Ochiltree County Can Meet Quota for Final Drive if Every Person Will Do Their Part

The final loan drive of the war, the Victory Loan Drive, started Monday morning in Ochiltree county. With the exception of the 2nd War Loan, this the 8th Drive, is the smallest of the entire war. Ochiltree county has been assigned an overall quota of $265,000, $195,000 of the overall quota being in Series E Savings Bonds.

People of Ochiltree county, with few exceptions, are in splendid financial condition . . . in fact most people in this county have more money than they ever had before in their lives. Bank deposits are at an all-time high figure. The county will have no trouble in meeting the assigned quota of $265,000 . . . . if everyone will just buy their part of the quota.

American farmers now own War Bonds in excess of four and one-half billion dollars. Farm real estate mortgages have declined over 1.3 billion dollars since 1940. The total financial assets of the nation's agriculture, not counting debt reduction, have increased 12 billion dollars in the last five years. The Bureau of Agriculture Economics estimates that about 13 percent of farmers' net income in 1941 went into War Bonds.

Farmers are to be praised for their War Bond buying record. It shows patriotic support of the nation's war efort. Along with other savings and debt reduction this is also proof that farmers are profiting from the lesson of World War I when the farm mortgage debt increased 2½ billion from 1941 to 1919. This time, if the present trend continues, farmers are going to have money to take advantage of the opportunities of peace. Such a condition will benefit agricultural and the entire nation.

Engineers Checking Lake Fryer Spillway

Engineers from the Fort Worth and Washington offices of the Soil Conservation Service are making an examination of the damage to the spillway at the Lake Fryer Dam during the recent high water. They arrived in Perryton Tuesday and started their survey Wednesday morning. In the party is Engineer F. E. Blackert, Fort Worth; H. K. Rouse, hydro research engineer of Fort Worth; and Senior Engineer S. R. Sapirie of the Washington offices. Their findings will be the basis of recommendations for repairing the spillway. Unofficial reports indicate that the damage from the flood waters is not as great as preliminary inspections indicated.

Opening Gun Sounds Friday For Duck Season; Lake Open

Ochiltree hunters are primed this week to have fresh game for the table when duck season opens tomorrow, Nov. 2. Although a shortage of ammunition was indicated by the rapidness with which the limited supply received by local dealers was purchased, hunters will have a field day during the opening stages of the season at least.

John Coburn, cancessionaire at Lake Fryer, announces that again this year duck and geese hunting will be allowed at the lake starting Friday and Sunday and each Friday, Sunday and holidays, until close of the hunting season.

Federal and State game laws will prevail with the following regulations governing Lake Fryer in addition.

Hunters over 16 must have on his or her person a signed duck stamp and state hunting license. Each hunter must check in and out with Mr. Coburn during each days hunt. There will be no exceptions to this regulation.

Shooting will be allowed only from allocated places. A number of blinds are already setup at Lake Fryer and will be available to hunters. Those desiring to construct their own blinds may do so by special arrangement with the concessionaire and by purchasing season license. Charges are $1.00 for a daily permit and $10.00 for the season. Permits may be secured from Mr. Coburn at the lake.

There are quite a number of ducks present at Fryer with more expected as the season progresses. The fowl are late in putting in their appearance this season, Mr. Coburn said.

Preparations Are Made for Court Terms

Judicial machinery has been set in motion in preparation for the November terms of county and district court sessions it was revealed this week as jury lists were released and convening dates set by county officials.

Dockets are comparatively light this term with a total of 41 cases filed in District court. Of this number 21 were delinquent tax suits and 20 were civil cases. Only three or four of the civil cases will be contested, it was said. Judge Jack R. Allen of the 84th Judicial District will preside when court convenes following grand jury proceedings. W. L. McConnell will serve in his official capacity of district attorney.

Subpoenaed as grand jurors to meet at the court house at 10:00 a. m. Monday, Nov. 12, were the following: Claud Allen, W. W. Blackburn, J. L. Bryan, Benard Hurter, J. W. Daniel, O. C. Rogers, A. W. Henry, Fred Turner, W. L. Anderson, R. A. Bolerjack, D. A. Cronister, N. P. Dear, Roger Pearson,

Rangers Meet Phillips Friday

Much is at stake in the football fortunes of the Perryton Rangers when they meet the Phillips Blackhawks at 8:00 p. m. in enemy territory Friday Nov. 2. Standing third place in both season and conference play, the Rangers are following Canadian and Phillips in percentage of wins thus far with a possible win over Phillips Friday night placing them in a high bracket in District 2A football.

Coach Murray says his men are putting everything they have into strengthening their offensive and defensive strategy in preparation for the tilt and will go all-out in the attempt to overcome the Blackhawk's impressive record—six victories and one defeat inasmuch as they have five victories and one defeat themselves. Over confidence is not entering into the picture as far as they are concerned as they, are, to a man, aware of the odds they tackle.

The tentative lineup against Phillips will be the same as Thursday's grid match with Liberal except Stinson will go in as a 161 pound left guard, Revis, will enter as a 153 pound right end and Hummer may replace Jones in the backfield.

Drive for War Chest Funds is Extended to Cover Month of November; Ochiltree Fails in Quota

At the conclusion of the Ochiltree county War Fund drive to raise a quota of $7,809 alloted as a minimum goal, citizens have failed miserably with only 22 persons contributing during the last week in the amount of $515 to bring a total of $2,012.50 donated. The final tally was made at close of business Wednesday, Oct. 31, and covered only 75 contributions received for the total amount and period.

However, even though Ochiltree county has had a part in a general let down in the National drive, it may still redeem itself according to word received Wednesday from United War Chest of Texas headquarters by which the campaign for the desperately needed funds has been extended through November.

Gov. Coke R. Stevenson, honorary president and Judge Ben Powell, president United War Chest of Texas, said in part:

"Failure National war fund campaign in Texas to raise more than 62 percent state quota in scheduled month of October presents serious problems. Active campaign period is hereby extended for month of November.

November therefore will settle question Texas leadership in two patriotic investment enterprises, namely in war gifts and war bonds. Both aid our fighting men. Both are needed to conclude war job successfully. However, neither should interfere with the other. It is unthinkable Texas should put over bond campaign and fail in war fund effort.

Ochiltree at Bottom In War Chest Giving

The Panhandle is amazed at the poor showing Ochiltree county is making in the current United States War Chest drive. Ochiltree, throughout the entire war, has been a state leader in War Chest and Red Cross donations, purchase of War Bonds and all other war effort programs. With a county quota of $7,809 for the United War Chest, total donations at the end of October were only $2,012.50, less than one-third of the quota. The average subscription of those giving is high, the $2,012.50 has been donated by only 75 people. A very, very small percentage of the people of Ochiltree county have heeded the appeal. Following is the standing of the counties in the 18th District on Oct. 27. Ochiltree county is at the bottom of the list.

