RECORD VOTE IS INDICATED IN ALL BOXES

VICTORY OF MOVEMENT FOR BONDS LOOMING THIS AFTERNOON

Lubbock county, hotbed of three road campaigns, had marched approximately 3,000 strong to the polls at 2 o'clock today to vote on whether or not $991,000 in bonds shall be issued to supply funds for paving of highways 7, 9 and 53 throughout the county.

Records Certain Considering that the aggregate number of votes in Lubbock's five precincts in the second election, last January was 1,631, this election seems certain of attracting a record-breaking total.

Led by militant music of the Lubbock high school band, members of the three service clubs paraded at 45-minute intervals from the Hotel Lubbock to the polls at the courthouse to vote 100 per cent for the bonds.

SURVEY SHOWS FARMERS OF SOUTH PLAINS "CHICKEN-MINDED"

HATCHERIES OVER AREA CAPABLE OF HATCHING MILLION

BY AL HILL,
Journal Staff Writer

If every one of the 30 hatcheries of the South Plains area were running to capacity, a total production of 1,000,000 baby chicks every 21 days would be obtained, a check-up of present hatcheries, their total capacity and proposed increases reveals.

This check-up further reveals the fact that farmers of the South Plains are "chicken-minded" to say the least, and that they have already arrived to the point where they know and practice true diversification.

Capacity 164,000 Here

Lubbock's two hatcheries have a present total capacity of 164,000, that of the Swan Feed and Hatchery company having 141,000 and the Lubbock Hatchery having 24,000.

To Add Unit

Christholm's Electric Hatchery at Brownfield, now has 16,000 egg capacity and will add 16,000 soon, while the Brownfield Hatchery can take care of 12,000.

Meadow is to have a new hatchery with 6,000 capacity.

Lamesa has two hatcheries. The Barron Electric Hatchery now has 48,000 capacity, with 22,000 to be added, while the D. H. Davis Hatchery takes care of 10,000 eggs.

The O'Donnell Electric Hatchery has 33,000 egg room.

Tahoka Hatchery now can keep 16,000 eggs on hatch with 16,000 additional egg-space added.

Station Has Two

Progressive, with 49,000 to put in 16,000 more while Mrs. Binion's hatchery can turn out 9,000 baby chicks at one hatching.

The Post Hatchery has room for 18,000.

Snyder is the home of the Greenhill Hatchery, 24,000, and the brooding plant to be added there for 28,000, while the Star Feed and Hatchery is putting in 33,000 capacity hatchery equipment.

ROAD BONDS DEFEATED

Wednesday morning that will be the head lines in the news columns of the Avalanche and behind it will be many reasons of defeat. One of the prime reasons that the road bonds were defeated was the way the campaign was conducted by the leaders who were fighting for the bonds.

You cannot win an Election by unfair methods of Conduct--Personalities

The proponents of the election for bonds have refused to face the facts in this campaign. They have tried to becloud the issue by asking you to believe that this is a one man fight. IT WOULD NOT HOLD UP.

They have told you that practically all the business men and farmers of intelligence are, or were supporting the bonds. THIS WILL NOT STAND UP. There is just as much intelligence in one camp as the other. No men or set of men can hope to get and keep a corner on intellect. And those who have the affrontery to presume such a condition are doomed, always doomed to defeat because their methods are not fair and through their unfair efforts they defeat their own ends.

THE TAX PAYERS HAVE FOUGHT A GOOD FIGHT IN THIS CAMPAIGN AND THAT THEY HAVE WON IS BUT THE REWARD OF MERIT. They deserved to win. They only wanted to win fairly and squarely. Nothing else mattered.

THIS CAMPAIGN HAS DEVELOPED SOME PERPLEXING QUESTIONS THAT ALL THE PEOPLE MUST ANALYZE.

Are the people satisfied to have their church transformed into a bureau of dictatorship? Do you want politics from the pulpit? Are the churches to make fish of one and fowl of another? Just what are the churches for, anyway?

THE AVERAGE CITIZEN GOES TO CHURCH FOR SANCTUARY. THE AVERAGE CITIZEN GOES TO CHURCH FOR SPIRITUAL FOOD. FOR A CLEANSING FROM WORLDLY STRIFE AND TURMOIL.

It is within the province of the church to teach Christ and Him crucified and to hold His banner aloft that all the world may be led to the cross. And just as long as the churches of our great country confine themselves to the spiritual and moral welfare of the people just so long will they continue to lead people to Christ.

WE DO NOT RELISH BRINGING THESE SUBJECTS BEFORE THE PEOPLE. BUT WE DO BELIEVE IN A FAIR FIGHT. KEEP THE CHURCHES OUT OF THE BOND ISSUE. THEY HAVE A HIGHER MISSION.

And another thing we have had forced upon us in this campaign. Personalities. We, the tax payers of this county, the people who oppose this bond issue have pitched this campaign on the highest possible levels of thought and action. We have failed and refused to make this a personal matter between the citizenship of the county because we believed and still believe and will forever believe that the causes at issue transcend personalities and we have won because the people see this proposition as we see it.

WE HAVE NOT, BY WORD OR DEED TRIED TO HUMILIATE ANY PERSON WHO FAVORED THE BOND ISSUE. Can the managers of the so called good roads campaign say as much? IS IT NOT A FACT THAT ONE OF THE LEADERS OF THE OPPOSITION WAS GROSSLY INSULTED ON SUNDAY WHILE ATTENDING WORSHIP AT THE CHURCH OF THEIR CHOICE?

