Supremacy of Central And West Texas Football At Stake In Clash; Attacks Of Teams Similar

By ALLAN CARNEY
Avalanche-Journal Sports Editor
FOOTBALL in Lubbock will make its final gesture of 1929 on the college gridiron this afternoon with two superb eleven, representing widely-separated sections of Texas, pitted in a consolation battle for unofficial honors among Intercollegiate League contestants.
Lubbock High school's Westerners, runners-up in District One, and the Yellow Jackets of Cleburne High, second only to Waco in District 4, are to furnish the fireworks in the post-season classic today. The supremacy of West Texas and Central Texas football is at stake in what promises to be a colorful conflict between two of the state's most versatile aggregations. The game is called for 3 o'clock.

Jackets Powerful
Claimed by many critics as the team that missed the state championship by one point, the Cleburne eleven comes with a brilliant array of all-star performers, moulded into a smooth-working machine. The Jackets' 7-6 defeat at the hands of the Waco Tigers cut off the championship hopes of Coach Howard Parker's crew and the club that lines up against the Westerners here today is considered by the majority of observers as far superior to the Tyson team that meets Breckenridge Saturday in the semi-finals. An all-star backfield, featuring the scintillating Ray Brandon, all-

What will probably be the final session of a series of conferences between city planning engineers and members of the Board of City Development's committee on City Planning was held here yesterday afternoon with E. N. Noyes, Dallas consultant, as the visiting expert. The meeting was held in the city hall.

Member of a large engineering firm which is at present drafting city plans for Seawater, Denton and Arlington, and which has done work on the Dallas plan, Mr. Noyes, after a preliminary tour of the city, recommended that the Lubbock plan be started with, be confined to traffic control, zoning and a park system. His recommendation coincided with the beliefs of the committee in this regard and with ideas expressed by virtually every one of the half dozen planners who have already been in the city.

Scenes of Storm-Swept Britain During Destruction

Force of the storms that have ravaged European shipping and swept British towns with floods and gales is shown by these pictures, taken during the recent widespread destruction. Above is pictured a large, four-masted sailing ship, after its crew had escaped, succumbing to the battering of heavy seas off the coast of Pembrokeshire, England. Fifty large vessels and many smaller ones were completely or partially wrecked within two days. Inland, nearly a score of persons were killed by storms and floods, and below you see the scene at Trehafod, Wales, just before a high wall collapsed letting in flood waters which inundated a wide area.

Three Burn To Death And Nine Others Injured In Early Morning Fire At Antlers Hostelry

(By Associated Press)
WICHITA FALLS, Dec. 12.—Fire of undetermined origin today destroyed the Antlers hotel here and caused the death of three men and the injury of nine others.

Among the dead was Smiley Turner, assistant chief of the Wichita Falls fire department; O. T. Anderson, fireman, and Kenneth Brice, a bus driver of Bowie, Tex.

The fire was discovered shortly before dawn by A. E. Miller and I. N. Austin, patrolmen. They said that the flames were leaping from the top of the three-story brick structure.

They turned in an alarm, and ascended a fire escape to arouse guests. They directed a number of persons to exits, and rescued a mother and six children.

Five injured were firemen. Four were hurt when a wall collapsed as they directed streams of water on the fire. Turner and Anderson were killed when caught under the wall.

Brice, the only guest to lose his life, was a driver of a bus between Bowie and Nocona.

When last seen, Brice was standing at a window calling for help. An instant later he disappeared, the floor apparently collapsing from beneath him. Four hours later his body was found at the first floor level.

Selection of Two Democrats On ICC Proves Hard Task

Adding Two Members To Interstate Commerce Commission Is Anything But Easy To Hoover

By JAMES L. WEST
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, Dec. 12. (AP)—President Hoover is finding selection of two democrats as members of the interstate commerce commerce commission anything but an easy task.

While the consensus of those close to the white house is that Joseph B. Eastman of Boston will be reappointed, strong opposing influences are at work, these including some leaders of the republican party as well as railroad interests.

Should Remove Eastman
The chief executive is fully aware that should he remove Mr. Eastman from the commission his appointment would face formidable opposition in the senate, especially from the republican independents of the northwest who hold the balance of power.

One basis for opposition to the Boston democrat is that he favors government ownership of the railroads and frequently disagrees with his colleagues on matters of major policy. However, close friends of the president say he holds strongly to the opinion that disinterested persons are an extremely useful function in federal affairs.

It seems to be fairly well established that Richard V. Taylor of Mobile, Alabama, will not be reappointed to the commission and there is a real race among Southern democrats for this place. Every Southern state except Louisiana has at least one candidate, and some have several.

Some administration officers look upon A. J. Maxwell, internal revenue commissioner of North Carolina, as the most likely choice, although they insist Mr. Hoover has not definitely made up his mind. Mr. Maxwell, formerly a member of the North Carolina state corporation commission, has many endorsements, including that of Senator Simmons, whose influence was regarded as a potent factor in the Hoover victory in that state in 1928.

Virginia is proposing Judge James P. Woods of Roanoke, who has the endorsement of Senators Glass and Swanson, and at the same time in the house delegation, as well as many of the leading citizens of the state. He formerly was a member of the house.

Judge Robert M. Jones of Knoxville, is put forward by Tennessee. Another of the Southern states that gave its electoral vote to the president, Florida, which likewise supported Mr. Hoover, presents R. Hudson Burr of Tallahassee, a former member of the Florida railroad commission.

