Wellington Enrollment Totals 677

Enrollment in the Wellington Schools totaled 677 Monday morning, August 26, principals disclosed.

Bob Copeland reported that the Elementary School enrollment is 313. The junior high enrollment is 185, according to Charles Floyd, while the high school enrollment has reached 179, said Melvin Cardwell.

Enrollment in the individual grades includes:

Kindergarten 61, first grade 57, second grade 58, third grade 49, fourth grade 54, fifth grade 65, sixth grade 65, seventh grade 55, eighth grade 65, ninth grade 61, tenth grade 48, eleventh grade 43, and twelfth grade 27.

The senior class has been unusually small all the way through school, it was pointed out. In addition, during the latter part of the junior year and during the summer, the number was cut even further by several students moving away with their families and girls who were married and are not in school this year.

It is the smallest senior class this school has had in many years.

More Participation In Parade Needed

More entries are needed in the big Collingsworth County Fair Parade if it is to top others of recent years in color and size.

This announcement came Monday from Mrs. Edd Henard, parade chairman.

"We would especially like to have more floats, for they are the most popular part of any parade," said Mrs. Henard, pointing out that this parade is for everyone in the county. It is slated to open the Fair at 11:00 a.m. Friday, September 6.

Judging the parade will be two men who grew up in Collingsworth: Robert Laycock, Shamrock insurance agency owner who is general chairman of that town's big St. Patrick's Day Celebration, and Boyd Williams, a former Skyrocket football star now superintendent of Shamrock Schools and president of the Chamber of

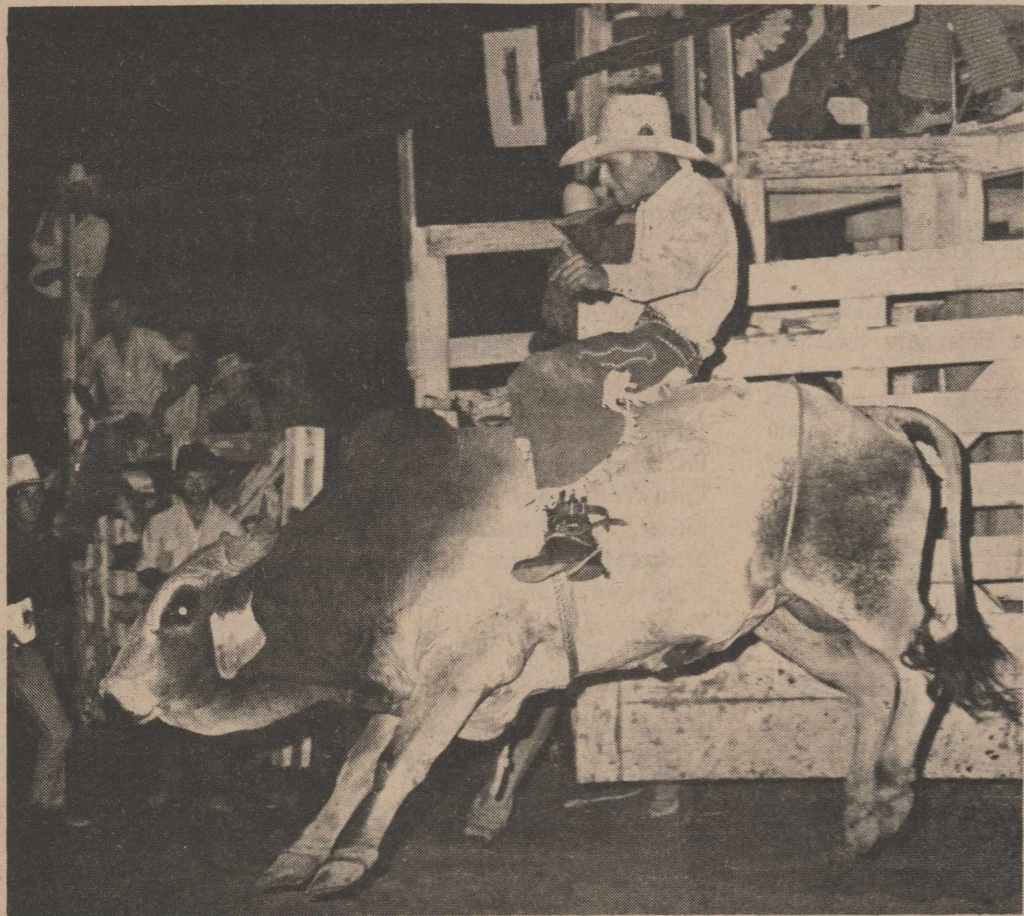

Dodson Church Of Christ to Hold Meeting

The Dodson Church of Christ is holding a gospel meeting Wednesday through Sunday, August 28 through September 1.

Brother Frank Duckworth of Lockney will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Duckworth formerly lived at Dodson and is the former Irma Lee Hunt.

Everyone is cordially invited.

CHAMPION BULL RIDER

In the arena for the bull riding events of the Tri-State High School Rodeo here Friday and Saturday, August 30 and 31, will be Wellington's Bart Patterson. He is the current champion of that event in the Tri-State Association, and will hold that honor until this year's points are tallied in June 1975.

Optimism Mounts With Slow Rain on Tuesday

Slow rain which measured from one-half to around an inch fell over much of the county Monday night, and early Tuesday, August 26 and 27. In some areas light rain and drizzle continued into Tuesday afternoon.

Wellington measured .39 inch during this rainy spell, by the Weather Bureau rain gauge, Charles Floyd reported. Of this, .60 fell in the early hours Monday night and Tuesday, and the remainder in showers which began Thursday.

Harold Caldwell, mail carrier on Route 1 Wellington and Quail, said that everyone received a good general rain.

At Dodson, Mrs. T.E. Lennon said 1.2 inches was measured in their rain gauge.

North of Salt Fork, the Lutie area reported .70 up to Commerce. Additional judges will be announced later.

Wellington's big fire truck, driven by Chief David Peters, will lead off the parade, followed by flag bearers.

Sheriff John Rainey and Billy Henard will lead the parade, followed by Wellington's big fire truck, driven by Chief David Peters.

To the southeast of town, around .80 was reported in the area of the Earl Janes-Farris Wood farms at Fresno, and similar amounts were reported from the J.B. Killian place and others in the vicinity.

The heaviest fall was around Quail. Wilbur DePauw reported 2.3 inches at his Marella farm. An inch of this fell Friday. This general amount fell north toward Abra.

CITY GOLF CHAMPION

Bill Long, 1974 City Golf champion, receives his trophy from Bill Hatch, Wellington mayor, following the close of the annual championship tournament.

Tri-State High School Rodeo Opens 2-Day Run Here Friday

Top high school rodeo performers from Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Kansas will converge on Wellington this week end for the official Tri-State High School Association Rodeo Friday and Saturday, August 30 and 31.

The event will be in the VFW rodeo arena in northeast Wellington.

There will be three performances, according to Rodney Myrick. The first is slated for Friday at 8:00 p.m. and there will be two performances Saturday, 1:00 and 8:00 p.m.

Eleven different events, six for boys and five for girls, will be featured.

The rodeo is sponsored by the Tri-State High School Rodeo Association, and the local sponsor is the Wellington Rodeo Club, with Bill

Wilson and Mr. Myrick as the adult leaders. Mrs. Wilson is the general secretary.