What could be farther from the teachings of the lowly Nazarene? Must we pay such a price in order to pave the highways of Lubbock county? Have we no longer a right to exercise our mental faculties without being condemned? What are the rights of citizenship? Are they no longer sacred?

AND WE ASK YOU UPON WHAT AUTHORITY YOU WOULD HAVE THE CITIZENSHIP OF THIS COUNTY JEOPARDIZE THEIR HOMESTEADS? Was not the homestead law placed into the statutes for the protection of defenseless women and children? Is it not a sacred duty to them that we be careful?

A Million Dollars Running Wild Is a Proper Slogan for this Campaign

Let's be fair at all times in every way. We should not allow our pent up emotions to deprive us of sound reasoning. Paved roads are all right. Everybody knows that. But paved roads at the price of our vested rights, paved roads at the price of all things that we hold dear is too great a price to pay.

WE TRAVEL THIS WAY BUT ONE TIME. AND WE ARE REMEMBERED FOR THE GOOD THAT WE DO WHILE HERE. Therefore it behooves us to have a care as to our conduct. For we will never accomplish very much in this life if we fail to regard the rights of others as being sacred.

SCULDUGGERY, BICKERING, BACKBITING, PERSONALITIES, SPITE, HATRED are the weapons of weaklings. AND THEIR RAVINGS WILL NOT PAVE ROADS IN LUBBOCK COUNTY.

The tax payers say that the present bond issue is not based on proper conduct. They claim that this election should be defeated, is in fact defeated because it has a wrong basis.

AND WE WILL NEVER HAVE ROAD BONDS IN LUBBOCK COUNTY UNTIL THAT GOOD TIME WHEN THE STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION SEES FIT TO TIE THE HIGHWAYS TO THE GROUND.

You may kick all you will. You may stigmatize all you will. But facts are facts and will not down. And when it is all over we will still be citizens of this county, citizens with equal rights and privileges, it matters not what the so-called good roads association may try and lead you to believe.

LET'S FORGET THE PETTY BICKERINGS OF PETTY POLITICS. Let's keep this issue on higher ground. The tax payers have won the fight by fighting fair. Let the so-called good roads association learn a lesson from this angle and we can all come together as one and GET PAVED ROADS AT A COST THAT WILL PROVE PROFITABLE TO EACH ONE AFFECTED.

ROAD BONDS DEFEATED. And their defeat is an answer of the people that petty politics will not avail.

ATLANTIC FLIGHT

Had Narrow Escape
That they made the 2,000-mile ocean hop by just a narrow margin was indicated by the fact they were forced to land near Natal, which is on the extreme tip of the south American continent nearest to Africa. It was along this part of the Brazilian coast that Captain Francisco Iglesias and his companion Captain Ignacio Jimenez, landed in October of this year on a similar flight from Seville to South America.

The village at which the fliers landed is quite close to Touros, the point at which Captain Arturo Ferrarin and his companion, Major Carlo Del Prete, landed in July, 1928, when they established a new world's flight distance record recently broken by Captain Dieudonne Coste, French aviator, on a flight from France to China.

With news of the aviator's landing at Maracuja crowds of sightseers began to leave the surrounding countryside for the village. First reports of the landing of the plane reached the outside world by way of a small private telegraph line to Natal.

From meager advices which trickled over this line it appeared the aviator lost their way after striking the coast near the border line of the states of Rio Grande Do Norte and Parahyba. The landing was made sometime between 9:00 p. m. and midnight (Between 7:00 p. m. and 10:00 p. m., eastern standard time.) This would mean that the fliers were in the air between 25 and 28 hours.

The plane was reported to have turned over in making the landing, injuring both men. The aviators were found by a group of horsemen from the interior who were riding toward the coast.

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Tinymites' paint job turned out fine. They put the things in one long line and calmly looked them over. There were sleds and everything. "I think," said Coppy, "we are through with this job. Now, what shall we do? At other tasks, for Santa, I would like to have my filing."

Then Clowmy snapped right back and said, "Don't let that worry your we head. There still is heaps of work for us. I'd like to take a rest. Course painting's fun, but even so, when you're not working very slow you get tired out. Let's loaf a while so we can do our best."

Another voice cried out, "You're right, I heard you, little Tinymite, and I will very gladly let you all rest for a while. 'Tis only you're at work for Santa Claus."

"Twas Santa who was speaking and he made the Tinymites smile. Then he continued, "Come to me and all hop right up on my knee. I think I know a story that you all will like to hear. I'll tell you all 'bout my Toyland, 'cause you have gladly lent a hand. You'll understand

DEMOCRATS TO CHOOSE SOON

PARTY NOMINEE FOR GOVERNOR TO BE NAMED SOON

By ROBERT W. BARRY
 Associated Press Staff Writer
 AUSTIN, Dec. 17.—"Regular" Democrats—those who stood solidly behind the party nominees of 1928—soon will pick their candidate for governor of Texas. They will hold a conference, probably in San Antonio, before the first of the new year and "draft" the man they think can get the nomination next July and go on to win next November.

The keynote of the loyal democrats was sounded recently by John Boyle of San Antonio when he said those who stood behind former Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York and the party against the onslaught from within the party should pick a man for the candidacy who would be free of "entangling alliances."

