HOUSING PLANS ARE TOLD
AREA REPRESENTATIVES AT BIG SPRING FRIDAY NIGHT

Put Money Into Circulation,
Reemploy In The Building
Trades Are Stressed

BIG SPRING. (Special to The Record)—Pointed explanations of the Federal better housing campaign were given a large delegation from eight counties here Friday evening at the municipal auditorium. Robert Fee, lumber dealer, and Houston Hill, building contractor, were registered from Colorado.

Headed by P. S. Luttrell, associate director FHA northwestern district of Texas, FHA representatives told how the federal governments' housing plan would put money into circulation, re-employ unemployed in building and allied trades and aid tremendously in the breaking of the depression.

Luttrell made it plain that money to be used in the program is private credit, not government funds. The federal government, however, stands back of approved housing loans.

Big Spring and other banks in the district which embraces Howard, Martin, Midland, Ector, Andrews, Glasscock, Mitchell, Scurry, Gaines and Dawson counties, are now filing applications.

"There are four million unemployed in the building and allied industries and the government knows the reemployment of this group would go far toward breaking the depression," said Luttrell. He added that "FHA work also aids people in repairing and modernizing their homes as well as to refinance existing mortgages."

A. C. Kyle gave a visomatic showing for builders.

In his address on modernization credit, Luttrell disclosed that any property owner with regular income might apply for loans up to $2,000 on any one piece of property. Application must be made through some approved financial institution, mostly banks in this district. The amount to be repaid in a single year must not exceed one-fifth of the borrower's income.

The borrower must give assurance he owns the property, that the mortgage, if any, is in such standing that the financial institution is justified in approving the loan, that money loaned will be used solely for property improvement. No signatures on the note are required other than husband and wife where the borrower is married.

Cost of the credit is not to exceed an amount equivalent to $5 discount per $100 original face amount of a one year note, payable in monthly installments. Charge for longer periods than one year is on proportionate basis.

Notes are payable monthly except for farmers. They may make seasonal payments. Modernization credit, in some instances, may be used for new construction.

Rufus Lockland delivered an informational address on home ownership under the insured mortgage plan, explaining it as a new mortgage system created under National Housing Act under which mortgage insurance fund applying to a standardized form of home mortgage lending.

Any property primarily used as a residence, he said, may be financed by an insured mortgage loan if it meets requirements as to location and type of construction.

Maximum amount to be loaned under an insured mortgage is not more than 80 per cent of the appraised value of the property, land and dwelling included and not more than $16,000 in any case. Payments must be made monthly and include interest on the outstanding indebtedness and payments and payment of principal, estimated monthly proportion of annual taxes and insurance premiums.

This plan, said Lockland, does not apply solely to new dwelling construction, but to present dwellings conforming to standard requirements. In other words, it means that present home mortgages can be refinanced under the new mortgage plan. By setting maximum permitted rates of interest and maximum fees for appraisal and closing the mortgage and eliminating necessity for recurring appraisals, the plan is extremely desirable for refinancing. Besides this it provides for smaller payments over longer periods of time. Up to 20 years may be allowed for repayment in full.

To replace an existing mortgage with an insured mortgage on a home, the owner should contact his bank if an approved institution. The banker will furnish a form and help complete it. If the application is rejected, cause will be explained and the way opened to remedy.

The borrower is not necessarily limited to obtaining a loan in the exact amount of what he now owes on the property. In many cases he may borrow enough more to permit modernizing or repair work.

TO SWEETWATER TUESDAY
Mrs. C. H. Lasky and Mrs. A. L. Geer of Colorado and Mrs. J. C. Hall of Lorraine were in Sweetwater Tuesday. Mrs. Lasky consulted an ear specialist.

Recent Contest Gave Former Typing Pupils Chance To Determine Progress

Designed primarily to give former pupils of Colorado high school's commercial department now employed here an opportunity of checking up on their progress, an invitation typing contest was held at Colorado high school during the recent Interscholastic League meet.

Typing pupils of Colorado high school and nearby schools were also invited to take part. Miss Octavine Cooper, head of the commercial department directed the contest and hopes to make it an annual affair.

Winners among town stenographers, some of whom are now enrolled in the second year vocational class, were Miss Mary Frances Majors, who made an average of 53.80 with ten errors, and Mrs. J. V. Glover, who averaged 49.80 with 9 errors.

