Annual Dairy Day Here June 6th

Rodeo Trade Trippers To Visit Twenty-Two Towns

Will Leave City At 7:30 Each Morning Of Trips

All Trippers Asked To Don Proper Rodeo Attire On Trips And Around Town

Next Thursday and Friday will possibly see the largest motorcade to ever leave Lamesa, go for a visit to neighboring towns, advertising the Fourth Annual Rodeo which will be held in Lamesa on June 10-11.

Those in charge of the motorcade are asking that everyone who will to gather at the City Hall on South First Street at 7 a. m. with the departure scheduled at 7:30.

The first day's trip will see the caravan visiting O'Donnell, Tahoka, Post, Wilson, Slaton, Lubbock, Ropesville, Meadow, Brownfield, Seagraves and Seminole.

The schedule for Thursday is Gall, Snyder, Colorado City, Westbrook, Coahoma, Big Spring, Stanton, Midland, Odessa, Andrews and Seminole.

The schedule calls for the completion of the trip early in the afternoon of each day.

Everyone is asked to wear appropriate rodeo paraphernalia on the trips, as well as around Lamesa to help advertise the Rodeo.

"In the past most stores have had representatives on these motorcades and we sincerely hope that they will do so again this year," a spokesman stated this week. "The larger the crowd on these trips, the better the advertising will be."

Sam Cates and Rufus Pruitt have charge of the trips and arrangements for it. They will be glad to supply you with what ever information you may desire in connection with either day's schedule.

Advance indications are that this will top all previous attempts for this sort of entertainment in Lamesa.

Courier Will Issue Rodeo Special Monday; Trippers To Distribute Extra Copies

Thousands Of Extra Copies Of Paper Will Be Distributed In Neighboring Towns Of Section

Next Monday the Courier will issue a special Rodeo Edition which not only will be mailed to every regular subscriber, but several thousand extra copies will be printed to be taken on the motorcade Wednesday and Thursday, for distribution in the towns visited.

The edition will carry complete information on the different forms of entertainment being provided for the people of this section, as well as invitations to visit the Rodeo from various business firms of the city.

The Courier advertising staff will attempt to contact every firm in the town to give them the opportunity of having an invitation in this issue and would appreciate the co-operation of every firm in the town, not only in carrying an ad, but in getting the copy for it in as early as possible.

This additional circulation will not cost the advertiser any extra rate, but is the Courier's contribution toward the publicity for the Fourth Annual Rodeo in Lamesa. It has been suggested that people in other towns who receive a complete newspaper instead of possibly a circular or other advertising matter, will be more likely to take it home with them and read the contents.

Remember the time is next Monday, June 2.

Wheat Growers Are Urged To Vote On Saturday

All eligible wheat growers should vote in the Referendum on Wheat Marketing Quotas to be held Saturday, May 31, 1941, in the Dawson County AAA Office. Each farmer engaged in the production of wheat for harvest in 1941 on a farm on which the normal production of the acreage planted to wheat of the current crop is 200 bushels or more, who is entitled to share in the proceeds of the 1941 wheat crop as owner, landlord, tenant or sharecropper is eligible to vote.

This referendum is called in accordance with the AAA Act of 1938 which requires that a marketing quota referendum be held when the total supply of wheat exceeds by more than 35 per cent the normal years domestic consumption and exports. One and one-quarter billion bushels of wheat, enough to last the country two years without growing a kernel, that's how much wheat America has in sight.

The reason for placing a minimum wheat production as an eligibility requirement is that all farmers producing under 200 bushels will not be affected by the quotas.

The National Machine Tool Builders Association predicts the industry's production this year will total 750 million dollars.

The levee system of the Mississippi is some 500 miles longer than the great wall of China.

Red Cross To Stage Style Show Of Garments At Band Concert Tuesday

The Dawson Chapter of the American Red Cross will hold a style show, exhibiting the garments made by the local chapter, shown on Lamesa, and Dawson County girls.

The show will be held next Tuesday evening in connection with the regular band concert on the court house lawn. The program is scheduled to start about 8 p. m.

