During Military Parade...

Egypt's President Sadat Assassinated

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — President Anwar Sadat was assassinated today by men in army uniforms who opened fire on him during a military parade, presidential adviser Mansour Hassan announced.

Emerging from a meeting of six top Egyptian officials, including Vice President Hosni Mubarak, Hassan was asked if Sadat was alive or dead.

"Dead," he replied.

He said the funeral would be "in a few days."

A Foreign Ministry official, who declined to be named, said Sadat was hit in the arm in the attack, which occurred during a jetfighter flyby and sent thousands of spectators fleeing in panic. But David Gergen, a White House spokesman in Washington, said Sadat was hit twice in the side.

The Egyptian government said Sadat was flown to Maadi military hospital by helicopter and underwent surgery but did not immediately issue a report on the outcome.

Anti-riot police were deployed in Cairo, which was normal for an attack on a president, but there were no troop movements, the state radio played light music and Egypt's ambassador in the United States said the gunfire was not part of a coup attempt.

Egypt's ambassador to Washington, Ashraf Ghorbal, said he was told by his government three of the attackers were killed and three were captured alive, but that it was not an attempted coup.

He said the vice president and defense minister were very slightly wounded, and that the vice president was heading a cabinet session to deal with the attack.

The State Department said a U.S. Marine major, an Army lieutenent colonel and an Air Force captain also were hit but only slightly wounded. The Egyptian official, who requested anonymity, said many Foreign Ministry officials and others were wounded, including the Belgian ambassador and first secretary of the Australian Embassy.

Cairo Radio gave this account of the attack initially:

"At 1240 this afternoon — 6:40 a.m. EDT — during the military parade, a group of people fired at the main grandstand which resulted in the injury of the president of the republic, and some of those accompanying him. His excellency has been moved to where he is being treated by specialists. The vice president of the republic is personally following up on what procedures the doctors are taking."

Anwar Sadat

Sadat was evacuated by helicopter and taken to Maadi military hospital.

Defense Minister Abdel Halim Abu Ghazalla was hit in the attack, which occurred in the district of Nasr — which means Victory in Arabic — midway between downtown Cairo and the international airport. But Vice President Hosni Mubarak, who was on the other side of Sadat in the reviewing stand, was unharmed, Associated Press photographer William Foley said. The shooting erupted during a jetfighter flyby, and thousands fled in panic.

Fawzi Abdel-Hafez, Sadat's personal secretary, was killed, an Egyptian official said. A number of foreign diplomats who were in the reviewing stands with Sadat also were hit, Foley said. The U.S. Embassy said the American ambassador was not hit.

Foley said a group of men began firing at Sadat from a truck towing artillery as it passed the grandstand. Two of the men jumped off the back of truck and charged the reviewing stand, firing from the shoulder.

"No one was sure it was real for a few seconds, then all hell broke loose," Foley said.

Several thousand spectators in the reviewing stand fled in panic as the young soldiers, in olive drab fatigues, opened fired. AP reporter Steve Hindy saw many people lying bleeding on the stand.

Ambulances and security vehicles rushed to the stand and carried away the injured.

ONE INJURED—One person was injured and two vehicles sustained heavy damage in a two-car collision at about 9:30 a. m. today at the intersection of 25th St. and Ave. M. Taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by Scurry County EMS was Dominga Torres, driver of the 1979 Pontiac Firebird, center. Bunyon Lee Evans, driver of the 1980 Chrysler LeBaron, left, was not injured in the crash. The extent of Ms. Torres' injuries was not known immediately, but they were not believed to be serious. Breakfast On The Square...

White Buffalo Days To Begin Tomorrow

Breakfast on the square Wednesday will launch the first "White Buffalo Days" celebration in Snyder.

It was 75 years ago tomorrow that J. Wright Mooar, one of the best-known early-day buffalo hunters in the Southwest, killed a rare white buffalo on deep Creek northwest of Snyder.

It was reported to be one of only seven such animals known to have been sighted in this country by early-day settlers, and white buffaloes were held in awe by Indian tribes who attributed supernatural powers to the unusual animals.

A chuck wagon breakfast will be served beginning at 7:30 a. m. Wednesday by members of Beta Sigma Phi to launch activity on the Scurry County Courthouse Square.

Historic Scurry County, Inc., will conduct a ceremony at the white buffalo statue, one of the area's tourist attractions.

Special entertainment will feature the Western Texas College Choir.

The Wednesday morning event will close with the "Judge and Mayor's Race," which will match

Sometimes we are amazed at the trivia that worry people in this country. Then, just when we begin to think that everybody's flipped, we remember how fortunate we are—fortunate that we live in a country where people must focus on the trivial to find things to worry about, when millions of people in other countries only worry about such things as where their next meal is coming from, where they are going to sleep tonight, or how to cope with diseases.

It is man's lot to worry, and if nothing is thrust upon him to worry about, he must go out and find something.

There is a Larry Doolin story that points up this characteristic. While traveling with a companion, he passed a mobile home being towed by a truck.

"Those are very economical houses," he observed. "Some friends of mine built a prefabricated house once. Everything was so perfectly planned that when they finished they had exactly one brick left.

"This worried them. They wondered if they had made a big mistake somewhere. What would you do if you had one brick left over?"

"I don't know," said his traveling companion. "I'd probably throw it away."

This bolsters our point about worry, but it is not the end of the story. Later, after discussing several other topics, Doolin said: "I was riding on a bus one time and the fellow in the seat just ahead of me was smoking a big, black cigar. A lady sitting across the aisle had a little dog in her lap, and the cigar smoke annoyed her deeply. Finally, she asked the man if he would put out the cigar, noting that smoking wasn't permitted on the bus.

"The fellow told her that dogs were not permitted on the bus, either, and went on smoking his cigar. The woman was furious. She jumped up, snatched the cigar from the man's mouth and threw it out the window. Immediately, the man grabbed the woman's dog and threw it out the same window. The woman screamed and fainted.

