Wallace Urges Farmers To Support AAA

Member of Associated Press—Day and Night Leased Wire Service

LUBBOCK EVENING JOURNAL

VOL. 15, NO. 27 LUBBOCK, TEXAS, "The Hub Of The Plains", FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1938

Late News Bulletins

FINGERPRINTS THE SAME

RUSTON, La., Oct. 14 (AP)—The state bureau of identification at Baton Rouge today notified Sheriff Bryan Thigpen there that fingerprints of W. C. Williams, 19-year-old negro lynched by an angry mob of white men near Ruston yesterday, tallied with the prints from an automobile that figured in an attack on a Ruston couple on the night of September 13.

Williams was captured yesterday afternoon by a posse searching for the slayer of R. Blair, 47, a plant foreman of Jonesboro, who was bludgeoned Tuesday night. Williams was strung up to a tree in a pine grove near the scene of attack and riddled to death with charge after charge of buckshot and bullets.

WARNING IS INTERPRETED

ROME, Oct. 14 (AP)—Italian dispatches from Berlin today interpreted an article appearing in the National Zeitung, Nazi party organ, as a warning that Germany might denounce her 1936 naval treaty with Great Britain.

ENTERS PLEA OF INNOCENCE

HOUSTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Renne Allred, jr., brother of Governor James V. Allred, and Neal Powers, former assistant Texas attorney general, today pleaded innocent to a federal indictment alleging conspiracy to violate the Connally hot oil act.

Validity of the Connally act and the Texas oil proration laws were attacked in some of the 53 motions filed in behalf of the two men. One motion described the indictment as vague.

Separate motions to quash the indictment were filed.

CALL ON HITLER FOR AID

BELFAST, Oct. 14 (AP)—A group of Ulster Irish appealed to Chancellor Hitler today to aid their campaign for union of North Ireland with Ireland (Eire, the former Irish Free State.)

"LOYAL ATTITUDE" SEEN

BERLIN, Germany, Oct. 14 (AP)—A foreign office spokesman today said Czechoslovak assurance of a "loyal attitude" toward Germany was of sweeping character.

Czech Foreign Minister Frantisek Chvalkosky reportedly gave such assurance to Adolf Hitler today.

"A loyal attitude seen through German eyes," this commentator said, "means for Czechoslovakia to adapt her foreign, economic and military policies to Germany's. At least it means that Czechoslovakia will not do anything along any of these lines that runs counter to Germany's interests."

BETTY DEFEATS DIDRIKSON

FORT WORTH, Oct. 14 (AP)—The fine golf game that carried Mildred Babe Didrikson to the semi-finals of the Texas Women's open, fell to pieces at the River Crest Country club this morning.

The famous professional lost the first six holes in a row and went down by a thumping 7-6 count before Betty Jameson of San Antonio, the Texas amateur champ.

Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth again reached the finals by defeating Anna Bland Thompson, 1 up, in a bitterly contested battle.

Caution Given On Substitutes To Be Offered

Secretary Makes Plea Today In Speech At Springfield, Ill., Says Act Has Aided

BY PAUL SHOEMAKER
Associated Press Staff Writer

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 14—Secretary of Agriculture Wallace urged Corn Belt farmers today to fight for the "best farm program agriculture ever had" and cautioned them to beware of substitutes offered with the sole purpose of destroying the present farm act.

Wallace told a meeting of farm leaders and AAA committeemen the Agricultural Adjustment act of 1938, while not perfect, does represent a complete character of equality and is capable of being improved with experience.

The secretary credited the farm act with preventing a big drop in farm cash income and farm buying power. The drop in income, he said, had been held to about 12 per cent of last year's total and the reduction of buying power to 9 per cent.

"In the face of a business situation in which factory employment and payrolls have been down over 30 per cent," he said, "to hold farm income so nearly steady is a real achievement."

Praises Cooperating Farmers

Wallace praised farmers who cooperated under AAA saying: "You have done well to make your program play so big a part in ending incipient depression, and in putting the country back on the road to prosperity."

Outstanding among substitutes suggested for the AAA, Wallace said, is price-fixing. He said the advocates of this substitute urge setting prices at cost of production, or parity, or some higher figure and assert all the bother about allotments, worksheets, compliance and payments could be eliminated. He made it clear he was not opposed to price-fixing in itself, but added that any proposal that a fixed price be paid on an unlimited quantity of goods was unsound.

"No business organization anywhere has ever been able to fix a price while exercising no control whatever over production," he de-

Louis Surely Was Hungry

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 14—The crowd laughed when Louis Stein started eating.

They didn't know he was that hungry.

When Stein finished his 22nd hamburger sandwich and two quarts of ice cream, he was the recipient of cheers from onlookers and $40 from his friend, Sam Roth.

Stein did it in 25 minutes. Roth had bet him he couldn't do it in two hours.

Four Killed In Texas Mishaps

STEPHENVILLE, Oct. 14 — E O Elliott, 40, of San Angelo died today at a hospital here from injuries received when his automobile collieded with a light truck Wednesday two miles east of Bluffdale on state highway 10.

Elliott, salesman for a Chicago concern, formerly was in the drug business at Cisco and his was the first death in a family of 13.

The body was taken to Cisco where funeral services will be held Saturday or Sunday.

TWO MEN DIE

SANTA ANNA, Oct. 14 (AP)—John S. Simpson, 42, Coleman oil operator, and John Knox, 30, Midland employe of an oil well acidizing company, died in Sealy hospital here this morning of burns and injuries suffered in an oil blast and fire five miles northeast of here yesterday afternoon.

El Paso Man Is Victim Of Crash Near Midland

MIDLAND, Oct. 14 (AP) — Robert S. Coche of El Paso, was killed seven miles west of here last night when his automobile crashed into a truck driven by Bradley Vines of Lamesa. Officers said Coche apparently went to sleep while driving.

Dallas Insurance Man Killed; Four Women Injured

DALLAS, Oct. 14 (AP) — Four Longview women suffered from severe injuries today as the result of a head-on collision of two automobiles last night near Forney in which Thomas Parsons Stephens, 44, manager of the Dallas branch office of the American National insurance company, was killed.

Weather Bureau Says Storm In Gulf Is Moderate Disturbance

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 14. (AP) — The United States weather bureau here reiterated today that the current tropical disturbance in the Gulf of Mexico was a moderate disturbance and not a hurricane.

The morning advisory, received from the Jacksonville office and timed 8 a. m. Central Standard time stated:

"The disturbance in the southeast Gulf of Mexico is moving slowly eastward with center about 180 miles west-northwest of Key West.

"The slow movement will cause squally weather to continue over southern Florida and adjacent waters today and tonight and storm warnings for small boats at exposed island and beaches remain displayed from Tarpon Springs to Stuart, Fla."

SEEK TO BREAK DOWN IDEA

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 14. (AP)—Delegates to the annual meeting of the American Goat Society, inc., set out today to break down the comic strip idea that a goat is an odorous creature living largely on a diet of tin cans, catalogs and old automobile tires.

Invading Japanese Forces Capture One City; Chinese Rushing Reinforcements

BY ELMER W. PETERSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

HONGKONG, Oct. 14 — Preparations were hurried today to send 400,000 women and children and the municipal and provincial governments into the interior from Canton as a new Japanese force of 40,000 moved closer to that South China metropolis.

The invading army captured Tamshui, 12 miles from Bias bay where it landed Wednesday, and was reported striking due west in a 20-mile drive to cut the important Canton-Kowloon railway at a point about 20 miles from the borders of this British crown colony.

MASS EXODUS STARTED

HONGKONG, Oct. 14 (AP) — The civilian population of the teeming South China coast started a mass exodus into the interior today in flight from heavy Japanese air raids and advancing ground forces.

Unconfirmed Chinese dispatches from Canton said Waichow, immediate objective of the Japanese, was burning furiously after one of the heaviest air raids yet seen in South China. Casualties were estimated at 1,000.

City Left In Ruins

Incessant bombing and shelling left Tamshui in ruins. The invaders drove relentlessly toward the important garrison city of Waichow, 82 miles east of Canton and 35 miles north of Hongkong.

Chinese resistance improved as the Japanese columns moved steadily inland, but the invaders' airplanes and artillery were being used with crushing force.

With the destruction of a long wooden bridge about 15 miles north of Hongkong, Canton was cut off completely except for the highway to Waichon and the water route to Macao, Portuguese colony 70 miles south of Canton.

Military Supplies Blocked

Chinese military supplies from Hongkong were blocked, and it was learned a caravan of 160 trucks, by which an effort was made to send materials to Canton, was forced to return here after finding the bridge destroyed.

More than 200 foreigners remained in Shameen, including 80

Budget Will Be Held Up Until Data Gathered

Reassessment Of Needs To Be Made In Face Of Recent World Events, FDR Says

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14—President Roosevelt said today he was making an entirely new study of the nation's national defense needs and that until it was completed he could not estimate next year's budget.

The president told a press conference he could not comment on the new budget because new technical developments in national defense measures required a complete restudy of defensive requirements.

He said the reason for the reassignment of these needs began to take shape about a year ago because of information coming in in connection with world events. He said the question was forced to a head in the past month. In response to a question he said the new information was of a technical rather than a political nature.

Asked about yesterday's statement by Bernard M. Baruch, chairman of the World war industries board, that America was unprepared for war because of lack of sufficient first class equipment, the president said he had not read the statement.

One of the things being studied, he said, was that of mass production of war equipment, including airplanes, power and other items.

In his talk to reporters after having been an overnight guest at the White House, Baruch said that although Germany had annexed Austria and partitioned Czechoslovakia, she had not gained all the raw materials or markets she needs. This fact, he said, would lead her to look elsewhere.

Threat Is From Germany

"The threat to the United States from Germany," he added, "is in South America and is real and immediate."

Speaking of American unpreparedness for war and how to overcome it, the New York financier urged that mass production be applied to the nation's production of new arms.

"Our air forces are not what they should be," he asserted. "We haven't

Tech Goes On Parade Saturday In Annual La Remuda; Slaton Girl Is To Be Crowned Queen

Varied entertainment climaxed with the crowning of Minnie Will Wootton of Slaton with a 10-gallon hat will be offered at the annual La Remuda at 7:15 o'clock Saturday night in Texas Technological college stadium. Block and Bridle club will sponsor the event.

The program will open with a Midget International exhibit of college livestock, followed by a grand entry of livestock. W. L. Stangel, head professor of animal husbandry, mounted on a college horse, will lead the procession.

Coronation Final Feature

The coronation of the queen will be the final feature. Miss Wootton, elected in student balloting recently, and members of her court will ride to the throne on horses. Harlan J. Wills from Eola, show manager, will crown the queen.

Members of the queen's court will be Gloriadel Bowen, Sterling City; Annie Rooney, Fort Stockton; Ella Norene Moreman, Post; Estelle Hodel, Lockney. They were candidates in the queen's election.

Other Features Scheduled

Other program features and participants will be:

Reservations Are Received

More than 150 reservations already have been received for the dinner-dance and floor show which will feature the official opening of the 17th semi-annual market week sponsored by the Western Wholesale Clothing Market association next Thursday night, according to information given this morning by Sam Rosenthal, president.

The market, to be held at Lubbock hotel, will continue through the following Sunday.

More Than 60 Towns

Represented by those who have made reservations, Rosenthal said, are more than 60 towns in West Texas and New Mexico.

The number, he added, is larger than so far in advance for any entertainment feature arranged for a market. Since admission will be by tickets issued only to those who have applied for reservations, he suggested that those desiring to attend the dinner advise the market association without further delay.

While most of the exhibitors will arrive here not later than Wednesday and the market will be in actual operation Thursday morning, he explained, the brief ceremonies in connection will be an event of the night program.

First Full Payment On FSA Loan Made

HASKELL, Oct. 14. (AP)—Ayres A. Cox, young farm owner, handed a check for $324.45 to R. E. Skipworth, Farm Security administration supervisor, and became the first man to make the full payment on a farm tenant purchase loan under the Bankhead-Jones farm tenant act.

C. M. Evans, regional director, said today Cox entered the FSA rehabilitation program in 1936, and this year was selected as one of the six tenant farmers to receive FSA farm purchase loans in Haskell county. Through adherence to the farm management plan worked out for him by the rural supervisor and the supervisor of home management plans, Cox now holds a deed to the farm which he rented in 1936, Evans said.

When the family came into the FSA rehabilitation program at the beginning of 1936, Cox listed his net worth at $84, which represented a very few household effects, six hens and one pig.

Two New Attempted Attacks In Area Spur Search For Slayer

LARCHMONT, N. Y., Oct. 14. (AP)—Two new attempted attacks on women intensified today the search for the man who slew 17-year-old Mary Imelda Coyle Monday night.

Police at nearby Mamaroneck received a report from Christine Robinshaw, 21, that a nude man had jumped from a car near her, a sister and a friend late Tuesday night, but had become frightened and fled.

A 24-year-old domestic, Hannah Moynihan, told police she was frightened by a man who tried to drag her into his automobile.

Records of all sex offenders in the area were examined.

Ex-Students Of Savoy College To Hold Reunion At Dallas

DALLAS, Oct. 14. (AP)—Ex-students of Savoy college, which closed its doors more than 40 years ago, will hold a reunion at the state fair tomorrow.

Gus Thomasson, WPA head here, an ex-student of Savoy, said approximately 100 would attend.

Bing Crosby Is Invited To Be Here Armistice Day For Alma Mater's Game With Raiders

* * *

Bob Burns Is Invited Also

Several telegrams will be forwarded today seeking the presence of Bing Crosby, outstanding motion picture and radio star, for the most ambitious Armistic day celebration in the history of Lubbock.

Preparation of plans for the celebration was begun Thursday night at a meeting of a joint committee from Lubbock posts of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars who will continue a custom of years in sponsoring the observance.

Agencies To Cooperate

Cooperating in the plans will be the chamber of commerce, patriotic organizations, Texas Technological college, luncheon clubs and various others, according to members of the committee. The committeemen are J. A. Raley, jr., O. B. Conley, Paul Hardwick, Capt. J. L. Walton and George W. Brewer, representing the Legion, and Ray W. Amick, J. D. Jones and Stanton S. Rhea, representing the VFW.

Belief was that more than a possibility exists that the famous crooner will accept the invitation to be present. Chief event of the day will be a football game between Gonzaga university, Crosby's alma mater, and Texas Technological college.

Crosby on many occasions has

Invitations to eat "real West Texas steaks broiled over an open fire" at the annual homecoming chuck wagon feed and to attend other homecoming events at Texas Technological college Nov. 11 were sent Thursday afternoon to Bing Crosby and Bob Burns.

Airmail special delivery letters signed by Calvin Hazlewood, secretary of the Alumni and Ex-Students association were mailed.

Offer Real Steaks

"We will be very glad to have you as our guest at homecoming this Nov. 11, when Gonzaga plays us here in Lubbock. Your friend and sage, Bob Burns, would enjoy to the fullest the chuck-wagon feed we will have in the aggie pavilion at noon before the game. Real West Texas steaks broiled over an open fire together with beans, potatoes and all the trimmings will be served in true western style. Bring Bob if you can but come on without him if he is tied up for the week-end," the letter to Crosby invited.

On the program for homecoming are the chuck-wagon feed, football

Woodul Is Acting Governor Of Texas For 21st Time Today

AUSTIN, Oct. 14. (AP)—Lieut.-Gov. Walter F. Woodul was acting as governor of Texas today in the absence from the state of Gov. James V. Allred.

It was the 21st time Woodul had acted as governor. Allred was en route to Denver where he planned to attend a national convention of the Christian church.

School Day Is On At Lamesa Fair Today

LAMESA, Oct. 14. — With rural schools closed today, second day of the second annual Dawson county fair was expected to be a record breaker. Attendance the first day exceeded expectations.

Winners in the community educational booth contests were to be announced later in the day. They were judged last night, as were agricultural exhibits.

Judging of livestock entries, by representatives of Texas Technological college, was the order of the day.

G. N. Atkinson Is Injured Today In Fall; Artery Is Severed

When a box on which he was standing slipped, G. N. Atkinson, about 60, fell about 10 o'clock this morning and suffered severy of an artery in the right thigh and bruises over the body.

The accident happened at Lubbock Sash and Door company at 1409 Avenue H. Atkinson was rushed to West Texas hospital in a Rix ambulance.

He was in considerable shock and had suffered hemorrhage, but his condition was not believed to be serious at the time, an attending physician said late this morning. He suffered partial heart block following the accident and was being kept under observation.

Atkinson, who lives at 1514 Avenue M, is proprietor of Texas Blacksmith shop.

He was reaching for some bolts when the box on which he was standing slipped and he fell about four feet. A workman at the company where the accident happened said his thigh apparently struck the corner of a box. The wood went into the heavy muscles of the thigh

Reduction In Fire Insurance Rates Predicted For Next Year

AUSTIN, Oct. 14. (AP)—A reduction in fire insurance rates next year—if Texas cities continue their low loss records—was predicted today by Fire Insurance Commissioner Marvin Hall.

Hall said a rate adjustment last March, resulting from good fire record credits, saved premium payers approximately $2,500,000 and a continuation of the record this year would tend to further reduce rates when the commission conducts a hearing next March.

Woman's Body Is Unearthed

(By The Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 14. — The decomposed body of a woman, shoveled from a sandy grave near Ingleside, added a second chapter today to the grisly story being unfolded by officers investigating the disappearance of several feminine employes of the late Joe Ball, Elmendorf tavern owner.

Three other women still were unaccounted for.

Found On Beach

The body, believed to be that of Minnie Gotthardt of Seguin, Tex., was found yesterday on the beach, under 12 feet of sand which had been removed with a gasoline shovel.

Ranger Captain Lee Miller filed a charge of murder against Clifton Wheeler, negro handyman at the Elmendorf tavern where Ball shot himself while being questioned by deputy sheriffs. Wheeler, who told officers he was present when Ball shot and killed Minnie Gotthardt 18 months ago, accompanied the authorities to the beach and pointed out the location of the grave, which he said he had assisted in digging.

One Body Dismembered

Wheeler was already facing a murder charge in connection with the finding of the dismembered body of Hazel Brown, dug from a shallow grave on the banks of the San Antonio river three weeks ago. The negro admitted he aided in dismembering the body and had dug the grave on the river bank near Elmendorf at the request of Ball.

Justice of the Peace N. B. Sanford of Aransas Pass, before whom the complaint charging Wheeler with the Gotthardt murder was filed, and other officers examined

Mystery Of Ever-Widening Hole In Jail's Wall Solved

The mystery of an ever-widening hole in city jail has been cleared.

"Fortune hunters" were responsible.

Luke Bundrant, city employe, had been noticing more than a year how the borders of an aperture from the jail runaround into a flue leading from the basement furnace gradually had widened.

Since none could escape through the vent nothing was done about it. But Bundrant wondered.

The other day brought explanation. A person had been placed in jail a year ago. He had two $20 bills in his pockets. They disappeared when he was in jail.

According to the story, told Bundrant by a person in jail, another man took the money, kicked out a small hole in the plaster covering the flue and tucked the bills inside plaster wire.

When the thief was about to be discharged from jail he couldn't find the bills. He told

Switchboard Is Discovered In The Brain; Relays Messages

By STEPHEN J. McDONOUGH
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. — Discovery of a switchboard in the brain which relays messages from the eye to the rest of the body was announced today.