Wants Religion Out
 Boyle, outstanding advocate of Governor Smith's nomination and election, does not want the religious issue injected into the campaign and would settle on a man not considered with the Catholic church. Boyle is a Catholic looked up to by communicants of that church and enjoys the admiration and respect of democrats of every religious affiliation. Even those who left the party to support Herbert Hoover testified that Boyle was a "straight shooter."

Boyle often said to his friends during the Smith-Hoover set-to that he hoped to see Smith elected because he believed Smith's administration would be so far and efficient that his having been president would forever efface the old prejudice against persons of certain religious beliefs occupying the White House.

"I am not thinking of myself, but of the ambitious boys who are to come," Boyle said to a friend. "Using myself for illustration, probabilities are I could never be elected why I am always bubbling over with cheer."

The Tinymites hopped into his lap. He gave his knee a healthy slap, and said, "You see, in Toyland, we're at work the live long year. We make things for good girls and boys and know such things will bring them joy. It's fun to know that all their Christmas presents come from here."

"What better pleasure is there, now, than helping folks feel good somehow? I have a heap of work each year, but do the best I can. Then, Christmas eve I drive around to where good little tots are found. This makes them happy. It's no wonder I'm a jolly man."

NUMEROUS DEATHS ARE INVESTIGATED

APPROPRIATE $200,000

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The senate today adopted and sent to the White House a joint resolution to appropriate $200,000 for the expenses of American participation in the London naval conference next month.

SZOLNOK, Hungary, Dec. 17.—Investigation into wholesale deaths in this town of 40,000 inhabitants began today with numerous peasant women accused of poisoning their husbands and other relatives. The bodies of more than 30 persons have been exhumed for examination and the investigation is expected to last a considerable time.

One of the accused women is 81 years of age and most of them are over middle age. One or two although declaring themselves innocent of murder, admitted administering poison in food.

Because of the diversion of water to stimulate the production of raw cotton, water power in Spain is diminishing.

'Great One' Loses Bout To Trafton

PRO GRID PLAYER IS TOO MUCH FOR SOX FIRST BASEMAN

BY PAUL MICKELSON Associated Press Sports Writer CHICAGO, Dec. 17 (AP)—Napoleon met his Wellington, Arthur "The Great" Shires met his big bear.

Flushed because of unofficial one-round victories over his erstwhile White Sox manager, Russell Blackburn, and his 21-second knockout over Dangerous Dan Daly of Cleveland in his professional ring debut, a week ago, "The Great" Shires tackled George Trafton, "Big Bear" of professional football last night and got the beating of his life.

Shires Goes Down Before 5,000 howling spectators, who packed the White City Arena to its rafters, Trafton decisively conquered the boxer. Packing thunderous blows behind his 220 pounds, battered Shires to the floor three times and won the decision by a wide margin after five rounds of toe-to-toe milling.

It was the first setback for "The Great One," but it didn't finish his ring career. As a physician attended his split lip and damaged chin, he announced with no little hauteur he was ready and willing to meet the "Dempsey of the Cub dug-out," Hack Wilson, sometime in January.

Nor did he feel disgraced by his defeat. He half-way admitted Trafton's superiority, but pointed out he was outwitted by 40 pounds.

Laughs At Success "I didn't want to meet that big bruiser, and I've got a mind to sock my manager on the jaw," he grunted. "But I fought the best I could and had my own laugh at the suckers—those silly fans who paid five dollars a seat. I got three grand ($3,000) for the fight, and I'll get $10,000 more for swapping socks with Hack Wilson."

Shires fought a courageous fight, but Trafton's great weight and superior boxing ability was too much for him. Only at the start of the battle did he look like the "Great One" who sent Daly to sleep. At the top of the bell, he leaped like a panther from his corner, rocking the "Big Bear" with a storm of left rights and lefts. But Trafton, his muscles steeled by long months of football, was ready for him. He weathered the storm and carried the attack to Shires thereafter.

Down Three Times Three times in the first round, Trafton's looping left hooks sent the Texan to the canvas, while many times "Lil Arthur" was sent reeling backwards by straight rights to his jaw.

After that round and what actual punches the two tired fighters could propel, it was all Trafton. Three or four times in each of the remaining rounds, he gave Shires a few healthy smashes and then walked around like any bear in a zoo while the very tired Mr. Shires walked after him, five feet away. Of the two, however, Trafton was the more exhausted.

Crowd Satisfied The large crowd, which paid more than $15,000 to see the fight, was more than satisfied, realizing the two had fought every ounce of their vitality.

The two met in the shower stalls after the fight, shook hands, complimented each other for "making suckers out of those fight fans," and then went arm in arm to a night club.

HACK SAYS WHY SHOULD HE LICK HIM

CHICAGO, Dec. 17 (AP)—A dispatch to the Tribune today said Hack Wilson, Cubs center-fielder, had decided definitely not to go through with his fight with "The Great" Shires here in January.

After learning that George Trafton, football pro, had whipped Shires last night, Wilson asked the Tribune correspondent: "Why should I lick him, too?"

When the Childress high school Bobcats are honored with a banquet Wednesday evening, E. Y. Freeland, director of athletics at Texas Tech, will be the principal speaker.

Eastern Eleven Is Off For West Coast

CHICAGO, Dec. 17 (AP)—The eastern all-star football squad which will engage a picked team from the west in the annual Shrine hospital benefit game at San Francisco New Year's Day, today was headed westward.

