A nearly full meeting room at the Bailey County Civic Center greeted U. S. Congressman Larry Combest Thursday afternoon, when he came to Muleshoe for a Town Hall Meeting.

Speaking for nearly two hours, Congressman Combest fielded a lot of questions, and answered most questions for his constituents present.

The Republican Congressman briefly reminisced about his first visit to Muleshoe, saying there was such a bad sandstorm you "literally couldn't see across the street."

He told the group he preferred to meet with his constituents in Town Hall meetings because he can find out what the "real issues are, right out here," and not in Washington.

"I don't have all the answers, but I will be happy to try to find out the answers to any of your

Police Association

Selling Tickets

For Shotgun

Muleshoe Police Chief Wayne Holmes said the Muleshoe Police Association is selling tickets for a 12 ga. Winchester Model 140, vent rib and semi-automatic. The shotgun will be given away on July 4.

Tickets are selling for $1 each and are available from any local law enforcement officer, or Muleshoe Police Association members. The tickets will also be available at the Muleshoe Police Department or the Bailey County Sheriff's office.

Chief Holmes said the drawing will be held on Main Street immediately following the July 4th parade. He said you do not have to be present to win.

Currently, the gun is on display at Poyner's.

concerns," he added.

His first question concerned gun control and the new Gun Control Act.

"I am very opposed to gun control," said Combest. "Gun control won't solve the problem that needs to be solved. However, we will have some type of control imposed."

"Control could be a push to have registration and licensing. If that is approved, it will initiate the opportunity for other controls to be added on easily."

He said gun control is a big issue, with a lot of time and a lot of money being spent on both sides of the issue.

Congressman Combest said he expected a registration period, a waiting period to obtain a firearm, plus a ban on some types of guns.

On the Current Farm Bill, he expressed a 'hesitancy to speak about something that is not finalized as yet.'

He said that primarily, the new farm bill will be basically the same as the Farm Bill in place for the past five years, with some flexibility on acres planted. For instance, cotton farmers can divert 25 percent of their acreage and plant anything they want to. For instance, if the diverted 25 percent was planted to wheat, it would not be eligible for a target price, but would be eligible for the loan.

Pollution and the new Clean Air Act was another topic of the discussion. This included the pollution from the many underground storage tanks across the nation, and he said, "We have a problem in West Texas with our trash."

He said the Clean Air Act is penalizing West Texas for a problem West Texas didn't create. "These are things we didn't create a problem in, but we're going to have to pay for it," he added.

According to Combest, he pays more for trash removal from his Arlington, W. Va. home than for any other bill, and predicted West Texans are also facing this in the future.

He said, "We're paying the price today for turning to the federal government to solve your problems. Such problems cost, and they cost a lot."

In speaking of the Child Care Bill proposed by Congress, Combest said if the bill is approved, the federal government would determine where you could or couldn't send your children for child care.

He also talked about the new Family Leave bill, which would force businesses to hold a job for several months for someone

Early Signs Of Asthma In Children

Asthma is increasing rapidly among children. During May, National Asthma and Allergy Awareness Month, Texas Medical Association urges parents and teachers to become informed about asthma to help prevent serious episodes in children.

According to the National Center for Health Statistics, the percentage of asthma sufferers among youths under 18 with chronic respiratory problems rose from one-third in 1982 to more than half in 1987. Asthma-related deaths among children under 14 doubled between 1977 and 1983.

Pollution appears to be the major reason for the increase. Other factors contributing to the growing death rate may be misuse of medication-asthmatics taking less or more than the prescribed amount and failure to seek medical treatment.

Early treatment and compliance with a medication program are the keys to controlling asthma. Some parents mistakenly believe that treatment isn't necessary because children "outgrow" asthma. Others discontinue their child's medication without medical advice when side effects like restlessness and difficulty in concentration occur.

Larry W. James, M.D., a TMA member and Austin physician who specializes in treatment of children with asthma, emphasizes that daily medication is necessary to prevent asthma episodes and enable the asthmatic child to engage in normal activities. Should side effects appear, parents are advised to consult the child's physician for a change in dosage or medication.

