Heavy rains had sent a flash flood surging down the gulch into the Arkansas river, undermining the center supports so that the truck's weight broke down the span, near Canon City. (AP Wirephoto).

Pakistan Wants Membership In U. N. With India

LAKE SUCCESS, Aug. 13. (AP)—A representative of the provisional government of Pakistan contended today that the Moslem-dominated dominion in partitioned India should automatically become a member of the United Nations along with the dominion of India.

He said, however, that if Pakistan's view was incorrect, the new dominion would take appropriate action to fulfill an expressed desire to join the U. N.

These views were stated in a letter received this morning from O. A. Baig in Washington, who signed himself as representative to the United States from the Pakistan provisional government, which becomes a dominion Friday.

It was the first Pakistan reaction to a U. N. legal department opinion, approved yesterday by Secretary-General Trygve Lie, holding that India's U. N. membership would go to the Hindu-majority dominion of India and that Pakistan could apply for membership as a "new state."

Zoning Board Is Organized

A zoning adjustment board, composed of five members, was set up in accordance with the zoning ordinance at Tuesday's meeting of the Big Spring city commission.

Hereafter, the adjustment board will serve as a clearing agency for any problems that develop concerning the zoning ordinance.

R. L. Cook, Jimmy Beale and Dr. Lee Rogers were named to serve on the board for terms of one year, while H. E. Clay and J. E. Collins were named to two-year terms. In the future all appointments will be for two-year terms.

Commissioners also accepted as completed paving projects on West 16th and West 17th streets and discussed tentative plans for other paving work.

An ordinance was passed repealing the quarterly payment plan for city taxes. The new measure leaves the semi-annual payment plan in effect however.

CIO Demands Price Parley

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—The CIO, contending the price situation demands further action than a justice department investigation, renewed today a request that President Truman call an industry-government-labor conference to seek voluntary price reductions.

Emil Rieve, chairman of the labor organization's full employment committee, said in a statement that the CIO welcomes Attorney General Clark's announcement that an investigation of high prices will be made.

"But many prices are set by large monopolies and monopolies do not necessarily fall under the criminal law and Clark's investigation," he added.

"For example, in the automobile industry, General Motors controls probably 60 percent of the business and therefore is able to dictate prices."

Illegal Immigrants Arrested In Texas

DALLAS, Aug. 13. (AP)—In a sweep through North Texas, a special detail of four border patrolmen from the Rio Grande have arrested 36 Mexicans who had entered this country illegally, according to W. C. Young, in charge of the Dallas bureau of immigration and naturalization.

Close Watch Kept On Tropical Storm

By The Associated Press

A close watch was being kept along the Texas coast today as a tropical storm moved across the Gulf of Mexico after lashing Yucatan peninsula last night.

The U. S. Weather Bureau in New Orleans said the storm probably would increase in intensity as it moves over the gulf toward the northwest.

Winds of about 50 miles an hour were reported in a small area at the center, with squalls extending out 200 miles north and east of the center.

Texas coastal residents were warned by weather officials at Houston to remain on the alert although the latest report was that the blow probably would miss the state.

The storm was headed toward a point somewhat north of Tampico, Mexico, but tropical storms usually are subject to wide change of direction.

Meanwhile, East Texas forest fire fighters were hoping for a general rain to quell blazes that have ravaged more than 137,000 acres of state timberland so far this year.

J. O. Burnside, fire control chief for Texas A. and M. College's forest service, said at Lufkin that he was considering an appeal for emergency measures to curb the seige of forest fires.

He said he was informed by weather bureau officials that East Texas could expect worse forest fire weather before the week is out.

Some crop-reviving drought-breaking showers were in prospect today for parts of the northern great plains area within the next 24 to 36 hours but no general relief from the searing heat could be expected before the weekend.

The rainfall was moving eastward from Montana and North Dakota with fairly heavy showers probable locally by tonight or tomorrow through Minnesota, Iowa and Wisconsin, the weather bureau said.

Ships Collide Off Canada Coast

SEATTLE, Aug. 13. (AP)—The 10,681-ton freighter Fenn Victory and the coastal motorship Diamond Knot collided early today in thick fog off Victoria, B. C., and the Diamond Knot was rapidly filling with water.

Three hours after the collision, which left a gaping hole in the motorship, three of her holds were flooded and her crew was taking to lifeboats.

The vessels collided in the treacherous strait of Juan De Fuca. The Fenn Victory's bow still was stuck fast in the side of the 5,525-ton Alaska-to-Seattle motorship.

Part of the Diamond Knot's mast-head tackle was hooked over the bow of the larger vessel, and the contact was helping to keep her afloat.

There was no report of casualties on either ship.

Lawmaker Says Plan Aimed At Depression

Clark's Price Probe Labeled 'Fantastic' By Republican

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—Rep. Crawford (R-Mich.), a leading congressional critic of OPA, today labeled as "fantastic" Attorney General Clark's order for an investigation into food, clothing and shelter prices.

The lawmaker said it appears to him to be aimed at bringing about a depression at home to help foreign nations buy more goods here. He added that Clark ought to turn his attention to the Administration's fiscal policies which, Crawford contended, are the cause of high prices.

Heat Wilts Texas Crops And Pastures

AUSTIN, Aug. 13. (AP)—The heat wave wilted crops and pastures over most of the state, and general rains were needed in most areas, the United States department of agriculture said today in its Texas crop report through Aug. 11.

Even cotton was wilting in the intense heat, young cotton in many areas showing definite signs of deterioration. Early cotton was maturing rapidly in the dry hot weather, with continued excessive shedding of young bolls and premature opening of grown bolls.

Exception to the unfavorable conditions was in the southern counties where drought-breaking rains fell a week ago.

Movement into elevators of wheat piled on the ground was reported nearing completion in the plains.

Last week's drought - breaking rains in the extreme southern counties revived the ranges, but range feed in all other parts of the state continued to deteriorate, cured feed was short except in the northern high plains.

Temperatures Tuesday were generally in the 90's, except in the southwest part of Texas. Precipitation in the Big Bend area, reported 105 degrees for the warmest reading in Texas.

Inter-American Meet May Be Asked To Mediate Civil War

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Aug. 13. (AP)—The dawn arrival of Justo Prieto, self styled "observer for the Paraguayan rebels," indicated today the Inter-American Conference might be asked to mediate the civil war in that landlocked country.

Prieto, former foreign minister of Paraguay, said the American nations could not be indifferent to the war and that Brazil and Argentina must consider mediation as a duty. Both countries have tried, but failed; Brazil on three occasions.

Opinions Differ About Hughes 'Side Issue'

Ferguson Says Further Action Up To His Group

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich.) said today it will be up to his war investigating subcommittee to decide whether to probe deeper into the "side issue" feud between Howard Hughes and Senator Brewster (R-Me.)

