The SDN COLUMN

It's getting to the point where a public school athletic director needs to be a lawyer, an accountant and possess various other talents far removed from the gridiron to conduct a sound program.

The rules violation of Odessa Ector, which resulted in that school being put on probation for next year involves a sort of paradox that appears downright inconsistent in the University Interscholastic League regulations. High School football teams affiliated with the UIL are permitted to play 10 regular games during a season (excluding playoffs) and they are allowed two practice scrimmages with teams of other schools. No team can play more than one game per week, but regularly scheduled games may be played as close as five days apart — that enables a team to play a game on Saturday and another on the following Thursday.

But, the rule clearly states that the two practice scrimmages must be at least seven days apart. Fortunately, the District 2-AAA committee didn't take the No. 1 AAA team out of the playoffs.

It requires a sharp eye to keep up with all of the rules. Of course somewhere in the past something happened to cause each rule to evolve. It happens in college and professional ranks as well. Everybody is looking for a way to win and when one phase of the game begins to overshadow all others, regulations are demanded to even them up. Thus, there have been rules to favor the offense at one time and then others to compensate on defense.

Domination of a sport by a few teams also can lead to demands for rules changes.

Abe Lemons, head basketball coach at Oklahoma City University, is credited with this observation: "It's strange, but everyone who wants a rule change is a loser."

There is a professional basketball rule, however, that I would like to see the colleges and high schools adopt. It's the one that requires a team to get off a shot at the basket within a specified time after the team gets possession of the ball. The professionals allow 24 seconds. It cuts down the stalling.

Today In History

Today is Thursday, Nov. 16, the 320th day of 1967. There are 45 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1869, the Suez Canal was opened.

On this date:

In 1776, the British captured Ft. Washington in what now is New York's Upper Manhattan.

In 1864, Henry Clay Work wrote the song, "Marching Through Georgia," to commemorate Gen. William T. Sherman's march to the sea.

In 1907, Oklahoma became the 56th state.

In 1908, Arturoto Toscanini made his U.S. debut conducting "Aida" at New York Metropolitan Opera House.

In 1933, the United States and the Soviet Union established diplomatic relations.

In 1944, during World War II, six Allied armies began a big offensive drive in France, Germany and the Netherlands.

United Fund Push Urged

A new appeal has gone out from officials of the Scurry County United Fund, urging local residents to redouble efforts to bring the current campaign to a successful conclusion.

The total accounted for in the campaign had edged past the $27,000 mark. However, this is more than $12,000 under the campaign goal.

It was noted that Snyder and Scurry County have not met their United Fund Goal in several years, although campaign goals here have been modest in comparison with others in cities and counties of similar size and obligations.

"There are a few workers who have not completed their lists of contacts, and the United Fund urges them to do so as rapidly as possible," said Gary Stevens, United Fund President. "And there must be some people who have not even been contacted for a pledge. They are urged to come in voluntarily and make their contributions, although experience tells us that not many will give anything unless there is some arm-twisting."

Local campaign leaders were disappointed over Snyder's progress in the drive, especially in view of the fact that many other towns, some with higher per capita goals, already have gone "over the top."

"Give the United Fund some thought," Stevens urged. "It is a serious problem. Scurry County is a good place to live, we are proud of our community, we brag of our accomplishments in many fields and we have succeeded in many civic projects. Are we going to let ourselves down this time?"

Jailbreakers Recaptured

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Gunfire wounded an Oklahoma jailbreaker Wednesday in the Grapevine community and officers then recaptured a second fugitive in the same vicinity.

Grapevine police Capt. Hamp Scrubbs said Jess Stockstill fired a single bullet from a 30-caliber carbine after finding a prowler inside his gunshop with a sack full of guns.

Stockstill had been awakened by a burglar alarm in his house about 200 yards back of the gun shop.

His shot struck Donald A. Lechman, 19, of Tulsa in the chest and shoulder. Lechman was taken to a hospital in serious condition.

In a short time officers nabbed Thomas S. Mathis Jr., 43, nearby in a car which they said was stolen at Broken Arrow, Okla.

Authorities said Lechman and Mathis were among six prisoners who slugged a jailer and escaped Nov. 4 at Pawhuska, Okla.

Lechman, already serving a 10-year term in state prison, had been taken back to Pawhuska in another criminal case. Mathis was awaiting trial on a check forging charge.

Navy Planes Hit Off-Limits Target

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Navy planes bombed a boat construction and repair yard close to the center of Haiphong and only 1.7 miles from the international docks today for the first time in the Vietnam war.

A U.S. spokesman said A4 Skyhawks from the carrier Coral Sea struck at noon at the "Haiphong Shipyard No 2," only one mile west of the geographical center of the city.

Three similar boatyards farther away from the city's center were hit in raids last month.

Left untouched were Haiphong's vital unloading piers and docks where an attack on a Soviet ship might bring Soviet-American relations to a crisis point.

The U.S. spokesman said the boatyard hit today was on a small river called the Tram Bac. The yard previously had been on the Pentagon's list of off-limits targets.

There was no immediate word on the extent of damage.

In the ground war in South Vietnam, Communist forces generally avoided a close combat but made three mortar and gunfire attacks which killed 26 Americans and wounded 53.

Red mortars also hit the forward base camp at Dak To for the fifth time in 24 hours, causing little damage, but U.S. officers reported the earlier shelling at the battleground in the central highlands Wednesday destroyed 1,100 tons of ammunition, 60,000 gallons of aircraft fuel and $5 million worth of planes.

The U.S. Command in its weekly summary of casualties announced that the number of Americans killed or wounded last week was almost the same as the week before, the number of enemy killed dropped more than 500, and South Vitnamese losses increased sharply.

Four Texas Cities Named

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four cities along with Texarkana's twin city in Arkansas, will share in the new model cities program for improving blighted neighborhoods, the office of Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii said today.

Eagle Pass, San Antonio, Texarkana, Tex., and Waco will share in the $312 million approved by Congress for initial planning costs.

The administration had asked for $668 million to start what has been described as a major item in the anti-poverty campaign.

About 70 cities were chosen to receive federal aid in the model cities program.

SIX FATALITIES LISTED

Surprise Snowstorm Strands Thousands

By CORNELIUS F. HURLEY
Associated Press Writer

BOSTON (AP) — Sunny but frigid weather today helped Boston clear highways of cars abandoned during the heavy snowstorm Wednesday which caused a massive traffic jam in the area.

Metropolitan Boston got only 4 inches of snow but the storm was completely unexpected and motorists were caught without snow tries or chains. Skidding accidents were common and many, drivers gave up and left their cars on the highways.

The supper hour tie-up caused thousands to be many hours late getting home—some past midnight.

Elsewhere in parts of New England, especially Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire and western Massachusetts, up to 13 inches of snow piled up on main highways.

Six fatalities were attributed to the storm.