To obtain early treatment of affected children, parents and teachers should be alert to the symptoms of asthma. The most obvious warning sign is shortness of breath. This symptom is typically accompanied by wheezing, coughing, rapid breathing, an anxious or scared facial expression, paleness, sweating, unexplained tiredness, restlessness during sleep, and perhaps vomiting.

Asthma often affects children more dramatically than adults. Breathing difficulties associated with asthma can be particularly frightening to a child. Untreated asthma may affect a child's ability to perform in sports, participate in social activities, and function well in school. As a result, the child may suffer low self-esteem and other emotional problems.

With early treatment and ongoing management of their condition, asthmatic children can be spared the traumatic experiences of frequent or serious breathing difficulties, along with related emergency room visits and hospitalization. Activities important to the child's development need not be restricted when asthma is controlled.

Pointing out that many Olympic athletes have asthma, Dr. James says, "Exercise-induced wheezing can be prevented by the use of a bronchodilator inhaler before physical activity." As a result, cooperation of teachers and coaches in the treatment program is essential to the effective management of asthma in children.

The Texas Medical Association is a professional organization of more than 29,000 physicians and medical student members. It is based in Austin and has 117 component county medical societies around the state. The Association represents more than 80 percent of the state's physicians, and its goal is to improve the health of Texans through the professional and personal development of its members.

Parents, Motorist Warned To Watch For Children

It's the beginning of summer and with it brings an end of another school year. Children will soon be filling the streets to play and parents will be planning for that summer vacation.

Major Vernon Cawthon, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, reminds parents and motorists that safety should continue to be part of their daily routine.

Parents should instruct their children in the safe operation of all recreational equipment, such as; all terrain vehicles, bicycles, scooters, motorbikes and skateboards. Instruction on proper use, care of and laws applying to all such equipment should be reinforced. Safety equipment, such as pads and helmets, should be worn to minimize injuries. Smaller children should be instructed to never ride such equipment as ATV's and scooters without appropriate supervision.

If you are going to be around water this summer, remember; never let anyone swim alone. Establish pool rules. Keep electrical appliances away from the water. Prohibit horseplay. Never leave a child alone and never consider young children water-safe despite their swimming skills.

Motorists should use extra caution when driving in residential areas, remembering that we have longer hours of daylight. Always be looking out for children darting in and out from behind parked cars. Never assume that a child will see you. Slow down and honk your horn to get their attention, if needed.

And remember, when traveling please buckle up and drive friendly, the Texas way.

Miss Dayna Hamilton, Williams United In Marriage

Miss Dayne Dean Hamilton became the bride of Shannon Dewayne Williams in a candle-light ceremony Friday, April 27 at 7:30 p.m. in the 16th and D. Church of Christ. Curtis Shelburne read the double ring vows.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stevens, all of Muleshoe.

Vows were exchanged before two brass spiral candelabras with an oval shaped candelabra in the center, decorated with greenery and pink dogwood blossoms and pink ribbon and bows and pink candles. The unity candle was decorated with cut-outs from the wedding invitations, accented with greenery and pink dogwood blossoms and pink bows, on a brass candle stand. The pews were marked with pink bows.

"Forever and Ever Amen" and "The Vows Go Unbroken" were played from recordings, operated by Betty Mullins and Lonnie Wilhite.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's gown, designed and made by her mother, was of white satin with floral appliques with seed pearls and pink beads on the bodice. The sleeves were puffed above the elbow, with a fitted sleeve coming to a "V" at the wrist, also decorated with appliques and beads.

The gown featured a Cathedral length train with tiers and ruffles, also appliques on the train. Charlotte Holt helped to sew on the beads.

Her bridal bouquet consisted of a cascade of white and pink silk roses carried on top of a Bible that her mother carried and a lace cover that the groom's mother had carried. (These served as something old.) Something borrowed was a pearl necklace and earrings, borrowed from her mother. For something blue, she wore two garters, one borrowed from the groom's mother. Another good luck piece was a picture of her best friend, Stacy Knowlton, who was to have served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Brandi Estep of Muleshoe and Kristal Albertson of Lubbock. Kinsee Estep of Muleshoe was flower girl.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore pink tuxedo taffeta gowns featuring a boat neckline on front with a "V" in the back that matched the neckline of the bride's gown. Three ruffles, starting at the waist ended at the hemline with a bow at the waist in the back. The gowns had short puff sleeves. The attendants wore white shoes and pearl accessories. Their bouquets consisted of various pink flowers with a pink lace ribbon bow.