JUST HERE and THERE

Somehow or other we just can't get all worked up in a dither about the wave of strikes by union labor or the "we just don't want to work" attitude of a lot of unorganized labor. To tell you the truth, we feel just that way ourselves, but as it happens, we can't lay down on the job right now.

These folks that are getting a lot of cussing right now, we're talking about labor in general . . . they're just folks like the rest of us . . . they're fathers and mothers, brothers and sisters, wives and husbands of service men and women . . . in fact a lot of them are ex-service men and women.

We are pretty sure that a lot of these strikes, walkouts and refusals to work can be attributed to the general let down . . . natural result of long sustained high geared war effort, the worry over loved ones in danger.

Now that the shootin' is over, a lot of us are letting down. As we have said, we like to shoot the works and take a long, long rest. But the time is not here yet for us . . . but instead of attempting to try and fill this column this week, we are passing on to you a birth announcement from Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Reeves of Amarillo.

Garnet is well known to many Ochiltree county folks. He was secretary of the chamber of commerce at Pampa for many years . . . in fact Garnet made the address at our annual chamber of commerce banquet a few years ago. Here's our column for this week. Garnet wrote it for us.

The Victory Loan

Generally speaking, this loan is properly named. It denotes we have won this most terrible of all wars and that we are given an opportunity to once again support our Government with our money and at the same time earn a profit by so doing.

But this is not a Victory Loan in the total sense of the word. There are good reasons for saying that. One of them is the disabled veteran, the man who cannot go back to his regular occupation because of some wound or disability received in the service of his country so that, in due time, we could celebrate our Victory.

The Victory Loan was planned more for our disabled men than it was to celebrate Victory. Victory Loan War Bond money will find its way into the solitude of the hospital mental ward, into the veteran hospital operating room, into the work shop and into rehabilitation and educational centers. The recipients of Victory Loan Bond dollars will be men who made it possible for us to celebrate this Victory.

That is why this isn't a Victory Loan in the total sense. We will not have complete Victory until we give complete care to our wounded and disabled. Then we will not be finished. We must retain these men so they can stage their own come-back into organized society and make for themselves a place that was denied them during their service to all of us.

Support the Victory Loan Bond campaign. To do so is to be a part in a most solemn obligation.

Babson Discusses Leisure Stocks

ROGER W. BABSON, Editor-in-Chief

Babson Park, Mass., Oct. 26. When war plants were going full blast, I suggested to readers of this column that they buy the stocks of merchandising companies because people then had Money to spend. Now, when these war plants are shutting down, I suggest the serious consideration of the stocks of leisure companies because people now have TIME to spend.

Leisure Stocks

There are several examples of leisure stocks—namely, stocks of companies which have their peak business when people have the most spare time;—that is working forty hours per week instead of fifty-four hours. Ordinarily, movie stocks would be a good example; but they have already gone up so much in price that they may not now be attractive. A true leisure stock is one which obliged to curtail...and cut its dividend during wartime.

Perhaps the simplest examples of companies profiting most when wage workers have reasonable leisure are those making bowling alleys, billiard tables and the like. This should be especially true if the company has funds so as to be able to sell on installments as soon as the restrictions are off installment selling. Please, however, do not ask me to name any such company. Go to your broker and ask him to tell you what concerns are the leaders in the field. Incidentally, such stocks are the best hedge against the unwarranted activities of labor leaders.

Opportunities for Veterans

I hesitate to advise any returning veteran to enter business for himself at this time. By all means make every effort to buy out some small existing business rather than to start a new business. However, if a reader is really determined to enter business for himself he had far better stick to the "service" line of companies. They are more adapted to being run by their owners and—as a rule—are not dominated by labor leaders.

A company which installs bowling alleys and similar apparatus is usually prepared to enter the installment business. Certainly, installment stocks, which have been held back throughout the war, should be better purchases than the stocks of most concerns. Hence, a veteran may open a new bowling alley with a payment of a very little money down because these "sports" concerns are prepared to "install on installment payments". Another thought: Such sports as bowling, pool, etc., which up to now have been patronized 90 per cent by men, will soon also become a women's sport as well.

Recreation an Industry

A generation or so ago, sports were carried on in an informal way, largely by colleges, Y. M. C. A.'s and clubs of various kinds. This was because people worked long hours and only the young, the old and the unemployed indulged in baseball, bowling, pool, etc. But today the situation is rapidly changing. I even forecast that football teams will be incorporated and also stock sold to the public.

The commercialization of sports has both advantages and disadvantages. If it is controlled by men of good character and kept clean, it will work out for the good of all. Certainly, men and women, after finishing their day's work, would be better off by bowling than by drinking—and the two cannot successfully be combined. Another thing which should be remembered by all readers of this column: Although it is the personal affair of an individual and his employer what he or she does during his working hours, it is of paramount importance to the entire community what he or she does during the leisure hours.

Remember Filling Stations

Yes, it is a sure bet that wage workers will have more leisure time during the next few years than they have had any year since 1939. May it not be wise to capitalize on this coming change? Readers remember how I urged the buying of closed filling stations two years ago. Well, they are now selling for double and treble their then wartime prices. Look forward—not backward!

Waka H. D. Club Meets At Ochiltree Building

The Waka Home Demonstration Club will hold the next regular meeting at the Lounge, Wednesday, Nov. 7, at 2:30 p. m., announces Mrs. P. W. Wermske, hostess to the group for the meet. An entertainment program is being arranged by members of the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Weldon and family of Lubbock and his nieces, Viola and Christine Weldon of Bay City, Texas, spent the weekend in the G. E. Schroeder home and visiting with other friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Graham left Saturday for their new home 14 miles east of Wheeler. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crocker are taking over the Graham farm south of Perryton. Mr. Crocker received his discharge from the Navy September 15. Mrs. Crocker and Mrs. Graham are sisters.

Farm Magazine Features Powers And Zirkle

Two Ochiltree county farmers, Percy Powers and C. A. Zirkle who live near Perryton, are featured in stories in the November issue of Capper's Farmer, describing their smart farm management methods.

Powers is cited in a story entitled "Silage Carrier Track."

"It isn't necessary to back a truck or wagon into trench silos at the Powers' place," the story in the nationally circulated farm magazine points out. "Powers uses a carrier that moves on an overhead track to get feed out of his trenches for 200 Angus cows and heifers. He has several of these trenches and track and carrier are easy to move from one silo to another.

"He grows Atlas sorgo for winter feed, aims to carry a 2-year's supply, so he will not be caught short after a dry year or when a snowy winter keeps his cattle off wheat pasture."

Zirkle is mentioned in a story headed "No Grain Needed" which tells that wheat pasture fits well with fall lamb production, with the result that he puts pasture fattened October lambs on the market at 98 pounds by March 20 each year.

The Victory Loan

Generally speaking, this loan is properly named. It denotes we have won this most terrible of all wars and that we are given an opportunity to once again support our Government with our money and at the same time earn a profit by so doing.