Thirty Refugees Arrive At Shanghai From Nanking As Situation Turns More Grave; Rails Severed

SHANGHAI, Dec. 12. (AP)—Thirty Japanese women and children refugees arrived here today from Nanking. More were expected to reach Shanghai tonight.

The Japanese light cruiser Ataka left Shanghai for Nanking this morning, and the light cruiser Hara from the Kure naval base was expected here tomorrow. It was learned four additional cruisers and four destroyers were held in readiness at Kure to be sent to Chinese waters if necessary.

Rails Severed.

The railway line from Nanking to Shanghai still was severed. Likewise all telegraph and telephone lines were out of commission, and there was no means of communication between here and the Nationalist capital, except the government wireless.

Foreign naval reports from the Yangtze valley said all was quiet up the river and foreign families were returning to Ichang. That place was reported yesterday to be in danger of capture by mutineers.

Loyal Troops Return.

With return of loyal troops to Nanking, confidence of Chinese and foreigners in the government to maintain order has been considerably improved. A number of foreign families have decided to remain in the city. Leading officials also are remaining.

Chinese military headquarters denied that the mutiny of government

IN AUTO ACCIDENT

While returning home last Saturday from Tri-ott where he had been on business, E. L. Black sustained serious injuries when his car turned over. Several ribs were broken and shoulder dislocated.

Driving close to the side of the road, Black got out of the car to fix a curtain and on entering and closing the door he was so close to the bar pit, the car turned over pinning him under it. Black, however, managed to extricate himself from under the car about the time a traveling man from Lubbock came along and brought him home where medical attention was received.

CHURCH SEATS SHIPPED

Seats for the new Baptist church were shipped from the factory at Grand Rapids, Mich., on November 24, and are expected to arrive in Crosbyton some time next week, according to a statement made by Dr. T. J. Cagle yesterday.

The church has ordered over seats 24 of which are cushioned and will be used in the choir, and the remainder will be of wood. The seats will be installed immediately upon their arrival here.

MANAGER SLATON STORE

J. B. McPherson, son of W. A. McPherson of this city has accepted the position as manager of the Clarence Saunders store in Slaton, according to information received from that city this week. He takes the place of Joe Duke of that city who has been transferred to Lubbock.

McPherson went to Slaton three weeks ago to work for the company there and remained for little more than a week before he was appointed manager.

PASTORS FOUNDED

Two pastors were founded by their congregations here last week, one in lieu of the coming of Thanksgiving and the other in view of the fact that he had been returned to the pastorate here for another year.

The Rev. E. W. Gregg, pastor of the Presbyterian church, was founded Wednesday night by his congregation, and many gifts in canned goods, vegetables and many other eatables were presented him.

The Rev. T. M. Johnson, pastor of the First Methodist church, was also founded Wednesday night, following the regular Wednesday night prayer service. As the service ended two cars drove up to the front of the parsonage and the food was unloaded.

ENDORSEMENT ASKED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12. (AP)—Endorsement of President Hoover's waterways program as outlined in an address at Louisville was asked today by Representative Riley J. Wilson of Louisiana, president of the national rivers and harbors congress at the opening today of the annual session of the congress.

Wilson also urged "coordination with airway transportation" in the development of national waterways. Major General Lytle Brown, in charge of the government waterways program as chief of army engineers, urged a speedy completion of the Mississippi river flood control.

Women, Children Refugees Of U. S. Evacuate Nanking

Seventy-Five Arrive At Shanghai At Request Of Consular Authorities To Leave Warring Section

SHANGHAI, Dec. 12. (AP)—Seventy-five American women and children refugees evacuating Nanking arrived here today by steamer from the central capital. There were also refugees of many other nationalities, forced from their homes by threatening rebel successes.

The refugees represented all the American women and children and some of the men of Nanking. Other foreign women and children are expected hourly, while 40 American men are remaining at their homes. The majority are missionaries.

Advised To Leave

The American and British refugees said they had decided to come at the earnest request of their consular authorities who stated publicly "because of the uncertain situation and impossibility to force the future we advise all Americans (and British) women to leave as quickly as possible for Shanghai."

Two boats, a British river steamer and a Standard Oil company river steamer, brought the refugees here. The decks of the boats were piled high with belongings packed in trunks, boxes and bundles.

Capture Feared

It was understood among those arriving that the American consular officials advising evacuation feared a possible interregnum in the event the government of General Chiang Kai-Shek is forced to abdicate by the rebels who seemed to be advancing on every front.

This possibility was in the minds of most of those reaching here, although some professed to believe in the stability of the Chiang government and to believe it would weather this storm, the most serious of its career.

WE say that CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil actually penetrates and combines with metal surfaces.