The flower girl was dressed identical to the maid of honor and bridesmaid. (All of which were made by the bride's mother.) She wore a pink ribbon in her hair and carried a pink heart shaped basket from which she dropped love knots made from pink lace ribbon.

Allen Vinson of Muleshoe served as best man. Grooms-men were Billy Williams, brother of the groom, and Ruben Leal, Jr., both of Muleshoe.

Candlelighters were Rodney Stevens, brother of the groom; and Greg Combs, both of Muleshoe. Stephan Shelburne served as ring bearer.

Ushers were Johnny Noble of Muleshoe, Brian Osborn of Friona, and Rodney Stevens, brother of the groom, and Greg Combs, of Muleshoe.

Guests were registered by Lucy Morris.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the 16th and D Church of Christ. Members of the houseparty were Leslie Dale, Jackie Jean Whatley, Betty Carpenter, Rhea Morris, Cherry Estep and Cynthia Noble.

The bride's table was covered with a white satin cloth with a white lace overlay. The centerpiece was the cake, which consisted of a large center cake topped with a fountain and decorated with pink taffeta and net and two side cakes decorated with pink roses, separated by pillars, topped by clear acrylic stairways, decorated with pink ribbon and bows. The cake top, which consisted of a porcelain bride and groom accented with a heart of acrylic and pink flowers and net, sat at the top of the stairway.

Servers at the bride's table included Sandra Martinez and Angel Pearson.

Rasberry sherbert and ginger ale punch, nuts, and mints were served from brass and crystal appointments.

The groom's table was covered with an ecru table cloth. Coffee and chocolate cake were served from a brass coffee service by Penny Johnson, cousin of the groom, and Stephanie Reed of Friona.

Following an over-night trip to Clovis, N.M., the couple will make their home in Permian, Germany.

The bride is a 1990, graduate of Muleshoe High School. She was active in band six years, serving as librarian, sophomore; secretary, junior/senior year; Jazz Band three years; Science Club, senior year; Gifted-Talented Class second grade through senior year; FHA, sophomore year, serving as officer; International Piano Guild membership 10 years. Member of 16th and D Church of Christ, being active in the youth group there.

Williams is a 1989, graduate of Muleshoe High School where he was in FFA, three years; Auto Mechanics, four years; being selected for officer freshman year in Friona. Member of DECA and was employed by James Roy's Meat Market three years. He is presently stationed in Germany with the United States Army.

Out of town wedding guests included: Louisa Hamilton, grandmother of the bride, and Mickey Koehler, aunt of the bride of Voorhees, New Jersey; Mae and Ocie Morgan, grandparents of the bride of Lubbock; Faye Bryant, cousin of the bride of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. McDowell from Kress, grandparents of the groom; Theda Bloxom, grandmother of the groom from Friona; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Osborn of Friona, and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Houchins of Paris, Texas.

I.O.O.F. Lodge Meets With Friona Lodge

It is the custom of Friona I.O.O.F. No. 203 and Muleshoe I.O.O.F. No. 58 to meet with the lodges alternating Friona one week and Muleshoe the next, as most active members of each Lodge are associate members of the other Lodge.

On Thursday night May 24 both Lodges met in Muleshoe. The attendance was rather small at this meeting, according to the report, because other members had departed to other parts of the country to drop a hook in the water. "Members who were in attendance remain skeptical unless the members return with sufficient evidence to support their story."

Since Noble Grand Gene Zachary was not in attendance Junior Past Grand presided in this chair. Many members were called on to chairs they had not been elected or appointed to in addition to their normal duties.

After the bang of the gavel Warden Ralph Reed was directed to present the flag to the Noble Grand. After the Noble Grand displayed the flag up-wright, Warden Ralph Reed led the members in the Pledge of Allience. Acting Chaplain then gave the opening prayer.

At the direction of acting Noble Grand the Right Support of the Noble Grand declared the Lodge duly open for business.

Roll call of officers was made and absentees noted. Minutes of last session were read and approved.

