California Youths Stage Beach Riot

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A beach riot by 1,000 youths, sparked when police tried to break up a fight, injured three officers and two bystanders Sunday.

Before it was over, windows were smashed, resort booths robbed and some bottles were tossed at police.

Two youths were arrested on suspicion of looting and 12 others on charges of inciting a riot, battery and resisting arrest.

One hundred police, armed with shotguns, nightsticks and tear gas, sped to Playland-at-the-Beach and restored order after two hours. The officers did not use the tear gas or the guns but were aided by police dogs in clearing the area.

At the same time, 1,000 hippies thronged the panhandle section of Golden Gate Park, causing police at first to report trouble also brewing there. Later police corrected it to: "Just a happening."

The beach trouble erupted after a fight broke out at a ticket booth. Youths broke windows in the booth and a girl ticket seller fled.

When three policemen arrived, "all hell broke loose," said William Silvia Jr., 24, a Playland employe.

"There were so many people milling around you couldn't tell what was happening," Silvia said.

"But I did see one cop go down. The mob wouldn't let them make that first arrest."

John Ashley, of San Francisco, was cut severely on the head while trying to prevent theft of his wife's purse.

Another bystander, Inez Tebino, of Santa Rosa, got caught in a mob and suffered fractured ribs.

Two policemen, Francis Fahey, 43, and Harold Hamilton, 28, were cut and a third, Dennis Baker, 28, had a hand injury. All three were taken to a hospital.

New Rights For Juveniles

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court extended to juveniles today substantially the same constitutional protections given adults in criminal trials.

The landmark decision is certain to lead to broad reformation of juvenile court proceedings across the land.

The vote was 8 to 1, with three of the justices in the majority differing with the controlling opinion, given by Justice Abe Fortas, in some respects.

The dissenter was Justice Potter Stewart.

Using an Arizona juvenile case as a springboard, the court concluded that juveniles, like adults, are entitled to the following Bill of Rights safeguards:

1. Notice of the charges placed against them.
2. The right to have an attorney's assistance.
3. The right to confront and cross-examine complainants and other witnesses.
4. Protection against self-incrimination, including the privilege of remaining silent.
5. The right to a transcript of the proceedings.
6. The right to have the case reviewed in higher courts.

Debt Ceiling Hike Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler asked Congress today to raise the ceiling on the national debt to $365 billion, up $29 billion from the present ceiling.

Beside asking for one of the biggest single increases in history, Fowler recommended that the new ceiling be made permanent.

At present the permanent ceiling is $285 billion, and various temporary increases have been granted on top of that.

The latest of these expires June 30, at which time, Fowler said, the debt is expected to be about $327 billion.

Fowler appeared before the House Ways and Means Committee.

Fowler took the occasion to repeat strongly the recommendation for a six per cent income tax surcharge to hold down the deficit. Even with the surcharge, he said, a rough estimate of the red ink margin for the fiscal year beginning July 1 is $11 billion.

Fowler said the surcharge "will be needed and the economic evidence generated in the months since it was proposed has strengthened my conviction of this score."

The word "will" was underlined in the written text of Fowler's testimony.

He did not say anything about the effective date. It generally has been concluded that Congress will not enact such a measure by July 1, the target President Johnson originally set.

Discussing the government's money forecast, Fowler told the committee, which handles all tax legislation, the surcharge remains a definite part of the administration fiscal program.

"But since it has yet to be enacted, and since congressional enthusiasm has yet to be demonstrated, it would be presumptuous for me to regard it in any other light than as a contingent item," he said.

Fowler proposed one more sharp departure from present fiscal rules — a breach in the ceiling of 4¼ per cent interest the Treasury is allowed to pay on borrowings for more than five-year terms.

Fowler said the limit has made it almost impossible to issue long-term Treasury securities.

He asked that the maximum maturity on Treasury notes, which are now limited to five-year maturities and are exempt from the ceiling be extended to 10 years with the exemption still in effect. Additionally, he asked for permission to sell up to $2 billion of Treasury bonds without regard to the ceiling.

Service For Mishap Victim

Funeral service was set for 2 p.m. today at the First Baptist Church in Snyder for Teddy Darrell Smedley, 16, of Midland. The youth was killed Friday night in a car-truck collision west of Odessa.

The Rev. Elvis Barrington was to officiate at the funeral service. He was to be assisted by the Rev. J. W. Chambers. Burial was to be in the Snyder Cemetery, under direction of Bell - Seale Funeral Home.

Losses Up Sharply In Heavy Fighting

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

SAIGON (AP) — Heavy ground fighting and severe Communist barrages continued to cause sharply increasing American casualties as a big new battle appeared to be building up between the U. S. Marines and North Vietnamese regulars just south of the demilitarized zone.

The Marines reported 12 dead and 92 wounded in attacks Sunday, and that did not include casualty reports from one of the day's sharpest pitched battles with the North Vienamese.

Only 27 Communists were reported killed.

In the air, the U.S. Command announced the loss of three planes Sunday — matching the number of Soviet-built MIG jets downed by American airmen in dogfights over the North.

One U. S. jet was lost to ground fire in the South, making 179 combat planes downed there since the war began. In the North, one jet was lost to ground fire and one to unknown causes, making 541 combat planes lost over North Vietnam.

Hanoi claimed seven U. S. jets were downed Sunday.

The three MIGs reported downed brought the American score for the weekend to 10 kills and two probables. The Air Force announced seven Red jets were downed Saturday and two probably were brought down.

The three MIGs were downed Sunday during raids four miles from the heart of Hanoi.

U. S. Marines reported killing 110 North Vietnamese regulars in a running battle southwest of Da Nang. The Marines have swept over a hill in the area and are pushing through a jungled valley toward the Ly Ly River.

The fighting there has been going on since last Friday. The Reds have clung doggedly to hidden bunkers and trenchlines buried in the jungles and along low ridges of the area.

Marine headquarters reported a patrol Sunday discovered a fresh Communist burial ground alongside the battlefield. They counted 73 bodies in North Vietnamese uniforms. This brought to 351 the number of Reds reported killed in the fight, in which 69 Marines have been killed and 311 wounded. This does not include Sunday's casualties, which were not yet reported.

MAKING THEIR FEELINGS KNOWN — Waving flags, carrying signs and singing, marchers move down Fifth Avenue in New York City in a march to show support of American servicemen in Vietnam. Central Park is at left. One estimate said the number of marchers could be as high as 250,000. (AP Wirephoto)

Challenge By Siahnouk

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Prince Norodom Sihanouk has challenged Cambodian Communist leaders to hold a referendum to let the people choose between communism and the present regime.

The Cambodian chief of state issued the challenge along with a sharp criticism of workers and students who spread Communist propaganda. He accused the Communists of representing the Cambodian people as poor and crushed "while the taxes here are the lowest in the world."

The prince, who is better known for his scolding of Washington than his challenges to Communists, said of the referendum: "Every one of us will accept the decision of the majority of the voters." Since Sihanouk commands the loyalty of an overwhelming majority of his people, there was no doubt of the outcome.

Rains, Twisters Accompany Front

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A mid-spring cold front swept out into the Gulf of Mexico today, leaving Texas shivering in the Panhandle and soaked downstate.

The frontal system sparked 2-inch rains and tornadoes in South Texas and severe thunderstorms in North Central Texas as it collided with warm moist Gulf air on its southward passage Sunday.

The mercury dipped to 31 degrees at Dalhart in the northern Panhandle today. Brownsville at the southern tip of the state posted 67 at the same time.

Lubbock's 34-degree reading and Midland's 40 were the coolest on record for so late in the spring.

Occasional hail pelted some areas and a severe thunderstorm watch kept a strip of Central and East Texas on the alert late into the night.

By early today, however, there was no word of serious damage—only rejoicing among farmers and cattlemen at moisture to banish drought and water to fill stock tanks and lakes.

It was midnight Sunday before a broken band of thunderstorms marking the path of a southbound cold front swept past Brownsville and into the Gulf of Mexico.

Briefly torrential downpours yielded up to two inches of rain within an hour at a few points, including an area along the intracoastal canal near Corpus Christi where unofficial estimates placed the velocity of wind gusts close to minimum hurricane force.

One of those describing the wind's might was F. M. Dickinson, a San Antonio fisherman, who was in a small boat as it flipped upside down a second after two companions alighted at a bait camp dock. None was hurt.

"That wind must have been hitting 70 to 75 miles per hour when it first hit," said Dickinson, "and then the lights went out. We were lucky to come in when we did—the last boat to reach the camp, I think."

Instruments at the Corpus Christi Weather Bureau clocked the wind at up to 58 m.p.h. officially. Brilliant lightning accompanied the storm.

Lamesa Boy Drowns In Lake Thomas

Kenny David Wilkerson, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Kenneth Wilkerson, 1207 S. Fourth, Lamesa, drowned during a family outing at Lake J. B. Thomas about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

He was pronounced dead as a result of accidental drowning by Scurry County Justice of the Peace J. P. Billingsley. The ruling was made at Cogdell Memorial Hospital where the body was taken. Later, it was transferred to Branon-Philips Funeral Home in Lamesa where funeral arrangements were to be made.

The youth apparently stepped into deep water or a hole while pursuing a ball, according to Sheriff Keith Collier, who said the boy was not considered a good swimmer. The body was recovered at 3:50 p.m. after dragging by lake patrolmen and game warden officers.

The accident occurred north of the dam near a beach area where Kenny, two brothers, a sister and other youths were playing ball in the water.

Experts Forecast Food Price Hike

By OVID A. MARTIN
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—American housewives will be paying two to three per cent more for groceries by this summer, the Agriculture Department predicted today.

The anticipated hike in retail food prices is expected to wipe out a decline of nearly one per cent during the first three months of the year, then advance another one or two per cent on top of that.