This new-found center of brain activity was located in studies of diseased areas inside the brain, Dr. N. P. Scala of Washington and Dr. E. A. Spiegel of Philadelphia told the American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology.

The telephone central of the human body is in the midbrain. It coordinates messages received through the optic nerve to the actual brain cells of sight.

When an injury occurs to this area, such as hemorrhage or development of a tumor, the normal reactions of vision are obscured or altered because the signals become mixed.

Normally the eye will move up and down, sidewise, or in a circle in response to things seen "out of the corner of the eye."

However, when the switch-

Semi-Annual Meeting Of County Federation, Club Activities Fill Calendar

Youth Outlook To Be Theme

The week-end is filled with activities for town and college folk, for clubs and county organizations.

Of interest to club women in Lubbock county is the semi-annual program of the County Federation at the New Deal school at Monroe Saturday. The meeting will open at 10 o'clock, there will be a covered dish luncheon at noon and the session will get underway again at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. O. R. Copeland, retiring president, will preside.

Talks Are Planned

Theme for the day is "The Outlook for Youth." Mrs. F. N. Pickens of Slaton will lead a round table discussion on the subject after roll call, Mrs. Frank Bledsoe will discuss "National Trends in Occupations" and Mrs. Bob Crump of Shallowater will discuss "Farming as a Life Work." Miss Elizabeth Brooks, assistant county home demonstration agent, will direct a rural women's chorus.

In the afternoon Dr. Lloyd D. Jackson, associate professor of education at Texas Technological college, will discuss "What Farm Young People Want and Like" and Mrs. H. F. Godeke will talk on "Recreation."

Delegates are asked to bring reparts and yearbooks. The latter will be played on exhibit.

To Continue Study

Continuing their study of American Music, the Lubbock Music club will meet Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. A. W. McKee, 1812 Fourteenth street. The period 1792-1869 will be considered.

The program, as outlined in the yearbook, includes: Leader, Mrs. Joe McIlhaney, Music News; lecture, "Our First National Airs," Mrs. Townsen Waddill; piano, National airs, Mrs. W. C. Wood; lecture, "The Turn of the Century," Mrs. E. L. Robertson; selected hymns by Lowell Mason, the club; violin, airs of Stephen Foster, J. W. Day; piano, Gottschalk, Mrs. Leonard Cole.

Hostesses will be Mesdames Josephine Ballinger, H. E. Blocker, I. C. Dunbar, Chester Elliott and Waddill.

In Adams Home

Daughters of the American Revolution Nancy Anderson chapter will meet Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. O. V. Adams, 2905 Twentieth street. Mrs. C. M. Ballenger and Miss Elizabeth West will be assistant hostesses.

Saturday night at 6:30 o'clock alumnae of Los Chaparritas club will entertain with a supper at Mexican Inn. This occasion will honor pledges and members of the club, an organization of women students at Texas Technological college.

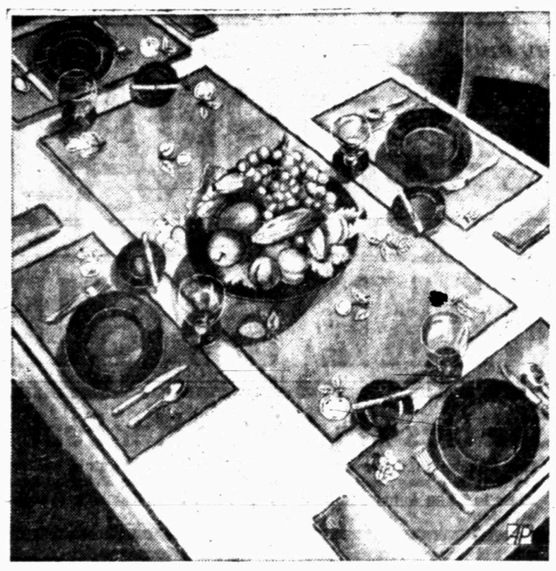

BAKED BANANAS

Table Sets Appear Fruitful With Appliqued Designs

Prepare for fall luncheons by making a colorful table set with appliqued fruit decorations.

A dramatic meal needs a dramatic setting. If you are tired of the way your table has been looking lately, why not try a new applique fruit tablecloth or luncheon set?

On a rich red linen, applique the fruit in white, touched with black embroidery, and with edges bound with black linen. The napkins are in red linen, bound with black and monogrammed in white. Can you see these with black glass plates and centerpiece and clear glasses with black bases?

The applique patches can be stamped with a hot iron transfer and cut evenly with sharp scissors. The pieces are turned at the edges, basted and hand-stiched to the cloth with invisible stitches. If you make a brown paper pattern from the transfer, you can cut as many patches as you need.

The fruit may be done in patches of natural colors, with green leaves the sewing cotton matching the colors. This effect is charming on a cloth of white, yellow or pale green.

Linen may be used for the appliques as well as the cloth. Or the designs may be stamped on fine gingham and used on a cloth of the same material, or on unbleached muslin, cotton broadcloth or cotton with a linen finish. Of course, the fruit patch fabric must be colorfast.

Grapes, strawberries, pears, lemons, peaches, plums, cherries, apples, oranges and small plums—you can have them all. The designs are about 2 1-2 by 3 inches.

For a delightful ensemble with the luncheon set or tablecloth, the designs may be used on a little apron or on the dining room curtains.

Turner-Reagan Marriage Takes Place In Home

Miss Addie Reagan and J. C. Turner, jr., both of Abernathy, were married Wednesday night by Rev. J. T. Clinton, Baptist minister, who officiated at his home.

The bridegroom's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Turner of Lubbock, were guests.

The couple will live in Abernathy where Mr. Clinton is in the grocery business with his father.

Mrs. D. M. Stalnaker has returned from Frederick, Okla., where she visited friends and relatives.

Needlework Is Enjoyed By Afternoon Clubs

Several clubs attended social hours Thursday afternoon.

Mesdames P. W. Horn and Allan L. Carter entertained the 1911 Needle club in the home of Mrs. Horn, 2203 Broadway. They served Hungarian Apple Strudel and coffee as refreshments.

Attending were Mesdames F. R. Friend, W. T. Gaston, R. Q. Pierce, George W. Dupree, Fred Snyder, Floyd Beall, T. R. Prideaux, R. A. Barclay, O. D. Hargis, A. B. Cunningham, W. G. Murray, W. H. Bledsoe, J. O. Ellsworth, G. H. Nelson, C. E. Maedgen, W. O. Stevens, A. B. Conley, R. T. Bucy and Miss Della Wilkinson.

In Hopping Home

Mrs. Flora Nutt was hostess to Energetic club members in the home of her sister, Mrs. R. C. Hopping, 2429 Nineteenth street. Her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Adams, and Mrs. N. E. Pogue of Crowell assisted.

Needlework was interspersed with a program of games and music. Mary Frances Adams, the hostess' granddaughter, and Dorothy Daniel played two accordion duets.

Others attending were Mesdames E. A. Patterson, Frances Van Dyke, C. Murphrey, Creek Brown, B. T. Terrell and Tom Arnett.

Mrs. Arnett presided for business and Mrs. Brown served as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Hopping, who is ill. At the close of the meeting the members visited Mrs. Hopping.

In Zachary Home

The Needlecraft club met with Mrs. Ted Zachary of 2224 Twenty-fifth street. Mrs. H. B. Brown was a guest. Others attending were Mesdames Lloyd Bentley, Troy Phillips, Arthur Wright, Buddy Hacker, Tom B. Cox and A. L. Vaughn.

PTA Meetings Conducted

Two hundred fourteen women registered at room P.-T.A. gatherings at George M. Hunt school. Miss Margaret Bell's room, in which 22 mothers registered, won the attendance prize.

The Hunt P.-T.A. will meet in a single unit November 9 at the Central Baptist church to hear W. B. Irvin, city school superintendent, speak.

Miss Dysart Talks

Miss Bonnie K. Dysart, Texas Technological college associate professor of education and psychology, addressed 150 Junior High P.-T.A. members in the school auditorium on "New Standards For Family Living". The program included four numbers by Mrs. M. E. Ware's glee club for which Mrs. E. E. Key played piano accompaniments.

The meeting was preceded by a study course conducted by Mrs. H. F. Godeke for 35 mothers. The study course, free and open to all mothers of Junior high pupils, will precede each meeting this year.

Sanders association met to elect officers.

Elected were: President, Mrs. Bill Fisher; secretary, Mrs. C. E. Gray; treasurer, Mrs. J. D. Havens; membership chairman, Mrs. Ira Martin; finance chairman, Mrs. Porter McDougal and reporter, Miss Margaret Prewitt.

Dr. L. N. Lipscomb, pastor of the First Methodist church, talked on "The American Home."

Room prize downstairs went to Mrs. Winnie Lee Holloway's room and three rooms upstairs tied for the honor.

Party Is Held In Honor Of Mrs. John Wilson

Mesdames E. J. Dresser, T. C. Hudson, U. C. Bowers and W. M. Boldin entertained Thursday afternoon with a party shower in honor of Mrs. John Wilson. The party was in the Wilson home.

After a series of games, a gift shower was presented to the honoree.

Guests were Mesdames J. B. Franklin, B. M. Wells, J. O. Weir, W. H. Taylor, W. W. Roberts, J. D. Stalnaker, W. P. Walkup, A. P. Wylie, G. W. Gilson, O. O. Youngblood, G. D. Blevins, Claude Martin, J. C. McClellan, Joe Swindle, W. H. Atwood, E. M. Martin and Miss Irma Hughes.

REMOVES STAINS

To remove grape stains from linens, stretch the linen across a pan, hold a tea kettle full of boiling water three feet above it and pour a steady stream of water through the stain until it disappears. This method does not injure linens.

Texas Destitute Face Calamity If Food Is Cut Off, Johnson Says

Rolls Said To Be Increasing

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 14.—More than 60,000 dstitute persons in Texas face a calamity this winter in that surplus commodities, their only source of food, may be cut off in February, Adam R. Johnson, director of relief, declares.

Johnson said the Texas Relief commission, now the board of control, would on Feb. 1 be without funds to continue to aid the federal government in the distribution of surplus commodities, purchased with customs receipts.

Will Be Only Agency

"Unless the legislature makes an emergency appropriation to keep us from going out of existence," Johnson said, "the feeding of the destitute, the CCC program and the WPA program will be cut off because the relief commission is the only federally approved state bureau for certification of persons for commodities or work.

"We have on hand about $3,000,000 worth of surplus commodities and there will be more available. Since the commodities program was inaugurated, we have distributed more than $25,000,000 worth of food. The counties are depending on us for this help, the only aid the federal government now gives to the destitute," the director said.

Johnson said 60,000 were already on the rolls and the list was growing. He said every effort was being made to adequately distribute clothing, made in WPA sewing rooms, before the first cold wave struck.

FARMERS SHOOT DEER

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 14. (AP)—Pennsylvania farmers have shot more than 2,500 deer this year "in self-defense," state game Commissioner Seth Gordon said today.

He explained that while hunting regulations were as strict as elsewhere, the commission permits shooting deer that destroy crops.

Slaton Secretary Is To Attend Directors Meeting In Dallas

SLATON, Oct. 14. (Special) — Raymond Lee Johns, manager of Slaton Chamber of Commerce, planned to leave today for Dallas to attend a meeting of directors of the Texas Chamber of Commerce managers association there Saturday.

Following the meeting of the board of directors, all Texas chamber of commerce managers and their wives will be guests of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon in the lounge of the Baker hotel at noon. Following the luncheon program those attending the luncheon will be given general admission passes to the grounds of the Texas State fair as this day has also be designated by the State fair of Texas as Texas Commercial Executives day.

The board of directors meeting will be held in the Dallas Chamber of Commerce building with President Otis Fowler in charge. At this meeting, decision will be made as to where the next convention will meet. Invitations have been extended from Del Rio, Midland, Galveston, El Paso, Temple, Beaumont, Corsicana, Mineral Wells, Plainview and Harlingen.

Johns plans to return to Slaton Monday, making business stops in Abilene, Snyder and Post.

YEAH! CLEAN REST ROOMS ARE IMPORTANT
BUT HOW GOOD IS YOUR GASOLINE?

Watch out, young fellow, you're leading with your chin . . . when you ask that question about Phillips 66 Poly Gas! Give us an opening like that, and we always fire away with a fistful of facts.

While motorists appreciate Phillips clean rest rooms, they really cheer for the quality and economy of Phillips 66 Poly Gas. In fact, their repeated and ever-growing purchases have skyrocketed our sales figures in a way never before seen in the industry: 1500 per cent increase in the last ten years.

Phillips 66 Poly Gas is more accurately custom-tailored to your month-by-month changes in climate than any other gasoline. It has extra energy units added by the patented POLYmerization process. And scientific surveys show that it contains nearly four times as much natural high test gasoline as the average motor fuel.

Yes sir! Your gasoline money buys more volatility in Phillips 66 Poly Gas. And experts declare that volatility is the most important quality in gasoline:

Says a well-known scientist: "The more volatile fuel can be used with a leaner carburetor setting, and hence with less fuel consumption."

Says a professor of chemical engineering: "Increased volatility . . . is very effective in shortening the warm-up period . . . providing more uniform distribution of fuel to the different cylinders . . . reducing choking . . . and producing snappier acceleration and throttle response."

Says an editorial in an oil magazine: "Outstanding in the characteristics of improved motor fuel . . . for superior performance . . . is volatility."

Remember, the extra volatility in Phillips 66 Poly Gas costs nothing extra, because Phillips is the world's largest producer of natural high test gasoline. Make a note that the place to get this extra value is at any Orange and Black 66 Shield.

Broad New Attack On Unemployment Problem Said To Be In Making

Congress Will Get Program

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14—Informed persons in the administration disclosed today that a broad new attack on the problem of unemployment is in the making.

This may result, they said, in presentation to congress early next year of a correlated program for restoring work opportunities by improving conditions in the nation's basic durable goods industries. Details have not been made known.

Major Objective Cited

At the same time it was learned that a major objective of the monopoly investigating committee will be to uncover business practices and faults in the nation's economic structure which, in the words of one member, "cause conditions in which people can't get jobs."

The committee's work probably will be concerned with a long range solution to the problem, but some administration officials are more interested in starting on a program during the winter.

Must Get Jobs

These officials contend that no substantial improvement in business can be expected until the nation's estimated 10,000,000 or more jobless begin returning to useful employment in private industry.

They say a sound prosperity must be based on restoring prosperous conditions to the heavy goods industry. This can be brought about, they argue, by setting the railroads on their feet so that they again can become big customers, by further stimulating building construction, by encouraging greater automobile production, and in similar ways.

It is their contention that the pick-up in 1937 resulted almost entirely from improvements in so-called consumer goods markets, and that it collapsed because those improvements were not supported by advances in the durable goods industries.

The Pueblo Indians make bread as thin as tissue paper. It is made by frying a very thin blue corn meal batter on a flat rock and folding up the bread when done.

Faded And Slightly Worn Copy Of Lubbock's First Newspaper Is Found Here Recently

By J. SAM LEWIS
Journal Staff Writer

A faded and slightly worn copy of No. 24, volume 1 of the Lubbock Leader, first newspaper to be published here and dated Jan. 15, 1892, was found by J. H. Clay while recently tearing down an old house here. How long the paper, which had been folded, had remained hidden, can only be guessed, but it probably had been hidden away for 45 years at least.

Robert L. Rogers, an early day newspaperman of the South Plains, was the editor. The paper was all hand-set.

Clay last week loaned the paper to J. D. Caldwell, pioneer resident and one of the three surviving first set of officers of the county.

Courthouse Is Shown

On page 1 is a cut of the first courthouse, then recently completed. It shows the steeple which was later destroyed. Another cut is that of the Nicolett hotel, now the Broadway, standing at the corner of Broadway and Avenue H.

A list of county officers is carried in the paper. They included, judge, G. W. Shannon; clerk, George C. Wolffarth; sheriff, W. M. Lay; treasurer, U. G. Moore; assessor, W. S. Clark; surveyor, J. B. Jones; attorney, W. F. Hendrix; commissioners, J. D. Caldwell, precinct 1; F. E. Wheelock, precinct 2; L. D. Hunt, precinct 3 and Van Sanders, precinct 4.

Of these, only Caldwell, Wolffarth and Jones survive. The latter resides in Lockney and a son, R. W. Jones, is editor of the Whiteface News.

On page 1 are a number of quotations from other Texas newspapers, including the Hale Globe, a Hale Center paper; Fort Worth Gazette; Texas Western; Texian Press; Emma News; Eastland Chronicle.

Cost About $6,000

Under the cut of the hotel is the following comment: "This is the largest hotel of the Central Plains. It has about 22 rooms, and cost about $6,000. The building is owned by Mr. Frank E. Wheelock, our enterprising townsite promoter. The Nicolett is under the management of Mr. Seth Janeway, a hotel man of wide experience and a splendid reputation.

On the inside pages, there are eight pages in all, are advertisements of various business concerns. Western Land & Livestock company, a ranch in Lubbock county, listed R. C. Burns, manager. J. D. Caldwell had a grocery and hardware store; G. E. Singer, known as "Old Man Singer," who first opened a store in this section, had moved to the north side of the courthouse square.

Attorneys Carry An Ad

Hendrix and Hendrix, attorneys, carried an ad, as did the hotel, Moore and Wheelock operated a livery, feed and sale stable. Sanders and Wolffarth also had a livery and sale stable. Ed T. Cox was manager of the city grocery and meat market.

J. B. Jones, besides being surveyor, was a land agent and advertised "many choice sections," in this and other counties.

The editor was a booster for the new town, less than a year old. He carried a three-column advertisement for the county, showing "190,000 acres of school land," and "10,000 acres of public land," for sale. "Lubbock county wants 1,000 farmers to settle on this at once."

Besides this ad, he carried a half column ad with a column and a half of comment on the county.

Statements Are Included

Some of the statements about first officers include:

County Judge—Col. G. W. Shannon, our present county judge, was born in Chickasaw county, Miss., in 1842. Enlisted in the Confederate army in 1861 as a private in the 11th Mississippi regiment, and was elected captain of his company at the reorganization. Was appointed lieutenant colonel in 1863 before he was 21 years old. He made a good officer in the army and is now making a good judge. Judge Shannon has been living in Texas since 1877. Was sheriff of Eastland county from 1881 to 1883. Moved to this county. Was elected at the organization of the county.

Sheriff—W. M. Lay was born in Seguin county, Texas, 1947. Moved to Fort Worth in 1880 and was engaged in the manufacturing business for several years. He moved to the plains in 1885 and engaged in the stock business. He is connected with Mr. J. K. Millwee in a ranch about 15 miles east of Lubbock. Was elected without opposition, and the people have had no cause to regret it for he is a good officer.

Wolffarth County Clerk

County Clerk—Geo. C. Wolffarth was born in Jack county, Texas, in 1866, came to the plains in 1884 and has been engaged in the cattle business since that time. Mr. Wolffarth is widely known in this county. Is a jovial, liberal fellow, and makes many friends in any locality. He is a man of business qualifications, and is making the county a splendid clerk.

