

Along The Waterfront

Fishing gets better each week in this area, even those who do not know how to fish are catching them now, from any of the bays in and around Aransas County.

Floyd's Boat and Sales Company just reports that they are landing a lot of quite nice trout, and very few of the fishing lodges and bait houses can keep up with the number of fish brought in.

Fishing at Lenoir's Landing the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Brock and party from Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Mauer and party from Corpus Christi, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rhodius, George Wigeman and party, and Mr. and Mrs. Sagie and party all of San Antonio, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Austin, and they caught nice catches of fish, some of them were very large ones. All the fishing is good out there.

Wm. E. Crist had the following parties out on the Freda: On Wednesday, Maj. Beauchamp and party of four from San Antonio got 41 nice trout and Thursday, Maj. and Mrs. Beauchamp landed 98 trout. Mr. Barheart and party got 42 fish Friday. On Friday Mr. Hollifield and party of two, fished on the Freda, catching 37 trout, and on Sunday Mr. Cupan and party of four landed 98 fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Galetti of Kansas City fished with Mr. Crist Tuesday and caught 121 fish, more fish than they had ever caught in one day in their lives before. They also got a shark which they did not bring in.

Thursday, fishing at Johnson's Bait Stand, Fay Hall and party of San Antonio landed 56 speckled trout, and S. J. Connell and party from Temple caught 130 speckled trout and Friday he brought in 170 trout. M. E. Land and party of Fulton got 65 trout and Fay Hall caught 49. S. A. Connell of Temple caught a large number of trout Saturday and 170 on Sunday. Bill Grant and Ted Berry of Alice fished at the Bait Stand Sunday, catching 18 speckled trout and 1 nice pampano. Every one down there is catching trout.

There have been a large number of fishing parties to go out from Mills Wharf with steady fishing continuing at the wharf. On Tuesday a Mr. Tandy, Bob Topkins and J. C. Wetsell fished with Jack Lawler, Herbert Mills and Harry Mills, respectively. The same men took out J. C. Wetsell, Mr. Becker and Dr. Nash on Friday, each getting a good catch of nice fish. Saturday and Sunday all the boys went out with the six boats and reported extra good fishing both days. Tuesday, R. C. Barnhart and party fished with Herbert Mills, getting 146 trout; George Slerkey of Beeville, went out with Harry Mills, catching 62, and Calvin Gutson of Eagle Lake, fished with Jack Lawler, bringing in 56 trout. Dr. Dinocchia fished with Mullet Gregory, getting 86 trout.

Armour and party from East Texas, brought in 63 trout. T. J. Dorsey and party wanted to fish in the Tarpon Rodeo Tuesday so Thomas took them to the gulf. They fished there until 10 o'clock and had not caught anything, so they came back into the bay and got 42 trout.

Fred Christilles took Mr. Merritt and party from Waco fishing Wednesday, bringing in 98 trout, and Thursday, Mr. Blackwell and party caught 174. Mr. and Mrs. Hollifield from Dallas, got 216 trout Friday and Saturday, Henry Cohen and son Max, of San Antonio, caught 80. They went out with Christilles again on Sunday, bringing in 128 trout. Merchanettes Enter Tourney

Friday morning the Merchanettes will go to Falls City where they are entered in the annual Texas Zyper Softball Tournament sponsored by Perry Winkle of the San Antonio Express. The girls are scheduled to play the first game of the day, when they meet Kenedy at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon.

The tournament is a preliminary one, with the final tournament being held at Devine, Texas, August 8 and 9. If the local girls win either first or second place at Falls City, they are qualified to enter the final tournament. The winner at Devine is presented with a large sun-burst trophy.

In their second clash with the Lions Club this season, the Merchanettes defeated the men 11-10. The Merchanettes biggest rally came in the top of the first, as they brought in five runs to take the edge over the men. The Lions were scoreless in the first, as the first three batters were retired. With the score 6-0 in the bottom of the second, Camehl made the Lions first run of the night by slashing out a line drive through shortstop.

As the fifth inning came around, the score was 7-2 with the Merchanettes still on top. Then the Lions began their rally of heavy hitting power, slamming in 8 runs for the inning. They remained in the lead until the 7th when the Merchanettes regained the lead with a one-run margin to end the game.