These young people will be competing for points, and after they compete in a rodeo almost every week end for the next nine months, these points will be tallied and the champions of each division determined at the finals in June 1975.

Events for boys will be bareback bronc riding, calf roping, ribbon roping, team roping, steer wrestling and bull riding.

Girls events will be breakaway roping, barrels, poles, goat tying and steer riding.

"These are pretty good size steers they will be riding," said Mr. Myrick. "They are the same steers that the boys will bulldog."

The rodeo stock is furnished by C&C Rodeo Produces of Childress, known as having some of the best stock in this part of the country. Judges will be Blackie Johnson of Clarendon and Jim Henard.

This is the third year the official Tri-State High School rodeos have been sanctioned, and the first time one of the rodeos has been held in Wellington.

State Champion Due At Fiddlers Contest

Mr. and Mrs. Bill King, co-chairmen of the Collingsworth Fiddlers Contest to be held along with the Fair on Saturday, September 7, have announced that plans for the event are completed.

This is one of the most popular events of the fair each year, and draws listeners as well as contestants from a wide area.

The contest will be held on the court house lawn, with music and registration beginning at 1:00 p.m.

The contest itself will get under way at 2:00 p.m. with $250 in prize money.

"Some of the finest fiddlers in the country have promised to be here," said Mrs. King.

"Our featured attraction this year is to be 20-year-old Randy Elmore of Joshua, who is one of the finest

Wellington area irrigation farmers, especially those of the Loco-Artie area, have spoken out in opposition to the construction of a brine reservoir which would back into southwest Collingsworth.

This is one point in the Red River Chloride Control Project, which would be constructed by the U.S. Corps of Engineers. The object is to control the salt content of the waters of Red River, making them more palatable for drinking by cities downstream who get their water from Red River.

Fred Cox serves as spokesman for the group.

Those opposing construction of the brine reservoir do so on these grounds:

The flow of underground water in this area is from west to east, and they believe strongly that saltwater would travel through the cavities in the gypsum formations and contaminate irrigation and stock water in

Explosion of Simulators Investigated

Several hand grenade type simulators were exploded in Wellington Saturday evening August 24, with both loud noise and potential danger.

It is not known definitely how many were detonated, Sheriff John Rainey said.

An investigation of the incident is continuing. The sheriff notified the Federal Bureau of Investigation Tuesday, August 27, and was referred to the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division, also a federal agency.

Mr. Rainey said information his office has received is that the simulators were

Rocket Boosters Will View Film

A film of the Skyrocket-Canadian scrimmage will be shown at a meeting of the Skyrocket Booster Club Tuesday evening, September 3.

This will be in the Farm Bureau Hospitality Room at 8:00 p.m., according to Raymond Hodges, president.

New officers will be elected during the business meeting.

All persons interested in supporting the Rockets are urged to be there, Mr. Hodges said.

Old Settlers Meet In Reunion Sept. 6

Collingsworth County Old Settlers will hold their annual reunion Friday, September 6, in conjunction with the Collingsworth County Fair, Mrs. R.H. Isbell, secretary, has announced.

This year's event will be held in the RSVP Center, located midway on the west side of the square, and in an ideal spot for the old timers to watch the colorful Fair Parade.

They will begin gathering about 10:00 a.m. and a basket dinner will be served at noon. Local old timers are asked to bring food for both themselves and for out of town visitors.

Those who are not able to prepare a basket are not expected to bring food, Mrs. Isbell said.

The oldest person present, the one who traveled farthest, the one with the most grandchildren and the person who has lived in the county the most years consecutively will be recognized.

Complete plans for the reunion will be announced.

Jack Hightower Urges Return of Confidence

An enthusiastic crowd applauded its approval of Senator Jack Hightower Saturday night, August 24, as he brought his race for congressman from the 13th District to Wellington. Many groups were represented. Speaking in Ellison Park, he called for renewed confidence in this nation, and pointed to the need to solve such major problems as inflation and the energy crisis. Earlier, Senator Hightower met with a group of farmers who oppose the Red River Chloride Control Project as it would affect Collingsworth.

Judge Zook Thomas presided at this meeting when Fred Cox, Commissioner

Skyrockets to Scrimmage at Canadian Friday

Wellington Skyrockets and the Junior Varsity will travel to Canadian Thursday, August 29, for the second of two scrimmages the team will have.

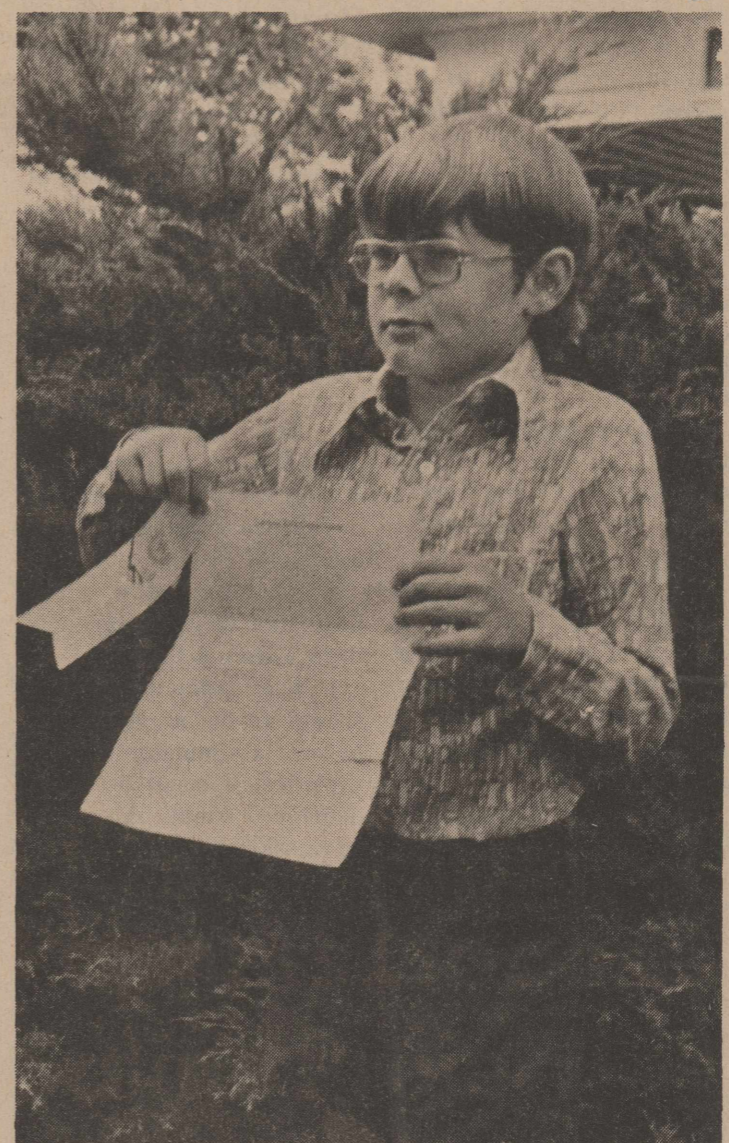

The junior varsities will play at 6:30 and the varsity scrimmage will follow, according to Coach Robert Hicks.

In the first scrimmage, August 22, with the Lefors teams, the Skyrockets made two touchdowns to one for Lefors.

Both touchdowns came on passes from quarterback George Brewer. Edward Thomas crossed the goal line once and Tony Martinez once.

Those watching the game felt that the Rockets looked good except for a spot or two where they were young. Experience will correct this.