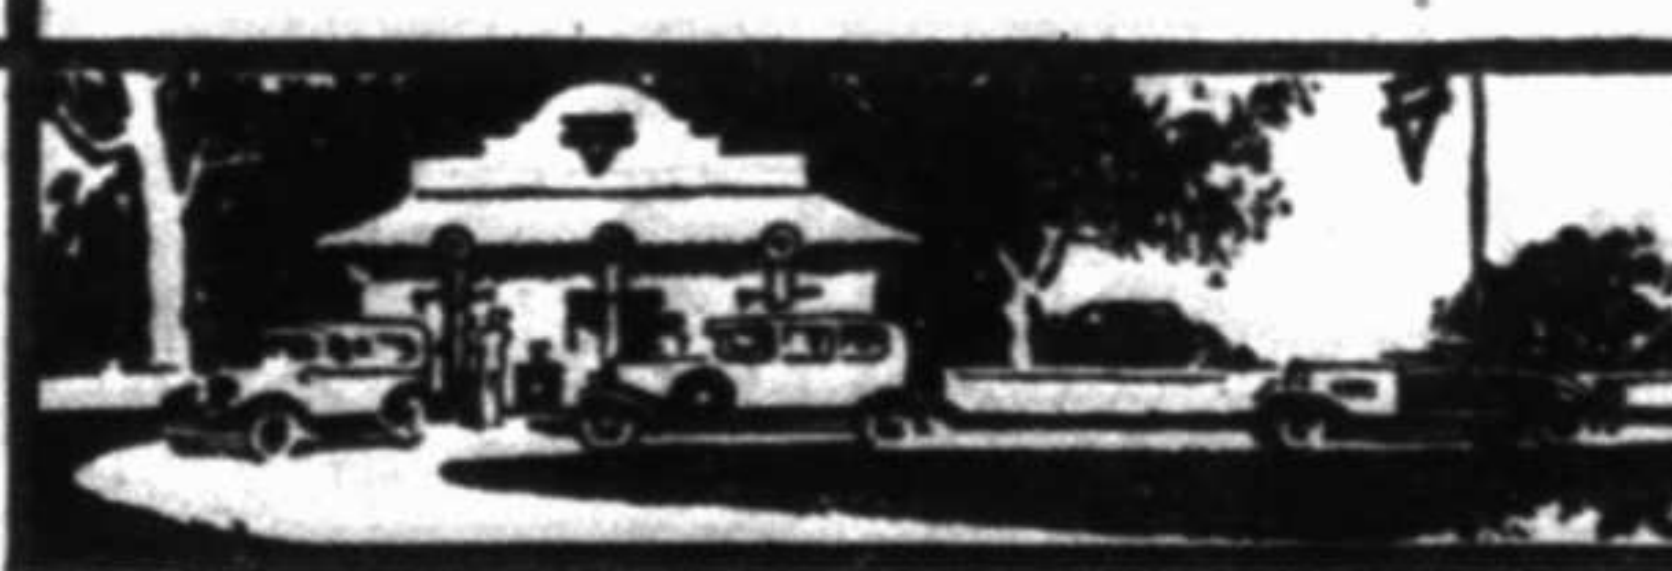

This is a strong statement, but it is supported by positive tests and demonstrations.

Saturate a bearing with this oil, and then try to remove it by ordinary methods. It can't be done! Scouring with gasoline or scrubbing with any other ordinary cleansing agent will not remove the film of oil that has penetrated the pores of the metal. It clings with such tenacity, it has so combined itself with the metal, that it forms a permanent, lasting film that remains for months.

No other American oil will do this. No other oil will give you that degree of plus lubrication as will CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil.

Thousands of Motorists are now using this safe, new oil because it actually Penetrates Metal Surfaces!

We state positively that CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil is the finest motor lubricant available to you today. Begin now to profit through its use.

Westerners On Edge For Battle With Yellow Jackets

Frnka and Morgan Present Finished Machine In Intersectional Combat With Powerful District Four Eleven

Many Members of Lubbock Squad Make Last Appearance Of High School Careers In Today's Clash; Wide-Open Tactics Are Expected

district halfback, is the main hope of the Central Texas eleven. The blond-headed jacket flash is of the triple threat variety that does everything but take tickets and carry water. Brandon is ably assisted by Jack Stephens, the other halfback and Captain Jack Langdon, bulky fullback, who carries the burden of the invaders' plunging game and does most of the passing. The diminutive Hilton Hopkins, 123-pound quarterback, also takes a hand in the Jackets' dazzling overhead attack, and is rated as one of the smartest field generals in his district.

Attacks Similar
Cleburne's wide-open style of play will be matched today by a similar mode of assault by the Westerners. An effective aerial attack that has proven one of the strong points in Lubbock's drive during the past season will be uncoiled with added fury this afternoon in the clash with the Yellow Jackets.

The forces of Henry Frnka and Del Morgan are in perfect mental and physical condition for the fray and have paid little heed to reports on the supposed odds the Jackets hold over them. Decision of local fans to donate the net proceeds of today's battle to the high school coaches has served as an extra incentive to the Gold and Black warriors. The squad is keyed to a high pitch in anticipation of turning back the horde from the central region.

Westerners Confident
Confidence in their ability to overcome the greatest of odds has added zest to the Westerners' preparation for the tussle. In its final strenuous season Wednesday, the local club functioned like oiled machinery. A handful of new tricks, brought out especially for the benefit of the Jackets, have been perfected and close followers of the team believe that a Lubbock eleven will be seen at its best in the closing combat today.

Several regulars on the Lubbock team will be playing their last game for the Black and Gold this afternoon, although there is considerable uncertainty concerning the graduation of some of these. Of the 10 who are expected to finish this year, two are winding up their school work today. These are Robert Rich, Stellar Winsman, and Joe Leaverton, center. Others who may see their last high school football today are Clyde James and Melton McGeehee, guards; Greer Frizzell and Archie Brawley, tackles; Vance Price, end; W. D. Lawson, Mina Watkins and Howard Price, backs. With the exception of Howard Price, all of these will start today.