But Senator Pepper (D-Pa.) declared that in his view the next step, if there is one, will have to be taken either by the full Senate or the justice department.

The two ranking members of the subcommittee outlined their opinions in separate interviews as the customs bureau stepped into the picture in an effort to make certain that the main Hughes inquiry can get underway again November 17.

Frank Dow, acting commissioner of customs, notified collectors at all ports yesterday to stop John W. Meyer, Hughes' free-sending publicity man, if he tries to leave the country.

Meyer's unexplained absence last Saturday after an earlier committee subpoena for him expired was one of the reasons Ferguson cited for ordering a postponement in the two week old investigation into Hughes' $40,000,000 worth of wartime airplane contracts.

Meyer originally flew here from Paris to testify about his party-throwing activities in behalf of Hughes. But Dow, in issuing his order to customs collectors to seize the party contact man's passport if he shows up, emphasized he had no knowledge that Meyer might be headed abroad.

"Just a precautionary measure" was the way he described it.

Meyer was reported to have been in New York yesterday. With Hughes back in Hollywood Brewster vacationing in Maine and most subcommittee members turning their attention to other matters, there was little left here to keep the controversy alive. But Brewster said at Portland last night that "We've just begun to fight."

HCJC Board Passes Budget

Acceptance of an adjusted offer by the War Assets Administration on 11 buildings at the Big Spring Army Air Field was voted by trustees of the Howard County Junior College Tuesday evening.

Action came at a meeting called for public hearing on the budget. Three individuals, two interested in insurance bids, were on hand for the hearing which resulted in approval of a total outlay of $103,000 for the year. Of this amount, $58,000 is estimated to come from a 25-cent tax rate set last week by the board.

The board voted approval of the $6,602.50 offer from WAA on 11 buildings, representing a reduction of $1,900 from the offer last week. This came about by increasing discount on two buildings from 40 and 50 per cent, respectively, to 95 per cent. Other discounts, on units to be utilized for housing, were unchanged.

Insured value on the 23 buildings and equipment was pegged at $361,000 by the board. Previously, 12 buildings had been deeded to the college by WAA after the Reconstruction Finance Corporation had released the structures, together with release on the remaining 11 sought in the hospital area.

OPPOSE LABOR LAW

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (AP)—Members of Local 65, Wholesale and Warehouse Union (CIO), have voted to tax themselves one week's pay to build up a $500,000 strike relief fund against the Taft-Hartley Law. David Livingston, organization director of the union, announced.

At conclusion of interviews, members of the commission expressed keen disappointment over absence of any plans for development of recreational or civic facilities on the north side of town.

Commissioner Willard Sullivan pointed out that existing applications cover virtually all buildings allotted to the city and some requests overlap, but all plans are designed to supplement present facilities on the south side rather than establish new projects or branches across the railroad.

Commissioners also were apprehensive of possibilities for development as outlined by some organizations. All delegations who appeared at the hearing indicated that they would rely on public fund-raising campaigns to obtain capital to carry out their proposed projects.

Talks Are Planned On British Loan

Easing Of Terms Will Be Discussed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Snyder announced today that discussions will start Monday with British officials on easing terms of the $3,750,000,000 American loan to Britain.

Snyder told a news conference that the national advisory council on international monetary problems, headed by himself, will conduct the discussions on behalf of this country.

The British delegation, which will fly here this weekend, will be headed by Sir Wilfred Eady, special assistant to Chancellor of the Exchequer Hugh Dalton.

Although no formal requests have been made, it is understood that England will ask concessions which would permit her to conserve her dwindling dollar supply by increasing imports from British dominions and decreasing imports from the United States.

The present terms of the loan agreement prohibit this.

Snyder emphasized it was his understanding that the conference would be strictly limited to the British loan and would not delve into other aspects of the British "dollar crisis" or European aid.

In two other developments in the international economic scene: 1. Snyder scotched "persistent rumors" in London's financial district that the treasury planned to increase its price on gold from the present $35 an ounce to $50.

2. The British withdrew another $150,000,000 of their U. S. loan, leaving only $550,000,000 available. At the recent rate of withdrawal treasury officials estimated the loan would be exhausted in October, instead of next June 30, as contemplated.

Besides the expected proposal to increase British buying from her dominions, advance reports indicate the British delegation to the talks here may seek a modification of the loan terms which make the pound freely convertible into dollars.

The treasury secretary said he could not guess how long the conferences will last. He plans to go to London for the opening on September 10 of the annual meeting of the boards of governors of the international monetary fund and the international bank for reconstruction and development.

The importance of the talks was emphasized by the announcement that the national advisory council will speak for the United States.

Members of the council include Secretary of the Treasury Snyder, Secretary of Commerce Harriman and heads of the federal reserve system and the export - import bank. In dealing with routine matters aides act for them.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13. (AP)—Council for Harold E. Hirschberg, 29-year-old chief signalman who was convicted yesterday by a Navy court martial board of striking two fellow prisoners in Japanese prison camps, says he may challenge the board's jurisdiction in the case.

LI. Cmdr. John J. O'Neil, the petty officer's counsel, said he was considering having a civilian attorney file a writ of habeas corpus in federal district court in Brooklyn. The action would contend that the Navy, by giving Hirschberg an honorable discharge March 26, 1946, lost the right to try him for offenses committed before that date. Hirschberg had re-enlisted the next day.

Meanwhile, Hirschberg is awaiting announcement of his sentence by Rear Adm. Monroe Kelly, commandant of the third Naval district to whom the board's verdict was sent for review. It is subject to further review by Rear Adm. Archibald Colclough, Navy judge advocate general.

FIRST RATS, NOW CATS

DALLAS, Aug. 13. (AP)—The Luscombe Airplane Corporation plant at Garland created a problem by solving a problem.

First it was rats, now its cats. L. H. P. Klotz, company president, had endured flourishing colonies of rats and mice at the plant as long as he could. The only solution, he was advised, was cats.

He appeals to his friends, his employees and the city animal shelter. This resulted in a couple of dozen cats being brought in. Nature did the rest.

And now cats—more than 40 of them—are about to take the place.

Truman Bids Them Good Bye

U. S. Delegation Off For Rio Conference

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—President Truman sent the United States delegation off to the Pan American security meeting in Rio de Janeiro today with his best wishes for "a successful conference."

"I come to bid you gentlemen farewell, and wish you a happy and successful trip and a successful conference," Mr. Truman told the departing delegates at Washington National Airport.

"I am glad to have this delegation—as it has so many times in the past—working for peace in the world, particularly in the Western Hemisphere."

