

Candidates Spur Campaigning As Primary Election Date Draws Near

Today is the last day for campaign managers and candidates to file their second expense account for the primary a week from Saturday.

This item of information, important to candidates, means little to the average voter who is near at hand. Voters expect to take advantage of the absentee ballot must do so promptly. Next Tuesday, July 18, is the last day for absentee voting.

On Saturday, July 22, Cochran county voters will go to the polls for the regular Democratic Primary election with the purpose of electing 17 state officers and county office holders.

The more important state offices, with one single exception, have a bevy of candidates. Seven candidates are running for Governor including the incumbent, Dan Shivers. Shivers, of course, is running on his own right this time after having taken over the duties upon the death of Sanford Jester a year ago.

An even dozen candidates have filed for candidacy as Lieutenant Governor and 18 men seek four Justice benches on the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals.

County offices aren't as heavily contested as they were two summers ago. Four candidates are running for the office of Sheriff-Treasurer-Collector of Taxes including the incumbent.

The race for the office of County Judge was thrown wide open when incumbent Glenn Thompson decided not to seek another term. Two of the important offices, County Treasurer and County Attorney have only the incumbent office holder as a candidate.

School Superintendent Urges Transfers

County School Superintendent, Glenn W. Thompson, urges all students contemplating a school transfer to do so immediately.

Applications for transfer must be filed with the county superintendent before August 1.

Wagoner Carr Visits Morton During Campaign

Wagoner Carr, who has represented the people of Crosby, Lubbock, Hockley and Cochran counties in the State Courts as prosecuting attorney was in Morton this week in the interest of his campaign for State Representative.

Carr, 31, has led vigorous prosecution against the post-war crime wave in this district. When he was elected County Attorney of Lubbock County in 1948, plans had already been made for open warfare between rival criminal gangs. His relentless prosecution of members of these gangs prevented these plans from being carried out, thus resulting in a saving of lives and thousands of dollars to the people of the area.

In his campaign for State Representative, Wagoner Carr has emphasized the importance of the legislature to this 119th District.

"The 52nd session of the Texas legislature will be one of tremendous importance," Carr said. "The matter of redistricting the state will be one of concern to the people of Texas and should be done judiciously for both rural and urban areas."

Carr strongly supports local control of our underground water and elimination of government waste and duplication, better more farm to market roads, veterans land program, soil conservation and conservation of natural resources, and submission for a vote of the people on the question of removal of constitutional limitation on state payments.

It cannot be overemphasized to the people of this area must work TOGETHER in solving their problems. Every person must be, and will be, fairly represented regardless of where he lives," Carr stated.

Carr has been a long time resident of this district and is a graduate of Texas Tech.

VISITS IN SPUR

Mrs. C. M. Cravy and Max, Dan and Ray were visitors in the home of their parents at Spur, Texas.

Hot contests are expected in the Commissioner races. Fifteen men seek these four offices with five of them having filed their candidacy in the first precinct. Two of the four constable offices are contested.

One of the outstanding features of this election is the candidacy of many young County residents. Young veterans have their candidacy in no less than 7 offices.

A complete sample ballot may be found in next week's Morton Tribune for your convenience.

RMA and C of C Move to New Office Space

Morton Retail Merchants Association and Chamber of Commerce office were moved this week to the Morton J. Smith building on East side of square.

Considerable work has been done on the building before the two offices were established there.

Mrs. Smith, who makes occasional trips to Morton will continue to maintain office space in the building.

Gigantic Searchlight Floods Rose Theatre In Light As Formal Opening Honors New Movie Wednesday

Several hundred theatre patrons and guests from all over the South Plains were expected to attend the Grand Opening of the new Rose Theatre last night as the Morton Tribune went to press.

The Tribune press deadline of Wednesday afternoon prevented staff reporters from covering the opening for today's paper but elaborate plans were to be carried out for the formal celebration.

Last night's gala scene was illuminated by a giant search light, similar to those used by the Air Force during the last war. People had already started milling around the theatre an hour before opening time.

The theatre itself, is an architectural triumph for Harvey Allen of Lamesa, its designer. The Marquee of the Rose dominates two streets and makes use of curved lines in its design. Above the Marquee are cut-out letters spelling out the name ROSE. Those letters are faced with neon tubing.

Morton Group Visits Girls Training School

At noon they were luncheon guests of the school. The afternoon was spent on a trip to the school dairy and truck gardens; climaxed with coffee at the home of the superintendent at five o'clock.

Business Building Boom Hits City

A midsummer Morton construction boom which has seen a brand new theatre and a modern drug store completed within the past week, is rapidly reaching full scale proportions according to the owners of the various projects.

Construction on both businesses and residences increase in intensity every day with Billy J. Adair and Company claiming the lion's share of the contracting for construction.

Nearest to completion since the opening of the drug store and theatre, is the new Morton Electrical and Supply building located on the Plains highway next to the Dorthea Weekes Beauty Salon. Fred and Wilma Morrison, proprietors of the Electrical Supply, expect to occupy the new building by August 1.

On the other side of the Weekes building, the Bowman Cleaner's building is beginning to take shape. Also under construction by Adair, the foundation of that building is completed but no estimate has been set for the date of occupancy.

One of the largest structures not yet complete is the Cobb's Department Store building on the West Side of the square. Jack Rice, local manager has moved to the East side of the square until the new building is completed sometime in September. It will be one third larger than the old building when finished.