Late reports from the ticket committee point to a large turnout for the contest today. Twenty business men of the city as well as all members of the high school ten squad have been engaged in distributing the tickets.

Snyder Gridders Are Given Banquet
(Special To The Avalanche)
SNYDER, Dec. 12. The annual football banquet tendered Snyder Tigers last night brought 130 in attendance.

Co-captains J. T. Tyle and Buddy Martin were announced for the 1930 season. Head Coach Red Moore was presented with a tailor-made overcoat during the banquet, which was held at the First Presbyterian church.

The past season has been one of the greatest in the history of the school.

Brownsville Club Facing Expulsion

Henderson Orders That Situation Concerning Claims Of Eagles' Ineligibility Be Cleared Up

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 12. (P)—Brownsville High school Eagles, champions of the local District No. 8 in the interscholastic football league, face possible expulsion as league members as the result of orders from Roy B. Henderson, director of the league, that the football situation revolving around claims of Brownsville's ineligibility be cleaned up.

District Chairman H. H. Hutto of Harlandale has been asked by Mr. Henderson, he admitted today, to conduct an investigation of charges that at least one Brownsville player is over age and so ineligible. Mr. Hutto talked to Mr. Henderson concerning the Brownsville case, and today was awaiting a letter from the state league chairman formally directing the investigation.

"Is it an investigation of the entire district?" the "Light" asked Mr. Hutto.

"No," the chairman replied. "Only of Brownsville's team. You might even say, only of a certain player on the Brownsville team."

School Head Says Records Are Clean

BROWNVILLE, Dec. 12. (P)—The records of all Brownsville high school players have been combed today and again this year, and every member of the team found to be eligible. Superintendent G. W. Gotke declared today when informed of the proposed investigation of the Eagles.

"I firmly believe every member of the team is eligible," Mr. Gotke said. "Tejerina, whose age has been questioned, was a reserve center on the team."

Owls to Abandon Xmas Cage Tour

HOUSTON, Dec. 12. (P)—A ruling by the Southwest Conference faculty committee that basketball teams would have to disband their Christmas holidays has caused the Rice Owls to abandon plans for an extensive barnstorming tour through the middle west.

The Owl cages had booked games with several teams in the Big Six and Big Ten conferences during Christmas week.

Donald M. Bridges, Dallas youth, was sentenced to a year and a day in the federal reformatory for boys at Chillicothe, Ohio. His term started on December 2.

Valuations for the month of December were given a slight boost yesterday with the issuance of two building permits, bringing the total to 7. For small structures, the figure now stands at $10,025. Valuations for the year are $3,350,761, for 566 permits.

Those issued yesterday were: R. D. Manley, $850, for erection of a frame residence at 1967 Avenue F; G. J. Robbins, for construction of a 40,500 brick veneer dwelling at 2411 21st street.

Iowa State Athletic Department Is Given Thorough House Cleaning; Fourteen Athletes Made Ineligible

Peek Holes for Youths Passe

CHICAGO, Dec. 12. (P)—Chicago school children, who lack the price of admission to see the Cubs and White Sox play baseball, will not have to search for peek holes next season.

They will be admitted free to three games a week. President William Veck of the Cubs and Secretary Harry Grabner of the White Sox announced today. A charge of 25 cents will be made for other games, except those played on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

Porker Quintet Will Open Season

FAVETTEVILLE, Ark., Dec. 12. (P)—With a final workout behind closed doors, Arkansas' six foot basketball team polished its offense for its debut this season against the Talequah, Okla., teachers tomorrow night. The Sooners will play a two game series.

Captain Schoonover and Pickren are expected to start as forwards. Holt at center and Prewitt and Henderson at guards. A small fast team is in reserve and it probably will be given a chance to see what it can do under fire tomorrow night.

Flooded Streams In Britain Rise, Inundate Section

Vast Damage Threatened As Small Tributaries Feed Rivers With Millions Of Tons of Water

LONDON, Dec. 12. (P)—South and west Britain's flooded rivers continue to rise today, inundating considerable sections of farm land and urban sections and threatening vast further damage.

The Thames valley, Somerset and parts of the western midland counties particularly were hard hit, although where ever there were even small streams flooded conditions prevailed.

Tributaries Feed
Continually fed by small tributaries, now swollen to torrents, the Severn, Wye, Usk, Tone and Parrett rivers in the west and the Thames in the south poured millions of tons of water over miles of country.

Numerous roads were made impassable by the water, which in some cases was two to five feet deep. Many towns were unapproachable from various directions, with their streets swamped. Some railroads suspended service, although the great main lines still functioned.

An unrelenting watch was kept on the Thames in London where high tides might cause repetition of previous disastrous floods in the metropolitan area.

MORROW NOMINATED
WASHINGTON, Dec. 12. (P)—President Hoover today nominated Edwin P. Morrow, of Kentucky for reappointment as a member of the board of mediators.

Four Regulars and Two Reserves Are Removed From Basketball Team by Action At Ousted Institution

IOWA CITY, Dec. 12. (P)—The University of Iowa athletic house today was given its most thorough cleaning since the western conference voted last spring to sever relations with the Hawkeyes.

