Building Construction Activity Now At Highest Peak Since Slump Hit Perryton

Building activity is now at the highest peak in Perryton since general depression and crop failures hit the Panhandle several years ago. On every hand will be heard the sound of the saw and hammer and it is a sure indication of the return of prosperity.

The largest building project under way in Perryton is the new 50x140 ft. Ideal Food Store. Frank Higgins, superintendent of construction on this job says that unless building material deliveries are delayed, this building will be ready for occupancy within six weeks. The roof trusses are now in place and brick masons are completing the walls above the roof line.

Brad Lee and his force of workmen are rushing to completion the new warehouse and office building for the North Plains Implement Co. This 30x30 ft. implement home is an addition to the west on the present warehouse of the Ellis Grain Co. W. E. Poglesong is the manager of this new Perryton business firm. They will handle the J. I. Case line of farm machinery.

Bennett, rushing to completion a new 20x60 ft. warehouse, located south of the present building. Twenty feet of this building will be entirely enclosed, the remaining 40 ft. being open on the east side. The entire 140x200 ft. lot of this firm has recently been enclosed with an all-metal six foot with overhang fence.

F. P. Dodson, owner of the Dodson Service Station, is building an addition to his station to be used as a sandwich and steak shop by Earl Glasgow. The new building is triangular in shape and will occupy the space just north of the Perry Studio. Mr. Glasgow expects to move in about two weeks. After almost four years of legalized sale of beer in Ochiltree county, an election has been called for Saturday, March 20, at which time the eligible voters will again cast their ballot on this question. Ochiltree went into the list of legalized beer sale counties on August 26, 1933, by the close vote of 411 for, to 395 against. A second test on beer came on Nov. 26, 1934, when beer carried with 521 voting for, and 493 against. An election on the question of legalized sale of hard liquors in packages was held on August 24, 1935, the voters turning down the proposition by a vote of 244 for, to 428 against.

FRANK SPENCER FUNERAL TODAY

PIONEER FARMER-STOCKMAN DIED TUESDAY AT HIS HOME IN THIS CITY; SICK FOUR WEEKS

F. C. Spencer, age 64, died at his home in this city, at 4:35 p. m. Tuesday, after an illness of over four weeks duration. Funeral services will be held at the First Methodist Church at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. W. B. Vaughn, pastor of the church, will officiate, assisted by Rev. W. C. Hinds, presiding elder of the Perryton district.

Mr. Spencer had been a resident of Ochiltree county since April 1908, when he moved to this section, settling and improving a farm a few miles northeast of Old Ochiltree. Here he engaged in the farming and stock business, building a nice country home and one of the finest barns ever constructed in the county. The barn was destroyed by fire several years ago. For a number of years Mr. Spencer and his family have resided in Perryton.

F. C. Spencer was born July 29, 1872 at Neelyville, Ohio. In 1880, he moved with his parents to Roanoke, Ind. Here on June 9, 1897, he was married to Miss Eleanor Pickle.

Surviving relatives are the widow and six daughters: Mrs. C. B. Rogers, Mrs. Liel Lewellen, Miss Grace Spencer, Mrs. Robert Thurman, Miss Pauline Spencer and Miss Vona Mabel Spencer, all residing in or near Perryton.

Mr. Spencer had been a life long member of the Methodist church. He had been very active in the development of this country from a broad expanse of level grass land to the great wheat country it is today. In the before tractor days, Mr. Spencer was a breeder of fine draft horses and some of the best draft horses in this section came from the Spencer farm.

Mrs. Bancha Spence came in Monday from Oakland, Calif., to be at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. S. C. Brillhart, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ballew left Sunday for Devine, Texas, where they expect to spend the next two months.

The repeal election was called by the County Commissioners at their regular meeting Monday, March 8, after a petition requesting that such action be taken, was presented to the Court. The petition carried 263 signatures. Only 127 signatures were required; it was discovered that after checking the list of signers, there were several that were not eligible voters, but after striking the ineligible off, there were far more than the necessary 127 signatures.

The election will be held in all twelve voting precincts in the county and none but eligible voters will be allowed to vote. In other words, if a person does not have a 1937 Poll Tax receipt, or is exempt on account of being under or over age, or has moved into the state since January 1, 1936, they cannot vote. Qualifications for voting in this election are the same as in any other election.

SCHOOL ELECTION APRIL 3

THREE TRUSTEES TO BE ELECTED BY PERRYTON SCHOOL DISTRICT FOR THREE YEAR TERMS

Three trustees for Perryton Independent School District are to be elected April 3, 1937, for three-year terms. The Prairie-New Hope section is represented at the present time by Robert Lawrence who has served the unexpired term of Roy Hogland, resigned. Mr. Lawrence is now serving as secretary of the school board and has not served an elective term.

Claude Crouch has served only one term as representative from the Ochiltree section of the district. J. H. Neufeld is the other member whose term expires in 1937. Candidates may be filed with Robert Lawrence, Secretary, or A. J. Kelly, President of the board. Information as to methods of filing may be had from either Mr. Lawrence or Mr. Kelly.

John Richardson was appointed Judge of the election to be held in Perryton with J. N. Conley as Assistant Judge. L. R. Conner was appointed Judge of the election for Farnsworth. The judges were authorized to select necessary helpers.

The board did not arrange for an election to be held in New Hope or Lone Tree schools due to the light voting in previous years and due to the requests from people in these communities that no election be held in these places. If there is a demand for these polling places the board will provide them.

Members holding over for additional one and two year service on the board are A. J. Kelly, Ollie Morris, R. P. Garrison and Calvin Flowers.