For the year as a whole, the department forecasts an average jump of about 1.7 per cent in food costs above last year.

Primarily because of the projected price hikes, consumers are expected to spend about $94.6 billion for food this year compared to $91 billion in 1966.

The forecast for higher retail food prices comes at a time when prices paid farmers for food they produce are down nearly 10 per cent from last summer and seven per cent below last year's average.

Some of the expected increase in retail food prices would reflect anticipated upturns in some farm prices, particularly for meat animals. Somewhat reduced marketings of cattle and hogs are expected as a consequence of some contraction in livestock production under the pressure of prices unsatisfactory to farmers.

The departmnet said current indications point to an increase in both production and marketing of farm commodities this year, with the upturn concentrated in crops.

Because consumer incomes went up while food prices eased off slightly, the department said consumers spent an average of 17.5 per cent of their income for food during the first quarter of the year, the lowest of record. Last year, the percentage was 18.5.

Items expected to rise later in the year besides meats include eggs, poultry and possibly some dairy products. Items expected to continue near present levels include citrus products, canned fruits, processed vegetables, potatoes and cereal products.

HIGH-LEVEL WINDS WANDERING

Strange Spring?--Blame Jet Streams

WASHINGTON (AP)—You can blame those meandering jet streams for the unusual spring weather we've been having, Weather Bureau experts said today.

Drought in the semitropical Florida Everglades, spring snows in the Rockies, chills in the north central states and heavy rains in the Northeast all are related to those high-level winds which frequently give airplanes a push across the continent.

The Weather Bureau takes a philosophical view of it all.

"The weather is always abnormal somewhere," one expert said. "Normal weather is sometimes a hard thing to come by."

Basically what is happening, the bureau said, is that a northern jet stream is going farther north than usual and bringing cold air into the continental United States from Alaska and Canada.

From Alaska this stream moves into the Great Lakes region and the East.

A Southern stream is slightly farther north than usual and is stronger than normal. It is bringing storm systems in from the Pacific Ocean to the central part of the nation.

Between these two giant rivers of air is what weather observers call a confluence zone—and it's here that snow and rain are falling from west to east.

The tendency is for the opposing systems to spread moisture toward the north with a dry area to the south, thus accounting for the Everglades drought, the bureau said.

The jet stream dislocation began developing during March and it is anybody's guess when the wandering winds will go back to normal, one expert said.

During April, he added, it is normal for the northern mass to reach the Canadian-American border in the western part of the nation but it went as far as Alaska and is still there.

Just why the jet streams are meandering is a question the weather experts have not yet been able to answer with scientific accuracy. The streams are about 500 to 600 miles wide and their peak winds come between 30,000 and 40,000 feet.

There has been one advantage to all this, however.

The jet streams have moved rainy weather into the Northeast, plagued by drought the last five summers. But the bureau said drought could strike again this year when the jet streams move back on normal course.

New York City, which had been on the verge of a serious water shortage, now has an above normal supply.

The city's water supply was 97.3 per cent of capacity Saturday compared with the normal 95.5 per cent. Last year on May 11, the city's water supply was only 80.7 per cent of capacity.

Storm Leaves 32 Dead

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW DELHI (AP) — The casualty toll from a violent hail and windstorm that swept out of the Himalayan foothills Saturday night stood at 32 dead today with up to 350 injured in two northern Indian states.

Cleanup operations were under way in eastern Uttar Pradesh State and famine-stricken Bihar State, where the storm was whipped long by winds in excess of 100 miles an hour.

Hardest hit was Kanpur, 250 miles southeast of New Delhi, where at least 25 persons were killed and more than 100 injured. Kanpur streets were littered with birds killed by hailstones the size of tennis balls.

Searchers Fail To Locate Boys

By LOWELL MCKIRGAN

HANNIBAL, Mo. (AP)—All leads, however scant, will be thoroughly checked before the search for three missing Hannibal boys is called off, officials said today.

The search for Billy Hoag, 11, Joey Hoag, 13, and Craig Dowell, 14, entered its fifth day. The boys were believed to be exploring caves when last seen Wednesday.

Some of the numerous volunteers concentrated on the caves which lace the Hannibal hills, while others remained above ground searching the Mississippi River bluffs.

Caves were methodically inspected under the direction of William Karras, 44, of White Post, Va. Karras is president of the Speleogical Society of America and has taken part in numerous underground rescue operations.

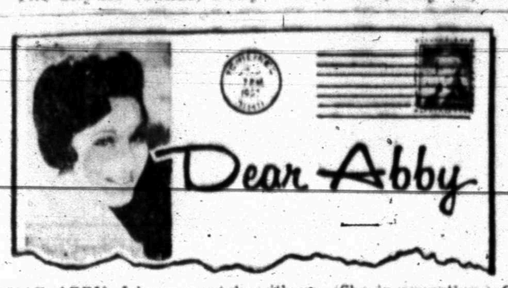

Karras said Sunday night he was positive the boys were lost underground. But, he said to the father of the Hoag brothers, "If those boys are on the surface we should try to communicate with them. They might be alive and well but afraid to come home.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hoag issued pleas for the boys to return.

"Joey, Joey, Billy," Mrs. Hoag said as tears streaked her face. "Please come home. You won't be punished. You know we love you. Please come home before I have a heart attack. Your brothers and sisters all love you," she said. The Hoags have five other sons and four daughters.

Residents of the area, about 100 miles north of St. Louis, have provided numerous leads at the request of the search leaders. None of the clues has been valuable so far.

As the search continued, cave expert Karras estimated about $500,000 has been spent in the operation although most of this was in donated labor. Church groups from throughout this city of 20,000 population continued to maintain hot meal service for the men in the search parties.

DEAR ABBY: I have a neighbor lady who is 78 years old. She's a registered nurse and served with the U. S. Army during World War I in France. She has pictures to prove it. She claims that she was called up to take a physical as they want her for active duty in Viet Nam!

Now Abby, this is kind of hard to believe. We may need nurses over there, but do we need them THAT badly?

ASKING IN SHREVEPORT

DEAR ASKING: Good nurses are always "badly" needed. But not at 78 and (probably) not in Viet Nam. If your friend was "called," a computer must have "regressed" about 30 years.

DEAR ABBY: My father and his second wife arrived here last January for a six-month visit. We have four children, ages 7 to 17. Our eldest, a student in high school is married, and he and his wife are living with us. (She is expecting.) Our meager savings are dwindling away. I'm growing more nervous, have a twitch in my eye, my hands shake, and I cry over nothing.

I scream at the children and pick on my husband. Some mornings I hate to get up and face the day. We are terribly crowded. During my calmer moments I feel ashamed of myself. What is the matter with me? Am I selfish?

FEELING GUILTY

DEAR FEELING: Selfish? For coming unglued because nine (going on 10) people are living in quarters meant to accommodate six! I would say you are normal. Don't feel guilty. Under the circumstances your father and his wife should realize they are inconveniencing you, and clear out.

DEAR ABBY: A guy at school likes me, but I don't like him. There's nothing wrong with him, he's just not my type. He calls me for dates months ahead so he knows I COULDN'T POSSIBLY HAVE A DATE FOR THAT NIGHT. What can I tell him?

If I say I'm busy, he asks me for the next Friday night, and the next, and the next, and so on. I hate to hurt his feelings, but I hate going out with him even more. I feel sorry for him. Please help me.

NOT MY TYPE

DEAR NOT: When he calls, tell him you're busy. And if he asks you for the next Friday night, and the next, and the next, give him the same answer. He'll catch on.

It isn't as cruel as it sounds. At least you're turning him loose to ask someone who might be more his type. It's far more honest than going out with him because you feel nothing but sorry for him.

Harvesting Of Melons Moves Ahead

RIO GRANDE CITY, Tex. (AP)—Melon harvesting went on today at La Casita Farms and officials said an estimated .35 of an inch of rain that fell Sunday night will not slow the harvesting crews.

A spokesman for La Casita said "full crews" were working on the 1,500 acre farm early today. A few union pickets were at the farm entrances but workers crossed the picket lines without interference.

A few pickets from the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, AFL-CIO, walked near the farm entrances, but union leaders were apparently waiting for La Cista to make its first rail shipment of cantaloupes and honeydew melons before making their next move.

The farm spokesman said that train would likely leave Rio Grande City for upstate markets Tuesday or Wednesday.

Union office manager Bill Chandler said further attempts would be made today to free Eugene Nelson, the man who originated the farm labor union movement in Texas, from the Starr County jail. Nelson was jailed Friday in lieu of $2,000 bond after he was arrested on a misdemeanor charge of threatening the life of a Texas Ranger.

Union vice president Gilbert Padilla vowed before the harvest began that the union would attempt to cut off the labor force, halt shipments of melons and use a national AFL-CIO boycott against produce from La Casita.

With help from a powerful Mexican union at Miguel Aleman, Mexico, last Thursday, some Mexicans used in the melon harvest were kept from crossing the Rio Grande bridge.

A picket line of members of the Confederation of Mexican Workers halted about 150 workers Thursday, but the picket line was in force only one day. The Mexican pickets were reported dispersed by federal police and told not to return.

The farm labor union, originated in Texas last June by Nelson, seeks a $1.25 an hour minimum wage and union contracts for the Mexican-American fields hands who do stoop labor in the vegetable and melon fields of Starr County. They assert the workers are paid less than the present federal minimum wage of $1 an hour.

Rookie Posts 163.540 mph

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — On any other day Wally Dallenbach might have been an auto racing sensation.

It was last Saturday, the opening day of qualifications for the Memorial Day 500-mile race, and a crowd upwards of 200,000 was waiting and watching for speeds by such drivers as Mario Andretti, Parnelli Jones, Jimmy Clark — big names in the sport.

