few years. Competition of other states is blamed for the drop from 10,300,000 visitors spending $531,000,000 in 1957 to 9,600,000 spending only $431,000,000 last year.

First printing of the new brochure is 400,000. It will give the Highway Department something to send to the some 200,000 potential tourists who write in each year — plus extras with which to prod new interests.

SHINNERY PHILOSOPHER

Bombs Need Price Level of Tractors

Editor's note: The Shinnery Plains Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bone Hollow Creek seems to be worried about deflation in the bomb market. His letter this week indicates.

Dear editor: When I turn on a hydrant and see running water, I sometimes think science is man's greatest benefactor, but when I pick up a newspaper, I sometimes think it's his worst enemy.

For example, I read in a newspaper last night that science has now discovered a cheap way to produce a nuclear bomb.

Before I go any further, I don't know whether you're in the habit of shifting gears in your mind when you get on the international level or not, but it's necessary to follow a discussion of this type, and I will appreciate it if you'll stop and do it. That is, take the word "cheap."

If you're in low, or ordinary gear, cheap means cheap, like low-priced automobiles before they became high-priced, or a $40 suit marked up to $50 and then marked down to $39.50, but in international, or high-gear thinking, cheap means something else.

The first atomic bomb cost, I think, better than a billion dollars; but this new method science has developed can produce one for around 50 million dollars. I'm not trying to be funny, that is comparatively cheap. At any rate, if a nuclear bomb can now be made for 1 million dollars, the experts figure at least 20 other nations beside the three or four that now have it can soon have the bomb too.

This is the reason I say scientists seem to have as their goal working themselves out of a job, because I can name some of those 20 nations it's going to be highly unhealthy to let have the bomb.

You take Cuba. If all that's standing between Castro and a hydrogen bomb is 50 million dollars, he can make that much just by getting on television one afternoon and taking over a few more American businesses over there.

In fact, I guess you'd say Castro is the highest paid television performer in the history of the industry. I understand some American television stars make a million dollars for 52 shows a year, but Castro can make 50 times that much the first 30 minutes he's on the air.

Ask any American who's lost a refinery over there. And he sometimes speaks for four or five hours. Now I don't trust Castro with a BB gun and a bag of chicken feathers, not to mention Castro with three or four hydrogen bombs and three or four planes and enough gasoline to fly to you know where.

If scientists were smart, they'd make hydrogen bombs more and more expensive to make, like tractors. What's got in to em, anyway?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

LOCAL BUSINESS

You Still Can't Replace Quality

By MADGE BELL
Record Staff Writer

A friend in another town recently did something most of us would never dream of doing.

A neighboring retailer of mine was complaining about business, in general, and advertising in particular. Advertising in particular. Adults and business was slumping, the retailer complained.

And the out of town friend retorted with the flat statement — blunt to most of us — that the groaning retailer shouldn't expect to sell much until he dressed up his store and his merchandise.

Stunned for a while, the retailer kept his distance for a while from his friend. But instead of becoming mad, he went to work on the job of dressing up the selling features of his store and advertised all the more to let the public know.

Now, for sure, this isn't a backhanded way to criticize local merchants. For Colorado City, we believe, has a fine proportion of modern, attractive stores with top quality merchandise.

But the moral of the story is simple: Advertising at its best can only do part of the job. Sales do not occur until the merchant delivers on the claims of the advertising.

It is true that advertising is taking over more and more of responsibilities of the personal salesman at the retail level. This is especially true in supermarkets, bargain stores, and discount houses.

This trend has led Stephen Masters, president of Master Inc., one of the nation's great retail stores to say:

"We don't want salesmen in our organization. The customer who comes into our store is presold by advertising. Our clerks are trained to be courteous, to answer his questions and give him what he wants, but not to waste time trying to sell him anything."

"I believe this is the coming pattern of retailing for every kind of merchandise. Selling has become an unnecessary vocation," Masters said.

It should be noted that the Masters' stores deliver on what has been advertised, as do all the other really great retailers.

It is true that newspaper advertising can take over a major portion of the selling job; but it can not sell quality that does not exist.

Tea For Two

Two Pat Nixons appear at a tea sponsored by Republican women in Racine, Wis. The portrait is a gift for the candidate's wife.

When we look at some of the TV westerns we get the idea that most of our grandfathers were gun slingers.

However, today there are perhaps more gun slingers than there were in the Eighties. And the guns are faster. Gunslinging is a fad now. Every town has one or more persons who stands for hours practicing the quick draw and twirling a revolver.