The squad received its first workout yesterday at Dwyer Stadium, Northwestern University, under direction of Coach Dick Hanley of Northwestern and Andy Kerr, of Colgate. All 22 men invited started on the long journey to Palo Alto, Calif., where the squad will remain until the day of the game.

There are 65,000,000 holders of life insurance policies in America the average amount of insurance carried being more than $1,000.

BRECKENRIDGE-PORT ARTHUR TUSSLE TO BE BIG BATTLE WORK ON '30 WESTERNER ELEVEN STARTS IN JANUARY

IN THE REALM OF SPORTS WITH ALLAN CARNEY Journal Sports Editor

"I feel sorter' like I had lost someone real close to me."

This in effect is the way Coach Henry E. Frnka feels, now that the football season is over and four months of hard work is lost in history. He was found in the high school dressing rooms Monday afternoon and with a note of sadness looked around him where for four previous months eager youth had prepared for the football battle field and returned to doff sweaty uniforms.

Here in one corner was a familiar pair of shoes worn for two years by a veteran who has played his last game for Lubbock High. Lockers were cleaned out and the doors removed for airing but there were reminders of each and every game—dresses, rosters and remnants of some team's formations on the blackboard. Newspaper clippings from other cities which had served their purpose of warning the Westerners of impending struggles, and the honor roll—where each player had signed his name for every game he had played in—all these were still on the walls, but Coach Frnka was alone and something was lacking.

But it won't be for long, the high school gridiron commander, let it be known, Spring training for 1930 will start early in January in order to avoid the sand storms that invariably come with early spring. Six weeks of spring training and then the Westerners will lay off until late in August when the fall grind starts again. It's a continual circle but one that's necessary for a winning football team. The preliminary training camp for the Westerners next year may be held here in Lubbock with sleeping quarters at the high school building. There are numerous disadvantages with a training camp in the open, and these may be avoided next season.

A fighting Westerner, who received his football fundamentals at Lubbock High school, has been honored at the University of Texas. Raymond "Whacker" Barton, Lubbock captain during the 1927 and 28 seasons and all-district tackle for two successive years, has been voted by coaches of the university as the most valuable defensive man on the freshman squad. Although considerably lighter than the average college line-man, "Whacker" was his spurs on the first-year Longhorn squad early in the season and has played regularly at tackle. His prospect for making the varsity next year was greatly enhanced by the recent honor bestowed upon him.

These critics who are bewailing the amount of publicity that is being heaped upon the head of Charles Arthur "The Great" Shires apparently are lacking in a sense of humor. From our perch it looks like "Lil Arthur" is plenty smart. Ordinarily we can't admire a loud speaker of this type who boasts continually, but Shires is a showman who has learned to cash in on what he terms as the "suckers," who pay to see him perform. The Texan has never made a boast that he has refused to back up, and certainly there is no figure in major league baseball who has more color and furnishes better "copy" for the scribes.

After losing to George Trafton plans center of the Chicago Bears the two eleven last night Shires turned the joke off on the gullible public. "The laugh is on those suckers" who paid $5 a seat to see us fight," said the great one. "I cashed in $5,000 on last night's scrap and I'll knock 'em for $10,000 more when I get to Hack Wilson."

Wilson, the burly Chicago Cubs outfielder, was cautioned by his management to lay off the fight racket, but the prospect of netting $15,000 out of the one appearance is too much for an application. He has assured President Weck that Shires can't hurt him, and why shouldn't he fight? Hack says he may enter the ring under the name of Battling Stout, the moniker he used during his schoolboy days.

An all-American back, who went up from Sherman High school to Purdue, will play a leading role with the Big Ten eleven that meets the Southwest Conference all-stars at Dallas on New Year's day. This battling ram is none other than Ralph "Pud" Wach, who dealt terror to the hearts of the Western Conference foes of the Bollermakers from Purdue. Coach Jimmy Phelan will coach the mid-western team that invades Texas for the Dixie Classic and Ray Morrison will command the Southwest forces.

SONNENBERG WINS OVER 'STRANGLER'

TULSA, Okla., Dec. 17 (AP)—Gus Sonnenberg, holder of the world's heavyweight wrestling championship, retained his title here last night at the Coliseum before 6,000 spectators, by defeating Ed "Strangler" Lewis, the former grappling king, in two straight falls. Queen Elizabeth was one of the first women to smoke.

WEST TEXANS GIVEN EDGE IN CONTEST

DENNIS' MEN LIKELY TO SPRING ONE BIG SURPRISE THOUGH

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR. Associated Press Sports Writer Breckenridge and Port Arthur were wise in the choice of Waco as the site for their championship duel Saturday. The schoolboy final should fill the Cotton Palace stands very comfortably. There probably are more high school football enthusiasts to the square foot in Waco than in any city of the state, and it is convenient to the bulk of the state's population. They will be there in great numbers to watch the Buckaroo from West Texas and the Yellowjacket from the Gulf coast settle their argument. It will be high school football in the highest stage of its development.

The smoothly-functioning Breckenridge eleven will be a favorite to capture its first state championship, but the warning has gone out not to take the Jackets too lightly. Coach Tom Dennis' boys have won their last two bouts with Brownsville and Denton in impressive fashion and are said to be much stouter than last year, when Abilene squelched them in the finals. Breckenridge, however, has had much the tougher opposition against Amarillo and Waco the last two weeks and has won about as it pleased. The Buckaroos are powerful, and a superb confidence marks their every move. The winner Saturday will be the fifth school to capture the undisputed schoolboy championship of Texas. Waco, Abilene, Oak Cliff Bryan are other to have gained the honor.