Four Rogers pupils, who had typing five months last year and all this, were entered against Colorado's first year typists. The Rogers pupils won, La Verne Carpenter averaging 45.13 with 13 errors and Opal Wilson averaging 33.06 with 27 errors.

Winning typists on the Colorado high school team were Elizabeth Taylor, 34.73 average with 12 mistakes, and Frances Elliott, 30.86 average with 15 mistakes.

The most accurate typists were: Rilla Payne, Colorado vocational pupil, and Oren Womack, Colorado high school, both 6 mistakes in 15 minutes; Memphis Porter, Colorado vocational, and Erna Lou Merrell, Colorado high school, both 7 mistakes in 15 minutes; Mrs. J. V. Glover, stenographer, 9 mistakes in 15 minutes.

MRS. LEE OF BAUMAN
USING A YARD PLAN

It is the belief of Mrs. Jess Lee, yard improvement demonstrator No. 1 for the Bauman home demonstration club, that a yard plan is necessary in improving a yard, and she is following such a plan in her yard improvement work.

With help, her husband laid a rock curb two feet high on the front and sides of the yard. Then new soil was put within this curb and levelled.

Side hedges of mock orange and alberta have been put out to break the wind and act as a screen.

Arborvitae, coralberry and forsythia have been used as foundation plantings around the porch base and house. Mrs. Lee has placed her two year old rose bushes on the south of the house. Kudzu vines have been set out to grow a screen for the side of the garage.

To frame the house and form a shade on the west, Chinese elms have been planted back of the house and to the side, with a tamarix hedge at the back. Mrs. Lee's next step is to be the laying of native rock walks in the front and back yards.

ELLWOOD SON HERE

John Fiske Ellwood, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Ellwood, arrived Saturday from Woodstock, Illinois, where he is in school, to spend a two-weeks holiday with his parents on the Rendenbrook ranch.

BISHOP CHANGES SCHEDULE

Bishop E. Cecil Seaman, who had previously announced that he would be here for Easter morning services at All Saints' Episcopal church; announces that, due to a change in his schedule, he will be here for Easter evening services instead.

DUSTSTORMS DO NOT STOP MRS. FOWLER'S YARD IMPROVEMENT

Dust storms have not stopped the yard improvement work of Mrs. Bill Fowler, who is yard improvement demonstrator for the Hyman home demonstration club.

With the help of her daughter, Mrs. Fowler has dug a four foot trench for her roses. Two loads of sand were put in the bottom then a mixture of barnyard straw mulch was added with the top soil added next. This was watered well and 12 roses are set three feet apart. Mrs. Fowler has set out for foundation plantings, two winter flowering jasmines on each side of the front walk, lilacs on the west, Japanese honeysuckles at the east back porch, two apricot trees in the back service yard and two native chinaberry trees on the west.

A native flagstone rock walk is being laid now in the front. Rock walks are a necessity at Mrs. Fowler's place because of the sticky mud when it rains.

SADLER, JONES RETAINED IN OFFICE BY BALLOT EDICT

VOTERS POLL PLURALITIES FOR MAJORS, HORNBERGER AND GRAY FOR ALDERMEN

Roy Dozier Receives Strong Vote For Unexpired Term On Council Board

Electors within corporate limits of the city Tuesday went to the ballot box to register approval of the administration by returning to office for another two years Mayor J. A. Sadler and City Secretary J. Lee Jones, only municipal officials offering for reelection.

Mayor Sadler developed a strong lead over his opponent, L. A. Costin, from the start as citizens began arriving at the polls to mark their ballots. Unofficial tabulation gave him 434 votes to 216 for Costin, a majority of two to one, with two votes to spare.

Jones, who was offering for election to the third term, did not have such easy sledding. J. Ford Merritt, Colorado druggist, proved a formidable contender for the secretaryship and throughout the day the vote gave first one and then the other a marginal lead. The zig-zagging was closed with Jones only seven votes in the lead. He received 332 votes to 325 for Merritt.

C. L. Gray, resident manager for Rockwell Bros. Company, led a field of six candidates for alderman, regular two-year term, receiving 459 votes out of a total of 666 polled. The other two successful candidates for this official berth were E. M. Majors, Colorado jeweler, who polled 420 votes, and C. D. Hornberger, wholesale agency dealer for the Texas Company, who received 377 votes.

D. L. Buchanan, retired Colorado merchant, ran a close fourth in the marathon for place on the city council board, receiving 344 votes, tagging Hornberger by only 33. Chas. A. Kyle received 175 votes and Walter O. Jackson 40.