"Fortunately, the bus made a rest stop a minute later. By the time I got off the bus, there came the woman's dog running up to us. And what do you suppose the dog had in his mouth?"

"Oh no," said the traveling companion. "Don't tell me it was the cigar!"

"Oh no. It wasn't the cigar. It was the leftover brick from the prefabricated house."

Front Brings Rains Into Snyder Area

A cold front moving down from the Panhandle this morning brought showers to the Snyder area and forecasts promised cooler weather tonight and tomorrow.

Only .05 inch of rainfall had been measured in the official gauge at the city water plant at 7 a. m., but heavier showers moved in at about 10:30 a. m. and prospects were considered good for more rain later today.

Rainfall continued in south and southwest regions, where the front is expected to advance later today, the National Weather Service said.

Early-morning fog reduced visibility across coastal areas and in sections of East Texas, while elsewhere in the state skies were cloudy to partly cloudy.

Highs are expected to reach only near 70 degrees in the Panhandle, ranging up to the low 90s in the Big Bend region. Predawn temperatures fell to the 50s in the Panhandle north of the front.

Zoning Change Clears Way For Apartments

The Snyder City Council last night gave first reading approval to one zoning change, rejected one and passed on second and final reading another.

Approved on first reading was a change of zone for 8.742 acres south of Eastridge Addition and east of the Brick Plant Road from a single-family residential district to a multi-family residential district. The request came from Bob Rogers, developer of Kingswood Estates, who is planning another apartment development at the rezoned site. His request had the approval of the planning and zoning commission.

The council denied a request by Abel Beauchamp for rezoning of the south 150 feet of Lot 4, Block 24 of Grayum and Nelson Second Addition. The planning and zoning commission took no action on this request and a delegation of neighboring property owners attending the council session opposed it. Beauchamp had proposed to build two duplex dwellings on the property and asked to change the zone from a single-family residential district to a two-family residential district.

A petition opposing the zone change was presented to the council by Joe Cushing and he and several other property owners in the area spoke out in opposition to the change.

Approved on second and final reading was an ordinance changing zones in the C. M. Payne Addition in Northwest Snyder. The changes there involve some from single-family residential to multi-family residential and some from residential to manufacturing. This change was approved eariler by the planning and zoning commission and got first reading approval at the council's September meeting.

The city manager was authorized to seek bids for the purchase of a high pressure sewer cleaning machine, four police cars, two pickup trucks and 575 sanitation service containers.

A request by Patterson Drilling Co. for water service west of town was approved. The firm will pay for extension of lines.

The city engineer was authorized to install a stop sign to control north-south traffic at the intersection of Ave. B and 26th St. Two other requests for stop signs, one at Noble Dr. and 38th St. and one at 27th St. and Ave. 0, were rejected.

The city parks board and consultants presented a report to the council on plans for development of Line Park. The property for the new park extends from 30th St. to 37th St. along Deep Creek. Jerry Vestal, chairman of the parks board, presented the report with illustrations prepared by consultants. Vestal said in all of its planning work the board is taking into consideration that the Line Park area is subject to occasional flooding. However, he said the board is dedicated to providing plans for a class A park.

"We believe Snyder is an All-American City and that it should have an All-American park," Vestal said.

They are considering development of trails, a pavilion, a drive that would have both entry and egress from 30th St. and some playing fields suitable for softball and soccer.

In addition to Vestal, members of the city parks board are Faye Thompson, Delbert Downing, Patsy Huckabee and Jimmy Dyess. Consultants, both of whom were present at the meeting, are John Alford and Walter Heard, both of Lubock.

Members of the council indicated that they were impressed with the work of the parks board and asked the the proposed designs be put on display in the city hall lobby for public view.

The council instructed the staff to proceed with negotiations for the pur-

Q.—Why can't the tax collections be handled by the Scurry County Tax Appraisal Office rather than elect another collector, and leave the county office for license tags only.?

A.—This would be up to each taxing entity. A city, county, school district, etc., may collect its own taxes, or contract with another agency for tax collection services, and all do not have to use the same collector.

Try To Calm Union Members

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Solidarity leaders in dozens of Polish cities are trying to calm union members who want to strike over the doubling of cigarette prices, union organizers report.

Lech Walesa, the leader of the independent labor federation, asked the workers to delay all protests until Solidarity's congress decides on a response to the price increases that took effect Monday.

Delegates to the congress accused Walesa of "shakiness" after he proposed talks with the government talks on the price hikes. The government indicated it might lower prices of the more expensive brands if the union agreed to talk.

There was little public reaction to other price increases that went into effect Monday on trout, carp and processed fruit. But the Poles are among the heaviest smokers in the world, and prices after the increase range from 40 cents to $1.80 a pack for domestic cigarettes and up to $5 a pack for foreign brands.

More Budget Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan's call for additional spending cuts headed for its first congressional test today with House consideration of an appropriations bill that the administration says is hundreds of millions of dollars over budget.

Reagan's House allies argue that the $87.3 billion appropriations bill for the department's of Labor, Education and Health and Human Services must be trimmed.

"This bill is far in excess of what the president could be expected to sign into law," House Republican leader Robert H. Michel of Illinois said in an interview Monday.

Reagan vowed last week to veto any "budget-busting" bills Congress sends him.

Michel said there is "no question there are enough votes (in the House) to sustain a veto," which requires a two-thirds vote to be overriden.

Mexia Drownings...

Change Of Venue Granted In Trial

MARLIN, Texas — An attorney for one of three laymen charged with negligent homicide in the drownings of three black youths says the officers' trial has been moved twice because officials think the case is a "hot potato" that could stir up racial unrest.

The trial was moved Monday from a state district court here to a county court at law in San Marcos. The proceedings earlier were moved from Mexia, where the three youths drowned, to nearby Marlin.