So when Dallenbach became the day's third qualifier at a speed of 163.540 miles per hour, the fastest officially for any newcomer around the ancient 2½-mile Indianapolis Motor Speedway, his effort went almost unnoticed.

But the four-lap, 10-mile stint in his turbocharged Offenhauser earned him the outside spot in the fifth row for the May 30 event, and when he had finished he went to the garage area and telephoned his wife in East Brunswick, N.J.

"She said she was praying for me and I guess her prayers were answered," said the 30-year-old Dallenbach.

Stephenson Service Set

Funeral service has been set for 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Loraine Methodist Church for Donley Phillip Stephenson, 54, of Lubbock, who died at 11 a.m. Sunday at Lubbock.

Dr. Eugene Survace, pastor of the Loraine Methodist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Loraine Cemetery, under direction of Bell - Seale Funeral Home of Snyder.

Mr. Stephenson is survived by his wife; two sons, Gary Charles of Lubbock and Randy of Austin; three sisters, Mrs. John Pairsalisi of Leland, Miss., Mrs. Bernice Farr of California, and Mrs. Mozell Vickel of California; a brother, Kenneth Stephenson of Amarillo. He was a brother-in-law of Dr. John Hamblen of Snyder.

Churchmen Gathering In Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — About 600 ministers and laymen began arriving in Dallas today for the annual meeting of the Presbyterian U.S. Synod of Texas.

Registration for a presynod conference began in the afternoon. Dr. Jack Cross, director of program research in undergraduate education for the Coordinating Board of Higher Education in Texas, was to speak tonight.

Dr. Harry E. Smith, pastor for the University of North Carolina, will speak at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday on the "Congregation and the Campus."

Registration for the Synod begins at 3 p.m. Tuesday.

The theme of the meeting this year will be "Campus Christian Life."

The delegates at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Dallas will study a realignment of districts.

They also will be asked to approve a statement calling for decentralization of power. A committee on Christian relations has called on churchmen to deal with power conflicts honestly, "rather than by condemning them or claiming that Christians must never use power to deprive another."

The committee will tell the laymen and ministers they must sometimes take a stand.

A committee on Christian relations also will ask the ministers and laymen to affirm that there is nothing shameful or immoral about using tax dollars to help people in need.

"The problems of poverty today or too large and complex for the churches to solve alone," a statement by the committee says. "The small Christian village approach to personal welfare work is no longer viable."

Plea Is Entered

Leslie Louis Norton of Dallas pleaded guilty in County Court this morning to a charge of driving while intoxicated. He received a $100 fine plus court costs and a 3-day jail term.

He was apprehended last Friday by Highway Patrolmen.

Snyderite's Father Dies Early Sunday

Funeral services was set for 3 p.m. today at First Baptist Church in Hamlin for Thomas J. Routh, who died early Sunday in an Abilene hospital.

Mr. Routh was the father of Mrs. Lesley Shelburne of Snyder. He was a native of Jones County and had lived on a farm south of Hamlin since 1906.

The Rev. Max Brown and the Rev. Byron Bryant were to officiate at the funeral service, and burial was to be in the East Cemetery at Hamlin.

Renowned Hong-Kong Banker Dies Saturday

LONDON (AP) — Sir Arthur Morse, once known as the uncrowned king of Hong Kong, died at his London home Saturday. He was 75.

Morse, a native of Ireland, joined the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank as a young man and became its chairman and leading part in the rehabilitation of the colony after the Japanese occupation.

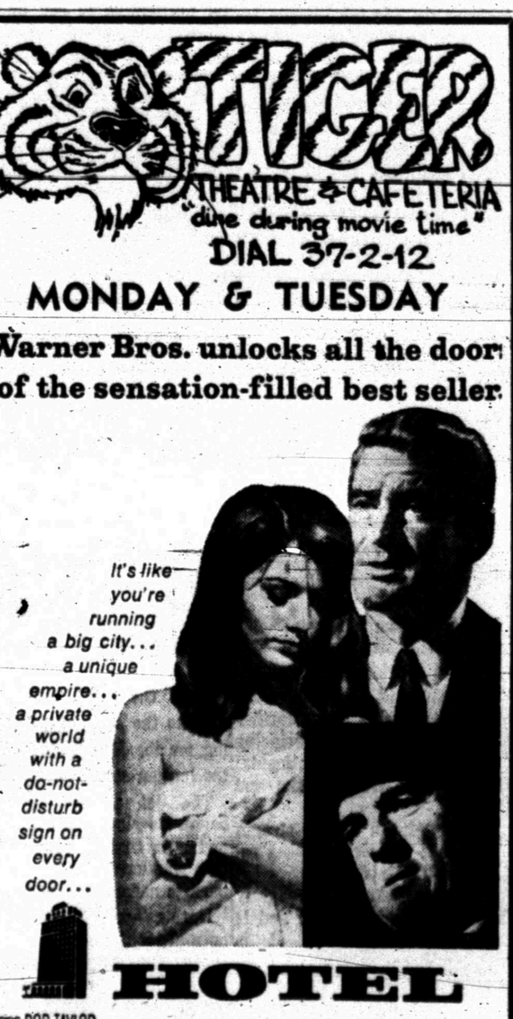

He was knighted in 1949. Four years later, when he retired from the bank, his staff pulled him and Lady Morse through the streets of Hong Kong in a car.

Services Pending For Hollywood Stunt Man

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Funeral services are pending for Frank McGrath, a Hollywood stunt man turned actor, who was last seen as the cook on the "Wagon Train" television series.

McGrath died Saturday night of a heart attack at the age of 64. Doctors said he had been ill for several weeks.

Bomb Found In Las Vegas Hotel

By ROBERT M. SHAW

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)— A bomb and a note demanding $75,000 were found in a tower room at the Sahara Hotel-Casino on the Las Vegas Strip today after thousands of guests were evacuated from Del Webb hotels in Nevada and Arizona.

The Clark County sheriff's office said the bomb was found after a man called the pit, or center of the gambling area, in the Sahara and said the device was set to go off shortly after 4 a.m.

Deputies followed instructions in the note on how to handle the device and removed it from the multimillion-dollar hotel-casino without an explosion.

The note said other bombs were planted in the Shara Tahoe Hotel-Casino on the south shore of Lake Tahoe and the Mint Casino in downtown Las Vegas, the sheriff's office said.

The bombs would go off, the note said, "if you don't cough up the money." Deputies said the Mint and Sahara Tahoe were evacuated and searched, but no more explosives were found.

The FBI was called in to aid in the search and evacuation. Agents began an immediate investigation into the identity of the anonymous caller.

Officers said the caller telephoned a second time while the search and evacuation were under way to tell them of another note under a huge neon sign in front of the Sahara.

The note sent them to a third location, where they found still another note that sent them somewhere else, deputies said.

At the final point, a note said additional instructions were left at a rest area along a highway 55 miles south of Las Vegas. Officers said they could find no instruction there.

Gordon Hewson, assistant manager of the Sahara Tahoe, said guests were asked to leave Mountain Shadows Resort in Scottsdale, Ariz., and the Del Webb Townhouse in Phoenix.

He said a full statement would come from Bud James of Scottsdale, president of the Shara Nevada Corp., which operates the establishments.

Ira P-TA Has Style Show And Officer Installation

Ira P-TA met Thursday at 3:40 p.m. in the school Gym, with all officers and 39 members present. Mrs. Pete Sterling, President, presided.

Hospitality Chairman, Mrs. Chris Sellers, extended a welcome to all present and introduced Mrs. Bonnie Timora, a guest, from Snyder.

Mrs. Bryce Fuqua's Homemaking girls presented "A Merry-Go-Round Of Fashion," a style show centered around a very colorful maypole. The show was narriated by Carol Sterling.

Sue Sorrells' dress of green hopsacking with hot pink and purple flowers was very becoming with it's A-line design and took on a "dress up" look when topped with the matching double breasted jacket. The strawberry pink circular skirted dress, topped with a long torso frosted pink blouse, worn by Margaret Lindsey, was like a cool spring breeze. Linda Autry looked ready for church in her aqua voile shift, lined with matching hopsacking and long unlined sleeves.

Sue Rasco's cool pink shift, with long full sleeves and rows of white lace, gave the impression of a lucious strawberry soda on a hot summer day. The hot pink bound cutouts in the bell sleeves of the light pink and golden grey printed shift, worn by Debbie James, were real eye catchers. Diane Erwin looked very smart in a bright orange cotton dress accented with moss gree ball fringe on the bell sleeves and around the skirt. Elaine Patom added a real smart tone to her cute blue and white checked shift by smocking the pockets and flaps.

Double knit dacron of lime green accented by navy bands on the sleeves and skirt was very becoming on Sheron Grey. Joyce Lathem chose a printed bonded knit A-line skirt with a wine bodice of broadcloth, for her attractive school dress. A long waisted orange cotton dress, accented by yellow band on sleeves and at the waist, was modeled by Brenda House. A black and white checked shift, with a smocked yoke and white collar and cuffs, was very attractively modeled by Cathy Sterling.

For her second appearance, Lindy Autry chose an orange denim hiphugger dress that she made. It would be ideal for school or for sports wear. She also modeled a long sleeve paisley print blouse that was just the thing to wear with jeans. Gold cotton, with ball fringe of light lime and gold was Sheron Greys choice for her second dress and a red bandana blouse was also made by her. Diane Erwin returned, this time wearing the smoke blue, rounded neck shift that she had made. For sport wear, Diane made a long tailed shirt of bright print.

A lined textured A-line dress of green and white, with bell sleeves, had the swing of spring as Susie Rasco made her second appearance. Her tennis outfit of white and orchid hopsacking was very attractive also. The moss green jumper of cotton denim and neat short sleeved printed blouse, was the wise second choice of Debbie James. A white and gold checked hiphugger dress was Elaine Patom second choice, and the neat blue stripped shirt she made was very neat too.