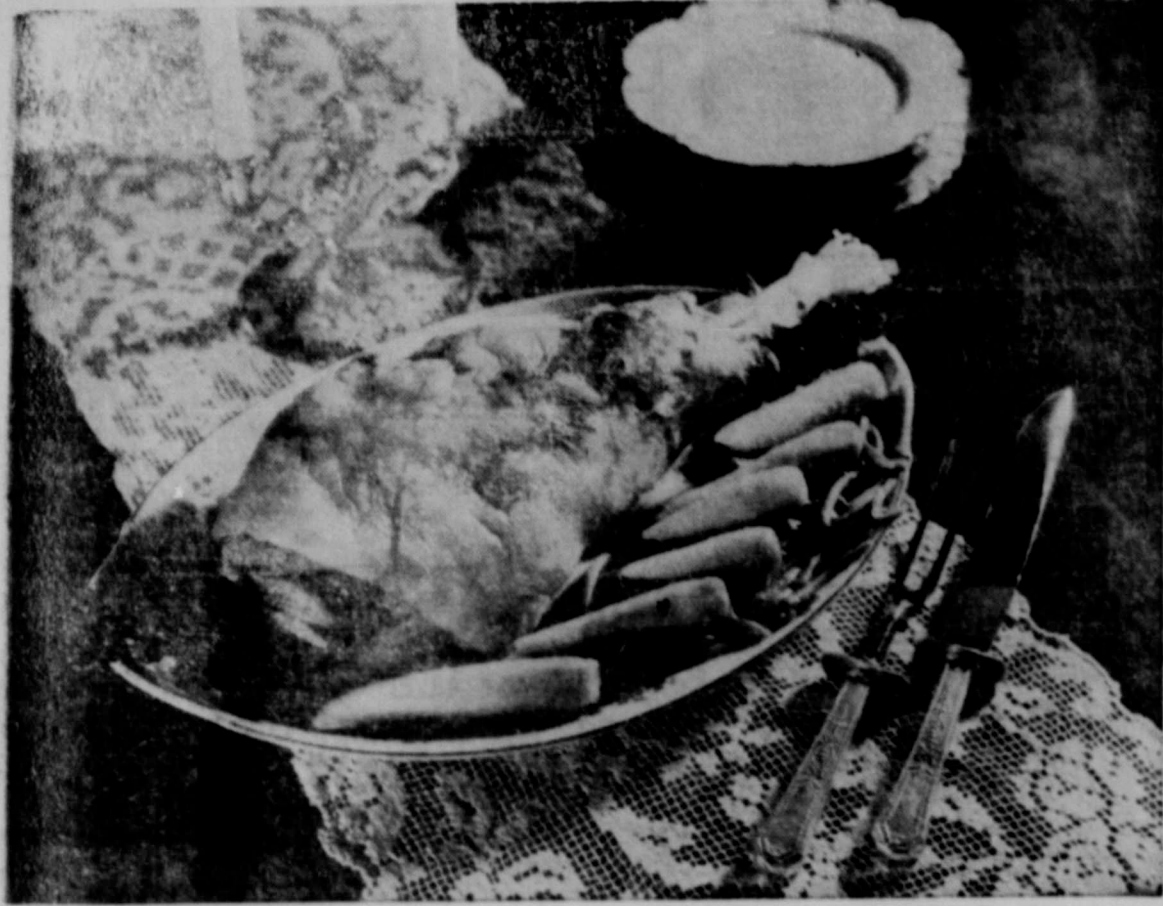

Mrs. Atwood Croson and Mrs. J. B. Cartwright were Amarillo visitors Saturday.

Let's Have Leg of Lamb for Sunday Dinner!

Lamb is a favorite for Sunday dinner at all times of the year, but right now, it deserves special mention because there is an abundance of unusually high-quality lamb on the market.

The roast leg of lamb shown above though one of the nicest, is one of the easiest meat dishes to prepare. There is no last minute hurry or flurry if the roasting is done according to the newest methods of cooking. The roast is simply placed, fat side up, in an open roasting pan and allowed to roast in a slow oven (300-350 degrees F.) until done. It requires thirty to thirty-five minutes per pound for roasting lamb.

Many connoisseurs of cookery insist that in order to appreciate the true flavor of lamb, it should be cooked just "short" of well-done, so that it has a slight pinkish tinge rather than the familiar gray of well-done meat. If you prefer lamb this way, shorten the cooking time a little.

In serving lamb, be sure to serve it very hot or very cold, but never lukewarm.

The leg of lamb pictured above is "Frenched" at the market; that is, the meat is removed from the end of the rib bone. After it is roasted, a paper frill may be slipped over this bone if desired, and if so, it makes a convenient handle in carving.

The thin paper like covering over the outside of lamb, known as the "fell," need not be removed, as was formerly thought necessary. In fact, it has been found that the leg of lamb cooks more quickly and holds its shape better if this covering is left in place, and that it affects the taste in no way whatever.

The leg of lamb, pictured here, is served with green beans and glazed carrots. Escalloped or creamed potatoes and a fresh vegetable salad may complete the main course of your Sunday dinner.

NEW HOPE CLUB

Mrs. A. M. Koehn, Reporter

"A well balanced diet builds resistance against disease," said Miss Wertha Tarter, Home Demonstration Agent, at an all day meeting of the New Hope Club in the home of Mrs. Jess Cudd on Wednesday, March 3.

In a day's diet we should have three servings of vegetables, two of fruit and two of meat or meat substitutes such as cheese, dried beans or peas, one quart milk for each child and one pint for each adult. Some vegetables that will yield in this country are carrots, turnips, okra, squash, beans and mustard greens.

During the meeting, Miss Tarter demonstrated the making of a hot-bed. She said to put old pieces of iron in the tomato patch to obtain a better yield.

Those witnessing this demonstration were Mesdames Charlie Cudd, W. G. Teary, Fred Furnish, Hugh Riley, W. L. Lovett, Ivan Lovett, Carl Carter, Lloyd Furnish, Jim Yaden, A. M. Koehn, Miss Tarter, Levene Shockley, Lucille Cudd and the hostess.

WOLF CREEK CLUB

Mrs. Sam Handly, Reporter

"Fresh vegetables are a source of minerals and vitamins necessary for health," stated Miss Wertha Tarter, County Home Demonstration Agent, to the Wolf Creek Club in the home of Mrs. Walter Daniel, March 4, 1:30 p. m.

Since vegetables from the garden are better than more economical, a frame garden, though small, may prove to be valuable. The frame garden used now may supply the table with early vegetables while it is yet too cold to grow them in the larger garden. The frame garden may be used early because it is self heating and is covered with a lid that helps to keep out cold and admits sun light and heat.

These present for the club meeting were Mesdames J. H. Callham, Bill McLanahan, W. L. Herndon Jr., W. M. Pearson, S. J. Handly, Miss Wertha Tarter and the hostess, Mrs. Daniel.

OCHILTREE CLUB HAVING ALL DAY MEET, MARCH 17

The Ochiltree Home Demonstration Club will hold an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. W. T. Lackey on Wednesday, March 17, with a covered dish luncheon. Come, help make a hot bed. Bring your neighbors with you and enjoy the special program. Visitors are always welcome.