The United States delegation to the conference, opening in the Brazilian capital Friday, is headed by Secretary of State Marshall and includes Chairman Vandenberg, R-Mich) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee and Warren R. Austin, U.S. Delegate to the U. N. Security Council and former Republican senator from Vermont.

After wishing the delegation good luck, President Truman said he hopes the Rio conference will set an example for the rest of the world.

Vandenberg commented: "I agree with that." Secretary Marshall, replying to the President's brief, informal speech, said that he and his colleagues are flying south "in the interest of what is very important in the world of today—the solidarity of the Western Hemisphere nations."

Austin said the "unique thing about the western hemisphere is the development of unity out of disunity."

Britons Plan Application Of Crisis Law

LONDON, Aug. 13. (AP)—Government officials met with trade union leaders and industrialists today to make plans for combating British economic ailments with the newly voted and extensive controls over labor, industry and wealth.

The controls became law with King George's assent after receiving final parliamentary approval from the House of Lords this morning. The "Crisis" bill empowers labor government to muster all British resources and guide labor into essential industries in efforts to achieve economic recovery.

The House of Commons voted 193 to 84 to adjourn until Oct. 20, beating down conservative and liberal attempts to shorten the recess to Sept. 16 in view of the economic situation.

Anthony Eden, speaking for the conservatives, declared the $3,750,000,000 U. S. loan would be exhausted before the recess ends and that the labor regime had not told Parliament what practical steps it would take in dealing with the nation's plight.

Winston Churchill scheduled a 20-minute radio address for Saturday night which was expected to be a reply to Prime Minister Attlee's speech of last Sunday appealing for national cooperation.

Those at the talks included ministry of labor officials and the 14 members of the joint consultative committee of the British Employers' Confederation and the Trade Union Congress.

Homicide Verdict In Lurid Death

DALLAS, Aug. 13. (AP)—Justice of the Peace J. H. Switzer of Grand Prairie said he will return a verdict of "death by homicide by means and persons unknown" in the death of Mrs. Evelyn Vivian, 42, whose body was found yesterday.

She was found, lying across a blood-soaked bed at her three-room cottage, a block from the Grand Prairie police station.

County Criminologist C. Gordon Martin said the woman apparently had been shot once through the chest.

Officers said Mrs. Vivian had been dead several days, probably since Saturday. The body was badly decomposed.

Chief of Police D. D. Drennan discovered the dead woman after Harrison Lewis, owner of the Central Freight Company, next door to the Vivian cottage, had called police.

Chinese Protest Russian Actions

NANKING, Aug. 13. (AP)—Government Information Director Hollington Tong declared today that a government mission was unable to obtain the information it sought at Russian-held Dairen and Port Arthur "because of the sabotage obstructions of the so-called local administrations and governments."

Tong also told a news conference the Russians failed to provide promised facilities for visiting oiler areas, including Tungksong (east harbor).

The Sino-Russian treaty of 1945 provided for Chinese administration of the two Manchurian port cities, but take over by China has been repeatedly delayed.

TRY THIS AMAZING HOME RECIPE TO TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Right in Your Own Home, You Can Lose Pounds Of Excess Weight Without Starvation Diet or Strenuous Exercise

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcetrane. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

LOSE UGLY FAT With Barcetrane

Why not slim down your figure without a lot of fuss and bother? Try the Barcetrane way. Wear your streamlined frocks and slacks gracefully. Remember, if the very first bottle of Barcetrane doesn't show you the sensible way to lose weight, your money will be refunded.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Reduce With Barcetrane

Perhaps you are overweight due to over indulgence in food or the wrong kind of food. With the Barcetrane home recipe method, you do not have to starve yourself or go hungry. Just follow the simple instructions given on the label and you should get satisfactory results quickly. The very first pint you make up should show results.

WHAT GIVES 'ROUND TOWN

By Leatrice Ross

As the undertaker said when asked how business was, things are pretty dead.

Around the town on recent evenings: Couples at the movies were David Balch, Harry Hurt, Colleen Madison, Duwain Williams, Lillian Tamsitt, Moe Madison, Vivien Middleton, Jack Ewing. Dwin shed his S-I-C rating Saturday at San Diego, and got in town Sunday morning by plane. Note for the Chamber of Commerce books: Duwain says Big Spring is "absolutely beautiful" to him. He has NOT been away a long time, either.

W. E. Eubanks is back in town. He got in Saturday morning after working all summer in Dallas.

Leaving Thursday for Coleman and home is Albert Smith, who is free of the army now. Albert, who at one time lived here, has spent several days around town. He's fresh out of Japan.

Chuck Davies is to leave today for Los Angeles where he will be assigned to an American Airlines office. Chuck got in Saturday from Ardmore, Okla., where for the past six weeks he has been training in an AAA school. Jean Conley gets in today from a short vacation to San Antonio.

Nidra Williams departs Saturday for Wink to spend a few days, thence to Fort Worth to visit Jane Turner, former Big Spring.

Charlene Tucker and Babs Snyder left Tuesday for Lamesa to attend the wedding of Billie Sue White, who has visited here a number of times. Billie Sue will also be remembered by high school students who took in senior day at Hardin-Simmons University in recent years. She is marrying Bill Scott.

The grapple program Monday evening had such big names as Al Kins up for performances. Ardent Getz, Art Brady and Sailor Wat-Brady fans best had watch their cheers, or he complains to you of injured eardrums. Couples out Monday evening: La Verne Reynolds, Billy Crane, Norma Ray, Junior Gay, Wilda Watts, Monroe Tomlinson, Sue Haston, Roy Smith, Arlys Atkins, Kenny McFadden, Jean Murphy, Sage Underwood, Joy Barnaby, Tommy Hubbard.

Lois and Jeanette Kinman and Charlene Tucker were principals on a radio program from Brady Sunday afternoon on behalf of a youth revival in which they participated this weekend. La Verne Kinman and Corrine Tucker also were in Brady.

The High Heel Slipper club named its fall pledges Monday evening at its first meeting since beginning of summer. Hear from Texas University that the Big Spring club has been reorganized and boasts over 50 members.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Evans, Jim Campbell, Castle Campbell and Janice Dunagan are spending a two weeks vacation in Arizona, Utah, Wyoming and Colorado.

Locomotive Kills Man On Tractor

SAN ANGELO, Aug. 13. (AP)—A collision between a Santa Fe locomotive and a tractor at a street crossing yesterday resulted in instant death for a man identified as Ash C. Barefield, 55.

The engine, pulling one car, was backing into the city when the accident occurred. Witnesses said the man, who was driving the tractor, apparently did not hear the signal.

Does Stomach Gas and Bloat Make You Feel Miserable?