June 1, ends the present period and these garments will be shipped to National Red Cross headquarters for transportation to foreign countries. The women who are responsible for the making of these garments are proud of their labors and want to show the entire citizenship what they have accomplished without remuneration.

Mrs. Louis B. Reed, who is in charge of this phase of the Red Cross activity here, urges the entire citizenship to attend this style show and see the wonderful work accomplished by scores of women who have unselfishly participated.

Native?

No, this is the Rev. Homer T. Goodwin, returned missionary from Gold Coast, British West Africa, and who is now conducting a revival meeting at the Assembly of God Church here in Lamesa. A good interest has been manifested in all services. Friday night, May 30th, will be a special Missionary service when Rev. Goodwin will appear in native costume, and tell about his work and experiences among the heathen people of Gold Coast, West Africa.

Tuesday nights service was given to the Christ's Ambassadors organization of this section. Rev. Fred Ball, District President and Rev. Scott F. Mitchell, sectional representative were present. Eight churches were represented by the young people of their Christ's Ambassadors bands.

The revival meeting will continue until June the eighth. The public is cordially invited to attend and hear the special singing and the inspirational and prophetic messages. Services begin each evening at 8:15 p. m.

White And Black Teams To Play Here On Sunday

Next Sunday afternoon will see the pick of the colored baseball players of the entire South Plains pitting their skill against Bailey White's Rinkydinks at the Lobe Field, beginning at 3 p. m.

The Rinkydinks have been gathered from the rank and file of Dawson County ball players, some old some young. They have played several games with amateur teams over this section and have quite a formidable aggregation.

The colored boys have issued a challenge to the Rinkydinks, and have been scouting the bushes of the South Plains for talent during the past several days.

Wheat Will Get 85 Per Cent Parity Loan

Information has just been received in the Dawson County AAA Office that amendments to the AAA Act providing 85 per cent parity loans and amending wheat marketing provisions have become law.

This action makes it all the more important that every wheat producer be informed as to the importance of the referendum vote on Wheat Saturday, May 31. Very few Dawson County farmers are eligible to vote but these few should all vote.

Wheat producers having 15 acres or less are not affected by the marketing quota. Wheat loans will be available if the wheat quotas carry. Penalty wheat will be the excess acreage times the normal yield or the actual yield whichever is the smaller. The penalty will be one-half of the loan rate instead of 15 cents per bushel. Producers of excess wheat may get a loan only on 80 per cent of loan rates on the excess.

Many People Continue Subscribing For Courier

Bargain Days Prove Attractive To Large Number

Paper May Be Purchased For $1.00 A Year In This Or Adjoining Counties

Last week saw the greatest response to the Courier's Big Two For One Bargain Days, of any period since they were announced.

With scores of people subscribing or renewing, the publishers of this newspaper point with pride to the fact that the people are buying the Courier because they want it, and not because pressure is being put on them from some contestant who hopes to win an elaborate prize.

Some newspapers put on contests wherein the contestants are offered automobiles, radios, or other prizes to secure subscriptions to the paper. This is usually accomplished with the aid of some high-powered out-of-town promoter, who secures a nice percentage of the money collected.

The Courier has felt that it is better to divide this savings with the subscriber, by offering the paper at a lower rate for short periods, without offering premiums to only a few. The fact that such a large number have already subscribed or renewed, is significant of the fact that this is appreciated by the general public.

During these Bargain Days, if you live in Dawson or adjacent counties, you can get the twice-a-week paper a fully year for only One Dollar, which means that the paper will cost you less than one cent per copy.

Besides carrying the news of the city, county and the individual communities of the county, information from the various government agencies, news of the schools and churches. Associated Press feature stories, the Courier carries in every issue the bargains of the times from the merchants of Lamesa.

Many subscribers report this fact alone, enables them to save enough in one week, by shopping the ads, to pay a year's subscription to the paper.

This offer is for a limited time only, and all delinquent subscribers will be dropped from the list. So, don't miss a copy, renew now.

Richardson Joins Ben Franklin Group Of Stores

Announcement is made this week by Sam Richardson of his association with the Ben Franklin Organization of more than 2,800 modern independent stores throughout the United States.