There was no one reported sick, but Arnold Gross reported his wife was still having trouble with her medication after her recent surgery.

A card of thanks from Becky Bradshaw thanking the Lodge for the monetary gift sent to her for her graduation was read. Becky is a resident of the Childrens Home in Corsicana and is graduating from Corsicana High School this month. At this time Becky is unsure if she will remain at the Childrens Home for two more years, to attend Navarro County Junior College or attend some other educational institution.

Les Lambert returned from Lubbock just in time for Lodge, and he reported that he had gotten a good report on his knee replacement and hoped to graduate from the walker to a one legged walker in a few weeks.

There were several talks for the good of the Order and quite a bit of discussion on the qualifications an Odd Fellow must posses to be seated as a Grand Lodge Officer either elective or appointive.

This was brought about due to Deputy Grand Master Hank Henrys speech here last Thursday night. The Grand Lodge requires certain qualifications and Brother Henry had some qualifications that he will require a prospective officer to posses.

Brother Hank Henry will be the incoming Grand Master of the I.O.O.F. of the State of Texas at the Grand Lodge Session to be held in Austin in March of the 1991 for the Grand Lodge Session of 1991-92.

Charlie Wise reported that he and his wife had been designated to put flags on the graves of all Odd Fellows and Rebekah's in the Friona Cemetery for the Memorial Day weekend.

Ralph Reed and Claud Wilemon reported on the feed and Initiatory degree held at the San Jon Lodge on Monday night, May 21.

Lodge was then closed with Charlie Wise giving the closing prayer then as directed by the Noble Grand acting Vice Grand led the members of the Lodge in repeating the Valecition. The Flag was then retired for safe keeping and Noble Grand Claud Wilemon directed the Right Supporter to declare the Lodge duly closed.

on maternity leave, using temporary help. He said this bill would ultimately affect all businesses, even the smallest businesses and would force many businesses to cut their work forces.

He was questioned about 'Notch Babies', born between 1917-1921 and the disparity in social security payments.

Combest said that when Social Security was redone in 1983, it was put on a paying basis, is operating in the black, and he anticipated no changes at this time. He also said that 'Notch Babies' do not receive as much in payments as those born prior to 1917, but do receive more than those born after 1921.

In response to a question about the status of Nationwide Standardized Tests, he said no finalization had been reached, but he personally believed that all students could not be tested on the same level.

He did say he believed that all graduating students should take a test designed to determine if the student can read, and if so, what can they read. He said the same should be applied to writing, spelling and other areas.

He spoke briefly on the repealed Section 89, which was part of the 1986 Tax Bill.

Also, Combest said the federal government is looking at mandating some laws, and said if they are mandated, everyone, including the small local businesses will end up paying for it. Such things include parental leave, health care and benefits, which Combest said should all be something the federal government should not be mandating. "Watch very carefully," he added. "I think that this year we are on the verge of making some decisions that will affect your life for the next 20 years."

In this vein, he discussed the proposed cuts for the Department of Defense. Combest reminded that government is operating under the Gramm-Rudman law and although the next five years should see a Capping off the day will be the fireworks display, conducted by the Muleshoe Fire Department.

All-day activities include the roadriders, car show, dunking tank, hopscotch, ring toss, horse shoe pitching, fishing, foods, arts and crafts, Boy Scout town, pop-a-shot, quilt show and the Jennyslipper's bazaar.

Nancy Kidd, manager of the Muleshoe CoC said deadline for entering the events, the parade, or scheduling booth space is July 2.

Mrs. Kidd said, "We are still filling in with food booths and arts and crafts. We will do this until July 2."

Parade entry forms are coming in. We need all businesses to get your business in the parade. Our Christmas parade looked great because so many local businesses were involved.

"People with UGLY ole pick ups need to pick up an entry form for the parade. We are having a new entry this year," she added. "We want YOUR UGLY OLE PICK-UP in the parade! It will have to run."

She also said the band will be there with their music and although Santa Claus won't be there, Lee Horsley will. "And, what a day," she reported enthusiastically!!

The CoC manager said June 14 will be the next community committee meeting at the Muleshoe State Bank meeting room at 7 p.m. Mrs. Kidd said that anyone having anything to do with July 4th activities will need to be there.

