PASS BILL TO END BRIDGE ROW

Crazed Man Kills Five And Wounds Four

REPORTED WED

Charles A. Levine, first transatlantic air passenger, is reported to have eloped with Mrs. Doris Della Berne, shown here, widow of the noted plastic surgeon, Dr. Louis P. Berne. The announcement was made by Elliott Jaffee, the bride's brother. Levine is below.

CAPTURE ENDS INSANE ORGY OF SLAYING

SHOOTS AT RANDOM IN TOWN AFTER KILLING WIFE, HER SISTER

(By The Associated Press)

MERCER, Pa., July 23.—Four persons were killed and five wounded, one fatally when a crazed man attacked members of his family and others in a small mining village near Leesburg today.

Marko Demofonti, 46, who was pronounced insane by physicians yesterday and was to have been removed to an institution for insane today, shot and killed his wife and her sister in his home with a revolver and then went to the street of the village, firing at random at other villagers. He later was captured.

Davis Conviction May Help Thompson

ALBANY, July 23, (AP)—Conviction of 19-year-old Thomas Davis in district court here last night on a charge of slaying Leon Shook in 1928 was today expected to play a prominent part in deciding the fate of Clyde Thompson, twice convicted and sentenced to die in connection with the death of Lucien Shook.

Davis' punishment was fixed at ten years imprisonment. He also is under a five year suspended sentence in connection with the slaying of Lucien Shook.

Governor Ross Sterling issued a 90-day reprieve to Thompson pending the outcome of Davis' trial.

Hunt For Constable Is Continued Today

PITTSBURG, July 23, (AP)—The search for O. E. Hughes, 50 year old Pittsburg constable, mysteriously missing from his home here since about midnight Monday, continued today.

Hughes was last seen shortly before midnight as he drove his car toward his home. An unidentified person advised officers by telephone that Hughes took a hitchhiker into his car with him as he drove homeward.

Sheriff D. H. Carpenter expressed belief Hughes fell victim to foul play.

SITUATION IN SPAIN TODAY IS TENSE

MARTIAL LAW PLACED OVER SEVILLE AS SEVENTEEN DIE

(By Associated Press)

MADRID, July 23—With Seville under martial law as the result of disorders in which 17 persons were killed, the tenseness of Spain's political situation increased today as the nation looked forward to a change in government next week.

It was predicted that when the assembly is formally constituted Monday or Tuesday, the cabinet would immediately resign. Forecasts were that the parliament would choose Alcala Zamora as president—he now holds that post provisionally—and that he would summon either Manuel Azana, present war minister, or Alejandro Derroux, foreign minister, to the premiership.

Martial Law Declared

The seriousness of the situation in Seville was made clear when martial law was pronounced only half an hour after Miguel Maura, minister of the interior, announced he would oppose calling in the military authorities.

Despite the subsequent developments, Maura remained optimistic about the government's ability to suppress such uprising as the syndicalist strike outbreaks in Seville.

"This anarchist affair is weak," he said. "I will peel them like an orange."

Socialist Deputy Theidomiro Minnendez, of Austulas, declared the situation was not grave. "I should not be surprised to see a republican military dictatorship emerge," he said. "I believe the Socialist Minister Largo Caballero, at who mthe syndicalists are aiming, should resign."

BOMBS THROWN AT CHINESE

FINANCE MINISTER IS SAFE BUT SECRETARY FATALLY INJURED

(By The Associated Press)

SHANGHAI, July 23—Two bombs and a fusillade of bullets directed at T. V. Soong, finance minister and vice chairman of the nationalist government, missed their mark here today but fatally injured Soong's secretary Tang Yu-Loh.

Six other Chinese were injured, some of them apparently by Soong's bodyguard in answering the fire of the unidentified assassins.

Student Arrested

The attack was launched just after Soong and his party arrived by train from Nanking. The bombs failed to explode when thrown, but one of them later was discharged when picked up by a soldier. He was possibly fatally wounded. A Cantonese student was arrested later in connection with the incident.

Tang Yu-Loh was 32 years old and was married recently. He formerly was a student at both Harvard and Yale universities.

THEFT REPORTED

Theft of a spare automobile tire from an automobile belonging to Spencer Wells of 1218 Ninth street was reported to police last night.

GERMAN STABILITY SEEN

BETTER TIMES FOR OIL MEN ARE SEEN

PROPOSED SHUTDOWN AND BETTER PRICE BEING AWAITED

(By The Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 23 —Oil men looked to two developments today to add to the rosier light breaking about the industry in the mid-continent area.

One was the possible addition of more purchasing companies to the present list of three paying higher prices for crude oil.

May Close Wells

The other was persistently rumored contemplated action by Governor W. H. Murray of Oklahoma to force the closing of all oil wells in the state except the stripper class which would be ruined by water encroachment in a shutdown.

Companies announcing new prices of 40 cents per barrel, flat rate for all grades of crude from the mid-continent area were the Continental Oil company, Ponca City, Magnolia Petroleum company, Dallas, and White Eagle Oil company, Wichita. Prices of most other companies ranged upward from 10 cents a barrel to 22 cents a barrel on a graduated scale based on gravity.

Many Shut Down

Meanwhile most of the 807 producing wells in the Oklahoma City field remained shut in on operators' orders.

With 700 of the 807 Oklahoma City field producers closed in today and production reduced more than half from this pool in the last ten days, observers said the area's producers apparently have rejected the 40 cent scale.

Peddy Is Captured After Jail Break

TIMPSON, July 23 (AP)—Jack Peddy, whose sensational escape from the Shelby county jail at Center last Friday night resulted in a section-wide man hunt, was recaptured at daybreak today.

Officers found him asleep under a tree in the woods near Clear Lake, 35 miles north of the jail from which he fled after menacing a jailer with a pistol.

Peddy's recapture was precipitated by a "tip" that he was hiding in the woods. F. T. Cooke, vice-president of the Cotton Belt State bank of Timpson and Luke Motley, cashier of the First State bank, at Tenaha, received the information and turned it over to officers.

Cotton Conference Favored By House

AUSTIN, July 23 (AP)—A resolution requesting Governor R. S. Sterling to call a conference of governors of cotton producing states to discuss the cotton situation and remedial measures was adopted unanimously by the Texas house today. The date would be set by Governor Sterling.

The cotton acreage reduction bill to restrict the acreage of each farm that could be planted to cotton, was introduced today by Representative J. J. Olsen of Yoakum, cotton acreage of each farm would be reduced 50 per cent. The bill would prohibit the same land being planted in cotton on successive years.

Odd Fellows In District Confab

FIFTY DELEGATES ARE REGISTERED FROM 14 LODGES

Fifty delegates representing 14 lodges in this section of the state, with representatives from Dallas, Wichita Falls and Waco and one from Terra Haute, Ind., had registered at noon today for the state group meeting of I. O. O. F. lodges. Sessions were being held in the K. P. hall, 1318 1-2 Texas avenue.

F. M. Compton, Waco, grand master of the state organization, presided at the morning session. Reports of the lodges were made by officials and delegates and work for the coming year was discussed. E. Q. Vestal, Dallas, grand secretary, also was present.

Rebekahs Meet

This afternoon at 2:30 the Rebekah lodges of the district held their session with Mrs. Maggie Jordan, Paris, president of the Rebekah assembly, presiding. The meeting was held in the K. P. hall while the men adjourned to the First Baptist church for their work.

Tonight in the same hall the Lubbock Rebekah lodge will put on its work, assisted by the visiting members. Meeting is to begin at 7:30 o'clock. A program of entertainment and amusement will be held in connection with the meeting. Visitors from other lodges are expected.

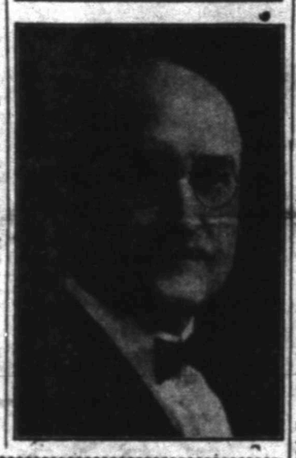

Towns represented in the morning registration included: Ralls, Wichita Falls, Lubbock, Abernathy, Waco, Dallas, Brownfield, Terra Haute, Ind., Lamesa, Chillicothe,

HOOVER LAUDS RESULTS OF CONCLAVE

SAYS FOUNDATION IS LAID FOR RECOVERY FROM DEPRESSION

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 23.—President Hoover said today the London conference had "laid soumd foundations for the establishment of stability in Germany."

The program adopted by the conference, he said, supplements the suspension of inter-governmental debts already in effect.

Should Aid Credit

"The combined effect," he added, "should enable the German people with their resources, industry and courage, to overcome the temporary difficulties and restore their credit."

At the same time the president forwarded telegrams of congratulations to Secretaries Stimson and Mellon, who conducted the American negotiations in London.

The president said:

"The London conference has laid sound foundations for the establishment of stability in Germany.

"The major problem is one affecting primarily the banking and credit conditions and can best be solved by the voluntary co-operation of the bankers of the world rather than by governments with their conflicting interests. Such a basis of co-operation is assured.

"The program supplements the suspension of intergovernmental debts already in effect. The combined effect should enable the German people with their resources, industry and courage, to overcome the temporary difficulties and restore their credit.

Crisis Overcome

"The program contributes to expedite recovery from world wide depression through the overcoming of the most important elements in the crisis affecting central Europe.

"The world is indebted to Premiers MacDonald, Laval, Bruening, to Messrs. Stimson, Mellon, Grandi, Francqui and other governmental

WOULD EXTEND COTTON USES

IMPROVED QUALITY IS GOAL OF PROPOSED SOUTHERN PLAN

(By The Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, July 23—A joint program for improving cotton quality and extending its use will be made by cotton interests of the south, including organizations of cotton growers, cotton seed breeders, cottonseed oil mills and textile mills with the aid of the American Cotton Cooperative association.