It has meant lots of business for the arms manufacturers, too. Colt, High-Standard, Ruger, Western and some others, all have come out with frontier models especially adapted to the quick-draw trade.

There are numerous quick draw clubs scattered over the country. San Antonio has a big one. It is composed primarily of business men who practice before an electric timer.

But that isn't the unusual thing. Their wives have formed a similar organization.

San Antonio now has a bunch of quick draw girls who can pull a single action from its holster and fan off a shot in about 1/30th of a second. That's fast work.

They shoot twice a month in the basement of the Tiner Sporting Goods Store, at a cutout known as Pistol Pete.

Some are working girls. Others are housewives and mothers. All of them are as serious about their shooting as the men, if not more so.

Sure, there have been accidents. Some of these fast draw people have been careless. Accidents are decreasing, however, because most of the fans are using more care.

Generally the practice shooting is done with .22 ammunition. Many of the guns now on the market are for .22 caliber. These include all the top brands.

There are many conversions. You can get inserts for the cylinder or a new cylinder for the .22 caliber to be used with the .38 special or the .45. These, however, are only good where you practice the quick draw and want to hear the reports. If you actually shoot at a mark, you need a barrel of the proper caliber.

Most of the quick draw work is done with the tied-down buscadero-type belt.

Philip Y. Hahn, president of the Crosman Arms Co. has produced a gas-operated single action revolver, especially for the quick-draw enthusiasts. This CO2 pistol is made exactly like the old .45 single action. In fact, it is so good it is being used on some of the TV westerns.

If you are watching one of these pictures and you see a cowboy knock off 18 Indians in a row with a six gun, chances are it will be one of the Hahn BB guns. They fire 18 shots with BB pellets.

Hahn also did another piece of clever merchandising. He made a buscadero quick draw scabbard and belt to accompany the gun. Now you can buy a fast draw combination at your favorite gun store without in violation of the law. And it is a precision gun, plenty good for target practice.

If you've never tried BB or pellet gun shooting, you've missed something. In the first place it is a great deal more economical than shooting a firearm. The guns themselves are precision made. You can get them in various types. Some are the pump ups, others are lever action, and still others are gas powered.

They are wonderful for target practice and basement shooting. I like to shoot tin cans with them. Frequently I'll take a spree at saving small cans until I get a box full. I punch a hole in the end of these cans, then run a wire through the hole and suspend them from a tree limb — where there is a hill for a backstop. Then I back off 30 or 40 feet and start to work on the cans.

It is more interesting if the wind is blowing. Then the cans begin to swing and they are harder to hit. With a little practice you can hit them almost every shot. The real fun is to start one swinging and then plink it with one of these BB guns.

Gas powered guns, like the Crosman, are real effective. Once in awhile they'll cut small limbs off the trees. When they hit a can at a side glance they sound like a .22 bullet on a flat surface.

Don't underestimate the power of these guns, however, and be careful where you shoot them. They are excellent to take on camping trips. The gas powered gun is ample for killing small game animals and birds. They also are excellent for popping snakes.

Keep in mind though, that you are not to shoot song birds or game birds out of season. This is rather costly. Game wardens frown on it. Judges assess fines. It's a lot better to stick to tin cans.

And it's real fun, too!

2 DAYS OF ACTIVITIES

Homecoming Plans Are Shaping for Loraine

By MRS. ROY WELLS
Record Correspondent

LORAIN — Plans for the homecoming for the Loraine High School ex-students are underway and a full day of activities are planned according to Mrs. Harold Johnson, secretary of the association. The officers stressed the fact that the two day of activities Nov. 4 and 5, are not only for high school graduates of exes, but the entire community is invited to attend.

At many of the previous homecomings out of town exes brought their families and attended in large numbers and local exes were not on hand to greet their former classmates. A program composed of out of town and local talent has been arranged for the Saturday entertainment and various classes are planning reunions. Among them will be the first graduating class, that of 1910, which will hold its Golden Anniversary meeting. The program will begin at 1:30 p. m. Friday, Nov. 4, with a bonfire and pep rally. Saturday, Nov. 5, registration will start at 10 a. m. with lunch at 12 noon, program at 1:30, followed by the business meeting at 2 p. m.

Individual class meetings will then be held and supper will be served by the seniors at the cafeteria at 5 p. m. before the football game between the Loraine Bulldogs and the Robert Lee Steers at 8 p. m. when the Homecoming Queen and Bulldog sweetheart will be honored.

Dixon Toney, charge lay leader of the First Methodist Church in Ballinger, spoke at the First Methodist Church of Loraine Sunday when the church observed Laymen's Day.