Residences Also Near Completion

Allsup Chevrolet will be located next to the Hawkins Oldsmobile building when a proposed new structure is completed. No work has begun on the actual building but measurements have been laid out and some supplies have arrived on the scene.

Other business buildings getting underway as soon as the old ones are demolished will be on Washington street across from the square. L. A. Cochran has torn down his Texaco Service and will erect a modern service station in its place. The former home of The Boys Service station, diagonally southwest from the Court House will be the scene of new building.

On the residential picture things are just as busy. The Babe Vanlandingham home is almost completed and should be ready for occupancy within a month. Homer Thompson's new residence is the next nearest to completion located on the hospital road.

The foundation has been laid for the Lloyd Evans' home and Ray Baker is at work every day on his new house. Others under construction and contemplation will belong to Bob Dunham, Paul Goodman, Tom Arnn Jr., and John L. McGee.

Jones Takes 1st In Main Event At Littlefield

Morton's Butler Brother's Car No. 3, once again piloted by Keith Jones, swept to a victory in the 25 lap main event at Lubbock last Sunday as Lewis Doyle and Bill Purifoy also of Morton competed.

Doyle took a first place in the time trials with a time of 23.1 seconds while Jones copped 4th at 23.7. Keith also copped 3rd place in the fast heat race.

In the trophy dash, Lewis Doyle competed against the three other fastest cars but a faulty fuel pump forced him out. He took 3rd in the consolation race, and broke a hub in the main event.

Purifoy's mount, Car No. 2 also of Butler Brother, hit a bunker in the main event and lost 3rd place as a result. He took 4th in the fast heat race.

In the July 4th racing at Littlefield, Purifoy captured second place in the slow heat race and took 3rd in the main event. Keith Jones drowned out in a mud hole in one race, ruining a tire and wheel in the final event. He was also forced off the track twice in the torrid competition.

Jones, however, took a second in the time trials with 26 seconds and a 3rd in the trophy dash.

Rains Forestall City Cleanup Plans; Wet Trash Piles Await Removal

Postponed by inclement weather, the annual Morton cleanup drive co-sponsored by the Morton Lions and the Chamber of Commerce awaits further action.

Heavy rains which continued almost all night Wednesday, July 5, and halfway through Thursday morning made pickup of the trash almost impossible. Naturally the postponement necessitated a means of getting the entire group together again for a second try.

Morton business establishments instead of closing for the morning, went about their regular business after receiving word that the drive had been postponed temporarily.

Another snag in the plans developed when the Morton Lions disbanded for the summer on Wednesday fully expecting that the cleanup drive would be taken care of. Chairman Neal Rose carried his problem to the Chamber of Commerce at a meeting last Tuesday and they decided to contact the mayor and see if collection of the trash could be handled by the city.

As Mr. Rose pointed out, if the citizens completed their cleanup before last Thursday as was anticipated, then the only major problem left is the collecting of the trash. He will contact city officials as soon as possible to see if designation of another cleanup day will be necessary.

The weather during the entire last week has been extremely damp thus hampering any cleanup plans. Waste paper around the town is now scattered with mud and trash piles are soaked from heavy rains. Weeds seem to have been taken care of for the time being but it was pointed out that the rainfall will stimulate the growth of weeds. It is urgently requested that lot owners see that the weeds on their premises don't get too high.

Chairman Rose and city officials joined in thanking everyone for their cooperation and urge all to standby for a further announcement concerning cleanup plans.

Walter L. Taylor Home Is Scene of Daughter's Marriage Last Friday

The Walter L. Taylor home was the scene for a single ring wedding ceremony when Miss Dorothy Nell Taylor became the bride of Winston O. Jorden, Friday, July 7. Roses and Gladioluses were used in decorations.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, is a 1950 graduate of Morton High School. Her wedding dress was fashioned of pink organdie; her bridal corsage was an arrangement of white carnations.

Miss Jimmie Taylor attended her sister as maid of honor, she wore pastel green organdie and a corsage of pink. Eugene Bragg, friend of the bride-groom and student at Wayland College, Plainview, served as best man.

Wedding music was furnished by Miss Martha Willis, pianist, who played "Because" and "I Love You Truly" during the ceremony; she accompanied Miss Lura Taylor, sister of the bride, who sang, "Always."

The service was read by Rev. Mark H. Daniel, brother-in-law of the bride, and pastor of the First Baptist Church at Gilliland, Texas. Mr. Taylor gave his daughter in marriage.

Following the wedding a reception was held for the bridal party and guests. The tiered bridal cake was served with punch by Mrs. Daniels and Miss Pat Taylor.

When the couple left on a bridal trip to New Mexico she was wearing a lime linen two piece suit with white accessories.

Mr. Jorden, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jorden, is a graduate of Morton High School and served in the armed forces during World War II. He was stationed in the Pacific Theatre of War for 12 months. He is engaged in farming.

Guests other than the bridal party included the groom's parents; Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Jorden, Shirley and Freddie Jorden, Lubbock and L. T. White of Plainview.

Stored Up Rains Continue to Fall Over Entire Area

Rains continued to haunt Morton and Cochran County with as much as 10 to 12 inches of rain in some areas during the past two weeks after almost six months of dry weather.

Farmers in the area who were praying for water two weeks ago so they could plant and replant their crops, now find themselves crying uncle. Some of them have planted two and three times since the first rainfall a little more than two weeks ago only to have the rains wash away their progress.