Announcement that working arrangements to carry out the program had been made was made by officials of the cooperative association at the conclusion here of a meeting of the association's board of directors.

The association said that under the plan cottonseed oil mills of the south will exchange improved planting seed for farmers' "ginrun" seed, the program having the endorsement of the National Cottonseed Products association.

A joint committee of cooperatives and cottonseed interests, which will meet soon at Memphis, will work out a campaign for improving the quality of cotton and increasing use of cottonseed products as livestock feed. It also will lay plans to oppose state legislation considered discriminatory against vegetable compounds.

Two Suspects Held In Bandit Slaying

LONGVIEW, July 23. (AP)—Two suspects arrested here yesterday for questioning in connection with the fatal shooting of Cal Cross during a bandit raid on his road house near Bossier, La., remained in county jail today.

Cross' brother who arrived here with Bossier deputy sheriffs identified one of the suspects as having participated in the raid.

Between $500 and $600 in money was taken from Cross.

RETURNED TO JAIL

CORSICANA, July 23. (AP)—Charlie Douglas whose trial for the fatal shooting of his sister-in-law, Texana Hall, was interrupted last week when he was found in his jail cell with both wrists and his throat slashed, was back in county jail today, having been moved from a hospital last night.

TEXAS RAISES QUARANTINE

FOLLOWS NATION IS LIFTING COTTON REGULATIONS

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, July 23.—Joining with the federal government the state department of agriculture today lifted its regulation requiring the fumigation of lint cotton in square bales in the pink boll worm infested counties of West Texas.

Counties included in the move were: El Paso, Culberson, Jeff Davis, Terrell, Pecos, Reeves, Ward, Loving, Winkler, Crane, Upton, Ector, Andrews, Midland and the norther part of Hudspeth.

The federal regulation, removal of which was announced in Washington last night, applied to interstate commerce, and the state's to intra-state movement. All counties in the area were included in the order except Presidio, Brewster and the southern part of Culberson, which adjoin the heavily infested section of Mexico.

The saving to farmers was estimated at $150,000 annually. J. E. McDonald, commissioner of agriculture, said the only important regulation remaining was sterilization of seed. He stated the success of the amendment depended upon the combing of all seed, principal carrier of the worm, from the lint.

McDonald said the state had made further modification to permit gin trash and similar material from gins to be used by farmers for feed and fertilizer after the first front date, and was considering further modifications as investigations warranted, among which might be to broaden the market for seed in the regulated territory.

Salesman Is Slain By Negro Robbers

TULSA, Okla., July 23 (AP)—The victim of a bullet from a negro robber's pistol, Grady B. Turner, 40, a salesman for a Fort Smith, Ark., drug firm, died today in a hospital.

Turner was shot down late last night in a drug store here by one of two negro holdup men. The pair fled without loot after the shooting, escaping in an automobile driven by a companion.

LINDBERGHS PLAN HOP NEXT WEEK

NEW YORK, July 23. (AP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh plan to start next week on a vacation flight to the Orient.

"I do not know what day we will be ready," the colonel said.

Several more instruments are to be installed in his Lockheed Sirius monoplane, which has been converted into a seaplane by the attachment of pontoons.

A day or two before they take off, the Lindberghs will fly to Washington for a final conference with state department officials, who are arranging the necessary papers for their flights to foreign lands.

Their route will be via Ottawa, the Canadian northwest, Alaska across the Bering sea into the Kamchatka peninsula of Siberia and thence through the Kuril Islands and into Japan.

MOTION TO END HOUSE PROBE DEFEATED

TEXAS SOLONS REFUSE TO END OIL PROBE BY SATURDAY

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, July 23—The house today refused to adopt a resolution to end its investigation of the oil industry at 4 p. m. Saturday. The resolution, by Representative Jack Keller of Dallas, was tabled, 63 to 42.

Keller claimed that unless the investigation was closed within the next few days the house would have no time in which to take action on conservation legislation, necessitating another special session.

"If you are against passing a conservation measure, then continue the investigation so you can kill all the time possible," Keller said.

The resolution authorizing the investigation called for it to end Monday "unless the time is extended."

A bill to levy a graduated tax on oil production was introduced by Representative Milton West of Brownsville. The tax would start at two cents per barrel up to 300 barrels and reach a maximum of 25 cents per bar or over. It would apply to each well on a lease.

The oil tax now is based on gross production and the value of the oil. The low price of oil has resulted in sharp declines in the amount of taxes received by the state and the bill was aimed at providing sufficient revenue regardless of the value of the production.

Pope And Cardinals Discuss Conflicts

VATICAN CITY, July 23. (AP)—Conflicts between the church and state in Italy, Spain, Mexico and Lithuania were discussed today by Pope Pius with 20 cardinals of the Curia summoned hurriedly to a meeting which took on the importance of a special consistory.

The session, in the Vatican library, lasted nearly three hours and was conducted in the greatest secrecy. When it was over no statement was issued.

It was believed the situation in Spain was particularly prominent in the discussion on the basis of a report by the cardinal-archbishop of Tarragona, who flew from Barcelona to see the Pope.

QUICK ACTION IS GOAL OF PROPOSALS

BOTH HOUSES APPROVE BILLS DESIGNED TO OPEN BRIDGE

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, July 23.—Both houses of the Texas legislature today placed their approval on a proposed law designed to bring about quick opening of the Red river free bridge between Denison and Durant, Okla.

Details of the bills passed by the two houses were not exactly alike which will delay either of them going to the governor. However, representative Elbert Barron of Sherman, one of the authors of the house bill, predicted the senate would pass that bill today or tomorrow. It was considered certain Governor Ross S. Sterling would sign it.

Pass Overwhelmingly

The bill passed the senate with only one dissenting vote and the vote in the house was 119 to 3.

The house bill differed from the senate proposal in that it prevented any injunctive relief and prohibited a compromise being reached on the contract.

Under the contract, if valid, the highway commision would pay the toll bridge company between $80,000 and $150,000, the exact amount being disputed. The attorney general's department claimed the contract was illegal.

AUSTIN, July 23 (AP)—The Texas senate today passed with only one dissenting vote a bill designed to put an end to the long "Red river bridge" dispute which has resulted in interstate exchanges between the Texas and Oklahoma governors.

The bill, by Senator Jake Log, would grant to the Red River Bridge company or its receiver, J. R. Handy, permission to sue the state for alleged failure of the Texas Highway commission to fulfill its contract with the company. The contract under the company's interpretation and the interpretation of federal court in Houston, required the commission to pay to the company an amount somewhere between $80,000 and $150,000, the exact amount being mooted.

The bridge company had obtained from federal court at Houston a temporary injunction restraining the highway commission from opening its free bridge, which par-

SLAYER FOUND AFTER HUNT

ALLEGED BOOTLEGGER HELD FOR DEATH OF DRY AGENTS

(By Associated Press)

FORT WAYNE, Ind., July 23 — Four hours after he shot and killed two federal prohibition agents to escape a trap they laid for him, George Adams, reputed Fort Wayne bootlegger, and former convict, was captured by local police early today.

Cornered on a road at the south edge of the city with a load of liquor the agents had ordered last night, Adams shot and killed at close range John J. Wilson, 40, of Rockwell City, Ia., ranking special agent in the Indianapolis prohibition enforcement office. Wilson was said by his companions to be unarmed.

Then, wounded in the neck and cheek by shots from the gun of Walter M. Gilbert, 33, special agent from Cincinnati, Adams returned the fire and Gilbert fell, fatally wounded. He died an hour later in a Fort Wayne hospital.

Adams made his escape, and a wide search was organized. Local police, tipped off by federal agents, captured him without a shot being fired early today as he drove up to the home here of Frank V. Kenlerski. He was placed in the Allen county jail.

Blind Brewmaster Freed Of Charges

CHICAGO, July 23 (AP)—Charles O. Chamness, 57, and blind since birth, was a brewmaster by trade. He married a blind woman and they began to rear a family of five children.

Yesterday Chamness and his wife were arraigned in a police court charged with begging on the street.

Judge Joseph A. Graber heard the story. Then he said:

"Through diligence and application this man learned a trade. Then a law takes it away from him and throws him out of a job. I commend him for his restraint in not pursuing his trade, regardless of the law."

With these remarks the judge dismissed the charges and summoned social workers to work out a way to take care of the former brewmaster's family.

"PEDDLING" WATERMELONS IN EARLY MORNING IS HARD ON THE "SALESMAN"

It isn't appropriate to awake people and ask them if they want to buy watermelons long after the town's clocks have tolled midnight. It's embarrassing if they learn you haven't a single melon. And if you're found sitting in an automobile which doesn't belong to you, abilities to "explain" are overtaxed.

Possibly, a youth arrested early this morning by police, whom a woman summoned to 2502 Avenue H, has reached all those conclusions in leisure available in city jail. Authorities said they were investigating the suspect's story. He is about 18 years old. Recently, he had helped a man sell melons here, the youth told police.

The story, obtained in a round-about way, was that the nocturnal "salesman" walked back and forth across the front porch of a Lubbock house. A woman inside was awakened. Whether the youth pounded the door isn't clear. Eventually, she came to the door, and was asked—at sometime between midnight and dawn—if she'd like a watermelon. He was selling.

INDIAN DELEGATION IS TO INVITE CITY TO FIRST AMERICAN PAGEANT

Publicising the First American pageant presented annually at Alburqurque, N. M., forty full-blood Indians in native garb and a 25-piece Indian band will arrive in Lubbock from the north tomorrow noon, the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce has announced.

Mayor J. J. Clements will welcome the "first" Americans from a temporary speakers stand on Avenue J between Main street and Broadway. The street will be roped off to allow the Indians to sing, dance, and present stunts.

Ex-governor R. C. Dillon, United States Senator Sam G. Bratton, Congressman Chaes, and Senator Tom Hughes of New Mexico will be in the delegation from Albuquerque. Members of the pageant cast will be here.

Lubbock children were invited to attend the noon program here in a letter from the Albuquerque Chamber of Commerce. The First American pageant is presented in August.