WAKA CLUB

Mrs. R. G. Burger, Reporter

"A hot bed will provide your table with fresh early vegetables at a low cost," said Miss Wertha Tarter at the regular meeting of the Waka Home Demonstration Club which met at the home of Mrs. J. R. Stump, Tuesday, March 2.

"Speaking of erosion, we see human erosion of body both physically and mentally if a person does not have plenty of leafy green vegetables and other necessary vitamins," further stated Miss Tarter.

Roll call was answered by each member naming a vegetable that would thrive in this part of the country. Okra, onions, pinto beans, cowpeas, spinach, carrots, lettuce and radishes were a few named that are especially hardy and will withstand drought.

A hot bed demonstration was given by Miss Tarter. Budgets were figured for each member.

Present at this meeting were: Miss Wertha Tarter, home demonstration agent, Mrs. Maud Miller, Mrs. Melvin Coleman, Mrs. Ernestine Hohmann, Mrs. H. N. Elledge, Mrs. Ray G. Burger and the hostess Mrs. J. R. Stump.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Marvin Groves Tuesday March 16. Visitors are always welcome.

It's farther between filling stations in the Ford "60"

The 60-horsepower Ford V-8 engine was first developed for Europe, where fuel costs are high. Two years' usage there proved its unusual economy.

When the "60" came to this country this year, the Ford Motor Company made no mileage claims—waited for facts, written on American roads by American drivers.

Now Ford "60" owners are reporting averages of 22 to 27 miles on a gallon of gasoline. That makes it the most economical Ford car ever built!

Best of all, the Ford "60" is just as big and roomy—just as handsome, sturdy and safe—as the famous 35-horsepower Ford V-8. And it sells at the lowest Ford price in years.

If you want a big car for a small budget—a car you can drive with pride and profit—see the thrifty "60" soon!

Living Habits Often Responsible In Premature Deaths, so States State Health Officer

Austin, Texas—"Adult life has been lengthened materially during the past thirty-five years. However, the gain largely has been made in the age bracket below the forty-five year limit. The reason for this lies in the great progress made by medical science in preventing infant mortality. Or to express it otherwise, little folks, on the average, will live fifteen or more years longer than was the case prior to 1900. While undoubtedly this is a magnificent achievement, it serves also to indicate that the obligation of the middle-aged and older, to be reasonably concerned about their health and life prospects, still entirely is justified," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"The truth is that the increase in deaths from heart, kidney, and blood vessel conditions not only has been responsible for blocking an extension to life for the average person who has reached the half-way mark but, from a statistical standpoint, to an extent has neutralized the successful inroads, that have been made against tuberculosis and some of the other devastating diseases. And it is right here where personal health interest should be more active than it is today.

"Faulty living habits perhaps more often are responsible for a prematurely shortened life than is any other single factor. The stepping up of life's tempo and the exactions associated therewith too frequently prove so absorbing and time-consuming that little, if any, thought is given to the real business of life which is to get out of it in terms of health, happiness, and longevity as much as one possibly can.

The family physician should be the counselor in this connection. Too often, persons wait until they are ill before taking the doctor into their confidence. And sometimes, it is then too late. Indeed, it should be stressed that sound medical advice on how to keep well, and the early professional detection of an unsuspected condition can mean many added years of usefulness.

TRADE TREATIES EXTENDED

Washington, D. C.—In spite of attacks on the floor of the Senate, the Trade Agreements Act of 1934 was extended for three years. Said Senator Capper, "We have granted concessions to 70 nations, of which only 15 have granted similar concessions to us." Senator Vandenberg pointed out that while U. S. exports to Canada increased 17 per cent, our imports from Canada went up 30 per cent.

ACCOUNT NUMBER CARDS TO BE PUT AWAY IN SAFE PLACE; SO DIRECTOR ADVISES

San Antonio, March 6—Social Security account number cards, now in the hands of approximately one million workers in Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico, should be protected against damage or loss, Oscar M. Powell, regional director of the Social Security Board, said today.

"These cards, which indicate that the worker has established an old-age benefits account, should not be subjected to frequent handling, and it is not necessary for employees to carry their cards with them at all times," Powell declared in response to inquiries from many workers.

"Employees should report their assigned account numbers to their employers as soon as they have received their cards. Immediately thereafter, the card may be put away in a safe place until such time as it is needed.

"Cards reported lost or destroyed will be replaced by the Social Security Board upon application; however, the time required to issue a duplicate card makes the preservation of the original card a matter of interest to the employee."

The Board has rejected suggestions that metallic plates be used in official assignment of account numbers, but employees may, if they so desire, register their account numbers on metal plates or fibrous material, Powell said.

TYPICAL EFFECTS OF A STRIKE IN ANY MAJOR INDUSTRY

The chart above shows how the chief effects of a strike begin immediately to spread in all directions. Back at the supply sources, cancelled orders for raw and semi-finished materials and equipment tend to create additional unemployment and lost business in ever-widening circles. In distribution channels, sales, employment, and income fall off more or less sharply. Transportation revenues shrink. Curtailed business and thin pocketbooks at the strike center, in the supply sources, and distribution and generally reduced retail trade, smaller tax collections, increased relief burdens. This picture of the long trail of losses, even more simplified as it is, indicates why economists cannot estimate in advance the total cost of a strike. Studies of the losses from previous strikes show that their total cost amounts to anywhere from 6 to 700 times the value of wages lost by men thrown out of work at the strike center itself.

McLean to Petition for Camp For Soil and Water Conservation In Gray County

Preliminary work for the securing of a CCC camp for McLean has been done and nothing remains but the securing of names of land owners to a petition, was announced by President Greene at the regular monthly meeting of the chamber of commerce held Monday night.

Government officials admit the need of such a camp here to serve this section for a radius of 25 miles in soil and water conservation work.

Land owners in the affected district will be asked to sign the petition, which will obligate them in no way; however, the benefits from the work of the camp will be available to any land owner desiring it. The body voted to endorse the

"Washington is an ideal place for sightseeing at any time," says Wells. "and you'll find some astonishing changes if you haven't been there recently. Soil Wastage Vital

Recommend Careful Consideration Be Given to Maximum Use of Available Agencies

College Station—President T. O. Walton of Texas A. and M. College, back from recent conferences in Washington at which representatives of the U. S. Department of Agriculture outlined policies of the Government's new soil conservation program, said the federal department's spokesmen indicated they would cooperate in any sound soil conservation legislation, in harmony with the National Act, the various states might enact. The department's representatives further indicated, he said, that they did not seek arbitrarily to influence soil conservation legislation in the various states.