Rain has fallen in the Morton city limits on five of the last eight days with a .53 inch rain Wednesday night, July 5, and a continued 2.09 inches on Thursday morning as the heaviest. In addition .06 fell here Sunday night and .23 on Monday. A steady Wednesday morning rain was not recorded by the time the Tribune went to press.

Stockdale Announces Candidacy For Cochran County Judge Office

TO THE PEOPLE OF COCHRAN COUNTY:

The first week in January of this year I announced publicly that I would be a candidate for the office of County Judge, and would make a statement concerning my candidacy at a later date.

I have enjoyed the pleasure of representing many of you in legal matters as your attorney; and therefore, I feel that no statement or commitment is necessary so far as you are concerned since you are familiar with my policies and qualifications. However, for the benefit of those who do not know me personally I wish to reaffirm my long standing belief in the principles of Jeffersonian democracy and local self government. That all laws should be construed and enforced to meet local conditions, within the limits of judicial interpretation, and for the betterment and welfare of all citizens of the county. I believe that a public office is a public trust, and that he who is chosen by the voters should lawfully administer the affairs of such office in a manner becoming a loyal servant of all the people.

Many of you know that due to a serious illness during the early part of the year 1948, it was necessary for me to be absent from my office for a period of several weeks. However, thanks to modern skilled surgery, I have been able to recover steadily since that time to better serve my clients in the general practice of law.

As to my qualifications, training and experience I have been actively engaged as a practicing attorney for the past eighteen years. I formerly served as County Attorney of Stonewall County, and as District Attorney of the 39th Judicial District composed of Throckmorton, Haskell, Stonewall and Kent Counties. While serving as District Attorney I received the honor of being appointed a member of the legislative committee of the County and District Attorneys Section of the State Bar of Texas.

The office of County Judge is one of the most important offices to which any candidate may aspire, and should not be considered lightly. For instance, the County Court has jurisdiction of all civil cases where the amount in controversy does not exceed one thousand dollars. Also, it has jurisdiction of misdemeanor criminal cases providing a penalty of imprisonment in the county jail in addition to fines. Among such criminal cases are those concerning the offense of driving on a public highway while intoxicated, which cases are often contested by the defendant because, upon conviction, the defendant's driver's license is automatically suspended for six months. In order to properly conduct the trial of these cases, as well as all others, your County Judge should be well informed as to the rules of civil and criminal evidence, and trial practice. He is Judge of the Probate Court and must pass on all matters governing the rights and estates of minor children, and of deceased persons. He is Judge of the Juvenile Court and has the responsibility and jurisdiction over all juvenile delinquent children of the county, and to render such judgments as may help them to become good citizens and at the same time to protect the rights of all other people in their persons and property. This division of the court has become more and more important during the past few years, and if elected, I propose to keep in close contact with the State Schools where boys and girls from Cochran County are in training and to follow their progress closely. Your County Judge is also Ex Officio Superintendent of Public Schools. As such, he is responsible for the administration of all matters relating to our public schools, which are now governed by the provisions of the new Gilmer-Aikin law. This should be done in such a manner that all school districts of the county be assured of the full benefits of the new law fairly and impartially.

Your County Judge presides at all sessions of the Commissioners' Court in the handling of all county business, and serves as the representative of the county in dealing with the various State Departments at Austin. The assessed valuation of Cochran County has increased steadily during the past few years to the sum of $27,000,000.00 for 1950. The taxes collected from this valuation should be used for the benefit of all the people fairly, impartially, and in a business-like manner to the end that all the taxpayers may receive a dollar's worth of value for each dollar spent. A strict accounting of all business transacted should be given as provided by law in order that the people may know the condition of all county affairs and finances. Cochran County by reason of its present tax valuation, has an excellent opportunity to go forward and improve constructively for the use and benefit of all its citizens. This can be done with no extra cost to the taxpayers merely by the exercise of sound business judgment and management of public affairs. The assessed valuation of Cochran County for this year, as above mentioned, far exceeds the valuation of most counties with populations much greater than ours.

If elected your County Judge I shall devote all my efforts and ability to the discharge of the many responsibilities of the office, and in such manner as to merit the confidence of all the people. I shall at all times do my very best to preside fairly and impartially at all sessions of the Commissioners' Court, and at the trial of all cases in your County Court. I shall give my full cooperation to all other elected officials and officers in order to help build a better Cochran County. To these ideals I shall dedicate my services, and will always welcome the suggestions and counsel of all citizens. Upon these principles I humbly submit my candidacy for the office of County Judge. I wish to express my appreciation to the many friends from all parts of the county for their encouragement and active support in this campaign. It is my hope to see everyone personally before the election, but in the event I am not able to see all I sincerely trust you will consider this as a personal solicitation of your vote and support. Respectfully submitted, Fred Stockdale.

MRS. J. W. ALFORD is attending summer school at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas.

Pierce Brooks Seeks Post of Lt. Governor

Pierce Brooks, Dallas business man, has opened his campaign for Lieutenant Governor with a declaration that he is opposed to any new taxes until the State's financial affairs are put on a sound and sensible business basis and waste and extravagance are eliminated from the operations of the State government.

Brooks declared in his opening campaign address that the State is facing the worst financial crisis in its history.

"It is over-spending its prospective income at the rate of $6 million per month," he said, "and reports from Austin say that in addition to the $500 million the State is spending this year an additional $150 million in new tax money will be needed next year."