Sue Sorrells modeled a canary yellow peau de soie, empire line, formal gown, topped by a long sleeve lace jacket, which she modeled at The District Homemaking Meeting, early this spring. The aqua blue shantung dress accented by the see-through knoby, lacy sleeves gave a very dressed up look to Debbie Ashley.

These little ones looked like bright spring flowers as they marched around the colorful Maypole. Debra Collum in her white background dress with bright floral print made for her by Sheron Grey; Kim Maupin in her multi-color stripped A-line dress, made for her by Sue Rasco; Kim James in a sunshine yellow dress trimmed with paisley bands on the bell sleeves and skirt, made by her sister Debbie; and Sandy House in her high-waisted blue and pink print dress made by her sister, Brenda. The Style Show is always one of the high lights in the Ira P-TA programs.

Following the program brief reports on 18th District Spring Conference was made by Mrs. Howard Sterling, Mrs. Johnnie Wier, Mrs. J. D. Hooker and Mrs. J. L. Byars. Ira feels highly honored to have Mrs. Howard Sterling as a newly elected Vice President to the 18th District Board. Mrs. Leon Sterling and Mrs. J. L. Byars were also appointed to the Board, as Membership and Year Book Chairmen, respectively.

History Book Chairman, Mrs. Corky Kruse reported that Ira's History Book received the Superior Award at the Spring Conference, and the Year Book was one of two in the District winning Superior Plus, Chairman, Mrs. Floyd House, reported.

In the absence of Past District President, Mrs. M. F. Garland, who was ill and Mrs. Wraymond Sims, newly elected District Vice President, Mrs. Howard Sterling installed the officers for the coming year.

Outgoing officers, Mrs. Pete Sterling, President, Mrs. Pete Hester, Vice President, Mrs. Weldon Wiggins, Secretary and Mrs. Johnnie Wier, treasurer, were ask to stand, and Mrs. Sterling said, "children, parents and teachers gratifully acknowledge the many things you have accomplished with your fine leadership and wish to say, thank you!!" To the newly elected President, Mrs. Pete Hester was given the vitamin pill L, which stands for leadership; To Vice President, Mrs. Johnnie Wier, the vitamin A, as she will be aide to the president; To Secretary, Mrs. Corky Kruse, the vitamin WR, as she will both read and write and To Treasurer, Mrs. Floyd House, the vitamin T, as she is entrusted with all the treasure.

The meeting adjourned to the school lunchroom where frosted punch and yellow and white cake squares, were served from a beautiful white lace covered table, accented with a center piece of yellow mums in a gold vase, by the fifth grade mothers, Mrs. Gus Sterling, Mrs. Tommy Clements, Mrs. Corky Kruse, Mrs. Weldon Wiggins and Mrs. J. L. Byars.

Second and eight grades tied for room count.

WHAT'S GOING ON

The Junior and Senior classes of Fluvanna School are being entertained today by Mrs. Edith McKanna at the Altrurian Towers in Lubbock. The group, along with their mothers will be honored at a luncheon and games and swimming will be available throughout the day.

For Father's Day, give the home handyman a carpenter's apron made of sturdy cotton denim. If he's a man who would rather direct the job from the sidelines, give him a back yard hammock, in colorful cotton canvas.

SOME PEOPLE THINK IT PAYS,
TO GO SHOP OUT OF TOWN . . .
but have they stopped to think about what happens to that dollar they spend away from home? Part of it will go to support schools, churches and public projects of the community in which that dollar was spent. All well and good. But what about the schools, churches, etc. in our own community? These must also be supported. Don't shortchange our hometown and yourself by scattering dollars elsewhere . . . keep them working right here for you and yours!

It pays to shop locally

Education Commission Says Spending Plan Inadequate

AUSTIN (AP)—State supported colleges and universities will have trouble recruiting faculty members under proposed spending measures before the Texas Legislature, the state's commissioner of higher education said Sunday.

Dr. Jack Williams also criticized the Senate for failing to include $500,000 in its appropriations bill to continue development of a master plan for higher education in Texas.

The Senate-passed measure is in the House Appropriations Committee, which plans to substitute the House version to provide state services for the year beginning Sept. 1.

Both measures appropriate $159 million for the 22 state senior colleges and institutions in fiscal year 1968. The House bill allocates $23.6 million for public junior colleges and the Senate bill calls for $24.3 million.

Williams told the Texas College Coordinating Board that the Senate measure "does not allow the master plan Texas must have." "We would have no choice but to delay," he said.

"Faculty recruitment will be difficult," he said, referring to both measures. "To stand still, there is increasing difficulty in maintaining your faculty and improving it is just out of the question."

Williams said the board requested $223 million to support the senior colleges in 1968. With the Senate bill, "we're faced with the same problems," Williams said in discussing increasing enrollment and faculty recruitment.

Ray Fowler, staff member of the board, said both appropriation measures are inadequate for the 39 public junior colleges. The board requested $29 million, he said.

John Gray, board chairman from Beaumont, suggested a resolution be adopted to point out the board's concern with the spending measures.

"I'm highly in calling it to the attention of the Legislature," said Newton Gresham, board member from Houston. "I think we ought to tell them what our problem is, we need money."

The Senate based its appropriations for the senior colleges on current enrollment figures of about 180,000, while the board requested money on an estimated enrollment of 205,000 students in the fall, Fowler said.

The board said both bills appropriate $104.1 million for faculty salaries in all state institutions of higher learning.

In other action, the board released a reported showing 7,778 college students borrowed $4.67 million from the Texas Opportunity Plan loan fund as of March 31. The average loan was $601.

Grandmother Waits 13 Years For Escape

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A three-week pass to West Berlin was Alfrieda Oppen's ticket to freedom.

She waited 13 years for the opportunity.

"We tried to get the East Germans to permit mother to join us here," said Ursula Wendt. "But always there was refusal and red tape."

Finally, the East German government relaxed regulations to permit persons over 65 to go from East to West Berlin on a three-week pass once a year. Mrs. Oppen, a widow, turned 65 this year. She immediately applied for a pass—and informed Mrs. Wendt.

Her daughter in Lancaster, Calif., a Los Angeles suburb, made arrangements with the American consul in West Berlin to expedite processing of Mrs. Oppen's visa.

The pass started April 26, and Mrs. Oppen—her visa finally cleared with the help of a congressman and the U.S. Immigration Service—left for the West.

After her plane from London arrived in Los Angeles Mother's day she collapsed in her daughter's arms in tears.

At the airport were Mrs. Wendt, 38, her husband, Wolfgang, 38, and their son, Klaus, 18.

The Wendts, who had not seen Mrs. Oppen since they left West Berlin 13 years ago, praised Rep. Ed Reineck, R-Calif., for cutting red tape and expediting processing of her visa so she could leave before the pass expired.

Mrs. Oppen, who speaks only German, sobbed, "I'm so glad, so happy," at the airport. Bystanders also cried.

Said Wendt, a laboratory technician: "I'm not ashamed of tears."

On the ride to Lancaster, Wendt said, Mrs. Oppen remarked at the quality of the homes she was passing in an average neighborhood.

She said, "That must be where high society lives."

Although his mother-in-law brought only one suitcase, Wendt said, "She doesn't need anything else—we're going to take good care of her." Their home has four bedrooms.

Stowaway Meets Mom Of Fiance

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—The adventurous Australian blonde who chased her Coast Guard beau from Down Under met his "momma" on Mother's Day beside a hotel swimming pool.

While Sandy Hilder wowed the home folk with per pink and purple bikini, her boy friend Bernard (Bud) Brewer stayed aboard his icebreaker Glacier at San Diego, Calif.

Squiring Sandy around poolside was Brewer's 8-year-old brother Scooter.

Sandy charmed Scooter Sunday when she let him share her double bed.

"If Buddy doesn't marry her," said the boys' mother Kay Cowen, "then Scooter's standing in line."

Mrs. Cowen, the wife of an electrician, said her Coast Guard son called.

"Buddy said, 'Momma, when you meet her you'll like her. Buddy said she's a nut. In our family that's a compliment.'"

Sandy said she liked the Cowens, too, and called Mrs. Cowen "Mom."

Sandy's capers began after she was discovered hiding under the admiral's bed on the guided missile cruiser Long Beach while the ship was stopped in Australia.

Vowing she would marry Brewer, she since has chased him all the way to San Diego, with side visits to New York and Fort Lauderdale.

Fire Burns Out Madison Courthouse

MADISONVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Fire of undetermined origin burned out the Madison County courthouse Sunday night.

Heat from the windblown fire broke windows in numerous business houses around the town square.

The 71-year-old building was last renovated in 1954.

County officials made no immediate estimate of the damage.

Knudson Nips Jack For First Money

By BEN THOMAS
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — George Knudson, like Frank Beard, will always have fond memories of the 15th hole at Lakewood Country Club.

Knudson, an ex-caddy from Canada, used a shot "I didn't know I had in my bag" Sunday at 15 and went on to capture the $20,000 first-prize money in the $100,000 Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tourney.

He beat Jack Nicklaus by a shot, keeping the Ohio strongboy from his first official victory on the PGA national tour this year and wheting Nicklaus' appetite for this week's Colonial National Invitational in Fort Worth, Tex.

Nicklaus made no excuses, save for a wry comment about landing in a bunker "where it looked like about 30 people had been walking in it."

"Well, on to next week," he said as he picked up his $12,000 check for second place.

Knudson, 29, was the only player in this year's tourney to get a birdie on the 530-yard par 5 hole. Beard, who finished third this year, won the tourney last year with an eagle on the same hole.