Proceeds of the game will help finance the trip which the Merchanettes are making to Falls City.

On Monday night of this week, the local girls met the Woodsboro women at Refugio for an easy victory of 20 to 4. Both teams shared the two home runs of the night, with Bernie Naylor taking the honor for Woodsboro, and Catcher Irene King for the Merchanettes.

TEENAGE DANCE NOW ON SATURDAY NIGHT

The teenage dances sponsored by the Woman's Club, have been changed from Friday night to Saturday night, and are very happy occasions for the young people.

It appears that the parents of these teenagers would be glad to attend these dances—one or two couples for each dance is all that is necessary to attend.

Any parent willing to chaperone these dances is urged to call Mrs. Fred Christilles at 402 or Mrs. Chas. Roe at 275, and tell them the Saturday night they can come—or ask "what night". It is not fair for a few members of the Woman's Club to have to attend each of these dances! Some of them do not even have a teenager. The teenagers are o.k., what about the parents?

MIXON-CRON VOWS ARE PLEDGED IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SATURDAY

In a candlelight ceremony Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church, Miss Charlotte Ann Cron and Edward Pat Mixon of Beeville, pledged their wedding vows with the Rev. T. H. Pollard officiating at a double ring service.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Charles Fletcher Cron and the late Dr. Cron, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Pat Mixon of Runge.

Mrs. Norvell Jackson played a prelude of nuptial music, the traditional wedding marches, and accompanied Philip Kuhn of Runge, who sang "Through the Years," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Floor baskets of white gladioli, Majestic daisies and jade fern were on either side of the altar which held a low arrangement of the same flowers, flanked with candelabra holding white tapers and entwined with fern and Shasta Daisies.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, John Shrigley Cron. Her ballerina length dress had a molded bodice of white Chantilly lace with Peter Pan collar and long sleeves, pointed over the hands. Lace-covered buttons extended from the back of the collar to the waistline. The bouffant skirt was fashioned of net over satin with front panels of Chantilly lace. A tiered veil cascaded from a Juliet cap of matching lace and seed pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet of daisies and stephanotis centered with a purple throated orchid, with satin ribbons in shower effect.

Mrs. Robert Ruble of Austin, was her sister's matron of honor. She wore pale blue nylon tulle over satin with bouffant, ballerina length skirt. An insert of Alecon lace outlined the deep yoke and shoulder puff sleeves and accented the molded bodice. She wore a halo hat of deeper blue net and yellow carnations, with matching lace mitts and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations.

Joel Mixon of Runge was his brother's best man and John Robert Barber and Charles Lyons of Runge, ushered.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the assembly room of the church. The bride's table was laid in white organdy with skirt over yellow and centered with her bouquet resting on a reflector. White tapers burned in crystal candelabra on either side of the centerpiece. The white tiered cake was embossed with yellow rosebuds and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Arrangements of white asters were on the piano and on the table where Mrs. Joel Mixon presided at the guest book.

Members of the house party included Mrs. James Bracht, Mrs. T. H. Pollard, Mrs. Norvell Jackson, Mrs. Emory Spencer, Mrs. Edna Hollis, Mrs. Lan Welsh, all of Rockport; Mrs. A. L. Ross of San Antonio; Miss Nell Adams, Mrs. Howard Kinsey honored Miss Lucille Haynes, bride-elect of Cody Thomas of Taft, with a pottery shower, Saturday, July 5 at the B. W. Hamblin home.

The ivy pattern of the pottery was carried out in the decorations. Green ivy in a brown pottery cup and saucer centered the refreshment table. A heart-shaped cake, decorated in green, had "Lucille-Cody" on each heart. Punch, cake, mints and nuts were served.

The gifts were displayed on a linen covered table. Mrs. Mickey Sweeney presided at the guest register and Miss Charlotte Cron and Miss Thelda Haynes served.

There were thirty guests invited.

Mrs. Atwood served her guests ice cream and cookies.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brymer of Corpus Christi and Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Gillespie of Woodboro spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith Sunday.

Jewett; Miss Catherine Warnken, Poth, and Miss Justyne Mixon of Runge.

For a wedding trip to Tampico and Valles, Mexico, the bride wore a natural linen suit with benedictine shantung trim and linen and benedictine accessories. After July 19, Mr. and Mrs. Mixon will be at home in Beeville, where Mr. Mixon is cashier of the State Bank and Trust Co.