The Dallas business man candidate pointed out that the cost of the State Government has increased more than 500 per cent since 1935, while the cost of the Federal government, aside from the cost of World War II did not increase that much.

"I believe," Brooks said, "that through the elimination of waste and extravagance, by spending the tax dollar more wisely and by getting a full dollar's value for every dollar spent, the $500 million the State is spending this year can buy all needed supplies and equipment, pay adequate salaries to all essential employees, take care of the old folks, and provide all essential services without any new taxes."

Brooks said the big problem facing the State is not political but a business problem and he said it must be attacked from a business viewpoint.

"If it were a political problem," Brooks declared, "then seven of my opponents in this campaign for Lieutenant Governor should have been able to do something about it. They were members of either the House or Senate during the period when the cost of State government increased more than 500 per cent and they didn't or couldn't do anything about it. They stood idly by and allowed the cost of government to double, treble and then reach runaway proportions. What can the people expect them to do about eliminating waste and extravagance and about getting a full dollar's value for every dollar spent?"

Brooks said that only by the election of a business man to the Lieutenant Governorship can the people of Texas be assured of a direct and vigorous attack on the runaway cost of government, "and that man," Brooks continued, "must be completely free from entangling alliances, political obligations, cliques, clans and groups which grow up when men stay in office too long."

Turning to old age pensions Brooks said:

"I want to find out why the State is short-changing the old folks, cutting old age pension checks while thousands of state owned automobiles are burning up half a million dollars worth of gasoline, oil and tires on vacation trips hunting and fishing trips, and shopping tours."

Brooks said he has no doubts as to the outcome of his campaign. "I am a business man," he said, "and not a professional office holder. I am the only major candidate who, as Lieutenant Governor, will be absolutely free and unhampered by previous associations, commitments, agreements and alliances to tackle the acute business problems now facing the State."

Brooks has served as president of the Texas Safety Council since it was organized in 1933. He is now serving his second term as chairman of the Board of Stewards of the Tyler Street Methodist church of Oak Cliff. He has devoted much time to civic affairs. He once went 12 years without missing Sunday School. Under his lay leadership the Tyler Street Methodist church has just completed an extensive building program.

Pierce Brooks is married and has one son.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

There it Was—Right in The Middle!

Easy Roberts mowed his lawn early last Saturday. Then he sat on the porch, and watched Handy Peterson cutting his grass.

The Roberts' property and the Peterson's border each other—with no hedge or fence between them. So, when Easy notices Handy had left about a four-foot strip unmowed along the boundary, he walks over and asks why.

"That's your land," says Handy. "Mine ends here. See, it lines up with that oak tree across the road!" Easy didn't think so, so they went up and down looking for the surveyor's marker. Where did they find it? Right in the middle of their "no man's land!"

Well, they both grin and take turns finishing the job and then retreat to Easy's for a friendly glass of beer together. From where I sit, a little searching around for the truth of the matter often shows that the other fellow is as much right as you are—at which point the whole thing doesn't seem as important anyway.

FOR STATE
SUPREME COURT
PLACE NUMBER ONE

To the People of Cochran County

Raymond, Strickland, a graduate of Morton High School, has attended Texas Tech, North Texas Agricultural College, and Louisiana Polytechnic Institute.

He served three years in the Navy during World War II and was graduated as an Ensign from the University of Notre Dame in 1945. He was released from active duty in August 1946 and returned to Morton where he has since been associated with Strickland Cleaners.

In announcing his candidacy, Raymond Strickland made the following statement:

"During the time preceding election day, July 22nd, I will attempt to see every voter in Cochran County. However, I will probably miss a few of you.

"I feel that I am qualified for this Office and if elected, will serve the people of Cochran County to the best of my ability. Your vote and influence will be sincerely appreciated."

To the Voters of Cochran County

I have done my best to see all of you and will continue to see as many as possible before the election.

I have made no long promises to anyone, only promises I have made is to do right and stay on the job.

I have studied and still study law, therefore I know I am qualified for the place.

I have no law practice to take care of or no farms in or out of the County to take up my time.

Consider these things and if you see fit to support me July 22, I will conduct myself and the affairs of the office of County Judge in a way that will bring no regrets.

To The People of Precinct No. 4

I have served as your commissioner for several years and have tried to look after the affairs of the county and precinct 4 to the very best of my ability. I have devoted practically all of my time to this job and intend to do the same in the future if you see fit to re-elect me as your commissioner.

I have worked continuously for the farm-to-market road system we now have, and will put forth every effort to obtain all the miles of additional farm roads for Cochran County that are needed. I have tried to be as economical with the county business as is possible.

I will appreciate your vote and influence in the coming election and if elected, will give you my very best.

Thanking you,
C. G. Shaw.

To The Voters of Cochran County

I am respectfully asking that you give my candidacy for County Judge of Cochran County your careful consideration when you vote July 22nd.

I have lived in Cochran County a few months less than twenty years. During that time I taught school, farmed and served two terms as your County Judge.

I attended school at Southwestern University and at Baylor University. Before coming to Cochran County I was city superintendent of several county seat towns. I mention this because in Cochran County the office of county superintendent is combined with that of the county judge and actual school experience should be an asset.

Now, I assure you that I am acquainted with the duties of a county judge and would always have the interests of the people at heart. And, further, I believe that my training, ability, experience and past success would enable me to make you a safe, competent and efficient County Judge.