Nicklaus hit what "I thought was a good putt" from three feet on the same hole for a birdie, "but it hit the bottom of the hole and came out."

Nicklaus and Knudson began the final round over the windswept course, with its 7-020-yards playing short because of sun-baked fairways, tied for the lead. Beard was two shots back.

Knudson wound up with a 70, two under par, for a 72-hole score of 277. Nicklaus' final round was 70. So was Beard's.

Bob Charles, Billy Casper, Tommy Bolt, Gardiner Dickinson and South African rookie Cobie LeGrange all deadlocked for fourth earning $3,820 each.

Casper and LeGrange had closing round 67s.

Casper won the All America Gold Cup and the $5,000 cash for first that goes with it. The award goes to the golfer with the lowest combined scores for this tourney, the Masters, PGA and U.S. Open.

Arnold Palmer had a 10-stroke lead in the competition for the cup coming into this tourney, but decided to skip New Orleans and spurned the extra dough.

Mick's 500th Lifts Yanks

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Mickey Mantle, whose 10-day ordeal has ended with a loud crash, is breathing easy again.

Eddie Stanky, whose 10-game joyride goes on without a wallop, is holding his breath.

"I'm glad it's over . . . it's a relief," Mantle said Sunday after blasting the 500th home run of his illustrious major league career to lift the New York Yankees past the Baltimore Orioles 6-5.

"I have never seen a club go this far on pitching alone," Manager Stanky said after his light-hitting Chicag White Sox ran their winning string to 10 games and swept into the American League lead with 4-2 and 3-1 victories over the California Angels.

Mantle, who hit his 499th homer on May 3 at Minnesota, struggled through seven homerless games before unloading No. 500 against Stu Miller in the seventh inning Sunday and becoming the sixth player in history to reach the half-century mark.

"It's like winning the last game of a World Series," said the 17-year New York veteran, whose drive into the right field seats at Yankee Stadium admitted him to the exclusive circle that also includes Babe Ruth, Willie Mays, Jimmy Foxx, Ted Williams and Mel Ott.

Reminded by newsmen that the next milestone is Ott's career mark of 511 homers, Mantle shook his head. "511?" he snorted. "You mean you guys are going to start that now?"

"My next goal is 11," Stanky was saying in Chicago after Gary Peters completed the White Sox' sweep by tossing the eighth one-hitter in the majors this spring.

The double victory, coupled with Boston's 8-5, 13-9 doubleheader sweep over Detroit, sent the White Sox into first place — 1½ games ahead of the Tigers.

Elsewhere in the American League, Kansas City topped Minnesota 4-2 and Cleveland edged Washington 2-1 in a rain-curtailed five-inning game.

Cincinnati took a National League doubleheader from Philadelphia 2-1 and 1-0, San Francisco swept Houston 11-6 and 4-3, Pittsburgh trimmed Atlanta 5-2, the New York Mets ambushed St. Louis 3-1 and Los Angeles split a twin bill with the Chicago Cubs, winning 2-1 in 10 innings before bowing 6-3 in 11.

Mantle's homer gave New York a 6-4 lead after Joe Pepitone's two-run pinch-hit blast in the sixth wiped out a 4-3 deficit.

The Orioles closed the gap in the eighth when Mantle, still dazed by the roaring ovation given him by 18,872 Stadium fans, dropped a throw at first base and then fired wildly past the plate, enabling Frank Robinson to score.

"I was in a fog," he said. "It sure would have been pretty tough to hit the homer, then make an error that lost the game."

Peters stymied the Angels after yielding a second-inning homer by ex-teammate Bill Skowron. It was the left-handers fourth straight victory after an opening loss.

Tommy John and reliever Bob Locker combined for a five-hitter in the first game and Ken Berry's third hit — a two-run single in the seventh — gave the White Sox their winning margin.

The Chicago pitching staff has given up only 13 runs during the 10-game streak.

"There have been times when the pitchers carry you for four or five games," Stanky said. "But then the team will come up with some hitting to keep the streak alive. It's been all pitching for us."

Rico Petrocelli, who drove in five runs, and Carl Yastrzemski each rapped two homers in leading the Red Sox to their sweep over Detroit.

The two clubs set an American League record of 28 extra base hits in the doubleheader, with Boston accounting for 16. Willie Horton hit two homers in the nightcap for Detroit, which had won seven in a row.

Kansas City struck for four runs in the first inning — two on Mike Hershberger's double — and took their third straight from the Twins behind the strong pitching of Chuck Dobson and Jack Aker.

Cleveland's Sonny Siebert pitched a two-hitter, setting the Senators down in order until the fifth, when Frank Howard homered and Dick Nen beat out an infield single.

Tors Trip Tigers For Baseball Crown

LAMESA — High winds and the Golden Tornadoes struck the Snyder Tigers here Saturday afternoon and when the dust had lifted Lamesa had won the District 3-AAA baseball crown, 3-0, and the right to represent the league in the playoffs.

Louis Jenkins, Tornado catcher, provided the margin of difference in the 4th frame. He closed his eyes and made a roundhouse swing. The bat connected with the ball and it disappeared over the right centerfield fence, smashing the windshield of a hapless fan's car.

The blast also scored Gene Everheart, who had walked ahead of Jenkins. Until that point neither team could dent the scoreboard. The home run broke open a tight pitching duel between Snyder's Roy Hunter and Lamesa's Terry Davis.

Everheart added an insurance run in the 6th. He drilled a double down the third base line. The ball eluded the Tiger left fielder, and Gene circled the bases for the third Tornado run.

Davis worked smoothly, giving up only three hits and walking one. Hunter, the loser, also yielded only three hits, and he walked three. Roy also went the distance.

A thrilling double play by the Tigers cut off a Lamesa threat in the 2nd frame after Benton singled and Jenkins and Jordan walked to load the bases with one away. Joel Vaughn, a pinch hitter lined to Ragland at first, and Kenny fired the ball to Mickey Almond at third. Mickey [illegible] Benton trying to get back to third. There were no other Tornado threats.

Snyder made menacing gestures in the 3rd and 5th frames, but couldn't push anyone past third base. Ragland singled to open the 3rd, and Ronnie Lewis, a pinch runner, went to second on a sacrifice by Lane McMillan. Hunter was safe at first on an error by the third baseman and Lewis held at second. But the next two batters popped to short as the rally fizzled.

Ragland took first after being hit by a pitched ball in the 5th. Davis fanned the next two batters, then Buddy Powell cracked a double with Kenny holding at third. Another strike out got the Tors out of the jam.

Almond singled in the 4th and died there. Terry Holt walked to open the 6th, but Davis fanned the next three batters. He put down eight Tigers on strike outs, and Hunter was credited with six.

An inability to hit in the clutch spelled doom to Snyder's hopes for a repeat championship.

ALBUQUERQUE WINS

Spurs Blow Lead In 12th

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It changes nothing to remind a baseball manager whose club has won only eight of 27 games that 11 of the losses were by two runs or less.

But that's what has happened to Manager Jo Jo White and his Dallas-Fort Worth Spurs in the Texas League this season.

The Spurs' record in the first month has been one of frustration.

Of their 19 defeats leading to last place in the standings, eight have been by one run, three by two runs and three more by three runs, one by four and the other four by five runs. The Spurs have been shut out only three times.

The losing season has been made to seem longer because Dallas-Fort Worth has been involved in seven extra inning games, four of them 12-inning affairs.

The latest was Sunday when the Spurs blew a three-run lead in the 12th inning and lost to Albuquerque 7-6. It was the second 12-inning game the two clubs have played. The Spurs lost the other 1-0 May 4.

Half of Dallas-Fort Worth's eight victories have come in prolonged games and six triumphs were by one run.

Sunday's loss was the Spurs' fifth straight and four of them were by one run. Reliever Dave Dixon's wild pitch with one out permitted Albuquerque's Ted Sizemore to score from third base with the winning run.

Dallas - Fort Worth starter George Hermanek gave up nine hits through 11 innings, then issued two walks and a single to fill the bases in the 12th.

League-leading Amarillo extended its winning streak to seven games by bombarding Austin with four home runs in an 8-3 victory. Rain shortened the game to six innings Sunday.

John Griffin and Larry Howad each hit two-run homers and Jim McDonald and Brock Davis had solo home runs.

Arkansas defeated slumping second-place El Paso 7-4 for the Travelers fifth consecutive triumph. Arkansas had four runs across the plate in the first inning before a batter was retired.

Reds Sweep Philadelphia

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Life gets easier all the time for young Gary Nolan, who was battling high school hitters in Oroville, Calif. a year ago.

Now, all he has to worry about are Willie Mays, Roberto Clemente and the rest of the National League.

"I was hit harder in high school than I have been so far this year," grinned Nolan after his five-hitter had blanked Philadelphia 1-0 and given Cincinnati a sweep of Sunday's doubleheader.

The Reds won the opener 2-1 on Vada Pinson's eighth-inning homer and the four-hit pitching of Jim Maloney and Ted Abernathy.

Nolan is the precocious 18-year-old right-hander who came to the Cincinnati camp as a non-roster player and won a regular job. He is 3-1 with a 2.12 earned run average and the poise of a man twice his age.

"I don't get nervous because when I came to the Reds I felt I could pitch big league ball," Nolan said.

"I love what I've seen of him," said Dave Bristol, the Reds' manager. "No kicking, no tugging, no pulling. He just goes to work and puts the ball over with something on it."

Nolan had plenty on it against the Phillies. He struck out eight and now has fanned 48 in 46 2-3 innings. The shutout was his first in organized ball.

The youngster's confidence may come from the fact that he was the Reds' first choice in the free agent draft last June. A $65,000 bonus never hurt anybody's confidence.