Neither the Wellington nor Lefors junior varsities was able to score.

FIRE POSTER WINNER

Ed Tom Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Campbell, won third place in district competition on his fire prevention poster. It was entered by the Wellington Volunteer Fire Department. The poster is now being judged for state honors.

Bill Long Wins City Golf Tourney for Second Year

Bill Long won the 9th annual City Golf Championship in a final match with Willie Gragon which was played at Hay Camp Country Club.

Trophies were presented Saturday evening at a barbecue held at Green Acres Golf Course.

The Long-Gragon match was nip and tuck until the last few holes, when Mr. Long came through to take advantage of a bad shot by Mr. Gragon and go on and win one-up, according to Noel Overton, Green Acres Golf Club president.

It was the second year Mr. Long has taken the championship.

In the runner up event, also played at Hay Camp, Grant Woodbridge defeated Doc Barjenbruch to win the consolation flight.

First flight winner was J.L. Harper, who took it two-and one over Hiram Cudd. Winner by forfeit of the first flight consolation was Howard Holton.

the Loco-Arlie section -- some of the most productive land in this part of the Panhandle.

In this, they are joined by Harmon County irrigation farmers, who also believe that the salt contamination would reach them.

Four Collingsworth men, Mr. Cox, Judge Zook Thomas, Commissioner W.R. Breeding and Henry Sullivan, attended a hearing called by the Corps of Engineers at Mangum Monday night, and an even larger group went to a similar hearing in Childress Tuesday night.

Representatives of the Wellington group conferred with Senator Jack Hightower when he was in Wellington Saturday, August 24.

On Tuesday, August 27, the Salt Fork Soil and Water Conservation District board of supervisors joined with the irrigation farmers and passed a resolution condemning the brine reservoirs.

The board, with Earl C. Patterson as chairman, pointed out that brine dams could affect the wise development, use and conservation of the soil and water resources of Collingsworth County.

"We recognize the problem and urgency of the Red River Chloride Control Project, we do however oppose any action that endangers the fresh water supply of this district, specifically open brine dams for permanent storage and retention of concentrated brines."

Salt water seepage into irrigation waters could ruin the land, cutting its value sharply, the Wellington group believes. It could thereby seriously affect the tax structure of the county's finances, they add.

"Harmon County people are just as concerned as we are, both about the brine dam near Memphis that would extend into our county, but about the one on Elm Creek just east of the state line," said Mr. Cox.

"Farmers representing 27,000 acres of irrigation in Harmon County have gone on record as opposing these brine reservoirs. Fifty three people signed their protest."

"We have signatures representing 12,900 acres and we can get 14,000. This is irrigated land. There are several thousand more acres of dry land that would be affected."

An account of the Childress meeting will be given next week.

R.L. Mabery was winner over Mrs. Henry Sullivan, and Mrs. Howard Holton won the consolation round.

At the chicken barbecue supper, prepared by Mr. Overton and Henry Sullivan, and served at the golf course club house, Mayor Billy Hatch presented the trophies.

Following the presentation, a business meeting was held to discuss the future of the golf course since the opening of Hay Camp Country Club Golf Course, where a number of the golfers now play.

"The prospect of offering the operation back to the City was discussed for the benefit of the mayor and City Manager Lyman Daniel, who also was present," said Mr. Overton.

"It seems a great number of people wish to retain the golf course and keep it in operation for many sound reasons," he continued. "It is a place of recreation for those who must, as part of treatment of heart disease, have place of exercise. It is a handy place for many who wish to be able to play daily, but distance and other reasons put Hay Camp out of their reach."

"It was pointed out for the benefit of present city officials that the golf course had been a successful venture for the past ten years, constructing and paying off some $12,000 worth of good buildings and some $2,500 worth of equipment, tractors and mowers, at present in good operating shape. All these Parade divisions will include That Skyrocket Band; children's bicycle brigade directed by Mrs. Ralph Owens; adult bicycles, Mrs. Barney Glenn; motorcycles; adult organizations floats; religious floats; farm equipment and horses.

Mrs. Henard emphasized that any entry in any of the divisions wanting to be judged for a prize must register at the Chamber of Commerce and receive a number. This can be done any time next week. Any entry without a number will not be judged.

Horseback riders are urged to participate. They will be judged on appearance and riding ability.

The parade route also was announced.

The parade will form on West Avenue, move to the southwest corner of the square, around the south side, then the east, north and west sides. Upon reaching the southwest corner, the parade will turn west for one block, circle the community building block, return to 10th Street and West Avenue. From there it will retrace its route north a block, then east along the south side of the square. The parade will disband by Clark Chevrolet.

People will try harder to have good government. On the other hand, the bad thing is that some have lost their confidence in the country.

"I think I know the hopes and aspirations of the people of this area," said the state senator, referring to his growing-up years at Memphis. He pledged that if elected, he will be their representative on the floor of congress.

"I will be your intermediary with boards and commissions. You have to have someone to cut the red tape.

The most important issue facing the people is the economy, Mr. Hightower told the Collingsworth group.

And the solution to it will come like any other solution -- getting down to a workable basis. He called for economy in government. He called the energy crisis another of the major problems.

"We must regain confidence in ourselves to elect men to represent us in Congress. We can restore the confidence of the people in government, and the key to this is the ballot box," the state senator declared.

"Our vote (in the rural areas) counts as much as a vote in the metropolitan area," he emphasized. Rural people are not turned off, they are concerned and they know they can do something about the present crisis, Senator Hightower said in closing his talk.

improvements would of course belong to the City in the event the City deemed it advisable to add this golf course to its Park System," Mr. Overton reported.

"There are sufficient numbers of golfers who would continue to pay dues and for golf cart shed rental to support maintenance costs at the present rate, plus the Green Fees collected on a day to day basis which amounts to considerable monthly."

"The members voted to continue operation on a status-quo basis until such a time as further discussions could be made by the City Council. We feel the operation of the golf course by the city would certainly be a boon to citizens of Wellington and a financial asset to the city park system."

TEXAS' 1,795,000 head of cattle and calves on feed for slaughter August 1 was 22 per cent fewer than a year ago but one per cent more than the previous month. The number on feed in the seven biggest cattle-growing states (Texas, Arizona, California, Colorado, Iowa, Nebraska, and Kansas) totaled 7,007,000 head August 1, and that is two per cent fewer than the same time a month ago and 23 per cent fewer than a year ago. Fat cattle that went to market in Texas during July totaled 326,000 which was 16 per cent below July, 1973, and 10 per cent below June marketings. . . . Seven counties in Texas are the first in the State to attain "Certified Brucellosis Free." They are Crane, Ector, Jeff Davis, Loving, Terrell, Winkler, and Ward. Certified brucellosis free, designated by the USDA, means that not more than 0.2 per cent of the counties' cattle were found to be infected during an 18-month testing period.

HAY MAKING in Texas was given a big boost by the rains early in August. The moisture also relieved some pressure on cattlemen to reduce herds but more rain is needed in West Texas if cattlemen are to maintain their herds. Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service says that some areas in the Low Plains and Cross Timbers are still short of stock water.

SWAP VISITS between farm and city families are being launched in a program by the Agriculture Council of America in Iowa, Illinois, and Minnesota. In the "In Touch With America" program, a city family is encouraged to spend a weekend with a farm family during this harvest season, and the farm family is asked to spend a weekend with the city family. The program has been tried in other areas in an effort to create better understandings between city and rural residents. . . . One report says that the average person spent 17 cents more per day for food in 1973 than he did in 1972. Put another way, food that cost $1 in 1972 cost $1.15 at the end of 1973.