Roy Dozier, offered unopposed for the unexpired term of Howard Lindsey, resigned, polled 647 votes and will be inducted along with the other three successful aldermanic candidates as a member of the city legislative body during the next year. His term is to expire next April.

Jim White, J. Ralph Lee, Jack Hale, Dr. C. L. Root and J. F. Morris, not offering for election, received one vote each for alderman. Lay Powell, a former member of the board, polled 3 votes. He, too, was not a candidate.

WHIRLWIND DRIVE AFTER VOTES BRINGS ELECTION CAMPAIGN HERE TO END

Monday was a day in which the candidate for municipal office held sway, in so far as taking front rank among active citizens was concerned. The chorus, "If You Will Only Vote For Me," was to be heard from early in the morning until long after Old Sol had hidden his face behind the Western horizon.

The annual campaign for votes in Colorado was, as generally others of the past have been, keen in interest but entirely negligible as to controversies. Opposing candidates would meet on the street and exchange friendly jibes and then be on their way to discuss their claims for support with the voter.

The marked rivalry to muster support at the ballot box on the following day was not confined to candidates seeking election to the offices of mayor and secretary. Aspirants for places on the aldermanic board, too, took up positions at advantageous places about town and greeted all comers with a liberal smile.

Scotty Spalding Is Returned To Home Of Parents Sunday

REV. CLICK OFFERS HIS OWN WATCH FOR SALE DURING CHURCH AFFAIR

"Ladies and gentlemen, how much am I offering for this perfectly good watch, that this big hearted gentleman has so graciously contributed to our cause," cried the Rev. A. F. Click, pastor, as he stood on the block in an auction sale at Bailey's Chapel church Thursday evening.

The bids came fast and it was but the matter of seconds until a fair price had been posted for the time-piece. The preacher looked the watch over, held it to his ear and in astonishment exclaimed:

"Well, that is certainly one on me. This is my watch and how that Tom Jackson got it out of my pocket without me knowing about it is a mystery."

Quickly raising the prevailing bid 25 cents the preacher cried "sold," paid off and put the time-piece back into his pocket.

STRONG TRIBUTE OFFERED LATE JUDGE C. H. EARNEST BY MITCHELL COUNTY BAR

Resolutions Adopted During Recent Session District Court At Colorado

Strong tribute was offered to the life of Judge C. H. Earnest in resolution unanimously adopted by members of the Mitchell county bar during recent session of the Mitchell county district court. Thos. R. Smith, Chas. C. Thompson and R. H. Ratliff were members of committee designated by District Judge Mauzy to draft the memorial.

The resolution follows:

WHEREAS, The Great Judge of The Universe has, in His divine wisdom, seen fit to call the Honorable Charles H. Earnest, long a member of the bar of this Court, to appear before the Great Bar of Judgment;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by The Bar of Mitchell County practicing before this Court, that in the loss of our brother at the Bar, Charles H. Earnest, that the Bar of this court, of Mitchell County and of the State of Texas, has suffered a great loss. Our departed brother was one of the pioneer lawyers of West Texas, having practiced here for nearly fifty years, and having been a member of the Bar for more than fifty years.

He was a former county judge of Mitchell county, and though eminently qualified, refused to accept any other public office, being content to serve as a public-spirited citizen, rather than as a public official. Judge Earnest was a lawyer of the old school in Texas, which produced so many great lawyers and great judges, and he was worthy of the traditions of the great school.

He was quiet and unassuming and never sought the limelight, but when the occasion called, he never failed to speak out and express his views freely. He was sound and conservative in his beliefs but, nevertheless, was one of our public-spirited and progressive citizens and was always to be found working for every project for the advancement of the community and of Mitchell county.

He was one of the leading land-owners of the county and was noted for his progressive views in agriculture. As a man, as a citizen, and as a lawyer, Charles Houston Earnest will be long-remembered by the people of Mitchell county; and, in his passing, the entire community has suffered a great loss. We extend our deepest sympathy to his wife and family in their bereavement, but know that his memory will be an inspiration to them always.

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this court; that a certified copy thereof be furnished to the family and that a copy be furnished to the press for publication.

DISTRICT PARSONAGE TO BENEFIT BY FUND TAKEN IN AT CHURCH PROGRAM

The church box sale and musical program given Thursday evening at Bailey's Chapel was successful, according to the pastor, Rev. A. F. Click, who Friday morning stated that a total of $66.18 was taken in. The minister offered expressions of appreciation to all who aided in the affair.