County Treasurer—U. G. Moore was born in Wayne county, N. C., in 1850. Moved to Texas in 1884 and lived in the southern part of the state for several years. Settled in Lubbock county in 1887 and was elected treasurer at the organization of the county. Mr. Moore is a young man, a good officer and is well liked by the people.

W. S. Clark Tax Assessor

Tax Assessor — W. S. Clark was born in Hickman county, Tenn., in 1859. Moved to Bosque county, Texas, in 1874. Settled in Lubbock county in the spring of 1890, and was elected assessor at the organization. He is a good officer, a perfect gentleman and is liked by everybody.

County Surveyor—J. B. Jones was born in Tennessee in 1855. Moved to this state when about 8 years old, and has resided here since that time. Was one of the first settlers of this county and was chosen surveyor at the first election.

County Attorney—W. F. Hendrix was born in Audrian county, Mo., in 1862. Moved to Texas when about 10 years old. Settled in this city when it started and was elected county attorney at the first election. Makes a good officer.

"Our county commissioners are J. C. Caldwell, F. E. Wheelock, Van Sanders and L. D. Hunt. All are young men and are managing the county affairs in a way that would be a credit to any county."

On page 6 are letters from several farmers of the county. T. H. Lewis of Estacado was one writer; W. V. Marshburn, M. D., also wrote, as did R. C. Burns, Allendo Cox and Isaaih Cox. Mrs. M. L. Hadley also had a letter.

"Lubbock has, says the paper in an editorial, three mercantile houses, two hotels, one blacksmith shop, one barber shop, one grain store, two livery stables, two land firms, two lawyers, two physicians, one newspaper, lots of good civilized people and several old batchelors.

"Lubbock needs a good drug store, a shoe shop, a live merchant who can handle a large general store."

Colorado Merchant Advertises

Sid Simon and brother, a clothing house in Colorado, carried a half-page ad, telling of a Christmas gift.

In a story about merchants, the Leader has the following to say of G. W. Singer: "Mr. Singer was born in Ashland county, Ohio, in 1844. Moved to this country in 1880, located in Estacado. In 1882 he moved on the Yellow House three miles from where the town now stands and opened up a store. For several years Mr. Singer's store was the only store in this section; nearest one west was 150 miles distant; hearest one north was 100 miles distant and south, 100 miles. Mr. Singer kept the only postoffice in the county and people would come from a distance of 150 miles for their mail. When the town started Mr. Singer moved his stock and started with the beginners and being a good merchant, he built up a good trade."

Sketch On J. D. Caldwell

"J. D. Caldwell was born in Dallas county, Texas, April 28, 1861. Moved to this country in 1887 and engaged in the mercantile business in Estacado. Moved here when this town started and has been doing a good business. At the organization of the county, Mr. Caldwell was elected justice of the peace and county commissioner of precinct No. 1 and has made a good officer."

W. T. Phenix was listed as the town's blacksmith. He was from Hood county.

W. C. Henderson was listed as a prominent lawyer. He was born in Georgetown and moved to Colorado while young. Was but 25 years old at the time.

Burns Writes Letter

Rollie Burns, in his letter to the Leader editor, said:

"I came to the Plains country 11 years ago. Being engaged in the cattle business during this time, I have done but little farming. However, I have seen splendid crops of the following products grown here: Wheat, rye, barley, milo-maize, sorghum and Indian corn. The country simply cannot be beaten for sweet potatoes, peanuts, pumpkins, beets, turnips, etc. I have seen as fine Indian corn grown here as I ever saw grown on sod, anywhere. Made about 25 bushels per acre. I do think this is a fine small grain country."

On the back page are ads from Reagan and Hill, hardware firm of Amarillo; Smith and Walker, general merchandise of Amarillo; Loftin and Harrison, Fort Worth land men; H. T. Cornelius, Amarillo livery stable man; B. F. Denny & Bros., Amarillo dry goods merchants.

Robert L. Rogers was listed as an attorney, as was Henderson. Ed T. Cox ran the barber shop.

Local Items Are Listed

Several local items are:

G. W. Lee was in town Friday after the remainder of his furniture, which he is moving to his farm near Estacado.

A bunch of 15 antelope (the bravest kind of a bunch) passed through town last Friday on their way south, without being molested.

Miss Minnie Tubbs, our accomplished school teacher, is suffering with a sereve attack of the la grippe.

Rev. H. M. Bandy of Dimmitt has been spending several days in the city on business. Mr. Bandy informs us that the organization of Castro county Dimmitt was elected the county esat by receiving every vote cast.

Winter Is Here

The pretty warm weather of the past few weeks has left us and is succeeded by a little winter.

Mr. R. C. Burns of the IOA ranch was in the city this week. He says the farm hands on the ranch have been taking advantage of the weather for the past two weeks by turning over the soil.

Mr. Henry Crump has been sick with the la grippe for several days but we are glad to say is up and about.

County Clerk Wolffarth and Treasurer U. G. Moore are contemplating a big hunt down in the 'breaks' in a week or two.

The Lubbock county Democratic club was permanently organized last Friday night. The following officers were elected: G. W. Shannon, pres.; W. C. Henderson, vice pres.; John C. Hendrix, secretary; Robert L. Rogers, treasurer. The next meeting of the club will be on the night of Jan. 22, at the courthouse.

The boys from the Dixie ranch spent a day in the city last week.

United States agricultural exports to Canada the first half of 1938 were nearly double those of the corresponding period of 1937.

Campaign Strategy Of Thomas Dewey Attracts Attention In Capital

Platform For 1940 Is Seen

BY KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 — The campaign strategy of young Thomas E. Dewey, Republican candidate for governor of New York, is attracting special attention in Washington.

While Dewey stuck to state issues both in his acceptance speech and his first major campaign address, there has begun to appear inferentially also a clearer picture of his attitude on broader national questions. This picture is of interest because of the possibility that election night returns in November might give him a long head-start toward a Republican presidential nomination in 1940.

Outline Of Platform

Between the lines of his speeches there begins to appear, to the eyes of Washington political observers, the outline of a 1940 platform on which he might stand for White House honors.

The first glimpse of that came in the acceptance speech. It outlined the view that it was the "function of the state" to protect its citizens "from economic catastrophes which sweep away their means of livelihood through no fault of their own," as well as to guard them against racketeering and political exploitation. The "state" in that case may have meant the state of New York; but it may as well have meant the national government.

Briefs Other Views

Further on, Dewey briefed his views on "the ownership and use of the natural resources of this state" to reproach "elements of our own party" for having opposed "the inevitable and perpetual ownership" of such resources by the "people of the state." That is a potential national power policy plank, as some politicians here read it.

Whether Mr. Dewey can keep within the line of strategy on which he has started and make no direct references to national issues remains to be seen. There is little doubt some of his advisors would favor a plunge on his part into wholesale attacks on the Roosevelt administration in Washington. They probably feel that such attacks would attract more national attention to their candidate than his concentration on state matters, even with national policy references.

Dewey has exhibited a capacity for planning and carrying out his racket crusade off his own bat, however, and a remarkable ability under political stress to keep his own counsel.

LOSES HIS MONEY

CHICAGO, Oct. 14. (AP)—Otto Freitag, who had lived with his wife in a single room and received relief complained to police he had lost $11,100 which was sewed into his coat, Police Sergt. George Michaels reported last night.

TWO ARE ACQUITTED

NACOGDOCHES, Oct. 14. (AP)—Jack and Finis Williams, brothers, were found innocent by a district court jury Thursday of charges in nection with the death of their brother-in-law, Elmer Higgins of Sacul, last March.

U. S. Echo of Sudetenland Front

Mrs. J. A. Noble Of Crosby County Dies

RALLS, Oct. 14 (Special)—After a lengthy illness, Mrs. J. A. (Aunt Lucy) Noble, 85, pioneer Crosby county resident, died at 9:30 o'clock Thursday night at the home of her son, Carl Noble, in Cone community north of Ralls.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble came to Crosby county in 1891 from Collin county and had resided on the same farm for the past 42 years. She was a charter member of the First Methodist church ever organized in the county and when they arrived there were not more than 100 persons in the area.

Funeral services are to be conducted Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Cone Methodist church with Rev. Earnest Jennings, assisted by Pink L. Parrish, both of Lubbock, in charge. Burial will be in Cone cemetery under direction of Will Marr Funeral home.

Mrs. Noble is survived by her husband, four sons W. J. of Yakima, Wash.; A. Lee of Lorenzo, Carl of Cone and W. R. of Muleshoe, 15 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

More than 28,000 Tennessee farmers limed more than 250,000 acres of land in 1937 in an effort to combat soil acidity.

Housing Program Is Planned In Slaton

SLATON, Oct. 14. (Special) — Proposal that building material dealers and others cooperating with the Federal Housing administration join in a local advertising program seeking to further a Slaton housing program is being studied by chamber of commerce directors here, according to Raymond Lee Johns, secretary.

Plans are to encourage not only building of many new homes and rent houses but also the remodeling of old homes. It was explained that even those who still owe on their present home, but who have a steady financial return from their occupations, might borrow money from the government for building and remodeling purposes. Those who are unable to pay back in monthly sums money which might be borrowed from the government for housing propects are being definitely discouraged from speculating on a housing proposition, said Johns.

Other plans for a new chamber of commerce program as outlined by Johns in the meeting this week were centered around installation of a special chamber of commerce information bureau. Directors approved of addition to the office of a new filing cabinet which will contain 28 compartments labeled from A to Z with two for miscellaneous materials.

—HE'S MAHATMA GANDHI

BOMBAY (AP)—Gandhi's courtesy title of Mahatma, accorded to him by all classes for many years, is now officially recognized.

The Prime Minister of the Congress Government of the Central Provinces, Pandit Ravishankar Shukla, issued an order referring to him as "Mahatma Gandhi."

Johns plans obtaining all types of information which might be of value to Slaton civic, commercial and industrial enterprises to be included in the bureau.

In approving the new information propect the chamber of commerce is looking also ti affording special information for farmers along agricultural lines.

Breach Between Nazi State And Catholic Church Wider Than Ever

Buerckel Gives Out Statement

BY MELVIN K. WHITELEATHER
Associated Press Staff Writer

VIENNA, Oct. 14.—Nazi leaders said today the breach between the state and the Catholic church was wider than ever, after Austrian Nazi

AUTHORITIES ARE ACCUSED

VATICAN CITY, Oct. 14 (AP) — L'osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper, today accused German authorities of defending the Nazi mob which attacked the Vienna palace of Theodore Cardinal Innitzer last Saturday night with "the impudent excuse of Catholic provocation."

The Vatican organ in indignant terms declared the attack on the cardinal's palace was "the poisoned fruit of daily unpunished, encouraged campaigns of anti-Catholic accusations and vituperation."

Commissioner Joseph Buerckel's anti-cleric speech, and predicted many Nazis would withdraw from the church.

Buerckel's listeners in heroes' square last night cried "We'll leave the church" after he announced:

"If they pray against us in church, then I demand of every individual national socialist that he have nothing more to do with such a church."

Negotiations Broken Off

Buerckel, commissioned by Chancellor Hitler to handle the details of integrating Austria into the reich, revealed that negotiations for a working agreement with the church had been broken off.

This was the first time the public had been told such negotiations had been in progress.

He charged the Catholic leaders delayed the negotiations because they "speculated" on a war over Czechoslovakia which would give them a "new chance."

Czech Jews Blamed

He blamed Czechoslovak Jews for demonstrations in behalf of Theodore Cardinal Innitzer last Friday. The demonstration fired Nazi resentment, and in fighting on Saturday the cardinal was injured by a stone. Windows of his palace were broken.

"I have decided," Buerckel said, that "all Czechoslovak Jews and those Czechs who compromised must leave Vienna as soon as possible."

For two hours groups hooted and yelled before the cardinal's palace after Buerckel's speech last night. They were dispersed before midnight.

Troops Guard Palace

A cordon of brown-shirt storm troopers was thrown around the palace for a time. It withdrew and left policing to regular peace officers on the outside and to SS black guards on the inside.

Laying down new measures against the Austrian Catholic hierarchy, Buerckel rejected Catholic proposals for the release of Kurt Schuschnigg, deposed chancellor who is in custody at German secret police headquarters here.

The Nazi commissioner said also amnesty for "religious politicians," to have been a sequel to the Czechoslovak Sudeten victory, must now be postponed.

No more preparatory schools for the priesthood will be permitted, Buerckel asserted.

"Marriage and schools belong exclusively to the state. They are guarantees for our nation," he said. "Politics is our exclusive right. Theirs (the clergy's) is exclusively religion."

Movement Not To Be Deterred

(By The Associated Press)

JERUSALEM, Oct. 14—The Jewish agency for Palestine replied to a warning by the Palestine Arab defense committee today with the declaration that future killings would not deter the Zionist movement.

The Arab committee on Monday warned Jews, in Palestine and in other Arab and eastern nations to expect grave trouble if the Zionist movement persisted in further immigration into Palestine.

Cooperation Possibility

A Jewish agency statement said "We see a possibility of fruitful cooperation between Arabs and Jews in Palestine, but an essential condition is the recognition of the basic rights of the Jewish people in the Holy Land."

The statement added that no dangers would deflect the Jews from a policy of returning to Palestine which "is dictated by historical necessity."

Climax Fast Approaching

There was a widespread belief that a climax was fast approaching in the Palestine crisis, in which disorders in the last 12 weeks are unofficially estimated to have claimed 1,850 casualties, including more than 800 lives.

Well-organized rebel activities have been increasing daily in number and daring. The rebels apparently have been trying to harass vulnerable communication lines and circulate alarmist rumor sin order to keep the government on the defensive.

Official To Return

The past success of such a policy necessitated the abandonment of outlying police posts and government offices.

With the return, scheduled for today, of High Commissioner Sir Harold MacMichael from conferences in London, and the arrival of British troop reinforcements, it was believed the military would resume the initiative and reoccupy the country.

The Jews meanwhile looked to the United States for help against possible extinction as a "nation." Widespread interest was aroused by the appeal of a delegation of Jewish leaders in Washington to the British government to continue the policy of permitting Jewish immigration to the Holy Land.

Subpoenas Issued By Monopoly Body

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP) — Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) disclosed today the government monopoly committee had issued 89 subpoenas for records of business firms in its anti-trust investigation.

Most of these, O'Mahoney said, were issued in the committee's inquiry into the reported concentrated ownership of patents in the glass industry and its study of the issuance of C. & O. railroad stock proxies.

Too Great A Restriction Of Trade Is Warned Against

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 14 (AP) — Willis J. Ballinger, economic adviser to the Federal Trade commission, warned "unwary liberals" last night that too great a restriction of competition would provide "a short cut to fascism."

He explained he spoke as an economist and not as a FTC representative.

Foremost Highflyer Wins Grand Championship For Fourth Time

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 14 (AP) — Another record toppled in the National Dairy show today when Foremost Highflyer, owned by the Oaklands of Ann Arbor, Mich., was judged grand champion bull of the Jersey breed for the fourth consecutive year.

Jersey breeders said they did not believe a bull of any other breed had attained such an honor in the national exposition. Foremost Highflyer also won senior champion honors.

AFOL Anxious For Peace But--

BY T. F. COMAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOUSTON, Oct. 14.—American Federation of Labor unions, armed for war but apparently anxious for peace in labor's internal strife, today turned over to their executive council for action the policy mandates of the 58th annual convention which adjourned last night.

Jammed into the program for future action in an 11-day meeting that was dull and stormy by turns were a dozen controversial issues that called for action on the political and industrial fronts. The convention voted to meet in San Francisco in 1939.

Green Sounds Peace Note

After the tumult and debating over dualism and the New Deal in the closing days of the session, the convention closed on a "high note of peace" sounded by William Green in a speech accepting for the fifteenth time the presidency of the A. F. of L.

"I promise to you," Green said, "that I shall make every contribution that lies within my power toward the promotion of peace in the labor movement; I shall do what I can to heal the wound and close the breach and unite the forces of labor."

His avowal to seek unity followed by a few days convention action approving the continuation of the "war chest" special assessment levied a year ago for extensive organizing purposes, and the adoption of a report on "secession and dualism" recommending that the council be authorized to "carry on the battle and at the same time stand ready to respond to any genuine appeal for peace."

Might Take A Year

Daniel J. Tobin, leader of 350,000 members of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and the lone outstanding advocate of an immediate peace action by the leadership, said it might take a month or a year to reopen the unity negotiations with the CIO broken off last December after a tentative formula for peace had been reached.

Tobin intimated strongly there may soon be a "conference" in Washington, and many delegates speculated on what might happen between the warring factions before the CIO convenes its first constitutional convention at Pittsburgh Nov. 14.

FDR May Aid

There still was a possibility, some sources indicated, that President Roosevelt may aid in bringing the two sides together, particularly in view of his messages to the convention urging labor leaders to "make and keep the peace" and prevent the "reaction which otherwise is bound to injure the workers themselves."

Daniel W. Tracy, president of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who disclosed he had approached Mr. Roosevelt indirectly last March with a suggestion the president intervene as a mediator in labor's dispute, said:

"I still believe President Roosevelt could be very helpful in bringing the two organizations together."

Green Issues Appeal

After the noisy ovation give him when he was reelected Green addressed an appeal to the International Ladies Garment Workers union, the United Auto Workers union, the United Textile Workers union, and the Oil Field Workers International to leave the CIO and return to their former affiliation with the A. F. of L.

Significantly addressing his appeal to those four unions, Green said:

"Peace will then be restored. The solution of it all remains with you. There are no barriers in the way. There are no hurdles to cross. The door is open, a hearty welcome will be extended to you and you will find your place within the family of labor."

Invitation Not Limited

He did not mention other CIO unions but some council members said the later "invitation" was not limited to the four mentioned.

The "open door" peace policy pronouncements and debate almost overshadowed important convention action favoring changes in the National Labor Relations act and wage-hour law, and reaffirming boycott policies against German and Japanese goods.

In its closing stages the convention demonstrated it opposed any general criticism of the New Deal policies by sending back to the council a resolution committee report attacking the extension of the state's domain over the field of industrial relations.

The delegates earlier had adopted a resolution demanding the U. S. senate reject President Roosevelt's reappointment of Donald W. Smith to the labor board.

The convention turned down resolutions asking A. F. of L support for collective action by democratic nations against aggressor nations, ordered the establishment of a new maritime union built around the sailors' union of the Pacific, and voted to oppose congressional enactment of the Patman chain store tax bill.

Lisle is the term used to designate fine, smooth, two-ply cotton tightly spun and singed.

Red River Solon Is 'Baby' Legislator

AUSTIN, Oct. 14. (AP)—Leighton Cornett of Red River county, a University of Texas law student, probably can claim successfully he will be the "baby" member of the 46th legislature.

Nominated in the Democratic primary election, he barely qualified on age. Because he was only 21 he was exempted from payment of a poll tax and was barely eligible for membership in the house of representatives.

CONTRACT IS AWARDED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—The treasury today awarded Algernon Blair of Montgomery, Ala., a $173,948 contract for the construction of a postoffice and customs house at Corpus Christi, Texas. The contract calls for completion of the project in 300 days.

MILEAGE TOTALS 21,466

AUSTIN, Oct. 14. (AP)—Maintained mileage on the state highway system totaled 21,466 on Sept. 1, the highway department reported today.

There was an additional 592 miles within city limits which are maintained by municipalities.