John Lemond, chief of police, will have the block between Main and Broadway blocked to traffic to reserve room for the Indians and the crowds of Lubbock people who will be there to

Younger Set Enjoys Dancing And Bridge; Visitors Are Extended Courtesies

Billy And Charles Crenshaw Hosts To Friends; Girls Have Tea For Mothers

Along with the adult parties on Wednesday, there was a gay one for members of the younger set when Charles and Billy Crenshaw entertained a few friends in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crenshaw, 1901 29th street. Honor guests were Miss Elizabeth Ann Rall of Fort Worth and Miss Virginia Hodges of Shreveport, La.

Three tables of bridge were in play early in the evening and dancing followed. High cut following the games went to Frank Maddox. The honor guests were presented with favors.

Those who attended were Misses Hodges, Rall, Billie Bob Jones, Sue Michie, Marguerite Spencer, Beth Spencer and Robert Strickland, Charles Maedgen, Maddox and Robert Overton.

Miss Baldwin Honoree

Among the events complimenting visitors on Wednesday was a small party given by Miss Mildred Street for Miss Lillian Baldwin, who has been visiting here from San Antonio. There were two tables of bridge and high score was made by Miss Louise Jennings. Others attending were Misses Blanche Bacon, Mary Meador, Johnnye Gilkerson, Lulu Mae Cravens, Mrs. Charles Bacon and Mrs. R. L. McAllister.

Miss Baldwin left today after having visited here as the guest of Miss Johnnye Gilkerson.

Tea For Mothers

Mothers of girls in the Sunowa Camp Fire group were honored with a tea Wednesday afternoon at the Camp Fire club rooms. Girls in the group were hostesses.

Mothers who attended were Mesdames J. E. Cook, L. W. Hyatt, Robert Bristow, Felix O. Kelley, Joe H. Elliott and R. A. Holland.

Girls who were present were Virginia Cook, Jean Fay Bristow, Virginia Elliott, Darda Nella Long, Fern Holland, the assistant guardian, Gwendolyn Hyatt, Ruth Holland, Emma Sue Gunn, Janet Kelley, Ethel Green, the guardian.

Trio Complimented

Games of forty-two were played Wednesday afternoon at a party given by Misses Nina Trigg and Lula Jones in the Joe Baldridge home at 2105 17th street. Honor guests for the occasion were Mrs. A. J. Hodges of Shreveport, La., Miss Laura Jones of Fort Worth and Miss Elizabeth Rodgers, who is to be married soon.

A color scheme of yellow and white was carried out and nasturtiums were plate favors.

Guests included Mesdames W. T. Milam, J. T. Shaver, A. W. Evans, J. M. Gordon, A. H. Leidigh, C. A. Burrus, L. G. Haynes, R. L. Tubbs, G. A. Sandlin, Joe Reese, L. P. Reeves, Isabel Garrison, J. R. Rodgers and Misses Elizabeth Rodgers, Laura Jones, Anna Marie Moore of Floydada and Beulah Starnes.

Mrs. Reese scored high in the games and Mrs. Shaver cut high. These two and the honorees were presented with favors from the hostesses.

Indians Pray For Rain In Oklahoma

HOLDENVILLE, Okla., July 23 (AP)—Standing waist deep in water and mud of the receding rivers of Hughes county, Indians are petitioning the Great Spirit to send rain as tom toms beat and camp fires glow along the river's borders.

Prayers are offered as the red men gather several times each week on the banks of the south Canadian and Little rivers to implore the Great Spirit for rain to save their crops from drouth.

The ancient tribal custom of praying for rain is picturesque and colorful. It is the first time in years it has been witnessed here.

The red men congregate in the dead of night, coming in large groups from farm houses and some from pretentious homes.

Usually it is the medicine man of the tribe, dressed in spectacular fashion, who leads the rites.

That $50,000 worth of goods were "lifted by respectable people" from its counters in the last 12 months, has been reported by a prominent London store.

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

NEVER SHOUTS AT CHILDREN

I HAVE had the opportunity to observe daily for a few weeks a mother of two children, four years and 15 months of age respectively. She strikes me as a very successful mother. I have been trying to find out the secrets of her successes.

In the first place, she lets them alone so long as they are safe and are not disturbing others or property. Her patience with the youngster, just beginning to walk, and most of the time going around on all fours, is remarkable. She never seems to lose self-control though I know at times she is very weary. I have never heard her shout at them. Her voice is always quiet and subdued, and I am sure it is so at times with some effort. She never appears to grow weary of explaining things to them and answering their questions.

The younger gets two naps a day, by the clock, and the other gets a nap in the afternoon. It is a matter of routine with them. They know no better, and fit into the program without doubt or resistance.

The younger is gradually learning the meaning of "No," but he almost never hears it. Since he is away from his regular home, only a very few things are forbidden him. He is controlled pretty largely by positive suggestions.

Not having seen her punish either of them over a period of ten days, I asked her, particularly concerning the older child, if she never punished them; for I observed that he always had accepted her few words of "No" with finality, not even crying. She replied that she rarely has to punish him now since she did so occasionally a few years ago for a few specific things, with a definite purpose to teach him safety, and regard for the rights of others; that, moreover, she tried to overlook the small things. I have observed that when new situations arise in which his wishes must be denied, she makes explanations first and later states the denial. He well knows that this denial is final, the biggest item in her scheme. Furthermore, she seems to have no end of resources by way of suggesting to him a desirable substitute.

When for the first time he was about to cross a rarely traveled country road, he first stopped, looked both way with the remark, "No cars," and quickly ran across. She says he has never run into the street to play at home, but has learned to cross one street near his home to go to the store for her. His mode of action on approaching this country road is a fine example of the force of good habits well established. He has fixed in his nervous system a scheme of habits which should serve him for self-preservation against the hazards of the street a lifetime.

The mother reads to the older lad for hours and has done so since he was 15 months of age. She is beginning to read to his little brother. She has reduced jealousy in the older by abundant praise for right conduct and by encouraging him to do many little things for the younger child. She is now working on the problem of teaching the younger to respect the possessions of the older, which she finds no easy task. Since their possessions now cannot all be easily defined she is planning not to resort to punishments until her return home, when she can make such matters more clear-cut and definite. Then it is her plan to teach each child not to use the other's toys without permission of the owner. I believe she will succeed.

Baby's Summer Travel Is Best In A Basket Cradle

WASHINGTON, (AP)—"This little baby went to market" is the paraphrase the U. S. Children's Bureau is making on the old nursery rhyme.

Only, the baby doesn't go to market. He goes to the woods, the mountains or the seashore, at ease in a good old-fashioned market basket.

His mother may be listed in the social register or at some employment agency. It matters not. The correct summer mode of travel for the baby as advocated by bureau experts is the same.

"A market basket is much more comfortable for the baby than mother's arms," the bureau says, "and more convenient for the mother. The basket should have a handle low enough to hold the baby safely inside.

"It should be arranged like a bed with a thin mattress, rubber sheeting, blanket and, if desired, a sleeping bag. A cotton mosquito netting should be brought along to cover the basket. A young baby should stay in the basket throughout the journey except when it is time for feeding, bathing, changing the clothing or exercise."

The bureau advocates a small hammock for baby on an automobile trip. If on a picnic, he can be transferred to the basket from his car-hammock.

Baby should go bare-footed on a long, hot journey in summer, the bureau advises, and dressed only in a band, a diaper and a thin, short-sleeved, low-necked dress or slip.

Cooler clothing should be at hand in case the temperature drops suddenly.

If this baby has chosen this way of going to market, he has the U. S. Children's Bureau behind him. Nothing is better for the baby than a basket when he feels the urge to take a trip, the bureau says.

Miss Graves Feted At Morning Affair

Misses Johnnie Jo Whitley and Roberta Myrick entertained Sans Souci club Wednesday morning with a bridge-breakfast in the Myrick home at 1402 Avenue S, complimentary to Miss Lois Graves, who is to be married Sunday.

Club members who attended were Misses Mary Lee Bardwell, Graves, Dorothy Rushing, Catherine Jameson, Virginia Bacon, Rosemary Leaverton and Zona Stiles.

Other guests were Misses Mary Meador, Ruth Slaton, Virginia Conley, Billie Bob Jones, Wanda Butler, Clodele Whitley and Virginia Hodges of Shreveport, La.

Miss Bardwell scored high in bridge and Miss Rushing cut high.

M. H. Duncan, superintendent of schools, is reported confined to his home on account of illness.

G. E. McPherson made a business trip to Levelland yesterday.

Methodists Are In Levelland At Meet

A group of women from First Methodist church is in Levelland today attending the first of four zone meetings to be conducted during the next year.

This work is a part of the Woman's Missionary society.

Mrs. A. N. Gamble is the new zone leader. Mrs. G. C. Wolffarth, former zone leader and now district secretary, is to be one of the speakers this afternoon.

Others from here who are scheduled to take part on the program are Mrs. J. O. Haymes, Mrs. Ed O'Sullivan, Mrs. C. A. Bickley and Mrs. R. T. Campbell.

OLIVER SAYS LEGISLATION TO HALT "LEGALIZED ROBBERY" OF OIL NEEDED

BY BENNETT WOLFE,
Associated Press Staff Writer

TULSA, Okla., July 23.—The root of the petroleum industry's troubles lies in the archaic legal concept that oil is akin to wild game, becoming property only when reduced to possession, declares Earl Oliver, chairman of the unit operation committee of the American institute of mining engineers, in an article to be published in this week's issue of the Oil and Gas Journal.

In the opinion of Oliver and more than 200 engineers and lawyers who aided him in a study of unit operation, the fundamental step to be taken for stabilization of the industry is a revision of the law of oil and gas to make impossible the "legalized robbery" that exists under the principal that oil belongs to anyone who can produce it.

Co-operation Needed

Unit operation, designed to stop competitive drilling drainage with its wasteful practices and results, calls for co-operative development of an oil field through a pooling of acreage, drilling costs and production.