But this is not a Victory Loan in the total sense of the word. There are good reasons for saying that. One of them is the disabled veteran, the man who cannot go back to his regular occupation because of some wound or disability received in the service of his country so that, in due time, we could celebrate our Victory.

The Victory Loan was planned more for our disabled men than it was to celebrate Victory. Victory Loan War Bond money will find its way into the solitude of the hospital mental ward, into the veteran hospital operating room, into the work shop and into rehabilitation and educational centers. The recipients of Victory Loan Bond dollars will be men who made it possible for us to celebrate this Victory.

That is why this isn't a Victory Loan in the total sense. We will not have complete Victory until we give complete care to our wounded and disabled. Then we will not be finished. We must retain these men so they can stage their own come-back into organized society and make for themselves a place that was denied them during their service to all of us.

Support the Victory Loan Bond campaign. To do so is to be a part in a most solemn obligation.

Babson Discusses Leisure Stocks

ROGER W. BABSON, Editor-in-Chief

Babson Park, Mass., Oct. 26. When war plants were going fullblast, I suggested to readers of this column that they buy the stocks of merchandising companies because people then had Money to spend. Now, when these war plants are shutting down, I suggest the serious consideration of the stocks of leisure companies because people now have TIME to spend.

Leisure Stocks

There are several examples of leisure stocks—namely, stocks of companies which have their peak business when people have the most spare time;—that is working forty hours per week instead of fifty-four hours. Ordinarily, movie stocks would be a good example; but they have already gone up so much in price that they may not now be attractive. A true leisure stock is one which obliged to curtail and cut its dividend during wartime.

Perhaps the simplest examples of companies profiting most when wage workers have reasonable leisure are those making bowling alleys, billiard tables and the like. This should be especially true if the company has funds so as to be able to sell on installments as soon as the restrictions are off installment selling. Please, however, do not ask me to name any such company. Go to your broker and ask him to tell you what concerns are the leaders in the field. Incidentally, such stocks are the best hedge against the unwarranted activities of labor leaders.

Opportunities for Veterans

I hesitate to advise any returning veteran to enter business for himself at this time. By all means make every effort to buy out some small existing business rather than to start a new business. However if a reader is really determined to enter business for himself he had far better stick to the "service" line of companies. They are more adapted to being run by their owners and—as a rule—are not dominated by labor leaders.

A company which installs bowling alleys and similar apparatus is usually prepared to enter the installment business. Certainly, installment stocks, which have been held back throughout the war, should be better purchases than the stocks of most converters. Hence, a veteran may open a new bowling alley with a payment of a very little money down because these "sports" concerns are prepared to "install on installment payments". Another thought: Such sports as bowling, pool, etc., which up to now have been patronized 90 per cent by men, will soon also become a woman's sport as well.

Recreation an Industry

A generation or so ago, sports were carried on in an informal way, largely by colleges, Y. M. C. A.'s and clubs of various kinds. This was because people worked long hours and only the young, the old and the unemployed indulged in baseball, bowling, pool, etc. But today the situation is rapidly changing. I even forecast that football teams will be incorporated and also stock sold to the public.

The commercialization of sports has both advantages and disadvantages. If it is controlled by men of good character and kept clean, it will work out for the good of all. Certainly, men and women, after finishing their day's work, would be better off by bowling than by drinking—and the two cannot successfully be combined. Another thing which should be remembered by all readers of this column: Although it is the personal affair of an individual and his employer what he or she does during his working hours, it is of paramount importance to the entire community what he or she does during the leisure hours.

Remember Filling Stations

Yes, it is a sure bet that wage workers will have more leisure time during the next few years than they have had any year since 1929. May it not be wise to capitalize on this coming change? Readers remember how I urged the buying of closed filling stations two years ago. Well, they are now selling for double and treble their then wartime prices. Look forward—not backward!

Waka H. D. Club Meets At Ochiltree Building

The Waka Home Demonstration Club will hold the next regular meeting at the Lounge, Wednesday, Nov. 7, at 2:30 p. m., announces Mrs. P. W. Wermske, hostess to the group for the meet. An entertainment program is being arranged by members of the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Weldon and family of Lubbock and his nieces, Viola and Christine Weldon of Bay City, Texas, spent the weekend in the G. E. Schroeder home and visiting with other friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Graham left Saturday for their new home 14 miles east of Wheeler. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crocker are taking over the Graham farm south of Perryton. Mr. Crocker received his discharge from the Navy September 15. Mrs. Crocker and Mrs. Graham are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kammerer and son, Jacob Lee, of Duncan, Okla., were visiting friends in this community the first of the week. They spent last week at Follett with his mother and visiting relatives at Canadian and Shattuck.

Farm Magazine Features Powers And Zirkle

Two Ochiltree county farmers, Percy Powers and C. A. Zirkle who live near Perryton, are featured in stories in the November issue of Capper's Farmer, describing their smart farm management methods.

Powers is cited in a story entitled "Silage Carrier Track."

"It isn't necessary to back a truck or wagon into trench silos at the Powers' place," the story in the nationally circulated farm magazine points out. "Powers uses a carrier that moves on an overhead track to get feed out of his trenches for 200 Angus cows and heifers. He has several of these trenches and track and carrier are easy to move from one silo to another.

"He grows Atlas sorgo for winter feed, aims to carry a 2-year's supply, so he will not be caught short after a dry year or when a snowy winter keeps his cattle off wheat pasture."

Zirkle is mentioned in a story headed "No Grain Needed" which tells that wheat pasture fits well with fall lamb production, with the result that he puts pasture fattened October lambs on the market at 98 pounds by March 20 each year.

Air Medal to Lt. Edwin Thomas

Calcutta—First Lieutenant, Edwin W. Thomas, Jr., first pilot, of Perryton, Texas, has been awarded Air Medal, it has been announced by Brig. Gen. William H. Tunner, commanding general of the India China Division, Air Transport Command.

The India China Division is completing, by homeward movements of frieght and personnel, its war mission of trans-India, India-China and intra-China Transport. It has made air history by flying cargo and passengers in regularly scheduled day-and-night transit routes once virtually unusable, primarily the famed Hump. Its war contribution, say aviation leaders, has provided far-reaching portents for the future of air transport on a world-wide scale. July, 1945, saw 71,000 tons cross the Hump, while at the moment of Jap surrender the rate was nearly two tons a minute.

"From a small monthly tonnage at the outlet", said General Turner in a war's-end statement to his troops, "cargo to China has increased until it has been proved that whole armies could be supplied by air in China—and they were, to the distress and destruction of our enemies".

Lt. General Albert C. Wedemeyer, commander of all U. S. Forces in China, has said, "Through enemy fire and through all sorts of weather, over oceans, mountains, desert and jungle, those planes came, never failing. Upon their cargos battles have been fought and victoris won. Upon their cargoes China survived when there was no other contact with the world. Your fliers made the Hump the most famous mountain range in the universe".

Want A Gun? Many Will Be Given Away—?

Thousands of obsolete guns, howitzers, tanks and other Ordnance items will soon be released to take the place of the community's old cannon or howitzer that went to war via the nation-wide scrap drive.