If so, here is how you may get relief in freeing your stomach from this nervous distress. It works this way: Everytime food enters the stomach, vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalis to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Union Jack Is Lowered

India Prepares For Freedom, New Position Among Nations

NEW DELHI, Aug. 13. (AP)—India stands today at the threshold of her promised freedom from two centuries of British rule—a freedom under which the Hindus and Moslems, divided in bitterness, go separate ways in two new countries seeking their fortunes among the nations of the world.

This week—in Moham-medan majority Pakistan on Aug. 14 and in Hindu Majority India on Aug. 15—the Union Jack will be hauled down and in its place will be raised national flags marking a day of days for which thousands of Indians fought, died and endured imprisonment.

On those days Pakistan and India will become hard-fisted Democracies, which will vest in their administrative officials powers far broader than the American type of democracy. These new powers resemble strongly those held under the viceroy.

The end of British crown rule and the start of dominion status will be marked by ceremonies and public celebrations. To nationals in both countries the day represents all the fourths of July and French Bastille days rolled into one.

The public celebrations started Sat., coinciding with the anniversary of the Congress party's launching of its civil disobedience campaign, Aug. 9, 1942. Processions were climaxed by many public rallies.

Figuratively, this means the British are quitting India. But actually Viceroy Lord Mountbatten remains as Governor General of Hindu India. Britons will command the armed forces of both countries.

Both Indian and Pakistan leaders still mention complete sovereign independence as ultimate goals. Both are staring hard at the tiny French colony of Pondichery and at those Princely Indian states which refuse a union with India or Pakistan.

When lean, whiplike Mahomed Ali Jinnah becomes governor general of Pakistan on Aug. 14 virtual dictatorial powers automatically go into his hands. The assembly began this task Monday and its completion is not expected for at least several months.

Jinnah, who led his Moslem League in its long and blood-stained fight for separation of Pakistan from the rest of India, refuses to reveal in advance what form of Democracy he wants.

In India, where Jawaharlal Nehru is slated to be top man as Prime Minister, constitutional sections already drafted follow the British pattern more closely than the American. The central government is given authority to reach deeply into provincial affairs and in emergencies assume the life and death powers held formerly by the Viceroy.

The Hindus and Moslems reached a bitter parting, and that bitterness over the division of India is reflected in the blood spilling which still continues in the rich Punjab and Bengal—each of which is being split into two dominions.

The leaders have accepted separation and have agreed to work for peace. But they are blocked by the little people—minor local figures who apparently condone acts of terrorist groups, both Moslem and Hindu.

These elements, who represent only a tiny fraction of India's 400,000,000 population, are a distraction which Jinnah and Nehru and other top figures are working together to eliminate.

Latest dispatches from the Punjab told of 120 persons killed in rioting in five villages in the district of Amritsar, Sikh Holy City.

Conference To Boost Coal Output

Shortage Of Transportation In Germany Poses Problem In Ruhr

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—The acute shortage of transport in western Germany stood out today as an increasingly important factor in the Anglo-American deliberations aimed at boosting Ruhr coal output.

As the talks entered their second day, delegates on both sides were reported seeking ways to solve the problem of how to move whatever coal is mined from the Ruhr pits.

The growing scarcity of railroad cars and locomotives has caused more than 1,000,000 tons of coal to be dumped near the mines instead of being delivered to industries in Germany and neighboring countries.

One American participant said the conferees could not hope to solve Germany's tangled transportation problem at this meeting but might make a start at determining how to repair wrecked coal cars and fix others wearing out daily.

The number of cars "lost" in the Russian zone of Germany after delivering coal to the Soviets was described as negligible compared to the 10-11 shortage.

Discussion of the transportation tieup was made possible as a related issue under the formula for the talks laid down yesterday by assistant secretary of state, Willard Thorp, chief American negotiator.

Thorp said any issue which has a "direct bearing" on Ruhr coal production can be considered.

The conferees split up into sub-committees, each assigned specific phases of the overall problem after yesterday's two introductory sessions got the conference under way.

Moving to quiet French fears, Thorp made it plain that Britain and the United States are not attempting to make the Ruhr an isolated "blossoming and prosperous spot in the midst of all Europe."

Mexico Abolishes Tourist Charge

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 13. (AP)—Abolition of the 10.00 peso ($2.00) charge for a tourist card is announced by the government as agreed upon definitely and shortly will be made effective to encourage travel to this country.

Customs examination also is to be simplified, probably by cooperation with U. S. customs officials, so that U. S. and Mexican examinations will be in one place and also by examination on trains crossing the border to avoid delays and disturbing passengers on night trains.

RFC Membership Has Increased

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—A 400,000 increase in the membership of Rural Electric Cooperative Associations during the past year was reported today.

Clyde T. Ellis, executive manager of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association, said the present membership of the organization is 1,260,000 compared to about 800,000 a year ago.

The figures were given to the association's national board of directors. Heads of 33 state associations attended the opening of a three-day meeting of the board.

T. E. Craddock, Seymour, Tex., association president, said plans for a retirement program for association employees will be one of the major topics of discussion at the meeting.

Construction Workers Wages Rise 15 Per Cent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—Wages of union workers in the building trades rose 15 per cent in the past year, the largest jump in a single 12-month period since 1939, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported today.

The increase amounted to about 25 cents an hour for nearly 500,000 workers in seven major construction crafts. Working hours showed little change during the year between July 1, 1946 and July 1, 1947.

Most of the hourly wage boosts came after wage controls were dropped Nov. 9, 1946. BLS said during the control period from July, 1942, until that date, however, pay scales increased 18 per cent.

The total rise from July, 1939, to July, 1947, amounted to approximately 49 per cent during the eight years, the consumers price index (formerly the cost of living index) increased by 59 per cent and wholesale prices of building materials soared 96 per cent the agency reported.

Army Lines Up Special Units

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (AP)—The Army announced today it has lined up 27 units—ranging from railway divisions to graves registration companies—ready to step bodily from civilian pursuits into military duty in the event of any emergency.

The arrangements were made under the war department's recently announced "activation program" designed to provide a reserve of peace-time-trained personnel.

The railway units are being set up by the New York Central, Pennsylvania, Aitchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, Southern and Union Pacific Railroads.

Quartermaster corps graves registration companies are being organized by the American Academy of Embalming and Mortuary Research at New York and the New England Institute of Embalming at Boston.

A highway transportation division is being formed by the Central Motor Freight Association, Inc., of Chicago, and laundries in Denver, Cheyenne, Wyo., and Hagerstown, Md., are organizing laundry detachments for hospital work.

Case With Serious Implications

At the same time Gov. Jester was pleading the Tidelands case before the interstate oil compact hearing in Montana, Attorney General Price Daniel issued a warning here Tuesday against the implications of the far-reaching decision recently in the case that seemingly gives the federal government access to minerals beneath submerged coastal lands.