There wasn't a chance of getting Port Arthur to play the big struggle out in West Texas again this year. The Jackets received a big guarantee for going to Abilene last season and put some important money in their athletic treasury, but they were handed a crushing defeat. This year they want a championship, and no guarantee Breckenridge could offer made any impression on Jacket officials. Neither would the Buckaroos consider visiting the sea-level city. They are accustomed to high, lusty air and lots of it.

Addition of Jake Hanna to the roster just about "makes" the all-southwest team for the New Year's day charity game against the Big Ten All-Stars at Dallas. The Centenary flash is recognized as one of the greatest backs ever produced by the southwest, despite the fact he has played his four years at a secondary school. He will give Coach Ray Morrison's organization a punch it might have lacked. Further, his name in the lineup will bring many a customer through the gate. It will be his first appearance at Dallas. But Hanna in a backfield with Howard Grubbs of T. C. U., Tommy Miller of the Aggies and Dick Miller of Arkansas, and you have something Morrison will have that quartet, and he will mould it into a formidable offensive unit.

Basketball appears to be alling in the Southwest Conference this season. There is not the whole-souled interest there might be in the indoor sport. One coach, even, is having difficulty getting the men he had counted upon to turn out. Two factors may be considered partly responsible. There is a marked inclination on the part of football stars to specialize in that sport, and Arkansas has popped the boys on the jaw so regularly of late they have about lost heart. There doesn't appear much chance of checking the Basketball as long as their supply of six-footers holds out, and it is holding out admirably. They are odds-on favorites right now to win their fifth straight title, and they have played only one practice game. About all the other six schools can look forward to is a merry battle for second place.

LOCAL YOUTH IS VOTED BEST MAN

Raymond "Whacker" Barton, 1927-28 captain of the Lubbock Westerners, has received a signal honor at the University of Texas. Playing his first season of college football on the freshman team of the university, Barton carried the fighting tactics that he learned at Lubbock High onto the gridiron at Austin and has been voted the most valuable defensive player on the first-year squad. Although considered too light for a college gridder, "Whacker" won his spurs on the fresh eleven early in the season, and has played regularly at tackle. Reports from Austin indicate Barton stands a splendid chance to make the varsity in 1930.

Miami Will Harvest Another Crop Of Cauliflower Early In New Year

JACK SHARKEY CERTAIN TO BE ONE OF BOUT PRINCIPALS

By WERNER LEAUFER NEA Service Sports Writer As soon as all the holiday tinsel has been packed away in the attic for another year and the pine needles have been swept off the living room carpet, you are going to hear a lot of boisterous talk about a heavyweight boxing contest to be held in Miami, Florida, early in the new year. This boxing contest, so you will be told, will determine the undisputed heavyweight champion of the world.

With Jack Sharkey, the Great Gumbo of Boston, already assured one corner of the ring, the speculation as to who will sit in the opposite corner is mounting during these days of frenzied package wrapping. All summer and fall promoters and matchmakers throughout the land have been putting unofficial elimination bouts, with the hope of pointing someone into that spot under the tropical sun.

At present the situation is jumbled as ever. Fighters earlier eliminated are staging comebacks that clamor for recognition. Several new foreign menaces have injected their large and uncouth forms into the picture. Everyone who has ever made a pretense of being a heavyweight boxer and his manager are sure they are the logical opponent. The names of the usual four—Otto Von Porat, Phil Scott, Victor Campolo, Primo Carnera—these are just the foremost monickers in the churning cauldron. Besides, there are numerous lesser lights and "boy wonders" who are already making their names.

They Lose—But Still They Clamor The recent New York Christmas bout between Von Porat and Scott that ended in the second round when Phalling Phil went to the canvas (imitating an usual foe) should have definitely put these two out of the running. But you don't know these boys and their managers. No sooner are they out of the shower room after such a comical performance than their clamor for the right to fight for the month balls out of Tunney's championship robes is louder than ever.

On December 27, Tuffy Griffiths, the young sharpshooter of Sioux City, and Johnny Risko, Cleveland's entry, will meet in Madison Square Garden for what their backers say is the final step to the title shot in Miami. And from recent performances, their claims have more justification than any of the other yelpers. If either should score a decisive knockout, they should be right in that Miami ring.

But "should be" doesn't necessarily mean "will be," as you well know from past observations of how the Madison Square Garden Corporation does business. Griffiths has been coming along at a great pace ever since he suffered his first knockout by Jimmy Braddock in his New York premiere. He has won every one of his fights since then, although he has given careful attention not to run into any bad matches. He won from Risko on a foul in their first meeting at Detroit some time ago.

But Johnny has a habit of reversing earlier advice decisions and promises to do it in this instance. Furthermore, Griffiths is said by some experts to be shy of the experience needed to mix with a man of Sharkey's caliber. Risko, then whom there is no more formidable heavyweight when he has a mind to be, is in the midst of one of the greatest winning streaks of his career.

After a period of fistie lethargy caused by lovesickness, according to his manager, Danny Dunn, Johnny has been mopping up his opponents. He evened his score with Jimmy Madison, who had previously beaten him in Boston. He knocked the former fish monger flat in two heats. He followed this by getting revenge on Ernie Schaaf, who had also beaten him in the same town. Risko gave Schaaf a good slalshing, although Ernie put up a gallant fight. In addition, Risko won each of ten rounds in his fight with Von Porat, which gives you a good idea how hard it is to keep anybody definitely eliminated in the heavyweight circles.