This morning most commuters to Boston left their cars home and jammed public transportation. They took to the public vehicles in response to a state police statement that many highways leading into Boston were choked with abandoned cars.

The storm struck Greater Boston with a backlash after the weather bureau had said the storm center, which had left deep snow in other sections, was moving off the New England coast.

The Weather Bureau explained that a cold front swept in behind the major storm but warm moist air remained stationary long enough to cause condensation. That brought the sudden, violent storm into the Boston area within an hour after skies had partly cleared.

Robert Jones, a Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority bus driver, said students from area colleges, including Harvard, Radcliffe, MIT and Boston University, were pushing cars, directing traffic and bringing coffee, sandwiches and cookies to stranded motorists.

"It was absolutely amazing to me," he said, "especially where they knock kids so much. These kids weren't pro or con anything. They weren't handing out literature."

He said the students apparently "were digging into their own pockets to buy the food and coffee which they handed out."

A Boston City Hospital doctor and a nurse ran through the blinding snow to deliver a baby girl in a car trapped in traffic two blocks away.

Sabeno Rivera was driving his wife, Carmela, 23, to the hospital when they were caught in the snarled traffic. A policeman reported their plight to the hospital and Dr. Beach Conger, nurse Rosemary O'Brien and three helpers with medical supplies and a stretcher ran to the car where the baby was delivered.

Both mother and baby later were reported in good condition.

The abandoned cars blocked city and state sand trucks and hampered efforts of police to untangle the traffic.

In the downtown area, restaurants became jammed beyond capacity, and many ran out of some foods.

By early evening every hotel in downtown Boston reported every available room as well as spaces which could be furnished with cots, had been sold out."

Oil Allowable Is Unchanged

By JACK KEEVER

AUSTIN (AP) — The Railroad Commission set the statewide oil allowable today at 40.8 per cent of potential for December, the same as this month.

The new allowable will permit maximum production of 3,375,866 barrels of oil a day in December, the same as the November allowable.

Written nominations by major purchasers of Texas crude oil for December totaled 3,007,803 barrels daily, an increase of 74,580 from November nominations.

The Bureau of Mines forecast for the December demand for the states crude oil was 3,160,000 barrels a day, an increase of 20,000 from this month's prediction.

Texas' oil allowable reached an all-time high in August of 54 per cent and remained there until one week into September, when the commission reduced it to 46.7 per cent. The October allowable was cut to 42.8 per cent and another two percentage points were whittled for November.

Of the 14 major purchasers of crude oil, eight asked for the same number of barrels a day in December as they had requested in November. Three sought more oil, three sought less.

J. R. Jones of Shell told the commission that on Dec. 1 it would have one million barrels over the desired allowable east of the Rockies, and if high factors continued it would have one million of Texas crude to sell in December.

Commission Chairman Jim Langdon noted Shell's testimony in announcing the December allowable.

C. M. Harrison of Humble said his company wanted more oil in December, but thought it could obtain what it needed without an increase in the allowable factor.

Jack Coates of Gulf said "We can live with less than 40 per cent. Any allowable higher would merely result in a surplus being carried to the end of the year and would cause a deeper cut sometime next year."

Only five major purchasers nominated by percentages: Sun was high with 42 per cent, compared to 40 for November. Atlantic-Richfield requested 38, Gulf 40, and Pure Oil 40, all the same as this month. Mobil asked for a 39 per cent factor compared to 40 in November.

Nominations in barrels per day:

Atlantic-Richfield 82,000; Cities Service 83,000; Continental 38,000; Gulf 228,000; Humble 545,000; Mobil 282,100; PanAmerican 290,000; Phillips 116,000; Pure Oil 57,700; Shell 177,600; Sinclair 112,500; Standard of Texas 51,000; Sun 139,012; Texaco 170,000.

Teenage Calls Jam Lines

LOS ANGELES (AP) — More than 10,000 teen-agers from all over the world tried to telephone singing stark Mark Lindsay Wednesday night—and cut off incoming long-distance calls to Los Angeles County's seven million residents.

Readers of "Dig" and "Fifteen" magazines had been invited to call the magazine's offices collect and speak with Lindsay, star of the singing group Paul Revere and the Raiders.

The calls came from Australia, Tokyo, London and all parts in the United States. Lindsay spoke with 300 of the callers, the magazine switchboard operators said they logged at least 10,000 calls, and no one knew how many more calls didn't get through.

Long distance phone lines to the county were blocked for almost two hours.

Sato Pleased With Outcome Of Talks

Sato received a promise the United States will return the World War II battleground of Iow Jima, to Japan within a year.

Britain To Prod UN Into Action

By TOM HOGE
Associated Press Writer

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Britain plans a determined effort to prod the U.N. Security Council into unanimous action toward a settlement to the Middle East stalemate, declaring that the "time to decide has come."

The United States urged the council Wednesday to reach an accord calling for Israeli withdrawal from captured Arab lands but also supporting Israel's insistence on "secure and recognized" boundaries.

"Only the parties themselves can make peace," added U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg.

The council did reach a decision on Portugal, condemning the Lisbon government for permitting foreign mercenaries to use Portuguese Angola for an abortive invasion of the Congo.

Portugal has denied any knowledge of mercenary operations from Angola and its U.N. delegate, Francisco Bonifacio de Miranda, called the condemnation "gratuitous and baseless." But Soviet representative Platon Morozov, said the resolution did not go far enough because it did not call on Portugal's fellow members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to respect U.N. charter provisions barring interference in the internal affairs of another state.

In the Middle East debate, Britain's Lord Caradon complained that the Security Council has been bogged down for weeks by "dreadful and damaging delays and persistent and frustrating disagreements."

The council may consider as many as four separate Arab-Israeli peace plans. A U.S. plan and an India-Mali-Nigeria proposal are formally before the council, Argentine and Brazil are ready to introduce another and Britain is reported working on a separate draft.

TRIMMED BY $460 MILLION

Antipoverty Measure Clears House

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — An antipoverty bill cut by $460 million has cleared the House and both the budget-cutters and administration supporters claim a victory.

Republicans succeeded in cutting the money total well below President Johnson's request but the pared-down version—with all its controversial programs intact—then sailed through 283 to 29, the biggest margin in its three-year history.

As it passed the House Wednesday night after a long, frequently raucous session, the bill would extend the Office of Economic Opportunity's programs for one year at an authorized spending level of $1.6 billion.

That's the amount the OEO had last year. Johnson had asked for $2.06 billion to expand the antipoverty program this year.

The Senate has already authorized $2.25 billion and a compromise agreement will now have to be worked out.

After three frustrating days in which they were defeated on every major attempt to cut funds and revise the program, the Republicans scored on their final thrust just before passage.

Their motion to cut back to $1.6 billion was approved 221 to 190, with 148 Republicans and 73 Democrats, mostly from the South, supporting it. Opposing the slash were 162 Democrats and 28 Republicans.