Excavation and trenching operations will be offered in Amarillo, Aug. 13. The free course is being conducted by the National Safety Council and The Texas Safety Association in cooperation with the City of Amarillo.

Conducted by representatives of TSA, the Plank Company and Speed Shore Corporation, the Excavation and Trenching Operations training course will be held at Municipal Building, 6th & Buchanan, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

With day or night inspection of any and every excavation and trenching operation now mandatory due to over 225 deaths in 1973, OSHA Compliance Officers under the U.S. Department of Labor, have made excavation and trenching a target program to insure compliance of all federal standards relating to the industry.

Covering all areas from planning through excavation through final backfilling and compaction, attendees will have the opportunity to discuss installation of shoring as well as the advantages and/or disadvantages of the various types of shoring equipment available. Additional to such information as when to use soldier piles, skelton sheeting or solid sheeting, various soil conditions will also be discussed.

To register for this ONE TIME ONLY course, contact Director of Training, Texas Safety Association, P.O. Box 9345, Austin, Texas 78766, phone 512/451-7421.

Outlook Gloomy . . . Fewer Cattle on Feed . . . Rains Help Hay . . . Swap Visits Tried

THE U.S. Department of Agriculture crop estimates earlier this month reflected the gloomy farm outlook over the nation, mainly because drouth has affected production. Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, which is operated jointly by the Texas and U.S. Departments of Agriculture, has an even gloomier outlook for Texas farmers and ranchers. Rains over most areas of the State earlier this month dented that gloom somewhat, but the fact remains that production of only three crops, corn, rice, and flaxseed, is expected to be higher this year than in 1973. Production of 69,750,000 bushels of corn in Texas is forecast, an increase of 15 per cent over last year. The 775,000 acres in corn is 21 per cent more than in 1973. Flaxseed production is expected to be 374,000 bushels, compared to 80,000 bushels in 1973. The rice harvest—about half complete—is expected to yield 23,646,000 cwt., compared to 20,530,000 cwt. last year.

PRODUCTION OF all other Texas crops is expected to be down. Here are the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service's predictions for some of those crops as of August 1: 3,050,000 bales of cotton, compared to 4,673,000 bales last year; 295,000,000 bushels of grain sorghum, almost a third less than the 417,000,000 bushels in 1973; 6,500,000 bushels of soybeans, compared to 8,500,000 bushels last year; 52,800,000 bushels of wheat, compared to 98,600,000 bushels last year; 8,100,000 bushels of oats, compared to 26,650,000 bushels; 1,350,000 bushels of barley, compared to 3,510,000 bushels. It is not a pretty picture.

Customs in Turkey Surprise Visitors

This is the second in a series of articles written from Turkey by Karen McClendon, who is traveling in that country on a 4-H Club fellowship and living with families in that nation.

A graduate of Texas Tech University, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McClendon of Petersburg and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Thompson and Mrs. E.H. McClendon.

This is her newsletter! For an American in Turkey, the customs come as quite a surprise. Visitation is one area I encountered immediately. When entering a Turkish home the initial action would be to remove one's shoes. As a guest, the family may offer you an extra pair of "guest" slippers, or a family member may offer you theirs. In many homes, no shoes of any description are used. Once in the sitting room greetings are made. It is impolite for one to fail to shake everyone's hand in the Turkish home. After inquiries of health are made, the host may offer cologne. The cologne is spread over hands, arms, face and sometimes hair, and is used by both men and women. The host generally offers cigarettes. None would be offered a girl or woman if her father were present, because custom prohibits a female to smoke before her father. Now is the time to drink. Tea and coffee are Turkish favorites.

Turkish coffee is thick and sweetened before serving. The coffee bean is ground up, water is added and then brought to the boiling point. It is served in a demi-tasse cup and only the upper half is consumed, leaving coffee bean sediments in the cup. For a treat, the cup is turned upside down allowing the sediments to run into the saucer. The host Mother then makes the rounds and tells each person's fortune "according to the cup." This is more a form of entertainment than serious business, and the fortunes generally deal with success in love, business, friendships, or, in my case, the arrival of letters from home.

The other typical drinks are hot tea and ayran. Ayran is a mixture of plain yogurt and water. A real thirst quincher when served icy cold.

As the visit draws to a close, everyone shakes hands. Women and men often kiss each other on both cheeks. As a gesture of respect, a child or woman may kiss the hand of an elder and places it to the forehead. With shoes on once again, the visitor departs saying, "Allahsmarledek," which means "God be with you," and the host responds, "gule, gule" . . . "go with joy."

The customs involved in visiting are simple and pleasant, but an American should well be informed of a few others. The sign one might use of joining thumb and first finger to indicate "OK" in America is a high insult if used with a Turk. Tugging at your shirt collar or shirt is a show of disapproval or dislike of something. On the street, expect to see two men, two boys, or two girls walking hand-in-hand. It's a natural thing for friends. Aside from the largest cities, the holding of hands between the sexes is "shameful."

The customs are essentially the same throughout the country. Put your mind at ease, however. As a misafir, or guest, you hold a special position. Come on over—company is always welcome!

Extension Promotes Gross and Gresham

Amarillo (Spl) . . . Two staff members of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service presently serving in the High Plains will take on new responsibilities September 1.

Paul E. Gross, Lubbock County Extension agent, will assume the position of district Extension agent with headquarters in Amarillo and W. W. Grisham, Jr., presently in the Amarillo post, will transfer to Texas A&M University to serve as Extension program specialist.

As district agent Gross will supervise the work of 22 county Extension agents (agriculture) in the Panhandle. Grisham's new responsibilities will include giving leadership to the training of Extension personnel and volunteer adult leaders in the process of developing more effective programs of the Extension Service through the county program building concept.

The joint announcement was made by State Extension Director Dr. John E. Hutchison and Assistant Director and State Agent Joe H. Rothe.

"Both Gross and Grisham have outstanding records and have conducted effective educational programs which have led to an improved agricultural economy and levels of living of many families in the High Plains," said Hutchison and Rothe. "They have reached many adults and 4-H youth and have aspired to the highest principles of Extension educational efforts."

Gross has been with the Extension Service for 22 years, beginning his career as an assistant county agent in Gaines County in 1952. In 1966 he was named Howard County Extension agent and then transferred to Lubbock County in 1971.

He is a native of Crosby County but spent much of his boyhood on a farm near Levelland in Hockley County. He was graduated from Levelland High School, attended Eastern New Mexico University, and then received a B.S. degree in animal science from Texas Tech University. He also holds a master's degree from Texas A&M University in agricultural education.

Gross headed the beef cattle department at the Panhandle South Plains Fair in Lubbock for many years and also served as assistant superintendent of the South Plains Junior Livestock Show. He received the Distinguished Service Award from the National Association of County Agricultural Agents in 1970. Gross was second vice-president of the Texas County Agricultural Agents Association and also a past district director.

He served in the U.S. Army in Korea.

Grisham began his Extension career in 1948 as county Extension agent in Morris County. A year later he transferred to Titus County where he served until 1959. At that time he was appointed to the district agent post in Amarillo.