Nolan was 7-3 with 163 strikeouts in 104 innings at Sioux Falls of the Northern League after signing last year. He was still on the Sioux Falls roster this spring but not for long.

In other National League games Sunday, San Francisco swept a doubleheader from Houston 11-6 and 4-3, Chicago split with Los Angeles, losing 2-1 in 10 innings before winning 6-3 in 11, New York dropped St. Louis 3-1, and Pittsburgh whipped Atlanta 5-2.

In the American League, Mickey Mantle's 500th career homer helped New York to a 6-5 victory over Baltimore, Chicago swept two from California, 4-2 and 3-1, Kansas City topped Minnesota 4-2, Cleveland edged Washington 2-1 in a five inning game and Boston swept a doubleheader from Detroit 8-5 and 13-9.

Consecutive first inning doubles by Pete Rose and Tony Perez gave Nolan the only run he needed against the Phillies in the second game.

Maloney worked into the ninth of the opener but had to leave when his right shoulder became sore. Abernathy got the last two outs.

The Giants unloaded 16 hits in the first game against the Astros with Jim Hart driving in four runs, three of them on a homer, Hart, Tito Fuentes and Norm Siebern had three hits apiece in the attack.

Ollie Brown's two-out, two-run homer in the ninth inning gave the Giants the second game. Houston rookie Don Wilson was leading 3-0 on a two-hitter in the eighth inning before San Francisco knocked him out with a two-run rally. Then Brown's first pitch shot off Claude Raymond won it in the ninth.

Willie Davis delivered a run-scoring single with two out in the 10th inning of the opener, lifting the Dodgers past the Cubs. Don Drysdale, 2-3, who drove in the first Los Angeles run with an eighth-inning single, was the winner.

Army-bound Ken Holtzman copped his fourth straight in the second game and ignited the three-run rally that won it in the 11th with a single. Ron Rairly cracked a two-run homer for the Dodgers.

The Mets ended Bob Gibson's nine-game winning streak against them as Jack Fisher beat the Cardinals. Jerry Buchek, traded by St. Louis to New York just before the season started, homered in the fourth, starting the three-run rally that won it for the Mets.

Roberto Clemente smashed a single, double and triple, scored twice and drove in another run as the Pirates downed the Braves. Bill Mazeroski drove in Clemente twice with singles and Donn Clendenon homered for Pittsburgh.

Lamar Wins Second In Net Tourney

SWEETWATER — Lamar Junior High's tennis team captured second place in a tournament here Saturday, scoring 34 points. San Angelo won the title.

John Phillips and Ronnie Maddux won the 9th grade doubles by defeating Tommy Hunter and Steve Joiner of San Angelo, 6-1, 6-4, in the finals.

In 8th grade singles, Max Falls won the crown by beating Mark Storey of San Angelo, 3-6, 6-2, and 6-0.

Bruce Almond of Snyder and Randall Treadwell of Eastland won the 8th grade doubles with 6-0, 6-3 set over Mark Bolunsky and Tommy Horton of San Angelo.

John Phillips beat Richard Bachmann of San Angelo, 6-4, 6-3; then lost in the semifinals to Dennis Hirschfield, also of San Angelo, 6-2, 6-2. This was a 9th grade singles match.

Tommy Faver won his first 8th grade singles match, beating Olid Johnson of Sweetwater, 6-1, 6-1; then he lost to Max Falls in the semifinals, 6-3, 6-1.

In 8th grade doubles, Mike Shearburne and Bobby Weaver won their first match, defeating Carroll and Evans of Sweetwater, 6-1, 6-2, before losing to Almond and Treadwell in the semifinals, 6-1, 6-2.

First round victims were Tom Boren and Ronald Clinton, Vonee Reneau and Cindy Spires, and Bruce Almond.

Rogers Wins 2nd At State

ABILENE — Although Scurry County teams didn't fare too well at the girls state track meet here Saturday, the performance of Ira's Carolyn Rogers bodes well for [illegible].

The Freshman speedster copped second place in the 80 meter hurdles with a 13.3 clocking. The winning time, a 12.6, was posted by Idalou senior Judy Foreman.

Cheron Billick of Borden County placed third in the 100 yard dash with a 12.2 time, and the Coyotes' Debbie Dennis took fifth in the broad jump with a 16-0¾ distance. Borden County's 880 yard relay team finished fourth.

Other points by Scurry County competitors were won by Medrano of Hobbs in the triple jump with a 33-8¼ effort.

Idalou won the meet with 91 points, and Claredon was runner up with 50 points.

Giants Fell Astros Twice

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— The Houston Astros blanked San Francisco in nine consecutive innings, Sunday but lost a doubleheader to the Giants 11-6 and 4-3.

The string of scoreless frames started with the seventh inning of the first game after the Giants had scored four runs in each of the fifth and sixth innings to erase a 6-3 Houston lead.

San Francisco could not push over another run until the eighth inning of the second game when it got a pair. It added two more in the ninth on Ollie Brown's game-winning home run with two out.

Home runs by Ed Mathews and Joe Morgan helped Houston to a 6-3 lead in the opener. The Giants ripped off five singles in their four-run fifth inning while doubles by Willie Mays and Tito Fuentes and Jim Hart's three-run homer highlighted the four-run sixth.

In the nightcap, Houston starter Don Wilson had a two-hit shutout until the eighth. Brown's double and singles by pinch hitter Bob Schroder and Ken Henderson and an Astro error contributed to the first pair of Giants runs.

Mays opened the ninth with a double but was out at third base on Hart's grounder. After Norm Siebern flied out, Brown hit reliever Claude Raymond's first pitch for a home run.

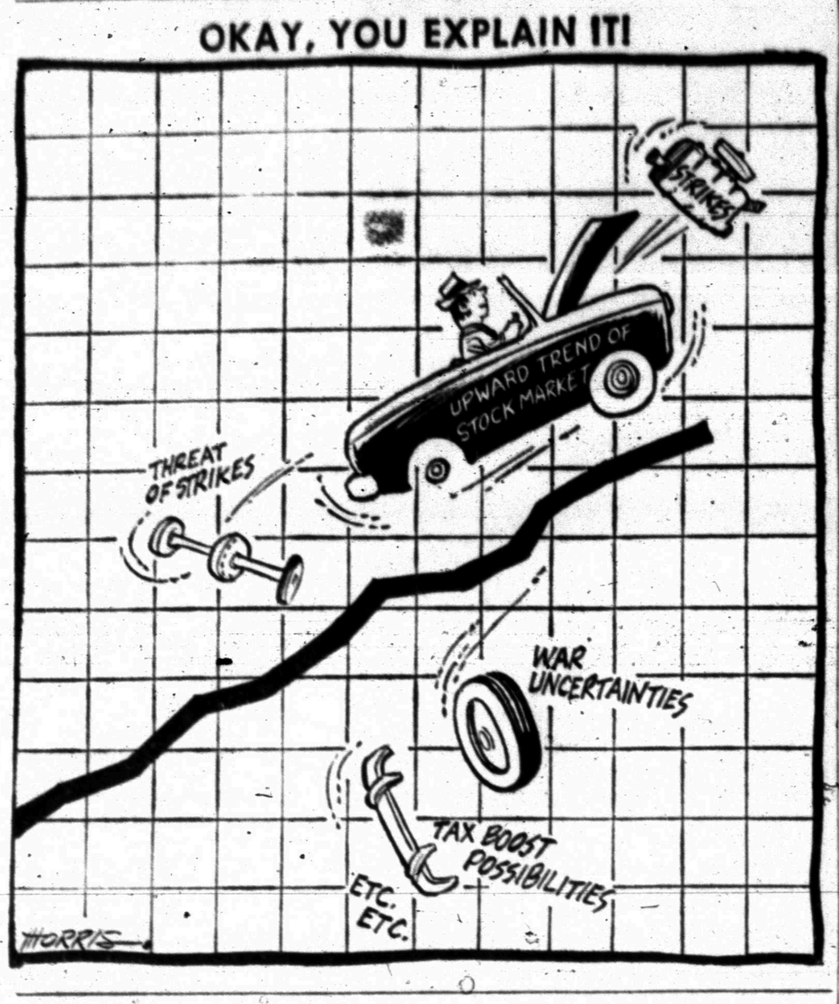

DOUBLE PLAY — Kenny Ragland, Snyder first baseman, spears a line drive hit by Lamesa's Joel Vaughan in the 2nd inning of the District 3-AAA championship tilt on the Tornado diamond Saturday. Ragland fired the ball to Mickey Almond at third base, and Mickey tgged out Franklin Pearce to complete the double play. Lamesa won, 3-0.

American Days In Asia Looking Unhappy, Endless

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The war is wrapped in gloom like a shawl at night. No end in view. No break visible, either. The chance of a bigger war always in the background. And the American days in Asia looking endless.

This picture, unhappy but realistic, is patched together from the words of men miles apart, in geography and thinking, but in a position to see what they're looking at and know what they're talking of.

And the words provide no light at the tunnel's end, although if they did it would be balm for President Johnson.

An end to the war before the 1968 elections, a break, a timetable he could lay out for American withdrawal from Asia would do no end of good for his chances of re-election.

But he himself has been grim, mostly, speaking of the necessity for doing what's being done without buttering it over with forecasts of happy tomorrows.

First, there was U Thant, secretary-general of the United Nations, a distressed Burmese made fidgety by the war from the beginning. He has rooted around endlessly for solutions, always wound up baffled.

In brief, what he said was that, at the present rate of things, war between the United States and Red China looks sure.

This is how he put it: "In my view, if the present trend continues, I am afraid direct confrontation first of all between Washington and Peking is inevitable. I hope I am wrong. I am afraid we are witnessing the initial phase of World War III."

Then, without saying how, he indicated he knew what he was talking about.