Oliver points out that the owner of potential oil land now has no protection against a rapacious neighbor except to race with him to the oil sand and that no matter what the condition of the market an oil producer can not stop drilling, can not stop producing and cannot limit his production unless his neighbors do the same.

"This presumed right of every drilling site owner to do what he likes regardless of the effect upon others has reduced the industry to a condition of anarchy." The Journal comments editorially. Matters have come to such a pass that nothing short of a revolutionary change in the whole habit of thought about oil production can save the industry."

Offers Remedy

The remedy, as urged by Oliver, is legislation which recognizes that each landowner or leaseholder is entitled to share proportionately in the oil and gas in the common reservoir underneath his land.

"The havoc that has come upon the industry over the last two years as the result of unrestrained competitive development at Oklahoma City and East Texas is familiar history," Oliver writes. "Vast reserves of natural resources have been ruthlessly destroyed without benefitting society.

"It is a singular fact that contemporaneously with ruthless waste there comes a demoralization of the petroleum industry. Such waste and such demoralization have always gone hand in hand as those familiar with Spindletop, Glen Pool, Healdton, Cushing, Smackover, and East Texas well know.

"Three basic facts account for this: (a) There are many separately owned tracts of land in each pool; (b) Oil and gas deposits are migratory, and (c) in each pool there is a limit to the current market demand for these substances. Lately oil has dropped from $1.30 a barrel to 20-cents, with the result that the petroleum industry is paralyzed, fortunes are wiped out, and labor goes begging for bread."

Courts Blamed

The universal thread running through all ideas contributed to his study of unit operation, Oliver says, is that the oil industry's plight is directly due to the "peculiar method of determining ownership in oil and gas that was devised by early courts at a time when the characteristics of oil and gas deposits were little known."

"The correlative rights of the prospective owners" he continues, "were poorly refined and consequently not stisfactory means of regulating either the amount or method of taking by each owner has been developed.

"Obviously, before relief will come to the petroleum industry some method must be devised that will protect each owner, big and little, in his just shares of oil and gas from the common reservoir without the necessity of bringing them to the surface to provide against their appropriation by others.

Unit operation offers that method. Proration based on acreage content likewise offers it. While successful efforts both in unit operation and equitable proration demonstrate these results can be obtained under present laws, the handicaps are so great as to make them almost unsurmountable.

W. P. Z. Gorman, chief counsel of the Skelly Oil company, who collaborated with Oliver in his study, said he believed the state clearly had the power to require unit operation.

LUBBOCK HUBBERS WILL MEET TAHOKA UNDER LIGHTS TONIGHT

WALKER GAINS PRESTIGE BY DRAW WITH SHARKEY

Collier Parris

The Bulldogs of Tahoka and the Hubbers of Lubbock meet tonight in a baseball game at Merrill Park. Game called at 8:30 o'clock.

Tahoka has been winning quite a number of games with advanced teams this season. They may be tough tonight. It will be the Bulldogs' first attempt under the lights; also the first meeting with the Hubbers of the season.

Skip Taylor's 1930 Bulldogs gave the Hubbers plenty of trouble in running over Leuenberger's Hubbers during the South Plains League season. Lack of competent pitchers held the Hubbers down last year. The hitting power was about as strong as the present club's but the pitching was not there.

Something a bit different from the usual routine of baseball games is tentatively promised for mid-August when the Hubbers entertain a nationally known girls' team of Wichita, Kansas, on the local lot. These ball playing females have been touring the eastern states this summer, playing in large cities and piling up a pretty fair winning average. Composed wholly of girls, the team, sponsored by a sporting goods company, has written local authorities asking for a booking with the Hubbers. They'll probably get it.

Some of the Hubbers say the girls baseball team will "get it in the neck" when they come here. They didn't say whether the punishment would be inflicted before, during or after the game.

Weldon Chapman, Lubbock High head coach, dropped in for a parley this morning and, as usual, said several things of interest. Chapman is far from downhearted over the prospects facing him and the Lubbock interests this fall. He didn't come right out and say things that Amarillo and Pampa would give money to hear about but he did mention that Sew On and So Forth might be implicated with Et Cetera in actions that might spell bx&xs$'-1-4z to anyone or any team aspiring to make a bzzs&3c@c out of the Westerners this fall.

For instance, there is X. 9. Rxsqjvbgkqj whose presence on the local high school grid club may be of material importance, and there is Bill Zxrvbgkqjxz, a lineman, whose ability to grasp passing runners by the nape of the pants and seat of the neck, thereby preventing unwise touchdowns may be of downright benefit to the local hopes.

Chapman then spoke English for a while and we learned that the Westerner club of 1931 may see the return of one Elmer Calhoun, a tackle who played last in 1928 but who is still eligible for the Westerner team. Calhoun has been out of school during the past two years but still has a year of eligibility and high school work.

O. H. Britain, candidate for quarterback last year but who left Lubbock before the season was over, may be back for more this year. He is a husky little chap, full of fight, if we remember him correctly, and capable of doing his turn. His home is in Dallas, or his home used to be in Dallas. His family resides here, we understand, and Britain spends part of his time at both places.

The City League season is on again and the five-club loop promises plenty of baseball from now until the latter part of August. The Advertisers dropped just before the first half ended, leaving five clubs. The Wholesalers were strengthened in the shakeup, and the latter gang looms as one of the toughest clubs in the circuit now. Already they have won two games, these Wholesalers, after going through the first half victoryless. Their 3 to 0 shutout over the Texas Utilities on Tuesday must have been pretty sweet.

Professor Chase is right proud of his TUCO bunch, and rightly, so. The wire-cutters came very near winning the first half title in a walk, but the Avalanche-Journal team, representing this newspaper, if you please, ahem, worked itself into a tie with TUCO. Now they've got to play it off, and they're talking of playing a three-game series at night under the Merrill Park lights. Should draw pretty well, because there is more interest than you might imagine in the City League this season.

Del Morgan, erstwhile coach at Texas Tech, is still vacationing in California, and his old sparring partners and pals, Ben Condray and "Gray Eagle" Pender, grand stand coaches deluxe, are pining for him. A card from Delicate Del the other day said simply, "Still on top, Del" and was postmarked Catalina Island. If they have a postoffice there. We look for him to return about August 1, in time to get a haircut before the coaching school.

SLATON LOSES LAST NIGHT TO LOCALS

HUBMEN WIN GAME BY ONE-RUN MARGIN; TAHOKA STRONG

Making their first appearance on the local lot in nearly two weeks, the Lubbock Hubbers met and disposed of another victim last night when the Slaton Tigers went down before a 4 to 3 attack.

The Tigers came down from Slaton to get even with Dirty Waller's Hubbers for another game that went against them here not so long ago, and they came very near getting away with it. Their thirst for vengeance was so marked that the nine hits gathered off Pitcher Pressley was one more than the Hubbers could take off Neil. But a single and a triple in the fourth inning on the part of Hubmen brought in the run that proved the margin of victory.

Returning To Form

While not yet returned to pre-Amarillo-Tournament form, the Hubbers executed their plays in fair fashion last night and by tonight when they meet the Tahoka Bulldogs on the local field for the first time this season they should be back in style.

Tahoka comes here tonight with a record of victories over South Plains teams this season, but it has so happened that the Hubbers and Bulldogs have not met. It is reported that Blue-Eyes Graham, the little righthander who pitched the Hubbers to victory in one game of the tournament last week, has signed with the Bulldogs and will work on the Tahoka mound tonight. Willis Knight probably will pitch for Lubbock. The game starts at 8:30 o'clock.

Slaton Leads Off

Slaton scored twice in the third inning to start the running department of the game. Each side got on in the first two innings but lacked the punch to get around. In the third, Lefty Gregory, playing first base for Slaton, hit a long one to center that was good for three bases. Woolever struck out but Holland, attempting to sacrifice, was safe on the play at first while Gregory slipped in under Galey. Then Pressley made his unwarranted toss to the outfield and Holland went on around and across. Johnson rolled to Breedlove, Pair was safe when Knight failed to keep a foot on base and Neil grounded out to Knight.

The Hubbers retaliated and took a lead that, it happened, was never relinquished. Galey started the rally by walking. Pressley got a hit, and Breedlove laid one down to advance the runners. Then Hilliard banged one against the right field boards for three bases and two runs. He followed his predecessors across when Gaither singled. It was the one act which saved Gaither from a bad day. The only chance he got in the field came near hitting him in the dome and he muffed it. He was up three times with ducks on the pond.

FRANCE IS TO DEFEND CUP

BRITISH CHALLENGERS MEET FRENCHMEN IN GAMES TOMORROW

PARIS, July 23 (AP)—France's tennis warriors defend the Davis Cup tomorrow against a new team of challengers. The British team which reached the challenge round by upsetting the perennial finalists, the United States, is to open its series against a weakened and somewhat doubtful set of French defenders at Auteuil.

France is the favorite to hold the historic trophy despite the series of misfortunes which have weakened the ranks of the French aces. Illness has made Rene LaCoste a non-playing captain of the French team this year instead of one of the strongest of the defenders. Henri Cochet also has been ill while Jean Borotra has been complaining recently that he is not in his best form.

Expert observers fail to find enough weakness in the French team to make it a probable victim of the Englishmen. Despite his complaints, Borotra appears to be playing well while Cochet is recovering rapidly from the slump that brought his elimination from the Wimbledon championships by Nigel Sharpe and says he is satisfied with his play.

The English team of H. W. "Bunny" Austin, Fred Perry and George P. Hughes, undoubtedly is strong, but the consensus is that it was the superior experience of this trio rather than their greater skill that enabled them to honquer the Americans in the interzone final.

Art Shires, one time "Whataman" of the Washington Senators and Chicago White Sox, is one of the best hitters in the American association. Playing first base for Milwaukee, he recently took the league lead with an average of .400.