In view of impending legislative action in Texas on this matter, President Walton, speaking as the head of an institution which, through its Agricultural Experiment Station, and Agricultural Extension Service, has for years carried on an active soil and water conservation program, said:

"In establishing soil conservation policies by legislation, it is recommended to the farmers primarily and others interested that careful consideration be given to maximum use of the present national, state and county agencies and local governmental units rather than to the creation of new governmental units or agencies. And whatever program is adopted should be one so shaped as to apply to the farm land and to farm accomplishments the very largest percentage possible of funds made available from national, state and local sources. This means, in other words, that the program should be one of minimum administrative cost so that the actual benefit to the land will be the maximum possible from funds made available. These ends can best be accomplished if a maximum of state and local effort is maintained.

"A soil wastage prevention program is after all a program that by its very nature and cost will require an extended period of time. It cannot be done in a day. Its ultimate success will depend in large part upon the attitude of the farmer himself and the cooperation he receives from agencies to which he may most naturally look for help. The problem thus involves not only an educational feature but a close contact with familiar and sympathetic cooperating agencies. State and local agencies with which the farmer has already worked and in cooperation with which he has already made progress are naturally the more favored position to carry on the work than would be a new and, at least for the time being, an unfamiliar set-up."

Texas A. and M. College, President Walton went on to say, is not primarily interested in any specific legislation in this field except where it may affect a sound state soil conservation program. In amplification, he added, the college is interested in soil conservation on every farm for the sake of improved agriculture and its benefits to the individual farmer. He has also pointed out that when soil erosion is prevented, a major contribution is made to the solution of the flood-control problem.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Substance" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, March 14.

The Golden Text is: "If we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it" (Romans 8:25). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by His Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God" (1 Corinthians 2:9-10).

The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Paul and John had a clear apprehension that, as mortal man achieves no worldly honors except by sacrifice, so he must gain heavenly riches by forsaking all worldliness" (page 459).

Mrs. W. E. Garrison, Mrs. H. E. Shotwell, Mrs. Leroy Hartman and Miss Onnie Fay Garrison were visitors in Amarillo Saturday. Mrs. Luther Wade accompanied them and spent the night with relatives.

Star-gazing, and finding in the message of the planets the answer to love's young dream—it is that way with Marian Marsh and Joe E. Brown in "When's Your Birthday?"—the David L. Joe E. Brown Picture

"When's Your Birthday?" is Hilarious Comedy to be Presented at Ellis Theatre Sunday-Monday

Hilarious comedy is provided by "When's Your Birthday?" which is shown Sunday at the Ellis Theatre, with Joe E. Brown as fun-maker.

Brown is seen as an "occasional" fighter who adopts this means of paying for a course in astrology. He refuses to marry his sweetie, Suzanne Kaaren, because she selected a date which conflicts with the favorable aspect of his planet. He lands a job as a time-telling astrologer in a mid-western concession operated by Fred King, where Marian Marsh is also working. Predicting the outcome of a race, Brown enables Minor Watson, a "big-shot" gambler, to win a winning bet, and the latter promptly engages the three as his staff for predicting the outcome of his sporting events.

Brown is accepted as an unconventional astrologer, his star name, Kaaren, attempts to re-enter life in a big way, in spite of the fact that Miss Marsh has by this time supplanted her in Brown's affections. There is a mix-up in horoscopes on the eve of a championship bout, and Brown's past exploits right in his face, as the picture comes to a wildly exciting climax that is screamingly funny.

Brown's part fits him like the proverbial glove, and he has never appeared to better advantage.

NEWS of the WEEK

NATION WEIGHS COURT CHANGES

Washington, D. C.—President Roosevelt's radio speech in justification of his desire to add a possible six members of the Supreme Court aroused nationwide discussion, which will find echo during the latter part of the week behind the closed doors of the Senate Judiciary Committee, where all pending legislation affecting Federal courts is now being thrashed out.

MADRID RATONS BREAD

Madrid, Spain—Although in possession of the nation's $700,000,000 gold hoard, the Loyalists (or Reds) defending Madrid are daily facing more stringent food restrictions. The bread allowance has now been reduced to ten ounces per day per person. The besieging White Army has plenty of food but very little money.

ZEPPELIN INCREASES SERVICE

Frankfurt, Germany—Starting May 3rd, the big Zeppelin dirigible Hindenburg will make eighteen round trips between Germany and the United States during the season ending November 5th. This is nearly double the number of voyages made last year. Passenger capacity has been increased from fifty to seventy and the fare from $400 to $450.

CHINESE GAME ARRIVES

New York City—Nearly 4,000 years ago the Chinese credited with the invention of chess, began playing "Go", a pastime three times as ancient as chess. "Go", which claims 10,000,000 far eastern devotees, has now swamped the facilities of its Occidental sponsors. Consisting of 181 "Stones" for each of two players, the game proceeds like two invading armies and very rarely ends in a draw. Sets range from $2.50 to $10.

THE WEEK IN BUSINESS

While the Securities Exchange Commission approved the registration of $69,000,000 of 3 per cent German dollar bonds to be issued to American holders of German securities in exchange for unpaid interest coupons, it called attention at the same time to Germany's "secret debt", not admitted by the Reich but estimated at $2,000,000,000. Warner Brothers Pictures reported to SEC that the highest salaries paid in 1936 went to Kay Francis ($227,500), Joe E. Brown ($201,562), and Leslie Howard ($185,000). Upon the occasion of its 80th anniversary the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Milwaukee, announced that its oldest living policy holder was 100 years old, having reached the end of the mortality table his policy was now payable as an annuity. As an offset to electrical refrigeration, the Knickerbocker Ice Company now offers New York customers planning big parties a tubful of 450 crystal clear ice cubes for $1.00. Two companies, Ledham Steel and Jewel Tea, now prepare special financial reports for their employees. The latter points out that it requires $2,876 in assets to insure a job for each member of its staff. Stock traders keep their eyes peeled during the month of March. For no traceable reason, March prices on the New York Stock Exchange have dropped 50 per cent more often than they have risen.

THE GOLDFISH INDUSTRY

Washington, D. C.—In 1878, Rear Admiral Daniel Ammen, United States Navy, presented to the U. S. Fish Commission a bowl of goldfish he had brought from Japan. From this start grew an industry that is now estimated as producing more than 20,000,000 goldfish annually, worth nearly $1,000,000. The United States hatcheries send from two to three million fish yearly to Europe, South America and Africa, in special tanks aerated with pure oxygen.