Fourteen athletes who had borrowed sums ranging from $15 to $80 from a "trust fund" which was one of the points upon which the conference based its ouster action were dropped off the list of eligible players in five sports. Only one of them had concluded his competition prior to today.

TEAMS MAY MEET

St. Mary's College Seeks Games With Iowa

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12. (P)—St. Mary's college, possessing the most brilliant record in the west this year, and one of the few teams in the country to complete its schedule without defeat, today started negotiations with the University of Iowa for a home and home engagement. If an agreement is reached, the first game would be played in San Francisco next year.

Addition Slash in Taxes Is Unlikely

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12. (P)—Undersecretary Mills said today that sufficient funds would prevent the treasury from approving the suggestion by Senator Couzens, republican, Michigan, for a reduction from 12 1/2 to 10 per cent in the capital gain tax although he, Mills, thought such a reduction would be the "right thing to do."

Mills indicated the treasury felt it had gone the limit in recommending a one per cent cut in individual and corporation incomes taxes for the calendar year 1929.

Ask Authorization
A resolution to authorize this reduction already has been passed by the house, approved by the senate finance committee and placed on the senate calendar for action.

In proposing this cut the treasury estimated there would be a surplus of $225,000,000 this year and $122,000,000 for the 1931 fiscal year.

The Couzens proposal, Mills said, would not become effective until the 1931 year and with only $122,000,000 surplus in sight such a reduction would be inopportune.

EXTENSION SUGGESTED
WASHINGTON, Dec. 12. (P)—Gradual extension to 20 cents a pound of loans on cotton was suggested to the Federal Farm Board today in a telegram sent by five senators to Carl Williams, cotton's representative on the board, who is attending a meeting of cooperatives at Memphis, Tenn. The present maximum is 16 cents.

ORDERS INCREASE

NEW YORK, Dec. 12. (P)—The United States Steel corporation reported today that its unfilled orders increased 13,382 tons during November to a total of 4,135,345 tons as of November 30.

Sam Bredon Gives Group Address On System

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 12. (P)—The winter major league baseball profession moved today from one hotel lobby to another but the result was much the same. The American and National leagues, after holding their annual sessions for two days, combined in a joint meeting, but nothing of vital importance to the national game developed from the larger conference.

The club owners of both leagues agreed with Jacob Ruppert, president of the New York Yankees, that the number of players on option by each club should be 15 instead of eight and that it should be possible to send players out on option for three years instead of two as at present. However, the minors will have to agree before a change can be made.

To Confer With Minors
A committee of four from each league will confer with the minors on matters concerning the relationship. Concessions will be offered the minors if they will agree to increase the number and length of options. Possibly the minors will ask in return that the majors agree not to sign college players.

In the future players whose contracts are transferred from one club to another must report to their new employer within 72 hours, except in the case of athletes called from the Pacific coast to the east.

The question of "common ownership" of baseball clubs, the so-called chain store system, came in for discussion, including an extended address by Sam Bredon, president of the St. Louis Cardinals, the most extensive dealer in wholesale baseball talent in the game. No action was taken.

No Action Radio
The question of radio reporting of baseball games did not come up. As a result of efforts launched by the Baseball Writers Association of America, the scoring rules will be "codified, unified and clarified."

The scoring rules in the two major leagues are not complete accord and there are points not clear. They will be pointed out by a committee from the writers' union and will prepare instructions to scorers of baseball games everywhere.

The major league owners also acquiesced in a suggestion from the writers that scorers for each club be appointed by the league presidents on the advice of the club presidents and local chapters of the baseball writers for one year, with two alternates to serve in the absence of the scorer, with a provision that a man failing to measure up to the standards of efficient scoring be removed.

Appropriations Made
Three appropriations were made totaling $65,000, and to take care of the increase the baseball commissioner will deduct 15 per cent of the next World's series gross, instead of 10 per cent, as has been the case in recent years.

The two leagues will continue to support the American Legion program of junior baseball, $50,000 being set aside for this purpose. The National Amateur Athletic Federation was voted $10,000 and a part of this sum will be spent in providing expert instruction to coaches of sandlot and school teams throughout the country.

Five thousand dollars was appropriated for the Association of Professional Baseball Players of America, an organization devoted to caring for former players no longer able to care for themselves.

May Drop Diamond Sport in T. I. A. A.

SAN MARCOS, Dec. 12. (P)—There is a strong possibility that baseball will be dropped from the list of competitive sports in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

None of the schools in the association has scheduled a baseball game for the approaching season and no attempt was made to do so at the annual meeting this week at Dallas.

Potentialities of City are Praised

"There is no city in the West," which offers more potentialities than Lubbock, in my opinion," expressed D. E. Etheridge, Lincoln and Ford dealer of Chattanooga, who is in this city today making arrangements for the funeral of his father, Harry C. Etheridge, 83, who died yesterday at the home of his daughter in El Paso.

"A tone of genuine, progressive citizenship is available here," he continued. "The South Plains business men, with Lubbock playing the leading role, are characteristically broad-visioned. They are more alert and possess more energy than the Southerners and Easterners."

"Much of which," he smiled, "reflects to the glory of Tennessee, for I find a great number from my home state in Lubbock."