"There is no doubt the publicity here has made it almost impossible for my client to get a fair trial," said Joe Cannon, attorney for Limestone County probation officer David Drummond. "It's been difficult to get a judge. No one wants this. It's a hot potato. I don't blame them."

District Judge Thomas Bartlett said the trial was moved out of his court to the Hayes County Court at Law in San Marcos after "statements in the news media by certain persons created an atmosphere in this county that is charged with racial tension to the point that violence is almost invited."

Bartlett said Marlin officials feared the trial would bring in outsiders who would create unrest. Officials in Limestone County had wanted the trial moved to Marlin because they said the officers would not get a fair trial in Mexia.

Limestone County Deputy Kenny Elliott, 23, Reserve Deputy Kenneth Archie, 23, and Drummond, 32, face misdemeanor charges of negligent homicide in the deaths of three black youths.

The officers are accused of transporting Carl Baker, 19, Anthony Freeman, 18, and Steve Booker, 19, across Lake Mexia in an overloaded motorboat after arresting the teen-agers at a "Juneteenth" celebration on suspicion of drug possession.

The youths drowned when the boat overturned in the middle of the lake.

Postal Service Takes A Lickin'

LUSK, Wyo. (AP) — The Postal Service is taking a lickin' from the man claiming to be its oldest letter carrier.

Don Taylor, 85, says he has been toting mail since 1942. His route is 70 miles long and takes him between Lusk and Jay Em six days a week.

He said that when he picked up his first mailbag 39 years ago, a first-class stamp cost 2 cents, all the roads on his route were dirt and he often got stuck in mud or snow.

at wits end

by erma bombeck

There's a movement underfoot to make college students literate.

What will they think of next.

The general consensus is that advanced education has swung too far toward specialized studies and needs to get back to courses that prepare students for life.

I couldn't agree more. That's why I was delighted to see the following courses on my son's senior schedule.

Remedial Bicycle Watching: (3 hours) Designed for the novice who has had three bicycles ripped off in five years. Bring chains, locks, small explosives and detoner. Bicycles will be furnished.

Is There Life After Lunch?: (3 hours) A seminar with guest lecturers who outline advantages of staying awake to participate in cleaning room, soaking laundry, doing required reading, and in the final quarter adding a class or two.

Letter Writing Block And How To Solve It: (1 hour) A creative approach to writing letters home that do not start with cliches like, "Thank your lucky stars when your son says he is busted and only means he is out of money." Workbooks and tapes extra.

Your Car And Faith Healers: (2 hours) A frank look at automobile mechanics who promise to fix your transmission by adding water. As a bonus, Dr. Weingard Schuyler, Heart Institute, will once again conduct a class on how to survive an insurance premium notice where a claim has just been filed.

Parent Weekend: Religious Experience Or End Of The World As You Know It: (CRASH COURSE) How to make a roommate of the opposite sex disappear. How to decorate with books and pencils. How to arrange for instant enrollment. Applicants will be screened according to level of need. Guaranteed to give new meaning to "Have a good day."

Jogging For Bodies: (5 hours) A fun approach to physical fitness in which warm-ups are eliminated and the emphasis is on meeting girls and boys. Applicants should be able to talk and jog at the same time.

Someone the other day said they feared that general education would promote intellectual conformity and a sterile acquiescence for the sake of social cohesion.

I asked my son about that.

He said he is taking Social Cohesion and the History of Perrier next semester.

Your Birthday

October 7, 1981

There could be some very pleasant things happening for you this coming year involving the security you want for yourself and your family. You'll be given the opportunity; just don't let friends talk you out of it.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You've heard the expression, "You are what you think." Well, this could be applied to you today concerning what you think your worth is in this world. Romance, travel, luck, resources, possible pitfalls and career for the coming months are all discussed in your Astro-Graph which begins with your birthday. Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Charm and good humor work well for you, so don't give in to being argumentative, even when provoked. Keep your wits about you and laugh everything off.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) "Insiders" information which may be given to you today must be treated with the secrecy it deserves. Tell no tales and you can't be accused of the leak.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You may not want to be alone today, but don't go so far as to pick up everyone's tab just to keep them around you. This could never bring you happiness.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Don't think you must babble senselessly just so others will know you're around. Most of the time, people prefer the company of a listener.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) The only person who is thinking down about you today is yourself. You might talk yourself right into being miserable by negative self-judgment.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Keep your opinions to yourself today, especially if they are demeaning toward another. You could find yourself in hot water if you voice them.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Being a nice person could get you thrown together with someone everyone else is trying to avoid. Speak up so they don't palm him or her off on you.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You're in a sociable mood today, which might be just the reason you can't concentrate. It's best not to begin things which, once begun, must be finished.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Getting along with others will be no problem today, so long as you keep everything aboveboard. If anyone feels he or she is being talked about, hurt feelings will result.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Keep busy today. Avoid getting into discussions which might be touchy, especially with family members. Why spoil what could be a pleasant day?

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Mental pursuits won't necessarily be your strong suit today, so if you find your concentration straying, stop and do things which are routine.

Dear Abby

Cure for Stinginess Won't Come Cheap

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1981 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: All my life I have been very cheap, and the older I get, the cheaper I get, but I can't seem to help it. I am now 41, and I know that my friends and co-workers must talk about me behind my back. It's beginning to bother me.

I have enough money, so that's not the reason I'm cheap, but I go out of my way to avoid picking up a check, and sometimes I even lie and say I don't have any money with me.

What makes me act this way? And how can I get over it?

CHEAP IN TRENTON, N.J.

DEAR CHEAP: There is undoubtedly a deep-rooted psychological reason why you and your money are seldom parted. However, if you are sufficiently motivated to get over your cheapness, you can do it, but it won't be cheap. Through psychotherapy (here we go again!), you can be conditioned to loosen up.