W. W. Porter presided at the auction block, selling boxes brought to the church by women and girls of the community. W. L. Doss sold a box offered by his drug store. Miss Bullard, member of the Carr teaching staff, won over Miss Laverne Carpenter of Rogers community in a pretty girls contest.

TRANSPORTATION AID FOR 150 STUDENTS IN RURAL AID SCHOOLS

One hundred and fifty high school students living in rural aid school districts of Mitchell county are receiving free transportation to the three independent high schools, it was revealed in transportation aid reports turned into Austin recently from the office of Roy Davis Coles, county superintendent.

The greater number of these travel by bus although there is private transportation in some instances where a bus is not running. Thirteen schools of the county are receiving rural aid this year.

Transportation funds for those pupils riding buses will be used in defraying bus expenses. Checks for those going by private conveyances will be in the hands of some trustee of the district for delivery to them after approval and payment is made in Austin.

These are Mrs. J. Lee Jones of Colorado, district W. M. U. president; T. S. Patterson, B. T. U. president; and Lyman Wren of Snyder, laymen's president.

DYING INVENTOR SAYS SCIENCE GIVES PROOF OF SUPREME BEING AND IMMORTALITY OF SOUL

NEW YORK.—In what was probably the last interview before his death, Prof. Michael Pupin, Serbian herdsboy who became one of America's leading scientists, expressed his faith in continuing existence beyond the grave.

ed a Hindenburgian strength and power despite the seventy-seventh birthday he would have celebrated next October.

He apologized for not rising and for being attired in dressing gown and slippers. Dark eyes smiled: "A man begins to wear out at my age. But I'm ready to go at any time. Of course, there are some other inventions I'd like to work out, but there will be other men who can do them just as well."

Even then, against doctors' orders, he was waiting for his laboratory assistant to report on an invention nearing completion and which he admitted was something greatly needed.

Most of the scientist's inventions contribute in a practical way to the sum total of human well-being. It is to Pupin that we owe the intricately conceived loading coil, making possible the great range of the long-distance telephone; to him the combination of the fluorescent screen with the X-ray, making visible the hidden organs of the body, and other discoveries profoundly influencing our daily life.

With prophetic vision, he said: "My time is short, but I have no dread of death. It might be pleasant," he smiled, a bit wistfully, "to leave this beautiful world while the sun is shining," indicating with sensitive hands the gray day beyond his windows.

Dr. Pupin's intimations of immortality began when, as a small boy, he guarded his father's sheep in the pasture lands of his native Idvor. During the long summer nights he contemplated the stars and in the distance heard the reverberating tolling of church bells.

"It seemed to me then," he recalled, "that light and sound were divine methods of speech, and so two questions: What is light? And what is sound? filled my waking thoughts and penetrated my dreams.

"The more I have thought of these things as a scientific man, the more do I realize that my boyhood fancy was correct. When I hear a great musician play Beethoven or Brahms on a violin, I feel he is making the vibrating strings speak a language that is a true message from heaven."

vine intelligence resides?" he was asked. "In the soul of man. In that great world within us divinity resides."

Without hesitancy, he replied in the affirmative. "In biology," he pointed out, "man is revealed as a being who is constantly progressing from glory to glory, changing more and more, I believe, toward the spiritual image of his Creator. Science finds that everything is a continuous, developing and intelligent process. It reveals man as being with a soul which is progressing more and more toward divinity in a universe of unbroken continuity."

"Then you don't believe science is drawing man away from God?" One does not doubt the sincerity of those deep, dark eyes that reflect the clear-cut processes of his mental stature: "I can truthfully say that, in my own case, science has greatly strengthened my religious faith. My belief is that everything that happens in this great universe is for a purpose and that purpose is the development of the human soul.

"The real purpose of science," he went on, "is not merely to make material things, inventions to increase wealth and comfort. If science doesn't help to give me and others a better faith to live by, a better understanding of the Creator, a closer relationship to God, so that I can better carry out the divine purpose, then I am a failure."

A final question as to what state the soul would occupy when it progressed to what he called the real world, brought this conclusion: "The soul of man is the highest product of God's creative handiwork. Now, after God has spent untold time in creating man and endowing him with a soul, which is the reflection of his image, is it reasonable to suppose that man lives here on earth for a brief span and then is extinguished by death? That the soul perishes with the physical body? That it existed in vain?"