She also said the Mule Days activities are well on the way, and if you are interested in that special day, you will need to be at the June 14 meeting. There will be one more meeting before July 4, on June 28 in the MSB meeting room.

In conclusion, the CoC manager said if you make quilts, be sure to enter the quilt show. Call the CoC office at 272-4248, and put your name on the list, the CoC will get you a spot to display your quilt or quilts.

SPS Cautions About Safety This Summer

As warm weather draws more people outdoors, Southwestern Public Service Company (SPS) is reminding its customers to be careful around power lines and electrical facilities.

"We say all year to watch up for power lines, but it's especially appropriate to issue an additional reminder as people begin to spend more time outdoors," says Ron Montgomery, SPS's Muleshoe local manager. "People are trimming trees, repairing roofs and doing other things around the house that could bring them into contact with overhead lines."

Violent spring storms can create other hazards, Montgomery warns.

"If anyone sees a downed power line, stay away and don't touch anything the line is touching. Keep others away, and contact the electric company immediately," Montgomery says. "A downed line can be completely free of sparks but still can be very 'alive' and dangerous."

There are many other safety tips to keep in mind this time of year, Montgomery says. For example, farmers handling irrigation equipment should be especially careful.

"Metal irrigation pipe is an excellent conductor of electricity," Montgomery says. "Moving a tall section of irrigation pipe or lifting it to dislodge a rabbit or other animal inside could be fatal if there's a power line overhead."

Another common springtime activity is installing evaporative coolers. These are potential hazards, Montgomery says.

"By the time you get a metal cooler up, you're usually standing in a puddle of water. Metal and water are both good conductors of electricity, so make sure your unit is grounded. Don't plug in the cooler until everything is hooked up. If you have to make any last minute adjustments, be sure to unplug the unit first," he says.

Children also should be warned to play safely as they begin to spend more time outdoors.

"Parents should teach their kids to stay away from utility

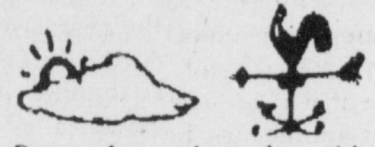

Know The Weather

The hurricane season is here, as of June; there have been warnings in recent weeks hurricanes in the future are likely to be strong.

A hurricane is a large cyclone, formed over warm tropical waters. (In India last month a cyclone killed hundreds--we would have called that a hurricane if formed in the Indian Ocean.)

We usually have plenty of warning of a hurricane. What forecasters can't predict is exactly where hurricanes will move inland. There are wind direction rules to follow to avoid the worst.

SPS offers a variety of electric safety programs and materials to the general public, schools, employers and civic groups. Your local SPS office can tell you about these items.

Remember that in this hemisphere hurricane winds move counter clockwise. If wind begins to blow hard from the east, and a hurricane has been tracked moving northwest, those on the Atlantic coast feeling the wind should evacuate. That's because those east winds represent the northern edge of the storm. The same is true on the Texas Gulf coast.

The eye usually is from three to fifteen miles diameter. There it's calm. If one experiences that, he's getting the storm's worst, and winds will reverse after dead calm in the eye, with the same high velocity.

Sudan Honors Hornets At Athletic Banquet

Mean Sting or Bold Gold would be two words to describe the theme of the 1990 Athletic Banquet held on May 14, in the Sudan High School Cafeteria at 7:00 p.m. Decorations were made and displayed by the High School Cheerleaders with the help of Mr. Lowrance. Black and Gold streamers, balloons, and trophies were used to decorate the tables. Jerseys were hung behind the head table.

The invocation was given by Charles Schovajsa and the welcome by W.V. McAlpin. Serving the meal of chicken fried steak, baked potato, hot rolls, salad, strawberry shortcake, tea, and coffee, were the 8th grade girls. Following the meal, Coach Mike Martin recognized the girls athletic participants. Those that competed in basketball, cross country, track, tennis or golf, Seniors thru freshman. Martin also stated the basketball records for each team; Varsity was 30-5, JV was 20-4 and Jr. Hi. was 26-4 for a total of 76-13 for the year.