DEAR ABBY: In a recent column in the Delaware State News, a faithful girl Friday, signing herself "Lakewood, Calif.," said that her boss would give her $200 if she could guess within $200 the price of an elegant sofa shown in a magazine.

"Lakewood" said she guessed $2800. The boss said the price was $3000 and refused to give her the $200, saying that her guess was just $1 low.

You concurred with her calculation that $2800 is within $200 of the $3000, but I think she missed it by a whisker — Abe Lincoln's whisker on a penny, that is.

To be within $200 of $3000, her guess would have had to be at least $2800.01. The boss was wrong too. Her guess was 1 cent low instead of $1.

PICAYUNE PENNY IN DOVER, DEL.

DEAR PICAYUNE: Picky, picky, picky. Others (but not many) wrote to nail me on the error. As a "Promoter of Precise Phraseology" in San Francisco pointed out, the secretary's error was not in math, it was in ambiguous language.

DEAR ABBY: In a recent letter offering some informative tips on how to treat people who are blind, you listed many things the blind can do for themselves. However, you failed to mention one sport enjoyed by the blind that most people find truly amazing: downhill skiing!

Here in Aspen, Colo., there is a program called BOLD (Blind Outdoor Leisure Development), with about 125 trained local guides who guide sightless people wherever they want to ski on the mountain. We provide them with skiing lessons free, as well as rental equipment at no cost to them if they wish. We even take them out for evenings of "apres-ski." We help about 50 blind skiers a winter.

ROBERT E. LYON, SNOWMASS, COLO.

DEAR ROBERT: Kudos to you and those with the BOLD program.

DEAR ABBY: My problems is that the child we adopted when he was 5 weeks old is now 30 and has leukemia. He is doing fairly well on chemotherapy pills, but his doctor says he may have to have a bone marrow transplant from a compatible person — meaning a blood relative.

Of course, since he is adopted I will need to know how to reach his birth mother if he is to have a transplant. Whom should I contact in the city of his birth in order to trace his birth mother? I'm sure there must be lawyers or agencies that do this.

NEEDS HELP

DEAR NEEDS: Get in touch with the adoption agency that placed the child with you. In some (but not in all) states, it will cooperate. Also write to ALMA, P.O. Box 154, Washington Bridge Station, New York, N.Y. 10033, and list your name. This organization does an excellent job of "matching" adoptees with their natural parents when all parties concerned are eager to be reunited.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get them off your chest. Write to Abby: 12060 Hawthorne Blvd., Suite 5000, Hawthorne, Calif. 90250. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Man Charged With Selling

ERLANGER, Ky. (AP) — A hair stylist was charged with child selling for allegedly trading his infant daughter to a couple for a used car valued at $2,000, police said.

Robert Lusby, 32, was scheduled for arraignment Monday in Kenton District Court on a charge of child selling, said Police Lt. Bill Willen. Lusby was freed on $5,000 bond Friday. Willen said a warrant on the same charge has been signed for Lusby's ex-wife.

Kenton Juvenile Court Judge Douglas Stephens said the baby, born July 17 in Cincinnati, would remain in temporary custody of the couple, who have a natural child of their own.

The unlucky expert had cornered us for the first time in months.

"Have I got the hard luck hand of all-time for you," was his start.

Then he showed us today's hand and remarked that all South players in the weekly duplicate had bid and made four hearts. The play started with a diamond won by East as cheaply as possible and the lead of the diamond ace at trick two. All Souths ruffed and all Wests, but one, overruffed and led their remaining trump. South would lose the spade finesse, but could then ruff his two losing spades with dummy's last two trumps and make four.

Against our hero, on trick two West played a low club without any apparent thought. In fact there was no thought. West hadn't seen his king of hearts at that point in time.

Now South led the queen of hearts and rose with dummy's ace. After all East was marked with that king and it could be a singleton. If not, South could still take the spade finesse and make four or five depending on whether or not it worked. So he led a spade from dummy and finessed his queen. West took his king and said, "Look what I just found." Then he led his king of trumps. That was the third defensive trick and the unlucky expert could only ruff one losing spade and was down one for a zero.

Dial A Devotional 573-8801

King George V signed the Irish Home Rule Act in 1914, but its implementation was suspended during World War I. By the end of the war, the Easter Rising of 1916 had hardened opinion on both sides, making orderly progression to dominion status for Ireland virtually impossible. Civil war followed, first between the British and the Irish, then between Irish moderates and Irish extremists.

Perelman Had Abundant Charm

THE LAST LAUGH. By S. J. Perelman. Simon & Schuster. 192 Pages. $12.95.

In his introduction to this collection of various pieces by the late S.J. Perelman, Paul Theroux establishes to his and the reader's satisfaction that Perelman was a satirist.

Since a satirist, to Theroux, "seems a sour and forbidding figure" how, he asks, "does one suggest that such a man may also have a great deal of charm?"

Not much thought is required to answer Theroux's question. All a reader has to do is read some of Perelman's work and, after he has stopped laughing inwardly and outwardly, the odds are great that he will quickly agree that charm is what Perelman had in abundance.