Community organizations can now apply for items of obsolete combat material which the Ordnance Department is authorized to scrap according to a recent policy announced by Major General Henry B. Sayler, Deputy Chief of Ordnance in Washington.

Also eligible are Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans Reserve, and other war veterans' associations, non-profit museum and municipal corporations.

About four thousand weapons valued at more than ten million dollars in original cost have been declared obsolete by the War Department. Over two thousand of these weapons are big guns and howitzers.

Organizations applying to the Chief of Ordinance, Washington, D. C., for these obsolete weapons must resume all packing, handling and transportation expenses from the nearest depot. Howitzers weigh about twelve thousand pounds; big guns run about 26,000 pounds, light tanks tip the scales at about 33,000 pounds, and transportation expenses should be considered before ordering a new decoration for the village green.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to wit: This is suit in statutory trespass to try title, plaintiff alleging that on October 1, 1945, he was the owner in fee simple of the following described land and premises situated in Ochiltree County, Texas, to-wit:

Section No. 664, in Blk. No. 43, Cert. No. 47/6493, issued to H. & T. C. Ry. Co. and containing 664 acres; the E ½ and NW ¼ of Section No. 657, Blk. 43, Cert. No. 47/6490 issued to the H. & T. C. Ry. J. Morgan to E. Gordon and of record in Vol. 43 Page 311, Deed Records of Ochiltree County, Texas, as well as fully described in plaintiff's original petition on file herein, to, which reference is here made; that all title be vested out of the defendants and each of them and invested in plaintiff; that the cloud cast upon his title by reason of the adverse claims of defendants be removed, that he be quieted in his title and possession to said land; for general relief in law and in equity.

Issued this the 15th day of October, 1945.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Perryton, Texas, this the 15th day of October A. D., 1945.

Rubber Works Adds Farm Tire Service

Adding to the services of a plant that already is the largest tire organization in the Panhandle devoted exclusively to tire engineering, Bob Logan, owner of the Perryton Rubber Works, announcs further good news for tractor owners.

The plant now has a truck equipped to give a complete tire service on the farm which includes mounting new tires, filling tires with "Solution 100", flat repairs, etc., all at reasonable prices. Farmers may simply call phone 48 for a complete service, Mr. Logan says.

The "Solution 100" is something new in the tire industry and gives greater traction with less slippage due to a new method of filling tires competely with liquid, omitting air. The heavier the load the more efficiently it operates as pressure is built up in the tire. Farmers may save on wear and tear of equipment and at the same time reduce fuel costs by using this new method.

The eight advantages of "Solution 100" are Maximum traction—minimum slippage; more work—less expense; constant inflation—no pressure loss; increased loads building up pressure; increased drawbar pull; less bounce—less tiring; longer tire life and less care and attention.

structions to "don't spare the horses" in getting out this third special edition.

The new member of the Reeves family started right out by breaking records. He topped the scales at 8 pounds and 4 ounces stripped. No telling what he would have weighed with shoes on as his feet looks like he's kin to his daddy.

He has blue eyes and exceptionally big hands like his football playing brother Garnet Jr., but no red hair. His hair is black like big brother Bradford Frank, and he has that determined look that Bradford assumes when he needs to see a Western.

Truett David seems to take after his mother, Lois Reeves from his quiet even temper and good manners, but "pappy" Reeves figures he is waiting until he gets to the Reeves Manor at 1707 Monroe, Amarillo, to start hollering his head off if things don't go to suit him.

After considerable difficulty with the nurses around the Northwest Texas Hospital, Truett David was reached for a special interview by a reporter of "The LATEST NEWS". He said he was well pleased with this world—what he had seen of it so far. He is glad his mother is doing well, and he appreciates how Dr. W. R. Klingensmith took care of his job and he was also loud in his praise for the nurses around Northwest Texas, especially Dorothy Clark, Alene Pickard, Flossie D' Aiessandro, Dorothy Kesterson, Dorothy Jean Witman, Velma Neeley, Geane Grear and Vivian Crystol.

When asked his view on what should be done with the atomic bomb he outlined a solution but said: "Don't quote me" on that.

Garnet Reeves, the father can't decide whether Truett David should be a chamber of commerce manager or an insurance man. His mother said, however, she expected to send him to school and have him work for a living.

"Come to see me," Truett announced. "I'm anxious to see those uncles in the Pacific, those new cousins from Maryland,—in fact all the folks and friends (if any) of the family.

in gains following the kickoff. Fortunes of the game resulted in their losing the ball on a fumble recovered by E. R. Bell of Perryton. Bray took up a running streak and made a 15-yard run for a second score. Fuller place kicked for the extra point ending the half with Perryton leading 13-0.

In the third quarter Liberal still relying on passes in an attempt to score succeeded in hitting pay dirt after steady progress downfield when Harrel tossed the ball over the goal line to Immell for a score. Gray passed for the extra point. The Rangers settled down to serious playing on a score of 13-7 and took the offensive with Jones racking up a 45-yard run to the Liberal 10-yard stripe. Bray took over at this point and cleared opposition for his third score of the game. Again Perryton's kick failed for the extra point. During the remainder of the third, Perryton was handicapped by penalties which ate up all gains until a fumble lost the ball to Liberal. Gray snatched a pass from Harrel, Liberal's aerial fanatic, for a gain of 35 yards. Harrel ran the ball over for the score. No extra point was made.

The fourth quarter settled down into a slug fest between air assaults by the Redskins and steamroller ground tactics by the Rangers. Hummer, Ranger Quarterback mite, slipped through on an end run to the left of a Liberal line caught off guard to rack up the final score of the tilt virtually cementing the victory with the extra point not being made.

In summing up the game Liberal had Perryton bested on pass perfection with a demonstration that indicated plenty of hard work on this phase of action, but the Rangers more than offset this advantage by possession of a thoroughly compact line and groundplay development which insured victory from the start over, what is from the very nature of the play a less dependable course of action, the forward pass. Good action was put into play by both teams and it is seldom that two teams meet who stake hopes for victory on such contrasting offensive theory.

Rangers to Meet Blackhawks Friday

Perryton Rangers will play the Phillips Blackhawks Friday, November 2, in what is expected to be one of the hardest games of the year. The Rangers chances of winning district conference depends on this game. The game will be played at Phillips.

Meet the Teachers

The English and Spanish teacher o PHS was christened Mary Dean. Her surname is Dozier and she hails from Forney, Texas, near Dallas. She received her degree from North Texas State, which, she declares enthusiastically, is the best college there is. She thinks there are too many books to have to choose a favorite, but "Gone With the Wind" is still tops as far as movies are concerned. It was hard for Miss Dozier to name a favorite food because she likes most anything, but after a moment's hesitation she quietly replied, "Fish!"

For sport, Miss Dozier likes to watch football games. She doesn't have a favorite actress, but, like most members of the weaker sex these days, she has an immense admiration for the king of the bobby-soxers, Van Johnson.