The fact that this over-rides countless decisions in the past giving the state title to submerged lands beneath navigable waters pales beside the recognition of a theory of unrestrained powers by the federal government.

Under the constitution, the federal government is not only confined to grant powers, but it is restrained specifically in many fields. For one thing, the government is restrained from confiscating property without due process of law.

It is fundamental, therefore, that in depriving one of property, the government, whether it be local, state or national, must go through regular procedures and must make adequate compensation. Without compensation, assumption of property, whether it be real or represented by inherent resources such as oil and minerals, amounts to confiscation.

Although the decision in the California case by-passed or ignored the fundamental issue of title to the submerged lands, it does amount to confiscation because no compensation is offered or contemplated. It simply says that federal interests transcend that of the state.

Even if this were so, it does not warrant this step without first letting the people of the nation decide it. The court's decision notwithstanding, a course of action that would make shambles of many of our fundamental theories of government should be resisted unless and until it is made part of the constitution through amendment. We doubt this would ever come to pass.

Condition, Not Discrepancies

L. A. Woods, superintendent of public instruction for Texas, has rapped discrepancies in budgets of several Texas schools, notably those who have been unable to meet minimum standards ($2,000 basic salary) set by the legislature.

He points out that several schools submitted separate budgets for whites and Negroes. Dr. Woods acted properly in refusing to pass on budgets which attempted fiscal juggling between races. All districts did not have discrepancies of this sort, he said, but they did have discrepancies of one sort or another.

Big Spring presumably fell in the latter class, although its budget was approved, assuring the district of the full $55 per capita. We do not know what discrepancies he had reference to, but we are confident that if they existed, they were purely technical in nature.

In behalf of Big Spring, however, we do want to make this point—few districts in the state are making as serious a financial effort on behalf of their schools as is Big Spring. Our trouble results from a district of 28 square miles having responsibility of educating more than three-fourths of the children of the county. Many districts, with vastly more resources and with a far greater proportion of non-attending scholars, although able to meet the minimum are making far less effort in supporting their schools.

Texas Today—Jack Rutledge

San Antonio: A La Mode City

Some people call San Antonio the Alamo City. It also could be called the A La Mode City. A la mode, says Webster, means, among other things, in the form of a rich and spicy stew.

That's San Antonio. It's the most colorful big city in Texas. It's warm and friendly and unorthodox. It has a casual sort of beauty, planned but apparently unplanned.

Take, for example, the San Antonio River. It winds through the center of town and has been landscaped and beautified with walks and bridges and shrubs and trees.

One may walk down the stream for miles, and never see the same sight twice. Or one may rent canoes and paddle down for an unforgettable experience, especially if it's at night under a tropical moon.

More songs have been written about San Antonio than any other Texas city. There is the currently popular Across The Alley From The Alamo, and the perennial favorite, "San Antonio Rose," for example.

The town is a favorite tourist center, both because of the Alamo and the various shrines and monuments, and for the climate, mild and warm—sometimes too warm in summer.

The August heat encourages women to wear as little as possible, one was commenting that life there was wine, women and song.

The winding streets are confusing, but far from dull. If you're new to San Antonio, you almost need a guide.

Scattered everywhere are historic places, the most famous, of course, being the Alamo in the very center of town. There are missions, forts, battlefields, monuments, cathedrals, places where so-and-so slept.

The place is, quite a contrast from brash and bustling Houston, or suave and metropolitan Dallas.

Latin Americans give San Antonio atmosphere. You can even smell it—the mouth-watering aroma of enchiladas and chile.

And it's still an Army center. You see more soldiers per block than in any other Texas city. That's San Antonio, the A La Mode City.

Affairs Of The World—DeWitt MacKenzie

Britain Resorts To Capitalism

The decision by Socialist Prime Minister Attlee and his cabinet to defer nationalization of Britain's great steel industry possibly for the duration of the country's economic crisis, is a concession to orthodox means of recovery, which is to say "capitalistic."

The extent of that concession can be seen from the fact that nationalization of steel was one of the major items in the platform on which socialism came to power in the general election two years ago. So important and controversial is the issue that Attlee took his decision before a private labor (socialist) party caucus yesterday. He received approval by a margin of only four votes—51 to 77—while it is said that more than 100 members abstained from voting. This mixed attitude of the caucus makes it clear that the question of steel nationalization is far from settled, and that there is a sizeable crack in socialist solidarity. The left-wingers of the party are dead set against any compromise on nationalization.

What the socialists wanted (at least moderate socialists) was merely nationalization of basic steel production. However, they promptly ran up against the proposition that nationalization in numerous instances involved not only the making of steel but the finished product manufactured from the steel. For instance, the newly made metal was kept hot while it was processed into, say, bicycles. The majority of the party wanted the bicycles and other like products left to private initiative. But try as they would, they have found no method of disassociating the production of the molten steel from that of the bicycle, or what will be. Furthermore, they have encountered fierce opposition from big business.

So rather than interfere with the smooth flow of production in the midst of an economic crisis, the government has deferred action regarding steel. The caucus yesterday was told that there was no intention of abandoning the promise to nationalize the industry, but that the cabinet should be free to choose a time which it considered opportune. Meantime "capitalism" is to carry on.

Joan Crawford Is Hard Worker

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 12. (U.P.)—What makes success in the movies? Answer from Joan Crawford: Hard work. She ought to know; she's been a success several times.

Joan was in her studio dressing room even though it was her day off from "Daisy Kenyon." Attired in shorts (the Crawford game is still whistle-able), she was eating lunch and preparing a dish for her Dachshund (it was creamed spinach and omelet, without mushrooms, Joan, the only top actress who has bridged the years from flapperdom, was commenting on the more recent performers.

"I feel sorry for them," she said. "Every star who has come up in the past five years has had it too easy."

The way to get on top and stay there, she advised, is through hard work.

COAL BUCKET

Hal Boyle's Notebook

Take It Easy, Brother

NEW YORK. (U.P.)—A few tentative conclusions by the poor man's philosopher:

Life can be simply wonderful only if it is wonderfully simple.

The hardest thing for most people to learn is to take it easy.

Americans tend to forget they are a form of animal life and try to live like machines. That is why so many jittery husbands and wives are wearing out chairs in the anterooms of psychiatrists when they should be at home beating out their mate's brains at gin rummy.

No one over 35 should read a book more than 400 pages long unless it is the Bible or Shakespeare.

If you feel like running up a flight of stairs, ride up an escalator instead. Then when you get to the top, you will still feel like running up a flight of stairs. That's a good way to feel.

You will never be asked to build a pantry shelf if you never learn to drive a nail.

I enjoy automobile trips more than anyone I ever met. The reason: I never owned a car of my own and I cannot drive one.