Only $5,000 Is Owed On Fair's $100,000 Plant, Directors Are Told Today; Premiums Paid

Seven of nine Panhandle-South Plains Fair association directors, hearing final reports of the recent exposition, were informed this morning only $5,000 in borrowed money is owed on the conservatively estimated $100,000 plant.

Broken down, the report presented by A. B. Davis, secretary-manager of the chamber of commerce and board of city development and in charge of the fair, showed:

All Premiums, Debts Paid

That all premiums and debts had been paid in full, including more than $25,000 in permanent improvements begun this year and operating costs of approximately $30,000;

A WPA project which, started 60 days late because of unavoidable delays, was only one-third completed when the fair began has been resumed and will result in laying of additional sidewalks, hard surface roads, replacing of worn-out dirt by deep, fertile soil, planting of trees and sowing of grass at vantage points between buildings and walks.

The association estimates buildings are worth $85,000, including the race track, grandstand and stables; ground owned and improved by fences and other lesser improvements is valued at $15,000, representing approximate purchase price, and there is a 99-year lease on land owned by the county.

Approximately 600 persons found employment in the working organization during the fair, and there were 195 paid employes, 69 superintendents and assistants who served voluntarily, 210 race horses or ckeys received money through purses, 58 rodeo performers were given prize money, 60 high school band members played every day and a contribution was made to the units.

Usual Audit Ordered

The directors ordered the usual audit of books.

Present at this morning's meeting were Alex McDonald, president, W. T. Gaston, Parker Prouty, Sam Arnett, C. E. Hunt, M. B. Hilburn and J. A. Hodges.

Directors, after studying recommendations, said the fairgrounds next year would offer more change even than stamped the appearance of this year when compared with the year before.

Grass and shrubbery will begin their agency of combatting dust which has a habit in dry spells, especially, of fogging the grounds badly.

Loyalty To France Of Alsace-Lorraine Affirmed In Letter

PARIS, Oct. 14 (AP)—The loyalty of Alsace-Lorraine to France was affirmed today in a letter written by Alsatian Deputy Edouard Fuchs to Premier Daladier.

Unrest in the former German area, increased production in the aviation industry, the long building workers' strike in Lyon, and censorship of news broadcasts were the chief problems confronting the government today.

Virtual censorship over news broadcasts from eleven of France's largest privately owned radio stations was established by the government.

In his letter to the premier, Fuchs declared his wish to protest against the fact that "the French of Alsace are being compared with Sudeten Germans."

A great majority of the 2,000,000 inhabitants of Alsace-Lorraine, which was part of Germany before the World war, speak German.

"Recent partial mobilization found the population of Alsace-Lorraine at their posts, faithful to their duty," Fuchs wrote. "Such population is above suspicion in the mass. It indignantly repulses all dishonest and wicked insinuations."

Plymouth Steps Up Its Sales

A Statement ... TO THE BUREAU OF ADVERTISING

"Early in the year...we developed the Plymouth 'Roadking' and transferred the emphasis of our advertising to provide prominent display of the 'Roadking' name...The major portion of the advertising was placed in newspapers.

"Response to this newspaper advertising was immediate. Plymouth dealers all over the country reported keen interest on the part of the public. People began telephoning and coming into the salesrooms in large numbers. Retail sales and dealer orders to the factory stepped up week after week.

"Plymouth wound up the first quarter of 1938 in first or second place in fourteen major cities. In May we extended these gains to fifty market centers in twenty different states. This seems to us a striking demonstration of the tremendous effectiveness of newspaper advertising when keyed to a sound merchandising program."

William McInaire
Director of Advertising and Sales Promotion
PLYMOUTH DIVISION • CHRYSLER CORPORATION

Wrapped up in this statement by Plymouth's director of advertising is another outstanding story of sales increase through effective newspaper advertising hitched to intelligent merchandising. When there's a real selling job to be done, newspapers can be relied upon to do it...quickly, surely, economically...for automobiles or breakfast foods, for refrigerators or toilet soaps, for life insurance or fountain pens or anything else. That's why newspapers have long been recognized as the primary advertising medium.

River's Flow Low In 1937

(By The Associated Press)

SAN BENITO, Oct. 14.—Flow in the Rio Grande below Del Rio for 1937 was the lowest in the 28 years of record, a bulletin released by the International Boundary commission reports.

Average run-off of water per square mile of drainage basin for the various subdivisions of the Rio Grande below Fort Quitman, Texas, is shown by means of maps covering two periods, 1900 through 1913, and 1924 through 1937.

Flow Below Normal

The flow of the Rio Grande and most of its tributaries was below normal for the year. At Rio Grande City the flow was 51 per cent of normal, and the lowest flow for the year at this point was 1.020 second feet on Aug. 25. Coincidentally the region of greatest drouth extended from Del Rio and Villa Acuna to and including the Rio San Juan basin, with the subnormal condition greatest in the northern portion.

The floods of 1937 were markedly less than those usually occurring both in number and in magnitude. Water in storage in all large reservoirs on the Rio Grande basin was only 90 per cent of the average monthly amount. The Alamogordo reservoir on the Pecos river was the only new one put into operation during the year.

Increased Irrigation Slight

On both sides of the Rio Grande in the El Paso-Juarez valley the amount of water consumed in irrigation increased slightly. This same condition was noted also on the Rio Grande below Rio Grande City. On the Rio Salado in Mexico a drouth increased consumption of water. At other places along the Rio Grande and its tributaries below Fort Quitman there was little change in the amount of water consumed in irrigation.

Precipitation was subnormal for the year in the entire basin below Fort Quitman, with the greatest deficiency on the Mexican side. Evaporation over the entire basin was greater than usual, being about 10 per cent of normal. Ten thousand acre feet of suspended silt passed down the Rio Grande at Eagle Pass which is about 124 per cent of normal. The tonnage of salts for the year carried by the Rio Grande at the various gauging stations was below the average, and the average of bacteria and bacilus coli in the Rio Grande water at Nuevo Laredo was much below normal.

No Violation Of The Corrupt Practices Act said Found

BALTIMORE, Oct. 14. (AP)—Judge Eugene O'Dunne ruled Thursday Herbert R. O'Conor, Democratic gubernatorial nominee, and his campaign officials did not violate the corrupt practices act in primary campaign expenditures.

The judge sustained O'Conor's demurrer to the petition filed by Herbert M. Brune, jr., independent candidate for governor. A similar petition was filed today against Senator Millard E. Tydings.

The average annual cash income from wheat in Missouri has been about $25,000,000 for 30 years.

SMILE

Anti-freeze that boils away on warm days leaves you unprotected for the next cold wave.

Loss of radiator solution causes freezing, stops circulation. This in turn causes overheating which costs motorists millions every year.

Get out of the "Worry Class" this winter. Once you put in "Prestone" anti-freeze, there's NO MORE GUESSING!

When you buy "Eveready" "Prestone" anti-freeze, you buy all winter protection for your car. "Prestone" anti-freeze is more than just anti-freeze.

Most any other kind of anti-freeze will guard against freezing . . . until it boils away. But "Prestone" anti-freeze protects your car against engine heat . . . the thief that steals volatile anti-freeze.

Have fun this winter. Cut driving worries. Protect your family, as well as yourself, from freeze-up caused by boil-away. Smile with "Prestone" anti-freeze . . . let others boil!

YEAR AFTER YEAR, more and more "Prestone" anti-freeze has been made and sold, yet demand has outrun production. This winter, we expect there will be enough for everyone, for early in the year tremendous new production facilities went into full-time operation. Still, to be sure, get yours EARLY!

Westerners Face Hard Test With Husky Vernon Lions Here Tonight

Visitors Rated One Of Teams To Beat In Schoolboy Grid Race

The Westerners put their backs to the wall tonight with the intention of moving forward against the Vernon lions at Texas Tech field. The game, a feature of the 1938 home card, starts at 8:15 o'clock.

Vernon is rated by North Texas critics as one of the teams to beat in the schoolboy grid chase. Their District 2 opponent, Wichita Falls, is another strong contender again this year.

LUBBOCK			VERNON
No.	Player	Wt.	No.	Player	Wt.
21	Joe Bob Foster	148	11	Hill	155
33	Pat Farris	164	19	Moore	205

28	Leete Jackson	160	23	J. Judd	162
32	Howard Alford	152	25	Rogers	165
77	Walter Webster (C)	180	21	N. Southall	155

Two of the best backs in Districts 1 and 2 will run up against each other tonight, Jack Judd, a 162-pound halfback, is touted as a real threat, boasting a record of better than eight yards gained for each time he has carried the ball this year.

Jumbo Webster Has Task

Capt. Jumbo Webster is Lubbock's hope against the hard-running Judd. On Webster's shoulders is pinned the responsibility for all passing, punting, and much of the running.

The Lions have been tied once this season. A strong Oklahoma eleven held them to a scoreless deadlock.

The Westerners have sustained one defeat, also to an Oklahoma team. Vernon's margins of victories have been much more impressive than those of Lubbock.

Jerry Nash Is Out

Coach Weldon Chapman must put dependence in another substitute tonight, with Jerry Nash on the ailing list. Avon Sewalt, 230 pounds, will replace Nash at tackle.

Howard Alford will get the call at right halfback, after two weeks of grooming for the post. The job is new to him. He lettered at guard in 1937.

The Westerners practiced briefly at Tech field last night.

Coach Pat Gerald and his Lions arrived here shortly after noon.

Nine Tilts On Class B Card

The Class B card for this afternoon and tonight features two conference games in District 5 and three in District 4.

The card for District 5 follows:

Ralls at Levelland, night (conference).

Tahoka at Slaton, night (conference.)

Olton at Post, night.

Littlefield at Lamesa, night.

Crosbyton at Cooper.

The following games are scheduled in District 4:

Floydada at Flomot (conference)

Lockney at Silverton (conference).

Estelline at Quitaque (conference)

Paducah at Lefors.

Fishing Schooners To Go Out Again Today In Title Trials

ABOARD SCHOONER GERTRUDE L. THEBAUD, Gloucester Mass., Oct. 14 (AP)—Tied after their first two sailing duels in the current three-out-of-five series for the championship of the north Atlantic, Captain Angus Walters' Canadian title-holder, Bluenose, and Captain Ben Pine's American challenger, the Gertrude L. Thebaud, today faced a test over two circuits of an 18-mile triangle, which pungent Captain Angus has termed a "merry-go-round."

The starting time was set for 9:05 a. m., but if the schooners get away on schedule, it will be the first time they have done so since the opening race, won by Thebaud in a brisk breeze off Boston Sunday.

Bluenose took the second race yesterday in light air after absence of a breeze delayed the start until 11:50 a. m.

Too Much Box-Office Ballyhoo Wrong With Racing—Whitney

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 14 (AP)—What's the matter with racing? "Too much box-office ballyhoo" says John Hay (Jock) Whitney.

Whitney, member of the New York Racing commission and president of the American Breeders' association, told the Thoroughbred club of America last night:

"We hear too much talk of turnover, gate receipts, daily double and such box-office ballyhoo, and the success of a track is too often judged by the size of its dividends."

Betty Jameson Is In Way Of Babe Didrikson In Golf Play

FORT WORTH, Oct. 14. (AP) — Mildred (Babe) Didrikson, famed girl athlete of track, baseball, basketball and golf, had Betty Jameson, the Texas champion, in her path today as she swept into the semi-finals of the Texas Women's Open tournament.

Miss Didrikson was carried to the nineteenth hole yesterday as she defeated Mrs. Helen Hicks Harb of Little Rock, who like Babe is a professional golfer. Miss Jameson, San Antonio star, defeated Mrs. R. E. Winger of Fort Worth, 5 and 3.

MUSTO MAULS BRESCIA

DALLAS, Oct. 14 (AP)—Tony Musto, the Chicago baby tank, mauled his way to his twentieth straight heavyweight ring victory here last night as he earned a wide, ten-round decision over Jorge Brescia, giant Argentine.

Musto, who weighed 200 pounds for the match, ten less than Brescia, won the unanimous verdict.

More Than 50 Contests Are On Schedule

(By The Associated Press)

More than 50 games remained on the week's schedule in Texas schoolboy football today but one of the state's 12 undefeated, untied teams had already bitten the dust.

Sam Houston of Houston fell last night before Lamar of Houston in a District 13 conference game, 32-0 and there was the promise of four or five others following Sam Houston in the plunge from the select circle before the weekend's play is finished.

Three other games were played last night. Sulphur Springs defeating Class B Commerce 44-6. Poly of Fort Worth downing Fort Worth Tech 25-0 in a District 7 conference tilt, and Robstown of District 15 beating Corpus Christi College-Academy 12-0.

Thirty-one conference games are scheduled today and tomorrow.

Slaton Hoping For Comeback Against Tahoka Club Tonight

SLATON, Oct. 13. (Special) — Slaton's chances against the class B Tahoka Bulldogs have inspired slight hopes of the partisans hereabouts. They will play tonight.

The Tigers lost to White Deer, 38 to 0, last week.

Coach Curtis Hamilton says that with his two lettermen who were out last week on account of injury, Carlton Stotts and James Haliburton, back in the game his "Cats" are out for revenge. Everyone is in good shape except George Gentry and Ray DeBusk on the letter squad.

George Rotan Of Houston Is Favored In Senior Golf Play

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 14. (AP) — George Rotan of Houston was the favorite today as the Texas Senior Golf tournament entered the semi-final round.

Rotan, shooting the tournament's best score, 73, crushed Bart Moore of San Antonio, 9 and 7, yesterday to indicate he was the man to beat for the title.

Rotan met Ernest L. Brown of San Antonio in the semi-finals. Brown took out Miers Crump of San Antonio, 6 and 5.

The other match sent Guy Keith of Beaumont against Fred Austin of Houston. Keith defeated Congressman R. M. Kleberg of Corpus Christi, 4 and 3, and Austin took out Emil Mueller of San Antonio, 3 and 2, in the quarter-finals.

Howard Payne Shoves Another Title Contender Out Of Way

SHERMAN, Oct. 14. (AP)—Howard Payne college had shoved another contender out of the way in the Texas conference football race today.

The Yellow Jackets, boasting three victories and no defeats, took care of the Austin College Kangaroos last night, 13-0. Minor scored the first touchdown on an end run and Hext passed 22 yards to Bodeker for the second. Russell kicked the extra point.

St. Edward's, another Texas conference member, defeated Lamar Junior college of Beaumont, 14-0, in a non-conference struggle at Beaumont. Ermis passed to Reynolds for the first touchdown and to Jensen for the second. Formagus kicked the goals.

Two Hundred Entered In First Bait And Fly Casting Tourney

DALLAS, Oct. 14. (AP)—Two hundred entries from Shreveport, Waco, Houston, Fort Worth, Dallas, San Antonio and Livingston had been filed today for the first annual Texas State Fair golden jubilee bait and fly casting tournament.

The tournament opens at 7 o'clock tonight and continues through Sunday. Casters will vie for 101 prizes totaling more than $1,200.

Jack Sparks of Waco, national all-around champion for both 1937 and 1938, will compete in the events today and tomorrow.

SETS NEW COURSE RECORD

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Oct. 14 (AP)—Sam Snead toured the old White course in 62 for a new record Thursday, eight strokes under par for the 6,368-yard layout and one under his previous record.

Lions Look Too Tough

By Collier Parris

LOOKING FOR A longshot this week? Then you might camp on the Westerners' trail tonight when they bump into the Vernon Lions at Tech Stadium.

Personally, the Chicago Cubs rather definitely cured us of longshottis, so, fond as we are of the Westerners, dope and prudence indicates a veering away from home town loyalty — particularly as the more practical purpose of guessing a winner is concerned.

● ● ●

Either way we turn, however, we'll be branded a "Homer." For it was from Vernon High school that the kindly professors excussed us, probably more for the good of the school and education in general than for personal accomplishments, after a four-year stretch within its ivy-covered walls — well, it might have been ivy — and sent us out into the crool world with a diploma and a good-riddance farewell.

● ● ●

That was back in the middle 'twenties, and about all we salvaged, besides the diploma, was a high and lasting regard for some very good Lion football players. We think of our 4-enure at Vernon in terms of Ransom Walker, Ox Reed, Levi Walker, (these three came to Tech and continued making football history) Winifred Crouch, Willy Gelbousen, Benton Ryan, three fine backs; Hub Robinson, a great center; Truman Teal, an end, and numerous others. They were coached by Al Baggett, now of West Texas State Teachers college, at the time, and they were real ball players.

That was when high school football was really rough and tough, full of big men who steam-rollered their way to victories. The fancy stuff of the present era hadn't developed so well. Football now is more spectacular, but they had better high school material then.

● ● ●

WELL, THEY SAY Vernon still has good teams and good players, especially this year. Coach Fat Gerald took over last year and put a district championship team on the field. But it didn't win the district title, officially. That was decided in an executive committee room, not on the field. Wichita Falls, tied by Vernon, was given the pennant, although Vernon's record was better.

So far this season, Vernon has been bowling 'em over with more or less reckless abandon and consistency. Polytechnic of Ft. Worth fell, 0-26; Vernon defeated a strong Breckenridge club, 21-0, was held to a scoreless tie in an upset by Altus, Okla., and bumped Electra, a traditionally strong rival, 39-9, in its last contest.

● ● ●

The Lions have attracted attention of observers all over the state, and they are figured to win in District 2 and be a power in the state play-offs.

In Jack Judd, one of a string of Judd athletes there, the Lions have a formidable backfield ace who hasn't been stopped yet. He is undoubtedly headed for all-state honors if he keeps up the pace of gaining 8 1-2 yards every time he handles the ball. That's supposed to be his record so far.

● ● ●

The Vernon team is strong at all positions, and bolstered by capable reserves. The dope favors the Lions, tonight.

Coach Weldon Chapman's Westerners on the other hand, aren't the same team that started the season. There was big wind blowing from Lubbock in early September—a wind that threatened to wreck the reign of Amarillo's Sandstorm, but the Westerners have had a lot of luck, most of it bad, and this day finds them snuggled up to the 8-ball.

● ● ●

On top of the loss of Paul Sparkman, center; James Merriman, guard; Walter Daniel, a back, and Rusty Johnston, back, now comes loss of Jerry Nash, first line guard, out with illness. These five, plus two others who looked good in spring training but are not with the club this fall, constitute a pretty good team in themselves.

● ● ●

So maybe we picked a logical time to cast a guess on the high school alma mammy. For Chapman's sake, we hope we're wrong.

● ● ●

IT IS MEET, at this time, to extend a kindly welcome to the visiting coaches, players and fans from Vernon.

Their visit, and tonight's game, constitute the big item in sports around here this weekend, and this department joins the rest of Lubbock in greeting the Lions and their supporters. Make yussefs to home, pliz.

● ● ●

In case you haven't been reading the papers, we'll present herewith schedule of the more important college games over the country today and tomorrow, along with, incidentally, some guesses at the results.

Texas Tech plays University of Montana at Missoula tomorrow. The Grizzlies, only team to beat Tech here last season, are still tough, but despite the "bear" stories, we suggest the Techs will register their fifth straight victory of the season, with two touchdowns to spare.

Raiders Due In Missoula At 3 P. M. Today

(Special To The Journal)

MISSOULA, Mont., Oct. 14—The burly band of Texas Tech gridders were expected to arrive here at 3 o'clock (MST) this afternoon for their Saturday afternoon engagement with the University of Montana.