Laymen of the church conducted the entire services.

Lorenzo Moreno was elected president when 21 high school students and sponsor, Miss Faye Edwards, met and organized a high school Spanish Club.

Other officers elected were Mary Rodriguez, vice president; Thomas Vest, secretary; Dorothy Galvan, treasurer; Gerald Owen, chairman and Dorothy Galvan and Don Williams, entertainment; Mary Allmendinger, food committee; assisted by Linda Williams and Mike Dobbs.

The group voted to meet the first Monday in each month and their first social affair was a trip to Snyder Tuesday night when they enjoyed a Mexican supper.

Visit in Roscoe — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson of China Grove visited last Friday afternoon in Roscoe with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Leach and children.

Karen and Janice Leach returned home with the Wilsons for a weekend visit in China Grove.

'n Merket Home — Mr. and Mrs. Bob Merket and children, Rodney and Craig, visited Mr. Merket's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Merket in the China Grove community Sunday.

Plant pansy seed now as well as daffodils, tulip and hyacinths bulbs.

Day lilies may be set out at any time of year, even ones in bloom will transplant if done carefully. Iris can also be moved now.

Try bright colored calceolula for mid-winter bloom.

The autumn-flowering crocus is an interesting window sill flower. It is a member of the lily family.

Crocus will come into flower on a window sill planted in bulb fiber or even in a dish without soil or water, after which the bulbs can be planted in the garden.

Outdoors they send up leaves in the spring and bloom in the autumn without leaves.

A few parsley seeds planted in a flower pot now will also make a useful and attractive window during winter.

"Wild River" opens Sunday at Palace

"Wild River," Elia Kazan's front-awarded the Oscar for the Best Picture of its year, is a powerful CinemaScope, DeLuxe Color production for the Twentieth Century-Fox of the clash between the proud people of Tennessee and a federal agent ordered to clear them from their ancestral homes to make way for the mighty TVA project, will show Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Palace Theatre.

Starring Lee Remick, as a gentle country girl, and Montgomery Clift as the government agent assigned to move the Van Fleet, who is cast as Miss Remick's grandmother and the last holdout in the path of the dam, the Paul Osbourn script, taken from a best-selling novel by famed writer, William Bradford Huie, combines action and romance with a true story taken from one of the harsher cultural clashes in America's recent history.

The film was made entirely on location in Cleveland, Tennessee. That is producer-director Kazan's way of working. He made a movie about the story where it happened. He made a movie about the story where it happened. He made a movie about the story where it happened.

Beginning Sunday

TO LORRAINE CLUB Home Management Specialist Speaks

By MRS. ROY WELLS
Record Correspondent

LORRAINE — Miss Mildred Webb of Lubbock was guest speaker for the regular meeting of the Homemakers Club in the home of Mrs. Melvin Baumann.

Miss Webb, area home management specialist for Texas Extension Service, presented a demonstration on kitchen arrangement.

Following the demonstration, she answered questions of club members concerning their kitchen arrangement problems.

A superb cast, a taut and powerful script, exciting, graphic photography and the astute direction of Kazan are all welded together in an emotional torrent, the "Wild River."

During a business meeting preceding the program, club members voted to change their meeting time from 2 p. m. to 9 a. m. each second Tuesday of the month.

Following the program, refreshments were served to three guests — Miss Webb, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. James Stewart; and the following members Mrs. Edgar Baumann, Mrs. Billy Don Green, Mrs. Howard Tarrt, Mrs. Bob Looney, Mrs. Merriell Abbott, Mrs. Alfred Hackfeld, Mrs. A. J. Barron and the hostess.

Mrs. Charles Finley is to be hostess for next month's meeting, which will feature a program on home lighting by Mrs. Taylor.

Husa Narrell and E. A. Narrell were called to the bedside of their brother Nick Narrell, who had suffered a heart attack in Stephenville last week Tuesday of the month.

Nick Narrell is former sheriff of Mitchell County.

Here is a Ford that is not only new in looks and ride and comfort, but new in its entire concept. The '61 Ford is actually built to take care of itself! It lubricates its chassis... cleans its own oil... adjusts its own brakes... protects its own body.

Indeed, here is a car that will save you valuable time and money by doing away with many stops for service.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF... THE FIRST 1961 CAR DEALER-WARRANTED FOR 12,000 MILES OR ONE FULL YEAR.

Lubricates Itself. You'll normally go 30,000 miles without a chassis lubrication. Cleans Its Own Oil. You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes with Ford's Full-Flow oil filter. Guards Its Own Muffler. Ford mufflers are double wrapped and aluminumed — normally will last three times as long as ordinary mufflers. Adjusts Its Own Brakes. New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves automatically. Protects Its Own Body. All vinyl underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing body panels beneath the doors.