In addition to directing Extension educational programs relating to agriculture in the Panhandle, Grisham was instrumental in forming the Panhandle Economic Program (PEP) in 1967 and has served as coordinator of the program since that time. The economy of the Panhandle has shown exceptional growth since the inception of PEP, which is designed to promote the efficient and efficient use of human and natural resources to improve agriculture and family living.

Grisham is a native of Erath County and a graduate of Dublin High School. He attended Tarleton State

Prior to joining the Extension Service, Grisham taught vocational agriculture at the Erath County Vocational School and also worked with the Veterans Administration. He served four years in the U.S. Army as a commissioned officer and has remained active in the U.S. Army Reserve, presently holding the rank of lieutenant colonel.

He is a member of the Texas Agricultural Workers Association, Amarillo Rotary Club, Adult Education Association, and Epsilon Sigma Phi, the national fraternity of Extension Service employees.

tion of the nationally-known event.

The Ranch's boys have been preparing for most of the summer by trying to become contestants by riding calves, steers, bulls and bucking broncs. The rodeo's two-hour time limit restricts the number of entries to about 150 boys, but all will have some part in the rodeo production. Trophies are awarded to riders for the best performances in each riding event. All the boys will be competing for the titles of Junior and Senior All-around Cowboys. The two top riders will also share the Michael McAngus Thomas Memorial trophy, a sculpture created by Amarillo artist Jim Thomas in memory of his son.

The rodeo will also be an annual reunion of the Boys Ranch Alumni Association who members are composed of young men who have lived at the Ranch since its founding by Cal Farley in 1939. Another attraction will be bar-be-cue beef plates that will be prepared and sold by the boys for $1.50. Rodeo performances are scheduled for 2:30 p.m., September 1 and 2. Reserve box seat tickets are available at the Boys Ranch Administration office, 600 West 11th in Amarillo for $2.50. "Texas" Closes Ninth Year in Palo Duro CANYON -- The ninth season of the musical drama "Texas" comes to a close tonight. Attracting more people than ever before, the actors, singers, and dancers have played to more than 89,640 people from all the states and many of the countries of the world.

This year 41 percent came from within 100 miles. In 1973, this percentage was 36 percent and in 1972 it was 36 percent. The percentage of people traveling from more than 500 miles away was 29 percent, slightly lower than in the two previous years.

Dates for the 1975 season will be June 18 through August 23.

Auditions for the 1975 season will be held January 18 in Canyon, Texas; January 19 in Lubbock, Texas; March 2 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; March 8 in Dallas, Texas.

Now the Spanish flag, the French flag, the Mexican flag, the Confederate flag, the flag of Texas independence, and the American flag - carried high each evening as the horses go racing across the stage, have been put away for another year and the music has soared for the last performance of "Texas" until 1975.

For information about the 1975 season and auditions, write to "Texas", Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015 or call 806-655-2182.

protein and good nutrition that the specialist suggested keeping in your mind as you shop.

—Proteins are made up of amino acids, some of which are essential to man.

—Vegetable-derived sources of protein are generally less expensive than animal sources, but contain incomplete protein.

—That means some of the essential amino acids are low or missing in vegetable proteins.

—Animal proteins have all the essential amino acids.

—The body uses protein best when foods are teamed to give all the essential amino acids.

Reddy's consumer tips on ... lighting

Edison's light bulb has come a long way since it first lit up the night in 1879; today, lighting is such a natural part of our lives we hardly give it a thought. But the fact is, the more choice we have in how we can use light, the more attention we should pay to how we buy and use light bulbs and lighting fixtures. Put a little more light in your life by following Reddy's money-saving, energy-conserving lighting tips:

CARE FOR LIGHTING EQUIPMENT

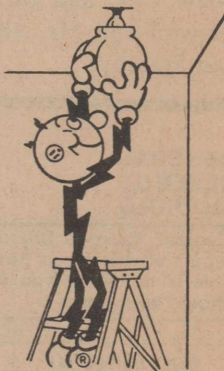

Dust and dirt alone cause substantial losses in the amount of light produced. Systematic cleaning is important. Clean lamp bulbs (when they are cool) with a damp cloth.

Check frequently for defective cords or plugs. Replace or repair them immediately if they are faulty.

LESS IS MORE

Generally, you'll get more light for your money if you use the least amount of bulbs that give the light you need. For instance, one 100-watt bulb gives more light than three 40-watt bulbs—and costs about one-third less to buy and replace.

READ THE LABEL

Speaking of "lumens," you'll find that all light bulbs have three ratings on their packaging. Lumens tell you what the light output or performance of the bulb is. "Watts" tell you how much electricity is needed to produce that light, and "bulb life" is the estimated length of time it will take the filament inside the bulb to burn out. When brightness is more important than bulb life—for reading, studying or working—choose the "standard" life bulb that gives you the most lumens for its wattage.

Remember, Reddy supplies the energy, but only you can use it wisely!

A popular gimmick is the promise of a "free gift." Remember, very few things are really free with no strings attached. Businessmen who make a habit of giving away free goods can not make profit or stay in business long.

Another attention-getter is "you have been selected." This makes a person feel special, but do not be fooled. You may be selected because your name is next on the telephone pages or your house may be next on the block.

The 1974 Fair Needs Our Active Participation

The big 1974 Collingsworth County Fair is just a week away -- seven days in which we can make this one of the finest fairs in its history.

While the Fair depends on crowds for success, it depends even more on our becoming completely involved in the various departments, in making the entry list big and of high quality.

If we feel it would be nice to enter a float in the parade, remember it is even better to go to work and prepare a float.

If you think you have a prize pumpkin or field of maize, a picture or flowers or a piece of handwork, prove it -- to yourself and the whole county. Some blue and red and white ribbons, nicely framed, make a decoration that gives a warmth and pride that nothing else can give.

Despite dry weather, we have quality in the things we produce -- we have talent in the work we fashion with our minds and our hands. These are samples of the things that make this county strong in its agricultural economy -- that make us stand out among counties of the Panhandle.

There is plenty of enthusiasm among the boys and girls as they prepare their cattle entries. This year, let's let some of that enthusiasm rub off on the rest of us. We'll have to show that enthusiasm if the 1974 Collingsworth County Fair is to be a success.

End of the Wheel?

Prehistoric Man must have recoiled in amazement when some ingenious inventor rolled a contraption out of his cave shop and announced he had just discovered the wheel.

Modern man is more indifferent to such accomplishments, we suspect. After all he has television which brings congressional committees and soap opera performers into his living room without so much as a broomstick.

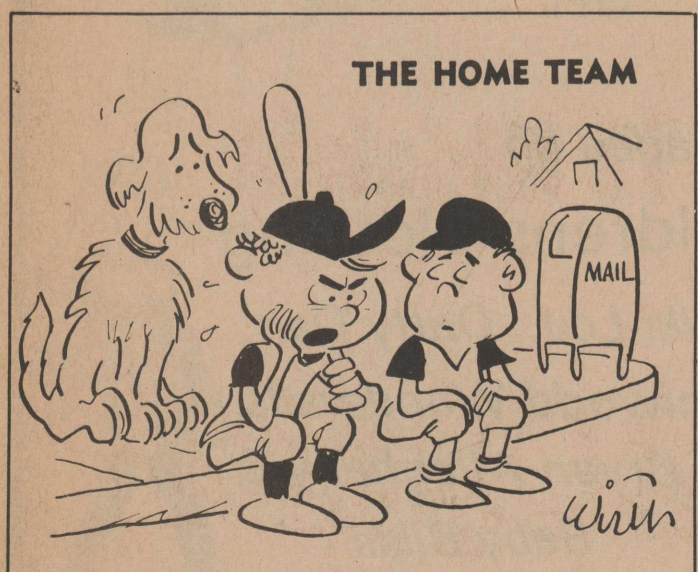

Our society therefore can be forgiven for passing off with casual insensibility a recent announcement by the Department of Transportation that wheels may be replaced one of these days.