On final passage, 186 Democrats and 97 Republicans voted for the bill and 50 Democrats and 79 Republicans against it. The entire top leadership of the Republican party either voted or was paired against the bill.

The bill's supporters shrugged off the cut in funds as a small price to pay for keeping alive a program that at one time appeared doomed.

The coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats that rewrote major administration education and crime control bills earlier in the year had made a complete revision of the antipoverty program its main goal.

When the summer's riots soured many former supporters of the program the House leadership laid the bill aside and even considered dropping it for this year to keep it from being chewed up.

DEAR ABBY: The teacher called me for a conference because of an essay my daughter had written as part of a class assignment. It was entitled "My Father," and it went like this:

"My father is the worst father in the whole world. I am ashamed of him. He left us when we were small and my mother had to work to feed us. I hate him."

Abby, my daughter was four years old when her father left us, and she hasn't mentioned him in all these years. She is a moody child but I think it is just her nature. My other children seem happier and better adjusted.

Well, this teacher suggested I take my daughter to a psychiatrist. I don't believe too much in psychiatry. I went to one after my husband left me, and many hundreds of dollars later all I got out of him was the sage advice that I should "adjust" to the situation and make the best of it.

I don't want an emotionally disturbed child on my hands, but I can't afford to pay a psychiatrist just because a teacher says she thinks my child needs one. What should I do?

CONCERNED

DEAR CONCERNED: Ask your family doctor for his recommendations, after telling him the background. Far better to investigate psychiatric help for your daughter and be told she doesn't need it, than not to seek it when she does.

DEAR ABBY: The letter from "WORRIED MOTHER" who is concerned about telling her 11-year-old son the facts of life, sounds like many parents with whom I have talked.

After teaching elementary school for 17 years, I have found that the parents of 11-year-olds who think they are going to tell their children something new in revealing the facts of life, have a lot to learn themselves. Sincerely yours,

DAVID S. MILLS, PRINCIPAL
DOW, ILLINOIS

DEAR ABBY: I am an only child and have been married a few years. All of a sudden, after 25 years of marriage, my parents say they can no longer put up with each other's "foolishness" and they want a divorce.

I think they are being very foolish and it upsets me terribly, but I don't know how to help them solve their problem.

Incidentally, don't suggest that I try to get them to see a marriage counselor because they wouldn't, not if it was the last thing they did together.

FORLORN

DEAR FORLORN: Have your parents asked for your help with their problem? I'll bet they haven't, because when two people agree that they've had "enough" of each other, as far as they're concerned, there's no problem.

The only problem I see here is yours. It's the inability to solve a non-existing problem between your parents.

DEAR ABBY: Re. that late-working husband who made a habit of worrying his wife because he was ashamed to say to his boss, "Excuse me, I have to call my wife and let her know I'll be late."

Most bosses admire and respect an employee who shows that kind of consideration for his wife. In fact, that is one of the qualities a boss looks for when he considers a man for promotion. How do I know? I am a boss.

Trucker's Hot Cargo Erupts In Flame

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Johnny Harrison of Fort Worth, Tex., driver of a moving van, was on his way out of town with some hot cargo—and he didn't know it.

Harrison was flagged down on Interstate 10 by another motorist who spotted flames and smoke surging from the rear of Harrison's van. Firemen were called to the scene and put out the blaze before it consumed the trailer. Interstate 10 was blocked for miles by the operation.

Letters To The Editor

To The Daily News:

I think there is some confusion in our community about the Scurry County Association for Retarded Children.

Some have the idea that this organization is part of the school system. This is not the case. We do hold our meetings at the Humble-Smith school — just as P.T.A. meetings are held at various schools.

Our summer day camp was also held at the building and the school provided transportation to swimming lessons. We appreciate the school system and all the help it has given us. The remainder of our day camp was carried on through volunteer help and all other expenses were paid by our association.

Our organization is a group of parents, teachers, relatives, friends and interested people who are concerned with helping the retarded.

In addition to day camp this past summer, we conducted a swimming program for all children in the Special Education department with 25 children participating. This was a 5 week program. Special Education in the school includes the Humble - Smith School, 3 units in West Elementary, 1 Junior High unit and one High School Unit.

Last year we paid $75 in salaries for the work-training program in Special Education and have set aside $150 for this purpose this year. We have established a milk fund and have purchased 26 cots for use in the department. This money has come from our fund raising projects and membership dues.

November 12-23 has been set aside as National Retarded Children Week to draw attention to the national problem of mental retardation and it's affect on the family, the community, and the economy.

Won't you join with our Association during this week to help us prove that "Retarded Children Can Be Helped."

Suits Filed On Vehicles

Two suits recently filed in 132nd District Court here are asking for the forfeiture of two vehicles allegedly used in violation of the Liquor Control Act.

One suit, brought against Anderson Davis, Jr., contends that he used a 1968 Model Chevrolet pickup to transport intoxicating beverages in a dry area. He was apprehended on the East Highway Nov. 11 by Sheriff's authorities. Bond on the vehicle, valued at $3,000, was set at $6,000.

Named as defendant in the other suit is J. L. Bowdy. He was apprehended in a 1961 Model Chevrolet by Sheriff's authorities on Thirty - seventh Street Oct. 29. The vehicle was returned to his possession after the suspect posted $1,600 bond. The vehicle is valued at $750.

Two Vehicles Are Damaged In Crash

Considerable damage resulted from a two - car collision at Thirty-third Street and Avenue G at 4:05 p.m. Wednesday.

Involved were the 1962 Model Rambler of Alton Roscoe Robinson, 2809 Avenue L, and the 1959 Model Chevrolet of Tim Puente, 607 Thirty - fifth Street.

Damage to the Chevrolet was estimated at $300, and damage to the other was placed at $200.

Police Patrolman Kirt Reed investigated the mishap.

Stirl Sisters Host Py-Lo 4-H Club Meeting

On Nov. 9 the Py-lo 4-H Club met in the home of Shirley and Wilma Stirl.

Cynthia and Caroline Melton gave a demonstration on cooking apples and prepared a cabbage and carrot salad, which was served with sandwiches and chips to the following: Rita, Cynthia, Jeanne, Caroline and Susan Melton, Judy and Amy Bollinger, Shirley and Wilma Stirl, Gloria and Slyvia Martinez.

Shirley Stirl called the meeting to order with the motto, pledge and prayer. Wilma Stirl read the minutes.

Rita and Cynthia Melton gave a report on the county - wide committee meeting. Mrs. Stirl brought up the PTA which the 4-H has. It will be on the second Monday in February. A committee was appointed to plan the program. The group planned the joint meeting in January and discussed the Christmas party to be held Dec. 13.

Roll call was answered by a food prepared in the milk group and Wilma Stirl led recreation.