"Through this Association, we will buy merchandise direct from the manufacturer, affording us the opportunity of giving our customers the best values obtainable anywhere," Mr. Richardson said.

The Ben Franklin Stores are operated with the most modern methods, known to modern day variety stores.

A. C. Ramsey and Mr. Tisbale, store superintendents, are in the Richardson store this week, rearranging the stock and fixtures to meet the specifications set up by the organization.

Next Monday Is Dollar Day In Lamesa With Scores Of Bargains Being Featured

Next Monday brings another Dollar Day event to Lamesa with many of the stores of Lamesa offering some rare and unusual specials, many of which will be found in this issue of the Courier.

This monthly feature which Lamesa merchants have been sponsoring for the past several months is gaining popularity with the citizens of this entire area and each succeeding First Monday has seen

Special Acts By Famous Rodeo Team Is Added Attraction To Rodeo Here

A special added attraction for the Fourth Annual Rodeo was announced this week by Bill Boyd, president of the association.

Weaver and Juanita Gray, will give three acts of high class Western entertainment at each performance, consisting of trick and fancy roping, trick and fancy riding and an act of educated horses.

The Grays have performed at some of the largest round-ups and rodeos in the country, and their act alone is reported as well worth the price of admission.

"But for the fact that the Grays are making a hop from Corsicana to a northern point, and had a few days idle, we would not have secured such an act for Lamesa," Boyd, stated. "It was a fortunate circumstance for us that our Rodeo dates coincided with their idle time."

The Grays have played such outstanding Rodeos as Cheyenne, Wyoming Round-Up; Billings, Montana; Chandler, Arizona, and other top-notch shows the country over.

Merchants Handling Cotton Called In Special Meet Next Thursday Afternoon

Meeting Will Be Held At Court House At 2:30 For Purpose Of Discussing Cotton Stamp Plan

A meeting of all merchants selling cotton goods and interested in the 1941 Cotton Stamp Plan has been called by B. J. Baskin, County Agent. This meeting will be held in the District Courtroom at 2:30 p. m., Thursday, June 5.

"We are indeed fortunate in securing Mr. Tom Bolton, District Supervisor of the Surplus Marketing Administration, to attend this meeting. Mr. Bolton will discuss each phase of the Cotton Stamp Plan as it affects the merchant, and he will be open to questions during the meeting. I am sorry that this is not an open meeting. It is strictly a meeting for the merchants of the county that do intend to co-operate in the Cotton Stamp Plan in the sale of Cotton goods, the County Land Use Planning Committee, and the personnel that will handle the stamps. At later dates community meetings will be held to discuss the Cotton Stamp Plan with the producer," stated Mr. Baskin.

"However, it is important that each merchant who intends to cooperate be present. I am sure that the information he will secure from Mr. Bolton will be correct."

Mr. K. J. Edwards, District Agent of Extension District 2, will also attend this meeting.

Raymond Johns To Attend Meet Of CC Managers

Raymond Lee Johns, Secretary of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce is leaving Sunday for the 35th Annual Meeting of the Texas Chamber of Commerce Managers Convention School.

This school will be held this year in San Antonio, and will last for three days, June 2-3-4.

At this school Mr. Johns will be associated for three days with more than 150 managers of other commercial bodies in Texas.

Mr. Homer St. Clair, President of the Chamber of Commerce, is enthusiastic over the fact that Secretary Johns will have the opportunity of not only becoming better acquainted with the 150 outstanding representatives of as many different cities throughout Texas, but he will also have the opportunity of studying the merits of many new ideas affecting present day problems which only the Chamber of Commerce can handle in each community.

During this three day Convention School, Mr. Johns will give seven hours a day to the intensive

Lutheran Bible School To Open Monday Morning

Everything is in readiness for the opening of the daily Vacation Bible School which will be conducted at the Lutheran Church at the corner of South 5th and Katherine Street, beginning at 8:30 a. m. Monday, June 2nd, according to a statement made by Rev. Theo. F. Sager, pastor of the Church.

The school will last for two weeks and will run from 8:30 to 11:30 each morning, except Saturdays and Sundays. Awards will be given for perfect attendance, Sager said.

Rev. and Mrs. Sager will conduct the school. Children between the ages of four and 14 are urged to attend.