Texas Loop Big Guns Are Intact

SCHEDULE FOR CITY LEAGUE

Following is the City Baseball league schedule for the remainder of the season:

HOUSTON, DALLAS AND BEAUMONT HOLD TO THEIR POSITIONS

BY BILL PARKER,
Associated Press Sports Writer

Houston, Beaumont and Dallas, current big guns aiming for the second half Texas league pennant, stopped their opposition Wednesday to remain intact in their respective one, two, three pennant positions.

Beaumont opened a sunshine series with Fort Worth in the Exporters backyard with a 4 to 0 decision. Guy Green, relief hurler, was the hero of the combat. He strolled to the mound in the ninth with bases loaded, none out and retired Fort Worth without a run, saving a shutout game for Buck Marrow who got credit for the victory. Marrow was constantly in trouble, but three double plays and other fast fielding saved him. Neither side scored until the last of the fourth when Beaumont chased over three runs. Leon Chagnon was the losing pitcher. He has now won ten and lost eight. Fort Worth's failure to hit in the pinches left thirteen runners stranded. Both clubs secured nine hits, with the Exporters earning two of their runs.

In Pitching Duel

Tex Carleton of Houston and Ash Hillin of Wichita Falls tied up in a pitcher's battle at Houston with Carleton a 3 to 2 winner. It gave the Houston hurler his 13th victory this season. Carleton allowed six hits against seven off Hillin. Buck Stanton, league's leading hitter, failed to connect for a safe blow in four times up.

Larry Cox, recently traded to Galveston by Fort Worth, continues to win games for the Buffaneers. Larry's hit in the seventh sent two runs across and gave Galveston a 3 to 1 verdict over Shreveport. This was a splendid exhibition of pitching between Thormahlen of Galveston and Lefty Lee for Shreveport. Thormahlen turned in a four hit performance against Lee's superb two hit contest. After Cox's hit in the seventh had put the Buccaneers in front 2 to 1, Galveston scored again in the eighth. Bell's triple and Cox's single were all the hits Galveston got off Lee. Grigan, Solters and Whelan collected Shreveport's four hits off Thormahlen. Solters hit went for a triple. Lee fanned eight; Thormahlen four.

Steers Win

The Dallas Steers opened their series at San Antonio with a 9 to 4 victory. Lefty Minogue and Lou Garland toiled on the mound for Dallas and out-pitched Hobo Carson, Lefty Stein and Walker.

INTERNATIONAL TINGE TO THE ST. PAUL OPEN

ST. PAUL, July 23 (AP)—A host of professional and amateur golfers from several countries gathered here today for final practice rounds and gave the St. Paul $10,000 open tournament starting tomorrow, an international tinge.

France, Germany, England and the Philippines were represented along with the United States and Canada.

Harry Cooper, Chicago professional, who won the championship here last year, carded a 79 in a practice session.

Tony Manero, last year's runner-up, shot a 76 as did Horton Smith, unattached, who finished third in 1930.

The international stars on hand for the opening tomorrow include Percy Alliss, Berlin, Audrey Boomer, France; Augusta Boyer, France; Leslie Cotton, England and Larry Montes, Philippines.

There will be 18 holes of medal play tomorrow and Saturday with the final 36 holes on Sunday for the 60 low qualifiers among the 180 contestants.

Total number of motor cars on the roads in Britain is 1,050,000.

SAILOR BOOED IN FIFTEEN ROUND GO

HURLY-BURLY BATTLE DECLARED EVEN BY FIGHT JUDGES

BY EDWARD J. NEIL,
Associated Press Sports Writer

BROOKLYN, N. Y., July 23. (AP)—The official decision says Jack Sharkey didn't lose, but on Lion-hearted little Mickey Walker fightdom today showers all the acclaim and golden promises that go to a newcomer scaling the heavyweight heights.

In the very heart of the heavyweight picture is the rugged, grinning, battle-scarred face of the chunky fellow from Rumson, N. J., welterweight and middleweight titleholder in his time, now at least as good as Sharkey because two learned judges and a referee compromised on a draw after fifteen rounds of hurly-burly battle in Ebbets Field last night.

Crowd Boos Gob

Certainly Mickey turned in the most surprising upset of many a fistic season as he harassed the big sailorman through the rough and tumble battle that revealed Sharkey in another of his disappointing struggles and gave a crowd of 32,000 a chance to boo and exult in his discomfiture.

There was no questioning whom the crowd thought had won but the arbiters arrived at the compromise decision by every possible route left open to them.

Referee Arthur Donovan, for instance, thought the bulldog courage, the eternal aggressiveness of the little fellow who gave Sharkey an advantage of 29 pounds, inches in height and reach, entitled Mickey to the decision. Judge George Kelly voted Sharkey the award apparently on the basis of his right hand punching that gashed Walker's left eyelid in the fifth round and opened it wide in the closing session. Judge Charles F. Mathison chose the middle course and called it a draw while the Associated Press score sheet counted up the same way, with seven rounds for Walker, seven for Sharkey and one even.

Honors To Walker

But regardless of the futility of the decision, as futile as the battle itself, honors for the evening swept into the lap of Walker, the 169½ pounder who dared tackle a Sharkey weighing 198½, out-bulled and out-punched him for ten rounds, and slipped back only when the embattled sailor rallied fiercely to

RAINBOWS DOWN LEGION-LIONS

Three runs in the ninth inning broke a 1 to 1 deadlock and won the City League game for the Rainbows, 4 to 1, over the Legion-Lions yesterday afternoon at Merrill Park. The game was scheduled for five innings, the regular time for City League contests, but the score was tied in the fourth and the playing went on.

Hilliard tossed for the Rainbows with Crittenden toiling for the Lions.

What promises to be one of the most interesting games of the week will be played this afternoon when the Avalanche-Journal and Texas Utilities teams clash. The clubs tied for first place in the first half race and are due to enter a playoff series soon for that distinction.

REMY KREMER WOULD RECEIVE MANY VOTES FOR CHAMPION OF HARD LUCK PLAYERS OF 1931 BASEBALL SEASON

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.,
Associated Press Sports Writer

When the nominations open for the champion hard luck player of the 1931 baseball season, Remy Kremer of the Pittsburgh Pirates is in line for a good many votes.

He has been pitching a fairly good brand of ball, but the Pirates seldom have backed him up and as a result he is far down the National league list with only six victories against 12 defeats. So far he has pitched 160 innings and allowed 164 hits. Yesterday he suffered another setback to make it four defeats in his last five starts, three of them by one run margins. He pitched eight shutout innings against Brooklyn in the second game of yesterday's doubleheader but lost a 3-2 decision to Freddy Heimach in one bad inning, the second, when three hits and a bad throw by Traynor gave the Robins all their runs.

Pirates Win First

Pittsburgh won the first game 10-6 when the Brooklyn defense went to pieces in the sixth inning just as Joe Shaute hit a wild streak. The Pirates scored six runs on only one hit.

The Chicago Cubs furnished the real feature for the National league yesterday as they edged out Boston 5 to 4 in an 11 inning clash and climbed back to third place in the standing.

Yanks, Tigers Split

With the American league race looking more and more like a cut and dried affair, the New York Yankees stepped out to grab a share of the limelight. The Yanks got only an even break with Detroit, losing the first game 3-2 as George Uhle held them to six hits and winning the second 9-5. Babe Ruth clouted two homers and Lou Gehrig one.

Philadelphia's Athletics increased their margin to nine full games with their ninth straight triumph.

Deep in the second division, the Chicago White Sox and Boston Red Sox put on a good private scrap, dividing a double bill.

Because of the strong opposition of local motoring interests, Austria is not expected to enforce its new regulation requiring the addition of 25 per cent of Austrian alcohol to gasoline used for internal-combustion engines.

OUNTY TAX RATE IS TO BE FIXED

ubbock County Commissioners rt probably will fix the county rate for the ensuing year at a eting next Monday, County ge E. L. Pitts said yesterday.

The tax levy cannot be ordered nally until the meeting of August 10, since a state law requires that such matters shall be passed at a regular meeting of the court with all members present. The statute designates the second Monday of each month as the regular meeting date for commissioners' court, the county judge said.

The tax question was discussed at the meeting of the commissioners' court July 13, but no action was taken at that time since the county judge was absent from the county.

King County Job To Be Awarded July 30

A contract for grading and drainage work on highway No. 4 in King county, from Guthrie county seat north to the Cottle county line, is to be let by the state highway department July 30, Guy R. Johnston, district construction engineer, said.

Distance of the project is 18 miles. This is the connecting road of a main artery into the north Panhandle from the central part of the state.

The road south probably will be let the following month. This distance is approximately 12 miles.

, Road improvement schemes costing $150,000,000 have been approved in Great Britain, while others to cost $125,000,000 have been approved in principle.

Thought For Today

The face of the Lord is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.—Psalms 34:16.

* * *

We cannot do evil to others without doing it to ourselves.—Desmahis.

Billboard Menace

The campaign against the roadside billboard has been in operation for a good many years now; but sometimes a weary citizen is compelled to wonder if anything but axes and sticks of dynamite will ever rid the highways of these commercialized scenery destroyers.

The American Nature Association recently issued for the National Council for the Protection of Roadside Beauty a little booklet surveying the roadsides of California—one of a series of surveys which so far have covered five other states. It is a discouraging but useful little pamphlet.

California probably has as much natural beauty as any other state in the union, if not more. Furthermore, California's citizens are eager to make their roads as attractive as possible, and have spent a great deal of money in beautifying them, planting long stretches of trees and shrubs to hide scars of construction or relieve monotonous vistas.

But the booklet contains some dismal pictures.

We see beautiful Mount Shasta, for instance, rising above a long row of blatant billboards. We see huge advertising signs flanking a road that leads to another snow-capped mountain. We see another sign rearing its ugliness in front of a state-planted grove of trees along another highway. We see one stretch of road containing 14 billboards in a fifth of a mile. We see billboards erected at dangerous curves, where there should be nothing to distract the motorist's attention from the roadway. We see miserable, sign-dotted filling station shacks in and near national forests.