After a hard workout of his charges, Coach Doug Fessenden announced they all were in the best physical condition and would be ready to meet the challenge of the Texas team. Big Bill Lazetich is the man the Bruins will look to at Dornblaser field tomorrow afternoon to give them their second victory over the Red Raiders.

Fessenden Is Dubious

Although Montana has often faced the Notre Dame system of offense, Fessenden was dubious of the team's chance to stop the Texans, who have piled up four impressive wins.

The game will be the second in history between the two teams. Last year Montana invaded Lubbock, Tex., home of the Red Raiders and returned to Missoula with a 13 to 6 triumph, that to the fine play of Milton Popovich.

Tackles Leave Also

Given honorable mention on many all-America selections, Popovich graduated last year. Along with him went several other top-notch players, notably all the first rank tackles.

Coach Fessenden, however, has groomed a green lot of huskies carefully, and in games to date the tackles have more than gratified him with their play.

A large crowd is expected for the game Saturday.

Manager Of Redskins Says Grid Game Needs More Color; Yellow And Red Lines To Be Painted

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—Kingsbury Espey, general manager of the Redskins, decided today the professional grid game needs more color.

"The middle of the American football field has been drab too long," he said. "We're going to do something about it—we're going to rouge the 50-yard line.

"Yes, sir, we're going to put a big yellow line across the field, and then we're going to put a red stripe down it's middle—as crimson as ever got on a co-ed's lips."

He's convinced that the innovation will sweep the country.

Lubbock Poloists Are Defeated In Opening Game On Thursday

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 14, (special)—In the first of two games arranged as a feature of the New Mexico State fair, Plainview's polo club Thursday defeated Lubbock, 6 to 4. Capt. Lloyd Phillips sparked the Plainviews.

Phillips, riding at No. 4, scored four of team's counters in a fast contest. Bob Hester, captain of the Lubbock team, led his teammates with three goals.

Other riders for Lubbock were Claude Hurlbut, John Cooper, Guy Smith and Lynn Parkinson.

The teams will play the second and final game this afternoon.

Schools Provide Only Lasting Method Of Safety, Woods Says

AUSTIN, Oct. 14. (AP) — Schools provide the only real and lasting method of developing a program of public safety, believes L. A. Woods, state superintendent of education.

The superintendent today hailed the adoption of textbooks on safety by the state board of education as the first concrete step toward reducing the mounting number of accident fatalities.

"Not only will the children learn the principles of safety," Woods said, "but they will carry them home to their parents."

Barker Picks Alabama, Pitt, T. C. U., Rice, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Arkansas, Baylor

By HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—This football corner takes a wary look at the week's football slate, and emerges with the following guesses:

Alabama - Tennessee: The game in the Southeastern conference this week. It might even settle the championship although that's taking an extremely far-sighted bird's-eye view of the situation. Tennessee, after bowling over Clemson, hurled Auburn but this is an Alabama horse of another color, Alabama.

Wisconsin - Pitt: Harry Stuhldreher must have been feeding his Wisconsin Badgers nothing but raw meat, but the conviction grows that this Pitt outfit has everything a great team needs. Pitt.

Texas A. & M.-Texas Christian: A Santa Clara team that ran up 22 points on Stanford could score only seven on the Aggies. Nevertheless Christian has been knocking its rival around like so many ten-pins and gets the nod here.

Kansas - Oklahoma: Can't see Kansas against a really fine Oklahoma team.

Tulane-Rice: Tulane's coming strong; Rice hasn't even started. Maybe the Texans will this week. Rice, reserving right to appeal.

Vanderbilt-Mississippi: Who threw that brick? The boys haven't got over that shocking Mississippi victory over Louisiana State. In sheer despair, Mississippi.

Arkansas-Texas: The Razorbacks ought finally to win one. Arkansas.

Baylor - Centenary: Looks like Baylor.

Skipping over the chalklines otherwise: Louisiana State over Loyola (New Orleans); Minnesota over Michigan.

More Than 400 College Publicity Men In U. S Seek To Place Man On All-America

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 14—It is somehow alarming to learn that there are more than 400 college football publicity men in this country, each of them determined to place at least one man on this season's All-America eleven.

For these figures, and the warning implied, we are indebted to Bob Madry, who has been sing-song man for the University of North Carolina for 15 years. Bob is here with a trunk-full of photographs of his Tar Heels, who play New York university tomorrow.

Gets Around A Great Deal

Bob's job, like that of the other 399-odd, calls for him to get around a great deal, establishing a new pitch each week and generally shedding miscellaneous information for the benefit of the sports writers.

Most of the campus publicity men have had newspaper experience and have a wide acquaintance among the country's football writers. Each of them has anywhere from one to six full-time assistants. His salary ranges up to $6,000 and $8,000 a year.

One of the most appreciated functions of the tribe is its management of the football press boxes these Saturday afternoons. The publicity man at most stadia sees to it that the shivering typewriter-pounder is supplied with coffee and sandwiches and has a seat to sit on.

Old Adage Doesn't Run True To Form In Hunters' Case; Duck Takes Off From Coat Pocket

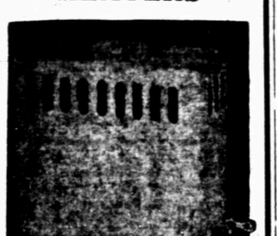

WINNIPEG, Oct. 14. (AP)—The adage "a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush" didn't run true to form for Albert Armistead and Walter Scofield.

Armistead fired into a flight of ducks and brought one down. Scofield placed the duck carefully in the pocket of his hunting coat.

A short time later Scofield felt a rustling as the mallard, only stunned by Armstead's shot, took off from his pocket.

The hunters were too flabbergasted to think of firing a second time.

T. C. U.-Aggie Contest Is Big Question Mark Of Week-End

BY FELIX R. McKNIGHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Nerveless, crafty Texas Christian and Texas A. & M. pile into each other on College Station's storied Kyle field tomorrow on a sort of a winner-take-all basis.

Few were those who didn't feel the team with its head high after the early season classic down at Aggieland would win a Southwest conference title and national favor—unbeaten Baylor and Rice institute notwithstanding.

Odds Out Of Question

The unbeaten record of Texas Christian will be shuffled out of factors surrounding a game expected to lure between 20,000 and 25,000 to the tiny college settlement many miles from the nearest metropolis. Odds were out of the question with both teams failing to list a single injury on the game's eve.

The Christian's great 212-pound average line, behind which wee Davey O'Brien hides to throw his touchdown passes, will be bucking a big Farmer wall that has bent only before potent Santa Clara—and then only briefly. Little was to be conceded to either line but one all-important angle made Texas Christian the slightest choice in this corner.

Averages 40 Yards

Not O'Brien's bulls-eye pegs nor Dick Todd's fancy running may decide a winner, but the powerful kicking foot of Sophomore Connie Sparks, the Christian's prize fullback. Over a three-game stretch with Centenary, Arkansas and Temple he has averaged 40 yards on his punts, and many have been buried out-of-bounds for accuracy's sake. Todd improved his kicking against Santa Clara last week, averaging 39 yards, but Sparks' toe still may mean a T. C. U. triumph by a single point—not more than one touchdown.

May Let Todd Through

Football experts will be closely watching Coach Homer Norton's "double shuffle" shift against the magnificent Christian line. It bewildered Santa Clara; it could befuddle T. C. U. just long enough to let Todd leak through.

At Waco, Baylor, winner of its first three games, is in for an afternoon with the unruly gents of Centenary, and team whose ears they boxed last year, 20-0. Baylor's line didn't hold too well against Arkansas last week, ground rushes by the usually aerial-minded Porkers accounting for 121 yards. And Baylor's backs gained only 11 yards, net, through the big Razorback line. Centenary has a sturdy wall, one that dueled Texas Christian on almost even terms, and its offense is based almost entirely on running plays. Despite Bill Patterson's passes, it appears Baylor will be tumbled by a touchdown.

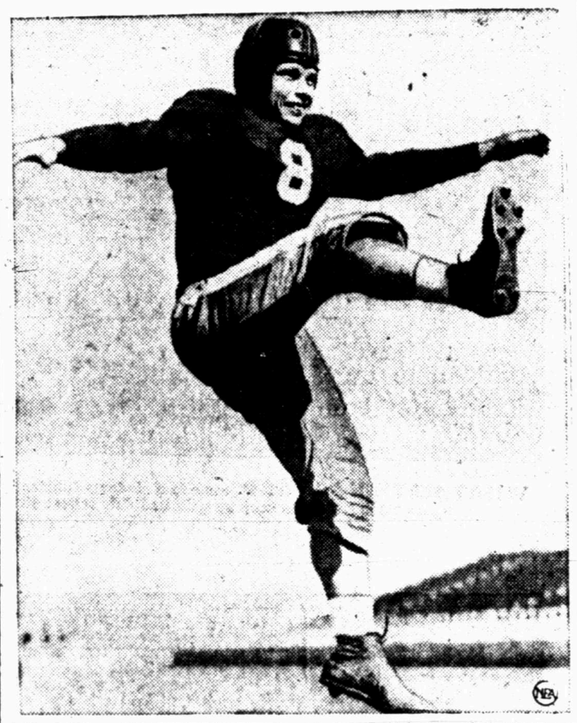

Rice Over Tulane

The start they've been waiting for at Rice institute is due for this weekend when the Owls, loser by four points of its first two games, invades New Orleans to scrap a Tulane team that didn't do badly itself last week by dropping North Carolina. However, the Owls have reached the boiling point now and with Scat Sullivan ready again and Ernie Lain, his old self against L. S. U. last week, it should be Rice by one touchdown in a three-touchdown melee.

Arkansas' aerials will be a little too much for D. X. Bible's Texas Longhorns in their Little Rock game. The Texans showed the meekest kind of an offense against Oklahoma last week and it is doubtful that its tiny and medium-sized backs will be able to bat down aerials intended for the Ozarks giants, Arkansas, by two touchdowns.

Southern Methodist, busy trying to conjure magic that might hold down the score in their Pittsburgh game next week, will be idle.

Mighty Mite of Southwest

Although he weighs only 150 pounds and plays in a league of giants, Davie O'Brien, Texas Christian quarterback, probably is the most versatile performer in the Southwest Conference.

Man Confesses To Brutal Sex Murder

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 14 (AP)—Detective Captain John Taylor said early today Adrian H. Miller, 31, had confessed the sex slaying of Alice May Girton, 17, pretty brunette business college student.

Miller lived in the same rooming house as Miss Girton, just across the hall from where the girl's nude and ravished body was found early yesterday, her own bloomers stuffed down her throat to strangle her.

Captain Taylor said Miller told him he waited until he heard Howard Zimmerman, 18, of Riga, Mich., leave the girl's room and then went over and knocked on the door.

He quoted Miller as saying Miss Girton objected but the man forced his way in, seized a pillow from the bed, smothered her with it and then assaulted her.

"After that," the detective said Miller told him, "everything went black and I don't remember."

Miller, who is from Racine, Wis., was arrested early today. He has been taking an engineering course at a technical school here.

Taylor said he learned the man had received a federal sentence for Mann act violation in San Diego, Calif., in 1931 and served seven months before being paroled. Miller also spent some time in a San Diego psychopathic institution in 1932, Taylor said. Later he went to South America and worked there four years. He returned to the United States last year.

Continued improvement was reported today in the condition of Mrs. J. W. Fortenberry, 69, of Pampa, a visitor with children in Lubbock on many occasions, who suffered an acute attack of appendicitis late last week at her home.

She is the mother of J. A. Fortenberry, city commissioner, and Mrs. J. R. Weiss of Lubbock and Joe Fortenberry of Monroe, who were called to her bedside.

When Mrs. Fortenberry was stricken, friends were advised, surgeons feared an operation would be fatal because of her age and complicating ailments. She responded to treatment, however, and had recovered sufficiently that her children returned to their homes Thursday.

Students At Tech Are Interviewing Transients Here

What about transients and their social, religious, economic and political problems?

Five students in a seminar in social problems taught by Dr. A. J. Bahm, assistant professor of philosophy and sociology in Texas Technological college, have set out to learn. They are conducting near-endless interviews with cotton pickers.

The survey is not yet fully underway. It will be continued throughout the cotton picking season, then a statistical study of transiency will be prepared. Principal purpose is to give the students practice in making social surveys, but the statistics possibly will be of use. They will be given to the Texas Relief commission.

Students will go to the transients concentration camp at the fairgrounds, and will seek them through addresses supplied by the Texas State Employment service and the relief commission. They will accompany Fred C. Wendt, manager of the employment service office here, and Mrs. Viola Perkins, district director of the relief commission, on trips on which they will have opportunity to see transients.

Information on income of transients, on why they came to Lubbock, how long they expect to stay, and other data will be collected.

Students making the survey are Homer Millikin, Gladyce Maxwell, Jane Davenport, Earl Gobble, and Kathryn Weaver.

Slaton Drafts Road Plans

SLATON, Oct. 14. (Special)—Plans for marking state highway 84 through Slaton were drafted in a joint meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce and members of the city commission.

Such procedure would relieve a dangerous traffic situation, it was implied.

East portion of the Ninth street boulevard just west of the city hall has long been designated as the highway section of the through street. With the recent installation of traffic lights more urgent need of the new markings is evident. The new arrangement would allow for cars approaching the intersection of Ninth and Lubbock streets from the north on the west lane of the boulevard to observe the same light signal as do cars coming from the west on Lubbock street thereby allowing cars traveling the main highway a clear route through town.

Plans for paving the center section of the boulevard and running a curb along the middle were considered. Metal markers will be placed along the center of the busy block to designate specifically the through highway. With removal of the Slaton postoffice to 145 South Ninth, immediately west of the city hall, the parking situation may become more hazardous than it now is if cars are still allowed to park along the highway through town. A movement may soon be placed underway to clear the highway from parking from the Palace theater on the north end of the boulevard to the Baptist church on the south extremiey.

Present in the joint meeting were Mayor John W. Hood, Commissioners Dan Liles, O. N. Alcorn and L. B. Wootton, the following members of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce and board of city development: President F. H. Schmidt, Fagan Genn, C. W. Taylor, Webber B. Williams, C. F. Anderson, Dr. R. G. Loveless, Joe E. Webb, J. H. Brewer, J. A. Elliott, W. M. Cates and Ben Mansker. Raymond Lee Johns, chamber of commerce manager, was also present.

Rev. W. F. Prewitt Of Portales, N. M., New Moderator Of Area

The new moderator of the El Paso presbytery, named at a meeting in Colorado this week, is Rev. W. F. Prewitt of Portales, N. M., said Dr. J. M. Lewis, Lubbock pastor who attended.

The presbytery will meet in Big Spring next spring.

Proposed revision of the confession of faith of the denomination, as suggested by general assembly, was adopted unanimously, he said.

Commission Is Named

A commission on "the minister and his work," to act as an interim group between regular meetings of presbytery was named. Rev. R. A. Partlow, Lubbock, new superintendent of presbytery's work, was chosen president, with Rev. D. F. McConnell of Big Spring and Dr. Lewis as ministerial members.

Jerold Riordan of Colorado and Leroy Echols of Coahoma were the elders named to the committee.

The commission will keep in close contact with all churches of the presbytery, advising them on their problems and visiting especially those churches without a regular pastor.

W. L. Hester represented the First church session as its commissioner. Rev. W. K. Johnston of Lubbock also attended.

Cooperative Oil Mill Launches New Seed Crushing Season Here

The 1938-39 cotton seed crushing season has opened at Lubbock cooperative oil mill and seed is being received from the 33 membership gins, said F. G. Campbell, manager.

About 75 men are employed at the mill for the run. There is a surplus of common labor, he added.

This is the second year's run for the mill. O. J. Edler of Crosbyton is president of the board of directors. Last season the mill pressed over 10,000 tons of seed for its first run, a larger tonnage than had been anticipated.

The Lubbock mill is one of three of its kind in Texas. It is supported by cooperative gins of the area, the gins furnishing enough seed to keep it in operation. Since last year the number of gins of cooperative societies in this section has increased from 33 to 48.

Church Membership Sets New High Mark In United States In 1937

Total Figure Is 63,848,094

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The Christian Herald in its annual report on church membership in the United States set a new high mark for 1937, with a total inclusive membership of 63,848,094 for all religious bodies in the country.

Total Protestant membership stood at 35,879,311, while the Roman Catholic church had 21,322,688. Other denominations, including Jewish congregations with 4,081,242, made up the grand total.

In a previous summary, released by the Christian Herald on Oct. 2, the Catholic church was incorrectly listed as having 31,530,275 adult members.

Espionage Trial Is Started In New York

NEW YORK, Oct. 14. (AP) — A woman and three men go on trial today on charges of conspiracy to steal American defense secrets—the most important espionage trial in the United States since the World war.

The four, characterized by United States Attorney Lamar Hardy as minor figures in a ring directed from Germany by leaders "connected with the government of that country," are:

Johnanna Hofmann, red-haired, 47-year-old former hair dresser on the North German Lloyd liner Europa, alleged to have served as a passenger for the ring;

Otto Herman Voss, 36, naturalized German formerly employed at the Sikorsky airplane plant at Farmingdale, Long Island, where United States army airplanes are under construction, accused of stealing plans for a high-speed pursuit plane;

Guenther Gustav Rumrich, 32, former United States army sergeant, accused of stealing a military aviation code;

Eric Glaser, 28, naturalized German, United States army private attached to a Mitchel Field flying squadron, accused of stealing aviation secrets.

Selection of the jury is expected to be completed today, with presentation of testimony getting under way Monday.

Former Texas Cattleman Killed As Car Overturns In Louisiana

NEW ROADS, La., Oct. 14. (AP) — Robert Nathanial Miller, 70, former Texas cattleman, was killed instantly last night when his automobile overturned 12 miles below here on the river.

He had been in Pointe Coupee parish about a year selling cattle. He is survived by a son, Robert N. Miller, jr., of Surphur Springs, Tex.

Special Prosecutor To Direct Investigation In Brooklyn

NEW YORK, Oct. 14. (AP)—Gov. Herbert H. Lehman announced today he would supersede Brooklyn's Democratic district attorney, William F. X. Geoghan, with a special prosecutor to head a broad investigation into "alleged official corruption" in that borough.

The governor acted after studying a petition filed by city Investigation Commissioner William B. Herlands asking that Geoghan be replaced in an inquiry that may reach all law enforcement agencies in the borough.

Wreckage Of Refinery Fire Is Being Cleared Away Today

LINDEN, N. J., Oct. 14. (AP)—An eight-acre oil tank "farm" of the Cities Service company lay in smoldering ruins today as mop-up crews cleared wreckage left by a conflagration that raged for more than 20 hours.

The blaze was smothered out before noon Thursday.

Elliot McEldowney, advertising manager of the Cities Service, estimated damage of $500,000.

Scores of firemen and spectators suffered minor burns.

Forest Fires Said To Be Under Control

(By The Associated Press)

Fires which swept through large areas of brush and timber along the Minnesota-Ontario border, taking a toll of 20 lives in Monday's outbreak, were reported under control early today.

Authorities said there was no immediate danger of a new outburst in the region about International Falls, Minn., and Fort Frances, Ont., where the score of persons perished.