You can't be happily married if you believe a woman is entitled only to the last word. Be big; let her have the final paragraph. She won't be content with less.

There are only four things in the world worth doing—making love, eating, working and playing. Overdo any one, however, and you'll find yourself as out of balance as the British budget.

You will tend less money, buy fewer needless things and make fewer enemies if you never answer a letter the day you receive it.

There is no hope for people who would rather go to the movies to see a sunset in technicolor than watch a real one from the back porch.

No home is safe from bankruptcy that has a pair of dice in it.

Never shout at children—unless they shout at you first.

The best form of exercise is window-shopping. It requires neither investment nor upkeep.

The wise man can enjoy himself with a flower pot in the city as much as the fool who rushes out on week-ends to dig in his fifty-foot garden in the country.

A man who wears the same necktie two days in a row is in a rut.

A man who doesn't sometimes take his work home with him probably doesn't get it done at the office either.

Every house should have a room in which there is no radio, telephone or electric shaver.

You can't teach an old dog new tricks, but it's better to try than to keep on forever teaching old tricks to new dogs.

A man who keeps his hat on in the house has a closed mind.

The average wife would rather her husband had forty film girls than a pretty manicurist.

Whenever you feel an urge for self-improvement, roll over and go back to sleep. Sleep is the best form of self-improvement possible in this hurly-burly age.

Nobody ever developed an ulcer taking a nap.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Parting Shots Before Vacation

WASHINGTON.—As of the close of business today, this columnist is going to permit a little more peace and quiet in the life of Washington—at least as far as this typewriter is concerned.

Instead of being a problem to senators, I will be a problem to my wife during that annual sun burn, siestas and mental stagnation—the American vacation.

In my absence this column will be written by an old hand at the game. For a good many years, he called the tunes on the Merry-Go-Round. Maybe you've already guessed who he is. But if you haven't, you'll have to wait until tomorrow to get his name.

All I'm going to tell you is that he is the best reporter in Washington. And I predict he will be so good that nobody will care much whether I come back or keep on vacationing. In fact, some people will be delighted.

Meanwhile, and before I close up my typewriter, here are a few things I would like to get out of my system.

MAKING DEMOCRACY LIVE

Longer I live, the more I find that a whole lot of little people in this country are quietly going about the business of helping their fellowmen and making Democracy live. A lot of times we don't know anything about them, and I'm going to try to tell more about them in the future. Meanwhile, here are a few I've run into lately. . . .

Lyman Lantz, Garret W. McEnerney and the California commission on living war memorials are doing a fine job inspiring war monuments which recall the ideals for which we fought, rather than the weapons with which we fought. . . .

Another hero without headlines is R. M. Davis, the West Virginia coal operator who has been inspiring the people of his state to think about ways of winning the peace. Davis began life as a street-car conductor, never went to college, but started a statewide contest on a department of peace which made people think about how we can head off another war. . . .

Near Philadelphia, an American Legion committee headed by Clarence D. Bell has just done a fine job investigating real estate operators and how some of them have abused veterans. They found that veterans sometimes were persuaded to sign blank agreements, sometimes didn't get back their down payments, and sometimes the same plot of ground was sold to several veterans. . . .

Two young vets who have done a lot for freedom of the press lately are John W. Perry, Jr., and Farwell Perry of the Perry newspapers. They have shown how a special type writer can be used to print small weekly or daily newspapers, thus bolstering what has been the backbone of press freedom—independent newspapers.

Whenever you feel an urge for self-improvement, roll over and go back to sleep. Sleep is the best form of self-improvement possible in this hurly-burly age.

Nobody ever developed an ulcer taking a nap.

Before I get away, I want to correct something which may have done an injustice to a lady who has been working hard for this country—a Chinese physician, Dr. Margaret Chung. Some weeks ago federal authorities informed me that Dr. Chung had sailed for Europe with Virginia Hill, the girl friend of the late Bugsy Siegel. I now find, however, that Dr. Chung sailed instead for Honolulu, where incidentally, she has done a fine job among men in the armed services. . . .

Also Billy Wilkerson, formerly associated with Siegel in the Flamingo Hotel at Las Vegas, who sailed for Europe about the same time as Virginia Hill, informs me that he broke with Siegel a long time ago. His trip was to attend a motion-picture convention in Belgium. . . .

One more point. From a recent column on Pan American Airways wirepopping, some people got the impression that Clarence Young, a former Pan Am official now on the Civil Aeronautics Board, was in the pocket of his former bosses. As a matter of fact, Col. Young calls the shots exactly as he sees them. I consider him a fair-minded public servant. . . .

Speaking of homes for veterans, if Pan American Airways and Trans World Airlines had any patriotic public relations oomph, they would immediately transform the two mansions they maintain for lobbying into homes for veterans. Both airlines operate swank houses in Washington for entertaining congressmen. . . .

For many years I have watched Senate probes, and most of them have been healthy. That's why I hate to see their effectiveness get hit in the solar plexus. However, that is what the present Brewster probe has done. . . .

The public is fed up with ballyhoo about wine, women and song for those in a position to influence the great air routes of the world. What they want is not a sideshow, but an impartial, thorough investigation, the kind Hugo Black did of lobbying or Ferd Pecora did of Wall Street. . . .

For instance, all the Senate has to do is subpoena certain records from the war department to unravel the most amazing story of political deals between the U. S. government, Pan American Airways and various Latin American dictators. They will discover that about $100,000,000 was paid to Pan American Airways to build Latin American air bases from which it received healthy benefits; on top of which the Brazilian government also got an additional $100,000,000. . . .

Though the war is long over, all this has been kept a strict secret. However if the Senate committee wants the documents, here are their dates: Chief of Army Engineers Report of Aug. 5, 1944, entitled "Administration of Secret Pan American Contracts" written by Major Robert M. Condra and travelling auditor J. H. Ross. . . .

Also the committee should subpoena three reports by Lt. Col. Robert M. Wold, dated Jan. 4, 1943, Jan. 23, 1943 and April 1, 1943. . . . These are far more important than Hollywood beauties.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR
Abe Spangel, a little guy who during the war switched from making baby's waterproof pants to making rubber life-rafts, is among the next to be crucified by the Brewster committee. . . .

Spangel wrote some inspiring editorials during the war, had them published as paid ads in the newspapers, even got permission from the treasury department to deduct these from war contract expenses. . . .

Things in the state department aren't as happy as appears on the surface. One assistant secretary of state has only been able to see his chief, Secretary of State Marshall, once in three months. Some other top diplomats are in the same boat. When they can't get policy set by the man at the helm, they have trouble steering the right policy course. . . .