Risko Has Won Over Sharkey It isn't more than two years ago that Johnny gave Jack Sharkey a whipping in the elimination to find a suitable opponent for Champion Gene Tunney's farewell appearance. And, for that matter, John could probably do the trick again for it stands to reason Sharkey hasn't improved any more than the Cleveland since that time. But with all this John finds it rather hard to impress the Madison Square Garden corporation. It seems to be the contention that Risko lacks the appeal that draws the fans through the turnstiles.

But one mark on Risko's record has never been erased. Max Schmeling's clean knockout of the tough Johnny cannot be laughed off by saying John's heart wasn't in the business of fighting that night due to a busted romance. When a man is ducking hooks and blocking crosses, it's a cinch he isn't thinking about Kid Cupid. And that brings us to the possible end, according to some of the boys who have smart information, the most probable solution to find an opponent for Sharkey.

Following are the lads who will receive the awards: Harmon Curr, Woodrow Queen, Toll Terrell, Frank Duncan, Weidon Hall, Gene King, Hugh Newton, Frank Skinner, Joe

HIGH SCHOOL COACHES PLAN SPRING WORK

FRNKA AND MORGAN TO START YOUNGSTERS TO WORK EARLY

Actual preparation for the 1930 football campaign for Lubbock High school will start early in January, it was announced by Head Coach Henry Frnka. Member of this year's squad who are turning in their uniforms today will have but a short time to rest before spring training begins soon after the Christmas holidays. The early spring training is planned by the Westerner mentors to avoid the unfavorable football weather that has previously been encountered in early spring. "High winds have hindered all phases of football fundamentals and especially passing and kicking," Coach Frnka pointed out last night, "and we hope to accomplish much more for six weeks in January and February."

Lubbock Is Favored Advance dope which seems to favor Lubbock as the 1930 champion has also had its effect in bringing about the early season. Lubbock's chances in the district race are not nearly so bright as other cities in the circuit have pointed out. Loss of Robert Rich, Yancey Price, Joe Leaverton, Clyde James and Greer Prissell—in fact practically the entire first string line—will furnish plenty of worry for the High school coaches.

Several teams in the district will be much stronger next season, a study of the situation reveals. Wichita Falls with Coach Barry Holton back and the majority of his veteran crans will be hard to keep out of the running, as will Electra and Vernon. Coach Harvey Stanford's Electra Tigers finished third in the district standings this year and show promise of making a better record next season. Vernon is doing for a shake-up in its coaching staff, but the Lion stronghold is always a dangerous omen for enemy teams.

BONDS WILL WIN TODAY!

We have the fight Won! Every loyal citizen of Lubbock County is expected to go to the Polls today and vote for the Bonds.

We want to show the world that we are different from the Children of Israel—we do not propose to do without Paved Roads for Forty Years, by continuing to Wander in the Wilderness!

Mr. and Mrs. Voter: The Issues in this Campaign are clear as the Noon-day Sun. On one side is the desire to have this County provide a Road for certain 700 acres of land.

On the other side is the desire to Pave ALL THE ROADS FOR ALL THE PEOPLE. WHICH SIDE ARE YOU ON?

Find a city—in Texas or any other state—and radiating from it will be found a system of hardsurfaced highways.

Four municipalities of Western Texas, namely Amarillo, Abilene, San Angelo and Lubbock, are jousting for the position of this section's great metropolis. One of the quartet will climb to an unparalleled position. The other three will trail behind or shall Lubbock lead? Shall Lubbock trail behind or shall Lubbock lead? Look at San Angelo. Already it has a network of paved highways leading into it. Today men are working, augmenting that network.

Peer at Abilene. A fine system of paved roads radiate from it, tapping a well populated territory from every direction.

Consider Amarillo. The North Plains metropolis is likewise the center for other paved highways, connecting it with the smaller communities of the Panhandle.

Now look at Lubbock. You'll find not a foot of paving outside the city limits of Lubbock and Slaton. Is that keeping step?

With a larger trade territory—one with countless more potentialities than any of its three rivals—Lubbock is trailing behind. What will we do about it? Tomorrow will tell the story.

Do you think for a minute that Fort Worth, Dallas, San Antonio or Houston would trade their systems of paved highways for the cost of laying them? To do so would be equivalent to building a fifty foot wall around either of those cities. Their paved highways are among their greatest paying investments. Is it anything but logical to believe that paved highways would mean any less to Lubbock?