Coach Royce McAdams recognized the coaching staff of 89-90 and they are: Bill Davis, Mike Martin, Doug Jones, David Quisenberry, Johnny Hampton and Ed Henley. Remembering the past boys football season was tough to get through, but basketball, track, golf, and tennis followed with each participant being recognized. Members from the Seniors to the Freshman were included.

Joe Bellar, President of the Booster Club presented the "Super Booster" award to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Tollett, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph May, and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Ford. Cliff Hargrove presented the Booster Club Scholarships to Kristi Hargrove and Kyle Maxfield which will be $250. per semester for two semesters. Coach Martin and Coach McAdams, presented the Hustlin' Hornette to Kristi Hargrove and the Hustlin' Hornet award to Kyle Maxfield. The GATA award went to Jeremy Miller, Monty Edwards, Doug Provence, and David Montes.

A special award was presented to Kyle Maxfield. Mark Pagenkoph, Director of marketing and advertising of Whataburger, and Dave Campbell of Dave Campbell's Texas Football Magazine were on hand to present Kyle with the Whataburger Texas High School Player of the Year Award.

The trophy and picture will be added to the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in Waco. The trophy Kyle received was donated to the Sudan High School by Kyle.

Tanya Fisher gave the benediction, and then all who attended the banquet were asked to move to the auditorium where a video was shown. The video was produced by Kyle Maxfield and put to music with the help of several members of the faculty. Shelley Chester provided the song 'Wind Beneath My Wings' to add to the video. If anyone wishes to purchase a copy of the video, they should contact the high school or Debbie Maxfield. The videos are $10.

By Pete Fritchie

The time for expansion of the Major Leagues--by six teams, four in the National and two more in the bigger American League--is at hand. The National League should have expanded years ago.

There are too many cities which can support a franchise, and where fans want big league ball, for the commissioner and owners to procrastinate longer. That's what a committee of legislators in Washington wrote the commissioner six weeks ago.

Florida should get one American League team and one National League team. That's what Texas has today, in Dallas and Houston, and that would work well for fans. (Jacksonville is also in the bidding, from Florida).

"Killer Bees" may reach U.S. in near future.

A BRIGHT, NEW LOOK--Just in case you haven't noticed, Joe's Boot Shop and Country Junction, and the buildings to the south of Country Junction, have received a 'brand new' look. These two pictures show some of the completed work as of last weekend. (Journal Photo)

Texas Special Olympics Concludes At San Marcos

Gold medal pentathlete Dennis Hutchings of Del Valle carried the flame of hope across Strahan Coliseum at Southwest Texas State University, San Marcos, to light the torches held by police officers, who organized the law enforcement torch run, to signal the conclusion of the 23rd annual Texas Special Olympics summer games.

Police officers Ben Caperton of Dallas, John Baylor of Victoria, Dan Bell of Dallas, Steve Lyons of Houston, Sonny Chambers of Beaumont and Paul Brick of Austin will be joined by hundreds of law enforcement runners to bring the torches to the 1991 games.

Master of ceremonies Dave Jarrott of Radio Station KEYI told the athletes: "It is our hope that one day all mankind will realize that all men are created equal. When given the chance, they can overcome any obstacle, climb any mountain and transform discord into a symphony of brotherhood."

A parade of more than 40 pentathletes escorted by San Marcos Mayor Kathy Morris, members of the San Marcos City Council and SWT officials opened the ceremonies.

There was still an atmosphere of expectancy and excitement among the athletes, many of whom were wearing gold, silver and bronze medals around their necks. There were still dozens of team trophies and individual medals to be announced by Dave Stewart, awards director.

Mike Carrier of Quinlan was the first gold medalist honored for powerlifting. The athlete broke his own record by bench pressing 175 pounds and dead lifting 360 pounds for a total of 535 pounds.

Trophies in team sports were presented as follows: Soccer: San Antonio Stars, third; Aldine Independent School District, second, and San Antonio Woolnarts, first; softball, Division A: Denton Panthers, third; Plano Rally Cats, second; Lufkin Workshop, first; Division B: Spring ISD, third; Lufkin State School, second; and Brenham State School, first; volleyball: Harper Hornets, third; FM Black Panthers, second; and Clear Creek Red Team, first.