What are we to do about this problem, anyway? It seems almost impossible to devise laws that will cover it. Not even the enlightened attitude of California's citizens has saved the state from billboards. Public sentiment so far seems to be powerless.

The only remedy, it may be, is to keep harping on the subject until every motorist takes each billboard as a personal insult. That might get results and save the scenery.

Ninety-Five A Day

Unless there is a sharp drop in motor vehicle fatalities in the second half of the year, 35,000 Americans will be killed by automobiles in 1931, according to figures just issued by the Travelers Insurance Company. This will be approximately 2000 more than were killed in 1930, and would make the loss of life average about 95 a day for the whole country.

If we could once appreciate the gravity of this situation we would undoubtedly be moved to do something about it. But the figures somehow fail to move us. We can't translate them into reality.

If some nation-wide epidemic were killing 95 people a day we would insist on speedy and drastic action. But it's only automobiles—so we do nothing, and the toll goes a little higher each year.

Why Helium Is Safe

The tremendous value of helium gas for dirigibles is emphasized anew by the accident which destroyed the Goodyear-Zeppelin airship Mayflower at Kansas City the other day.

Driven by a high wind, the Mayflower ran into high tension wires, took fire and burned. The four men aboard were injured but escaped alive.

The Mayflower was filled with helium—and the four undoubtedly owe their lives to that fact. For if a ship filled with explosive hydrogen had run into high tension wires and caught fire, every man aboard would have been burned to a crisp. Helium, which neither burns nor explodes, kept a bad accident from becoming a terrible tragedy.

SWAN

In New York With Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, July 23 — Pinochle is more than a card game in New York; it is something of a legend.

It is associated with those famous old-timers who gathered about tables at the theatrical clubs and with the thousand-and-one little delicatessen and beer resorts scattered over the metropolitan area.

Some of the city's most famous individuals may have gathered fame as actors, singers or business men but their cronies judge them by their pinochle.

To be sure, bridge is played by an infinitely greater number of persons, and Park Avenue may be labeled as an auction or contract section. But Park Avenue is relatively new as this town goes and the oldsters have been pinochle-minded since those dear old days before their blood pressure went up a dozen points.

Enter the Lambs or the Friars or the Players Club and you'll see the gents, whose names are already creeping into history, spending their declining days in a contest that has a friendly bitterness about it to be found in no other spot.

Take, for instance, David Warfield, William Morris, or Morris Gest, or a dozen others.

Until he was stricken with an illness that threatened to be fatal, Warfield could be found almost any day of the week at the Lambs, doing a pinochle marathon with his cronies. Just cat-acorner from the club entrance was the Belasco Theater. Because Warfield and the late Belasco had parted company in wrath, comments were to be heard at the card table that are not printable in a family newspaper. But the feud was healed long before Belasco passed on.

Friends and relatives of Morris Gest try their darndest to keep him from the pinochle boards, for he is no longer a youngster. Despite his years, the famous vaudeville pioneer will "sneak away" and join his comrades at the Friars, and there they will play all through the night. The actual money involved is likely to be no more than $8.40, but they will keep going until dawn comes through the windows.

Joe Weber of Weber and Fields is as much of a "pinochle hound" as Gest.

For years the elderly medicos from Bellevue Hospital have foregathered for their game at Louis Siegel's in Third Avenue, not far from Manhattan's emergency hospital. In the dear old days when beer was beer, this spot was patronized by hundreds of medical students, internes and young practitioners who now are graybeards. Habit still draws them to the place, although times have changed.

Through the cloak-and-suit belt there are hundreds of little cafes where the proprietors prepare the cards and the tables as soon as the demitasse has been consumed.

Over on Second Avenue and Third; up in the Bronx and in parts of Harlem, the kibitzers gather. There is a sort of friendly enmity which goes on year after year. Many players come tottering in on crutches and wheel chairs, and thus they continue until the grave digger deals the last spade.

Legion Will Name Confab Delegates

Allen Brothers post, No. 148, of the American Legion tonight will name its delegates to the state Legion convention at El Paso, according to Glen Hess, commander here. The meeting will be at the Legion home.

Earl Earp of Sweetwater, commander of the seventeenth district, will address the Lubbock Legionnaires at tonight's meeting. Earp was endorsed as a candidate for the state commandership at the divisional convention held here in June.

Botanists are the envy of pedestrians because they risk no dangers in making a crossing.

What President Hoover hopes will result from the disarmament conference, as we see it, is that the powers will greet each other with open arms.

Charles Pergler Determined To Be Recognized As Citizen Of Czechoslovakia, Which He Helped Win Independence

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, July 23 — Mr. Charles Pergler, who is sometimes called "the man without a country," does not like to be called that and will not be called that any longer than he can help it.

DUTCHER

Pergler used to be a lawyer in Iowa and is now lecturing on American constitutional law and international relations at a university in Washington. But he has been an important figure in the politics of Czechoslovakia and insists that he is a citizen there even though a Czechoslovak electoral court has said he is not.

He is an interesting type, square-faced and genial, only slightly grayed and apparently in his forties.

He was born in what is now Czechoslovakia, but his parents came to America and he was graduated from Chicago's public schools. He returned to his native land when his father died but then came back to the United States in 1903, becoming first a journalist, then a naturalized American citizen and a lawyer in Iowa. He left practice when the war broke out to join the now President T. G. Masaryk in the Czech independence movement. With creation of the republic, Masaryk named him minister to Japan.

"The necessary oath of allegiance meant forfeiture of my American citizenship and that was a precious thing," Pergler says. "But I yielded to President Masaryk's assertion that the country of my birth needed men and became a Czechoslovak citizen when I took the oath. I am still a Czechoslovak citizen."

Pergler lost the diplomatic job but since has become a leader of a new opposition party, the National Socialist. He was elected to Parliament in the last election. The national electoral court later excluded him, however, declaring he wasn't a citizen.

"There Is No Liberty"

Pergler says the Czechoslovak government is a reactionary oligarchy, the court which denied his citizenship is a political tool and that its ruling was designed to help Premier Edward Benes get rid of an uncompromising critic.

"There is today no liberty, civil or political, in Czechoslovakia," he declares. "Press censorship is worse than it was under Austria before the war.

"The unheard-of action of the alleged court caused such an explosion of public indignation that this body, subservient as it is to the ruling powers, has been forced to take the matter up again. The so-called court is elected by Parliament and consequently is a committee of the political majority. The nature of its rulings may best be judged by the fact it has often held that a deputy's expulsion by a political party results in forfeiture of his seat—something clearly contrary to law.

"Legally the electoral court's finding is sheer nonsense and morally it is an unheard-of thing in the history of any nation. I know of no case in the past where any self-respecting body has declared to be a non-citizen a man born in that country, possessing no other citizenship, who had been active in winning its independence. I am a Czechoslovak citizen for all purposes except holding a parliamentary seat and the proper authorities admit that I am even a duly registered voter in Prague."

Will Appeal to World Court

Pergler was teaching constitutional and international law in this country, however, a month before he was elected to Parliament, in October, 1929. He then sat for a year and a half in the chamber at Prague, serving on the foreign affairs committee and making speeches, especially about foreign policy. He says the Benes forces admitted that the electoral court's recent ruling would have been different had he "behaved properly."

"Proper behavior," he says would have meant abject service to the dictatorship. The court vote was on strictly party lines.

Contending that the barring of a deputy by "brute force" is an incident of international significance and that his Czech citizenship is guaranteed by the peace treaties, Pergler promises:

"If the action of the 'court' is made permanent I shall protest to all the signatory powers and I shall not be surprised if one or more of them submit the problem to the Permanent Court of International Justice at the Hague."

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1458 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Feminine Hygiene," "Indigestion and Constipation." "The Care of the Hair and Skin." "Infant Feeding" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Diet," "List of Books for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

RINGWORM ON INCREASE

Dr. Clendening

It is true that athlete's foot does not occur exclusively in athletes, and also that it does not occur exclusively on the feet. The hands, the armpits, the skin between the legs (the crura), the face and neck are also likely to be places where it appears. If a person gets the fungus which causes it on the fingers, and especially under the nails, he is likely to transmit it by scratching to any part of the body.

It goes by various names besides athlete's foot—ringworm, dhobie itch, jockey-strap itch and red flap.

At the June meeting of the American Medical association it was announced that it is greatly on the increase in this country, and is one of the three or four commonest diseases of the skin.

It is caused by a miscroscopic vegetable fungus, entirely invisible to the naked eye. The name of the fungus is trichophton, although there are numerous related members of the same family. When it gets under the skin it grows in the form of a fine, lacy network. In this way the fungus may infiltrate the skin very widely. It also goes into a resting, or spore, stage, which may remain quiescent and produce no eruption on the skin. When it gets out of the resting stage, activity in the skin may again be seen. This is what makes the disease so chronic and liable to recurrence.

The fungus gets into the skin through small fissures, and develops best in warm, moist spots. Thus the skin between the toes is particularly likely to be affected. A great number of these infections are picked up in shower baths. The mechanism is easy to understand. Staying in a shower for some time the feet are constantly wet and macerated by the water. The water splashes on the floor of the bath and dislodges the fungus, which has been deposited there from the feet of other people. On the soft moistened skin of the bather's feet they find a good soil for their growth.

Prevention is easier and more satisfactory than cure. Most gymnasiums provide paper bath slippers, which should be worn by every one even while standing in the shower. A dry pair should be substituted while walking through the room. If infection occurs do not get your finger nails infected by scratching. If you use a brush to scrub the feet, have it boiled every day, and do not use the same brush on your fingernails or hands.

"Scotty" Steps Out

"Death Valley Scotty"—beg pardon, Mr. Walter Valley Scott—is stepping out into Los Angeles social circles after many years of voluntary exile in his beloved Death Valley castle. The famous prospector is here shown being taught the latest one, two, three, kick by Miss Evelyn Smith.