Sincerely,

Candidate for County Judge, Cochran County.

Amos Taylor Asks Vote

I would like to contact each friend and voter in Precinct 1 on behalf of my candidacy for Constable. But since that is almost impossible I take this means of soliciting your consideration.

--annegrams -- by ann england --

We'd settled back to solid comfort after writing some 15 or 20 "thank you" notes to various and sundry people and concerns who had been unusually nice to us during the recent TPA convention in Fort Worth—when along comes a bunch of stuff and we have to start all over again.

★ Mayor Edgar Deen of Fort Worth sent such a good letter with card enclosed making us an honorary citizen of Fort Worth, Swift and Company ditto letter and a 3 lb. tin of Swiftning.

★ Don't think we'd mentioned but at one of the breakfasts in Fort Worth there was a can of Ranch Type beans at each place compliments of Western Packing Company and each lady present received a pair of Nylon hose. First time we'd had beans and stockings for breakfast but there is always a first time for everything and we certainly appreciate both items.

★ Then too, we received our award pin from Farmer-Stockman; some one out in Famuliner Community recommended us for this "good neighbor" award and we are just as pleased as all get out. The spouse's is a lapel button.

★ Had coffee a few mornings ago with Mrs. H. S. Hawkins and her youngest, Grace Ann; who is a lovely young college girl. Grace Ann is keeping books this summer for her daddy and brother.

★ Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins have several children; we only know Scott, Ford, Lois Ruth and Grace Ann; and they're the nicest family—good looking too.

★ The interest taken in Goree by the garden clubs all over the state of Texas is bearing fruit. Our grounds are beautiful. It is understandable when I say the place is much more beautiful driving out to the highway from the building, but then driving in from the highway you may appreciate the interest and labor that has been put into the place to achieve such an eye-catcher.

★ Below is an excerpt from The Echo, state prison publication. Thought Garden Club members might be interested since they helped in the beautification project at Goree prison farm for women.

★ The interest taken in Goree by the garden clubs all over the state of Texas is bearing fruit. Our grounds are beautiful. It is understandable when I say the place is much more beautiful driving out to the highway from the building, but then driving in from the highway you may appreciate the interest and labor that has been put into the place to achieve such an eye-catcher.

★ Luther Buchanan, Tribune's youngest and best looking employee, brought a galley proof of last week's annegrams to us and said, "What does this paragraph mean, guess I'm dumb but it just doesn't make sense to me." Luther isn't dumb—often the col doesn't make sense.

★ But Robbin Rollen, a Lubbock friend, once said, "Ann sometimes I think you have a double meaning to some of the things you say in annegrams." We were flattered as that is just about twice as much as we can get out of it.

★ Friday while we, along with several others, were traipsing around over the 160 acre campus of School for Girls at Gainesville, Forrest Weimhold came over. Obviously we missed him.

★ The spouse has been ding-donging Forrest to go into state politics ever since we came over here. He'd say, "You're familiar with this area, the people and all their problems, you know what is needed and you also know the fellows you will be associated with in Austin and over the state so it is your duty to represent and act as spokesman for the folks isolated more or less way off out here on Texas Last Frontier."

★ So then Forrest announces and you'd never believe it but the spouse has continued to ding-dong—this time because he hasn't been over campaigning in Cochran County. Well we happen to know that Forrest has been getting better acquainted with folks in other sections of the 119th district so if he doesn't get out here personally before July 22 to shake your hand, flatter the ladies and kiss all your kids we'd appreciate it very much if when you go to the polls on Saturday, July 22 you vote for your friend and our friend, Forrest Weimhold.

★ One thing we would really like to see is every voter doing his duty as a citizen Saturday, July 22 by showing up at his polling place and casting his vote for the candidate of his choice.

★ Win, lose or draw we will all still be friends and we will all continue to work for best interest of Morton, Cochran County and 119th District.

★ MRS. FRED STOCKDALE is attending summer school at Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, New Mexico.

a five generation picture made and it begins to look now as if this time next year they will again be able to repeat the five generation picture as Dot and Creighton hope to be parents by then.

★ We are flattered all to pieces; Jewell Rushing, daughter of Mrs. Leah Rushing told her mother, "I want my hair fixed just like ann englands."

★ Mary Helen Keith certainly has come in for a lot of publicity since winning so many 4-H Club honors. Doug Hicks (brother of Artie) of a Houston Radio Station and United Gas told us in Fort Worth that he was coming to Lubbock soon to present Mary Helen with some sort of an award or certificate.

★ We enjoy seeing Doug and his wife around at the conventions. We are overly fond of Artie, who manages the hospital here. Think there are times when Artie feels that the procedure is reversed.

★ Occasionally the spouse remarks, "If I could afford it I'd build a wash house and drying room." Don't know who he thinks would use it. Personally we'd settle for another bath room.

★ Below is an excerpt from The Echo, state prison publication. Thought Garden Club members might be interested since they helped in the beautification project at Goree prison farm for women.

★ The interest taken in Goree by the garden clubs all over the state of Texas is bearing fruit. Our grounds are beautiful. It is understandable when I say the place is much more beautiful driving out to the highway from the building, but then driving in from the highway you may appreciate the interest and labor that has been put into the place to achieve such an eye-catcher.