Meet the Seniors

January 15, 1929, was a joyful (?) day for Floyd Enterline's parents, for that's when Floyd was born.

Floyd is 5 feet, 11 inches tall, and weighs 150 pounds. Fried chicken, football, William Bendix and Lauren Bacall, hunting and "To Have and Have Not" are his favorites in food, sports, actors, hobbies, and movies.

Floyd plans to attend college after graduation from PHS, and to major in mechanics.

A full-fledged Texan from birth is Wendell Ferguson, who was born in Perryton on December 27, 1927. The usual fried chicken ranks highest on his list of foods, and basketball takes his prize in sports "The Sullivans" is his favorite movie.

Wendell is 6 feet tall and weighs 150 pounds.

After graduation he wants a farm to settle down on.

Ranger Band To Canyon Sat.

The Perryton Ranger red and white attired band will vie for honors at the annual marching contest to be staged at Canyon Saturday afternoon just preceding the football game between West Texas State and the Dalhart Army Air Field, according to J. A. Anderson, Supt. of the Perryton schools. School bands from throughout the Panhandle have been issued an invitation to compete in this colorful fete for prizes offered to various divisions among participants.

The Ranger band has lent color and music to countless teams since its organization more than a score of years ago and is lead this year by fancy stepping Drum Major Claudine Carmichael. The band is ably directed by Bob Low, Jr., who is serving his first year with the Perryton schools.

All Classes Meet Tuesday, Oct. 23

Class meetings were held Thursday, October 23, and the results are as follows:

At their class meeting the senior's made plans for a hayride, for Tuesday, November 6.

The junior class met at 2:15 to arrange for a hayride and the names of the people to bring food to the Wagon Wheel were taken.

At the sophomore class meeting plans were made for a program for the next class meeting, and a few songs were sung.

The freshmen held their class meeting in the auditorium with Clara Revis presiding. A short program was given with Camilla Kelly twirling the baton, and Norma Flowers and Marianna McGibbon playing the piano.

Shade of the Hat

Forty-six dollars and nineteen cents went to the youth center fund last Saturday, after the food sale at the Perryton Furniture Company. The money is to be used for operational expenses at Teen Town.

At the first Teen Town dance, last Saturday night, $22.39 was made from the sale of food brought by members of the junior class. The dance began at 7:30 and was over at 11:00 o'clock. Cake, pie, cookies and cokes were sold.

The student council met with its sponsor Principal John H. Cox, on Tuesday, October 23, in room 112; members assumed the responsibility of showing parents through the senior high building and the cafeteria for Back-to-School Night, Oct. 30.

Editorial

If you heard unusual noises issuing from the Perryton High School Monday about seven o'clock console yourself. It really wasn't the chorus singing, although they were practicing then. No, it was all because of a bat. Perhaps it was someone's idea of a pre-Hallowe'en prank. Anyway the bat was in the auditorium zooming around. After the practice some industrious students attempted to catch it. For weapons the boys used jackets and coats. The bat, being a crafty creature, evaded all attacks. One boy caught him but the demon-animal bit his captor and escaped. The entire performance was accompanied by appropriate screams and yells from the interested bystanders. So you see you can't blame those queer noises on the chorus.

Shelden W. has turned his interests to Liberal and we've heard that her first name is Leona.

The final blow has been delivered, and now Janet R. is shopping for new prospects.

We guess that Claudine C.'s tears will flow like wine when Edwin P. returns to college.

"Ju-Ju" Allen jew-jewed Clara R. out of a date Saturday night.

Verla H. has taken Gwen W.'s place, so we hear!

Norma F., were you the one who kept Gene S. out so late after Duane B.'s party? He left at 9:30, and his mother reports entry into the house at 12:00.

All the football boys left Duane B.'s party at 9:30, so they could get some shut-eye for the game. Wonder how many got home before 12:00.

What happened to Bill S.'s, "Squirt" and Max R.'s dates Saturday night?

Lucy Lee T. has made a catch, hasn't she, Jack S.?

Next week has some promising prospects for the El Toro writers, with all those parties and Hallowe'en, too. See next week's column for further developments.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

True Christians Live Unselfishly, Doing Will of God

The International Sunday School Lesson for Nov. 4

Scripture: Matthew 18:15-20; Acts 2:44-47, 4:31-37; Romans 12; Philippians 1:27-2:4; I John 3:14-24

THE Scripture passages designated for this lesson all have in common emphasis upon the love, and the spirit of mutual helpfulness, that ought to exist between all Christians, particularly in the fellowship of the church.

Is it possible, one might ask, for all Christians, or for all members of a local church, to be of one mind? Is there not value in diversity?

To this the answer must be that all Christians are subject to the injunction, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 2:5); but Paul, who gave that injunction, emphasized also the diversities among Christians ("All members have not the same office").

There are basic elements of Christian faith and practice, exemplified in the life and teaching of Jesus. This is "the mind of Christ" that ought to be in every true Christian.

From emphasis upon Christianity in the home, we have turned to consider the Christian way in the church. The two ought to go together in the life of every family.

Recently there has been a small movement for developing and strengthening family religion by encouraging and providing aids for worship in the home.

Family religion, fine as it can be made, is not enough in itself. A family religion, divorced from the church and lacking the full expression of Christian fellowship, could not be in any real sense Christian.

Christian Science

"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Nov. 4.

The Golden Text is: "Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just" (Psalms 7:9).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings" (Jeremiah 17:10).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy: "'Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.' Error excludes itself from harmony. Sin is its own punishment" (page 537).

"SOLUTION 100"

ter weighting—introduced by Goodyear several years go—is merely a simplified way of adding more weight for ss slip—greater traction.

olution 100" is something more—and the method of using s brand new. It adds even greater weight for less slip and l greater traction. But it gives you many other advantages ides—advantages not possible by any other method of ighting or inflation.

hat is this new "SOLUTION 100" method? It's filling trac- tires completely with liquid solution (water or calcium oride solution as needed) instead of part solution and part air—with an ingenious new pump and control device developed by Goodyear engineers.

By eliminating all air and replacing it with liquid solution, this traction efficiency skyrockets to new heights—you save substantially on fuel costs and tire wear—you accomplish more work each day—do away with most of the bother of tractor tire maintenance.

And here's the beauy of it. The cost is negligible. And you can enjoy all the advantages of "Solution 100" in your pres ent tires—regardless of make—as well as in new tires.

"SOLUTION 100" GIVES THESE 8 ADVANTAGES

- Constant Inflation—No Pressure Loss
- Increased Drawbar Pull
- Less Bounce—Less Tiring

THE RIGHT TRACTOR FOR THE PARTICULAR JOB

THE proverbial Jack-of-all-trades was master of none. The modern world of science and technology passed him by.

The same principle applies to farm tractors. The tractor that does a wide variety of jobs unsatisfactorily can't possibly produce the greatest results at the least cost in any job.