Photgraphy On Program For Senior 4-H

The Snyder Senior 4-H Club met recently at the county extension office with Kathy Rhodes presiding. The 4-H motto, pledge and prayer were said.

Minutes were read and a program on photography was led by Miss Rhodes.

Those attending were Elaine McArthur, Kathy Rhodes, Marquita Ortez and the leader, Mrs. McArthur.

Flowers Bring Zest To Gatherings

The house that loves company is a house filled with flowers.

No doubt your home will be open to friends, neighbors, or relatives — or all three — at one time or another this holiday season. Your house with flowers, and even the smallest, simplest gathering will take on a spirit of exuberance and celebration.

There can be great drama, of course, in large bouquets. But don't underestimate the charm of a house filled with smaller arrangements. Nature flings flowers in the fields with a loving and careless hand. You can achieve a similar look indoors with a splash and a spark of colorful bouquets generously scattered throughout the house.

Remember that the free, natura, and "unarranged" look is the loveliest look of all in the house filled with flowers. Gone are stiff or tortuous floral arrangements. The happiest bouquets are those that appear to have been arranged in the twinkling of an eye, and there they are6, not "arrangements" at all, but bunches of fragrant flowers simply and beautifully placed in appropriate vases.

Where to begin? Try three roses on the mantle; a small, plump bouquet of chrysanthemums and huckleberry leaves on the coffee table; a loose and colorful arrangement of anemones, carnations, sweet peas, snapdragons, and heather on the sideboard or dining table.

Which rooms in your house or apartment have either peek - through or spacious vistas to other rooms in the house? Is the kitchen visible from dinette or family room? Do French doors in the dining room lead to an enclosed porch? Take full advantage of these various space relationships by making bouquets visible from one room to another and by placing them in both expected and unexpected places!

Will a guest spend the night in your home? Honor him with a bouquet of daisies and myrtle leaves on side table or dresser in his bedroom.

WHAT'S GOING ON

For reservations for the Art Guild Study Club Thanksgiving dinner to be held Nov. 21, with the Mesquite District President as special guest, reservations should be made by calling HI3-6705 or HI 3-3297. The wrong telephone number for one of the hostesses was given in Wednesday paper.

Decorative Fireplace

Fireproof ceramic tile is not only practical facing for that fireplace you're planning but also an excellent decorative material that can make it a feature of the room. Tiles are now produced by U. S. manufacturers in thousands of colors and color combinations, textures, sizes and shapes and can enhance any style.

At one point during 1967, Flag Raiser was ridden by seven different jockeys in a span of 10 races.

Sorority Makes Plans

Lambda Kappa Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Tuesday in the home of Mary Lou Scott.

Pam Mengwasser read an insurance notice which reported the chapter was covered by insurance. Helen Hall reported on the treasury and presented the year's budget.

Pat Pate discussed ways and means projects and reported the chapter would be selling Beta Sigma Phi cookbooks for Christmas. Carol Cornelius told that the next meeting would be held at Snyder Savings & Loan and that Wilda Petchensky would be hostess and Mary Lou Scott would present the program.

Nominations for Miss or Mrs Charm were made. They are: Helen Hall, Patsy Elliott, and Carol Cornelius. Mr. Gene Merrifield, will crown the lady at the Nov. 21 meeting, and present a program on "Operation Sparkle City."

Carol Cornelius told plans for a progressive dinner to be held Saturday evening at 6:30. The group made plans for a food basket.

Following the business, Helen Hall presented a program on the "History of Dress," and refreshments were served. Pam Mengwasser received the door prize.

NORTH TOWARD HOME. By Willie Morris (Houghton Mifflin, $5.95)

It is remarkable that a man of 33 should write his autobiography. But that is what Willie Morris, late of Texas, has done in "North Toward Home," acclaimed by many as a highly important literary product.

The theme is the growth of understanding of a youth ordered out of Mississippi and into a new world which does not live in the past.

It was his father who told him to "Get the hell out of Mississippi." This was a shock to a youth well liked in Yazoo City and who liked his home town.

His father even picked the University of Texas for his education. It is possible that Morris' father feared stagnation of outlook if his son remained at home. Texas, by some ways of thinking, would be progressive step but not a traumatic shock.

The traumatic shock came later when Morris returned to Yazoo City and saw and heard his friends and heroes at a White Citizens Council meeting act in what he now considered an inhumane manner.

Morris became editor of the Daily Texan, the university's daily newspaper. From there he joined the staff and later became editor of the Texas Observer, The Austin liberal publication.

He devotes much of the book to the legislature—about half the book is of his Texas experiences—and his observation of that lawmaking body sharply points up its weaknesses. But he never resorts to the hatchet, although he sometimes names names.

He quit the Observer in 1963 and went to New York—the Big Cave, he calls it—and became editor in chief of Harper's magazine.

That position alone makes Morris one of the nation' leading literary figures. Now his autobiography adds more lustre.

It is a story of spiritual discovery and maturity, set off by his experiences at the University of Texas. Perhaps the university is better able to spark a man's growth than some believed.

It is a beautifully written book, both in language and approach, and better than anything Morris did in Texas, say those who knew him then.—The AP

THE CURIOUS DEATH OF THE NOVEL, By Louis D. Rubin Jr. (Louisiana State University Press, $6.95)

The title of "The Curious Death of the Novel" is phrased to show that the author, Louis D. Rubin Jr., does not believe the novel is dead at all.

Hs first chapter, an extensive discourse on modern writing, carries the theme that the only trouble with current novels is that not enough people read them. That and what he calls "tired literary critics."

In an often biting attack on some critics and the publishing business in general, he contends that many present writers are of tall stature, although such greats as Thomas Wolfe, William Faulkner and Ernest Hemingway have passed from the scene.

He is particularly caustic with those who contend the novel is dead for all time as an art form to be supplanted by the non-novel as exemplified by Truman Capote and his "In Cold Blood."

From this point, he goes into an extensive and deep dissection of the southern novel and of why southern writers rose to such prominence. He finds that from time to time, certain regions have produced an outstanding collection of writers—remember those of the Midwest a few years ago.

Now he finds that another group of novelists is gaining prominence but not from a single region. He believes that the next great wave of literary merit—it may be on us now—will be from Jewish writers.

It is a highly articulate and persuasive discussion of the modern novel.

Rubin is professor of English at the University of North Carolina and an extensive writer himself—The AP.

GARDENING IN SOUTH TEXAS, By P. A. Renton Jr., H. R. Newcomer and Roy C. Bates (Naylor, $4.95)

This is the third edition and the ninth printing of this popular book on South Texas gardening. Actually, it can be applied to much of Texas.

The authors discuss grass and other plants in detail in a book which is well organized, telling the homeowner just when and where to plant for the best results and cures for the insect and disease infestations, as well as how to fertilize, water and prune.—The AP.