Occasional drizzles of rain at International Falls and a slackening of the wind raised the hopes of forestry officials and provincial police who earlier had expressed concern over weather conditions.

The fire was at the outskirts of International Falls late yesterday but fire fighters poured water on the threatened area and brought it under control at that point.

A heavy pall of smoke still hung over the areas but the improved conditions permitted the grimy and weary fire fighting forces to ease their efforts as work of caring for refugees proceeded.

Negro's Case To Be Probed By Board; Some Doubt To Guilt

AUSTIN, Oct. 14. (AP) — An investigation into the case of Sam Cash, 20-year-old Washington county negro sentenced to execution Nov. 18 for murder, will be conducted by the pardons board, Chairman Bruce Bryant said today.

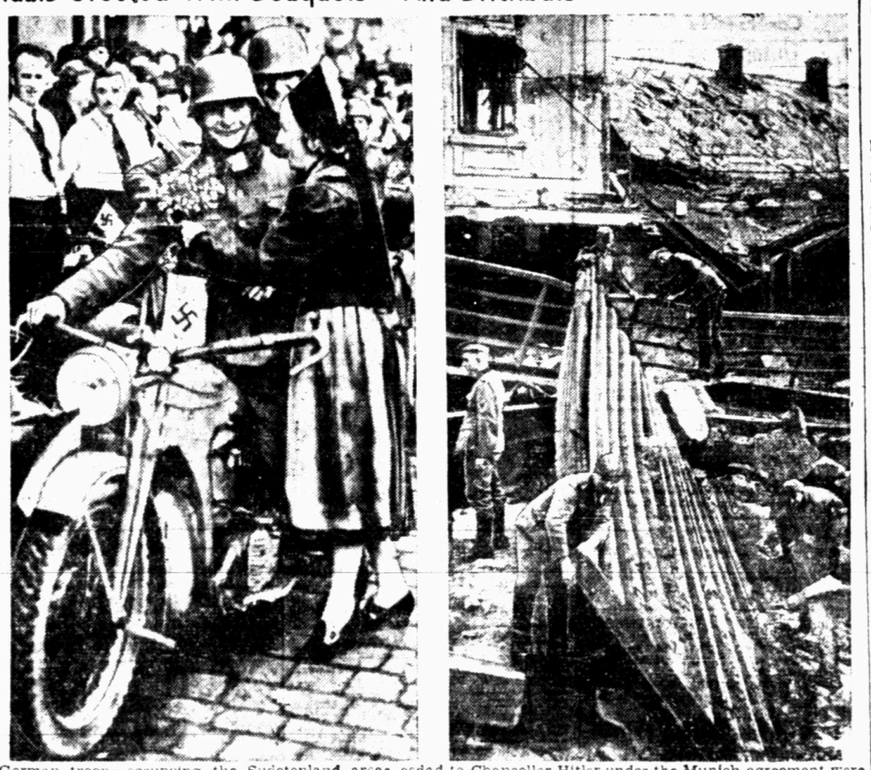

Bryant said there appeared to be some doubt about Case's guilt.

Possible clemency action by Gov. James V. Allred on I. L. Southerland and Ovid Mathis, serving terms as robbers of an Atlanta, Texas, bank, awaited the report of the two members of the board who disagreed with Bryant on the question of the pair's guilt.

Bryant said he believed them guilty in spite of their convincing some officials they were innocent.

Nazis Greeted With Bouquets---And Brickbats

Military Experts Urge States To Set Stage For Mobilization

FORT SHERIDAN, Ill., Oct. 14. (AP)—Military experts recommended today, after their first test on paper of a civilian-operated war draft, that all states adopt the plan to "set the stage" for possible mobilization—and keep it set.

Army and navy officials announced their opinion upon conclusion of a four-day regional conference to examine the plan, which would utilize peacetime election machinery to mobilize about 750,000 men in the first three months of a national emergency.

Fighting men would be called to the colors by registration in election precincts and would be classified by local boards composed of their neighbors.

NUMBER IS UNCERTAIN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—The bureau of agricultural economics said today the number of lambs to be fed during the 1938-39 feeding season was rather uncertain, but that some increase was indicated in western states.

The bureau said the number of lambs fed this year will be determined to a considerable extent by the disposition made of the large number of feeder lambs in Texas.

New State Park Is Considered

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 14 — A new state park — 500 acres in Brazoria county facing the Gulf of Mexico — was in prospect today.

William Lawson, executive secretary of the state parks board, said citizens of Brazoria county had offered the tract as a gift and he would go to Freeport Oct. 18 to consult with them.

The area would be the only park directly facing open waters of the Gulf, he added.

The parks board also is considering a proffered gift of 2,500 acres in the Guadalupe mountains of Culberson county from J. C. Hunter of Abilene.

Dies Committee To Return To Capital

DETROIT, Oct. 14. (AP)—The Dies house committee closed its investigation of un-American activities in Michigan Thursday and left for Washington, where it will reconvene Monday at 10 a. m. to hear charges that communists engineered sit-down strikes in the automobile industry.

Rep. Harold G. Mosier (D-Ohio) said testimony on recruiting of soldiers for Spanish loyalist forces, gathered at the hearings here, would be turned over to the district attorney's office "for such action as may seem fit."

Mosier revealed that the mother of Paul Padgett, 19-year-old Detroit youth, received telephone calls from anonymous sources threatening to "get your son for his testimony."

Young Padgett testified concerning alleged recruiting activities here.

UNION LEADERS CONVICTED

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14. (AP) — Harry W. Dail, international organizer for the AFL Teamsters' union, and Dexter L. Lewis, president of the Los Angeles local, were convicted by a superior court jury Thursday of criminally conspiring to direct a reign of labor violence in the southern California trucking industry.

19—Livestock For Sale

THE LUBBOCK LIVESTOCK COMMISSION CO.
At 1310 Ave. B
HORSE AND MULE AUCTION SALE EACH THURSDAY

Our horse sale was the best we have had and good stock brought a good price. Had 150 head and will need more stock all the time as our market is getting better advertised and we have more buyers.

Cattle sale every Wednesday. Last week we did not have many cattle, but a nice little run for first sale. Everyone was well pleased and we expect to have more cattle from now on, and we are going to quote prices they bring from sale to sale, not what these cattle bring on some other market but our market. So bring in your cattle and help us make Lubbock the biggest market in West Texas.

Jersey stockers from 3.75@4.25, common butcher weight from 500-700, 4.50 @5.50. Choice butcher cows from 3.50@4.30. No fat cows offered. Bulls from 3.75@4.25.

No heavy bulls offered. Consign your cattle to us each Wed. for better prices. We are bonded for your protection.

Snyder Livestock Market
AUCTION SALE OF CATTLE EVERY THURSDAY, STARTING 10:00 A. M.
AUCTION SALE OF HORSES AND MULES EVERY SATURDAY
We now have a good demand for all kinds of stocker cattle to go to Oklahoma and Kansas wheat fields, especially cows and calves and wet cows. Any of this class of cattle consigned to us will bring a good market price. Butcher cattle sold strong at our sale this week and our demand continues to increase.
Tune in KFYO each Thursday from 2 to 2:15 o'clock, hear the auction sale direct from the sales pavilion. If you have livestock for sale or are in the market to buy don't fail to attend our Thursday auction sale of cattle and Saturday auction sale of horses and mules. Livestock sold at private sale every day. For best results consign your livestock to Snyder Livestock Market. Bonded and insured.

Oil Men Will Meet Saturday

(By The Associated Press)

ABILENE, Oct. 14 — J. C. Hunter, president of the West Central Texas Oil and Gas association, has called a meeting of independent operators and directors of the association Saturday morning in Austin to map plans for a fight against proposed lifting of Saturday and Sunday oil field shutdowns by the Texas railroad commission.

"The association believes loosening of Texas production would serve only to play into the hands of those who are to be blamed for the recent crude price cuts," he said.

He laid blame for price reductions on the refining and marketing branches of the industry, "whose house should be set in order before any adjustment is sought."

Brain Discovery

board of the brain is partially destroyed or interferred with, the movements of the eye in response to moving objects near the outer edges of the field of vision get crossed up.

In such cases the eye movement will reverse itself to the rotation or sidewise movement of an object placed in front of it. This indicates that the sensations perceived by the eye and sent to the receiving portion of the brain are reversed when reflected back through the brain switchboard.

Dr. Spiegel said it therefore is possible for the eye specialist to advise the brain surgeon exactly where to operate, if the disorder can be treated by surgery.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 14 (AP)—Cotton futures showed little change at the opening here today but the undertone was steady in response to favorable foreign markets and lack of selling pressure.

Initial transactions were unchanged to one point lower with Oct. contracts 8.18 bid, Dec. 8.42, Jan. 8.33, March 8.33, May 8.20, July 8.13, and Oct. (New) at 7.86.

Trading was narrow throughout the first half of the session.

Towards mid-session the market was 4 points net lower to 2 points higher with Oct. contracts at 8.16, Dec. 8.41, March 8.31, May 8.23, July 8.10, and Oct. (new) at 7.86.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (AP) — Cotton futures opened 3 lower to 1 higher. Steadier Liverpool cables were offset by liquidation against 15 October notices. Oct. 8.25; Dec. 8.29; Jan. 8.21; March 8.20; May 8.10; July 8.02.

October was influenced by last minute liquidation before trading in that delivery ceased at noon.

Dec. advanced from 8.28 to 8.30 and at the end of the first half hour the market was 4 points lower to 3 higher.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (AP)—Slightly mixed trends were in evidence in today's stock market proceedings. Spotty price advances attributed largely to profit-taking resulting from the lengthy advance.

At a lively opening in which the ticker tape was behind advances were posted for Westinghouse, Kennecott, National Distillers, Anaconda, Pennsylvania, Southern Pacific and Douglas Aircraft.

A spade in advance were Standard Oil of N. J., U. S. Steel, Montgomery Ward, General Motors, Santa Fe and General Electric.

Heartening were the figures of the General Reserve, disclosing a jump of $38,000,000 in commercial loans in New York City for the week ended Oct. 11.

Sterling was up 1¼ cents at $4.74¾ at the beginning of foreign currency transactions.

Markets At A Glance:

NEW YORK:
STOCKS—Irregular; profit taking halts industrial rise.
BONDS—Uneven; rails react from early highs.

quantity production as in Germany. We ought to produce a minimum quantity of planes for our needs now of proven types and arrange for mass production in an emergency. Improvements can be made in replacements.

Have No Munitions Makers

"We have no munitions manufacturers in this country now. Our needs include shells and big guns we don't know yet how to make."

After learning what the president had said at his press conference, army and navy officers said they were ready with extensive rearmament proposals if the new study of national needs resulted in a request to congress to step up military appropriations.

The army officials said needs new guns, planes and motor vehicles and several thousand more officers and men.

"The general staff hopes congress will provide $30,000,000 to repair deficiencies in anti-aircraft guns and other defenses against air raids.

Navy To Ask For Funds

The navy already has disclosed it will ask for funds to start two battleships and a score of smaller warcraft in addition to the four score now building or appropriated for.

Further the navy wants to modernize five of its present 15 battleships and two aircraft carriers, to build more shore bases and strengthen existing establishments.

Warship construction alone will require $150,000,000 more than last year, Mr. Roosevelt has estimated.

The reexamination of defense needs, which the president said had been in progress for a year, already has started a study of weaknesses in the power systems serving the nation's eastern manufacturing centers.

Million Americans Receive First Lesson In Defense

FORT BRAGG, N. C., Oct. 14 (AP) — A million Americans received their first lesson last night in how to defend themselves against hostile bombing airplanes.

Residents of approximately 15,000 square miles, including 67 towns in 21 eastern North Carolina counties, turned off their home, factory and store lights as big army "flying fortresses" and accompanying planes flew at a high altitude toward Fort Bragg.

Commanding officers said the greatest difficulty of the ground forces was caused by automobiles on the highways. They asserted pilots could follow the stream of lights to a point where all was dark, indicating the presence of a "blacked out" town.

The defending forces availed themselves of facilities including 15 independent telephone companies, three commercial radio stations, amateur radio sets, church bells, factory whistles, and a flicker of the electric current.

Boy Scouts, firemen and members of the National Guard combed the highways and towns in an attempt to remove every light that might betray the presence of civilians to the "enemy."

Other features of the celebration will include a 6 o'clock breakfast, a parade and memorial program, a chow line at noon, attendance at the football game by ex-service men, a program between halves and a dance. Details of all those events, however, are to be worked out.

Wallace's Efforts To Bolster Program Undergoing Scrutiny

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—Secretary Wallace's efforts to bolster the daministration crop control program are undergoing careful scrutiny by politicians for their political as well as economic effects.

Republican leaders hope to make considerable political capital out of discontent over low farm prices and crop surpluses which has been expressed in various quarters. They are making the Midwest farm belt one of the principal battlegrounds in the November election campaign.

Wallace himself is taking a hand in the Democratic campaign, having accepted invitations to speak in Iowa in behalf of Senator Guy Gillette. The secretary expressed the opinion Wednesday at his press conference that the present level of farm prices would not affect Gillette's contest against former Senator L. J. Dickinson, Republican.

Agriculture department officials say the prime causes of the reduced farm income are excessive crop yields and the business recession, which lowered consumer demand. Both of these conditions make for lower prices, and both occurred at a time when the present farm program was just getting well underway.

Higher Standards For Teachers Seen In Declining Enrollments

AUSTIN, Oct. 14. (AP) — Higher standards for school teachers will result from the gradually declining enrollment in Texas schools, department of education officials believe.

Officials said yesterday enrollment had decreased from 1,364,627 to 1,363,701 in 1937 and they expected a similar drop this year.

A department bulletin predicted that fewer students meant fewer teachers and advised teacher training colleges to give more attention to individuals.

Tax Rate Will Be Given Study

Thorough study of tax rate needs of Lubbock will be given at a special meeting of the city commission devoted almost solely to that purpose.

This was decided at the semi-monthly meeting of the commission Thursday afternoon when most time was required for transaction of routine business. Mayor Carl E. Slaton reported.

Already Discussed

That and other financial matters, however, already have been discussed in informal conferences, it was disclosed. Among matters to be decided when the commission meets again within the next few days according to city hall information, will be whether provision should be made in this year's tax rate to begin the repayment of the $750,000 in bonds voted last Sept. 6.

If such provision should be made, increase in the present tax rate of 75 cents on the $100 was regarded as likely. Otherwise, belief was that a continuation of the present rate will enable the city to meet current operating expenses which likely will be somewhat higher because of the city's continued rapid growth during the past year. Operating expenses of the city government last year totaled $230,079.

Finances Are Studied

Featuring Thursday's regular session of the commission was a bit of financial maneuvering in connection with the issuance of warrants to pay for a Diesel engine purchased more than a year ago from Nordberg Manufacturing company of Milwaukee and recently installed. Contract cost of the engine, which has increased capacity of the city power plant by approximately 25 per cent is $133,562, which the city is privileged to pay within 30 days with a 2 per cent discount, or by issuing warrants drawing 4 per cent annual interest to be paid out of operating expenses of the plant.

The commission voted to issue 4 per cent warrants which are payable serially over a period of two years. However, the warrants will be sold in Lubbock, and the money thus obtained will be paid to the manufacturer at once, thus obtaining for the city the 2 per cent discount amounting to $2,661.24. The warrants will remain in the hands of the Lubbock investors who will profit from the four per cent interest.

Final Action Deferred

Final action on an ordinance providing for the pavement of approximately 19 blocks of downtown alleys was deferred when a number of protests were filed. Objection was to the expense of brick paving with concrete base which was proposed for the work.

City Engineer Marlin R. Smith, jr., explained, however, that asphalt paving with caliche base, which can be done much cheaper on a street than is possible with bricks, is impractical in narrow alleys where all the compacting work must be done by hand. Even then, he added, the asphalt cannot be crushed into a surfacing of sufficient hardness to give any assurance of permanence.

Further consultation with owners of property bordering alleys proposed for pavement is scheduled before the ordinance is called up again, the mayor said.

Adopted, however, was a resolution accepting recently completed pavement on 24 blocks of streets. They are Ninth and Eighteenth from M to Q; 9th Fourteenth and Fifteenth from G to H, Tenth from L to Q, Seventh from T to College, V from Fourteenth to Sixteenth, and G from Thirteenth to Seventeenth.

Contractors' bonds of the following were approved: J. G. McKinnon, S. E. Holt, C. E. Ashford, C. W. Sawyer, U. W. Walkup and M. S. Gunn, general; W. C. Crossance, sub-general; and Stanley Lahners, signboard.

Attending the commissioner session, additional to the mayor, were Commissioners W. G. McMillan, J. A. Fortenberry, W. B. Price and Hub Jones; City Manager W. H. Rodgers; and City Attorney Durwood H. Bradley.

Rail Wage Cut Seen As Recovery Blow

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP) — Chairman Wheeler (D-Mont) of the senate interstate commerce committee testified today that a wage reduction in the railroad industry "would be a blow to our present recovery."

"I think the country as a whole would benefit if there were no cut," the Montanan told President Roosevelt's emergency fact-finding board which attempting to avert a nationwide strike voted by almost 1,000,000 workers against the 15 per cent wage reduction asked by the carriers.

Although he appeared as a witness for railroad brotherhoods who are opposing the reduction, Wheeler said he came not "as a partisan."

Wheeler said the railroad industry had gross revenues of more than $30,000,000,000 in the eight-year period 1930-37, a term that included severe depression and "moderate intake and a modest income."

He estimated that profits of the railway system, as a whole, in this same period amounted to about $275,000,000 or "about 19 cents out of every dollar take."

Even this year, the senator said, "The industry as a whole made a profit in every month except February."

Labor representatives earlier requested that rail management seek financial relief through government rehabilitation.

Americans. The United States gunboat Mindanao, with one French and five British war vessels, were bottled up in waters near Canton.

The Japanese consul here was understood to have warned all Japanese residents to be cautious regarding anti-Japanese feeling among Chinese residents of the colony. Japanese homes and businesses here were given special guards following a consular request for such protection.

The Central Chinese government was said to have decided on energetic assistance of the Kwangtung provincial troops estimated to number 500,000 to 1,000,000. It was rumored 10 Chinese divisions were en route from the Hankow front to Canton.

Dispatches from Canton this evening said Waichow was in flames after day-long bombings by Japanese planes. The number killed and wounded was estimated at more than 1,000.

From Swatow came reports that 10 Japanese transports with an escort of a cruiser and three destroyers had left that port. It was assumed the destination was either Bias bay or the Pearl river delta south of Canton. Aonther dispatch said the Japanese had made another landing of troops at a point 10 miles west of Kongkong.

Scurry Show Is Opened Today

(Special To The Journal)

SNYDER, Oct. 14.—With 13 community booths, 11 home demonstration exhibits, 38 4-H Club boys projects and many needlework projects, among early entries, Scurry County's Free Fall Products show opened here this morning.

E. J. Anderson, chairman of the central committee, stated Thursday original space of 45 stalls, the open pens for range cattle, and 10 pens for exhibit hogs had been more than doubled to care for increased entries.

Ellen Kleppe, food instructor, division of home economics, Texas Tech; W. L. Stangel, animal husbandry department, Texas Tech, judging livestock, and "Feather" Pritchard, Rotan, judging poultry, are the products show judges.