★ The star, made up of vari-colored zinnias and bordered with bluebonnets, is the center of attraction, and rates special mention if your thinking apparatus is in order, you can look down on all this from our Chapel window and regard it with reverence.

★ Luther Buchanan, Tribune's youngest and best looking employee, brought a galley proof of last week's annegrams to us and said, "What does this paragraph mean, guess I'm dumb but it just doesn't make sense to me." Luther isn't dumb—often the col doesn't make sense.

★ But Robbin Rollen, a Lubbock friend, once said, "Ann sometimes I think you have a double meaning to some of the things you say in annegrams." We were flattered as that is just about twice as much as we can get out of it.

★ Friday while we, along with several others, were traipsing around over the 160 acre campus of School for Girls at Gainesville, Forrest Weimhold came over. Obviously we missed him.

★ The spouse has been ding-donging Forrest to go into state politics ever since we came over here. He'd say, "You're familiar with this area, the people and all their problems, you know what is needed and you also know the fellows you will be associated with in Austin and over the state so it is your duty to represent and act as spokesman for the folks isolated more or less way off out here on Texas Last Frontier."

★ So then Forrest announces and you'd never believe it but the spouse has continued to ding-dong—this time because he hasn't been over campaigning in Cochran County. Well we happen to know that Forrest has been getting better acquainted with folks in other sections of the 119th district so if he doesn't get out here personally before July 22 to shake your hand, flatter the ladies and kiss all your kids we'd appreciate it very much if when you go to the polls on Saturday, July 22 you vote for your friend and our friend, Forrest Weimhold.

★ One thing we would really like to see is every voter doing his duty as a citizen Saturday, July 22 by showing up at his polling place and casting his vote for the candidate of his choice.

★ Win, lose or draw we will all still be friends and we will all continue to work for best interest of Morton, Cochran County and 119th District.

★ MRS. FRED STOCKDALE is attending summer school at Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, New Mexico.

radio speeches, Forrest Weimhold, publisher of the Hockley County Herald and Sun, and a candidate for State Representative of the 119th District, told voters how he stands on important issues in state government.

In his speech, which is reprinted in part for the benefit of Cochran Countians who were unable to hear the broadcast, following is a large district and since I am having to spend as much time out in the district as possible, in order to meet as many people as I can, I will not have an opportunity to see all of you home folks and personally solicit your vote and support. Therefore I am making this my personal appeal to you.

I certainly want to be your State Representative and I'll do my very best to be a good one and one of whom you may be proud. I know I'll make it with your support, and I feel I'll have that because you believe the same thing that people all over the district are saying and that is: "We need to apply more business principles to our state government and need a seasoned business man to represent this district." I'll do my very best. So join my campaign wagon and let them hear from us in the halls of the legislature.

"In another week the people of Texas will go to the polls to select the various men and women to serve them for the next two years. All positions are important and play a part in the operation of our government. However, there is probably no more important position so far as the kind of government we have, than the legislative seats.

"This is the reason I want to talk with you today about the candidacy of Forrest Weimhold for State Representative of the 119th District. As you know this is a large district both in size and in population. In fact, the nine counties and more than 200,000 people of the 119th District have four or more representatives in the legislature to do this work.

"The state has not been redistricted since 1920 and all realize how this entire area has grown since then. No doubt, redistricting will be one of the problems of the legislature next year, because we passed an amendment requiring the legislature to do this or it will be done by a special commission. You may rest assured that Forrest Weimhold, if elected your representative will put forth every effort possible to get fair and equal representation for this area and to do everything possible to redistrict our section and state fairly and equally. Forrest Weimhold will work hard and tirelessly to properly represent all of the people of this large district fairly.

ly and impartially and efficiently and vigorously.

Forrest Weimhold realizes the great responsibilities of the representative of the 119th district because actually to give his area proper representation he must do the work and carry the influence in the legislature of four representatives. Yes, because of the inequalities of our districts, some counties with less than 15,000 population have a representative in the state legislature. Redistricting will not increase the number of representatives, but it will distribute them equally among the people of Texas.

"This section is growing rapidly; therefore it has many problems. Certainly, Forrest Weimhold will be ever watchful and work diligently for the improvement of our schools in this area. Excellent steps have been made in the improvement of schools and Forrest Weimhold will continue to support every measure which will make possible better schools for growing West Texas.

"Naturally, Forrest Weimhold will lend his efforts and work hard for full support of Texas Technological College in Lubbock, because it is a part of us and our area and fulfills a vital need in our section and the state and the nation. Forrest Weimhold wants to see our educational system in Texas rank first in the nation.

"More farm to market roads are needed in this area, as these arteries of local trade are essential for our rural people who form the backbone of our economy. Forrest Weimhold realizes the necessity of conserving our soil and other natural resources. But, Forrest Weimhold is opposed to bureaucratic control.

"Then, there is the ever present threat of all types of 'isms'. All types of class legislation, and that which would help minorities, but be against the interest of the masses.

"Yes, Forrest Weimhold will oppose this type legislation, because he thinks 'free enterprise', 'freedom of speech', 'freedom of religion' and our other freedoms are the fundamentals which make America great. We must preserve them and we can't if we try to live a dual role—apply the freedom so far as we are concerned, but take it away from others. Yes, there is no middle ground. You can't go a little way and stop.

"The cost of state government is mounting rapidly. Even larger budgets are in the making; therefore, Forrest Weimhold believes we must make sure that the state gets 100 cents value for every tax dollar spent. We must stop this mounting tax cost and Forrest Weimhold believes it can be done by applying practical business methods in state government.