But that's what the farmer—particularly the small operator—has got to do to meet postwar competition: he's got to produce the most food possible with the least effort and, consequently, at the lowest cost.

The farmer with 10 acres in truck crops needs one kind of tractor. The farmer with 100 acres in wheat alone needs another kind—or, as is usually the case, two or more different tractors. The tractor which does a good job on the Great Plains may be useless in the rice territory. And so it goes.

Conditions of climate, the lay of the land, and the character of soils in the different parts of this vast country, together with wide variations in the nature of crops and the size of operations, combine to produce wide differences in the requirements for tractors. Harvester's policy is to meet all these requirements.

That is why Harvester's postwar line includes a great variety of Farmalls and other specialized tractors and attachments rather than a single tractor with a single system of tools. Every tractor in the line was developed after scientific research and testing under actual operating conditions showed the specifications needed for efficiency and economy.

Every Harvester-built tractor is the right machine for its particular job.

It's Big—It's Beautiful—It's BUICK

THIS, we reasoned, is no time to offer folks a car that stops with artful face-lifting.

It has been nearly four years since our last new Buick was built — it wouldn't be shooting square now to give you less than our honor-bright best.

So we overhauled our whole factory to advantage it with the latest in war-developed machines and processes.

We scoured the country for the stoutest metals anyone can buy today.

We set ourselves precisions that in some cases exceed those of aircraft engine production.

And we eagle-eyed every one of this Buick's 12,000 parts to see if it could be bettered in any way, big or little.

The result is that through every stunning inch of this bright new honey runs solid, dependable Buick character, honest and uncompromised.

It's in swift clean lines. In seats that are three-persons wide. In stout, time-defying frames and underpinning. Above all — in the lift and life of a Fireball straight-eight that's even livelier than in 1942.

The cars your Buick dealer will have are big. They're beautiful. They're Buicks.

In fact — the best Buicks yet!

When better automobiles are built BUICK will build them

Shima Hurricane Described In Local Soldier's Letters

Editor's note: An interesting account of the recent hurricane on Ie Shima comes to this community in letters from Lt. Chas. Benston Bowen, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bowen. Parts of the letters follow:

Ie Shima
August 30

...afternoon I became a laundryman. I had put off that job as long as possible; in fact the first job was done for me by Lieut. Leason by the Filipinos a... My system is crude but effective. I merely filled two ammunition cans with water and left them in the sun for about an hour or so. By then there was warm water. Then some GI soap and a little rubbing the job was soon accomplished. Of course a critical eye would have noted that "tattle tale gray" was the result.

New Guinea
September 2

...returning from Manilla, I was informed that the Japs carried out their part of the Potsdam agreement. There were usually all day patrols thus leaving very little time for writing letters. At present I and I are on another long hop. We are now down in the southern part of New Guinea listening to the weird noises of the jungles at night.

In about three hours, V-J will be officially arrived. From recent reports the Japanese are cooperating with their disarmament program.

...Today I had no duties so I took advantage to do a few things I wanted to do—for a change. The air mattress issued to me a week ago seems to have developed a leak. I blew it out to our barrel of water and found it was leaking around a couple of old patches, so I slapped on another patch leaving a good margin. But this morning when I got up my bed was flat as a pancake. So I still have a job.

After dinner another fellow and I made a tour of the island. A thousand foot lava hill is in the middle of the island. We proceeded to climb to the top and have a good view of the place but the view was hardly worth the climb. Later we caught a ride over to the south side where our troops first landed. That is the spot where Ernie Pyle fell, and a small monument has been erected to his memory.

The group is trying to assemble all the material and data necessary for publishing a book about the history of their organization. They were getting rather far behind in their work so I offered to help out a little. We were going through some of the old files and I found out a great number of men had gone through this outfit.

September 25

I received a letter from Bro. Durham written in May. It came first class so of course it was very slow coming.

Ie Shima
11 October

As all good things must sooner or later come to an end, our shack came to a crashing end night before last. We brought it up from Clark Field and rebuilt it here on Ie Shima during the first week of August. Since then it brought us through one hurricane without getting us wet. In spite of the fact that this monstrosity (as a fellow described it) was rather flimsy we had begun to have considerable faith in its durability. But this latest hurricane in all its fury soon leveled this hut to the ground as well as most of the others in the area.

After dinner on Tuesday, the wind began increasing in velocity and the rain started falling. But not until about 4 p. m. did we receive any news of an approaching storm. By that time the wind had probably reached a 40 to 50 mile per hour intensity and of course we had already anchored things down. After we had eaten supper, the gale was crowding 70 mph and some of the less sturdy dwellings were collapsing. It was useless to try to keep dry as the rain was blowing in under the eaves, so we moved the bunks to the center of the floor and just waited to see whether the storm or our house would win the battle. Of course, one man usually was kept busy outside splicing broken ropes and driving in pegs that pulled up.

My faith in the old shack began to waiver about 6:30, and I proceeded to pack all my most valuable possessions in the trunk and the balance in my B-A bag. I was ready for an instant move, and no sooner had I closed the lid than the west side headed east and the center pole headed west. The rest of the fellows and I headed south instantly out the door. Everything including our beds was left behind for the balance of the night.

We managed to make it to the orderly room, which is a prefabricated well-made building. However, it does have a tin roof. Soon after we arrived, these pieces of tin began blowing off one at a time. Flying tin and debris was hitting all over the place and shelter was a nice thing to have, I must say, that night gave us quite an experience. The orderly room housed about 80 per cent of the men in our squadron.

Yesterday we salvaged what stuff we could. Not a drop of water got into my footlocker, but everything else was in a sad condition. It was still rainy so one couldn't dry out things. Nevertheless, I brought my bunk and bags over to the orderly room. The mess hall was torn up somewhat but the cooks heated up some coffee and left over cake for breakfast, and by noon they had a hot meal ready.

The CO told us this morning that we would have to clear out of the squadron operations building. There were no tents on the island so that left us with one choice. Salvage material to build another house.

Consequently we have been very busy throwing together another home. This is going to be much better than the former one. Instead of a tent for a roof, we are using plywood this time, which will be more stable in a high wind. I do hope, however, we leave this place for home before we use this new hut very long.

Just before the storm hit I received a package in the mail. What do you think it was? The package contained none other than the three rolls of film you sent back in February. They were a little damp, but I believe they will be ok so you can forget about film; I have all I can use. Thanks a lot.

I do hope everything is running smoothly at home. Everything is well under control here now.

13 October, 1945

I am writing you from our new house, which is far superior to anything else we have lived in overseas. So actually the hurricane blew us right out of one shack into one much better. I hope you haven't been worried because no one in this locality was hurt, just a little uncomfortable for a while.

Everyone walking by our house asks when we expect to get our chickens; it does resemble a chicken house to a certain extent. But I believe it will withstand a hurricane, and that is the foremost problem around here. We resolved to put a stop to all such remarks, so this afternoon we started work on a front porch. Which I believe will destroy the "chicken housish" look.