SEEING AND NOT PERCEIVING I once knew a man who for forty years had lived and worked in the out-of-doors. One day he said to my wife, "Do you know that I have never seen the sunset and beautiful sky, the flowers and birds until you and the Doctor came up here to the country! My eyes have been on the ground all my life." Well, he is not the only person with eyes that see, but do not perceive.

The eye must be a highly important organ, for it is mentioned in the Bible 534 times. Physical blindness is a sad infirmity; mental blindness is worse but spiritual loss of sight is a calamity. Suppose that Jesus could visit us and realizing our blindness should ask, "What is it that you wish to see?" I wonder what we should ask for? Someone who has always had his vision on the ground might ask, "Open my eyes that I may appreciate Thy handiwork in nature—the beauty of the skies, the glory of the sunset, the pageantry of the landscape, the forest and fields awakening to the touch of spring and realize that, as did Elizabeth Browning, 'Earth is just crammed with heaven and every common bush aflame with God.'"

Do you remember the story of Turner, the famous English painter, best known for his wonderful landscapes and sunsets? At one of his exhibitions, a man said to him, "Mr. Turner, I never saw any sunsets such as you paint." Turner looked at him and I imagine there was a touch of compassion in his voice as he replied, "Don't you wish you could?" To see a gorgeous sunset and not to be deeply stirred by its beauty is to miss seeing the sunset, and because David had such a rich vision he could say, "The heavens declare the glory of God."

But someone else might ask, "Lord open my eyes in order that I may see my many privileges; that I may appreciate my parents, home, friends, health, happiness, and work." Is it not true that many of us are in great danger of falling into the sad habit of taking all these things for granted? Many of us fail to realize their value until they are gone sometimes forever. Begin today to see them all in a new light.—J. Wilford Allen, M. D., in The Bible To-day.

Hopes For South Railroad Boosted 25 Years Ago By Promoter's Return

Impatient hopes for a Colorado-Robert Lee railroad were given encouragement twenty-five years ago by the return to Colorado of E. G. Hammock, railroad promoter who had been interviewing Eastern capitalists, it was noted on the front page of the Colorado Record for April 8, 1910.

Mr. Hammock had brought with him a civil engineer from Philadelphia, who was to investigate the proposition for the interested capitalists. San Angelo spoke up to the effect that that town would work for the extension of the road there from Robert Lee.

Death of Mrs. Katherine Scown, who had been born in England, had occurred on March 18. Henderson Witten and Miss Ethel Maxfield had been quietly married on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Maxfield. Miss Mary Coe had sung for them and Miss Christine Maxfield had been her sister's attendant.

L. C. Dupree and wife had left on a three weeks' visit to Miami, Florida, and other everglade points. Miss Ethel Majors had returned from a visit with friends at Big Spring. A son had been born to Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Snyder on April 3. J. B. Annis had gone to Mineral Wells to see his father, a Methodist minister, on Sunday.

Dr. D. C. McCauley of Sweetwater, father of Mrs. Brooks Bell, had been to visit her. The Record regretted to learn that M. C. Ratliff and family had decided to move to their property near Roswell, New Mexico. Tim Harby was filling up the holes and low places in the street.

Legislature To Be Adjourned May 7; Called Term Seen

The House of the Texas Legislature Monday voted to adjourn the session May 7. Senate concurrence in the resolution is necessary to make it effective. Adjournment on May 7 will end the session at the close of 120 days.

Many of the taxes advocated by the governor likely will not be passed. Rep. W. E. Jones of Jourdanton, chairman of the House committee on revenue and taxation, conceded this, but said that if needed legislation has not been passed when the regular session adjourns, the governor will have a better chance with his program in a special session.

H. E. I-B

The Home Ec. girls in the first year sewing class are still working on their pajamas. Some of them found that making bound buttonholes isn't an easy job but they are tackling it with a smile.

The design of dress has been studied and the color of dress will be studied next. In this are included the use of the various color schemes.

H. E. I-A

For the past week the first year foods class prepared two interesting laboratories. These consisted of main dishes. We also prepared fresh vegetables with dressings and salads of all kinds.

This class has many things planned, such as serving teas and lunches before school is out.

WILLIE BELLE KELLEY.