"A friend of mine who operates a prescription pharmacy told a Rotary Club the other day that he pays 17 different taxes to the state government varying from 50c to $5.00 a year. This is for his store license, pharmacist tax, cigarette tax, narcotics tax, etcetera. The joker in this is that the 17 different taxes are collected by 17 different tax collectors.

"Now, certainly, some economy could be made by having these consolidated and collected by one collector. Yes, we can get more for our state tax dollar. A vote for Forrest Weimhold will be a step in this direction, because he stands for economy.

"These are a few of the problems of our area and over which many contests will be waged in your State Legislature. The responsibilities are going to be great on your representative. For those reasons, I feel we need a seasoned business man to fill this important position.

"Forrest Weimhold believes he is capable of doing an excellent job for you. Speaking for himself, he says, I'm young in years, 36 years old, but have served my community and country faithfully in many capacities. I am a graduate of Sudan High School and Texas Technological College in Lubbock. While in college, I was active in many activities and assisted in the establishment of the Tech Printing plant which has made it possible for many boys and girls to earn money to help keep them in college.

"Since purchasing the Hockley County Herald in 1939, I have put forth every effort to give Hockley County one of the best newspapers in the area. I have been actively engaged in this with the exception of 33 months I served in the armed forces, 18 of which were overseas in India, Burma and China. During my absence the Herald was operated very excellently by my wife, Ruth. Our newspaper, The Herald, has won many prizes during the years in state-wide contests, of which we are very proud.

"My neighbors have honored me many times, in permitting me to serve as President of the Levelland Rotary Club, President of the Hockley County Board of Development, Director in the Hockley County Fair Association, President of the Panhandle Press Association, President of the West Texas Press Association, Director of the Texas Press Association and Director of the Tech Alumni and Ex-Students Association.

"Working in all these organizations and operating my businesses, The Herald and Sun-News, Radio Station KLVV, Weimhold Printing and Office Supply and the Morton Tribune has given me excellent training. It has seasoned me and I feel that I have an excellent perspective of this entire area.

"I believe with this knowledge and training plus my determination to work hard and diligently Forrest Weimhold will be a good representative. Remember that name, Forrest Weimhold. It's hard to spell, difficult to pronounce, and hard to remember. But it wears well and the business man it identifies will certainly appreciate your leaving it on the ballot, July 22nd. Thanks.

Forrest Weimhold.

Thanks For A Fine, New Theatre

Wednesday evening, for the second time within the week, a long time Morton business opened the doors to a brand new building. Wallace B. Blankenship, well known theatre magnate of West Texas, opened his finest theatre, the ultra modern Rose Theatre in Morton.

The opening has been anxiously awaited by Mortonites for two years. Contracting and building difficulties had postponed the opening week after week but Mr. Blankenship made good on his promise of two years ago to give Morton "the finest, most modern, and largest theatre" in his chain.

It's been a long wait, but after all, it has been worthwhile. We feel that you will be more than satisfied with the new Morton theatre, the Rose.

Congratulations, Mr. B., on a job well done.

Delayed Action, Delays Results

Every so often during the 25 years Morton has been in existence, some group or groups have banded together and started talking about the possibilities of a railroad for Morton. Once or twice the subject has gone passed the talking stage, but never has it reached that all important action stage.

Recent census figures which have pointed Morton out as a growing city, have stirred up some interest in a railroad. We believe that interest is well founded, although, it'll have to grow a great deal before Morton can realize this dream.

A railroad can always do a great deal for a growing city. The first gain, and possibly the most important of all, is the gain in population. The attraction of a city with a railroad is tremendous over those in the same general area without railroad communication.

Secondly, railroads attract business and manufacturing to a city. It is not a bit fantastic to suppose that Morton would become the home of some smaller factories, a refinery, more Gins and innumerable small businesses, if we had a railroad.

Improved mail and transportation service are certainly not the least of the benefits that could accrue by the location of a railroad here. Inflated freight rates on all commodities transported into Morton by truck would drop as soon as merchants could rely on rail freight.

Looking forward to the day when we can realize the routing of a railroad through Morton seems like a pipe dream to many, but in reality that day is within close reach. That is, the day is within close reach if civic and business leaders get the action underway.

Agricultural crops, growing population, and oil field activity have dictated this need. It is up to us, the people of Morton, to heed the dictates of our city. The day of the railroad in Morton will be delayed in coming only as long as action on the part of the citizens is delayed.

Morton Is More Than A Boom Town

To simply say that Cochran County has a population of 5,909 people and Morton a citizenry of 2,268 shows us very little. But to show the comparison between our county and others in the area and to show the rise of Morton in comparison with the downfall of other cities in West Texas should be heartening to those who have continually propagated the rumors that Morton is going nowhere.

Out of the 251 counties in the state of Texas, only 13 have shown a greater proportional increase in population since 1940. In fact, 146 counties have lost population while Cochran county increased its populace 58%.

In the 19th Congressional district alone, 10 of the 25 counties have lost population. Only four have shown a greater increase than Cochran county.

Citywise, it is interesting to note that Lubbock, Big Spring, Snyder, Plainview, and Lamesa are the largest cities in our District. However it is the smaller cities, in most instances, that have shown the greater proportional population increase.