Opdycke salvaged a roll of new screen wire from his supply tent. The rest of us hunted around for stray pieces of plywood. We nailed several sheets on for a roof and also put a four foot strip around the base of the frame. The screen wire was then tacked on just above the plywood, and finally to completely close us in, more plywood was placed between the roof and screen wire on the front and two sides.

Wronka and I found an old tarp 61'x35' which we decided to double and place over the plywood for a waterproof roof. In the meantime, the other boys cut the flaps off a regular 16x16 tent. We proceeded to nail these up over the screening. In clear weather, we simply roll up the flaps and presto there is plenty of ventilation and sunshine. But if bad weather is brewing, the flaps are lowered and tied down. As yet, it hasn't rained, so all this is still in the theory stage and isn't a proven fact.

The old rough floor that we found here on this foundation couldn't meet our standards (are we getting particular?) so this afternoon's program consisted of laying a plywood over the old board one. Now it is much smoother and far easier to keep clean.

On the porch is a wash stand consisting of four racks and four helmets for wash basins. Opdycke got two five gallon water cans, one for washing and the other for drinking. Wronka being quite an electrician strung a wire over to our house from the squadron generator; so now we have lights and very good ones, too. He also has a radio which is now hooked up and going full blast. In fact, the announcer is telling about the thousands of men made homeless by the recent hurricane, and here we sit in the best house we have ever had overseas.

I understand mail service is to be resumed tomorrow; so my letters should go out, and most important of all maybe I will get some greatly missed letters from you. It has been about a week since I received any mail.

Here's hoping I will be on the way home soon, but as yet nothing official has been said. Esther must be well started in school by now. How does she like it?

That is all the news, so goodnight and God bless you.

Much Love,
Bus

Dear Van:

Have intended for some time to write expressing my thoughts on constription of our 18-year olds for compulsory military training.

Frank Teague and I, as well as several million other soldiers and sailors, possibly share the same thoughts. Frankly, I am opposed to any form of compulsory military training except in times of emergency and war.

In trainung our officers and rank-N. C. O.'s, all old army men were all important—they were the superior gods and we bowed to them morning, noon and night. At times it was difficult to hold our tempers and extremely difficult to retain our mental facilties.

Then as we prepared for overseas movement, these old army men were the first to find their aches and pains and attempt to get out. Many of them rode the sick book for weeks. Still we were forced to respect their superiority, even though we knew they did not have what it took.

In combat we had occasion to witness the various types of soldiers. Contrary to the thoughts of many it was not the brass nor the old army man that won this war. It was the men and the boys that were civilians only a few months before. It was the soldier that wants no part of war or army life. He was the one that did the work out in the open when there was a job to be done. He was the one that had been trained in a few short months.

On Mareh 15th, our infantry was forcing its way into Germany. We were held up by machine gun fire and a broad mine field. A constant stream of men were being carried back past the forward O. P.—some with legs blown off by mines, others with bodies riddled by machine gun bullets. This continued all morning. At noon our Commanding General appeared on the scene. He demanded that our unit push on. If necessary, throw in all our reserves. As he issued this order, the Germans threw in a few rounds of mortar fire. He, and the other officers, ducked into a safe, log-lined dug-out, and stayed there as long as the shells came in. But the infantry boys pushed on to carry out the order. The casualties mounted and the men on stretchers were not officers, but were those men that wanted nothing to do with the army.

They carried one 19 or 20-year old boy back with one leg completely blown off. He looked in my direction and smiled, as if to say, "I did my best". And yet he had the courage to smile!

I do not want men like our general, and other army men, dictating to our young men who want no part of war. We, in the army had occasion to see who occupied the cellars and safe places when the going was tough. I recall one night our officers had huddled in a cellar for safety and as the shells continued to come in they ordered a Pfc. orderly to go prepare them some hot coffee. This almost cost the P. F. C. his life. But any officer is supposed to loose a few men out of his outfit—the heavier the losses the more feathers in his hat.

Our overcoats were taken away from us last winter. Here it is October 1st, with snow on the ground and very cold at nights, and yet we have no overcoats. Our general is quartered in a large steam heated mansion, has at his disposal no fewer than four sedan cars, and has been wearing his overcoat for the past two or three weeks. He is not called upon to ride fifteen or twenty miles in the back of an open truck on a cold night, so he won't loose much sleep over our not having adequate clothing.

I can see no reason why the youth of our country should be submitted to this type of management during times of peace.

Sincerely,
T/4 G. R. LaMaster,

19 October, 1945

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Stewart.

Have been getting a little bit behind in my letter writing, so thought that I would try to knock a few lines to you tonight, and again say thanks for the good old paper. Sure is swell to get it and catch up with all of the latest news from home.

I got to see Coach and Mrs. Burk just biore he got his discharge from the Navy. Sure was swell to see them again. I was surely glad that he got his discharge and is back home again as I know that he is a great asset to Perryton.

I have also seen Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Eudy, and it is really swell to see them all. Just as soon as I can get a chance, I am going to try to see Jack Igou, as I hear that he is here in San Diego. Maybe in a little while, James (Packie) Daniel, A. J. and June, Melvin Price and Jack and I can get together and have a regular old fashioned reunion.

It seems like the rainy season has started here in Southern California. I haven't seen the sun in over a week, so I guess that everyone will be wearing raincoats for the next couple of months. The people out here always say that California has a wonderful climate but just between you and me I still would like to see a good old snow storm again. And if this Navy discharge point system keeps on schedule as it is now, maybe I will get to see a good old Texas snow storm by the winter of 1949.

Blackie just phoned me and told me that he had just got a letter from home, and that Canadian won the football game. Boy, I really hated that, as I kinda figured that we would have an undefeated team there at home this year. But then, they can't win every game.

Well, again I come to the ending of a letter and can't think of way to end it, so I'll just say so long for now and thanks again for the paper.

Dear Mom,

I received the Ochiltree County Herald today and was pleasantly surprised. Give them my new address at Mannheim, Germany, and be sure to thank them.

I am back at the company now—was at the hospital guarding some prisoners. Had written you some letters telling you about it, but they were free postage letters and will take a long time getting there, I expect, so am sending this with a picture I had taken at the League of Nations building in Geneva, Switzerland. I had dinner a little ways from there and had trouble over paying the French talking women. Don't know yet whether I payed double or not. Cheese and brown or black bread, as they call it, was served. It was something like wholewheat bread I used to eat. You would think from the word black, that it was awful, but it wasn't.

Well am going to the show tonight, so goodnight.

Next Year's Harvest Should Be a Cinch!

Patched-up implements farmers struggled with to produce those record crops during war years can be replaced for next year's harvest. Here are two examples of the many implements in production: Top—A pull-type combine, designed primarily for average acreages, photographed in a Montana wheat field. It harvests all threshable crops from swath and windrow. A bagging attachment enables threshing and bagging of grain or seed in one operation on the field. Lower—A small, automatic tractor-drawn hay baler, something new in postwar equipment. Powered by the tractor, it picks up hay directly from the windrow, makes and ties the bales, delivers them to the rack. Both machines were shown recently at International Harvester's field demonstration at Hinsdale, Ill.