The department is looking into the possibility of developing a substitute based on magnetic levitation. It awarded Ford Motor Company a $2.1 million contract to develop and test a vehicle that would ride on a magnetic field above a single aluminum rail.

Instead of rolling along we would go whooshing along, according to people who believe they know about such things. We could travel at speeds of about 400 miles an hour on a magnetic field, and the ride would be as smooth as that of an airplane.

Sounds great. But until that day comes, we'll just go rolling along on the wheel, the product of some inventor who probably didn't receive a dime's worth of government subsidy to develop it.

STATE CAPITAL

Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams

AUSTIN, Tex. — Battle lines are drawn for the State Democratic Convention here September 17.

Liberal delegates, although apparently outnumbered, asserted their intentions at a recent meeting in San Antonio to claim their full share of convention plums.

— First, they made clear, they will fight for proportional representation on the State Democratic Executive Committee, the party's policy-making and house-keeping body in Texas.

— Second, they are demanding their share of the 76 delegates to the national Democratic mid-term mini-convention in Kansas City next December.

— The liberals also made preparations for expressing their views on the party platform, resolutions and rules.

— Finally, they indicated they may challenge Gov. Dolph Briscoe's choice for SDEC chairman and other top committee officers. Choices of incumbent governors for these posts traditionally have gone unchallenged where they have majority control of conventions.

The "open party" Democrats at the San Antonio session adopted a platform committing themselves to a state party organization that will support Democratic candidates and principles at all levels rather than "promoting the policies of incumbent governors."

Bob Bullock of Austin, Democratic nominee for comptroller, is being urged to oppose incumbent SDEC Chairman Calvin Guest of Bryan, Governor Briscoe's choice for a second term.

Meanwhile, the national Democratic charter commission broke up in anger when party regulars and reformers clashed over reform measures in the proposed Democratic constitution.

GOVERNORS TO MEET — Governors of the southern states, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands will meet near here September 8-11 to discuss a wide range of problems, including economy and energy.

Governor Briscoe is host to the Southern Governors Conference which will meet at Lakeway, a luxury resort on Lake Travis 20 miles northwest of the Capital City.

About 300 reporters will join the 19 governors and their staffs for the three-day business meeting, and the social rounds of tennis, golf, sailing and parties.

Gov. Melvin Evans, governor of the Virgin Islands, is chairman of the Southern Governors Conference for 1973-74.

INSURANCE JARGON HIT

— The State Board of Insurance is declaring war on "the fine print, double talk and gobblede-gook" in insurance policies, according to Board Chairman Joe Christie.

Christie said the average policy holder cannot understand policy jargon, and recent tests show Einstein's theory of relativity is more readable than an average hospital insurance plan.

Christie said efforts will be made in the next session of the legislature to improve "the readability factor" of insurance policies. He recommended that other state agencies give some attention to similar readability problems involving documents over which they have jurisdiction.

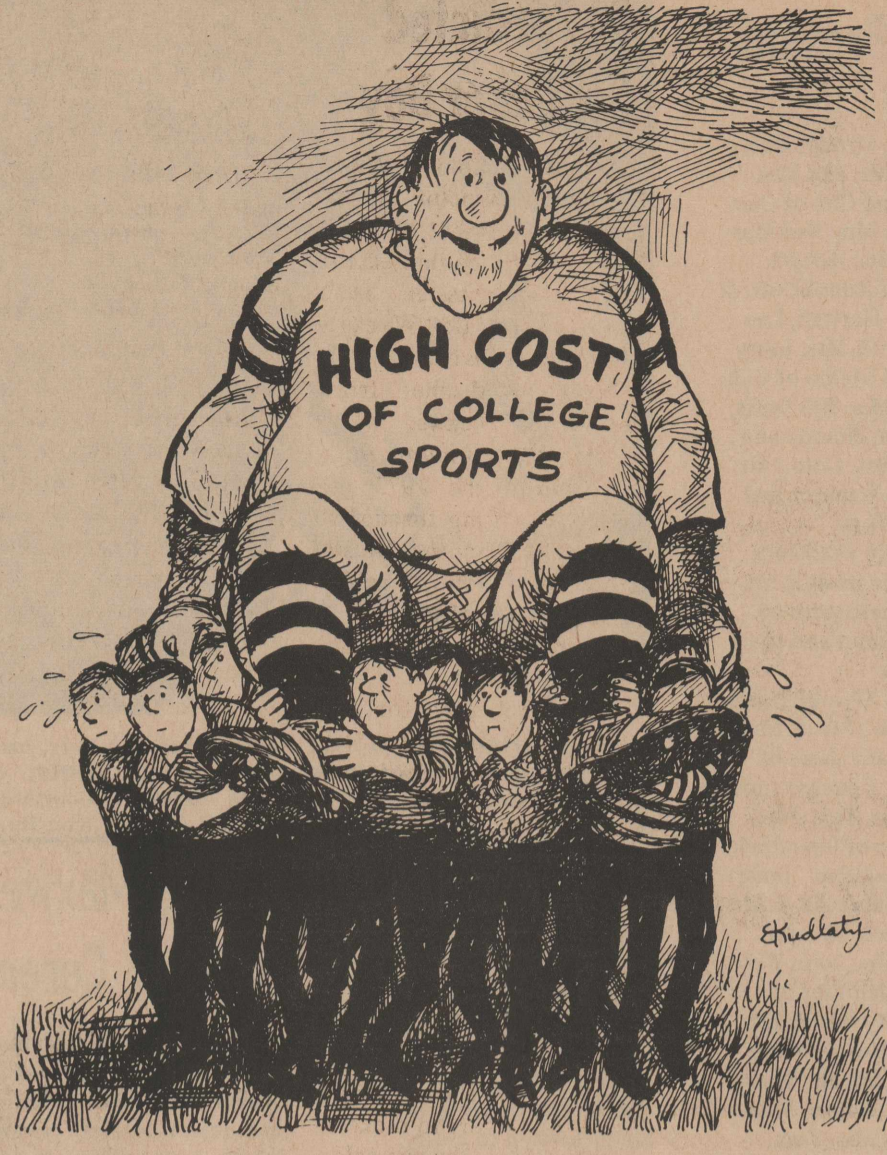

No-fault auto insurance will be another subject for legislative consideration in 1975, Christie told Texas Bankers Association at a conference here. He said a recent study on the subject by the Lyndon Baines Johnson School of Public Affairs will be of major help to lawmakers.

AG OPINIONS — The University of Texas must give a legislator access to files on UT land leases, but may keep confidential land appraisals and sealed bid contents, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

• Records of a city's exercise

Big Man On the Campus

and Mike McKool of Dallas and seven members of the State Democratic Executive Committee.

COMMITTEES NAMED — State Democratic Chairman Calvin Guest named an election advisory committee to plan statewide rallies and extensive voter registration and get-out-the-vote campaigns to help Democratic nominees.

A pre-election statewide telecast is also under consideration for the party's nominees.