A lot of folks wonder just what these figures mean. What difference does it make, they ask, whether or not Morton has a population of 5,000 or 10,000?

Actually the census should mean a great deal to all of us who live and do business in Morton. It should, first of all, prove to us that the city is growing and that along with the growth in population, we must grow in other ways.

No longer can we in Morton afford to sit idly by and take no interest in plans which will better our city. As we grow in size, new and better water facilities, sewage disposal units, paved streets, lighting, sidewalks, buildings, and many other things must follow.

If it shows anything at all, the census has shown us that Morton is not a boom town. It has continued to grow for 25 years while other cities in the area have spurted and then fallen by the wayside. Unlike many cities in the Oil Region, Morton still depends on the farmer for its major share of business. Oil wells in the county are increasing but better crops have also shown an upswing.

Just a glance at the new homes and office buildings under construction in Morton will show that Morton is going places. Civic leaders have been continually boosting plans for parks, a country club, a softball field, school buildings, and other improvements. Through their efforts these things have been realized.

But in a growing city, maturity is never realized. Year after year additional needs are brought to the attention of the City government. As they are considered, taxes must be levied to finance the programs. It amounts to a continual process of making money and then paying it back out for comforts and security.

Ours is not the place to continually fight against the proposals that would better our community. Ours is the place to welcome the census reports that shows Morton as a growing city of influence in West Texas, and to redouble our efforts to pull together for the betterment of not just ourselves but the betterment of all within the community.

Farm and Ranch Real Estate Tax Increase Shown

Sharp increases in Texas farm and ranch real estate taxes during 1949 were revealed in a recent survey made by L. P. Gabbard, head of the Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology and Robert G. Cherry, professor of agricultural economics, Texas A. & M. College.

Levies made by State and local governments totaled an average of 25.7 cents per acre, rising from 22.4 cents the previous year. This is an increase of 3.3 cents per acre or 15 per cent over the 1948 average.

1949 was the third successive year that land taxes have advanced, say the economists. During the 11 year period, 1936-46, taxes were quite stable, varying only slightly from an average of 18 cents per acre. The typical farm or ranch tax bill in 1949 was 40 per cent above that level.

Most of the rise in 1949 was accounted for by increases in State and school district taxes. County and special district levies have increased very little since 1948. The advance in the State rate on farm and ranch real estate from 42 cents per 100 dollar evaluation in 1948 to 72 cents was the largest item in the 1949 tax increase.

"Gilmer - Aikin" legislation caused part of the increase in school taxes. A considerable number of farms and ranches were in "dormant" common school districts with little or no school taxes before the legislation was passed. They point out that during 1949 many of these school units were consolidated with active districts, resulting in higher taxes.

Increased individual counties and type-of-farming areas varied widely throughout the state. Of 197 counties in the survey, only three, Jim Wells, Eastland, and Atascosa, registered declines of as much as 5 percent. All type-of-farming areas showed increases.

The highest increases occurred in the Blackland area and in the northern counties of the Grand Prairie. Many of the State's common school districts are concentrated in these areas, and numerous consolidations have occurred recently. The Lower Rio Grande Valley, parts of the Coast Prairie, and the Canadian River Grazing area had the smallest increases.

The decline in prices received for agricultural products during 1949 at the same time that taxes were increasing caused a big change in the ratio of prices to taxes. According to the economists, prices that the farmer received for his products decreased 8.9 per cent from 1948 to 1949 while farm and ranch real estate taxes were advancing 15 per cent. This movement of taxes and prices in the opposite direction resulted in a relative increase in taxes of 30 per cent.

Although the rise in farm and ranch real estate taxes may halt temporarily in 1950, conditions

THE LAW AND YOU

by Robt. (Bob) Kirk
County Attorney
Lamb County, Texas

Do You Know what the "common law" is?

The "common law" is the unwritten usages and customs which were accepted as the law at the time the colonists came to America from England. This body of law has been adopted by the constitutions of and recognized by the Courts in many of the States of the United States.

By Statute in Texas "the common law of England, so far as it is not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State, shall together with such Constitution and laws, be the rule of decision, and shall continue in force until altered or repealed by the Legislature." Thus in case of conflicts between the "common law" and the statutory law, the statutory law will prevail. This law is evidenced indicate that the upward movement of the last three years is likely to continue, but probably at a slower rate. Public demands for expanded local governmental services such as schools, roads, and hospitals, they conclude, may cause a continued rise in local and school taxes.

by the decisions of our appellate courts, which declare what the common law is, and how it shall be applied to particular situations.

Electrical Salute For The Month of June

Bailey County Electric Cooperative chose the farm home of Gordon DeMents, residents of Cochran County since 1943 for June Electrical Home of the Month.

Gordon was born at Uvalde, Texas, but spent most of his life at Clarendon and Brownfield, Texas. Since moving to Morton he has done a considerable amount of dry land farming, chief being cotton and grain.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon DeMent, she being the former Miss Lillie DeMent of Mineral Wells, have made their home another example of the comfort and convenience that can be enjoyed on any farm supplied with electricity through the Rural Electrification program. Some of the appliances in their home are: range, refrigerator, deep freeze, dish washer, automatic washing machine, clothes dryer, ironer, radio, vacuum cleaner and a number of other appliances, also a pressure pump, welder, grinder and

Mr. and Mrs. DeMent's opinion of electricity is, "We think it has contributed most to the modernizing of our Rural Farms."