The Constitution may have to be amended to make the President commander-in-chief of the Air Force. At present the commander merely makes him commander of the Army, Navy and the Militia of the separate states. Now with unification, the air force is no longer under the Army, and the President technically is not its commander. . . .

Incidentally, the Air Force may need a little commanding, because the air boys are acting high, wide and handsome when it comes to raiding other branches of the service. For instance, paratroopers, who fight on land, have always been part of the ground forces. Now the air boys want to take them over. The air boys have also taken the design for rockets away from Army Ordnance. . . .

Reminds you of 1914 when the coast artillery wanted to take submarines from the Navy because the coast artillery was charged with the defense of the coasts, and subs in those days could only cruise a few miles out to sea. . . .

All of which proves that Washington bickering remains about the same, whether in 1914 or 1947, and will probably continue about the same when I get back to Washington in September.

The Nation Today—James Marlow—

Labor Scene Full Of Confusion

WASHINGTON. (U.P.)—The labor scene today is complicated and bewildering.

History is being made, but what sort of history is hard to say.

Here are some things to note: 1. Strikes may come in the maritime industry this fall, and possibly on the railroads this winter. All is not yet quiet in the auto industry. CIO rubber workers have asked for more money. The construction industry faces the possibility of wide upheavals.

2. Court battles are beginning under the Hart-Atterly Act. Examples: AFL teamsters in Cincinnati have been sued for $100,000 for an alleged illegal boycott, and CIO steelworkers in Chicago have been sued for $75,000 for an alleged breach of contract.

3. The new law has been on the books for seven weeks, and many new provisions go into effect Aug. 22.

The widespread protest strikes and disorders that some people feared have not materialized. But there is great uncertainty over the administration and interpretation of some of the law's provisions.

4. Unions are searching for loopholes and doing everything they can legally to avoid restrictions.

Unions also are demanding, and in some cases getting, contract clauses designed to exempt them from lawsuits by employers. These clauses have stirred up a lot of controversy.

5. Employers in the main are moving cautiously, eager not to upset good labor relations, and also mindful that the act subjects them—as well as unions—to new penalties and lawsuits.

It is a time of sparring for position. Lawyers on both sides are jittery. And in Washington the officials of the NLRB are working days and nights on a thousand problems.

Voices From Sky

WAUKESHA, WIS. (U.P.)—

Voices in the sky made Waukesha speculate on their hearing. Then they learned that a Veteran's Administration plane was flying over the city with a loud speaker extolling the merits of renewing veteran's insurance.

Mosquitos Triumph

ALAMO, Aug. 13. (P)—Meet the headman in the Upper Valley Lions Club softball league: Mr. Mosquito.

The league announced that its scheduled tournament, which was to decide the circuit title, had been postponed because mosquitos made it difficult to remain on the field.

Midland Tribe Guest Tonight; Cindan Collects 19th Victory

Baez To Face Ossie Kolwe

And now, Operation Midland. Back from an eight-day road trip in which they played .500 baseball, the Big Spring Bronces tie into the Midland Indians at Steer park this evening in a battle for first place in the Longhorn league.

True, the Cayuses are leading the Tribe by three full games, having picked up a length on the last odyssey but Harold Webb's doughty Braves could pull even by sweeping the three game set.

Humberto Baez, rested and willing, takes out after the Indians this evening in quest of his 15th victory. He started against the Ballinger Cats last Saturday night, made a creditable showing but was noded out.

His mound foe is due to be crafty Ossie Kolwe, a tall right-hander the Hossees have found hard to beat all year. Kolwe twice beat the locals in a six-game set recently.

After Midland comes Odessa's rampaging Oilers. The Odessans move into our precincts Saturday night set up shop for a four-game stand.

Rainwater Wins Putting Meet

Champ Rainwater fired a respectable 70 to win first place in the men's putting tournament started at the Big Spring country club Tuesday evening.

Rainwater noded out Bob Hodges and Jimmy Moon, each of whom stitched together a 71.

A dozen players took part in the meeting. Merchandise prizes go to the winner.

A similar tournament for the ladies will be conducted next Tuesday.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Local baseball followers can well be thankful for the fat lead Our Town's Bronces built up early in the Longhorn league season. Were it not for the fact that the Steeds got a comfortable jump on the Longhorn league's other clubs in April, May and early June, Pat Stasey's hopefuls would perhaps be reeling in the wake of three of the circuit's troupes, limping down the home stretch a bad fourth.

In the 30-day period ending Aug. 11, the Big Springers just managed to keep their respective heads above water with a record of 15 wins in 29 starts. On the other hand, Sweetwater set a blistering pace, copping 19 decisions as against 10 losses to lead all others.

Odessa's improved Oilers were but a game off that pace—18-11—while Harold Webb's Midland gang, which had its troubles, could boast of 16 wins in 28 starts. Only Ballinger, with a 13-15 mark, and Vernon, 5-24, had fared worse than Big Spring.

Based on those records, Joe Dotlich's Sports have the best chance to cop the play-offs. Odessa will make trouble if it can edge into the picture.

The sensational hitting of Big Spring's Gaspar Lel Toro on the last road trip helped eliminate some of Stasey's gloom. In the Bronces' first seven games away from home, the speedy shortstop collected 16 safeties in 37 trips for a .422 record. He drove in a total of nine runs in the Sweetwater series.

If Del Toro hits anywhere near that well in the current home stay, the Cayuses have a chance to nail down a spot in the play-offs within the next few days.

Blacky Hines, manager of the Forsan softball team, has placed a claim on the championship trophy of the now-defunct Muni softball league.

Hines bases his claim on the fact that his Cosden Pipelines won the first half championship and were among the top two teams in last play.

If there is any one around to dispute the right of the Pipelines to gain the throne room, Blacky might be inclined to discuss a playoff. He has kept his boys in shape and the Cosdens are prepared to battle for the title.

Boston's football Yankees play four exhibition games before heading into Dallas for their Sept. 19 contest with the Chicago Cardinals.

The Yanks open against the Detroit Lions in Flint, Mich., Aug. 31; move to Akron, Ohio, Sept. 7 to play the Chicago Bears; square off with the Los Angeles Rams in Des Moines Sept. 10 and move to Milwaukee Sept. 14 for a setto with Green Bay before heading south.

A capacity crowd will no doubt see the Denison - Big Spring grid battle in Denison in October. Advance ticket sales there are the biggest in history.

Two football coaches have been added to the Odessa high school staff, according to reports reaching here. Earl Glasie, who was at Midland last year, and James Daniel are the new mentors.

Glasie is an alumnus of Rice Institute while Daniel attended Arkansas A & M.

Stasey, Bostick Hickory Stars

VERNON, Aug. 13.—Jose Cindan rang up his 19th victory of the season here Tuesday night as the Big Spring Bronces noded out Vernon's improved Dusters, 6-5, before some 1,500 fans—the season's largest crowd.