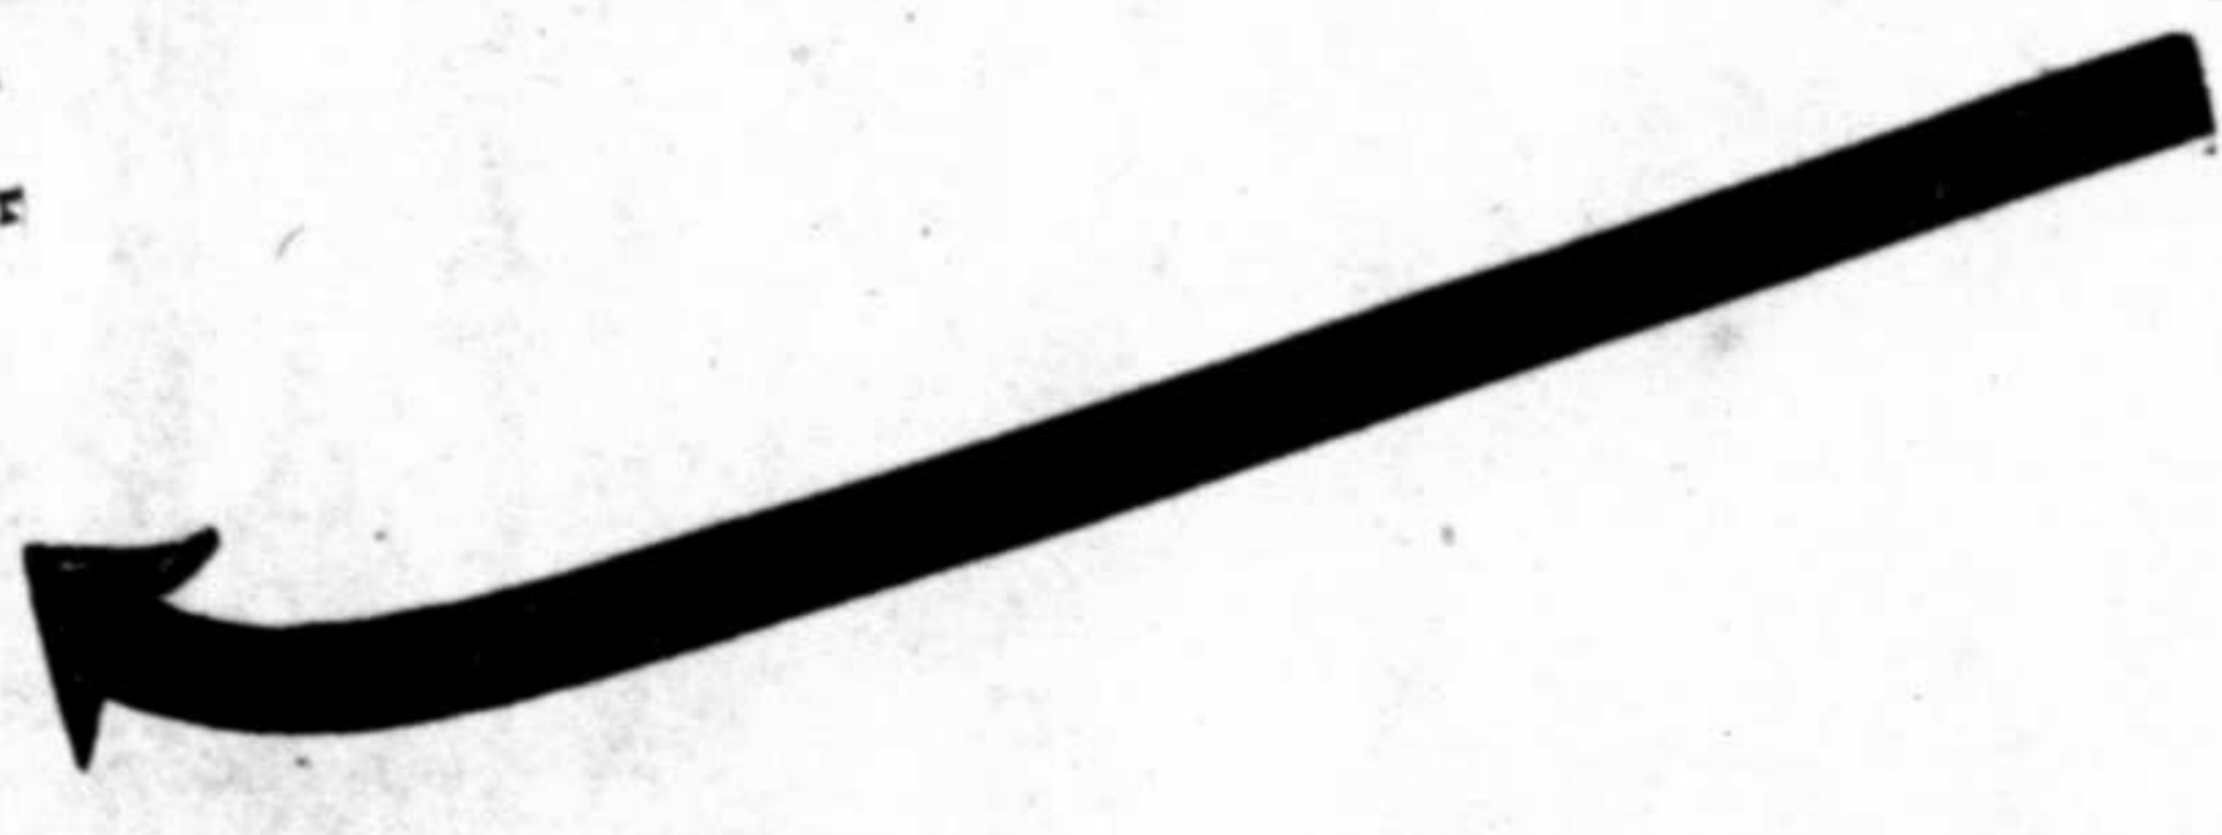

This is an era of far flung and rapid transportation. Neither Lubbock, nor any other city, can serve a trade territory without paved highways. We face the crossroads tomorrow. Either the city and the county will move forward—or be sidetracked again. Which shall it be?