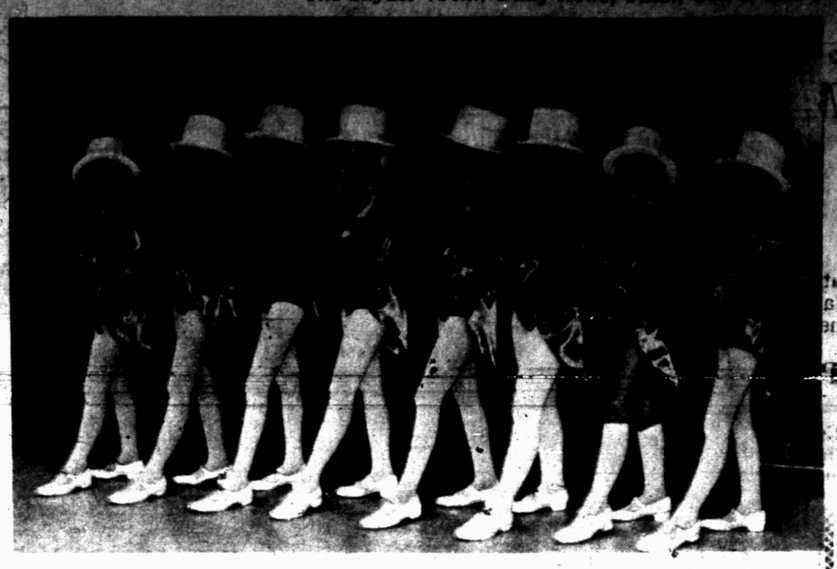

Most of the pieces gathered here previously appeared in The New Yorker, but they are just as satisfying to read the second time around as they were the first. Especially recommended is the item titled "The Frost Is on the Noggin," in which the intrepid author details his adventures in tracking down a frozen food thief.

Only Perelman would have thought up a tale in which a clever thief smuggles out his booty by hiding it under his hat while wearing a heated wig "to counteract the deadly frost" that would slow down the blood circulation to his brain and cause him to faint.

The previously unpublished items are autobiographical in nature and give some rattling good sketches of such as the Marx Brothers (Perelman wrote for them), writers Dorothy Parker and Nathanael West, and some of the people who made movies long ago.

Judging from what appears here, it is to be hoped Perelman left many other manuscripts behind.

Pine bath

When winter cold or flu strikes, you can end up feeling less than attractive after a couple of days in bed. Here's a pleasant treatment that will help relieve congestion while it revives sluggish skin. Add pine bath tablets or liquid to a very warm tub. Soak for 10 minutes. You'll find you're relaxed and breathing easier. The pine also opens clogged pores, which helps to eliminate blackheads.

Fine hair's fine

If you think your hair is fragile because it's fine, you should know that fine hair is really the most elastic. It can be styled in hundreds of pretty ways and takes color and perms beautifully. However, it does tend to go limp with just a little extra humidity. To counteract this, use an acid-balanced shampoo, stay away from rinses and consider getting a body perm.

Pour baking soda down drains once a week to keep them from clogging.

Aid against recurrence?

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am confused about using aspirin to prevent heart attacks and strokes. I have been taking aspirin because heart attacks seem to run in my family. Now I have read that aspirin doesn't help women but only helps men. That seems odd. Is that true? Why would aspirin work anyway? Does it thin the blood? If so, will it cause a person to bleed or hemorrhage? Should you take aspirin for high blood pressure?

DEAR READER — There are lots of unanswered questions about the use of aspirin in preventing both heart attacks and strokes. So far it has been proved to provide some help in preventing men from having recurrences. It has not been proved to prevent attacks in people who have never had a stroke or a heart attack and it has not been shown to improve the outlook in women.

Why? No one knows for sure. Aspirin in the correct dose — and authorities are still trying to find out what is the best amount, which may be smaller than commonly used — will help prevent the clumping of small cells in your blood called platelets. Platelet clumping is the first step in the formation of a blood clot. Cigarette smoking causes clumping. I don't think anyone should start taking even small doses of aspirin on his own to prevent heart attacks or strokes. As The Health Letter number 8-8, Aspirin and Related Medicines, which I am sending you explains, there are potential hazards to regular aspirin consumption.

Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

Aspirin in the plain form or in combination with antacids or other preparations certainly can induce bleeding. Chronic use of aspirin often causes irritation of the lining of the stomach. The combination of aspirin and alcohol, often used by people to treat a cold, is especially hard on the stomach and should be avoided by all.

Despite its drawbacks, aspirin remains a rather safe medicine if a person knows its limitations and does not abuse its use. Its effectiveness may be limited some by taking it with meals but the food helps to protect the stomach from irritation.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Would you write something about a brain wave test? I've been told they find out about your past with these tests. I have a friend who is going to have this. They say it doesn't hurt you but they hook you up to a machine with lots of wires to your brain. If it is real bad I won't tell her.

DEAR READER — There is nothing to it. Your brain constantly creates electrical impulses. If it didn't you would be dead. Those electrical impulses are transmitted throughout your body but, of course, are strongest over the brain itself.

The test simply attaches electrodes to the scalp to measure the electrical activity of the surface of your brain. The wires and electrodes are not attached to the brain in any way. Some techniques do involve putting very fine needles in the scalp but not through the skull or into the brain.

No, the test will not reveal your past. Its uses are actually somewhat limited but it is an important test in studying brain function and evaluating symptoms that are sometimes caused by a change in brain function — such as unexplained fainting, headaches or visual disturbances.

Vickie Daniel's Trial...

Former Governor Appears In Court

LIBERTY, Texas (AP) — Former Texas Gov. Price Daniel Sr. says the hostility expressed toward his family during a bitter child custody fight prompted his appearance in the courtroom where his son's accused killer is on trial.

But defense attorneys argued Daniel acted as an "intimidating 'force'" to prospective jurors who may be selected to decide the fate of his daughter-in-law, Vickie Daniel.

Mrs. Daniel, 34, is charged with murder in the Jan. 19 shooting death of her estranged husband at their sprawling ranch home outside this rural Southeast Texas town.

Daniel, patriarch of one of Texas' most prominent families, showed up Monday as jury selection began, but Jack Zimmermann, Mrs. Daniel's attorney, said the former governor's presence violated his client's rights.

Zimmermann argued the only remedy would be to dismiss the murder charge, but visiting State District Judge Leonard Giblin of Beaumont denied the motion, saying the list of prosecptive jurors daniel scanned was public record.