TEST OF PRICE CONTROL

Cambridge, Md.—Federal attorneys and counsel for the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company began an action which may consume months of argument to determine the constitutionality of the Robinson-Patman Anti-Price Discrimination Act, which would prevent the big chain store operators to accept advertising allowances or special quantity discounts from manufacturers. Six months ago, John Hartford, president of the A. & P. chain thus described his company's position: "It is our sincere desire to comply with the law, but we are not willing to cease operations because of a law as to which no two lawyers agree."

AT THE CAPITAL

Washington, D. C.—The Senate's special committee reported that party expenditures in the last Presidential campaign totalled more than $23,900,000, and recommended that all political contributions should be forbidden by "organizations with class or special interests". The Department of State announced the death of the dam.

The federal government has called a hearing at Guymon, Okla., on Wednesday, March 17, where all interested parties will appear.—The Panhandle Herald, Guymon.

The first practical typewriter designed to write musical compositions. It was perfected by Gustav Rundstadler, has 44 keys, and by a few simple controls, a musician can write a musical score as easily as a letter.

M. M. Cudd, former Ochiltree county assessor, has accepted a position as warehouseman at the Ellis Grain Co. For many years prior to going into public life, Mr. Cudd was associated with the Perryton Equity Exchange so he is no newcomer to the grain business, having had years of experience in the elevator and feed business.

PERRYTON IMPLEMENT CO. BUILDING WARE HOUSE

Construction work is underway on a ware house for the Perryton Implement Co., being erected adjoining the company's store. The new quarters will be 20x60 feet. Other recent improvements made by this firm includes a six foot fence around the company's property.

R. T. SHINDLER TO REXALL CONVENTION

R. T. Shindler, manager of the Shindler Drug Co. and Misses Margaret Rupprecht and Esther McLarty attended a Rexall convention in Tulsa, Okla. the first of this week. The party left Perryton Sunday, returning Wednesday.

SANTE FE EXECUTIVES IN PERRYTON TUESDAY

R. W. Prentice, Sante Fe trainmaster, and S. B. Allison, transportation inspector, were in Perryton Tuesday. Both of these men headquarters in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hammon and sons were Sunday guests with relatives in Liberal, Kansas.

Announced the closing of the Legation and Consulate at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia on March 31st, because "American interests no longer require such services."

QUICK RETURN TRIP

Portland, Ore.—Neal De Long, Deputy U. S. Marshal, escorted a prisoner from here to Oklahoma City. As he stepped off the train on his arrival back home, he encountered his prisoner again. The latter had drawn a year's sentence after a quick trial and had been released on probation, after which he hurried back to this city.

LIE DETECTOR WINS

Chicago, Ill.—Five times, Governor Horner had granted stays of execution to Joseph Rappaport, a 31-year-old dope peddler convicted of murdering a government informer. Within four hours of the time of execution, he complied with a hysterical request of the prisoner's sister that her brother submit to the "lie-detector" invented by Dr. Leonard E. Keeler, of Northwestern University's scientific crime detection laboratory, in which the Governor expressed his faith. After an hour of exhaustive tests, Dr. Keeler reported: "On the basis of my findings, Rappaport is guilty." The Governor denied any further delays.

SECRETARY OF STATE APOLOGIZES

Washington, D. C.—Because Mayor Fiorella H. LaGuardia, of New York suggested that Gotham's World's Fair contain a "Chamber of Horrors" with a brown-shirted fanatic who is now menacing the peace of the world, Secretary of State Hull informed the German Embassy that he "earnestly deprecated" the remarks by New York's Mayor, which "did not represent the attitude of this Government towards the German Government." In Germany the press, savagely attacked La Guardia as an "impudent Tailor Jew." As a matter of fact, the Mayor is only partly Jewish and attends the Episcopal Church.

BIG SEAS HIT LINER

"DUST STORM KING"

Mrs. A. C. Guffy, Weatherford, Okla., formerly of Beaver, was through Perryton Wednesday afternoon, enroute to Beaver for a few days visit. Mrs. Guffy dropped into the Herald office and left a few copies of the song, "Dust Storm King", words and music by Mrs. Guffy.

It was while she was living in Beaver last spring while the dust storms were raging that the idea of grim-visaged, bearded "dust king" took possession of Mrs. Guffy's thoughts, as she sat in her study, looking out from a second story window upon the hazy landscape. Perhaps she had just dusted the window sills of the sun room for the "steenth" time that day when the vision of a maiden in distress came to her mind. In what form could Prince Charming come to her rescue? The song relates the tale of a maiden in distress, enslaved by the "Dust Storm King", and Prince Charming arrives in the form of RAIN, to provide a happy finale for the story. Copies of this song can be had at the Stewart Printing Co. for fifty cents each.

Mrs. Carroll Dodd was hostess for the Entre Nous bridge club at the Hotel Perryton Wednesday afternoon. The St. Patrick motif was suggested in the appointments, table center piece and in the delicious refreshments.

High School Operetta Tuesday, March 16th

"ROSE OF THE DANUBE" WILL BE PRESENTED TO PUBLIC IN HIGH SCHOOL AU- DITORIUM SOON

The characters in the operetta, "Rose of the Danube," have been practicing quite frequently. The cast has been selected and is as follows:

Darrell Davis, a camera man from Hollywood, Lee Kent, Galsoski, prime minister of Eurlandia, Harold Hudson; Beiladonna, a lady-in-waiting, Vivian Rogers; Montmercy, King of Eurlandia, Clyde Jones; Queen Florina, his wife, Rosemary Boston; Rose, his elder daughter, June Phelps; Daisy, his younger daughter, Neida Rose Wright; Prince Karl, his son, Leland Horne; Count Sergius von Popova, a conspirator, Ray McWilliams; Demetrius Doodledorf, his right hand man, Harvey Wilson; Trombonius Tootle-top, his left-hand man, Bob Whipp; Percival McPipp, a moving picture director, Jack Williams; Mrs. Priscilla McPipp, his wife, Virginia Hoghland; and Pamela McPipp, his daughter, Elaine Shockley.

The plot of the operetta deals with an imaginary country somewhere in Europe on the beautiful blue Danube River. The royal family is financially embarrassed and are threatened with foreclosure from the terrible Count von Popova. Come see the operetta, March 16, and learn more about this half-raising, breath-taking plot as it unravels like a huge serpent uncoils. It will be given in the High School auditorium at 7:45 p. m. Tuesday, March 16.