"We invite the parents to visit the School at any time, and see what we are doing," Rev. Sager stated Wednesday.

Cotton Seed Sold With Classified

Last week L. C. Burkhardt, who lives six miles south and two miles west of Lamesa, advertised through the Courier Classified Columns, some cotton seed he had for sale.

He was in the office early Tuesday morning and stated that he had a complete sell-out of seed and could have sold a great deal more. The ad ran only one week.

The above results substantiate the claim that classified ads in the Courier are read and get results. Mr. Burkhardt spent only a few pennies to sell all the cotton seed he had.

Maybe you don't have any cotton seed to sell, but it is highly possible that you do have something to sell or some information you would like to tell a whole lot of people. If you do, then a Courier Classified is the answer to your problem.

Every week sees more and more people relying on the Courier Classified columns to buy, sell, rent, find lost articles, or a host of other things.

Remember the offer of two ads for the price of one is still effective. In other words, a Courier Classified runs in both the Monday and the Thursday issues, at the price you would expect to pay for one time.

Read and use the Courier Classified Section for profit.

Mrs. Ella M. Wade Is Winner Of Letter Contest For The Week

Mrs. Ella M. Wade, Route A, Lamesa, is the winner this week in the Courier Letter Writing Contest, and her check for $1.00 has been mailed to her by the Courier. Her letter has also been entered in the contest to determine the Grand Prize Winners at the end of the contest.

The winners in this final contest will be awarded $20.00 and $10.00 respectively for the first and second place winners.

If you entered this week and failed to win, just remember that another contest is open now and next Thursday another winner will be announced. So sit down and write that short letter. Next week you may be the winner. If you haven't entered the contest before, get your entry in now for next week's contest. Complete details and rules for this simple and easy contest are given below.

Here is the entry submitted by Mrs. Wade, which was adjudged the best this week:

The wise merchants advertising through its columns save my energy, time and money shopping. I am glad of the opportunity to renew my subscription to the Courier."

Readers of this newspaper will be $40.00 richer as the result of this unique contest, which opens this week. Ten readers are going to be awarded $1.00 each and two out of that ten are going to receive larger awards. One will receive, in addition to the $1.00, a cash award of $20.00 and another will receive an additional $10.00 in cash, above the $1.00 mentioned above. Complete information as to how to win is given below.

The Courier will offer a Cash Award each week of $1.00, with a Grand Prize of $20.00 in cash and a second prize of $10.00 in cash for the best letters on "I Like the Twice-A-Week Courier Because" or "I Like to Shop in Lamesa Because..."

Just write a short letter of not more than fifty words on either of the above subjects and bring or mail your entry to the Courier, Lamesa. All entries for each week must be in the office by not later than noon Wednesday to compete in that week's awards. The campaign will be conducted for ten weeks, and the weekly winners will be judged for Final Grand Prize at the end of the contest. In case of ties, duplicate awards will be given.

Remember, there is no catch, no fancy writing necessary, just sound plain reasons why you like the First of the Week Courier, or why you like to shop in Lamesa, may win you $1.00, as well as the $20.00 or the $10.00.

You may enter the contest every week, and remember, if at first you do not win, don't give up, yours may be the winner next week or the next.

The letters will be judged solely on the reasons given and the decisions of the judges are final. All entries become the property of the Dawson County Courier.

So get your pencil and paper out now. Enter this easy contest. It is open to every reader of the Courier and you have just as good an opportunity to win as anyone. But you can't possibly win unless you enter, so don't wait, get your entry in now.

Home Building Week Be Observed Opening Sunday

Plans for local observance of Texas Home Building Week are complete and construction is virtually finished on the exhibit home which will focus this city's attention during the week of June 1, according to an announcement made here today by Higginbotham-Bartlett Co.

A state-wide radio broadcast, beginning at 2:45 o'clock Sunday afternoon will inaugurate the week's activities, which will be highlighted by a formal showing of "Texan" homes in more than 140 Texas cities and towns.

Actual opening of the homes will occur during the broadcast. Deputy Federal Housing Administrator, L. M. Watts, of Washington, will speak briefly on the state's housing program and then will declare the homes ready for formal showing. He will speak from Dallas where the Texas Home Building Week broadcast will originate.