Last April, Daniel and his daughter, Jean Daniel Murph, of Richardson, unsuccessfully fought for custody of two small sons born during the couple's stormy four-year marriage. A jury unanimously agreed to let Mrs. Daniel keep her children.

When called to the stand during Monday's session, the elder Daniel recalled that one prospective juror said he would kill the entire Daniel family if given a gun.

"Anytime any prospective juror thinks he wants to kill the Daniel family, I think I ought to at least know so I can be on the lookout," Daniel said.

Daniel, a former Texas Supreme Court justice who repeatedly challenged both defense attorneys and prosecutors on points of law, said he attended the openning session only as a "curious observer" and dismissed the notion that he and District Attorney Carroll Wilborn would confer later.

Wilborn also scoffed at Zimmermann's motion to dismiss charges, saying "If people can't come to a public courtroom and watch a trial, I don't know what it's here for. I don't want the Daniel family to have to go through this again."

The prosecutor also disclosed he planned to call as a witness Kimberly Moore, the 13-year-old daughter of Vickie by a previous marriage who was in the family home the night Daniel was killed by the bullet from a .22-caliber rifle.

Space Hall Of Fame Inducts Six

ALAMOGORDO, N.M. (AP) — The first man to travel faster than his voice says he would like to fly the space shuttle, "but I had my fun in other aircraft."

Charles Yeager of Cedar Ridge, Calif., who retired from the Air Force in 1975 as a brigadier general, and six others were inducted this weekend into the International Space Hall of Fame.

He gave credit for his accomplishment to the Air Force, saying "they taught me to be a fighter, test and research pilot."

Yeager broke the sound barrier in the Bell X-1 at more than 670 mph. He eventually achieved a speed of more than 1,000 mph and an altitude of more than 70,000 feet in the X-1.

Others inducted, but not present, were: astronauts Alan Shepard, who retired as a Navy rear admiral and lives in Deer Park, Texas; Scott Carpenter, who retired from the Navy as a commander and lives in Canoga Park, Calif.; Gordon Cooper, who retired as an Air Force colonel and lives in Glendale, Calif.; and Walter Schirra, who retired as a Navy captain and now lives in Inglewood, Calif.

Virgil Grissom, America's second man into space, was inducted posthumously. He and two other astronauts died in a launchpad fire in the Apollo 1 capsule in January 1967.

A 19th century Danish rocket pioneer, Andreas Anton Frederick Schumacher, also was inducted. He developed a rocket system after the bombardment of Copenhagen in 1897.

Amy Marcy Beach's "Gaelic Symphony" was written in 1896. It was the first symphony composed by an American woman.

Even if you're unhandy, you can do something to help hold down electric bills.

Save energy and money at home by learning how to insulate, caulk and weatherstrip — it's easy when you know how. Just call us, or ask for our "Unhandy Person's Guides" on the comments portion of your bill.

It's important to learn ways to conserve energy, especially since the cost of electricity must continue to increase, partly because all fuel used to make electricity continues to cost more.

For example, a contract for low-cost natural gas expires at the end of this year, and we'll have to use more high-priced gas next year.

You can conserve and help hold down your bill by using the "Unhandy Person's Guides" from Texas Electric.

Ryan Slated To Battle LA's 'Super Rookie'

HOUSTON (AP) - Los Angeles' Fernando Valenzuela speaks no English and Houston's Nolan Ryan speaks no Spanish but they both expect to get their messages across tonight when the two teams meet in the National League Western Division playoffs.

The glamorous pitching matchup will pit Valenzuela, the rookie screwball artist with a 13-7 record, against the masterful Ryan, who fashioned a no-hitter Sept. 26 against the Dodgers in a key victory that helped the Astros earn the second half divisional crown.

The first two playoff games will be played in the Astrodome before the best of five series shifts to Los Angeles where the Astros have won only two of the last 13 games.

Although Ryan and his youthful Mexican opponent won't be able to carry on a lengthy conversation, they have a mutual respect for each other.

"He has a great fast ball," Valenzuela said from Los Angeles through an interpreter. "I understand he's improved his curve ball."

Ryan, whose 1.69 earned run average tops the National League, said he felt at the peak of his career in his second year with the Astros. "I probably don't have the stuff I once threw but I have more control," Ryan said.

Ryan recognizes he's not opposing an ordinary rookie. "As far as I can tell, nothing bothers that young man," Ryan said.

Valenzuela, who until Sept. 25 had never given up a run to the Astros, led the league with eight shutouts, 180 strikeouts, complete games and 192 innings pitched. He also was the starting pitcher for the National League All-Stars.

The Astros defeated Valenzuela 4-1 in an important series in the Astrodome Sept. 25 marking the first time the Astros had scored a run against the rookie. The following night Ryan pitched the record-breaking fifth no-hitter of his career against the Dodgers.

Ranger House Cleaning?

ARLINGTON (AP) - There probably will be some new faces in Texas Rangers uniforms when the 1982 baseball season begins.

The Ranger brain trust already is plotting strategy for next year, hoping to prevent another collapse that dragged the team slowly but surely out of playoff contention before September ended.

"Disappointed? That's an understatement," said Ranger board chairman Eddie Chiles after watching his team nosedive to third place in the second half of baseball's split season. "After we came back, when the strike was settled, I began to be disappointed, and nothing ever happened to change that feeling."

Texas finished third in the second-half standings, four games below .500.

Chiles, vice president Eddie Robinson, manager Don Zimmer, scouts and minor-league executives met Monday to discuss the team's folding act, and what to do about it.

There is no official word yet, but here is what seems likely:

Third baseman Buddy Bell, catcher Jim Sundberg, pitchers Rick Honeycutt, Danny Darwin, Doc Medich, Charlie Hough, and John Butcher seem the only sure bets to return. They were the only consisten bright spots throughout the year.