Members of the committee include all statewide Democratic nominees, Guadalupe County Democratic Chairman Lem Allen, Travis County Chairman Ken Wendler, Midland County Chairman Vann Culp, Tarrant County Chairman Estil Vance, Swisher County Chairman R. T. O'Daniel.

Also Democratic Congressional Candidates Bob Krueger of New Braunfels, Jack Hightower of Vernon

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

My equal justice proposing neighbor says he notes that many politicians are still demanding the prosecution of Mr. Nixon on charges of lying, taking illegal campaign money, being a Republican, etc.

But he doesn't expect this high moral attitude among some of the politico class to be applied to their own doings.

He says it is too much to hope for that every congressman and judge who ever told a lie, took an illegal dollar, or cussed a little will now confess and hie himself off to jail.

Short Takes

March of Time
If Earth's total age, now estimated by geophysicists at about 4.5 billion years, is taken as a single 24-hour day, today's ocean basins are scarcely an hour old. By the same measure, the cave dwellers were hunting their prey less than a second ago; the past 500 years is but a hundredth of a second, and a 50-year working life is only one thousandth of a second.

Chinese 'Spring' Time
Acrobatics springs from prehistoric times in China. The first tumblers probably performed at primitive farm settlements to earn food and lodging with magic and sleight-of-hand stunts. Acrobats and conjurers later banded together and toured the country, playing to paying audiences.

Marathon Race
The marathon race, usually 26 miles and 385 yards in length, commemorates the reputed feat of the Greek who ran from Marathon to Athens bearing the news of victory in 490 B.C.

Traffic Toll of 34 Predicted For Labor Day

AUSTIN -- Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today estimated that traffic accidents in Texas over the Labor Day Weekend will claim 34 lives.

Speir noted that traffic deaths in Texas, which earlier were running up to 30% under the 1973 toll, have been rising throughout the summer months. He said the upward trend is related to heavier traffic and an alarming disregard for the 55 mile speed limit.

The DPS director said every effort would be made to prevent accidents and deaths by placing all available DPS troopers on duty during the holiday period which extends from 6 p.m. Friday, August 30, through midnight Monday, September 2.

Speir noted that many local law enforcement agencies will be cooperating in the all out effort to make the streets and highways safe.

In addition, he said the DPS would be working with the news media in a special public education program called "Operation Motorcide." A concerted effort will be made to focus public attention on where and why fatal accidents are occurring during the holiday.

Variable Interest Rates

Several columns ago I commented on a new practice by some mortgage lenders in the Milwaukee area of slipping a sliding-scale interest rate clause into conventional new-home loans. No one thought much about it until the money crunch hit. Then the interest rate went up on a number of home loans and the screams of unhappy homeowners were heard all the way to Washington.

Once again the proposal has been made by the head of the Federal Home Loan Bank that variable interest rates be used on home mortgages. The variable interest rate proposal was made two years ago and received such a violent congressional reaction at that time that it was quickly withdrawn. The objectionable part then, as now, was whether the proposal could lead to a rise in home mortgage interest costs of as much as 2 1/2% over the life of a mortgage.

The variable interest rate proposal is being offered as a possible solution to the heavy drain of depositors dollars out of savings and loan associations and into other higher yielding short term investments. Time was when a government ceiling on how much a savings and loan could pay depositors, helped keep home mortgage rates down. But not any more. The average effective interest rate on conventional new-home loans has hit an all-time high of 9%, up from 7.8% just a year ago. So, in spite of government ceilings on the amount of interest which savings and loan depositors may receive, mortgage interest rates continue to flee the thrift institutions.

Better than 60% of the country's housing money comes from thrift institutions where the small investors put their savings. Congress is aware of the right of the small investor to get an attractive return on his savings. By holding down interest rates on savings and loan deposits, the govern-

Nine Lakes Beckon Along the Red River

Nine major lakes beckon water enthusiasts in an area some 50 miles wide and 170 miles long running from Gainesville on the east to Quanah on the west along the Red River in West Texas.

The Wichita Falls metro-area is a focal point for excursions throughout this region of West Texas. Within 50 miles of Wichita Falls lie five of the lakes -- the largest of which are Lake Kemp located south of Vernon near Seymour and Lake Arrowhead 15 miles southeast of Wichita Falls below Henrietta. Lake Wichita, Diversion and Kickapoo are popular recreation areas and all are located a short drive southwest of the city of Wichita Falls.

Lake Pauline near Quanah, the town which was named for the famous Comanche Chief Quanah Parker; Lake Nocona, Moss Lake near Gainesville and Lake Bridgeport round out a fine selection of lakes for the consideration of the serious angler or the family out to enjoy a weekend of boating.

"There is indeed something for everyone in this fascinating region bordering the Red River" says J. Fike Godfrey, Executive Vice President of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Visit historic Doan's Crossing, 16 miles north of Vernon on the Red River. Doan's was the most famous crossing on the Red River for the massive cattle drives of the turn of the century. Longhorns by the hundreds of thousands crossed here on the way to Kansas and other northern markets.

Medicine Mound, near the present city of Chillicothe, echoes chants of civilizations past and a short drive south from Quanah is Copper Breaks State Park, the state's newest park named for the copper despoits in the area. This new recreational area opened to the public last year is rich in scenic beauty and when finished will feature a lake complete with swimming beach. It is also being stocked for fishing.

Museums unfolding chapters out of the past are to be found in just about every town in this part of West Texas. The modern motif of the Wichita Falls Museum and Art Center is a must for the visitor. Nearby Burkburnett is home of the "Boomtown" Oil Park Museum featuring equipment depicting of the early day oil booms of West Texas.

Decatur has a fine museum and visitors should not miss the Fort Richardson State Park Museum near Jacksboro.

Nocona, famous for the manufacture of quality western boots and Bowie, named for James Bowie, hero of the Alamo, lie to the east of Wichita Falls.

Cycle Shop Owners Thanked for Assist

Wellington's famous hospitality received a commendation and motorcycling a boost when Boyd Derryberry and Lynn Derryberry of Handlebar Cycle Shop assisted a fellow cyclist. The letter from Mr. and Mrs. T.L. King of Houston to the Derryberrys reads:

"My husband and I would like to thank you for your assistance in our time of need Sunday, August 4, 1974. On that date you opened your shop so that Mr. Powitzky, one of our friends, could purchase a tire and tube for our Honda. We had a blow-out on the other side of Childress, Texas, and you were gracious enough to help us so that we might continue our trip to Colorado.

It's not often you find people who are courteous and considerate of people in need of assistance, and we did not want your kindness to be overlooked.

Thank you once again for everything."

Price becomes the first Republican asked to join the group of more than twenty Democrats.

Price is a senior member of the House Agriculture Committee and is recognized among his colleagues for his expertise on agricultural, ranching and rural matters.

"I have worked informally with the leadership of the Congressional Rural Caucus on a number of important matters because we share common interests," Price said, "and I am pleased to be formally invited to join this body and make it politically non-partisan. The important thing is not party label, but cooperative activity in behalf of the people we represent."

Price's 13th Congressional District of Texas has 15 people per square mile, with a large share of its population, including those living in its urban centers, economically dependent, at least indirectly, on the agricultural sector.

Questions People Ask About the Catholic Church

Q. My friend had a bet against me that there are no Catholics in the Virgin Islands.

A. Your friend loses. According to the 1973 census, there are almost 20,000 Catholics there, out of a total population of 70,000, and that includes a Bishop, 6 parishes, and 20 priests. Hope he hadn't too much money on the bet.