Beautiful new scenery and special lighting effects will be used to help make the operetta a success. A committee, as follows, has been selected to make preparations for the stage: Don Shockley, Loren Allen, Lloyd Drake, Chester George, and Troy Bolerjack. They have arranged for a special rose garden scene which will be magnificent with the special lights that Mr. Bush is working out.

Just imagine a smooth combination of the following and you will have an idea of what "Rose of the Danube" will be like: a grand plot, a beautiful stage setting, excellent characters and voices, and a chorus that can raise the roof. Mix all of these together and you will have an evening's entertainment that you will remember through the ages.

CHAPEL PROGRAMS

The program on Thursday, March 4, was given by the Junior Band, planned by Mr. Byron. Several special numbers were played by Dannie and Donnie Ellis, Dale Rogers, Joseph LaMaster, Gene Lawrence, and Dale Erdman.

The band played a variety of numbers during the chapel period and at the end of their program a few skits of the Junior Hi Dramatics play were given by the cast.

TEN MINUTE CHAPEL

The house was called to order by President Harold Hudson. The program was a three act play by the dramatic club prepared by Miss Allen. It was entitled, "That Terrible Letter". The characters were Margaret Neilson played by Margaret Farnsworth, Elizabeth Norton by Ceco Payne, Helen Montgomery by Jeanne Pinkerton, Edith Browning by Virginia Hoghland, and the main part played by Alice Bryan. Between the second and third acts Elaine Shockley sang two numbers, accompanied by Jackie Enfield. Herbert Shindler played two trumpet solos.

Nelda Rose Wright was a Sunday dinner guest of Avis Lee Wooten. Rosemary Boston was a Sunday dinner guest of Bell Marie Wright.

TAKING SCHOOL CENSUS

The annual scholastic census is now being taken in Perryton Independent School District. It is the wish of officials that every child be counted because each one counted adds that much to the funds that are apportioned to each school.

If you have knowledge of a child who will become 6 years of age by or on September 1, 1937, please call the school office or send word in order that the child may be counted on next year's school census.

VICTORY AND HONOR

W. B. Irvin

Our basketball teams (both boys and girls) have brought not only victory but honor to our school this season. Victory without honor is empty and provides nothing but remorse and regrets. The conduct of our teams while they were away was the main source of our reputation and honor. The conduct includes all the actions of the teams on and off of the playing court. Our boys and girls of the Ranger and Rammerette teams and their coaches are to be congratulated for their part in a successful and satisfactory season.

The teams have lost money for the activity fund this year but a different arrangement may be worked out for next year whereby we may have conference games at home. This should add some local interest that we have not had under the district tournament plan.

Victory and honor came not so much by defeating our opponent but rather through courteous treatment and fair dealing both before, during, and after the contest.

JUNIOR RED CROSS CLUB

Club came to order by calling the roll. The minutes of the last meeting were read, and Miss Beasley read some more of our story book, "The Mystery of the Broken Lock."

Refreshments were served by Betty Joe Perry and Avanel Hill.

PEP SQUAD NEWS

The Pep squad had a meeting last Monday, March 8, to discuss plans for having group pictures made and the party that is to be given for the Rangers of '36. The pictures were taken last Tuesday afternoon after school.

HIGHWAY FUNDS INTACT

ON OF STATE HIGHWAY FUNDS WILL ENDANGER PROGRAM FOR CONNECTED ROAD SYSTEM

San Antonio, Texas, March 9.—The Highway Department is in a predicament. Rules and regulations from the Federal Bureau of Public Roads, governing the first projects under the state-federal program aimed at improvement of lateral roads, serve as feeders to the primary highway system, according to E. Simons, associate editor of the Highway News, official organ of the National Good Roads Association. An article, which is entitled "Federal Projects to Improve Lateral Roads," appears in the March issue of the magazine, just published.

Under the terms of the last Highway bill, the national government has granted Texas $1,591,000 for the improvement of lateral roads during each of the next two years on roads that are on the state highway system. Mr. Simons, "To take advantage of this extraordinary appropriation, however, Texas must expend a similar amount, making a total that will be expended, $3,182,000. The Highway Department finances are undisturbed, of $6,366,088 that are used in improvement of the road system.

In addition to the amount specifically allocated to lateral road betterment, the counties may also expend $2,724,825 appropriated to them by the federal government for the elimination of dangerous grade crossings. "Mr. Simons believes that a diversion of the lateral road program is especially appropriate at this time because of the fact that many bills pending in the legislature, which might jeopardize the highway feeder road program and in some cases prevent Texas from taking advantage of the regular federal appropriation of $7,957,610 that has been allocated during each year of the two years.

The disastrous effects of tampering with the highway financial set-off, shown by the conditions existing in Minnesota, Tennessee and other states that have misguidedly upset their road programs.

Continuing legislation now pending in Texas, if passed, would work irreparable hardship on the Texas motorist. One example of this is legislation seen in House Bill 363 which would divert $4,180,000 annually from the highway fund to a county lateral road fund.

Officially certified figures show that this diversion would make it impossible for Texas to carry on its maintenance operations, finance the Highway Patrol, meet overhead expenses and match regular and emergency federal aid. The calculation discloses that by March 16, 1939 this bill were passed, the highway fund would be in the red $3,050,000, while by the same date in 1939 the fund would be behind $6,890,000.

Failure to match federal aid would mean that every dollar Texas was not able to match would go to some more progressive state."

For Farm Tenant Bill

Senator Connally Urges Committees To Take Immediate Action on Farm Tenant Problem

Washington, D. C.—Senator Tom Connally urged the adoption of a farm tenant home purchase plan in a personal appearance before the House Committee on Agriculture last week, while hearings were being held on the farm tenant problem.

The necessity of a low interest rate, sufficient funds to give the farm purchase plan a real test, the requirement of soil rebuilding principles as set out by the State and Federal conservation program, and the need of a local committee in every county to pass upon the applicant's qualifications were the points stressed by Senator Connally before the House Committee.

The Senator said: "The interest rate to be charged on these farm purchases should be very small. I provide for an interest rate of two percent in my bill. We subsidize now a great many projects and enterprises and I think the question of getting the man on the farm to own his own farm is of such high importance, not only for the economic aspect of the situation but from the government aspect of the matter, that it would be worth the investment of the Government to see that the interest rate is at a minimum."