Quite apart from its importance as a demonstration to the entire nation of co-ordinated effort in the development of modern, low-cost homes, Texas Home Building Week will bring home to the potential home buyer group here, the fact that fine, modern, small homes are within easy reach of average income and that these homes are the most striking examples of good design and construction.

All homes described as "Texans" are eligible as security for F. H. A. insured mortgages and may be paid for at less than a dollar a day on the F. H. A. plan.

Mr. Norman announced that their exhibit home here will be furnished to entice its appeal and to give home buyers a view of the home as it will be when ready for occupancy. Officials of the company will be on hand to answer questions regarding design and construction of the home and to aid those home buyers who are seeking information in connection with the insured mortgage plan of home financing.

FROM THE 1940 ANNUAL REPORT
"The wide public acceptance of Phillips products is reflected in an unbroken record of increased sales each year since marketing activities began in 1927. During 1940, total sales of finished products amounted to 1,174,000,000 gallons. The increase of 66,000,000 gallons over 1939 volumes represented a greater percentage gain than for the industry as a whole."
K. S. ADAMS President
FRANK PHILLIPS Chairman

Off the Beaten Path

In 1927, only an idea... today, sales of more than a billion gallons a year. In 1927, Phillips 66 was the name of an innovation in motor fuel, a gasoline off the beaten path. Today, 66 million is the 1940 increase in gallons over the sales for 1939.

From the beginning, Phillips has devoted itself to producing and delivering "greater value for the money." From the beginning, Phillips has never hesitated to step from the beaten path in search of any product improvement which might give finer performance or money savings to motorists.

A company, and a product, which have grown so swiftly in so short a time must have supplied special benefits to car owners, must have given extra value to win such rapid recognition.

First to offer high test gasoline at the price of ordinary motor fuel... first to match gasoline to weather... first to offer at all its stations the extra-powered gasoline resulting from the patented POLYMERIZATION process... Phillips is a leader in research, ready at all times to leave the beaten path to make Phillips 66 an unexcelled gasoline in its price class.

On this record, and on this determination, we sincerely believe today's summer-grade Phillips 66 Poly Gas merits a trial by every car owner. We invite you to stop for a trial tankful... at any Orange and Black 66 Shield.

Pres. Roosevelt Proclaims State Of Unlimited National Emergency Tuesday Night

By RICHARD L. TURNER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, May 27 — Proclaiming the existence of an "unlimited national emergency," President Roosevelt said tonight that the United States would do whatever may be necessary to assure the safe delivery of war supplies in England, and served notice that it would actively resist any effort by Hitler to gain control of the seas.

Bluntly he accused the fuhrer and his Axis partners of an intent to conquer the world and "strangle" the United States of America "as the war was coming very close to home," and warned that "we will not hesitate to use our armed forces to repel attack."

Talks With Congressional Leaders
These things, together with a re-assertion of "the ancient doctrine of freedom of the seas," were included in his long awaited "fireside chat," delivered from the glittering east room of the White House, before the entire diplomatic corps of the western hemisphere.

Previously he ran over the pertinent passages of his address with congressional leaders of both parties at an extraordinary White House meeting. Speaker Rayburn, who was among them, later told reporters that the address had his full approval, but that he could not speak for all who were present. These included the Republican Senate leader, Sen. McNary of Oregon and the chairmen of the House and Senate foreign affairs committees, Sen. George (D-Ga.) and Rep. Bloom (D-NY).

Then in his proclamation, the president predicated the declaration of a state of full emergency upon statements that:

"The objectives of the Axis belligerents 'include overthrowing through the world of existing democratic order, and a world-wide domination of peoples and economies through the destruction of all resistance on land, sea and in the air.'"

And that:

"Indifference on the part of the United States to the ever increasing menace would be perilous and common prudence requires that for the security of this nation and of

BRITONS LISTEN IN
London, Wed., May 28 (AP) — Hundreds of thousands of Britons gave up their sleep to listen to President Roosevelt's world broadcast proclaiming a state of unlimited national emergency in the United States and promising whatever may be necessary for safe delivery of war supplies to Britain.