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

(By Associated Press)

To Learn Dance

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—Chinese section hands are going to learn the Gandy dance. H. K. Chang, young Chinese engineer studying American railroad methods, has been watching Gandy dancers rock back and forth on a shovel handle to pack ballast under ties. He'll show the coolies how it is done.

Doubles In Play

NEW YORK.—Michael Strange, playwright and formerly Mrs. John Barrymore, is doubling in a play she has written about Lord and Lady Byron. She plays the role of Lady Byron in one scene and later appears as the poet. The play is a tryout production at Mt. Kisco, N. Y.

Likes Americans

NEW YORK.—Joseph Hervesheimer, novelist, has returned from Europe with renewed enthusiasm for the American girl. Comparing her with the European girl, he says she has a better sense of humor, more intelligence and a prettier figure. One can kid American girls and have a good time and they'll take it all in fun, but European girls think a man is getting serious if he asks her to dance.

Rustlers Caught

SYDNEY, Australia—The airplane has become the nemesis of cattle rustlers. A gang is in jail because airplanes spotted them in the mountain trails and pointed them out to pursuing horsemen.

Wholesale Catch

ELING, England.—An angler here caught a tope, a member of the shark family and found he had 19 fish. There were 18 small fish inside the tope.

Pound A Term

LONDON.—Boys at Mill Hill school get one pound a term. M. L. Jack says that amount, about $5, is enough spending money if a boy is to learn self-denial.

Must Use Chinese

NANKING—Say it in Chinese. That is the fiat of the government to merchants. Business men who use foreign languages in their signs, billboards or posters are liable to a reprimand for being unpatriotic.

Move Espoused

LONDON—Sun bathers are unwelcome in the sunlight league. The purpose of the league is to encourage Britons to get plenty of sunshine but members say, sun bathers have espoused the movement "only to gain their own ugly ends."

A curious circumstance is the great number of persons living in Poland who are of Scottish descent and are still bearing Scottish names. In general, these individuals are descended from adventurers who wandered across Europe to seek employment in the Russian armies as far back as the seventeenth century.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KING

(READ THE STORY. THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Travel Man explained how rice, when under water, came up nice. The Tinies watched the plowing from a dry spot right nearby. Then Clowny said, "That ox is tame and, if you'll let me, I'll be game to ride his back while he is plowing. Tell me, can I try?"

"We'll see," replied the Travel Man. "I will arrange it, if I can." And then he asked the man who owned the ox. The man said, "Yes!" The animal was driven near and Clowny, with no thought of fear, hopped on his back and, as he rode, he cried, "I'm good, I guess!"

The others also tried their luck and once the ox almost got stuck while plodding through a real soft spot. He squirmed and splashed around. Poor Coppy, who was on his back, said, "Gee, I guess he's off his track." But soon the ox was quite all right and on much safer ground.

When everyone had had a ride the Travel Man exclaimed, "I've tried to think of something else to see and now I have a plan. Pineapples grow not far from here and this is just the time of year when they are nice and ripe. Come on, we'll find some, if we can."

They reached a big plantation and one Tiny shouted, "This is grand! Just look how neat the rows are made and, my, the fruit is big. I think it would be very nice if we could each have one big slice. In fact, I'd be so tickled, I would almost dance a jig."

And then they spied a Japanese out in the garden, on his knees. The Travel Man explained that Japs worked on most of the farms. And, then he called the Jap and said, "This little fellow must be fed." The Jap jumped up and brought a big pineapple in his arms.

(The Tinymites meet a strange old man in the next story.)

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, July 23 (AP) —Cotton opened about steady today although Liverpool was a shade easier than due. First trades here showed losses of one to three points and the market eased further owing to favorable weather and crops news from the belt and to the disappointing character of advices from the London conference.

October eased to 9.23 and December to 9.58, or 8 points under yesterday's close.

Near the end of the first hour the market was a shade steadier due it appeared to some covering by ring traders. Prices recovered two to three points from the early lows.

The market was moderately active during the morning and after easing off to 9.19 for October and 9.40 for December, or 12 to 13 points under yesterday's close, prices rallied on buying induced by showery weather in the belt.

October recovered to 9.34 and December to 9.55, or 15 points up from the lows and 2 to 3 points above yesterday's close.

Near mid-session the market was steady but quiet and near the highs.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, July 23 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today, 4 to 7 points lower owing to slightly easier Liverpool cables and an opening decline in the stock market.

There was Liverpool and Wall Street selling at the start but trading was generally quiet and after the call prices fluctuated irregularly within a narrow range. Selling pressure increased slightly at the end of the first half hour owing to a favorable view of the weather map which showed rain at only a few points along the east gulf coast. October sold off from 9.25 to 9.17 with the general market ruling about 9 to 11 points lower.

Liverpool cables said there had been liquidation in that market offset by scale down buying owing to the higher Bank of England discount rate. Manchester market was described as unsettled with business unimportant and yarns irregular.

After the decline had extended to 9.15 for October contracts, with the general market showing net losses of 9 to 15 points, trade absorption of contracts and the forecast for continued showery conditions attracted short covering and the market rallied to about the previous closing levels, with October selling up to 9.28. Developments in the European situation also attracted favorable attention, but after the covering movement had run its course the market became quiet and at around midday prices were ruling about 1 point net higher to 6 points net lower.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, July 23 (AP)—Grains averaged lower early today, influenced by downturns in securities. Results of the International financial conference were regarded as bearish.

Opening at 1-4 cent off to 1-4c up, wheat afterward sagged all around. Corn started 1-8 to 1-2 down and later held near the initial limits.

SURVEY PLANS AUTHORIZED

WORK ON HIGHWAY IN GAINES, ANDREWS IS ALLOWED

Authorization for a survey of state highway 137 between Seminole, county seat of Gaines county to Andrews, county seat of Andrews county, has been received by the district maintenance engineer's office of the state highway department. Guy R. Johnston, maintenance engineer, stated today.

"Plans for the highway from the Ector county line to Andrews have been completed in this office and sent to Austin," Mr. Johnston said.

To Send In Plans

"Surveying of the proposed route between Seminole and Seagraves is about finished. Plans will be made and then sent to Austin for approval."

Mr. Johnston stated that he expected the commission, after the state engineer has checked the Ector county line to Andrews plans, will let the grading and drainage contract at the August letting. It is probable that the Gaines county project can be let a month later.

Bonds Sold

Both counties have sold bonds for their part of the jobs. The state is preparing to go ahead with its plans for road construction on this highway that will connect Lubbock with McCamey through Meadow, Ropes, Brownfield, Seagraves, Seminole, Andrews and Odessa.

Meantime, it is expected that the grading and drainage contract in Lubbock county from the junction with highway 24 southwest through Wolffarth will be let this fall and the work completed.

SAILOR BOOED

try and save the day in the last four rounds.

Sharkey found the range then with the long right hand punches he had been tossing in desultory fashion all evening, the short clubbing smashes in close that opened wide the gash in Mickey's left eyelid. Blood poured down Walker's cheek, smeared his features into a red, grinning false face, and gave the arratic Sharkey the incentive to come on and tie the count.

Looked Rediculous

Sharkey plainly showed the effects of his ring layoff of over a year since he lost his chance to win the heavyweight title by fouling Max Schmeling in the fourth round two Junes ago. He boxed slowly, cautiously, and looked ridiculous at times valiantly holding on to the little fellow who hardly came up to his chin.

Only once, until the blood began to course freely down his face, was Mickey in danger. Caught off balance in the fifth round, a right to the chin bounced Walker to the carpet but he jumped up immediately and there was no count. A few seconds later another right started the cut on the eyelid and Mickey was hurt, but he weathered the round, fought his way back in the sixth, and was firing as lustily as ever from then on until Sharkey made his finishing spurt through the last four rounds. In addition to the first round, where Sharkey outboxed Walker, the fifth and sixth were the only rounds Jack won up to the twelfth. The second round was even.

Sharkey Staggered

Mickey made up for his bad fifth inning by staggering Sharkey in the eleventh. The sailor leaned back into the ropes in a graceful gesture to avoid Walker's punches and before he could get away Mickey was on him so fiercely, volleying both hands to the head and body for clean hits, that Sharkey wobbled as he pushed his way finally to the center of the ring. But aside from the fifth and eleventh rounds, and Sharkey's closing spurt, there was little action that rose above the normal.

Three times, in the fifth, eighth, and fifteenth rounds, Sharkey was warned either for low blows or butting. The big crowd that paid $210,000 to see the show booed Sharkey roundly as Referee Donovan called attention to the fouls.

The verdict, another severe blow to the fading Sharkey prestige, may mean a return bout between the pair or it may lift Walker to such prominence that he will get the title shot at Schmeling next June.

HUSBAND OF AIMEE'S MOTHER NOW HAS MORE LAWSUITS THAN HE HAS WIVES

LOS ANGELES, July 23 (AP) — Telegraphic warrants for arrest of Guy E. Hudson, charging he committed bigamy when he married Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, mother of Aimee Semple McPherson were received by the sheriff's office last night from authorities of Cowlitz county, Washington, where Hudson and Mrs. Kennedy were married June 28.

LONGVIEW, Wash., July 23 (AP)—A bigamy charge was filed here Wednesday against Guy Edward Hudson, who married Mrs. Minnie "Ma" Kennedy thus giving him more lawsuits than wives. Three other cases are pending against him.

The charge, entered in justice court by Cowlitz County Prosecutor Cecil C. Hallin, grew out of Hudson's marriage June 28 to Mrs. Kennedy on the banks of Lake Sacajawea. The complaint asserted Hudson was married at that time to Mrs. L. Margaret Newton Hudson, who has filed suit for divorce.

To Face Trial

Sheriff G. H. Gray was given a copy of the warrant to be telegraphed to authorities at Los Angeles where it was believed Hudson could be found. Hallin said as soon as Hudson is located he will seek to have him brought here for trial. The prosecutor expected to file a new charge in superior court if Hudson is located as justice court warrants are not valid out of the state.