Second baseman Bump Wills, outfielder John Grubb and pitchers John Henry Johnson, Bob Babcock, and Ferguson Jenkins (already released) surely will not be back. Wills is demanding too much money, Grubb's bat turned to sawdust in July and Zimmer has lost confidence in the pitchers.

First baseman Pat Putnam, shortstops Mario Mendoza, Mark Wagner, outfielders Tom Poquette, Leon Roberts, Mickey Rivers and designated hitter Al Oliver should be back, but there are no guarantees.

Putnam was a disappointment but some front office types have faith in his potential; Mendoza is a slick fielder but cannot hit; Wagner can field and hit but Zimmer does not seem to like him; Poquette and Roberts are journeymen; Rivers may be developing an "attitude problem" and Oliver, a superb hitter, would only be traded if the Rangers got a spectacular return.

Outfielder Billy Sample and pitchers Jon Matlack and Jim Kern probably will be dealt.

Playoffs Begin Today In Best Of Five Series

by The Associated Press

Baseball's intradivision playoffs - a postseason mutant spawned by the 2-month-long midseason players' strike - were set to begin today, marking the start of the longest postseason in baseball history.

Under baseball's plan, this so-called mini-series will be a best-of-five games between the first- and second-half winners of the two divisions in each league.

The Los Angeles Dodgers and Houston Astros in the National League West and the Oakland A's and Kansas City Royals in the American League West got it rolling today.

The four East Division teams in the two leagues begin play on Wednesday - Philadelphia at Montreal in the NL and New York at Milwaukee in the AL.

Only after the division winners are decided through this process will the league championship series begin, scheduled for Oct. 13-18. The World Series is scheduled for Oct. 20-28, assuming the weather is cooperative.

The real dichotomy of this season, however, is not how long the teams will play, but which will play.

For instance, none of the four teams involved in the National League playoffs would have made it past Sunday if won-lost records were not split.

Neither Houston nor Los Angeles had the best overall record in the NL West. That distinction belonged to Cincinnati, which had the best record in baseball this year, 66-42. Since the Reds finished second in both halves, however, they missed the playoffs.

The St. Louis Cardinals found themselves in similar circumstances, finishing with the best overall record in the NL East, 59-43, but, again, a second-place finisher in both halves.

"I don't feel any compassion for the Reds," Houston third baseman Art Howe said, "and anybody who says we backed into the playoffs is crazy. We outplayed them (the Reds) in the second half of the season. Sure, they had a good streak, but we must have done something right because they couldn't catch us."

The A's and Royals were given the honor of starting baseball's historic mini-series with a scheduled 3:10 p.m., EDT, start in Kansas City. Royals right-hander Jeff Leonard, 13-11, was picked to oppose Oakland right-hander Mike Norris, 12-9.

At night in Houston, one of this season's best possible pitching matchups is scheduled to take place. Houston's Nolan Ryan, 11-5, who pitched his fifth no-hitter this season, will pitch against rookie Dodgers left-hander Fernando Valenzuela, 13-7.

On Wednesday, Steve Carlton, 13-4, is set to go for Philadelphia against the Expos' Steve Rogers, 12-8, and the Yankees will send Ron Guidry, 11-5, against Brewers right-hander Moose Haas, 11-7.

Cats Top Big Spring

Snyder's freshmen upped their season volleyball record to 9-2 here last evening as they defeated Big Spring 6-15, 15-6 and 15-1.

Susan Tully led the Cats in scoring on serves with 18, including 12 straight in the final game. Also serving for points were Connye Davis and Sabrina Sullivan with 6 each, and Jackie Parham with 5. Audra Blackard, Linda Martinez and Gina Vaughn also played.

Other team members are Lisa Rosas, Shrunda Richardson, Becky Gray and Roselia Aguirre.

Eagles Unscathed; Roll Past Atlanta

PHILADELPHIA (AP) - The Philadelphia Eagles may not have been the epitome of perfection - but no other team in the National Football League can boast of a record as perfect as theirs.

"I'm not going to tell you we can win 16 in a row this year but we can do many things better than we did tonight," Coach Dick Vermeil said after the Eagles ran their record to 5-0 (the only 5-0 in the league and the first 5-0 in the team's 49-year history) with a 16-13 victory over Atlanta which really wasn't decided until the last of the Falcons' five serious mistakes.

The first two were interceptions of Steve Bartkowski passes. The first-quarter pickoffs by linebackers Al Chesley and Reggie Wilkes led, five plays later in each case, to Tony Franklin field goals of 36 and 34 yards and a 6-0 lead.

The third was Alfred Jenkins' fumble following a reception of a Bartkowski pass. The recovery by defensive end Greg Brown six seconds before the end of the third period preceded Franklin's 43-yarder with 3:14 gone in the fourth. It was the game-winner, giving Philadelphia a 16-10 lead.

Then came Atlanta's back-breakers.

On the ensuing drive, the Falcons swept down to the Philadelphaia 18-yard line and Bartkowski connected with Jenkins in the end zone for the touchdown which - with Mick Luckhurst's extra point - would give them a 17-16 lead. But tackle Eric Sanders was flagged for holding, the TD was wiped out and Atlanta had to settle for Luckhurst's 43-yard field goal with 6:45 left.

All was not lost, though. If the Falcons could hold the Eagles and force a punt, they'd have one last shot. They held them. They forced the punt - but James Mayberry ran into Max Runager trying to block the kick, another flag was thrown, and Philadelphia kept the ball until time ran out.

Tickets for the breakfast are priced at $2 each.

The Wednesday morning event will conclude the first phase of White Buffalo Days. The second phase will take place Saturday at the Scurry County Coliseum. Beginning at 10 a. m. with a White Buffalo Days Parade, the Saturday activity will continue into the night, winding up with a dance sponsored by Snyder Jaycees.

In between there will be a series of special events and contests and a number of food and drink booths will be in operation.