Waco's Dreaded Spinner Is Worried To Oil Belt Club

Indications Point To Sellout Of 12,000 Seats At Semi-Final Clash At Breckenridge Saturday

BRECKENRIDGE, Dec. 12. (P)—Coach P. E. Shotwell's Breckenridge High school Buckaroos are paying no heed to the fact they have been picked almost unanimously to defeat the Waco Tigers in their semi-final battle here Saturday. They are practicing for the bout just like they did for their eleven previous games this year and there is no indication of over-confidence in the camp.

Much of the week has been devoted to the problem of stopping Waco's celebrated "spinner" which has been the backbone of the Tigers' offense all season.

Their offense, led by Boyce Magness, already has proved its ability to gain consistently against the stoutest high school lines.

Indications were there would be a sellout of the 12,000 seats at the Breckenridge High school stadium.

There is a feeling here that the Bucks will have little difficulty subduing the winner of the other semi-final game between Port Arthur and Denton if they can get by the Waco eleven.

Fyson's Tigers Ready For Battle
WACO, Dec. 12. (P)—Dunk settled over the Waco Tigers' practice field tonight as a mild rain fell, and a group of Bengals completed their last practice at home before meeting the Breckenridge Buckaroos Saturday in the oil belt city.

Few are the times before that a Paul Tyson team has left its home field for the last time before a big game with such a look of determination as did the 1929 machine today.

Coach Tyson had little to say Monday he told his boys.

They will tell you from one end of the state to the other that you have no chance whatsoever, but if the game was played in Waco, they would give you an even break. Well, the field out in Breckenridge is no longer and no wider than the one at the Cotton Palace. It is a little softer and there is nothing in the makeup of the soil to make you play better or worse."

Friday morning the Waco boys, with Coach Tyson and his assistants will leave by bus for Breckenridge. They plan to make the trip in easy stages and hope to get a light workout in the Buckaroos' city during the afternoon.

A special train carrying 1,000 Wacoans will leave here Saturday morning.

McLarin to Meet Goldstein Tonight

NEW YORK, Dec. 12. (P)—The boys who can "hit 'em and leave 'em lying there," still have a mighty hold on the faithful who pay the boxing freight.

If there is any question about it, two of the heaviest workers in the ranks of the medium sized gladiators, will prove the point in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night. Jimmy McLarin, the clouting Celt, will snap blows with Ruby Goldstein, the rejuvenated Jewel of the Ghetto and already it seems as if space on the rafters will be at a premium.

For three days, reserved seats in the battle place have been sold out and all this despite the disappointing bout of Monday night, when the much-ballyhooed meeting of Phil Scott and Otto Von Porat resulted in three minutes and 25 seconds of fighting and a discouraging foul.

Tomorrow night's gate is expected to exceed $100,000, a better showing than the heavyweights made on Monday's charity card.

Business Men to Carry on Program

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12. (P)—Twenty outstanding business and financial leaders representing all sections of the United States were named today by Julius H. Barnes as an executive committee to carry on business stabilization endeavors authorized by President Hoover's recent business survey conference.

Mr. Barnes will act as chairman. He said the committee would be called shortly but did not name a date.

A preliminary study of the many reports submitted to the business survey conference, he asserted, indicated there was nothing to cause "hesitation," but, rather, warrants confidence in the early stabilization of business activities without justifying excessive optimism before the close of the next few months."

PELAN TO WASHINGTON

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 12. (P)—James M. Pelan, coach of the Purdue university football team which won the Big Ten championship this year, has signed a contract to coach at the University of Washington, from January 1, 1930, to June 1, 1933. Earl Campbell, graduate manager at Washington, said here today.

The coast of Annam on the China Sea is one of the stormiest in the world.

In Last Game

GREER FRIZZELL

Football fans who witness the Lubbock-Clebourn fray on Tech field this afternoon will see Big Greer Frizzell, Westerner tackle, down his last man for Lubbock High. A bulwark in the gold and black forward wall for the past four years, Greer will be lost to the team by graduation.

Football Awards To Lamesa Crew

(Special To The Avalanche)
LAMESA, Dec. 12. (P)—Twenty-six Lamesa Golden Tornadoes will receive football letters for this season's work, according to Coach F. T. McCollum. Eighteen letters will be given to the players, while two will be presented to managers and six to the reserves.

Recipients of the letters are: Bill Austin, Carr Sprayberry, Drue Lockhart, J. K. Salsar, Rupert Austin, Jack Borden, Carl Wiggins, Paul Riley, Hilary Santa, Douglas Hill, Earl Moore, Lloyd May, Slim Carroll, Red Moore, Wilford Ham, Vernie Mathews, Byrl Rigby, David Treadaway. Managers receiving letters are Ross Lowrie and Connelly Baldwin. The reserve string letters are John Marr, Hugh Cleaman, Ralph Jordan, Joe Evans, Nolan Evans and Clyde Wyatt.

Six regular players are expected to graduate at the end of this semester, according to V. Z. Rogers, superintendent.

CLASS B TEAMS CLASH

AUSTIN, Dec. 12. (P)—The Schulenburg and Granger high school football teams will meet here Wednesday to determine the Class B championship of region 6. Date and place for the game were set today.

MUSKERS REFUSE GAME

LINCOLN, Dec. 12. (P)—The University of Nebraska today turned down an offer for a football game with Minnesota at Minneapolis next October 25, because it involved no home and home agreement.