The Daily Journal wants to see Lubbock and all of Lubbock county go ahead, wants to see the majority of the citizens of this county benefit by one of the greatest of modern improvements—paved highways. Do not be misled. The only issue before the voters is: "To Pave or Not to Pave."

Let's vote "Yes" tomorrow and put the job over in typical Lubbock county style.

CALL MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF ABERNATHY, TEXAS, DEC. 16TH, 1929
A call meeting of the City Council, with Mayor and All Aldermen present, on this day for the purpose of correcting a statement as published in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal on Sunday Dec. 15th, 1929.
Motion made by R. M. Hardens, seconded by Welcomes Baggett, and carried unanimously, that we, the City Council of Abernathy, Hale County, Texas, in called session, do hereby state, that as representatives of the Citizens of Abernathy, are satisfied with the Routing and Work of the State Highway Department in Routing Highway No. 8 through the city of Abernathy.
AND further state, that the day appearing in the Sunday Avalanche-Journal under date of Dec. 15th, 1929, page 1, (paid advertisement) under the heading "Tax Payers" (the statement) wherein it did not set a Fair Break in the paving that comes through the City of Abernathy, Hale County, Texas, UNTRUE and without the Authority of the City Council of Abernathy, Hale County, Texas.
(Signed)
City Council of Abernathy
Attest, J. P. NYSTEL, Mayor.
(SEAL) W. A. RICHTER, City Sec.

We want to again tell the People on these Highways, that the Bonds provide that SHALLOWATER, IDALOU, WOODROW, SLATON, and WOLFFARTH are points that MUST be served by these Roads. Do not allow any one to make you believe otherwise. The OPPORTUNITY to secure Paved Roads at a nominal cost is ours today. If you fail Mr. Voter, you will set this County back ten years. Win and we take our rightful place in the prosperity and progress of the Great West. We are counting on every patriotic citizen doing his or her duty by Voting for the Bonds. See that your neighbor Votes. Dedicate this day to the service of your Town and County.

clerks attending, including representatives from Lubbock, Plainview, Post, San Angelo, Albuquerque, N. M., and other points.
A. R. Tillman, of Albuquerque, presided as chairman of the meeting. S. W. Reynolds, Plainview, president of the body, attended. Practically all clerks of the local division offices were present. A business session was held near the close of the meeting, this being in charge of J. L. Sweet, of Slaton.

Others appearing on the program were: Rev. James Rayburn, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Slaton; W. H. Smith, Santa Fe agent, Slaton; C. W. Taylor, chief clerk to the superintendent, Slaton; L. A. Wilson, secretary of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce; J. A. Gillies, superintendent of the Slaton Division, Slaton; B. E. Clark and Coke Oliver, Santa Fe employees, Slaton.

The association has a membership of 127, including many of the clerks located at various points on the Slaton Division, which includes 1,038 miles of rail lines throughout West Texas.

certain that this city will favor the issue by a 10 to 1 majority and Slaton by a 3 to 1 vote. In the event these two cities vote as present sentiment indicates we can be assured of victory.

The voting strength of the County is slightly more than 7,000. Between 5,000 and 6,000 votes are predicted, which would record the heaviest vote in the history of the county.

L. A. Wilson, secretary of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce, predicted shortly after noon that Slaton would support the issue by a two-thirds majority. "Discussion on the streets heralds a sizeable vote in favor of the bonds before the day ends," he said.

W. B. Shelton, judge of the Idalou precinct, estimated that about 80 of the 91 who had voted in that precinct had opposed the issue. This was the only unfavorable report to reach the city.

that merchandise entering Mexico through Laredo must be approved by the consulate at some other point, possibly Corpus Christi, San Antonio or Houston. Similarly, tourists would have to seek entry cards at some other city.

The foreign office announcement said: "The department of foreign relations has sent instructions for closing of the Mexican consulate at Laredo effective Tuesday, December 17, as protest against the acts of District Attorney Valls."

Step Against Valls
The Mexican government's action was accepted here as indicating in no way ill feeling toward the American government, but rather as a step against Valls, who frequently is referred to in the local press as the "eternal enemy of Mexico."

A ten per cent ad valorem tax is collected by consuls on goods before they are allowed to enter Mexico and this tax in Laredo alone last year amounted approximately to $3,500,000 much more than the taxes collected at other ports of entry.

Clayton Heard
W. L. Clayton of the Houston Cotton firm of Anderson, Clayton & Company, who was on the stand again today, answered a suggestion by Heflin that legislation be enacted against bearish selling of hedges by saying he thought it unwise to say that those who speculate should do so only on one side of the market.

The witness, after predicting more active buying of cotton by spinners after Christmas, said he did not believe there was a conspiracy of any kind to force the price of cotton down.

Four People Die In Fire In Baltimore

BALTIMORE, Dec. 17 (AP)—At least four persons died today in a fire in the four story plant of the Thomas H. O'Connor waste paper company in the downtown railroad district. Firemen recovered three bodies from the building and another victim whose back was broken in a leap from a third story window died in a hospital.

Equipment Rushed
Rescue equipment was rushed by trucks to the scene from the bureau of mines station here and rescue workers recruited hurriedly from throughout the coal mining section.

Wreckage in the mine and the danger of poisonous gases slowed the work of rescue crews as they attempted to reach the barrier which imprisoned the workmen. Many hours, it was estimated, would be required to dig through the barrier.

A crowd of several hundred persons, many of them frantic wives and children of the entombed men, gathered at the mine entrance. Screams of the women pierced the air as the rescue work went forward.