THE MINING FRONTIER, Edited by Marvin Lewis (University of Oklahoma Press, $4.95)

"The Mining Frontier" is a collection of stories from newspapers and other publications written in the great outpouring of journalism during the western mining booms of the 19th Century.

It was this era and setting that produced or at least polished such writers as Mark Twain and Bret Harte.

Lewis contends that the mining community, with obvious exceptions, was the best educated of any American Frontier.

To support this contention, Lewis points to the great number of newspapers published for the miners.

Certainly the writing has a vitality all its own. This may be because of the use of saloons for a good many more things than drinking—such as the swapping of tall stories.

Or perhaps the stories simply reflect the energy and the vitality of the men, most of whom had enough self-assurance to leave their homes and families for the lure of fortunes to be made in the mining fields.

Nowhere in the book are stories of the nature of Twain and Harte, although some almost approach them.

Instead the editor appears to be seeking an objective view of mining camp days by means of his selection of stories.

And lusty days they were. The stories tell of fights and caveins and claimjumpers. A man had to be ready to protect his own in this country where there was no law.

But there also was evidence that these men, often brutal and unfeeling, sometimes could collect together and enforce what they considered right without the benefit of bench or bar. It was one way to demonstrate that where civilized men gather they will move toward law and order.—The AP.

ANNUAL EVENT — Queen Amy Brown and King Jerry Landes reigned over the annual Harvest Festival at Northeast Elementary School Tuesday evening. The program, sponsored by the P-TA, was held in the school auditorium.

Way Clear For Guadalupe Park

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall, accepting a quitclaim deed today from the State of Texas, described it as "the green light" for establishment of a new national park in the Guadalupe Mountains.

The deed donates Texas' mineral rights in the park area to the United States. Under a law passed last year the Guadalupe Mountains National Park couldn't be established until this was done.

"If you note a look of relief on my face today, you are not mistaken," said Udall.

His remarks were prepared for the transfer ceremony in the State Land Office Building.

"It was not altogether unthinkable," Udall explained, "to imagine the colossus of Texas astride the Guadalupe Mountains, holding this quitclaim deed indefinitely and 46,000 acres of mineral rights with it."

The 46,000 acres covered by the deed represent more than 59 per cent of the proposed park, which includes "what geologists call the most extensive and significant limestone fossil reef in the world," Udall said.

In addition, the National Park Service is planning a variety of recreation facilities to take advantage of the area's canyons, uplands, trails, streams and wildlife, he said.

The transfer ceremony was scheduled for 4 p.m.

On Nov. 1, Texaco Inc. signed over to the National Park Service its mineral rights on 25,000 acres that Texaco owned in the park area.

The park, which was created by the 1966 Congress coers a total of 77,000 acres in the Gaudalupe mountains in Culberson and Hudspeth counties. It includes Guadalupe peak, which at 8,751 feet, is the tallest in Texas, and El Capitan Peak, 8,078 feet. McKittrick canyon in the heart of the park area has been described as one of the most beautiful small canyons in the nation.

The 121 square miles includes timber land and canyons which are home to herds of elk, bighorn sheep, and deer among the Canadian Maple, Douglas Fir and Ponderosa Pine. The park contains one of Texas' few trout streams.

Revival Is Continuing

The Church of God, 2100 Avenue O, is now in the second week of a revival.

The revival will continue through Sunday, Nov. 19, with services each night at 7:30. The evangelist is the Rev. Ronald Bear of Graham, who has been serving as an evangelist in Texas for the past two years. His wife assists him with special singing.

The Rev. Billy Rains, pastor of the Church of God, said the public is invited to the revival services.

The Kansas City Athletics in 1968 will be known as the Oakland Athletics. Owner Charles O. Finley says he's taking his mule with him.

Festival At Northeast

Amy Brown was crowned queen and Jerry Landes was crowned king of the annual Harvest Festival, held Tuesday night at Northeast Elementary School.

The program, sponsored by the Northeast Elementary P-TA, consisted of a "royal song" by the sixth grade girls, an informative speech by Chester Clinkinbeard and Sue Morris, a reading, "Five Little Chickens," by a first grade group, and a reading, "Poor Old Lady," by a group of second graders. The Travis 8th and 9th grade mixed choir presented several numbers.

Silas Devenport, school principal, welcomed guests, and he also crowned the king and queen.

Mrs. Nathan Mearse, president of the P-TA, called the business meeting to order. The devotional was given by Mrs. C. M. Word. Mrs. William C. McComb presented the P-TA membership to Mrs. Halladay's second grade room.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria at the conclusion of the program.

Annexation Approved

BALLINGER, Tex. (AP) — Voters here have endorsed annexation of 300 acres north of Ballinger. The vote was 113-19. The new addition includes a large meat-packing firm, a drive in theater and a number of homes, as well as unimproved acreage.

NEW CRIME-FIGHTING CONCEPT

FBI, Justice Dept. At Odds

By STEPHEN M. AUG
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI and its parent agency, the Justice Department, are at odds over the department's new "strike force" concept for fighting organized crime.

As a result, the FBI has refused to join fully the new anti-crime force—practically the only civilian federal investigative agency to decline full participation.

Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark made public the new concept earlier this week in a New York speech when he announced the department will set up several "strike forces" to probe organized crime in selected areas.

The decision was based on a highly successful operation during the past year in Buffalo, N.Y., which resulted in 14 indictments affecting 31 defendants.

Under the strike force concept, seven federal investigative agencies work together on an intensive drive against organized crime in a selected area for a year or two.

Although Justice Department officials refused to discuss the disagreement, it is known they feel their job would be much easier if the FBI participated fully in the new technique.

FBI participation so far has been passive. It has not assigned agents to work on the strike forces but has made available its vast intelligence sources.

Technically, at least, the attorney general could order FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover to assign agents to the strike force, but Clark is said to be reluctant to do so. Although the FBI is part of the Justice Department it operates practically as an autonomous agency.

Insiders familiar with FBI operations say the bureau's opposition to participating fully in the plan is based on three premises:

—The FBI traditionally likes to work alone and take the credit—or the blame—alone.

—The FBI over the years has sought to keep separate the investigating and prosecuting functions of the Justice Department. The bureau does the investigating, the department does the prosecuting.

—The bureau is not convinced that the intensive work of the strike forces—spread possibly over an 18-month or two-year period—would be lasting. It feels that once a drive is completed the target area may slip back under control of the local crime syndicate branch. Department officials are known to feel, however, that the key to a successful fight against organized crime is continual surveillance.

Connally Speaks To Nashville Demos

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Texas Gov. John Connally told a $25-a-plate fund-raising dinner Wednesday night the Johnson administration has lost popularity because "leaders have always lost some popularity in time of war."

Connally addressed some 5,000 persons at a party-sponsored gathering.

He said Vietnam has brought a slide in public favor because "the trials and tribulations touch more families."

Connally said Vietnam would had been lost to the communists if the United States had not lived up to its commitments and responsibility.