H. E. III

The third and second year H. E. girls prepared and served a formal dinner to the board members and their wives, the superintendent, and the principals of the schools and their wives. The color scheme was yellow, green and white. The centerpiece was a bowl of yellow and orange nasturtiums. The menu was as follows:

- Grapefruit and Orange Cocktail
- Brown Chicken Fricassee with Gravy
- Cloverleaf Rolls
- Butter Balls
- Olives
- Creamed New Potatoes
- Cheese Sauce
- Perfection Salad
- Caramel Nut Ice Cream
- Hard Candies
- Salted Almonds
- Coffee

The dinner was fairly successful. This is the last formal affair of this year, except a party to be given to the whole school faculty and a tea for the seventh grade girls, their mothers, and one for the mothers of all the H. E. girls.

H. E. II-A

The girls of the second year class and agriculture boys were shown the new method of killing and picking a chicken. Mr. Williams gave this new demonstration. After the chickens were killed several of the girls prepared them for the market.

We are now planning a laboratory on the different methods of cooking fish and meat left-overs.

AGRICULTURE NEWS

The Livestock and Dairy teams entered in the tenth annual Vocational Agriculture contest at Texas Tech. The livestock team consisted of James Pritchett, Louis Bassinger and Cleveland Whitten. The dairy team, Ivy Jones, R. C. Snively, and John Ennis.

The Colorado teams lacked in the necessary training because of a shortage of material in this section. Thus it was only for practice that the team entered in this contest. John Ennis was fifth high man in the contest and the dairy team won fourth in Guernsey cattle.

The agriculture class wishes to thank the people for their loyal support for the barbecue. Due to bad weather we failed to make money.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The annual class play tournament begins Friday night, April 5, with the presentation of the senior play, "The Blue Bag." This play will be presented at 8 o'clock in the High school auditorium.

The seniors are looking forward to this tournament with the desire that the name of the senior class will be engraved on the trophy. The tickets have been printed and are now at the disposal of the senior class. So, seniors, if you have not been doing your part in trying to sell tickets and boosting our play, come on and do your part to make the play a success. With the cooperation of the entire class, the play will be a much better success.

S.S.S. SOCIETY

The weekly meeting of the S.S.S. club was held last Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Vivian Carpenter. Seven members were present, and a new member, Miss Elsie Vandant, was initiated. Ask Elsie if she likes to look at dead men?

At the social hour angel food cake and banana ice cream were served by the hostess, Mrs. S.S.S. had as a guest Miss Willie Jamison. The members were all seated around the table busily engaged in the task of eating when suddenly from the direction of the front porch there rose on the clear night air the sweet strains of a mandolin and guitar. All the girls rushed to the front door, almost upsetting the table and dishes in the hurry and there on the front porch stood our musician friends, Archie Mohler and N. T. Berry. They were literally dragged into the parlor and there the music continued.

Fortunately, enough cake and ice cream were left to serve the boys.

After dancing to the music of the serenaders until about eleven o'clock the club adjourned until next week.

The next meeting will be held at the home of the president Miss Bonnie Bill Brizendine.

MIRL GARNER, S.S.S. Reporter.

Everyone is on hand next Friday night to see the Seniors "strut" their stuff in "The Blue Bag."

Lyda and the twins went over to Sweetwater the other night. As to why they went, with whom they went, what they saw, etc., well, just ask them.

Ruth Smith is thinking of taking 4th grade arithmetic, or at least she was advised to do so.

Speaking of ambitions—the newest one, I see, is to get married—that from Buster Aycock. George Kiker's is to grow.

A certain Senior reports: A certain Soph girl has awaited a certain Junior boy every night last week.

Ruth Smith's "one and only" came home. Is she thrilled?

"Red" hasn't had very much sleep the last week but he can get some sleep and lessons now because a certain college co-ed left for school and all "Red" has to do to pass away the time is studying, sleeping and—dreaming.

Due to the several changes in the cast of the Senior play, it isn't progressing very fast, but by Friday night everyone will have his part learned and be ready to win the trophy.

The Twins and Lyda made a "business" trip to Sweetwater last week. El Senor Everett Pond has finally returned and is being rumored that he runs from a certain Senior girl every time he chances to meet her. Everett is that nice?

Regal P.: Did he get an answer? Sarah's going places in tennis. Looks like she just can't be beat.

Roy Miller keeps the Junior play practice in an uproar. He's either tap dancing or making wise cracks, but for all that it looks as if the Juniors are going to have a swell play.