Cindan scattered 10 enemy hits and clubbed two runs across himself. He had to work himself out of two bad innings—the first and the seventh—at which time the North Texans collected all their runs.

The Cuban righthander was given good stick support by Manager Pat Stasey and Leamon Bostick, each of whom had three blows. In all, the Hossees had 12 hits, including extra base knocks by Armando Traspuesto, Cindan and Stasey.

Three double killings saved Pat Bostick, Vernon hurler, from additional trouble.

In 13 starts against the Dusters in Vernon this year, the Cayuses succeeded in winning 10 decisions. The victory added a full game to the Big Springers' league advantage, second-place Midland having dropped another decision to Odessa. The difference now stands at three games.

Fight For First Division Spot Getting Hotter

By The Associated Press

the battle for fourth place in the Texas league—and a spot in the play-offs less than a month hence—is a sizzler.

Right now Dallas and Shreveport are tied for third but Tulsa is breathing on both of their necks—four points behind—and Oklahoma City is spurring upward.

Last night Shreveport licked Dallas 6-5 in 10 innings to forge into a deadlock for the third spot while leading Houston was edging Tulsa 3-2 and second place Fort Worth was falling to Beaumont 3-2 in a 12-inning nightcap.

Nick Gregory turned on his former mates at Dallas to drive in the winning run in the tenth with a double after Jim Kirby had delivered a pinch homer in the eighth to give the Sports a 5-5 tie.

Houston got five hits in the last two innings to whip Tulsa as the Buffs set a new home attendance record for the league when 4,275 customers brought the total to 298,622. It was more than 3,000 ahead of San Antonio's record made last year and Houston has 13 more home games to play.

John Mackinson and Dwain Sloat hooked up in a thrilling pitcher's duel with Bill Capps squeezing in the winning Beaumont run in the twelfth against Fort Worth. Mackinson fanned 12 cats while Sloat struck out ten Beaumonters.

Oklahoma City got only six hits in winning the first game from San Antonio but one was a homer by Ray Murray with a man on base in the eleventh frame. Ike Boone's homer with the sacks empty in the eighth inning of the afterpiece to break a 2-2 tie furnished the victory punch.

Lubbock Swamps Borger Gassers

By The Associated Press

Leading Lubbock swamped Borger 22-8 with a 25-hit attack including two homers by Centerfielder Cerin of the Hubbers in WT-NM league play last night. Gordon Neil of Borger clouted his thirty-eighth and thirty-ninth round-trippers of the season.

Frank Mekulis pitched a six-hitter as second-place Amarillo beat Pampa 5-2. Mekulis held the Oilers scoreless until the ninth, giving up only three hits in the first eight innings. Tom O'Connell homered to spoil his shut-out and a couple of more hits brought in the other Pampa run.

Athlete at Clovis was postponed because of wet grounds and Lamesa at Albuquerque was called off on account of rain.

SHIFLETT HIRED

LUBBOCK, Aug. 13.—Midland and Odessa foursomes tied for first place in a best-ball tournament for pros and amateurs here Tuesday, each with a score of 62.

The Midland quartet was composed of Pro Warren Cantrell and Amateurs Bill Barker, Van Ligon and Evans Dunn while Shorty Hornbuckle, pro, and Bob French, Bobby and Billy Davidson, amateurs, made up the Odessa team.

The Big Spring combination of Shirley Robbins, pro, and Obie Bristow, J. R. Farmer and Dub Prescott scored a 65. The Big Spring team collected five birdies on the way to a 30 on the front side but finished with a 36 without breaking par on the back side.

Canadians Bow At Chess Tourney

CORPUS CHRISTI, Aug. 13. (P)—Two Canadian chess masters went down in defeat last night in the second round of the 48th annual U. S. Open Chess Championships here.

In the biggest upset of the night, Larry Evans, 15-year-old New Yorker, defeated D. A. Yanofsky of Winnipeg, Dominion champion, in 30 moves. Charles L. Smith, Montreal city champion, went down in 38 moves to Miguel Cuellar Y. Gacharna, Bogota, Colombia, who had established himself as a man to beat in the first round.

In another upset W. M. Kendall of San Antonio, defeated Arturo Colon, the Puerto Rico champion in 48 moves.

Middle To Train On Submarines

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. (P)—The Navy announced today it is sending ten submarines of the Atlantic fleet on a week's training cruise with midshipmen of the Naval Academy.

The submarines, which are based at New London, Conn., will arrive at Norfolk, Va., Saturday and take aboard midshipmen who are now on their annual summer cruise.

Senior League Flag Chase Hinges On Seven Games Between Leaders

By The Associated Press

It begins to appear more and more every day that the National League Pennant Race will be settled in the seven games which the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals still have to play with each other.

Each club frittered away an opportunity to gain on the other as both the Dodgers and Cardinals were beaten yesterday. The Redbirds were the first to bow, losing an afternoon game to the Chicago Cubs at St. Louis, 2-1. The Brooks with a chance to boost their three-game first place margin, fell before the Boston Braves in a night game at Ebbets Field 9-2.

The Cards definitely are the hotter club at the moment, having won 11 of their last 13 games while the Dodgers have won only three of their last 11.

Knuckleball artist Dutch Leonard won his 13th game against seven defeats when he pitched the lowly Philadelphia Phils to a 5-0 shutout victory over the New York Giants in Philadelphia.

Ewell Blackwell failed in his fourth straight attempt to gain his 19th victory as the Pittsburgh Pirates topped the Reds 3-2 in Cincinnati.

The Boston Red Sox reduced the American league leading Yankees margin to 11 games when they came from behind with two runs in the last half of the ninth to nip the Washington Senators 2-1.

Allen Gettel, 29-year-old right hander, pitched a one-hitter as the Cleveland Indians swept a double-header from the third place Detroit Tigers in a twilight-night affair 3-1 and 11-0 in Cleveland.

Glen Moulder, who previously had won two games in 24 relief assignments, won his first major league game as a starter when the St. Louis Browns defeated the White Sox in a night game in Chicago 5-3.

The Yankees and Philadelphia Athletics were not scheduled.

Jewelers Play Again Friday

Nathan's Jewelers and the Big Spring Colored Sluggers play an exhibition baseball game at the exhibition baseball game at the Bombardeer school starting at 5:30 p. m. Friday evening.

The school diamond was recently improved to such a degree that Freddy Acton, Jeweler Manager, said it was as good a playing field as any in this section.

All persons attending the contest will be admitted free of charge, Acton said.

Windmill Brown or Wayne Johnston will probably toe the slab for the Nathan team while Harry Doolley will mount the knob for the Sluggers.