LBJ Shows Determination To See The War Through

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The anti-Vietnam war critics and demonstrators annoy President Johnson but they don't put a dent in him.

Their hopes for peace face a bleak future at least until the 1968 elections, unless somehow the war ends before then. Nothing of the kind is in sight.

Recent and not so recent statements by Johnson and top men around him in fighting this war show grim determination to keep on fighting it.

For instance, Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, looking beyond Vietnam, said months ago this country would be involved in Asia until the end of the century.

Last May in Look magazine he said the American interest "in the Far Pacific is precisely what our interest was in the late '40's and '50's in Europe."

In the same issue of the magazine Secretary of State Dean Rusk predicted it will be "useful for some time to come for American power to be able to control every wave of the Pacific, if necessary."

And this week Johnson showed his unbending determination to go on with the war.

The Machinist, a labor magazine, quoted him as saying: "I may wind up with a poll of one per cent before it's over with."

Recent public opinion polls showed his popularity, and public confidence in him at a new low.

He said, "We can't end it (the war) with honor by surrender. We can't end it with honor by negotiations because the enemy will not negotiate with us." Until there are negotiations, he said, "It is going to be tough but we are just going to have to stand up and take it."

At a White House dinner Tuesday night, Johnson illustrated his will to go on by quoting from President Abraham Lincoln in the depths of the Civil War: "Let us . . . dare to do our duty as we understand it."

Nor is there any softening in the administration's position about continuing the bombing of North Vietnam.

In the past year Johnson and Rusk have said repeatedly that despite previous pauses in the air raids the United States cannot now "stop half the war."

Their condition for halting the bombing is, and has been, some reciprocal action by North Vietnam to scale down its own military operations.

This week Johnson is meeting with U.S. military and political chiefs stationed in Vietnam. They have advised against any extension of the bombing pause which this country may permit for the upcoming Vietnamese holidays of Christmas and New Year.

One of them, Ellsworth Bunker, U.S. ambassador to Vietnam, gave Johnson a rather optimistic report on progress there but warned the road ahead is tough and long.

And Wednesday, when he arrived here by plane from Saigon, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. military commander in Vietnam, talked of progress in the war as "very encouraging . . . I have never been more encouraged in my four years in Vietnam."

He also opposed any extended bombing pause, which is in keeping with his relentless attitude toward the conflict in Vietnam.

When he was here last April he told Congress the only strategy that could defeat the enemy was "one of unrelenting but discriminating military action and political and psychological pressure" on the enemy's whole structure at all levels.

While the critics may get under Johnson's skin—there's no doubt they do, since he's banged at them repeatedly—they have had no visible effect on him except to make him feel, judging from what he has said, that if they'd just shut up peace might come faster since obvious American disunity encourages Hanoi to keep the war going.

Junior Editors Quiz on MEMORIALS

* * * * *

ANSWER: As early as 1867, people began talking about the need for a national memorial to Abraham Lincoln. In 1911, Congress created a commission to work out plans for one. The commission chose the site and accepted a design by the architect Henry Bacon. For simplicity, for dignity, for impressiveness, the Lincoln Memorial would be hard to equal. A large building of gleaming white marble is surrounded by 36 columns, patterned after the Greek Doric design. These represent the 36 states comprising the Union at the time Lincoln was President. The memorial was dedicated May 30, 1922. At this time the Union had increased to 48 states, and 48 state seals are displayed on the building. Inside, an enormous statue, carved by Daniel Chester French, shows a seated Lincoln, brooding and thoughtful, gazing out across America. The statue is flanked by sections containing tablets engraved with the Gettysburg Address and the Second Inaugural Address.

Antidote For Life's Repetitions

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) —Now and then life wears a mask of tiresome sameness.

Everyday actions become irksome by their repetition.

"I'm bored with it all," the soul exlaims inwardly in shallow self-pity.

It helps at such times to put life in perspective by drawing up a list of possible adventures that might make the world more exciting. You may never perform these postponed pleasures, but it is fun to consider them.

For example, now in the shady side of 50, I find that, for one reason or another, I have yet to—

Build a cofferdam or paint a flagpole.

Hold a ladder for a fireman while he rescues a kitten stranded in a tree.

Find a buried treasure.

Prove to my wife's satisfaction that the longest distance between two points is the shortest way home.

Catch a mouse in a trap.

Come in first in the rat race.

Inherit fame or money.

Tell a joke to a group of five people without at least three of them informing me later that they had heard it before.

Discover any kind of food that tastes better after its calories have been removed.

Reach up and find my brow is wet with honest sweat.

Get a callus on my finger from counting the cash in my wallet.

Shame the devil by telling the truth.

Con a widow out of her mite.

Win a game of stud poker aboard a Mississippi river steamboat.

Wear a police press card in my hatband, as those reporter fellows do in the movies.

Have any newspaper stop its presses and tear open the front page for any story I ever covered.

Feather a love nest.

Tattoo an eagle or a girl's name in living color on my forearm.

Wrestle a boa constrictor.

Keep a psychiatrist on the edge of his seat listening with awe to the tale of my troubles.

Dance a dithyramb, the boogaloo, or a blith strathspey.

Make a secret rendezvous with any member of a ruling European royal family.

Ghost the memoirs of Santa Claus under the title, "It Ain't the Sliding Down of Chimneys, It's the Climbing Back Up That Makes a Saint So Tired."

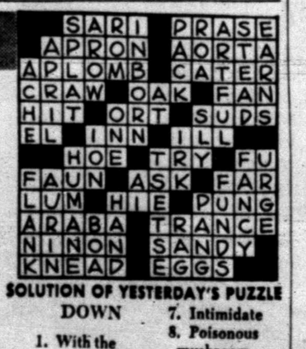

Bored? How can any man be, when the world is so full of interesting chores still left undone?

Now that I've given you my list, it's your turn to give me yours. But are you sure that you don't have something else better to do?

Smith Inks Red Pact

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hal Smith, who twice made the National League all-star team as a catcher, was named a coach for the Cincinnati Reds today.

Smith, 36, has been a coach for the St. Louis Cardinals and a manager in the Cardinals' farm system since his retirement in 1961 because of a heart condition. He played for the Cardinals from 1956 to 1960 and was named to the 1957 and 1959 All-Star teams.

A team spokesman said that Smith, a native of Baring, Ark., who now lives in Houston, no longer has the heart condition.

Hornets Hope To Sting No. 1 Team

Hundreds of shouting, enthusiastic fans probably will be on hand Saturday night when Aspermont's Hornets tangle with Seagraves' Eagles in a bi-district playoff game set for 7:30 p.m. in Tiger Stadium.

Seagraves, coached by A. D. Shaver, is riding the crest of a 10-game winning streak and currently is ranked the No. 1 team in the state in Class A circles. Aspermont, after an opening 0-29 loss to Spur, won its last nine contests.