A highlight of the Friday and Saturday Products Show will be a continuous free entertainment program, under directorship of E. O. Wedgeworth of Fluvanna. Practically all county schools, radio entertainers, and local quartets will take part on the free program at the main auditorium.

Other Events Scheduled

The city and county jointly sponsored permanent fair ground auditorium construction. Besides educational exhibits by the Boy Scouts and Farm Security administration; a farm machinery parade; 45 coops of poultry and 80 pens of sheep and goats will be exhibited.

Department officials are: beef cattle, J. J. Koonsman, superintendent; dairy cattle, Bee Brooks, superintendent; sheep and goats, L. N. Perlman, superintendent; jacks, stallions, and colts, W. F. Mathis, superintendent; hogs, Edgar Wilson, superintendent; poultry department, Joe Merritt, superintendent; and farm crop exhibits, C. D. Franks, superintendent.

4-H and F. F. A. Boys, T. B. Hicks, superintendent; women's home industries exhibits, Mrs. Guy Stoker, superintendent; club girls, Mrs. Victor Longbotham; and flower show, Mrs. W. R. Bell.

This is the first time in county fair or exhibit history that all Scurry county communities have a booth or exhibit entry in the general show. Besides numerous ribbons, the Products Show awards committee will give away 10 prizes, ranging from boy and girl club playground sets to a $14 pressure cooker for the winning community booth.

County Agent Luke Ballard, Borden County Agent E. B. McLeroy, Miss Estella Rabel, V. A. Teacher C. Littlepage of Hobbs, and E. H. Lilly, secretary, Scurry County Chamber of Commerce, have been among the most ardent project pushers for the Products Show.

Everybody, apparently, took his turn at seeking the bills.

Bundrant conducted a search after being informed, thinking the money might have fallen into the soot box below. Not finding it, he dropped a piece of paper into the flue through the jail vent and it was wafted upward by the draft and high into the air over Lubbock.

Which, Bundrant explained, probably was what happened to the two $20 bank notes.

Police Judge Cites 'Hatreds Of Old World In Land Of Liberty'

IRVINGTON, N. J., Oct. 14. (AP)—A 9-year-old Jewish boy bore on his forearm today a crudely-shaped double swastika, carved into his flesh with a penknife by two older youths who, in the words of a police judge, "emulated in a land of liberty the hatreds of an old world."

Judge Thomas J. Holleran told the Jewish lad and his tormentors, a 14-year-old boy of German descent and a 17-year-old youth of Italian descent, the American flag "was a symbol of liberty and decency while the swastika was symbolic of bestiality and bullying."

The father of the Jewish boy, a federal employe attached to the internal revenue department, told the court his son came home crying Tuesday to tell how two boys seized and branded him as he was walking through a park near his home.

Probably the most serious earthquake in history occurred at Calcutta, India, on Oct. 11, 1737, when 300,000 persons were killed.

Raid On Public Health Cited

BALTIMORE, Oct. 14. (AP)—Henry L. Mencken, Baltimore editor, asserted today the way the medical profession gives free service to the feeble-minded approximates "a raid on public health."

Unable to make a scheduled address at a symposium on medical problems at Duke university at Durham, N. C., today, Mencken discussed medical problems in an interview and cited the free clinic of Johns Hopkins hospital here as an example.

Work Complimented

Complimenting the work of the medical staff in service to 1,000 poor daily as valuable "beyond computation," he added nevertheless, "the Johns Hopkins is the most brutally anti-social agency ever set up in Baltimore."

"The woman's clinic delivers about 1,400 babies a year in its own studios and about 500 more in the homes of their mothers. Its patients are about evenly divided between whites and blacks. Of the white mothers during a typical year 39.5 per cent were found to be (I quote) 'seriously defective and feeble minded' and of the colored mothers, 73.6 per cent.

Many Are Afflicted

"Of the whites, 39 per cent came from families known to be afflicted by alcoholism, mental aberrations or other impediments to normal living, and of the blacks 86.1 per cent.

"Finally, of the white women, 3.6 per cent had syphilis, and of the colored women 22.6 per cent.

"Imagine permitting such ghastly caricatures of humanity to reproduce their kind ad libitum, and not only permitting it, but even facilitating it.

"What sort of children do they beget? The answer is to be found in the records of the Johns Hopkins itself. The women who are being delivered of pathological specimens today are the daughters of pathological specimens who were delivered at the women's clinic 20 years ago. Twenty years hence their daughters will be back, ready with more syphilitic babies."

Technically Correct

Johns Hopkins hospital authorities refusing to be quoted by name, commented Mencken was "technically correct" and added his statements "might also apply to any of the large hospitals of any of the large cities of the country."

They made clear, however, that "this hospital, like other hospitals . . . was established for the purpose of caring for the sick of all classes."

Wide Range Of Activities Of Army Listed In Annual Report

Wide range of Salvation Army activities in Lubbock during the past year were listed in a report announced Thursday.

Capt. V. M. Van Sickle, local commandant, has prepared a list of some of the activities of the Lubbock corps the past year. These include: 2,288 transient men cared for with night's lodging, meals, etc; 916 women and children cared for; 4,124 meals served free; 2,561 garments distributed; 315 pair of shoes given; 311 families aided; 203 grocery orders given out; 64 sick persons cared for; 52 sewing classes held; 936 hours spent in visiting the sick and the poor; 174 open-air meetings held; 298 indoor meetings held.

The army distributes free baskets of groceries at Christmas time and does other work of that nature.

At present, due to the large number of transients here for cotton picking, many are calling on the army for assistance. Last Sunday, said Capt. Van Sickle, 46 persons were cared for, including 8 babies less than a year old.

Lodging is provided for transients, meals given and jobs sought when needed. During rainy weather in the fall, many unexpected calls for help are received.

Will Herr Hitler Go On March Again—This Time For Oil Supplies?

Rumania's Big Fields Eyed

BY PRESTON GROVER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 — The reason military experts expect Hitler to become dissatisfied with his present situation is—oil.

Careful computation of Germany's domestic oil production places it at an outside limit of 2,000,000 tons annually. In a war, that amount, even if available all at one time, would last Germany six to eight weeks. Military sources quoted from abroad estimate Germany's war time consumption would be 12,000,000 tons as a minimum and possibly 20,000,000 tons. At present Germany can buy from the United States and Mexico. In event of war with England those sources would be cut off by blockade. Then what?

That question explains why every German move is interpreted by military observers as directed toward gaining access to the Rumanian oil fields, one of the world's best. That field could not be cut off from Germany by the British navy.

Could Make It, But—

It is one of the sorrows of Central Europe that despite its wealth in iron, coal and food, it has almost no natural oil resources. There is little in Sudetenland, taken from Czechoslovakia. Germany has employed its most skilled scientists to make fuel oil from coal but has been only moderately successful. The fuel can be supplied but it would taken an army behind the lines to make fuel for an army in the field. The consumption of coal in making the oil would rob other industries almost equally important in war time.

Just how long Germany could continue to fight on without an adeuate supply of fuel oil is problematical. In the World war she got along very well for four years with her major supply sources cut off. Since then, motorization of armies has proceeded rapidly Germany's principal striking weapon, the air force, would be grounded without oil. And one of the disappointments of synthetic oil is that it is not satisfactory for airplanes.

A Reserve Horsepower

Consumption of oil in other motorized wings of the army is much greater even than in the air. Germany boasts of the fast striking power of her motorized armies. Yet its military chiefs have recognized the crippling possibilities of a shortage of oil by retaining a considerable body of horse cavalry and horse artillery.

Nothing much ever is said about this particular wing of the service. It is known among military men to be Germany's ace in the hole against a time when fuel no longer would be available and the fighting and hauling would have to be done with horses which could be fed from the countryside.

Access to the Rumanian oil fields would solve Germany's oil problem. Rumania ranks fourth among the great oil produing countries. It now produces 10,500,000 tons annually and could be expanded. It would be a long haul from Rumania to the western front or to a Russian front but the Danube provides a water route and railroads another.

The battle for the Rumanian oil fields might transfer the major war front far to the East. In that event, England and France would be hard pressed to defend them from capture—unless Russia should step in as an ally. And Russia seems to be cooling off toward France since the Czechoslovak affair.

Legend Of Billy The Kid Marches On; Symbols Of Death Found

CLARENDON, Oct. 14. (AP)—The legend of Billy the Kid marches on but a symbol of his sudden death was uncovered recently in remodeling the old Frank Collinson ranch house here.

Four posts which once supported a section of the long veranda of the Maxwell house at Old Fort Sumner wherein Billy the Kid was killed were found.

Frank Collinson, retired buffalo hunter, Indian fighter and acquaintance of Billy the Kid who now lives at El Paso said recently: "I bought the four posts from Pete Maxwell when the south veranda of the Mexwell home was repaired after the death of the kid. The posts were strong mountain timber and just the thing to pry freight wagons from bog holes. I used them in freighting from 1881 until I built my home in Clarendon six years later. Then I utilized the posts."

Billy the Kid passed between or by the four posts as he strode along the wide veranda to Pete Maxwell's bed room sixty seconds before a bullet from Pat Garrett's gun ended his spectacular career.

FDR Expected To Have Clear Track If Defense Budget Is Raised

Senators Are For Proposal

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Several senators have predicted that the troubled international situation would assure President Roosevelt a clear track in congress if he requests substantial increases in the national defense budget.

Senator King (D-Utah), who opposed the billion-dollar naval expansion program at the last session, said that in view of world conditions he now was inclined to support larger appropriations for both the navy and the army.

Increase Said Necessary

Mr. Roosevelt said this week a budget increase would be necessary to provide $150,000,000 for new warship construction next year.

Senator Borah (R-Ida) indicated he would continue his opposition to large naval expenditures, but said he had little hope congress would accept his view. Senator Townsend (R-Del) has predicted that most Republicans would support increases in defense appropriations.

Senator Truman (D-Mo) said he would not only vote for more funds for the navy, but would work for an "adequate appropriation for anti-aircraft guns and planes."

Sentiment In Favor

Congressional sentiment in favor of strengthening national defense was forecast also by Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo). Senator Pepper (D-Fla), recently back from Europe, said trouble conditions abroad had impressed on him a need for stronger defenses.

From another quarter came a proposal that the United States "earnestly consider" retaining the Philippines as a national defense measure instead of granting their independence in 1946.

Lieut. Ernest M. Eller, naval academy instructor, contended in the United States Naval institute proceedings that the islands might prove to be a source of strength rather than a weakness in event of a Pacific war.

University Of Texas Student Has New Use For Blanket Tax

AUSTIN, Oct. 14. (AP)—Paul Holland of New York, a University of Texas student, found a new use for his blanket tax receipt which admits students to athletic contests and other university events for one payment at the beginning of the school year.

Last summer he worked aboard ship and stopped in Norway for a visit, entering the country on his parents' citizenship papers.

Holland said U. S. imimgration officials at New York questioned his claim of American citizenship when he returned, but in a last-minute attempt to prevent being returned to Norway he pulled out last year's blanket tax receipt with his photograph attached.

The result, he said, is that he is back at the university this year.

State Has Gained $17,948,394 In Revenues From Liquor Taxes

AUSTIN, Oct. 14. (AP)—Beer and liquor industries and consumers paid the state of Texas $17,948,394 between Nov. 16, 1935 and Aug. 31, 1938, end of the last fiscal year.

Liquor Administrator Bert Ford reports the revenue was prorated as follows: $11,612,103 to the old age assistance fund, $4,468,816 to the available school fund, $331,201 to the general revenue fund and $3,015 to the state auditor's appropriation. Liquor administration costs for the period were $2,250,821 and fund balances of $282,435 made up the remainder of the grand total.

The liquor board began functioning on Nov. 16, 1935 and since that time 12,790 criminal complaints have ben filed by inspectors. Fines resulting from convictions totaled $514,550 all of which went to counties where convictions were obtained, Ford reports.

The number of immigrants permitted to enter Brazil each year may not exceed 2 per cent of the number of persons of that nationality admitted during the 50 years from 1884 to 1933.

Original Rails Of First Interurban In Texas Recently Taken Up; Event Recalls History Of Transportation Systems

(By The Associated Press)

SHERMAN, Oct. 14.—This summer some of the original rails of the first interurban electric railway in Texas, that between Denison and Sherman, were removed. The track was a part of the last inter-city electric railway in the state.

Although others sprang up after the Denison-Sherman road began operating May 1, 1901, all have yielded to competition from other transportation facilities.

The state's first "interurban" was operated by the Denison and Sherman Railway company, headed by J. P. Crearer, who with a brother came to Sherman from Canada and financed the venture. Fred H. Fitch was promoter.

The railway did a prosperous business in its early years, oldtimers recall. The company reconstructed a park at Woodlake between Sherman and Denison, where the power plant was located. Picnics and holiday celebrations were held there before the day of the automobile and large throngs rode the electric cars from both cities to the festivities.

Henry Morrison, now superintendent of an electric carline out of Tulsa, Okla., was the first superintendent, and the late E. H. Buckner of Sherman, construction foreman and later roadmaster. Luther Head of Sherman, now employed by the Frisco railroad, was motorman of the first car to transverse the road.

Purchased Properties

July 1, 1908, the Texas Traction company put into operation an electric railroad from Dallas to Sherman. This company purchased the properties of the Denison and Sherman company and in April, 1911, began through service from Denison to Dallas.

In 1912 the Texas Traction company began construction of an interurban line to Waco and another to Corsicana. About the same time the Dallas-Southern Traction company started a line to Waxahachie, but the line was purchased and completed by the Southern Traction company and through service from Dallas to Waco was started Oct. 12, 1913.

Companies Consolidated

Jan. 1, 1917, the Texas Traction company and the Southern Traction company were consolidated under the name of Texas Electric Railway company.

The late J. F. Strickland, one of the mainstays in the days of construction, was president of the new company until his death in 1921. He was succeeded by Jack Beall, former congressman from the Dallas district, who served until his death in February, 1929. Since then James P. Griffin, associated with the lines since 1905, has been president.

The lines comprise 230 miles of railway, from Denison to Dallas and from there to Corsicana and to Waco. The company also operates city buses in Sherman, Denison and Waco. Only passengers, mail and express were carried at first, but freight hauling was added in 1928.

GOPHERS TURN STUDENTS

MARSHALL, Oct. 14. (AP)—Pocket gophers have turned archeologists in Harrison county.

J. F. Lentz, amateur archeologist, uncovered an Indian urn at four feet in which the rodents had made their nest. University of Texas archeologists said the Caddo tribe made burials at this spot in 1500 A. D.

John Tarleton's Dean Of Men Is College Dance Band Leader

STEPHENVILLE, Oct. 14. (AP)—Is it proper for a college dean of men to direct the college jazz orchestra? Morton P. Brooks, dapper young dean at John Tarleton college, Stephenville, Texas, thinks it is.

For two years he has directed the college dance band. "SO" Brooks, as he is known to the 800 cadets who look to him for advice, has appeared with his dance band in many well known dance places in West Texas. To him the directing is a hobby, for he gives his share of the earnings to the student members of the organization.

"Many fine boys have financed their education by playing in college dance orchestras," said Dean Brooks. "As a rule," he added, "I have found the jazz musicians in my orchestras to be both studious and serious minded."

AFOL And CIO Peace Said Hopeless; Philosophies Are Different

Factions Split 3 Years Ago

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The withdrawal of both William Green and John L. Lewis from their posts, the opinion of many seasoned labor men, would not bring peace between the American Federation of Labor and the C. I. O.

Green and Lewis have been held apart by a personal feud of 20 years standing. However, this was not the edge which split organized labor three years ago this week.

Plan Was Worked Out

It began with an idea for industrial unions. Lewis and som associates believed something ought to be done about the 30-odd million odd workers who did not belong to labor unions. These workers were not craftsmen and did not fit into the craft unions of the A. F. of L. A plan was worked out for industrial unions.

The federation toyed with the idea. It considered a proposal for granting charters to federal unions, which were industrial unions under another name. But it did not do enough with the idea to suit the advocates of industrial unions. They joined with Lewis and created the C. I. O, now a powerful organization.

Began Whacking At Each Other

Green and Lewis began whacking away at each other. The C. I. O. pulled away from the federation. The hard feelings began to percolate down through the two organizations, to local unions.

The turn taken by government and labor laws injected another element into the dispute. Green and those who stand with him want labor left to play its own hand with industry.

Lewis represents another theory. He and his allies would like to line up government on the side of labor.

Thus, the differences are no longer the simple arguments of whether workers shall belong to industrial or craft unions. The A. F. of L. and the C. I. O. represent different philosophies.

REFUSED TO GO AROUND

ARGONNE, Wis. (AP)—Len Mallett was tired from his long hike so he lay down for a nap under a tree. He was awakened by a sharp blow in the stomach. Two game wardens approached. They explained they had flushed a gray timber wolf from the nearby woods and the animal had treaded on Mallett in making its getaway.

Industrial Index Hits New Peak In September

NEW YORK.—Industrial activity climbed to a new peak for the year during September, The Associated Press seasonally adjusted index advancing to 78.2 per cent of the 1929-30 average from 76.5 the previous month and compared with 103.2 last year.

Farmers And Home-Owners Said In More Hopeful Condition

NEW YORK, Oct. 14. (AP)—Farmers and home-owners, "largely because of favorable governmental policies, are in a stronger and more hopeful position in the nation's economic structure," the committee on debt adjustment of the Twentieth Century fund said in reporting on its study of the nation's mortgage problem.

The federal government, as a result of its extensive refinancing activities, now holds more than a third of all the nation's farm mortgages and nearly one-sixth of the urban home mortgages, the committee reported.

In the "violent readjustments" of the depression and recovery years since 1929, the committee said, the total farm and home mortgage debt shrunk more than 18 per cent to about $25,000,000,000 at the present time.

THEY DRILLED FOR OIL

WALDEN, Colo. (AP)—Nature has an excellent dry ice refrigerating plant five miles north of here but unless man can rid it of an oily odor he probably won't be able to use it.

An oil company, drilling for oil, struck a carbon dioxide gas field that will flow at the rate of 25,000,000 cubic feet a day. Dry ice is made from the gas. All efforts to rid the well of its oil content have failed and engineers said the oil odor prevents its use commercially.

Imports Varied At Texas Ports

(By The Associated Press)

UVALDE, Oct. 14.—Imports into the San Antonio customs district are varied and from many countries, with Mexico leading, Harry P. Hornby of Uvalde, U. S. Collector of customs, reports.

Mexico furnishes 103 commodities, ranging from peanuts to used automobiles and including zincs, antimony ore, cattle, cotton, hides, animal hair, leather, furs, limes, hat bodies, pecans, pineapples, fibres, garlic, tomatoes, shoes, tile, bricks, furniture and glassware.

Among other imports are: wood furniture, oil paintings, musical instruments and steel rope from Germany; table linens, wool cloth, shoes and whisky from England; whisky and jute bagging from Scotland; linen table damask and whisky from Ireland; Rhodes grass seed from Australia; decorated chinaware, cotton and rayon mixed goods, toys and tea from Japan; glassware and musical instruments from Czechoslovakia; flower seed, jewelry and diamonds from Holland; lace articles from Turkey; old coins and stamps from Switzerland; onion seed from the Canary islands; paper bags, cement, glass, iron, nails, pipe, rope, steel beams, cotton ties, barbed wire and church goods from Belgium; broccoli seed, marble monuments, church goods and statuary from Italy; padan hats and harvest hat bodies from Java; wrapper, filler and scrap tobacco from Cuba.