There was no official comment because of the late hour and there was no indication that Prime Minister Winston Churchill listened.

In hotels and thousands of private homes, crowds gathered to listen to the fireside chat which had been anticipated more eagerly than any speech in years.

The crowds in one of London's biggest hotels applauded Mr. Roosevelt's reference to the 'epic resistance of Britain' and when he said 'we will not hesitate to use armed forces to repel attack,' this hemisphere we should pass from peacetime authorizations of military strength to such a basis as will enable us to cope instantly and decisively with any attempt at hostile encroachment of this hemisphere, or the establishment of any base for aggression against it, as well as to repel the threat of predatory incursion by foreign agents into our territory and society.

Plea To Manufacturers
Consequently, he continued, he was declaring the existence of an emergency which required that the nation's "military, naval, air and civilian defenses be put on the basis of readiness to repel any and all acts or threats of aggression directed toward any part of the western hemisphere."

To further the general objective he called upon manufacturers to give precedence to the products that the nation needs and "upon all our loyal workmen as well as employers to merge their lesser differences in the larger effort to insure the survival of the only kind of government which recognizes the rights of labor or of capital."

He referred to the labor problem in his speech as well.

No Excessive Profits
"This is no time," he said, "for capital to make, or be allowed to retain, excess profits. Articles of defense must have undisputed right of way in every industrial plant in the country."

"A nationwide machinery for conciliation and mediation of industrial disputes has been set up. That machinery must be used promptly—and without stoppage of work. Collective bargaining will be retained, but the American people expect that impartial recommendations of our government 'services will be followed both by capital and labor."

"The overwhelming majority of our citizens expect their government to see that the tools of defense are built; and for the very purpose of preserving the democratic safeguards of both labor and management, this government is determined to use all of its power to express the will of its people, and to prevent interference with the production of materials essential to our nation's security."

Forerunner of Convoys
His pledge that whatever may be necessary to get the goods to Britain would be undertaken — promptly construed in some quarters as a possible forerunner of a convoy system—was prefaced by a disclosure that the Germans were sinking merchant ships at a terrific pace—more than twice as fast as British and American shipyards can replace them.

He asked whether, in view of the world situation, the nation "should hesitate to take every single measure necessary to maintain our American liberty."

To this he added:

"Our people and our government will not hesitate to meet that challenge."

Doctrine Re-Proclaimed
"As the president of a united and determined people I say solemnly—"

"We reassert the ancient American doctrine of freedom of the seas."

"We reassert the solidarity of the 21 American republics and the Dominion of Canada in the preservation of the independence of the hemisphere."

"We have pledged material support to the other democracies of the world—and we will fulfill that pledge."

"We in the Americas will decide whether and when and where our American interests are attacked or our security threatened."

"We are placing our armed forces in strategic military positions."

"We will not hesitate to use our armed forces to repel attack."

Faith in God Reasserted
"We reassert our abiding faith in the vitality of our constitutional republic as a perpetual home of freedom, of tolerance, and of devotion to the word of God."

"Heretofore, with profound consciousness of my responsibilities to my countrymen and to my country's cause, I have tonight issued a proclamation that an unlimited national emergency exists and requires the strengthening of our defense to the extreme limit of our national power and authority."

Miss Guy Cope spent Sunday in Lubbock visiting with relatives.

Miss Retti Meek and Miss Jane Boone will leave Friday for Amarillo where they will spend the week-end visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Britt Poston left Tuesday for Waco to visit with relatives and friends for several days.

Females: Cows 3 year old and

Males: 2 years old and over; 1

In addition demonstrations in the adults and juniors alike, will be held. These judging contests will be of both dairy cattle and dairy pro-winning contestants.

The Dairy Day program will open at 10:00 a. m., Friday, June 6, and

The Philosophy Of The Red Man

This reminds us of the Oklahoma editor who published two pictures; one of a dilapidated house and the other of an eroded field. Then he asked his readers to participate in a
"You Write The Story" contest.
Here is the prize winning letter.

Maybe the Indian Was Right
"Both pictures show white man

"Indian no plow land. Keep grass.