There will be tricycle races, horseshoe and washer pitching contests, a watermelon seed spitting contest, foot races, a buffalo chip throwing contest, a sponge throw, stickhorse races and egg races.

There will be an exhibit of buffalo and Indian relics, a puppet show, an auction and plenty of music. The music will feature the WTC Jazz Band and choir, scheduled for 11 a.m.; the Nashville Gamblers country-western band, scheduled for 1 p.m.; and Robert Allen and the Country Boys, scheduled for 2 p.m.

The White Buffalo Days celebration is being coordinated by the women's division of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce and plans are to make it an annual event.

chase of acreage east of town for use as a sanitary landfill. A hearing on the proposed landfill site was held here last week by the State Health Department.

Also approved at last night's meeting were city nominees for the Scurry County Appraisal District board. The five nominated by the city are Kenneth Wilson, Pete Hester and Ross Blanchard, incumbents, and W. T. (Pat) Falls and Mike Graves. If elected, Falls and Graves will succeed Bill Hairston and John Reed who asked that they not be renominated. Each taxing entity may nominate members of the appraisal board, and the city is the first to do so this year. The five-man board for the coming year will be elected by a vote of the entities.

Mayor Milton Ham presided over the meeting and council members attending were Gale McPherson, Don Gressett, David Holt and Rod Waller. Councilmen Ed Thrift and John Wilson were absent.

Police Nab 3 On Drug Rap

City police arrested three persons on drug charges and investiagted two minor traffic mishaps Monday.

A man, 26, was booked on a felony charge of possession of marijuana, and two others, one 18 and another 19, were booked for possession of less than two ounces of marijuana. All were transferred to the county following their arrest at about 11:20 a. m..

A minor traffic mishap was reported at 8:30 a. m. in the 300 block of the East Highway. Involved were a 1978 Chevrolet driven by Cynthia Smith Valdez and a 1980 Chevrolet driven by Ordia Milton Gilbert.

At 9 p. m., a hay truck driven by Lawrence H. Yackel of Santa Fe, N. M., hit the Ave. E. overpass on U. S. Highway 84. The only damage was some hay which was dislodged from the truck.

Police arrested a woman, 31, at 6:30 p. m. Monday for driving while her license was suspended.

BIRTHS

Lee and Judy Castillo are parents of a baby girl born October 2 at 2:16 p.m. in Cogdell Memorial Hospital. She weighed 6 pounds 14 ounces.

NEW CLASSMATE--These East fifth graders welcomed a new classmate into their ranks this weeks. If the new arrival looks a bit different that's not unsual considering it is a dummy. Sharlot Sparlin's students each decided to make dummies of themselves to place in their seats at school in time for the open house Monday night. The dummies were complete even down to wearing shoes and having hair. Students shown with this particular dummy are from left, Diana Ballard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Lloyd; Royce Hataway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Hataway; Tim Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins; and Donna Buchanan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David McCurry.(SDN Staff Photo)

OBITUARIES

Harold Maples

Funeral service has been set for 10 a. m. Wednesday at the Greenwood Funeral Home in Fort Worth for Harold Maples, 55, a Scurry County native who gained national fame as a newspaper cartoonist.

For the past 27 years he had been employed as cartoonist for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, and some of his work has been shown in the Diamond M Museum here.

Mr. Maples was a graduate of Fluvanna High School and attended McMurry College. In his days as a student he served as yearbook artist, and a number of his cartoons during his early professionl career appeared in the Scurry County Times and the Snyder Daily News.

He attended the Dallas Institute of Art and the American School of Commercial Art.

A veteran of World war II, he was married in 1949 in Snyder to Betty Joan Campbell.

He is survived by his wife; a daughter, Connie Suzanne Maples of Arlington; a son, Harold Thomas Maples of Fort Worth; two sisters, Johnnie Mae Caddell of Wyoming and Frances Box of Dallas; two brothers, Marvin Maples of Denver, Colo., and Alton Lee Maples of Lubbock, and three grandchildren.

Daughter's Race Makes Baker Shaky

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — It's not usual for a seasoned politician like a Senate majority leader to get shaky about elections, but Howard Baker says he gets nervous when people talk about one particular congressional race.

Baker says he gets "butterflies" just thinking about his daughter, Cissy, running for election to the House of Representatives.

Miss Baker, 26, quit her job this summer as a reporter for Cable News Network in Washington, D.C., and filed qualifying papers with the Federal Election Commission to run for the GOP nomination from Tennessee's 4th Congressional District.

"I asked her recently what I could do, and she said, 'For openers, you can stay out of my district.'" the Tennessee Republican said Saturday to a group of conventioneers.

Baker said he would help "if she'll let me. But I don't think she'll let me."

Markets Reacts To Killing Of Anwar Sadat

Gold prices rose and stock and commodity prices were mixed today after the shooting of Egyptian President Anwar Sadat.

The prices drifted amid conflicting reports about the 62-year-old Egyptian leader's condition.

Gold, which opened at $435.50 in London, rose to $443 a troy ounce after Sadat was shot by Egyptian soldiers during a parade in Cairo. Gold prices often climb in times of political crisis as investors seek what they believe is a safe haven for their money.

In New York and Chicago, stock and commodity prices turned slightly lower this morning as traders awaited word on the shooting.

The dollar, which continued to slump against key currencies when trading began in Europe today, began climbing immediately after the shooting. Then the value of the dollar began to drift against key world currencies as conflicting reports emerged about Sadat's condition.

The United States purchased the Virgin Islands from Denmark in 1917.

Generator Recovered

Parts of a trailer-mounted generator reported stolen earlier were found Monday in a pasture northwest of Snyder, Ehriff's Deputy Andy anderson reported.

The rig, which Ford Spikes had reported stolen from his fertilizer store on the Old Lubbock Highway, was valued in excess of $5,000.

Anderson said the 50 KW generator had been stripped from the trailer.