Hallin, who has been waiting to obtain a witness of the marriage before filing the charge, said he had received additional information which prompted him to act, but he refused to name his witnesses.

Hudson also is defendant in a $250,000 breach of promise action brought by Mrs. Ethel Lee Parker Harbert, who said she gave him a $250 ring and listened to promises which he never kept.

Guests Entertained

A. L. Bettis, noble grand of Lubbock lodge 609, headed the entertainment committees. Lodge members entertained the out of town guests.

Members of the Rebekah groups were also entertained by local leaders.

The conference is one of a series over the state at which grand lodge officials will attend and inspect the work. Reports of the work of the past year, with plans for the coming year, will be discussed during the day. Examinations in secret work and conferring of grand lodge honors will also mark the sessions.

Grand lodge officials today complimented the local workers on their program. Many of the visitors were taken for automobile rides over the city.

Child Drowns When Wading At Picnic

GRAND SALINE, July 23 (AP)—Johnnie Alleyn Luce, 5, was drowned last night when she waded into deep water at the Myrtle Springs pool.

The child had gone to the pool to picnic with the Grand Saline band, of which her father, John Luce, was director. She had been wading in shallow water while the band was playing and apparently no one noticed her distress. Her body was found in seven feet of water.

BRIDGE BILL

allels the company's toll bridge from Denison, Texas, to Durant, Okla., until the state's contract obligations had been met. Senator Loy said he had been given assurance the company would ask far dissolution of the injunction once it got the right to sue.

The bill went to the house, and the senator expected it to have no trouble there.

The history of the free bridge has been a tumultous one. When the hands of Texas were tied from opening it, Governor Murray of Oklahoma said he was willing to do the work and Governor Sterling of Texas replied he felt the Oklahoma executive was exceeding his jurisdiction. Rangers were sent to keep the Texas end closed and more statements and answers followed. Governor Murray finally suggested, presumably in a jocular mood, that Texas and Oklahoma women meet at the bridgeheads and have a quilting and gossiping bee. Their presence said Murray, would cause the opening soon enough. Governor Sterling called the statement "tom foolery."

The senate action was rapid. It took five minutes to accept the favorable committee report, engross the bill, suspend the rules, put it on third reading and final passage. All this occurred while most members were reading the morning papers and many did not look up except to answer "aye." One amendment was added—an amendment saying the legislature did not admit the company had a "just or valid claim."

Senator George Purl of Dallas was the member who voted "Nay." He did not say what his objection was.

MURRAY PROMISES DETOUR SURVEY

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 23. (AP) —Governor Murray of Oklahoma promised a delegation of Gainesville, Tex., citizens today he would immediately delegate an Oklahoma highway engineer to Texas to survey and mark a detour road of four miles from U. S. Highway 77 to the Gainesville free bridge across the Red river.

The bridge is one of three ordered opened by Governor Murray. Texas rangers have blocked the south end of a bridge at Denison because of a federal court injunction against its opening but the third bridge, at Terral, is being used.

Governor Murray contended old Spanish treaties give Oklahoma jurisdiction over the south banks of the river and that the engineer thus can be sent to the Texas side.

Abusive Language Costly To Mexican

If you think some one is a so-and-so, it usually is cheaper to keep it to yourself—particularly when you're talking to that person.

A Mexican, Jose Caserco, learned that in Justice of the Peace H. K. Porter's court this morning when he was assessed a fine of $1 and costs of $22.15 for using abusive language.

A single epithet which Caserco allegedly applied to a Mexican woman acquaintance resulted in his conviction, authorities said. Caserco had figured in an estrangement of the woman and her husband, they explained.

Testimony Closed In Highway Case

CHILDRESS, July 23 (AP)—Testimony was completed in district court here today in an injunction suit seeking to restrain the state highway commission from re-routing state highway No. 4 across Childress county.

The case, which has been in court since Monday, was expected to go to the jury today.

The road had previously been routed to pass through Childress. It was later changed so that it would pass one mile outside the town. The injunction sought to prevent the state from changing the route from its previous designation.

Howard county, Texas, landowners have petitioned the legislature for a five-year closed season on pheasants, quail and doves.

SIXTEEN WILL ATTEND MEET

FOURTEEN LEADERS TO ACCOMPANY FOUR-H DELEGATIONS

Lubbock county will be represented by 16 four-H club boys and girls and about 14 adult leaders, home demonstration club members, and farmers at the annual farmers shortcourse at Texas A. & M. college, D. F. Eaton, Lubbock county agent, said.

The shortcourse will begin Monday and continue through Saturday. Most of the Lubbock delegation will go on a special Santa Fe train, Eaton said.

The train is scheduled to arrive here at 10 p. m. Saturday. Other delegations will be picked up at Post, Sweetwater and Brownwood, he said. Before reaching Lubbock, the train will gather delegates at Tulia and Plainview.

The Lubbock group will be headed by Mr. Eaton and Miss Ruth Stockton, home demonstration agent.

ing them, he said.

That was a bit too much for the woman and she called police headquarters. Out went the night car, and the suspect was approached by two bluecoats. He had no watermelons, but he expected to help his former employer and was drumming up trade.

But what about the automobile he was found sitting in—it didn't belong to him—the coppers wanted to know. The youth wasn't clear about that. He hadn't started the motor. He's in city jail. Watermelons must wait.

Sermon Announced For Revival Here

"What Is the Baptism in the Holy Spirit?" will be the subject of a sermon by Rev. Anna L. Benton tonight at the Foresquare revival in the brown tent at Nineteenth street and Avenue L.

Mary Rozell Smith will speak Friday night on "The Measuring Line." Daily services begin at 9:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. Children attending morning classes have been divided into two groups, which are competing in an attendance contest. Prizes will be awarded the winners, the evangelistic organization announced. Adult classes also are conducted each morning.

RENEWAL OF CREDIT APPROVED AT PARLEY

LONDON, July 23 (AP)—Renewal of short term credits maturing in the next few weeks and measures to establish confidence in Germany so that eventually long term credits will be possible were approved by the seven-power conference on Germany's situation at the conclusion of its work this afternoon.

The meeting was adjourned with a round of speeches in which the heads of the various delegations expressed their appreciation of the spirit of friendliness which pervaded the conference, and later there was an official communique which said "the governments are ready to cooperate so far as lies within their power to restore confidence.

There was, however, no disguising the gravity of the German representatives as they left the conference room.

Chancellor Bruening declined to make any statement, and while Foreign Minister Curtius was officially hopeful, other members of the delegation remarked privately that the conference had only tided Germany over the immediate future and the contingencies of the next few days may renew the crisis.

To Vote On Policy Of Scout District

A vote on a major policy of the Lubbock Boy Scout district will be taken at a meeting of the district committee at 8 o'clock tonight at City hall, D. T. Jennings, South Plains Area council executive, said.

R. D. Moxley, chairman of the Lubbock district committee, will preside. Crux of tonight's discussion will be methods of financing scouting in Lubbock.

CLEANUP WORK UNDER WAY

TODAY IS ALLEY DAY IN LAMESA DRIVE; PRIZE OFFERED

LAMESA, July 23.—(Special)—Thursday is alley day in the fourth cleanup program which got under way here Monday morning. Organization of the cleanup corps, division of the city into ten sections, and general beautification, cleaning of vacant lots and the business districts have been accomplished thus far.

Friday is paintup day and Saturday final inspection will be conducted. J. R. Lowrie, chairman of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce civic department, is directing the drive.

Chairman In Charge

Field work is led by divisional chairman. The cleanup organization is composed principally of Lowrie, the chairmen, and heads of the chamber of commerce, American Legion post, Study club, Luncheon club, Delphian club, Lions club, Parent-Teachers association, and Boy Scout troops Nos. 22, 23, and 44.

Out-of-town judges will grade the city Saturday to determine which section has done the most effect work in the drive. The chamber of commerce, according to Lowrie, will award the organization having done the most effective work, according to the judges, a large 14-inch silver loving cup—which will be known as "The City Beautification Cup."

English Bank Rate Hiked One Per Cent

LONDON, July 23. (AP)—The bank rate was raised today from two and one half to three and one half per cent.

The increase in the bank rate was decided upon by the directors of the Bank of England as a protective measure, made necessary because of the outflow of gold which, during the week ended yesterday, totalled 15,219,704 pounds (about $76,000,000).

LAST CONTRACT ON CEMENT TO BE LET

The last cement contract for this section of Texas this year probably will be let for a slab on state highway No. 9 from Lubbock southward to the Lynn county line, south of Woodrow, Guy R. Johnston, division construction engineer, said.

Length of the road is 12.2 miles. The contract is scheduled for the letting of July 30-31 and August 1. The slab will not be completed until late November and policy of the state highway department usually opposes cement work in the winter, Johnston explained.

Contractors are expected by Mr. Johnston to look over the job before submitting bids on it. He anticipates some lively bidding for the job among contractors who specialize on highway contracts.

Another contract to be let in this district is for the four bridges in Motley county from Matador north to the Hall county line. Grading work was let on this road at the last letting. This contract will complete the grading and drainage work for Motley county. No. 18 from Matador to the Dickens county line through Roaring Springs will be completed the latter part of August. There are three bridges on this road and these three will probably be finished a month later than the grading work.

COCHRAN HIGHWAY SURVEY FINISHED

State highway department engineers have completed a survey of a proposed highway route in Cochran county from Morton, county seat, southeastward to Whiteface, Guy R. Johnston, district construction engineer, said.

Mr. Johnston is preparing the field notes and a right of way map for the route location. This will be submitted to the county commissioner's court.

Further action by the state in the building of a highway will depend upon the securing of the right of way, Mr. Johnston said. No road will be built until all of the right of way has been secured.

Cochran county, he said, voted bonds several years ago. The county is prepared to put up its part of road construction in the building of its section of No. 24 from Lubbock west through Levelland and Morton to the New Mexico line.

Out of 8,739,197 families in G Britain 1,092,399 are childless.