Senator Connally added that he thought there should be a local committee in every county to pass upon the applicants, composed of both farmers and business men. That the bill ought to provide that preference shall be given to men who are already farming, men who are thrifty farmers, men who have shown some ability in making a living for themselves on the farm.

Senator Connally is the author of a farm tenant bill now pending in the Senate Agricultural Committee.

Money In Sheep, Goats

Panhandle Farmers Show Good Profit from Small Herds of Sheep and Angora Goats

Sheep and goats have been found to represent excellent sources of cash income as well as eradicating undesirable growth on many North-west Texas farms, reports from county agricultural agents indicate.

In Wilbarger county, John Carmichael of the Odell community, started in March of 1932 with 22 sheep, and constant improvement through the use of good rams has resulted in a marked difference in quality of the 75 ewes now kept on the Carmichael farm. The improvement in quality has resulted in an average wool production of 14 one-half pounds of wool per ewe, with some individuals producing as much as 20 pounds in the past year.

The gross income during 1936 from Carmichael's flock was $255.44 from the sale of mutton and $300.00 from wool.

Another Wilbarger county farmer, J. M. Collins of the Jackson Springs community, purchased 20 head of sheep in 1931, and the income from the flock which grew from the original purchase was $793 in 1936. A culling and breeding program has done much to improve the quality of the 120 head of ewes that Collins now maintains, and coddleburrs and other weeds have virtually been eradicated from the pasture.

A Gaines county farmer, C. H. Wescott, bought 8 nannies to put in a section of shinnery; in April of the past year 208 goats sheared 1,044 pounds and in September 280 goats sheared an additional 1,260 pounds; the mohair sold for $1.13.75; the goats are gradually killing back the shinnery and an increase of good grasses is to be noted.

The Waka Parent Teacher Association met Friday evening, March 5. The topic for the evening's program was "Home" Rev. W. C. Hinds of Perryton gave a very interesting talk on "The Relationship Between Home and School."

Other numbers on the program were "When Irish Eyes are Smiling"—School children; "Home"—Miss Ruth Hitchcock; piano solo—Roberta Burger; "Beautiful Dreamer"—mixed quartet; piano solo—Nida Lee Parker; Debate, "Resolved that the Home is a Greater Institution than the School"—Doris Cox, David Burger, affirmative, and George Hohman, Bonnie Elledge, negative. The leader of the program was N. O. Powell.

Mrs. Ray Burger, Mrs. Wm. Jennrich and Mrs. G. A. Burger were appointed delegates to district conference in Perryton, April 1-2.

After the program, refreshments and a social hour were enjoyed by all present.

BUSY BEE CLUB

Lillian Williams, Reporter

"A hotbed is a shallow layer of earth enclosed in a low glass-covered frame. Hotbeds may be used for starting plants that require a long growing season before time for harvesting," said Mrs. Jim Dodson in the home of Miss Waldeen Dodson, Saturday morning, March 6.

"After frost and ice have killed most vegetables in the outside garden, the hotbed may be planted and such vegetables as onions, lettuce, radishes and spinach may be grown successfully," further stated Mrs. Dodson.

After a club budget and how to make a hotbed were discussed, club adjourned. Those present were Marie and Josephine Carlson, Roberta Furnish, Waldeen and Beryl Dodson, and Mrs. Jim Dodson, sponsor. Visitors were Mrs. Fincher, Mrs. Jack Dodson, Jack and Jim Bill Dodson.

Praying for His Disciples
John 16:1-17:26
Jesus Explains the Future
There was much in the future to explain to the disciples. So our Lord explained some coming events to prepare his followers for the test. We hear him first of the tragedy of zealous error. The world has never witnessed crimes more heinous than those performed in the name of religion! Even those who killed God's people have said they did God's service. This never disqualifies our feelings for them as infallible guides in the right. Our feelings grow out of the fact that we have been taught to believe we have faith in something wrong, we will practice it with a smitten conscience. The driver may feel that it is to endanger the lives of others on the highway, but that does not make it right. A drunken victim who he owns the world, when he is a pauper and his wife is starving. The man lost in the snow is freezing to death in the fact that he feels warm. A misguided conscience is dangerous. We had better check our consciences with the word of God lest he lead us to the marshes. Paul and his Jewish brethren had a zeal, but not according to knowledge. (Rom. 10:2). Even Paul himself had been a persecutor in days past, yet thinking he was doing the will of God (Acts 13:1; Gal. 1:13).

He foretold the coming of the Holy Spirit. His work would be to guide the world to be saved. His final message was to sinners, to the ungodly, and to the ungodly. The Holy Spirit was to be the power of heaven's messengers to earth. New revelations would be given to the church. The perfect law of liberty was to be given (Jas. 1:25). Hence "any other gospel" (Gal. 1:8,9) would be a sign to the New Testament.

II. The Lord's Prayer
After Jesus had concluded his message to his disciples, he lifted up his eyes to heaven and prayed. In this petition Jesus asked the Father to glorify him. But his prayer soon turned to the interests of his disciples. How he prayed for them! How he looked forward to their problems and besought the Father to strengthen and help them. He asked that they might be sanctified through the truth (17:17). They were to be dedicated to the service of Christ—their lives were to be spent in advancing the kingdom. Sanctification means to set apart or dedicated to a purpose. Even Jesus sanctified himself (17:19). We are to sanctify the Lord God in our hearts. He is to be "our" God. He is dedicated himself to our protection and preservation, if we will love him and do his will. One of the very touching parts of the Lord's prayer is that petition for the unity of his people. He says "that they all may be one, as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us, that the world may believe that thou hast sent me." (Jno. 17:23). When we look at Christendom today and see it divided into hundreds of sects and sects, each with its own name, creed, and practice, we are made to think again of the Father's prayer, and to hope that the day division will cease and all men and women will be content to be Christians only. Perhaps when he has swept the crumbling foundations of men away into the bottomless deep, the world will behold the Rock of Ages defying the ravages of years and offering to the living souls of humanity the only harbor of hope. This prayer of the Father ought to be treasured deep in the heart of every man and woman. It should weave itself into every life, making a fabric and a garment to adorn a king.