Ray Morrison's All-Star Eleven Is Taking Shape

Four Members Of Champion T. C. U. Horned Frogs To Play In Classic Against Big Ten Aggregation

DALLAS, Dec. 12. (P)—The team which will represent the Southwest Conference in the "Dixie Classic" here New Year's Day against an all-star eleven from the Big Ten rapidly is taking shape. Ray Morrison, who will give the squad a week's coaching before the skirmish, is expected to announce his complete roster within the next few days.

Announcement that four members of the champion Texas Christian University eleven would play for the Southwest has done much to boost interest. Howard Grubbs, quarterback; Robert "Red" Moore, tackle; Buster Walker, end; and Phil Handler, guard, are Frogs who have accepted Morrison's invitation.

"Choc" Sanders, Southern Methodist all-conference guard, is another to join the roster.

Arkansas has contributed four of its outstanding players, including Geis and Miller of the backfield and Van Sickle and Gardner of the line. Baker, a crack end, and Bush Jones, guard, will be Rice's contributions to the team.

Cowan, Tammie Mills and Tanager backs and Richter, lineman, are expected to be Aggie contributors. Baylor's two graduating ends, Lucas and Butler will represent the Golden Bears on the squad.

So far as could be learned no Texas university players have accepted Morrison's invitation.

THE 1929 GOODRICH SILVER FLEET Presents It's Final Mileage Report

SUMMARY OF FACTS

about the 1929 Goodrich Silver-Fleet

Xmas
Trade-In Sale

THE FLEET. 15 stock 1929 models, consisting of an Auburn sedan, Buick touring, Chevrolet coach, Chrysler coupe, Essex coach, Ford roadster, Hupmobile sedan, Lincoln touring, Nash coupe, Oldsmobile coach, Packard roadster, Pontiac cabriolet, Studebaker sedan, Whippet coupe and Mack 6-ton truck.

Drivers were college graduates, without other than personal car driving experience. All tires were stock Silvertowns of the size uniformly recommended as standard for the individual car. Four-ply, six-ply and De Luxe tires were included.

THE ROUTE. South down the Atlantic Coast, westward around the Gulf, across the southwest, northward along the Pacific Coast, eastward through the middle west, north into New England, and back to New York City passing through 46 states, Mexico and Canada.

THE SCHEDULE. A fixed schedule was set, and the Fleet was required to keep to it, regardless of weather or road conditions. Speeds were determined by the schedule.

THE ROADS. 60 per cent of the Fleet's tour was over pavement roads, such as brick, concrete, macadam and similar hard surfaces.

17 per cent of the tour was over gravel, 10 per cent over rock, 5 per cent through sand, and 8 per cent through clay, mud and uncompleted construction.

THE RECORD.

Average Car Mileage	30,112
Tire miles	1,866,944
Number of original tires still in service	32*
Number of tires never off the wheel	15
Number of tires unpunctured	25
Number of blow-outs	None
Number of tire failures	None

Total number of punctures for entire Fleet 91
The Fleet was on the road 263 days, of which 225 days were spent in driving. A total of 1,809 hours was spent behind the wheel. The Fleet visited 205 major cities and towns, and passed through more than 1,700 towns and villages.

* Over 50% of the original tires are still in service.

Christmas Trade-In Sale

Here are the conclusions facts and figures for tire buyers Compiled from the records after this 30,000-mile demonstration run

Thirty thousand miles! Farther than the average car owner travels in more than three years of driving.

Thirty thousand miles! Including 5,000 miles of gravel, 3,000 miles of rock, 4,000 miles of sand, mud, clay and uncompleted construction.

Thirty thousand grueling, grinding, punishing miles!

And when the Silver Fleet rolled into New York, 32 of its original tires were still in service! 15 had never been off the rim even for inspection!

Never have tires set such an amazing record! Never have stock tires piled up such a total of trouble-free mileage even under the most favorable conditions.

Yet ... these cars might have been your car and those of a dozen neighbors. They were carefully selected to represent 90 per cent of the cars on the road today!

They included fours, sixes and eights ... light cars and heavy ... open cars and closed ... cars in every price class.

They were loaded to capacity and equipped with stock Silvertowns only. What tire buyer would have expected to complete such a tour with 32 of the original tires still in service?

Who would have dared say that 5 dozen stock tires could go 30,000 miles without a single failure?

That one tire in four would make the entire trip through 46 states without ever being off the rim?

But these are the facts. They prove, beyond question, the fundamental fact that Silvertowns cannot be matched for performance.

Your Goodrich dealer has the complete details of the Silver Fleet record at his finger tips. He can tell you what Silvertowns have shown they can do on any car you name.

See him ... not only to discuss the purchase of tires, but to reorganize your tire buying. You may have been buying other tires on claims and records that are hard to translate into terms of your own experience.

Here at last are facts that mean something to you. Talk to your Goodrich dealer ... if only to make sure you are well informed on tire performance. The B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co., Est. 1870, Akron, O. (Continued From Page 8) persuade Cora to help me—

"I can't quite understand why you needed Cora's help so badly," Dundee interrupted. "It seems rather a one-man job to me, simply searching a helpless, sleeping old woman's room for hidden money."

"The plan was for Cora to give her just a tiny bit of chloroform, not enough to hurt her but enough to keep her asleep while we searched the room," Sevier explained. "Cora used to be a trained nurse when she was a young girl, and she knew how to do it. I was afraid to try it by myself, because I didn't want to take any chance on killing the old lady with an overdose. Cora said the smell would blow out of the room by morning, with the window open, and we thought Mrs. Hogarth wouldn't even know she'd been drugged. We sort of counted, too, on Mrs. Hogarth not looking for her money for several days—long enough to give us—me—a chance to get clear away. And she wouldn't have been able to say just when it was stolen either."