Mrs. Mixon is a graduate of the Rockport High School, attended Lindenwood College and the University of Texas and received a degree from SWTTC in May. She was a member of the Rockport Elementary School faculty for three years. Mr. Mixon, also a Rockport High School graduate, attended Sul Ross College and served with the Armed Forces in World War II.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mrs. J. A. Walling of Runge, grandmother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. William Cavitt, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Nickolson, Sinton; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smith and Lynda, Aransas Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson Jr., Alvin; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Herring, Mr. and Mrs. Casper Kutach, Corpus Christi; Dick Shendel, Runge; Mrs. J. V. Isaacs, Gregory; Miss Lou Benson, Grunville; Miss Julia Picton, Houston.

Following the rehearsal Friday night, Mrs. Chas. Cron and Mrs. Robert Ruble were hostesses for dinner at Thompson's Spa. The table, laid in white linen, was centered with a low bowl of white Majestic daisies and jade fern, from which white satin ribbons extended to the place markers. Those enjoying the occasion included the bride party and additional guests, Mrs. T. H. Pollard, Norvell Jackson, Tommy Cron, Miss Justyne Mixon and Miss Nell Adams.

MISS HAYNES HONORED BY LADIES OF W.S.C.S.

Miss Lucille Haynes, bride-elect of Cody Thomas, was honored with a miscellaneous shower by the members of the W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church at the church annex Friday night, July 11.

Members of the W.S.C.S. welcomed the guests and Mrs. Mary Alice Gray presided at the guest register.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the appointments of the shower; the gift tables were covered with white linen and a lace cloth over pink with a floor length flounce covered the serving table, which had a crystal basket of pink and white oleanders with a miniature bride and groom beside it as a centerpiece. Pink tapers burned at each end of the table. The beautiful white heart-shaped cake was embossed with pink roses. Mrs. J. R. DeForest served the cake and Mrs. B. W. Hamblin poured.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Betty Thomas of Taft, and Mrs. Nell Fuller of San Antonio and Mrs. E. F. Joschke of Houston.

The honoree was assisted with her gifts by her sister, Miss Thelda Haynes and her mother, Mrs. John Haynes and Mrs. Betty Thomas.

A large number of friends attended the shower, the guest list including 130 of Miss Haynes' friends.

BRADSHAW HONORED WITH SHOWER

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Bradshaw were honored by Mrs. Austin Chester and Mrs. E. A. Rogers with a wedding shower at the Woman's Club building, Monday night at 7 o'clock.

The guests were received by Miss Faynelle Cole as the guests registered and were escorted to the table of the honoree to present their congratulations. The table for the honorees was covered in white and decorated with pink chrysanthemums.

The serving table was covered with white, the flounce being trimmed with a red ruffle. The centerpiece was a beautiful white wedding cake embossed with pink sugar spun roses. Miss Carole Jean Simpson served the cake and Miss June Grenwalt presided at the silver punch bowl.

The guests enjoyed games of bingo, dominoes, and hearts, and dancing at the Beach Club completed the evening entertainment.

One table was overlaid with a white linen cut cloth and had an arrangement of pink hydrangea and roses in the center, which was flanked on each side by a pink flamingo. The prizes were placed around this centerpiece.

When the guests had arrived the hostesses served a salad course strawberry chiffon pie and coffee.

Mrs. A. B. Vogt of Boerne won high in bridge and Mrs. C. C. Fowler won low. In canasta Mrs. A. L. Bruhl was high and Mrs. John Cox low.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF ROCKPORT PRESENTS INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT TEXAS

MOONLIGHT EVERY NIGHT IN AUSTIN

Austin has the unique distinction of being the only city in the world lighted by "artificial moonlight." Visitors to the city gaze in wonder at the tall towers that dot the city and cast a soft, blue "moonlight" everywhere. Work was begun on these lights in 1894, and the lights were turned on May 6, 1895. The triangular framework is 150 feet high resting on a 15 foot pedestal, making a total of 165 feet above the ground. The original contract specified that each tower must illuminate a circle with a diameter of 3,000 feet, with the tower in the center, so that the time could be read on a watch on the darkest night.