Western South Carolina farmers estimate that it costs them about twice as much to raise a mule colt as a yearling calf.

Seven-Story Fall Is Laughing Matter

Still not quite able to believe the miracle is Mrs. Mary Babyak, of New York, pictured holding her 14-months-old son Michael, who will probably go through life dubbed "Lucky Mike". The baby was playing on a bed in his home on the top floor of an apartment house. He plunged through an open window level with the bed and fell seven stories to the ground. Mrs. Babyak rushed downstairs to pick up, as she feared, his crushed and bleeding body. She got there in time to see him rise without a whimper and walk over to her. "Lucky Mike" and his mother are shown after the accident, whose total damage, thanks to a network of clotheslines that broke the baby fall, were abrasions on his head and wrist.

The Story So Far: Loving someone else, gently bred Judith Goodloe marries Reuben Oliver—self-made man and outsider—for his money, only to discover that his fortune is lost. But Judith's code insists that she stick to her marriage and follow Reuben to a dismal mining town, Fordney's Gulch, Nevada. Unfitted for poverty, there are times she hates Reuben bitterly, and he knows it. It is Thanksgiving, with nothing to be thankful for.

Chapter 23
Only Half Alive

A good quarrel would have cleared the atmosphere but they were so careful, so very careful to avoid even a remote hint of one. Perhaps neither could have told why they feared an eruption even while they longed for one that would rock the earth.

"Hurry and change, Reuben," Judith filled a bud vase with water, put the geranium in it and placed it in the center of the small table richly laid with damask, silver, crystal. "I'll keep the things warm until you're ready."

Despite their combined efforts it was not a festive meal. The disheartened turkey was quite tasteless from too long hours spent in a steamer. The cranberry jelly was leathery. The potatoes soggy—

While they were pretending to enjoy themselves Mrs. Kraus came bustling in with a platter of piping hot home cooked turkey. The skin was golden brown, the meat tender, juicy. The dressing and gravy savory dreams.

"If I could cook like that!" Judith envied.

"You could, if you tried hard enough," the woman told her. "The Row feels sorry for Mr. Oliver."

"Sorry?"

The woman nodded. "It ain't right for a man to have to do outside work and inside too, so when I saw him coming with a basket—"

The neighbors felt sorry—not for her—for Reuben! They felt sorry for Reuben—

"I'm afraid I wasn't cut out for a miner's wife," frigidly.

Mrs. Kraus agreed. "But the one sure way to keep your man always in the mine is to let your end down."

"Don't mind her," Reuben said when they returned to their interrupted meal. "This turkey is worth a few insults."

Judith tried valiantly to capture the holiday spirit, so did Reuben. They tried too hard. Perhaps that was why it eluded them.

They had so pitifully little in common. Judith tried to take an interest in Reuben's work, but she hated the mine, so did Reuben. He would have talked of their days in Maryland, but the subject always led to regrets and hurt feelings, so they spoke brightly of impersonal things.

"I had a letter from Jim," Reuben remembered suddenly and felt his pockets. "Left it in my other coat."

"What did he say?"

"Hugo's fine. Jim has been hunting with him a lot this autumn." He wanted to add that he hoped to send for Hugo soon, but planning for the future was taboo because Reuben visioned largely—a panorama of vast proportions. Some day he would buy back Five Chimneys—buy her sables, a yacht—When a man has no future the less he says about it the better, so Reuben banked the fires of his ambition deep within himself.

Sometimes sitting in the cluttered little room with Judith so near he could touch her, he knew a loneliness greater than any he had felt in the heart of the wilderness. If, for an hour, she would understand. If he could hear her laugh in the old spontaneous way.

He looked at her across the table with its lavish display of elegance so sadly out of place in the mean room. Perhaps he could find the right word—

"Judith"

She met his eyes and smiled absently. She was reminding herself that the easiest way was just to live for one day at a time; to feel nothing; want nothing; remember nothing—that was wisdom.

Self Pity

Winter set in in earnest. Snow. Wind. Blizzards. Sleet. Thaws. Reuben's wet muddy boots drying by the kitchen stove. The air filled with wood smoke, drying leather, stewing food—but at last Spring! Bringing a hint of beauty even to Fordney's Gulch with its mining shafts, its smoke.

The muddy pocket handkerchief of lawn sent out feeble shoots of grass. Judith planted petunias and nasturtiums close to the water pipe fence and bought a green window box. The plants made a brave effort to live. Flowers bloomed sparsely feebly, but before the pitiless summer sun and dry, searing heat withered, grew altogether discouraged—died.

Judith wilted too. Each day, when she had made the little house tody, she would lie on the uncomfortable Sheraton sofa in the crowded ugly living room—the slope roofed bedroom was too hot—and dream of the cool, high ceilinged rooms at Goodloe's Choice.

When the sun went down she sat on the doorstep and waited for Reuben. Sometimes the neighbor women came to chat with her. They were kind, friendly, generous. They thought Judith queer, stiff, unsociable.

"Will you go down the Gulch to the picnic with us next week, Mrs. Oliver?" another foreman's wife invited her cordially.

"Why—" Judith started to refuse. "I'll pack enough lunch for you," Mrs. Kraus offered. "You won't have to bother about that."

"I'll go, of course."

The wooded hollow where the picnic was held was shady. It would have been pleasant had not the smoke and smell of the mine hung over it. The lunch was delicious—homecooked ham, pickles, jelly cakes and what not. The women talked happily of their homes, their husbands, their children, their future, their past as happy women will. They asked Judith questions.

"From the South, aren't you?"

"From Maryland."

"My—that's a long way." Most of them had been born within a radius of 100 miles of the mine. "Was it a pretty place?"

"Pretty?" It only she could have told them of home as it was! But they would have thought she was bragging or lying.

At rare intervals when she stopped pitying herself, Judith thought of Rueben and pitied him too. Poor Reuben—working long hours in this fiendish heat. She remembered the cars he had driven, the yacht he had sailed, the money he had handled, the power, of a sort, he had wielded. Yes, it was hard for Reuben too.

Mysterious Process

Soon he would be coming home, tired, dirty. There wouldn't be enough hot water—She had left one kettle filled on the back of the stove—There never was enough hot water. Never enough room, nor air. Never enough of anything except discomfort, dirt, work—endless work.

It was the dishes with streaks of egg gummed to them that made Judith wish she were dead. Perhaps she would die—she hoped she would when the baby was born. She looked forward to going to the hospital with something akin to delight. There would be plenty of hot water there. Smooth flat beds. No dirty dishes—

She and Reuben never spoke of the coming child. He longed to speak of it, but the sheer miracle of it tied his tongue. His son! Another Reuben Oliver! It was up to him to make good now—a little lad had to be proud of his daddy—He made happy solitary plans.

Resentful, confused, fearful—Judith would sometimes think of the child that would soon be hers with a great, rending pity—not a Goodloe, an Oliver—born to squalor, struggle, to everything that was unlovely and ahen. Poor little tad! Horrible to think of—impossible to speak of. When she learned there were to be two children—Well!

Into a breathless, humid July night Judith's twins—a boy and a girl—were born.

White, shiny, slippery walls. Bright lights making circles upon them. White hurrying figures. Low babble of voices.

Confused, broken, Judith wondered if all women felt as she did. Was it all a lie this rant about maternal love being the greatest thing in the world? She looked at the pink, scowling faces of her children, at their wavering, tight-fisted little hands with distaste.

"This young lady is exactly like her daddy," the nurse said.

Judith closed hot eyes. She knew she should say something in Reuben's defense. Reuben didn't have a puffish lump for a nose, a wrinkled chin or squint eyes. Most people thought Reuben handsome. She was too tired to argue about it. If this woman in white wanted to say the girl baby looked like Reuben let her go ahead. She felt disappointed, cheated because she could not love even her own babies, but the first time she heard one of the pink mites sneeze Judith, who had never known fear, almost died of it. "Nurse—she's choking, dying!"

"Talcum powder up her nose," the nurse said easily, but it was a half hour before Judith knew a blessed, tearful peace while deep within her, by a mysterious process, was born such a love for these perfectly amazing, absurdly ugly, gorgeously beautiful bits of humanity that were flesh of her flesh!

They must have the finest and best of everything. If she had loved Goodloe's Choice before, she wanted it now — boxwood, land, house, all that it stood for—with a greed that frightened her. Wanted it for them! How safely a little girl could play inside the hedge! What gorgeous dream ships a little boy could launch on the meadow brook at home! Home! The word had taken on its full meaning.

SWITCHES UNCOVERED

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Razing the old Lincoln school building, workmen discovered a bundle of 35 switches hidden under a stairway that had been walled in when an addition was constructed 32 years ago. Miss Hazel Watkins, principal, said they were relics of the day when "lickin' and larnin'" went together.

THE CZECH-HUNGARIAN TROUBLE

Although outbreak of actual war between Hungary and Czechoslovakia as now threatened probably would not mean a general conflict, it would once more place the flame dangerously close to the powder barrel of Central Europe.

The flame would remain in that perilous position so long as the fighting continued, with every next instant holding the potentiality of an incident to plunge the world into bloodshed.

But the greater probability at the moment seems to be that if they fight, it will be a localized conflict of short duration in which others are not likely to become involved. That theorizing is supported by the trend of recent events when the major European powers seemingly were clinging to peace by slipping finger tips. The fact that war did not come then was reasonably convincing that none of the great powers believes itself ready for a major conflict. It was evident that all will strive to the utmost to avoid the test of war for a time at least.

This feeling of insecurity on the part of all probably would cause them to unite in quieting the menace should the Hungarians and Czechs become involved in a war threatening to spread into a world conflagration.

Hollywood Chit-Chat

BY ROBIN COONS
Associated Press Movie Editor

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 14.—Just when it looked as if the world had gone to pot, and the international goose was in it, hanging low, a little note plopped cheerily on this desk.

Mr. Mickey Mouse, the nite informed, was celebrating his tenth birthday with a few movin' pitchers, and would we—?

Well, I went. And now I know what's the matter with all the peace pacts that seem to crumble every time they bump into an argument. The trouble is they don't have a vital clause—a clause that would require contending parties, diplomats and generals and multicolor shirts alike, to sit through a series of Walt Disney shorts before they proceed with their bombing parties.

Walt showed us some of his new season's product, and it was a program to make you feel good. You feel good because here's one guy in this cockeyed world who's out after nothing more ambitious than to make you laugh and feel good.

• • •

Touching, Beautiful And Funny

If you want to be critical, I think you'll find "The Ugly Duckling" the prize offering among the new Disneys. This is the Disneyish interpretation of the Andersen fairy tale, and it's as touching as it is beautiful and funny.

"Goofy and Wilbur" introduces a new and distinguished character in the Disney menagerie. That's Wilbur, a versatile, dynamic and chipper little grasshopper who looks startlingly like Harry Langdon. Wilbur is Goofy's pal and aide in fishing. Wilbur skates across the water, lures the fish into a chase when winds up in Goofy's net. But Wilbur miscalculates once, and things look MIGHTY bad. If you don't fall for Wilbur you'd better see your doctor.

Donald Duck Again

The rambunctious Mr. Duck is with us again in "Donald's Lucky Day." Donald, the unsuspecting messenger boy, carries a time bomb—and the day is Friday the 13th. It's fast and funny, one of the raucous Donald's "triumphs."

"The Practical Pig" revives the famed porky trio which in 1933 brightened a depressed world. Two little pigs go swimming, but the third—the same who built his house of bricks—is busy on an ingenious lie detector. The Big Bad Wolf, disguised as a Lorelei with a song ("Frankie and Johnny") on her lips, nabs the foolish ones.

• • •

With Poetic Humor

"The Farmyard Symphony" offers country life with poetic humor—and romance, too, between the stately rooster and the beautiful white pullet. Also some grand opera as you've never heard it before.

Mickey Mouse is "The Brave Little Tailor," with Minnie as the Princess whose hand he wins after bagging the terrible giant. The catch (for Mickey) is that he is assigned to giant-killing through a misunderstanding. But you know Mickey. He comes through.

Mother Goose In Hollywood

"Mother Goose Goes Hollywood" is a hilarious procession of nursery rhymes portrayed by characters you might mistake for Katharine Hepburn, Hugh Herbert, Garbo, Ed G. Robinson et als, if you skipped the foreword about any resemblance to actual characters living or dead, etc. The Hepburnish Little Bo-Peep is perfect.

Walt took a drastic step in "Ferdinand the Bull." It's the first time he ever bought a current best-seller for filming. Naturally some people will be around saying, "But he changed the book!" He did, so slightly that you'll have to look closely to see where. I liked "Ferdinand" because Disney can do no wrong!

Price Of $3,080 Paid In 1921 For Angora Billie Still Stands

UVALDE, Oct. 14. (AP)—A price of $3,080 paid for an Angora billie, the highest ever paid in this country, has stood for 17 years.

The record price was paid for "Congressman Hudspeth" to the late John Ward, pioneer Sonora breeder, by Bob Davis, nationally known breeder and county judge-elect of Uvalde county, in an auction sale during the annual convention of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' association at Del Rio in June, 1921.

The billie was named in honor of Claude B. Hudspeth, Crockett county ranchman who represented the West Texas district in congress for many years. At the time of the sale, the Billie wore a 25-pound fleece that measured 26 inches in length. Ward bought the fleece, later sorting and shipping it to a New York wig maker for $345.

TO FILM GRID GAMES

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—The University of Oklahoma football team will find itself in the movies this fall. University officials have made arrangements to have movies taken of each game; and the pictures will be shown in 34 Oklahoma cities and towns. They will have sound accompaniment.

Milk, fish, soy beans and meat are raw materials from which four different kinds of new synthetic fabrics are being developed.

Lovable Jim Farley Eliminates Himself As A 1940 Presidential Possibility, Dutcher Says

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 — Jim Farley, in the opinion of competent observers and many of his friends, has eliminated himself from serious consideration as a presidential possibility in 1940.

He missed the boat when he failed to ask for the Democratic nomination for governor of New York which he could have had easily. His decision was deliberate, for he had pondered long and many politicians weren't sure until Governor Lehman had actually said he would run again that Farley wouldn't be chosen the party nominee to oppose Republican District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey.

• • •

Knows The Score

Farley knows how things go in politics. Parties make presidential nominees out of governors, senators and even cabinet members. But they don't choose postmasters-general, fellows associated in the popular mind with the more sordid phases of politics because they run the patronage pie-counter. A New York governor usually is a step from the White House. Farley, however, apparently shared prevalent belief that only Lehman or Senator Wagner could beat Dewey this year. Last reports that he considered running died after it became sure Dewey would accede to a Republican draft movement.

Press Huddles Rare

Farley's friends all believe his popularity has increased since he failed to join in the "purge"—except in the abortive effort to beat Senator Tydings in Maryland. Certainly his press conferences are the most popular in Washington—and rarest — as was proved the other day when he had his first in eight months. He hadn't wanted to be on the spot during the primaries.

His press conferences are remarkably frank. Most of what he says is "off the record." More than any other public official he trusts newspaper correspondents to respect confidences. They do. The big published story after his recent conference was his promise speaking for the Democratic National committee of which he is chairman, to support all Democratic nominees. But the capital's top-flight correspondents gathered a lot of "background" a ut Jim's views and his inside information on political events and prospects.

Jim sits under a full life-size painting of Benjamin Franklin. Both men wear brown and have high foreheads. There resemblance ends. . . . Five fountain pens rear before Farley: Two hold green ink, three black. "No red ink here!" Farley insists. . . . He likes to reply to questions with pleasant wise-cracks, get a laugh and then start answering "But seriously —" . . . Did he know people already were calling the truck which may carry a million-dollar Post Office stamp exhibit around the country "Farley's Phaeton?" "Really?" asked Jim. "Well, just so long as they mention my name!" . . . "Can you hold those 27 seats in Pennsylvania?" "I don't know. I haven't talk with Joe Guffey lately." . . . How about probable congressional gains and losses? "I don't know. I don't want to ad anything." . . . He told how Da O'Connell, pudgy, practical up state New York politician, had sa on a bed and pleaded with Leh man: "Remember the great sacri fice Washington made at Valle Forge!" . . . And to several ques tions "Lord Jim" answered: never attempt to speak for anyo else but myself and the Demo cratic National committee. I won discuss what the President likely to do."

Overages Are Oil Headache

AUSTIN, Oct. 14.—Pipeline oil overages—accumulations in excess of allowables resulting mainly from humanly imperfect tank measurements—are something of a headache to the Railroad commission which regulates the oil industry.

Some independent producers are claiming the commission is more or less inadvertantly permitting several major companies to move the overages into trade channels in that the oil becomes "lost" in vast pipeline systems.

Means Many Barrels

The overages, as explained in a recent hearing, occur sometimes because persons who read tank gauges cannot measure perfectly with their eyes the actual level of oil in tanks to infinitestimate fractions of an inch. The fractions, it is said, might mean many barrels of oil in large storage tanks.

It also was pointed out tank bottoms often are uneven and while their average depth can be determined it is not always absolutely accurate. This causes differences in amounts recorded from actual volume however, only if the tank is drained.

Amounts To 175,000 Barrels

East Texas commission employes testified a total of 175,000 barrels overage on nearly 115,000,000 handled, or thirteen hundredths of one per cent, had accrued there since the commission ceased issuing tender on such oil in August, 1936.

V. E. Cottingham, the commission's chief engineer, suggested some discrepancies in reports on oil movements to the commission might be caused by changes in temperatures causing expansion and contraction in storage tanks and pipelines.

John G. Schroeder of Longview added differences also could occur in measurement of volume in gravity lines, errors in strappage tables and other kinds of miscalculation.

Weekly attendance at moving picture theaters in the United States rose from 60,000,000 in 1932 and 1933 to 70,000,000 in 1934 and 80,000,000 in 1935.

Mountain Folk Swear By 'Tweetsie'; It Is A Railroad That Runs Their Errands

BOONE, N. C., Oct. 14. (AP)—The mountain folk swear by "Tweetsie," a little narrow-gauge railway winding along among the coves and crags on a 66-mile route between here and Johnson City, Tenn.

The engineer has been on the job 35 years, the conductor, 32. They think nothing of stopping the train in front of a mile-high cabin, picking up children and delivering them safely to the home of a relative down the track, while the conductor often shops in town for an isolated housewife or farmer. Then the train stops in front of a farm home for the specific purpose of delivering a spool of thread or a length of wire.

The little train with its huff, puff locomotive will stop anywhere, any time. Its whistle, ringing shrilly through the mountains, is more for greeting than warning.

The formal name of this folksy railroad is the Eastern Tennessee and Western North Carolina railway, but you could not tell the mountain people it is anything but "Tweetsie," the title they gave it 52 years ago.

PLAN FALL CEREMONIAL

DALLAS, Oct. 14. (AP)—Hella Temple ancient Arabic order of the mystic shrine, of Dallas announces its fall ceremonial session for Oct. 28. There will be a street parade at 3:30 p. m. preceding the ritualistic and ceremonial sessions at Scottish Rite Temple. George R. Jordan, illustrious potentate of Hella and John L. DeGrazier will be head of the committee in charge of out-of-town visitors.