Q. If you saw something offensive on your TV, would you turn it off right away?

A. I really don't know what you mean by offensive. It's a purely relative term. I consider such things as screaming announcers, quiz shows, most commercials, blurbs for deodorants in the midst of my lunch, farm and ranch shows, and bloody reports of accidents and deaths offensive, but other people might like them. If you are speaking of sex and nudity, we get very little of that blatantly on TV.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—by Deskins Wells

THE OTHER morning I was sitting in front of my typewriter wishing it would rain as much in Wellington as it was in Amarillo at that time. I had been gazing rather indifferently at a stack of daily newspapers wondering if something had happened to me or the newspapers, for these were the same daily papers I read in Wellington. Suddenly I had the answer for peeking out from the stack of papers was the corner of a three week old copy of The Hollis Weekly News.

IT WAS the neighboring weekly newspapers I had been missing. They provide an element of news that a daily newspaper simply cannot supply. Each week for years, I have been reading the papers from Memphis, Clarendon, Shamrock, Mangum, Hollis and Childress as well as a larger number farther away. Sometimes I read them closely and sometimes there was only a glance at the main stories and the advertisement. Even in these occasions there was generally something to read, to return to, and read more closely before Sunday.

AS LONG as Jimmie Gillentine wrote his column, the Hereford Brand was the first exchange paper I picked up. In recent years it has been The Perryton Herald for my daughter Diane and her family live there. This has been particularly true this summer for my granddaughter, Marian, has been working for the Herald as a reporter, photographer and feature story writer, and I might add that she writes very well and has a strong clear style that makes for easily understood reading.

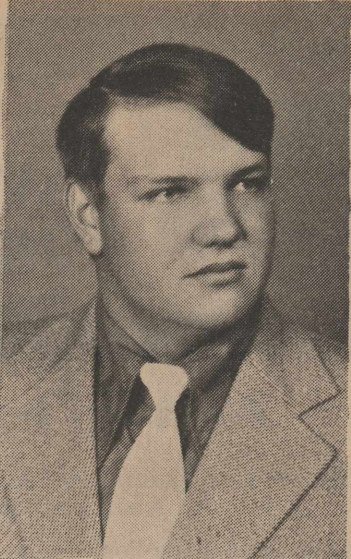

MY INTEREST in weekly papers is not new. Fifty years ago, August 1, 1924, I started working on the Wellington Leader. For length and continuity of service on one newspaper, it is a record rivaled only by Wes Izzard who began work on The Amarillo Globe about the same time.

LOUISE and I talked about some type of an observance of this 50th anniversary when I was confined in the hospital in Houston and again in the early spring months. We discussed a number of things; but we had settled on only one and that was a reunion of all former employees and present employees at Hay Camp on August 1. Since the first came on Thursday we thought we might as well run it over into an informal come and go breakfast at the Cherokee Inn with visiting at the newspaper office through out Friday.

THAT IS what we had planned for the summer: but fate has a way of decreeing otherwise for all of us. So we will plan this reunion of former and present employees of The Leader for some other month or some other year.

Mr. and Mrs. C.R. Stuckey returned to Houston Sunday after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stuckey and visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stuckey from Orland, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hughey and Julie of Houston visited recently with his father, Lee Hughey. Their son, Robb, who has been visiting his grandfather three weeks, went home with them.

Renee Mitchell Competes in 'Miss Wheatheart'

Renee Mitchell, a senior at Wellington High School this year, was a contestant in the "Miss Wheatheart of the Nation" Beauty Contest to be held in Perryton, August 24. As one of about 30 beauty contest winners from the five-state area, Miss Mitchell competed in both swim suit and formal competition for the crown of the pageant as well as a $1,000 college scholarship.

Currently reigning as Miss Wellington, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Mitchell of Wellington. She was sponsored in the contest by the Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce.

Forty-six Attend Nicholson Reunion

A picnic lunch was served to 46 ex-students of the Nicholson School and their friends in the first reunion Sunday, August 18.

It was decided to make the Nicholson reunion an annual affair. Eula Tuck was elected president, Mattie Garner vice-president and Fay Dunnaway secretary-treasurer. The reunions will be held at the same time each year.

Two Fined on DWI Charges

Two men were fined in county court Monday afternoon, August 26, on charges of driving while intoxicated, Policeman Mike Gilmore reported. Both were arrested during the weekend.

Mr. Gilmore said that the first occurred Friday about 6:00 p.m. when a pickup driven by Doc Lewis struck the left rear of a car belonging to night officer Wilson Porter and parked in front of his home on Haskell Street.

Upon pleading guilty in court Monday, Mr. Lewis was assessed a fine of $100, plus costs, 10 days in jail and suspension of his drivers license for one year. The latter two were probated, as this was a first offense, Mr. Gilmore said.

A passenger in the pickup, upon being questioned through an interpreter at jail, proved to be a Mexican national who had entered the U.S. illegally. The Border Patrol was notified and the man, who was working here, was picked up Monday for return to Mexico.

The second DWI charge was filed against Frank Aguirre, who was picked up on US 83 in town about 6:30 Sunday by Highway Patrolman Harold Price.

Mr. Aguirre also pled guilty in county court Monday afternoon and was assessed a fine of $100 plus costs, and his driver's license was suspended for one year, according to Mr. Gilmore.

A Hollis man was also arrested, but the charge of DWI was dismissed later, the policeman said.

Mr. Gilmore said there has been a marked increase in the number of DWI cases handled by law enforcement officers in Wellington and the county in recent months.

Rogers, Imitations to Play at Hay Camp

Roy Rogers and the Imitations, one of the major name bands of the southwest, will play at Hay Camp Country Club Saturday, August 31, A.B. Dean has announced.

The dance will begin at 8:00 p.m. and continue until 1:00 a.m.

The weather will determine whether Rogers and the Imitations will appear in the lounge, by the Club House, or at the Swimming Pool near the entrance to the Hay Camp Grounds.

Concerning the band, Mr. Dean said:

Roy and the Imitations is a band, and they do travel. This past year from Nevada to Alabama, and from Texas to North Dakota. You could find this fine group most anywhere along the way.

Roy and the Imitations has for many years enjoyed an enviable reputation . . . having worked successful engagements in 17 states.

On the bandstand Roy seems to carry a sixth sense when it comes to playing the right selections and tempos to get things moving. And, once the people are dancing he pays careful attention to requests. Always getting the pulse and the desires of the customers . . . then playing accordingly.

Roy's repertoire covers the gamut of music so his musicians have to be specially "Roy Rogers" trained and indoctrinated in his musical style. With his versatility, regardless where he works, the Imitation has the tunes, and a leader, capable to reign supreme for dancing and listening enjoyment.

Let Roy Rogers and the Imitations share an evening with you. You will be thoroughly entertained.

High Plains Field Day to Be September 12

The 18th Annual Field Day and Open House at the High Plains Research Foundation has been scheduled for Thursday, September 12, 1974.

Field tours will begin at 1:30 p.m. and continue throughout the afternoon on 20 minute intervals. There will be no stops on the tour this year, in order to allow interested persons to view as many of the research projects underway as possible. A weekly series of articles will be released to give area citizens a preview of what will be seen on the field tours.

Facilities to eat lunch will be available, and a shaded rest area will be set up for the convenience of visitors.