Also, men's basketball, Division 1: Alvin Yellow Jackets, third; Lubbock/Ballinger, second; Sweetwater, first; Division 2: Mexia State School, third; Quinlan, second; and Kirbyville/Newton, first; Division 3: Grand Prairie, third; Odessa, second; South San Antonio ISD, first; Division 4: Kline ISD, third; Waco Wranglers, second; Denton Bluejays A Team, first; Division 5: Laredo, third; Worthing Colts, second; and Alvin A Team, first; Division 6: Fort Worth Texans, third; Dallas Spruce, second; and Wilmer-Hutchins A Team, first.

Also, women's basketball, Division 1: Harlandale ISD of San Antonio, third; Dallas Gaston, second; and Worthing, first; Division 2: Waco Lady Wranglers, third; Quinlan Lady Panthers, second; and Wilmer-Hutchins, first.

In addition, individual medals were presented to 25 gymnasts judged best overall in their respective divisions.

All of the athletes, coaches and volunteers joined hands while the SWT Phi Mu Alpha Symphonia performed "Somewhere Out There."

Jarrott reminded the athletes that it was not a time for sadness or disappointment. "It's a time to cheer, to celebrate and share our joy. These are the times of your life. Let's all leave here dancing in the streets."

The Symphonia broke into a rousing rendition of "Twist and Shout" and the athletes began twisting and shouting farewells to their new friends.

Before Friday's closing ceremonies, athletes concluded competition in basketball, softball, volleyball and track and field.

Thursday's activities included a full slate of competition as well as several special events such as Olympic Town, the Summer Games Sportacular exhibition and the TSO Victory Dance.

Hundreds of athletes attended Olympic Town during breaks in their competition schedules. Held in SWT's Sewell Park, Olympic Town activities included game booths, performances by musical groups from area schools and appearances by celebrities such as actor Randy Quaid, Miss Texas Leah Kay Lyle of Plainview and Shamu from Sea World of Texas.

The Summer Games Sportacular was held at Bobcat Stadium and featured competition in track and field events and exhibitions in soccer and gymnastics. The Sportacular was videotaped by the Home Sports Entertainment television network and will be featured during a two and a half hour special on the Summer Games to be broadcast at 7:30 p.m. on May 31.

The TSO Victory Dance followed the Sportacular and thousands of athletes celebrated to the sounds of the popular Corpus Christi party band Aloha Dave and the Tourists.

Brett Lawrence of Muleshoe, was among 27 recent graduates of Texas Christian University's intensive Ranch Management Program.

They spent nine months getting a firm foundation in the basic principles of soil, water, grass, livestock selection, nutrition, health and marketing with a strong dose of records, finance and business management.

Sixty percent of the time they spent in class in a small building tucked between the School of Education and the ballet building on the south end of the TCU campus. There was no hooky-playing. Classroom attendance was mandatory six hours per day, and tests were included in each day's activities.

The other 40 percent of the term was taken up with half-day, day-and-week-long trips when the days often began before sunrise and ended after dark.

Because of the death of Barbara Pearsons' mother, The Old Corral was not open this morning so there was no Kiwanis meeting. Our deepest sympathy goes out to Barbara and her family. Barbara, if there is anything the Kiwanis can do, please let us know.