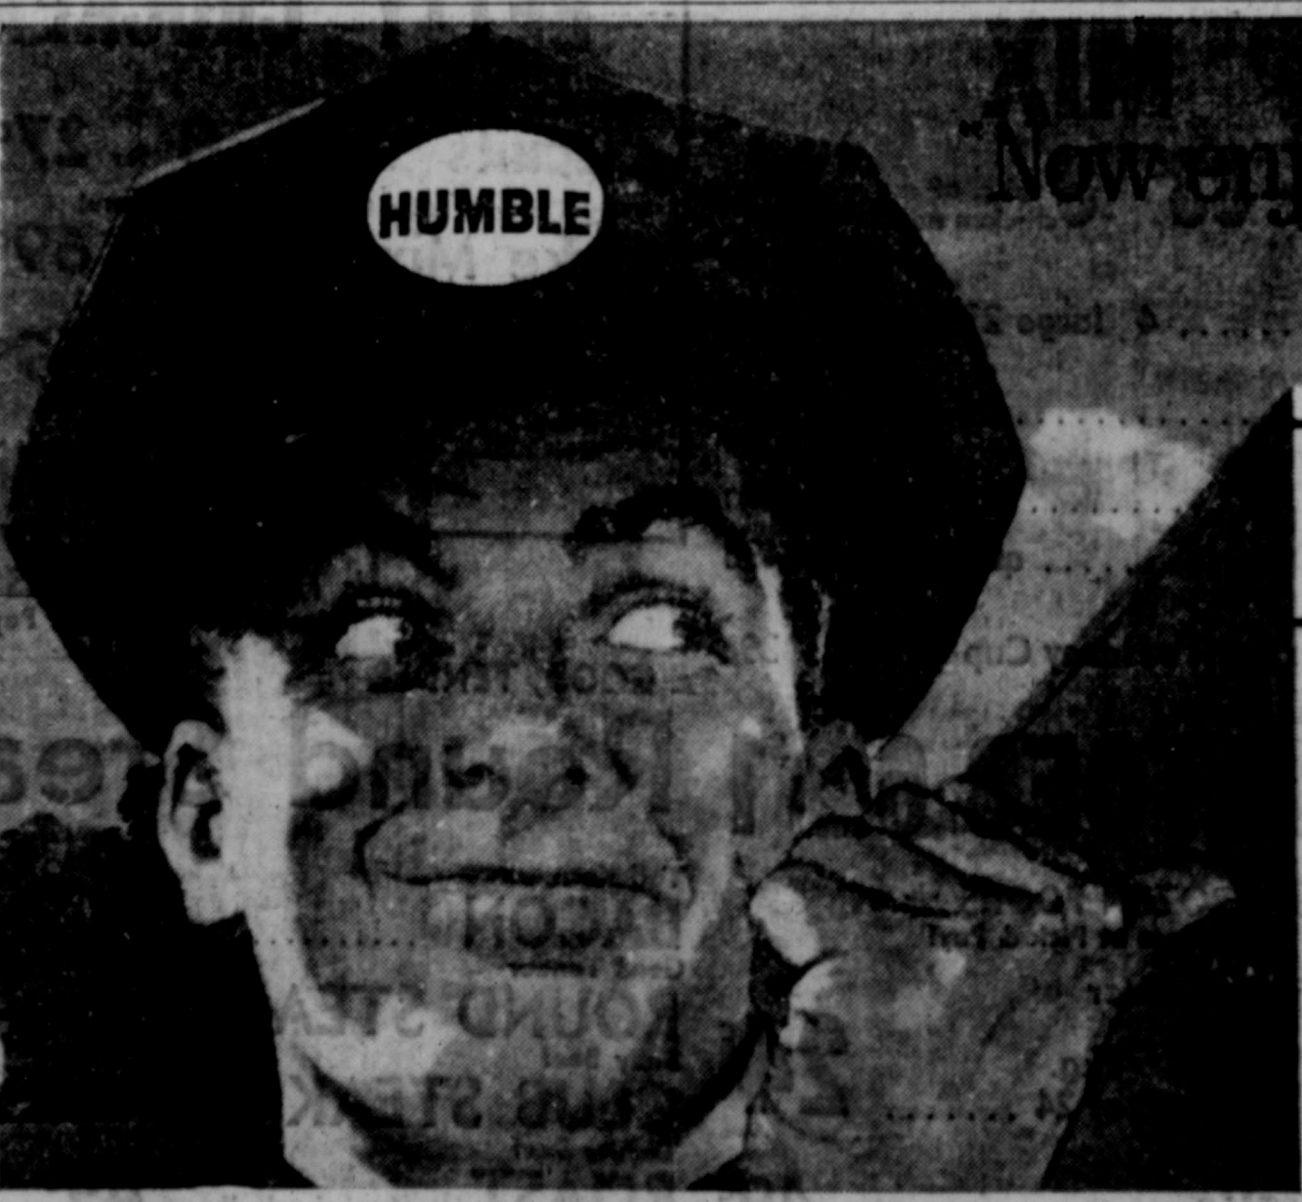

Takes Care of Its Own Finish. New Diamond Lustre Finish never needs wax. Warranty. The '61 Ford is built to meet three principal goals: finest quality, greatest durability, most reliable operation. Expressing their complete confidence that this has been accomplished, Ford Dealers led the industry in extending their warranty on '61 Fords to 12,000 miles or one full year, whichever comes first. Constant Struggle for Freedom of Information

(Editor's Note: This is National Newspaper Week, an annual event in America emphasizing the need for safe-guarding our basic freedoms. The following article, reporting the constant battle in small towns and large which is waged each day for freedom of information, was written for The Record by Paul C. Smith, president of National Editorial Association and Rock Rapids, Ia., Reporter.)

Newspapers throughout the land are waging an unceasing struggle for one of America's most cherished goals—Freedom of Information. The battle is waged in small towns and big cities, at the local level and at the seat of our national government.

The reporter for a hometown weekly plays a vital role as he ferrets out the facts on a local situation which some petty official would prefer be kept secret. The National Editorial Association has a Freedom of Information Committee which keeps tabs on gains and setbacks in the Freedom of Information struggle. It receives reports from all over the nation and renders an annual report to NEA. Other press groups support similar activities.

As the press turns its attention to 1960 celebration of National Newspaper Week, it can point to some progress toward the goal of complete Freedom of Information but many opportunities for improvement remain.

In this election year, when officials from Councilmen to Congressmen are asking the voters for their endorsement, both the press and the public are entitled to question candidates for office as to how they stand on the public's right to know.

NEA, as the only national newspaper group to maintain its headquarters in the Nation's Capital, occupies a key vantage point in waging war against government secrecy.

There are two Congressional subcommittees which are primarily concerned with Freedom of Information. One is the Constitutional Rights Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, headed by Senator Thomas C. Hennings, Jr. (D., Mo.), and the other is the Subcommittee on Information of the House Government Operations Committee, Representative John E. Moss (D., Calif.), Chairman.