T-P Announces Low Rates To California During the Summer

The Texas and Pacific Railway, through Frank Jensen, its General Passenger Agent, has announced three Popular Rate Excursions to California for the coming summer. The first excursion will fall on June 15th and 16th, the next on July 20th and 21st, and the last on August 17th and 18th.

According to Mr. Jensen, the tickets for each excursion will bear limit of twenty-one days and permit stopovers at any intermediate point. These tickets will be honored in chair cars or coaches, also in sleeping cars upon payment of pullman fare for space occupied.

The round-trip fare from Colorado to Los Angeles and San Diego will be $34.50 and to San Francisco $50.00 with half-fare for children under twelve years of age.

Mr. Jensen said that similar excursions, operated during previous summers, have always proven very popular and in view of the fact that the California-Pacific International Exposition will be in full swing at San Diego, during the entire summer, the demand for these excursions will, no doubt, be greater than ever.

All of the regular equipment of the "Sunshine Special" will be air-conditioned, including chair cars, coaches, sleepers, diners and observation-lounge club car, and this will add much to the comfort of the trip, said Mr. Jensen.

HAMMER, SAW, PAINT TRANSFORM WARDROBE

A saw, hammer and paint brush wielded by Mrs. Otto Schuster, bedroom improvement demonstrator of the Hyman club changed an old cumbersome wardrobe into a convenient efficient storage place.

This old type of clothes closet looked too heavy and tall for the small room so by sawing off a foot at the bottom and removing a top cornice it was made to look more like a cabinet. Two extra shelves were added inside, the rod turned crosswise giving twice as much storage as before. Mrs. Schuster finished the exterior with a coat of varnish. Besides performing this feat, a crocheted rug of discarded woolen garments has been made with blue and gray predominating.

'Depression' Is Not Reflected In This U. S. Business Unit

Who said "depression"? Not the members of the American business family, at any rate.

Replies to a questionnaire sent out by Safeway Stores, Inc., show the following cheerful facts in regard to the grocery company's personnel:

1. That the average employee has been with the company more than five years—or before the depression began.

2. That a store manager averages $1,820.00 a year—or $150.00 a month; and that the average of all employees, including thousands of junior salesmen, is only about 15 per cent below this figure.

3. That approximately three-fourths of all employees own radios and approximately two-thirds own cars. The latter figure is four times the national average.

4. That 94 per cent are native born citizens and that 80 per cent have lived in the state where they now work at least six years.

Safeway payrolls for the last fiscal year totaled $26,687,136.41, including bonuses amounting to more than one million dollars. In addition the company and its employees donated approximately a million dollars in cash and food products for charitable purposes.

One Hundred Years Of Texas Masonry Celebrated Saturday

HOUSTON.—Celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of Holland Lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. M., of Houston and the inception of Masonry in Texas was observed by more than 1,000 master masons of Houston and Southeast Texas here Saturday night.

Among honor guests were Most Worshipful Grand Master John H. Crocker of the Grand Lodge of Texas, Attorney General William McCraw of Dallas; Potentate of Hella Temple, officers of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, and the Grand Council of Texas, Past Grand Masters of the Texas Grand Lodge and Past Masters of Holland Lodge.

At the conclusion of the banquet the guests assembled in the auditorium of the cathedral where a meeting of Holland Lodge was opened in due form by Worshipful Master Dr. R. H. Moers.

Harry B. Jewett delivered the address of welcome to the visiting Masons at the conclusion of which Ewing Werlein presented the flags under which Holland Lodge had served and worked, marking the changing governments of Texas. First was the flag of the Republic of Mexico, under whose colors Holland Lodge was founded. Next in turn came the flag of the Republic of Texas. Third in line was that of the Confederate States of America. Twice the Stars and Stripes were presented as Texas has been twice under the flag of the United States.

Speaking on "Masonry in Texas," Attorney General McCraw said that "to recount the history of Texas is to recount the history of Masonry in the State."

"The men who laid the foundations of Masonry in this State that day in March, 1835, made possible the Texas of today," he declared.

"This day and occasion is sacred to every Mason in Texas," said Frank C. Jones, Past Grand Master of the Texas Grand Lodge and a Past Master of Holland Lodge.

"From old Holland Lodge, the 'mother lodge' has grown every Masonic lodge in Texas," he continued. He told how the charter of Holland Lodge was carried in the saddlebags of Anson Jones, the first Worshipful Master of Holland Lodge, through the battle of San Jacinto and the original minutes of this lodge had been kept intact in their continuity from 1835 to 1935, 100 years of priceless records.