If this was an attempt to scare the United States into backing down a bit with North Vietnam, Washington didn't buy it, at least not officially or publicly. Officials here said they saw no increased likelihood of such a war.

But then word came from Peking through Chou En-lai, Red China's premier, by way of Simon Malley, a naturalized U.S. citizen and U.N. correspondent for some African newspapers. He had an interview with the premier.

What he learned from Chou was made available by the Chicago Daily News and Publishers Newspaper Syndicate.

Chou said Red China is ready to send hordes of "volunteers" into Vietnam tomorrow if:

—North Vietnam asks for them.

—The United States keeps on building up the war and particularly if it lands troops in North Vietnam and Red China thinks this is a menace to it.

—The Soviets and Americans are about to arrange a peace which Red China thinks betrays the Vietnamese.

This is a shivery trio of conditions because Hanoi may ask for the "volunteers" if it thinks it is near collapse; at any time at all the Red Chinese may think the war has become a menace to them; and any kind of peace North Vietnam itself might think was all right might not seem so to Red China.

With this kind of warning, with all the possibilities for Red Chinese intervention, the United States can hardly be sure when China may get into the war. But even an end to the war seems unlikely to end U.S. involvement in Asia.

Perhaps the best — and only — reason right now why China might be reluctant to get into war with this country is that it doesn't have nuclear weapons while the United States does. In a few years China will have them.

Junior Editors Quiz on ALCHEMIST

QUESTION: What were the old alchemists trying to do?

* * *

ANSWER: Our picture might be called "The Alchemist's Dream," because it shows alchemy's strange mixture of superstition, astrology and science, as well as the alchemist's purpose: to make gold. Alchemy came from Egyptian, Greek and Arabian ideas and originated in the city of Alexandria in the 1st Century. The Greek thinker Aristotle had concluded that everything was composed of "prime matter" — although no one knew what that was. From prime matter came the four elements — fire, air, water and earth. Aristotle believed that if one changed the proportions of these elements correctly, anything could be made. The first alchemists were metal workers. They made gold into ornaments for wealthy people and constructed cheaper substitutes for others. Aristotle's ideas led them to think that, if they experimented enough, they could produce gold. With their experiments they combined the ideas of the astrologers: that the positions of the stars were important in human affairs. Although the alchemists never produced gold, their research helped to lay the foundations of modern chemistry.

Orbiter 4 Film Ruined

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — It was an open door on America's Lunar Orbiter 4 that exposed camera film to sunlight and ruined several frames, scientists say.

They said Sunday they were having trouble with a thermal door that covers the camera lens on the 600-pound lunar satellite and decided to leave it open to avoid problems.

But it caused more problems, they said, explaining: "It now seems likely that sunlight leaked inside the camera system through the open door and over a long period of time it caused light to strike on some of the film frames.

"Our immediate action was to maneuver the spacecraft so the camera faces away from the sun."

The scientists said the spacecraft will pass over the same areas on the moon again and can then photograph the areas.

Will You Consider Vietnam For This Year's Vacation?

By KENNETH L. WHITING

SAIGON (AP) — Having trouble deciding where to take your vacation this year? How about Vietnam?

No kidding. Officials classify some 46,000 of last year's visitors as tourists and they have high hopes of increasing that figure in 1967.

They tout big game hunting, attractive beaches and ancient shrines. No mention is made of the war.

One government brochure put it this way: "With its sophisticated, temperate climate, resorts in the highland country, its white beaches, its ancient imperial city, its vast hunting reserves and its numerous other attractions, Vietnam is rapidly becoming a 'must see' for thousands of foreign tourists."

Despite more than 20 years of combat, terrorism, economic instability and other difficulties the Saigon government is doing its best to welcome vacationers. There are 14 travel bureaus in Saigon. National Tourist Director Tranba Thach visited Seattle late in April to sing the praises of South Vietnam at a meeting of the Pacific Region Tourist Federation.

Few of the 438,000 American troops regard their tours in Vietnam as a holiday, but some of their parents and relatives spend vacations here visiting them. They help swell tourists figures.

The tourist will notice something unusual even before his plane lands in Saigon. Passenger jets plummet steeply into Tan Son Nhut Airport — among the world's busiest — to avoid Viet Cong ground fire.

After a one-hour wait in a hot arrival hall during customs and immigration procedures, the vacationer is ready to sample the delights of Saigon. It is no longer the quiet and beautiful city that once laid claim to the title "Paris of the Orient."

But one tourist brochure insists: "Saigon's attractiveness is enhanced by its boulevards, shaded by tall, exotic trees, and its public parks. Its busy river front is picturesque and ocean liners travel 40 miles up river to reach the docks."

Trees are falling fast along Cong Ly Boulevard to widen the main road from the airport for military traffic. The river is picturesque with patrolling gunboats, floating garbage and rusty freighters. Ocean shipping from the South China Sea is regularly fired upon by Communist guerrillas as it navigates the twisting channel.

Sights to see in Saigon include an assortment of French colonial buildings, Buddhist shrines, the new Doc Lap (independence palace, the Chinese section of Cholon, the Botanical Gardens, National Museum and beautiful Vietnamese girls in their traditional "ao dai," silk pantaloons under a long silk tunic split on both sides.

Souvenier seekers can acquire multi - colored china elephants or dragons in several sizes, lacquer, ivory carvings, or an attache covered in elephant leather for $20. Those with a taste for the garish may want a black nylon jacket lettered fighter by day, lover by night. Drunkard by choice — Vietnam 1967."

English has spread rapidly in South Vietnam. The male tourist may be pleased to be hailed in his own language by pedicab drivers: "Hey you! Take number one girl?"

Gourmets will be disappointed. The once superb french cusine has deteriorated. Those with a yen to sample Vietnamese food should be warned about "nuoc nam," the pungent fermented fish sauce. It tastes better than it smells largely because it is impossible to taste worse.

Visitors might like a predinner drink at the Continental Palace Hotel where Graham Greene wrote scenes for "The Quiet American." The hotel terrace is now a favorite gathering spot of American civilian construction workers. Few are quiet.

Rooftop restaurants in the Caravelle and Majestic hotels are popular dining spots. They provide a relaxing ringside seat for the war. During the meal artillery often booms from the suburbs, parachute flares drift out over the airport and gunship helicopters fire on the other side of the river. Night life is limited by the curfew, 11 p.m. for American soldiers and midnight for all others.

Most tourists don't get outside the capital. Many roads still are not secure. For those interested, the Tourist Bureau suggests visits to the vegetable growing spa of Dalat in the central highlands, the "hunting paradise" of Ban Me-Thuot and the old imperial city of Hue.

Dalat is reached on Air Vietnam — about $13 roundtrip — or from Saigon on Highway 20. Air passage is recommended for speed and because the Viet Cong usually have a tax road block mounted on Route 20.

Elephant and tiger hunting, once popular in the highlands, has been interrupted by strictly human warfare. The GI newspaper Stars and Stripes occasionally carries a photo of a smiling American soldier posing with a tiger he killed. Civilian safaris are scarce.

Huge features the old royal palace, which was designed along the lines of the imperial Chinese palace in Peking, sampan rides along the Perfume River, teen-age girls reputed to be the prettiest in Vietnam, and the remains of the United States Information Service office which was burned down in anti-American rioting a year ago.

Local Youth Joins Navy

Henry Wayne Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Clark, 112 Elm Street, has enlisted in the U. S. Navy.

He applied for enlistment with Marv Baker, local Navy Recruiter, and was sent to Dallas for induction. From Dallas he was flown to the Naval Training Center at San Diego, Calif., where he will undergo nine weeks of basic recruit training.

Clark enlisted as an Airman Recruit, which means he will work in one of the Navy's 18 vocational career fields within the Navy.

Baker is in Snyder every Tuesday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the post office for the convenience of anyone seeking information about the U. S. Navy.

Tree House Fire Fatal To Youths

LENOIR, N.C. (AP)—Two Lenoir youngsters have died after a fire in a tree house, and a third was burned critically.

Firemen said the boys had apparently built a fire in a bucket in the tree house Saturday night, and then fell asleep. They fell 20 feet to the ground as the house went up in flames.

Roy Ingram, 13, was dead at the scene. Alan Darrel Guy, 12, was rushed to a hospital, where he died several hours later. Gary Groes, 13, was hospitalized in critical condition.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCarter, 111 Twenty - fifth, are the parents of a 6 lb. 15 oz. baby boy born May 14th at 12:25 a.m.

A 7 lb. 9 oz. baby boy was born May 14th at 8:23 a.m. to Mr. and Mrs. James Hines, 1707 Ave. E.

ICC Slates Rail Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hearings beginning June 12 in Dallas have been scheduled by the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) on the Fort Worth & Denver Railway's request to eliminate passenger service between Dallas and Denver.

Several cities along the route have protested the proposal.

The railroad says its "Zephyrs" are operating uneconomically.

Subsequent hearings, the ICC said, will be held June 14 in Wichita Falls, June 15 in Amarillo, June 16 in Clayton, N. M., June 19 in Colorado Springs, Colo., and June 20 in Denver.

The FW&D asked permission to stop the service on May 10 but the ICC ordered a four-month delay for hearings before making a ruling.

BUSINESS and INDUSTRIAL NEWS

IDEAL GIFT — Mary Hall, employe at Harold Bennett Office Supply, tries out one of the many attractive typewriter models that would be ideal gifts for graduating seniors. Bennett's has manual and electric models in standard or portable size.

Ideal Graduation Gifts Available At Bennett's

Parents, Harold Bennett office Supply, Inc., 1819 Twenty - fifth Street, has several nice gifts that would be ideal for that graduating senior.

If your son or daughter is planning to continue his education, a new typewriter would make a appropriate gift. Bennett's has several models of Smith - Corona's, both standard and portable and manual and electric.