No date has been announced as to when the new products will be made available to the public, although President Maytag expressed an opinion that the gas range and the frozen food locker would be on the market about the first of the year. No date has been revealed when the automatic washers and driers will be ready for distribution.

Samples of postwar models of Maytag conventional type washers have just been released to each of the more than 7,000 dealers representing the company throughout the United States, and the arrival of the local display model is now on display. An immediate start was made after V-J day on reconversion and assembled machines were stock-piled until enough had accumulated for simultaneous shipment to all dealers.

Bronze Star Medal to Joe Steele in New Caledonia

WITH U. S. ARMY FORCES ON NEW CALEDONIA—Major Joe B. Steele, Jr., formerly of Perryton, Texas, whose father lives at Ringling, Okla., has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal for the performance of meritorious services as Signal Corps supply officer here at South Pacific Base Command headquarters from November 30, 1943, to July 4, 1945.

The citation stressed that Major Steele had "developed and coordinated in a highly commendable manner the Signal supply and repair activities of a depot which was responsible for the procurement, receipt, storage, classification, distribution and maintenance of all Signal Corps supplies required for operations in the South Pacific theater."

Through diligence, devotion to duty and long hours of planning and developing depot operations and activities," the citation continued, "Major Steele contributed immeasurably to the formation of a repair plan for Signal Corps equipment. Under this plan communications apparatus was processed against fungus growths to the extent that dependability in jungle operations under severe climatic conditions was assured."

The major was further singled out for the manner in which he directed the supply and rehabilitation of Signal Corps troops being employed from this area for combat operations."

A whole, exciting world is opened to young Eddie Rickenbacker (Darryl Hickman) when James Gleason cajoles Thomas Mitchell into giving the boy his first job in an auto manufacturing plant in "Captain Eddie," 20th Century-Fox's new hit, a Eureka Pictures production, Sunday and Monday at the Ellis Theatre. Fred MacMurray plays the title role in the film which depicts the life of Eddie Rickenbacker. Lynn Bari, Charles Bickford and Lloyd Nolan are also featured in the film.

to undertake one of the most audacious schemes ever attempted by a spy ring in "The House On 92nd Street," the film that could not be made public until the first atomic bomb was dropped on Japan. Showing tonight and Friday night at the Ellis Theatre, "The House of 92nd Street," filmed with the full cooperation of the FBI, also stars Lloyd Nolan in its outstanding cast.

'Bewitched' Boasts Unusual Music Score

One of the most unusual musical scores ever envisioned for a motion picture was written by Bronislau Kaper, composer of the "Bataan" and other outstanding dramatic settings, when he composed the symbolic score for "Bewitched," fantastic psychological drama which Arch Oboler wrote and directed for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, and which shows at the Ellis Theatre, Tues. and Wed.

On the musical score depends the expression of the meaning of the action in a story of two separate personalities battling with the single brain of a woman who is possessed of two separate souls. Musical motives for each character within a character, and impressionistic orchestration to depict reactions figure in the musical assignment.

Phyllis Thaxter, Horace McNally, Edmund Gwenn and Henry Daniels, Jr., have the leading roles in "Bewitched."

Mrs. Joe Schollenbarger was in Amarillo Wednesday evening to meet her husband who has just been discharged from the Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Rogers and Don were in Amarillo Saturday with Miss Jane Rogers who entrained for Dallas where she will enroll as a senior at Southern Methodist University.

Sgt. and Mrs. Melvin Schell, after a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Schell, left Wednesday for Salina, Kansas, where he he reports for duty. Sgt. Schell has been based at Dalhart.

That Old Sax Man Ain't Got Rhythm

Fred McMurray who — as legend has it — was spotted by a film talent scout while he was tooting the saxophone in the band of a Broadway stage hit, and who—as the records show — made a top box office name for himself with the cycle of film musicals in which he sang quite a bit, has finally reached the point where he is starred in a picture in which he doesn't even hum a note.

The film, 20th Century-Fox's thrilling hit, "Captain Eddie", a Eureka Pictures production telling the life story of Eddie Rickenbacker, shows Sunday and Monday at the Ellis Theatre.

Not only doesn't Fred sing in the film, but this musician from way back doesn't even have rhythm! It takes him eight hours of practice with a chair to prepare himself for a dancing date with Lynn Bari.

Pictures of Clowns Travel with Cotten

As some men collect stamps, ship models, pipes or the tops off of sarsaparilla bottles, Joseph Cotten collects pictures of clowns. His hobby travels with him.

Moving into a two-room dressing room at the Paramount studio, where he co-starred with Jennifer Jones in the Hal Wallis production, "Love Letters," showing at the Ellis Theatre, Thurs.-Fri., Nov. 8-9, Cotten brought with a dozen or so of his favorite clown pictures to decorate the walls.

Decorating the place also was an unbroken case of pre-war French champagne, "first day of the picture" gift from David Selznick, who holds Cotten's screen contract. Cotten claims that Selznick or any other man who can produce a case of pre-war fizz these days needs no further proof of genius.

Bronze Star to Clair Brillhart

CAMP CHAFFEE, Ark., Sept. 26, 1945—Pfc. Herbert C. Brillhart Jr. of the 44th Infantry Division here now at Camp Chaffee after 203 days of combat across France, Germany and Austria, has been awarded the Bronze Star for gallantry in action, March 25, 1945, in the vicinity of Ilvesheim, Germany.

In noting the award to the infantryman Company L, 324th Inf. Regt., Brig. Gen. William A. Biedertinden, 44th commander, cited: While on a patrol in search of a possible crossing of the Neckar River, Pvt. Brillhart saw their BAR man receive a serious head wound. He unhesitantly crept and crawled over 35 yards of ground that was under withering artillery and small arms fire from across the river to render first aid to the casualty. Then, with the help of one other man, he carried the wounded man 200 yards back to a building from which he could be evacuated. For his exemplary courage under fire and devotion to his fellow soldier, Pvt. Brillhart merits great praise.

Pfc. Brillhart entered military service from Perryton, Texas He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brillhart of Perryton, Texas. Married, his wife Mrs. Lena May Brillhart, lives at Perryton, Texas.

Joe Buckland, Jr., left Tuesday for Birmingham, Alabama, for a weeks visit with friends.

WORD WAS RECEIVED here this week that Vern Conner, ACMMF, was discharged from the Navy at Camp Wallace, Oct. 18, and is vacationing with Mrs. Conner at Jackson Heights, Long Island, New York, before returning to this vicinity. He entered service at Corpus Christi in January of 1942 and became an Aviation machinist's mate before going overseas to the Pacific theater where he has spent the past four months. He notified his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Conner of Farnsworth, that he expected to return here by Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Hethcock were in Pampa this weekend to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Bertie Osborne and Emmett Hethcock.