Among the incidents of the lodge's history he told of the presentation to the lodge by Gen. Sam Houston, a charter member of Holland Lodge, of one of his swords and of Houston's presiding at the organization of the Grand Lodge of Texas by Holland, Nacogdoches and San Augustine lodges in 1837.

Declaring that in this rapidly changing world both in social and economic conditions, the fundamentals of Masonry must be preserved, Grand Master Crocker urged that the ideals and principles of Masonry must be revitalized, made alive, if they are to meet these revolutionary changes.

"The ideals and principles of Masonry are and must be kept immutable," he said, "but its forms and symbols must not be permitted to become meaningless. They must be made alive and purposeful if they are to become what they were and are intended to be."

Annual Round-Up At Texas U. April 5 To 6

AUSTIN.—An open house, where all visitors, dads and mothers, ex-students, and faculty of the University of Texas convene, will be held Saturday night, April 6, in Texas Union as climax of the Sixth Annual Round-Up. The whole celebration begins Friday, April 5, and lasts through Sunday noon.

As a distinct feature of the 1935 open house, officials have arranged to have all the departments of the university—law, pharmacy, engineering, education, etc.—segregated in various places in the union ballroom so that the ex-students can locate their old friends as quickly as possible. Placards, denoting the locations of each department, will be hung throughout the room. Faculty members of the departments will attend the convocation and renew old friendships with former students.

The receiving line for the open house will include Dr. H. Y. Benedict, president of the university; John Bell, president of the student body; several members of the board of regents; Arthur Duggan, Littlefield, president of the Dads and Mothers' association; and Ralph Goeth, president of the Ex-Students' association.

The ballroom of Texas Union is large enough to accommodate these functions and to permit dancing at the same time. Music will be furnished by a university orchestra and electrical transcriptions.

Refreshments will be served in the Chuck Wagon, Union soda fountain, and the various cool pavilions. Last year more than 3,000 visitors attended the open house.

"ENTER MADAME"
Thursday—April 11

This one is based on the stage play of the same name. Thrilling chorus numbers, bits from popular operas, lavish sets added to exceptional acting of Elissa Landi puts this one under the heading of high class entertainment. A great opera singer views her husband will always be considered before her career, but unconsciously she yields to the demands of her work until she finds she has driven him into the arms of another woman. Some good laughs are provoked by the affections of the husband, with the wife finally the victor. Settings and photography both difficult to understand at times, but highly commendable and the direction of Elliott Nugent is splendid.

"LITTLE MINISTER"
Ritz—April 7-8

Beautiful screen version of the Barrie play wherein the young minister of the town of Thrums falls in love with the gypsy girl, much to the surprise and disapproval of the congregation and the elders of the church. Love is eventually triumphant, however, and all ends well. Picture has been well mounted and the direction is excellent. It is somewhat heavy with Scotch dialect which is this is overcome by sincere acting. Much of its success depends upon the drawing power of Katharine Hepburn who really gives a splendid performance. Artistically photographed to bring out the 1840 period.

"WEDNESDAY'S CHILD"
Ritz—April 9-10

Although a boy is the principal character of the story, this is not a film for children. The story, however, is one of human interest and powerfully dramatic. The problem of divorce, broken homes and the effect such tragedy has upon a youngster's mind form the plot. Rather than to amuse or entertain, the film attempts to teach a moral lesson. The story is about a father and son, who are real pals until their home is broken up by the parents' divorce because of the wife's unfaithfulness. Thus, all the ideals and illusions the boy had are crushed. The climax brings the boy and father together so that the latter's dreams and hopes may be fulfilled.

"WHEN A MAN'S A MAN"
Palace—April 5-6

Harold Bell Wright's romantic western thriller has been well-handled, with just enough of the necessary ingredients to put it in the forward frame. With better than customary attention to logic and heart interest, it presents George O'Brien in one of his typically robust roles. His extravagant assistance having left him broke, he heads west and lands a job as cowhand on a ranch. The owner and his daughter, Dorothy Wilson, are in the midst of a property squabble with the heavy Harry Woods, who has cut off their cattle's water supply. O'Brien's idea to tunnel into the adjoining lake saves everything, but not until every conceivable bit of excitement has been used. Action is convincing and plot twists unusual.