The Electric 250 model is a compact model, rather than a portable. It has all the features of a large machine plus ease and simplicity of operation. Three types of electric portable models available at Bennett's are the Electric 110, the Electra 120, and the Cornet electric.

In standard models, Bennett's has the Super-Sterling and the Classic 12 (12-inch carriage).

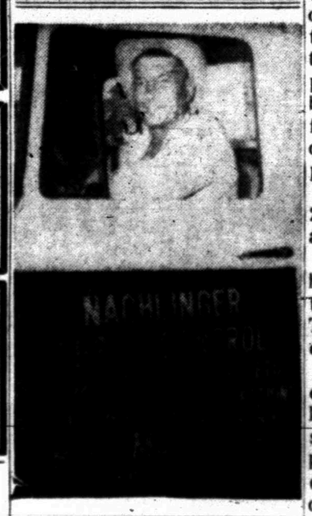

Among other attractive gift items are Victor adding machines, Eaton stationery (with monogram service), bulletin balls, Cross pen and pencil sets, dictionaries, Leaves of Gold, billfolds, attache brief cases, picture albums and diaries.

For young parents, Bennett's can have your baby's shoes bronzed and preserved in their original size and shape.

Just dial HI-3-7202 to inquire about your choice in gift items. The chances are a courteous employe will tell you that Bennett's has it.

Scholars Seek Truth Of Little Big Horn Massacre

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—When George A. Custer and five companies of the U.S. 7th Cavalry fought their famous "Last Stand" on the banks of the Little Big Horn River in southeastern Montana in 1876, they spurred a military controversy that may rage as long as wars are fought.

Why didn't Custer listen to his Indian scouts, who forecast doom? Why did he detach two segments of troops and send them elsewhere before the battle?

It is questions such as these that a newly organized group of scholars of the West hopes to answer.

"We want to seek out and preserve the truth for future students and historians," says Robert J. Ege of Great Falls, Mont., a writer, student of the Old West and a leader of the Custer fact-finding group.

"But first we must debunk the myth, fantasy, official and unofficial inaccuracies that shroud the truth of what actually occurred," Ege said. Ege and Robert B. MacLane of Tacoma, Wash., founded the Little Big Horn Associates last December and recruited 10 other Western history students as charter members. "We're 12 nonradicals, and we have no axes to grind," Ege said.

Radicalism has marked the Custer controversy. Custer went into history books either as a military genius and great leader or as a flamboyant overconfident, glory seeker, whose biggest mistake was his last.

One school of thought says Custer wanted to be president and thought that by annihilating the Cheyenne and Sioux he could establish himself as a national hero. Others believe Custer was trying to rebuild his public image. He had been rebuked by President U.S. Grant for getting into a sticky political situation which involved the president's brother.

Ege has studied the battle for 25 years and is about to publish a book, "Curse Not His Curls."

Just prior to Custer's defeat, he divided his command into three groups and a pack train. This action has been questioned ever since.

MacLaine, a student of Western history for 45 years, believes Custer's tactics, if assessed from a soldier's standpoint, indicate he was overconfident, had not reconnoitered completely and should not have split his command.

Ege, one of the pro-Custer members of the society, disagrees. He said the maneuver was militarily sound. "It was the old tactic of reconnaissance in force," Ege said.

Custer expected to clash with a force of 800 to 900 Indians, Ege said, but a breakdown in communications kept him from learning of the Indian buildup in the valley. The camp, as he learned too late, was three miles long and contained 15,000 to 20,000 Indians.

Isolated, Custer and his five troops of cavalry could do little but retreat. The command was forced back to Custer Ridge, where it fought to the last. Only a horse survived.

Before engaging the Indians, Custer scribbled a note to Capt. Frederick W. Benteen ordering him to come immediately with men and ammunition. The order was not acted upon. Benteen's lack of action followed him to the grave.

"Benteen, though within easy reach of the besieged Custer, never came," Ege said. "He did in fact disobey a written order that was militarily in force until it was obeyed or the issuer was dead."

Vivian Paladin, editor of the authoritative publication, "Montana, the Magazine of Western History," minces few words describing why Benteen failed to fulfill the order. "Benteen hated Custer's guts," she said.

Maj. Marcus A. Reno, who had been ordered by Custer to proceed up the Little Big Horn Valley and engage the Indians, did so and was routed. Reno beat a disorganized retreat across the river and up into the bluffs south of Custer's position. He was immediately engaged by Indians and couldn't extricate himself, much less reinforce Custer.

"Custer essentially had weak sister subordinates," Ege said.

"Reno was no Indian fighter and had no experience. Benteen did not know how to take orders."

The battlefield was such a mess it was impossible to determine how many men died with Custer. Ege and MacLaine believe there were about 225 killed.

"On the field 212 bodies were found. There were four officers missing and nine troopers unaccounted for," Ege said.

"Yet," Ege maintained, "you cannot say no one escaped and be absolutely sure."

Ege believes at least one man did escape. "His name was Frank Finkel," Ege said, "and he died in 1930 near Carter, Mont."

MacLaine, who considers himself neither anti- nor pro-Custer, often finds himself at odds with Ege. But he admitted "the Finkel case is the best so far" because the man knew so much about the terrain and what reportedly happened during the battle.

Peace Corps Is Warned By Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has told the Peace Corps it should not undertake major programs like one in Micronesia without approval by Congress.

The committee's warning was in its report to the Senate approving a $118.7 million authorization for the Peace Corps. The authorization is $8.7 million higher than this year's budget.

Peace Corpsmen currently are in 52 countries, and plans are to add Ceylon, Gambia, Upper Volta, Western Samoa and Lesotho to the program.

"The Peace Corps is living up to its high expectations," the committee report asserted.

But Micronesia—the Marshall, Mariana and Caroline Islands in the Pacific Ocean—is another question, the report said.

Those islands were put under a U.S. trusteeship after World War II.

"It may even be questioned whether the Peace Corps ought to be in Micronesia at all," the report says.

About 90,000 persons live on the 100 or so islands in Micronesia. "At the end of fiscal year 1968," the report says, "there will be 665 volunters, or one for each 130 Micronesians."

Peace Corps Director Jack said the massive pilot program aimed at promoting major change was begun in spring of 966 at the suggestion of U.N. Ambassador Arthur Goldberg and Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall.

"While the aims and purposes of this pilot program are certainly admirable," the report says, "the committee questions whether they are consistent with the mandate Congress gave the Peace Corps.

"If programs of the same magnitude were to be undertaken in Latin America, for example, the achievement of a ratio of one Peace Corps volunter for every 130 inhabitants would require a volunteer corps of nearly two million persons.

"Certainly this is not what Congress had in mind when it authorized the Peace Corps."

Students Disrupt Israel Celebration

NEW DELHI (AP) — Shouting Arab and Indian students demonstrated outside a reception celebrating Israel's independence day Sunday and prevented many guests from attending.

Mounted police were called to disperse the demonstrators, who threw stones at the house of a Sikh writer where the reception was held. They shrieked "Down with Israel!" and "Anyone who goes in is a traitor!" as guests arrived.

Indian police pleaded with demonstrating Arab students not to abuse Indian hospitality, but no arrests were made.

Freeman Urges Commission To Reduce Dairy Imports

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman urged the U.S. Tariff Commission today to take speedy action to reduce imports of dairy products to about one-fourth their present volume.

Freeman said mounting foreign supplies, entering under "transparent evasion" of existing quotas, threatens the domestic dairy industry.

The imports are placing an extra financial burden on taxpayers because they force the government to buy large quantities of dairy products under its farm price support program, he said.

The Tariff Commission hearing was on President Johnson's request that it investigate imports and recommend measures to close import loopholes.

Backing the secretary were representatives of a number of general farm and dairy organizations. Farm leaders have said imports have contributed to unrest in agriculture over prices of milk and other farm products.

The hearing later will hear importers and representatives of exporting countries in opposition to changes in the quota system.

Freeman's attack on imports was centered on types of dairy products which — because of changes in their makeup or because of mixtures with sugar—do not fall within present dairy import quota categories. They are consequently not covered by any import restrictions.

Included are colby - type cheese, butterfat - sugar mixtures known as junex, isex, lorex and the like, used largely in making ice cream, and frozen fluid cream.

"These evasions," Freeman said, "harm the American dairy farmers and interfere with the dairy price support program which the Congress enacted to encourage a stable and healthy domestic dairy industry.

"In the first four months of 1967, the department has purchased the equivalent of 3.6 billion pounds of milk at a cost of $169 million. Unless the evasions are stopped, we estimate the department will buy six billion pounds at a cost of more than $300 million this year."

Freeman said the inflow of dairy products increased from the equivalent of 900 million pounds of milk in 1965 to 2.8 billion pounds last year and could rise to four billion pounds this year if not restricted. He wants the imports cut back to about the 1965 level.

Roger Fleming, secretary-treasurer of the American Farm Bureau Federation, said imports "are in circumvention of existing laws and regulations."

"It is unfortunate," he said, "that action has been delayed to the extent that it already has. It is obvious that foreign exporters are anticipating action by the United States on imports and are accelerating their shipments."

Harry Graham, for the National Grange, urged the commission to recommend limitation of dairy imports on the basis of total milk fats and solids.

Reds Kidnap 30 Persons

MANILA (AP) — The Communist Huks have kidnaped some 30 persons and are believed to have killed a newspaper editor, the Manila Bulletin reported today.

The newspaper said Nicasio Tuazon, editor of the Angeles City Mail, was kidnaped and is believed to have been killed because he knew too much about the Huks, a terrorist group that collapsed 10 years ago but has revived in central Luzon.

The Bulletin, in a report from Pampanga Province in the heart of Communist territory, said the kidnapings occurred during the past five months in the area of Angeles City.