Martin Johnson's Camera Snaps Wife In Housekeeping Mood on Last Safari

Martin Johnson's life that ended so tragically as the result of an airplane crash on a lonely snow-covered mountainside near Los Angeles on Jan. 12, though full of adventure was an extremely happy one because of the enjoyment he and his wife derived from their experiences while making motion pictures of wild life in the tropics. One of Mrs. Johnson's functions on these trips was to make life home-like and comfortable no matter how far away from civilization their camp might be. The above photograph, taken by Mr. Johnson toward the end of the expedition in Borneo, where they spent most of last year in the jungles, shows Mrs. Johnson in a characteristic scene. The Johnsons lived on a bamboo raft that was moved up and down the Kinabatangan River, where the climate is said to be the hottest in the world. Strange as it may seem, modern refrigeration played a big role in the Borneo expedition. Two Servel Electrolux refrigerators (operated with kerosene) were part of the scientific equipment of the expedition. One of these was installed on the back veranda of the raft. Without the refrigerators, the Johnsons could not have withstood the heat of the jungles, they stated upon their return from Borneo. Mrs. Johnson is telling the little jungle maiden what they do with fruit and vegetables in America and how good the big pineapple will be when it gets cold. The small native boy is laughing at Mr. Johnson's antics in manipulating his motion picture camera.

NATIONS COMING TO TEXAS FAIR

MANY NATIONS ACCEPT INVITATION TO EXPOSITION OPENING IN DALLAS ON JUNE 12

Dallas, Texas, March 10.—Central American republics, closest neighbors to Texas, already have accepted almost unanimously invitations to take part in the Greater Texas and Pan American Exposition, opening at Dallas June 12.

Director General Frank L. McNeny received reports at the Exposition offices in Dallas this week from two flying emissaries as they completed their swing through Mexico and the six Central American Republics, without a refusal at any point.

Mexico's formal acceptance is expected momentarily from President Cardenas, who was out of the capital at time of the visit of Dr. Roscoe R. Hill of Washington and Charles H. Abbott of the Exposition staff. His cabinet members already have signified acceptance.

Guatemala and Nicaragua have accepted. Unofficially, participation in the Exposition has been planned by Honduras, and it is anticipated, by El Salvador, Costa Rica and Panama. This makes the record perfect up to the envoys' entry into the South American continent with first calls at the capitals of Ecuador, then Peru and Chile. Crossing to the Atlantic seaboard, they will return through Argentina, Uruguay, Brazil, Venezuela and Colombia, then across to Cuba to complete their trip about mid-April.

The participation already planned gives strong Latin American flavor to America's only international fair of 1937, which will run a 20 weeks season through October.

The $25,000,000 exposition park already is redesigned to conform to distinctive architecture of the American civilization that flourished before colonization from Europe.

Highlighting the entertainment that will make the Exposition at Dallas America's fun center through the summer, George Marshall, internationally recognized sportsman, is arranging olympic games for competition of teams of the North and South American continents, with featured schedules for games in which the neighbor nations are outstanding. Jai-alai, for example, the game of the Spanish and the Latin American countries, will be staged on a court to be built especially for this fast and furious racquet contest that makes handball look as mild as tiddlerewinks. An international polo tournament is expected to bring the high goal players of a score of countries.

The after-dark feature of Marshall's entertainment program for the fair will center in a huge theater casino, where a program that is designed to make all America talk will feature the stage, screen and opera performers of all communities from Hudson Bay to the Pampas.

Jack Wilbanks and Wayne Wallace have completed the arrangements of establishing a restaurant business at the rapidly growing oil town of Sunray. The local boys purchased a business house in Spearman and moved it to their lot in Sunray this week. Their equipment will arrive from Amarillo this week-end, and the boys will be ready to serve Spearman visitors by Sunday.—Spearman Reporter.

Frank Cunningham motored to Sayre, Oklahoma last week to take Mrs. Wash Boren and Mrs. Oliver Martin. Mrs. Martin has been visiting here with relatives.

O. H. Tallman Passes

Popular Employee of Bryan's Grocery Buried Sunday in the Blue Mound Cemetery

Oliver H. Tallman, age 45, popular clerk in the grocery department of the W. C. Bryan store, died Thursday, March 4, at his home in this city. Mr. Tallman had been ill for several weeks. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Pull Gospel Tabernacle with Ministers A. B. Stanberry, Robert Girard, Floyd M. Durham and Millard Brown, officiating.

Pall bearers were Truman Murray, Harry Evans, A. J. George, James Depew, Roy Enfield and Arthur Townsend. Flower girls were Eva Murray, Pauline Sharp, Mildred Fuller, Jackie Enfield, Ruth Stump, Marylee Wilson, and Rosemary Boston.

Music for the burial rites consisted of vocal selections by the George sisters, and a male quartet consisting of Floyd Durham, Stella, Mo.; Millard Brown, Lowell, Ark.; Everett Cori, Dallas; and Floyd LaMunton, Laverne, Okla.

The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Blue Mound with his buddies of the Pierce Johnson Post of the American Legion in charge of the ceremony.

Oliver Hatchler Tallman was born, Dec. 3, 1891 at Evergreen, Tenn., and at the time of his death was 45 years, 3 months and 1 day of age. He came to Beaver county, Oklahoma in 1913. He heeded the call of his country in the dark days of 1917 and enlisted in the U. S. Army on October 3, 1917, serving until he was honorably discharged at Camp Travis, Texas on February 2, 1919. Mr. Tallman was married to Miss Gertrude Opal Collier at Liberal, Kansas, March 12, 1918. One child, Helen Gertrude was born to this union. Close surviving relatives, in addition to the widow and daughter, are two brothers, Ray and Newton, both of California; the step-mother, Mrs. Mary Tallman; two half-sisters, Dora and Emma; and a half-brother Oscar, all residing at Smithfield, Texas.

Mr. Tallman lived in Beaver county until he came to Perryton about seven years ago, with the exception of two years in Colorado after he returned from the army. He and Mrs. Tallman operated the postoffice at Gray for four years, 1924-28, and they also ran a general mercantile store in that village for several years. During all of this time, he engaged in farming.

Oliver Tallman was a real man, a Christian, being converted 14 years ago and definitely established in the faith of Jesus Christ. He was a man with many friends as was shown by the wealth and beauty of the floral offerings and the hundreds that could not crowd into the church to do him honor at the final rites.

CARD OF THANKS

It is with a heart full of thankfulness that we voice these words of appreciation to those who were kind and loving during the illness and demise of our husband and father. We are indeed grateful for the many and beautiful floral offerings and we want to give special thanks to the American Legion, who by their deeds served to lighten our burden of sorrow.