Included in the Hornet triumphs are impressive wins over two strong teams — Wylie and Merkel. Aspermont knocked off Wylie 28-20 and edged Merkel 28-27 last week to clinch the district crown. The Hornets have scored 324 points compared with 128 by the opposition. Coach Troy Gauntt heads the Hornet staff.

Seagraves notched 317 points against 10 foes while allowing only 92 points. Included in the Eagle triumphs are narrow verdicts over Farwell (7-6) and Tahoka (13-10). The top-ranked crew also knocked off a well-regarded Coahoma team, 31-22.

The Eagles are due to arrive in Snyder about 3:30 p.m. Saturday. They will hold a light workout Saturday afternoon. Aspermont will not arrive until Saturday night.

Tickets for the important imbroglio can be purchased at the Chamber of Commerce office here at the rate of $2 for an adult ticket and 50 cents for a student ticket. They also can be purchased at the gate on the night of the game.

Pullers Post 6-0 Season Grid Record

The Boys Club Pullers were honored by their parents with a party Saturday night at the county barn to celebrate their successful season.

The Pullers won all of their regular games and finished with a 6-0 record.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Cloyce Talbott of Well Service, sponsors of the team; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rice and Mr. and Mrs. Avon Rushing, coaches.

The boys presented their coaches with desk set trophies engraved with each boys name. The cheer leaders were presented a cheer leader charm.

Cheer leaders includ Christi Meynig, Donna Cornett, Vicki Murry, Jodi Hall, Freddie Williams and Trusilla Reeder.

Elijah Injured

NEW YORK (AP) — Elijah Pitts, Green Bay halfback, is out for the season, having been placed on the "reserved as injured" list of the National Football League.

If the Packers should try to reactivate Pitts prior to the end of the season, including postseason play, Pitts could be claimed by any other NFL club on nonrecallable waivers.

However, Vince Lombardi of the Packers, fully conversant with the rules, would not be likely to risk such a valuable property.

Pitts suffered a torn achilles tendon in a Nov. 5 game with Baltimore. His place has been taken by Donny Anderson, the bonus sophomore from Texas Tech who scored four touchdowns last Sunday against Cleveland.

Bengals Fans Plan Bon Fire, Pep Rally

Seventeen seniors will close out their football careers for Snyder High School here Friday night when the Tigers host the champion Dunbar Panthers of Lubbock in a 7:30 p.m. affray.

The team can finish the season with a 5-5 record with an upset victory over Dunbar. A win also probably would give the Bengals at least a tie for second place in the district race. A loss probably would leave them in third or fourth place—depending on how the other district clashes turn out.

Coach Wayne Tyrone and his staff are hoping the Bengals can rebound after successive losses to Brownfield and Sweetwater. A victory over the Panthers would be a feather in the Tiger cap since no other district team has been able to defeat the speed demons.

The team had a good work out Monday with most of the emphasis on offense. Defense came in for review Tuesday. Wednesday's drill was a mixture of overall strategy, including work on goal line offense and defense.

The feeling in the Tiger camp is that the Tigers can upset Dunbar if they put forth as great an effort as they did against Big Spring. The Panthers aren't as big as the Steers, but their running backs have more speed. The quarterback probably is sharp enough to win a starting berth on any team in the state.

Several of the Tigers came out of the Sweetwater game nursing sore muscles and bruises. Raymond Rios, the leading ground gainer, sustained a twisted ankle in the first quarter and remains a doubtful starter. He's been working out, but will not be at top speed.

"We can start Shields (Ronnie) at fullback in place of Rios if we have to," said Tyrone. "He did a good job against the Ponies."

The head mentor also was contemplating a few defensive changes. Craig Bell, middle linebacker, re-injured his neck, and may not be ready by Friday night. Sophomore Ricky Glasscock and junior Tommy McDorman could figure prominently in the defensive alignment.

Mitch Rambin, junior running back, missed a couple of the early workouts and may not be ready to go full steam. Otherwise, the squad appears to be in good health.

The Baylor University Band will perform at halftime at Friday night's game.

A big bon fire is planned for 7 p.m. today in Towle Memorial Park as the student body generates enthusiasm for this first meeting between Snyder and Dunbar. The pep rally and bon fire will be held on the parking lot area north of the Little League ball park.

Another pep rally is on tap at 3 p.m. Friday at the high school. A car caravan will form at West Texas State Bank at 6:45 p.m. Friday prior to the game and drive "Indian file" to the stadium.

SETTING UP ANSWER — A U.S. Army gun section prepares to reload during lull in the enemy's shelling of the Con Thien outpost. The artillerymen provide both direct and indirect fire support in defenses along the demilitarized zone of Vietnam.

GOING HIGH — A high military collar atop a short mini-cape, coupled with long black boots reaching above the knee are features of autumn ensemble presented in London.

ALL KEYED UP — Joe, a registered pointer, upstages its owner, Mrs. Jay Jones, in Bryan, Texas. She says dog responds to word "play" and goes to piano.

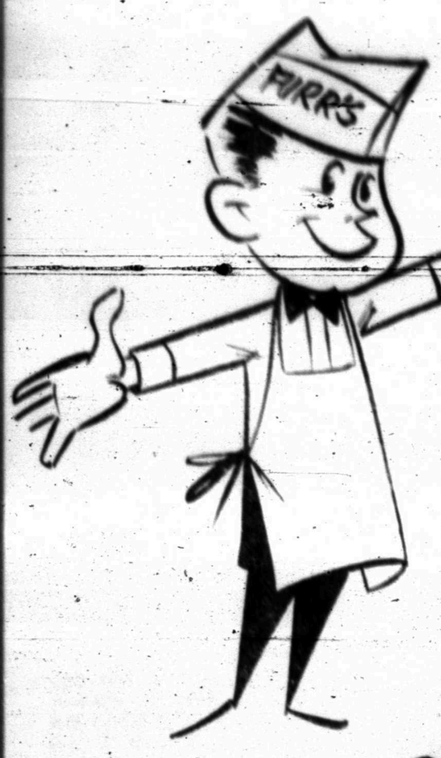

AFTER LONG HAUL — The tug Fuji Maru brings two huge floating cranes into harbor at Auckland, N.Z. The cranes, built in Japan, will be used to lift steel girders into place on the Auckland harbor bridge. The 4,800-mile tow from Tokyo took 40 days.

AN EYE-CATCHER — A curious kitten peered through the window of a doll house and photographer was on hand to picture the startling scene in Dover, Del.

DOWN TO THE WATER — It's a wet occasion for first classmen at the Admiral Farragut Academy as they dip their new class rings into the Toms river for good luck. Dunking ceremony is an annual affair at the naval prep school in Pine Beach, N.J.

FOR STEEL AND COPPER

Price Increases Planned

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders in the steel and copper industries plan price increases as the government reports a second straight monthly drop in the nation's industrial output.