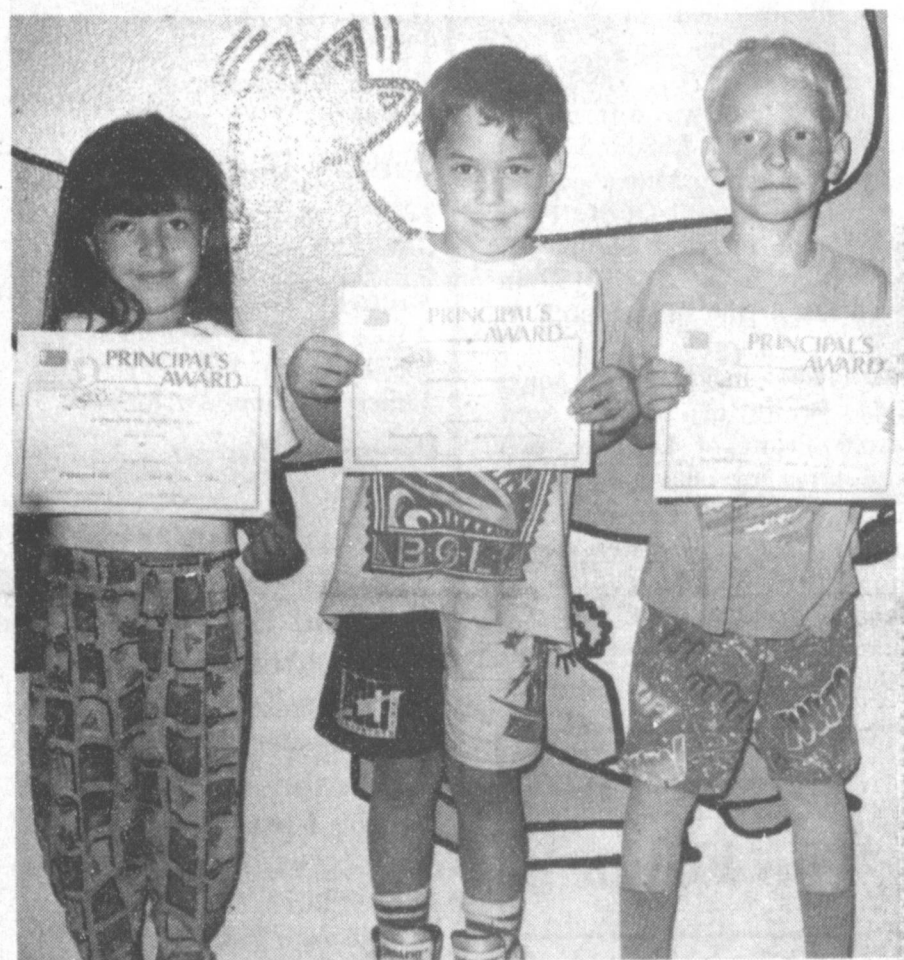

Since there was no Kiwanis meeting, the membership drive will be extended for one week. Everyone be back next Friday and we will conclude the contest. Team Captain Eddie Morris of team #2 says he and his team are getting hungry.

All clubs around Muleshoe, Women and Men, the Kiwanis Club will see all of you at the Miniature of the Great Miniature Golf tournament on Monday evening-June 25th. Put a big red circle around the 25th day of June. We will have a Summit meeting at the Mule Putt Golf Course to determine who is the best.

July the 4th is just around the corner so please remember the Kiwanis Fireworks Stand that will be just west of Muleshoe. All of the money you spend with us for fireworks, goes right back into this community.

Also, it is time to renew our contracts for the flag project. We would like to place a flag in front of every business in Muleshoe. Letter To
The Editor

To The Editor:

(‘In My Opinion’ and against my mother’s wishes)

First of all, my thanks to the Bailey County Commissioners for standing behind a respected and dedicated employee and official of twenty years.

My mother, Barbara McCamish, has always told me to work hard, respect my employers and to give my best at work. She said if you did these things that you would be well paid, appreciated at your job and that your employers would always stand behind you. Well, I think that I had stopped believing those wise words, but the commissioners have proven my mother right again.

She is and always has been there for our family and for her job. I can’t remember ever hearing her say that she wished she could quit work, and I would never ask her to quit because I know how much her job means to her.

My thanks, also, to her two dedicated and loving deputies who have always stood beside her.

So “In My Opinion” The Bailey County Commissioners should have our highest regard and continued support for standing behind a respected and dedicated county official, Barbara McCamish.

And, since mother always taught me if you can’t say something nice about someone, don’t say anything at all, so I won’t question the integrity (uprightness of character; honesty) of the person who is questioning my mother’s personal and professional honesty.

Ask any boy and he will tell you ...
IT'S A WONDERFUL FEELING

When winter is past and most of the spring rains have come and gone, what a joy it is for a boy to go barefoot and feel the warm moist earth oozing up between his toes and the hot sun on his back ... It's a wonderful feeling — remember?

If it has been some time since you were in the warm company of like-minded Christians and basked in the warmth and love of God's glory and grace as manifested in His Church, attend this coming Sunday. It's a wonderful feeling to sense that you are in tune with God, your fellow man, and the universe.