The Hennings subcommittee has approved a bill, S. 2780, which would amend Federal law in five respects to remove provisions which have been used to justify secrecy in government. NEA endorses the Hennings bill and urges public support for its enactment.

The Moss subcommittee recently reported on its five-year effort to make public records available for inspection. Its particular target has been the Department of Defense, which House investigators found has withheld three times as much information in recent years as during the 40-year period which included both World Wars.

Federal officials, backed by an opinion by the Attorney General on the so-called "executive privilege," have often found it convenient to stamp "secret" or "confidential" on all kinds of documents which have nothing to do with national security.

One example in 1960 was a decision by the Internal Revenue Service by the Internal Revenue Service to withhold comments received from the public on a proposed change in the regulations affecting the tax deductibility of certain types of business expenses. As the Moss subcommittee pointed out, there is no reasonable excuse for such actions.

The Moss report warned that increasing restrictions on government information could lead to the destruction of our democratic society, and added: "Secrecy — the first refuge of incompetents — must be at a bare minimum in a democratic society, for a fully informed public is the basis of self-government. Those elected or appointed to positions of executive authority must recognize that government, in a democracy, cannot be wiser than the people."

To that statement, NEA adds a heartfelt "Amen." Press and public are indebted to Senator Hennings and Representative Moss for their fight for Freedom of Information.

The battle against official secrecy is not just a press crusade in the self-interest of newspapers. It is a cause in which every citizen can and should join. NEA pledges its maximum efforts in this fight and urges public support in the cause of Freedom of Information.

Honest government has little cause to conceal vital facts from taxpayers. Officials are the servants of the people who elect them. Please make sure that those you help put in office are worthy of their trust and willing to tell what they are doing.

In these times we fight for ideas and newspapers are our battalions. Home.

The newspaper does its best to make every square inch of land and sea give an account of itself in your breakfast table. — Kansas.