As the price hikes were being announced Wednesday, Chairman William McChesney Martin of the Federal Reserve Board urged Congress to enact a tax hike to stem inflation. President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge appears all but dead for this session of Congress.

Martin said disruptive forces already are at work on the economy.

Adding to the economy's woes were continued scattered strikes in the auto industry.

U.S. Steel announced it will hike prices of most types of wire and various materials for railroads by less than 3 per cent, effective Nov. 27. The nation's biggest steelmaker said the products involved represent about 3 per cent of its total shipments.

The increase is the latest in a series of steel industry price boosts this year. The items involved account for more than 25 per cent of industry shipments.

Phelps Dodge Copper Products Corp., said meanwhile it will increase prices of its full range of tube products about 4 cents a pound beginning Friday.

The copper industry has been hit by a strike of miners since July 15. Phelps-Dodge said its boost will "partially compensate for the cost of obtaining copper" from other sources.

The Federal Reserve Board, announcing the decline in industrial output, blamed strikes and a 6 per cent drop in oil production resulting from an improved supply from the Middle East.

The board's index of industrial production dropped five-tenths of one point in October to 156.2 per cent of the 1957-59 base period. The index slipped 1.5 points in September, largely because of strikes—the biggest at Ford Motor Co.—and the curtailed oil production.

This marked the first time since the economic slowdown last February and March that the index dropped in two straight months.

Martin, speaking before the new index was announced, said strikes have clouded the economy's basic strength.

A similar argument was made by the President's Council of Economic Advisers. Chairman Gardner Ackley predicted last week the index would make an unexciting showing and cited the strikes as a factor.

Last week, the government reported a 4.3 per cent unemployment rate—the highest in two years, and a 2 per cent drop in retail sales during October. The Ford strike was listed as a factor in the sales drop.

Sizeable Prizes At Fat Stock Show

FORT WORTH (AP) — Officials of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show say the overall total of stock show, horse show and rodeo prize money and entry fees will exceed $20,000.

The 10-day show begins here in late February.

Construction Delayed

ELDORADO, Tex. (AP) — A timetable calling for completion of a hospital for Eldorado by Aug. 1, 1968, is still in effect in spite of delays in obtaining title to land. Eldorado, which has been without a doctor for several years, already has a physician lined up to move here once the medical facility is built. It will contain 20 beds plus a 15-bed nursing home facility.

Educator Of Year

BIG SPRING, Tex. (AP) — School Supt. Sam Anderson of Big Spring has been named educator of the year by Texas School Business Magazine. Anderson has just completed a term as president of the Texas State Teachers Association. His 36 years as an educator include the past six as superintendent here.

COMMUNITY WORK RECOGNIZED — Hugh Boren Jr., right, receives a certificate from Snyder Chamber of Commerce President Bentley Baize in recognition of Boren's work in the Scurry County Historical Survey Committee, which he heads. The presentation was made at Tuesday's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce board.

Scout Leaders In Busy Session

A Scout leader's roundtable held Tuesday evening was a definite success, said Robert Stewart of Lone Buffalo District.

At the district commissioners' meeting preceding the roundtable, T. V. Early, neighborhood commissioner for Cub Pack 34, gave a report on reorganization work in that pack. It will be sponsored by the Central Elementary P-TA. The Cubmaster is Jesse Riggins and his assistant is Dewey O. Lester. The institutional representative is N. L. Whittenburg, the committee chairman is Keith Collier and committeeman is Joe Carrasco.

However, it was reported that the pack does not have any denmothers yet. It could begin activity immediately if the denmothers' posts were filled. Parents of boys in Central are being urged to fill the openings. Fully qualified den leader trainers are available to give immediate training. Parents who understand that the Cub Scout program, recognizes the home as the greatest influence in a boy's life and want to teach him patriotism, courage, self-reliance and his obligation to God, are urged to contact the leaders.

Jim Patterson directed the Cub roundtable where Packs 61, 36, 177 and 37 were represented. Highlight was discussion by each unit leader on how he conducted meetings. Pack 177 leaders were told that their new denmothers would be offered training by Mrs. Georgia Jackson, Mrs. Zola Kornegay, and Mrs. Peggy Landreth. They conduct all denmother training in the Lone Buffalo District, said Patterson.

Theme for December was discussed and samples of the display material were made by Mrs. Lambert and Mrs. Kornegay.

Attending the Scout roundtable were representatives of Troops 177, 27 and 35. Ted Zeck discussed hiking and camping procedures. He emphasized that each leader must know the physical condition of all boys before they are permitted to go on hikes or campouts. Some boys are allergic to insect bites, etc., and special precautions should be taken in these cases. Wise leaders will be prepared to cope with them, said Zeck.

The annual district awards banquet will be held at 6:30 p. m. Dec. 5 in the high school cafeteria, said Elmo Weyel, Lone Buffalo District Chairman. It will be a "potluck" supper and all Scouts and Scouters will be invited.

Charged In Bank Theft

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) —Charles Sidney Maupin, 26, of Poplar Bluff, Mo., was charged Wednesday with being one of the polite robbers who held up the First National Bank of Byers, Tex., of $34,157 Nov. 8.

Maupin was to be arraigned on the federal charges today.

The three bank robbers were led by a polite young man who addressed the women tellers as "ma'am."

Maupin was stopped in an automobile about a half hour after the robbery. All three were released the next day, then Maupin was arrested Friday as a parole violator and on a misdemeanor charge.

Byers is about 16 miles northeast of Wichita Falls. None of the money taken in the holdup has been recovered.

Estes Fight Unsettled

EL PASO (AP) — Billie Sol Estes was arrested April 29, 1962, but the court fight over his paper financial kingdom continues.

Federal Judge Ernest Guinn overruled Wednesday a bankruptcy referee's ruling that threw out a $9 million claim by the Internal Revenue Service against Estes' estate.

Referee Malcolm McGregor ruled in July to disallow the federal claim against the bankrupt estate.

McGregor will begin a hearing Friday on an IRS claim to an additional $4 million from Estes estate. Estes is in a federal prison at Sandstone, Minn., serving a 15-year federal sentence.

No details of Judge Guinn's decision were released. Court observers said Estes, his creditors or the trustee in the bankruptcy action might appeal.

NEW JET SET STYLING
IT DOESN'T STARE BACK AT YOU WHEN IT'S OFF!
on A new kind of TV picture—sharper, clearer, easier to watch. The new Westinghouse Jet Set gives you a picture of photographic clarity even in a brightly lit room. The completely new transistorized circuitry means longer life, greater reliability and superior weak-area reception.
off The picture tube disappears from view and all you see is a handsome black panel. No big ugly eye to stare back at you. And there's Instant-On TV (other sets take about 25 seconds to warm up); a fold-away carrying handle; and memory fine tuning. That means once you set a channel for the best picture and sound, you'll receive that tuning automatically every time you turn to that channel.