"A very clever scheme," Dundee commented without malice. "You had the chloroform, I suppose?"

"Yes, I'd had some for a long time—got it for a toothache," Sevier answered. "I for it away—out of the train window—"

"Suppose you begin again, Sevier, at half-past 11 that night," Dundee interrupted.

"Well, I came up the alley and crawled along the driveway hedge till I got to the greenhouse. I wasn't going to try anything till Cora came home, because I thought maybe if I'd make love to her a little she'd still come across. A lot of the glass panes are broken in the greenhouse and I could see the house and the front walk clear to the street. I had to wait so long for Cora to come home that I finally took a chance and smoked a cigarette, and I guess I folded that theater program, just like you said," Sevier answered. "Cora was so late that I was about to give up and go on to the station, and I was nervous anyway, because the light was on in the corner room—that room I had when I boarded at the Rhodes House—and I knew I'd have to pass by Dowd's window if I went to Cora's or Mrs. Hogarth's room by way of the upstairs porch. But the light went off finally—"

"When?" Dundee interrupted sharply.

"About 10 minutes to 12, I got a radium dial wristwatch and I kept looking at it, because Cora was so late. And then something else made me nervous—"

"I didn't know then what it was, but now I guess it must have been that cap of Dusty's, because I did not have it—never had the thing in my hands or on my head in my life. Anyway, somebody threw something from off the upstairs porch or out of the window, for it came sailing down into the hedge not far from the greenhouse. I was so nervous about what I was planning to do that I didn't sneak out to investigate—though at the time it did not amount to anything anyway—just one of the boarders throwing something away. Dowd had just turned his light off and I thought it was him."

"It appeared to come from that part of the upstairs porch?" Dundee pressed.

"Yeah, but I didn't see it come—"

"What?" Dundee interrupted sharply.

"About 10 minutes to 12, I got a radium dial wristwatch and I kept looking at it, because Cora was so late. And then something else made me nervous—"

Pilot, Passenger Burn To Death In Airplane Mishap

Girl's Escort Witness To Fatal Accident After Pleading With Her Not
To Take Plane Ride

STAMFORD, Dec. 12. (P)—Pilot Cotton Hansen, 30, and his 20-year-old passenger, Miss Winnie Williams, were burned to death in the wreck of Hansen's plane here yesterday, while Miss Williams' escort, who had pleaded with her to forego the ride, looked on helplessly. The plane crashed and burst into flames at the local landing field, before a large crowd which had gathered while Hansen was taking up passengers. Spectators said the plane was flying low when it fell. Hansen had taxied down the field at a high rate of speed, they said, before taking off. He then circled low over the field. As the plane flew near the crowd, it went into a tailspin, turned over, and crashed on its nose. Pilot and passenger were strapped in. Both bodies were badly burned. Miss Williams had been taken to the field by L. D. Lamar. She told him she was going to take a ride, and he tried to persuade her not to go up. Hansen flew to Stamford from his home in Haskell. The plane belonged

Rehabilitation Of Present Walls To Be Recommended

Minority Report On Centralization Of Prison System
Expected To Be Presented
To Moody Next Monday

AUSTIN, Dec. 12. (P)—The minority report on centralization of the penitentiary system will recommend rehabilitation of the present walls at Huntsville, Senator Nat Patton of Crockett, said today. He stated the report would not be presented to Governor Moody until after the whole centralization commission held its meeting here, likely next Monday. He declared that by adding 12 acres to the present area at Huntsville and expending about $2,000,000 the central plant could be made equal to any in the country. He expressed confidence the legislature, to meet in special session for the purpose of considering the penitentiary problems, would adopt the minority plan. The majority report will recommend construction of a central plant within 30 miles of Austin at an ultimate cost of $4,500,000. The plan is, however, to appropriate $1,000,000 to start the project and $350,000 annually thereafter until it is completed. It is a firm or individual in Seymour. It bore that state license number D-6115.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified croscote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with sub-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs croscote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to croscote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation, while the croscote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Weight Standard Adopted By Turkey Pool At Shallowater Boosts Prices

Not only are farmers of the South Plains being given an average of $200 per carload more than the local market price for turkeys, but they are receiving more on the average for each turkey because of the weight standard adopted by the turkey pool which came to evidence Monday at Shallowater. Two carloads of turkeys were loaded Monday morning, more than

Lubbock turkey market for the same time was between 12 and 16 cents for a minimum weight of hens at nine pounds and for gobblers at 14 pounds. When the farmers were loading the cars at Shallowater early Monday morning, one of Lubbock's largest poultry houses displayed a sign opposite the tracks offering 18 cents per pound. However, only one farmer is known to have taken up this offer. The pool was made up by W. W. Cox, of Brady, and he stated Monday that he has a market for all the turkeys he can secure railroad cars to haul them to, from now until Christmas. Each car of live turkeys totals about 1,400. HEARING STARTS AUSTIN, Dec. 12. (P)—Consideration of the petition of Texas carriers to make inapplicable manufacturers' rates on lumber, steel or cut to shape, was begun by the railroad commission when it took up its regular monthly docket today.
